Article 61 The convener of the annual general meeting will notify all shareholders of the time, place and deliberation matters 20 business days before the meeting is held. The address of the recipient shall be the registered address as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, the notice of the general meeting may also be given by way of announcement.

The announcement referred above shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council 15 days or 10 business days (whichever is longer) prior to the convening of extraordinary general meetings, 20 business days prior to the convening of annual general meetings. Once such an announcement is made, all holders of the domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice of the general meeting.

Article 64 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 65 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (whether or not a shareholder) as his/her proxy to attend and vote on his/her behalf.

A proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights in accordance with the authorization from that shareholder:

(I) the shareholder's right to speak at the general meeting;

(II) the right to demand, whether on his own or together with others, a poll;

(III) to exercise the right to vote by a show of hands or by poll; however, if more than one proxy is appointed by a shareholder, such proxies shall only exercise the right to vote on a poll.

Where the shareholder is a recognised clearing house as defined by relevant regulations enacted by Hong Kong from time to time (or its nominee(s)), it may authorise such person or persons as it thinks fit to act as its representative(s) at any shareholders' meeting or any meeting of any class of shareholders provided that, if more than one person is so authorised, the authorisation form must specify the number and class of shares in respect of which each such person is so authorised. The person so authorised will be entitled to exercise the same power on behalf of the recognised clearing house as the clearing house or its nominee(s) could exercise if it were an individual shareholder of the Company, without presenting the shareholding certificate, notarized authorization and/or further evidence to prove that it is officially authorized.

Article 66 The instrument appointing a proxy by a shareholder shall be in writing and signed by the appointor or his attorney duly authorized in writing, or if the appointor is a legal person either under seal or signed by its directors or personnel or attorney duly authorized.

Article 67 The proxy form shall be deposited at least 24 hours prior to convening of the relevant meeting at which the proxy is appointed to vote or 24 hours before the time appointed for voting at the domicile of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify. If the proxy form is signed by a person authorized by the appointor, the powers of attorney or other instruments of authorization shall be notarized. The powers of attorney or other instruments of authorization so notarized shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or such other place as the notice of meeting may specify at the same time as the proxy form is so deposited.

If the appointor is a legal person, such shareholder shall be represented at the general meeting of the Company by its legal representative or the person authorized by its Board of Directors or other decision-making body of such appointor.

Article 68 The proxy form issued by the Board of the Company to the shareholder for the appointment of proxies shall freely allow the shareholder to instruct his/her proxy to vote as he/she sees fit (voting in the affirmative or negative), and to give separate instructions for each resolution that will be voted at the meeting.

The proxy form should indicate that the proxy may vote at his/her discretion if no instructions have been given by the shareholder.

Article 69 A vote given by the proxy in accordance with the proxy form shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointor or revocation of the proxy or of the authority under which the proxy was executed, or the transfer of the shares in respect of which the proxy is given before the voting, provided that no notice in writing of such matters shall have been received by the Company before the commencement of the meeting.

Article 70 Resolutions of a general meeting are classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of a general meeting shall be passed by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding at least half of the voting rights.

Special resolutions of a general meeting shall be passed by shareholders in attendance (including proxies) holding at least two-thirds of the voting rights.

When any shareholders' general meeting considers matters related to related-party transactions, if the applicable laws and regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed require, the related shareholder shall not vote and the number of voting shares that he represents shall not be counted as part of the total number of valid votes.

Article 71 Shareholders (including their proxies) who vote at a general meeting shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares they represent, with one vote for each share. However, the shares held by the Company itself do not have voting rights, and such shares are not included in the total number of shares with voting rights attending the general meeting.

Article 72 Any vote of shareholders at a general meeting must be taken by poll except where the chairman of the meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution that relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands.

If the chairman of the meeting decides to vote by a show of hands, voting at general meetings shall be conducted by a show of hands unless the following persons require voting by poll before or after voting by a show of hands:

(I) chairman of the meeting;

(II) at least two shareholders with voting rights or proxies thereof;

(III) shareholders (including proxies) severally or jointly holding 10% or more of shares with voting rights at the meeting.

If the chairman of the meeting decides to vote by a show of hands, unless a poll is demanded, the announcement by the chairman that whether the proposals have been passed based on the results of voting by a show of hands and the recording of such in the minutes shall be conclusive evidence. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favor of or against such resolution at the meeting.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demanded the same.

Article 73 If the matter demanded to be resolved by a poll is the election of the chairman or the termination of the meeting, a poll shall be taken immediately. The chairman can decide when a poll will be taken if it is demanded for any other matters, and the meeting may continue, and other matters may be discussed. The results of that poll shall be considered as resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 74 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 75 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 76 Where applicable laws and regulations or Hong Kong Listing Rules requires any shareholder to abandon his or her voting on specific resolution or restricts any shareholder to vote for or against specific resolution, any vote of the shareholder or his or her proxy against the relevant requirement or restriction shall not be included.

Article 77 The following matters shall be passed as ordinary resolutions in a general meeting:

Article 78 The following matters shall be passed as special resolutions in a general meeting:

(I) increase or reduction in the share capital of the Company and issuance of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;

(II) issuance of bonds by the Company;

(III) division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company;

(IV) amendments to the Articles of Association;

(V) reviewing the matters involving the purchase, sale of material assets (including but not limited to lands, properties, equipment, production lines, and equities) or guarantee within one year which accounts for more than 30% of the audited total assets of the Company in the latest period;

(VI) other matters specified by laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, or the Articles of Association or matters specified by ordinary resolutions of a general meeting that are considered to be significant to the Company and shall be passed as special resolutions.

The above-mentioned "within one year" means "within one fiscal year".

Article 79 Convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting at the request of the shareholders shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

(I) shareholders who individually or together hold 10% or more of the shares carrying the right to vote in the meeting to be convened can request the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting by signing one or several copies of written requests in the same form and content and stating the motions and resolutions proposed. The Board shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting as soon as possible upon receiving such written requests. The shareholdings referred to above shall be calculated as at the date of request made.

(II) where the Board fails to issue a notice of convening a general meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the above-written requests, the shareholders making the request(s) can request the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting.

(III) where the Supervisory Committee fails to issue a notice of convening a general meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the above written requests, shareholders, for more than 90 consecutive days, individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the shares carrying voting rights at the meeting to be convened may convene the meeting on their own accord within four months upon the Board having received such request. The convening procedures shall, to the extent possible, be identical to procedures according to which general meetings are to be convened by the Board.

All reasonable expenses incurred for such meeting convened by the shareholders as a result of the failure of the Board to convene a meeting as required by the above requests shall be borne by the Company and be set off against sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors or supervisors.

Article 80 The general meeting shall be convened by the Board, the chairman of which shall also act as the chairman of the meeting. If the chairman of the Board fails or is unable to perform his or her duties, a director jointly elected by more than half of the directors shall convene the meeting on their behalf and act as the chairman of the meeting.

Article 81 The chairman of the meeting shall be held responsible for deciding whether or not a resolution of the general meeting has been passed in accordance with the voting results. His/her decision shall be final and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 82 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the voting result of a proposed resolution, he/she may arrange to recount of the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not arrange re-counting of the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who dissent from the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request re-counting of votes immediately after such announcement, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall immediately arrange re-counting of the votes.

Article 83 If ballots are counted at a general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The minutes together with the attendance record of shareholders, the powers of attorney of the proxies and valid record of other means of voting, shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 84 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder requests for a photocopy of the relevant minutes of meetings from the Company, the Company shall send such photocopies within seven days upon receipt of the payment for reasonable charges.

CHAPTER IX SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Article 85 Shareholders of different classes of shares are class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, and the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 86 If the Company proposes to change or nullify the rights of a certain class of shareholders, such proposal shall be passed by a special resolution at a general meeting and be passed at the meeting convened according to Article 88 to Article 92 of the Articles of Association respectively for the affected class of shareholders.

Upon approval from the competent securities regulatory authorities of the State Council and approved by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, the shareholders of domestic shares of the Company may transfer all or part of their shares to overseas investors and list and trade the said shares on foreign stock exchanges, or convert all or part of the domestic shares into overseas listed foreign shares and list and trade the said shares on foreign stock exchanges, which shall not be deemed to be a proposed change or nullification of the rights conferred on any class of shareholders.

Article 87 The rights of a certain class of shareholders shall be deemed to have been changed or nullified in the following circumstances:

(I) to increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of other class which enjoy the same or more voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges;

Article 88 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise have the right to vote at general meetings, shall nevertheless have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters referred to in items (II) to (VIII) and (XI) to (XII) of Article 87, but interested shareholders shall not be entitled to vote at such shareholders' class meetings.

The "interested shareholder" mentioned in the preceding paragraph means:

(I) in the case of a repurchase of the Company's shares by offers to all shareholders in the same proportion or public dealing on a stock exchange in accordance with the provisions of Article 29 of the Articles of Association, a controlling shareholder within the meaning of the Articles of Association;

Article 89 A resolution of the meeting for a certain class of shareholders shall be passed by at least two-thirds of the voting shares represented by shareholders of that class present at the meeting in accordance with Article 88.

Article 90 Written notice of a class meeting shall be given by the Company 15 days or 10 business days (whichever is longer) prior to the date of the class meeting to notify all the registered shareholders holding shares of that class of the matters to be considered at the meeting and the date and place of the meeting.

If the number of shares carrying voting rights at the meeting represented by the shareholders who intend to attend the class meeting reaches more than half of the shares which have the right to vote at the class meeting, the Company may convene the class meeting; if not, the Company shall, within five days, notify the shareholders of the class by public announcement of the matters to be considered, the date and the venue for the class meeting. The Company may then convene the class meeting after the publication of such notice.

If there is any special requirement by the listing rules of the places where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

Article 91 Notice of class meetings need only be served on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.
