The arbitral award shall be final and conclusive.
- (iii) The share purchaser and the Company and each of its shareholders agree that the shares of the Company could be freely transferred by its holders.
- (iv) The share purchaser authorizes the Company to, on his/her behalf, enter into any contract with each director and senior management member, whereby each director and senior management member shall undertake to comply with and perform the responsibilities to the shareholders as specified in these Articles of Association.

Article 36

The Company's shares may be transferred, donated, inherited and pledged in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association. The transfer documents and other documents concerning the ownership of shares shall be registered with the share registration agency entrusted by the Company.

Article 37

The share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the Board of Directors. Where the signatures of other senior management members of the Company are required by the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, the share certificates shall also be signed by such other senior management members. The share certificates shall take effect after the Company's seal is affixed thereto or printed thereon. The share certificates shall only be affixed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the Board of Directors. The signatures of the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company or other relevant senior management members on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Under the condition that the shares of the Company are issued and traded without paper, the applicable provisions of the securities regulatory authority and stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed shall apply additionally.

Article 38

Shares of the Company held by the promoters shall not be transferred within one year from the date of the establishment of the Company. Shares issued prior to the public offering of shares by the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date the shares of the Company were listed on the stock exchange(s).

During their tenure, directors, supervisors and senior management members of the Company shall report to the Company their shareholdings in the Company and changes therein and shall not transfer more than twenty-five percent of the total number of shares held by them each year. The shares held by them shall not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed and traded on the stock exchange(s). The aforesaid person(s) shall not transfer the shares of the Company held by them within six months commencing from the termination of their service.

Article 39

Any gains from sale of shares of the Company by any directors, supervisors, senior management members or shareholders holding five percent or more of the shares of the Company within six months after their purchase of the same, and any gains from purchase of shares of the Company by any of the aforesaid parties within six months after sale of the same, shall be disgorged to the Company. The Company's Board of Directors shall forfeit such gains from the abovementioned parties. However, if a securities company holds five percent or more of shares by buying the remaining shares under an underwriting arrangement, the six-month limitation for selling the said shares shall not apply.

Should the Company's Board of Directors does not observe the preceding paragraph, shareholders shall be entitled to request the Company's Board of Directors to effect the same within thirty days. If the Company's Board of Directors fails to do so within the aforesaid time limit, the shareholders may directly initiate court proceedings in their own name for the interests of the Company.

Should the Company's Board of Directors fail to comply with the requirements set out in the first paragraph of this Article, the responsible director(s) shall assume joint and several liabilities under laws.

Article 40

The Company shall keep a register of shareholders, in which the following particulars shall be recorded:

- (i) The name, address (place of domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (ii) The class and number of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (iii) The amount paid-up or payable in respect of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (iv) The serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (v) The date on which a person registers as a shareholder;
- (vi) The date on which a person ceases to be a shareholder.

The register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence to prove the holding of the shares of the Company by a shareholder, unless there is evidence to the contrary.

Article 41

The Company may, in accordance with an understanding and agreement between the CSRC and overseas securities regulatory authorities, keep outside of the People's Republic of China the original register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares and appoint overseas agent(s) for management. The original register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares listed on the SEHK shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

The Company shall maintain the duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares at the Company's domicile; the appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure at all times the consistency between the original and the duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and duplicate of the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, the original shall prevail.

Article 42

The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the following components:

- (i) The register of shareholders maintained at the Company's domicile other than those as described in items (ii) and (iii) of this Article;

- (ii) The register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares maintained at the place where the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed is located; and
- (iii) The register of shareholders maintained at such other place as the Board of Directors may consider necessary for the purpose of listing of the shares of the Company.

Article 43

Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap with one another. No transfer of the shares registered in one part of the register shall, during the existence of registration of such shares, be registered in any other part of the register of shareholders.

Changes or corrections to each part of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the places where each part of the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 44

All overseas listed foreign shares that are fully paid up shall be freely transferable under these Articles of Association; however, unless the following conditions are satisfied, the Board of Directors may refuse to recognize any transfer documents and shall not be required to state any reasons:

- (i) Fees must be paid to the Company in accordance with the fee standards prescribed by the HK Listing Rules, but such fees shall not exceed the maximum amount stipulated by SEHK in the HK Listing Rules from time to time, and any transfer documents and other documents relating to the ownership of any shares or which may affect the ownership of the shares must be registered;
- (ii) The transfer documents only relate to overseas listed foreign shares that are listed in SEHK;
- (iii) The stamp duty payable in respect of the transfer documents has been paid up in accordance with Hong Kong law;
- (iv) The relevant share certificates and such other evidences as are reasonably requested by the Board of Directors to prove the right of the transferor to transfer the shares have been submitted;
- (v) If the shares are intended to be transferred to joint holders, the number of joint holders shall not exceed four;
- (vi) There are no liens of any company on the relevant shares.

The Company shall not accept any shares of the Company as the subject of a pledge.

Article 45

The general or common form or any other form of written transfer document accepted by the Board of Directors (including the standard transfer form or transfer form required by the SEHK from time to time) shall be used for any transfer of H-shares that are listed in Hong Kong; the transfer document may be manually signed only, or affixed with the company's seal (where the transferor or transferee is a company). If the transferor or the transferee is an accredited clearing house or its agent as defined by relevant regulations of Hong Kong law in force from time to time, the transfer form may be signed in machine printed format.

All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company, or such address as is designated by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Article 46

Where laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents and the securities supervision and administration authorities or stock exchange(s) where shares of the Company are listed contain provisions which stipulate the period when share registration and transfer shall be closed prior to a general meeting or the record date set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends, such requirements shall prevail.

Article 47

When the Company is to convene a general meeting, distribute dividends, be liquidated and to carry out other activities requiring confirmation of equity interests, the Board of Directors shall determine a date as the record date of equity interests. Shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders at the end of the record date shall be the shareholders of the Company.

Article 48

Any person who objects to the register of shareholders and requests to have his name entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a competent court for corrections of the register of shareholders.

Article 49

Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person who requests to have his name entered in the register of shareholders, if his share certificate (the original share certificate) is lost, may apply to the Company for replacement of the share certificate in respect of such shares (the relevant shares).

If a holder of the domestic shares loses his share certificates and applies for replacement, it shall be dealt with in accordance with relevant provisions of the Company Law.

If a holder of overseas listed foreign shares loses his share certificates and applies for replacement, it may be dealt with in accordance with the relevant laws, the rules of the stock exchange or other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares is maintained.

Any replacement of share certificates to any shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares to be listed in Hong Kong who have lost their share certificates and applied for replacement shall comply with the following requirements:

- (i) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration, containing the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificates as well as statement that no other person shall be entitled to request to be registered as the shareholder in respect of the relevant shares.
- (ii) No declaration has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant for having his name registered as a holder of the relevant shares before the Company decides to reissue a replacement share certificate.
- (iii) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers designated by the Board of Directors. The announcement shall be made at least once every thirty days in a period of ninety days.
- (iv) The Company shall have, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement certificate, delivered to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from such stock exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety days.

In case an application to issue a replacement certificate has been made without the consent of the registered shareholder of the relevant shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.

- (v) If, upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in items (iii) and (iv) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such application, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his application.
- (vi) Where the Company issues a replacement certificate under this Article, it shall forthwith cancel the original share certificate and enter the cancellation and replacement in the register of shareholders accordingly.
- (vii) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an original share certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 50

Where the Company issues a replacement certificate pursuant to these Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned new share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (in the case that he/she is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 51

The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person by reason of the cancellation of the original share certificate or the issuance of the replacement share certificate, unless the said person proves that the Company had acted fraudulently.

CHAPTER VII RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Article 52

A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares of the Company and whose name is entered in the register of shareholders.

A shareholder shall enjoy the relevant rights and assume the relevant obligations in accordance with the class and number of shares he holds. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall be entitled to the same rights and assume the same obligations. Shareholders of each class of shares of the Company shall have equal rights in any distributions made in the form of dividends or any other forms.

The Company shall not, merely as a result of failure by any direct or indirect interested persons to disclose to the Company of their interests, exercise any power to freeze or otherwise damage any of their rights attached to the shares held by them.

Article 53

The holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following rights:

- (i) To be entitled to dividends and other forms of distribution in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (ii) To attend or appoint a proxy to attend general meetings and to exercise the corresponding voting rights in accordance with laws;
- (iii) To supervise and manage the business operations of the Company and to put forward proposals or raise inquiries;
- (iv) To transfer shares held by them in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and these Articles of Association;
- (v) To obtain relevant information in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association, including:
 1. To obtain a copy of these Articles of Association upon payment of cost thereof;
 2. To inspect and copy upon payment of a reasonable cost:
 - (1) Copies of the register of all shareholders;
 - (2) Personal particulars of each of the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members including:
 - a. Present and former name and alias;
 - b. Principal address (domicile);
 - c. Nationality;
 - d. Full-time and all other part-time occupations and positions;

- e. Identification certificate document and its number.
- (3) Status of the share capital of the Company;
- (4) Reports stating the aggregate par value, quantity, maximum and minimum price paid in respect of each class of shares repurchased by the Company since the last accounting year and the aggregate costs paid by the Company for this purpose;
- (5) Meeting minutes of the shareholders' general meetings;
- (vi) Upon termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held; and
- (vii) Other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and these Articles of Association.

The Company shall maintain the above documents at the address of the Company in Hong Kong in accordance with the requirements of the HK Listing Rules for free inspection by the public and shareholders. The shareholders may copy the above documents after paying a reasonable fee.

Article 54

Shareholders demanding inspection of the relevant information or requesting materials mentioned in the preceding provision shall provide to the Company written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company held by them. The Company shall, upon verification of the shareholder's identity, provide such information in accordance with these Articles of Association and at the shareholder's request.

Article 55

If a resolution passed at the Company's general meetings or board meetings violates the laws or administrative regulations, shareholders shall have the right to initiate proceedings to the People's Court to render the same as invalid.

If the procedures for convening, or the method of voting at, a general meeting or board meeting violate the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, or the contents of a resolution violate these Articles of Association, shareholders shall be entitled to initiate proceeding to the People's Court to rescind such resolutions within sixty days from the date on which such resolution is adopted.

Article 56

Where the Company incurs losses as a result of violation by directors and senior management members of the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties to the Company, the shareholders individually or in the aggregate holding one percent or more of the shares of the Company for 180 consecutive days or more shall be entitled to request in writing the Board of Supervisors to initiate proceedings to the People's Court; where the Company incurs losses as a result of violation by the Board of Supervisors of any provisions of laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association in the course of performing its duties to the Company, the shareholders may make a request in writing to the Board of Directors to initiate proceedings to the People's Court.

In the event that the Board of Supervisors or the Board of Directors refuses to initiate proceedings after receiving the written request of shareholders stated in the foregoing paragraph, or fails to initiate such proceedings within thirty days from the date of receiving such request, or in case of emergency where failure to initiate such proceedings immediately will result in irreparable damage to the Company's interests, the shareholders described in the preceding paragraph shall be entitled to initiate proceedings to the People's Court directly in their own names for the interests of the Company.

Where the Company incurs losses as a result of infringement upon the legitimate rights and interests of the Company by any other persons, the shareholders stated in Paragraph 1 of this Article may initiate proceedings to the People's Court pursuant to the provisions of the first two paragraphs.

Article 57

Shareholders may initiate proceedings to the People's Court in the event that a director or a senior management member has violated the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, damaging the interests of shareholders.

Article 58

Holders of ordinary shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (i) To abide by these Articles of Association;
- (ii) To pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (iii) Not to abuse their rights as shareholders to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not to abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interests of any creditor of the Company. Shareholders of the Company who abuse their shareholders' rights and thereby causing damage to the Company or other shareholders shall be liable for indemnity according to the law. Where shareholders of the Company abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders for the purpose of evading repayment of debts, thereby materially jeopardizing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company;
- (iv) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules of place where the shares of the Company are listed and these Articles of Association.

Shareholders will not, with the exception of the conditions agreed by the subscribers of shares at the time of subscription, be responsible for addition to any share capital thereafter.

Article 59

Where a shareholder holding five percent or more voting shares of the Company pledges any shares held by him, he shall report the same to the Company in writing on the same day on which he pledges his shares.

Article 60

The controlling shareholder (as defined in Article 62 herein) and the de facto controller of the Company shall not make use of the related party relationship against the interests of the Company. Whoever violate this provision causing damages to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

The controlling shareholder and the de facto controller of the Company shall have fiduciary duties towards the Company and public shareholders of the Company. The controlling shareholder shall exercise its rights as a contributor in strict compliance with the law. The controlling shareholder shall not do harm to the lawful interests of the Company and public shareholders through profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, appropriation of capital, offering loan guarantees and shall not make use of its controlling status against the interests of the Company and public shareholders of the Company.

Article 61

In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the regulatory rules of the stock exchange on which shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder when exercising his authorities as a shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner jeopardizing the interests of all or some of the shareholders of the Company:

- (i) To relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (ii) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own interests or for the interests of other person(s)), in any manner, of the Company's assets, including (without limitation) any opportunities beneficial to the Company;
- (iii) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own interests or for the interests of other person(s)) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including (without limitation) rights to distributions and voting rights save for a restructuring proposal of the Company submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval in accordance with these Articles of Association.

Article 62

The term "controlling shareholder" referred to in these Articles of Association means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (i) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to elect a majority of the directors;
- (ii) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has the power to exercise or to control the exercise of thirty percent or more of the voting rights of the Company;

- (iii) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds thirty percent or more of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company;
- (iv) A person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control over the Company in any other way.

CHAPTER VIII GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 63 The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of power of the Company and shall exercise the powers in accordance with the law.

Article 64 The shareholders' general meetings shall exercise the following powers:

- (i) To decide on the operating guidelines and investment plans of the Company;
- (ii) To elect and replace the directors and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of the directors;
- (iii) To elect and replace the non-employee representative supervisors, and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of the supervisors;
- (iv) To consider and approve reports of the Board of Directors;
- (v) To consider and approve reports of the Board of Supervisors;
- (vi) To consider and approve the Company's annual financial budget plans and final account plans;
- (vii) To consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and plans for recovery of losses;
- (viii) To decide on increases or reductions in the Company's registered share capital;
- (ix) To decide on merger, division, dissolution or liquidation etc. of the Company;
- (x) To decide on the issuance of bonds of the Company;
- (xi) To decide on the Company's appointment, dismissal or non-reappointment of accounting firms;

- (xii) To amend these Articles of Association;
- (xiii) To consider matters relating to the purchases, disposals of the Company's material assets, or amount of external guarantees within one year, which exceed thirty percent of the Company's total assets;
- (xiv) To consider and approve matters relating to changes in the use of proceeds;
- (xv) To consider the Company's share incentive schemes;
- (xvi) To consider the proposals raised by the shareholders who, individually or jointly, hold 3% or more of the voting shares of the Company;
- (xvii) To consider other matters required by laws, administrative regulations, department rules, the regulatory rules of the stock exchange at the place where the shares of the Company are listed and these Articles of Association, to be resolved by the shareholders' general meetings.

Article 65

The following external guarantees of the Company shall be subject to consideration and approval by the shareholders' general meetings:

- (i) Any guarantee to be provided when the total amount of external guarantee provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries has reached or exceeded 50% of the latest audited net assets;
- (ii) Any guarantee to be provided when the total amount of external guarantee provided by the Company has reached or exceeded 30% of its latest audited total assets;
- (iii) Any guarantee to be provided to a party which has a asset-liability ratio over 70%;
- (iv) A single guarantee for amount over 10% of the latest audited net assets;
- (v) Any guarantee to be provided to shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;
- (vi) Other guarantees which shall be considered and approved at the shareholders' general meetings as prescribed by laws and these Articles of Association.

- (vii) The Company shall not borrow or provide guarantees to natural persons, external entities without legal personality or overseas companies.

Article 66

The Company shall not, without the approval of the shareholders' general meetings, enter into any contract with any person other than directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members for authorization of management of all or substantial part of business of the Company to such persons.

Article 67

Shareholders' general meetings include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. The shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors. The annual general meeting shall be held once a year within six months after the end of the previous accounting year.

The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months under any of the following circumstances:

- (i) The number of directors is less than the quorum prescribed by the Company Law or less than the two thirds of the amount required by these Articles of Association;
- (ii) The uncovered losses are in excess of one-third of the Company's total amount of paid-in share capital;
- (iii) Shareholders individually or in the aggregate holding more than ten percent of the Company's issued voting shares, request in writing to hold an extraordinary general meeting;
- (iv) The Board of Directors considers it necessary or the Board of Supervisors proposes to hold such a meeting; and
- (v) Such other circumstances as provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the regulatory rules of place where the shares of the Company are listed or these Articles of Association.

Article 68

The Company shall hold the shareholders' general meetings at the domicile of the Company or such other place as specified in the notice of the shareholders' general meetings.

The shareholders' general meetings shall have a venue and be held on-site. The Company may, in accordance with the securities regulatory rules of place where the shares of the Company are listed, to the extent applicable, provide convenience for participation in the shareholders' general meetings for shareholders, through other means and channels. A shareholder who participates in a general meeting in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed to have been present at the meeting.

Article 69

Notice of the annual general meetings by the Company shall be dispatched twenty days prior to the date of the meetings in written form or other forms as stipulated in these Articles of Association; and notice of the extraordinary general meetings by the Company shall be dispatched fifteen days prior to the date of the meetings in written form.

The date of the general meetings and the date when the notice is dispatched shall not be included in the calculation of the period for issuing such notice.

Article 70

When the Company convenes the shareholders' general meetings, shareholders, either individually or in aggregate, holding more than 3% of the share capital of the Company shall have the right to propose new proposals in writing to the Company, and the Company shall include the proposals into the agenda of such general meetings if they are falling within the functions and powers of the general meetings.

Article 71

The shareholders' general meetings shall not vote and reach a resolution for the matters not being specified in the notice of shareholders' general meetings.

Article 72

The notice of the shareholders' general meetings shall meet the following requirements:

- (i) Be in writing;
- (ii) Specify the place, date and period of the meetings;
- (iii) Specify the matters to be discussed at the meetings;

- (iv) Provide such information and explanation as are necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the matters to be discussed, including (but without limitation) provisions of the specific conditions and contracts (if any) for the transactions and contemplated and careful explanation of the causes and consequences thereof when the company proposes combination, share repurchase, reorganization of share capital or other restructuring;
- (v) Contain disclosure of the nature and extent, if any, of the material interests of any director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members in the matters to be discussed; and explanation of the difference if the effect which the matters to be discussed will have on such director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members in their capacity as shareholders in so far as it is different from the effect on the shareholders of the same class;
- (vi) Contain the full text of any special resolution proposed to be adopted at the meetings;
- (vii) Contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote at such meetings is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at such meetings on his behalf and that a proxy does not need to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (viii) Specify the record date of shares for shareholders who are entitled to attend the general meetings;
- (ix) Specify the delivery time and place for power of attorney for the relevant meetings; and
- (x) Name and telephone number of the contact person(s).

Article 73

Where the elections of directors and supervisors are to be discussed, a notice of the shareholders' general meetings shall fully disclose the particulars of the candidates of directors and supervisors and shall at least include the following contents:

- (i) Personal particulars such as educational background, working experience and part-time job;
- (ii) Whether or not the candidate has any related party relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholders and de facto controllers;

- (iii) Disclose the number of shares of the Company held by the candidate;
- (iv) Whether or not the candidate has been subject to penalties by the CSRC and other relevant authorities as well as sanctions by any stock exchange;

Save for the elections of directors and supervisors held by adopting cumulative voting system, each candidate for a director or supervisor shall be proposed by way of a separate proposal.

Article 74

The notice of the shareholders' general meetings shall be delivered to shareholders (whether or not having voting rights at the general meetings) personally or by postage-paid mails at the addresses of the recipients which are recorded in the register of shareholders. The notice of the shareholders' general meetings to the shareholders of domestic shares may also be made by way of public announcement.

The term "public announcement" referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published in one or more newspapers designated by CSRC and securities regulatory authority at the place where the shares of the Company are listed. After the publication of such announcement, all shareholders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the relevant notice of the shareholders' general meetings.

For shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, under the premise of not violating laws and regulations, laws, regulations and supervision rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and performing the relevant procedures, the Company may also serve or provide a notice to a shareholder through the SEHK and the Company's website or other electronic manners, without having to issue or provide them in the manner described above in this Article.

Article 75

Subsequent to the dispatch of a notice of the general meetings, the general meetings shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons, and the proposals set out in the notice of the general meetings shall not be withdrawn. Once the meeting is postponed or cancelled, the convener shall make an announcement and give reasons thereof at least 2 business days prior to the original date of the meeting.

Article 76

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by any person entitled to receive notice, shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 77

Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more persons (such person may not be a shareholder of the Company) as his proxy/proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and a proxy so appointed shall be entitled to exercise the following rights according to the authorizations from that shareholder:

- (i) The shareholder's right to speak at the meeting;
- (ii) The right to request to vote for a proposal, individually or together with others; and
- (iii) The right to vote by hands or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Article 78

A shareholder shall appoint his proxy in writing, such instrument appointing the proxy shall be signed by the appointing shareholder or the proxy who is authorized in writing, or if the appointing shareholder is a legal entity, either affixed with legal person seal or signed by a director, or the duly authorized proxy.

If the shareholder is an authorized clearing house of the place(s) where the securities of the Company are listed or its agent, such a shareholder is entitled to appoint one or more persons it deems suitable to act as its proxy in the shareholders' general meeting or shareholders class meeting. If two or more persons are appointed as proxies, the power of attorney shall clearly state the number and the class of shares represented by each of the proxies. The proxy forms shall be signed by the respective proxies appointed by the authorized clearing house. The proxies so appointed may represent the authorized clearing house (or its agent) in exercising its rights at any meeting (without being required to present share certificate, certified statement of proxy and/or further evidence of due authorization) as if that proxy is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 79

Proxy forms shall be lodged at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting twenty-four hours before the relevant meeting for voting according to the proxy form, or twenty-four hours before the designated time of voting. Where the proxy form is signed by a person under a proxy authorized by the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed shall be notarized. The notarized power of attorney or other authorization documents shall, together with the proxy form, be maintained at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the appointer is a legal entity, its legal representative or such person as is authorized by the Board of Directors or other governing body may attend shareholders' general meetings of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 80

Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board of Directors for appointing a proxy of the shareholder shall allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to cast vote in favor of, against or abstention from the proposals, and instruct separately about each proposal dealing with the businesses to be considered at the meetings. Such power of attorney shall contain a statement that in absence of instructions by the shareholders, his proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

The Company is entitled to require the proxy attending the shareholders' general meetings on behalf of a shareholder to present his identification document.

If a corporate shareholder appoints its representative to attend the meetings, the Company is entitled to require the representative to present his own identification document and a notarized certified copy of the resolution or power of attorney authorized by its board of directors or other governing body of such corporate shareholder.

Article 81

A vote given by a proxy in accordance with the terms of the power of attorney shall be valid, notwithstanding the death or loss of capacity of the appointer or revocation of the proxy or the authority under which the power of attorney was executed, or the relevant shares was transferred, provided that the Company does not receive any written notice in respect of any such matters prior to the commencement of the relevant meetings.

- Article 82 The Board of Directors, independent non-executive directors and shareholders who satisfy the relevant criteria, may solicit voting rights from the Company's shareholders in the shareholders' general meetings.
- Article 83 The Company shall be responsible for compiling the attendees sheet which shall include, among others, the names of attendees (or names of relevant unit), ID number, domicile, the number of shares with voting rights that he holds or represents, and name of the person (or name of relevant unit) who attends the meeting by proxy.
- Article 84 The convener and lawyers engaged by the Company shall verify the legitimate qualification of shareholders in accordance with the register of shareholders provided by the securities depository and clearing institutions, and shall register the names of shareholders and the number of voting shares each of them holds. The registration shall end before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of voting shares they hold at the venue of the meeting.
- Article 85 When convening a shareholders' general meeting, all directors, supervisors and the secretary of the Board of Directors shall attend the meeting, while the general manager and other senior management members shall attend the meeting as non-voting participants.
- Article 86 The Company shall formulate the Procedural Rules of the Shareholders' General Meetings which shall set out in details the procedures of convention and voting in respect of the shareholders' general meetings, including notices, registration, consideration for proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement on voting results, formation of the resolutions, meeting minutes and signing, announcements and other contents, and the principles of authorization granted to the Board of Directors at the shareholders' general meetings. The scope of authorization shall be specified in details. The procedural rules of the shareholders' general meetings shall be prepared by the Board of Directors, approved at the shareholders' general meetings and attached to these Articles of Association as an appendix.
- Article 87 During the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors shall respectively give a report on their work in the previous year to the shareholders' general meeting, and each independent non-executive director shall also make his duty report accordingly.

Article 88 Directors, supervisors and senior management members shall at the shareholders' general meetings make explanation and statement on the inquiries and suggestions from shareholders.

Article 89 Prior to voting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them. The number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them shall be based on the meeting registration.

Article 90 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until final resolutions are reached. In the event that the general meeting is adjourned or resolutions failed to be reached due to force majeure or other special reasons, measures shall be adopted to resume the meeting as soon as possible or the meeting shall be concluded immediately, and an announcement shall be promptly made accordingly. The convener shall also report the same to the relevant competent authorities in accordance with the applicable regulations.

Article 91 Resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution must be passed by votes representing a majority of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meetings.

A special resolution must be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the meetings.

Article 92 A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a shareholders' general meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote. Each share shall have one voting right.

If any shareholders is required to give up the voting right for certain proposal or are restricted to be only able to vote for or against certain proposal, in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws and regulations and the HK Listing Rules, the votes by those shareholders or their representatives shall not be counted in case of any violation of the relevant provisions or restriction.

Article 93

When any shareholders' general meeting considers matters in connection with the related transactions, the related shareholder(s) shall not participate in the vote and the number of voting shares that it represents shall not be counted towards the total number of valid votes. The announcement of the resolutions of the general meetings shall fully disclose the votes of the non-related shareholders.

Article 94

At any shareholders' general meeting, a resolution shall be decided on a show of hands, unless, before or after a vote is carried out by a show of hands, a poll is demanded by the following persons:

- (i) The chairman of the meeting;
- (ii) At least two shareholders entitled to vote or by proxy entitled to vote thereat; or
- (iii) One or more shareholders (including proxies) holding, individually or in the aggregate, 10% or more of all shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting.

Unless a poll is demanded pursuant to the preceding provision, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has been passed on a show of hands and the recording of the same in the minutes of meeting shall be conclusive evidence of the fact that such resolution has been passed. There is no need to provide evidence of the number or proportion of votes in favor of or against such resolution.

The demand for a poll may be withdrawn by the person who demanded the same.

Article 95

A poll demanded on such matters as the election of the chairman of the meeting, or the adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other matter shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting may decide, and the meeting may proceed with the discussion of other matters; the result of the poll shall still be regarded as a resolution passed at such meeting.

Article 96

Shareholders attending the general meetings shall express one of the following views during the voting of a proposal: for, against or abstain. A voting ticket that is incomplete, wrongly completed, illegible, or not yet cast, will be regarded as waiver by the voter of his voting rights. The voting result of the number of shares held by the voter will be treated as "abstention".

- Article 97 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including a proxy) entitled to two or more votes is not required to cast all his votes for or against any proposal in the same way.
- Article 98 In the event of an equality of the number of votes for and against a proposal, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.
- Article 99 The list of candidates for directors or supervisors shall be proposed to the shareholders' general meetings for votes.
- The cumulative voting system may be used in the voting for the election of directors and supervisors at the shareholders' general meetings in accordance with relevant laws, regulations, and provisions of the these Articles of Association or the resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meetings.
- The "cumulative voting system" as referred to in the preceding paragraph means that in the election of directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meetings, the voting right each share has equals to the number of candidates of directors or supervisors. Shareholders may use their voting rights collectively. The Board of Directors shall announce to shareholders the resumes and basic information of these candidates for directors or supervisors.
- Article 100 When considering a proposal at the shareholders' general meetings, no change shall be made thereto. Otherwise, such change shall be treated as a new proposal which shall not be processed for voting at such general meetings.
- Article 101 Except for the cumulative voting system, all proposals proposed at the shareholders' general meetings shall be voted one by one, and for different proposals on the same matter, voting will be conducted according to the time sequence that these proposals are put forward.
- Other than special reasons such as force majeure which results in the interruption of the meetings or makes it impossible to come to resolution, the shareholders' general meetings shall not set aside the proposals or not vote on them.
- Article 102 The same voting right shall only be exercised by one means, either through onsite voting or other voting means. If the same voting right is exercised by more than one means, the result of the first vote cast shall prevail.
- Article 103 Shareholders shall vote by a disclosed ballot at a general meeting.

Article 104

Before the shareholders' general meeting votes on proposals, it shall recommend two shareholder representatives to count the votes and scrutinize the voting. If any shareholder is interested in the matter to be discussed, the relevant shareholder and his proxy shall not participate in vote counting or scrutinize the voting.

When a shareholders' general meeting votes on proposals, the counting of votes and scrutinizing of voting shall be conducted together by lawyers, shareholder representatives and supervisor representatives. The voting results shall be announced during the meeting. The voting results shall be contained in the meeting minutes.

A shareholder of the Company or his proxy, who uses the internet or other voting means, shall be entitled to verify his voting results through relevant voting system.

Article 105

The chairman of the meeting shall announce the voting circumstances and results for each proposal, and shall also announce whether the resolutions have been passed according to the voting results.

Before the voting results are officially announced, the companies, counting officers, scrutinizers, major shareholders, the internet service providers and all relevant parties in relation to voting on-site and voting by other means shall be obligated to keep confidential the voting results.

Article 106

The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meetings:

- (i) Work reports of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors;
- (ii) Profit distribution plans and plans to cover losses to be formulated by the Board of Directors;
- (iii) Appointment and removal of members of the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors, their remuneration and manner of payment;
- (iv) Annual budgets and final accounts, balance sheets, income statements, and other financial statements of the Company;
- (v) Annual reports of the Company;

- (vi) Other matters other than those which are required by laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or these Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 107

The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (i) Increase or reduction in the registered share capital of the Company; issuance of shares of any class, stock warrants and other similar securities;
- (ii) Issuance of debentures of the Company;
- (iii) Division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of the corporate forms of the Company;
- (iv) Amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (v) The Company's purchase or sale of any material assets or the amount of guarantee, within one year, which exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (vi) Equity-based incentive scheme(s);
- (vii) Any other matter as required by laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or these Articles of Association, and which as the shareholders' general meeting determines by ordinary resolution will have material effect on the Company and require adoption by special resolutions.

Article 108

Where the shareholders request the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, the following procedures shall be followed:

- (i) Two or more shareholders holding, individually or in the aggregate, more than 10% of the voting shares of the Company may sign one or several copies of written requests in the same form requesting the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders, and stating the matters to be considered at the meeting. The Board of Directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting or class meeting of shareholders as soon as possible upon receipt of the aforesaid written request. The aforesaid number of shares held shall be calculated as of the date when the shareholders submit the written request;
- (ii) If the Board of Directors fails to issue the notice of such a meeting within thirty days of receipt of the written request, the requesting shareholders may themselves convene such a meeting in a manner as similar as possible to the manner in which shareholders' general meetings are convened by the Board of Directors within four months after receipt of the request by the Board of Directors.

The Company shall bear reasonable costs and expenses for the shareholders' general meetings convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders on their own initiative. Such expenses shall be deducted from the amounts due by the Company to the director(s) who have neglected their duties.

Article 109

The independent non-executive directors have the right to propose to the Board of Directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary general meeting. Whenever the independent non-executive directors require convening the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, give the written feedback on whether agreeing to convene the extraordinary general meeting or not within ten days after receiving such proposal.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall send out the notice of the general meeting within five days after making the resolutions; where the Board of Directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall make the explanation and issue an announcement.

Article 110

The Board of Supervisors have the right to propose to the Board of Directors to convene the extraordinary general meeting and shall propose in writing. The Board of Directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, give the written feedback on whether agreeing to convene the extraordinary general meeting or not within ten days after receiving such proposal.

Where the Board of Directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall send out the notice of the general meeting within five days after making the resolutions and any change of the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the Board of Supervisors.

Where the Board of Directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or fails to give feedback within ten days after receiving the proposal, it shall be deemed as the Board of Directors is unable to or refuses to convene the general meeting and the Board of Supervisors is entitled to convene and preside over a general meeting itself.

Article 111

With regard to the shareholders' general meetings convened by the Board of Supervisors or shareholders on their own initiative, the Board of Directors and the secretary of the Board of Directors shall provide assistance. The Board of Directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the record date of equity interests.

Article 112

The shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors, and the chairman of the Board of Directors shall act as the chairman of the meetings; if the chairman of the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform the duties, the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene the meetings and act as the chairman of the meetings; if the Company has no deputy chairman or the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform the duties, a majority of directors shall jointly elect a director to act as the chairman of the meetings. If no chairman of the meeting has been so designated by a majority of directors, shareholders present may elect one person to be the chairman of the meetings. If for any reason, the shareholders fail to elect a chairman, then the shareholder (including proxy) present holding the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meetings.

Article 113

The chairman of the meetings shall be responsible for determining whether a resolution is passed. His decision, which is final and conclusive, shall be announced at the meetings and recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 114

If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution which has been presented for voting at a shareholders' general meeting, he may count the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not count the votes, any shareholder who is present in person or by proxy and who objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may, immediately after the declaration of the result, demand that the votes be counted and the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 115

If votes are counted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the count shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Meeting minutes of the shareholders' general meetings shall be signed by chairman of the meeting, the present directors, supervisors, secretary of the Board of Directors, the convener or its representatives. The meeting minutes shall, together with the signature book of shareholders attending the meetings and power of attorney and effective information of voting by other means, be kept at the domicile of the Company for at least ten years.

Article 116

The secretary of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for taking minutes of the general meetings. The meeting minutes shall include:

- (i) Time, place and agenda of the meetings and name or designation of the convener;
- (ii) Names of the chairman of the meeting and directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members present or in attendance at the meetings;
- (iii) Number of the present shareholders and proxies, the total number of voting shares they represent and the percentage of the total shares of the Company they represent;
- (iv) The discussions in respect of each proposal, highlights of the speeches made at the meetings and the voting results;
- (v) Details of the queries or recommendations of the shareholders, and the corresponding answers or explanations;
- (vi) The name of lawyers, counting officers and scrutinizers;
- (vii) Such other matters which shall be recorded in the meeting minutes in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article 117

Copies of the meeting minutes of any shareholders' general meeting shall, during business hours of the Company, be open for inspection by any shareholder without charge. If a shareholder requests a copy of such minutes from the Company, the Company shall send a copy of such minutes to him within seven days after the receipt of reasonable fees thereof.

- Article 118 The resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings shall be announced promptly in accordance with the relevant laws, regulations and the relevant requirements of the stock exchange at the place where the shares of the Company are listed, specifying the number of shareholders present in person and by proxy at the meetings, the total number of voting shares held by them, the percentage of such voting shares in the total number of the voting shares of the Company, the total number of the shares that have to be abstained in accordance with the requirements of the securities regulatory body where the Company's securities are listed, and/or the total number of shares (if any) to be abstained from voting, the voting methods, the voting results of each proposal and the details of the resolutions passed, as well as the identity of counting officers and scrutinizers.
- Article 119 Where a proposal has not been passed or the resolution of any previous general meeting is modified in the current general meeting, a special reminder shall be given in the resolutions of the general meeting.
- Article 120 If the proposal on election of new directors and supervisors is adopted at the shareholders' general meeting, the tenure of directors and supervisors to take the position shall be calculated from the date when they are elected.
- Article 121 If any proposal for a cash dividend, share allocation, or conversion from capital reserves to share capital is passed at the shareholders' general meetings, the Company shall implement detailed plans within 2 months after the conclusion of the shareholders' general meetings.
- Article 122 The Company shall, in connection with the convening of a shareholders' general meeting, engage lawyers to issue legal opinions in respect of the following matters and make relevant public announcements accordingly:
- (i) Whether the procedures relating to the convening and the holding of such meeting comply with the laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or these Articles of Association;
 - (ii) The legality and validity of the qualifications of the attendees and the convener of the meeting;
 - (iii) The legality and validity of the voting procedures and voting results of the meeting;

- (iv) Legal opinions issued on other related matters as requested by the Company.

CHAPTER IX SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING BY CLASS SHAREHOLDERS

Article 123 Shareholders who held different classes of shares are referred to as class shareholders. Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and assume obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of place where the shares of the Company are listed and these Articles of Association.

Article 124 Rights granted on any class of shareholders may not be varied or abrogated save as adoption by a special resolution at the shareholders' general meetings, and by the shareholders of the affected class at the shareholders' general meetings convened respectively in accordance with Articles 126 through 130.

Article 125 The following circumstances shall be deemed to be variation or abrogation of the rights of a certain class of shareholders:

- (i) To increase or decrease the number of shares of that class, or to increase or decrease the number of shares of a class having voting or rights to distribution or privileges equal or superior to those of shares of that class;
- (ii) To exchange all or part of the shares of that class for shares of another class or to exchange or to grant a right to exchange all or part of the shares of another class for shares of that class;
- (iii) To cancel or reduce rights to accrued dividends or rights to cumulative dividends attached to shares of that class;
- (iv) To reduce or cancel preferential rights attached to shares of that class to receive dividends or to the distribution of assets in the event that the Company is liquidated;
- (v) To increase, cancel or reduce conversion privileges, options, voting rights, transfer or pre-emptive rights, or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of that class;
- (vi) To cancel or reduce rights to receive payment payable by the Company in particular currencies attached to shares of that class;

- (vii) To create a new class of shares having voting rights or rights to distribution or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (viii) To restrict the transfer or ownership of shares of that class or to increase the types of restrictions attaching thereto;
- (ix) To issue rights to subscribe for, or to convert the existing shares into, shares in the Company of that class or another class;
- (x) To increase the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
- (xi) To restructure the Company in such a way so as to result in the disproportionate distribution of obligations among the various classes of shareholders; and
- (xii) To vary or abrogate the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 126

Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not otherwise having the right to vote at shareholders' general meetings, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters concerning items (ii) to (viii), (xi) to (xii) of Article 125, but interested shareholder(s) shall not be entitled to vote at such class meetings.

The term "interested shareholders" as referred to the preceding paragraph means:

- (i) In the case of a repurchase of shares by way of a general offer to all shareholders of the Company or by way of public trading on a stock exchange pursuant to Article 27, an "interested shareholder" is a controlling shareholder within the meaning of Article 62 of these Articles of Association;
- (ii) In the case of a repurchase of shares by an agreement out of a stock exchange pursuant to Article 27 of these Articles of Association, an "interested shareholder" means a holder of the shares to which the said agreement relates; or

- (iii) In the case of a restructuring of the Company, an “interested shareholder” means a shareholder who assumes a relatively lower proportion of obligation than the obligations imposed on other shareholders of that class under the proposed restructuring, or who has an interest in the proposed restructuring different from the general interests of the shareholders of that class.

Article 127 Resolutions of a class of shareholders shall be passed by affirmative votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights of shareholders of that class present at the relevant meetings who, according to Article 126, are entitled to vote thereat.

Article 128 Notice of a class meeting shall be given in accordance with the requirements as set out in Article 69 of these Articles of Association.

Article 129 Notice of class meetings is only needed to serve on shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner which is as similar as possible to that of shareholders’ general meetings. The provisions of these Articles of Association relating to the manner for the holding of shareholders’ general meetings are also applicable to class meetings.

Article 130 Apart from the shareholders of other classes of shares, the shareholders of the domestic shares and shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be deemed to be holders of different classes of shares. If the share capital of the Company includes the shares without voting rights, such shares shall be entitled the wording “without voting rights”. If the share capital includes the shares carrying different voting rights, the shares of each class (except for the shares carrying the most favorable voting rights) shall be entitled the wording “restricted voting rights” or “restrictive voting rights”. The special procedures for voting by a class of shareholders shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (i) Where the Company issues, upon the approval by special resolutions of its shareholders at the general meetings, either separately or concurrently once every twelve months, not more than 20% of each of its existing issued and outstanding domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares; or
- (ii) Where the Company’s plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares at the time of its establishment is carried out within fifteen months from the date of approval of the securities regulatory authority of the State Council.

The Company shall provide necessary conditions for the conduction of party activities, guarantee the venues for activities of the party organization, and finance the party building work in accordance with relevant provisions, which shall be included into its annual budget.

CHAPTER XI THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

SECTION I DIRECTORS

Article 136

Directors are natural persons who are not required to hold any shares in the Company.

The directors are elected by the general meetings. The directors are appointed for a term of three years, from the date of election to the expiration of the term of the current Board of Directors. Upon expiration of the term of office of the directors, they may be re-elected and reappointed.

Article 137

The list of candidates for directors shall be submitted to the general meetings for voting by way of a proposal.

Written notice specifying the intention to nominate candidates for directors and the acceptance of nomination by the candidates concerned shall be given to the Company no later than seven days before convening the general meetings. Time limits for nomination and acceptance of nomination shall be calculated from the date on which the notice of the general meetings is dispatched, but no later than 7 days prior to the date of general meetings.

The shareholders' general meetings may, subject to compliance with relevant laws, administrative regulations, and relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authority at the place where the shares of the Company are listed, by way of ordinary resolution, remove any director whose term of office has not expired (However, claims that can be filed under any contract are not affected by this.).

Article 138

The cumulative voting system may be used in the voting for the election of directors at the shareholders' general meetings in accordance with provisions of these Articles of Association or the resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meetings.

The "cumulative voting system" as referred to in the preceding paragraph means that in the election of directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meetings, the voting right each share has equals to the number of candidates for directors. Shareholders may use their voting right collectively. The Board of Directors shall announce to shareholders the resumes and basic information of these candidates of directors.

Article 139

A director may resign before expiration of his term of office, subject to submission of a written resignation report to the Board of Directors. If the number of the directors of the Company is less than the legal quorum due to a director's resignation, before the re-elected director takes office, the original director shall still perform his duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association.

Other than the circumstances mentioned in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director becomes effective upon submission of his resignation report to the Board of Directors.

Article 140

Where no re-election is made timely upon expiration of the term of office of the director, or the number of the directors of the Company is less than the legal quorum due to a director's resignation, before the reelected director takes office, the original director shall still perform his duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, regulatory rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association.

SECTION II INDEPENDENT NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Article 141 The Company has independent non-executive directors. Independent non-executive directors are such directors who serve no other positions in the Company other than independent non-executive directors, and have no relationship with the Company and its substantial shareholders which may affect their independent and objective judgment. Independent non-executive directors shall account for at least one third of the members of the Board of Directors, and be no less than three. At least one of the Independent non-executive directors of the Company shall have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise, and comply with the requirements under Rule 3.10(2) of the HK Listing Rules.

Independent non-executive directors must satisfy the independence requirement in accordance with Rule 3.13 of the HK Listing Rules.

Article 142 An independent non-executive director shall meet the following basic conditions:

- (i) Being qualified as a director of a listed company in accordance with laws, regulations and normative documents and the provisions of the securities regulatory authority in the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (ii) Having a bachelor's degree or above, or a senior professional title or above;
- (iii) Performing duties independently, without being affected by the substantial shareholders of the Company, de facto controllers or other entities or individuals that have an interest in the Company;
- (iv) Having basic knowledge of the operation of listed companies and being familiar with relevant laws, regulations and normative documents and rules;
- (v) Having more than 5 years of legal, economic, financial, accounting or other work experience conducive to the performance of the duties of an independent non-executive director;
- (vi) Ensuring that there is sufficient time and energy to perform his duties effectively and committing to abide by the fiduciary duty and diligence.

Article 143

An independent non-executive director shall be independent and the following persons shall not act as independent non-executive directors:

- (i) The persons who serve for the Company or its subsidiaries and related parties, and their immediate family members, major social relationships and the core connected persons as defined under the HK Listing Rules;
- (ii) Natural person shareholders and their immediate family members, who directly or indirectly hold more than 1% of the issued shares of the Company among the top 10 shareholders of the Company;
- (iii) The persons providing financial, legal, consulting and other services to the Company or its subsidiaries, and their immediate family members and major social relationships;
- (iv) Other persons as stipulated in these Articles of Association;
- (v) Other persons as stipulated by laws and regulations, the CSRC, the securities regulatory authority in the place where the Company's shares are listed, and other relevant regulatory agencies.

The above-mentioned "immediate family members" refer to spouses, parents, children, etc. (same as below); the above-mentioned major social relationships refer to brothers and sisters, parents-in-law, daughters/sons-in-law, spouses of brothers and sisters, and brothers and sisters of spouses etc.

Article 144

The functions of an independent non-executive director include but not limited to the following:

- (i) To participate in the meetings of the Board of Directors and provide independent opinions on corporate strategic decision-making, appointment of senior management members and other decisions concerning the Company's significant interests;
- (ii) To play a leading and guiding role when there is potential conflicts of interest such as related party transactions, and fully protect the legitimate interests of the Company and investors;

- (iii) To be invited to serve as members of the special committees such as the Audit and Risk Management Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee, and the Strategy and Development Committee; and
- (iv) To carefully check whether the Company's operating performance has achieved the set goals and expressed opinions at relevant meetings.

Article 145

In addition to the provisions of Section I of this Chapter, the provisions of Chapter XV of these Articles of Association concerning the qualifications and obligations of directors shall apply to independent non-executive directors.

Article 146

Where the Board of Directors and the Board of Supervisors request the general meetings to remove an independent non-executive director, they shall serve a written notice to such independent non-executive director within one month before the general meetings. The independent non-executive director has the right to present his opinions, either orally or in writing, prior to the voting. The general meetings shall vote after considering the opinions expressed by such independent non-executive director.

The proposal of the Board of Supervisors to request the removal of an independent non-executive director shall be submitted to the general meetings for consideration by more than two thirds of the votes of all supervisors. The independent non-executive director may explain the situation to the Board of Supervisors and make representations and defenses before the Board of Supervisors proposes a proposal of dismissal.

Article 147

When an independent non-executive director fails to meet the conditions of independence or other circumstances that are not suitable for the performance of the duties of an independent non-executive director, resulting in the number of independent non-executive directors failing to meet the requirements of these Articles of Association, the Company shall supplement the number of independent non-executive directors as required. The term of each independent non-executive director is same as that of other directors of the Company. Upon expiration of the term of office, they may be re-elected and re-appointed, but the term of re-election shall not exceed six years.

SECTION III BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 148

The Company shall have a Board of Directors, consisting of 9 directors, and shall have one chairman, and could have one deputy chairman. The Board of Directors shall include at least one-third of the independent non-executive directors and no less than three independent non-executive directors at any time.

The chairman and deputy chairman shall be elected and removed by more than one half of the directors. The term of office of the chairman and deputy chairman is three (3) years, renewable upon re-election and re-appointment.

Article 149

The Board of Directors shall formulate the rules of procedures to be followed at meetings of the Board of Directors, so as to ensure the Board of Directors fulfill resolutions adopted at the shareholders' general meetings, improve working efficiency and ensure scientific decision making.

Article 150

The Board of Directors tasked for establishing strategies, making decisions and preventing risks shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meetings, and shall exercise the following powers:

- (i) To convene the shareholders' general meetings and to report on its work to the shareholders' general meetings;
- (ii) To implement the resolutions adopted by the shareholders' general meetings;
- (iii) To determine the Company's business plans and investment plans;
- (iv) To formulate the Company's plans for annual financial budgets and final accounts;
- (v) To formulate the Company's profit distribution plans and plans to cover losses;
- (vi) To formulate the plans for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital and for the issuance of the Company's bonds or other securities as well as the listing plans;
- (vii) To formulate plans for major acquisitions, repurchase of the Company's shares;

- (viii) To formulate plans for merger, division, dissolution or change of the corporate form of the Company;
- (ix) To determine, to the extent authorized by the shareholders' general meetings, on such matters as the external investments, purchase or sale of assets, assets pledge, external guarantee, entrusted financing and related transactions of the Company;
- (x) To decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management organizations;
- (xi) To appoint or remove the Company's general manager and the secretary of the Board of Directors, and, according to the nomination of the general manager, to appoint or remove the deputy general manager, chief financial officer, chief engineer and other senior management members and decide on their remuneration, bonus and punishment;
- (xii) To formulate the Company's basic management policies;
- (xiii) To formulate the plans for the amendment to these Articles of Association;
- (xiv) To manage the information disclosure of the Company;
- (xv) To research into, deploy, instruct and promote the major tasks of pursuing accountability for noncompliance in business operations and investment activities;
- (xvi) To promote the improvement of the Company's compliance management system, coordinate its compliance management process and approve its strategic planning, basic policies and annual report on compliance management;
- (xvii) To propose to the shareholders' general meetings for retaining or replacement of the accounting firm that performs auditing for the Company;
- (xviii) To debrief the work report of the general manager of the Company and examine his work;

(xix) To exercise any other powers granted by the laws, regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the company are listed, and other authorities provided by the shareholders' general meetings and these Articles of Association.

Other than the Board of Directors' resolutions in respect of the matters specified in items (vi), (viii) and (xiii) of these Articles of Association which shall be passed by the affirmative votes of more than two-thirds of all directors, the Board of Directors' resolutions in respect of all other matters may be passed by the affirmative votes of a majority of all the directors.

Article 151

No directors shall act, in their personal capacity, on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors beyond provisions in these Articles of Association or without lawful authorization by the Board of Directors. A director shall, when acting in his personal capacity, state his standings and identities in advance if a third party has reasonable reasons to believe that the said director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors.

Article 152

Unless otherwise provided by laws, regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association, the investments in other enterprises or guarantees provided by the Company shall be subject to the resolutions of the Board of Directors.

Article 153

The Board of Directors shall determine the extent of authority for external investments, purchase or sale of assets, assets pledge, external guarantees, entrusted financing and related transactions of the Company, establish strict examination and decision-making procedures, organize related experts and professionals to make assessment in case of significant investment projects and report to the shareholders' general meetings for approval.

Article 154

At the time of disposal of the fixed assets, the Board of Directors shall not, without the approval of shareholders' general meetings, dispose or agree to dispose of any fixed assets of the Company where the aggregate of the expected value of the fixed assets to be disposed of, and the value derived from the fixed assets which have been disposed of within four months immediately preceding the proposed disposition, exceeds 33% of the value of the fixed assets as shown in the latest balance sheet which is considered by the shareholders' general meeting.

For the purposes of this Article, the term of "disposal of the fixed assets" includes an act involving the transfer of an interest in certain assets but does not include the use of fixed assets as security.

The validity of the transaction by disposal of fixed assets by the Company shall not be affected by any breach of the first paragraph of this Article.

Article 155

The chairman of the Board of Directors shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (i) To preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the Board of Directors;
- (ii) To inspect the implementation of resolutions passed by the Board of Directors;
- (iii) To sign the securities issued by the Company;
- (iv) To exercise other powers granted by the Board of Directors and as required by laws, regulations, normative documents and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

The deputy chairman of the Board of Directors shall assist the chairman. If the chairman of the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform his duties, the deputy chairman shall perform such duties (if the Company has two or more deputy chairmen of the Board of Directors, then the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors jointly recommended by more than half of the directors shall perform the duties); if the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors is unable or fails to perform his duties, a director elected by more than half of the directors shall perform such duties.

Article 156

The Board of Directors shall hold at least four regular meetings each year, which shall be convened by the chairman of the Board of Directors and notify all directors, supervisors and general manager fourteen days in advance. An interim board meeting is not subject to the notice time, but a reasonable notice shall be served on all directors, supervisors and general manager.

An interim meeting of the Board of Directors may be convened under any of the following circumstances:

- (i) One third or more directors jointly propose to hold such meeting;
- (ii) The Board of Supervisors proposes to hold such meeting;
- (iii) The shareholders representing one tenth or more of the voting rights propose to hold such meeting;

- (iv) When the chairman of the Board of Directors deems necessary;
- (v) When it is jointly proposed by more than half of independent non-executive directors;
- (vi) When it is proposed by the general manager.

The chairman of the Board of Directors shall convene and preside over the meetings of the Board of Directors within ten days of receipt of the proposal.

Article 157

The notice of the regular and interim meetings of the Board of Directors shall be served in such manners: The written notice affixed with the seal of the Board of Directors shall be served to all directors, supervisors and the general manager by a person, e-mail or fax or in the way permitted by the supervision rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed. Where the above notice is served by e-mail or by fax, the Company shall make a confirmation through phone and keep a record. The time limit for notice: A notice of regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be served fourteen days before the meetings, and a notice of interim meetings of the Board of Directors shall not be subject to the time limit, but a reasonable notice shall also be served to all directors, supervisors and the general manager. The convener shall explain at the meetings and record it in the minutes of the meetings.

Article 158

A notice on the meetings of the Board of Directors shall include:

- i. The time and place of the meetings;
- ii. The duration of the meetings;
- iii. The particulars of matters and the matters to be discussed;
- iv. The date when the notice is given.

Article 159

A meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held only when more than half of the directors are present.

Each director shall have one vote. Any resolution of the Board of Directors must be subject to adoption by a majority of all directors. Where there is an equality of votes both for and against a proposal, the chairman of the Board of Directors shall have an additional casting vote.

Article 160

The directors shall attend the meetings of the Board of Directors in person. Where any director is unable to attend the meetings for reasons, he may, by issuing a written power of attorney, entrust another director to attend the meeting on his behalf, with the scope of authorization to be stated clearly therein.

The directors who attend the meetings on behalf of other directors shall exercise the rights as directors within the scope of authorization. Failure by a director to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors in person, or to authorize a representative to attend the meetings on his behalf, shall be deemed to waive his voting right at such meetings.

Article 161

The Board of Directors shall keep minutes of resolutions on matters discussed at meetings. The directors and the secretary of the Board of Directors present at the meetings shall sign on the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be kept for ten years. The directors shall be responsible for any resolutions adopted by the Board of Directors. If any resolution of the Board of Directors violates the laws, administrative regulations, the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or these Articles of Association, and the Company suffers serious losses as a result, the directors who have participated in passing such resolution shall compensate the Company. However, if it can be proven that a director expressly objects to the resolution when the resolution was voted, and that such objection was recorded in the meeting minutes, such director shall be released from such liability.

SECTION IV SPECIAL COMMITTEES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

- Article 162 The Board of Directors of the Company sets up the Audit and Risk Management Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Remuneration and Evaluation Committee, and the Strategy and Development Committee. The Board of Directors can set up other special committees and adjust existing committees as needed.

- (viii) Not to accept commissions relating to the transactions of the Company without the approval of the shareholders' general meetings with full knowledge;
- (ix) To obey these Articles of Association, perform his duties faithfully, protect the Company's interests, and not to pursue his personal gain by taking advantage of his powers and positions in the Company;
- (x) Not to compete with the Company in any way unless approved by the shareholders' general meetings with full knowledge;
- (xi) Not to misappropriate the funds of the Company or loan the funds of the Company to other persons, open accounts in his own name or another individual's name for deposit of the Company's assets, or use Company's assets as security for the debts of the shareholders of the Company or other individuals;
- (xii) Not to divulge the confidential information relating to the Company received during his terms of office, unless approved by the shareholders' general meetings with full knowledge; and not to use such information unless for the purpose of the Company's interests; however, to be allowed to disclose such information to a court or other governmental authorities under the following circumstances:
 - (1) As prescribed by law;
 - (2) As required for the purpose of public interest;
 - (3) As required for the purpose of such director's, supervisor's, general manager's and other senior management members' own interests.

Article 197

Directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company shall not direct the following persons or organizations (relevant persons) to engage in activities prohibited for directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company:

- (i) Spouses or underage children of directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company;
- (ii) Trustees of directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company or of such persons as described in item (i) of this Article;
- (iii) Partners of directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company or of such persons as described in items (i) or (ii) of this Article;
- (iv) Companies de facto separately controlled by directors, supervisors, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company, or companies de facto jointly controlled with such persons as described in items (i), (ii) or (iii) of this Article or other directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company;
- (v) Directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the controlled company referred to in item (iv) of this Article; and
- (vi) Any person who is deemed to be an associate of the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members in accordance with the HK Listing Rules.

Article 198

The fiduciary duty of a director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management member of the Company may not necessarily cease upon the conclusion of his term of office, their obligations to keep business secrets of the Company confidential shall survive after the conclusion of his term of office. The duration of other obligations shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending upon the time of length between the occurrence of the relevant event and the time when he leaves the office, and the situation and the circumstances and situations under which his relationship with the Company is ended.

Article 199

Any director, supervisor, general manager or other senior management members who violates any law, administrative regulation, rule of regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed, or these Articles of Association during the performance of his duties and causes loss to the Company, shall be liable for compensation.

Article 200

The shareholders' general meetings with full knowledge of the relevant circumstances may relieve the liability of a director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company as a result of his violation of any specific duty, except for the circumstances as set out in Article 61 of these Articles of Association.

Article 201

A director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company who directly or indirectly has material interests in any existing or proposed contracts, transactions, or arrangements with the Company (except for the employment contracts between the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members and the Company), shall, as soon as possible, disclose to the Board of Directors the nature and extent of his interests, regardless of whether or not the relevant matters require the approval of the Board of Directors under normal circumstances.

Any director who has a connected party relationship (as defined by the HK Listing Rules as revised from time to time) with the enterprise involved by the matters subject to resolutions at the meetings of the Board of Directors shall not exercise the voting right on such resolutions, nor exercise the voting right on behalf of another director and shall withdraw from voting. Such meetings of the Board of Directors may be held only if a majority of the directors without related party relationship are present at the meetings, and the resolutions of the meetings of the Board of Directors shall be approved by a majority of the directors without related party relationship. If the number of the directors without related party relationship present at the meetings is less than three, such matters shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meetings of the Company for consideration. The Board of Directors shall explain the deliberation of the Board of Directors on the proposal when the proposal is submitted to the shareholders' general meetings, and shall record the opinions of the directors without related party relationship.

Subject to the exceptions under Note 1 to Appendix 3 of the HK Listing Rules or as approved by the SEHK, no director shall vote for any resolutions of the Board of Directors regarding any contracts, transactions or arrangements in which he or any of his close associates (as defined in the applicable listing rules effective from time to time) has material interests or any other relevant suggestions, and shall not be counted towards the legal quorum of the meeting.

Unless the interested directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company have made such disclosure to the Board of Directors as required by the preceding paragraph of this Article, and the relevant matter has been approved by the Board of Directors at the meetings of the Board of Directors where such directors, supervisors, general manager or other senior management members have not been counted as part of the legal quorum and voted thereat, the Company shall be entitled to cancel such contracts, transactions, or arrangements, except for any other party which is a bona fide party without knowledge of the violation of duties on the part of such directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members.

Where the relevant persons or associates of the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company have interests in certain contracts, transactions or arrangements, such directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members shall also be deemed to be interested.

Article 202

If, prior to the Company's initial consideration of relevant contracts, transactions, or arrangements, a director, supervisor, general manager and any other senior management members of the Company has delivered a written notice to the Board of Directors, which contains the statement that he has interests in the contracts, transactions, or arrangements to be entered into by the Company in the future due to the contents specified in the notice, such director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members shall be deemed to have made the disclosure stipulated by the preceding Article within the scope of the statement contained in the notice.

Article 203

The Company shall not, in any manner, pay taxes for its directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members.

The Company may purchase insurance for various legal risks that directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members may face in performing their duties normally.

Article 204

The Company shall not, directly or indirectly, make a loan to or provide a loan guarantee to any director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company and the Company's parent companies, or to any of the relevant persons of the foregoing.

The preceding provision shall not apply to the following circumstances:

- (i) The provision by the Company of a loan or loan guarantee to its subsidiaries;
- (ii) The provision by the Company of a loan or loan guarantee or any other funds available to any of its directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members to meet expenditures incurred by him for the purpose of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his duties in accordance with the employment contract approved by the shareholders' general meetings;
- (iii) If the ordinary course of business of the Company includes the provision of a loan or loan guarantee, the Company may provide a loan or loan guarantee to the relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members and the relevant persons thereof, provided that they are on normal commercial terms.

Article 205

Any person who receives funds from a loan which has been made by the Company acting in breach of the preceding Article shall, irrespective of the terms of the loan, forthwith repay such funds to the Company.

Article 206

The loan guarantee which has been provided by the Company in breach of the preceding item (i) of Article 204 shall not be enforceable against the Company, save in respect of the following circumstances:

- (i) The loan was provided to a relevant person of any of the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company or the Company's parent companies and the lender of such funds did not know of the relevant circumstances at the time of the loan;
- (ii) The collateral which has been provided by the Company has already been lawfully sold by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 207

For the purpose of the preceding provisions of this Chapter, the term "guarantee" shall include the undertaking of liability or the provision of property by the guarantor to secure the obligator's performance of his obligations.

Article 208

When a director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members of the Company breaches the duties which he owes to the Company, in addition to any rights and remedies provided by laws, administrative regulations and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company shall be entitled:

- (i) To demand relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members to indemnify the losses sustained by the Company as a result of such breach of duty;
- (ii) To rescind any contract or transaction entered into between the Company and relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members and between the Company and a third party (where such party knew or should have known that such director, supervisor, general manager and other senior management members representing the Company has been in breach of his duty owed to the Company);
- (iii) To demand relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members to return the benefits as result of the breach of his duty;
- (iv) To recover any money which otherwise should have been received by the Company but were received by relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members instead, including (without limitation) any commissions;
- (v) To demand repayment of any interests earned or which may have been earned by relevant directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members on monies which should have been received by the Company.

Article 209

The Company shall enter into a written contract with each director and supervisor, and shall be approved in advance by the general meetings or meetings of Board of Directors. The written contracts shall at least include the following provisions:

- (i) The directors, supervisors and senior management members shall undertake to the Company, to comply with the Company Law, the Special Regulations, these Articles of Association and the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and the Codes on Share Repurchases and other regulations of the SEHK, and agree that the Company will be entitled to the remedies as provided in these Articles of Association, and that neither the contract nor his office is capable of assignment;
- (ii) The directors, supervisors or senior management members shall undertake to the Company representing each shareholder, to comply with and perform the duties that he shall perform to the shareholders as required by these Articles of Association;
- (iii) The arbitration provisions as specified in Article 257 hereof.

The aforesaid remuneration may include:

- (i) Remuneration in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management member of the Company;
- (ii) Remuneration in respect of his service as a director, supervisor or senior management member of any subsidiary of the Company;
- (iii) Remuneration in respect of the provision of other services in connection with the management of the Company and any of its subsidiaries; and
- (iv) Payment by way of compensation for loss of office or in connection with the retirement of such director or supervisor from office.

No proceedings may be brought by a director or supervisor against the Company for anything due to him in respect of the matters mentioned in this Article except pursuant to any contract described above. The Company shall also disclose periodically to the shareholders about the remuneration of directors, supervisors and other senior management members received from the Company.

Article 210

Any contracts for remuneration between the Company and its directors or supervisors shall provide that in the event that the Company is to be acquired by others, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders' general meetings, have the right to receive compensation or other payment in respect of his loss of office or retirement.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the acquisition of the Company includes any of the following:

- (i) An acquisition offer made by any person to all the shareholders; or
- (ii) An acquisition offer made by any person with a view to enable the offeror to become a "controlling shareholder", which has the same meaning as prescribed in Article 62 of these Articles of Association.

If the relevant director or supervisor does not comply with this Article, any sum so received by him shall belong to those persons who have sold their shares as a result of acceptance of such offer. The expenses incurred for distributing such sum on a pro rata basis amongst such persons shall be borne by such director or supervisor and shall not be paid out of such sum.

CHAPTER XVI FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEMS AND PROFITS DISTRIBUTION

Article 211

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting policies in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Accounting Standards of China formulated by the competent finance authorities under the State Council.

Article 212

At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall prepare a financial report which shall be audited by an accounting firm according to law.

The fiscal year of the Company shall coincide with the calendar year, i.e. from January 1 to December 31 on the Gregorian calendar.

Article 213

The Board of Directors of the Company shall present to the shareholders, at every shareholders' annual meeting, such financial reports as are required to be prepared by the Company in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, regulatory documents promulgated by local governments and competent governmental authorities and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 214

The Company's financial reports shall be maintained at the Company for shareholders' inspection twenty days before the date of the annual shareholders' general meetings. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

Article 215

The Company shall, at least 21 days before the date of the shareholders' annual meetings, using the method approved by the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed to deliver to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign shares such aforesaid reports, together with reports of the Board of Directors and the balance sheet (including each document required to be attached to the balance sheet as provided by laws), the income statement or the statement of revenues and expenditures. If delivered by postage-paid mails, the address of the recipient is based on the address registered on the register of shareholders. Without prejudice to the laws, regulations and listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the Company may also issue or provide the same to shareholders through the stock exchange and the Company's website or electronically, without having to issue or provide it in the manner described above.

Article 216

The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with accounting standards and regulations of China, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or those of the place outside the PRC where the shares of the Company are listed. If there is any material discrepancy between the financial statements prepared in accordance with two accounting standards, such discrepancy shall be stated in the notes to financial statements. In distributing its after-tax profits for relevant accounting year, the lower of the after-tax profits presented in the aforesaid two financial statements shall prevail. If the applicable laws and/or listing rules of the place of overseas listing recognize the financial statements prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards and do not strictly require the financial statements to be prepared in accordance with the accounting standard of the place of overseas listing, it is not necessary for the Company to prepare its financial statements in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place of overseas listing.

Article 217

Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with accounting standards and regulations of China, as well as either international accounting standards, or those of the place outside the PRC where the shares of the Company are listed. If the applicable laws and/or listing rules of the place of overseas listing recognize the interim results or financial information prepared in accordance with the PRC accounting standards, and do not strictly require the financial information to be prepared in accordance with the accounting standard of the place of overseas listing, it is not necessary for the Company to prepare its interim results or financial information in accordance with international accounting standards or the accounting standards of the place of overseas listing.

Article 218

The Company shall publish the financial reports twice every accounting year, that is, the interim financial report within 60 days after the end of the first six months of an accounting year, and the annual financial report within 120 days after the end of the accounting year.

The above financial accounting reports are prepared in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 219

The Company shall not establish accounting book other than those required by law. No assets of the Company shall be deposited in any account opened in the name of any individual.

Article 220

In distributing the current year’s profit after taxation, 10% of the profit shall be allocated into the Company’s statutory surplus reserve fund. When the aggregate amount of the statutory surplus reserve has reached 50% of the Company’s registered capital, further appropriations are not required.

When the statutory surplus reserve of the Company is not sufficient to cover its losses incurred in the previous years, the profit of the current year shall be used to make up for such losses before allocations are made to the statutory surplus reserve in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

After the Company has allocated statutory surplus reserve from its profit after taxation, it may also appropriate discretionary reserve fund from the profit after taxation upon approval by general meetings.

The remaining profit after taxation after recovery of losses and appropriation of reserve fund, shall be distributed to shareholders in proportion of their shareholdings unless it is stipulated in these Articles of Association that no profit distribution shall be made in accordance with shareholdings.

If the general meeting has, in violation of the preceding paragraph, distributed profits to shareholders before the Company has covered the losses and allocated statutory surplus reserve, the shareholders shall return to the Company the profit distributed in violation of regulations.

No profit shall be distributed in respect of the shares held by the Company.

Article 221

The capital reserve fund includes the following:

- (i) Any premium from share issuance at the price higher than the par value of shares;
- (ii) Any other income designated for the capital reserve fund as required by the competent finance authority under the State Council.

Article 222

The reserve funds of the Company shall be used to cover the Company’s losses, expand its production and operation, or be converted to the Company’s increased capital. However, the capital reserve funds of the Company shall not be used to cover the Company’s losses.

Where the statutory surplus reserve fund is to be converted into capital, the remained reserve fund may not fall below 25% of the registered capital of the Company before such conversion.

Article 223

The Company may distribute dividends by the following ways.

- (i) Cash;
- (ii) Shares.

Article 224

The Company implements the following profit distributions:

After a resolution of the profit distribution plan is adopted at the shareholders' general meetings of the Company, the Board of Directors of the Company must complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within two months after the shareholders' general meeting is held.

When distributing dividends to its shareholders, the Company shall, in accordance with the tax law of the PRC, withhold and pay on behalf of shareholders the taxes payable on their dividend income.

Interests may accrue on any shares that have been already paid before the call is made, but the holder of such shares shall have no right to participate in the distribution of the dividends made thereafter with respect to the prepaid shares.

Article 225

The Company shall appoint receiving agents for the shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares. Such receiving agents shall on behalf of such shareholders receive dividends distributed by the Company in respect of the overseas listed foreign shares and all other amounts payable, hold in custody such amounts on behalf of such shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares, to be paid to such holders.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the relevant requirements of the laws of the place or the relevant requirements of the stock exchange of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company for the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares shall each be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

In respect of dividends received by shareholders, the Company has the right to confiscate unclaimed dividends subject to the provisions of the relevant stock exchanges, and such powers may not be exercised until the expiration of the applicable limitation period.

The Company shall have the right to terminate the serving of dividend warrant in the form of mailing, but it may exercise such power only if:

- (i) the dividend warrant hasn't been cashed for twice consecutively; or
- (ii) the dividend warrant could not reach the addressee at the first time and is returned.

With respect to the exercise of power to issue warrants to bearer holders, unless the Company, without reasonable doubt, does believe that the original warrants have been destroyed, no new warrants may be issued in place of the lost warrants.

The Company shall have the right to sell the shares of the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares that cannot be contacted in such a manner as the Board of Directors deems appropriate, subject to the following conditions:

- (i) dividends on the relevant shares have been distributed for at least three times within twelve years and were not claimed during the period; and
- (ii) after the expiration of the twelve-year period, the Company has published an announcement in one or more newspapers at the place where the Company's shares are listed, stating its intention to sell the shares, and notifying such intention to the stock exchanges where such shares are listed.

If a shareholder does not claim dividends within one year from the date of the Company's declaration of dividends, the Board of Directors has the right to invest in such dividends for the benefit of the Company or for other purposes. Subject to the relevant laws and regulations of PRC, the shareholders shall lose the right to claim any dividend that is not claimed within six years after the announcement of the distribution, and the Company may exercise the right of confiscation.

Dividends may be paid for any shares paid prior to the call, but the holder of the shares is not entitled to participate in the dividends made thereafter with respect to the prepaid shares.

Article 226 The Company shall implement an internal auditing system and appoint full time auditors to carry out internal auditing and supervision of the Company's incomes and expenses and economic activities.

Article 227 The Company's internal auditing system and the responsibilities of the auditors shall be carried out after approval by the Board of Directors. The audit leader shall be accountable and report to the Board of Directors.

CHAPTER XVII ENGAGEMENT OF ACCOUNTING FIRM

Article 228 The Company shall engage an independent accounting firm which is in compliance with the regulations of the State to audit the Company's annual financial report and to review other financial reports of the Company.

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed at the inaugural meeting of the Company before the first shareholders' annual general meeting and the accounting firm so appointed shall hold office until the conclusion of the first shareholders' annual general meeting.

If the inaugural meeting fails to exercise its powers under the preceding paragraph, those powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors.

Article 229 The term of the accounting firm engaged by the Company shall commence from the conclusion of the shareholders' annual meeting and expire at the conclusion of the next shareholders' annual meeting; the accounting firm may be re-engaged upon expiration of the term.

Article 230 The Company warrants that it shall provide the engaged accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial and accounting reports, and other accounting information, and shall not refuse to provide, hide, or misrepresent any information.

Article 231 The accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (i) To inspect the books, records or vouchers of the Company at any time, to require the directors, general manager or other senior management members of the Company to provide relevant information and explanations;
- (ii) To require the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries such information and explanations as are necessary for the discharge of its duties by the accounting firm;
- (iii) To attend the shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, any shareholders' general meeting which any shareholder is entitled to receive, and to speak at any shareholders' general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's accounting firm.

Article 232

If there is a vacancy in the position of accounting firm of the Company, the Board of Directors may engage an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. Any other accounting firm which has been engaged by the Company may continue to act during the period during which a vacancy exists.

Article 233

The shareholders' general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, irrespective of the provisions in the contract between the Company and the accounting firm. However, the accounting firm's right to claim for damages which arise from its removal shall not be affected thereby.

Article 234

The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders' general meetings. The remuneration of the accounting firm engaged by the Board of Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors.

Article 235

The Company's engagement, removal or discontinuance of engagement of an accounting firm shall be resolved by the shareholders' general meetings. Such resolution shall be filed with the securities regulatory authority under the State Council. Where a resolution is adopted at the shareholders' general meetings to appoint an accounting firm other than an incumbent accounting firm, to fill any vacancy in the office of the accounting firm, or to reappoint an accounting firm which is appointed by the Board of Directors to fill the vacancy or to remove an accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (i) A copy of the appointment or removal proposal shall be sent (before notice of the shareholders' general meeting is given) to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or proposed to leave its post or the accounting firm which has left its post in the relevant accounting year. The term "leave" includes being removed, resignation and retirement.
- (ii) If the accounting firm which is to leave its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to give the shareholders notice of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations are received too late) take the following measures:
 - 1. In any notice for the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact that the representations have been made by the accounting firm which is to leave its post; and
 - 2. Attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to all shareholders in the manner stipulated in these Articles of Association.
- (iii) If the Company fails to send out the accounting firm's representations in the manner set out in item (ii) above, the relevant accounting firm may require that the representations be read out at the shareholders' general meetings and may make further complaint.

- (iv) An accounting firm leaving its post shall be entitled to attend the following meetings:
 - 1. The shareholders' general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise be expired;
 - 2. The shareholders' general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its removal; and
 - 3. The shareholders' general meeting which is convened as a result of its resignation.

The accounting firm leaving its post shall have the right to receive all notices of, or other information relating to, any such meeting, to speak at any such meeting on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 236

When the Company intends to remove or do not renew the engagement of an accounting firm, it shall notify the said firm in advance. The accounting firm shall have the right to state its opinions to the shareholders' general meetings. Where the accounting firm proposes for resignation, it shall state to the shareholders' general meetings whether or not there is anything improper in the Company.

The accounting firm may resign by placing its written notice of resignation at the legal address of the Company. The said notice shall come into effect on the day when it is placed at the legal address of the Company or a later date as indicated therein. Such notice shall include the following representations:

- (i) Representation stating that it deems that its resignation does not involve any situation necessary to be explained to the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (ii) Representation regarding any issues to be explained.

The Company shall, within fourteen days upon receipt of the written notice prescribed in the preceding paragraph, send copies of such notice to the competent authority. If the said notice contains representations mentioned in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph, the Company shall keep copies of such representations in the Company for inspection by shareholders. The Company shall also deliver copies thereof to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign shares by postage-paid mail at the address registered in the register of shareholders. Under the premise of not violating the laws and regulations and listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the Company may also issue or provide it to the shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares through the stock exchange and the Company's website or through electronic means.

If the resignation notice of the accounting firm contains a representation mentioned in item (ii) of Paragraph 2 of this Article, the accounting firm may request the Board of Directors to convene a shareholders' extraordinary meeting to hear its explanations on issues relating to its resignation.

CHAPTER XVIII MERGER, DIVISION, CAPITAL INCREASE AND CAPITAL REDUCTION OF THE COMPANY

Article 237

In the event of the merger or division of the Company, a plan shall be presented by the Board of Directors of the Company and shall be approved in accordance with the procedures stipulated in these Articles of Association. The Company shall then handle the relevant approval procedures according to the law. A shareholder who objects to the plan of merger or division shall have the right to demand the Company or the shareholders who consent to the plan of merger or division to acquire his shares at a fair price. The contents of the resolution of merger or division of the Company shall constitute special documents which shall be available for inspection by the shareholders.

The abovementioned documents shall also be served by mail on H share shareholders.

Article 238

The merger of the Company may take the form of either merger by absorption or merger by consolidation.

In the event of merger of the Company, the parties to such merger shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days of, and make announcement at least three times in the newspaper within thirty days of, the date of the Company's resolution for merger. A creditor may, within thirty days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of failure to receive such notice, within forty-five days of the date of announcement, require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

After merger, any creditor's rights and indebtedness of the merged parties shall be assumed by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

Article 239

In the event of division of the Company, its assets shall be divided up accordingly.

In the event of division of the Company, the parties to division shall execute a division agreement and prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days of, and make announcement at least three times in the newspaper within thirty days, of the date of the Company's division resolution.

The debts of the Company prior to the division shall be assumed jointly and severally by the companies arising from the division, save as agreed in the written agreement between the Company and the creditors in respect of discharging of the debts prior to the division.

Article 240

The Company must prepare a balance sheet and a list of its assets when it intends to reduce its registered capital. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days of, and make announcement in the newspaper within thirty days, of the date of the Company's resolution for reduction of capital. A creditor may, within thirty days of receipt of the notice from the Company or, in the case of failure to receive such notice, within forty-five days of the date of announcement, require the Company to repay its debts or to provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

Article 241

The Company shall, in accordance with the law, handle the procedures for change registration with the company registration authority where a change in any registration items arises as a result of any merger or division. In the event of dissolution of the Company, the Company shall handle the procedures for registration of cancellation in accordance with the law. In the event of establishment of a new company, the Company shall handle the procedures for registration of establishment in accordance with the law.

Where the Company increases or reduces its registered capital, the Company shall handle the procedures for changing registration with the company registration authority in accordance with the law.

CHAPTER XIX DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 242

The Company may be dissolved and go into liquidation in accordance with law in any of the following circumstances:

CHAPTER XX PROCEDURES FOR AMENDMENTS TO THE ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION OF THE COMPANY

Article 252 The Company may amend these Articles of Association in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, supervision rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and these Articles of Association. In any of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend these Articles of Association:

- (i) these Articles of Association are contradictory to any provision of the amended version of the Company Law or other relevant laws or administrative regulations or supervision rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (ii) there is any change to the condition of the Company, which is inconsistent with any matter recorded in these Articles of Association;
- (iii) the shareholders' general meeting decides to amend these Articles of Association.

Article 253 Any amendment to these Articles of Association shall, if involving the contents in the Mandatory Provisions, become effective after approved by the company approval authority authorized by the State Council and the securities regulatory authority under the State Council; if there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, the procedures for change registration shall be handled in accordance with the law.

Article 254 The Board of Directors shall amend these Articles of Association according to the resolutions of the shareholders' general meetings for amendments hereof and the approval opinions of competent authority. Any amendments to these Articles of Association which are required to be disclosed pursuant to laws and regulations shall be made known to the public accordingly.

CHAPTER XXI NOTICES

Article 255

The Company's notices (In this Chapter, "Notices" includes notices of meetings, company communications or other written materials issued by the Company to shareholders) may be delivered in the following ways:

- (i) By personal delivery;
- (ii) By mail;
- (iii) By email, fax or other electronic means, or other information carriers;
- (iv) By an announcement published in the press;
- (v) By publication on the website of the Company and websites designated by the Company and the securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed, provided that it is permitted under the laws and regulations and relevant rules of securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (vi) By other ways as agreed in advance between the Company and the addressee or as accepted by the addressee after the notice is received; and
- (vii) By any other means as accepted by securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed or as prescribed in these Articles of Association.

Notices issued by the Company shall be announced on the newspapers and/or other designated media (including websites) designated by the securities regulatory authorities and stock exchanges of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Even if these Articles of Association specify the form of notification, communication or any other written materials, the Company may choose to publish the corporate communications in the form stipulated in item (v) of the first paragraph of this Article, and send or provide the corporate communications to the shareholders of the Company's overseas listed foreign shares instead of being sent by personal delivery or by postage-paid mail, if it is in compliance with the HK Listing Rules, and under the premise of compliance with the laws and listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, regarding providing and/or distributing corporate communications.

“Corporate Communications” means any document issued or intended to be issued by the Company for the holder of any securities of the Company to act or take actions, including but not limited to:

- (i) Annual reports, including the reports of the Board of Directors, the Company's annual accounts together with the auditor's reports and, where applicable, the financial summary reports;

- (iii) Notices of the meetings;
- (iv) Listing documents;
- (v) Circulars;
- (vi) Proxy forms;
- (vii) Receipt and other document data; and
- (viii) Other documents as required by the laws, regulations and listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Article 256

Where a notice of the Company is served by personal delivery and, the addressee signs his name (or affixes his chop) on the receipt, and the date on which the addressee signs the receipt shall be the date of service; where a notice is to be sent by post, such notice is deemed to be served on the second business day after the date on which it is deposited at the post office. Where a notice of the Company is made by public announcement, the date on which the announcement is first published shall be the date of service.

When the Company provides the shareholders with the documents mentioned in Article 255 of these Articles of Association in an electronic manner, they shall be published on the stock exchange and the Company's website in accordance with the requirements of the stock exchange, and shall be deemed to have been received by all shareholders after publication.

If the Company is required to send, post, distribute, issue, publish or otherwise provide company-related documents in English and Chinese in accordance with the supervision rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, and the Company has made appropriate arrangements to determine whether its shareholders wish only to receive the English versions or Chinese versions, and to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations and in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, the Company may, in accordance with the wishes of the shareholders, send only the English versions or Chinese versions to the relevant shareholders.

CHAPTER XXII SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 257

The Company shall abide by the following rules for settlement of disputes:

- (i) Any disputes or claims in connection with the affairs of the Company arising between the shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares and the Company, between the shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares and the Company's directors, supervisors, general manager or other senior management members, between the shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares and shareholders of domestic shares, in respect of any rights or obligations in relation to the Company's affairs and in accordance with these Articles of Association, and as prescribed by the Company Law and any other relevant laws, administrative regulations and regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed shall be referred by the relevant parties concerned to the arbitration body for arbitration.

When a dispute or claim referred to in the preceding paragraph is submitted for arbitration, the entire claim or dispute must be submitted to arbitration, and all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, where such person is the Company, or the Company's shareholders, directors, supervisors, general manager or other senior management members of the Company, shall comply with the arbitration.

Dispute in respect of the definition of shareholders and dispute in relation to the register of shareholders need not be resolved by arbitration.

- (ii) A claimant may select for arbitration to be carried out at China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with the arbitration rules thereof or Hong Kong International Arbitration Center in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules thereof. Once a claimant submits a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body selected by the claimant.

If a claimant selects for arbitration to be carried out at Hong Kong International Arbitration Center, any party to the dispute or claim may apply for arbitration to take place in Shenzhen in accordance with the Securities Arbitration Rules of Hong Kong International Arbitration Center.

- (iii) If any disputes or claims are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with item (i), the laws of the PRC shall govern, save as otherwise provided in the laws, administrative regulations and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.
- (iv) The award rendered by an arbitral body shall be final and conclusive and binding on all parties.

CHAPTER XXIII SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Article 258 The phrases “more than”, “within” and “less than” herein for the numbers shall include the numbers indicated themselves, while the phrases “exceed”, “beyond” and “over” shall exclude the numbers indicated themselves.

Article 259 For a company listed in Hong Kong, the meaning of the accounting firm referred to in the Mandatory Provisions is the same as the “auditor” referred to in the HK Listing Rules.

Article 260 These Articles of Association are made in both Chinese and English. In the event of any discrepancy between the English and Chinese versions, the Chinese version shall prevail.

The right to interpret these Articles of Association shall be vested in the Board of Directors of the Company. Any matters not covered in these Articles of Association shall be proposed by the Board of Directors at the general meetings for consideration and approval. If there is any discrepancy between the provisions concerning such matter of these Articles of Association and relevant laws and regulations, normative documents and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the latter shall prevail.

Article 261 The annexes to these Articles of Association include the Rules of Procedure for the General Meetings, the Rules of Procedure for the Board of Directors and the Rules of Procedure for the Board of Supervisors.
