Article 109 Shareholders (including proxies thereof) shall exercise their voting rights as per the voting shares they represent. Each share carries the right to one vote.

When the Shareholders' general meeting considers significant matters that could affect the interests of medium and small investors, the votes by medium and small investors shall be counted separately. The results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly and publicly in accordance with relevant laws and regulations and the listing rules for stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed.

The Company has no voting right for the shares it holds, and these shares shall be excluded from the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders attending the Shareholders' general meeting.

The Board, independent directors and shareholders who satisfy relevant requirements may solicit voting rights from shareholders. Information including the specific voting preference shall be fully provided to the shareholders for whom voting rights are being solicited. Consideration or de facto consideration for soliciting Shareholders' voting rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for soliciting voting rights.

Article 110 When a related party transaction is considered at a Shareholders' general meeting, the related shareholders may attend the Shareholders' general meeting and may express their views to the attending shareholders in accordance with meeting procedure, but shall not vote, and the voting shares represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of any resolution made at the Shareholders' general meeting shall adequately disclose information relating to voting by non-related shareholders.

The chairperson of the meeting shall, before any proposal on related party transactions is considered at the Shareholders' general meeting, inform related shareholders that they are not entitled to vote on the proposal, and announce the number of attending shareholders and proxies other than related shareholders and the total number of their voting shares.

The votes cast by any related shareholder on related party transactions in violation of this Article shall be invalid.

However, if the related party transaction involves any of the matters specified in Article 108 of the Articles of Association, a resolution at a Shareholders' general meeting on the related party transaction shall be passed by votes representing more than two thirds of the voting rights held by non-related shareholders attending the Shareholders' general meeting.

Article 111 The Company shall provide convenience to shareholders to attend Shareholders' general meetings by whatever means including preferentially providing modern IT means such as online voting platform, provided that the Shareholders' general meetings shall be held legally and validly.

Article 112 Unless the Company is in a crisis or any special circumstance, the Company shall not enter into any contract with anyone other than a director, general manager or other senior management to have all or a significant part of the Company's business in the care of such person, unless otherwise approved by the shareholders at a Shareholders' general meeting, with a special resolution.

Article 113 A list of candidates for the roles of directors or supervisors shall be submitted by way of proposal to the Shareholders' general meetings for voting.

Article 114 A cumulative voting system shall be adopted for the election of more than one director or supervisor at the Shareholders' general meeting.

The cumulative voting system referred to in the preceding paragraph means that each share shall be entitled to the number of votes equivalent to the number of directors or supervisors to be elected at the Shareholders' general meeting, and shareholders may consolidate their votes for one or more directors or supervisors. The Board of Directors shall provide shareholders with the brief biographies and background information of the candidates for the roles of directors or supervisors.

The principles below shall be followed for voting at a Shareholders' general meeting under the cumulative voting system:

- (I) the number of candidates for the roles of directors or supervisors may be greater than that of the directors or supervisors to be elected at the Shareholders' general meeting, but the number of candidates to be voted by each shareholder shall not exceed the number of directors or supervisors to be elected at the Shareholders' general meeting, and the total number of votes allocated to the shareholders shall not exceed the number of votes held by them; otherwise, the votes shall be invalid;
- (II) voting for independent directors and non-independent directors shall be carried out separately. For the election of independent directors, the number of votes each shareholder is entitled to shall be equal to the number of shares held by the shareholder multiplied by the number of independent directors to be elected, and such votes must be cast only for the candidates for the role of the Company's independent directors; for the election of non-independent directors, the number of votes each shareholder is entitled to shall be equal to the number of shares held by the shareholder multiplied by the number of non-independent directors to be elected, and such votes must be cast only for the candidates for the role of the Company's non-independent directors; and
- (III) the candidates to be finally elected as directors or supervisors shall be determined according to the numbers of votes they have received, but the minimum number of votes each candidate elected has received must exceed half of the total number of shares held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the Shareholders' general meeting. If the number of directors or supervisors elected falls short of the number of directors or supervisors to be elected at the Shareholders' general meeting, a new round of voting shall be carried out for the candidates for the roles of directors or supervisors not having received the required number of votes to fill the shortage. If the shortage is still not filled, a by-election shall be conducted at the next Shareholders' general meeting of the Company. If two or more candidates for the roles of directors or supervisors have the same number of votes, but not all of them can be elected according to the election quota, a separate round of voting shall be conducted for such candidates with the same number of votes.

Article 115 Other than the cumulative voting system, the Shareholders' general meeting shall vote on all proposals one by one; in the event that there are several proposals for the same issue, such proposals shall be voted on and resolved in order of the time at which they have been submitted. Unless the Shareholders' general meeting is terminated or no resolution can be made for special reasons such as force majeure, voting of such proposals shall neither be set aside nor withheld at the Shareholders' general meeting.

Article 116 No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at a Shareholders' general meeting; otherwise, the relevant amendment shall be deemed a new proposal and shall not be voted on at the Shareholders' general meeting.

Article 117 Each voting right shall be exercised either at the meeting, online, or by any of other available means. The first vote shall prevail in cases when a given voting right is exercised repeatedly.

Article 118 Under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any vote of the shareholders at a Shareholders' general meeting must be taken by ballot except where the chairperson of the meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands.

Article 119 If the issue required to be voted on by ballot relates to the election of the chairperson or termination of the meeting, voting by ballot shall be conducted immediately; in respect of other issues required to be voted on by ballot, the chairperson of the meeting shall decide the time of voting by ballot, and the meeting may proceed to consider other issues, and the voting results shall be deemed as resolutions passed at the said meeting.

Article 120 Upon voting, the shareholders (including their proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all their votes in the same way (vote in favor of or against each resolution).

Article 121 In the event that the number of dissenting votes equals that of supporting votes, the shareholder acting as the chairperson of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Article 122 Shareholders' general meetings shall adopt voting by open ballot.

Article 123 When proposals are voted on at the Shareholders' general meeting, two shareholder representatives shall be appointed to count, and monitor the counting of, the votes. Where any shareholder has interests in any matter considered, the said shareholder or proxy thereof shall not participate in the counting and monitoring of the votes.

When proposals are voted on at the Shareholders' general meeting, the lawyer, shareholder representative and supervisor representative shall be jointly responsible for the counting and monitoring of the votes and shall announce the voting results on the scene. Such voting results shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Shareholders or proxies thereof voting online or otherwise shall have the right to check their voting results via the corresponding voting system.

Article 124 An on-site Shareholders' general meeting shall not conclude earlier than that held online or by other means, and the chairperson of the meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a proposal is passed or not at the Shareholders' general meeting according to the voting results of each proposal. His/her decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Before the voting results are announced, the relevant parties including the Company, counting officer, monitoring officer, substantial shareholders and network service provider involved at the venue, online or otherwise shall have a confidentiality obligation.

Article 125 A shareholder attending a Shareholders' general meeting shall express one of the following opinions on any proposal to be voted on: for, against or abstention.

Any unfilled, improperly filled or poorly handwritten votes or votes that are not cast shall be considered as abstentions from voting by the shareholders. Its respective shares shall be counted as "abstentions" in the voting results.

Where any shareholder is required to waive his/her voting rights or is restricted to cast only an affirmative or dissenting vote in relation to a certain resolution in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any vote cast by the said shareholder or proxy thereof in violation of the relevant provisions or restrictions shall not be counted.

Article 126 If the chairperson of the meeting has any doubt as to the results of a resolution which has been put to vote, he/she may have the votes counted. If the chairperson of the meeting has not counted the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the results announced by the chairperson of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the results, demand that the votes be counted and the chairperson of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

If votes are counted at a Shareholders' general meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes together with the attendance record of the shareholders and the powers of attorney for attendance by proxy shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Article 127 Resolutions of the Shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in due time. The announcement shall specify the number of attending shareholders and their proxies, the total number of voting shares they represent and the proportion of these shares to the total number of the voting shares of the Company, the voting method, the voting results for every proposal and the details of each of the resolutions passed.

Article 128 Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolutions of the preceding Shareholders' general meeting have been changed at the current Shareholders' general meeting, special mention shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the Shareholders' general meeting.

Article 129 Where a proposal on the election of directors or supervisors is passed at the Shareholders' general meeting, the new directors or supervisors shall take office immediately after conclusion of the meeting.

Article 130 Where a proposal is passed by the Shareholders' general meeting in relation to cash dividends, bonus shares or increase of share capital by way of transfer from capital reserves, the Company shall implement the specific scheme within two months after conclusion of the Shareholders' general meeting.
