Article 61. The shareholders' general meetings consist of annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. The shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors. The annual general meeting shall be held once every year within six months from the end of the previous accounting year.

The extraordinary general meeting shall be convened as and when necessary. In the occurrence of any of the following events, the Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months:

The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or a shareholders' class meeting as soon as possible after having received the aforesaid written request. The abovementioned number of shares held shall be calculated on the date when the Shareholders put forward a written request.
- (2) If the Board of Directors fails to issue a notice of convening such meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the above written request, the Shareholders who made such request may request the Supervisory Committee to convene the extraordinary general meeting or shareholders' class meeting.

The convening procedures shall, to the greatest extent possible, be identical to procedures according to which general meetings are to be convened by the Board of Directors.

All reasonable expenses incurred for such meetings convened by the Shareholders as a result of the failure of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee to convene a meeting at the above requests shall be borne by the Company and deducted from the amount owed by the Company to the delinquent Directors and Supervisors.

Article 63. When a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Company, Shareholders who individually or jointly hold 3% or more of the shares of the Company carrying voting right, shall be entitled to make proposals in writing to the Company and the convener ten days before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The content of the proposal shall fall within the scope of duties and powers of the general meeting of Shareholders, with clear issues and specific resolutions, and comply with the relevant provisions of laws and regulations and these Articles of Association. The Company shall make the matters within the scope of duties and powers of the shareholders' general meeting listed in the agenda of this meeting and submit the matters to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration.

Except as stipulated in the preceding paragraph, the convener, after issuing the notice of shareholders' general meeting, shall neither modify the proposals stated in the notice of shareholders' general meeting nor add new proposals.

Article 64. In order to hold a shareholders' annual general meeting, a written notice for the meeting shall be given to all registered Shareholders 20 days before the date of the annual general meeting or 15 days before the date of the extraordinary general meeting. The matters to be discussed and the venue and date of the meeting shall be included in that notice. For the notice given in this Article, the date of issue is the date on which the Company or the Company's share registrar has served the notice to the postal service.

The notice of the shareholders' general meeting issued to the holders of overseas listed shares may be published on the designated website of the stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed and the website of the Company. Once announced, all holders of overseas listed shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

Except as stipulated in these Articles of Association, the notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall be served on the Shareholders (whether or not such Shareholder is entitled to vote at the general meeting) by hand or postage prepaid mail. The address of the recipient shall be the registered address as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, the notice of the shareholders' general meeting may also be given by way of announcement. The announcement referred above shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by the Securities Regulatory Authorities of the State Council. Once such an announcement is made, all holders of the domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice of the shareholders' general meeting.

The issue date of notices for shareholders' general meetings as stipulated in these Articles of Association shall also be subject to the requirements of the stock exchange where shares in the Company are listed.

Article 65. An extraordinary general meeting shall not transact businesses not stated in the notice.

Article 66. Notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall satisfy the following requirements:

- (1) be in writing;
- (2) specify the venue, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) specify the matters to be considered at the meeting;
- (4) provide any information and explanations necessary to be made available to the Shareholders for such Shareholders to make informed decisions about the matters to be discussed. This principle includes, but not limited to, the provision of the specific terms and contract(s), if any, of the proposed transaction(s) and serious explanations about the reasons and effects when the Company proposes mergers, repurchase of shares, equity restructuring or other restructuring;

- (5) in the event that any of the Directors, Supervisors, General Managers and other senior management have material interests in the matters to be discussed, disclose the nature and extent of such interests. If the matters to be discussed affect any Director, Supervisor, General Managers and other senior management as a Shareholder in a manner different from the manner they affect other Shareholders of the same class, the difference shall be explained;
- (6) provide the full text of any special resolution to be proposed for approval at the meeting;
- (7) provide a prominent statement that all Shareholders eligible for attending and voting at the general meeting are entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at such meeting on his/her behalf, and that such proxy does not need to be a Shareholder of the Company;
- (8) specify the time and venue for lodging a proxy form for the meeting.

Article 67. The accidental omission to give the notice of meeting to, or the non-receipt of the notice of meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting or the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 68. Any Shareholders entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting shall have the right to appoint one or several persons (who may not be Shareholders) to act as his or her proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his or her behalf. - (1) the Shareholders' right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (2) the right to demand a poll by himself/herself or jointly with others;
- (3) the right to exercise voting rights by a show of hands or by a poll, provided that where more than one proxy is appointed, the proxies may only exercise such voting rights by a poll.

Article 69. The appointment of a proxy shall be in writing and signed by the appointing Shareholder or his/her attorney duly authorised in writing; where the appointing Shareholder is a legal person, such appointment shall be affixed with its seal or signed by its Director or attorney duly authorised.

Article 70. The proxy form shall be placed in the Company's domicile or in other places designated by the notice of the meeting at least 24 hours prior to the relevant meeting in which the power of vote is entrusted, or 24 hours prior to the designated voting time. Where the proxy form is signed by a person authorised by the appointing Shareholder, the power of attorney or other authorization instruments shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization instruments, together with the proxy form, shall be placed in the Company's domicile or in such other places designated by the notice of the meeting.

Where the appointing Shareholder is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorised by the resolutions of the board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Company as a representative.

Article 71. Any proxy form issued to a Shareholder by the Board of Directors of the Company for appointing a proxy shall allow the Shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to cast affirmative or negative votes and to give separate instructions on each matter to be resolved at the meeting. Such proxy form shall contain a statement that the proxy may vote as he/she deems fit in the absence of the shareholder's instruction.

Article 72. Where the appointing Shareholder is dead, became incapacitated to act, withdrew the appointment or the power of attorney or where the relevant shares have been transferred prior to voting, a vote given by the proxy in accordance with the proxy form shall remain valid as long as a written notice of such event has not been received by the Company prior to the meeting.

Article 73. The shareholders' general meeting shall be convened and presided over by the Chairman of the Board of Directors. If the Chairman of the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, one Director shall be elected jointly by more than half of the Directors to convene and presided over the meeting. In the event that no chairman is appointed, the attending Shareholders shall elect one person to act as the chairman of the meeting; if, for any reason, the Shareholders fail to elect a chairman of the meeting, the Shareholder (including his/her proxy) holding the largest number of voting shares among the attending Shareholders shall be the chairman of the meeting.

A shareholders' general meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee itself shall be presided over by the chairman of the Supervisory Committee. If the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, one Supervisor shall be elected jointly by more than half of the Supervisors to preside over the meeting.

The shareholders' general meeting convened by shareholder(s) alone shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convener.

During a shareholders' general meeting, if the chairman violates the rules of procedure in a way that makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman so as to carry on with the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending Shareholders with voting rights. If for any reason the Shareholders fail to elect a chairman for the meeting, the Shareholder (including his/her proxy) holding the largest number of voting shares among the attending Shareholders shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 74. Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting include ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolution at a general meeting shall be adopted by more than one half of the voting rights held by Shareholders (including their proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Special resolution at a general meeting shall be adopted by two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by Shareholders (including their proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 75. Shareholders (including their proxies) who vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares they represent, with one vote for each share. However, shares in the Company which are held by the Company do not carry any voting rights and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by Shareholders present at a shareholders' general meeting.

Where any Shareholder is, under the applicable laws and regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 76. Voting at shareholders' general meetings shall be conducted by a show of hands, only when the chairman of the meeting makes the decision on the principle of good faith, and on purely procedural or administrative matters. Other matters shall be voted by way of polls.

When voting by a show of hands, the chairman of the meeting shall announce the result of voting by a show of hands on proposals, and shall record the result in the minutes as final evidence, without specifying the number or percentage of in favour for or against the resolutions approved at the meeting.

The demand for a poll can be withdrawn by the proposer.

Article 77. If the matter required to be voted by way of a poll relates to the election of chairman or adjournment of meeting, a poll shall be conducted immediately; in respect of other matters required to be voted by way of a poll, the chairman may decide the time of a poll, and the meeting may proceed to consider other matters. The voting results shall still be deemed as resolutions passed at the said meeting.

Article 78. When voting by polls, Shareholders (including their proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not cast all their votes for or against in the same way.

When the number of votes against and in favour are equal, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to an additional vote.

Article 79. The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (1) work reports of the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee;

Article 81. All Directors, Supervisors, General Managers and other senior management shall attend the shareholders' general meeting as non-voting participants if the meeting so requests. At the shareholders' general meeting, the Directors, Supervisors, General Managers and other senior management who attend the meeting or attend the meeting as non-voting participants shall make replies or explanations in respect of the enquiries of Shareholders, except for those matters involving commercial secrets of the Company which cannot be made public.

Article 82. The chairman of the meeting shall forthwith announce the voting result of each proposal and whether the proposal is passed based on the voting result at the meeting. The chairman of the meeting shall determine based on the voting result whether a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting is passed. His or her decision, which is final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Article 83. At a shareholders' general meeting, the approach and procedures for nomination of Directors and Supervisors (except for employee representative Directors and Supervisors) are as follows:

- (1) Within the number of members as specified in these Articles of Association and based on the number to be elected, Directors and Supervisors may propose a list of recommended candidates for Director and Supervisor which shall be submitted to the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee for consideration and approval. The list of candidates for Director and Supervisor, which is confirmed upon approval by the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee through a resolution, shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting by way of written proposal.
- (2) The written notices with regard to the intention to nominate for election candidates for non-employee representative Directors and Supervisors and the acceptance of such nomination by such nominees, as well as the relevant written materials of the nominated candidates, shall be given to the Company no less than seven days prior to the date of the shareholders' general meeting (such seven-day period shall commence no earlier than the second day after the issue of the notice of the meeting at which the election shall be conducted and end no later than seven days prior to the shareholders' general meeting). The Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee shall provide shareholders with biographical details and basic information about the candidates for Director and Supervisor.
- (3) The period of nominating for election a candidate for non-employee representative Director or Supervisor to the Company and the period for the nominees to provide the aforesaid notice and documents shall be no less than seven days (such period shall commence from the day following the date of issuing the notice of the shareholders' general meeting).
- (4) At the shareholders' general meeting, voting for each candidate for Director and Supervisor shall be conducted separately.
- (5) In the case of ad hoc addition or replacement of any Director or Supervisor, the Board of Directors and Supervisory Committee shall put forward a proposal to the shareholders' general meeting for such election or replacement.

Article 84. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of any resolution put to the vote, he/she may count the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not count the votes, any attending Shareholder or proxy who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the announcement of the voting result, and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 85. If votes are counted at the shareholders' general meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The minutes of the meeting together with the attendance records signed by the attending Shareholders and proxy forms shall be kept at the domicile of the Company.

Chapter 9. Special Procedures for Voting of Class Shareholders

Article 86. Shareholders holding different classes of shares shall be class Shareholders.

Class Shareholders shall enjoy the rights and assume the obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and these Articles of Association.

Where the share capital of the Company includes shares that do not carry voting rights, the word "non-voting" must appear on the name of such shares.

Where the share capital includes shares with different voting rights, the name of each class of shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting" or "limited voting".

Article 87. The Company shall not proceed to vary or abrogate the rights of class Shareholders unless such proposed variation or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting and by a separate shareholder meeting convened by the class Shareholders so affected in accordance with Article 89 to Article 93 hereof.

No approval by a shareholders' general meeting or a class meeting is required for variation or abrogation of the rights of class Shareholders resulting from any change in domestic or overseas laws and administrative regulations and listing rules of the stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed as well as the decisions made by domestic or overseas regulatory authorities in accordance with the laws.

The transfer of shares held by the holders of domestic shares of the Company to overseas investors for overseas listing and trading or the conversion of all or part of the domestic shares into overseas listed shares for listing on any overseas stock exchange shall not be considered as the Company's intention to vary or abrogate the rights of class shareholders.

Article 88. Except as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, the following circumstances shall be deemed as variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

- (1) to increase or decrease the number of shares of such class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class' voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) to change all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class or to change all or part of the shares of another class into shares of that class or to grant relevant conversion rights;
- (3) to cancel or reduce rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of the said class;
- (4) to reduce or cancel rights attached to the shares of the said class to preferentially receive dividends or to receive distributions of assets in a liquidation of the Company;
- (5) to add, cancel or reduce share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, pre-emptive placing rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to the shares of the said class;
- (6) to cancel or reduce rights to receive Company payables in a particular currency attached to the shares of the said class;
- (7) to create a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of the said class;
- (8) to restrict the transfer or ownership of the shares of the said class or to impose additional restrictions;
- (9) to issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert into, shares of the said class or another class;
- (10) to increase the rights and privileges of the shares of another class;
- (11) to restructure the Company in such a way to cause Shareholders of different classes to undertake liabilities disproportionately during the restructuring;
- (12) to amend or cancel provisions in this chapter.

Article 89. Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not with the rights to vote at shareholders' general meetings originally, shall have the right to vote at shareholders' class meetings in respect of matters referred to in items (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) of Article 88 hereof, except that interested Shareholders shall not vote at such shareholders' class meetings.

The term "interested Shareholders" in the preceding paragraph shall mean:

- (1) in case of a buy-back of shares by the Company by way of a general offer to all Shareholders in equal proportion or by way of open market transactions on the stock exchange in the place where its shares are listed in accordance with Article 31 hereof, the Controlling Shareholders as defined in Article 57 hereof shall be the "interested Shareholders";
- (2) in case of a buy-back of shares by the Company by an off market agreement outside the stock exchange on which its shares are listed in accordance with Article 31 hereof, holders of shares in relation to such agreement shall be the "interested Shareholders";
- (3) in case of a proposed restructuring of the Company, Shareholders who assume a relatively lower proportion of obligations than the obligations imposed on the other Shareholders of that class or who have an interest in the proposed restructuring that is different from the general interests in such proposed restructuring of the other Shareholders of that class shall be the "interested shareholders".

Article 90. Resolution of a shareholders' class meeting shall be passed only by two-thirds or more of the total voting rights being held by the Shareholders of that class who are entitled to do so, present and vote at the shareholders' class meeting in accordance with Article 89 hereof.

Article 91. In order to hold a shareholders' class meeting, notice in writing shall be given to all class Shareholders registered 20 days before the date of the annual general meeting or 15 days before the date of the extraordinary general meeting. The matters to be discussed and the venue, date of the meeting shall be included in that notice.

If provisions otherwise provided by the listing rules of the stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed, those provisions shall apply.

Article 92. The notice of a shareholders' class meeting shall be sent to the Shareholders entitled to vote at such meeting only.

The procedure of a shareholders' class meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedure of a shareholders' general meeting. Provisions of these Articles of Association relevant to procedure for the holding of a shareholders' general meeting shall be applicable to a shareholders' class meeting.

Article 93. Except for other classes of Shareholders, holders of domestic shares and holders of overseas listed shares are treated as different classes of shareholders. In the following circumstances, the special procedures for voting by class Shareholders shall not apply:
