CHAPTER 3 SHARES

Section 1 Issuance of Shares

Article 15 The share of the Company shall be in registered form.

Where the capital of the Company includes shares which do not carry voting rights, the words "non-voting" must appear in the designation of such shares. Where the equity capital includes shares with different voting rights, the designation of each class of shares, other than those with the most favourable voting rights, must include the words "restricted voting right" or "limited voting right".

The Company shall keep a complete register of shareholders. The register of Shareholders shall include the following parts:

- (I) register of shareholders kept at the Company's domicile other than those specified in (II) and (III) below;
- (II) register of shareholders of the overseas listed foreign shares kept at the place of the stock exchange where such shares are listed;
- (III) register of shareholders kept in other places according to the decision of the Board as required for the listing of shares.

Any alteration or rectification to any part of the register of shareholders shall be made in accordance with the laws in the place where such part of the register of shareholders is maintained.

Article 16 The Company shall issue shares under the open, fair and just principles, and same right is applied to each share of the same class. The terms and issue price of shares of the same class issued in one issuance shall be same and same price shall be paid by each institution or individual for each share subscribed.

The Company may issue shares of different classes upon approval. Shareholders holding shares of different classes are classified as shareholders of different classes. Different special rights may be attached to shares of different classes.

Article 17 The shares issued by the Company shall be denominated in RMB.

Article 18 The Company's overseas listed shares that are listed in the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be referred to as H shares. The par value of H shares are denominated in RMB, and subscribed for and traded in Hong Kong dollars. The Company's shares in issue but unlisted on both domestic and overseas stock exchanges shall be referred to as unlisted shares. Shareholders of unlisted shares of the Company can convert their unlisted shares into overseas listed shares, and list them on overseas stock exchanges for trading to the extent permitted by related laws, administrative regulations and departmental regulations after the overseas shares of the Company are issued and listed. The listing and trading of the aforesaid shares on overseas stock exchanges shall also comply with the regulatory procedures, provisions and requirements of the domestic and overseas securities market. Where the aforesaid unlisted shares are converted into overseas listed shares, and listed for trading on overseas stock exchanges, the general meeting may not be convened for voting.

Among the shares issued by the Company, unlisted shares shall be centrally registered and deposited with domestic securities registration and settlement institutions. The registration and settlement arrangements of overseas listed shares shall be subject to the applicable provisions of the place where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 19 The number of ordinary shares issued by the Company upon the its establishment by means of promotion was 335,000,000 shares, which were subscribed by two promoters. Upon the exercise of the over-allotment option, the shareholding structure of the Company is: the total number of shares of the Company is [•] shares (all of which are ordinary shares, with a nominal value of RMB1 per share), of which: unlisted shares of 716,730,000; overseas listed shares (H shares) of [•]shares; the registered capital of the Company on the listing date is RMB[•].

Article 21 The Company or subsidiaries of the Company (including the affiliated entities of the Company) shall not provide any assistance to any persons acquiring or proposing to acquire shares of the Company by way of gift, advancement, guarantee, indemnity, loans or other means.

Section 2 Increase, Reduce and Repurchase of Shares

Article 22 In accordance with the laws and regulations, the Company may increase the registered capital by the following ways upon respective approval by resolutions of the general meeting according to the operation and development needs of the Company:

- (I) public offering of shares;
- (II) non-public offering of shares;
- (III) bonus issue to existing shareholders;
- (IV) conversion of capital reserve into share capital;
- (V) other means approved by the laws, administrative regulations and the CSRC.

Article 23 The Company may reduce its registered capital. The reduction in the registered capital shall be made in accordance with the procedures set out in the Company Law, other relevant provisions and the Articles of Association.

Article 24 The Company may not purchase its shares other than for one of the following purposes:

- (I) to reduce its registered capital;
- (II) to merge with another company that holds its shares;
- (III) to grant its shares for carrying out employee share ownership schemes or share incentive schemes;
- (IV) to purchase its shares from shareholders who request and are against the resolution regarding the merger or division with other companies at the general meeting;
- (V) the shares are used to convert convertible corporate bonds issued by the listed company;
- (VI) necessary for the listed company to maintain its company value and protect its shareholders' rights and interests.

Article 25 The listed company may repurchase its shares through open centralized trading or other ways recognized by laws, administrative regulations, the CSRC and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Where the Company repurchases its share under the circumstances stipulated in (I) and (II) of paragraph 1 in Article 24 of the Articles of Association, an approval shall be obtained from the general meeting; where the Company repurchases its shares under the circumstances stipulated in (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association, a resolution of the Board shall be passed by a two-third majority of directors attending the meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association or the authorization of the general meeting. After the Company has repurchased its shares according to Article 24 of the Article of Association, the shares so repurchased shall be canceled within ten days from the date of repurchase under the circumstances set out in (I); or shall be transferred or canceled within six months under the circumstances set out in (II) and (IV). The shares of the Company repurchased by the Company under the circumstances set out in (III), (V) and (VI) shall not exceed 10% of the total issued shares of the Company, and shall be transferred or canceled within three years.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 26 The shares of the Company may be transferred in accordance with laws.

The H shares shall be transferred by a transfer document in writing in any usual or common form or any other form which the Board accepts (including the prescribed form or transfer form as required by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange from time to time). Such transfer documents may only be executed by hand or (if the transferor or the transferee is a company) affixed with the Company's seal. If the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house as defined by the laws of Hong Kong in effect from time to time or the proxy thereof, such transfer documents may be executed by hand or by machine imprinted signatures. All transfer documents shall be kept at the legal address of the Company or any other place specified by the Board from time to time.

Article 27 The Company shall not accept its shares as the subject matter of a pledge.

Article 28 Shares of the Company held by the promoters shall not be transferred within one year from the date of establishment of the Company. Shares issued prior to the public issuance of shares shall not be transferred within one year from the date when the shares in the Company are listed and traded in the stock exchange concerned.

The directors, supervisors, and senior management of the Company shall declare, to the Company, information on their holdings of the shares of the Company and the changes thereto. The Shares transferrable by them during each year of their term of office shall not exceed 25 percent of their total holdings of the shares of the class of the Company. The shares that they hold in the Company shall not be transferred within one year from the date when the shares in the Company are listed and traded. The aforesaid persons shall not transfer their shares of our Company within half a year from the date of their resignation.

CHAPTER 4 SHAREHOLDERS AND GENERAL MEETINGS

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 29 The Company shall set up a register of members. The register of members shall be sufficient evidence to the holding of the shares of the Company by a shareholder. A shareholder shall enjoy rights and assume obligations according to the shares held by them. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall enjoy the same rights and assume the same obligations.

Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person who requests to have his name entered in, the register of members may apply to the Company for issue of a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”) if his share certificate (the “Original Certificate”) is lost. If a shareholder who has lost his share certificate of unlisted shares applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Company Law. If a shareholder who has lost his share certificate of H shares applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the laws, rules of the stock exchange(s) or other relevant provisions of the place where the original H share register is kept.

Article 30 The assignment and transfer of shares shall be registered in the register of members. The Company may, in accordance with the understanding and agreements between the securities regulatory authority of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities, maintain the register of members of overseas-listed shares outside Mainland China, and entrust an overseas agent to maintain such register. The original H share register of the Company shall be maintained in Hong Kong. If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate of the H share register, the original version shall prevail. The H share register must be open to inspection by shareholders. However, the Company may be allowed to suspend the registration of shareholders in accordance with section 632 of the Companies Ordinance (Chapter 622 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

Article 31 When the Company engages in the conducts like convening the general meetings, distribution of dividends, liquidation or any other matters that require the confirmation of the identity of shareholders, the board of directors or the convener of the general meeting shall determine the date of registration of shares. Shareholders registered in the register of members after the closing on the date of registration of shares shall be the shareholders enjoying the relevant rights.

Article 32 Shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (I) to receive dividends and benefits distributed in other forms according to the number of shares they hold;
- (II) to legally require, convene, preside over, participate in or authorize proxies of shareholders to attend the general meeting and exercise corresponding voting rights as well as right of speech;
- (III) to supervise Company’s operations and make suggestions or enquiries;
- (IV) to transfer, donate or pledge their shares in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (V) to read the Articles of Association, the list of shareholders, Company bond stubs, general meeting minutes, resolutions of meetings of the board of directors, resolutions of meetings of the board of supervisors and financial and accounting reports;
- (VI) to participate in the distribution of the remaining properties of the Company in the event of its termination or liquidation in accordance with the proportion of the shares they hold;
- (VII) to require the Company to purchase their shareholdings in the event of their objection to resolutions of the general meetings concerning merger or division of the Company;
- (VIII) other rights prescribed in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company’s shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

Article 33 Where shareholders request for inspection of the relevant information or demand for materials as mentioned in the preceding Article, they shall provide with the Company written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company held by them. The Company shall verify the identity of the shareholders and provide information requested by such shareholders.

Article 34 In the event that any resolution of the general meeting and resolution of the board of directors violates laws or administrative regulations, the shareholders shall have the right to request the People's Court to deem it as invalid.

In the event that the convening procedure or voting method of the general meeting or meeting of the board of directors violates any of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or any resolution violates the Articles of Association, the shareholders are entitled to request the People's Court to overturn the resolution within 60 days upon the resolution was adopted.

Article 35 Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by directors and senior management in the course of performing their duties, shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of shares of the Company for over 180 consecutive days shall have the rights to request in writing to the board of supervisors to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court. Where the Company incurs loss as a result of violation of the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association by the board of supervisors in the course of performing their duties, shareholders shall have the rights to request in writing to the board of directors to initiate legal proceedings in the People's Court.

In the event that the board of supervisors or the board of directors refuses to file an action upon receipt of the shareholders' written request specified in preceding paragraph, or fails to file an action within 30 days upon receipt thereof, or in the event that the failure to immediately file an action in an emergency case will cause irreparable damage to the interests of the Company, shareholders specified in the preceding paragraph may, in their own name, directly file an action in the People's Court for the interests of the Company.

In the event of any other person infringes upon the legitimate interests of the Company and causes losses thereto, the shareholders specified in the first paragraph of this Article may file an action in the People's Court according to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 36 In the event of a director or senior management violates the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, thereby damaging the interests of shareholders, shareholders may file an action in the People's Court.

Article 37 Shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay for the shares pursuant to the quantity and the method of subscription;
- (III) not to withdraw capital contribution except for circumstances specified in laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse shareholder' rights to infringe upon the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the Company's status as an independent legal entity or the limited liability of shareholders to damage the interests of the Company's creditors;
- (V) to perform other duties prescribed in laws, administrative regulations, securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

Any Company shareholder who abuses shareholders' rights and causes the Company or other shareholders to suffer a loss shall be liable for compensation in accordance with the law.

Any shareholder who abuses the status of the Company as an independent legal entity or the limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and seriously damages the interests of the Company's creditors shall assume joint and several liability for the Company's debts.

Article 38 Where any shareholder with more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company intends to pledge his shares, the shareholder shall submit a written report to the Company on the occurrence of such pledge.

Article 39 The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall not use their connected relationship to damage the interests of the Company. Those who violate the provisions and cause losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall have a fiduciary duty to the Company. Our controlling shareholders shall exercise their investors' rights in strict accordance with the law and shall not damage the lawful interests of the Company or of public shareholders in any way such as via the distribution of profits, an asset reorganization, external investments, the use of Company's funds or the provision of a loan guarantee, nor shall they abuse their controlling positions to damage the interests of the Company and of public shareholders.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company shall safeguard the independence of the Company and exercise their rights in accordance with the Company's decision-making procedures. Controlling shareholders and actual controllers shall not take advantage of the Company's controlling position to intervene in the Company's decision-making and operating activities directly or indirectly, to impair the lawful interests of the Company and the public shareholders, or to seek unlawful benefits in violation of the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Section 2 General Provisions for General Meetings

Article 40 The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise the following functions and powers according to the laws:

- (I) to decide on the Company's business policies and investment plans;
- (II) to elect and replace directors and supervisors who are not employee representatives and to decide on matters relating to the remuneration of directors and supervisors;
- (III) to consider and approve the reports of the board of directors;
- (IV) to consider and approve the reports of the board of supervisors;
- (V) to consider and approve the annual financial budgets and final accounts of the Company;
- (VI) to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and loss recovery plans;
- (VII) to resolve on the increase or reduction of the registered capital of the Company;

- (VIII) to resolve on the issue of corporate bonds;
- (IX) to resolve on the merger, division, dissolution, liquidation (including voluntary liquidation) or change of corporate form of the Company;
- (X) to amend the Articles of Association;
- (XI) to resolve on the appointment and dismissal of the accounting firm of the Company;
- (XII) to consider and approve the guarantee matters stipulated in the Article 41 of the Articles of Association;
- (XIII) to consider the purchase or disposal of material assets within one year with an amount exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (XIV) to consider and approve the change in use of proceeds;
- (XV) to consider share incentive schemes and employee share ownership schemes;
- (XVI) to consider other matters required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association to be decided by the general meeting.

The functions and powers of the general meetings described above shall not be delegated to the board of directors or any other organizations or individuals through authorization. Matters, as required by laws, administrative regulations and rules as well as these Articles of Association, shall be resolved at the general meetings so as to protect the decision-making rights of shareholders of the Company on such matters. Under necessary, reasonable and lawful circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the board of directors to decide specific issues relating to matters to be resolved on at the general meeting which may not or need not be decided upon immediately at a general meeting.

An authorization to the board of directors by general meeting in relation to matters to be decided by ordinary resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than half of the voting rights present at the general meeting; an authorization to the board of directors in relation to matters to be decided by special resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights present at the general meeting. The contents of the authorization shall be clear and specific.

Article 41 The following external guarantees of the Company shall be considered and passed by the board of directors, and then submitted to be considered at the general meeting:

- (I) provision of a single guarantee, the amount of which exceeds 10% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;
- (II) provision of any external guarantee by the Company and its controlled subsidiaries, the total amount of which exceeds 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company;

- (III) provision of any external guarantee by the Company after the total amount of external guarantees exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (IV) provision of any external guarantee by the Company within one year, the total amount of which exceeds 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (V) provision of guarantee to anyone whose liability-asset ratio exceeds 70%;
- (VI) provision of guarantees to the shareholders, actual controllers and their connected persons.

When considering the resolution of providing guarantees to shareholders, actual controllers and their connected persons at a general meeting, such shareholders or shareholders controlled by such actual controller and his or her connected persons shall not vote on such resolution. Such resolution shall be passed by more than half of the voting rights of other shareholders present at the general meeting.

If the directors, general manager and other personnel of the Company enter into external guarantee contracts without authorization in accordance with the approval procedures stipulated in the Articles of Association, the relevant personnel shall be held accountable, and if any damage or loss is caused to the Company, the relevant personnel shall also be liable for compensation.

Article 42 The general meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. The annual general meeting shall be convened once a year and be held within six months of the end of the previous fiscal year.

Article 43 The Company shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two months from the date of occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (I) where the number of directors falls below the number prescribed in the Company Law or below two-thirds of the number prescribed in the Articles of Association;
- (II) where the Company's unfunded losses reach one-third of total share capital paid in;
- (III) where shareholders who individually or jointly hold more than 10% of the Company's shares request holding of such a meeting;
- (IV) where the board of directors deems it necessary;
- (V) where the board of supervisors proposes such a meeting;
- (VI) in any other circumstances prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, and securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

The number of shares held set out in item (III) above shall be calculated as of the date of the shareholder's written request.

Article 44 The venue for convening a general meeting shall be the domicile of the Company or places as indicated in the notice of the general meeting.

The general meeting shall arrange a meeting venue and be convened through on-site meetings. The Company may also provide voting by internet means if necessary to facilitate shareholders attending the general meeting. Shareholders participating in general meetings in the aforesaid manner shall be deemed as present. After the issuance of the notice of the general meeting, the venue for an on-site meeting shall not be changed without any proper reasons. In case of any necessary change of the venue, the convener shall make an announcement stating the reasons at least two business days before the meeting date.

Section 3 Summoning of General Meetings

Article 45 General meetings shall be summoned by the board of directors. When the board of directors is unable or fails to perform its duty to convene the general meeting, the board of supervisors shall convene and preside over the meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association. In the case of failure to convene and preside over the general meeting by the board of supervisors, shareholders holding 10% or more of the shares of the Company separately or in aggregate for more than 90 consecutive days shall have the right to convene and preside over the meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

Article 46 Independent directors shall have the right to propose to the board of directors to convene extraordinary general meetings. When an independent director proposes to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association, give written feedback on whether or not to convene the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receipt of the proposal. If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the board of directors is passed. If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall explain the reasons.

Article 47 The board of supervisors shall have the right to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association, give written feedback on whether to convene the extraordinary general meeting or not within 10 days after receipt of the proposal.

If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the board of directors is passed. Any changes to the original proposal made in the notice shall be approved by the board of supervisors.

If the board of directors does not agree to convene the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give feedback within 10 days after receipt of the proposal, the board of directors shall be deemed to be unable or fail to perform the duty of convening the general meeting, and the board of supervisors may summon and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 48 Shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares shall have the right to request the board of directors in writing to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The board of directors shall, in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, and the Articles of Association, give written feedback on whether to convene the extraordinary general meeting or not within 10 days after receipt of the request.

If the board of directors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be issued within 5 days after the resolution of the board of directors is passed. Any change to the original request made in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the board of directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or does not reply within 10 days upon receipt of the request, the shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose to the board of supervisors to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing.

If the board of supervisors agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting, it shall issue a notice of general meeting within 5 days upon receipt of the request. Any changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the board of supervisors fails to issue the notice of the general meeting within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed that the board of supervisors will not convene and preside over the general meeting, and shareholders individually or jointly holding 10% or more of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may summon and preside over the meeting by themselves.

Article 49 If the board of supervisors or shareholders decide(s) to convene a general meeting, they shall notify the board of directors in writing and at the same time file a report with the stock exchange. Prior to the resolutions passed by the general meeting, the shareholding percentage of the convening shareholders shall be no less than 10%. The board of supervisors or the convening shareholders shall submit the relevant supporting materials to the stock exchange when issuing the notice of the general meeting and the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 50 For the general meetings convened by the board of supervisors or shareholders, the board of directors and the secretary of the board of directors shall cooperate and provide necessary assistance. The board of directors shall provide the register of members. The register of members obtained by the convener shall not be used for any purpose other than convening a general meeting.

Article 51 The necessary expenses for a general meeting convened by the board of supervisors or shareholders shall be borne by the Company.

Section 4 Proposals and Notices of General Meetings

Article 52 The contents of the proposal shall fall within the scope of the functions and powers of the general meetings, have specified subjects and specific resolutions, and comply with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 53 When the Company convenes a general meeting, the board of directors, the board of supervisors and shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to submit proposals to the Company.

Shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 3% of the Company's shares may submit provisional proposals in writing to the convener 10 days before a general meeting is convened. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting within 2 days upon receipt of the proposal to announce the contents of the provisional proposal.

Except as provided in the preceding paragraph or as provided in the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, the convener shall not amend the proposals set out in the notice of the general meeting or add any new proposals after issuing the notice of the general meeting.

The general meeting shall not vote or make resolutions for any proposal not incorporated in the notice or not in compliance with Article 52 of the Articles of Association.

Article 54 The convener of the general meeting shall notify the shareholders by an announcement 20 days prior to the annual general meeting, and shall notify the shareholders by an announcement 15 days prior to the extraordinary general meeting.

When calculating the notice period, the Company does not include the date of the meeting.

Article 55 The notice of the general meeting shall include the following contents:

- (I) the venue, the time and the duration of the meeting;
- (II) the matters and proposals submitted for consideration at the meeting;
- (III) a prominent written statement as follows: all ordinary shareholders (including preferred shareholders whose voting rights have been restored) have the right to attend the general meeting, and may appoint in written form a proxy (whether a shareholder of the Company or not), to attend and vote at the meeting;
- (IV) the record date of the shareholders who are entitled to attend the general meeting;
- (V) the names and phone number of the standing contact person for meeting affairs;
- (VI) the time and procedure for voting by internet or other means.

The notice of the general meeting and the supplementary notice shall fully and completely disclose all the specific contents of all proposals. If the matter to be discussed needs the opinion of independent directors, the opinions and reasons of independent directors will be disclosed at the same time when the notice of general meeting or supplementary notice is issued.

Article 56 If the matters involving the election of directors and supervisors are to be discussed at the general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for directors and supervisors, which shall at least include the following:

- (I) personal particulars including educational background, working experience, part-time employment;
- (II) whether there is any related relationship with the Company or controlling shareholders and actual controller of the Company;
- (III) disclosure of the shareholdings in the Company;
- (IV) whether the candidates have been punished by the CSRC and other relevant authorities or reprimanded by a stock exchange.

Except for the directors and supervisors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate for director and supervisor should be individually proposed.

Article 57 After the issuance of the notice for a general meeting, the general meeting shall not be postponed or canceled without any proper reasons, and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of delay or cancelation, the convener shall give a notice to shareholders stating the reasons at least two business days before the original meeting date.

Section 5 Holding of General Meetings

Article 58 The board of directors and other conveners of the Company shall take all necessary measures to ensure that the general meeting is conducted in an orderly manner, and shall take steps to prevent any activities that interfere the general meetings, cause disturbances and infringe the legal interests of the shareholders, and report such activities to the relative authorities for investigation and punishment.

Article 59 All shareholders in the register of members as at the date of record or their proxies shall have the right to attend the general meeting and exercise the voting rights and the right of speech according to relevant laws, regulations, and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may either attend the general meeting in person, or appoint any persons (whether a shareholder of the Company or not) as their proxies to attend and vote at the meeting.

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting shall be entitled to appoint one or more other persons (whether a shareholder or not) as his/her proxy to attend and vote on his/her behalf, and such proxy may exercise the following rights according to the authorization of the shareholder:

- (I) have the same right as the shareholder to speak at the meeting;
- (II) have the right by himself or in conjunction with others to make a resolution by voting; and
- (III) have the right to vote by hand or on a poll, but a proxy of a shareholder who has appointed more than one proxy may only vote on a poll.

Article 60 HKSCC as defined in the Listing Rules ("HKSCC") is entitled to appoint proxies or corporate representatives to attend general meetings and creditors' meetings of the Company, and such proxies or corporate representatives are entitled to rights equivalent to other shareholders, including right to speak and vote.

Article 61 Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their identity cards or any other valid certificates or documents for identification. Proxies attending the meeting shall present their personal identity cards and the power of attorney from the shareholder.

For legal person shareholders, the legal representatives or the proxies appointed by such legal representatives shall be entitled to attend the meeting and shall be deemed to have attended the meeting in person. Legal representatives attending the meeting shall present their identity cards and valid documents that can prove their qualifications as the legal representatives. Proxies authorized to attend the meeting shall present their identity cards and the written power of attorney legally issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder (except for HKSCC or its proxy as defined in the Listing Rules).

If the shareholder is HKSCC or its proxy as defined in the Listing Rules, the shareholder may appoint one or more person(s) as he thinks fit as its representative(s) or proxy(ies) at the general meeting or any class general meetings. However, if more than two persons are appointed, the power of attorney or proxy statement shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. Such person so appointed may exercise the rights on behalf of HKSCC (or its proxy) (no shareholding voucher, notarized authorization and/or further evidence to the duly authorization is required) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 62 The power of attorney issued by a shareholder to appoint another person to attend a general meeting shall contain the following information:

- (I) the name of the proxy;
- (II) whether the proxy has the right to vote;
- (III) instructions to vote for, against or abstain from voting on each matter to be considered on the agenda of the general meeting, respectively;
- (IV) the issuance date and valid period of the proxy statement;
- (V) the signature (or seal) of the principal. If the principal is a legal person shareholder, the signature of the duly authorized person and the seal of the legal person entity shall be affixed.

Article 63 The power of attorney shall specify whether the proxy could vote at his or her discretion if the shareholder does not provide specific instructions.

Article 64 If the power of attorney for voting by proxy is signed by another person authorized by the principal, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed must be verified by a notary. The power of attorney or other authorization documents verified by the notary must be deposited together with the power of attorney at the domicile of the Company or other location designated at the notice convening the meeting.

A legal person shareholder shall attend the general meetings of the Company by its legal representatives or persons authorized by its board of directors or other decision-making authorities.

Article 65 The Company shall be responsible for preparing the register of persons attending the meeting. The register of persons attending the meeting shall include, among others, the name of persons attending the meeting (or name of the relevant entity), identity card number, domicile, number of shares with voting rights they hold or represent, and name of the principal (or name of the relevant entity).

Article 66 The convener shall verify the legitimacy of shareholders' qualifications according to the register of members and register the names of shareholders and the number of shares with voting rights they hold. The registration shall end before the chairperson of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of voting shares they hold.

Article 67 When the general meetings are held, all directors, supervisors and secretary of the board of directors shall attend the general meetings, and the general manager and other senior management shall also attend the meetings on a non-voting basis. Such persons may attend the meeting through Internet meetings, video meetings, telephone meetings or other means with equivalent effect.

Article 68 The general meetings shall be convened by the chairman of the board of directors. When the chairman of the board of directors is unable to perform or fails to perform his or her duties, the vice chairman of the board of directors shall chair the meeting; When the vice chairman of the board of directors is unable to perform or fails to perform his or her duties, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall chair the meeting.

The general meetings convened by the board of supervisors shall be chaired by the chairman of the board of supervisors. Where the chairman of the board of supervisors is unable to perform or does not perform his or her duties, a supervisor nominated by more than half of the supervisors shall chair the meeting.

The general meeting convened by shareholders should be chaired by a representative recommended by the convener.

Where the general meeting is unable to continue due to the chairman of the meeting violating the rules of procedure of the meeting during the meeting, the general meeting may elect a person to chair the meeting upon consent of shareholders with more than half voting rights and present at the meeting to continue the meeting.

Article 69 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedure of the general meetings which shall set out the procedures of convening and voting at the general meetings in detail, including notices, registration, consideration and approval for proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement on voting results, formation of the resolutions, meeting minutes, signing and announcement and other matters, and the principles of authorization of the general meetings granted to the board of directors. The contents of authorization should be clear and specific. The rules of procedure of the general meeting shall be prepared by the board of directors, approved at the general meeting and attached as an appendix to the Articles of Association.

Article 70 At the annual general meeting, the board of directors and the board of supervisors shall report their work done in the past year to the general meeting. Each independent director shall also deliver his or her work report.

Article 71 The directors, supervisors and senior management shall make explanations and statement on the inquiries and suggestions from shareholders at the general meetings.

Article 72 Prior to voting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them. The number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them shall be subject to the meeting registration.

Article 73 The secretary of the board of directors shall be responsible for the minutes of the general meetings. The minutes shall set forth the following contents:

- (I) time, place, agenda of the meeting, name of the convener;
- (II) name of the chairman of the meeting, directors, supervisors, the manager and other senior management present or in attendance at the meeting;

- (III) number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting, the total number of voting shares and the proportion of the total number of voting shares to the total shares of the Company;
- (IV) the review process, highlights of the speeches and voting results for each proposal;
- (V) queries or suggestions of shareholders and the corresponding replies or explanations;
- (VI) the name of counting officers and scrutinizers;
- (VII) such other matters which shall be recorded in the minutes specified by the Articles of Association.

Article 74 Conveners of the general meetings shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, supervisors, secretary of the board of directors, convener or his or her representative and chairman of the meeting shall sign on the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the attendance record of shareholders attending the meeting, the power of attorney for proxies attending the meeting and the valid information of voting via other methods for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 75 The convener of the general meeting shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until the final resolutions are reached. In case the general meeting is adjourned or resolutions failed to be reached due to any special reasons like force majeure, measures shall be taken to resume the general meeting as soon as possible or to directly terminate the general meeting. Announcements and/or reports (if necessary) shall be made accordingly in a timely manner in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and/or the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Section 6 Voting and Resolution of General Meetings

Article 76 The resolutions of the general meeting shall be divided into ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution made by the general meeting may be adopted by a simple majority of the votes held by the shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) attending the general meeting.

A special resolution made by the general meeting can be adopted by a two-thirds majority of the votes held by the shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) attending the general meeting.

Article 77 The following matters shall be approved by the general meeting through ordinary resolutions:

- (I) work report of the board of directors and the board of supervisors;
- (II) plans of profit distribution and loss make-up schemes drafted by the board of directors;
- (III) appointment or dismissal of the members of the board of directors or the board of supervisors who are not employee representatives, and their remuneration and payment methods;

- (IV) annual budget and final account report of the Company;
- (V) annual report of the Company;
- (VI) appointment and dismissal of the accounting firm;
- (VII) other matters other than those approved by special resolution stipulated in the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association.

Article 78 The following matters shall be approved by special resolution at the general meeting:

- (I) the increase or decrease of the registered capital of the Company;
- (II) division, merger, dissolution and liquidation of the Company (including voluntary liquidation) or any changes in the form of the Company;
- (III) amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (IV) purchase or disposal of material assets or provision of guarantee by the Company within one year with an amount exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (V) share incentive schemes and employee share ownership schemes;
- (VI) other matters required by laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, as well as those determined by the general meeting through ordinary resolutions to have a significant impact on the Company and need to be passed by special resolution.

Article 79 Shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) shall exercise the voting rights with respect to the number of voting shares represented by them, and each share shall have one vote. If a shareholder is HKSCC as defined in the Listing Rules, (i.e. a securities registration and clearing institution as defined in Article 90) or its proxy, it is not required to vote in favor of or against all of the votes.

The shares held by the Company do not have any voting rights, and such shares are not counted in the total number of voting shares upon attendance at a general meeting.

Article 80 Where the Listing Rules provide that any shareholders shall abstain from voting or can only vote for yes (or no) on certain resolution, if the said shareholders violate the relevant regulations or limitations, the votes of the said shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) shall not be counted in the voting results.

Article 81 When a connected transaction is considered at a general meeting, the shareholders who are connected persons shall not vote, and the voting shares represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid voting shares.

Voting on the connected transactions at the general meeting shall be valid by a simple majority of the votes held by the non-connected person shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) attending the general meeting. However, matters that need to be decided by a special resolution at the general meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association shall be passed by a two-thirds majority of the votes held by the non-connected person shareholders (including proxies of shareholders) attending the general meeting.

If there are other provisions in the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and such provisions do not violate the current laws and regulations of the PRC, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 82 Save that the Company is under exceptional situations such as crisis, the Company shall not enter into any contracts to authorize the management of all or a substantial part of the business to any person other than the directors, the general manager and other senior management of the Company unless approved by a special resolution of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 83 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be proposed to the general meetings for voting in the form of motions.

Pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Association or a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be adopted for the election of directors and supervisors at the shareholders' general meeting.

The cumulative voting system shall refer to that the quantity of the voting right of each share equals the number of candidates for directors or supervisors in the election of directors or supervisors in the general meetings, and shareholders may exercise their voting right collectively. The Board shall announce the resume and basic information of the candidates for directors and supervisors to the shareholders of the Company.

The procedures for the nomination, election and removal of directors and supervisors of the Company shall be stipulated in detail by the rules of procedure of the general meetings.

Article 84 Except for the cumulative voting system, all resolutions proposed at the general meetings shall be voted one by one. In case there are different proposals for the same matter, the proposals shall be voted in the sequence of the submission time of such proposals. Except for special reasons such as force majeure that results in the interruption of the meeting or the failure to come to resolutions, the general meetings shall not put aside or refuse to vote on any proposals.

Article 85 In reviewing proposals at the general meeting, no change shall be made to the proposals. Otherwise, such changes shall be deemed as a new proposal which shall not be voted in the current general meeting.

Article 86 The same voting right shall only be exercised by one voting method, either through on-site voting or other voting methods. In case of repeated voting of the same voting right, the first voting result shall prevail.

Article 87 Voting at the general meeting shall record the names of the voters.

Article 88 Prior to voting, the general meeting shall elect two shareholder representatives to count the votes and scrutinize the voting. If the shareholder is interested in the matter to be discussed, the relevant shareholder and his proxy shall not participate in the vote counting and scrutinizing of the voting.

When the general meeting votes on the proposals, the shareholder representative and supervisor representative shall be jointly liable for the vote counting and scrutinizing of the voting. The voting results shall be announced on site and recorded in the minutes.

Shareholders of the Company or their proxies adopting online voting or other voting methods shall have the right to verify their voting results through relevant voting system.

Article 89 The end time of on-site general meeting shall not be earlier than that by online or other means. The chairperson of the meeting should announce the voting status and result of each proposal and announce whether the proposal is passed according to the voting result. Prior to the official announcement of the voting results, the relevant parties involving in the on-site voting and other voting methods including the companies, counting officers, scrutinizers, major shareholders shall be obliged to keep the voting status confidential.

Article 90 Shareholders attending the general meeting shall take one of the following stances for each proposal submitted for voting: for, against or abstain. The securities registration and clearing institutions shall work as the nominal shareholder under the inter-connected mechanism for trading on stock markets in the Mainland and Hong Kong, except as declared according to the intention of the actual shareholder.

The blank votes, votes with mistakes, votes with illegible words and votes not submitted shall all be deemed as that the voters have given up the voting rights, and the voting results of such shares shall be counted as “abstain”.

Article 91 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt about the result of the resolution submitted for voting, he or she may conduct a counting of the votes. If the chairman of the meeting does not conduct a counting of votes and the shareholders or proxies at the meeting with any objections to the results announced by the chairman of the meeting shall have the right to request for a counting of votes immediately after the announcement of the voting results, and the chairman of the meeting shall conduct the counting of votes immediately.

Article 92 The voting results for resolutions at the general meeting shall be announced to shareholders in a timely manner. The resolutions shall indicate the number of shareholders and proxies that attended the meeting, the total number of voting shares and its proportion to the total voting shares of the Company, voting method, voting results for each proposal and detailed information of each resolution passed.

Article 93 If any proposal is not passed or the current general meeting amends the resolution of the last general meeting, special reminder shall be given in the announcement of the resolutions of the general meeting.

Article 94 If a proposal for the election of directors or supervisors is passed at the general meeting, the term of office of the newly appointed directors and supervisors shall commence from the date of the resolution in the general meeting.

Where any proposal for cash dividends, share allocation or conversion from the capital reserves to share capital is passed at the general meeting, the Company shall carry out the specific plans within two months after the end of the general meetings.

Section 7 Changes in Special Rights of Class Shares

Article 95 If the Company intends to change the special rights attached to a certain class of shares, it must be approved by way of a special resolution by the shareholders of that class at a class general meeting.

Class general meeting shall be convened and held in the same procedures as possible as for a general meeting. The provisions in the Company's Articles of Association regarding the procedures for convening and holding a general meeting shall apply to class meeting. Notice of a class meeting shall only be served on the class shareholders entitled to vote at that class meeting. The minimum quorum for attendance at a class general meeting shall be at least one-third of the shareholders of that class.

CHAPTER 5 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1 Directors

Article 96 The directors of the Company shall be natural persons. None of the following persons shall serve as our director:

- (I) A person who has no civil capacity or has limited civil capacity;
- (II) A person who has been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for any of the following crimes and five years have not elapsed since the date on which execution of the sentence was completed: embezzlement, bribery, conversion of property, misappropriation of property, or sabotaging the socialist economic order; or has been deprived of his/her political rights as a result of a criminal conviction and five years have not elapsed since the date on which execution of the sentence was completed;
- (III) A person who has served as a director, the factory chief, or the manager of an insolvent and liquidated company or enterprise and is held personally liable for such bankruptcy, and three years have not elapsed since the date when the bankruptcy and liquidation of the company or enterprise are completed;
- (IV) A person who has served as the legal representative of a company or enterprise whose business license was revoked or which is ordered to close down due to any violation of law, and is held personally liable for the revocation, and three years have not elapsed since the date when the revocation occurs;
- (V) A person who has a relatively large sum of debt, which was not paid at maturity;
- (VI) A person who has been banned from entering the securities market by the CSRC and whose term has not expired;
- (VII) Other contents stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, and other securities regulatory rules of the place where the company's shares are listed.

The election and appointment of the directors shall be invalid if such election, appointment or employment is against this Article. If any director falls into the situations provided in this Article during their term of office, he or she would be dismissed by our Company.

Article 97 The directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting and may be removed by the general meeting through an ordinary resolution before the expiration of their term of office (the compensation claims by the directors according to any contract shall not be affected for the reason of such removal). The directors serve three-year terms and can be re-elected and reappointed at the end of the term.

The term of office of a director shall be calculated from the date of duty assumption until the expiration of the term of office of the current session of the Board. In the event re-election is not held in time upon the expiry of the term of office of directors, the original directors shall fulfill duties of directors according to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, securities regulatory rules of the place where the company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association before the newly appointed or elected directors assumes the office.

Directors may be held concurrently by senior management, provided that the total number of directors concurrently holding the positions of senior management of the Company and the number of directors held by employee representatives shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company. There is no employee representative director on the Board.

Article 98 Directors shall abide by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association, and have the following diligent obligations to the Company:

- (I) Directors shall not take advantage of their powers to receive any bribes or other illegal income, and shall not embezzle any property of the Company;
- (II) Directors shall not misappropriate any funds of the Company;
- (III) Directors shall not deposit any assets or funds of the Company in any accounts opened in their own names or in the name of any other persons;
- (IV) Without the consent of the general meeting or the Board, directors shall not lend any funds of the Company to other persons or provide guarantee for any other persons with the assets of the Company in violation of the Articles of Association;
- (V) Directors shall not enter into any contracts or transactions with the Company in violation of the provisions of the Articles of Association or without the consent of the general meeting;
- (VI) Without the consent of the general meeting, directors shall not take advantage of their powers to pursue any business opportunities that should belong to the Company for themselves or other persons and shall not operate the same type of business with the Company on their own or for others;
- (VII) Directors shall not pocket commissions from the transactions with the Company;
- (VIII) Directors shall not disclose any confidential information of the Company without authorization;
- (IX) Directors shall not utilize its related party relationship to compromise the interests of the Company;
- (X) Directors shall bear other obligations of loyalty specified by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any income derived by a director from violating the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company. The director shall also be liable for the compensation of the losses suffered by the Company thereto.

Article 99 Directors shall abide by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association, and have the following diligent obligations to the Company:

- (I) Shall prudently, earnestly and diligently exercise the powers the Company grants to them to ensure that the Company conducts its commercial activities in a manner that complies with the requirements of state laws, administrative regulations and state economic policies, and that the commercial activities do not go beyond the scope of the business activities stipulated in the business license;
- (II) Shall treat all shareholders fairly;
- (III) Shall maintain a timely awareness of the operation and management of the Company;
- (IV) Shall sign written statements confirming the regular reports of the Company, and ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;
- (V) Shall provide accurate information and materials to the board of supervisors and shall not obstruct the board of supervisors or individual supervisors from performing its or their duties;
- (VI) Other obligations of diligence stipulated in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's Shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 100 Any director who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the Board in person and fails to appoint any other directors to attend on his behalf shall be deemed to be unable to perform his or her duties. The Board shall propose to the general meeting to remove such director.

Article 101 A director may resign before the expiration of his or her term of office. The director shall submit a written resignation report to the Board. The Board shall disclose the relevant information within two days.

Where the number of directors of the Board falls below the quorum due to the resignation of any director, the original directors shall perform their duties according to laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's Shares are listed and the Articles of Associations before the newly-elected director assumes the office.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of the director shall become effective when the resignation report is delivered to the Board.

Article 102 Upon the effectiveness of a director's resignation or the expiration of his or her term of office, the director shall complete all handover procedures with the Board, and his/her duty of loyalty to the Company and its shareholders shall not ipso facto be discharged at the end of his term of office. His or her obligations to keep the trade secrets of the Company confidential shall remain valid after the expiration of his or her term of office until the relevant secrets become publicly available information. The duration period of other duty of loyalty of a director to the Company shall be determined in accordance with the principle of fairness, depending on the length of time between the termination and the act concerned and the circumstances and the conditions under which his relationship with the Company was terminated, but the minimum period shall not be less than 2 years.

Article 103 Unless otherwise specified in the Articles of Association or duly authorized by the Board, no director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board in his personal capacity. When a director acts in his or her personal capacity, and a third party may reasonably believe that such directors is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board, the director shall declare his or her stance and capacity in advance.

Article 104 If the Company suffers any losses due to a director's violation of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in fulfilling their duties, the director shall be liable for compensation.

Article 105 The Company shall have independent directors. The independent directors shall be independent from the Company and the Company's major shareholders, and shall comply with the relevant provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed.

Section 2 Board of Directors

Article 106 The Company shall have the Board of directors (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"), which shall report to the general meeting.

The Board of directors shall set up audit committee and strategy and development committee, remuneration and appraisal committee and nomination committee as needed. These special committees shall report to the Board, perform duties according to the Articles of Association and authorization of the Board, and submit proposals to the Board for consideration and decision. Special committees shall be formed by directors, among which the independent directors of the audit committee, the nomination committee and the remuneration and appraisal committee shall constitute a majority and act as the convener. The convener of the audit committee shall be an accounting professional. The Board shall formulate work principles for special committees and regulate the operation of special committees.

Article 107 The Board shall consist of eight directors and the number of independent directors should not be less than one-third of the Board, i.e. three. At least one independent director should have appropriate professional qualifications that meet regulatory requirements or have appropriate accounting or related financial management expertise. The board of directors has one chairman and one vice chairman. The chairman and vice chairman of the board of directors shall be elected by more than half of all directors.

Article 108 The board of directors shall exercises the following powers:

- (I) to convene the shareholders' general meetings and report on its work to the shareholders' general meetings;
- (II) to implement the resolutions passed in shareholders' general meetings;
- (III) to decide on the Company's business plans and investment proposals;
- (IV) to formulate the Company's proposed annual financial budget and final accounts;
- (V) to formulate the Company's profit distribution proposals and loss recovery proposals;

- (VI) to formulate proposals for the increase or reduction of the Company's registered capital, issuance of bonds or other securities and listing;
- (VII) to formulate plans for major acquisitions, purchase of shares of the Company, merger, division, dissolution or changes in the form of the Company;
- (VIII) to determine the matters such as the Company's external investment, purchase or sales of assets, asset pledge, external guarantee, entrusting wealth management, connected transactions, external donation and other relevant matters within the scope authorized by the general meeting;
- (IX) to decide on the setup of the internal management organization of the Company;
- (X) to appoint or dismiss the general manager of the Company and secretary to the Board; and based on the nomination of the general manager, to appoint or dismiss the deputy general manager, the chief financial officer and other senior management of the Company, and to determine their remuneration, rewards and punishments;
- (XI) to formulate the basic management systems of the Company and determine the Company's risk management system (including risk assessment, financial control, internal auditing and legal risk control) and monitor the implementation thereof;
- (XII) to formulate plans for any amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (XIII) to manage the disclosure of information of the Company;
- (XIV) to propose at the general meeting the appointment or replacement of the accounting firm that performs audit for the Company;
- (XV) to receive the work report of the general manager of the Company and examine on the work of the general manager;
- (XVI) to approve the Company's appointment or replacement of directors and shareholder representative supervisors of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries, and to appoint, replace or recommend shareholder representatives, directors (candidates) and shareholder representative supervisors (candidates) of the Company's controlling subsidiaries or equity participation companies;
- (XVII) to decide on other major affairs and administrative matters of the Company and to sign other important agreements except for those matters otherwise required to be resolved by the shareholders' meeting under the Company Law and the Articles of Association;
- (XVIII) to repurchase of the Company's shares due to the circumstances stipulated in items (III), (V) or (VI) to Article 24 of the Articles of Association;
- (XIX) any other power granted by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association.

Matters beyond the scope of authorization of the general meeting shall be submitted to the general meeting for deliberation.

Article 109 The Board of the Company shall make explanations to the general meeting for non-standard audit opinions issued by certified public accountants in the financial statements of the Company.

Article 110 The Board shall formulate rules of procedure for the Board to ensure that the implementation of resolutions of the general meetings, improve work efficiency and ensure that the decision-making process is conducted in a scientific manner. The rules of procedure of the Board shall set out the procedures of convening and voting at the general meetings and be drafted by the Board and approved by the general meeting, which shall be taken as an appendix to the Articles of Association.

Article 111 The Board shall determine the authority of the matters such as the external investment, purchase or sales of assets, asset pledge, external guarantee, entrusting wealth management, connected transactions and external donation, and establish strict review and decision-making procedures. The Board shall organize relevant experts and professionals to assess major investment projects and submitted to the general meeting for approval.

In respect of the above matters, the decision-making authority of the Board is as follows:

- (I) Approval of other external guarantee matters other than those stipulated in Article 41 of the Articles of Association;
- (II) Approval of the transactions and decisions required to be announced by the securities regulatory rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed;
- (III) Other circumstances authorized by the general meeting.

CHAPTER 8 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Section 1 Financial and Accounting System

Article 148 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system according to the laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of the relevant governmental authorities.

Article 149 The accounting year of the Company is from January 1 to December 31 of each calendar year.

Article 150 The Company shall not keep accounts other than those required by laws. The assets of the Company shall not be kept under the name of any individuals.

Article 151 In distribution of the profit after tax of the year, 10% of the profit shall be contributed to the statutory reserves of the Company. When the aggregate statutory reserves of the Company has reached more than 50% of the registered capital, the Company may cease to make further contribution.

Where the statutory reserves of the Company is not sufficient to recover the losses for the previous year, the profit of the current year shall first be used to recover the losses before contributing to the statutory reserves as stipulated above.

The Company may also appropriate funds to the discretionary surplus reserves from the profit after tax upon the appropriation of funds to the statutory reserves, subject to the resolution of the general meeting.

The Company may distribute the profit after tax according to the proportion of shareholdings after making up for losses and making allocations to the reserves.

If the general meeting distributes profits to shareholders before the Company recovers losses and makes allocations to the statutory reserves in violation of the above provisions, the shareholders shall return the profits distributed in violation of the provisions to the Company.

The shares of the Company held by the Company are not entitled to any profit distribution.

Article 152 The reserves of the Company may be used to recover losses, expand the production and operation of the Company, or be converted to increase the registered capital of the Company. However, the capital reserves shall not be used to recover the losses of the Company.

The remaining statutory reserves after the conversion into capital shall be no less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 153 After the general meeting of the Company has passed a resolution on the profit distribution plan, the Board the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within two months after the general meeting.

Article 154 The Company shall implement the following profit distribution policies:

- (I) The principle of profit distribution: The Company attaches great importance to reasonable investment returns to investors, while taking into account the overall interests of all shareholders as well as the long-term interests and sustainable development of the Company. The profit distribution shall be based on the profit available for distribution to shareholders in the consolidated financial statements of the Company. The profit distribution policy shall maintain continuity and stability, and adhere to the principles of profit distribution in accordance with the legal order and the same shares with the same rights and the same benefits.

- (II) Form of profit distribution: The Company distributes dividends in cash or in combination of cash and stocks, among which, the distribution of dividends in cash is preferred. Cash dividends shall be used for profit distribution if the conditions for cash dividends are available. If dividends are adopted for profit distribution, there should be real and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution of net assets per share. The profit distribution of the Company shall not exceed the scope of the cumulative profit available for distribution to shareholders, and shall not impair the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.
- (III) Interval of profit distribution: In principle, the Company will pay cash dividends once a year if the conditions for dividend distribution are met. The Board of the Company may propose the Company to pay interim dividends based on the current profit scale, cash flow status, development stage and capital demand.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 155 The Company shall adopt an internal audit system, establish an internal audit institution and designate full-time auditors to supervise the internal audits of incomes and expenses as well as the business activities of the Company.

Article 156 The internal audit system of the Company and the duties of auditors shall come into effect upon the approval of the Board. The person in charge of audits shall be accountable to and report to the Board.

Section 3 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 157 The Company shall appoint an accounting firm that meets the requirements of Securities Law to conduct the audit of accounting statements, verification of net assets and other relevant consulting services for a period of one year, which may be renewed.

Article 158 The appointment of an accounting firm by the Company shall be determined by an ordinary resolution of the general meeting. The Board shall not appoint an accounting firm before the decision is made by the general meeting.

Article 159 The Company shall ensure that it will provide true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information to the accounting firm appointed without any objection, omission or falsehood.

Article 160 The audit fees of the accounting firm shall be determined by an ordinary resolution of the general meeting.

Article 161 In the event of termination of the appointment or non-renewal of the appointment of the accounting firm, the Company shall notify the accounting firm 15 days in advance. In the voting for the dismissal of the accounting firm at the general meeting, the Company shall allow the accounting firm to make its representation. The dismissal of the accounting firm shall be decided by an ordinary resolution of the general meeting.

In case of resignation of the accounting firm, the accounting firm shall explain to the general meeting whether the Company has any improper circumstances.
