Article 21 The Company has filed with the CSRC on June 14, 2023 and approved by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on September 27, 2023 to issue not more than 21,155,400 overseas listed foreign shares to investors. Upon completion of the issue of overseas listed foreign shares and the partial exercise of the over-allotment option, the share capital structure of the Company shall be: the total number of shares of the Company of 465,858,733 shares, all of which are ordinary shares with a par value of RMB1 each.

Article 22 No financial assistance in the form of grants, advances, guarantees, indemnities or loans shall be given by the Company or by a subsidiary of the Company (including an affiliate of the Company) to a person who purchases or proposes to purchase shares in the Company.

Section 2 Increase, Reduction and Repurchase of Shares

Article 23 Based on its operating and development needs, the Company may, pursuant to the laws and regulations and with the approval by resolution at a general meeting, increase its capital in the following ways:

- (I) Public offering of shares;
- (II) Non-public offering of shares;
- (III) Distribute bonus shares to existing shareholders;
- (IV) Convert capital reserves of the Company into share capital;
- (V) Any other means stipulated in the laws and administrative regulations and approved by the CSRC.

Article 24 The Company may reduce its registered capital. The reduction in registered capital shall be made in accordance with the procedures set out in Company Law, Hong Kong Listing Rules, other applicable regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 25 The Company shall not acquire shares in the Company. Except in the following cases:

- (I) reducing the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) merger with another company which holds the shares of the Company;
- (III) using such shares in connection with employee share ownership schemes or share incentives;
- (IV) request to the Company to acquire the shares from shareholders who vote against any resolution adopted at the shareholders' general meeting on the merger or demerger of the Company;
- (V) using the shares for conversion of convertible corporate bonds issued by the listed company;
- (VI) it is necessary for a listed company to maintain its value and the shareholders' equity.

Article 26 The Company may purchase its own shares by way of open and centralized transaction, or other means approved by laws and regulations and the CSRC. Where the Company acquires its shares due to the circumstances specified in (3), (5) and (6) of Article 25 of the Articles of Association, it shall be conducted by way of open and centralized transaction.

Where the relevant laws and regulations, regulatory documents and relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authority at the places where the Company's shares are listed have any other provisions in respect of the matters relating to the aforesaid repurchase of shares, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 27 Repurchase of the Company's shares for reasons set out in (I) to (II) of Article 25 of the Articles of Association shall be subject to resolution at a general meeting. Repurchase of the Company's shares for reasons set out in (III), (V) or (VI) of Article 25 of the Articles of Association shall, in accordance with the mandate granted at a general meeting, be resolved by a meeting of the board of directors at which more than 2/3 of the Directors are present. Shares repurchased by the Company under subparagraph (I) of Article 25 shall be cancelled within 10 days from the date of repurchase; the shares repurchased under sub-paragraphs (II) and (IV) of Article 25 hereof shall be transferred or cancelled within 6 months; and the shares repurchased by the Company in accordance with subparagraphs (III), (V) and (VI), of Article 25 hereof shall not exceed 10% of the Company's total issued shares, and the shares repurchased shall be transferred or cancelled within three years.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 28 Shares of the Company are legally transferable. The Company's overseas-listed shares are listed and traded on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange

All the overseas listed shares listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be transferred by way of instruments of transfer in writing in standard or general form, or any other forms acceptable to the board of directors (including the standard transfer format or form of transfer specified by Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time); the instruments of transfer may be signed by hand or by the valid seal of the Company (where the transferor or transferee is a company). In case the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined under the relevant ordinances in effect from time to time in accordance with the laws of Hong Kong or its agent, the instruments of transfer may be signed by hand or in a printed form. All instruments of transfer shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or at such address as the board of directors shall designate from time to time.

Article 29 The Company shall not accept any of its own shares as the subject of pledge.

Article 30 Shares of the Company held by promoters shall not be transferred for a period of one year after the Company's establishment. The shares issued before the Company's public offering of shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date the Company's shares are listed and traded on a stock exchange.

Article 31 The directors, supervisors and senior management officers of the Company shall declare to the Company the number of shares of the Company they hold and the subsequent changes in their shareholdings. The number of shares that such persons may transfer every year during their terms of office shall not exceed 25% of the total number of the Company's shares held by him; the shares held in the Company shall not be transferred within one year as from the date when the Company shares have been listed. Such personnel shall not transfer the Company's shares held within half a year after they have terminated their employment with the Company.

Article 32 If the Company's directors, supervisors, senior managers, and shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company's shares sell the Company's shares or other securities with equity properties held by them within 6 months after the purchase, or repurchased within 6 months of after the sale, the proceeds thereby shall belong to the Company, and the board of directors of the Company shall take back the proceeds, except that a securities company holds more than 5% of the shares as a result of underwriting the purchase of the remaining shares after the sale, and where there are other circumstances as prescribed by the CSRC.

The shares or other securities of an equity nature held by directors, supervisors, senior management or natural shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include shares or other securities of an equity nature held by their spouses, parents or children and those held using the accounts of others.

If the board of directors of the Company fails to implement the provisions in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article, the shareholders shall have the right to request the board of directors to do so within 30 days. If the board of directors of the Company fails to enforce the same within the said period, the shareholders shall have the right to bring a lawsuit directly to the People's Court in their own name in the interest of the Company.

If the Company's board of directors fails to implement the provisions of the first paragraph of this Article, the responsible directors shall bear joint and several liabilities according to the law.

CHAPTER 4 SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 33 The Company shall establish a register of shareholders and the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence for the shareholders' shareholding in the Company. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the class and numbers of shares held by that shareholder. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

The Company shall maintain a complete register of shareholders. The register of shareholders shall include the following parts:

- (I) the register of shareholders kept at the Company's corporate domicile (other than those registers of shareholders as described in sub-paragraphs (II) and (III) of this Article);
- (II) the register of shareholders of overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company kept at the place where the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed is located;
- (III) The register of shareholders kept at such other place as the board of directors may deem necessary for the purpose of listing of the Company's shares.

Alteration or rectification of each part of the register of shareholders shall be carried out in accordance with the laws of the place where such part of the register of shareholders is maintained.

The Company may maintain overseas the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares and entrust the administration thereof to an overseas agent in accordance with the understanding and agreement reached between the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and the overseas securities regulatory authorities. The original register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong. Where the original and copies of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares are inconsistent, the original one shall prevail.

Article 34 Where the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, liquidates, or carries out other activities that require the determination of shareholdings, the board of directors shall set a date for ascertainment of the shareholding. Upon the close of such date, the shareholders who appear in the register of shareholders shall be deemed as the shareholders of the Company.

Where there are provisions in the Hong Kong Listing Rules in respect of the period for closure for transfer of shares prior to the date of a shareholders' general meeting or the record date of the Company for determining entitlement to distributions, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 35 Holders of shares of the Company shall have the following rights:

- (I) The right to receive dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (II) The right to request, convene, chair, attend and vote in person or appoint a proxy to attend and vote on their behalf at shareholders' general meetings in proportion to the number of shares held in accordance with the laws;
- (III) right to supervise the Company's business operations, and to put forward proposals and raise enquiries;
- (IV) right to transfer, give as a gift or pledge the shares held in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (V) inspection of this Prospectus, the register of shareholders, the Company's bond stubs, the minutes of general meetings, the resolutions of the board of directors' Meeting, the resolutions of the supervisory committee meeting and the financial and accounting reports;
- (VI) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of the remaining assets of the Company in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (VII) with respect to shareholders who voted against any resolution adopted at the shareholders' general meeting on the merger or demerger of the Company, the right to demand the Company to acquire the shares held by them;
- (VIII) the right to inspect the Hong Kong branch register of members of the Company, but the Company may close the register in terms equivalent to section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong);
- (IX) any other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Article 36 Shareholders who request to inspect the information or access to the information referred to in (V) of the preceding Article shall provide the Company with written documents proving the type and quantity of shares they hold, and the Company shall, after verifying the identity of the shareholders, provide them with such document upon request.

Article 37 If a resolution of a general meeting or the board of directors violates any law and administrative regulation, the shareholders shall have the right to petition to the people's court to render the same as invalid.

If the procedures for convening a meeting of, or the method of voting at, a general meeting or the board of directors violate any law, administrative regulation or the Articles of Association, or the content of a resolution violates the Articles of Association, the shareholders shall have the right to petition to the People's Court to rescind such resolutions within sixty days from the date on which such resolution is passed.

Article 38 Where the Company incurs losses as a result of directors and senior officers having violated any provision of law, administrative regulation or the Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties with the Company, shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 1% or more of the Company's shares for 180 consecutive days or more shall be entitled to request in writing the supervisory committee to initiate proceedings in the People's Court; where the Company incurs losses as a result of the supervisory committee having violated any provision of law, administrative regulation or the Articles of Association in the course of performing its duties with the Company, shareholders who meet the above conditions shall be entitled to request in writing the board of directors to initiate proceedings in the People's Court.

In the event that the supervisory committee or the board of directors refuses to initiate proceedings after receiving the written request of shareholders stated in the foregoing paragraph, or fails to initiate such proceedings within 30 days from the date on which such request is received, or in case of urgency where failure to initiate such proceedings immediately would cause irreparable damage to the Company's interests, the shareholders described in the preceding paragraph shall have the right to initiate proceedings in the People's Court directly in their own name for the benefit of the Company.

Shareholders described in the first paragraph of this Article may also initiate proceedings in the People's Court in accordance with the preceding two paragraphs in the event that the lawful interests of the Company were infringed upon by third parties.

Article 39 Shareholders may initiate proceedings in the People's Court if a director or any other senior officer violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and harms the interests of shareholders.

Article 40 Holders of shares of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (III) Not to withdraw their fund contribution, except as provided in laws and regulations;

- (IV) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders, and not to abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interest of any creditor of the Company;

If a shareholder of the Company abuses the rights of a shareholder and causes loss to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for damages in accordance with the law;

If a shareholder of the Company abuses the Company's independent legal person status and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of avoiding debts, resulting in materially impairing the interests of any creditor of the Company, such shareholder shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts of the Company.

- (V) any other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 41 Shareholders who hold more than 5% or more voting shares of the Company pledge any of their shares shall report the same to the Company in writing on the day the fact occurs.

Article 42 Controlling shareholders and the de facto controllers of the Company shall not take advantage of their connected relationship with the Company to act in detriment to the interests of the Company. If they violated the regulations and caused damage to the Company, they shall be liable for compensation. The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers have fiduciary duties towards the Company and its public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall execute its rights as an investor in strict compliance with the law, and shall not harm the legal interests of the Company and its public shareholders through profit distribution, asset restructuring, foreign investment, use of capital, or loan guarantees and shall not exercise their controlling position to harm the interests of the Company and its public shareholders. If the controlling shareholder and the de facto controller violate the relevant laws, regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association and cause damage to the Company and its public shareholders, they shall be liable for compensation.

Where the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other applicable laws and regulations provide for the protection of minority investors, the Company shall implement such provisions.

Section 2 General Requirements in respect of the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 43 The shareholders' general meeting is the power of authority of the Company and shall exercise its following functions and powers in accordance with the laws:

- (I) To decide the Company's operational directions and investment plans;

- (XII) To consider and approve the transactions and guarantees required by the Articles of Associate and the rules of procedure of the general meeting to be decided by a general meeting;
- (XIII) To consider the purchase or disposal of material assets of the Company with a value exceeding 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets within a period of 12 consecutive months;
- (XIV) To consider and approve changes in the use of proceed of funds raised;
- (XV) To consider the share incentive plan and employee stock ownership plans;
- (XVI) To consider the repurchase of the Company's shares in accordance with the circumstances set out in (I) and (II) of Article 25 of the Articles of Association;
- (XVII) To consider other matters required by law, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules or the Articles of Association or the rules of procedure of the general meeting that should be resolved by the general meeting.

The functions and powers of a general meeting shall not be exercised by the board of directors or other bodies and individuals by way of delegation.

The shareholders' general meeting may authorize or delegate the board of directors to transact the matters authorized or delegated by it, including but not limited to the following matters at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) subject to the applicable laws, regulations and listing rules, to give a general mandate to the board of directors to issue, allot and deal with additional ordinary shares not exceeding 20% of the ordinary shares of the Company in issue (or other proportions as required by the applicable laws, regulations and listing rules) and authorize the board of directors to make corresponding amendments to the Articles of Association as it deems fit so as to reflect the new capital structure upon the allotment or issuance of shares;
- (II) to authorize the board of directors, within the cap amount of debt issuance authorized by the shareholders' general meeting, to determine the specific terms and the relevant matters in relation to the issuance of the debt financing instruments such as domestic short-term financial instruments, medium-term notes, corporate bonds, overseas USD bonds based on the needs for production, operation and capital expenditure as well as the market conditions, including but not limited to the determination of the amount, interest rate, term, target group and use of proceeds of the bonds being actually issued, as well as the preparation, signing and disclosure of all necessary documents thereof subject to the aforementioned limit.

Article 44 The following acts of providing guarantees shall be considered and approved by the board of directors prior to being submitted to the general meetings of shareholders for consideration and approval:

- (I) guarantees with a single guaranteed amount in excess of 10% of the audited net asset value for the most recent period;
- (II) any guarantee to be provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries, with the total amount of which exceeds 50% of the audited net asset value for the most recent period;
- (III) guarantees to be provided in favour of a guarantee recipient whose gearing ratio exceeds 70%;
- (IV) guarantees to be provided in excess of 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets within one year;
- (V) any guarantee to be provided after the total amount of third-party guarantee provided by the Company has reached or exceeded 30% of the audited total assets for the most recent period;
- (VI) guarantees to be provided in favour of any shareholder, de facto controllers and their respective connected persons; and
- (VII) other circumstances requiring consideration and approval by the shareholders in a general meeting as stipulated by the stock exchange or the Articles of Association and the corresponding rules of procedure.

If the Company violates the authority of the general meeting and the board of directors to approve external guarantees in the Articles and provides, or violates the approval authority and review procedures to provide external guarantees, the relevant personnel shall be held accountable in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 45 A general meeting shall either be an annual general meeting or an extraordinary general meeting. Annual general meetings shall be held once every year and within 6 months from the close of the preceding accounting year.

Article 46 An extraordinary general meeting shall be convened within 2 months from the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (I) when the number of directors is less than the number stipulated in Company Law or two-thirds of the number specified in the Articles of Association;
- (II) when the unrecovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total amount of its paid-up share capital;
- (III) when any shareholder individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares requests;
- (IV) when deemed necessary by the board of directors;
- (V) when proposed by the supervisory committee;
- (VI) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Article 47 The place for convening a general meeting shall be the place where the Company is located or the place specified in the notice of meeting. The general meeting shall be held at a venue and in the form of a live meeting. The Company shall make it convenient for the shareholders to attend the general meetings through online voting. Shareholders so attend the general meetings shall be deemed to be present at such meetings.

Article 48 The Company shall, when convening a general meeting, engage a legal counsel to issue legal advice and make an announcement on the following issues:

- (I) whether or not the procedures for convening and holding a general meeting comply with the requirements of the laws and regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) the legal eligibility of the attendees and the convenor of the meeting;
- (III) whether or not the voting procedures for and the voting results of the general meeting are lawful and valid;
- (IV) issuance of the legal opinion on other relevant issues at the request of the Company.

Section 3 Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 49 The general meetings of shareholders shall be convened by the Board of Directors.

Article 50 Independent non-executive directors shall be entitled to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Regarding the proposal requesting to convene an extraordinary general meeting by the independent directors, the Board shall, pursuant to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, give a written reply stating its consent or reject for the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal. If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice for convening such meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant Board resolution. If the Board refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, an explanation shall be made by way of announcement.

Article 51 The supervisory committee shall be entitled to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting and shall put forward its proposal in writing. The board of directors shall, pursuant to the relevant laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association, give a written reply stating its consent or reject for the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice for convening such meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant Board resolution. Any changes to the original proposal contained in the notice shall be subject to the approval of the supervisory committee.

If the Board does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give any reply within 10 days after receiving the proposal, it shall be deemed as unable to perform or failing to perform the duty of convening the general meeting, and the supervisory committee may convene and preside the meeting on its own.

Article 52 Shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to request the board of directors to convene extraordinary general meetings of shareholders, and such request shall be made in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, furnish a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders within 10 days after receiving such request.

In the event that the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall be issued within five days after the passing of the relevant resolution of the board of directors. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the shareholders concerned.

In the event that the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not furnish any reply within ten days after receiving such request, shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall be entitled to propose to the supervisory committee the convening of extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be made in writing.

In the event that the supervisory committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall be issued within five days after receiving such request. Any changes to the original request made in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the shareholders concerned.

In the event that the supervisory committee fails to issue a notice of the general meeting within the stipulated period, the supervisory committee shall be deemed not convene and preside over a general meeting, and shareholders alone or in aggregate holding 10% or more of the Company's shares for 90 consecutive days or more shall be entitled to convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 53 If the supervisory committee or shareholders determine to convene a shareholders' general meeting on their own, they shall give a written notice to the board of directors and file the same with the Stock Exchange in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules (if necessary).

The shareholding of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10% (inclusive) before the resolution of convening the general meeting is made.

The supervisory committee or the convening shareholders shall submit relevant supporting documents (if required) to the Stock Exchange when giving notice of the general meeting and announcing the resolutions of the general meeting in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations and the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 54 The board of directors and the secretary to the board of directors shall cooperate with respect to matters relating to the shareholders' general meeting convened by the supervisory committee or the shareholders on their own. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders as of the shareholding record date.

Article 55 Where a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the supervisory committee or the shareholders on their own, all necessary expenses arising therefrom shall be borne by the Company.

Section 4 Proposing Motion at and Notice of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 56 The substance of the motion proposed shall fall within the terms of reference of the shareholders' general meeting, with clear subjects for discussion and specific issues for resolution and in compliance with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 57 Whenever the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors, the supervisory committee and shareholder(s) alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the total number of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose motions to the Company.

Shareholder(s) alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the total number of the Company's shares shall have the right to submit an interim motion in writing to the convener 10 days prior to the general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the general meeting within two days after receiving the proposed motion announcing the contents of the interim motion.

Save as provided above, the convener shall not amend motions stated in or add new motions to the notice of the general meeting after the same has been issued and announced.

No voting or resolution shall be executed or adopted at the general meeting for motions that have not been stated in the notice of the general meeting or that do not comply with Article 56 of the Articles of Association.

Article 58 A written notice of meeting shall be issued at least 21 days or 20 full working days (whichever is longer) before the date of an annual general meeting; and at least 15 days or 10 full working days (whichever is longer) before the date of an extraordinary general meeting to be convened by the convener to notify all shareholders. In calculating the period of advance notice, the Company shall not include the day on which the meeting is held but may include the day on which notice of the meeting is issued.

After giving the notice to convene a general meeting, the convener may, prior to the meeting, give notice of a reminder in accordance with the Company Law and the relevant regulations.

Article 59 Notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall:

- (I) Specify the time, place and date of the meeting;
- (II) Set out the matters and proposals to be considered at the meeting;
- (III) Contain a clear statement that a shareholder entitled to attend and vote has the right to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf and that such proxy need not be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) Contain the date of registration of shares of shareholders entitled to attend general meetings
- (V) Contain the name and phone number of the coordinator of the meeting; and
- (VI) Time and procedures for voting by internet or other means.

Full and complete disclosure of the particulars of all proposals and all information or explanations necessary to enable shareholders to make reasonable judgements on the matters to be discussed shall be made in the notice of a general meeting and supplementary notice. If the matters to be discussed require the opinion of the independent non-executive directors, such opinion and the reasons therefor shall be disclosed at the same time when the notice of the general meeting or supplementary notice is issued.

Article 60 If matters relating to the election of directors and supervisors are proposed to be discussed at a shareholders' general meeting, detailed information of the candidates for directors and supervisors shall be fully disclosed in the notice of the general meeting, which shall at least include the following:

- (I) personal information relating to their educational background, work experience and all other positions undertaken on a part-time basis etc.;
- (II) whether there is any connected relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholders or de facto controllers;
- (III) disclosure of their shareholdings in the Company;
- (IV) whether or not they have been subject to any punishment by the CSRC or other relevant departments or to any sanction by any stock exchange.

In addition to the adoption of a cumulative voting system for the election of directors and supervisors, motions relating to each of the candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed on an individual basis.

Article 61 Upon issuance of the notice of a shareholders' general meeting, the general meeting shall neither be delayed nor cancelled without proper reasons. Motions listed in such notice shall not be revoked. In the event of postponement or cancellation, the convener shall announce and explain the reasons at least two working days before the original date of the meeting.

Section 5 Holding of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 62 The board of directors of the Company together with other conveners thereof shall adopt necessary measures to maintain the normal order of the shareholders' general meeting. Measures shall also be adopted to stop any acts from interfering with the general meeting, creating quarrels and nuisance as well as infringing the lawful interests of the shareholders while a timely report of the same shall also be made to the relevant authority for investigation.

Article 63 All shareholders whose names appear in the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date or their proxies shall be entitled to attend and vote at general meetings in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

A shareholder may attend the general meeting in person or appoint a proxy (who needs not be a shareholder of the Company) to attend and vote on his behalf.

Article 64 Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their identity cards (or other valid certificates or evidence of identity) and stock account cards. If a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, the proxy shall present his valid identity card and the proxy form issued by the shareholder.

A legal person shareholder shall be represented at the meeting by a legal representative or a proxy appointed by the legal representative. If the legal representative attends the meeting, he/she shall present his/her identity card and a valid certificate proving his/her legal representative status. If a proxy attends the meeting, the proxy shall present his/her identity card and a written authorization letter issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder in accordance with the law (except for Recognized Clearing House or its nominees).

Article 65 The proxy form issued by a shareholder to appoint a third party to attend the meeting on his behalf shall specify the following content:

- (I) the name of the proxy;
- (II) whether or not having the right to vote;
- (III) the respective instructions on voting in favour of, against or abstention from voting in respect of each matter on the agenda of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) the issue date and valid term of the proxy form;
- (V) the signature (or seal) of the appointer. In case the appointer is a legal person shareholder, the proxy form shall be affixed with the seal of the legal person.

Article 66 The proxy form shall specify whether or not the proxy may vote at his own discretion in the absence of any specific instruction from the shareholders.

Article 67 The voting proxy form shall be deposited at the address of the Company or such other place specified in the notice of the meeting not less than 24 hours prior the relevant meeting for which the proxy is authorized to vote, or not less than 24 hours before the designated voting time. Where the voting proxy form is signed by a person authorized by the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization instruments shall be notarized. The voting proxy form, notarized power of attorney or other authorization instruments, shall be lodged at the address of the Company or such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Where an appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorized by the resolutions of the board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Where such shareholder is a Recognized Clearing House (or its nominee) as defined in the relevant ordinance enacted from time to time in Hong Kong, it may authorize one or more persons as it deems fit to act as its representative(s) at any shareholders' general meeting or creditors meeting, provided that, if more than one person is so authorized, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares in respect to which person is so authorized and shall be signed by the authorized personnel appointed by the Recognized Clearing House. The person so authorized may exercise the rights at any meeting (without being required to present a share certificate, notarized power of attorney and/or further evidence of due authorization) on behalf of the Recognized Clearing House (or its nominees) as if such person were an individual shareholder of the Company, he has the same legal rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

Article 68 The register of meeting attendees shall be prepared by the Company. The register of meeting attendees shall contain the names of participants (or entities), their identification numbers, domicile addresses, the number of shares held or represented with voting rights, and the names of the appointors (or entities).

Article 69 The convener and the attorney engaged by the Company shall jointly verify the legitimacy of the shareholders based on the register of shareholders and register the names of the shareholders together with the numbers of voting shares represented. The registration of the meeting shall be closed until the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting and the total number of shares with voting rights.

Article 70 When a general meeting is held, the directors, supervisors and secretary of the board of directors of the Company shall attend the meeting, while the general manager and other senior management shall attend the meeting as non-voting participants.

Article 71 The chairman of the board of directors shall preside over the shareholders' general meeting convened by the board of directors. In the event that the chairman of the board of directors is unable to or does not perform his duties, the meeting shall be presided over by a director jointly elected by more than half of the directors.

Where a general meeting is convened by the supervisory committee on its own, the meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the supervisory committee. In the event that the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable to or does not perform his duties, the meeting shall be presided over by a supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the supervisors.

Where a general meeting is convened by shareholders on their own, the meeting shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convening shareholders.

When a shareholders' general meeting is held and the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure in a way that makes it difficult for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, a person may be elected at the shareholders' general meeting to act as the chairman so as to carry on with the meeting, subject to the approval of more than half of the attending shareholders holding voting rights.

Article 72 The Company shall formulate rules of procedures for the shareholders' general meeting that set out in details on the procedures for the convening of and voting at a general meeting, including giving notice, completing recording tasks, considering motions, voting, counting votes, announcement of the voting results, adoption of resolutions at the meeting, minutes and execution thereof, making public announcement and other particulars, and that specify the principles of conferring power upon the board of directors at the general meeting and the substance of such authorization. The rules of procedures for the shareholders' general meeting, as attached hereto as an appendix, shall be developed by the board of directors and approved at the general meeting.

Article 73 At the annual general meeting of shareholders, the board of directors and the supervisory committee shall deliver their respective working reports for the previous year at the general meeting. Each of the independent non-executive directors shall also deliver their respective working reports.

Article 74 The directors, supervisors and senior officers present at the shareholders' general meeting shall provide responses or explanations with respect to any queries or suggestions raised by the shareholders.

Article 75 The chairman of the meeting shall, prior to voting, declare the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares represented. The number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares represented shall be subject to those recorded during the meeting.

Article 76 Minutes of general meetings shall be maintained by the secretary to the board of directors. The minutes of a meeting shall record the following:

- (I) the date and venue for convening the meeting, the meeting agenda and the name of the convener of the meeting;
- (II) the name of the chairman of the meeting as well as those of the directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management present at the meeting as voting and non-voting attendees;
- (III) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of shares with voting rights represented and the proportion to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (IV) the description of the entire course of consideration of each proposal, the main points put forward by each speaker relating thereto, and the voting results;
- (V) details of queries and suggestions of the shareholders and the corresponding response or explanation in relation thereto;
- (VI) the names of the attorney and persons responsible for counting the votes and for supervising the counting process;
- (VII) other contents that should be recorded in the minutes as provided for in the Articles of Association.

Article 77 The convener shall ensure that the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The minutes shall be signed by the directors, supervisors, secretary to the board of directors, the convener or its representative and the meeting chairman. The minutes shall be kept together with the signature book of shareholders present in the meeting in person and the proxy form for proxy attendance, valid information on voting by internet and other means and other relevant information for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 78 The convener shall ensure that a shareholders' general meeting is held on a continuous basis until a final resolution is adopted. If a general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be adopted due to force majeure or other special reasons, requisite measures shall be adopted so as to promptly resume the general meeting or to directly terminate the then general meeting, and public announcement relating thereto shall also be made timely.

Section 6 Voting at and Resolutions of the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 79 Resolutions of shareholders' general meeting are classified as ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

Special resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by not less than two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) attending the meeting.

Article 80 The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the board of directors and the supervisory committee;
- (II) plans for profit distribution and recovery of losses drafted by the board of directors;
- (III) appointment or removal of members of the board of directors and the supervisory committee, and their remuneration and method of payment thereof;
- (IV) the Company's annual financial budgets and final accounts;
- (V) the Company's annual reports;
- (VI) any matters other than those required by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association to be approved by special resolutions.

Article 81 The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) separation, division, merger, dissolution and liquidation (including voluntary winding up) of the Company;
- (III) amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (IV) purchase or disposal of material assets or provision of a guarantee by the Company within a period of 12 consecutive months of a value exceeding 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets;

- (V) employee share ownership plans or equity incentive plans to be considered and approved;
- (VI) other matters prescribed by law, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association or the Rules of Procedure of the Shareholders' general meeting, and any other matters that, if resolved by way of an ordinary resolution of the general meeting, may have a material impact on the Company and shall be adopted by a special resolution.

Changes in the rights attached to classes of shares shall be approved by at least two-thirds of the shareholders of the Company holding the class of shares to which the rights attach.

Article 82 Shareholders (including proxies) shall exercise their voting rights in accordance with the number of shares with voting rights represented by them, with each share carrying one vote. During the voting by poll, shareholders (including proxies) with two or more voting rights do not necessarily use all their voting rights to vote for or against a proposal.

Shares held by the Company carry no voting rights and shall not be counted toward the total number of shares with voting rights held by shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 83 Where a shareholder purchases voting shares of the company in violation of paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 63 of the Securities Law, the voting rights of the shares in excess of the specified proportion shall not be exercised within 36 months after the purchase and shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights present at the general meeting.

The board of directors, independent non-executive directors, shareholders holding voting shares of more than 1% or investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, or regulations of the securities regulatory agency of the State Council may solicit from other shareholders their rights to vote in general meetings. The specific voting intention and other information of such solicitation shall be fully disclosed to the solicited. Solicitation of shareholders' voting rights by way of remuneration or disguised remuneration is prohibited. The Company may not impose minimum shareholding restrictions on the solicitation of voting rights, except under statutory conditions.

Article 84 In the course of considering matters relating to connected transactions at a shareholders' general meeting, the connected shareholders shall abstain from voting and shall not exercise voting rights on behalf of other shareholders. The voting rights represented by the number of shares held by such shareholders shall be excluded from the total number of valid votes. The voting result of the non-connected shareholders shall be fully disclosed in the announcement of the resolution of the general meeting.

Connected shareholders shall voluntarily disqualify themselves and abstain from voting at the general meeting. The chairperson of the meeting shall request the connected shareholders to abstain from voting. Any shareholder who is not required to abstain from voting has the right to request the connected shareholder to abstain from voting.

Such connected transaction shall be voted by the non-connected shareholders present at the meeting and be passed with a majority of the valid votes cast in favour of such connected transaction; if such transaction falls within the scope of a special resolution, it shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the valid voting rights.

Shareholders or shareholders who are under the control of the de facto controllers of the Company shall abstain from voting on resolutions of a general meeting in respect of guarantees to be provided in favour of shareholders, de facto controllers of the Company and their related parties, and such resolutions shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights represented by other shareholders attending the meeting.

Article 85 Unless the Company is in a critical situation or under other special circumstances, the Company shall not, without approval by a special resolution of a general meeting, enter into any contract with any person (other than a director, supervisor or other senior management) pursuant to which such person shall be responsible for the management of the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business.

Article 86 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed in form of a motion to the shareholders' general meeting for resolution.

The candidates for directors for the first term of the board of directors and candidates for the first term of the Supervisory Board shall be nominated by the promoters. The manner and procedure for the nomination of directors and supervisors for each subsequent term shall be as follows:

- (I) The current board of directors, or the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding at least 3% shares of the Company may nominate candidates for election as directors for the next term or additional director(s) for the current term of the board of directors in accordance with the number of persons to be elected;
- (II) The current board of directors, or the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding at least 3% shares of the Company may nominate candidates for election as supervisors for the next term or additional supervisor(s) (not being employee representatives) to the current term of supervisory committee in accordance with the number of persons to be elected;
- (III) The board of directors and the supervisory committee shall review the qualifications of the candidates nominated by them for appointment as directors or supervisors. Shareholders shall submit to the current board of directors and the supervisory committee the biographical details and general information of the candidates nominated by them for appointment as directors or supervisors, while the current board of directors will review the qualifications, and if the candidates meet the qualifications for appointment as directors or supervisors, the board of directors shall submit the list to the general meeting for voting.
- (IV) Candidates for director or supervisor shall make a written commitments according to the requirements of the Company, including but not limited to agreeing to accept the nomination, undertaking that the submitted personal information is true and complete, and guaranteeing that they will effectively perform their duties after being elected;
- (V) The manner and procedures for the nomination of independent non-executive directors shall be in accordance with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles of Association. The employee representative supervisors shall be elected by the representative meetings of employees of the Company and other democratic means.

When voting on the election of Directors or Supervisors at a general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be implemented in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association or a resolution of the general meeting. However, the cumulative voting system shall be implemented when two or more directors or supervisors are elected. Where the cumulative voting system is adopted at a general meeting for electing directors, the voting for independent non-executive directors and non-independent non-executive directors shall be conducted separately.

The cumulative voting system referred to in the preceding paragraph represents that in the election of directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting, each share shall have the same number of votes as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and the voting rights held by shareholders may be used collectively. The board of directors shall inform the shareholders of the biographical details and general information of the candidate directors and supervisors.

Article 87 The number of votes in the cumulative voting system shall be determined in accordance with the following:

- (I) When electing non-independent non-executive directors or supervisors, the product of the number of shares held by each shareholder multiplied by the number of non-independent non-executive directors or supervisors to be elected at the general meeting shall be the cumulative number of votes cast by that shareholder. When electing independent non-executive directors, the product of the number of shares held by each shareholder multiplied by the number of independent non-executive directors to be elected at the general meeting shall be the cumulative number of votes cast by that shareholder;
- (II) In the event that multiple rounds of elections are held at a general meeting, the cumulative votes of shareholders shall be recalculated based on the number of directors or supervisors to be elected in each round of election;
- (III) The secretary to the board of directors of the Company shall announce the cumulative votes of the shareholders before each round of cumulative voting. If the independent non-executive directors of the Company, the supervisors of the Company, the scrutineers of the current general meeting or the witness lawyers have any objection to the announced results, they shall check the results immediately.

The cumulative voting system shall be voted as follows:

- (I) When electing independent non-executive directors, each shareholder shall be entitled to a cumulative number of votes equal to the product of the number of shares held by him multiplied by the number of independent non-executive directors he is entitled to elect, and such votes shall only be cast for the independent non-executive director candidates. When electing non-independent non-executive directors, each shareholder shall be entitled to a cumulative number of votes equal to the product of the number of shares held by him multiplied by the number of non-independent non-executive directors he is entitled to elect, and such votes shall only be cast for the non-independent non-executive director candidates;
- (II) When electing supervisors, each shareholder shall be entitled to a cumulative number of votes equal to the product of the number of shares held by him multiplied by the number of Supervisors to be elected, and such votes shall only be cast for the candidates for Supervisors.

Article 88 The mechanism of the accumulative voting system to elect directors and supervisors is as follows:

- (I) When shareholders vote, they must indicate the total number of shares they hold in the company on the ballot paper, and indicate the cumulative number of votes they cast for the director or supervisor candidate in the voting column for each director or supervisor candidate they elect;

When voting, only in favour votes shall be cast, but no against votes or abstentions. All shareholders shall be entitled to cast their cumulative votes, separately or in aggregate, for any one candidate for director or supervisor, as they wish (proxies shall comply with the instructions of the proxy);

If the total number of votes used by a shareholder on the ballot paper exceeds the total number of shares legally owned by him, the ballot paper shall be invalid; if the total number of votes used by a shareholder on the ballot paper does not exceed the total number of shares legally owned by him, the ballot paper shall be valid and the difference shall be deemed to be an abstention of voting rights;

- (II) After the poll is ended, all candidates shall be ranked in descending order according to the number of votes they have received (subject to the number of directors or supervisors to be elected), with those directors or supervisors receiving more than 1/2 of the valid votes held by shareholders present at the general meeting (based on the total number of votes before cumulative voting rights are applied) shall be elected;
- (III) In the event that the number of candidates for Directors or Supervisors with more than 1/2 of the valid votes held by shareholders attending the general meeting (based on the total number of votes before cumulative voting rights are applied) exceeds the number of candidates to be elected and the two or more candidates ranked last have the same number of votes, the other candidates ranked before them shall be elected. A new ballot shall be conducted for those candidates who have received the same number of votes using the cumulative voting system, and the candidates shall be ranked in descending order of votes in descending order, and the candidate who ranks first shall be elected;
- (IV) In the event that the number of candidates for directors or supervisors who receive more than 1/2 of the valid votes (based on the total number of votes before cumulative voting rights are applied) held by shareholders attending the general meeting in the first round of voting is less than the number of candidates to be elected, the cumulative voting system shall be applied to the candidates who have not been elected and a new ballot shall be conducted to rank the candidates in descending order of votes received, and the candidate who ranks first shall be selected to fill the number of candidates to be elected. In the event of the candidate cannot be determined due to the same number of votes, a new ballot shall be conducted according to the provisions of the preceding paragraph;
- (V) If the number of directors or supervisors stipulated in the Articles of Association cannot be elected after three rounds of voting at the general meeting, another general meeting shall be held within two months after the conclusion of the general meeting to elect the vacant directors or supervisors.

Article 89 Except for the cumulative voting system, voting for all motions proposed to a general meeting of shareholders shall be conducted one by one. If different motions have been proposed for the same matter, voting related thereto shall be conducted based on the chronological order of proposing the motions. Unless a general meeting is suspended or no resolution can be adopted due to force majeure or other special reasons, no motion shall be set aside or rejected for voting at the general meeting.

Article 90 When considering a motion at a shareholders' general meeting, no change shall be made thereto; otherwise, the relevant change shall be treated as a new motion that cannot be proceeded for voting at the then general meeting.

Article 91 The same right to vote can only be exercised by electing to vote at the scene, via the internet or in other manner (if any). If the same right to vote has been exercised twice, the result of the first voting shall prevail.

Article 92 Shareholders' general meetings shall be voted by registered ballot.

Article 93 Before voting on a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, two representatives of the shareholders shall be nominated to participate in counting the votes as well as supervising the counting process. If there is connected relationship between the matters under consideration and the shareholders, the relevant shareholder and his proxies shall not participate in counting the votes or supervising the counting process.

When voting on a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, the attorney, a representative of shareholders and a representative of the supervisors shall be responsible for counting the votes as well as supervising the counting process and announcing the voting results at the meeting. The voting results in connection with the resolution shall be recorded in the minutes.

Article 94 Shareholders of the Company or their proxies who cast their votes via the internet or otherwise shall have the right to check their voting results by the corresponding voting system. The general meeting shall end on site no earlier than online or by other means. At the conclusion of the general meeting on the floor, the meeting chairman shall announce the vote and the result of each proposal and, based on the result of the vote, declare whether the proposal has been adopted or not.

Prior to making a formal announcement on the voting results, the vote counters, scrutineers, major shareholders, network service providers and companies involved in counting the votes and for supervising the counting process at the shareholders' general meeting shall have the obligation to keep matters related to voting confidential.

Article 95 Shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting shall express their opinion with respect to the motion tabled for resolution as in favour of, against or abstention from voting in respect of such motion. Except where the securities registrar and settlement institution, as the nominal holder (if any) of shares traded on the Mainland and Hong Kong stock markets under the Inter-connected Mechanism for Trading on Stock Markets in the Mainland and Hong Kong and makes the declaration in accordance with the intention of the beneficial owner.

Ballot papers that are left in blank, unduly completed or illegible, or that have not been used, shall be treated in the way that the voters waive their right to vote and the voting results corresponding to the shares shall be treated as "abstention from voting".

If, pursuant to applicable laws and regulations and the Hong Kong Listing Rules, a shareholder is required to abstain from voting or is restricted in voting only in favour of or against a particular motion, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder which is in breach of the relevant provisions or restriction shall not be taken into account in the total number of valid votes.

Article 96 In the event the chairman of the meeting has any doubts as to the voting results of the resolutions submitted, he may count the votes cast. In the event the chairman of the meeting does not conduct a vote count and a shareholder or proxy objects to the results announced by the chairman of the meeting, he shall be entitled to request the counting of the votes immediately after the announcement and the chairman of the meeting shall count the votes immediately upon request.

Article 97 The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner, and the announcement shall list matters related to the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting, the total number of voting shares held by them and their proportion to the total number of voting shares of the company, the voting method, the voting results of each proposal and contents of resolutions approved.

Article 98 If a proposal is not passed, or if the resolution passed by the preceding general meeting is changed by the current general meeting, a special note shall be made in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 99 Where a general meeting has passed the proposals for electing directors or supervisors, unless otherwise specified in the resolutions, the newly elected directors and supervisors shall take office on the day when the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting is passed.

Article 100 Where any proposals in relation to the distribution of profits, issue of bonus shares or capital increase by way of realization of capital reserve are passed at the general meeting, the Company shall implement the specific plan within 2 months from the closing of the general meeting.

CHAPTER 5 THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 Directors

Article 101 A director of a company is a natural person, and a person who falls under any of the following circumstances may not serve as a director of the company:

- (I) a person without legal or with restricted legal capacity;
- (II) a person who has committed an offence of corruption, bribery, infringement of property, misappropriation of property or sabotaging the socialist market economic order and has been punished because of committing such offence; or who has been deprived of his political rights, in each case where less than 5 years have elapsed since the date of the completion of implementation of such punishment or deprivation;
- (III) a person who is a former director, factory manager or manager of a company or enterprise which has entered into insolvent liquidation and he is personally liable for the insolvency of such company or enterprise, where less than 3 years have elapsed since the date of the completion of the insolvency and liquidation of the Company or enterprise; or deprivation;
- (IV) a person who is a former legal representative of a company or enterprise which had its business licence revoked or was ordered to close due to a violation of the law and who incurred personal liability, where less than 3 years has elapsed since the date of the revocation of the business licence;
- (V) a person which has a relatively large amount of debts due and outstanding;
- (VI) a person who is prohibited from entering the securities market by the CSRC, and the time limit has not expired;
- (VII) Other content stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or departmental rules.

The election or appointment of directors in violation of this article shall be deemed invalid. If a director falls under the circumstances specified in this article during his term of office, the company shall remove him/her from his/her position.

Article 102 Directors are elected or replaced by the shareholders' general meeting. The term of their office is 3 years, and they can be removed by the shareholders' general meeting before the term of office expires. Directors may be re-elected upon expiration of their term of office.

The term of office of a director shall be calculated from the date of taking office to the expiry of the term of the current session of the Board. If a director fails to be re-elected in time upon the expiration of his/her term of office, the original director shall still perform his/her duties as a director in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association until the re-elected director takes office.

Directors may be concurrently held by the general manager or other senior managers, but the directors who concurrently serve as the general manager or other senior managers and the directors who are employee representatives shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors of the company.

Article 103 The directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles and shall faithfully perform their following obligations to the Company:

- (I) not to abuse their rights to accept bribes or other illegal income and not to misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (II) not to misappropriate the money of the Company;
- (III) not to deposit any assets or money of the Company in any accounts under their names or in the names of other persons;
- (IV) not to violate these Articles and lend the money of the Company to others or provide guarantee to others by charging the Company's assets without approval of the shareholders' general meetings or the board;
- (V) not to enter into contracts or transactions with the Company in violation of these Articles or without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) not to use their position to obtain business opportunities which should be available to the Company for themselves or others, or to run his/her own or others' business which is similar to the Company's business without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) not to accept commissions in relation to transactions of the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose the secrets of the Company without consent;
- (IX) not to use their connected relationship to harm the interests of the Company; and
- (X) to be bound by other obligations stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles.

Income received by any directors in violation of this article shall be forfeited by the Company. Any directors who act in violation of this article shall be liable for compensation for any losses caused to the Company.

Article 104 The directors shall diligently perform their following obligations to the Company in compliance with laws, regulations and these Articles:

- (I) to exercise prudently, conscientiously and diligently the rights granted by the Company to ensure that the Company's commercial activities are in compliance with the national laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of economic policies of China and that its commercial activities are within the scope stipulated in the business licence;
- (II) to treat all shareholders equally and fairly;
- (III) to understand the operation and management of the Company in a timely manner;
- (IV) to initial and approve regular reports of the Company and to ensure the integrity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (V) to provide all relevant information required by the supervisory committee and shall not intervene the performance of the supervisory committee or supervisors of their duties;
- (VI) to perform other due diligence obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles.

Article 105 Any director who fails to attend board meetings in person and has not entrusted other directors to attend the meeting on his/her behalf for two consecutive times shall be deemed as unable to perform his duties. The board of directors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting to remove such director.

Article 106 A director may resign before the expiry of his/her tenure. The resigning director shall submit to the board of directors a written resignation. The board of directors shall disclose the relevant information within two days.

If the board of directors of the company falls below the statutory minimum due to the resignation of directors, the original directors shall still perform their duties as directors in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association before the re-elected directors take office.

Except the circumstances specified in this article above, the resignation of a director shall be effective when the written resignation is served to the board of directors.

Any person appointed by the Board as a Director to fill a casual vacancy or to add to the Board shall hold office only until the first annual general meeting of the Company after his/her appointment and shall then be eligible for re-election.

If the law does not provide otherwise, shareholders have the right to remove any director (including executive director or independent non-executive director) before the expiration of his/her term of office by ordinary resolution in general meeting; provided that such removal does not affect the director to claim for damages under any contract.

The minimum period for giving notice to the company of the proposed election of a person as a director as well as the minimum period for giving notice to the company of the person's indication of willingness to be elected is at least 7 days.

The period for filing the above-mentioned notice begins after the company sends the notice of the meeting for the election, and the period ends no later than 7 days (or before) by the date of the meeting.

Article 107 A director shall complete all of the handover procedures with the Board once his/her resignation becomes effective or his/her term of office expires. The fiduciary duties to the Company and the shareholders are not necessarily released upon expiry of his/her term of office but shall remain effective in a term of 12 months after expiry. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of his/her term of office until such trade secrets become publicly known. Other duties owed by a director, which are not specified in an employment contract, may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require depending on the duration between the act concerned and the termination and the specific circumstances and conditions under which the relationship between the director and the Company was terminated.

Article 108 In the absence of specification in these Articles of Association or legitimate authorization by the Board, no director shall act in his/her personal capacity on behalf of the Company or the Board. When a director acts in his/her personal capacity, but a third party may reasonably believe that the director is representing the Company or the Board, that director shall declare his/her stance and capacity in advance.

Article 109 If a director breaches the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or these Articles of Association when carrying out his/her duties and causes loss to the Company, he/she shall be responsible for damages.

Article 110 The Company shall have independent non-executive directors, who shall be independent of the Company and its substantial shareholders and shall not perform in the Company any other duties other than that of an independent non-executive director.

Article 111 The Board develops the work system of independent non-executive Directors, which specifically stipulates the terms of office, election and replacement procedures and duties of independent non-executive Directors. The work system of independent non-executive Directors shall be formulated by the Board and approved by the shareholders' general meeting. The independent non-executive directors shall carry out responsibilities in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the relevant requirements of CSRC and Stock Exchange.

Section 2 The Board of Directors

Article 112 The Company shall have a board of directors accountable to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 113 The board of directors consists of 9 directors. There are 1 chairman and 3 independent non-executive directors for the Company. At any given time, there shall be at least 3 independent non-executive directors and shall account for more than one third of the total number of board members.

Article 114 The Board shall have the following duties and powers:

- (I) convening general meetings and presenting reports thereto;
- (II) implementing the resolutions made at the general meetings;

- (VI) working out the Company's plans on the increase or reduction of registered capital, as well as on the issuance of shares, bonds or other securities and listing plans;
- (VII) formulating proposals for purchase of shares of the Company, merger, split-up, dissolution and change of the Company nature;
- (VIII) deciding on matters of the Company such as external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, asset mortgage, external guarantee, consigned financial management, connected transactions and donations to others. within the scope authorized by the general meeting;
- (IX) deciding on the establishment of the Company's internal management departments;
- (X) deciding on the appointment or dismissal of the general manager, the secretary of the Board and other senior management of the Company and their remuneration and incentives; deciding on the appointment or dismissal of senior management personnel, such as deputy general manager and financial controller, as well as their remuneration and incentives according to the nomination of the general manager;
- (XI) formulating the Company's basic management system;
- (XII) formulating the plan for modification of these Articles of Association;
- (XIII) administering matters on information disclosures of the Company;
- (XIV) proposing the employment or replacement of the accounting firm which audits the Company's accounts to the general meeting;
- (XV) hearing the manager's work report and check the general manager's work;
- (XVI) acquiring shares of the Company as authorized by the general meeting in accordance with items (III), (V) and (VI) of clause I of Article 25 of these Articles of Association;

(XVII) exercising other powers regulated in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, Hong Kong Listing Rules and these Articles of Association.

The Board shall establish an audit committee, a remuneration committee and a nomination committee and other special committees (collectively as the “Special Committees”) if necessary to provide advice and opinions for its significant decisions. The membership and the rules of procedure are agreed by the Board. Being accountable to the Board, the Special Committees shall perform duties and responsibilities as authorized by these Articles and Associations and the Board with proposals submitted to the Board for consideration and approval. The Special Committees shall not resolve on a proposal in the name of the Board; however, in compliance with these Articles of Association, the mandatory provisions under PRC’s relevant laws, regulations, regulatory documents and the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company’s shares are listed, they shall exercise the right of decision on the authorized matters under the special authorization of the Board.

Matters beyond the scope authorized by the general meeting shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration and decision.

Article 115 The Board shall make explanations to the general meeting in relation to the non-standard audit opinions expressed by the certified public accountants in the financial reports of the Company.

Article 116 The Board shall formulate rules of procedure for the Board meetings in order to make sure that the Board shall implement the resolutions made by the general meeting, improve the work efficiency and guarantee scientific decision-making. The Rules of Procedure for the Board Meetings shall be formulated by the board of directors and attached to these Articles of Association, which shall be approved at the general meeting.

Article 117 The Board shall establish strict examination and decision-making procedures by setting the scope of authority for external investment, acquisition and sale of assets, external borrowings, asset pledge, external guarantee, connected transactions and donations to others, and organize relevant specialists or professional personnel to assess and examine any material investment projects, and report such investment projects to the general meeting for approval.

Article 118 The chairman of the Board shall be elected by a majority of votes of all directors.

Article 119 The chairman of the Board shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (I) to preside over general meetings, and to convene and preside over the Board meetings;
- (II) to monitor and check the implementation of the Board’s resolutions;
- (III) to sign material documents of the board of directors or other documents that shall be signed by the legal representative of the Company;
- (IV) to exercise the functions and powers of the legal representatives;
- (V) to exercise other functions and powers conferred by the Board.

Article 120 In the event that the chairman of the board of directors is unable to carry out his duties or fails to perform his duties, a director elected by half or more of all directors may perform his duties.

Article 121 The Board shall convene meetings at least twice annually, which shall be presided over by the chairman of the Board. Notice convening a Board meeting in writing shall be served to all directors and supervisors at least 10 days prior to each meeting, notifying the time, venue and agenda of such meeting.

Article 122 Extraordinary Board meeting may be proposed to be convened by more than 1/10 of the shareholders with voting rights, more than 1/3 of the directors, the supervisory committee or over two independent non-executive directors. The chairman of the Board shall convene and preside over a Board meeting within 10 days from the receipt of such proposal.

Article 123 The notice of an extraordinary Board meeting to be convened by the Board shall be served in writing to all directors and supervisors 5 days prior to the meeting. In case of emergency and an extraordinary board meeting is required to be convened as soon as possible, the notice of meeting may be given by telephone or by other verbal means at any time, but the convener shall provide an explanation at the meeting.

Article 124 A notice of a Board meeting shall include the following particulars:

- (I) the date and venue of the meeting;
- (II) the means of meeting;
- (III) the causes and matters;
- (IV) the date of issuance of the notice.

Specific matters to be included in the notice of a Board meeting shall be specified in the rules of procedures for Board meeting of the Company.

Article 125 Unless otherwise required by these Articles of Association, the Board meeting shall be attended by a majority of all the directors. Otherwise provided by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and these Articles of Association, resolutions of the Board shall be approved by a majority of all the directors.

For the voting on a resolution of the Board, each director shall have one vote.

Article 126 If any director has connected relationship with the enterprise involved in the resolution made at a Board meeting, the said director shall not vote on the said resolution for himself or on behalf of other director. The said Board meeting may be held when more than half of the directors without a connected relationship are present. The resolution of the Board meeting shall be passed by more than half of the directors without a connected relationship. If the number of non-connected directors attending the Board meeting is less than 3, the matter shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

Article 127 Resolutions of a Board meeting shall be voted by show of hands or by poll.

An extraordinary Board meeting may be held and the resolution may be voted by means of a conference call or video conference on the basis that directors' opinions can be expressed adequately and shall be signed by attending directors.

Article 128 The directors shall attend the Board meeting in person; in the event that directors are unable to attend the meeting for some reason, the directors may appoint in writing other directors to attend the Board meetings. The proxy letter shall specify the proxy's name, authorized matters, scope of authorization and the valid term, and shall be affixed with the signature or seal of the principal. The director who attends the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the right of the director within the scope of authorization. If any director fails to attend the meeting of the board of directors or authorize a proxy to be present on his/her behalf, such director shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights at that meeting.

A director shall not be entrusted by more than two directors to attend a Board meeting on his/her behalf at a Board meeting. Independent non-executive directors can only appoint independent non-executive directors to attend meetings.

Article 129 Minutes shall be taken for decisions made on matters discussed at the meeting and directors attending the meeting and the person taking the minutes shall sign on the minutes.

Minutes of Board meetings shall be kept and filed by the Company for no less than 10 years.

Article 130 The minutes of board meetings shall include the following:

- (I) date and venue of the meeting and the name of the convener;
- (II) names of the attending directors and names of those appointed by others (proxies) to attend the board meeting;
- (III) agenda of the meeting;
- (IV) main points of the statements of directors;
- (V) the method and results of voting for each resolution (the voting results shall clearly state the number of votes for or against the resolution or abstention).

Article 131 Directors shall be accountable for the board resolutions. If a board resolution violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association thus causing losses to the Company, the directors participating in the resolutions shall be liable to compensate the Company for the losses. However, if it is verified that a director had stated his/her objection when voting and the same was recorded in the minutes, such director may be exempted from such liability.

Section 3 Secretary of the Board

Article 132 The Company shall have a Secretary to the Board, and will be responsible for the preparation of the shareholders' general meetings and meetings of the Board, document keeping as well as the management of shareholders' information, information disclosure and other matters. The Secretary of the Board shall be a senior management officer of the Company, who shall comply with laws, administrative regulations, regulations of the regulatory authorities and the Articles of Association.

CHAPTER 6 GENERAL MANAGER AND OTHER SENIOR MANAGEMENT

Article 133 The Company shall have one general manager, who shall be appointed or removed by the Board.

The Company shall have several deputy general managers, who shall be nominated by the general manager and appointed or removed by the Board.

The Company's general manager, deputy general manager, the secretary to the Board and person in charge of finance are the senior management officers of the Company.

Article 134 The circumstances defined in Article 101 hereof with respect to disqualified directors are applicable to the senior management officers.

Requirements set out in Article 103 hereof with respect to the directors' duty of good faithfulness and the requirements set out in items (iv) to (vi) of Article 104 hereof with respect to the directors' obligations of integrity and diligence shall also be applicable to the senior management officers.

The senior management officers of the Company shall perform their duties faithfully and protect the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. If the senior management officers of the Company fail to perform their duties faithfully or violate their fiduciary duties, causing damage to the interests of the Company and public shareholders, they shall be liable for damages according to law.

Article 135 A person holding other duties other than directorship and supervisor in any entity of the Company's controlling shareholders and de facto controllers shall not hold the office of a senior management officer of the Company. The senior management officers shall be only entitled to salaries paid by the Company, and the controlling shareholders shall not pay the salaries on behalf of the Company.

Article 136 The term of office of the President shall be 3 years, and the President can be reappointed after the expiry of the term of office.

Article 137 The President shall report to the board of directors and have the following duties and powers:

- (I) to be in charge of the production, operation and management of the Company, to organize and implement the resolutions adopted by the Board, and to report his work to the board of directors;
- (II) to organize and implement the annual business plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (III) to draft schemes for the establishment of the Company's internal management departments;

- (IV) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (V) to formulate the detailed rules and regulations of the Company;
- (VI) to make proposals regarding the appointment or removal of the vice president and chief financial officers of the Company;
- (VII) to appoint or remove managerial officers other than those to be appointed or removed by the board of directors;
- (VIII) other duties and powers authorized by the Articles of Association and the Board.

The President shall be present at the meetings of the board of directors.

Article 138 The President shall formulate detailed working rules for the President and submit the same to the board of directors for approval and, upon such approval, implement such rules.

Article 139 The detailed working rules formulated for the President shall include the following:

- (I) conditions and procedures for convening and participants of the President's meetings;
- (II) specific duties and division of labour of the President, vice president and other senior management officers;
- (III) the use of funds and assets of the Company, authority to enter into material contracts and systems for reporting to the board of directors and supervisory committee;
- (IV) other matters as deemed necessary by the board of directors.

Article 140 The President may resign prior to the expiration of his term of office. The detailed procedures and methods for the President's resignation shall be set out in the service contract entered into between the President and the Company.

Article 141 Vice presidents shall be nominated by the President and appointed and removed by the board of directors, and assist the President to work and report their work to the President.

Article 142 The senior management officers shall be liable for any losses caused to the Company by their breach of any law, administrative regulation, department rules or the Articles of Association in performing their duties on behalf of the Company.

CHAPTER 7 SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Section 1 Supervisors

Article 143 Circumstances prohibiting any person serving as a director as stipulated in Article 101 of the Articles of Association shall be applicable to Supervisors.

The Directors, President and other senior management officers shall not act as Supervisors concurrently.

Article 144 Supervisors shall observe the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, owe fiduciary duties and due diligence duties to the Company, and perform their supervisory duties faithfully. They shall not use the authority to take bribes or solicit other illegal incomes, and never encroach upon the Company's property.

Article 145 The term of office of a supervisor shall be 3 years. A supervisor may take another term if he/she is reelected after the expiration of his/her term.

Article 146 If the reelection is not conducted in time after the term of a supervisor expires or the resignation of the supervisor causes the members of the supervisory committee to fall short of the quorum, the supervisor shall still perform the supervisor's duty in line with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association until the new supervisor takes office.

Article 147 Supervisors shall guarantee the truth, accuracy and integrity of the information disclosed by the Company and sign written confirmation opinion on periodic reports.

Article 148 Supervisors may attend the meeting of the board of directors as non-voting participants, and question or make recommendations on the resolutions to be passed by the board of directors.

Article 149 Supervisors shall not use their connected relationships to prejudice the interest of the Company. If any loss is thus incurred by the Company, they shall be held liable.

Article 150 If a supervisor violates the laws, administrative regulations, department rules or the Articles of Association in the performance of his/her duties in the Company and incurs a loss to the Company, he/she shall be held liable.

Section 2 Supervisory Committee

Article 151 The supervisory committee shall consist of three Supervisors and one chairman. The appointment and dismissal of the chairman shall be voted and adopted by more than two-thirds of the members of the supervisory committee. The chairman of the supervisory committee shall convene and preside over the meeting of the supervisory committee. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable or fails to perform his/her duty, a Supervisor jointly elected by more than half of the Supervisors shall convene and chair the meeting of the supervisory committee.

The supervisory committee shall comprise shareholder representatives and an appropriate proportion of employee representative supervisors, of which the proportion of employee representatives shall not be lower than 1/3. Supervisors who are not employee representatives of the Company shall be elected or replaced by the shareholders' general meeting. The employee representative supervisors shall be elected by the employees of the Company through employee representatives' general meeting, employees' general meeting or other democratic means.

Article 152 supervisory committee performs the following duties:

- (I) to review the periodic reports prepared by the board of directors and to comment in writing;
- (II) to inspect the financial status of the Company;
- (III) to supervise the performance of duties by the Directors, President and other senior management officers, and propose to remove Directors and senior management officers who have violated the laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association or resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (IV) to require the Directors and senior management officers to correct the conduct of the Directors and senior management officers that may harm the interest of the Company;
- (V) to propose to hold an extraordinary general meeting, and convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting when the board of directors is unable to fulfill its duty to convene and preside over the shareholders' general meeting specified by the Company Law;
- (VI) to submit proposals to the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) to take legal action against the Directors, President and other senior management officers according to Rule 151 of the Company Law;
- (VIII) to conduct an investigation when finding irregularities in the operation of the Company. Professional organizations including accounting firms and law firms may be engaged when necessary, with the relevant costs to be borne by the Company;
- (IX) other duties and authorities specified by the laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 153 general meeting of the supervisory committee shall be held at least once every 6 months. A supervisor may propose to hold an extraordinary meeting of the supervisory committee.

Supervisors may propose to convene extraordinary supervisory committee meetings. If the supervisory committee intends to convene an extraordinary meeting, it shall give all supervisors a written notice 5 days before the meeting.

In case of emergency where an extraordinary meeting of the board of directors shall be convened as soon as possible, a notice of such meeting may be given at any time by phone or other oral means, but the convener shall make an explanation at the meeting.

Resolution of the supervisory committee shall be passed by more than 2/3 of the members of the supervisory committee.

Article 154 The supervisory committee shall formulate the rules of procedure for the supervisory committee which specifies method of discussion and voting procedure of the supervisory committee, to ensure the working efficiency and scientific decision-making of the supervisory committee. It is stipulated in the rules of procedure for the supervisory committee about the convening of the meeting of the supervisory committee and the procedures of voting. The rules of procedure shall be incorporated into the Articles of Association or be attached as appendix. The rules of procedure shall be formulated by the Supervisors and approved at the general meeting.

Article 155 The supervisory committee shall record its decisions on the items of the agenda in form of minutes. The attending Supervisors and the recorders shall sign on the minutes.

Any Supervisor shall be entitled to have an explanatory note made in the minutes regarding his or her speech at the meeting. The minutes of meetings of the supervisory committee shall be kept as the Company's record for a term of at least 10 years.

Article 156 The notice of the meeting of the supervisory committee shall include the following:

- (I) date, venue and period of the meeting;

CHAPTER 8 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Section 1 Financial and Accounting System

Article 157 The Company shall establish a financial and accounting system in line with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the relevant national authorities.

The Company shall issue a consolidated annual financial audit report for the previous year respectively in accordance with the accounting standards in China. The financial audit report shall be submitted to the board of directors and the shareholders' general meeting for approval after being audited by the accounting firm engaged by the Company.

Article 158 The Company shall not establish account books other than the statutory account books. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in any personal account.

Article 159 The Company shall, when distributing the post-tax profit of an accounting year, accrue 10% of the profit to list it in the statutory reserves of the Company. The Company may not further accrue the statutory reserves when its accumulative amount exceeds 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

When the statutory reserves of the Company falls short to offset the loss of prior years, the Company shall use the profit earned during the year to offset the loss before accruing the statutory reserves according to the previous paragraph.

After accruing the statutory reserves out of the post-tax profit, the Company may, subject to the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, accrue the discretionary reserve out of the post-tax profit.

The post-tax profit left after the loss recovery and accrual of the reserves shall be distributed in proportion according to the shareholding proportions of the shareholders, unless otherwise specified under the Articles of Association.

If the shareholders' general meeting breaches the preceding paragraph by distributing the profit to the shareholders before the loss recovery and accrual of the statutory reserves, the shareholders shall return to the Company the profit distributed in violation of the law.

The company shares held by the Company shall not participate in the profit distribution.

Article 160 The reserves of the Company are used to offset the losses of the Company, expand business scale or bolster registered capital. Nevertheless, the capital reserves will not be used to offset the losses of the Company.

When the statutory reserve is converted into registered capital, the remaining amount of such reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 161 After a resolution on the profit distribution plan is made at the shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of the dividend (or Shares) within 2 months after the said meeting.

Article 162 The Company may distribute dividends in cash or shares, in particular:

- (I) Dividends distribution principle of the Company: the Company implements the dividend distribution policy of equal shares entitling to equal profits, under which dividends and other forms of benefits are distributed to shareholders in proportion to the number of shares they hold. The Company implements active profit distribution policy, attaches importance to delivering reasonable investment returns to investors and maintains the continuity and stability of the policy. The Company may distribute profit by means of cash or shares, while profit distribution shall neither exceed the range of the accumulated distributable profits nor harm the sustainable operation capability of the Company. The Board, the supervisory committee and the shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall fully consider the opinions of the independent non-executive directors, external supervisors, if any, and public investors in the decision-making and demonstration process of the profit distribution policy.
- (II) General method of profit distribution of the Company: the Company adopts to distribute profit in cash, in shares or in a combination of both cash and shares. Under the condition of available cash for dividends distribution, the Company shall give priority to distribute the profit by way of cash dividend.
- (III) Specific conditions and proportions of cash dividend of the Company: the Company mainly adopts the policy of profit distribution in cash dividends, which means if the Company makes profits in the current year and it still has profits for distribution after recovery of losses and withdrawal of the statutory reserve fund and surplus accumulation fund in accordance with the law, the Company should carry out cash dividend; the profit distribution of the Company shall not exceed the scope of accumulated distributable profit.

Article 163 The Company shall appoint a receiving agent for holders of overseas-listed shares. The receiving agent shall receive on behalf of such shareholders any dividends or other amounts payable by the Company to them in respect to the overseas-listed shares, and such payment shall be kept by the receiving agent on such shareholders' behalf for any payment to them.

The receiving agent appointed by the Company shall satisfy requirements under the laws of the places where the shares are listed or the rules of relevant stock exchange.

The receiving agent appointed by the Company for the shareholders of overseas listed shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be a trust company registered under the Hong Kong Trustee Ordinance.

Subject to the relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China, the Company may exercise its right to claim over unclaimed dividends, provided that such right shall not be exercised until after the expiration of 6 years from the date of announcement in respect of dividends distribution.

The Company may cease sending dividend warrants by post to a holder of overseas-listed shares in the event that such warrants have been left uncashed, and the Company shall only exercise such power until such warrants have been so left uncashed on two consecutive occasions. However, such power may be exercised after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned undelivered.

In relation to the exercise of right to issue warrants to bearer, no new warrant shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the Company is satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt that the warrant has been destroyed. The Company has the right to sell, by means considered appropriate by the board of directors, the shares of a domestic shareholder of the overseas-listed shares who is untraceable under the following circumstances:

- (I) During a period of 12 years dividends are distributed onto such shares at least 3 times and no dividend during that period has been claimed; and
- (II) Upon expiry of the 12 years, the Company gives notice of its intention to sell the shares by way of an announcement published in one or more newspapers in the place where the Company's shares are listed and notifies the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in respect of such intention.

Article 164 The cash dividend and other amount paid by the Company to the shareholders of domestic unlisted shares shall be paid in Renminbi. The cash dividend and other amounts paid by the Company to the holders of overseas-listed shares shall be denominated and declared in Renminbi and paid in Hong Kong Dollars. The foreign currency required for the payment of cash dividends and other amount by the Company to the holders of overseas-listed shares shall be arranged in accordance with the provisions of the People's Republic of China in relation to foreign exchange administration.

Article 165 Unless the pertinent laws and administrative rules otherwise provide, the dividend and other sums to be distributed in Hong Kong Dollars shall adopt the average of the selling rates quoted from the People's Bank of China during the calendar week before the date of the declaration of the dividend and the distribution of other monies.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 166 The Company adopts the internal audit system, employs full-time audit personnel and conducts internal audit supervision over the corporate financial revenue and expenditure as well as economic activities.

Article 167 The internal audit system and duties of audit personnel of the Company shall be implemented and fulfilled subsequent to the approval of the board of directors. The person in charge of auditing shall be responsible for and report the work to the board of directors.

Section 3 Engagement of Accounting Firm

Article 168 The Company shall appoint one or more accounting firms which satisfy the relevant PRC requirements to carry out an audit of the accounts statements, verification of net assets and other relevant advisory services for a term of 1 year, which is renewable.

Article 169 The appointment or dismissal of employment of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided at shareholders' general meetings by an ordinary resolution and the Board shall not decide on the appointment of an accounting firm prior to a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 170 The Company shall guarantee that it will provide the employed accounting firm(s) with authentic and complete accounting documents, account books, financial statements and other accounting materials without rejection, concealment or false information.

Article 171 The audit fee of the accounting firm shall be decided by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 172 For removal or unemployment of an accounting firm, 20 days of prior notice shall be given to the accounting firm, which is allowed to make representations upon voting on its removal at a shareholders' general meeting.

An accounting firm resigning on its own initiative shall make a declaration at the shareholders' general meeting as to whether there is any impropriety in the Company
