Article 57 If any shareholder in the register of shareholders or any person requesting to have his name (title) recorded in the register of shareholders has lost his shares (i.e. “the Original Share Certificate”), the said shareholder or person may apply to the Company to reissue new shares for the said shares (i.e. the “Original Shares”).

The domestic shareholders whose share certificates have been lost shall apply for the new shares pursuant to the relevant provisions of the Company Law.

The shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares shall apply for the new shares pursuant to the laws, rules of the stock exchange or other relevant provisions of the place where the original register of the holders of overseas listed foreign shares is maintained.

The issue of a replacement share certificate upon application by a shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, whose share certificate is lost, shall be subject to the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in such form as prescribed by the Company accompanied with a notarial certificate or a statutory declaration. The notarial certificate or the statutory declaration shall contain the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificate, and a declaration that no other person is eligible to have his name entered into the register of shareholders in respect of the Original Shares.
- (2) The Company has not received any declaration made by any person other than the applicant claiming that the name of such person shall be entered into the register of shareholders in respect of such shares prior to the Company’s determination to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant.

- (3) If the Company decides to issue a new share certificate to the applicant, it shall first publish an announcement in respect of the issue of new share certificate on a newspaper designated by the Board. The period of announcement shall be 90 days and the announcement shall be reissued at least once every 30 days.
- (4) Prior to the publication of the announcement of its proposed issue of a replacement share certificate, the Company shall file a copy of the announcement to be published to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed. The Company may publish the announcement upon receipt of confirmation from the stock exchange that the announcement has been displayed on the stock exchange. Such announcement shall be displayed on the stock exchange for a period of 90 days.

If the application for replacement of a share certificate is made without the consent of a registered holder of the Original Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.

- (5) If the Company has not received any dispute from any person in respect of the issue of the replacement share certificate by the expiration of the 90-day period referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this article, it may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant pursuant to the application.
- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to this article, it shall forthwith cancel the Original Share Certificate and record the cancellation of the Original Share Certificate and issue of a replacement share certificate in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Share Certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may withhold from taking any action until a reasonable guarantee for payment is provided by the applicant.

Article 58 Upon issue of a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of bona fide purchaser of the subsequent registered holder (in case of a bona fide purchaser) of such newly issued shares shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 59 The Company shall not be liable for any damage caused to any person by reason of the cancellation of the Original Share Certificate or the issue of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant provides the evidence demonstrating that the Company has acted fraudulently.

Chapter IV Shareholders and General Meeting

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 60 The Company's shareholders shall comply with the conditions prescribed by securities regulatory authorities of the State Council. Shareholders of the Company are persons lawfully holding shares of the Company, with names (titles) recorded in register of shareholders. The shareholders enjoy rights and assume obligations as per the shares they hold; the same shares represent the same rights and the same obligations.

The Company shall not exercise any power against any person who fails to disclose any of his direct or indirect interests in the Company by freezing or otherwise damaging the interest of such person as attached to shares.

If any of the joint shareholders deceased, only the existing shareholders shall be deemed by the Company as owners of the relevant shares, but the Board may for the purpose of modifying the register of shareholders, require the provision of death certificate as it deems appropriate. In respect of the joint shareholders of any shares, only the joint shareholders first named in the register of shareholders shall be entitled to take relevant shares, receive notices of the Company, and attend the general meetings or exercise the full voting right of the relevant shares, and any notice received by such shareholder shall be deemed as having been served to all the joint shareholders of the relevant share.

Where two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any shares, they shall be deemed as the co-owners of the said shares subject to the following provisions:

- (I) the Company shall not register more than four persons as joint shareholders;
- (II) all joint shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for all relevant costs payable;
- (III) if any of the joint shareholders deceased, only the existing shareholders shall be deemed by the Company as owners of the relevant shares, but the Board may, for the purpose of modifying the register of shareholders, require the provision of a death certificate as it deems appropriate;
- (IV) in respect of the joint shareholders of any shares, only the joint shareholders first named in the register of shareholders shall be entitled to take relevant shares, receive notices of the Company, and attend the general meetings or exercise the full voting right of the relevant shares. Any notice received by such shareholder shall be deemed as having been served to all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares.

Article 61 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (I) to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to the shares they hold;
- (II) to request, summon, hold, attend general meetings either in person or by proxy and exercise the right to speak and voting right (except where a shareholder is required by the listing rules of the place where the securities of the Company are listed to abstain from voting on specific matters) in accordance with laws;
- (III) to supervise, raise suggestions or inquiries about the business operations of the Company;
- (IV) to transfer their shares, present as gift or pledge their shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (V) to gain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of Association, including:
 - 1. receiving a copy of the Articles of Association after payment of cost;
 - 2. the right to access and copy the followings, subject to payment of reasonable fee:
 - (1) the entire register of shareholders made of all parts;
 - (2) personal data of Directors, supervisors, the general manager and other senior management of the Company senior management, including: ① current and previous names and aliases; ② main address (premise); ③ nationality; ④ full-time and all other con-current position and duties; and ⑤ identification documents and their numbers.
 - (3) share capital of the Company;
 - (4) report of the total par value, quantity, the highest and lowest price of each class of shares bought back by the Company from the last financial year, and the total amount paid by the Company for this purpose;
 - (5) counterfoils of corporate bonds;
 - (6) minutes of general meetings;
 - (7) resolutions of the Board meetings;
 - (8) resolutions of meetings of the Supervisory committee;

- (9) financial and accounting reports;
- (VI) to participate in the distribution of the remaining properties of the Company as per their shares in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company;
- (VII) to require the Company to buy their shares in the event of objection to resolutions of the general meeting concerning merger or division of the Company;
- (VIII) to enjoy other rights stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and Articles of Association.

Article 62 Where any shareholder proposes to inspect relevant information described in the preceding article or requests any materials, such shareholder shall provide the Company with written documents evidencing shares held, and the Company shall provide such relevant information or such materials upon request after verifying his shareholder status.

Article 63 If any resolution of the general meeting or the Board is in violation of laws and administrative regulations, the shareholders shall be entitled to request the People's Court to invalidate the said resolution. (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

If the convening procedure and voting method of the general meeting or the Board meeting is in violation of the laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association, or if the content of any resolution is in violation of the Articles of Association, shareholders shall be entitled to request the People's Court for revocation within 60 days after the resolution being passed (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

Article 64 If any Director or senior management violates laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association in fulfilling their duties, thereby incurring any loss to the Company, the shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding 1.0% or more shares of the Company for no less than 180 days continuously shall be entitled to request in writing the supervisory committee to institute legal actions to the People's Court; if the supervisory committee violates laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association in fulfilling its duties, thereby incurring any loss to the Company, shareholders shall be entitled to request the Board in writing to institute legal actions to the People's Court (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

If the supervisory committee or the Board refuses to institute legal actions after receipt of the aforesaid written request or does not institute legal actions within 30 days after receipt of the said request, or if the circumstance is urgent or any delay of legal proceedings may incur irrecoverable damage to the interests of the Company, shareholders as specified in the preceding paragraph shall be entitled to directly institute legal actions to the People's Court in their own names for the interests of the Company (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

If any other person infringes upon the legitimate rights and interests of the Company, thereby incurring any loss to the Company, shareholders as mentioned in the first paragraph of this article may initiate legal actions to the People's Court according to the provisions of the two preceding paragraphs (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

Article 65 If any Director or senior management violates laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association, thereby incurring any loss to the shareholders, shareholders may institute legal actions to the People's Court. (the dispute-settlement rules of the Articles of Association shall apply to holders of foreign shares).

Article 66 The Company's ordinary shareholders shall have the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay capital contribution as per the shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (III) may not claim the share capital in respect of its shares, unless otherwise specified by the laws or regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse shareholder's right to damage the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the independent status of legal person and shareholder's limited liability to damage the interests of the creditors of the Company;

Where any of the shareholders of the Company causes any loss to the Company or to other shareholders by abusing the shareholder's rights, he/she shall be liable for compensation; and

Where any of the shareholders of the Company evades the payment of its debts by abusing the independent status of legal person and the shareholder's limited liabilities and therefor seriously injures the interests of any creditor of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

- (V) to promptly make payment for subscription in cash or go through relevant formalities for subscription in kind as specified, and shall be liable for the failure to pay (in full) the subscription funds in time;
- (VI) shareholders who should be approved but have not been approved by the regulatory authorities or have not filed with the regulatory authorities, or those who have not completed the rectification, shall not exercise the rights of, amongst others, proposing to convene a general meeting, voting, nomination, making proposals and disposition;

(VII) shareholders who make false statements, abuse shareholders' rights or commit other behavior that harms the Company's interests, shall not exercise the rights of, amongst others, proposing to convene a general meeting, voting, nomination, making proposals and disposition;

(VIII) to fulfill other obligations as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 67 The office of the Board of the Company is the department responsible for the Company's equity administration affairs, and organizing the implementation of equity administration affairs. The Chairman of the Company is the first responsible person for the Company's equity administration affairs. The secretary to the Board of the Company assists the Chairman and is the direct responsible person for the Company's equity administration affairs.

In the event of illegal or improper conduct related to equity administration affairs in violation of laws, administrative regulations and regulatory requirements, shareholders, the Company, responsible persons for the equity administration affairs and related personnel shall bear corresponding responsibilities in accordance with the requirements of the Securities Law, the Supervision and Administration Regulations for Securities Companies and other relevant laws and regulations and regulatory documents.

Article 68 Any shareholder and actual controller of the Company shall notify the Company within five working days of any of the following events:

- (I) equity of the Company it holds or controls is under property preservation or other mandatory measures;
- (II) any of its shares of the Company is pledged;
- (III) it decides to transfer its shares of the Company it holds or controls;
- (IV) the beneficial owner of any shareholder who holds no less than 5% of the shares of the Company is changed;
- (V) its name is changed;
- (VI) a merger or division is effected;
- (VII) it is subject to regulatory measures including suspension of operation, is appointed a receiver, or is taken over, subject to revoke or other regulatory measures, or enter into dissolution, bankruptcy or liquidation procedure;

(VIII) it receives administrative penalty or criminal punishment due to serious violations of laws and regulations;

(IX) it is involved in other circumstances that may lead to transfer of its shares of the Company or otherwise affect operation of the Company.

The Company shall report the above circumstances to the securities regulatory authorities at premise of the Company within 5 working days since it becomes aware of such circumstances.

This article is not applicable to Shareholders hold less than 5% of the Company's share rights after the listing of the Company.

If the shareholders of the Company have their equity percentage reaching or exceeding 5.0% of the registered capital of the Company through subscription for or acceptance of the Company's equity or holding of the shareholders' equity in the Company or other ways, they shall notify the Company and complete approval formalities with CSRC before they formally hold such shares. Without the approval by CSRC, any institutions or persons shall not directly or indirectly hold 5.0% or more shares of the Company; otherwise, they shall make corrections within a specified period, and shall not exercise the voting right of relevant shares before such correction.

Article 69 The Company's substantial shareholders and controlling shareholders shall replenish capital to the Company when necessary. If any shareholder who holds 5% or more shares with voting right in the Company pledges his or her shares, he or she shall report it to the Company in writing as at the date of such pledge.

Article 70 The Company shall maintain a stable shareholding structure. The shareholding period of the Company's shareholders shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the relevant provisions of the CSRC. For the Company's equity controlled by actual controllers of the Company's shareholders, such actual controllers shall abide by the same lock-up period for the Company's shareholders controlled by them, except for the cases approved by the CSRC according to law.

The Company's shareholders shall not pledge the equities held by them in the Company during the equity lock-up period. After the expiration of the equity lock-up period, the percentage of equities pledged by a Company's shareholders shall not exceed 50% of the equities held by the shareholder in the Company. The shareholders' pledge of their equities in the Company shall not harm the interests of other shareholders and the Company, and shall not maliciously evade the requirements for the equity lock-up period. Such shareholders shall not agree to the exercise of shareholders' rights such as voting rights by the pledgee or other third parties, and shall not transfer the control over the Company's equity in disguise.

Article 71 The controlling shareholders and its beneficial owner of the Company shall not use the connected relations to damage the interests of the Company; otherwise, they shall make compensation for the loss incurred to the Company.

The controlling shareholders and its beneficial owner of the Company shall owe a fiduciary duty to the Company and the shareholders of the Company. The controlling shareholders shall strictly comply with laws and regulations while exercising their rights as shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall not injure any of the interests of the Company or of other shareholders by means of profit distribution, assets reorganization, external investment, use of capital and loan guarantees and so on, or by exploiting their controlling position.

Save for the obligations under laws, administrative regulations or the listing rules of the stock exchange with which the Company's shares are listed, the controlling shareholders of the Company, in exercising their rights as shareholders, shall not make any decision detrimental to all or any of shareholders on the matters set forth below:

- (I) relieving a Director or supervisor of the fiduciary duties for the best interests of the Company;
- (II) approving a Director or supervisor (for benefits of his/her own or another person) to deprive the Company of any properties, including (but not limited to) any opportunities that are favorable to the Company; or
- (III) approving a Director or supervisor (for benefits of his/her own or another person) to deprive other shareholders of their legitimate rights, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights (save as pursuant to a restructuring approved by the shareholders at general meeting in accordance with these Articles).

Article 72 The Company shall establish an effective mechanism of communication with its shareholders to protect the shareholders' right of information in pursuance to laws.

- (2) whether there is any connected relationship with the Company or the controlling shareholders and actual controller of the Company;
- (3) shareholding in the Company; and
- (4) whether there are any penalties or punishments imposed by the CSRC and other authorities or stock exchanges.

Except that the election is carried out by cumulative voting each Director or supervisor candidate shall be nominated in a separate proposal.

Article 92 After the notice of general meeting is issued, the same meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled and the proposals set out in the notice shall not be cancelled without proper reasons. In the case of any postponement or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement and give the reasons therefor at least two working days prior to the date on which the meeting is originally scheduled.

Article 93 The Board and other conveners of the Company will take the necessary measures to ensure normal order of the general meeting. For any disturbance to the order of the meeting and acts infringing the lawful interests of shareholders, preventive measures shall be taken, and such incidents shall be reported to the relevant authorities for regulative actions.

Article 94 All the shareholders or their proxies in the register of shareholders on the equity registration date shall be entitled to attend the general meeting and exercise their voting rights according to relevant laws, regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 95 Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (who need not be a shareholder or shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. The said proxy may exercise the following rights as granted by the said shareholder:

- (I) the right of shareholder to speak at the general meeting;
- (II) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others; and
- (III) to exercise the right to vote by a show of hand or on a poll; where there are more than one proxy, the said proxies shall only vote on a poll.

Article 96 The power of attorney shall be in writing under the hand of the principal or his proxy duly authorised in writing or, if the principal is a legal person, it shall be under seal or under the hand of a Director or a proxy duly authorised.

Article 97 A corporate shareholder shall attend the meeting by its legal representative or by proxies appointed by the legal representative. The legal representative presenting at the meeting shall produce his/her identity card and valid proof showing the his/her status, and the proxy presenting at the general meeting shall present his/her identity card and the power of attorney in writing issued by the legal representative of the corporate shareholder in accordance with the laws.

If a shareholder is recognized as a recognized clearing house or its nominee, the shareholder is entitled to authorize corporate representative or one or more person(s), as it thinks fit, to act as its proxy at any general meeting or any class meeting of shareholders or creditors' meeting, and such proxies shall be entitled to statutory rights equivalent to other shareholders, including rights to speak and vote. However, if more than one person is authorized, the proxy form shall set out the number and class of shares represented by each of the persons so authorized. The power of attorney shall be signed by the authorized personnel of the recognized clearing house. A person so authorized may attend meetings (without presenting any share certificate, and/or other evidence indicating that his/her identity) and exercise the right on behalf of the recognized clearing house (or its nominee), as if he/she was an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 98 The proxy form that a shareholder issues to appoint another person to attend a general meeting on his/her behalf shall contain the following particulars:

- (I) the name of the proxy;
- (II) whether or not having voting rights;
- (III) instructions on voting for, against or abstaining from voting for each of the matters listed on the agenda to be discussed at the general meeting;
- (IV) the issuing date and effective period of proxy form; and

- (V) signature (or seal) of the principal. For a corporate shareholder, the proxy form shall be affixed with corporate seal.

The proxy form shall indicate that whether the proxy may vote at his/her own discretion in the absence of specific instructions from the shareholder.

Article 99 The proxy form shall be deposited at the premise of the Company or other place as specified in the notice of meeting 24 hours before the meeting to discuss the matters that the proxy is appointed to vote for or 24 hours before the designated voting time. If the proxy form is signed by a person authorized by the principal, a notary certified copy of the power of attorney or other authorization documents shall be needed, which shall be deposited together with the proxy form at the premise of the Company or other place as specified in the notice of meeting.

If the principal is a corporate shareholder, the legal representative or the person authorized by the board of Directors or other decision-making bodies shall act as the principal's representative to attend the general meeting of the Company.

Article 100 The proxy form issued to a shareholder by the board of Directors of the Company for appointment of proxy shall be in blank form that the shareholder can freely instruct the proxy to vote in favor of, against each resolution and to give instruction on each item of the matters put to vote at the meeting. The proxy form shall specify that if a shareholder fails to give instruction, the proxy may vote in such a way as he/she thinks fit.

Article 101 The vote given by the proxy in accordance with the proxy form shall be valid notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the principal, or revocation of the appointment of proxy or the authorization to sign the proxy form, or transfer of the concerned shares, provided that no notice in writing in respect of such matters as mentioned above has been received by the Company before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 102 The Company shall maintain a register of attendees. The register shall contain information such as names of attendees (or names of entities), identity card number, residential address, number of shares with voting rights held or represented, and names of principals (or names of entities).

Article 103 The convener and the attorney retained by the Company shall jointly verify the legal qualification of shareholders, and register the names of the shareholders and the numbers of voting shares they hold. The registration for the meeting shall be terminated before the chairman of the meeting announces on site the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting and the total number of their voting shares.

Article 104 The Chairman shall preside over and act as chairman of the general meeting. If the Chairman cannot or does not fulfill the duty thereof, the Vice Chairman shall preside over the meeting; if the Vice Chairman cannot or does not fulfill the duty thereof, a Director elected by more than half of Directors shall preside over and act as chairman of the meeting.

Where the general meeting is convened by the supervisory committee, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside over and act as chairman of the meeting. If the chairman of the supervisory committee cannot or does not fulfill the duty thereof, a supervisor elected by more than half of the supervisors shall preside over and act as chairman of the meeting.

Where the general meeting is convened by the shareholders, the convener shall elect a representative to preside over and act as chairman of the meeting. If for any reason the shareholders cannot elect a person to act as chairman, the shareholder (including agent thereof) holding the most shares among the attending shareholders shall act as chairman of the meeting.

Where a general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure which makes it difficult for the general meeting to continue, a person may be elected by more than half of the attending shareholders having the voting rights to act as chairman.

Article 105 The Company shall formulate rules of procedure for general meetings which shall specify the convening and voting procedure of general meetings, including notification, registration, review of proposals, voting, counting, announcement of voting results, formation of the meeting resolution, minutes and signatures, etc., and the meetings' principle of authorization to the Board. The authorized content should be specific.

Article 106 At the annual general meeting, the Board and supervisory committee shall report their work for the past year to the general meeting. Each independent non-executive Director shall also report their work.

Article 107 All Directors, supervisors and secretary to the Board shall attend general meetings of the Company, and the general manager and other senior management shall be present at the meetings.

Article 108 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until final resolutions have been reached. In the event that the general meeting is suspended or the shareholders fail to reach any resolution due to force majeure or for other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the meeting as soon as possible or the meeting shall be terminated directly. At the same time, the convener shall report it to the securities regulatory authority at the place where the Company is registered.

Article 109 When holding a general meeting, the Company will hire lawyers to issue legal opinions on the following matters:

- (I) whether the procedures for convening and holding the meeting is in compliance with the laws, regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (II) whether the qualifications of the attendees and the convener are lawful and effective;

- (III) whether the voting procedures and results of the meeting are lawful and effective; and
- (IV) issuing legal opinions about other relevant matters as requested by the Company.

Section 3 Proposal of the General Meeting

Article 110 Where the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board, supervisory committee, and shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding no less than 3.0% shares of the Company may make proposals to the Company.

Article 111 Shareholder(s) severally or jointly holding no less than 3.0% shares of the Company may submit written provisional proposals to the convener 10 days before a general meeting is convened. The convener shall serve a supplementary notice of general meeting to other shareholders within two days after receipt of such proposal, and place the proposal on the agenda for the said meeting and submit the proposal for approval at a general meeting if the said proposal falls within the functions and powers of general meetings. The contents of the provisional proposal shall fall within the functions and powers of general meetings and have specific discussion topic and specific matters to be resolved.

Save as specified in the preceding paragraph, the convener shall not change the proposal set out in the notice of general meeting or add any new proposal after the said notice is served.

The general meeting shall not vote or pass resolutions on proposals not listed in the notice of the general meeting or resolutions not in conformity with following article of the Articles of Association.

Article 112 Proposal of the general meeting shall meet the following conditions:

- (I) the content shall not violate the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of Articles of Association and within the business scope of the Company and the power of the general meeting;
- (II) with specific discussion topic and specific matters to be resolved; and
- (III) being submitted or delivered to the Board in written form.

Section 4 Resolution of the General Meeting

Article 113 The general meeting shall provide reasonable time for discussion of each proposal.

Article 114 Shareholder (including his/her proxy) shall exercise their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the rights to vote represented by him/her, and each share shall have one vote.

Shares held by the Company do not carry any voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a shareholders' general meeting.

The Board, independent Directors, shareholders holding more than 1% of the voting shares or investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council (hereinafter referred to as "investor protection institutions") may, acting by itself or entrusting securities companies or securities service institutions in the capacity of solicitor, publicly request the shareholders of the Company to entrust it to attend the general meetings and exercise the rights of shareholders such as the right to propose proposals and the voting rights on their behalf. Where the rights of shareholders are solicited in accordance with the provisions of set out above, the solicitors shall disclose the solicitation documents and the Company shall cooperate. Public solicitation of shareholders' rights in a paid or disguised paid way is prohibited. Where the public solicitation of shareholders' rights violates laws, administrative regulations or relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council, thus causing the Company or its shareholders to suffer losses, the solicitors shall be liable for compensation according to laws.

Article 115 Resolutions of a general meeting shall be categorized into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the general meeting.

Special resolutions shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of voting rights held by shareholders (including proxies thereof) attending the general meeting.

Article 116 The following issues shall be approved by ordinary resolutions at a general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the Board and the supervisory committee;
- (II) profit distribution plans and loss recovery plan proposed by the Board;
- (III) appointment and removal of members of the Board and shareholder representative supervisors, and remuneration and payment method of Directors and supervisors;

- (IV) the Company's annual budget and final accounts report, balance sheets, income statement and other financial statements;
- (V) the Company's annual report; and
- (VI) any matters other than those which are required by the laws, regulations or the Articles of Association by way of a special resolution.

Article 117 The following issues shall be approved by special resolutions at a general meeting:

- (I) amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (II) increase or reduction in share capital of the Company and the issue of shares of any class, warrants and other similar securities;
- (III) merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or transformation of the Company;
- (IV) issue of bonds of the Company;
- (V) the Company's purchase or disposal of major assets or providing guarantee within one year with the transaction amount exceeding 30.0% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (VI) equity incentive scheme;
- (VII) any other issue specified in the laws, administrative regulations or Articles of Association and confirmed by an ordinary resolution at a general meeting that it may have material impact on the Company and accordingly shall be approved by special resolutions.

Article 118 Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares they represent, with one vote for each share.

Where material issues affecting the interests of small and medium investors are being considered at the general meeting, the votes by small and medium investors shall be counted separately. The separate counting results shall be publicly disclosed in a timely manner.

Shares held by the Company do not carry any voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at the general meeting.

Shareholders who purchase the shares with voting rights of the Company in violation of Clauses 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law shall not exercise the voting rights of the shares that exceed the prescribed proportion within 36 months after purchasing such shares, and such shares shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a general meeting.

The Board, independent Directors, shareholders holding more than 1% of voting shares or investor protection institutions established in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations or provisions of the CSRC may collect votes from shareholders publicly. While collecting votes of shareholders, sufficient disclosure of information such as the specific voting preference shall be made to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being collected. No consideration or other form of de facto consideration shall be involved in the collection of voting rights from shareholders. Save for statutory conditions, the Company shall not impose any limitation related to minimum shareholdings on the collection of voting rights.

Article 119 When a connected transaction is considered at a general meeting, connected shareholders shall not vote, and the voting shares held by them shall not be counted in the total number of shares with voting rights. The announcement on the resolutions on the general meeting shall fully disclose the voting of the shareholders who are not connected parties.

The connected shareholder shall take the initiative to inform the general meeting and abstain from voting. If the shareholders do not take the initiative to state the connected relations and abstain from voting, other shareholders may demand them to explain and abstain from voting.

At the end of the general meeting, if other shareholders find that the connected shareholders voted on matters in relation to connected transaction, or there is disagreement on the applicability of abstention among shareholders, the shareholders shall be entitled to report to regulatory authorities and may file a suit in a People's court in relation to the relevant resolution in accordance to the Articles of Association.

Resolution in relation to connected transaction shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights carried by independent shareholders (including proxies) present at the general meeting. However, in regards to matters in the preceding article of the Articles of Association, the resolution shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights carried by independent shareholders (including proxies) present at the general meeting.

Article 120 The Company shall, through various ways and means, giving priority to utilising modern information technology such as providing online voting platforms to facilitate the participation of shareholders at the general meeting, presupposed by the lawfulness and validity of such meetings.

Article 121 Save as otherwise the Company is in crisis or in other special circumstances, the Company shall not, without being passed by special resolution of shareholders' general meeting, enter into any contract with such persons (other than Directors, supervisors, general manager and senior management) pursuant to which such person shall be assigned the management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of its business.

Article 122 List of Director and supervisor candidates shall be provided by way of proposals at the general meeting.

The Board shall provide the shareholders with resumes and basic information of Director and supervisor candidates.

When voting at the election of Directors and supervisors, the general meeting may implement the cumulative voting method in accordance with the Articles of Association or the resolution of the general meeting.

The aforementioned cumulative voting method refers to the voting for Directors or supervisors where each share is entitled to the same number of votes which equals to the total number of Directors or supervisors to be elected, and shareholders may consolidate their voting rights when casting a vote.

The Director candidates shall be nominated by the previous section of the Board, or the shareholders individually or jointly holding no less than 3% of the total of the Company's shares. The nomination methods and procedures of independent Directors shall be performed in accordance with the laws, regulations, relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed and relevant rules in relation to independent Directors.

The non-employee representative supervisor candidates shall be nominated by the previous section of supervisory committee, or the shareholders individually or jointly holding no less than 3% of the Company's shares. Employees' representative supervisor candidates shall be democratically elected by employees of the Company.

If the number of Directors nominated by any shareholder of the Company accounts for no less than one half of the total members of the Board, then the number of shareholder representative supervisors nominated by such shareholder shall not exceed one-third of the total members of the supervisory committee.

Article 123 Except for matters that require cumulative voting, the general meeting shall vote on all proposals one by one; for different proposals on the same matter, voting shall be proceeded according to the time order of these proposals. Other than special reasons such as a force majeure which results in the interruption of the meeting or makes it impossible to come to resolution, the general meeting shall not stay the proposals or withhold from voting.

Article 124 No amendment shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at general meeting. Amended proposal shall be retreated as a new proposal and shall not be voted at the same general meeting.

Article 125 When a vote is cast, it may be cast by only one of the following methods, in person, online or by other voting means. If one vote is cast by more than one method, the first vote shall prevail.

Article 126 Shareholders of the company or their proxies who cast their votes online or by other means shall have the right to check the results of their votes by way of the pertinent voting system.

Article 127 The ending time of a shareholders' general meeting shall not be earlier than that of online or other access to the meeting. The Chairman of the meeting shall announce the status and results of voting in respect of each proposed resolution, and whether or not such proposed resolution has been passed according to such voting results.

Prior to the formal announcement of voting results, the relevant parties from the Company, the persons responsible for counting votes and scrutinizing the conduct of the relevant poll, the major shareholders, the person in charge of the relevant internet service provider involved in relation to voting at the general meeting, online or by other means, shall be obliged to keep the status of voting confidential.

Article 128 Unless a poll is particularly required by the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, or a poll is (before or after any voting by show of hands) demanded by the following persons, voting at a shareholders' general meeting shall be conducted by a show of hands:

- (1) the chairman of the meeting;
- (2) at least two shareholders present in person or by proxies entitled to vote thereat;
- (3) by shareholders (including proxies) holding severally or jointly 10% or more of the voting shares.

Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the record of such in the minutes of the meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favour of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demands the same.

Article 129 Request for voting by poll shall be honoured forthwith if it is in connection with the election of the chairman of the meeting or the adjournment of the meeting. Request for voting by poll on any other matters may be honoured at such time as the chairman of the meeting thinks fit, and the meeting and other businesses at the meeting may be proceeded with. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 130 When a poll is taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all his/her votes for or against.

Article 131 In case of an equality of votes for and against the resolution, whether by way of show of hands or vote by poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Article 132 At least two representatives of the shareholders and a supervisor shall be elected to participate in vote counting and scrutinizing on any proposals voted at general meeting. Any shareholder who has interests in the matter under consideration and proxies of such shareholder shall not participate in vote counting or scrutinizing.

When the relevant proposed resolution is being voted on at the general meeting, lawyers, the shareholders' representatives and representatives of the supervisors shall be jointly responsible for counting the votes and scrutinizing the conduct of the poll, and the voting result shall be announced at the meeting. The voting results relating to such proposed resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

Article 133 Shareholders present at the general meeting shall cast their votes in favor of or against proposals submitted for consideration, or abstain from voting. Voting forms which are uncompleted, wrongly completed, completed with illegible writing or not cast are deemed as void and the shareholders to whom such voting forms belong shall be deemed to have abstained from voting.

Where any shareholder is, under Hong Kong Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 134 The chairman of the general meeting shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution has been passed pursuant to voting results. His decision, which shall be final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting. The voting result shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 135 If the chairman has any doubt as to the voting results, he may have the vote counted. If the chairman has not counted the votes, any shareholder or proxy present who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the voting result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

If votes are counted at a general meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 136 Resolutions of the general meetings shall be announced in a timely matter. Such announcement shall contain the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of their voting shares and their respective proportions to the total number of shares of the Company, the means of voting, the voting results of each proposal and details of each passed resolution.

Article 137 A special note should be marked in the announcement on resolutions of general meeting for the resolution regarding failed proposals or previous resolutions that were amended at this shareholders' general meeting.

Article 138 The Directors, supervisors, and senior management shall answer or explain the inquiries and proposals made by shareholders provided no trade secrets of the Company shall be discussed at the meeting.

Article 139 Where a general meeting has passed the proposals for electing Directors or supervisors, unless otherwise specified in the resolutions, the newly elected Directors and supervisors shall fill their positions after the relevant resolutions are passed.

Article 140 Where any proposals in relation to the distribution of profits, issue of bonus shares, or capital increase by way of realization of capital reserve are passed at the general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plan within 2 months from the closing of the general meeting.

Article 141 Resolution and relevant documents passed at the general meeting shall be immediately filed at regulatory authority at the place where the Company is incorporated after the closing of the general meeting.

Article 142 The general meeting shall have minutes which are recorded by the secretary to the Board and shall include following details:

- (I) number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting, number of shares with voting rights held by them, and the percentage of shares with voting rights held by them to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (II) date and place of the meeting;
- (III) name of the convener, name of the person presiding over the meeting, agenda of the meeting, name of attending Directors, supervisors, the general manager and other senior management;
- (IV) the discussion, key points of speech and voting results for each proposal;
- (V) voting result of each matter;
- (VI) any enquiries or suggestions raised by shareholders and relevant reply or explanation of the Board, the supervisory committee and senior management;
- (VII) name of the vote counter and the scrutineer;
- (VIII) other information, which shall be recorded in the minutes as determined by the shareholders' general meeting or in pursuance to the Articles of Association.

Article 143 The convener shall ensure that the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The Directors, supervisors, secretary to the Board, convener or his/her representatives, the person presiding over the meeting shall initial on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes together with the attendance record of shareholders and the powers of attorney of the proxies shall be kept permanently. The minutes together with the attendance record of shareholders and the powers of attorney of the proxies shall be kept at the Company's premises.

Article 144 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until final resolutions have been reached. In the event that the general meeting is suspended or the shareholders fail to reach any resolution due to force majeure or other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the meeting as soon as possible or the meeting shall be terminated directly and an announcement of such termination shall be made promptly. At the same time, the convener shall report to the agency of the CSRC in the locality of the Company and the stock exchange.

Section 5 Special Procedures for Voting by Classes of Shareholders

Article 145 Shareholders holding different class of shares shall be class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy the rights and assume the obligations in accordance to laws and regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 146 Any proposed change or annulment by the Company to the rights of class shareholders shall not come into effect unless approved by special resolutions at a general meeting and a separate general meeting convened by the class shareholders so affected in accordance with articles 147 to 152.

Article 147 The following circumstances shall be deemed as change or annulment of the rights of a certain class shareholder:

- (I) to increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (II) to change all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class or to change all or part of the shares of another class into shares of that class or to grant relevant conversion rights;
- (III) to cancel or reduce rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of the said class;
- (IV) to reduce or cancel rights attached to the shares of the said class to preferentially receive dividends or to receive distributions of assets in a liquidation of the Company;

- (V) to add, cancel or reduce share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive placing rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to the shares of the said class;
- (VI) to cancel or reduce rights to receive payments made by the Company in a particular currency attached to the shares of the said class;
- (VII) to create a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of the said class;
- (VIII) to restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of the said class or to impose additional restrictions;
- (IX) to issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert into, shares of the said class or another class;
- (X) to increase the rights and privileges of the shares of another class;
- (XI) to restructure the Company in such a way as to cause shareholders of different classes to bear liabilities disproportionately during the restructuring; and
- (XII) to amend or cancel provisions in the Articles of Association.

Article 148 Where issues specified in subparagraph (II) to (VIII), (XI) to (XII) of article 147 are involved, the affected class shareholders, whether or not they are entitled to vote at general meetings originally, shall have the right to vote at class meetings. However, interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings.

The meaning of the “interested shareholders” in the preceding paragraph is as follows:

- (I) in case of a buyback of shares by the Company by way of a general offer to shareholders in equal proportion or by way of open transaction on a stock exchange in accordance to Article 41 of the Articles of Association, the “interested shareholders” means the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 342 of the Articles of Association;

The Company shall include expenses of the Party organizations in the Company's budget, which will be credited to the Company's management fee.

Chapter VI The Board of Directors

Section 1 Directors

Article 159 Directors of the Company are natural persons and need not hold shares of the Company.

Article 160 Directors of the Company shall be elected or replaced at general meetings, and can be removed by the general meeting prior to the expiry of their terms. A Director shall serve a term of three years, and may seek reelection upon expiry of the said term.

The appointment and removal of the Directors of the Company shall be filed with the securities regulatory authority under the State Council.

A written notice on the intention to nominate a Director candidate and the candidate's presentation of being willing to accept the nomination shall be issued to the Company by seven days prior to the general meeting.

The term of a Director shall be calculated from the date upon which the relevant resolution is passed at the general meeting to the expiry of the current Board. If the term of office of a Director expires but re-election is not made responsively, the said Director shall continue fulfilling the duties as Director pursuant to laws, administrative regulations, department rules and Articles of Association until a new Director is elected.

A Director may serve concurrently as general manager or other senior management, but the inside Directors (i.e., Directors serving concurrently as senior management or holding other positions) shall not be more than half of the Directors of the Company.

Article 161 Directors shall observe laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association, honestly perform their duties and protect interests of the Company. When their own interests conflict with the interests of the Company and shareholders, it shall be the code of conduct to protect the best interest of the Company and shareholders.

Article 162 Directors shall observe laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association, and fulfill the following fiduciary duties:

- (I) not to abuse their official powers to accept bribes or other unlawful income, and not to misappropriate the Company's property;
- (II) not to misappropriate the money of the Company or customers;
- (III) not to deposit any assets or money of the Company in any amounts under their names or in the names of others;
- (IV) not to lend the money of the Company to other persons or provide guarantee for other persons with the property of the Company in violation of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the general meeting or the Board;
- (V) not to conclude any contract or conduct any transaction with the Company in violation of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the general meeting;
- (VI) Without the consent of the general meeting, not to take advantage of their positions to seek for themselves or others any business opportunities that are due to the Company, or conduct any businesses for themselves or others similar to those of the Company;
- (VII) not to take as their own any commission for any transaction with the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose any secret of the Company;
- (IX) not to exploit their connected relations to damage the interests of the Company;
- (X) not to lend the money of any customer to others, or use the assets of any customer to provide guarantee for any debt of the Company, any shareholder of the Company, or any other institution or individual;
- (XI) not to exploit inside information for his/her own benefits or others;

(XII) to fulfill other fiduciary duties stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and Articles of Association.

Directors' income derived from violation of this article shall belong to the Company; Directors shall be liable to compensate any loss incurred to the Company.

Article 163 Directors shall observe laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association and fulfill the following obligations of diligence:

- (I) to exercise the rights conferred by the Company with due discretion, care and diligence to ensure the business operations of the Company comply with State laws, administrative regulations and relevant State policies, not beyond the business scope specified in the business license of the Company;
- (II) to treat all shareholders impartially;
- (III) to carefully read the relevant business and financial reports of the Company and keep informed of the operation and management conditions of the Company;
- (IV) to exercise personally the discretion vested in them and not to allow themselves to be controlled by others and, save as permitted by laws or administrative regulations or with the informed consent of shareholders given at a general meeting, not to transfer their discretion to others;
- (V) to honestly provide the supervisory committee with relevant information, not to prevent the supervisory committee or supervisors from exercising their responsibilities and powers, and to accept the lawful supervision and rational suggestions of the supervisory committee on their performance of duties;
- (VI) to fulfill other obligations of diligence stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and Articles of Association.

Article 164 Save as specified in the Articles of Association or properly authorized by the Board, no Director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board in his/her own name. If a Director acts in his/her own name but a third party may reasonably think the said Director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board, the said Director shall make a prior statement of his/her standpoint and capacity.

Article 165 If any Director fails to attend Board meetings in person or by proxy for two consecutive times, the said Director shall be deemed incapable of performing his/her duties, and the Board shall suggest that the general meeting remove the said Director.

Article 166 A Director may resign before his/her term of office expires. The Director who is going to resign shall submit a written resignation letter to the Board. The Board shall disclose such matter within two days.

Under the prerequisite to abide by relevant laws and administrative regulations, a general meeting may remove any Director before the expiration of his/her term of office by way of an ordinary resolution (but without prejudice to any claim for damages under any contract).

Article 167 If the number of Directors of the Board falls below the legally required number as a result of any resignation, such resignation shall not become effective until such vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a new Director.

The remaining Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible to elect a new Director to fill the vacancy caused by the Director's resignation. Before the general meeting passes a resolution on the election of Director, the duties of the Director who proposes to resign and the remaining Board shall be reasonably limited.

Save as provided in the above paragraph, a Director's resignation shall be effective when his resignation is served to the Board.

Article 168 The duties of a Director towards the Company and the shareholders do not necessarily cease when he/she tenders his/her resignation or upon the expiry of his/her term of office. Such Director shall continue to observe his/her duties at any time before the resignation or expiry of term of office, as the case may be, becomes effective and for a reasonable period thereafter. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his/her term of office until such trade secrets become publicly known. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the amount of time which has lapsed between the termination and the act concerned and the specific circumstances under which the relationship between the Director and the Company was terminated.

Article 169 Any Director who has left his/her office without authorization before his/her term of office expires and thereby caused the Company to incur a loss shall be liable for compensation to the Company.

Article 170 The Board may propose to the general meeting to remove a Director in the following cases:

- (I) upon the request of shareholder(s) who nominated the Director;
- (II) when the Director seriously impairs the interests of the Company;
- (III) for other adequately reasonable reasons.

Article 171 The provisions of this section in respect of the obligation of Director shall also apply to supervisors, general manager and senior management of the Company.

Article 172 The Company shall establish an independent non-executive Director system. The number of independent non-executive Directors shall be at least three, and not less than one-third of the total number of Directors.

An independent non-executive Director refers to the Director who holds no position in the Company other than the position of a Director, has no relationship with the Company or the shareholders of the Company which may impede his independence and Directors as specified by regulatory requirements of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 173 Independent non-executive Directors shall be elected or replaced at general meetings and shall each serve a term of three years. The term of office of an independent non-executive Director is renewable upon reelection when it expires, but the renewed term shall not exceed six years.

Article 174 An independent non-executive Director shall meet the following basic conditions:

- (I) having the qualifications as Director of the Company in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and other relevant provisions;
- (II) being independent as required by securities regulatory authority;
- (III) having the basic knowledge about operations of companies, and proficient in relevant laws, administrative regulations and rules;
- (IV) having more than five years' experience in legal and economic work or other work experience required for fulfilling duties as independent non-executive Director;
- (V) other conditions required by relevant laws, regulations and regulatory provisions at the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 175 The following persons shall not act as independent non-executive Director of the Company:

- (I) persons employed by the Company or its related parties and their immediate family members and major social connections (immediate family members shall include spouse, parents and children and major social connections shall include siblings, parents-in-law, sons/daughters-in-law, spouses of siblings, siblings of spouse);
- (II) persons and their immediate family members and major social connections employed by the shareholder entities which hold or control 5% or more of the Company's equity or which are top five shareholder entities of the Company;
- (III) natural person shareholders who hold or control 5% or more of the Company's equity and their immediate family members and major social connections;
- (IV) persons providing financial, legal or consulting services to the Company and its related parties and their immediate family members and major social connections;

- (V) persons who belonged to categories (I) to (IV) within the preceding year;
- (VI) persons holding positions other than independent directors in other securities and fund institutions;
- (VII) persons who share interests with any senior management, other directors, supervisors or other key personnel in the securities or fund institution where the said persons are to hold a position or its related parties;
- (VIII) other persons specified in the Articles of Association;
- (IX) other persons unfit to serve as independent non-executive Directors upon confirmation by CSRC or regulatory authority at the place where the Company's shares are listed.

A person may serve as an independent director in no more than two securities and fund institutions. Where any independent non-executive Director is involved in any of the aforesaid circumstances, the securities company shall immediately remove the said Director, and report to the competent industry authority of the Company and the securities regulatory authority at the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 176 The Board (through the remuneration and nomination committee), the supervisory committee and the shareholders who hold no less than 1% of the Company's shares individually or jointly may propose the candidate of independent non-executive Director for election or replacement by the general meeting after prior approval of remuneration and nomination committee of the Board.

Referee shall obtain prior consent of independent non-executive Director candidate. Referee shall fully understand the occupation, education, title, detailed work experience, all con-current position information and so forth of the recommended person, and opine on his/her qualification and independence to act as an independent non-executive Director. Referee shall make a statement regarding non-existence of any relationship between him and the Company that may affect his independent judgment in accordance with relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authority at the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 177 If any independent non-executive Director who fails to attend Board meetings in person for three consecutive times, the Board shall propose to the general meeting to remove such independent Director.

Article 178 Other matters in relations to the independent non-executive Director stipulated in the laws, regulations, regulative rules, relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority at the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the Company's independent non-executive Director rules shall be followed.

Article 179 The Company may maintain a necessary Director liability insurance policy to mitigate any risks incurred by the Directors when performing their duties in due course.

Section 2 The Board of Directors

Article 180 The Company shall have a Board of Directors, which shall be accountable to the general meeting.

Article 181 The Board shall consist of 11 Directors, including 1 Chairman and 1 Vice Chairman.

Article 182 The Board shall have reasonable professional structure, and its members shall have necessary knowledge, skills and quality to perform their duties.
