The board (the “Board”) of directors (the “Directors”) of the Company wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company (the “Shareholders”) and potential investors that, based on the information currently available to the Board and the preliminary review of the latest available unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group for the year ended 31 March 2023 (“FY2023”), the Group is expected to record a net loss of approximately HK$9 million for FY2023 as compared to a net profit of approximately HK$12 million for the year ended 31 March 2022 (“FY2022”). The loss for FY2023 is mainly attributable to (i) the decrease in revenue from civil engineering works by approximately 24% as the work progress of two projects was substantially completed in the second half of FY2023 and two projects was completed/substantially completed in FY2022; and (ii) the decrease in gross profit margin due to increase in fuel costs, raw materials, direct wages and subcontracting costs driven by shortage of labour and supply, plus increase in maintenance or warranty works resulting from the three substantially completed projects.

As at the date of this announcement, the Company is still in the course of finalising the annual results of the Group for FY2023. The information contained in this announcement is only based on the preliminary assessment by the Board with reference to the latest unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group for FY2023 and other information currently available to the Company which have not been audited or reviewed by the auditors of the Company or has been confirmed by the audit committee of the Board.
