The above-mentioned annual and interim reports shall be prepared in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of CSRC and the stock exchange(s).

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Profit Distribution

The profit distribution policy of the Company is as follows:

- (1) Decision-making procedures and mechanisms for profit distribution policy
 - (i) Decision-making mechanism and procedures for the implementation of profit distribution policy
 - A. When the Board of Directors of the Company proposes a cash dividend distribution, the Board of Directors shall carefully study and demonstrate, among other things, the timing, conditions and minimum proportion, adjustment conditions and decision-making procedure requirements for the cash dividend distribution of the Company, and the independent directors shall express clear opinions.
 - B. The profit distribution policy of the Company shall be proposed by the Board of Directors to the shareholders' general meeting of the Company. The profit distribution policy proposed by the Board of Directors shall be approved by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, and the independent directors shall express their independent opinions on the profit distribution policy.

In the event of misappropriation of the Company's funds by a shareholder, the Company shall deduct the funds misappropriated from the cash dividends to be distributed to that shareholder as compensation.
 - (ii) Decision-making mechanism and procedures for adjustment of profit distribution policy
 - A. In the event of force majeure such as wars and natural disasters, changes in the external operating environment of the Company that have a significant impact on the Company's production and operation, or material changes in the Company's operating conditions, the Company may adjust the profit distribution policy.
 - B. For the adjustment of the Company's profit distribution policy, the Board of Directors shall make a specific discussion, demonstrate the reasons for the adjustment and prepare a written demonstration report, which shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration when the independent directors have expressed their independent opinions thereon, and the relevant resolutions shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders present at the general meeting.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

C. The Company encourages small and medium-sized investors and institutional investors to actively participate in the decision-making of the Company for profit distribution. Before considering the specific profit distribution plan, the shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall fully listen to the opinions and demands of the minority shareholders and respond to the concerns of the minority shareholders in a timely manner.

(2) Details of the profit distribution policy

(i) Form of profit distribution

The Company may distribute dividends in cash, stocks or a combination of cash and stocks, and give priority to profit distribution in cash.

(ii) Specific conditions and proportion of cash dividends

A. Provided that the Company has reserved statutory reserve fund and surplus reserve fund in full and the conditions for cash dividends are satisfied, the Company may distribute dividends in cash. The specific proportion of dividends for each year shall be resolved by the Board of Directors in view of the annual profits and the future fund use plan of the Company.

The "conditions for cash dividend distribution" referred to in the preceding paragraph are as follows:

- (a) the Company is profitable for the accounting year, and the auditor has issued an audit report with unqualified opinions on the annual financial statements for the corresponding year;
- (b) The capital requirements to ensure the normal operation and long-term development of the Company;
- (c) There are no other circumstances that the Board of Directors deems inappropriate to distribute cash dividends.

B. When distributing profits, the Board of Directors of the Company shall make cash dividend policies in accordance with the procedures stipulated in the Articles of Association after considering its industry-specific characteristics, development stage, business model, profitability, future major capital expenditure arrangement and other factors.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

(iii) Conditions required for distributing stock dividend

If the Company is in a good operating status, and the Board of Directors considers that the Company's share price is not proportional to the scale of its share capital, and distributing stock dividend is beneficial to all shareholders' interests, then the Board of Directors may propose to a plan for distributing stock dividend subject to the satisfaction of the abovementioned conditions for cash dividend distribution.

(iv) Interval of profit distribution

Subject to the satisfaction of the abovementioned conditions for cash dividend distribution, the Company, in principle, adopts an annual profit distribution policy. The Board of Directors of the Company may propose an interim profit distribution plan according to profitability, cash flow and capital demand plan, which shall be implemented upon consideration and approval by the extraordinary general meeting.

Internal Auditing

The Company implements an internal audit system and is equipped with full-time auditors to conduct internal audit supervision on the Company's financial revenue and expenditures and economic activities.

MERGER, DIVISION, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Merger and Division of the Company

In a merger of companies, the Company shall execute a merger agreement and prepare the balance sheet and property list. The Company shall notify their creditors within ten days of adopting merger resolutions, and shall publish announcements in newspaper within 30 days. Creditors shall be entitled to claim full repayment of all debts owed by the Company or require that appropriate assurances to be provided within 30 days of receiving the notice, or within 45 days of publication of the announcement if any such creditor does not receive the notice.

If the company is to be divided, its assets shall be divided accordingly.

In a division of the company, a balance sheet and a property list shall be prepared. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days of the date on which the division resolution is adopted, and shall publish announcements in newspaper within 30 days.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

The Company shall be dissolved in accordance with the law under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) the term of business operation expires as specified by the Articles of Association or other matters leading to dissolution occur as specified by the Articles of Association;
- (2) the general meeting resolves to dissolve the Company;
- (3) dissolution is necessary as a result of the merger or division of the Company;
- (4) the Company's business license is revoked or it is ordered to close down or it is deregistered according to laws; or
- (5) serious difficulties arise in the operation and management of the Company and its continued existence would cause material loss to the interests of the shareholders and such difficulties cannot be resolved through other means, in which case shareholders holding at least 10% of all shareholders' voting rights of the Company may petition a People's Court to dissolve the Company.

Where the Company is dissolved according to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1), (2), (4) and (5) of the preceding Article, it shall establish a liquidation committee and liquidation shall commence within 15 days from the date on which the cause for dissolution arose. The liquidation committee shall be determined by Directors or the general meeting. If the Company fails to establish the liquidation committee and carry out the liquidation within the time limit, its creditors may petition a People's Court to designate relevant persons to form a liquidation committee and carry out the liquidation.

The liquidation committee shall notify creditors within ten days of its establishment, and make announcements on newspaper within 60 days of its establishment. Creditors shall declare their claims to the liquidation committee within 30 days from the date of receipt of the written notice or, if they did not receive a written notice, within 45 days from the date of the announcement. When declaring their claims, creditors shall explain the particulars relevant to their claims and submit supporting documentation. The liquidation committee shall register the claims. During the period of declaration of claims, the liquidation committee shall not repay the debts to creditors.

After the liquidation committee has liquidated the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and property list, it shall formulate a liquidation plan and submit such plan to the general meeting or the People's Court for confirmation. The Company's property remaining after payment of the liquidation expenses, the wages, social insurance premiums and statutory compensation of the employees, the taxes owed and all the Company's debts, shall be distributed by the Company to the shareholders in proportion to the shares they hold.

APPENDIX V SUMMARY OF THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

During liquidation, the Company shall continue to exist but may not engage in any business activities unrelated to the liquidation. The Company's property will not be distributed to the shareholders until repayment of its debts in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

If the liquidation committee, having liquidated the Company's property and prepared a balance sheet and property list, discovers that the Company's property is insufficient to pay its debts in full, it shall apply to the People's Court for a declaration of bankruptcy in accordance with the law. After the People's Court has ruled to declare the Company bankrupt, the liquidation committee shall turn over the liquidation matters to the People's Court.

Following the completion of liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation report, submit the same to the general meeting or the People's Court for confirmation, and submit the aforementioned documents to the company registration authority to apply for company deregistration, and announce the Company's termination.

AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

In any of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend the Articles of Association:

- (1) after Company Law or relevant laws and administrative regulations have been amended, the matters stipulated in the Articles of Association are in conflict with the provisions of the revised laws and administrative regulations;
- (2) the circumstances of the Company have changed, which are inconsistent with the matters recorded in the Articles of Association;
- (3) a general meeting decides to amend the Articles of Association.

Amendments to the Articles of Association shall perform relevant procedures and finish necessary formalities in accordance with relevant laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association. If an amendment to the Articles of Association involves a registered item of the Company, registration of the change shall be carried out in accordance with the law.
