CHAPTER 4 SHARES

Section 1 Issuance of Shares

Article 20 The stocks of the Company shall take the form of shares.

The Company shall have ordinary shares at all times. If required, upon approval by the authorities delegated by the State Council, the Company may create shares of other classes.

Shareholders of each class of the Company shall rank pari passu over dividends or any other forms of distribution.

Article 21 The Company shall issue shares under the principles of openness, fairness and equality and shares of the same class shall carry same rights.

The issuance conditions and price per share of the same class in the same issuance shall be the same; the same price shall be paid for each share of the same class during the same share issue subscribed for by any entities or individuals.

Article 22 All the shares issued by the Company have a par value denominated in RMB which shall be RMB1 for each share.

Article 23 The Company may, with approval from the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, issue shares to domestic and overseas investors.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, the term “overseas investors” shall refer to investors from foreign countries or Hong Kong, Macao or Taiwan that subscribe for shares issued by the Company. The term “domestic investors” shall refer to investors inside the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”), excluding the above-mentioned regions, that subscribe for shares issued by the Company.

The shares issued by the Company to domestic investors for subscription in RMB shall be referred to as domestic shares. The shares issued by the Company to overseas investors for subscription in foreign currency shall be referred to as foreign shares. The shares listed and traded on overseas stock exchanges with approvals from the authorities delegated by the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities shall be referred to as overseas listed shares.

Upon the completion of overseas offering and listing of the shares of the Company, the Company's shareholders may list and trade their unlisted shares overseas upon approvals of the State Council or its securities regulatory authorities. Listing and trading of such shares on overseas stock exchange(s) shall also comply with the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of overseas securities market(s). No shareholder's class meeting for voting is required in respect of the aforementioned shares to be listed and traded in overseas stock exchanges under the aforementioned circumstance. Domestic shares held by the Company's shareholders will be converted to overseas listed shares after obtaining the approval for overseas listing and trading.

Article 24 With approval, the Company was established as a joint stock limited company on 18 August 1999 by way of promotion through the merger of Guotai Securities Co., Ltd. and Junan Securities Co., Ltd. As at the date of establishment, the Company was approved to issue a total of 3,727,180,000 ordinary shares. The Company issued to its promoters 3,727,180,000 ordinary shares, representing 100% of the then total number of ordinary shares that may be issued by the Company. The names of the promoters of the Company are set out in the Schedule to the Articles of Association.

Article 25 As of 6 July, 2023, the total number of shares of the Company was 8,904,610,816 shares, in which 7,512,783,636 shares were held by holders of domestic shares, representing 84.37% of the total issued shares of the Company, and 1,391,827,180 shares were held by holders of overseas listed foreign shares, representing 15.63% of the total issued shares of the Company.

Article 26 Subject to the approval of the Company's plans for issuing overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, the board of directors of the Company may arrange for implementation of such plan by separate issuances.

The Company may separately implement its plan for issuing overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares pursuant to the preceding paragraph within fifteen (15) months from the date of approval of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or within the period stipulated by the relevant applicable regulations.

Article 27 Where the Company issues overseas listed foreign shares and domestic shares respectively within the total number of shares specified in the issuance plan, the respective shares shall be fully subscribed for in one go. Where it is impossible for respective shares to be fully subscribed for in one go under exceptional circumstances, the shares may be issued in several tranches subject to the approval of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

Section 2 Increase/Deduction and Buyback of Shares

Article 28 The Company may, based on its business and development needs and in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, increase its capital in the following manners upon respective resolutions being adopted by the shareholders' general meetings:

- (I) public offering of shares;
- (II) non-public offering of shares;
- (III) rights issue of new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (IV) bonus issue of new shares to its existing shareholders;
- (V) capitalizing its surplus reserve;
- (VI) any other means permitted by laws and administrative regulations and relevant regulatory authorities.

The Company's increase of capital by issuing new shares shall, after being approved in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, be conducted in accordance with the procedures stipulated in relevant laws and administrative regulations of the PRC.

Article 29 The Company may reduce its registered capital in accordance with the procedures provided in the Company Law and other relevant requirements and the Articles of Association.

Article 30 Under the following circumstances, the Company may buy back its outstanding shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, this Articles of Association, and rules of any exchange or securities regulatory body of place where the Company's shares are listed:

- (I) reducing the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) merging with other companies which hold shares of the Company;
- (III) using the shares for employee shareholding plans or for share incentives;
- (IV) acquiring shares held by shareholders who vote against any resolution proposed in any shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company upon their request;
- (V) using the shares for converting the convertible bonds issued by the Company to stock;
- (VI) necessary acts by the Company to protect its value while safeguarding the interests of shareholders.

Article 31 The Company may repurchase its shares in one of the following manners:

- (I) making a general offer to repurchase shares from all shareholders in the same proportion to their shareholdings;
- (II) repurchase through open transaction in stock exchanges;
- (III) repurchase through an off-market agreement;
- (IV) other means as permitted by the laws, administrative regulations and relevant competent authorities.

If the Company buys back its own shares under the circumstances as required in items (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 30 in the Articles of Association (not including the Appendix hereinafter), the transaction(s) shall be carried out in an open and centralized manner.

Article 32 Subject to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the Articles of Association and rules of any exchange or securities regulatory body of place where the Company's securities are listed:

The buy-back of shares of the Company for reasons specified in item (I) to (II) of Article 30 of the Articles of Association shall be resolved at a shareholders' general meeting, and the buy-back of shares of the Company under circumstances as required in items (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 30 of the Articles of Association shall obtain approval from a meeting of the board of directors where over two-thirds of the directors are present.

For any buy-back of the shares of the Company pursuant to Article 30 of the Articles, shares bought back pursuant to item (I) shall be cancelled within ten (10) days from the date of the buy-back; for those circumstances described in items (II) and (IV), the shares shall be transferred or cancelled within six (6) months.

After the Company has bought back its own shares pursuant to items (III), (V), and (VI) of Article 30 of the Articles of Association, the total number of shares of the Company held by the Company itself shall not exceed 10% of its total issued shares and shall be transferred or cancelled within three years after the buy-back.

Article 33 Where the Company buy backs its shares through an off-market agreement, it shall seek prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association. The Company may rescind or revise a contract entered into in the aforementioned manner or waive any of its rights thereunder with prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting obtained in the same manner.

The contract for the share buy-back referred to in the preceding paragraph includes but not limited to agreements assuming obligations of share bought back and acquiring the rights of the shares bought back.

The Company shall not assign a contract for repurchasing its own shares or any of its rights thereunder.

In the event that the Company has redeemable shares, with regard to the redeemable shares that the Company has the power to buy back, if they are not bought back on the market or by way of tender, the prices of these shares shall be limited to a maximum price; if they are bought back by way of tender, the tenders shall be proposed to all shareholders alike.

Article 34 After the shares are bought back by the Company pursuant to the laws, the Company shall cancel such shares that are required to be cancelled within the period prescribed by laws and regulations, and shall apply to the relevant company registration authority for registration of the change in its registered capital.

The amount of the Company's registered capital shall be reduced by the aggregate par value of those cancelled shares.

Article 35 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it shall comply with the following provisions in respect of the buy-back of its outstanding issued shares:

(I) where the Company buys back its shares at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company and/or out of proceeds of a new issuance of shares made for the buy-back of shares;

(II) where the Company buys back shares at a price higher than their par value, the portion corresponding to their par value shall be deducted from the book balance of distributable profits and/or from the proceeds of a new shares issuance made to buy back the old shares; and the portion in excess of the par value shall be handled according to the following methods:

1. if the shares bought back were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company;
2. if the shares bought back were issued at a price higher than their par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of the distributable profits of the Company and/or out of the proceeds of a new issuance of shares made for the buy-back of shares, provided that the amount paid out of the proceeds of the new issuance of shares shall not be more than the aggregate of premiums received by the Company at the time of the issuance of the shares bought back nor shall it be more than the amount of the Company's capital common reserve account (including the premiums on the new issuance of shares) at the time of such buy-back;

(III) payment by the Company for the following purposes shall be paid out of the Company's distributable profits:

1. acquisition of rights to buy back shares of the Company;
2. variation of any contract for repurchasing shares of the Company;
3. release of any of the Company's obligations under any contract for repurchasing its shares.

(IV) after the par value of the cancelled shares has been deducted from the registered capital of the Company in accordance with the relevant regulations, the amount deducted from the distributable profits for payment for repurchasing shares at their par value shall be accounted for in the Company's capital common reserve account.

Where the laws, regulations and relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the shares of the Company are listed have any other provisions in respect of the financial arrangement related to the aforementioned share buy-back, such provisions shall prevail.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 36 Unless otherwise provided in laws, administrative regulations and the listing rules in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, shares of the Company are transferrable free of lien.

Transfer of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong requires registration by the share registrar in Hong Kong appointed by the Company.

Article 37 All overseas listed shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange which have been fully paid in are freely transferable according to the Articles of Association; provided, unless such transfer complies with the following requirements, the board of directors may refuse to acknowledge any instrument of transfer and will not need to provide any reason therefor:

- (I) instrument of transfer and other documents relating to or affecting the title to any shares shall be registered, and the expense for registration shall be paid to the Company in an amount as stipulated in the Hong Kong Listing Rules;
- (II) the transfer instrument involves only the overseas listed shares listed on Hong Kong Stock Exchange;
- (III) the stamp duty payable under the laws of Hong Kong on the instrument of transfer has been paid;
- (IV) the relevant share certificates and evidence reasonably required by the board of directors showing that the transferor has the rights to transfer such shares shall be provided;
- (V) if the shares are proposed to be transferred to joint holders, the number of such joint shareholders shall not be more than four; and

(VI) the relevant shares are free of any lien in favor of the Company.

If the board of directors refuses to register the transfer of shares, the Company shall serve a notice of refusal of such transfer of shares to the transferor and the transferee within two (2) months from the date when the formal application of such transfer is submitted.

Article 38 All overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be transferred by an instrument in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the board of directors accepts (including the prescribed form or transfer form as required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time). The instrument of transfer may be executed by hand or (if the transferor or the transferee is a company) affixed with the Company's seal. If the transferor or the transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined by the relevant regulations of the laws of Hong Kong in effect from time to time or the agent thereof, the transfer form may be executed by hand or by machine imprinted signatures.

All transfer instruments shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or any address specified by the board of directors from time to time.

Article 39 The Company shall not accept its shares being held as security under a pledge.

Article 40 Shares held by the promoters in the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date of incorporation of the Company. Shares publicly issued by the Company before the share offering shall not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed on a stock exchange.

Save as specified in the preceding paragraph, transfer of the shares of the Company by the promoters and shareholders of the Company shall also conform with the relevant requirements of the laws, regulations and regulatory rules for listed companies which are valid at that time.

Directors, supervisors and senior management of the Company shall report their shareholdings in the Company and the respective changes. All shares transferred within one year during his/her tenure shall not exceed 25% of his/her total shareholding in the Company; and no transfer of shares held by him/her shall be allowed within one year since the date when the shares in the Company are listed. The aforesaid personnel shall not transfer the shares held by him/her within half a year after leaving his/her office.

Article 41 According to the relevant provisions of the Securities Law, where any director, supervisor, senior management of the Company and shareholder holding 5% or more of the shares of the Company or other securities with the nature of equity in issue sells his/her shares within a period of six months after the acquisition of the same, or repurchase shares of the Company within six months after sales of the same, any proceed arising therefrom shall belong to the Company. The board of directors of the Company shall demand such gains for the benefit of the Company. However, the six-month restriction shall not apply for a securities company that holds 5% or more of the shares of the Company as a result of its underwriting of the untaken shares in an offer, or other circumstances as stipulated by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council.

For the purpose of the preceding paragraph, shares or other securities with the nature of equity held by directors, supervisors, senior management and natural person shareholders include those held by their spouse, parents, and children and held under accounts opened by others.

If the board of directors of the Company fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph, a shareholder shall have the rights to request the board of directors to do so within 30 days. In failure of the board of directors to comply with the same within the aforesaid period, such shareholder shall have the rights to institute a legal proceeding directly with the People's Court in its own name for the benefit of the Company.

If the board of directors of the Company fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph, the director(s) liable shall assume joint and several responsibilities pursuant to laws.

Section 4 Financial Assistance for Acquisition of the Shares of the Company

Article 42 The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means at any time, provide any financial assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares of the Company. The aforesaid acquirer of shares of the Company shall include a person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations for the purpose of the acquisition of shares of the Company. The Company or its subsidiaries shall not, by any means and at any time, provide financial assistance to the aforesaid obligor for the purpose of reducing or discharging the obligations.

The provisions in this Article shall not apply to the circumstances stated in the Article 44 of the Articles of Association.

Article 43 For the purpose of the Articles of Association, “financial assistance” includes but not limited to the following means:

- (I) gift;
- (II) guarantee (including the undertaking of liability or provisions of property by the guarantor to secure the performance of the obligation by the obligator), or indemnity (other than indemnity arising from the Company’s own fault) and release or waiver of rights;
- (III) provision of a loan or conclusion of a contract under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled prior to the obligations of the other party to the contract, and a change in the parties to, and the assignment of rights arising under, such loan or contract;
- (IV) any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net assets or when such assistance would lead to significant reduction in the Company’s net assets.

For the purpose of this Article, “assuming an obligation” includes the assumption of obligations by way of contract or the entering into an arrangement (whether enforceable or not, and whether entered into on its own account or with any other persons), or by the changing of the obligor’s financial position by any other means.

Article 44 The following activities shall not be deemed to be activities prohibited under Article 42 of the Articles of Association:

- (I) the financial assistance by the Company is given in good faith and in the interest of the Company, and the principal purpose of the financial assistance is not for the acquisition of shares of the Company, or the financial assistance is an ancillary part of a master plan of the Company;
- (II) the lawful distribution of the Company's assets by way of dividends;
- (III) the allotment of shares as dividends;
- (IV) a reduction of registered capital, a repurchase of shares or a reorganization of the capital structure of the Company in accordance with the Articles of Association;
- (V) the provision of a loan by the Company within its scope of business and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are reduced, the financial assistance is paid out of the distributable profits of the Company);
- (VI) the provision of money by the Company for an employee stock ownership plan (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is paid out of the distributable profits of the Company).

Section 5 Share Certificates and Register of Shareholders

Article 45 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

The following particulars shall be stated on a share certificate:

- (I) the name of the Company;
- (II) the date of establishment of the Company;
- (III) the class and par value of the shares and the number of shares represented by the certificate;

(IV) the serial number of the share certificate;

(V) other items as required to be specified by the Company Law and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

The Company may issue overseas listed shares in the form of depository receipts or other derivative means of shares in accordance with the laws and the practice of registration and deposit of securities in the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 46 During the period of H shares listing in Hong Kong, the Company shall ensure that the relevant documents related to H shares include the statements stipulated below and shall instruct and cause each of its share registrars not to register the subscription, purchase or transfer of any of its shares in the name of any particular holder unless and until such holder delivers to such share registrar a signed form in respect of such shares bearing statements to the following effect:

(I) the acquirer of Shares agrees with the Company and each Shareholder of the Company, and the Company agrees with each Shareholder, to observe and comply with the Company Law, the Special Provisions and other requirements related to laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

(II) the acquirer of shares agrees with the Company, each shareholder, director, supervisor, president and other senior management of the Company and the Company acting for itself and for each director, supervisor, president and other senior management agrees with each shareholder to refer all disputes or claims arising from the Articles of Association or any rights or obligation conferred or imposed by the Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company to arbitration in accordance with the Articles of Association, and any reference to arbitration shall be deemed to authorize the arbitration tribunal to conduct hearing in open session and to publish its award. Such arbitration shall be final and conclusive.

(III) the acquirer of shares agrees with the Company and each shareholder of the Company that shares in the Company are freely transferable by the holder thereof.

(IV) the acquirer authorizes the Company to enter into a contract on his behalf with each of the director, president and other senior management member whereby such directors, president and other senior management members undertake to observe and comply with their obligations to shareholders stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 47 The share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the board of directors. Where the signatures of other senior management of the Company are required by the securities regulatory authorities of the place(s) where the shares of the Company are listed, the share certificates shall also be signed by such other senior management. The share certificates shall become effective after the Company seal is affixed thereto or printed thereon. The share certificates shall only be affixed with the Company's seal under the authorization of the board of directors. The signature of chairman of the board of directors or other senior management on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

In case of scriptless issue and trading of the shares of the Company, the applicable provisions provided by the securities regulatory authorities and the stock exchange(s) where the shares of the Company are listed shall prevail.

Article 48 The Company shall maintain a register of shareholders, which shall contain the following particulars:

- (I) the name, address (domicile), occupation or nature of each shareholder;
- (II) the class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (III) the amount paid or payable in respect of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (IV) the serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (V) the date on which each shareholder is registered as a shareholder;
- (VI) The date on which each shareholder ceases to be a shareholder.

Article 49 The Company may, pursuant to the understanding and agreements made between the securities regulatory authorities of State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities, keep the register of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares outside the PRC and appoint overseas agent(s) for management. The original register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be kept in Hong Kong.

The Company shall keep a duplicate of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares at the Company's address; the appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure the consistency between the original and the duplicate of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate of the register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares, the original version shall prevail.

Article 50 The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders.

The register of shareholders shall include the followings:

- (I) the register of shareholders kept at the Company's address other than those parts specified in items (II) and (III) of this Article;
- (II) the registers of shareholders of overseas listed foreign shares of the Company kept in the places of the stock exchange(s) outside the PRC on which the shares are listed;
- (III) the registers of shareholders kept in other places as the board of directors may decide necessary for the listing of the shares of the Company.

Article 51 Different parts of the register of shareholders shall not overlap. No transfer of the shares registered in any part of the register shall be registered in any other part of the register of shareholders at the same time.

Alteration or rectification of each part of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where each part of the register of shareholders is kept.

Article 52 If relevant laws, regulations, listing rules or securities regulatory authorities where the shares of the Company are listed have provisions on the period of closure of the register of shareholders prior to a shareholders' general meeting or the base day of which the Company decides to distribute dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 53 Any person who disputes the register of shareholders and requests to have his name entered in or removed from the register of shareholders may apply to a competent court for rectification of the register.

Article 54 Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person who requests to have his name entered in, the register of shareholders may apply to the Company for issue of a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the "Relevant Shares") if his share certificate (the "Original Certificate") is lost.

If a shareholder who has lost his share certificate of domestic shares applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Company Law.

If a shareholder who has lost his share certificate of overseas listed foreign shares applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the laws, rules of the stock exchange(s) or other relevant provisions of the place where the original register of holders of overseas listed foreign shares is kept.

Holders of overseas listed foreign shares of the Company who have lost their share certificates and applied for replacement of share certificates, such replacement shall comply with the following requirements:

- (I) the applicant shall submit an application to the Company in prescribed form accompanied by a notarial certificate or statutory declaration containing the reason for the application and the circumstances and evidence to prove the share certificates are lost as well as a declaration that no other person shall be entitled to request for registration as the shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares.

- (II) no statement has been received by the Company from a person other than the applicant who request to have his name registered as a holder of the Relevant Shares before the Company decided to issue the replacement share certificate.
- (III) the Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, publish an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers designated by the board of directors. The announcement shall be published repeatedly at least once every thirty (30) days within the period of the announcement of ninety (90) days.
- (IV) the Company shall have, prior to the publication of its announcement of intention to issue a replacement share certificate, delivered a copy of the announcement to be published to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from such stock exchange that the announcement has been exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange. The announcement shall be exhibited at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of ninety (90) days.
- In case an application to issue a replacement share certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall send by post to such registered shareholder a photo copy of the announcement to be published.
- (V) if, upon expiration of the 90-day period referred to in items (III) and (IV) of this Article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such issue of a replacement share certificate, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant according to his application.
- (VI) where the Company issues a replacement share certificate under this Article, it shall immediately cancel the Original Certificate and record such cancellation and issue in the register of shareholders accordingly.

(VII) all expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Certificate and the issue of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company shall be entitled to refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 55 Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned replacement share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (provided that he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be removed from the register of shareholders.

Article 56 The Company shall not be liable for any damages sustained by any person due to the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the issue of the replacement share certificate, unless the claimant can prove fraud on the part of the Company.

Section 6 Administration of Shares of Securities Company

Article 57 The office of the board of directors of the Company is the organ that handles the Company's share administration matters, which organizes and implements the work related to share administration matters.

The chairman of the board of directors of the Company is the first responsible person for handling share administration matters of the Company. The secretary of the board of directors of the Company shall assist the chairman and is the direct responsible person for handling share administration matters.

Article 58 The shareholding period of a shareholder of the Company shall comply with laws, administrative regulations and relevant provisions of CSRC, which provides that the shareholding period may be calculated in continuance if shareholders of a securities company acquire equity in another securities company by way of share swap, etc.

If the major assets of a shareholder of the Company are equities in a securities company, the controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the shareholder shall abide by the same lock-up period as the shareholders of the Company with respect to the shares of the Company under their control, except for the cases approved by CSRC in accordance with relevant laws.

Article 59 Shareholders of the Company shall not pledge the shares of the Company held by them during the lock-up period. After the expiry of the lock-up period, the proportion of the Company's shares held by a shareholder of the Company that is pledged shall not exceed 50% of the shares held by such shareholder in the Company, except for those shareholders whose shareholdings in the Company are below 5%. Where shareholders pledge their shares, they shall not prejudice the interests of other shareholders and the Company or maliciously circumvent the requirement of lock-up period, and shall not agree to exercise the shareholder's rights such as voting rights by the pledgee or other third parties, and shall not transfer the control over the Company's shares in a disguised form.

Article 60 If a shareholder has illegal or improper conducts related to share administration matters in violation of laws, administrative regulations and regulatory requirements, the Company shall have the right to impose restrictions on the exercise of the shareholder's right by the shareholder under the Articles of Association in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws and regulations and the Articles of Association, and shall report to CSRC's local offices in a timely manner. If the Company or person responsible for share administration matters and related personnel has illegal or improper conducts related to share administration matters in violation of laws, administrative regulations and regulatory requirements, the Company shall have the right to investigate in a timely manner in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association, and the board of directors shall agree on corrective measures and accountability plans.

CHAPTER 5 SHAREHOLDERS AND SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 61 The Company shall establish a register of shareholders in accordance with the evidence from the securities registration organization; the register of shareholders shall be sufficient evidence to verify that a shareholder holds shares of the Company, except where evidence to the contrary exists. A shareholder of the Company is a person who lawfully holds shares of the Company and whose name is registered in the register of shareholders. Shareholders shall enjoy rights and have obligations in accordance with the class of shares held by them. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall be entitled to equal rights and have equal obligations.

If two or more persons are registered as joint holders of any of the shares, they shall be deemed as joint owners of relevant shares, but shall be subject to the following conditions:

- (I) the Company shall register for no more than four (4) persons as the joint shareholders of any shares;
- (II) all the joint shareholders of any shares shall be jointly liable for all amounts payable for the relevant shares;
- (III) if one of the joint shareholders is deceased, only the other surviving joint shareholders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. But the board of directors has the power to require them to provide a death certificate of the relevant shareholder as necessary for the purpose of revising the relevant register of shareholders;

(IV) in respect of the joint shareholder of any shares, only the joint shareholder whose name stands first in the register of shareholders has the rights to receive certificates of the relevant shares from the Company or receive notices of the Company. Any notice which is delivered to the aforementioned shareholder shall be deemed to have been delivered to all the joint shareholders of the relevant shares. Any of the joint shareholders may sign a proxy form, attend the shareholders' general meetings of the Company or exercise all the voting rights attached to the relevant share, provided that if more than one joint shareholders attend a meeting in person or by proxy, the vote of the senior joint shareholder who tenders a vote will be accepted to the exclusion of the vote(s) of the other joint shareholder(s). For this purpose, seniority will be determined by the order in which the names stand in the register of members in respect of the relevant share.

Article 62 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, commences liquidation or participates in other activities which require the confirmation of the identification of shareholders, the convener of meetings of the board of directors or the shareholders' general meetings shall decide the record date. The shareholders whose names appear on the register of shareholders after the close of trading on the record date shall enjoy the relevant rights.

Article 63 Shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall enjoy the following rights:

- (I) the rights to receive dividends and other forms of profit distribution in proportion to the number of shares held by them;
- (II) the rights to request, convene, host, attend or appoint proxy to attend shareholders' general meetings and exercise corresponding voting rights in accordance with laws;
- (III) the rights to supervise the operation of the Company and to put forward proposals and raise inquiries;

(IV) the rights to transfer, donate, or pledge shares held by them in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

(V) the rights to obtain relevant information in accordance with the Articles of Association of the Company, including:

1. to obtain a copy of the Articles of Association upon payment of the cost of such copy;

2. to inspect and photocopy upon payment of a reasonable charge, of:

(1) all parts of the register of shareholders;

(2) personal particulars of each of the directors, supervisors, managers and other senior management of the Company, including:

(a) current and previous names and aliases;

(b) main address (domicile);

(c) nationality;

(d) full-time and all other part-time occupations and duties;

(e) identification documents and their numbers.

(3) the status of the Company's share capital;

(4) the latest audited financial statements of the Company, and directors' report, auditor's report and report of the supervisory committee;

(5) resolutions of shareholders' general meetings, the board of directors and/or the supervisory committee of the Company;

- (6) reports of the aggregate par value, number of shares, highest and lowest prices paid by the Company in respect of each class of shares bought back by the Company since the end of the last financial year and all the expenses paid by the Company therefor (with a breakdown of domestic shares and foreign shares);
- (7) a duplicate of the latest annual examination report filed with the authorities for company registration or other competent authorities;
- (8) minutes of shareholders' general meetings;
- (9) accountant's reports.

(VI) the rights to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company corresponding to the number of shares held in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company;

(VII) the rights to demand the Company to acquire the shares held by them with respect to shareholders voting against any resolution adopted at the shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company; and

(VIII) other rights conferred by law, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall not exercise any power to freeze or otherwise impair any of the rights attaching to any share by reason only that the person or persons who are interested directly or indirectly therein have failed to disclose their interests to the Company.

Where shareholders request for inspection of the relevant information or demand for materials as mentioned in the preceding Article, they shall provide the Company with written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company they hold. Upon verification of the shareholder's identity, the Company shall provide information requested by such shareholder.

Article 64 If a resolution passed at the shareholders' general meeting or meeting of the board of directors of the Company violates the laws or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the rights to submit a petition to the People's Court to render the same invalid.

If the procedures for convening, or the method of voting at, a shareholders' general meeting or meeting of the board of directors violate the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the contents of a resolution violate the Articles of Association, shareholders shall have the rights to submit a petition to the People's Court to revoke such resolution within sixty (60) days from the date on which such resolution is adopted.

Article 65 Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by directors and senior management in the course of performing their duties, shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares of the Company for one hundred and eighty (180) consecutive days or more shall have the rights to request in writing the supervisory committee to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court. Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by the supervisory committee in the course of performing its duties, the shareholders shall have the rights to request in writing to the board of directors to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court.

If the supervisory committee or the board of directors refuses to initiate legal proceedings upon receipt of the written request of shareholders stated in the preceding paragraph, or fails to initiate such legal proceedings within thirty (30) days from the date on which such request is received, or in case of emergency where failure to initiate such proceedings immediately will result in irreparable damage to the Company's interests, shareholders described in the preceding paragraph shall have the rights to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court directly in their own names in the interest of the Company.

If any person infringes the lawful rights and interests of the Company, thus causing any losses to the Company, the shareholders as mentioned in the first paragraph of this Article may initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraphs.

Article 66 If any director or senior management is in violation of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, thus causing any losses to the shareholders, the shareholders may initiate legal proceedings against such director or senior management in the People's Court.

Article 67 Shareholders of ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following obligations:

(I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;

(II) to fulfill their capital contribution obligations in strict compliance with laws, regulations, and the CSRC's rules, and use their self-owned funds to acquire shares of the Company, the source of which shall be legal, while funds other than self-owned funds such as entrusted funds are prohibited for such shares acquisition, unless otherwise approved by laws, regulations and the CSRC;

(III) not to surrender the shares unless required by laws and regulations;

(IV) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to jeopardize the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders to jeopardize the interests of any creditors of the Company. Where any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholders' rights and incur losses to the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for the damages. Where shareholders of the Company abuse the Company's status as an independent legal person and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of evading repayment of debts, thereby materially impairing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company;

(V) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders are not liable for making any further contribution to the share capital other than as agreed by the subscribers of the relevant shares on subscription.

Article 68 A shareholder or actual controller holding 5% or more of the voting shares of the Company shall notify the Company within the time prescribed by the CSRC and Shanghai Stock Exchange upon the occurrence of the following events:

- (I) adoption of property preservation or mandatory enforcement measures with respect to the shares of the Company held or controlled by him;
- (II) pledge of shares of the Company held by him;
- (III) change of actual controller of a shareholder holding 5% or more of the shares;
- (IV) change of name;
- (V) merger or division;
- (VI) imposition of regulatory measures such as suspension of business for rectification, appointment of trustee, takeover or revocation, or in the process of dissolution, bankruptcy or liquidation proceedings;
- (VII) imposition of administrative punishments or criminal liabilities due to material breach of laws and regulations;
- (VIII) occurrence of other events that may result in transfer of shares of the Company held or controlled by him or may affect the operations of the Company.

Article 69 Changes in substantial shareholders or actual controllers is subject to the approval from the CSRC. A shareholder who has not obtained the approval from or has not made due filings with the appropriate regulatory authority or has not completed mandatory rectification process is prohibited to exercise such rights including the right to request for convening a shareholders meeting, the voting right, the nomination right, the proposal right and the right to dispose its shares.

Article 70 Where the changes in registered capital or equity ownership shall be subject to CSRC's approval, the relevant agreement shall not take effect unless such an approval is granted. Prior to being approved by the CSRC, provided that such an approval is statutorily required, the transferors shall continue to independently exercise their voting rights in proportion to their shareholdings. In addition, the transferor shall not recommend relevant persons of the transferee as members to the board of directors, board of supervisors, or senior management of the Company, nor shall the transferor transfer its voting right in any disguised form.

Article 71 The controlling shareholders and actual controller of the Company shall not use their affiliation to jeopardize the interests of the Company; otherwise, they shall make compensation for the loss incurred by the Company.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall have fiduciary duties towards the Company and its public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as contributors in strict compliance with the laws, shall not infringe the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and its public shareholders through profit distribution, asset restructuring, foreign investment, appropriation of capital, offering security for loans, and shall not make use of their controlling status to jeopardize the interests of the Company and its public shareholders.

Substantial shareholders and controlling shareholders shall replenish the capital of the Company when necessary.

Article 72 In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, controlling shareholders, in exercising their rights as shareholders, shall not exercise their voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or some of the shareholders:

- (I) to relieve a director or supervisor of his duty to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (II) to approve the misappropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)), in any manner, of the Company's assets, including but not limited to, any opportunities that are favorable to the Company; and
- (III) to approve the misappropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefit or for the benefit of other person(s)) of the individual rights of other shareholders, including but not limited to, rights to distribute and vote save for a restructuring of the Company submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 73 A shareholder who has made false statements, abused its rights as a shareholder or infringed on the interests of the Company in other ways is prohibited to exercise such rights including the right to request for convening a shareholders meeting, the voting right, the nomination right, the proposal right and the right to dispose its shares.

Section 2 General Provisions for the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 74 The shareholders' general meeting is the body exercising the authority of the Company and shall exercise the following duties and powers in accordance with laws:

- (I) to determine the business policies and investment plans of the Company;
- (II) to elect and replace directors and supervisors who are not staff representatives, and to determine matters relating to the remuneration of the relevant directors and supervisors;
- (III) to consider and approve the reports of the board of directors;

- (V) to consider and approve the proposed annual preliminary financial budgets, final account proposals, balance sheets, statement of income and other financial statements of the Company;
- (VI) to consider and approve the profit distribution plans and plans for loss recovery of the Company;
- (VII) to consider and approve the annual reports of the Company;
- (VIII) to determine increases or reductions in the registered capital and issuance of any class of shares, warrants and other similar securities of the Company;

- (IX) to determine the issuance of corporate bonds by the Company;
- (X) to determine matters such as merger, division, dissolution and liquidation of the Company or alteration of corporate form;
- (XI) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (XII) to determine the appointment or dismissal of accounting firms by the Company;
- (XIII) to consider and approve the guarantee issues as prescribed in Article 75 of the Articles of Association;
- (XIV) to consider matters relating to the purchases and disposals of material assets, which are more than 30% of the latest audited total assets (net of the clients' deposits) of the Company, within one year;
- (XV) to consider and approve matters relating to changes in the use of proceeds;
- (XVI) to consider share incentive plans;
- (XVII) to resolve on the buy-back by the Company of its own shares as prescribed under items (I) and (II) of Article 30 of the Articles of Association;
- (XVIII) to consider other matters required to be resolved by the shareholders' general meeting as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, department regulations, the listing rules of securities regulatory authorities in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, the stock exchange(s) and the Articles of Association.

Article 75 The Company shall not directly or indirectly provide guarantees to shareholders (including related parties of shareholders), except for providing customers with margin financing and securities lending in accordance with the relevant provisions in laws and regulations. The following guarantees of the Company shall be considered and passed at the shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) any guarantee provided after the total amount of guarantee to third parties provided by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries has reached or exceeded 50% of the Company's latest audited net assets;
- (II) a single guarantee for amount in excess of 10% of the latest audited net assets;
- (III) any guarantee provided after the total amount of guarantee to third parties provided by the Company has reached or exceeded 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets (net of the clients' deposits);
- (IV) a guarantee to be provided to a party which has an asset-liability ratio in excess of 70%;
- (V) other guarantees which shall be considered and resolved at the shareholders' general meeting as prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations, stock exchanges or the Articles of Association.

Article 76 Shareholders' general meetings include annual shareholders' general meetings and extraordinary shareholders' general meetings. Annual shareholders' general meetings shall be convened once every year within six (6) months after the end of the previous financial year.

Article 77 The Company shall convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting within two (2) months upon the occurrence of the following events:

- (I) the number of directors is less than the minimum number as stipulated in the Company Law or less than ten;
- (II) the uncovered losses of the Company amount to one-third of the total paid up share capital;

(III) shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the shares of the Company request in writing (the number of the shares held is calculated based on the date that shareholders made such written request);

(IV) whenever the board of directors considers it necessary;

(V) when the Supervisory Committee proposes so;

(VI) other circumstances as provided by laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 78 The location for convening a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be the location in Shanghai that has been determined in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or other location determined by the board of directors in the notice of shareholders' general meeting.

A venue shall be set for the shareholders' general meeting which shall be convened on-site. The Company may facilitate shareholders in the shareholders' general meeting by offering network or other means if technically feasible. A convener of the meeting shall specify in the notice convening the shareholders' general meeting the method to confirm the legal and effective identification of shareholders who participate in the meeting in each way. Any shareholders who participate in the meeting in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed as present.

Article 79 The board of directors of the Company shall formulate the Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings, and specify in details the procedures for convening and voting at the shareholders' general meeting, including convening, notification, registration, reviewing of proposals, voting, counting of votes, announcement of voting results, formation of meeting resolutions, minutes of meeting and their signing, public announcements as well as principle for the authorization granted to the board of directors by the shareholders' general meeting, and the authorization shall be clear and specific. The Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings shall be appended to the Articles of Association. They shall be formulated by the board of directors and approved by the shareholders' general meeting.

Section 3 Convening of Shareholders' General Meetings

- Article 80 The shareholders' general meeting shall be convened by the board of directors.
- Article 81 Half or more of the independent directors, the Supervisory Committee or shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the shares of the Company are entitled to request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting. The board of directors shall decide whether it agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting or not in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings; if the board of directors disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting, the Supervisory Committee or shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the shares of the Company for ninety (90) consecutive days shall then be entitled to convene the meeting by themselves in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings.
- Article 82 All reasonable expenses incurred by the Supervisory Committee or the shareholders in convening the shareholders' general meeting on their own initiatives in accordance with the Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings shall be borne by the Company and shall be deducted from the sums owed by the Company to the defaulting directors.

Section 4 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' General Meeting

- Article 83 The contents of the proposals shall fall within the functions and powers of the shareholders' general meeting, shall have clear discussion topics and specific matters to be resolved, and shall comply with relevant requirements of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 84 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Company, the board of directors, the Supervisory Committee or shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company shall be entitled to raise proposals to the Company.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company may submit ad hoc proposed resolutions in writing to the convener of the shareholders' general meeting 10 days before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting within 2 days upon receipt of the proposals and announce the contents thereof.

Except for circumstances provided in the above paragraph, the convener, after issuing the notice and announcement of the shareholders' general meeting, shall neither revise the proposals stated in the notice of shareholders' general meetings nor add new proposals.

The shareholders' general meeting shall neither vote nor make a resolution on any proposals that are not included in the notice or are inconsistent with Article 83 hereof.

Article 85 The convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 20 days prior to the date of the annual general meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever is earlier), while the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 15 days prior to the date of the extraordinary general meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier). The content, format and procedure of the notice shall meet the requirements of the Rules of Procedures for Shareholders' General Meetings.

Article 86 After issuance of the notice for shareholders' general meeting, the shareholders' general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of delay or cancellation, the convener shall make an announcement giving reasons at least two (2) working days before the date when the meeting is convened.

Section 5 The Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 87 All shareholders listed on the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date or their proxies shall be entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting and vote in accordance with relevant laws, regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend the shareholders' general meeting in person or to appoint proxies to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf.

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall have the rights to appoint one (1) or more persons (whether or not such persons are shareholders) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf, and the proxies so appointed may exercise the following rights pursuant to the authorizations from such shareholder:

- (I) the shareholder's rights to speak at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) the rights to demand by himself or jointly with others in voting by way of poll;
- (III) the rights to vote, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one (1) proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by poll.

Article 88 Where a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, the content and format of power of attorney issued by the shareholder to authorize another person to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall meet the requirements of the Rules of Procedures for Shareholders' General Meetings.

Article 89 The registration record for attendees at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The content and format of the registration record shall meet the requirements of the Rules of Procedures for Shareholders' General Meetings.

Article 90 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened, all the directors, supervisors and the secretary to the board of directors of the Company shall attend the meeting, and president and other senior management shall be present at such meeting.

Article 91 If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the board of directors, the meeting shall be chaired and presided over by the chairman of the board of directors. Where the chairman of the board of directors is unable to discharge or fails to discharge his/her duties, the meeting shall be chaired and presided over by the vice chairman of the board of directors (if there are two or more vice chairmen, the one elected by more than one half of the directors). Where the position of vice chairman does not exist, or where the vice chairman of the board of directors is unable to discharge or fails to discharge his/her duties, half or more of the directors shall designate a director to preside over the meeting.

If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Supervisory Committee, the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside over the meeting. If the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable or fails to discharge his/her duties, the meeting shall be presided over by the vice chairman of the Supervisory Committee. Where the position of vice chairman does not exist, or where the vice chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable to discharge or fails to discharge his/her duties, half or more of the supervisors shall designate a supervisor to preside over the meeting.

If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the shareholders themselves, the convener will nominate a representative to preside over the meeting.

When a shareholders' general meeting is convened, if the chairman of the meeting contravenes the Rules of Procedures for Shareholders' General Meetings, rendering the meeting impossible to proceed, with the consent from half or more of the attending shareholders with voting rights, one person may be nominated at the shareholders' general meeting to serve as the chairman and the meeting may proceed.

Article 92 At the annual general meeting, the board of directors and the Supervisory Committee shall report their work for the past year to the shareholders' general meeting. Each independent director shall also present a work report.

Article 93 Directors, supervisors and senior management shall provide explanations regarding the enquiries and suggestions from shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 94 Minutes shall be prepared for shareholders' general meetings by the secretary to the board of directors. The content and format of the minutes shall meet the requirements of the Rules of Procedures for Shareholders' General Meetings. The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. Directors, supervisors, secretaries to the board of directors, conveners or his/her representative and the chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the registration record of attending shareholders, proxy forms and valid information on internet voting and other means of voting, for a period of no less than 20 years.

Section 6 Voting and Resolutions at Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 95 Resolutions of shareholders' general meetings shall take the form of ordinary resolutions or special resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions adopted by the shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than one half of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting who are entitled to vote.

Special resolutions at a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the shareholders' general meeting who are entitled to vote.

Article 96 The following matters shall be passed by way of an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

- (I) work reports of the board of directors and the Supervisory Committee;
- (II) profit distribution plan and loss recovery plan formulated by the board of directors;
- (III) appointment and removal of members of the board of directors and members of the Supervisory Committee, their remuneration and method of payment thereof;

(IV) proposed annual preliminary financial budgets, final account proposals, balance sheets, statement of income and other financial statements of the Company;

(V) annual reports of the Company;

(VI) matters other than those requiring the approval by way of special resolutions in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 97 The following matters shall be passed by way of a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting:

(I) the increase or reduction of the registered capital and the issuance of any kinds of shares, share warrants and other similar securities by the Company;

(II) the issuance of corporate bonds;

(III) the division, merger, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form of the Company;

(IV) the amendment to the Articles of Association;

(V) the Company's purchases or disposals of material assets or the provision of guarantees within one (1) year, which are more than 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company (net of the clients' deposits);

(VI) share incentive plan;

(VII) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association and those that the shareholders' general meeting by way of an ordinary resolution concluded that may have a material impact on the Company and require adoption by way of a special resolution.

Article 98 Except as otherwise provided by the Articles of Association, shareholders (including their proxies) exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares they represent. Each share shall carry one voting right unless otherwise required by the Articles of Association.

When the shareholders' general meeting considers matters that could materially affect the interest of medium and small investors, to the extent technically feasible, the votes by medium and small investors shall be counted separately, and the results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

Shares held by the Company do not carry voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a shareholders' general meeting.

The Company's board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding 1% or more shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, as collectors, may publicly request the shareholders of the Company, by their own or entrusting a securities company or securities service agency, to be their proxy and attend general meetings and exercise the shareholder's rights of proposal, voting on their behalf. If a collector collects shareholders' rights in compliance with the aforesaid requirements, he/she shall disclose the documents in relation to the collection and the Company shall cooperate. Consideration or de facto consideration for publicly collecting shareholders' rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for collecting shareholders' rights. Where publicly collecting shareholders' rights violates the laws, administrative regulations or the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, resulting in losses of the Company or the shareholders of the Company, such collector shall be liable for the damages.

Article 99 When the shareholders' general meeting considers connected transactions, the connected shareholders shall not participate in the voting. His/her shares held with voting rights will not be counted within the total number of valid votes. The public announcement on the voting results of the shareholders' general meeting shall fully disclose the voting results of the non-connected party shareholders.

Shareholders (including their proxies) connected thereto may attend the shareholders' general meeting and may clarify their opinions to other shareholders attending the meeting pursuant to the meeting procedures, but shall abstain from voting.

Article 100 The Company shall, subject to the shareholders' general meetings being legally and validly held, make it convenient for the shareholders to attend the shareholders' general meetings through various means to the extent technically feasible, including using modern information technology to establish an online voting platform in priority. The specific operating procedures of online voting shall be conducted in accordance with relevant rules promulgated by stock exchanges.

Article 101 The Company shall not, without approval by a special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, enter into a contract to handover all or material business management of the Company to a person other than to a director, supervisor, president or other senior management.

Article 102 Election of directors and supervisors shall meet the following requirements:

(I) the list of candidates for director and supervisor shall be proposed to the shareholders' general meeting for voting.

(II) the candidate for an independent director of the Company shall be nominated by the board of directors, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the issued shares of the Company. The candidates for the remaining directors as well as the candidates for supervisors to be elected by the shareholders' general meeting shall be nominated by the board of directors, the Supervisory Committee, or shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company. Employee representative supervisors shall be elected by an employees' representative assembly.

(III) the board of directors shall disclose by means of announcement detailed information on the candidates for directors and supervisors prior to the date convening a shareholders' general meeting, including their resumes and basic profiles.

(IV) persons intend to nominate an independent director shall obtain the consent of the intended nominee therefor prior to his/her nomination. The nominator shall have full knowledge of the nominee's general information such as profession, educational background, professional title, detailed working experience and all other posts he or she concurrently holds, and give opinion on the nominee's qualifications and the independence required as an independent director. The nominee as an independent director candidate shall make a statement that he has no relationship with the Company that may affect his/her independent objective judgment. The board of directors of the Company shall make the content regarding the director above public prior to the shareholders' general meeting at which the independent director is elected.

(V) when voting on the election of directors and supervisors at a shareholders' general meeting, cumulative voting system in accordance with relevant compulsory requirements of the laws and regulations in effect then shall be adopted. The cumulative voting means that every share shall, on the occasion of electing directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting, have the same voting rights with that of the candidate directors or supervisors and the voting rights possessed by the shareholders may be exercised uniformly.

(VI) if the motion with respect to election of directors or supervisors is approved at the shareholders' general meeting, unless otherwise resolved by the shareholders' general meeting, the term of office of a new director or supervisor shall commence on the date on which resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting are approved.

Article 103 Any vote of shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting must be taken by poll except where the chairman of the meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted by showing hands.

- Article 104 To the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations, when a poll is taken, shareholders (including their proxies) who have the rights to two or more votes need not cast all his/her votes as affirmative votes or negative votes.
- Article 105 The on-site voting shall not end earlier than the network voting or any other method of voting at the shareholders' general meeting. The chairman of the meeting shall announce details of voting in connection with each proposal and the voting result. The chairman of the meeting shall be held responsible for announcing whether or not a resolution has been passed based on the voting result. His/her decision shall be final and shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.
- Article 106 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the voting result of a resolution, he may arrange the recounting of the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not arrange the recounting of the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who dissents from the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request the recounting of votes immediately after the announcement of the voting result, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall immediately arrange the re-counting of the votes. If the counting of votes is conducted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting. The minutes of meeting, the attendance register and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's domicile.
- Article 107 Resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in time, stating the number of the shareholders attending the meeting and their proxies, the total number of voting shares held by them and the percentage in the total number of voting shares of the Company, voting method, voting result of each proposal, and details about all passed resolutions.
- Article 108 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder requests for a photocopy of the relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within 7 days upon receipt of the payment for reasonable charges.

Article 109 If any proposal is not adopted, or the current general meeting amends the resolution of the last general meeting, special indication thereof shall be given in the announcement of the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 110 If the shareholders' general meeting passes motions in connection with the distribution of cash dividend, allotment of new shares, or conversion of capital common reserve fund into share capital, the Company shall implement detailed plans thereof within two months after the conclusion of such general meeting.

Section 7 Special Procedures for Voting at Class Meetings

Shareholders of different classes shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the share capital of the Company includes shares which do not carry voting rights, the words "no voting rights" must appear in the designation of such shares. Where the share capital includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favorable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting rights" or "limited voting rights".

Article 112 The Company shall not proceed to change or abrogate the shareholders' rights of a class of shares unless such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting and at a separate class meeting by the shareholders of the affected class in accordance with Articles 114 to 118 of the Articles of Association.

Article 113 The rights of shareholders of a certain class shall be deemed to have been changed or abrogated in the following conditions:

- (I) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (II) conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class or conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the rights to such conversion;
- (III) a removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to the shares of such class;
- (IV) a reduction or removal of a dividend preference or property distribution preference during the liquidation of the Company, attached to the shares of such class;
- (V) an addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights or rights to acquire the securities of the Company attached to the shares of such class;
- (VI) a removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in a particular currency attached to the shares of such class;
- (VII) creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (VIII) an imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of or ownership of the shares of such class;
- (IX) an issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, the shares of such class or another class;
- (X) an increase in the rights and privileges of the shares of another class;

(XI) a restructuring plan of the Company that causes shareholders of different classes to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring;

(XII) any amendment to or repeal of the provisions of this section.

Article 114 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at the shareholders' general meeting, shall have the rights to vote at class shareholders' meetings in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (II) to (VIII) and (XI) to (XII) in Article 113 of the Articles of Association, except that interested shareholders do not have rights to vote at class meetings.

The term "interested shareholders" in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

(I) if the Company has made a repurchase offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through open market transactions on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 of the Articles of Association, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 270 of the Articles of Association shall be the "interested shareholders";

(II) if the Company has bought back its own shares by an agreement outside of a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 of the Articles of Association, holders of shares in relation to such agreement shall be the "interested shareholders";

(III) under a restructuring proposal of the Company, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same class, or shareholders who have an interest different from that interest of other shareholders of the same class shall be the "interested shareholders".

Article 115 Resolutions of a class shareholders' meeting may be passed only by shareholders attending the class meetings who represent more than two-thirds of the voting rights in accordance with Article 114 of the Articles of Association.

Article 116 When the Company is to hold a class meeting, the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 20 days prior to the date of the annual class meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier), while the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 15 days prior to the date of extraordinary class meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier).

If there are any special requirements under listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, such requirements shall prevail.

Article 117 The notice of the class meeting shall be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to voting thereat.

The procedures of a class meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedures of a shareholders' general meeting. The provisions of the Articles of Association in relation to the procedures for the holding of a shareholders' general meeting shall be applicable to a class meeting.

Article 118 In addition to the holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special procedures for voting in the class meetings shall not apply under the following circumstances:

- (I) where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares, upon approval in the form of a special resolution by its shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting, either separately or concurrently, once every 12 months and the number of each of the domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares to be issued is not more than 20% of the same type of shares in issue;
- (II) where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas listed foreign shares upon its incorporation is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or within the period stipulated by relevant applicable requirements.

CHAPTER 6 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 Directors

Article 119 A director of the Company is a natural person and needs not hold the shares of the Company.

A director of the Company shall satisfy the following conditions:

- (I) being of honesty, integrity and good behavior;
- (II) being familiar with securities laws, administrative regulations, rules and other normative documents and having the operation and management ability necessary for performing the duties;
- (III) have engaged in securities, financial, economics, legal or accounting work for the number of years required by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council;

(IV) meet the requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council regarding level of education;

(V) other conditions stipulated by relevant laws and the Articles of Association.

Article 120 Directors shall be elected or changed by the shareholders' general meeting and serve a term of 3 years unless it is otherwise stipulated hereof. A director may serve consecutive terms if re-elected upon the expiry of his/her term.

The written notice concerning proposed nomination of a director candidate and regarding the indication of the candidate's intention to accept the nomination shall be sent to the Company 7 days prior to the date of convening the shareholders' general meeting (such 7-day period shall commence no earlier than the second day after the issue of the notice of the meeting at which the election shall be conducted and shall end no later than 7 days prior to the shareholders' general meeting). The period for the nomination and acceptance of such nomination shall be no less than 7 days.

Prior to the expiration of a director's term, his appointment may be terminated by the shareholders' general meeting. The shareholders' general meeting shall remove a director before expiration of his/her term by an ordinary resolution in accordance with relevant laws and administrative regulations (however, any claim which may be raised in accordance with any contract will not be affected).

A director's term of service commences from the date he takes office, until the current term of service of board of directors ends. If a director's term of service expires but a new director is not elected in a timely manner, the original director shall continue to carry out the director's duties according to the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and the Articles of Association until the newly elected director takes office.

A director's post may be assumed by president or other senior management, but the sum of the total number of directors who also assume the duties of the president or other senior management and the number of staff representative directors (if any), shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Article 121 The directors shall comply with the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association and shall faithfully perform their following obligations to the Company:

- (I) not to abuse their rights to accept bribes or other illegal income and not to misappropriate the properties of the Company;
- (II) not to misappropriate the money of the Company;
- (III) not to deposit any assets or money of the Company in any accounts under their names or in the names of other persons;
- (IV) not to violate the Articles of Association and lend the money of the Company to others or provide guarantee to others by charging the Company's assets without approval of the shareholders' general meetings or the board of directors;
- (V) not to enter into contracts or transactions with the Company in violation of the Articles of Association or without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VI) not to use their position to obtain business opportunities which should be available to the Company for themselves or others, or to run his/her own or others' business which is similar to the Company's business without approval of the shareholders' general meeting;
- (VII) not to accept commissions in relation to transactions between any third party and the Company;
- (VIII) not to disclose the secrets of the Company without consent;
- (IX) not to use their connections to harm the interests of the Company;
- (X) to be bound by other duties of loyalty stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall be entitled to the income gained by the directors in violation of this Article; the director shall be liable for compensation if any loss is caused to the Company.

Article 122 The directors shall comply with the laws, regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association and shall diligently perform their following obligations to the Company:

- (I) to exercise prudently, conscientiously and diligently the rights granted by the Company to ensure that the Company's commercial activities are in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of economic policies of China and that its commercial activities are within the scope stipulated in the business license;
- (II) to treat all shareholders equally and fairly;
- (III) to understand the operation and management of the Company in a timely manner;
- (IV) to approve securities issuance documents and regular reports of the Company in written form and to ensure the integrity, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed by the Company;
- (V) to provide all relevant information and materials required by the Supervisory Committee and shall not intervene the performance of duties of the Supervisory Committee or supervisors;
- (VI) to perform other obligations of diligence stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 123 A director who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the board of directors in person or by proxy shall be deemed as unable to perform his/her duties. The board of directors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting for removal of such director.

Article 124 A director may resign before expiry of his/her term of service. When a director resigns, he shall submit a written resignation notice to the board of directors. The board of directors shall make relevant disclosure within two days.

If the member of directors falls below the minimum statutory requirement due to a director's resignation, the former directors shall still perform their duties as directors in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association before the appointment of the re-elected directors. If the proportion of independent directors falls below the minimum statutory requirement due to an independent director's resignation, the notice of resignation of the resigning independent director shall only become effective after a new independent director fills the vacancy.

Save for the circumstances referred to in the preceding paragraph, the director's resignation takes effect upon delivery of his/her resignation report to the board of directors.

Without violation of relevant laws and regulations and the regulatory rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, any director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the board of directors (as permitted by applicable laws and regulations) should hold office only until the next shareholders' general meeting of the Company and should be eligible for re-election at the meeting.

Article 125 When a director's resignation takes effect or his/her term of service expires, complete all transfer procedures with the board of directors. His/her fiduciary duties towards the Company and the shareholders do not necessarily cease within a reasonable period after the end of his/her term of service. The duty of confidentiality in respect of trade secrets of the Company shall still be in effect after the end of his/her term of office, until such trade secrets become publicly available information. Other duties may continue for such period as the principle of fairness may require, depending on the length of time which has elapsed between the occurrence of the event concerned and the termination of tenure, and the circumstances and terms under which the relationships between them and the Company have been terminated.

Article 126 A director shall be personally liable for any loss suffered by the Company as a result of a violation by him of any laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in the course of performing his/her duties.

Article 127 Unless legally authorized by the Articles of Association or the board of directors, no director shall act on behalf of the Company or the board of directors. When a director acts in his/her own name and a third party reasonably considers such director acts on behalf of the Company or the board of directors, such director shall declare in advance his/her position and capacity.

Section 2 Independent Directors

Article 128 The Company shall have independent directors. The independent directors shall account for at least one-third of the directors of the Company. An independent director shall meet the following requirements:

- (I) to have the qualifications to serve as directors of listed companies and securities companies according to the laws, administrative regulations and other relevant regulations;
- (II) he shall have the basic knowledge of the operation of a listed company and be well-acquainted with relevant laws, administrative measures, rules and regulations;
- (III) he shall have over five years of working experience in securities, finance, law, accounting, economics or other working experience which is necessary for the performance of duties of an independent director;
- (IV) he shall be at least a university graduate and possess at least a bachelor degree or above;
- (V) he shall have the necessary time and effort to perform his/her duties;
- (VI) he shall comply with the independence required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules;

(VII) other conditions stipulated by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and other regulatory documents.

Article 129 The duties of independent directors and other relevant matters shall be carried out according to the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Section 3 Board of Directors

Article 130 The Company shall have a board of directors accountable to the shareholders' general meeting.

The board of directors consists of 17 directors, including six independent directors. The board of directors shall have a chairman and may have a vice chairman. The Company shall have no employee director.

Article 131 The board of directors shall perform the following duties:

- (I) to convene general meetings and to report to shareholders' general meetings;
- (II) to implement the resolutions of shareholders' general meetings;
- (III) to research and formulate the medium and long-term development plan of the Company;
- (IV) to determine business operation plans and investment plans of the Company;
- (V) to formulate annual preliminary and final financial budgets of the Company;
- (VI) to formulate the profit distribution plans and plans for recovery of losses of the Company;
- (VII) to formulate proposals of the Company regarding increase or reduction of the registered capital, issuance of bonds or other securities and listing;

- (VIII) to formulate plans for any substantial acquisition by the Company, repurchase of the shares (under circumstances as prescribed under items (I) and (II) of Article 30 of the Articles) or merger, division and change of the form and dissolutions of the Company;
- (IX) to decide on matters relating to the Company's external investment, acquisitions or disposal of assets, mortgage of assets, external guarantee, entrusted wealth management and connected transactions as authorized by shareholders' general meetings;
- (X) to decide on the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;
- (XI) to appoint or dismiss the Company's president, secretary to the board of directors, chief risk officer, chief compliance officer, chief legal counsel and chief auditor, based on the nominations of president, to appoint or dismiss vice presidents, chief financial officer and other senior management and to determine their remuneration and rewards and penalties;
- (XII) to decide on the proposals for the establishment of subsidiaries;
- (XIII) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (XIV) to formulate proposals for any amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (XV) to manage the disclosure of information of the Company;
- (XVI) to propose to shareholders' general meetings the appointment or change of the accounting firm acting as the auditor of the Company;
- (XVII) to hear the work report of the Company's president and special committees under the board of directors and to review the work of the Company's president and special committees under the board of directors;
- (XVIII) to assume ultimate responsibility for the effectiveness of the compliance management and overall risk management of the Company, and perform the respective duties;

(XIX) to determine the compliance management objectives of the Company, and perform the following compliance management duties: consider and approve the basic compliance management rules; consider and approve the annual compliance report; establish the mechanism for direct communication with the person responsible for compliance; evaluate the effectiveness of compliance management; and supervise the resolution of problems existing in compliance management;

(XX) to decide on repurchase of shares of the Company under circumstances as prescribed under items (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 30 of the Articles of Association;

(XXI) promote and guide cultural development in the Company;

(XXII) any other powers as conferred by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles.

In respect of the board of directors resolutions relating to matters specified above, except for those in (VII), (VIII) and (XIV) which shall be passed by more than two-thirds of all directors, the remaining resolutions may be passed by more than half of all directors.

Article 132 The board of directors shall not, without the prior approval of a shareholders' general meeting, dispose or agree to dispose of, the fixed assets where the estimated value of the consideration, for the proposed disposition, and the aggregate amount of the consideration for any such disposition of the fixed assets that has been completed in the period of four months immediately preceding the proposed disposition, exceeds 33% of the value of the fixed assets as shown in the last balance sheet placed before the shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting.

The disposition of fixed assets referred to in this Article shall include, among other things, the act of transferring certain interests in assets, but exclude the act of providing guarantee by way of using fixed assets.

The validity of a disposal by the Company of fixed assets shall not be affected by the breach of the first provision aforesaid.

Article 133 The board of directors shall establish the strategy and ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) committee, the remuneration appraisal and nomination committee, the audit committee and the risk control committee.

The committees under the board of directors shall be accountable to the board of directors and perform the duties as granted by relevant laws and regulations and the board of directors, and their proposals shall be submitted to the Board for consideration and approval.

All members of the committees under the board of directors shall be directors, and shall be nominated by the chairman and approved by the board of directors. Independent directors shall be the majority in the audit committee and the remuneration appraisal and nomination committee and shall act as their conveners. The convener of the audit committee shall be an accounting professional. The board of directors is responsible for formulating the working procedures of the special committees and regulating their operation.

Article 134 The board of directors shall explain to the shareholders' general meeting regarding the non-standard auditors' advice given by certified accountant in relation to the financial report of the Company.

Article 135 The board of directors shall formulate the Rules of Procedure for Meetings of the board of directors to ensure the implementation by the board of directors of the resolutions of shareholders' general meeting, to improve efficiency and to have scientific decision-making.

Article 136 The board of directors shall formulate stringent examination and approval system to determine the authority with respect to external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, mortgage of assets, external guarantee, entrusted wealth management and connected transactions of the Company. Specialists or professionals shall be retained to evaluate major investment projects that are beyond the authority of the board of directors and report to general meeting for approval.

- (I) acquisition or disposal of assets: where the acquisition or disposal is required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after it is tested according to the transaction testing indicators specified by the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed (hereinafter referred to as the Indicator Test), it shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting; where the timely information disclosure obligation needs to be performed after the Indicator Test is conducted but the acquisition or disposal is not required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, it shall be approved by the board of directors; where the aforesaid criteria are not met, it shall be approved by the chairman of the board of directors. However, if the acquisition or disposal of assets involves the total value of assets or transaction amount which exceeds 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets (net of the clients' deposits) when it is calculated in the accumulative manner for a period of twelve consecutive months, it shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration.

- (II) external investment: in respect of external equity investment which is required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after the Indicator Test, it shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting; the remaining external equity investment shall be approved by the board of directors, which can decide the total amount of investment for a certain period (the criteria for performing the timely information disclosure obligation after the Indicator Test cannot be exceeded) and authorize the chairman of the board of directors to approve specific investment within the total amount of investment. In respect of external non-equity investment which is required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after the Indicator Test, it shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting; where the timely information disclosure obligation needs to be performed after the Indicator Test but the investment is not required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, it shall be approved by the board of directors; where the aforesaid criteria are not met, it shall be approved by the chairman of the board of directors.

- (III) external guarantee: external guarantee mentioned in Article 75 of the Articles of Association shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for approval; other external guarantee shall be approved by the board of directors.
- (IV) other non-connected transactions: unless otherwise specified by the Articles of Association, other non-connected transactions conducted by the Company which are required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration after the Indicator Test shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting; where the timely information disclosure obligation needs to be performed after the Indicator Test is conducted but the transaction is not required to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, it shall be approved by the board of directors; where the aforesaid criteria are not met, it shall be approved by the chairman of the board of directors.
- (V) connected transactions: connected transactions conducted by the Company which are required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting; where the aforesaid rules require the timely information disclosure obligation to be performed but the transaction does not need to be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, it shall be approved by the board of directors; where the aforesaid criteria are not met, it shall be approved by the chairman of the board of directors.

The external investment referred to in this Article shall exclude transactions arising from proprietary trading of securities, underwriting and listing sponsoring of securities, asset management, private equity, alternative investment business and other ordinary operating activities.

Where there are other requirements by laws and regulations and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed for the approval authority for the aforesaid relevant matters, such other requirement shall be followed.

Article 137 The chairman and the vice chairman of the board of directors shall be directors of the Company and elected with approval of more than half of all the directors.

Article 138 The chairman of the board of directors shall perform the following duties:

- (I) to preside over shareholders' general meetings and to convene and preside over meetings of the board of directors;
- (II) to supervise and examine the implementation of resolutions passed by the board of directors;
- (III) to execute the securities issued by the Company and other major documents;
- (IV) to perform other duties entrusted by the board of directors.

Article 139 The vice chairman shall assist the chairman in work. In the event that the chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his/her duties, the duties shall be performed by the vice chairman (and if the Company has two or more vice chairmen, the vice chairman nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform the duties of the chairman). Where there is no vice chairman and the vice chairman is incapable of performing or does not perform his/her duties, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall perform the duties of the chairman.

Article 140 No less than four meetings of the board of directors shall be held each year. Such meetings shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors and notice thereof shall be given to all directors and supervisors 14 days before the meeting. With the approval of all directors and supervisors, the provisions of the time period for notification of regular meetings of the board of directors may be exempted from implementation.

(II) the provision by the Company of a loan or a guarantee of a loan or any other funds to any of its directors, supervisors, president and other senior management to meet expenditure incurred by him for the purposes of the Company or for the purpose of enabling him to perform his/her duties, in accordance with the service contract approved by the shareholders' general meeting;

(III) the Company may make a loan to or provide a loan guarantee to any of the relevant directors, supervisors, president and other senior management or their respective associates on normal commercial terms, provided that the ordinary course of business of the Company should include the lending of money or the provision of loan guarantees.

Article 202 A loan made by the Company in breach of the preceding Article shall be forthwith repayable by the recipient of the loan regardless of the terms of the loan.

Article 203 A loan guarantee provided by the Company in breach of paragraph 1 of Article 201 shall not be enforceable against the Company unless:

(I) the guarantee was provided in connection with a loan to an associate of any of directors, supervisors, president and other senior management of the Company or its parent company and the lender were not aware of the relevant circumstances;

(II) the collateral provided by the Company has been lawfully disposed of by the lender to a bona fide purchaser.

Article 204 For the purposes of the preceding Articles of this Chapter, the term "security" shall include an act whereby a guarantor assumes its liability or provides property to guarantee in order to secure the performance of obligations by an obligator.

Article 205 In addition to any rights and remedies provided by the laws and administrative regulations, where a director, supervisor, president or other senior management of the Company is in breach of his/her duties to the Company, the Company has rights to:

- (I) claim damages from the director, supervisor, president and other senior management in compensation for losses incurred by the Company as a result of such breach;
- (II) rescind any contract or transaction entered into by the Company with the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management, and with a third party (where such third party knows or should know that there is such a breach of duties to the Company by such directors, supervisors, president and other senior management representing the Company);
- (III) demand an account of the profits made by the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management in breach of his/her duties;
- (IV) recover any monies received by the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management which should otherwise have been received by the Company, including but not limited to commissions;
- (V) request the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management to return the interests accrued or may be accrued on the monies which should have been paid to the Company.

Article 206 The Company shall enter into a contract in writing with each director, supervisor, president and other senior management and such contract shall at least include, inter alia, the following provisions:

- (I) the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management shall undertake to the Company that he/she shall observe and comply with the Company Law, the Special Provisions, the Articles of Association, the Codes on Takeovers and Mergers and Share Buy-backs, and other regulations formulated by the Hong Kong Securities and Futures Commission and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and shall agree that the Company shall be entitled to the remedies provided in the Articles of Association and that neither the contract nor his/her office may be transferred.
- (II) the directors, supervisors, president and other senior management shall undertake to the Company that he/she shall observe and perform his/her duties to the shareholders as stipulated in the Articles of Association.
- (III) the arbitration clause shall be provided for in Article 266 hereof and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 207 The Company shall enter into a contract in writing with a director or supervisor to determine his/her emoluments subject to prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting. The above emoluments include:

- (I) emoluments in respect of his/her service as a director, supervisor or senior management of the Company;
- (II) emoluments in respect of his/her service as a director, supervisor or senior management of a subsidiary of the Company;
- (III) emoluments in respect of other services for the management of the Company and its subsidiary;
- (IV) funds received by such directors or supervisors as compensation for their loss of position or for their retirement.

A director or supervisor may not sue the Company for such benefits due to him on the grounds of the foregoing matters, except for under such contract as mentioned above.

Article 208 The contract regarding emoluments entered into by and between the Company and its directors and supervisors shall provide that in the event of a takeover of the Company, the Company's directors and supervisors shall, subject to the prior approval of the shareholders' general meeting, have the rights to receive compensation or other payment for loss of their position or for their retirement.

For the purposes of the preceding paragraph, the term "a takeover of the Company" shall refer to any of the following occasions:

- (I) anyone makes a tender offer to all the shareholders;
- (II) anyone making a tender offer aims at that the offeror becomes a controlling shareholder which has the same definition as that provided in Article 270 of the Articles of Association.

If the relevant director or supervisor fails to comply with this Article, any fund received by him/her shall belong to those persons that have sold their shares as a result of their acceptance of foregoing offer, and the expenses incurred from the distribution of such fund on a pro rata basis shall be borne by the relevant director and supervisor and may not be paid out of such fund.

CHAPTER 10 TAXATION, FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM AND PROFIT DISTRIBUTION

Section 1 Financial and Accounting System

Article 209 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirement of relevant regulatory departments of the PRC.

Article 210 The Company shall submit its annual financial and accounting reports to the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed within four months from the ending date of each fiscal year, submit the half-year financial and accounting reports to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed within two months from the ending date of the first six months of each fiscal year, and submit the quarterly financial reports to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange(s) in the place where the shares of the Company are listed within one month from the ending dates of the first three and first nine months of each fiscal year respectively.

The above financial reports are prepared in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of departmental regulations.

Article 211 The board of directors shall submit the financial reports prepared by the Company as required by the laws, administrative regulations, rules, statutory documents and the Hong Kong Listing Rules to the shareholders at every annual shareholders' general meeting.

Article 212 The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company twenty days before the date of every annual shareholders' general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Chapter.

Unless otherwise specified in the Articles of Association, the Company shall deliver or send to each shareholder of overseas listed foreign invested Shares by prepaid mail at the address registered in the register of shareholders the said report, the report of directors, together with the balance sheet (including every document to be attached to the balance sheet as required by the law) and income statement or the statement of income and expenditure (if applicable) not later than twenty-one days before the date of every annual shareholders' general meeting, or the Company may publish its report on the website of the Shanghai Stock Exchange and in a newspaper specified in the Articles of Association, and on the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Company or in one or more newspapers specified by the Company. Upon the publication of such announcement, and after implementation of the procedures required by the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, all shareholders shall be deemed to have received the aforementioned financial report.

Article 213 The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards, or those of the place outside China where the shares of the Company are listed. If there is any material difference between the financial statements prepared in accordance with the two accounting standards, such difference shall be stated in the notes to the financial statements. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits for relevant accounting years, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 214 Any interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with the PRC Accounting Standards for Business Enterprises and regulations, and also in accordance with either international accounting standards or those of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 215 The Company shall disclose two financial reports in each accounting year, i.e., its interim financial reports within 60 days of the end of the first six months of an accounting year and its annual financial reports within 120 days after the end of the accounting year.

Other regulations of the securities regulatory authorities at the place where the shares of the Company are listed shall prevail.

Article 216 The Company shall not establish account books other than the statutory account books. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in any personal account.

Article 217 The Company is required to distribute each year's after-tax profits in the following order:

- (I) to make up for the losses incurred in the previous year;
- (II) to allocate 10% of its profits into its statutory reserve fund of the Company;
- (III) to allocate into reserve for general risk to make up for the losses and into transaction risk reserve to make up for the deficit of securities trading in accordance with laws, regulations or regulatory requirements;
- (IV) subject to resolutions adopted at a shareholders' general meeting, to withdraw discretionary common reserve from after-tax profit;
- (V) pay dividends to shareholders.

When the cumulated amount of the statutory reserve fund of the Company has reached 50% or more of its registered capital, no further allocations is required.

After making up for the losses and making contributions to the common reserve fund, statutory reserve fund and discretionary reserve fund, any remaining after-tax profits shall be distributed to the shareholders in proportion to their respective shareholdings, except it is stipulated in the Articles of Association of the Company that profit distributions shall not be made in accordance with the shareholding proportion.

If the shareholders' general meeting has, in violation of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs, distributed profits to the shareholders before the Company has made up for its losses and made allocations to the statutory reserve fund and statutory reserve fund, the shareholders must return the profits distributed in violation of the provision to the Company.

No profits shall be distributed in respect of the shares held by the Company.

Article 218 The Company actively adopts a positive, sustainable and stable profit appropriation policy, which emphasizes a reasonable investment return for investors.

The Company may distribute dividends in cash, in shares or in a combination of both cash and shares. The Company shall give priority to distribute dividends in cash provided that the conditions for cash distribution are satisfied. When implementing the cash dividend distribution, the Company shall consider the internal and external factors, directors' opinions and shareholders' expectations. Under the preconditions that Company has no major investment plan or there is no significant cash expenditure, as well as the net profits realized by the Company in current year and the accumulated undistributed profits at end of current year are positive, the board of directors shall distribute annual or interim profits by cash as long as it does not affect the normal operation of the Company. The Company shall distribute cash dividends (including interim and final dividends) in an amount equal to at least 15% of the annual distributable profits (net of gains from fair value changes and and so on according to relevant requirements) in any year. In distributing profits by means of shares, the Company should take into account the operation position and share capital scale and adequately consider factors such as growth, dilution to net assets per share and so on.

The Company shall take various factors into account, including its industry features, development stages, business model and profitability as well as whether it has any substantial capital expenditure arrangement, to propose a differentiated policy for distributing cash dividend. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Articles of Association, the profit distributed in cash each time shall not be less than 20% of the actual profit distributed.

If the Company decides not to make cash dividend or decides to make cash dividend at a ratio lower than the prescribed one in special circumstances, the Company shall implement the relevant decision-making procedures and make disclosure according to the applicable laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the provisions of the stock exchange at the listing place.

Article 219 Reserves of the Company are used for offsetting losses of the Company, expanding the Company's production and operation or increasing the capital of the Company. However, capital reserve shall not be used to offset losses of the Company.

Capital reserve includes the following items:

- (I) premium on shares issued at a premium price;
- (II) any other income designated for the capital reserve by the regulations of the finance regulatory department of the State Council.

If the statutory reserve is converted into capital, the balance of the statutory reserve shall not fall below 25% of the Company's registered capital before the increase of the capital.

Article 220 The Company may adjust the abovementioned proportion of cash dividend distribution by way of passing a resolution by two-thirds or more of the voting rights held by the shareholders who attend the shareholders' general meeting if any one of the following events happens:

- (I) there are changes in, or adjustments to, relevant laws and regulations or regulatory requirements;
- (II) the net capital risk control indicators reach the warning levels;
- (III) the Company's operating conditions deteriorate;
- (IV) the board of directors proposes the adjustments.

Before raising adjustment scheme of profit distribution policy, the board of directors shall fully hear opinions from independent directors, take the initiative to communicate with minority shareholders through various channels, and carefully respond to concerns of such shareholders. When convening a shareholders' general meeting to consider adjustment scheme of profit distribution policy, in addition to organizing on-site meeting, the Company should also allow shareholders to vote through Internet to the extent technically feasible.

Article 221 After the profit distribution plan has been adopted at the shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the dividend (or share) distribution within two months after the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 222 Any amount paid up in advance of calls on any share may be entitled to dividend. Shareholders shall not be entitled to participate in respect thereof in a dividend subsequently declared.

Subject to relevant laws, regulations, rules or standards of the PRC, the Company may exercise the power to forfeit unclaimed dividends, provided that it does so only after the expiration of the applicable relevant period.

The Company has the power to cease sending dividend warrants by post to a holder of overseas listed foreign shares, but may exercise such power only if such warrants fail to be redeemed for two consecutive occasions. However, the Company may exercise such power after the first occasion on which such a warrant is returned and undelivered.

In relation to the exercise of rights to issue share warrants to bearer, no warrant thereof shall be issued to replace one that has been lost unless the Company is satisfied beyond reasonable doubt that the original warrant thereof has been destroyed.

On the premise of compliance with applicable laws and regulations, the Company shall have the power to sell, in such manner as the board thinks fit, any shares of a shareholder of overseas listed foreign invested shares who is untraceable subject to the following conditions:

1. the Company has distributed dividends at least three times in respect of such shares within 12 years, but none of such dividends was claimed;
2. the Company, after the expiration of a period of 12 years, made an announcement on one or more newspapers in the place where the shares of the Company are listed, stating its intention to sell such shares, and notified the securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed of such intention.

Article 223 The Company shall appoint receiving agents on behalf of the holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares to receive on behalf of such shareholders dividends declared and all other monies owing by the Company in respect of such shares.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws or the relevant provisions of the stock exchanges in the place where the Company is listed.

The receiving agents appointed on behalf of holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares listed in the Hong Kong shall be a company registered as a trust company under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 224 The Company shall conduct internal audit system and assign full-time auditors to conduct internal audit and supervision on the revenues and expenditures and economic activities of the Company.

Article 225 The internal audit system and the duties of the auditing staff of the Company shall come into effect upon the approval of the Board. The officer-in-charge of the audit team shall be responsible to and report to the Board.

Section 3 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 226 The Company shall appoint an independent accounting firm which is qualified under the relevant regulations of China to audit the annual financial reports and other financial reports, conduct verification of net assets and other relevant consultation services.

The engagement of an accounting firm by the Company shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting. The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall hold office for a period commencing from the conclusion of this annual general meeting until the conclusion of the next annual shareholders' general meeting. The appointment may be renewed.

Article 227 In the event of a vacancy in the accounting firm, the Board may appoint an accounting firm to fill the vacancy before the shareholders' general meeting is convened, but the appointment shall be confirmed by the next general meeting. Such accounting firm may continue to act during the vacancy period if the Company has other incumbent accounting firms.

Article 228 The accounting firm appointed by the Company shall have the following rights:

- (I) to inspect the accounting books, records and vouchers of the Company at any time; to require the directors, manager or other senior management of the Company to provide relevant information and explanation;
- (II) to require the Company to take all reasonable steps to obtain from the Company's subsidiaries such information and explanation as are necessary for the purpose of discharging its duties;
- (III) to attend the shareholders' general meetings and to receive all notices of, and other information relating to, the meeting that any shareholder is entitled to, and to speak at any general meeting in relation to matters concerning its role as the Company's appointed accounting firm.

Article 229 Notwithstanding the terms set out in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting may, by way of ordinary resolution, resolve to remove such accounting firm before the expiration of its term of office, but without prejudice to the rights of the firm to claim for damages in respect of such removal.

Article 230 The remuneration of an accounting firm or the manner in which such firm is to be remunerated shall be determined by the shareholders at the shareholders' general meeting. The remuneration of an accounting firm appointed by the board of directors according to Article 227 hereof shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article 231 The Company guarantees that it will provide the accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information without any objection, omission or falsehood.

Article 232 10 days' prior notice shall be given to the accounting firm if the Company decides to remove such accounting firm or not to renew the appointment thereof. The accounting firm shall be entitled to make representations when the resolution regarding the removal of the accounting firm is considered at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.

Where it is intended to pass a resolution at a shareholders' general meeting to appoint an accounting firm which is not holding a current position to fill any vacancy of the position of the accounting firm, or to renew the engagement of an accounting firm engaged by the board of directors to fill up the vacancy according to Article 227 hereof, or to dismiss an accounting firm before the expiry of its term of appointment, such matters shall be handled pursuant to the following provisions:

(I) before dispatch of the shareholders' general meeting notice, the proposal on the appointment or dismissal is delivered to the accounting firm to be appointed or to leave its office or already retired in the relevant fiscal year. Leaving office shall include the dismissal, resignation and retirement for an accounting firm.

(II) if the accounting firm to leave its office makes any statement in writing and requires the statement to be informed to shareholders by the Company, unless being too late for the receipt of such statement, the Company shall take the following measures:

1. making instructions on the notice to the resolution that the leaving accounting firm has made such a statement;
2. copies of such a statement as the annex to the notice shall be sent to shareholders in such manner set forth in the Articles of Association.

(III) if the Company fails to deliver such statement made by the relevant accounting firm in accordance with the provisions in item (II) of this Article, the accounting firm concerned may require the statement to be read out at the shareholders' general meeting and make further complaints.

(IV) the accounting firm to leave office is entitled to attend the following meetings:

1. the shareholders' general meeting at which its term of office shall expire;
2. the shareholders' general meeting at which the corresponding vacancy caused by its dismissal shall be filled;
3. the shareholders' general meeting convened for the resignation that it takes initiative to render.

The accounting firm to leave office is entitled to receive all notices or other information related to the foregoing meetings, and to speak at the foregoing meetings regarding such matters related to it as the former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 233 Where the accounting firm resigns, it shall make clear to the shareholders' general meeting whether there is any impropriety existing in the Company.

An accounting firm may resign by depositing a written resignation notice at the legal address of the Company. The resignation notice shall become effective on the date of such deposit or on such later date stipulated in such notice. Such notice shall contain the following statements:

- (I) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances in connection with its resignation which should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (II) a statement of other circumstances considered necessary.

The Company shall send a copy of the above written notice to the competent authority within 14 days after receiving such notice. If the notice contains the two statements abovementioned, a copy of such statements shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of such statements by prepaid mail to every holder of overseas listed foreign invested shares at the address registered in the register of shareholders.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement regarding any accountable affair, it may require the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the explanation of the circumstances regarding to its resignation.

CHAPTER 11 NOTICE AND ANNOUNCEMENT

Section 1 Notice

Article 234 A notice of the Company shall be sent by:

- (I) hand;
- (II) mail;
- (III) announcement;
- (IV) fax;
- (V) email;
- (VI) making announcement in the Company's website or the websites designated by stock exchange in accordance with the laws, regulations and listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed;
- (VII) other means agreed by the Company and the recipient of the notice in advance or agreed by the recipient of the notice after receiving such notice;
- (VIII) other means recognized by regulatory authorities of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or stated in the Articles of Association.

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, and subject to the laws and regulations and listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed as well as the Articles of Association, corporate communications (as defined in Hong Kong Listing Rules) may be provided or sent to holders of H shares by making announcement on the websites designated by the Company and/or the websites of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or by electronic means.

Corporate communications referred to in the preceding article means any document issued or to be issued by the Company for the information or action of the holders of H shares of the Company or other individuals required under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, including but not limited to:

1. the annual report of the Company (including the report of the board of directors, annual financial accounts, the auditor's report and the financial summary of the Company (if applicable));
2. the interim report and the summary of the interim report of the Company (if applicable);
3. notices of meetings;
4. listing documents;
5. circulars;
6. proxy forms (as defined in the listing rules of the stock exchange(s) on which the shares of the Company are listed).

Where notices are given by way of announcements under authorization conferred by the Articles of Association, such announcements shall be published by means specified in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

In the case of joint holders of a share, all notices, data or other documents shall be served or sent to anyone of the joint holders by the Company.

Article 235 Where a notice is served by way of announcement, upon the publication of such announcement, and after completion of the relevant procedures required by the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, all relevant persons shall be deemed to have received the notice.

Where it is otherwise provided under the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, such provisions shall prevail.

- Article 236 The meeting notice of convening the meeting of the board of directors shall be delivered by hand, facsimile, e-mail or other means as required by the rules of procedure for Meetings of the board of directors.
- Article 237 The meeting notice of convening the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be delivered by hand, facsimile, e-mail or other means as required by the rules of procedure for the Supervisory Committee.
- Article 238 Where a notice of the Company is delivered by hand, the addressee shall sign (or seal) on reply slip and the date of receipt shall be deemed as the date of service; where a notice of the Company is delivered by mail, the seventh working day from the date of delivery to the post office shall be deemed as the date of service; where a notice of the Company is delivered by fax, the day after the fax is sent (which shall be a working day, otherwise postponed to the first following working day) shall be deemed as the date of service; and where a notice of the Company is delivered by announcement, the first day on which such announcement is published shall be deemed as the date of service.
- Article 239 If a notice of meeting is accidentally omitted to be sent to a person who is entitled to receive the notice or if such person has not received the notice of meeting, the meeting and any resolutions made therein shall not become void thereby.
- Article 240 The Company may send only the English or the Chinese version of any corporate documents to its shareholders (in accordance with the intention expressed by the shareholder) if it has properly confirmed with the shareholders on such arrangement in accordance with and to the extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations even when corporate documents are required to be sent, posted, distributed, given, published or otherwise provided in both English and Chinese under the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Section 2 Announcement

Article 241 The Company shall issue announcements and make information disclosure to holders of domestic shares through the website of the stock exchange and media satisfying the requirements prescribed by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council. If it is required to make public announcements to the holders of overseas listed foreign shares pursuant to the Articles of Association, such announcements shall also be published in such manner as required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

The Company may not disclose information through public media before such information is disclosed through designated websites and other designated media, and may not disclose information by way of press release or interview with reporters in lieu of the announcement.

The board of directors may change the websites and other media for information disclosure, but shall ensure that the designated websites and other media are allowed by relevant laws and regulations and comply with the qualifications and conditions stipulated by CSRC, overseas regulatory authorities and securities exchanges in China and overseas.

CHAPTER 12 MERGER, DIVISION, CAPITAL INCREASE, CAPITAL REDUCTION, DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

Section 1 Merger, Division, Capital Increase and Capital Reduction

Article 242 The merger or division of the Company shall be proposed by the board of directors, and upon approval in accordance with the procedures provided in the Articles of Association, it shall go through relevant examination and approval formalities according to the laws. A shareholder objecting to merger or division of the Company may require the Company or the shareholders who are in favor of such merger or division to acquire his/her shares at a fair price. A special document about the content of the resolution on merger or division of the Company shall be made for inspection by the shareholders. The aforesaid documents shall also be sent by mail to holders of overseas listed foreign invested shares of the companies listed in Hong Kong.

Article 243 Merger of the Company may take the form of absorption or establishment of a new company.

Absorption means that a company absorbs another company and the absorbed company will be dissolved. Where two or more companies merge into a new company, the original companies will be dissolved.

Article 244 In the event of a merger, the merging parties shall execute a merger agreement and prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of the Company's merger resolution and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date of the Company's merger resolution. A creditor has the rights, within 30 days of receiving such notice from the Company or, for creditors who do not receive the notice, within 45 days from the date of the public notice, to demand the Company to settle its debts or provide a guarantee for such debt.

Article 245 Upon the merger of the Company, claims and debts of each of the merged parties shall be assumed by the company which survives the merger or the newly established company.

Article 246 When the Company is divided, its assets shall be split up accordingly.

In the event of a division, the Company shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within ten days from the date of the Company's resolution to divide and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date the Company made a resolution to divide.

Article 247 Debts of the Company prior to division shall be jointly assumed by the companies which exist after the division, except provided otherwise in the written agreement between the Company and the creditors relating to the settlement of debt before the division.

Article 248 Where the Company is required to reduce its registered capital, it shall prepare a balance sheet and an inventory of assets.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from the date of the resolution for reduction of registered capital and shall publish an announcement in newspapers or by other means within 30 days from the date of such resolution. A creditor has the rights, within 30 days after receipt of the notice or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive such notice, within 45 days from the date of the announcement, to demand the Company to repay its debts or to provide a guarantee for such debt.

The registered capital of the Company after reduction shall not be less than the statutory minimum amount.

Article 249 Changes in particulars of the companies as a result of merger or division must be registered with the registration authorities in accordance with the laws. Cancellation of a company shall be registered in accordance with the laws when a company is dissolved. Incorporation of a company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with the laws.

When increasing or reducing the registered capital, the Company shall register the changes with company registration authorities in accordance with the laws.

Section 2 Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 250 The Company shall be dissolved upon the occurrence of the following events:

- (I) the term of its operations set out in the Articles of Association has expired or other events of dissolution specified in the Articles of Association have occurred;
- (II) a resolution on dissolution is passed by shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) dissolution is necessary due to the merger or division;
- (IV) the Company's business license is revoked or the Company is ordered to close down or de-registered according to laws;

(V) where the Company gets into serious trouble in operation and management and its continuation may cause substantial loss to the interests of shareholders, and no solution can be found through any other channel, shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights of all shareholders of the Company may request the People's Court to dissolve the Company;

(VI) the Company is legally declared bankrupt due to its failure to repay debts due.

Article 251 Upon the occurrence of the situation described in item (I) of Article 250 hereof, the Company may continue to exist by amending the Articles of Association.

Amendments to the Articles of Association pursuant to the preceding paragraph shall be subject to the approval of more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 252 Where the Company is dissolved in accordance with items (I), (II), (IV) and (V) of Article 250 hereof, a liquidation committee shall be established to commence liquidation within 15 days from the date of occurrence of events giving rise to dissolution. The members of the liquidation committee shall be determined by the directors or the shareholders' general meeting. In case no liquidation committee is established within the specified period to commence liquidation, the creditors may apply to the People's Court to designate relevant persons to form a liquidation committee and commence liquidation.

Article 253 If the board of directors decides that the Company shall be liquidated (except for such liquidation as a result of the Company's declared bankruptcy), the notice of the shareholders' general meeting convened for such purpose shall include a statement to the effect that the board of directors has made full inquiry into the position of the Company and that the board of directors is of the opinion that the Company can pay off its debts in full within 12 months after the liquidation has commenced.

Upon passing of the resolution to liquidate the Company at the shareholders' general meeting, the functions and powers of the board of directors shall cease immediately.

The liquidation team shall take instructions from the shareholders' general meeting and shall report to the shareholders' general meeting on the liquidation team's income and expenditure, the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation at least once per year. It shall make a final report to the shareholders' general meeting upon the completion of such liquidation.

Article 254 The liquidation team shall exercise the following functions and power during the period of liquidation:

- (I) informing creditors by a notice or public announcement;
- (II) liquidating the properties of the Company, and preparing the balance sheets and inventory of assets separately;
- (III) disposing of and liquidating the unfinished businesses of the Company;
- (IV) clearing off the outstanding taxes and the taxes incurred from the process of liquidation;
- (V) clearing off credits and debts;
- (VI) disposing of the residual properties after settling such debt;
- (VII) participating in the civil litigation on behalf of the Company.

Article 255 The liquidation team shall, within 10 days of its formation, notify the creditors, and shall, within 60 days, make a public announcement on newspaper or by other means. Creditors shall, within 30 days of the receipt of the notice or within 45 days of the release of the public announcement in the case of failure to receive said notice, file their creditors' rights with the liquidation team.

Where creditors file their creditors' rights, they shall explain about the matters related to creditors' rights, and shall provide the evidentiary materials. The liquidation team shall register the creditors' rights.

The liquidation team may not clear off any of the debts of any creditors during the period of filing creditors' rights.

Article 256 After the liquidation team has liquidated the assets of the Company and has prepared the balance sheets and inventory of assets, it shall prepare a plan of liquidation, and report it to the shareholders' general meeting or the People's Court for confirmation.

The remaining assets after paying off the liquidation expenses, wages of employees, social insurance premiums and statutory compensation, the outstanding taxes and the debts of the Company may be distributed in proportion to shareholding of the shareholders.

During the period of liquidation, the Company continues to exist but may not carry out any business operation that is not related to liquidation. Before the settlement of repayments as provided in the preceding article has been made, the Company's properties shall not be distributed to shareholders.

Article 257 Should the liquidation team find that the properties of the Company is insufficient for clearing off the debts after liquidating the properties of the Company and preparing the balance sheets and inventory of assets, it shall apply to the People's Court to declare the Company's bankruptcy pursuant to laws.

Once the People's Court declares the bankruptcy of the Company, the liquidation team shall hand over the liquidation matters to the People's Court.

Article 258 Following the completion of the liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall prepare a liquidation report, a income and expenditure statement and financial accounts in respect of the liquidation period and, after verification thereof by a certified public accountant in China, such committee shall submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities for confirmation. And within 30 days from the date of said confirmation made by the shareholders' general meeting or relevant competent authorities, the Company shall submit the same to the company registration authority to apply for de-registration of the Company, and to announce that the Company is terminated.

Article 259 The members of the liquidation team shall devote themselves to their duties and fulfill their obligations of liquidation according to laws.

None of the members of the liquidation team may take any bribe or any other illegal proceeds by taking advantage of his/her position, nor may he/she misappropriate any of the properties of the Company.

Where any members of the liquidation team cause any loss to the Company or any creditor with intention or due to gross negligence, he/she shall be liable to make compensation.

Article 260 Where the Company is declared bankruptcy in accordance with laws, it shall implement bankruptcy liquidation in accordance with relevant laws relating to bankruptcy of enterprise.

CHAPTER 13 AMENDMENT TO ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION

Article 261 The Company may amend the Articles of Association in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 262 Under any one of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend its articles of association:

- (I) after amendment has been made to the Company Law or relevant laws or administrative regulations, the contents of the Articles of Association shall conflict with the amended laws or administrative regulations;

(II) the changes that the Company have undergone are inconsistent with the records made in the Articles of Association;

(III) the shareholders' general meeting decides that the Articles of Association should be amended.

Article 263 Should the amendment to the Articles of Association passed by resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting relate to registration of the Company, the alteration to such registration shall be handled according to laws.

Article 264 The board of directors shall amend the Articles of Association according to the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 265 Any amendment to the Articles of Association that involves information to be disclosed as required by the laws and regulations, shall be publicly announced as required.

CHAPTER 14 SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

Article 266 The Company shall comply with the following rules in settling disputes:

(I) whenever any disputes or claims concerning the affairs of the Company arise from any rights or obligations as provided in the Articles of Association, the Company Law and other relevant laws and administrative regulations between a holder of overseas listed shares and the Company, between a holder of overseas listed shares and a director or supervisor or senior management of the Company, and between a holder of overseas listed shares and a holder of domestic shares, the parties concerned shall resolve such disputes and claims through arbitration.

where a dispute or claim described above is submitted for arbitration, the entire dispute or claim shall be resolved through arbitration; all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, if they are shareholders, directors, supervisors or senior management of the Company or the Company, shall submit to arbitration.

Disputes over who is a shareholder and over the share register do not have to be resolved through arbitration.

- (II) the party seeking arbitration may elect to have the dispute or claim arbitrated either by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its arbitration rules or by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once the party seeking arbitration submits a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral institution selected by the party seeking the arbitration.

if the party seeking arbitration elects to arbitrate the dispute or claim at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, then either party may apply to have such arbitration conducted in Shenzhen according to the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (III) if any disputes or claims are settled by way of arbitration in accordance with item (I) of this article, the laws of the People's Republic of China shall apply, except as otherwise provided in the laws and regulations.

- (IV) the award of the arbitral institution is final and shall be binding on the parties thereto.

CHAPTER 15 SUPPLEMENTARY ARTICLES

Article 267 The board of directors may formulate by-laws in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, provided that such by-laws shall not be in violation of the Articles of Association.

Article 268 The Rules of Procedure for Shareholders' General Meetings, the Rules of Procedure for Meetings of the board of directors and the Rules of Procedure for the Supervisory Committee shall form an integral part of, and shall have the same legal effect as, the Articles of Association.

Article 269 Any matters not covered herein or in case of any contradiction of the Articles of Association with any laws, administrative regulations and other relevant normative documents, those laws, administrative regulations and other relevant normative documents shall prevail.

Article 270 Definitions

(I) the controlling shareholder means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

1. a person who may elect more than half of the directors when acting alone or in concert with others;
2. a person who may exercise or control the exercise of 30% or more of the total voting shares of the Company when acting alone or in concert with others;
3. a person who holds 30% or more of issued and outstanding shares of the Company when acting alone or in concert with others;
4. a person who may de facto control the Company in any other manner when acting alone or in concert with others.

(II) a de facto controller means a person who, though not a shareholder, but through investment relationships, agreements, or other arrangements, may actually control the activities of the Company.

(III) associated relationship is the relationship between its controlling shareholder, de facto controller, directors, supervisors or senior management, or enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by them or under common control, as well as other relationships which may possibly cause the transfer of the Company's interests. However, enterprises owned by the State will not be regarded as having associated relationships among themselves only because they are owned by the State.

- Article 271 The Articles of Association are written in Chinese. In case of any inconsistency between the articles of association in any other language or of different version and the Articles of Association, the latest Chinese version of the Articles of Association approved by and registered/filed with the authorities for company registration shall prevail.
- Article 272 The term “above”, “within”, “following”, as stated in the Articles of Association shall all include the given figure; the term “not exceeding”, “except”, “lower”, “more”, “exceeding” shall all exclude the given figure.
- Article 273 The term “president” as used in the Articles of Association shall have the same meaning as “manager” as referred to in the Company Law.
- Article 274 The draft amendments to the Articles of Association shall be prepared by the board of directors and shall take effect upon the approval at a shareholders’ general meeting. The board of directors shall be responsible for the interpretation of the Articles of Association.

THE RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR GENERAL MEETINGS OF GUOTAI JUNAN SECURITIES CO., LTD.

CHAPTER 1 GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 1 To regulate the conduct of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”) and ensure that the shareholders’ general meetings exercises their functions and powers legally, these rules of procedure (the “Rules”) are formulated pursuant to the provisions of the Company Law of the PRC (hereinafter referred to as the “Company Law”), the Rules for Shareholders’ General Meetings of Listed Companies, the Listing Rules of Shanghai Stock Exchange, the Mandatory Provisions for Articles of Association of Companies to be Listed Overseas, the Special Provisions of the State Council on the Overseas Offering and Listing of Shares by the Joint Stock Limited Companies, the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (hereinafter referred to as the “Hong Kong Listing Rules”), and other laws, regulations and normative documents as well as the Articles of Association of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”).

Article 2 The Company shall convene general meetings according to the laws, administrative regulations, the Rules for Shareholders’ General Meetings of Listed Companies, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, and shall ensure that shareholders can exercise their rights according to law.

The board of directors of the Company shall by due diligence perform its duties, and shall organize the shareholders’ general meetings in a serious and timely manner. All the directors of the Company shall be diligent and responsible to ensure the normal convening of the shareholders’ general meetings and their lawful exercise of functions and powers.

Article 3 A shareholders’ general meeting shall exercise its functions and powers within the scope specified by the Company Law and other laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Association.

Article 4 Where matters are required to be resolved on general meetings in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the Rules for Shareholders' General Meetings of Listed Companies, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, the board of directors shall convene a shareholders' general meeting to review such matters in order to protect shareholders' rights of decision-making. If the circumstances reasonably require, for specific matters that are related to the matters to be considered and reviewed and resolved on the shareholders' general meeting but are not possible to be determined on the meeting, the shareholders' general meeting may authorise the board of directors to decide on or deal with such matters.

In the event that the board of directors is required to be so authorized to decide on or deal with matters by general meetings, the board of directors may authorise the chairman, one or more directors or the president to decide on or deal with such matters within the scope of its authority.

Article 5 In the event that the board of directors is required to be so authorized to decide on or deal with matters by general meetings, such authorization shall be approved by more than half of the Company's total voting shares held by shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies) if such matters are those which should be passed by way of an ordinary resolution; and shall be approved by more than two-thirds of the Company's total voting shares held by shareholders who are present at the meeting (including proxies) if such matters are those which should be passed by way of a special resolution. The terms of the authorization shall be clear and specific.

Article 6 Shareholders' general meetings shall be annual general meetings of shareholders and extraordinary general meetings of shareholders. The annual general meeting of shareholders shall be held once every year within six months after the end of the previous accounting year.

Article 7 The Company shall hold an extraordinary general meeting within two months after the occurrence of one of the following events:

(I) the number of incumbent directors falls below the requirement of the Company Law, or is less than 10 persons;

- (II) the uncovered losses are in excess of one third of the Company's total paid-up share capital;
- (III) shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares request in writing (their shareholding shall be calculated according to the number of shares as of the day on which they submit request in writing);
- (IV) the board of directors considers it necessary;
- (V) the Supervisory Committee proposes to convene such meeting;
- (VI) such other circumstances as specified by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

CHAPTER 2 THE CONVENING OF GENERAL MEETINGS

- Article 8 The shareholders' general meetings shall be convened by the board of directors.
- Article 9 If a shareholders' general meeting may not be convened by the Company within the period stipulated in the Articles of Associate, the Company shall report and provide explanation to the securities regulatory authority and the stock exchange in the place where the Company's shares are listed, and shall make an announcement thereof (if required).
- Article 10 Subject to the consent of more than one half of all the independent directors, the independent directors shall have the rights to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Regarding the proposal requesting to convene an extraordinary general meeting by the independent directors, the board of directors shall give a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within ten days after receiving the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 11 If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice for convening such meeting shall be issued within five days after the date of the resolution of the board of directors. If the board of directors refuses to convene an extraordinary general meeting, an explanation and relevant announcement shall be made.

The Supervisory Committee shall have the rights to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and such proposal shall be submitted in writing. The board of directors shall give a written reply stating its agreement or disagreement to the convening of the extraordinary general meeting within ten days after receiving the proposal in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

If the board of directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice for convening such meeting shall be issued within five days after the date of the resolution of the board of directors and any changes to the original proposal contained in the notice shall be subject to the approval of the Supervisory Committee.

If the board of directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or does not give any written reply within ten days after receiving the proposal, the board of directors shall be deemed as failing to perform the duty of convening a shareholders' general meeting. In such case, the Supervisory Committee may convene and preside over the meeting.

Article 12 Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of shares of the Company are entitled to request the board of directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the place where shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association, reply with a written opinion to state whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of the request.

If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting within five days upon after the date of the resolution of the board of directors. Any changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant shareholders.

If the board of directors disagrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, or does not reply within 10 days upon receipt of the proposal, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company are entitled to request the Supervisory Committee in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting.

If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting within five days upon receipt of the proposal. Any changes made to the original proposals in the notice shall be agreed by the relevant shareholders.

If the Supervisory Committee does not issue the notice of general meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed as the Supervisory Committee not convening and not holding the shareholders' general meeting. Then the shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the shares of the Company for more than 90 consecutive days (the "Convening Shareholders") are entitled to convene and hold the meeting by themselves.

Article 13 Where the Supervisory Committee or shareholders decide to convene a shareholders' general meeting by themselves, a written notice shall be submitted to the board of directors and filed with Shanghai Bureau of China Securities Regulatory Commission and Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Before making an announcement on the resolution(s) of the shareholders' general meeting, the Convening Shareholders shall hold no less than 10% of the shares.

When the Supervisory Committee and the Convening Shareholders issue a notice of general meeting and announcement on the resolution(s) of the shareholders' general meeting, they shall submit the relevant proof materials to Shanghai Bureau of China Securities Regulatory Commission and Shanghai Stock Exchange.

Article 14 Where the Supervisory Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' general meeting by themselves, the board of directors and the secretary to the board of directors shall cooperate. The board of directors shall provide the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date. If the board of directors fails to provide the register of shareholders, the convener may carry relevant announcement on the notice of convening general meeting to apply with the securities registration and clearing institutions. The convener shall not use the register of shareholders for purposes other than convening a shareholders' general meeting.

Article 15 Shareholders who request to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class general meeting shall follow the procedures below:

- (I) two or more shareholders who hold in aggregate more than 10% (inclusive) shares with the rights to vote at such proposed meeting may, upon signing one or several written requests with the same content and format, request the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting or class general meeting and state the subject of the meeting. The board of directors shall convene the extraordinary general meeting or class general meeting as soon as possible upon receipt of the aforesaid written request. Shares held by the above shareholders shall be calculated as at the date of submitting the written request.
- (II) if the board of directors fails to issue a notice of convening meeting within 30 days upon receipt of the aforesaid written request, shareholders making such request may convene meeting by themselves within four months upon receipt of such request by the board of directors and the procedures shall be as same as possible to those of the board of directors convening a shareholders' general meeting.

Where shareholders convene and hold a shareholders' general meeting by themselves as a result of the failure of the board of directors to hold a shareholders' general meeting as aforesaid, the expenses reasonably accrued therefrom shall be borne by the Company and be deducted from the amounts due for payment to the directors as a result of their negligent manners.

CHAPTER 3 PROPOSALS AND NOTICES OF GENERAL MEETING

Article 16 The convener of a shareholders' general meeting shall be responsible for raising proposals with complete subject and content.

Article 17 The contents of the proposals to be raised shall be within the scope of duties of the shareholders' general meetings. It shall have a clear topic and specific matters to be resolved on, and shall be in compliance with relevant requirements of the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 18 When a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Company, the board of directors, the Supervisory Committee or shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company are entitled to propose resolutions to the Company.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding 3% or more of the shares of the Company may submit ad hoc proposals in writing to the convener of the shareholders' general meeting 10 days before the convening of the shareholders' general meeting. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting within 2 days upon receipt of the proposals and announce the contents of the ad hoc proposals.

Except for circumstances provided in the above paragraph, the convener, after issuing the notice and announcement of the shareholders' general meeting, shall neither revise the proposals stated in the notice of general meetings nor add new proposals.

Article 19 If a notice of general meeting does not specify the proposed resolutions or does not comply with Article 17 herein, no voting for resolutions shall be carried out at the shareholders' general meeting.

- Article 20 The convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 20 days prior to the date of the annual general meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever is earlier), while the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 15 days prior to the date of the extraordinary general meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier).
- Article 21 When calculating the notice period of the shareholders' general meeting, the date of the meeting convened shall be excluded but the date of issuing the notice may be included.
- Article 22 Notice of the shareholders' general meeting shall comply with the following requirements:
- (I) shall be in written form;
 - (II) shall specify the date, time and venue of the meeting;
 - (III) shall illustrate matters to be considered at the meeting; the notice and supplemental notice of the meeting shall fully and completely disclose the specific contents of all proposals, and such information and explanation as is necessary for the shareholders to make an informed decision on the matters to be discussed; for those items proposed for discussion requiring the opinions of independent Directors, opinions and reasons of independent Directors shall be disclosed when the notice or supplemental notice of the shareholders' general meeting is issued;
 - (IV) shall provide shareholders the detailed information and explanations necessary for the shareholders to make sound decisions about the matters to be discussed. This principle includes (but not limited to) the provision of the specific terms and contract(s), if any, of the proposed transaction(s) and serious explanations about the causes and effects when the Company proposes mergers, repurchase of shares, restructuring of share capital or other restructuring;

- (V) in the event that any of the directors, supervisors and senior management has material interests at stake in matters to be discussed, the nature and extent of the interests at stake shall be disclosed. If the matters to be discussed affect any director, supervisor and senior management as a shareholder in a manner different from how they affect the same type of other shareholders, the difference shall be explained;
- (VI) shall include the full text of any special resolution to be proposed for approval at the meeting;
- (VII) shall contain a conspicuous statement that a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at the meeting may appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at the meeting on his/her behalf and such proxy needs not to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (VIII) shall specify the date and place for the delivery of proxy forms for voting;
- (IX) shall specify the record date for determining the shareholders who are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting;
- (X) shall state the names and telephone numbers of the standing contact persons for the meeting;
- (XI) shall contain other matters as required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the Articles of Association and securities regulatory authorities and stock exchange of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

In the event that a shareholders' general meeting of the Company is held online or through other means, the designated time and procedure for voting through internet or other means and methods of ascertaining identification of shareholders shall be expressly stated in the notice of such meeting. In the event that a shareholders' general meeting of the Company is held online or through other means, the starting and ending time of voting online or through other means shall be determined in accordance with then effective legal requirements, and if there are no such requirements, may be determined by the convener of the meeting.

Article 23 In the event that matters involving the election of directors and supervisors are to be considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the notice of such general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for such directors and supervisors, which shall at least include the following:

- (I) personal particulars including education background, working experience and any part-time job;
- (II) whether there is any connected relationship with the Company or its controlling shareholders and de facto controller;
- (III) disclosure of the shareholdings in the Company;
- (IV) whether or not they have been penalized by CSRC and other relevant authorities and the stock exchange.

Apart from directors and supervisors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate of director or supervisor shall be individually proposed.

Article 24 The interval between the shareholding record date of a shareholders' general meeting and the date of the meeting shall not be more than 7 business days. The shareholding record date shall not be changed once confirmed.

Article 25 Unless otherwise stipulated by the Articles of Association, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting shall be served to shareholders (regardless of whether they are entitled to vote at the shareholders' general meeting) either by hand or by post in a prepaid mail, addressed to such shareholders at their registered addresses as shown in the register of shareholders. For holders of domestic shares, the notice of a shareholders' general meeting may also be given by publishing an announcement.

The announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published on the website of the stock exchange and media satisfying the requirements prescribed by securities regulatory authority under the State Council. Once the announcement is published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice in relation to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 26 The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice, shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

CHAPTER 4 REGISTRATION FOR THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 27 All shareholders of the Company on the register of shareholders on the shareholding record date or their proxies are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting and vote in accordance with the provisions of the relevant laws, regulations, listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend the shareholders' general meeting in person and may also appoint proxies to attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting on their behalf.

Any shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at a shareholders' general meeting shall have the rights to appoint one or more persons (who may not be necessarily a shareholder) as his/her proxies to attend and vote on his/her behalf. Such proxies may exercise the following rights as entrusted by the shareholder:

- (I) the rights of speech for such shareholder at the shareholders' general meeting;
- (II) the rights to demand by himself/herself or jointly with others in voting by way of poll;
- (III) the rights to vote provided if a shareholder has appointed more than one proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights by way of poll.

Article 28 Individual shareholders attending a shareholders' general meeting in person shall produce their identity cards or other valid proof of their identities or stock account cards; in the case of attendance by proxies, the proxies shall produce valid proof of their identities and valid proof of shareholders' identities, stock account cards and the power of attorneys from shareholders.

Where a shareholder is not a nature person, its legal representative, executive partner or representative entrusted by it (hereinafter collectively referred to as executive partner) or a proxy appointed by legal representative or executive partner shall attend the meeting. If the legal representative or executive partner attends the meeting, he/she shall produce his/her identification document and valid certificate proving his/her qualification to be a legal representative or executive partner; if a proxy is entrusted to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his/her identification document and written power of attorney issued by the non-nature person shareholder or its legal representative and executive partner according to the laws.

Article 29 The instrument issued by the shareholder to authorize another person to attend the shareholders' general meeting shall include the following contents:

- (I) name of the proxy;
- (II) whether the proxy has voting rights;
- (III) indication of consent, objection or abstention concerning each proposal to be resolved on the agenda of general meeting;
- (IV) date of signing of the instrument and term of validity;
- (V) signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a non-nature person shareholder, the seal of the legal person shall be affixed.

The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give specific instructions, the proxy shall vote at his/her/its own discretion or not.

Article 30 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the principal or his/her attorney authorized in writing; where the principal is a legal person, such instrument shall be under its seal or under the hand of his/her director or attorney duly authorized.

Article 31 The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other places as specified in the notice of convening the meeting 24 hours prior to convening of the meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or 24 hours prior to the designated time of voting. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the authorization letter or other documents authorizing the signatory shall be notarized. The notarized authorized letter or other authorized documents shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other places as specified in the notice of convening the meeting. Where the principal is a legal person, its legal representative or the person authorized by resolution of its board of directors or other decision-making body shall be entitled to attend the Company's general meetings as the representative of such legal person.

If a shareholder is a recognized clearing house ("Recognized Clearing House") or its agent within the meaning of the relevant regulations imposed in the place where the shares of the Company are listed from time to time, he/she may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as he/she thinks fit to act as his/her proxy(ies) at any general meeting or class meeting. However, if more than one proxy is appointed, the proxy form shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such proxies under the authorization. Such authorized proxies are entitled to attend the meeting on behalf of the Recognized Clearing House or their agent (without presentation of evidence of their shareholding, notarized authorization and/or further proof demonstrating the duly granting of the same) and exercise the rights of the recognized clearing house or their agent, as if they were the individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 32 Any form issued by the board of directors of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast vote in favor of, against or abstain from each resolution and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted on at the meeting. The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give specific instructions, the proxy shall vote at his/her/ its own discretion.

- Article 33 Where the entrusting party is deceased or incapacitated to act or whose signed proxy form is withdrawn or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the terms of the proxy form shall remain valid as long as the Company has not received a written notice of such matters before the commencement of the relevant meeting.
- Article 34 A registration record for attendees at the meeting shall be compiled by the Company. The registration record shall contain items including but not limited to the names of the attendees (or names of organizations), identity card numbers, residential addresses, the number of shares held or voting rights represented and names of the principals (or name of organizations). Shareholders or their proxies attending the meeting as well as other attendees shall sign on the registration record.
- Article 35 The convener and the lawyers engaged by the Company shall verify the validity of the qualifications of shareholders based on such shareholders' register as provided by the securities registration and clearing institution, and shall register the names of the shareholders as well as the amount of their voting shares. The registration for a meeting shall be completed before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of their voting shares.
- Article 36 Where the principal or his/her proxy is ineligible for attending the shareholders' general meeting as a result of unclearness of the principal's authorization or the fact that documents evidencing the legitimate identity of the principal or the authorization do not comply with the provisions of the Articles of Association, the legal consequences so arising shall be borne by the principal or his/her proxy.

CHAPTER 5 CONVENING OF GENERAL MEETING

Article 37 The Company shall hold a shareholders' general meeting at the venue in Shanghai as specified in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting or other venues as specified in the notice of the shareholders' general meeting by the board of directors.

A venue shall be available for a shareholders' general meeting which shall be held as an on-site meeting. For the convenience of shareholders and to the extent technically feasible, the Company shall provide secure, cost-efficient and accessible online and other channels for participation in general meetings in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules in the place where the shares of the Company are listed or the Articles of Association. The Company shall facilitate the participation of shareholders at the shareholders' general meetings by the Internet or other ways. The specific procedures for voting online shall be implemented in accordance with the relevant detailed rules formulated by the relevant stock exchange. The convener of the meeting shall include in the notice of convening the shareholders' general meeting the legal and valid manners in which shareholders' identification can be verified in various methods of participating in the shareholders' general meeting. A shareholder who participates in a shareholders' general meeting in the aforesaid manners shall be deemed to have been present at the meeting.

Article 38 Where the shareholders' general meeting is convened by the board of directors, the chairman of the board of directors shall act as the chairman of the meeting and preside over the meeting. In the event that the chairman of the board of directors is unable to or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, the vice chairman shall preside over the meeting. In the event that there is no vice chairman or the vice chairman is unable to or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, a director shall be jointly elected by more than half of the directors to preside over the meeting. Where the shareholders' general meeting is convened by the Supervisory Committee itself, the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall act as the chairman of the meeting and preside over the meeting. In the event that the chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable to or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, the vice chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside over the meeting. In the event that the vice chairman of the Supervisory Committee is unable to or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, a supervisor shall be jointly elected by more than half of the supervisors to preside over the meeting.

If a shareholders' general meeting is convened by the shareholders themselves, the conveners will nominate a representative to preside over the meeting.

Where the chairman of a shareholders' general meeting violates these rules at the shareholders' general meeting and renders it impossible for the shareholders' general meeting to continue, the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting may by majority vote elect a person as the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting to proceed with the shareholders' general meeting.

CHAPTER 6 VOTING AT GENERAL MEETING

Article 39 The chairman of the meeting shall, prior to voting, declare the number of attending shareholders and their proxies as well as the total number of their voting shares, and the number of attending shareholders and their proxies and the total number of their voting shares shall be subject to registration of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 40 Voting is conducted by open ballot at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 41 When resolutions on election of directors and supervisors are voted on at the shareholders' general meeting, the cumulative voting system shall be adopted in accordance with the then effective laws and regulations. The cumulative voting system means that every share shall, on the occasion of electing directors or supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting, have the number of voting rights same as the number of the directors or supervisors to be elected and shareholders may exercise such voting rights in a concentrated manner. The main contents of the cumulative voting system are as follows:

- (I) the cumulative voting system shall be adopted when there are two or more directors (supervisors) to be elected;
- (II) When applying the cumulative voting system, each share held by a shareholder shall have the same number of voting rights as the number of directors (supervisors) to be elected;

- (III) when voting for directors (supervisors) candidates at a shareholders' general meeting, the voting rights may be exercised separately to give each director (supervisor) candidate the same number of voting rights as the number of shares held by the shareholder; the voting rights may also be exercised collectively to give a director (supervisor) candidate all voting rights represented by each share held by the shareholder which is the same as the number of directors (supervisors) to be elected, or respectively give certain director (supervisor) candidates a part of the total voting rights represented by each share held by the shareholder which is the same as the number of directors (supervisors) to be elected;
- (IV) where a shareholder has exercised collectively all the voting rights represented by each share that is the same as the number of director (supervisor) to be elected on one or more director (supervisor) candidates, such shareholder shall have no voting rights in respect of other director (supervisor) candidates;
- (V) where the aggregate number of the voting rights cast collectively by a shareholder for one or more director (supervisor) candidates is more than the voting rights of the shares held by such shareholder, the votes cast by such shareholder shall become void and such shareholder shall be deemed to have abstained his voting rights; where the aggregate number of the voting rights cast collectively by a shareholder for one or director (supervisor) candidates is less than the voting rights of the shares held by such shareholder, the votes cast by such shareholder shall be effective, and the outstanding voting rights shall be deemed to be abstained;
- (VI) where the number of votes received by a director (supervisor) candidate exceeds one half of the total number of shares with voting rights represented by the shareholders attending the shareholders' general meeting (based on the total number of shares if cumulative voting is not adopted), such candidate shall be elected. If the number of elected candidates exceeds the number of directors (supervisors) required to be elected at the shareholders' general meeting, the candidates with more number of votes shall be elected as directors (supervisors) (where elected candidates with fewer votes win the same number of votes, and the number of candidates so elected would exceed the number of directors or supervisors required to be elected, then such candidates shall be treated as having not been elected); if the number of directors (supervisors) elected in the shareholders' general meeting is less than the number of directors (supervisors) required to be elected, a new round of voting shall be held for the remaining director (supervisor) candidates until all the required directors (supervisors) are elected;

(VII) When the shareholders' general meeting conducts a new round of voting for election of directors (supervisors) based on provisions of item (VI) above, the number of cumulative votes of shareholders shall be recalculated according to the number of directors (supervisors) required to be selected in each round of election;

(VIII) When electing directors and implementing a cumulative voting system, independent directors and other directors shall be elected separately.

Article 42 Other than the cumulative voting system, the shareholders' general meeting shall vote on all proposals one by one. Where different proposals for the same issue are proposed, such proposals shall be voted on in the order of time in which they are proposed. Other than special reasons such as force majeure which results in the interruption of the shareholders' general meeting or makes it impossible to come to resolution, the shareholders' general meeting shall not set aside the proposals or withhold from voting.

Article 43 No amendments shall be made to a proposal when it is considered at the shareholders' general meeting. Amended proposal shall be deemed as a new proposal and shall not be voted at the same general meeting.

Article 44 Shareholders (including their proxies) shall exercise their voting rights represented by the number of voting shares they represent. Each share shall have one vote unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association.

When significant matters that could affect the interests of small-to-medium investors are to be considered at the shareholders' general meeting, to the extent technically feasible, the votes by small-to-medium investors shall be counted separately, and the results of such separate vote counting shall be disclosed promptly.

The Company's board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding 1% or more of the shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, as collectors, may publicly request the shareholders of the Company, by their own or entrusting a securities company or securities service agency, to be their proxy and attend general meetings and exercise the shareholder's rights of proposal, voting on their behalf. If a collector collects shareholders' rights in compliance with the aforesaid requirements, he/she shall disclose the documents in relation to the collection and the Company shall cooperate. Consideration or de facto consideration for publicly collecting shareholders' rights is prohibited. The Company shall not impose any minimum shareholding limitation for collecting shareholders' rights. Where publicly collecting shareholders' rights violates the laws, administrative regulations or the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, resulting in losses of the Company or the shareholders of the Company, such collector shall be liable for the damages.

The controlling shareholders and de facto controller of the Company shall not restrict or impede small-to-medium investors from legally exercising their voting rights and shall not damage the legitimate rights of the Company and small-to-medium investors.

Article 45 Each voting rights shall be exercised either at the meeting, online, or by any of other available means. Unless otherwise provided under applicable laws and regulations, the first vote shall prevail in cases when a given voting rights is exercised repeatedly.

Article 46 Shareholders who attend the shareholders' general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a resolution is put forward for voting: for, against or abstain, unless securities registration and settlement institutions, as the nominal holders of shares that can be traded through the Transaction Interconnection Mechanism for the Mainland and Hong Kong Stock Markets, make declarations according to the intention of actual holders.

Any unfilled, improperly filled or poorly handwritten votes or votes that are not cast shall be considered as abstentions from voting by the shareholders. Its respective shares shall be counted as "abstentions" in the voting results.

Where any shareholder is, under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, required to abstain from voting for any resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against it, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 47 Any vote of shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting must be taken by poll except where the chairman of the meeting, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands.

Article 48 On a poll taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his/her proxies) entitled to two or more votes need not to cast all votes in the same way.

Article 49 Before voting on a proposal at the shareholders' general meeting, two shareholder representatives shall be elected to participate in vote counting and scrutinizing. If any shareholder or supervisor has connected relationship or interests or conflicts in the matters to be considered, such shareholder and its proxy or such supervisor shall not participate in the counting or scrutinizing of votes.

When resolutions are to be voted at the shareholders' general meeting, the counting of votes and scrutinizing of the vote counting shall be conducted by one or more parties involving lawyers, shareholder representatives, supervisor representatives, auditors of the Company, share registrar of overseas-listed shares listed in Hong Kong or external auditors qualified to serve as the Company's auditors (or other relevant persons appointed under the Hong Kong Listing Rules) in accordance with the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed. The voting results are to be announced immediately. The voting results on resolutions shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The shareholders of the Company or their proxies who cast votes by online voting or other means, if any, shall be entitled to check their respective voting results through corresponding voting systems.

Article 50 Resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting are classified into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution shall be passed by votes representing more than half of the voting rights carried by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

A special resolution shall be passed by votes representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights carried by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the meeting.

Article 51 Counting and monitoring parties, significant shareholders, the online voting system provider and others involved in on-site, online or other kinds of voting at the shareholders' general meeting shall not disclose the voting results to any other party before such results are officially announced.

Article 52 The Company shall engage lawyers to attend the shareholders' general meeting and advise on the following issues with announcements made thereon:

(I) whether the convening of the shareholders' general meeting and its procedures are in compliance with laws, administrative regulations, the Articles of Association and the Rules;

(II) whether the attendees are eligible and whether the eligibility of the convener is lawful and valid;

(III) whether the procedures of voting and the voting results of the meeting are lawful and valid;

(IV) legal opinions on other related matters at the request of the Company.

Article 53 The convener shall ensure that the shareholders' general meeting be conducted continuously until final resolutions are made. If the shareholders' general meeting is suspended or resolutions cannot be made because of force majeure and other special causes, the convener shall take necessary measures to resume the meeting or directly terminate that meeting as soon as practicable followed by a timely public announcement. At the same time, the convener shall report to Shanghai Bureau of China Securities Regulatory Commission and Shanghai Stock Exchange.

CHAPTER 7 SPECIAL PROCEDURES FOR VOTING AT CLASS MEETINGS

- Article 54 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares shall be shareholders of different classes. Shareholders of different classes shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.
- Article 55 The Company shall not proceed to change or abrogate the shareholders' rights of a class of shares unless such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution at the shareholders' general meeting and at a separate class meeting by the shareholders of the affected class in accordance with Articles 57 to 61.
- Article 56 The rights of shareholders of a certain class shall be deemed to have been changed or abrogated in the following circumstances:
- (I) an increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
 - (II) conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class or conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the rights to such conversion;
 - (III) a removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to the shares of such class;
 - (IV) a reduction or removal of a dividend preference or property distribution preference during the liquidation of the Company, attached to the shares of such class;
 - (V) an addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights or rights to acquire the securities of the Company attached to the shares of such class;

- (VI) a removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in a particular currency attached to the shares of such class;
- (VII) creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (VIII) an imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of or ownership of the shares of such class;
- (IX) an issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, the shares of such class or another class;
- (X) an increase in the rights and privileges of the shares of another class;
- (XI) a restructuring plan of the Company that causes shareholders of different classes to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring;
- (XII) any amendment to or repeal of the provisions of this Chapter.

Article 57 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the rights to vote at the shareholders' general meeting, shall have the rights to vote at class meetings in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (II) to (VIII) and (XI) to (XII) in Article 56, except that interested shareholders shall not vote at class meetings.

The term "interested shareholders" in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

- (I) if the Company has made a tender offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through open market transactions on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 in the Articles of Association, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 270 in the Articles of Association shall be the "interested shareholders";

(II) if the Company has bought back its own shares by an agreement outside of a stock exchange in accordance with Article 31 in the Articles of Association, shareholders in relation to such agreement shall be the “interested shareholders”;

(III) under a restructuring proposal of the Company, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same class, or shareholders who have an interest different from that interest of other shareholders of the same class shall be the “interested shareholders”.

Article 58 Resolutions of a class meeting may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that class represented by the shareholders attending the meeting in accordance with Article 114 in the Articles of Association.

Article 59 When the Company is to hold a class meeting, the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 20 days prior to the date of the annual class meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier), while the convener shall issue a notice to each shareholder 15 days prior to the date of extraordinary class meeting (or the date as required by the place where the shares of the Company are listed, whichever the earlier).

Article 60 The notice of the class meeting shall be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to voting thereat.

The procedures of a class meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedures of a shareholders’ general meeting. The provisions of the Articles of Association in relation to the procedures for the holding of a shareholders’ general meeting shall be applicable to a class meeting.

Article 61 In addition to the holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

- (I) where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares, upon approval in the form of a special resolution by its shareholders at a shareholders' general meeting, either separately or concurrently, once every 12 months and the number of each of the domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares to be issued is not more than 20% of the same type of shares in issue;
- (II) where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares upon its incorporation is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council or a specified period applicable provided under relevant requirements.

CHAPTER 8 DISCIPLINES OF GENERAL MEETINGS

Article 62 The board of directors and other conveners shall take such necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the shareholders' general meeting. For any disturbance to the order of the meeting, causes trouble and acts infringing the lawful interests of the shareholders, measures shall be taken to prevent them, and they shall be reported to the relevant authorities for investigation.

Article 63 Registered shareholders of the Company or their proxies, directors, supervisors, senior management, the appointed lawyer, visitors invited by the convener of the shareholders' general meeting can attend the meeting. Other persons without the approval of chairman of the shareholders' general meeting are not allowed to attend the meeting.

Article 64 Upon the consideration of proposals, only shareholders or their proxies have the right to speak. Directors, supervisors and senior management and persons with the approval of the chairman may speak.

Shareholders or their proxies shall register at the sign-in desk of the shareholders' general meeting in advance, and shareholders' speeches shall be arranged based on the registration order.

The chairman of the meeting may refuse or stop such shareholders who breach aforesaid two Articles.

Article 65 Speaking shareholders or proxies shall introduce their shareholders' identity, companies they represented before giving opinion.

CHAPTER 9 MINUTES OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 66 Minutes shall be prepared for general meetings by the secretary to the board of directors. The minutes shall state the following contents:

- (I) time, venue and agenda of the meeting and name of the convener;
- (II) the name of the chairman of the meeting and the names of the directors, supervisors, secretary to the board of directors and other senior management attending or present at the meeting;
- (III) the numbers of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, total number of voting shares they represent and the percentages of their voting shares to the total share capital of the Company;
- (IV) the process of review and discussion, summary of any speech and voting results of each proposal;
- (V) shareholders' questions, suggestions and corresponding answers or explanations;
- (VI) names of lawyer, vote counters and scrutinizer of the voting;
- (VII) other contents to be included as specified in the Articles of Association.

Article 67 If the counting of votes is conducted at a shareholders' general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting. The minutes of meeting, the attendance register and proxy forms shall be kept at the Company's domicile.

Article 68 Shareholders may examine photocopies of the minutes of meetings during the Company's office hours free of charge. If any shareholder requests for a photocopy of the relevant minutes of meetings, the Company shall send such photocopies within 7 days upon receipt of the payment for reasonable charges.

CHAPTER 10 ADJOURNMENT AND CONCLUSION OF THE SHAREHOLDERS' GENERAL MEETING

Article 69 The chairman of the meeting has the rights to announce the adjournment of meeting in accordance with the procession and the time arrangement of the meeting. The chairman of the meeting also has the rights to announce the adjournment of the meeting as necessary.

Article 70 The chairman of the meeting can only announce the conclusion of the meeting when the voting results of all proposals at general meeting receive no objection from shareholders.

(hereinafter referred to as the “Articles of Association”), for the purpose of regulating the operation of the Supervisory Committee of Guotai Junan Securities Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Company”), ensuring the Supervisory Committee implementing the duties and responsibilities conferred by all shareholders, and improving the corporate governance structure of the Company.
- Article 2 The Supervisory Committee is accountable to the shareholders’ general meetings. It shall be responsible for supervising the financial affairs of the Company and the lawfulness of the performance of the directors and the senior management personnel so as to safeguard the legitimate interests of the Company and its shareholders.
- Article 3 The Company shall take measures to guarantee the supervisors’ rights to know and responsively provide the supervisors with necessary information to enable the Supervisory Committee to effectively supervise, inspect and evaluate the financial position and operations management of the Company.
- Article 4 The office of the Supervisory Committee shall be established to organize meetings of the Supervisory Committee, keep meeting minutes and documents and assist supervisors in performing their duties.

CHAPTER 2 FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 5 The Supervisory Committee shall exercise its functions and powers within the scope specified by the Company Law and other relevant laws and regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 6 Supervisors have the rights to access operation information of the Company and shall keep the information confidential.

The Company shall have its internal audit and auditing reports, compliance reports, risk management reports, monthly or quarterly financial reports, annual financial reports and other material matters be reported to the Supervisory Committee in a timely manner.

Article 7 The reasonable expenses incurred by the Supervisory Committee in the engagement of professionals such as lawyers, certified public accountants, practicing auditors, etc., to perform its functions and powers shall be borne by the Company.

The Company shall bear the expenses incurred by supervisors in attending meetings of the Supervisory Committee and other necessary expenses incurred in performing supervisor's duties. Such expenses may include the traffic expense from the place where the director is located to the place where the meeting is convened, the board of directors and lodging expenses during the duration of the meeting, as well as the supervisor's expenses relating to site inspections.

In performing its supervisory duties, the Supervisory Committee may report to the board of directors and the shareholders' general meetings the acts of directors and the senior management personnel of the Company which are in violation of laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place(s) where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association. It may also directly report the same to the relevant securities regulatory authorities and other relevant authorities.

CHAPTER 3 SYSTEM OF MEETINGS OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Article 8 Regular meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall be held at least once every six months. Supervisors can propose to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 9 Proposal on regular meeting

Before issuing a notice on convening a regular meeting of the Supervisory Committee, the office of the Supervisory Committee shall assist the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee in drafting a proposal on the meeting.

Before drafting the proposal, the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee shall obtain supervisors' advice as required.

Article 10 Proposing procedure for extraordinary meeting

If any supervisors propose to convene an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee, the written proposal signed by the supervisors who propose the meeting shall be submitted through the office of the Supervisory Committee or to the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee directly. The written proposal shall state the following matters:

(I) the name of the supervisors who propose the meeting;

(II) the reason for the proposal or objective ground on which the proposal is based;

(III) clear and specific proposals;

(IV) the contact information of the supervisors who propose the meeting and the date of the proposal, etc.

The office of the Supervisory Committee shall forward the above-mentioned written proposal and relevant materials to the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee in the next workday it receives the proposal and relevant materials. If the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee considers that the content of the proposal is not explicit or specific, or relevant materials are not sufficient, he or she shall ask the persons who propose the meeting to make revisions or supplement.

The chairperson of the Supervisory Committee shall convene the Supervisory Committee meeting within 10 days upon the receipt of the proposal.

Article 11 A Supervisory Committee meeting shall be convened by the chairperson of the Supervisory Committee, who shall also approve the issue of the notice convening the meeting.

For convening a regular meeting or an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee, the office of the Supervisory Committee shall issue the written meeting notice bearing with the seal of the office to all the supervisors at least 10 days or 5 days in advance respectively in mode of direct service, fax, email or other modes. All notice send by non-direct manner shall be confirmed by telephone.

As approved by all the supervisors, the requirement of a notice period of a Supervisory Committee meeting shall be exempted from execution.

Where an extraordinary Supervisory Committee meeting needs to be convened as soon as possible in emergency, the notice of meeting may be sent by oral or telephone or by other oral means, but the convener shall make explanations at the meeting.

Article 12 Contents of the notification of the meeting

The written meeting notice of the Supervisory Committee shall include the following contents:

- (I) time, venue and format of the meeting;
- (II) matters to be reviewed (proposals of the meeting);
- (III) the convener and the presider of the meeting, the persons who propose the extraordinary meeting and their written proposals;
- (IV) meeting materials necessary for voting by supervisors;
- (V) the contact person and contact information;
- (VI) date on which the notice is given.

The oral notification shall at least include the above-mentioned items (I) to (II), and a statement that in case of emergency, an extraordinary meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be held immediately.

The meeting of the Supervisory Committee may be held in the form of on-site meeting, telephone conference (including video conference) and voting through communications, and the specific form and the relevant arrangements shall be set out in the meeting notice of the Supervisory Committee. Except for the situation that an on-site meeting and a telephone conference (including video conference) cannot be held because of emergencies, force majeure or other special reasons, the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be held in the form of on-site meeting or telephone conference (including video conference).

Article 13 Procedures for review at the meeting

The presider of the meeting shall ask supervisors attending the meeting to express explicit opinions on each proposal.

The Supervisory Committee of a securities company may require directors, senior management personnel and other relevant personnel of the company to attend the meeting of the Supervisory Committee and answer questions.

Article 14 Meetings of the Supervisory Committee shall be attended by the supervisors in person. If a supervisor cannot attend a meeting for any reason, he or she may entrust in writing another supervisor to attend the meeting on his or her behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the name of the proxy, the entrusted tasks, the scope and the duration of the authorization, and it shall be signed or sealed by the principal. A supervisor who attends a meeting on behalf of another supervisor shall exercise the rights of a supervisor within the scope of authorization granted. In principle, one supervisor shall not accept the entrustment of more than two or more supervisors to attend the meeting of the Supervisor Committee.

If a supervisor fails to attend a meeting of the Supervisory Committee and has not appointed a proxy to attend on his or her behalf, he or she shall be deemed to have waived his or her voting rights in respect of that meeting.

Article 15 Voting at the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be carried out by show of hands or written disclosed ballot on the basis of one vote per person.

The voting intention of the supervisors shall be divided into the following categories: for, against or abstaining from voting. The attending supervisors shall choose any one of the aforesaid voting intentions. If any supervisor does not choose any intentions or simultaneously chooses two or more intentions, the presider of the meeting shall require such supervisor to make a new choice. If such supervisor refuses to do so, he/she shall be deemed as abstaining from voting. If any supervisor leaves the meeting venue halfway without returning and thus does not make a choice, he/she shall be deemed as abstaining from voting.

Resolutions at the meeting of the Supervisory Committee shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the supervisors' votes.

Article 16 Calculation of voting result

If the Supervisory Committee meeting is held in the form of on-site meeting and votes are taken by way of poll, the relevant personnel from the office of the Supervisory Committee shall collect the votes of supervisors in time.

If the Supervisory Committee meeting is held in the form of telephone conference (including video conference) and votes are taken by the attending supervisors in the oral form, resolutions shall be made on this basis at the Supervisory Committee meeting; the attending supervisors shall deliver the votes to the office of the Supervisory Committee within the specified time at the request of the presider.

With the consent of the convener, if the Supervisory Committee meeting is held in the form of voting through communications, it should be ensured that the supervisors shall have full rights of expressing their opinions. The notice of the meeting should specify clearly the term for voting, the attending supervisors should sign the votes and deliver the votes to the office of the Supervisory Committee in the prescribed way before the expiration of the prescribed time period of voting according to the notice of the meeting. Resolutions at the Supervisory Committee meeting will take effect at the expiration of the time period of voting. The supervisors that have delivered copies of their votes shall subsequently deliver original copies of their signed votes to the office of the Supervisory Committee according to the notice of the meeting.

Article 17 The Supervisory Committee shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters discussed at the meeting. The supervisors who attend the meeting shall sign on the minutes of such meeting and sound recording of the meeting can be made. The minutes of the Supervisory Committee meeting shall consist of the following:

- (I) date, time, venue, form and the name of the presider of the meeting;
- (II) date of issuance of notice;

(III) the number and names of supervisors present and supervisors who appointed proxies to attend the meeting and who were absent from the meeting, the reasons for absence and the names of proxies for such supervisors;
