DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTIONS PROVISION OF FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

On 1 December 2022, the Company (through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Zhongyuan Jianye) entered into four Loan Agreements, pursuant to which Zhongyuan Jianye (as the lender) agreed to provide loans to Nanyang Magnolia, Luoyang Jianling, Yucheng County Hongjin and Shangqiu Jiantai (each as a borrower and an Independent Third Party) in the principal amounts of RMB100.0 million, RMB100.0 million, RMB120.0 million and RMB108.53 million, respectively, for a term of one year at 14.0% interest per annum.

As the highest applicable percentage ratio in respect of each of the Loan Agreements exceeded 5% but was less than 25%, each of the Loan Agreements constituted a discloseable transaction of the Company and were all subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but exempted from the Shareholders' approval requirement under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

As each of the applicable percentage ratios in respect of each of the Loan Agreements was below 8%, none of the Loan Agreements constituted an advance to an entity that needs to be disclosed under Rules 13.13 to 13.15 of the Listing Rules.

INTRODUCTION

On 1 December 2022, the Company (through its wholly-owned subsidiary, Zhongyuan Jianye) entered into four Loan Agreements, pursuant to which Zhongyuan Jianye (as the lender) agreed to provide loans to Nanyang Magnolia, Luoyang Jianling, Yucheng County

Hongjin and Shangqiu Jiantai (each as a borrower and an Independent Third Party) in the principal amounts of RMB100.0 million, RMB100.0 million, RMB120.0 million and RMB108.53 million, respectively, for a term of one year at 14.0% interest per annum.

Guarantee or security	: The Loan Agreements are unguaranteed and unsecured

Notes:

- (1) For Loan Agreement D, the principal loan amount actually borrowed by the borrower amounted to RMB108.53 million. For all other Loan Agreements, the borrower borrowed the maximum principal amount pursuant to the terms thereof.
- (2) The loans under each of the Loan Agreements were transferred to the relevant borrower from the Group's internal resources on 1 December 2022, thus, pursuant to the terms of the Loan Agreements, each of the loans will become due on 30 November 2023.

The Directors have confirmed that the principal loan amounts and interest rate for each of the Loan Agreements were determined based on arm's length negotiations between the Company and each of the borrowers.

As at 31 December 2022 and as at the date of this announcement, the full principal loan amounts of the Loan Agreements remained outstanding as they have not yet become due. For the year ended 31 December 2022, the Group recorded impairment losses on loan receivables in relation to the Loan Agreements in the aggregate amount of approximately RMB9.0 million, which the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider to be immaterial. Such impairments were made pursuant to HKFRS 9's expected credit losses model.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE LOAN AGREEMENTS

The background and reasons for each of the Loan Agreements are similar. All of the counterparty borrowers are the Group's existing customers who have also in the past cooperated with the Company on multiple projects, with a focus on developing land parcels in the Central China region. The Company's continued cooperation with such customers is consistent with the Company's "Greater Central China" strategy. Therefore, the Company considers such customers to be of a strategic nature.

The main purpose of each of Loan Agreements has been to assist such customers to successfully acquire and develop the relevant land parcel(s), which will result in a win-win situation for both the Company and the customer, as the Company will be engaged as the project management service provider for the relevant land parcel(s).

Further, the Company operates an asset-light business model. Granting such loans also allowed the Company to make better use of its idle cash, given that such cash would increase the Company's ability to acquire more project management contracts (as mentioned above), as well as provide an additional source of income by way of the 14.0% annual interest. Such Loan Agreements were also relatively short term (being one year).

Prior to entering into each of the Loan Agreements, the Company conducted a credit risk assessment in line with its internal policy, which included assessing and monitoring historical settlement records and past business cooperation experience with such strategic customers, conducting analysis and projections for the relevant project, as well as current market conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions. In addition, the Company considered: (i) its good and mutually beneficial relationship with such customers, given the Company has provided such customers with project management services for several other projects in the past, and such customers rely on the Company to develop their projects and ultimately sustain their businesses (given their lack of property development experience and/or capabilities); (ii) as discussed above, the main purpose of the Loan Agreements is to assist customers to successfully acquire and develop the relevant land parcel(s), which will result in a win-win situation for both the Company and the customers, as the Company will be engaged as the project management service provider for the relevant land parcel(s); and (iii) such existing customers have paid all fees/expenses payable to the Company in relation to their projects on time, and where applicable, repaid their loans owed to the Company on time.

Having considered the above, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) consider that each of the Loan Agreements had been entered into on terms that are fair and reasonable which was in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole.

DIRECTOR'S INTEREST IN THE LOAN AGREEMENTS

None of the Directors has (or had, at the time of entering into of the Loan Agreements) any material interest in any of the transactions contemplated under the Loan Agreements. As such, no Director was required to abstain from voting on the Board resolutions if a Board meeting was to be convened for the approval of the transactions contemplated under the Loan Agreements.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

As the highest applicable percentage ratio in respect of each of the Loan Agreements exceeded 5% but was less than 25%, each of the Loan Agreements constituted a discloseable transaction of the Company and were all subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but exempted from the Shareholders' approval requirement under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

However, at the time of entering into such Loan Agreements (being the end of 2022), the COVID-19 situation had escalated, and various relevant personnel of the Group were infected with COVID-19 and absent from work. The reporting line of the Company was hence interrupted and the Company had inadvertently failed to properly assess the Listing Rules implications for each of the Loan Agreements.

After having acknowledged that each of the Loan Agreements constituted a discloseable transaction under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, the Company has immediately assessed and further reviewed the Loan Agreements.

- (6) the senior management of the Group will assess the proposed transactions or events in (5) above and seek timely professional advice from the Company's compliance adviser, legal adviser and other professional parties (as appropriate) prior to the entering into of any of such transactions.

The Directors are confident that the above measures and procedures will ensure that the Company can comply with the relevant requirements under the Listing Rules and will avoid the recurrence of similar events in the future.

Further, as each of the applicable percentage ratios in respect of each of the Loan Agreements was below 8%, none of the Loan Agreements was discloseable pursuant to Rules 13.13 to 13.15 of the Listing Rules.
