CHAPTER 3 SHARES AND REGISTERED CAPITAL

SECTION 1 ISSUANCE OF SHARES

Article 16 The Bank shall have ordinary shares. According to necessity, it may have Preference Shares or other kinds of shares upon approval by the authorities that are authorized by the State Council.

Preference Shares refer to another class of shares specifically provided for pursuant to the Company Law in addition to the ordinary shares provided for generally. The holders of such Preference Shares are senior to holders of ordinary shares in terms of distribution of profits and residual assets of the Bank, while their rights to participate in the management and decision-making of the Bank are restricted. The specific requirements regarding Preference Shares of the Bank are set out in Chapter 9 of the Articles.

Article 17 All the shares issued by the Bank shall have a par value. Each ordinary share shall bear a par value of RMB1, while each Preference Share shall bear a par value of RMB100.

Article 18 Subject to verification and approval by the National Administration of Financial Regulation, CSRC or other relevant regulatory authorities, the Bank may issue shares to domestic investors and overseas investors.

Overseas investors referred to in the preceding paragraph shall mean investors in foreign countries, Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan who subscribe for shares issued by the Bank; domestic investors shall mean investors within the People's Republic of China other than the places referred to above who subscribe for shares issued by the Bank.

Article 19 The shares issued by the Bank to domestic investors and subscribed for in Renminbi are known as domestic shares. The shares issued by the Bank to overseas investors and subscribed for in foreign currencies are known as foreign shares. Foreign shares which are listed outside the PRC shall be known as overseas listed foreign shares.

Article 20 Upon approval by the approval departments authorized by the State Council, the total number of ordinary shares that the Bank may issue is 52,489,127,138 and the number of shares issued when the Bank was restructured as a joint stock limited company was 2,800,000,000 shares, representing approximately 5.33% of the total number of ordinary shares that the Bank may issue.

Article 21 The Bank issued 52,489,127,138 ordinary shares and 300,000,000 Preference Shares in total, including 12,678,735,500 overseas listed foreign shares, representing approximately 24.15% of the total number of shares that the Bank may issue; as well as 39,810,391,638 domestic listed shares which were issued to the domestic public; as well as 300,000,000 domestic Preference Shares which were not issued to the public.

As at 31 December 2017, the shareholding structure of the Bank was 52,489,127,138 ordinary shares and 300,000,000 Preference Shares, among which, the shareholders of domestic listed shares held 39,810,391,638 ordinary shares and the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares held 12,678,735,500 ordinary shares and the holders of domestic Preference Shares held 300,000,000 Preference Shares.

Article 22 Subject to approval of the Bank's plan to issue overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares by CSRC, the Board of Directors of the Bank may implement arrangement regarding the issuance of the shares respectively.

The Bank may separately implement its plan to issue overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within 15 months from the date of approval by CSRC.

Article 23 In the event that there are overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares included in the total number of shares stated in the issuance plan, such shares shall be fully subscribed for at one time at their respective offerings. Should the shares cannot be fully subscribed at one time due to special circumstances, such shares may be issued in separate tranches upon approval by CSRC.

Article 24 Issuance of the shares of the Bank shall adopt the principles of openness, fairness and impartiality. Each share of the same class shall have the equal rights.

As regards the shares of the same class issued at the same time, the issuing conditions and price of each share shall be the same. As regards the shares subscribed by any unit or individual, the amount paid for each share shall be the same.

Article 25 The registered capital of the Bank shall be RMB52,489,127,138.

SECTION 2 INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF SHARES AND THEIR REPURCHASE

Article 26 The Bank may, depending on the operating and development requirements, adopt the following methods to increase its registered capital pursuant to laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents and subject to the resolutions made at the shareholders' general meeting respectively:

- (I) public offering of ordinary shares;
- (II) non-public offering of ordinary shares;
- (III) placing ordinary shares to the existing shareholders;
- (IV) distributing bonus shares to the existing ordinary shareholders;
- (V) transferring ordinary share capital with reserve funds;
- (VI) converting Preference Shares into ordinary shares;

(VII) other methods required by laws and regulations and approved by national relevant competent authorities.

After being approved according to the Articles of Association of the Bank, the Bank's increase of capital by issuing new ordinary shares shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures set forth in the relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents of the State.

Where the conversion of convertible corporate bonds issued by the Bank results in an increase in registered capital, the conversion of convertible corporate bonds shall be conducted in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, and prospectus of convertible corporate bonds and other relevant documents.

Article 27 The Bank may reduce its registered capital in accordance with the provisions of the Articles.

The Bank must prepare a balance sheet and a list of properties when it is to reduce its registered capital.

The Bank shall notify its creditors within ten days of adopting the resolution to reduce its registered capital and shall publish an announcement of the resolution in newspaper at least three times within thirty days. Creditors shall, within thirty days of receiving a written notice or within ninety days since the date of the first public announcement for those who have not received a written notice, be entitled to require the Bank to repay its debts in full or to provide a corresponding guarantee for repayment.

The registered capital of the Bank after reduction shall not be less than the statutory minimum.

Article 28 After being approved under the procedures stipulated by the Articles and obtaining approvals from relevant competent authorities of the State, the Bank may repurchase its outstanding shares in the following circumstances:

- (I) canceling ordinary shares for the purpose of reducing capital of the Bank;
- (II) merging with other companies holding shares of the Bank;
- (III) granting shares for employee stock ownership scheme or share incentives;
- (IV) being requested to repurchase the ordinary shares held by the shareholders who object to the resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meeting concerning merger and division of the Bank;
- (V) utilizing shares for conversion of convertible corporate bonds issued by the Bank;
- (VI) being necessary for the Bank to protect corporate value and shareholders' interests;
- (VII) repurchasing the Preference Shares;
- (VIII) other circumstances permitted by laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents.

Any repurchase of the Bank's shares in the circumstances as stipulated in items (I), (II) and (VII) of the preceding paragraph shall be resolved at a shareholders' general meeting; any repurchase of the Bank's shares as a result of items (III), (V) and (VI) may be subject to a resolution of the Board meeting where over two-thirds of the directors are present according to the provisions of the Articles or as authorized by the shareholders' general meeting.

After the Bank has repurchased its shares according to the above provision of the preceding paragraph, in the event of item (I) or item (VII), the repurchased shares shall be cancelled within ten days from the date of repurchase; in the event of items (II) and (IV), the repurchased shares shall be transferred or cancelled within six months.

If the Bank repurchases its own shares pursuant to items (III), (V) and (VI) of the first paragraph above, the transaction(s) shall be carried out in a public and centralized manner and the total shares held shall not exceed ten percent of the total number of shares issued by the Bank; the repurchased shares shall be transferred or cancelled within three years.

The repurchase of overseas listed foreign shares of the Bank shall comply with the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other relevant regulatory requirements of the place where the Bank is listed.

Article 29 The Bank may, upon approval by relevant competent authorities of the State, repurchase shares using one of the following methods:

- (I) by making a general offer to all of its shareholders of such class for the repurchase of shares on a pro rata basis;
- (II) by repurchasing shares through open dealings on a stock exchange;
- (III) by repurchasing shares by an off-market agreement;
- (IV) by redeeming Preference Shares in accordance with the methods stipulated under the terms of issuance;
- (V) other methods approved by laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents as well as the relevant competent authorities.

Article 30 The Bank shall obtain prior approval from the shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting (in the manner defined in the Articles) prior to its repurchase of shares by an off-market agreement. The Bank may, by obtaining the prior approval of the shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting (in the same manner as set forth above), discharge or amend the above agreements or waive any of its rights thereunder.

Agreements for the repurchase of shares referred to in the preceding paragraph shall include (but not limited to) an agreement to undertake the obligation to repurchase shares and acquire the right of repurchasing shares.

The Bank shall not transfer an agreement on the repurchase of its shares or any rights thereunder.

As for the fact that the Bank has the right to repurchase redeemable shares, if the repurchase is made not through market or by a way of tender, the price must be limited to a certain highest price; if the repurchase is made by a way of tender, it must propose a tender to all shareholders with the same conditions.

Article 31 The Bank shall apply for the registration of registered capital change to the Administration for Market Regulation when the Bank repurchases its shares and cancels such shares which results in the change of the Bank's registered capital.

The amount of the Bank's registered capital shall be reduced by the total par value of the shares cancelled.

Article 32 Other than complying with the relevant requirements of Article 28 hereof, the Bank shall comply with the following requirements with respect to the repurchase of its outstanding shares unless the Bank is undergoing liquidation process:

- (I) for repurchases of shares by the Bank at their par value, payment shall be deducted from the book balance of its distributable profits or from the proceeds from the new shares issuance for purpose of repurchasing the original shares;
- (II) for repurchases of shares by the Bank at a price higher than the par value, the portion corresponding to the par value shall be deducted from the book balance of its distributable profits and the proceeds from the new shares issuance for purpose of repurchasing the original shares. The portion higher than the par value shall be handled in accordance with the following methods:
 - 1. if the shares being repurchased are issued at par value, payment shall be deducted from the book balance its distributable profits;
 - 2. if the shares being repurchased are issued at a price higher than the par value, the portion corresponding to the par value shall be deducted from the book balance of the distributable profits of the Bank and the proceeds from the new shares issuance for purpose of repurchasing the original shares. However, the amount deducted from the proceeds from the new shares issuance shall neither exceed the total premium of the original shares issuance, nor exceed the amount of the Bank's capital reserve account (including the premium from the new shares issuance) at the repurchase;
- (III) The Bank shall make the payment from the Bank's distributable profits for the following purposes:
 - 1. obtaining rights to repurchase its own shares;
 - 2. the variation of any agreement for the repurchase of its shares;
 - 3. release from its obligations under any purchase agreement;
- (IV) After the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares is deducted from the Bank's registered capital according to relevant provisions, the amount deducted from the distributable profits for payment of par value of the shares shall be credited to the Bank's capital reserve account.

SECTION 3 SHARE TRANSFER AND PLEDGE

Article 33 Unless otherwise specified by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and relevant requirements of securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where shares of the Bank are listed (including the stock exchange on which the Bank is listed, same to the below), the shares of the Bank may be transferred freely without any lien attached, but change of the shareholders who hold more than five percent of the total number of the Bank's voting shares shall be approved by the National Administration of Financial Regulation. To transfer the overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong, the transferor shall deal with the registration procedures at the Hong Kong stock registration organization appointed by the Bank. The transfer of Preference Shares and the change in the holders of Preference Shares shall be in compliance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles.

Article 34 All fully-paid overseas listed foreign shares listed in SEHK may be freely transferred in accordance with the Articles. However, the Board of Directors may refuse to recognize any transfer documents without stating any reason unless the following conditions are met:

- (I) transfer documents and other documents that are related to any share ownership or may affect such share ownership shall be registered and fees and charges regarding registration as specified in the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the "Hong Kong Listing Rules") shall be paid to the Bank;
- (II) transfer documents only involve the overseas listed foreign shares that are listed in SEHK;
- (III) the stamp duty as required by laws of Hong Kong has been paid for transfer documents;
- (IV) relevant stocks, as well as the evidence reasonably required by the Board of Directors certifying that the transferor has the right to transfer the shares, shall be provided;
- (V) if shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of shareholders jointly registered shall not exceed four;
- (VI) relevant shares of the Bank are not attached to any lien.

If the Board of Directors refuses to register the shares transfer, the Bank shall send a notice concerning refusal to register such shares transfer to the transferor and the transferee within two months from the date on which the transfer application is officially filed.

Article 35 For all transfers of the overseas listed foreign shares that are listed in Hong Kong, the written transfer documents in general or ordinary form or in a form accepted by the Board of Directors shall be adopted. The written transfer document may be signed by hand. If the shareholder is the authorized clearing house as defined in the Securities and Futures Ordinance of Hong Kong or its proxy, the written transfer document may be signed in the machine printing form.

Article 36 The Bank shall not accept any pledge with its shares as the objectives.

Article 37 If any shareholders holding 5% or more of the Bank's total shares, directors, supervisors or senior management sells its shares or any other equity securities held in the Bank within 6 months of their purchase or purchases shares in the Bank within 6 months after a sale of shares in the Bank, the profit deriving therefrom shall belong to the Bank and shall be recovered by the Board of Directors provided that securities companies which hold 5% or more of the shares in the Bank as a result of the performance of their underwriting obligations in relation to the shares unsubscribed or any other exceptional circumstance specified by the CSRC exists.

The shares or any other equity securities held by any director, supervisor, member of senior management or individual shareholder as referred to in the preceding paragraph include the shares or other equity securities held by his/her spouse, parent and child and those held through any other person's account.

If the Board of Directors fails to implement the provisions of the first paragraph of this Articles, the shareholders have the right to request the Board of Directors to implement it within 30 days. If the Board of Directors fails to execute within the above-mentioned time limit, the shareholders have the right to directly file a lawsuit in the people's court in their own name for the benefit of the Bank.

Where the Board of Directors fails to implement the provisions of the first paragraph of this Articles, the directors who are responsible for such default shall assume joint liability in accordance with applicable laws.

CHAPTER 4 FINANCIAL AID FOR PURCHASE OF SHARES OF THE BANK

Article 38 The Bank or the bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies) shall not offer any financial aid at any time by any means to purchasers or prospective purchasers of the Bank's shares. Such purchasers of the Bank's shares as mentioned above shall include those who directly or indirectly assume the obligations due to purchase of the shares of the Bank.

The Bank or the bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies) shall not offer any financial aid at any time by any means in order to reduce or relieve the obligations of the aforesaid purchasers due to their purchase or intention of purchase of the shares of the Bank.

This clause does not apply to the circumstances as defined in Article 40.

Article 39 The "financial aid" referred to in this chapter shall include but not limited to the following means:

- (I) donation;
- (II) guarantee (including the guarantor's bearing responsibility or offering property to guarantee the obligator's performance of obligations), compensation (but excluding the compensation arising from the Bank's fault), relief or waiver of rights;
- (III) providing loans or entering into an agreement in which the Bank performs its obligations prior to other parties; change of the parties to such loans and agreement as well as transfer of rights in such agreement;

- (IV) financial aid provided by the Bank in any other form when the Bank is insolvent or has no net assets or such financial aid will lead to great decrease of net assets.

The obligations referred to in this chapter shall include the obligations of the obligator by signing an agreement or making an arrangement or changing its financial status in any other ways, regardless of whether or not the aforesaid agreement or arrangement is enforceable, or whether or not such obligations are assumed by the obligator individually or jointly with other persons.

Article 40 The following acts shall not be deemed as the acts forbidden under Article 38:

- (I) where the Bank provides the relevant financial aid in good faith for the benefit of the Bank and the main purpose of the financial aid is not to purchase shares of the Bank, or the financial aid is an incidental part of an overall plan of the Bank;
- (II) lawful distribution of the Bank's property in the form of dividends;
- (III) distribution of dividends in the form of shares;
- (IV) reduction of registered capital, shares repurchases, adjustment of shareholding structure, etc., in accordance with the Articles;
- (V) provision of loans by the Bank within its business scope and in normal business (provided that the provision does not lead to a reduction in the net assets of the Bank or that even if it constitutes a reduction, the financial aid was paid out of the Bank's distributable profits); and
- (VI) provision of fund by the Bank for a staff shareholding scheme (provided that the provision does not lead to a reduction in the net assets of the Bank or that even if it constitutes a reduction, the financial aid was paid out of the Bank's distributable profits).

CHAPTER 5 SHARE CERTIFICATE AND REGISTER OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 41 The shares of the Bank shall be in registered form. Share certificate shall state the following items:

- (I) the name of the Bank;
- (II) the establishment date of the Bank;
- (III) the class of the share, par value, and the number of shares represented by the certificate;
- (IV) the serial number of the share certificate; and
- (V) other items that should be stated pursuant to the Company Law and regulations of securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where the Bank's shares are listed.

The overseas listed foreign shares issued by the Bank may adopt the foreign depository receipt or other derivative forms of share certificate in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction of listing and the practices for securities registration and deposit.

Article 42 The share certificate shall be signed by the chairman. Where the signatures of other senior management personnel of the Bank are required by the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where the Bank's shares are listed, the share certificate shall also be signed by such other senior management personnel. The signature of the chairman or other senior management personnel on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

The share certificate of the Bank shall come into force after the Bank seal is affixed thereto or printed thereon. Affixing the seal of the Bank on the share certificates shall be authorized by the Board of Directors.

Where power is granted to issue share warrants to bearer, no new share warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost, unless the Bank is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original has been destroyed.

Stipulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where the Bank's shares are listed shall be applicable in the case where shares of the Bank are issued and transacted in a paperless manner.

Article 43 The names of shareholders of the Bank, as well as the following items, shall be recorded in the register of shareholders:

- (I) the name, address or domicile, occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (II) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (III) payment already paid for the shares held by each shareholder;
- (IV) the serial number of share certificate held by each shareholder;
- (V) the date on which each shareholder is registered as a shareholder;
- (VI) the date on which each shareholder ceases to be a shareholder.

Unless proved to the contrary, the register of shareholders is the sufficient proof showing that the shareholder holds the shares of the Bank.

Article 44 The Bank may deposit the register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares abroad and entrust a foreign proxy to manage it in accordance with the understanding and agreement reached between CSRC and the overseas securities regulatory authorities. The original register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares that are listed in SEHK shall be kept in Hong Kong available for inspection by shareholders.

The Bank shall keep a duplicate of the register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares at its domicile. The appointed foreign proxy shall ensure that the original and duplicate of the register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares are consistent at all time.

In case the original and duplicate of the register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares are inconsistent, the original shall prevail.

Article 45 The Bank shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the following parts:

- (I) a register of shareholders deposited at the domicile of the Bank other than those as defined in items (II) and (III) of this article;
- (II) the register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares of the Bank kept at the jurisdiction of the overseas stock exchange;
- (III) the register of shareholders kept in such other places as the Board of Directors may decide necessary for listing purposes.

Article 46 Each part of the register of shareholders shall not overlap each other. In case of the transfer of certain registered shares in the register of shareholders, such shares shall not be registered into other parts of the register of shareholders during the period of continued existence of such shares.

Change or correction of each part of the register of shareholders shall be conducted in accordance with laws of the jurisdiction where each part of the register of shareholders is deposited.

Article 47 The suspension of the registration of change in the register of shareholders due to shares transfer before the shareholders' general meeting is held or prior to the base date on which the Bank decides to distribute dividends shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations, rules and the requirements stipulated by the securities regulatory authority of jurisdiction where the Bank's shares are listed. The period of closure of the register of members as described above shall not be more than thirty days in total within one year and it may be extended by another thirty days after being considered and approved at the shareholders' general meeting.

Upon receipt of an application for inquiry of the register of shareholders during the aforesaid period, the Bank shall issue the certificate to the applicant.

Article 48 If the Bank convenes shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, conducts liquidation or other activities where the equity interests need to be confirmed, the Board of Directors or the convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall decide the date of record. When the date of record expires, the shareholders in the register shall be the ones who enjoy the relevant interests.

Article 49 Anyone who has dissidence over the register of shareholders and requests to register his/her name in the register of shareholders or to delete his/her name from the register of shareholders may apply to the competent court for correction of the register of shareholders.

Article 50 If the share certificate (i.e. the “original share certificate”) held by any shareholder registered in the register of shareholders or by any person who requests to register his/her name in the register of shareholders is stolen, lost or destroyed, the shareholders may apply to the Bank for reissuing of new share certificate concerning such shares (i.e. the “relevant shares”).

Application for reissuing of the share certificate from shareholders of domestic shares whose share certificate is stolen, lost or destroyed shall be dealt with in compliance with relevant provisions of the Company Law.

Applications for reissuing of the share certificate from shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares whose share certificate is stolen, lost or destroyed shall be dealt with in compliance with laws of the jurisdiction where the original register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares is deposited, rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations.

Where the share certificates held by shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in SEHK by the Bank are stolen, lost or destroyed, the application for reissuing shall comply with the following requirements:

- (I) the applicant shall file the application in the standard form specified by the Bank and enclose the notarial deed or the statutory declaration documents. The notarial deed or the statutory declaration documents shall include the reason for the application, how the share certificate is lost and the proof, and the declaration that no one else may request to register as shareholder of the relevant shares.
- (II) before the Bank decides to reissue the new share certificate, the Bank has not received any declaration that anyone except the applicant has requested to register as the shareholder of such shares.
- (III) if the Bank decides to reissue the new share certificate to the applicant, it shall publish the notice on reissuing such share certificate on the newspapers specified by the Board of Directors. The period of notice shall be ninety days and the notice shall be republished at least once every thirty days.
- (IV) before the Bank publishes the notice on its intention to reissue the new share certificate, it shall submit a copy of the notice to be published to the stock exchange where its shares are listed. After the stock exchange gives its reply confirming that such notice has been displayed in the stock exchange, the notice may be published. The display period of the notice in the stock exchange is ninety days.
- (V) If the application for reissuing of new share certificate has not been approved by the registered shareholders of relevant shares, the Bank shall mail the copy of the notice to be published to such shareholders.
- (VI) if the ninety-day period of notice and display as defined in items (III) and (IV) of this article expires and the Bank has not received any objection against such reissuing of new share certificate, then the Bank may reissue such new share certificate in accordance with the application of the applicant.

(VII) when the Bank reissues the new share certificate according to this provision, it shall immediately cancel the original share certificate and shall record such cancellation and reissuing in the register of shareholders.

(VIII) all the costs and expenses incurred by the Bank's cancellation of the original share certificate and reissuing of new share certificate shall be borne by the applicant. The Bank shall have the right to refuse to take any action before the applicant provides any reasonable guarantee.

Article 51 After the Bank reissues the new share certificate in accordance with the Articles, the names of the bona fide purchasers who obtain the aforesaid new share certificate or the shareholders who subsequently register as the owner of such shares (provided that he/she is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be deleted from the register of shareholders.

Article 52 The Bank shall assume no liability to compensate those who suffered loss due to the Bank's cancellation of the original share certificate or reissuing of new share certificate, unless such persons can prove fraud on the part of the Bank.

CHAPTER 6 PARTY ORGANIZATIONS (THE PARTY COMMITTEE)

Article 53 The Communist Party of China Committee for China Everbright Bank shall be established within the Bank (hereafter the "Party Committee"). The Party Committee shall consist of one secretary, one to two deputy secretaries and several other members. The chairman of the Board of Directors and the secretary of the Party Committee shall be the same person, and one deputy secretary shall be designated to assist the secretary in carrying out Party-building work. Eligible members of the Party Committee can join the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the senior management through legal procedures, while eligible members of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the senior management can also join the Party Committee in accordance with relevant regulations and procedures. Meanwhile, commission for discipline inspection shall be established in accordance with relevant regulations.

Article 54 The Party Committee shall, in accordance with the Constitution of the Communist Party of China and other internal laws and regulations of the Party, perform the following duties:

- (I) thoroughly study and implement Xi Jinping thought on socialism with Chinese characteristics for a new era, strengthen the Party's political building, adhere to and implement the fundamental systems, basic systems and important systems of socialism with Chinese characteristics, ensure and supervise the Bank's implementation of policies and guidelines of the Party and the State, and implement major strategic decisions of the Central Committee of the Party and the State Council, as well as important work arrangements of higher-level Party organizations.
- (II) strengthen its leadership and gate keeping role in the management of the process of selection and appointment of personnel, effectively reinforcing the construction of leadership team, cadre team and professional team of the Bank, focusing on standards, procedure, evaluation, recommendation and supervision, insist on the combination of the principles of management of cadres by the Party and the selection of operation managers by the Board and the right of employment by the operation managers.

- (III) consider and discuss the reform, development and stability of the Bank, major operational and management issues and major issues concerning employee interests, and put forth comments and suggestions. Support the shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors and the senior management in performing their duties in accordance with law and support the Congress of Employees in carrying out its work.
- (IV) assume the primary responsibility to run the Party comprehensively with strict discipline, lead the Bank's ideological and political work, the United Front work, the cultural and ethical progress, corporate culture cultivation as well as the work of groups such as the Labor Union of the Bank and the Communist Youth League, take the lead on improving Party conduct and upholding integrity and support the discipline inspection authorities in practical performance of oversight responsibility.
- (V) strengthen the building of the Bank's grassroots Party organizations and of its contingent of Party members, give full play to the role of Party branches as strongholds and to the role of Party members as pioneers and fine examples, and unite officials and employees bank-wide to devote themselves into the reform and development of the Bank.
- (VI) other material matters that fall within the duty of the Party Committee.

Article 55 Before the Board of Directors or senior management make decisions on material issues, those issues shall be considered and discussed by the Party Committee. Material issues of the Bank must be considered and discussed by the Party Committee and then submitted to the Board of Directors or senior management for making decisions.

CHAPTER 7 SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

SECTION 1 SHAREHOLDERS

Article 56 Shareholders of the Bank shall be persons who lawfully hold the shares of the Bank and whose names are registered in the register of shareholders.

Shareholders shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations according to the class and number of shares held by them. Shareholders who hold the same class of shares shall enjoy the equal rights and undertake the equal obligation. Holders of Preference Shares and ordinary shares of the Bank are shareholders of different classes. Where the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, the Articles and relevant competent authorities provide for otherwise in terms of the rights and obligations of the holders of Preference Shares, such relevant provisions thereof shall prevail.

If more than two persons are registered as the joint shareholders of any shares, they shall be regarded as the common owners of the relevant shares, but shall be subject to the following provisions:

- (I) the Bank shall not register more than four persons as the joint shareholders of any shares;
- (II) all joint shareholders of any shares shall assume the joint and several liabilities for all the amount payable for the relevant shares;

- (III) if one of the joint shareholders dies, then only other living persons of the joint shareholders shall be deemed by the Bank as the owners of the relevant shares, but the Board of Directors shall have the right to request them to provide the death certification documents that it deems appropriate for the purpose of amending the register of shareholders;
- (IV) for joint shareholders of any shares, only the joint shareholder who ranks first in the register of shareholders shall have the right to receive the relevant share certificate from the Bank, to receive the notice from the Bank, to attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Bank or to exercise all the voting rights concerning the relevant shares. The notice delivered to the aforesaid person shall be deemed to have been delivered to all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares.

Article 57 Unless otherwise provided in laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles of the Bank in terms of the holders of Preference Shares, all shareholders of the Bank shall have the following rights:

- (I) collecting dividends and other forms of benefits distributed on the basis of the number of shares held by them;
- (II) attending or entrusting proxy to attend meetings of shareholders and speaking and exercising the voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) supervising business operation of the Bank and putting forward suggestions or inquiries accordingly;
- (IV) transferring shares in accordance with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where shares of the Bank are listed as well as the Articles;
- (V) obtaining relevant information in accordance with the Articles, including:
 - 1. obtaining the Articles after paying relevant cost;
 - 2. counterfoils of the bonds of the Bank;
 - 3. financial and accounting reports of the Bank;
 - 4. reviewing and making copies of the following documents after paying reasonable costs:
 - (1) all parts of the register of shareholders;
 - (2) personal information of the director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank;
 - (3) status of share capital of the Bank;

- (4) report on the aggregate par value, quantity, highest price and lowest price of each class of shares repurchased by the Bank since the last accounting year, as well as all the expenses paid by the Bank therefore;
- (5) minutes of shareholders' general meeting, resolutions of board meetings and resolutions of meetings of the Board of Supervisors;
- (VI) participating in the distribution of the Bank's remaining property in proportion to the number of shares held by the shareholders when the Bank is terminated or liquidated;
- (VII) maintaining their legitimate rights and interests through civil proceedings or other legal means in accordance with laws and regulations, and reporting relevant situations to the regulatory authority;
- (VIII) other rights conferred by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

The Bank shall not exercise any power to freeze or prejudice the rights attached to any shares held by it in other manners just because any person who directly or indirectly owns interests has not disclosed their interests to the Bank.

Article 58 Shareholders shall submit to the Bank the written documents certifying the class and quantity of shares of the Bank held by them when they intend to review the information or documents stated in item (V) of the preceding Article. After the Bank verifies the identity of such shareholders, it shall provide the information and documents as required by such shareholders.

Article 59 Unless otherwise provided in laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles of the Bank in terms of the holders of Preference Shares, all shareholders of the Bank shall undertake the following obligations:

- (I) abiding by laws and regulations, regulatory provisions and the Articles;
- (II) paying share capital according to the number of shares subscribed by them and the method of capital injection, using their own funds from legitimate sources to invest in shares, and not to use non-own funds such as entrusted funds and debt funds to invest in shares, unless otherwise stipulated by laws, regulations or regulatory systems;
- (III) shall comply with regulatory provisions in terms of the shareholding ratio and the number of institutional shareholders, and not entrust others or accept entrustment from others to hold shares of the Bank;
- (IV) shall, in accordance with laws, regulations and regulatory provisions, truthfully notify the Bank of its financial information, shareholding structure, source of funds to acquire shares, controlling shareholder, de facto controller, related parties, persons acting in concert, ultimate beneficiaries, investment in other financial institutions and other information. The relevant shareholder shall promptly notify the Bank in writing in accordance with laws, regulations and regulatory provisions if there is any change in the controlling shareholder, de facto controller, related parties, persons acting in concert and ultimate beneficiaries of the shareholder;

- (V) shall notify the Bank of the relevant circumstances in writing in a timely manner in accordance with laws, regulations and regulatory provisions, if they are involved in a merger or division, or are subject to an order for suspension of business for rectification, designated custody, takeover, revocation or other measures, or are in the process of dissolution, liquidation or bankruptcy, or their authorized representative, company name, business premises, business scope and other major events have changed;
- (VI) shall promptly notify the Bank in writing of the relevant circumstances in accordance with laws, regulations and regulatory provisions if the shares of the Bank held by the shareholders are involved in litigation, arbitration, being subject to enforcement action by judicial authorities, pledged or released pledge;
- (VII) shall abide by laws, regulations and regulatory provisions and not prejudice the interests of other shareholders and the Bank when the shareholders transfer or pledge their shares of the Bank or conduct related party transactions with the Bank;
- (VIII) shall support the Board of Directors to formulate a reasonable capital plan. As part of the Bank's capital plan, the substantial shareholders should give a long-term undertaking in writing to the Bank to replenish the capital when necessary;
- (IX) shareholders and their controlling shareholders and de facto controllers shall not abuse shareholders' rights or use related party relationships to prejudice the legitimate rights and interests of the Bank, other shareholders and stakeholders, if the shareholders of the Bank abuse the shareholders' rights thus causing loss to the Bank or other shareholders, they shall assume the liability of compensation according to law;
- (X) shall not abuse the independent legal person status of the Bank or limited liability of shareholders to damage the interests of the Bank's creditors; if the shareholders of the Bank abuse the independent legal person status of the Bank and the limited liability of shareholders and evade repayment of debts thus seriously damaging the interests of the creditors of the Bank, they shall assume joint liability for the debts of the Bank;
- (XI) shall not take advantage of or interfere with the decision-making and management authority entrusted to the Board of Directors and senior management under the Articles, and shall not bypass the Board of Directors and senior management and directly interfere with the operations and management of the Bank;
- (XII) shall cooperate with the regulatory authorities in investigation and risk disposal in the event of risk events or major violations of the Bank;
- (XIII) shareholders who should have but have not been approved by the regulatory authority or who have not reported to the regulatory authority shall not exercise the right to request the convening of a shareholders' general meeting, right to vote, right to nominate, right to propose, right of disposition and other rights;

(XIV) for shareholders who have false statements, abuse of shareholders' rights or other acts that damage the interests of the Bank, the National Administration of Financial Regulation or its local branches may limit or prohibit the Bank from conducting related party transactions with them, and limit the amount of the shares of the Bank held by them, shares pledge ratio, etc., and may restrict their right to request the convening of a shareholders' general meeting, right to vote, right to nominate, right to propose, right of disposition and other rights;

(XV) other obligations imposed by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

Shareholders shall not assume any responsibility for further capital contribution other than the conditions agreed to by the subscriber of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 60 The controlling shareholders have a fiduciary duty to the Bank and other shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall strictly comply with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles when exercising their rights as investors, and shall not abuse their position to gain improper benefits, or cause detriments to the lawful interests of the Bank and other shareholders.

Except for the obligations as required by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where shares of the Bank are listed, the controlling shareholders shall not make any decisions that impair the interests of all or some of the shareholders concerning the following aspects when they exercise their rights as shareholders by exercising their voting rights:

- (I) exempting the responsibility of the director and the supervisor to act in good faith for the maximum benefit of the Bank;
- (II) approving the director and the supervisor to deprive the property of the Bank (including but not limited to the opportunities favorable to the Bank) in any form for their own benefits or for the benefits of others;
- (III) approving the director and the supervisor to deprive the individual interests of other shareholders (including but not limited to any distribution rights, voting rights, but excluding the restructuring of the Bank which is submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval in accordance with the Articles) for their own benefits or for the benefits of others.

Article 61 The shareholders shall strictly comply with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority at the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed and the conditions and procedures defined by the Articles when they nominate candidates for the director and the supervisor of the Bank. The candidates for the director and the supervisor nominated by the shareholders shall have relevant professional knowledge as well as decision-making and supervision capacity. The resolution on the election by the shareholders' general meeting or the engagement by the Board of Directors does not require the approval procedure of any shareholder. The appointment and removal of senior management personnel by shareholders superseding the shareholders' general meeting and Board of Directors shall be deemed as invalid.

Article 62 Substantial shareholder herein shall refer to the shareholder that holds or controls 5% or more of the Bank's shares or voting right, or that holds less than 5% of the total capital or the total shares but has a significant influence on the Bank's operation and management.

The "significant influence" in the preceding paragraph includes, but is not limited to, nominating or appointing directors, supervisors or senior management personnel to the Bank, affecting the Bank's financial and operational management decisions through agreements or other means, and other circumstances identified by the National Administration of Financial Regulation or its local branches.

The controlling shareholder(s) herein shall refer to the person(s) satisfying any of the following conditions:

- (I) The person may elect more than half of the directors when acting alone or in concert with others;
- (II) The person may exercise more than thirty percent of the total voting shares of the Bank or control the exercise of more than thirty percent of the total voting shares of the Bank when acting alone or in concert with others;
- (III) The person holds more than thirty percent of outstanding voting shares of the Bank when acting alone or in concert with others;
- (IV) The person may have de facto control over the Bank in any other manner when acting alone or in concert with others.

The term "acting in concert" herein shall mean the act or fact where investors, through agreement and other arrangement, jointly expand with other investors the number of voting shares of a listed company which can be dominated by them.

Article 63 The conditions of facility that the Bank offers to the shareholders shall not be more favourable than those offered to other customers of the same type of facility.

Article 64 When the credit extended by the Bank to a substantial shareholder is overdue, his voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting and the voting rights of the directors nominated or appointed by him in the Board of Directors shall be restricted. Restrictions on other shareholders' rights shall be imposed based on actual situation if their credit extended by the Bank is overdue. According to the scope approved by the law, the Bank shall have the right to withhold the dividends of such shareholders as repayment of their overdue loans, and any assets to be distributed to such shareholders in the Bank's liquidation process shall also be used in priority for repayment of their outstanding loans to the Bank.

Article 65 Shareholders shall strictly comply with the rules set out in the law, rules, regulations, regulatory documents and the Articles and serve a prior notice to the Board of Directors if they use their share certificate as guarantee for themselves or others.

Where a shareholder who has representation on the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors, or directly, indirectly or jointly holds or controls more than two percent of voting rights in the Bank pledges his equity interests in the Bank, it shall make prior filing to the Board of Directors of the Bank, which shall state the basic information of the pledge including the reasons for the pledge, the number of shares involved, the term of pledge and the particulars of the pledges. Where the Board of Directors considers the pledge to have material adverse impacts on the stability of the Bank's shareholding structure, corporate governance, risk and connected transaction control, the filing shall not be accepted. The director(s) nominated by a shareholder proposing to pledge his shares in the Bank shall abstain from voting at the meeting of the Board of Directors at which such proposal is considered.

Article 66 Upon the registration of the pledge of equity interests, the shareholders involved shall provide the Bank with the relevant information in relation to the pledge of equity interests in a timely manner, so as to facilitate the Bank's risk management and information disclosure compliance.

Article 67 Shareholders shall not pledge the Bank's share certificate if the balance of loans they borrowed from the Bank exceeds the audited net book value of shares held by them in the previous year.

Article 68 Where a shareholder pledges 50 percent or more of his voting shares in the Bank, the voting rights of such shareholder at the shareholders' general meeting, as well as the voting rights of the director(s) acting as proxy(ies) of such shareholder at board meetings, shall be subject to restrictions.

Article 69 The written agreement shall be signed for the transaction between the Bank and the shareholders. The agreement shall be signed based on the principle of equality, willingness and equivalence and for valuable consideration, and the content of the agreement shall be clear and specific.

Article 70 If any director(s) and senior management personnel(s) in the course of execution of the Bank's duties violate(s) the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the provision of the Articles thus causing any loss to the Bank, shareholders holding more than one percent of the shares of the Bank individually or jointly for a continuous period of more than 180 days shall have the right to request the Board of Supervisors in writing to institute proceedings at the people's court (against such director or senior management personnel); if the Board of Supervisors in the course of execution of the Bank's duties violates the laws, rules or the provision of the Articles thus causing any loss to the Bank, the aforesaid shareholders may in writing request the Board of Directors to institute proceedings at the people's court against the Board of Supervisors.

If the Board of Supervisors or the Board of Directors refuses to institute proceedings upon receipt of the written shareholders' request referred to above or fails to institute proceedings within thirty days after receipt of the request or in case of emergency, the Bank may suffer irrecoverable loss if proceedings are not instituted immediately, the shareholders referred to above shall have the right to directly institute proceedings at the people's court in their own names for the benefit of the Bank.

If a person infringing the lawful interests of the Bank thus causing loss to the Bank, the shareholders stipulated in the first paragraph of this article may institute proceedings at the people's court according to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 71 If any director(s) or senior management personnel(s) violate(s) laws, regulations, regulatory documents or the provision of the Articles thus affecting the interests of shareholders, shareholders may institute proceedings at the people's court (against such director(s) or senior management personnel(s)).

SECTION 2 GENERAL PROVISIONS OF SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 72 The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of power of the Bank and shall legally exercise the following duties and powers:

- (I) deciding on the business policies and investment plans of the Bank;
- (II) electing and replacing directors not appointed from staff representatives and deciding on matters concerning their compensation;
- (III) electing and replacing supervisors not appointed from staff representatives and deciding on matters concerning their compensation;
- (IV) examining and approving work report of the Board of Directors;
- (V) examining and approving work report of the Board of Supervisors;
- (VI) examining and approving the Bank's annual financial budget and final account proposals;
- (VII) examining and approving the Bank's plans for profit distribution and loss make-up;
- (VIII) adopting resolutions concerning the increase or decrease of the Bank's registered capital;
- (IX) adopting resolutions on merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Bank;
- (X) adopting resolutions on issuance of the Bank's bonds or other securities and public listing;
- (XI) adopting resolutions on the engagement, dismissal or discontinuation of engagement of accounting firms by the Bank;
- (XII) amending the Articles, considering and approving the Rules of Procedures of the shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors of the Bank;
- (XIII) examining and approving proposals raised by the shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than three percent of the voting shares of the Bank;
- (XIV) examining and approving the establishment of legal persons, material merger and acquisition, material investment, material assets disposal and material guarantee and other matters;
- (XV) examining and approving the issues regarding changing the use of proceeds;
- (XVI) examining the share incentive plans and employee stock ownership scheme;
- (XVII) adopting resolutions on repurchase of the ordinary shares of the Bank.

- (XVIII) examining the related party transactions that shall be examined and approved by the shareholders' general meeting as stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed;
- (XIX) reviewing the performance assessment reports of directors and supervisors prepared by the Board of Supervisors;
- (XX) determining matters in relation to the issued Preference Shares of the Bank, including but not limited to the repurchase, conversion or distribution of dividends of such Preference Shares;
- (XXI) examining other issues that shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting as stipulated by laws, regulations, rules and relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed as well as the Articles.

The above matters within the scope of powers of the shareholders' general meeting shall be discussed and decided by the shareholder's general meeting in principle, but the shareholders' general meeting may authorize the Board of Directors to decide such matters under circumstances that are necessary, reasonable and legal. The content of authorization shall be clear and specific. The shareholders' general meeting shall not delegate the functions and powers legally exercised by the shareholders' general meeting to the Board of Directors.

For the authorization to the Board of Directors by the shareholders' general meeting, if matters authorized are those that shall be adopted by the shareholders' general meeting by means of the general resolution as specified in the Articles, they shall be adopted by more than half of the voting shares held by the shareholders who have the voting rights (including shareholder proxies) present at the meeting. If matters authorized are those that shall be adopted by the general meeting of Shareholders by means of special resolution as specified in the Articles, they shall be adopted by more than two-thirds of the voting shares held by the shareholders who have voting rights (including shareholder proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 73 The Board of Directors shall draft the rules of procedures for the shareholders' general meeting including the meeting notice, way of convening the meeting, document preparation, way of voting, proposal submission system, meeting minutes, signature and abstention of related shareholders, and the rules shall be executed after being examined and approved by the shareholders' general meeting. The Rules of Procedures of the shareholders' general meeting is an appendix to the Articles.

Article 74 Unless the Bank is in crisis or under other special circumstances, it shall not sign an agreement with any person other than directors, supervisors, presidents and other senior management personnel of the Bank for the delegation of the whole business management or the important business management of the Bank to such person without the approval through a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 75 There are two types of shareholders' general meeting: annual general meeting and extraordinary general meeting. The shareholders' general meeting is generally convened by the Board of Directors.

The annual general meeting shall be held once a year within six months after the end of the previous accounting year. If the meeting has to be postponed due to special reasons, it shall be reported to the National Administration of Financial Regulation in time with the reasons stated.

An extraordinary general meeting shall be convened within two months from the occurrence date of any of the following events:

- (I) the number of directors is less than the minimum quorum stipulated in the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number stipulated in the Articles;
- (II) the amount of the Bank's loss that have not been made up reaches one-third of the Bank's total paid-in share capital;
- (III) shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than ten percent of the voting shares of the Bank request to convene the meeting in writing;
- (IV) the Board of Directors deems necessary;
- (V) more than half of and not less than two independent directors propose to convene the meeting;
- (VI) the Board of Supervisors proposes to convene the meeting;
- (VII) other circumstances stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the Articles.

The number of shares held referred to in item (III) above shall be calculated on the date when the shareholders put forward a written request.

Where the shareholders' general meeting is not convened within the foregoing period, the Bank shall submit a written report indicating the reason therefor to the regulatory authorities and make an announcement.

Article 76 When the Bank is to convene a shareholders' general meeting, the meeting shall be convened in the form of on-site meeting, and it shall issue a written notice prior to the meeting, informing all the registered shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting of the matters to be examined at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting. The notice of the annual general meeting shall be given twenty days prior to the meeting, and the notice of the extraordinary general meeting shall be given fifteen days prior to the meeting.

After the notice of shareholders' general meeting is issued, the venue of the on-site meeting of shareholders' general meeting shall not be changed without proper reasons. If it is necessary to change, the convener shall make an announcement and give the reasons at least two trading days prior to the on-site meeting.

The Bank shall, on the premise of ensuring the lawfulness and validity of the shareholders' general meeting, provide facilities to the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting by adopting safe, economical and convenient network or various methods and channels including the provision of up-to-date information technology measures such as online voting platforms. If a shareholder participates in the shareholders' general meeting in the above manner, he/she shall be deemed to be present.

Article 77 Shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than three percent of voting shares of the Bank may provide an extraordinary proposal and submit it in writing to the convener twelve trading days before the shareholders' general meeting is convened. If qualified shareholders make an extraordinary proposal before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, such shareholder(s) shall hold no less than 3% of the Bank's shares from the date of the notice of the proposal to the announcement of the meeting resolution. Shareholders proposing an extraordinary proposal shall provide a written document to the convener certifying the holding of 3% or more of the listed company's shares. If shareholders make a joint proposal by proxies, the shareholder(s) shall issue a written authorization letter to the proxies. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice for the shareholders' general meeting within two days upon receipt of the proposal and submit such proposal to the shareholders' general meeting for approval. The content of the interim proposal shall be within the scope of authority of the shareholders' general meeting and there shall be clear and definite topics and specific matters to be resolved.

The shareholders' general meeting shall not vote and make a resolution on proposals which are not specified in the notice or the supplementary notice or not in compliance with the previous provision.

After the notice of the shareholders' general meeting is issued, the shareholder's general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without a proper reason and the proposals stated in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall not be cancelled. In the event of any postponement or cancellation of the shareholders' general meeting, the convener shall issue an announcement and state the reasons therein at least two trading days before the original date of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 78 The proposals of the shareholders' general meeting shall satisfy the following conditions:

- (I) the contents shall not conflict with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles and shall fall within the business scope of the Bank and the scope of authority of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) there shall be clear and definite topics and specific matters to be resolved;
- (III) submit or deliver to the Board of Directors in writing.

Article 79 The meeting notice for the shareholders' general meeting shall satisfy the following requirements.

- (I) in written form;
- (II) specifying the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (III) describing the matters to be discussed at the meeting;
- (IV) providing shareholders with materials and explanations necessary for them to make sensible decisions regarding the matters to be discussed, including (but not limited to) specific terms and agreement (if any) for a proposed transaction, and a detailed explanation of its causation and consequence where the Bank proposes a merger, repurchase of shares, restructuring of share capital or other form of restructuring;

- (V) where any director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel has an important interest with regard to matters to be discussed, then the nature and extent of that interest shall be disclosed. Where the impact of the matters to be discussed on such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel who are shareholders is different from the impact on other shareholders of the same type, then that difference shall be illustrated;
- (VI) containing the full text of any special resolution proposed to be passed at the meeting;
- (VII) providing a clear description stating that all shareholders who have the right to attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting have the right to entrust one or more proxies, as necessary, who does not need to be shareholders of the Bank, to attend and vote at the meeting;
- (VIII) stating the time and place for the delivery of proxy letter of the meeting;
- (IX) the record date on which the shareholders are eligible to attend the shareholders' general meeting;
- (X) the name and the phone number of the permanent contact person of the meeting;
- (XI) the voting time and voting procedure by internet or other means.

Article 80 Except as otherwise provided in the Articles, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be delivered by hand or by pre-paid post to all shareholders entitled to attend such meeting, (whether or not such shareholder has a voting right at the shareholders' general meeting). The address of the recipient shall be the address registered in the register of shareholders. The notice of a shareholders' general meeting may be in the form of an announcement for shareholders of domestic shares.

The announcement mentioned above shall be published in the media that meet the conditions specified by the CSRC. All shareholders of domestic listed shares shall be deemed as having received the notice of shareholders' general meeting upon the publication of the announcement.

Subject to laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where shares of the Bank are listed, the Bank may also issue notice of the shareholders' general meeting by making announcement in the Bank's website and the websites designated by SEHK for the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, in lieu of the delivery of such notice by hand or by pre-paid post to the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares.

Article 81 Any shareholder who has the right to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall have the right to appoint one or more persons (not necessarily shareholder(s)) as his/her proxy to attend and vote at the meeting. Such proxy may exercise the following rights in accordance with the shareholder's appointment:

- (I) the right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) the right to require by himself/herself or jointly with others to request for voting by poll;

(III) the right to vote by a show of hands or ballot, in case the shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies can only exercise the voting right by poll.

Article 82 Shareholders shall appoint proxy in writing. The proxy form shall be signed by the appointor or its authorized representative who has been authorized in writing. If the appointor is a legal person or other organization, the document shall be affixed with the legal person's seal or seal of the organization or signed by its director, or legal representative or duly authorized representative.

Individual shareholder attending the meeting in person shall present his/her identification card, effective certificate/proof of his/her identification and stock account card. When a proxy attends the meeting in place of the shareholder, he/she shall present his/her valid identification card and the power of attorney issued by the shareholder.

Legal person shareholders shall be represented by its legal representative or proxy entrusted by its legal representative to attend the meeting. Legal representative attending the meeting shall present his/her identification card, effective proof of his/her qualification as a legal representative. When a proxy is entrusted to attend the meeting, he/she shall present his/her identification card, written power of attorney issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder.

Article 83 The proxy form for voting shall be placed at the domicile of the Bank, or at other place designated in the notice of meeting, at least twenty-four hours prior to convening of the meeting which the relevant matters will be voted on, or twenty-four hours prior to the designated voting time. If the proxy form is signed by a person authorized by the appointor, the power of attorney or other authorization document shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization document shall be placed together with the proxy form authorizing the proxy to vote at the domicile of the Bank or other place designated in the notice of meeting.

Article 84 Any format of blank proxy form issued by the Board of Directors of the Bank to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholder free choice to instruct their proxies to cast an affirmative or, negative vote or abstain from voting, and to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. The proxy form shall state that the proxy may vote at his/her discretion if the appointor does not give any instruction.

Article 85 If, before voting, the appointor has passed away, lost his/her ability to act, withdrawn the appointment, withdrawn the authorization to sign the proxy form, or transferred all his/her shares, the vote cast by the proxy in accordance with the proxy form shall remain valid so long as the Bank has not received the written notice regarding such matters before the commencement of relevant meeting.

SECTION 3 CONVENING OF SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 86 The Board of Supervisors shall have the right to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting and the proposal shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene such an extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receipt of the proposal in accordance with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within five days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is passed. Changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the Board of Supervisors.

In case the Board of Directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or does not give any response within ten days upon receipt of the proposal, the Board of Directors shall be deemed to be unable or have failed to perform its duty to convene shareholder's general meeting, and the Board of Supervisors may convene and preside over the meeting by itself.

Article 87 Shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than ten percent of the voting shares of the Bank (hereinafter referred to as the "proposing shareholders") shall have the right to request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Such request shall be made in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting within ten days upon receipt of the request in accordance with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles hereof.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within five days after the resolution of the Board of Directors is passed. Changes made to the original request shall be approved by the proposing shareholders.

If the Board of Directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, or does not give any response within ten days upon receipt of the request, the proposing shareholders shall have the right to propose to the Board of Supervisors to convene the extraordinary general meeting. Such proposal shall be made in writing to the Board of Supervisors.

If the Board of Supervisors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within five days upon receipt of the proposal. Changes made to the original proposal shall be approved by the proposing shareholders.

If the Board of Supervisors fails to give the notice of such a meeting within the specified time limit, it shall be deemed to have failed to convene or preside over the meeting, in which case, shareholders who either individually or jointly hold more than ten percent of the Bank's voting shares for more than ninety consecutive days (hereinafter referred as the "convening shareholders") shall have the right to convene and preside over the meeting by themselves.

Article 88 When the Board of Supervisors or the convening shareholders decide to convene an extraordinary general meeting by themselves, they shall notify the Board of Directors in writing, and file with the stock exchange of jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed. The Board of Supervisors or the convening shareholders shall issue a notice of convening the extraordinary general meeting. The content of the notice shall comply with the following requirements and the provision in Article 79:

- (I) no new content shall be added to the proposal, otherwise, the convening shareholders or the Board of Supervisors shall make a new request to the Board of Directors for convening of the extraordinary general meeting according to the aforesaid procedures;

(II) the meeting shall be held at the domicile of the Bank.

Before the resolution of shareholders' general meeting is announced, the convening shareholders should not hold less than ten percent of the total voting shares of the bank.

Article 89 If the Board of Supervisors or shareholders convene a shareholders' general meeting on their own, the Board of Directors and the secretary of the Board of Directors shall cooperate accordingly. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as at the date of the shareholding registration date.

Article 90 Reasonable expenses incurred by shareholders who convene the meeting on their own due to the failure of the Board of Directors to convene the meeting as required by this section of the Articles, shall be borne by the Bank and shall be deducted from the amount due from the Bank to those directors who have not fulfilled their duty.

Article 91 Where the shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Board of Directors, the chairman shall act as the chairman of the meeting and shall preside over the meeting; if the chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, the vice chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene and preside over the meeting; if the vice chairman is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, the Board of Directors may appoint one director of the Bank to convene and preside over the meeting on its behalf; if no chairman is appointed, shareholders present at the meeting may elect one to act as the chairman and preside over the meeting; if shareholders fail to elect a chairman due to certain reason, the shareholder (including proxy) attending the meeting and holding the most voting shares shall preside over the meeting.

Where a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Board of Supervisors, the meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board of Supervisors; if the chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, the vice chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall preside over the meeting; if the vice chairman of the Board of Supervisors is unable or fails to perform his/her duties, a supervisor jointly chosen by more than half of the supervisors shall preside over the meeting.

The shareholders' general meeting convened by shareholders themselves shall be presided over by the one elected by the convening shareholders.

Article 92 The Bank's Board of Directors and other conveners shall adopt necessary measures to maintain the order of the shareholders' general meeting. Any act which disrupts in the shareholders' general meeting, makes trouble and infringes the lawful interests of shareholders shall be prohibited and reported on a timely basis to relevant authorities for investigation and punishment.

SECTION 4 VOTING AND RESOLUTIONS AT SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 93 The resolutions of shareholders' general meeting shall be divided into two types: general resolutions, and special resolutions.

General resolutions made by the shareholders' general meeting shall be adopted by more than half of voting shares held by the shareholders who have voting rights (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

Special resolutions made by the shareholders' the general meeting shall be adopted by more than two-thirds of voting shares held by the shareholders who have voting rights (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 94 The following matters shall be adopted by general resolution at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) the business policies and investment plans of the Bank;
- (II) work report of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (III) plans for profit distribution and loss make-up proposed by the Board of Directors;
- (IV) engagement and dismissal of the members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors as well as their compensation and the payment methods;
- (V) annual financial budget proposal, final accounts, balance sheet, profits statement and other financial reports of the Bank;
- (VI) annual report of the Bank;
- (VII) engagement and dismissal of accounting form;
- (VIII) guarantees provided for shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;
- (IX) Matters other than those stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the Articles that shall be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 95 The following matters shall be adopted by special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) amendment of the Articles;
- (II) increase or reduction in registered capital of the Bank and issuance of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities;
- (III) repurchase of the Bank's ordinary shares;
- (IV) division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Bank or change of corporate form;
- (V) issuance of corporate bonds;
- (VI) examination and approval or authorization to the Board of Directors to approve the establishment of legal persons, material merger and acquisition, material investment, material assets disposal and material guarantee and so on.

- (VII) the share incentive plans;
- (VIII) making adjustments to the profit distribution policy of the Bank pursuant to the requirements of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles;
- (IX) determining, or authorizing the Board of Directors to determine matters in relation to the issued Preference Shares of the Bank, including but not limited to the repurchase, conversion or distribution of dividends of such Preference Shares;
- (X) removal of independent directors;
- (XI) other matters stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles, and deemed by the shareholders' general meeting in a general resolution as it will have material impact on the Bank and require the adoption by a special resolution.

Article 96 When shareholders who have voting rights (including their proxies) attend the shareholders' general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the voting shares held by them, with each share representing one vote.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers matters that could materially affect the interest of medium and small investors, the Bank shall count the votes by medium and small investors separately. The results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

The same voting right shall only be exercised by attending meeting in person, through the internet or any one of the other voting methods. The first vote cast shall prevail if repeated voting occurs in relation to the same voting right.

The shares of the Bank held by the Bank do not have any voting right and such shares shall not be counted in the total voting shares held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

The voting shares of the Bank purchased by the shareholders in the violation of the first and second paragraphs of Article 63 of the Securities Law shall not exercise the voting right of the shares that exceed the prescribed ratio within 36 months after purchasing the relevant shares, and shall not be included in the total number of voting shares present at a shareholders' general meeting.

The Board of Directors, independent directors, shareholders holding more than one percent of the shares with voting rights or investor protection institutions established according to laws, administrative regulations or provisions of the CSRC may collect the shareholders' voting rights. While soliciting votes of shareholders, sufficient disclosure of information such as the specific voting preference shall be made to the shareholders from whom voting rights are being solicited. No consideration or other form of de facto consideration shall be involved in the solicitation of voting rights from shareholders. Except for the statutory conditions, the Bank shall not impose any limitation related to the minimum shareholding percentage on the solicitation of voting rights.

Article 97 When a shareholders' general meeting examines the related party transactions, the related shareholders shall not participate in voting and the number of shares with voting rights represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the voting by unrelated shareholders.

The related shareholders may abstain from voting themselves or upon request by any other shareholder attending the shareholders' general meeting.

If any shareholder cannot exercise his/her voting right regarding a certain proposal, or is only restricted to cast either affirmative or negative vote, the vote cast by such shareholder or his/her proxy, which violates the aforesaid provisions or restrictions, shall not be counted into the voting result.

Article 98 Shareholders shall vote by show of hand at a shareholders' general meeting, unless relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authority of the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed require voting by poll, or the following persons require voting by poll before or after voting by show of hand:

- (I) chairman of the meeting;
- (II) at least two shareholders or two proxies of shareholders with voting rights;
- (III) one or several shareholders (including their proxies) holding more than ten percent of the voting shares at the meeting, individually or jointly.

Unless someone proposes voting by poll, chairman of the meeting shall announce whether or not the proposal is adopted according to the result of voting by a show of hands, and record it in the meeting minutes as the final evidence. It shall be not necessary to demonstrate the number of affirmative or negative votes or their proportion for the resolution adopted at the meeting.

The request for voting by poll can be withdrawn by the proposer.

Article 99 Voting by poll requested for matters concerning the election of chairman or suspension of the meeting shall be conducted immediately; for other matters, the chairman of the meeting shall decide when to conduct voting by poll. The meeting may continue to discuss other matters, and the voting result shall still be deemed as the resolution adopted at the said meeting.

Article 100 In the case of voting by poll, shareholders (including their proxies) with two or more votes need not cast all their votes as to vote for or vote against or abstain from voting.

When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, regardless whether the vote is taken by hands or by ballot, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 101 Votes on each matter proposed to be examined at the meeting shall be counted on the spot and the voting result shall be announced on the spot as well.

Article 102 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt about the voting result, he/she may organize to count the votes. If the chairman does not count the votes, and the shareholders or their proxies present at the meeting want to challenge the results announced by the chairman, they shall have the right to request for the counting of the votes immediately after the announcement, and the chairman shall organize to count the votes.

If votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the counting result shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 103 The chairman of the meeting shall decide whether resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting are passed according to the voting results. The decision shall be final and the voting results shall be announced at the meeting. The result of voting upon the resolutions shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 104 If the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting violates laws or administrative regulations, it shall be deemed as invalid.

If the convening procedure and voting method of the shareholders' general meeting violates laws, administrative regulations or the Articles, or resolution contents violate the Articles, shareholders may, within sixty days upon the date of adopting the resolution, request the people's court to rescind the resolutions.

If shareholders file lawsuit in accordance with the aforesaid term, the Bank may apply to the people's court to request the shareholders to provide corresponding guarantee.

If the Bank has registered the change in accordance with resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, and the people's court declares such resolution be void or rescinded, the Bank shall apply to the company registration authority for rescission of such registration of change.

Article 105 The shareholders' general meeting shall be recorded in minutes which shall be conducted by the secretary of the Board of Directors, and the minutes shall include the contents set forth below:

- (I) time, place, agenda and name of the convener of the meeting;
- (II) names of the chairman, directors, supervisors, president, secretary of the Board of Directors and other senior management personnel present or present as a non-voting attendee at the meeting;
- (III) number of shareholders who have voting rights and their proxies present at the meeting, the total number of voting shares held and the proportion to the total number of shares of the Bank;
- (IV) discussion on the process, key points of the speech and voting result of each proposal;
- (V) inquiries, advices or proposals of the shareholders and related reply or explanation;
- (VI) name of the lawyer(s), vote calculator(s) and person(s) who supervise(s) the calculating of the votes;

(VII) other contents required to be recorded in the minutes by the Articles.

Article 106 Minutes of the shareholders' general meeting shall be signed by the directors, supervisors, secretary of the Board of Directors, the convener or his/her representative present at the meeting and chairman of the meeting, and shall be kept in the registered domicile of the Bank together with the signature list of shareholders attending the meeting and the proxy form, and valid information on voting through Internet and other means as archive of the Bank, and the minutes shall be kept for a permanent period. The Bank shall report the minutes and resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings to the National Administration of Financial Regulation in a timely manner.

Article 107 Shareholders may review the duplicates of meeting minutes free of charge during office hours of the Bank. If any shareholder requests for duplicates of relevant meeting minutes, the Bank shall deliver the duplicates within seven days upon receipt of reasonable fees.

Article 108 When the shareholders' general meeting is held, the Bank shall engage lawyers to provide legal opinions on the follow issues and make an announcement:

- (I) whether the procedures of convening and holding the meeting comply with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles;
- (II) whether the qualification of attendees and convener is legal and valid;
- (III) whether the procedure and result of voting is legal and valid;
- (IV) legal opinions on other relevant issues requested by the Bank.

The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner. The announcement shall set out the number of shareholders and their proxies entitled to attend the meeting, the total number of voting shares held and the proportion to the total number of voting shares of the Bank, the voting method, and the voting results of each proposal.

If a proposal is not passed or a resolution passed at the previous shareholders' general meeting is amended at such shareholders' general meeting, it shall be set out as a special reminder in the announcement on resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

CHAPTER 8 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR THE VOTING OF CLASSIFIED SHAREHOLDERS

Classified shareholders shall enjoy the rights and assume the obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles.

Except shareholders of other class of shares, shareholders of domestic shares and shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares shall be considered as different class of shareholders.

Each classified shareholder of the Bank shall enjoy equal rights in any distribution made by means of dividend or other ways.

Upon approval by CSRC, shareholders of domestic shares of the Bank may transfer the shares held by them to overseas investors and such shares may be listed and traded overseas. If the transferred shares are listed and traded on overseas stock exchanges, the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of the overseas stock markets shall also be complied with. No classified shareholders' general meeting will be required for the listing and trading of the transferred shares on overseas stock exchanges.

Article 110 If the Bank intends to change or abrogate the rights of classified shareholders, it may do so only after such change or abrogation has been approved by a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and by the meetings of shareholders convened separately by the affected classified shareholders in accordance with Article 112 to Article 116 respectively.

Article 111 In the following conditions, rights of a certain classified shareholder shall be deemed to be changed or abrogated:

- (I) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges that is equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (II) a conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, a conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such conversion;
- (III) a cancellation or reduction of rights to gain accrued dividends or accumulated dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (IV) a reduction or cancellation of the priority attached to shares of such class in dividend distribution or property distribution during liquidation of the Bank;
- (V) an increase, cancellation or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights or rights to acquire securities of the Bank attached to shares of such class;
- (VI) a cancellation or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Bank in a particular currency attached to shares of such class;
- (VII) a creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (VIII) an imposition of restrictions or increase of restrictions on the transfer of ownership of shares of such class;
- (IX) a right to subscribe for such class or another class of shares, or convert into another class of shares;
- (X) an increase in the rights and privileges of shares of another class;

(XI) restructuring plan of the Bank will cause shareholders of different categories to bear liability disproportionately during the restructuring;

(XII) an amendment or abrogation of the terms of the Articles.

Article 112 Classified shareholders affected, whether or not originally having voting rights at the shareholders' general meeting, shall have voting right in the classified shareholders' meeting when the matters stated in items (II) to (VIII), (XI) to (XII) of Article 111 are concerned, except for the interested shareholders.

The aforesaid interested shareholders have the following meanings:

- (I) when the Bank makes repurchase offer to all shareholders equally pro rata or repurchases shares of the Bank by means of open transaction at the stock exchange in accordance with Article 29, "interested shareholders" refer to the controlling shareholders defined in Article 60;
- (II) when the Bank repurchases shares of the Bank by means of agreement outside the stock exchange in accordance with Article 29, "interested shareholders" refer to the shareholders related to the agreement;
- (III) in the restructuring plan of the Bank, "interested shareholders" refer to those shareholders who assume responsibilities at a lower proportion than other shareholders of the same class or those shareholders who have different benefits from other shareholders of the same class.

Article 113 Resolution of classified shareholders' meeting shall be adopted by more than two-thirds of voting shares held by the shareholders present at the meeting of shareholders according to Article 112.

Article 114 When the Bank convenes the classified shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a written notice prior to the meeting, to inform all shareholders of that class who are listed in the register of the matters to be examined, place, date and time of the meeting. The above notice shall be given with reference to the provisions of Article 76 of the Articles.

Article 115 The notice of the classified shareholders' meeting shall only be served on shareholders who have right to vote at the meeting.

Unless otherwise specified herein, the procedure to convene the classified shareholders' meeting shall resemble that of a shareholders' general meeting as far as possible. Terms in the Articles which are related to the procedure to convene a shareholders' general meeting shall apply to meeting of classified shareholders.

Article 116 Special voting procedures of classified shareholders shall not apply in the following cases:

- (I) upon approval of the shareholders' general meeting by special resolution, the Bank issues domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares every other twelve months, either separately or simultaneously, and the domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares to be issued do not exceed twenty percent of the total number of such class of outstanding shares;

- (II) the plan on issuing domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at the establishment of the Bank is accomplished within fifteen months from the date of obtaining approval from CSRC;
- (III) upon the approval of CSRC, the shareholders of domestic shares of the Bank convert the shares held by them to overseas listed foreign shares which are listed and traded on overseas stock exchange.

CHAPTER 9 SPECIAL PROVISIONS ON PREFERENCE SHARES

Article 117 The number of Preference Shares issued by the Bank shall not exceed 50% of the total number of ordinary shares then issued, and the capital raised from the issuance of Preference Shares shall not exceed 50% of the net assets of the Bank prior to such issuance (excluding the Preference Shares that have been repurchased or converted).

Article 118 In accordance with relevant rules on capital regulation of commercial banks and subject to relevant regulatory requirements, the Bank may, through private placements, issue Preference Shares that are mandatorily convertible into ordinary shares upon the occurrence of non-public issuance trigger events.

Article 119 Preference Shares issued by the Bank does not carry any put back option by the holders. Holders of Preference Shares do not have the right to call for the Bank's repurchase of their Preference Shares. The Bank may repurchase Preference Shares in accordance with relevant rules on capital regulation of commercial banks. The total number of outstanding Preference Shares shall be written down accordingly upon repurchase of Preference Shares.

Article 120 Holders of Preference Shares of the Bank shall be entitled to the following special rights:

- (I) rights to dividends in priority to ordinary shareholders;
- (II) rights to distribution of residual assets of the Bank upon liquidation in priority to ordinary shareholders;
- (III) rights to attend and vote at shareholders' general meetings upon occurrence of an event as prescribed in Article 121;
- (IV) upon occurrence of an event as prescribed in Article 122, to have its voting rights restored in accordance with the requirements set out in Article 122;
- (V) other rights conferred to preference shareholders by laws, administrative regulations, rules and the Articles.

Article 121 The Preference Shares do not entitle their holders to attend or vote at any shareholders' general meetings of the Bank, unless resolutions in relation to any of the following are considered:

- (I) amendments to the Articles in relation to Preference Shares;
- (II) reduction of the registered capital of the Bank by more than 10% (either separately or in aggregate);

- (III) merger, division, dissolution or change of business model of the Bank;
- (IV) issuance of Preference Shares;
- (V) other events specified in the Articles that will change or abrogate the rights of preference shareholders.

If resolutions in relation to any of the above are to be considered, a notice of shareholders' general meeting shall be given to holders of Preference Shares in accordance with the notification procedures applicable to ordinary shareholders as specified in the Articles. Holders of Preference Shares (including their proxies) are entitled to vote at a separate class meeting with respect to the above matters and their voting rights shall be determined in accordance with the regulatory rules and the agreed terms of issuance. No voting right is attached to Preference Shares held by the Bank.

Resolutions relating to the above shall be adopted by more than two thirds of votes held by ordinary shareholders present at the meeting (including holders of Preference Shares with voting rights restored), and by more than two thirds of votes held by holders of Preference Shares (excluding holders of Preference Shares with voting rights restored).

Article 122 If the Bank fails to pay the agreed dividends to Preference Shares for three financial years in aggregate, or for two consecutive financial years, holders of Preference Shares shall be entitled to attend, vote and jointly vote with ordinary shareholders in the shareholders' general meetings of the Bank, from the day following the day on which the shareholders' general meeting has resolved to not paying the agreed dividends to Preference Shares. The rights to attend and vote in shareholders' general meetings are restored to holders of Preference Shares whose dividends cannot accumulate until the Bank pays the agreed dividends in full.

When voting rights of holders of Preference Shares of the Bank are restored, each Preference Share shall have voting rights calculated in accordance with the conversion ratio determined at the issuance of such Preference Shares.

Article 123 Votes of ordinary shares and votes of Preference Shares with voting rights restored shall only be counted in calculating the proportion of shareholding and the number of shares held by shareholders when the resolutions to be passed are related to any of the following:

- (I) shareholders entitled to request to convene an extraordinary general meeting;
- (II) shareholders entitled to convene and preside over a shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) shareholders entitled to submit an interim proposal to a shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) "controlling shareholder(s)" as defined in the Company Law and the Articles;
- (V) top ten shareholders of the Bank and their shareholdings as defined in the Securities Law;
- (VI) shareholder(s) holding 5% or more of the shares of the Bank as defined in the Securities Law;

(VII) shareholders having the rights to nominate directors, independent directors, shareholder representatives on the supervisory board and external supervisors of the Bank;

(VIII) other matters specified by laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the Articles.

Other than the foregoing matters, ordinary shares and Preference Shares shall be counted separately when calculating the number of shareholders and the proportion of their shareholdings.

Article 124 Preference Shares rank in priority to ordinary shares as to dividends. Holders of Preference Shares are entitled to dividend in accordance with agreed coupon rates and terms of profit distribution. Dividend to holders of Preference Shares shall be payable in cash by the Bank. If the Bank fails to declare any agreed dividend, the Bank shall not make any distribution to ordinary shareholders under Article 282.

The Preference Shares of the Bank may be subject to a fixed or floating dividend rate. The specific level of the dividend rate or its calculation method shall be determined pursuant to relevant Preference Shares issuance plan in accordance with applicable laws.

The Bank is entitled to cancel all or part of the dividend payment of Preference Shares and such cancellation shall not constitute an event of default. The Bank may use the cancelled dividends to repay other maturing debts. In such event, the Bank shall notify investors at least 10 working days prior to the dividend payment date.

Unless otherwise provided for in their respective issuance terms, dividends payable to the Preference Shares of the Bank is non-cumulative (i.e. any amount of dividends not paid to holders of Preference Shares will not be carried forward to the following dividend year).

Upon receiving dividends at the agreed coupon rate, holders of Preference Shares of the Bank shall not participate jointly with ordinary shareholders in the distribution of the residual profits.

Article 125 In the event of liquidation of the Bank due to dissolution or bankruptcy, the remaining assets of the Bank following a settlement pursuant to the requirements of laws, regulations, rules and the Articles shall be first distributed to holders of Preference Shares for the payment of the sum of the total nominal value of, and the dividends declared but unpaid for that period of the Preference Shares then and subsisting. In the event that the remaining assets are not sufficient to satisfy such payments, they will be distributed in proportion to the respective shareholdings of the holders of Preference Shares.

CHAPTER 10 DIRECTORS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION 1 DIRECTORS

Article 126 A director of the Bank must be a natural person who is not required to hold any shares of the Bank.

Directors of the Bank shall comprise executive directors and non-executive directors, and non-executive directors shall comprise independent directors. The term “executive director” refers to the Directors who assume the responsibilities of senior management in addition to being a Director. The term “non-executive director” refers to the Directors who do not hold any office in the Bank other than that of a Director and who do not assume the responsibilities of senior management.

Non-executive directors shall coordinate between the shareholders and the Bank in compliance with the law, monitor the related-party transactions between shareholders and the Bank and support the Bank to formulate the capital replenishment plan.

Article 127 Directors shall be elected by the shareholders’ general meeting. The term of a director shall be three years, effective from the date of approval of the National Administration of Financial Regulation. A director may serve consecutive terms if he/she is re-elected when his/her term expires. Any re-election shall become effective from the date of approval of the shareholders’ general meeting.

Article 128 Directors shall be entitled to obtain information related to various business conditions and financial status of the Bank in accordance with laws, and have the right to supervise the performance of duty by other directors and senior management personnel.

The Bank shall adopt measures to protect directors’ right of information, and ensure the authenticity and completeness of the information provided. The Bank shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Articles, inform all directors of all matters which need to be decided by the Board of Directors and provide relevant materials, adopt measures to protect the rights of the directors to attend board meeting and provide working conditions necessary for the directors to perform their duties. When directors are exercising their duties and powers, relevant personnel of the Bank shall cooperate positively and should not reject, hinder or hide any matter, or interfere with the directors in their exercising of such duties and powers.

Article 129 Directors of the Bank shall have the expertise and working experience in performing their duties and shall meet the relevant appointment conditions as required by the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

Directors of the Bank shall participate in the training according to the requirement to understand the rights and duties of a director and familiarize with the relevant knowledge relating to laws and regulations.

Article 130 Unless otherwise required by the Articles, the methods and general procedures to nominate and elect directors are as follows:

- (I) the candidates for directors may be nominated by the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors according to the number of directors to be elected to the extent of the number specified by the Articles; shareholders individually or jointly holding no less than three percent of the total voting shares issued by the Bank may nominate the candidates for directors to the Board of Directors. In principle, the number of directors nominated by the same shareholder or its related parties shall not exceed one-third of the total number of members of the Board of Directors, unless otherwise provided by the government of the PRC;

- (II) the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors shall make a preliminary examination on qualifications and conditions of candidates for directors. The names of qualified candidates are then submitted to the Board of Directors for consideration. Candidates for directors shall be presented to the shareholders' general meeting for election in a written proposal upon approval by the Board of Directors;
- (III) before the announcement of the notice of shareholders' general meeting of the Bank, candidates for directors shall make written commitments stating their acceptance of the nomination, undertaking that the public disclosure of the information is true, accurate and complete, and promising to faithfully perform the duties of directors if elected;
- (IV) the intention to nominate a candidate as a director, the nominee's notice expressing his acceptance of such nomination and the relevant written document of the nominee shall be lodged to the Bank not less than seven days prior to the announcement of the notice of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (V) the Board of Directors shall disclose detailed information of the candidate for director before convening the shareholders' general meeting according to the law, regulations and the Articles of the Bank to ensure that shareholders have full understanding of the candidate;
- (VI) each candidate for director shall be elected individually at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) in the case of temporary addition or replacement of any director, the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors or the shareholders qualified to nominate a candidate shall propose the nomination to the Board of Directors for consideration and put forward to the shareholders' general meeting for the election or replacement.

Subject to compliance with the requirements of relevant laws and administrative regulations, any non-independent director whose term has not yet expired may be removed by the way of passing of an ordinary resolution at the shareholders' general meeting, and independent director whose term has not yet expired may be removed by the way of passing of a special resolution (without prejudice to claims that may be made under any contracts).

Article 131 A director shall not act on behalf of the Bank or the Board of Directors in his own name without complying with the provisions of the Articles or obtaining the lawful authorization of the Board of Directors. If a director acts in his own name and a third party reasonably considers that such director acts on behalf of the Bank or the Board of Directors, such director shall declare his position and identity in advance.

Article 132 If a director or other enterprises in which he/she holds a post directly or indirectly has connected relations with any existing or proposed agreement, transaction, arrangement of the Bank (except employment agreement), the nature and extent of such connected relations shall be disclosed to the Board of Directors as soon as possible irrespective of whether the relevant matter is required to be approved by the Board of Directors or not under normal circumstances.

Article 133 A director shall not serve as a director or senior management personnel concurrently for a financial institution which may have interest conflicts with the Bank.

Article 134 Directors shall contribute enough time to perform their duties. Directors in charge of the Audit Committee, Related Party Transaction Control Committee and Risk Control Committee shall work for the Bank for no less than twenty working days each year.

Directors shall attend personally at least two-thirds of the on-site board meetings each year. If a director fails to attend a board meeting in person on two occasions consecutively and fails to appoint another director to attend the board meeting, the director shall be deemed as a failure to discharge his/her duties. The Board of Directors shall put forward a proposal at the shareholders' general meeting to remove such director.

If a director attends less than two-thirds of the board meetings within a year, the Board of Supervisors of the Bank shall review his or her performance of duties and make a resolution and announcement on whether he or she has exercised due diligence.

Article 135 Directors shall attend the board meetings in a responsible manner and clearly express an independent, professional and objective clear opinion on the matters to be discussed in the board meeting. If a director is indeed unable to attend the board meeting in person, he/she may appoint other directors in writing to vote on his/her behalf according to the appointor's intention, however, an independent director may not appoint a non-independent director to attend on his/her behalf. The appointor shall assume legal responsibility independently. In principle, a director may accept a maximum of two proxies from directors who cannot present at the meeting in person. When considering a connected transaction, a non-connected director may not appoint a connected director to attend on his or her behalf.

A director who fails to attend the board meeting in person and fails to appoint another director to attend on his/her behalf shall assume the corresponding legal responsibility for the resolutions of the Board of Directors.

Article 136 A director who violates laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the Articles in performing his/her duties of the Bank and causes losses to the Bank shall bear compensatory responsibilities.

Article 137 If the number of the Board of Directors falls below the statutory minimum number stipulated in the Company Law or the minimum number as required by the Articles because re-election is not timely conducted upon expiry of the term of office of a director, or resignation of a director during his term of office, then such director shall continue to perform his/her duties in accordance with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles until a new director is elected and assumes his/her office.

A director may resign prior to the expiration of his/her term of office. If a director resigns, he/she shall submit a resignation report in writing to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall disclose the relevant situation within 2 days. Except in the aforesaid situation where the resignation of a director results in the number of the Board of Directors to fall below the quorum or the minimum number stipulated in the Articles, or in other situation as otherwise provided in the Articles, the resignation of a director shall become effective when it is served upon the Board of Directors. If the Bank is in the process of significant risk disposal, no director of the Bank may resign without the approval of the National Administration of Financial Regulation. If a person is appointed at the shareholders' general meeting to fill a casual vacancy of the Board of Directors or is appointed as an additional director, his/her term of office shall be lasted until the time of convening the shareholders' general meeting to select the next Board of Directors and such person has the qualification to be re-elected.

SECTION 2 INDEPENDENT DIRECTORS

- (X) persons who served as principal officers of high-risk financial institutions and that are unable to prove they are not liable for the cancellation or loss of assets of such financial institutions;
- (XI) close relatives of the persons stated in items (I) to (VI) above. The close relatives referred in the Articles shall refer to spouses, parents, children, grandparents and siblings;

- (XII) important social connections of persons who held positions in the Bank or in the enterprises whose shares are held by the Bank or actually controlled by the Bank within one year before assuming their office. The important social connections referred in the Articles shall refer to siblings, parents-in-law, daughters-in-law, sons-in-law, spouses of siblings and siblings of spouses and so on;
- (XIII) any other persons who is prohibited to act as independent directors as stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, the Articles and as prescribed by the relevant competent authorities such as the National Administration of Financial Regulation and CSRC as well as the securities regulatory authority of jurisdiction where shares of the Bank are listed and other regulatory authorities.

Article 142 Persons who work in government authorities shall not serve concurrently as the independent directors of the Bank and the independent directors shall not hold positions as independent directors in more than two commercial banks concurrently. If a director serves as an independent director in a banking or insurance institution concurrently, the institutions should not be related and there should be no conflict of interest.

Article 143 Methods of nomination and procedures of election for independent directors are as follows:

- (I) candidates for independent directors may be nominated by the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors of the Bank;
- (II) shareholders who individually or jointly hold no less than one percent of the issued voting shares of the Bank in aggregate and the Board of Supervisors shall nominate candidate who satisfy the requirements for independent directors;
- (III) the same shareholder may only nominate one candidate for independent director and shall not nominate candidates for both independent director and external supervisor. If the candidate for independent director nominated by the same shareholder has held the position of independent director, such shareholder shall not nominate candidate for independent director again during his/her term of office. Shareholders who have nominated non-independent directors and their related parties are prohibited from nominating additional independent directors;
- (IV) the consent of the nominee shall be obtained before the nominator nominates him/her as the candidate for the independent director. The nominator shall be fully aware of the details of the nominee such as occupation, educational background, professional title, detailed working experiences and all of the concurrent positions and shall provide the opinions on the nominee's qualifications and independence to act as an independent director. The nominator of the independent director shall submit to the Board of Directors the resume of the nominee and the statement related to the qualifications and independence of an independent director;
- (V) The qualification of the nominees of independent directors, including the independence, expertise, experience and capability, shall be reviewed by the Nomination Committee under the Board of Directors;

(VI) before convening of the shareholders' general meeting to elect independent director, the Board of Directors shall submit the candidate(s) by way of proposal to the shareholders' general meeting for election on the basis of equal number of candidate(s) and independent director(s);

(VII) The appointment of independent directors shall mainly follow the market principle.

Article 144 Independent directors are appointed for the same term as that of the other directors of the Bank and may offer themselves for re-election, while their term of office shall not exceed six years in aggregate.

Article 145 Independent directors shall work for the Bank for at least fifteen working days each year.

Article 146 Independent directors shall give statements to the Board of Directors or the Board of Supervisors before they assume their offices, ensuring that they have enough time and energy to perform their duties and undertaking that they will perform duties of diligence.

The opinions of independent directors on the decision of the Bank shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting of the Board of Directors. Where any resolution adopted by the Board of Directors is in violation of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles, resulting in serious losses of the Bank, independent directors who did not raise an objection to the resolution shall be liable to compensation according to the law.

Article 147 In addition to the duties and powers of directors vested by the Company Law and other laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, independent directors shall have the following duties and powers:

- (I) appoint external auditing and consulting institutions independently to audit and consult with the Bank on specific matters;
- (II) approve the related party transactions that the Bank intends to enter into with related parties in an aggregate amount greater than RMB3 million or greater than 5% of the Bank's most recent audited net asset value before being examined by the Related Party Transaction Control Committee and being submitted to the Board of Directors for discussion; and engage an intermediary institution to issue an independent financial report as the basis for judgment before independent directors make judgment;
- (III) to publicly solicit voting rights from shareholders prior to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) other duties and powers as stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

The exercise of the powers and functions set forth in paragraph (I) of the preceding paragraph by the independent directors shall be subject to the consent of all independent directors; the exercise of the powers and functions set forth in paragraph (II), (III) of the preceding paragraph, as well as the proposal to the Board of Directors to engage or dismiss an accounting firm, and the proposal to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting shall be subject to the consent of at least one-half of all independent directors.

If an independent director proposes to the Board of Directors to engage or dismiss an accounting firm and to exercise the powers and functions set forth in item (II) of paragraph I of this Article, the proposal shall be approved by at least one-half of the independent directors before it is submitted to the Board of Directors for discussion.

If the proposals listed in paragraph I of this Article are not adopted or the aforesaid powers and functions cannot be exercised properly, the Bank shall disclose the relevant circumstances.

Article 148 Independent directors shall give independent opinions on the following matters to the Board of Directors or at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) nomination, appointment and dismissal of directors;
- (II) appointment and dismissal of senior management personnel;
- (III) remunerations of directors and senior management personnel of the Bank;
- (IV) formulation of profit distribution policy, profit distribution plan and cash dividend plan;
- (V) matters which may cause material losses to the Bank;
- (VI) significant related party transactions and material matters requiring disclosure such as the provision of guarantees (excluding guarantees provided to subsidiaries within the scope of the consolidated financial statements), entrustment of financial management, provision of financial assistance, use of proceeds, investment in stocks and their derivatives;
- (VII) the impact of issuance of Preference Shares on the interest of holders of each class of shares of the Bank;
- (VIII) engagement or removal of external auditors;
- (IX) changes in accounting policies, accounting estimates or corrections of significant accounting errors for reasons other than changes in accounting standards;
- (X) non-standard unqualified audit opinions on the Bank's financial and accounting reports and internal controls issued by an accounting firm;
- (XI) an evaluation report on internal control;
- (XII) changes in commitments by related parties;
- (XIII) major asset reorganization plan, management buyout, share incentive plan, employee stock ownership plan, share repurchase plan, and the proposal to offset debts with capital made by the Bank's related party;

(XIV) the Bank's intention to decide that its shares will no longer be traded on the Shanghai Stock Exchange;

(XV) change of use of proceeds;

(XVI) use of excess funds for permanent replenishment of liquidity and repayment of bank loans;

(XVII) the formulation of the proposal for the capitalization of the capital reserve;

(XVIII) other matters that may have a significant impact on the legitimate interests of the Bank, small and medium-sized shareholders and financial consumers;

(XIX) other matters stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

Independent directors shall express one of the following opinions on the above matters: consent; qualified opinions and reason; objection and reasons; unable to express opinions and the impediments.

Article 149 To ensure the effective performance of the duties and powers by independent directors, the Bank shall provide the following necessary conditions for independent directors:

(I) The Bank shall ensure that independent directors have the same right to information as other directors;

(II) The Bank shall provide the working conditions necessary for independent directors to perform their duties;

(III) When the independent directors are exercising their duties and powers, the relevant personnel of the Bank shall cooperate positively and shall not refuse to act, hinder or conceal anything and shall not interfere with the independent exercise of their powers and duties;

(IV) The reasonable expenses incurred from engaging intermediary institutions and the reasonable expenses required for exercising the duties and powers by independent directors shall be borne by the Bank.

Article 150 An independent director may resign prior to the expiry of his/her service term. Such independent director shall continue to perform his/her duties until the resignation is approved by the Board of Directors.

When an independent director resigns, he/she shall submit a written resignation to the Board of Directors, and submit a written statement to the most recently held shareholders' general meeting to specify any circumstance related to the resignation or any fact that he/she believes necessary to draw the attention of the Bank's shareholders and creditors.

If the resignation of any independent director causes the number of independent directors to fall below the minimum quorum or in the absence of an accounting professional in the independent directors, the resignation of such independent director shall only become effective when his/her successor has been elected to fill his/her vacancy, except in the case of resignation and removal for loss of independence.

Article 151 Independent directors shall be deemed as conducting a serious dereliction of duty in one of the following circumstances:

- (I) leaking trade secret of the Bank and impairing the lawful interests of the Bank.
- (II) accepting illicit interests during the performance of their duties, or seeking private interests by taking advantage of the independent director status;
- (III) failing to raise an objection despite being fully aware that the resolution of the Board of Directors violates laws, regulations, rules or the Articles;
- (IV) failing to exercise the veto power to the related party transaction which has caused significant loss to the Bank;
- (V) other serious dereliction deemed by the relevant competent authorities such as the National Administration of Financial Regulation and CSRC.

If an independent director has been disqualified by the National Administration of Financial Regulation due to serious dereliction of duty, he/she shall be dismissed from his/her position from the date he/she is disqualified.

Article 152 The Board of Supervisors has the right to propose to the shareholders' general meeting within three months to dismiss the independent director and elect a new independent director in one of the following circumstances:

- (I) serious dereliction of duty;
- (II) failing to resign from his/her position when he/she is no longer qualified to hold the position of independent director;
- (III) failing to attend board meetings in person for three consecutive times, or fail to attend the meeting in person for two consecutive times or appoint other independent director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf, or attending in person less than two-thirds of on-site board meetings held within one year;
- (IV) other circumstances stipulated by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles where an independent director are no longer suitable for holding such a position.

The proposal submitted by the Board of Supervisors in respect of the dismissal of an independent director shall only be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after such proposal has been adopted by more than two-thirds of all the supervisors. Before the Board of Supervisors submits the dismissal proposal, the independent director may explain relevant circumstance to the Board of Supervisors, and make presentation and defend himself/herself.

Except the above circumstances and the circumstances under which laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles prohibit a person from acting as director, an independent director shall not be removed from office without any reason before his/her term of office expires. If an independent director is removed from office before his/her term of office expires, the Bank shall disclose the same as a special disclosure matter. If the independent director being removed from office considers that the reasons for his/her removal are inappropriate, he/she may make a public statement.

Article 153 If the Board of Supervisors proposes to the shareholders' general meeting to dismiss an independent director, it shall issue a written notice to the independent director within one month prior to the shareholders' general meeting. Such independent director shall have the right to express his/her opinion orally or in writing before voting, and shall have the right to submit such opinion to the National Administration of Financial Regulation five days prior to the shareholders' general meeting. The shareholders' general meeting shall vote after reviewing the opinion expressed by the independent director.

Article 154 The Bank shall pay compensation and allowance to independent directors. Payment standard shall be formulated by the Board of Directors, and discussed and approved at the shareholders' general meeting. Except the above compensation and allowance, independent directors shall not obtain other additional benefits from the Bank and substantial shareholders or authorities and personnel who have interests in the Bank.

SECTION 3 THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 155 The Bank has established the Board of Directors. Each term of the Board of Directors is three years. The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 156 The number of the members of the Board of Directors shall be no less than 11 and no more than 19. Independent directors shall account for no less than one-third of the directors. The Board of Directors has one chairman and one vice chairman. The chairman and the vice chairman shall be elected and removed by more than half of all the directors.

The president and other members of senior management may act as directors. However, the directors who act as the chairman or other members of senior management and the directors who are staff representatives shall not in aggregate account for more than one-third of all the directors.

The roles of the chairman and the president of the Bank shall be segregated.

Article 157 The Board of Directors shall exercise the following duties and powers:

- (I) to convene the shareholders' general meetings and report on its work to the shareholders' general meetings;

- (II) to implement the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meetings;
- (III) to determine the Bank's business plans and investment proposals;
- (IV) to formulate the Bank's proposals on annual financial budgets, financial statements and risk-based capital allocation and to decide on major changes in and adjustments to their implementation;
- (V) to formulate the Bank's profit distribution proposals and loss make-up proposals;
- (VI) to formulate proposals on the increase or reduction of the Bank's registered capital, the issue of bonds or other securities and the listing;
- (VII) to draw up plans for material acquisitions and repurchases of ordinary shares by the Bank;
- (VIII) to formulate proposals for the merger, division or dissolution or change of form of the Bank;
- (IX) to formulate the related party transaction management system, to consider and approve the major related party transactions other than those required to be approved by the shareholders' general meetings in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, department rules and the rules of the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed, and to report to the shareholders' general meetings on the implementation of the related party transaction management system and the related party transactions;
- (X) to formulate the Bank's operation and development strategies and capital plans, supervise the implementation of strategies and assume ultimate responsibility for capital management;
- (XI) in accordance with laws and regulations, regulatory requirements and the Articles, to consider and approve matters within the scope authorized by the shareholders' general meeting, such as investment, asset acquisitions, asset disposals and write-offs, asset pledge, guarantees, data governance, entrusted finance, related party transactions, external donations, etc.;
- (XII) to decide on the establishment of the Bank's internal management departments and the Bank-wide operation and management system reform plans;
- (XIII) to appoint or remove the Bank's president and secretary of the Board of Directors; and to appoint or remove the Bank's senior management personnel, including vice president, the person in charge of finance and president assistant, and other persons required, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, to be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors according to the recommendations of the president, and to determine their remunerations, rewards and punishments;
- (XIV) to decide on the Bank's basic management systems, which principally relate to human resources, financial matters and remuneration, and its policies on risk tolerance, risk management and internal control, and to assume ultimate responsibility for comprehensive risk management;

- (XV) to formulate the amendment plans for the Articles, to formulate the rules of procedure of the shareholders' general meeting and the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors, and to consider and approve the working rules of the special committees of the Board of Directors;
- (XVI) to establish the Bank's information disclosure system, to manage the information disclosure matters of the Bank, and to assume ultimate responsibility for the truthfulness, accuracy, completeness and timeliness of the Bank's accounting and financial reports;
- (XVII) to monitor the performance of duties by senior management personnel and ensure their effective performance of duties;
- (XVIII) to hear the president's work report and inspect the president's work;
- (XIX) to propose at the shareholders' general meeting to engage or remove the accounting firm which undertakes auditing work for the Bank;
- (XX) to assess and improve the Bank's corporate governance on a regular basis;
- (XXI) to protect the lawful interests of financial consumers and other stakeholders;
- (XXII) to establish mechanisms of identifying, reviewing and managing conflicts of interest between the Bank and shareholders, especially major shareholders;
- (XXIII) to assume management responsibility for the shareholders affairs;
- (XXIV) to determine matters in relation to the issued Preference Shares of the Bank, including but not limited to the repurchase, conversion or distribution of dividends of such Preference Shares, to the extent as authorized by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (XXV) to exercise other duties and powers conferred by laws, regulations, department rules, regulatory documents, the Articles and the shareholders' general meeting.

In principle, the aforesaid matters within the terms of reference of the Board of Directors shall be considered and determined by the Board of Directors, but in necessary, reasonable and legal cases, the Board of Directors may authorize the chairman and the president to exercise part of the powers. Where delegation is necessary for certain specific decision-making matters, it shall be done by means of resolution of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall only delegate its power once for a single specific matter, and shall not grant power generally or permanently to any other institutions or individuals. Material issues of the Bank shall be decided collectively by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall not delegate the functions and powers legally exercised by the Board of Directors to the chairman and the president.

Article 158 In the case of disposal of any fixed assets by the Board of Directors, if the aggregate of the expected value of the fixed assets proposed to be disposed of and the value of the fixed assets which had been disposed of within four months immediately preceding such proposal for disposal exceeds thirty-three percent of the fixed assets value shown in the most recent balance sheet reviewed by the shareholders' general meeting, the Board of Directors shall not dispose or approve the disposal of such fixed assets without the approval of the shareholders' general meeting.

Disposal of fixed assets referred to in this Article includes the transfer of interests of certain assets, but excludes the provision of fixed assets as pledges to any guarantees.

The validity of transactions conducted by the Bank in relation to the disposal of fixed assets shall not be affected notwithstanding any violation of the requirements set out in the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 159 The chairman shall exercise the following duties and powers:

- (I) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over board meetings;
- (II) to supervise and review the implementation of the resolutions of the board meetings;
- (III) to sign the bonds and other marketable securities issued by the Bank;
- (IV) to sign important documents of the Board of Directors and the documents required to be signed by the legal representative of the Bank;
- (V) to exercise the duties and powers of the legal representative;
- (VI) in the event of an occurrence of any severe natural disaster or any other force majeure event, to exercise his special power of disposition in relation to the affairs of the Bank in compliance with the legal provisions and in the interests of Bank and, subsequently report such disposition to the Board of Directors and shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) to exercise other duties and powers conferred by laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, the Articles and the Board of Directors.

Article 160 The vice chairman shall assist the chairman in performing duties. In the event that the chairman fails to or is unable to perform his duties, his duties shall be performed by the vice chairman on his behalf, failing which, a director shall be elected by more than half of all the directors to perform his duties.

Article 161 The Board of Directors of the Bank shall make a statement at the shareholders' general meeting as to the qualified audit reports issued by certified public accountants in respect of the Bank's financial reports.

Article 162 The Board of Directors shall establish strict examination and approval procedures by setting the scope of authority for conducting investment, purchase and sale of assets, asset pledge, guarantee, related party transactions and external donations. Material investment projects shall be examined by experts and other professionals as arranged by the Board of Directors, and shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval if required under the Articles.

Article 163 The Board of Directors shall hold at least four regular meetings per year, and the board meetings shall be convened by the chairman. Notice of board meeting shall be sent to all directors and supervisors in writing at least fourteen days before the date of the meeting.

Article 164 An extraordinary board meeting shall be convened and presided over by the chairman within ten days, if:

- (I) it is proposed by the shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than ten percent of the voting shares of the Bank;
- (II) it is jointly proposed by more than one-third of directors;
- (III) it is proposed by two or more independent directors;
- (IV) it is proposed by the Board of Supervisors;
- (V) it is deemed necessary by the chairman;
- (VI) other circumstances stipulated by laws, regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

Notice of extraordinary board meeting shall be given in writing to all directors no later than seven days before the date of the meeting.

Article 165 If more than two independent directors consider the information insufficient or the proof indefinite, they may jointly propose in writing to the Board of Directors for the delay of the board meeting or of the consideration of the matters, and the Board of Directors shall approve such proposal.

Article 166 Directors shall exercise their duties and powers in the form of board meetings. A board meeting shall be held only if it has a quorum of more than half of the directors. Resolutions passed at the board meeting must be approved by more than half of the directors.

The voting of a board resolution at a board meeting shall be held by show of hands, poll, or other methods permitted by laws, regulations, department rules and regulatory documents. Each attending director has one vote in the voting of board resolutions.

Article 167 The resolutions of the Board of Directors shall be classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution shall be passed by more than half of all the directors.

A special resolution shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all the directors. In particular, material related party transactions shall be approved by more than two-thirds of non-related directors. The following matters shall be passed through a special resolution:

- (I) profit distribution plans;

- (II) remuneration plan;
- (III) investment plans such as material equity investments;
- (IV) material asset acquisitions (disposals or writing off);
- (V) appointment or removal of senior management personnel;
- (VI) annual risk tolerance;
- (VII) donations;
- (VIII) plans in relation to the replenishment of the Bank's registered capital and the issue of securities;
- (IX) plans in relation to the Bank's merger, division or liquidation;
- (X) amendments to the Bank's articles of association;
- (XI) annual operational plans and financial budgets;
- (XII) matters related to substantial changes in shareholding;
- (XIII) matters related to financial restructuring;
- (XIV) proposal on material acquisition and repurchase of the Bank's ordinary shares;
- (XV) determining matters in relation to the issued Preference Shares of the Bank, including but not limited to the repurchase, conversion or distribution of dividends of such Preference Shares, to the extent as authorized by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (XVI) other matters that in the opinion of more than half of all the directors are material to the Bank and that are required to be passed through voting by more than two-thirds of all the directors.

Article 168 The following matters shall not be considered by the Board of Directors at a meeting convened through circulation of written proposal:

- (I) profit distribution plans;
- (II) remuneration plan;
- (III) material investment plans;
- (IV) material asset disposal plans;
- (V) appointment or removal of senior management personnel;

- (VI) risk-based capital allocation plans;
- (VII) financial budgets, financial statements and plans for loss make-up;
- (VIII) plans in relation to the capital replenishment and the issue of securities;
- (IX) plans in relation to material acquisition or repurchase of the Bank's ordinary shares or the Bank's merger, sub-division or liquidation;
- (X) matters related to substantial changes in shareholding;
- (XI) matters related to financial restructuring;
- (XII) determining matters in relation to the issued Preference Shares of the Bank, including but not limited to the repurchase, conversion or distribution of dividends of such Preference Shares, to the extent as authorized by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (XIII) other material matters that in the opinion of the Board of Directors are inappropriate to be voted at a meeting convened through circulation of written proposal.

Article 169 A board meeting may be held through on-the-spot meeting or circulation of written proposal. Regular board meetings shall be held through on-the-spot meeting, which shall be presided over by the chairman of the meeting. Extraordinary board meetings shall be held through on-the-spot meeting, if possible, and may be held through other methods, at which resolutions may be passed, subject to the full and adequate expression of opinions by the directors.

On-the-spot meeting refers to a meeting held by means of on-site, video, telephone, etc., which ensures immediate communication and discussion among participants.

Circulation of written proposal refers to the meeting method in which resolution is made by separately serving it for consideration or circulating it for consideration.

Article 170 If any director or any of his associates (as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules) has material interests in the matters proposed to the Board of Directors, such director shall abstain from voting in relation to such matters at the board meeting. Such director shall not exercise his voting rights nor shall he vote on behalf of any other directors in relation to such matter, and he shall not be counted in the quorum of the meeting, unless otherwise provided by laws, regulations, department rules, regulatory documents, and the rules of the securities regulatory authorities of the jurisdiction where the shares of the Bank are listed.

Resolution approving such matters shall be passed by more than half of the directors other than those having material interests in the matters at the board meeting.

In the event that the number of the directors who have no material interests in the matters is less than three, the Board of Directors shall propose the relevant resolution to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration. The Board of Directors shall explain its consideration of such resolution when it proposes such resolution to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, and shall keep records of the opinions of the directors without material interests in the matters.

Article 171 Directors shall attend the board meeting in person. If a director is unable to attend the meeting, he may appoint another director in writing to attend on his behalf.

The proxy form shall state the name of the proxy, the relevant matters, scope of authorization and the validity period, and shall be signed or sealed by the appointor.

The director acting as proxy shall exercise his appointor's rights within the scope of authorization. If a director does not attend the board meeting and fails to appoint a proxy to attend the meeting, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights at such meeting.

Article 172 The directors shall sign and take responsibility for the resolutions of the Board of Directors. Where a resolution of the Board of Directors is in violation of laws, administrative regulations, resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting or the Articles, thereby causing serious losses to the Bank, the directors who took part in the resolution shall be liable to the Bank for damages. However, where a director can prove that he had expressed his opposition to such resolution when it was put to the vote, and that such opposition was recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be relieved from such liability.

Article 173 The Bank shall record the on-site meetings of the Board of Directors by means of audio and video recording. The Board of Directors shall keep minutes of its on-site meetings. The directors attending a meeting shall have the right to request that their opinions expressed at the meeting be kept in the minutes. The directors attending the meeting, secretary of the Board of Directors and the person taking minutes shall sign the minutes of the meeting. If a director has different opinions on the minutes, he/she may sign them with a note to that effect. The Bank shall report the minutes, resolutions of the board meetings to the National Administration of Financial Regulation in a timely manner.

The minutes of the board meeting shall be kept as record permanently.

Article 174 The minutes of the board meeting shall include the following:

- (I) the date and place of the meeting and the name of the convener;
- (II) the names of the directors attending the meeting and the names of the directors (proxies) appointed by other directors to attend the board meeting;
- (III) the agenda of the meeting;
- (IV) the main points of the speeches of the directors;
- (V) the methods and results of the voting for each proposal (the voting results shall state the numbers of the votes of for, against or abstention).

Article 175 If a resolution of the Board of Directors of the Bank is in violation of laws and administrative regulations, it shall be invalid.

If the convening procedure or voting method violates any law, administrative regulation or the Articles, or if a resolution is in violation of the Articles, the shareholders shall have the right to petition the people's court to revoke such resolution within sixty days from the date on which the resolution is passed.

If a shareholder brings a lawsuit in accordance with the foregoing provision, the Bank may petition the people's court to require such shareholder to provide corresponding guarantee.

If a resolution of the Board of Directors pursuant to which the Bank has completed registration changes is declared invalid or revoked by a court, the Bank shall apply to the company registration authority for the revocation of registration changes.

Article 176 The Board of Directors shall establish the office of the Board of Directors, which shall handle the preparation for shareholders' general meetings, board meetings and meetings of the special committees under the Board of Directors, information disclosure, and other daily matters delegated by the Board of Directors and the special committees under the Board of Directors.

Article 177 The Board of Directors shall formulate the rules of procedure of the Board of Directors, including the meeting notice, way of convening the meeting, documents preparation, way of voting, proposal submission mechanism, meeting minutes and endorsement, and authorization rules of the Board of Directors, in order to improve work efficiency and ensure reasonable decision-making, and such rules shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for discussion and approval. The rules of procedure of the Board of Directors is an appendix to the Articles.

SECTION 4 SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 178 The Board of Directors shall appoint a secretary of the Board of Directors, who shall be nominated by the chairman and appointed or removed by the Board of Directors. The qualifications of the secretary of the Board of Directors shall pass the examination of the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

The secretary of the Board of Directors is a member of senior management of the Bank, who shall be accountable to and report to the Board of Directors. The term of office of the secretary of the Board of Directors is three years, and may be renewed upon expiration.

Article 179 The secretary of the Board of Directors shall have necessary expertise and experience.

Provisions of the Articles in relation to the qualifications of directors shall apply to the secretary of the Board of Directors.

Article 180 The main duties of the secretary of the Board of Directors are:

- (I) preparing and submitting the reports and documents issued by the Board of Directors and shareholders' general meetings to the relevant government authorities;

- (II) preparing for board meetings and shareholders' general meetings, and taking and keeping the minutes of the meetings and the documents for the meetings;
- (III) handling the information disclosure matters of the Bank, monitoring the formulation and implementation of the Bank's information disclosure management system and material information internal reporting system, causing the Bank and relevant parties to implement the information disclosure system in accordance with law, handling the disclosure of regular reports and interim reports with stock exchanges in accordance with the relevant rules, and ensuring the timely, accurate, lawful, true and complete information disclosure by the Bank;
- (IV) maintaining confidentiality in respect of the Bank's information disclosure, formulating confidentiality measures, causing the directors, the supervisors, senior management personnel and relevant persons with knowledge to keep in confidence such information before disclosure, and taking immediate remedies and reporting to stock exchanges upon the leak of insider information;
- (V) maintaining the communication between the Bank and relevant parties and stock exchanges and other securities regulatory authorities;
- (VI) coordinating the relationship between the Bank and investors, receiving investor visits, answering investor enquiries, and providing investors with disclosed information of the Bank;
- (VII) maintaining the shareholder register, the register of directors, supervisors and senior management personnel and the information regarding the shareholding of directors, supervisors and senior management personnel in the Bank;
- (VIII) ensuring that the persons who are entitled to access to relevant documents and records of the Bank obtain such documents and records in a timely way;
- (IX) ensuring that the Bank has completed organizational documents and records;
- (X) other matters as required by laws, regulations, department rules, regulatory documents and the Articles as well as those authorized by the Board of Directors.

Article 181 Directors or senior management personnel of the Bank may serve as the secretary of the Board of Directors of the Bank. A certified public accountant of any accounting firms or a lawyer of any law firms that are engaged by the Bank may not act as the secretary of the Board of Directors.

Article 182 In the case of a director who serves as the secretary of the Board of Directors concurrently, when an act is required to be done separately by a director and the secretary of the Board of Directors, he may not conduct such act in both capacities.

SECTION 5 SPECIAL COMMITTEES UNDER THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 183 The Board of Directors of the Bank has established special committees, being the Strategy Committee, the Audit Committee, the Risk Management Committee, the Related Party Transaction Control Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Remuneration Committee, the Inclusive Finance Development and Consumer Rights and Interests Protection Committee. The Board of Directors of the Bank may establish additional special committees when necessary, or make adjustments to the existing special committees (primarily including discontinuance and consolidation, subdivision, change in name and responsibilities and obligations adjustment, etc).

All special committees shall be comprised of directors, and each committee shall have at least three members. The majority of the Audit Committee, Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee shall be independent directors, while, in principle, the proportion of independent directors in the Risk Management Committee and Related Party Transaction Control Committee shall not be lower than one-third. Members of each special committee shall be directors with expertise and working experience commensurate with the duties of relevant special committees. Members of the Audit Committee shall have expertise and working experience in relation to finance, audit, accounting or law.

Each special committee shall have one chairman and, based on the need, may have one vice chairman. In principle, the chairman of each special committee shall not be the chairman of other special committees. The Audit Committee, Nomination Committee, Remuneration Committee and Related Party Transaction Control Committee shall be chaired by an independent director. The chairman of the Risk Management Committee shall have experience in the assessment and management of various risks.

Article 184 The main duties of the Strategy Committee are: to formulate the business and management objectives and long-term development strategy, and supervise and examine the implementation of annual business plans and investment plans.

Article 185 The main duties of the Audit Committee are: to review the risk and compliance status, accounting policies, financial reporting process and financial positions of the Bank; to be responsible for the Bank's annual audit work, propose the appointment and change of external auditors, prepare judgment reports on the truthfulness, accuracy, completeness and timeliness of audited financial reports and submit the reports to the Board of Directors for consideration.

Article 186 The main duties of the Risk Management Committee are: to supervise the risk control conducted by the senior management in respect of credit, liquidity, market, operational, compliance and reputation risks, assess regularly the risk policies, management condition and risk tolerance of the Bank, and advise on the improvement of the risk management and internal control of the Bank.

Article 187 The main duties of the Related Party Transactions Control Committee are: to be responsible for the management, examination and approval of related party transactions, and control risks of related party transactions.

Article 188 The main duties of the Nomination Committee are: to draw up the election procedure and standard for directors and senior management personnel, conduct the initial examination of the qualifications and conditions of directors and senior management personnel and propose to the Board of Directors.

Article 189 The main duties of the Remuneration Committee are: to review the remuneration management system and policies of the Bank, propose plans on the remuneration of the directors and senior management personnel, make suggestions regarding remuneration plan to the Board of Directors and supervise the implementation.

Article 190 The main responsibilities of the Inclusive Finance Development and Consumer Rights and Interests Protection Committee include: formulating a development strategic plan and general management system for the inclusive finance business, formulating plans and proposals and general management systems for protection of consumer rights and interests; and supervising the implementation of the Bank's inclusive finance development and consumer rights and interests protection work.

Article 191 Each of the special committees shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and provide professional advice for the Board of Directors or make decisions on professional matters as authorized by the Board of Directors, and their proposals shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for review.

Article 192 Each of the relevant special committees shall communicate with the senior management and departments regarding the operation and risk profile of the Bank by giving advice and suggestions.

Article 193 The rules of procedure of each of the special committees under the Board of Directors shall be separately formulated by the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER 11 SENIOR MANAGEMENT PERSONNEL AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT

Article 194 The Bank shall appoint one president, certain number of executive vice president and assistants to president. Executive vice presidents and assistants to president shall assist the president. The Bank's president, executive vice presidents, person in charge of finance, assistants to president, Chief Audit Officer or person in charge of audit shall be appointed or removed by the Board of Directors. The qualifications of the Bank's president, executive vice presidents, person in charge of finance, assistants to president, Chief Audit Officer or person in charge of audit shall pass the assessment of the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

The senior management comprises the Bank's president, executive vice president, assistants to president, person in charge of finance and other senior management personnel identified by regulatory authorities.

The senior management shall carry out operation and management in accordance with the Articles and the authorization of the Board of Directors, to ensure that the operation of the Bank is in line with the development strategies, risk profile and other policies formulated by the Board of Directors. The senior management shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and supervised by the Board of Supervisors.

Article 195 The term of office of the president shall be three years and may be re-appointed.

Article 196 The president shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and shall perform the following functions and powers:

- (I) taking charge of the operation management of the Bank, implementing the board resolutions and reporting the work to the Board of Directors;
- (II) submitting operation plans and investment proposals to the Board of Directors and implementing the same upon approval from the Board of Directors;

- (III) drafting proposals on establishing the Bank's internal management organs;
- (IV) drafting the basic management system of the Bank;
- (V) formulating specific regulations of the Bank;
- (VI) proposing to the Board of Directors for the appointment or removal of executive vice presidents, person in charge of finance and president assistants and other senior management personnel recognized by the National Administration of Financial Regulation.
- (VII) appointment or removal of management personnel other than those who shall be engaged or removed by the Board of Directors;
- (VIII) adopting emergency measures in the best interests of the Bank on occurrence of significant events and other emergency conditions and promptly report them to the National Administration of Financial Regulation, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (IX) other functions and powers conferred by the Articles or the Board of Directors.

The president shall attend board meetings.

Article 197 The president shall formulate detailed work rules of president and submit the same to the Board of Directors for approval before implementation.

Article 198 The president and other senior management personnels may resign before the expiration of his/her term of office but need to complete the relevant examination procedures for resignation. The specified procedures and measures of the aforesaid personnels' resignation shall be prescribed by the service contract between them and the Bank.

Article 199 The senior management personnel shall comply with the fiduciary principles to perform their duties prudently and diligently, and shall not take advantage of business opportunities of the Bank for the benefit of themselves or others and shall not accept benefits of the transactions related to the Bank and work part-time in other economic organizations.

The president and the executive vice-president shall neither change the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting and the Board of Directors, nor exceed their scope of authorization in exercising the authority of office.

Article 200 The senior management personnel shall, upon request of the Board of Directors, report to the Board of Directors on the operating results, important agreements, financial conditions, risk conditions and operating prospects of the Bank promptly, accurately and completely.

The senior management shall establish a system for information reporting to the Board of Directors, its special committees and the Board of Supervisors and clarify the types, content, time and forms of information for reporting to ensure that directors and supervisors can obtain accurate information in a timely manner.

Article 201 The senior management personnel shall accept the supervision of the Board of Supervisors and regularly provide the operating results, important agreements, financial conditions, risk conditions and operating prospects of the Bank for the Board of Supervisors, and shall neither obstruct nor hinder the Board of Supervisors from conducting inspection and supervision according to its authority of office.

Article 202 The senior management shall set up and optimize various meeting systems and draw up the rules of procedure which shall be reported to the Board of Directors for approval before being implemented. The senior management personnel shall prepare the minutes for the meeting convened and the minutes shall be reported to the Board of Supervisors.

Article 203 The operation and management activities of the senior management personnel within their terms of reference shall not be interfered by the shareholders and the Board of Directors improperly.

The Board of Directors shall discuss and make decision promptly for the matters submitted by the senior management personnel for approval.

Article 204 The senior management personnel shall faithfully perform duties to safeguard the best interests of the Bank and all shareholders. The senior management personnel shall bear the legal responsibilities for compensation in case of failing to faithfully perform duties, violating the duty of good faith or violating the stipulations of laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the Articles in the course of performing the functions of office of the Bank, which has caused losses to the interests of the Bank and the public shareholders.

CHAPTER 12 SUPERVISORS AND BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

SECTION 1 SUPERVISORS

Article 205 The members of the Board of Supervisors of the Bank are natural persons, and consist of the shareholder supervisors, the external supervisors and the staff supervisors. Not less than one-third of the supervisors shall be taken up by the staff supervisors and by the external supervisors of the Bank.

Article 206 The directors, the president and other senior management personnel shall not be the supervisors simultaneously.

Article 207 The general procedures for nominating and electing a shareholder supervisor are as follow:

- (I) Shareholder supervisors may be nominated by the Board of Supervisors or shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the total number of the Bank’s voting shares according to the number of supervisors to be elected to the extent of the number specified by the Articles, and shall be elected at the shareholders’ general meeting;
- (II) The Nomination Committee of the Board of Supervisors shall conduct preliminary verification on the qualification and conditions of appointment of the candidates for shareholder supervisors, and propose the qualified candidates to the Board of Supervisors for consideration. The Board of Supervisors shall propose the candidates for shareholder supervisors to the shareholders’ general meeting by way of written proposal after they are considered and approved by the Board of Supervisors;

- (III) The candidates for shareholder supervisors shall, before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, make written undertakings, expressing their consent to their nomination, confirming the truthfulness and completeness of the publicly disclosed information and undertaking that they will duly perform their duties upon being elected;
- (IV) The Board of Supervisors shall, before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, disclose the detailed information on the candidates for shareholder supervisors to the shareholders of the Bank in accordance with law and regulations and the Articles, so as to ensure that the shareholders will have sufficient knowledge on the candidates when casting their votes;
- (V) Each candidate for shareholder supervisor shall be voted for on a separate basis at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) When an additional shareholder supervisor is temporarily nominated, the Board of Supervisors or the shareholders satisfying the conditions for making such nomination shall propose a candidate to the Board of Supervisors for consideration. The shareholders' general meeting elects or replaces the supervisor.

Article 208 Staff supervisors in the Board of Supervisors shall be nominated by the Board of Supervisors, the labor union of the Bank, and elected, removed and replaced by the Bank's staff at the staff representatives' general meeting, the staff's general meeting or through other means of democratic election.

Article 209 The term of office of supervisors is three years. Upon expiry of the term, the supervisors may be re-elected and re-appointed.

In the event that the re-election of a supervisor fails to take place on a timely basis upon expiry of the term of office or a supervisor resigns during his term of office which results in the number of members of the Supervisory Committee falling below the quorum, or the resignation of external supervisors results in the number of external supervisors being less than one-third of members of the Board of Supervisors, or the resignation of staff supervisors results in the number of staff supervisors being less than one-third of members of the Board of Supervisors, the original supervisor shall continue to perform his duty as a supervisor in accordance with laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles before a new supervisor is elected and assumes office.

Article 210 Supervisors of the Bank shall perform the following duties or obligations:

- (I) attend the meetings of the Board of Directors without voting right and raise questions or make suggestions on matters resolved by the Board of Directors;
- (II) attend the meetings of the Board of Supervisors on time, to fully examine the matters resolved by the Board of Supervisors, to express their opinions independently, professionally and objectively, and to vote independently on the basis of prudent judgement;
- (III) assume responsibility for the resolutions of the Board of Supervisors;

- (IV) actively participate in training organized by the Bank and the regulatory authorities, etc., understand the rights and obligations of supervisors, be familiar with relevant laws and regulations, and continuously possess the necessary professional knowledge and ability to perform their duties;
- (V) to be faithful and diligent in their duties to the Bank, to perform their duties with due diligence and prudence, and to ensure that they have sufficient time and energy to perform their duties;
- (VI) actively participate in the supervisory and inspection activities organised by the Board of Supervisors, and have the right to conduct independent investigations and obtain evidence in accordance with the law, and raise issues and supervisory opinions in a factual manner;
- (VII) comply with laws and regulations, regulatory provisions and the Articles.

Supervisors shall participate in supervision work for not less than fifteen working days annually for the Bank. Supervisors shall attend at least two-thirds of the Board of Supervisors' on-site meetings in person each year.

Any supervisor neither attending the Board of Supervisors' meetings in person nor appointing another supervisor to attend on his/her behalf twice consecutively shall be deemed being unable to perform his/her duties, and the Board of Supervisors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting or propose to make use of the staff democratic procedure to replace such supervisor.

Article 211 Supervisors shall attend the Board of Supervisors' meetings in person. If a supervisor is unable to attend the meeting due to certain reasons, he/she may appoint another supervisor in writing to attend on his/her behalf, while each supervisor shall not be appointed by more than two supervisors in each meeting. The proxy form shall state the name of the proxy, the relevant matters, scope of authorization and validity period, and shall be signed or sealed with chop by the appointor.

Article 212 The supervisor may resign prior to the expiry of the term of office. The supervisor shall submit the written resignation report to the Board of Supervisors.

Except under the situation stipulated by Paragraph 2 of Article 209, the supervisor's resignation shall take effect immediately when the resignation report is submitted to the Board of Supervisors.

Article 213 Supervisors shall warrant that the information disclosed by the Bank is true, accurate and complete, and sign written confirmation opinions on the regular reports of the Bank.

Article 214 Supervisors may attend the Board of Directors' meeting, meeting of special committee under the Board of Directors and senior management personnel's meeting and have the right to make queries or proposals on the matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors.

The supervisors attending the above meetings shall report to the Board of Supervisors on the situation of the meeting.

Article 215 Supervisors shall not make use of their connection to damage the benefits of the Bank, and shall bear the responsibility for compensation in case of causing losses to the Bank.

Article 216 The supervisor shall bear the responsibility for compensation, in case of violating the stipulations of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or the Articles in the course of performing the functions of office of the Bank, which has caused losses to the Bank.

SECTION 2 EXTERNAL SUPERVISORS

Article 217 The external supervisors of the Bank refer to the supervisors having not assumed any functions of office of the Bank other than that of supervisors and without any relationship with the Bank, shareholders and de facto controllers of the Bank, which may affect their independent and objective judgment.

Article 218 Nomination method and election procedure of external supervisors are:

- (I) External supervisor candidates may be nominated by the Board of Supervisors or shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the Bank's voting shares, and shall be elected at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) In principle, the same shareholder can only propose a candidate for the external supervisor, and shall not nominate both the external supervisor and the independent director. The same shareholder, whose nominated candidate has assumed functions of office of the external supervisor and during the period of his/her term of office, shall not nominate another candidate for the external supervisor;
- (III) The Nomination Committee of the Board of Supervisors shall conduct preliminary verification on the qualification and conditions of appointment of the candidates for external supervisors, and propose the qualified candidates to the Board of Supervisors for consideration. The Board of Supervisors shall propose the candidates for external supervisors to the shareholders' general meeting by way of written proposal after they are considered and approved by the Board of Supervisors;
- (IV) The candidates for external supervisors shall, before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, make written undertakings, expressing their consent to their nomination, confirming the truthfulness and completeness of the publicly disclosed information and undertaking that they will duly perform their duties upon being elected;
- (V) Each candidate for external supervisor shall be voted for on a separate basis at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 219 The external supervisor shall make declaration to the Board of Supervisors before assuming office to warrant that he/she shall have sufficient time and energy to perform his/her duties and undertake that he/she shall be diligent and dutiful.

Article 220 The external supervisor shall be entitled to the rights of the supervisor, and supervise the Board of Directors and senior management personnel of the Bank and proceed with the supervision within the terms of reference of the Board of Supervisors resolved and organized by the Board of Supervisors.

Article 221 When all the external supervisors agree unanimously, they have the right to propose in writing that the Board of Supervisors should propose to the Board of Directors the convening of the extraordinary general meetings. The Board of Supervisors shall, after receiving the proposal, make a response to agree or disagree in writing.

Article 222 The external supervisor shall pay particular attention to the overall interests of the depositors and the Bank in the course of performing his/her duties.

Article 223 The Bank shall pay the external supervisors the remuneration and allowances, and the payment standards are proposed by the Board of Supervisors and determined by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 224 The external supervisor may appoint another external supervisor to attend the Board of Supervisors' meeting.

Article 225 The external supervisor's resignation shall be made with reference to that of the independent director.

Article 226 The external supervisor having committed one of the following shall be deemed to have committed gross dereliction of duty:

- (I) leakage of the commercial secrets of the Bank with damage to the lawful benefits of the Bank;
- (II) acceptance of improper benefits in the course of performing his/her duties;
- (III) pursuing own personal gains by making use of his/her position of the external supervisor;
- (IV) act of concealing the problems discovered in the course of supervision and inspection, with significant losses caused to the Bank;
- (V) other acts of gross dereliction of duty identified by the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

Article 227 The Board of Supervisors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting to remove the external supervisor having committed one of the following:

- (I) gross dereliction of duty;
- (II) failure to comply with the qualifications and conditions for holding the position of the external supervisor due to changes of functions of office and having not submitted his/her resignation;
- (III) frequency of attending the Board of Supervisors' on-site meetings in person less than the two-thirds;
- (IV) other situations of being inappropriate to continue to act as the external supervisor stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

The resolution for the proposal to remove the external supervisors by the Board of Supervisors shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all supervisors before proposing to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration. The external supervisor may explain and make a statement to the Board of Supervisors concerning the relevant situation and defend himself/herself before the Board of Supervisors submits the removal proposal.

The Board of Supervisors proposing to the shareholders' general meeting for the removal of the external supervisor shall issue a written notice to the external supervisor concerned within one month before the shareholders' general meeting is convened. The external supervisor shall be entitled to state his/her oral or written opinion before the voting is made and to report such opinion to the National Administration of Financial Regulation five days before the shareholders' general meeting is convened. The shareholders' general meeting shall vote after considering the opinion stated by the external supervisor.

SECTION 3 BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Article 228 The Bank shall set up the Board of Supervisors. Each term of office of the Board of Supervisors shall be three years and may be re-elected and re-appointed, while the term of office of external supervisors in the Bank shall not exceed six years in aggregate.

The Board of Supervisors of the Bank shall not have less than seven but shall not exceed eleven members. Among them, there are no less than three external supervisors, no less than three staff supervisors and no more than three shareholder supervisors.

The Board of Supervisors shall have a chairman and may have vice-chairman. The appointment and removal of the chairman and the vice-chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall be adopted in the voting by more than two-thirds of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

- (I) to examine the regular reports of the Bank compiled by the Board of Directors and submit its opinion of examination in writing;
- (II) to supervise the conduct of the directors and senior management personnel in performing the functions of office of the Bank, and propose the removal of such directors and senior management personnel violating the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, the Articles or the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) to request the directors and senior management personnel to rectify their act of damaging the benefits of the Bank;
- (IV) to verify the financial information on the financial report, business report and profit allocation scheme which the Board of Directors has proposed to submit to the shareholders' general meeting, and may appoint the certified public accountant and the practising auditor in the name of the Bank to help to re-examine the doubts thus discovered;
- (V) to inspect the finance of the Bank;

- (VI) to inspect and supervise the operating decision, risk management and internal control of the Bank, and supervise the rectification;
- (VII) to query the directors, the chairman of the Board of Directors, the president and other senior management personnel;
- (VIII) to propose to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting in the event that the Board of Directors has failed to convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting as stipulated by the Articles;
- (IX) to attend the Board of Directors' meeting;
- (X) to make proposals to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (XI) to represent the Bank in negotiating with directors and to initiate legal proceedings against directors and senior management personnel according to the provisions of the laws and the Articles;
- (XII) to conduct investigation on becoming aware of any unusual operating situation of the Bank; and if necessary, may employ the professional organs including the accounting firm and the legal firm to assist in its work;
- (XIII) to supervise the Board of Directors in establishing sound operational philosophy and value standards and formulating development strategies in line with the practice of the Bank;
- (XIV) to regularly evaluate the effectiveness, rationality and stability of the development strategy formulated by the Board of Directors and prepare evaluation reports;
- (XV) to supervise the election procedure for directors;
- (XVI) to conduct comprehensive evaluation on the performance of duties by directors, supervisors and senior management personnel, and bear the ultimate responsibility for the performance evaluation of the directors and supervisors of the Bank;
- (XVII) to supervise the implementation of the remuneration management system of the Bank and the effectiveness and rationality of the remuneration plan of senior management personnel;
- (XVIII) to regularly communicate with the National Administration of Financial Regulation;
- (XIX) other functions and powers stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles and those conferred by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 230 In the course of performing its duties, the Board of Supervisors shall be entitled to understand the situation through the relevant personnel and organs of the Bank. The relevant personnel and organs of the Bank shall comply with same accordingly.

In the course of performing its duties, the Board of Supervisors shall have the right to request the Board of Directors and senior management to provide necessary information such as information disclosure and audit information.

In the course of performing its duties, the Board of Supervisors shall be entitled to employ the professionals including the lawyer, the certified public accountant and the practising auditors to provide services and professional advice, and the reasonable costs thus incurred shall be borne by the Bank.

Article 231 The Board of Supervisors shall be entitled to the right to know, the right to propose and the right to report granted by the laws and regulations. The Bank shall take measures to safeguard the supervisors' right to know and provide the Board of Supervisors with relevant information and data promptly as stipulated.

When the Board of Directors, senior management and their members are found to have violated the laws, rules, regulations and the Articles of the Bank, the Board of Supervisors shall require them to proceed with rectifications within a designated period and propose to claim for the liabilities of relevant responsible persons. Whenever the Board of Directors, senior management and their members reject the resolutions, opinions and suggestions of the Board of Supervisors or postpone corresponding measures, the Board of Supervisors shall have the right to report to the shareholders' general meeting, propose to convene an extraordinary general meeting or, if necessary, report to the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

- (I) to convene and preside over the Board of Supervisors' meetings;
- (II) to supervise and inspect the execution of the resolutions of the Board of Supervisors;
- (III) to decide after consideration and sign the Board of Supervisors' reports, resolutions and other important documents;
- (IV) to report to the shareholders' general meeting on behalf of the Board of Supervisors;
- (V) to organize and perform the duties of the Board of Supervisors;
- (VI) other functions and powers stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles and those conferred by the Board of Supervisors.

Article 233 The vice-chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall assist the chairman of the Board of Supervisors on the job. In the event that the chairman of the Board of Supervisors fails to or is unable to perform his/her functions of office, the vice-chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall exercise the functions of office on his/her behalf. In the event that the vice-chairman of the Board of Supervisors fails to or is unable to perform his/her functions of office, more than half of the supervisors shall jointly elect a supervisor to perform the functions of office.

Article 234 The method of discussion of the Board of Supervisors shall be the Board of Supervisors' meeting.

The method of passing the resolutions of the Board of Supervisors shall be: voting by show of hands, voting by open ballot or other method of voting permitted by the laws, regulations, rules, and regulatory documents. Each supervisor shall have one vote.

Article 235 The Board of Supervisors shall hold at least four meetings every year and at least one meeting every six months. The notice of meeting shall be sent to all supervisors in writing ten days before convening the meeting.

Article 236 In case of having one of the following situations, the chairman of the Board of Supervisors shall convene an extraordinary Board of Supervisors' meeting within ten days:

- (I) upon the proposal of the chairman of the Board of Supervisors;
- (II) upon the joint proposal of more than one-third of the supervisors;
- (III) upon the proposal of all the external supervisors;
- (IV) other situations stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

In the event of convening an extraordinary Board of Supervisors' meeting, the Board of Supervisors shall inform all supervisors in writing seven days before the meeting is convened.

Article 237 The Board of Supervisors' meeting may be convened in the same method of the Board of Directors' meeting stipulated in Article 169.

Article 238 The Board of Supervisors' meeting shall be held only upon the presence of more than half of the supervisors. The resolutions of the Board of Supervisors shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all supervisors in the voting.

Where the information of the proposal of the Board of Supervisors' meeting is deemed by all external supervisors as insufficient or without explicit evidence, the external supervisors can jointly request the Board of Supervisors in writing to postpone the Board of Supervisors' meeting or postpone considering the relevant matter and the Board of Supervisors shall accept accordingly.

Article 239 The Board of Supervisors shall consider the proposal of each supervisor. The supervisor shall sign on the resolution of the Board of Supervisors and be held responsible for it.

Article 240 The minutes shall be taken for the Board of Supervisors' on-site meeting. The supervisors shall be entitled to request to have some sort of descriptive record of his/her saying at the meeting. The supervisors and recorder attending the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The Bank shall timely submit the minutes and resolutions of the Board of Supervisors to the National Administration of Financial Regulation. The minutes of the Board of Supervisors' meeting as the file of the Bank shall be kept permanently.

Article 241 There shall be an office under the Board of Supervisors as its working organ. The staff employed by the office of the Board of Supervisors shall possess relevant professional knowledge to ensure the performance of the supervision functions of the Board of Supervisors.

Article 242 The Board of Supervisors shall formulate its rules of procedure, including the meeting notice, way of convening meeting, documents preparation, way of voting, proposal submission mechanism, meeting minutes and endorsement. It shall also specify explicitly the method of discussion and the voting procedure of the Board of Supervisors to ensure its efficiency and scientific decision-making, and such rules shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for discussion and approval. The rules of procedure of the Board of Supervisors is an appendix to the Articles.

SECTION 4 SPECIAL COMMITTEES UNDER THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

Article 243 The Nomination Committee and the Supervision Committee are set up under the Board of Supervisors of the Bank. All members of the committees shall be the supervisors and each committee shall have not less than three members. The person in charge of the Nomination Committee and the Supervision Committee shall be the external supervisors.

Article 244 Main duties of the Nomination Committee are to draw up the election procedure and standard for supervisors, conduct the initial examination of the qualifications of candidates for supervisors and propose to the Board of Supervisors; to supervise the election procedure; to conduct comprehensive evaluation on the performance of duties by directors, supervisors and senior management personnel and report to the Board of Supervisors; to supervise the remuneration management system and policy of the Bank and the effectiveness and rationality of the remuneration plan of senior management personnel.

Article 245 The main duties of the Supervision Committee are to draw up the supervision scheme on the financial activities of the Bank and implement relevant inspection; to supervise the Board of Directors in establishing sound operational philosophy and value standards and formulating development strategies in line with the practice of the Bank; and to supervise and inspect the operation decisions, risk management and internal control of the Bank.

CHAPTER 13 QUALIFICATIONS AND OBLIGATIONS OF DIRECTORS, SUPERVISORS, PRESIDENT AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT PERSONNEL AND INCENTIVE MECHANISM

Article 246 The qualifications of the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel shall comply with the relevant stipulations of the laws, administrative regulations, as well as regulatory authorities including the National Administration of Financial Regulation and CSRC and the Articles.

The personnel assuming the functions of office other than that of the director at the units of the controlling shareholder and the ultimate controlling owner of the Bank shall not act as the senior management personnel of the Bank. The remuneration of senior management of the Bank shall only be paid by the Bank, and not be paid by controlling shareholders on behalf of the Bank.

Article 248 The Bank implements the standard and procedure of fair and open performance appraisal for the directors, the supervisors and the senior management personnel, and sets up the incentive mechanism with remuneration and benefits related to individual performance.

The directors, the supervisors and the senior management personnel shall not take part in the decision process of their own remuneration and performance appraisal.

Article 249 Reasonable remuneration arrangement shall be proposed by the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors in accordance with the performance of directors and supervisors respectively and propose to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration and approval.

The appraisal, remuneration and incentive scheme of the senior management personnel are drawn up by the Remuneration Committee under the Board of Directors, and reported to the Board of Directors for approval. Those involving the authority of office of the shareholders' general meeting shall be reported to the shareholders' general meeting for approval. The Board of Directors shall have the remuneration and other incentive arrangement for the senior management personnel based on their performance appraisal.

Article 250 The validity of any act carried out by a director, president or other senior management personnel of the Bank on the Bank's behalf to a bona fide third party shall not be affected by any irregularities during the term of his/her office, election or any defect in his/her qualifications.

Article 251 In addition to the obligations imposed by law, regulations, rules, regulatory documents or relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Bank's shares are listed, the Bank's directors, supervisors, president, and other senior management personnel owe the following obligations to each shareholder in exercising the functions and powers conferred to them by the Bank:

- (I) not to cause the business of the Bank to exceed the business scope stipulated in its business license;
- (II) to act honestly in the best interests of the Bank;
- (III) not to expropriate the Bank's property in any manner, including (but not limited to) opportunities advantageous to the Bank; and
- (IV) not to expropriate the individual rights of shareholders, including (but not limited to) distributions rights and voting rights, except pursuant to a restructuring of the Bank which has been submitted to and approved by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles.

Article 252 Directors, supervisors, president, and other senior management personnel of the Bank shall, in the exercise of their powers and in the discharge of their obligations, exercise care, diligence and skills that would be exercised by a reasonably prudent person under similar circumstances.

Article 253 The directors, the president and other senior management personnel of the Bank shall, in compliance with the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles, have the following obligations of faith to the Bank:

- (I) shall not make use of their authority of office to accept bribery or other illegal income and infringe the properties of the Bank;
- (II) shall not misappropriate the funds of the Bank;
- (III) shall not open the account in personal name or other's name to deposit the assets or funds of the Bank;
- (IV) shall not violate the stipulations of the Articles to lend the funds of the Bank to others or make use of the properties of the Bank to provide guarantee for other peoples, without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting or the Board of Directors;
- (V) shall not violate the stipulations of the Articles or without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting, to enter into the agreement or transaction with the Bank;
- (VI) without the consent of the shareholders' general meeting, shall not make use of the function of office to seize the commercial opportunity, which should have belonged to the Bank, in favor of themselves or others, to self-operate or operate for others the business similar to that of the Bank;

- (VII) shall not accept the commission in their own favor for the transaction with the Bank;
- (VIII) shall not disclose the secrets of the Bank without permission;
- (IX) shall not make use of their connections to damage the benefits of the Bank;
- (X) other obligations of faith stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles.

The directors, president and other senior management personnel's income obtained in violation of the stipulation of this Article shall belong to the Bank, and they shall bear the responsibility for compensation for losses caused to the Bank.

Article 254 The directors shall, in compliance with the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles, have the following obligations of diligence to the Bank:

- (I) shall exercise the rights conferred by the Bank prudently, earnestly and diligently, so as to warrant that the commercial conduct of the Bank shall comply with the national laws, administrative regulations and the requirements for various national economic policies and that the commercial activities shall not exceed the business scope stipulated by the business licence;
- (II) be responsible for the Bank and all shareholders when performing their duties, and treat all shareholders on fair basis;
- (III) to participate in meetings of the Board of Directors on time, fully review the matters considered by the Board of Directors, express opinions in an independent, professional and objective manner, and vote independently on the basis of prudent judgments;

- (IX) to perform their duties conscientiously and prudently, and ensure sufficient time and commitment to perform their duties;
- (X) shall sign the confirmation on opinion in writing for the regular reports of the Bank and other documents requiring their signature, and warrant that the Bank shall disclose the true, accurate and complete information;
- (XI) shall provide the Board of Supervisors with the relevant situation and information according to the fact, and shall not obstruct the Board of Supervisors or the supervisors from exercising their authority of office;
- (XII) other obligations of diligence stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, the securities regulatory authorities at the place of listing the shares of the Bank and the Articles.

The obligations of diligence related to Item (X) to (XII) of this Article shall be applicable to the president and other senior management personnel simultaneously.

Article 255 The supervisors shall, in compliance with the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the Articles, perform the obligations of faith and the obligations of diligence, shall not make use of the authority of office to accept bribery or other illegal income and shall not infringe the properties of the Bank.

Article 256 Directors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank shall exercise and perform his duties in accordance with the principles of utmost good faith and shall avoid conflicts of interests. These principles include (but not limited to):

- (I) to act honestly in the best interests of the Bank;
- (II) to act within the scope of his/her powers and not to exceed such powers;
- (III) to exercise in person the discretion conferred to him/her and shall not be controlled by others; and not delegate such discretion to others unless otherwise permitted by laws or administrative regulations or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) to treat shareholders of the same class equally, and to treat shareholders of different classes fairly;
- (V) not to execute any agreements or transactions or make arrangements with the Bank unless otherwise provided by the Articles or approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) not to use the Bank's assets in any manner to pursue own personal interests unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) not to accept any bribery or other illegal income by virtue of his/her powers and positions, and not to seize the Bank's assets in any manner, including (but not limited to) opportunities advantageous to the Bank;

- (VIII) not to accept any commission with respect to any of the Bank's transactions without the prior approval granted by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IX) to comply with the Articles, perform their duties honestly and faithfully, to protect the Bank's interests and not to pursue own personal gains by taking advantage of his/her powers and positions conferred by the Bank;
- (X) not to compete with the Bank in any manner unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (XI) not to misappropriate the funds of the Bank or lend the Bank's funds to others in violation of rules, and not to open accounts in personal name(s) or others' name(s) to deposit funds of the Bank, and not to provide guarantees for the debts of the shareholders of the Bank or others in violation of rules by way of the Bank's assets.
- (XII) not to divulge any confidential information concerning the Bank that has been obtained during his/her term of office, unless approved by the shareholders based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting; and not to utilize such information unless it is for the benefits of the Bank provided however such information can be disclosed on petitioning to a court or other competent government authorities under the following circumstances:
 - 1. as prescribed by law;
 - 2. as required for the purpose of public interest;
 - 3. as required for the interests of the directors, supervisors, president, and other senior management personnel.

Article 257 Directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank shall not direct the following persons or organizations ("related parties") to do what he/she has been prohibited from doing:

- (I) spouse or minor children of the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank;
- (II) the trustees of directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank or of any person(s) as described in item (I) of this Article;
- (III) the partners of directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank or of any person(s) as described in items (I) or (II) of this Article;
- (IV) company(ies) which is/are effectively controlled by the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank or under the common control with any person(s) as described in items (I), (II) or (III) of this Article or other directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank;

(V) the directors, supervisors, managers and other senior management personnel of the controlled company(ies) as referred to in item (IV) of this Article.

Article 258 The fiduciary duty of a director, supervisor, president and a member of other senior management personnel of the Bank shall not cease upon the conclusion of his/her term, and his/her obligations to keep the commercial secrets of the Bank shall survive beyond the conclusion of his/her term. The duration of other obligations shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the length of the period between the occurrence of the relevant event(s) and the time when he/she leaves the employ of the Bank and the circumstances and terms under which his/her relation with the Bank ends.

Article 259 The liability of any directors, supervisors, president and any other senior management personnel of the Bank as a result of breaches of any specific obligation can be removed based on an informed decision at the shareholders' general meeting, except for the circumstances as specified in Article 60 hereof.

Article 260 A director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank who directly or indirectly has material interest in any agreements, transactions, or arrangements executed or proposed to be executed by the Bank (except for service agreements between the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel and the Bank) shall disclose to the Board of Directors the nature and extent of his/her interest as soon as possible, regardless of whether or not such matters require the approval of the Board of Directors under normal circumstances.

Unless the interested director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank has made such disclosure to the Board of Directors as required by the preceding paragraph of this Article, and the relevant matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at the board meeting in which such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel has not been counted into the quorum and has not voted at the meeting, the Bank shall be entitled to rescind such agreements, transactions, or arrangements, except where the counterparty(ies) is/are bona fide without knowledge of the breaches of duties on the part of such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel.

Where any related party(ies) of any director(s), supervisor(s), president and other senior management personnel of the Bank is/are interested in any agreements, transactions or arrangements, such director(s), supervisor(s), president and other senior management personnel shall also be deemed to be interested.

Article 261 Upon availability of the conditions, the Bank, having been approved by the shareholders' general meeting, may set up the professional liability insurance system for the directors, the supervisors and the senior management personnel.

Except when it has been proved that the directors, supervisors and senior management personnel have failed to perform their duties faithfully or behave with good intention, the Bank shall, within the maximum scope permitted by the laws and administrative regulations, or within the scope not prohibited by the laws and administrative regulations, apply its own assets to compensate each of the directors, the supervisors and the senior management personnel for any liabilities incurred in the course of performing their duties.

Article 262 If, prior to the Bank first considers entering into the relevant agreements, transactions or arrangements, a director, supervisor, president or senior management personnel of the Bank has delivered a written notice to the Board of Directors stating that he/she is interested in such proposed agreements, transactions or arrangements as a result of the reasons stated in the notice, such director, supervisor, president or senior management personnel shall be deemed to have made the disclosure stipulated in the preceding Article within the scope stated in the notice.

Article 263 The Bank shall not, in any manner, pay any taxes for the Bank's directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel.

Article 264 The Bank shall neither directly nor indirectly provide loans and loan security for the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank, and shall not provide loans and loan security for the persons related to the foregoing persons as well.

The stipulations of the preceding paragraph shall not be applicable in the following situations:

- (I) The Bank provides loans for its bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies) or provide loan security for its bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies);
- (II) The Bank provides the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank with loans, loan security or other sums for payment of the costs incurred for the purpose of the Bank or the performance of their duties based on the agreement on their employment approved by the shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) The Bank may provide the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank and their related persons with loans and loan security according to normal business conditions.

Article 265 Any person who receives any funds from a loan which has been made by the Bank in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds.

Article 266 A guarantee for a loan provided by the Bank in breach of the first paragraph of Article 264 shall not be enforceable against the Bank, except under the following circumstances:

- (I) when a loan was provided to a related party of any director(s), supervisor(s), president and other senior management personnel of the Bank and the provider of the loan has no knowledge of the relevant circumstances at the time of making the loan;
- (II) the collateral provided by the Bank has been lawfully sold by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 267 Guarantees referred to in the preceding paragraph of this chapter shall include an undertaking or any property provided by the guarantor to secure the obligor's performance of his/her/its obligations.

Article 268 In addition to the rights and remedies provided by law, regulations, rules and regulatory documents when a director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel of the Bank breaches his/her obligations to the Bank, the Bank shall be entitled to:

- (I) require such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel to compensate for any loss sustained by the Bank as a result of such breach of duty;
- (II) rescind any agreement or transaction entered into between the Bank and such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel or between the Bank and a third party, where such party has knowledge or should have known that such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel representing the Bank has breached his/her duties owed to the Bank;
- (III) require such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel to account for the profits made as result of such breach of obligations;
- (IV) recover any amount which otherwise would have been received by the Bank but were received by such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel instead, including (but not limited to) commissions;
- (V) demand the return of interest earned or which may be earned by such director, supervisor, president and other senior management personnel on any sum which should have been received by the Bank.

Article 269 With the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, the Bank shall enter into a written agreement with a director or supervisor of the Bank in relation to remuneration. Remuneration referred to above shall include:

- (I) remuneration with respect to his/her service as a director, supervisor or member of the senior management personnel of the Bank;
- (II) remuneration with respect to his/her service as a director, supervisor or member of the senior management personnel of bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies) of the Bank;
- (III) remuneration with respect to the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Bank and its bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies); and
- (IV) any payment as compensation for or in connection with loss of office or retirement from office of such director or supervisor.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Bank for any benefit which otherwise would have been received by him/her by virtue of any of the matters referred to above except pursuant to any agreement described above.

Article 270 Any agreements between the Bank and the directors or supervisors of the Bank with respect to their remunerations shall stipulate that the directors and supervisors of the Bank shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, be entitled to receive compensation or other payment as a result of his/her loss of office or retirement in the event that the Bank will be acquired by others. For the purposes of this paragraph, the acquisition of the Bank shall include any of the following:

- (I) a general offer made by any person to all the shareholders;
- (II) an offer made by any person in anticipation of becoming a controlling shareholder. The definition of "controlling shareholder" has the same meaning ascribed to it as that defined in Article 62 hereof.

In the event that the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him/her shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of such offer. The expenses incurred in distributing such sum pro rata among such persons shall be borne by the relevant director or supervisor and shall not be deducted from such sum.

The compensation for directors, supervisors and senior management of the Bank due to loss of position or retirement shall conform to the principle of fairness, shall not damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Bank, and shall not be used as benefit transfer.

CHAPTER 14 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Article 271 The Bank shall establish its financial and accounting systems in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of the PRC Accounting Principles formulated by the financial department of the State Council.

Article 272 An annual financial accounting report shall be prepared at the end of each accounting year and shall be examined in accordance with law.

Article 273 The fiscal year of the Bank adopts the Gregorian calendar from 1 January to 31 December.

Article 274 The Board of Directors shall present to the shareholders, at each annual general meeting, such financial reports prepared by the Bank as required by relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents.

Article 275 The Bank's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Bank's offices twenty days prior to the date of each annual general meeting. Each shareholder of the Bank is entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Articles, the Bank shall deliver or post to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign shares by hand or by prepaid mail the foregoing reports or the directors' report along with the balance sheet and profit and loss statement at least twenty-one days prior to the date of each annual general meeting, and the addresses of the recipients shall be those recorded in the register of the shareholders.

Article 276 The financial statements of the Bank shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the accounting standards and regulations of the PRC, shall also be prepared in accordance with the international accounting standards, or the accounting standards of a place which the shares of the Bank are listed overseas. In the event of any material discrepancies in the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two types of accounting standards, such discrepancies shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. The profit after taxation to be distributed by the Bank shall be the lower of the profit after taxation stated in the foregoing two types of financial statements.

Article 277 The interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Bank shall be prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and regulations as well as the international accounting or the accounting standards of a place which the shares of the Bank are listed overseas.

Article 278 The Bank shall announce its financial reports two times every accounting year. An interim financial report of the Bank shall be published within sixty days after the end of the first six months of each accounting year and an annual financial report shall be published within 120 days after the end of each accounting year.

Article 279 The annual financial accounting report of the Bank shall include the following:

- (I) accounting statements;
- (II) notes to the accounting statements;
- (III) statements of financial position.

Accounting statements shall include the balance sheet, the income statement, the cash flow statement, and the statement of changes in stockholders' equity.

Article 280 The Bank shall not keep financial records other than those required by law. The Bank's assets shall not be deposited into any account opened under an individual name.

Article 281 The profit after taxation of the Bank shall be allocated in the following sequence:

- (I) to make up for the losses of the previous year;
- (II) to make allocation of 10% to the statutory common reserve fund;
- (III) to make allocation to the general provisions;
- (IV) to pay dividends of Preference Shares;
- (V) to make allocation to the discretionary common reserve fund;

(VI) to pay the ordinary shareholders' dividends.

When the accumulated amount of the statutory common reserve fund amounts to 50% or above of the registered capital of the Bank, allocation is no longer required. If the Bank's statutory common reserve fund is insufficient to make up for the losses of the previous year, the profits of the current year shall firstly be used to make up for the losses before making allocation to the statutory common reserve fund. After making allocation to the statutory common reserve fund and the general provisions from the profit after taxation and payment of dividends of Preference Shares, the Bank may, subject to resolutions passed at a shareholders' general meeting, make allocation to the discretionary common reserve fund from the profit after taxation. After making up for the losses and making allocation to the statutory common reserve fund, the general provisions, payment of dividends of Preference Shares and the discretionary common reserve fund, the remaining profit after taxation shall be distributed to ordinary shareholders based on the proportion of shares being held.

If the shareholders' general meeting violates the provisions of the preceding paragraph and distributes profits to the shareholders before making up for the Bank's losses and making allocations to the statutory common reserve fund and the general provisions, the shareholders must return to the Bank the profits which are distributed in violation of the provisions.

The Bank's shares held by the Bank shall not participate in profit distribution.

Article 282 In respect of the shares of the joint shareholders, if the Bank pays any one of the joint shareholders for the allocation or distribution of any dividends, bonus or return on capital payable to such joint shareholders, such payment shall be deemed as having paid all of the joint shareholders for the foregoing allocation or distribution.

Article 283 The capital reserve fund shall include the following:

- (I) any premium which exceeds the proceeds from issuance of shares at par value;
- (II) any other income credited to the capital reserve fund as required by the finance department of the State Council.

Article 284 The common reserve fund of the Bank shall be used to cover losses of the Bank, expand the Bank's operation or increase the Bank's capital but the capital reserve fund shall not be used for making up for the Bank's losses;

When the statutory common reserve fund is converted into share capital, the amount remaining in such reserve fund shall not be less than 25% of the Bank's registered capital prior to the conversion.

Article 285 The fundamental principle and specific policy of distribution of profit of the Bank's ordinary shares

The fundamental principle of distribution of profit of the Bank's ordinary shares are as follows

- (I) taking full account of the investors' return and distributing dividends calculated on the Bank's distributable profit achieved for the year to shareholders each year;
- (II) maintaining continuity and stability of the profit distribution policy of the Bank, taking account of the long-term interests of the Bank, the interests of all shareholders as a whole and the sustainable development of the Bank;
- (III) preferring profit distribution in cash.

- (I) the form of distribution of profits: the Bank distributes dividends by way of cash, shares or the combination of cash and shares. Where conditions allow, the Bank may make interim profit distribution;
- (II) the specific conditions and proportions of cash dividends of the Bank: except in extraordinary circumstances, the Bank shall make its profit distribution by way of cash dividend if the Bank makes profits and its accumulated undistributed profit is a positive figure in the current year. The profit distributed by way of cash dividend shall not be less than 10% of the realized distributable profit of the Bank in the current financial year;

The "extraordinary circumstances" in the presiding clause refers to circumstances in which:

- (I) the Bank's capital adequacy ratio has become lower than the regulatory standard, or is expected to become lower than the regulatory standard after distribution of cash dividend for the year;
- (II) the Bank's reserves made fails to meet the requirements from relevant financial regulatory authorities;
- (III) dividend distribution is otherwise restricted by laws and regulations; or
- (IV) cash distribution will otherwise affect the long-term interest of the Shareholders in the Bank's belief.

Article 286 Where the Bank performs well and the Board of Directors opines that the price of the Bank's shares does not match the size of share capital of the Bank and distribution of share dividend is beneficial to the interest of the Shareholders as a whole, the Board of Directors may, subject to the satisfaction of the above conditions for distributing cash dividend, present a proposal for profit distribution in share dividend. Where the Bank makes profit distribution in share dividend, the Bank shall seek approval from the relevant national regulatory authorities.

Article 287 The process of reviewing profit distribution plan of the Bank are as follows:

- (I) the profit distribution plan of the Bank proposed by the President Office be submitted to the Board of the Bank for reviewing where the reasonableness of the profit distribution plan shall be fully discussed by the Board and a special resolution shall be made and submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for reviewing. The bank provides online voting to shareholders;
- (II) where the Bank decides not to distribute dividends by cash due to the extraordinary circumstances contemplated in Article 285 above, the Board shall give specific explanation on the specific reasons, the exact use of the retained earnings of the Bank and the estimated investment income, which shall be, having independent non-executive directors to express their views, submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for reviewing and disclosed on the designated media.

Article 288 After the resolution on profit distribution has been passed at a shareholder's general meeting of the Bank, the Bank's Board of Directors shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months after convening of the shareholders' general meeting.

In case of force majeure such as war and natural disaster, or external changes in the operation circumstances having material effects to the Bank's operation, or material internal changes in the Bank's operation, the Bank may adjust its profit distribution policy.

Any adjustment to the profit distribution policy of the Bank shall be adopted by the shareholders' general meeting through special resolution. The Bank will provide online voting for shareholders when reviewing the amendments to the profit distribution policy.

Article 289 The Bank may distribute the annual or semi-annual dividends by ways of cash or shares. Profit distribution of the Bank shall focus on reasonable returns to investment of the investors. The profit allocation policy shall maintain its continuity and stability.

Any payment for any shares paid before the call shall be entitled to dividends. However, shareholders shall not have any right to receive the dividend declared thereafter in relation to the pre-paid payments for the shares monies.

On the premise of complying with the relevant laws, regulations, rules, and regulatory documents, the Bank may exercise its right to forfeit the unclaimed dividends. However, such right can be exercised only upon expiry of the applicable relevant time limit.

The Bank shall be entitled to stop sending the dividend warrant to the holder of overseas listed foreign shares by mail. However, the Bank shall exercise such right only when the dividend warrant has been unclaimed twice consecutively. The Bank shall be entitled to exercise such right immediately upon rejection of the first mail of the dividend warrant unable to serve the recipient.

In the manner considered appropriate by the Board of Directors, the Bank has the right to sell the shares of the holders of the overseas listed foreign shares in the event that the Bank has been unable to contact such shareholders, subject to the following conditions:

- (I) The Bank has at least declared and distributed the dividends three times in twelve years and nobody has claimed the dividends during the period;
- (II) Upon expiry of the period of twelve years, the Bank has published the announcement in one or more newspapers at the place of listing the shares of the Bank to state its intention to sell such shares and informed the securities regulatory organ at the place of listing the shares of the Bank.

Article 290 The Bank shall appoint a receiving agent for the holders of the overseas listed foreign shares. Such receiving agent shall receive dividends and other sums in relation to the overseas listed foreign shares of the Bank on behalf of such holders.

The receiving agent appointed by the Bank shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the listing place or the relevant regulations of the stock exchange of the listing place.

The receiving agent appointed for holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be a trust company registered under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

CHAPTER 15 INTERNAL AUDIT

Article 291 The Bank shall establish an internal audit system and appoints professional auditors to undertake internal auditing and supervision of the Bank's financial income and expenditure and economic activities.

Article 292 The internal audit system and the duties of such auditing personnel shall be implemented upon approval of the Board of Directors. The person in charge of internal audit shall be accountable to the Board of Directors and report to the Board of Directors through audit committee.

Article 293 The internal audit department of the Bank shall regularly report the audit work and deliver the special audit report to the Board of Directors, its Audit Committee and the Board of Supervisors in timely manner, and the senior management shall be informed accordingly.

CHAPTER 16 APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF ACCOUNTING FIRM(S)

Article 294 The Bank shall appoint an independent accounting firm complying with the relevant stipulations of the State to audit the annual financial reports and conduct verification of other financial reports of the Bank.

The accounting firm appointed by the Bank shall hold office from the conclusion of each annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

Article 295 The accountant firm appointed by the Bank shall have the following rights:

- (I) to inspect financial statements, records and vouchers of the Bank and shall have the right to require directors, president or other senior management personnel of the Bank to provide the relevant information and explanations;
- (II) to require the Bank to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its bank subsidiaries (subsidiary companies) any information and explanations necessary for the discharge of its duties;
- (III) to attend shareholders' general meetings and to receive meeting notices or other information relating to the shareholders' general meeting, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Bank's appointed accounting firm.

Article 296 In the event of a vacancy in the accounting firm, the Board of Directors may appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy prior to the convening of the shareholders' general meeting, but shall be confirmed by the next shareholders' general meeting. Such accounting firms may continue to act during the vacancy period if the Bank has other incumbent accounting firms.

Article 297 Shareholders attending a general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove the Bank's accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term, irrespective of the provisions in the agreement between the Bank and such accounting firm. Notwithstanding such provisions, the accounting firm's entitlement to claim for damages arising out of its removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 298 The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such remuneration is to be determined shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy shall be determined by the Board of Directors and approved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 299 The appointment, removal or discontinuation of appointment of an accounting firm by the Bank shall be resolved by shareholders at a general meeting and filed with CSRC.

In the event of removal or discontinuation of appointment of an accounting firm, the Bank shall inform the accounting firm in advance, and the accounting firm shall have the right to state its opinion to the shareholders' general meeting.

In the event that a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting is to be passed to appoint an accounting firm other than the incumbent accounting firm to fill any vacancy in the office of the accountant, or to re-appoint an accounting firm which was appointed by the Board of Directors to fill a vacancy, or to remove an accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term, the following provisions shall apply:

- (I) A proposal on the appointment or removal shall be sent (before a notice of the shareholders' general meeting is issued) to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or the accounting firm intends to resign or has resigned in the relevant accounting year. "Resign" shall include removal, resignation and retirement.

- (II) In the event that the accounting firm that is going to leave its post makes written statements and requests that the Bank to notify the shareholders of such representations, the Bank shall (unless the written statements have been received too late) take the following measures:
1. In any notice issued for passing a resolution, the Bank shall state the statements made by the accounting firm that is going to leave its post;
 2. To attach a copy of the statements as a schedule to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner provided in the Articles.
- (III) In the event that the Bank fails to send the accounting firm's statements in the manner set out in item (II) above, such accounting firm may require that the statements be read out at the shareholders' general meeting and may make further appeals.
- (IV) The accounting firm which is going to leave its post has the right to attend the following meetings:
1. The shareholders' general meeting at which its term would otherwise have expired;
 2. The shareholders' general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by such removal;
 3. The shareholders' general meeting which is convened as a result of the voluntary resignation of said accounting firm.

The accounting firm leaving its post is entitled to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, any such meeting, and to speak at any such meeting which it attends on any matters with respect to which its capacity as the former accounting firm of the Bank.

Article 300 Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall state in the shareholders' general meeting whether or not there are any irregularities in the Bank.

An accounting firm may resign by depositing a written notice of resignation at the legal address of the Bank. Such notice shall become effective on the date it is being placed at the legal address of the Bank or a later date stated in the notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (I) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Bank; or
- (II) a statement of any such circumstances.

When the Bank receives the notice referred to above, it shall within 14 days send a copy of the notice to the supervisory authorities. If the notice contains the statement mentioned in item (II) above, a copy of such statement shall be kept by the Bank for inspection by shareholders. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Articles, the Bank shall also send a copy of the aforesaid statements to each holder of the overseas listed foreign shares by prepaid post, and the address of the recipient shall be as recorded in the register of shareholders.

Where the notice of resignation of the accounting firm contains a statement of any such circumstances, the accounting firm may require the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of hearing its explanation of the circumstances in connection with its resignation.

Article 301 The Bank shall provide the appointed accounting firm with the true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information and shall not refuse, conceal or make false report.

CHAPTER 17 INFORMATION DISCLOSURE

Article 302 The Board of Directors of the Bank shall, as stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, relevant provisions made by the securities regulatory organ at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed and the Articles, formulate the information disclosure system. The Board of Directors shall manage the information disclosure of the Bank.

Article 303 The Bank shall disclose the information on normative basis and subject to the principles of truth, accuracy, integrity, fairness and timeliness.

Article 304 The Board of Directors shall, as stipulated by the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, relevant provisions made by the securities regulatory organ at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed and the Articles, formulate the minimum standard, method and channel for information disclosure, as well as setting up and optimizing the information disclosure system of the Bank.

CHAPTER 18 MERGER, DIVISION, INSOLVENCY, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Article 305 The Bank may conduct merger or division in accordance with law.

The merger of the Bank may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by establishment of a new company.

Article 306 In the event of a merger or division of the Bank, the Bank's Board of Directors shall submit a proposal, which shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Articles and the relevant examination and approval formalities shall be completed in accordance with law. Shareholders who object to the Bank's merger or division proposal shall be entitled to request the Bank or the shareholders who consent to the Bank's merger or division proposal to acquire their shares at a fair price. The contents of the resolutions on the Bank's merger or division shall be produced as special documents which shall be available for inspection by shareholders.

Such special documents shall be sent by mail to notify holders of overseas listed foreign shares in writing.

Article 307 In the event of a merger, the parties to the merger shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Bank shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of passing of the resolution on merger and publish an announcement in a newspaper at least three times within 30 days. The creditors may demand the Bank to settle the debts or provide the relevant securities within 30 days from the date of receiving the notice or within 45 days from the date of announcement for those who have not received the notice.

After the merger, the creditors' rights and debts of the parties involved in the merger shall be assumed by the company surviving the merger or the new company established after the merger.

Article 308 Where there is a division of the Bank, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

In the event of a division, the parties to the division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Bank shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of passing of the resolution on division and publish an announcement in a newspaper at least three times within 30 days.

The companies after the division shall be jointly liable for the debts of the Bank incurred prior to the division unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Bank and the creditors in relation to the settlement of debts prior to the division.

Article 309 The Bank shall, in accordance with law, apply for registration of the change with the company registration authorities where a change in any item in its registration arises as a result of any merger or division. Where the Bank is dissolved, the Bank shall apply for cancelling its registration in accordance with law. Where a new company is established, the Bank shall apply for registration thereof in accordance with law.

Article 310 The Bank may dissolve upon any of the following reasons:

- (I) A resolution for dissolution is passed by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) Dissolution is necessary as a result of merger or division of the Bank;
- (III) The Bank is declared insolvent on grounds of its failure to repay its debts as they become due;
- (IV) The business licence is revoked or the Bank is ordered to close down or to dissolved according to law;
- (V) In the event that serious difficulties exist in the operation and management of the Bank, its continuous existence would cause material losses to the shareholders' interests and it is unable to solve the problem by other means, the shareholders holding more than 10% voting rights of the Bank may request the people's court to dissolve the Bank.

Article 311 Where the Bank is dissolved pursuant to items (I) or (V) above, a liquidation committee shall be established within 15 days in accordance with law upon approval by the National Administration of Financial Regulation. The members shall be selected and confirmed by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting.

Where the Bank is dissolved pursuant to item (II) above, the application, attached with the reasons for dissolution and the plan to pay off debts such as payment of deposits and dividends, shall be filed with the National Administration of Financial Regulation. The bank shall be dissolved upon approval of the National Administration of Financial Regulation.

Where the Bank is dissolved pursuant to item (III) above, the people's court shall, in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws, coordinate with the National Administration of Financial Regulation, the shareholders, the relevant authorities and relevant professionals to establish a liquidation committee to conduct the liquidation.

Where the Bank is dissolved pursuant to item (IV) above, the National Administration of Financial Regulation shall coordinate with the shareholders, the relevant authorities and professionals to establish a liquidation committee to conduct the liquidation.

Article 312 Where the Board of Directors has decided to liquidate the Bank (for any reason other than the Bank's declaration of its insolvency), the Board of Directors shall state in the notice convening a shareholders' general meeting that it has made full inquiry into the affairs of the Bank and is of the opinion that the Bank shall be able to settle its debts in full within twelve months from the commencement of the liquidation.

Upon passing of the resolution on liquidation at a shareholders' general meeting, all functions and powers of the Board of Directors shall cease immediately.

The liquidation committee shall act in accordance with the instructions from the shareholders' general meeting and report on the liquidation committee's income and expenses, the Bank's business and the progress of the liquidation at least once every year to the shareholders' general meeting; and to submit a final report to the shareholders' general meeting upon completion of the liquidation.

Article 313 During liquidation, the liquidation committee shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (I) to liquidate of the Bank's assets and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets respectively;
- (II) to give notice or make announcement to the creditors;
- (III) to deal with and liquidate the uncompleted businesses of the Bank;
- (IV) to effect payment of all outstanding taxes and the taxes arising during the process of liquidation;
- (V) to settle creditors' rights and debts;
- (VI) to deal with the remaining assets after settlement of the Bank's debts;
- (VII) to represent the Bank in any civil proceedings.

Article 314 The liquidation committee shall, within ten days of its establishment, notify the creditors, and within 60 days of its establishment, publish an announcement at least three times in newspapers.

The creditors shall declare to the liquidation committee its creditors' rights within 30 days upon receipt of notice and within 45 days from the date of announcement for those having not received the notice.

When declaring the creditors' rights, the creditors shall state the relevant matters of the creditors' rights and provide materials of proof. The liquidation committee shall register the creditors' rights.

During the period of declaring the creditors' rights, the liquidation committee shall not pay off the creditors.

Article 315 Following the disposal of the Bank's assets and the production of a balance sheet and an inventory of assets, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation proposal and present it to the shareholders' general meeting or to the people's court for confirmation.

The Bank's assets for repayment of the Bank's debts shall be distributed according to the following order:

- (I) to pay the liquidation costs;
- (II) to pay the wages of the Bank's staff and workers, social insurance premiums and statutory compensation monies;
- (III) to pay the principal and interests of the personal saving deposits;
- (IV) to pay all outstanding taxes;
- (V) to settle the Bank's debts;

Allocations shall not be made to the shareholders before the Bank's assets are settled according to the foregoing provisions. Any remaining assets of the Bank subsequent to the settlement of its debts in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be distributed to the shareholders based on the respective shareholding of each shareholder. During liquidation, the Bank continues to exist but shall not commence any business activities not related to the liquidation.

Article 316 The liquidation committee shall immediately apply to the people's court for a declaration of bankruptcy in accordance with law upon approval by the relevant competent authorities if it becomes aware, upon the liquidation the Bank's assets and production of a balance sheet and an inventory of assets, that the Bank's assets are insufficient to repay its debts in full.

Upon the Bank being declared bankrupt by a ruling of the people's court, the liquidation committee shall transfer to the people's court all matters arising out of the liquidation.

Article 317 In the event that the Bank has failed to pay the matured debts, the people's court shall declare bankruptcy according to laws upon consent of the relevant competent authorities. The people's court shall organize the relevant authorities including the National Administration of Financial Regulation and the relevant personnel to set up the liquidation committee to proceed with the liquidation.

Article 318 Following completion of the Bank's liquidation, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a statement of income and expenses and financial accounts during the period of the liquidation, which shall be verified by a PRC registered accountant and submitted to the shareholders' general meeting or the relevant competent authorities for confirmation.

The liquidation committee shall, within 30 days from the date of confirmation by the relevant competent authorities, submit the foregoing documents to the company registration authorities for application for cancellation of the Bank's registration and publish an announcement in respect of the termination of the Bank.

CHAPTER 19 NOTICES

Article 319 The notice mentioned in the Articles shall be issued in one or more than one ways as follows:

- (I) sent by hand;
- (II) sent by mail or speed post;
- (III) sent by facsimile or email;
- (IV) on the premise of complying with the relevant stipulations of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents, and relevant provisions made by the securities regulatory organ at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed, by means of release via the website of the Bank and the website specified by the stock exchange at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed;
- (V) by means of announcement in the newspaper or other specified media;
- (VI) other form as previously agreed between the Bank and the recipient or recognized by the recipient after receipt of the notice;
- (VII) other form recognized by the securities regulatory organ at the place of listing the shares of the Bank or stipulated by the Articles.

Even though the Articles have stipulated otherwise for the form of release or notice of any document, notice or other communication, on the premise of complying with the relevant stipulations of the securities regulatory organ at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed, the Bank may select the form of notice stipulated in (IV) of the first paragraph of this Article to release the communication of the Bank, so as to replace the form of sending the written documents by hand or by mail with prepaid postage to every holder of the overseas listed foreign shares. The foregoing communication of the Bank refers to any document issued or to be issued by the Bank for reference by the shareholders or for taking action, including but not limited to the annual report (including the annual financial report), the interim report (including the interim financial report), the directors' report (together with the balance sheet and the income statement), the notice for the shareholders' general meeting, the circular and other communication documents.

Article 320 In the event that the relevant stipulations of the securities regulatory organ at the place where the shares of the Bank are listed require the Bank to dispatch, mail, distribute, announce or otherwise the relevant documents of the Bank in both English and Chinese, the Bank (according to the wish stated by the shareholder) dispatch either the English or the Chinese version only to the relevant shareholder, provided that the Bank has made appropriate arrangement to confirm whether its shareholders only wish to receive either the English or the Chinese version and within the scope permitted by the applicable laws and regulations, and according to the applicable laws and regulations.

Article 321 For notice sent by hand, the recipient shall sign (or chop) on the slip of being served. The date of the receipt acknowledged by the recipient shall be the date of being served. For notice sent by mail, the date of being served shall be 48 hours from the date of sending to the post office. For notice sent by facsimile or email or release via the website, the issue date shall be the date of being served. The date of being served shall be subject to the date indicated on the report slip of the facsimile. For notice sent by means of announcement, the date of being served shall be the first of publishing the announcement and the relevant announcement shall be published in the newspaper in compliance with the relevant stipulations.

Article 322 In the event of omission by accident, the notice for meeting has not been sent to a certain person entitled to receive the notice or such person has not received the notice for meeting, the meeting concerned and the resolution adopted at such meeting shall not be invalidated.

CHAPTER 20 AMENDMENTS OF THE ARTICLES

Article 323 The Bank shall amend the articles of association when any of the following occurs:

- (I) After amendments to the Company Law or the relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, the matters stipulated in the Articles are in conflict with the provisions of the amended laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents;
- (II) There are changes in the conditions of the Bank thereby making them inconsistent with the matters set out in the Articles;
- (III) A decision is made at the shareholders' general meeting to amend the Articles.

Article 324 Amendments to the Articles, after an amendment proposal submitted by the Board of Directors, shall be considered and approved at a shareholders' general meeting. If the amendments to the Articles approved at a shareholders' general meeting have to be examined and approved by the relevant competent authorities, the same shall be submitted to the relevant competent authorities for approval. If the Bank's registration matters are involved, the Bank shall apply for registration of the changes according to law.

Article 325 The Board of Directors shall amend the Articles according to the resolutions on amending the Articles passed at a shareholders' general meeting and the approval opinions of the relevant competent authorities.

Article 326 Where the amendments to the Articles involve matters requiring disclosure by laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, the amendments shall be announced in accordance with the relevant provisions.

CHAPTER 21 DISPUTE RESOLUTIONS

Article 327 The Bank shall abide by the following rules for dispute resolution:

- (I) Any disputes or claims arising between holders of overseas listed foreign shares and the Bank, between holders of overseas listed foreign shares and the Bank's directors, supervisors and other senior management personnel, or between holders of overseas listed foreign shares and other shareholders, with respect to any rights or obligations by virtue of the Articles, the Company Law and any rights or obligations stipulated by any other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Bank, shall be submitted to arbitration.

When the aforementioned dispute or claim of rights is submitted to arbitration, the entire claim or dispute shall be submitted for arbitration, and all persons whose causes of action were based on the same ground or the persons whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, shall comply with the arbitration, where such person is the Bank, the Bank's shareholders, directors, supervisors, president or other senior management personnel.

Disputes with respect to the definition of shareholders and disputes concerning the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (II) A claimant may select an arbitration to be carried out either by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its rules or the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once a claimant submits a dispute or claim of rights to arbitration, the other party must conduct the arbitration at the arbitration organ selected by the claimant.

If a claimant selects Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre as the arbitration organ, either party may apply for the arbitration to be conducted in Shenzhen in accordance with the securities arbitration rules of Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (III) If any disputes or claims of rights as a result of item (I) of this Article are resolved by arbitration, the laws of the PRC shall apply, except otherwise provided by laws and administrative regulations.
- (IV) The award of the arbitration organ shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER 22 SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 328 The Board of Directors may formulate the implementation rules according to the provisions of the Articles. The implementation rules shall not be in conflict with the provisions of the Articles.

Any matters not fully covered by the Articles and the implementation rules shall be handled according to the relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, based on the actual situation of the Bank. In the event that the Articles contradict the stipulations of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Bank are listed promulgated from time to time, the current effective stipulations of the laws, regulations, rules, regulatory documents and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Bank are listed shall prevail.

Article 329 The Articles are written in Chinese. In the event of discrepancies between the Articles and those versions in any other languages or other different versions, the Chinese version of the Articles recently approved by the National Administration of Financial Regulation for registration and having been recently registered and filed with the Beijing Municipal Administration for Market Regulation shall prevail.

Article 330 For the purpose of the Articles, references to “above”, “within” and “below” in the Articles shall include the stated figures, while references to “under”, “beyond” and “exceed” shall exclude the stated figures.

Article 331 Except when stipulated otherwise by relevant laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, the Board of Directors of the Bank shall take charge of interpreting the Articles. In the event that the Articles contradict the latest amended laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents, the new laws, regulations, rules and regulatory documents shall prevail.
