If the listed company purchases the shares of the Company in accordance with Article 28 under the circumstances set forth in sub-paragraph (3), (5), (6) of the first paragraph, it shall conduct such purchases through centralized public transaction.

Shares which have been legally repurchased by the Company shall be cancelled within the period prescribed by laws and administrative regulations, and the Company shall apply to the Company's original registration authorities for registration of the change in its registered capital.

The aggregate par value of the cancelled shares shall be deducted from the Company's registered capital.

Article 32 Unless the Company is in the course of liquidation, it must comply with the following provisions in relation to repurchasing its issued and outstanding shares:

Article 28 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (I) Where the Company repurchases shares at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company and/or out of the proceeds from new shares issued for such purpose;
- (II) Where the Company repurchases shares at a premium to the par value, payment up to the par value may be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company and/or out of the proceeds from new shares issued for that purpose. Payment of the portion in excess of the par value shall be effected as follows:
 - (1) If the shares being repurchased were issued at par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company;
 - (2) If the shares being repurchased were issued at a premium to the par value, payment shall be made out of the book balance of distributable profits of the Company and/or out of the proceeds from new shares issued for that purpose, provided that the amount paid out of such proceeds shall not exceed the aggregate of the premiums received on the issue of the shares repurchased nor shall it exceed the book value of the Company's premium account (or capital common reserve account) (including the premiums on the new issue) at the time of the repurchase;
- (III) The Company shall make payments for the following applications out of the Company's distributable profits:
 - (1) Acquisition of the right to repurchase its own shares;
 - (2) Modification of any contract for the repurchase of its shares;
 - (3) Release of its obligation(s) under any contract for repurchasing its shares.

(IV) After the Company's registered capital has been reduced by the aggregate par value of the cancelled shares in accordance with relevant regulations, the amount deducted from the distributable profits for payment of the par value of the repurchased shares shall be transferred to the Company's premium account (or capital common reserve account).

Chapter 5 Financial Assistance for Purchase of Shares of the Company

Article 33 The Company or its subsidiaries (including entities affiliated to the Company) shall not, by way of a gift or by granting an advance, guarantee, compensation, loan or otherwise at any time, provide any form of financial assistance to a person who purchases or intends to purchase shares in the Company. The person who purchases shares in the Company set forth above includes any person who directly or indirectly assumes any obligations as a result of the acquisition of shares in the Company.

Article 29 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 21 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Neither the Company nor its subsidiaries (including entities affiliated to the Company) shall, by any means at any time, provide financial assistance to such person for the purposes of reducing or discharging the obligations assumed by such person.

This Article shall not apply to the circumstances referred to in Article 35 in this Articles of Association.

Article 34 For the purposes of this Chapter, the term "financial assistance" shall include (but not limited to):

Article 30 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) Gifts;
- (2) Guarantee (including the assumption of liability or the provision of assets by the guarantor to secure the performance of obligations by the obligor), compensation (other than compensation in respect of the Company's own default) or release or waiver of any rights;
- (3) Provision of a loan or entering into any other agreement under which the obligations of the Company are to be fulfilled prior to the fulfillment of obligations of another party to the agreement, or a change in the parties to, or the assignment of rights under, such loan or agreement;
- (4) Any other form of financial assistance given by the Company when the Company is insolvent or has no net asset or when its net assets would thereby be reduced to a material extent.

For the purposes of this Articles of Association, the “assumption of obligations” means the assumption of obligations by way of contract or by way of arrangement (irrespective of whether such contract or arrangement is enforceable or not, and irrespective of whether such obligations are to be borne by the obligor solely or jointly with other persons), or by any other means which results in a change in the Company’s financial position.

Article 35 The following acts shall not be deemed to be prohibited under Article 33 of this Articles of Association:

Article 31 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) The provision of financial assistance by the Company where the financial assistance is provided in good faith in the interests of the Company and the principal purpose of which is not for the acquisition of shares in the Company, or where the provision of financial assistance is an incidental part of certain overall plan of the Company;
- (2) The lawful distribution of the Company’s properties by way of dividends;
- (3) The allotment of bonus shares as dividends;
- (4) A reduction of registered capital, repurchase of shares or adjustment of the share capital structure effected in accordance with this Articles of Association;
- (5) The provision by the Company of a loan within its scope of operation and in the ordinary course of its business (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the net assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of its distributable profits);
- (6) The monetary contribution by the Company to the employee share option schemes (provided that the net assets of the Company are not thereby reduced or that, to the extent that the net assets are thereby reduced, the financial assistance is provided out of its distributable profits).

Chapter 6 Share Certificates and Register of Members

Article 36 The share certificates of the Company shall be in registered form.

Article 32 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

In addition to those provided in the Company Law, a share certificate of the Company shall also contain any other items required to be specified by the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 37 The share certificates shall be signed by the chairman of the Board. Where the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed requires the share certificates to be signed by other senior management, the share certificates shall also be signed by such senior management. The share certificates shall take effect after being affixed or printed with the seal of the Company. The share certificates shall only be affixed with the Company's seal with the authorization of the Board. The signatures of the chairman of the Board or other relevant senior management on the share certificates may also be in printed form.

Article 33 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 38 The Company shall keep a register of members based on the evidence provided by the share registrar. The register of members shall contain the following particulars:

Article 34 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

- (1) The name, address (place of domicile), occupation or nature of business of each shareholder;
- (2) The class and number of shares held by each shareholder;
- (3) The amount paid-up or payable in respect of shares held by each shareholder;
- (4) The serial numbers of the shares held by each shareholder;
- (5) The date on which each shareholder was registered as a shareholder; and
- (6) The date on which any shareholder ceased to be a shareholder.

Unless there is evidence to the contrary, the register of members shall be the sufficient evidence of the shareholders' shareholding in the Company.

Article 39 The Company may, in accordance with the mutual understanding and agreements made between the competent securities authorities of the State Council and overseas securities regulatory authorities, keep its register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares outside of the PRC and appoint overseas agent(s) to manage such register. The original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be maintained in Hong Kong.

Article 35 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

The Company shall maintain a duplicate of the register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares at its place of domicile. The appointed overseas agent(s) shall ensure consistency between the original version and the duplicate register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares at all times.

If there is any inconsistency between the original and the duplicate register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares, the original version shall prevail.

Article 40 The Company shall maintain a complete register of members.

The register of members shall include the following parts:

- (1) The register of members which is maintained at the Company's place of domicile (other than those share registers which are described in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article);
- (2) The register of members in respect of the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company which is maintained at the place where the overseas stock exchange on which the shares are listed is located. The original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange shall be maintained in Hong Kong; and
- (3) The register of members which is maintained in such other place as the Board may consider necessary for the purpose of listing of the Company's shares.

Article 41 Different parts of the register of members shall not overlap one another. No transfer of the shares registered in any part of the register shall, during the existence of that registration, be registered in any other part of the register of members.

Alteration or rectification of each part of the register of members shall be made in accordance with the laws of the place where that part of the register of members is maintained.

Article 42 All fully paid-up overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong are freely transferable pursuant to the Articles of Association. The Board may refuse to recognize any instrument of transfer without explanation unless such transfer is in compliance with the following conditions:

- (1) Transfer documents and other documents which relates to share ownership or may affect share ownership shall be registered, and a fee determined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules shall be paid to the Company for such registration;
- (2) The instrument of transfer involves only the overseas-listed foreign shares listed in Hong Kong;
- (3) The stamp duty payable under the laws of Hong Kong on the instrument of transfer has been paid;

Article 36 of the Mandatory Provisions, Paragraph b of Section 1 of Part D of Appendix 13 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

Article 37 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 12 of the Letter of Opinions on Supplements and Amendments to the Articles of Association of Companies Listed in Hong Kong

- (4) The relevant share certificates and evidence reasonably required by the Board showing that the transferor has the right to transfer such shares;
- (5) If the shares are to be transferred to joint holders, the number of shareholders jointly registered shall not exceed four (4);
- (6) The Company has not created any lien over the relevant shares.

If the Board refuses to register a share transfer, the Company shall send the transferor and the transferee a notice of refusal to register the said share transfer within 2 months from the date of submission of the application for transfer.

All transfers of overseas-listed foreign shares shall be effected by a written instrument of transfer in an ordinary or usual form or any other form acceptable to the Board (including the standard transfer format or form of transfer specified by The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited from time to time). The written instrument of transfer may be signed by hand. Where the transferor or transferee is a recognized clearing house (“recognized clearing house”) as defined by the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the laws of Hong Kong) or its nominee, it may be signed in a machine-imprinted format.

All instruments of transfer shall be maintained at the legal address of the Company or any places specified by the Board from time to time.

Article 43 If it is otherwise required under relevant laws, regulations, departmental rules, other regulatory documents, and the relevant provisions of securities regulatory authorities of the places on which the Company’s shares are listed on periods during which transfers may not be entered in the register of members prior to the date of a general meeting or prior to the record date(s) set by the Company for the purpose of distribution of dividends, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 44 When the Company intends to convene a general meeting, distribute dividends, enter into liquidation and engage in other activities that involve determination of shareholdings, the convener of the board meeting or general meeting shall determine a specific date for the determination of rights attaching to shares (record date). Shareholders named in the register of members by the end of the date for the determination of rights attaching to shares (record date) shall be the shareholders of the Company.

Article 45 Any person who dissents from the register of members and requests to have his name included in or removed from the register of members may apply to the court of relevant jurisdiction to correct the register of members.

Article 39 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 32 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 40 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 46 Any shareholder who is registered in, or any person requests to have his name (title) entered into, the register of members may, if his share certificate (the “Original Certificate”) is lost, apply to the Company for a replacement share certificate in respect of such shares (the “Relevant Shares”).

If a holder of domestic shares loses his share certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, it shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Company Law and relevant laws and regulations.

If a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares loses his share certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, it may be dealt with in accordance with relevant laws, the rules of the stock exchange and other relevant regulations of the place where the original register of holders of overseas-listed foreign shares is maintained.

If a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares of a company listed in Hong Kong loses his share certificate and applies for a replacement share certificate, such share certificate shall be issued in compliance with the following requirements:

- (1) The applicant shall submit an application to the Company in the standard form prescribed by the Company accompanied by a notarially certified certificate or statutory declaration containing the grounds upon which the application is made and the circumstances and evidence of the loss of the share certificate as well as declaring that no other person is entitled to request to be registered as the shareholder of the Relevant Shares.
- (2) Before the Company decides to issue the replacement share certificate, no statement made by a person other than the applicant requesting that he shall be registered as the shareholder in respect of the Relevant Shares has been received.
- (3) The Company shall, if it decides to issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant, make an announcement of its intention to issue the replacement share certificate in such newspapers designated by the Board; the announcement shall be made at least once every 30 days for a period of 90 days.
- (4) The Company shall have, prior to the publication of its intention to issue a replacement share certificate, delivered to the stock exchange on which its shares are listed a copy of the announcement to be published. The Company may publish the announcement upon receiving a confirmation from such stock exchange that the announcement has been displayed at the premises of the stock exchange. The announcement shall be displayed at the premises of the stock exchange for a period of 90 days.

In case an application to issue a replacement share certificate has been made without the consent of the registered holder of the Relevant Shares, the Company shall deliver by mail to such registered shareholder a copy of the announcement to be published.

- (5) If, upon expiration of the 90-day period of announcement and display referred to in paragraphs (3) and (4) of this article, the Company has not received from any person any objection to such application, the Company may issue a replacement share certificate to the applicant accordingly.
- (6) Where the Company issues a replacement share certificate in accordance with this article, it shall forthwith cancel the Original Certificate and record the cancellation and replacement matters in the register of members accordingly.
- (7) All expenses relating to the cancellation of an Original Certificate and the issuance of a replacement share certificate by the Company shall be borne by the applicant. The Company may refuse to take any action until a reasonable guarantee is provided by the applicant for such expenses.

Article 47 After the Company issues a replacement share certificate pursuant to the Articles of Association, the name of a bona fide purchaser who obtains the aforementioned new share certificate or a shareholder who thereafter registers as the owner of such shares (in the case where he is a bona fide purchaser) shall not be deleted from the register of members.

Article 42 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 48 The Company shall not have any obligation to indemnify any person for any damages suffered thereby arising out of the cancellation of the Original Certificate or the issuance of a replacement share certificate, unless such person concerned can prove that the Company has committed a fraudulent act.

- (8) Minutes of general meetings;
- (9) Corporate bond certificates and published financial accounting reports.

Documents of items (3) to (7) above shall be posted on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the website of the Company in accordance with the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules. Documents of items (1) and (8) above shall be made available at the Company's address in Hong Kong for the shareholders to inspect with no charge and to make photocopies subject to a payment of a reasonable fee.

- (6) In the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, the right to participate in the distribution of the remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (7) With respect to shareholders who vote against any resolution adopted at the general meeting on the merger or division of the Company, the right to demand the Company to acquire the shares held by them;
- (8) Such other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 51 If the contents of the resolution made by the General Meeting or the Board of the Company violate any laws and/or administrative regulations, the said resolution shall be invalidated.

Article 22 of the Company Law,
Article 35 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

If the convening procedure and voting method of the General Meeting and Board meeting violate the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, or the contents of the resolution go against these Articles of Association, the shareholders shall have the right to request the people's court to cancel the said procedure, method or resolution within sixty (60) days after adoption of the resolution.

Article 52 If any Director or senior management member violate the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association in fulfilling his/her duties and incurs losses to the Company, the Shareholders severally or jointly holding 1% or more shares of the Company for more than 180 days continuously shall have the right to request in writing to the Board of Supervisors to lodge a legal action in people’s court; if the Board of Supervisors violates the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association in fulfilling its duties and incurs losses to the Company, the shareholders shall have the right to request in writing to the Board of Directors to lodge a legal action in people’s court.

Article 151 of the Company Law, Article 36 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If the Board of Supervisors or the Board of Directors refuses to lodge legal action after receipt of the said written request from the Shareholder, or if they fail to take any legal action within 30 days after receipt of the request, or if the circumstances are urgent or if any delay of legal proceedings may cause irrecoverable damage to the interests of the Company, the shareholder specified under the preceding paragraph shall, in the interest of the Company, have the right to lodge legal action in people’s court under his/her own name.

If the legitimate rights and interests of the Company are endangered, incurring losses for the Company, the shareholder specified under the first paragraph of this Article may institute a legal action in people’s court according to the provisions under the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 53 If any Director or senior management member violates the laws, administrative regulations or these Articles of Association, thereby causing any loss to the Shareholders, the Shareholders may initiate legal action in people’s court.

Article 152 of the Company Law, Article 37 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association Article 46 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 20 of the Company Law, Article 38 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 54 Holders of the ordinary shares of the Company shall have the following obligations:

- (1) To abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (2) To pay the share subscription price based on the shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (3) Not to withdraw their shares except in circumstances specified in laws and regulations;

- (4) Not to abuse their shareholders' rights to prejudice the interests of the Company or other shareholders, and not to abuse the independent status of the Company as a legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders to prejudice the interests of the Company's creditors;
- (5) To assume other obligations required by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If a shareholder of the Company abuses the rights of shareholder and thereby causes loss on the Company or other shareholders, such shareholder shall be liable for indemnity in accordance with the law.

If a shareholder of the Company abuses the Company's independent status as a legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders for the purposes of avoiding debts, thereby materially impairing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholder shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company.

Shareholders shall not be liable to make any further contributions to the share capital other than according to the terms agreed by the subscribers at the time of share subscription.

Article 55 If a Shareholder of A Share holding more than 5% of the Company Shares with voting right pledges the Shares held, the said Shareholder shall report such pledge in writing to the Company on the very day upon occurrence of the pledge. Such pledge shall be in compliance with the relevant requirements stipulated by Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 39 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 56 In addition to obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations or required by the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, a controlling shareholder shall not exercise his voting rights in respect of the following matters in a manner prejudicial to the interests of all or part of the shareholders of the Company:

Article 47 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 21 of the Company Law, Article 40 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) To waive a director or supervisor of his responsibility to act honestly in the best interests of the Company;
- (2) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefits or for the benefits of another person), in any way, of the Company's properties, including (but not limited to) any opportunities beneficial to the Company;

- (3) To approve the expropriation by a director or supervisor (for his own benefits or for the benefits of another person) of personal rights of other shareholders, including (but not limited to) rights to distributions and voting rights save pursuant to a restructuring submitted to shareholders for approval at a general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association.

The controlling shareholders or actual controllers of the Company shall not use their connected relationships to harm the interests of the Company. These persons shall be liable for the compensation of any losses of the Company, if any, caused by such violation.

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company have a fiduciary obligation to the Company and to its public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as capital contributors in strict compliance with law. They shall not use profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, use of capital, loan guarantee or other methods to impair the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and of the public shareholders, or use their controlling position to harm the interests of the Company and public shareholders.

Article 57 The term “controlling shareholder” referred to in the preceding provision means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, is entitled to elect more than half of the Board;
- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, is entitled to exercise or to control the exercise of more than 30% of the voting rights of the Company;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds more than 30% of the outstanding issued shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control over the Company in any other manner(s).

For the purposes hereof, the term “de facto controller” means the persons, not being shareholders of the Company, who are able to exercise actual control over the acts of the Company through an investment relationship, agreement or other arrangements.

Chapter 8 General Meeting

Article 58 The general meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise the functions and powers according to law.

Article 48 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 216 of
the Company
Law, Article
193 of the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Article 49 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 59 The general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

Article 50 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 41 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) Decide the operational policy and investment plan of the Company;
- (2) Elect and replace directors who are not staff representatives. Make decisions on matters in relation to the remuneration of the relevant directors;
- (3) Elect and replace supervisors who are not staff representatives. Make decisions on matters in relation to the remuneration of the relevant supervisors;
- (4) Examine and approve the reports of the Board;
- (5) Examine and approve the reports of the supervisory committee;
- (6) Examine and approve the annual financial budgets and final accounting of the Company;
- (7) Examine and approve the profit distribution plan and loss compensation plan of the Company;
- (8) Decide on increasing or reducing the registered capital of the Company and acquiring its shares;
- (9) Decide on matters such as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation and changing the form of the Company;
- (10) Decide on the issuance of bonds and other securities by the Company or listing thereof;
- (11) Adopt resolutions on the appointment, dismissal or non-reappointment of accounting firms by the Company;
- (12) Amend this Articles of Association;
- (13) Examine motions raised by the shareholders who individually or together hold 3% or more of the Company's voting shares;
- (14) Examine and approve the guarantee issues which shall be passed at the general meeting as prescribed in this Articles of Association;
- (15) Examine matters relating to the purchases and sales of significant assets within one year exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (16) Consider the matters regarding connected transactions to be decided at the general meeting as stipulated by the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed;

- (17) Examine and approve changes in use of proceeds;
- (18) Examine share incentive plans and employee shareholding plan;
- (19) Examine other matters to be decided at the general meeting as prescribed by the law, administrative regulations, departmental rules or this Articles of Association.

Matters which, in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, are required to be decided at the general meeting, shall be considered at the general meeting so as to protect the decision-making power of the shareholders of the Company on such matters. Under necessary and reasonable circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the Board to determine, within the scope of authorization granted by such general meeting, specific issues relating to matters which shall be resolved but cannot be decided upon immediately at such general meeting.

The annual general meeting of the Company may authorize the Board to approve the issuance of domestic shares with a total financing amount of not more than RMB300 million and not more than 20% of the net assets as at the end of the latest year to specific subscriber(s), and such authorization will expire on the date of the annual general meeting for the next year, subject to relevant laws and regulations, including the Hong Kong Listing Rules (if applicable).

An authorization to the Board by general meeting in relation to matters to be decided by ordinary resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than half of the voting rights present at the general meeting; an authorization to the Board in relation to matters to be decided by special resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights present at the general meeting. The contents of the authorization shall be clear and specific.

Article 60 The following external guarantees of the Company must be reviewed and passed at the general meeting:

- (1) Any subsequent guarantee in addition to the aggregate of all external guarantees provided by the Company or its controlled subsidiary with a total amount more than 50% of the Company's latest audited net assets;
- (2) Any subsequent guarantee in addition to the aggregate of all external guarantees provided by the Company with a total amount more than 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets;
- (3) Any guarantee provided by the Company to other companies, where the amount of guarantees within one year exceeds thirty percent of the latest audited net assets;
- (4) To provide guarantee to any person or entity with a gearing ratio in excess of 70%;

Article 42 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (5) A single guarantee whose amount exceeds 10% of the latest audited net assets;
- (6) To provide guarantee for shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;
- (7) Other guarantees which shall be passed at the general meeting as prescribed by the local stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and this Articles of Association.

When the general meeting is considering a motion to provide guarantee for any shareholder, de facto controllers or their respective related parties, the said shareholder or the shareholders controlled by the said de facto controllers shall be abstained from voting on the motion, and the approval of such motion shall be subject to exceeding half of the voting rights of the other attending shareholders.

Article 61 The Company shall not, without prior approval by general meeting, enter into a contract to handover all or part of the management of important matters of the Company to a person other than to a director, supervisor, general manager, vice general manager(s) and other senior management.

Article 51 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 81 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 62 The general meetings shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. A general meeting shall be convened by the Board. Annual general meetings shall be convened once a year and shall be held within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year.

Article 52 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 43 and 44 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association Article 100 of the Company Law

The Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months upon the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (1) The number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number prescribed in this Articles of Association;
- (2) The losses of the Company that have not been made up reach one-third of the total share capital of the Company;
- (3) Shareholders who hold more than 10% of the shares of the issued voting Company require in writing an extraordinary general meeting to be convened;

- (4) Whenever the Board considers necessary or when the supervisory committee proposes a meeting;
- (5) Other circumstances prescribed by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or this Articles of Association.

Article 63 The venue of the general meeting shall be the domicile of the Company or the venue specified in the notice of the general meeting.

Article 45 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

The Company shall set the meeting venue by way of on-site meetings. In addition, the Company will provide online and other means for the convenience of participation by the shareholders. Shareholders attending the general meeting via the abovementioned methods are considered to be present at such meeting. Online voting is not applicable to the holders of H shares.

Article 64 When the Company holds a general meeting, it shall engage lawyers to provide legal opinions and prepare announcements on the following matters:

Article 46 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) Whether the procedures for convening and holding the general meeting comply with the requirements of the relevant laws, administrative regulations, and this Articles of Association;
- (2) Whether the qualifications of the attendees and the convener are legally valid;
- (3) Whether the voting procedures and results of the general meeting are legally valid;
- (4) Provide legal opinion on any other matters as may be required by the Company.

Article 65 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given twenty (20) working days before the date of the meeting, and when the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given fifteen (15) days or ten (10) working days, whichever is longer, before the date of meeting. The written notice shall notify all shareholders whose names appear in the share register of the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting.

The “working days” in the preceding paragraph refers to the days on which the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is open for business for dealing in securities.

Article 66 The contents of proposals shall fall within the scope of powers of the general meeting, have definite topics and specific matters to resolve, and conform to the Laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 53 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Article 67 Whenever the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board, the supervisory committee and shareholder(s) individually or together holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose motions in writing to the Company. The Company shall place such proposed motions on the agenda of such meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of general meetings.

Article 54 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 102 of the Company Law, Article 54 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Shareholder(s) individually or together holding more than 3% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose an extempore motion ten (10) days prior to the general meeting by submitting the same to the convener in writing. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of general meeting within two (2) days after receiving the proposed motion to notify other shareholders, and shall place such proposed motions on the agenda of such general meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of general meetings and submit to the general meeting for consideration. Where required otherwise by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall be satisfied. Shareholders shall propose motions which meet the following requirements:

- (1) The content does not infringe the law, regulations and falls within the scope of the Company's business and the functions and powers of general meetings;
- (2) With definite topics to discuss and specific matters to resolve; and
- (3) Is made in writing submitted or delivered to the Board.

Article 68 A general meeting shall not decide on matters not specified in the notice.

Article 69 Notice of the general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) Be made in writing;
- (2) Specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (3) Specify the matters to be deliberated at the meeting;
- (4) Specify the record date for the entitlement of the shareholders to attend the general meeting;

Article 56 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 56 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (5) Provide to the shareholders of the information and explanations as necessary for the shareholders to make sound decisions about the matters to be deliberated. This principle includes, but not limited to, the provision of the specific terms and contract(s), if any, of the proposed transaction(s) and sincere explanations about related causes and effects when the Company proposes merger, repurchase of shares, restructuring of share capital or other restructuring;
- (6) In the event that any of the directors, supervisors, general managers, vice general manager(s) or other senior management has material interests in matters to be deliberated, the nature and extent of the interests shall be disclosed. If the matters to be deliberated affect any director, supervisor, general manager, vice general manager(s) or other senior management as a shareholder in a manner different from how they affect other shareholders of the same class, the difference shall be explained;
- (7) Contain the full text of any special resolution to be proposed for adoption at the meeting;
- (8) Contain a conspicuous statement indicating that a shareholder who is entitled to attend and vote at the general meeting may appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote at the meeting on his or her behalf and that such proxies are not necessarily be shareholders;
- (9) Specify delivery time and place of the power of attorney for proxy voting at the meeting;
- (10) Specify the name and telephone number of the contact person for the meeting ;
- (11) Specify the voting time and voting procedure for voting on the network or otherwise.

Any notice and supplementary notice of general meetings shall sufficiently and completely disclose all contents of all motions in full. If any matter to be discussed requires opinions of the independent directors, the opinions and reasons of the independent directors shall be disclosed together with the issuance of such notice.

Article 70 Where the election of directors and supervisors are scheduled to be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall sufficiently disclose the detailed information about the director and supervisor candidate(s), including at least the following contents:

Article 57 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) personal information including education background, working experience and part-time job;
- (2) whether he is connected with the Company or its controlling shareholders and actual controller;
- (3) his shareholding in the Company;
- (4) whether he has received any punishment from the CSRC and other relevant authorities and any penalty and warning from the stock exchange.

Except the election of directors and supervisors by means of cumulative voting, election of every director and supervisor candidate shall be conducted by separate resolution.

Article 71 Unless otherwise required by the relevant laws, regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and this Articles of Association, notice of general meeting shall be served to any shareholder (whether has voting right on general meeting or not) either by hand or by post in a prepaid mail, addressed to such shareholder at his registered address as shown in the register of members, or by publication on the Company's website or other means as required by this Articles of Association. For holders of domestic shares, the notice of a general meeting may also be given by public announcement.

Articles 57 and 58 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 170 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The public announcement referred to in the preceding paragraph shall be published on the media that meets the conditions prescribed by the securities regulatory authority under the State Council before holding of the meeting. Once the announcement is published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant general meeting.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 72 After the notice of the general meeting is issued, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled, and the motions set out in such notice shall not be cancelled without valid reasons. Where a general meeting has to be postponed or cancelled, the convener shall publish a public announcement at least 2 working days before the original date of the general meeting and state the relevant reasons.

Article 58 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 73 The Board and other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the good order of the general meeting, take measures to deter any act disturbing the meeting, picking quarrels and provoking troubles or infringing the lawful rights and interests of any shareholder, and shall report in a timely manner such act to the relevant authority for investigation and punishment.

Article 59 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 74 All ordinary shareholders or their authorized proxies in the register of shareholders on the share registration date shall have the right to attend the general meeting and exercise their voting rights in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and this Articles of Association. A shareholder may attend and vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting of shareholders.

Article 59 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 60 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at a general meeting shall have the right to appoint one (1) or more persons (who may not be a shareholder) as his proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. Such proxies may exercise the following rights as entrusted by the shareholder:

- (1) The shareholder’s right to speak at the general meeting;
- (2) The right to demand by himself or jointly with others, to make a resolution by voting;
- (3) Unless otherwise provided in the applicable listing rules or other securities laws and regulations, the right to vote may be exercised either by a show of hands or on a poll, except that if a shareholder has appointed more than one (1) proxy, such proxies may only exercise their voting rights on a poll.

Article 75 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointing shareholder or his duly authorized proxy in writing; where the appointing shareholder is a legal entity, such instrument shall be under its seal or under the hand of its director or duly authorized proxy. Such instrument shall contain:

Article 60 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 62 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- 1. Name of the proxy;
- 2. Whether the proxy has voting rights;
- 3. Indication of consent, objection or abstention concerning each proposal on the shareholders’ general meeting agenda;
- 4. Date of signing of the authorization letter and validity period;
- 5. Signature (or chop) of the appointing shareholder. If the appointing shareholder is a corporate shareholder, it should add the chop of the legal person.

Article 76 The instrument appointing a voting proxy shall be placed at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting 24 hours before the convening of the relevant meeting at which the proxy is authorized to vote or 24 hours before the designated time of voting. Where the instrument is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the authorization letter or other document authorizing the signatory shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorization document shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

Article 61 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 64 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If the entrusting party is a legal entity, its legal representative or any representative authorized by the Board or by other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company on its behalf.

If a shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its agent, it may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as it thinks fit to act as its proxy(ies) at any general meeting or any class meeting. However, if more than one (1) proxies are appointed, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such persons under the authorization, and signed by authorized persons of recognized clearing house. Such authorized persons may attend meeting on behalf of the recognized clearing house or its agent (without presentation of evidence of its shareholding, notarized authorization and/or any further proof demonstrating the duly granting of the same) and exercise the right of the recognized clearing house or its agent, as if they were individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 77 Any form issued by the Board of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast vote in favor of or against on each resolution and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give instructions, the proxy shall vote at his own discretion.

Article 62 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 61 and 63 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

An individual shareholder who attends the general meeting in person shall produce his identification documents or other valid document or certificate which can prove his identity and his stock account card. Where a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his own identification documents and the proxy form.

A legal person shareholder shall attend the meeting by its authorized representative or the attorney as appointed by such authorized representative. An authorized representative who attends the general meeting in person shall produce his identification documents, valid certificate which can prove his identity. Where an attorney is appointed to attend the meeting, the attorney shall produce his own identification documents and the relevant power of attorney executed by such authorized representative pursuant to the laws.

Article 78 Where the entrusting party has deceased, incapacitated to act, withdrawn the appointment or the signed power of attorney, or the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the instrument of proxy shall remain valid as long as the Company did not receive a written notice of the event before the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 63 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 79 The Company shall prepare a log book to record the parties attending the general meeting. The log book shall set out the name of the person or unit attending the meeting, their identification document numbers, resident address, the number of voting shares they have and the name of the principals or unit.

Article 65 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 80 The convener and the legal advisers retained by the Company shall jointly verify the eligibility of the shareholders to vote based on the Company's shareholder register provided by the securities registration and clearing authority and shall register the name of the shareholders together with the numbers of voting shares they have. Registration shall come to a close before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who are entitled to vote.

Article 66 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 81 All directors, supervisors and the Secretary to the Board shall be present at general meetings, and the managers and other senior management members shall be in attendance at the meetings.

Article 67 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 82 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedures for general meetings, which stipulate procedures for convening general meetings and voting procedures, including the notice, registration, consideration of proposed motions, voting, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of meeting resolutions, keeping and signing of meeting minutes, and announcement, as well as the authorization principle by the general meetings to the Board and the specific powers so authorized. The rules of procedures for general meetings shall constitute an appendix to the Article of Association, which shall be proposed by the Board and approved by the general meeting.

Article 69 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 83 At the annual general meeting, the Board and the supervisory committee shall make report on their works in the past year to the general meeting. Each independent director shall also make work report.

Article 70 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 84 The directors, supervisors and senior management members shall make explanation and interpretation on the inquiry and suggestions of the shareholders at the general meeting.

Article 71 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 85 The meeting presider shall declare the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of shares with voting rights they hold before voting. To determine the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of shares with voting rights they hold, the meeting register shall prevail.

Article 72 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 86 The conveners shall ensure the continuation of the general meeting, till the final resolution is made. If the general meeting is suspended or the resolution cannot be made due to force majeure or other special cause, necessary measures shall be taken to restore the general meeting or directly terminate the general meeting, and public announcement shall be made in time. Meanwhile, the convener shall report to the local office of the CSRC at the place where the Company is situated and the relevant stock exchange.

Article 75 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 87 Resolutions of the general meeting include ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Article 64 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 103 of the Company Law, Article 76 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Ordinary resolution at a general meeting shall be passed by exceeding half of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the general meeting.

Special resolution at a general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the general meeting.

Article 88 Shares held by the Company do not carry voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a general meeting. When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares that they represent. Each share shall carry one voting right.

Article 65 of the Mandatory Provisions, Rule 14 of Appendix 3 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Articles 79 and 80 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

When material issues affecting the interests of small and medium investors are being considered at the general meeting, the votes of such investors shall be counted separately. The separate counting results shall be promptly and publicly disclosed.

Shareholders who purchase the voting shares of the Company in violation of Clause 1 and Clause 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law shall not exercise the voting right of the shares that exceed the prescribed ratio within 36 months after purchasing them, and such number shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders attending a general meeting.

The Board, independent directors and shareholders holding 1% or more shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of CSRC may publicly solicit voting rights from the shareholders. When soliciting voting rights from the shareholders, information such as specific voting intentions should be fully disclosed to the shareholders being solicited. Soliciting voting rights from the shareholders with compensation or disguised compensation is prohibited. Save for statutory conditions, the Company shall not set a lowest shareholding percentage when soliciting the shareholder voting rights.

When considering related transactions during the general meeting, the related shareholders must not participate in the voting, and the number of shares with voting rights represented by him/ her shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. The announcement on the resolutions shall fully disclose the voting of the non-related shareholders.

In accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company’s shares are listed, where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution, or is restricted to vote only for or against such resolution, any votes in violation of such requirement or restriction by the shareholders (or their proxies) shall not be counted.

Article 89 Voting at the general meeting shall be conducted by poll with registration.

Article 86 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association Article 89 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 90 Shareholders who attend the general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a proposal is put forward for voting: for, against or abstain, except for the securities registration and settlement institutions which, being the nominal holders of shares under Stock Connect between the Mainland and Hong Kong, shall make declarations according to the intentions of the beneficial holders.

For voters whose voting slips are left blank, incorrectly completed, illegible or without vote casting, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights, and the votes in respect of the number of shares held by him shall be counted as “abstain”.

Article 91 A resolution put to vote at the general meeting of the Company shall be decided on a poll, save that the chairman of the meeting, may in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative issue to be decided on a show of hands, subject to compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 66 of the Mandatory Provisions, Rule 13.39(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

Article 92 Where a resolution is voted by a show of hands as permitted under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.

Article 66 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 93 A poll demanded on the election of the chairman of the meeting, or on adjournment of the meeting, shall be taken forthwith. A poll demanded on any other issues shall be taken at such time as the chairman of the meeting directs, and any matter other than that upon which a poll has been demanded may proceed with, pending the taking of the poll. The result of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

Article 67 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 94 When a poll is taken at a meeting, a shareholder (including his proxy) who has the right to two (2) or more votes need not cast all his votes in the same way.

Article 68 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Resolutions shall be voted one by one by a poll at a general meeting.

Article 95 When the number of votes for and against a resolution is equal, whether the vote is taken by a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to one additional vote.

Article 69 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 96 The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolutions at a general meeting:

Article 70 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 77 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) Work reports of the Board and the supervisory committee;
- (2) Profit distribution plan and loss make-up plan formulated by the Board;
- (3) Appointment or dismissal of the members of the Board and the members of the supervisory committee and their remuneration and payment methods thereof;
- (4) Annual preliminary and final budgets, balance sheet, profit statement and other financial statements of the Company;
- (5) Matters other than those requiring approval by special resolutions in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the stock exchange on which our shares are listed or this Articles of Association.

Article 97 The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at a general meeting:

- (1) Increase or reduction of the share capital, repurchase of the shares of the Company and issue of shares of any class, stock warrants or other similar securities of the Company;
- (2) Issuance of corporate bonds;
- (3) Division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation, voluntary winding-up or change in the form of the Company;
- (4) Amendments to this Articles of Association;
- (5) Any purchase or disposal of substantial assets made or guarantee provided by the Company within one (1) year, the amount of which exceeds 30% of the total assets as presented in the latest audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
- (6) Share incentive scheme;
- (7) Any other matters as required by the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed or this Articles of Association and matters which, if resolved by way of an ordinary resolution at general meeting, will have a material impact on the Company and need be adopted by way of special resolutions.

The resolution on spin-off and listing of its subsidiaries, in addition to being required to be passed by more than two-thirds of voting rights held by shareholders present at the general meeting, requires also the approval of more than two-thirds of voting rights held by other shareholders present at the meeting excluding the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management and shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 5% of the Company's shares.

Article 98 Independent directors are entitled to propose to the Board to convene extraordinary general meetings. Concerning the above request, the Board shall, in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, response in writing as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be dispatched within 5 days after the resolution has been adopted by the Board. If the Board refuses to hold an extraordinary meeting, it shall publicly announce the reasons.

Article 99 The supervisory committee is entitled to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, response in writing as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be dispatched within 5 days after the resolution has been adopted by the Board. Changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the supervisory committee.

Article 71 of the Mandatory Provisions
Article 78 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Rule 21 of Appendix 3 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

Article 47 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 48 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If the Board refuses to hold an extraordinary general meeting, or gives no response within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal, the Board shall be deemed to be unable or to have failed to perform its duties and responsibilities of convening the general meeting, and the supervisory committee may hold and preside over such meeting by itself.

Article 100 Shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold more than 10% of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held requesting the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different classes shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

Article 72 of
the Mandatory
Provisions
Article 49 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) Two or more shareholders holding a total of more than 10% of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting and stating the subject of the meeting. The Board shall make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting within ten (10) days after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the date on which the written request is made by shareholder(s).
- (2) If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, it shall issue the notice of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting in 5 days after making the resolution of the Board. If there is any change to the original proposal in the notice, it shall be approved by the relevant shareholder.
- (3) If the Board disapproves the proposal to convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, or fails to provide a response in 10 days after receiving the request, shareholders shall be entitled to propose to the supervisory committee in writing for the purpose of convening the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting.
- (4) If the supervisory committee approves the convening of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, it shall issue a notice thereof within 5 days of receipt of said request, provided that any changes made in such notice to the original proposal shall be subject to prior consent from the relevant shareholder.

- (5) If no notice is issued by the supervisory committee of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting within the stipulated period, the supervisory committee shall be deemed to have failed to convene and chair the general meeting, in which case the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for consecutive 90 days may convene and chair such meeting on their own. The procedures according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which general meetings are to be convened by the Board. The shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders before the announcement of the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting shall not be under 10%.

Article 101 In the event that the supervisory committee or shareholders convenes a general meeting by themselves, they shall notify the Board in writing and lodge a filing with the stock exchange(s).

Article 73 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 50 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

The supervisory committee or convening shareholders shall submit the relevant evidentiary materials to the stock exchange(s) when the notice of shareholders' general meeting and the announcement of the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting are issued.

The Board and the secretary to the Board shall cooperate with regard to such meeting and the Board shall provide the register of members as of the record day.

All necessary expenses for the meeting convened by shareholders or the supervisory committee shall be borne by the Company and shall be set off against sums owed by the Company to the directors in default.

Article 102 A general meeting shall be convened by the Board, and presided over and chaired by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting for reasons, the Board may designate a director to convene and take the chair of the meeting in his stead. If no chairman of the meeting has been designated, shareholders present shall choose one (1) person to be the chairman of the meeting. Where the shareholders fail to elect a chairman for any reasons, the shareholder (including his proxy) presents in person or by proxy who holds the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 73 of
the Mandatory
Provisions
Article 102 of
the Company
Law, Article
68 of the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

If a general meeting is convened by the supervisory committee, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside over the meeting. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable to or will not discharge his duties, more than half of the supervisors shall nominate a supervisor to preside over the meeting.

If a general meeting is convened by the shareholders themselves, the convener will nominate a representative to conduct the meeting.

In a general meeting, if the chairman of the meeting contravenes the meeting procedures, making the meeting impossible to proceed, with consent from exceeding half of the attendant shareholders with voting rights, the shareholders may nominate one person to serve as the chairman of the meeting and continue with the meeting.

Article 103 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be submitted to general meetings for voting by way of a motion.

Article 105 of the Company Law, Articles 82 and 83 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

When a voting is made on the election of directors or supervisors at a general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be adopted in accordance with the provisions of this Articles of Association or the resolutions of the general meeting.

The “cumulative voting system” as mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that each share shall have the same voting right as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and the voting right held by the shareholders may be used collectively when the directors or supervisors are elected at the general meeting. The Board shall simultaneously provide shareholders with the biographical details and basic information about the candidates for directors and supervisors.

Save and except for the cumulative voting system, the general meeting shall vote on all motions item by item, and shall vote on the motions in time sequence when various proposals are put forward for a single matter. Unless the general meeting is adjourned or is prevented from making resolutions due to force majeure or other extraordinary reasons, the general meeting shall not delay in voting on, or fail to vote on any proposal.

Article 104 Proposals shall not be modified when being reviewed by the general meeting. Otherwise, any modification shall be deemed to be a new proposal and shall not be put to vote at such general meeting.

Article 84 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 105 One single vote may be cast only once by using one single method of voting, being on-site voting, or online voting, or another method of voting. If one single vote has been cast multiple times, the vote of the first time shall govern.

Article 85 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 106 Before the general meeting votes on a proposal, two shareholders shall be elected as representatives to join in the vote calculation and supervision. Where any matter to be reviewed has shown connected relationship with any shareholder, such shareholder and its proxy shall not join in the vote calculation and supervision.

Article 87 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

When the general meeting votes on a proposal, the lawyers, shareholders' representatives and supervisors' representatives shall jointly take charge of vote calculation and supervision and announce the voting results on site. The voting results of the resolutions shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Shareholders or their proxies who vote online or by means of another method shall have the right to inspect and verify their own voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 107 The conclusion time of the on-site general meeting shall not occur earlier than its counterpart in the online form or in another form; and the chairman of the meeting shall announce the particulars and result of the votes cast on each proposal and declare, on the basis of such voting results, if the relevant proposal(s) have been passed.

Article 88 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Until the formal announcement of the voting results, the companies, vote counters, scrutineers, substantial shareholders, internet service providers and other related parties involved in the on-site, online and other voting methods are obligated to maintain in confidence the particulars of the vote.

Article 108 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the voting result of a resolution, he may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting fails to count the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who dissent from the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall immediately count the votes.

Article 75 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 90 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 109 Minutes of the general meeting shall be taken by the secretary of the Board. The minutes shall state the following contents:

Article 107 of the Company Law, Article 76 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 73 and 74 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) Time, venue and agenda of the meeting and name or title of the convener;
- (2) The name of the chairman of the meeting and the names of the directors, supervisors, managers and other senior management attending or present at the meeting;
- (3) The numbers of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, number of voting shares they represent and the percentages of the voting shares held by them to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) The process of review and discussion, summary of any speech and voting results of each proposal;
- (5) Shareholders' questions, opinions or suggestions and corresponding answers or explanations;

- (6) Names of the lawyers, the vote-counter and the scrutineer(s);
- (7) The contents to be included as specified in this Articles of Association.

If counting of votes is held at a general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

The minutes of meeting and the attendance record of attendants signed by the attending shareholders and proxies together with authorization letters shall be kept at the Company's domicile.

The convener shall warrant that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, supervisors, secretary of the Board, convener or their representatives and the presider of the meeting shall sign the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the signature register of shareholders attending the meeting in person and proxy forms and valid materials relating to voting through internet or otherwise for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 110 The resolution made at the general meeting shall be announced betimes. The number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares in their possession, the proportion of their voting shares in the total voting shares of the Company, the voting mode, the voting result of each motion, and the details of each approved resolution shall be specified in the announcement.

Article 91 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 111 If the motion is not approved or the resolution made at the previous general meeting is amended at that meeting, the special prompt shall be provided in the announcement of general meeting's resolution.

- (11) Restructuring of the Company which causes shareholders of different classes to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring;
- (12) Any amendment or cancellation of the provisions of this section.

Article 117 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at general meeting, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) in Article 116, except that interested shareholders shall not vote at class meetings.

Article 81 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

The term “interested shareholders” in the preceding paragraph shall have the following meanings:

- (1) If the Company has made a tender offer to all shareholders in the same proportion or has bought back its own shares through open market transactions on a stock exchange in accordance with Article 29 hereof, the controlling shareholders as defined in Article 57 in this Articles of Association shall be “interested shareholders”;
- (2) If the Company has bought back its own shares by an agreement outside of a stock exchange in accordance with Article 29 hereof, holders of shares in relation to such agreement shall be “interested shareholders”;

- (3) Under a restructuring proposal of the Company, shareholders who will bear liability in a proportion smaller than that of the liability borne by other shareholders of the same class, or shareholders who have an interest in a restructuring proposal of the Company that is different from the interest in such restructuring proposal of other shareholders of the same class shall be “interested shareholders”.

Article 118 Resolutions of a class meeting may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that class represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 117.

Article 82 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

Article 119 When the Company is to hold a class meeting, it shall issue a written notice with reference to the requirements of Article 65 of the Articles of Association on the notice period for convening a general meeting, informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting.

Article 120 The notice of class meeting of shareholders shall be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

Article 84 of
the Mandatory
Provisions

The procedure for a class meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedure for a general meeting. Provisions of this Articles of Association relevant to the procedure for the holding of a general meeting shall be applicable to a class meeting.

Article 121 In addition to holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

Article 85 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Paragraph f of section 1 of Part
D of Appendix
13 to the Hong Kong Listing
Rules

The special procedure for voting by class shareholders shall not apply under the following circumstances:

- (1) Where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares, upon approval by a special resolution of its shareholders at a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every 12 months, not exceeding 20% of each of the existing issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company;

- (2) Where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares upon its incorporation is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council; or
- (3) Where with the approval by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council the shareholders who hold the unlisted shares of the Company cause these shares held by them to be listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange.

Chapter 10 Board of Directors

Article 122 The Company shall set up a board of directors. The Board shall consist of 5 to 19 directors with one (1) chairman but no vice chairman. Of which, external directors (hereinafter referred to directors who do not hold any office within the Company) shall represent at least one half of the total number of directors of the Board and independent non-executive directors shall represent at least one-third of the total number of directors and shall have at least three (3) members.

Article 86 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 106 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 123 Directors shall be elected or replaced at the general meeting and may be removed before the expiry of the term at the general meeting. Every term of a director is three (3) years, and upon expiry of the term, a director shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

Article 87 of the Mandatory Provisions, Paragraph 4(3) of Appendix 3 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Articles 96, 99, 100 and 104 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Article 45 of the Company Law

The term of office of a director commences from the date he takes up the appointment, until the current term of office of board of directors expires. If the term of office of a director expires but re-election is not made forthwith, the resigning director shall continue to carry out his duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, department regulations and this Articles of Association before the elected director takes office.

Managers or other senior management may serve concurrently as directors. However, the total number of directors serving the office of manager or other senior management concurrently and staff representative holding the office of director shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Directors candidates shall be nominated by the Board, the supervisory committee or the shareholders who hold nomination right and elected by the general meeting. The written notice of the intention to propose a candidate for election as a director, and the notice of acceptance by such candidate of his willingness to be nominated shall be served to the Company no less than seven (7) days prior to the date of convening the meeting. Such seven-day period shall commence no earlier than the second day after the issue of the notice of the meeting at which such election shall be conducted and end no later than seven (7) days prior to the convening of the general meeting. The Company will fully disclose the biographical details, reasons for election and views of candidates on nomination in the notice of general meeting.

The chairman shall be elected or dismissed by exceeding half of all directors. Every term of the chairman is three (3) years. Upon expiry of the term, the chairman shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

Subject to the compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his term of office without prejudice to the director's right as provided in any contracts to claim for damages arising from his removal.

If any director fails to attend in person or entrust other directors as his representative to attend meetings of the Board for two consecutive times, such director shall be deemed to have failed to perform his duties, and the Board or the supervisory committee shall propose to replace such director at the general meeting.

Prior to the expiry of the term of office of a director, a new director shall be elected on a timely basis at a general meeting. If the term of office of a director expires but re-election is not made forthwith, or the number of the directors fall below the minimum requirement as stipulated by this Articles of Association due to a director's resignation, the resigning director shall continue to carry out his duties in accordance with the laws, regulations and this Articles of Association before the elected director takes office.

A director may resign before expiry of his term of service. When a director resigns, he shall submit a written resignation notice to the Board. The Board will disclose the relevant information within two days.

Save for the circumstances in relation to the number of directors is less than the minimum requirement as required by law due to a director's resignation as referred to in this articles, the director's resignation takes effect upon delivery of his resignation report to the Board. If the number of the directors of the Board falls below the quorum as a result of any resignation, such resignation shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a succeeding director. The remaining directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by the said resignation. Such newly elected director or any person appointed as an additional director to the Board, shall have a term of office commencing from the date on which he is elected until the expiry of the term of the current session of the Board, and shall then be eligible for re-election at the meeting.

Independent directors of the Company shall have the requisite professional knowledge and experience, and shall be able to represent the benefits of all shareholders. At least one independent director shall ordinarily reside in Hong Kong.

Independent directors shall have the sufficient time and requisite knowledge and capabilities to perform their duties. The Company shall be responsible to provide necessary information to the independent directors for performing their duties. Of which, independent directors may directly report to the general meeting, the China Securities Regulatory Commission and other relevant authorities. Save as stipulated otherwise in this section, the requirement of a director’s qualification and duties under Chapter 14 of this Articles of Association is applicable to independent directors. The term of independent directors of the Company shall not exceed 6 years on a consecutive basis, unless otherwise provided by the law, regulations and listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company’s share are listed.

A director is not required to hold any shares in the Company.

Article 124 Where the resign of a director takes effect or the term of office of a director comes to expiration, the director shall conduct all the handover procedures with the Board. The director is still not free from the duty of loyalty to the Company and shareholders, which will not be certainly lifted upon the expiration of the term and remains effective during the reasonable period specified in this Articles of Association.

Article 101 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 125 Any director shall not act in his own name on behalf of the Company or the Board, without the legitimate authorization of this Articles of Association or the Board. Where a director acts in his own name, in case the third party shall reasonably believe he is on behalf of the Company or the Board, the director shall state his position and identity in advance.

Article 102 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 126 Where a director violates laws, administrative regulations, department regulations or this Articles of Association in performance of his duties to the Company, and thus causes losses to the Company, he or she shall be liable for compensation.

Article 103 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Article 149 of the Company Law

Article 127 Independent non-executive directors are directors who do not hold any position in the Company other than as director, member or chairman of the special committee of the Board and do not maintain with the Company or its substantial shareholders a connection which may possibly hamper their independent and objective judgments.

Independent non-executive directors must make up at least a third of the Board and must consist of at least three members. The Company shall have at least one independent non-executive director who shall have relevant professional qualifications or have professional specialty in audit or related financial management and shall have at least one independent non-executive director who lives in Hong Kong.

An independent non-executive director shall meet the qualifications and requirements on independence as stipulated in laws, regulations and the Listing Rules.

If at any time the Company's independent non-executive director does not comply with the number, qualifications requirements as stipulated in the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the Company shall notify the Hong Kong Stock Exchange responsively, give relevant details and reasons in the form of public announcements, and appoint enough independent non-executive directors to meet the requirements of the Hong Kong Listing Rules within three months after the said incompliance.

Independent non-executive directors may directly report to the general meeting, the China Securities Regulatory Commission and other relevant authorities.

Article 128 The Board is accountable to the general meetings, and shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) To be responsible for the convening of general meetings and report its work to the general meetings;
- (2) To implement resolutions of the general meetings;

to Articles of
Association

- (I) Profit distribution principles: The Company adopts consistent and stable profit distribution policies, which should emphasize on investors' reasonable investment return while maintaining sustainable development of the Company, but the profit distribution shall not exceed the range of the accumulated distributable profits or damage the Company's ability to continue operations.
- (II) Form of the profit distribution: The Company may distribute profit in the form of cash, shares, or by the combination of cash and shares, and shall adopt cash distribution as the prioritised mean to distribute profit provided that the conditions for cash distribution are satisfied.
- (III) Cash distribution interval
1. The Company must make profit distribution at least once a year, provided that the Company records profit for the year with positive accumulative profit undistributed.
 2. The Company may make interim profit distribution. The Board may propose to declare interim dividend according to the current profit scale, cash flows, development stage and capital needs.

(IV) The Board shall propose differentiated cash dividend policies according to the procedures as set out in the Articles of the Association by considering the following different circumstances after taking into full consideration the characteristics of the industry in which the Company operates, its stage of development, its business model, profitability and whether there are any arrangements for significant capital expenses:

- (1) If the Company is at mature stage and there are no arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 80% of the total profit to be distributed;
- (2) If the Company is at mature stage and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 40% of the total profit to be distributed;
- (3) If the Company is at growth stage and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 20% of the total profit to be distributed;

If the stage of development of the Company is difficult to identify and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, the preceding provision shall apply.

The specific conditions for the cash dividend distribution are as follows:

- (1) Positive figures are recorded for the distributable profits of the Company (i.e. the remaining after-tax profits after the Company has covered loss and has extracted statutory reserve fund) during the preceding financial year;
- (2) A standard unqualified audit report is issued by an auditor for the financial report of the Company during the preceding financial year.

If the Company recorded negative distributable profits for the preceding financial year or the auditor issued non-standard qualified audit report, the Company shall not distribute cash dividends during that year.

- (3) The Company has no such events as major investment plans or significant cash expenditures (excluding fund-raising projects).

Significant investment plans or significant cash expenditures refer to: the accumulated expenses for proposed external investment, acquisition of assets or purchase of equipment by the Company in the coming twelve months amount to or exceed 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company and are more than RMB50 million.

(V) Conditions for distributing scrip dividends : When the Company has a good business operation and the Board believes that the distribution of scrip dividends will be in the interests of the Shareholders of the Company as a whole, the Company may propose a plan for distribution of scrip dividends, provided that there are sufficient cash for dividend distribution. In distributing profit by way of scrip dividend, true and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution to net assets per share shall be taken into account.

(VI) If there is any misappropriation of the Company's capital by any shareholder of the Company, the Company shall deduct the cash dividends allocated to such shareholder in order to repay the amount of misappropriated capital.

Article 198 Conditions, Decision-making Procedure and Mechanism for Adjusting the Profit Distribution Policy:

Article 153 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

(I) Conditions for adjusting the profit distribution policy

1. The profit distribution policy shall be adjusted when the state or the competent authorities promulgate new laws, regulations or regulatory rules in relation to the profit distribution policy of the listed companies.
2. The Company may make any adjustment to the profit distribution policy based on the actual circumstance when there are material changes in the external operating environment or the operation of the Company. The above material changes in the external operating environment or the operation of the Company refer to the significant adverse effect on the operation of the Company as a result of the changes in the market, policy or macroeconomy environment where the Company operates.

(II) Decision-making Procedure for Adjusting the Profit Distribution Policy

The Board shall take full consideration of the opinions of the independent directors and the minority shareholders during the process of studying and demonstrating the adjustment of the profit distribution policy. When considering and passing the adjustment of profit distribution policy, the Board shall obtain approval from the majority of all directors and more than half of the independent directors. If there are adjustments or amendments to the profit distribution policy as set out in the Articles of Association, the Board should consider and passed the same before submitting to the general meeting for consideration and approval, and the Company can provide the voting platform in the form of network for the convenience of the shareholders to attend the general meeting. The Company shall take the right protection of the shareholders as the starting point, and give detailed demonstration and explain reasons in the proposal of the general meeting. The passing of the adjustment or amendments to the profit distribution policy at the general meeting shall be subject to the approval from two thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the general meeting.

If the Company adjusts the profit distribution policy according to the production and operation conditions, investment plans and the long-term needs, the adjusted profit distribution policy shall not be in breach of the relevant requirements of the stock exchanges where the shares are listed.

Article 199 The Board may, for the interests of the Company, invest the dividend which is unclaimed for one year after the date on which the dividend is declared by the Company or apply such dividend for other purposes. Subject to relevant laws and regulations of the PRC, the Company may exercise power to confiscate the dividends which nobody has claimed only after the expiry of the relevant applicable limitation period.

Article 200 The Company shall appoint receiving agents in Hong Kong on behalf of the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares to receive and keep on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed by the Company in respect of overseas-listed foreign shares and other payables, and make payment to such shareholders.

Article 140 of the Mandatory Provisions, Rule 19A.51 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of the stock exchange.

The receiving agents appointed by the Company for holders of foreign shares listed in Hong Kong shall be a trust company registered under the Trustee Ordinance of Hong Kong.

Article 201 The Company shall implement its internal audit system with professional auditors to carry out internal audit supervision to the financial and economic activities of the Company. The system of the internal audit and the duties of such auditors shall be implemented after the approval of the Board. The responsible auditor shall be responsible for and report to the Board.

Articles 157 and 158 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Chapter 16 Engagement of Accounting Firms

Article 202 The Company shall engage an independent accounting firm that complies with relevant PRC regulations to audit the annual and other financial reports of the Company.

Article 141 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 159 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The first accounting firm of the Company may be appointed by the inaugural meeting prior to the first annual general meeting. Such accounting firm shall hold office until the conclusion of the first annual general meeting.

If the Company's inaugural meeting does not exercise its power under the preceding paragraph, the Board shall exercise such power.

Article 203 The term of engagement of an accounting firm shall start from the conclusion of the annual general meeting and end upon the conclusion of the next annual general meeting.

Article 142 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 204 An accounting firm engaged by the Company shall have the following rights:

Article 143 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 161 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) The right of access at any time to the account books, records or vouchers of the Company and the right to require the directors, general manager, vice general manager(s) or other senior management of the Company to provide the relevant information and explanations;
- (2) The right to require the Company to take all reasonable measures to obtain from its subsidiaries the information and explanations necessary for the accounting firm to perform its duties;
- (3) The right to attend general meetings, receive a notice or other information concerning any meetings which shareholders have a right to receive, and to be heard at any general meetings on any matter which relates to it as the accounting firm of the Company.

The Company shall ensure the provision of true and complete accounting evidence, books of account, financial and accounting reports and other accounting data to the accounting firm engaged by it, and no refusal, withholding and false information are allowed.

Article 205 If the position of accounting firm becomes vacant, the Board may appoint an accounting firm to fill such vacancy before a general meeting is held. However, if there are other accounting firms holding the position of accounting firm of the Company while such vacancy still exists, such accounting firms shall continue to act.

Article 144 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 206 The general meeting may, by means of an ordinary resolution, dismiss any accounting firm prior to the expiration of its term of appointment, notwithstanding anything in the contract between the accounting firm and the Company, but without prejudice to such accounting firm's right, if any, to claim damages from the Company in respect of such dismissal.

Article 145 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 207 The amount of remuneration of an accounting firm and the manner in which the remuneration is determined shall be decided upon by the general meeting. The amount of remuneration of the accounting firm appointed by the Board shall be decided upon by the Board.

Article 146 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 162 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 208 The appointment, dismissal or non-reappointment of an accounting firm by the Company shall be decided upon by the general meeting and reported to the competent securities authorities under the State Council for filing.

Where it is proposed that any resolution be passed at a general meeting to appoint a non-incumbent accounting firm to fill any vacancy of the position of the accounting firm, or to reappoint an accounting firm that is appointed by the Board for filling the vacancy or to dismiss an accounting firm before the expiry of its term of office, the following provisions shall apply:

- (1) Before dispatch of the general meeting notice, a copy of the proposal on the appointment or dismissal shall be delivered to the accounting firm proposed to be appointed or proposing to leave its post or the firm which has left its post in the relevant financial year.

Leaving includes leaving by removal, resignation and retirement.

- (2) If the accounting firm leaving its post makes representations in writing and requests the Company to notify the shareholders of such representations, the Company shall (unless the representations are received too late):
 - (i) In any notice of the resolution given to shareholders, state the fact of the representations having been made by the accounting firm leaving its post;
 - (ii) Attach a copy of the representations to the notice and deliver it to the shareholders in the manner stipulated in this Articles of Association.
- (3) If the Company fails to deliver the accounting firm's representations in accordance with the provisions in paragraph (2) of this article, the accounting firm may require that the representations be read out at the general meeting and take further legal actions.
- (4) An accounting firm which is leaving its post shall be entitled to attend:
 - (i) The general meeting at which its term of office would otherwise have expired;
 - (ii) Any general meeting at which it is proposed to fill the vacancy caused by its dismissal;
 - (iii) Any general meeting convened on its resignation; and to receive all notices of, and other communications relating to, any such meeting, and to be heard at any such meeting which it attends on any part of the business of the meeting which concerns it as former accounting firm of the Company.

Article 209 Where the Company dismisses or does not reappoint an accounting firm, it shall notify the accounting firm in advance. The accounting firm is entitled to present its views to the general meeting. Where an accounting firm proposes its resignation, it shall explain to the general meeting whether there are any irregularities in the Company.

An accounting firm may resign by depositing its written notice of resignation to the legal address of the Company. The notice shall come into effect as of the date when the notice is deposited in the legal address of the Company or any later date stated in the notice. The notice shall include following:

- (i) a statement to the effect that there are no circumstances connected with its resignation which it considers should be brought to the notice of the shareholders or creditors of the Company; or
- (ii) a statement of any circumstance that needs to be explained.

Where a written notice is deposited under the preceding paragraph, the Company shall within 14 days send a copy of the notice to the competent authority. If the notice contains a statement under sub-paragraph (ii) of the preceding paragraph, a copy of such statement shall be placed at the Company for shareholders' inspection. The Company shall also send a copy of the aforesaid statement by prepaid mail to every holder of overseas-listed foreign shares at the address shown in the register of members.

Where the accounting firm's notice of resignation contains a statement of any circumstances that needs to be explained, the accounting firm may require the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting for the purpose of receiving an explanation of the circumstances connected with its resignation.

Chapter 17 Merger and Division of the Company

Article 210 The merger or division of the Company shall require the preparation of a proposal by the Board of the Company. After such proposal has been adopted in accordance with the procedures specified in this Articles of Association, relevant examination and approval procedures shall be carried out according to laws. Shareholders that oppose such proposal on the merger or division of the Company shall have the right to require the Company or shareholders that agree to such proposal to purchase their shares at a fair price. The contents of the Company's resolutions on merger or division shall be compiled in a special document for inspection by shareholders.

For holders of H shares, the aforesaid documents shall also be served by post at the address shown in the register of members.

Article 148 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 10 of the Letter of Opinions on Supplements and Amendments to the Articles of Association of Companies Listed in Hong Kong, Paragraphs (e) (ii) to (iv) of Section I of Part D of Appendix 13 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Article 163 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 149 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 211 The merger of the Company may be effected by way of absorption or new establishment.

Article 150 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 172, 173 and 174 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

A company that absorbs other company is known as merger by absorption whereby the company being absorbed shall be dissolved. The merger of two or more companies by the establishment of a new company is known as merger by the establishment of a new company whereby the merged companies shall be dissolved.

As for a merger, the parties to the merger shall conclude an agreement and prepare balance sheets and checklists of properties. The Company shall inform creditors of the merger within 10 days from the date when the merger resolution is passed, and make at least three (3) announcements of the merger on newspapers within 30 days from the date when the merger resolution is passed. Within 30 days after receipt of the notices or (for those who have not received the notices) within 45 days after publication of the announcement, the creditors are entitled to require the Company to settle the debts or to provide corresponding guarantees.

After the merger of the Company, the credits and debts of all the parties thereto will be inherited by the continuing company or the newly formed company after the merger.

Article 212 In case of a division, the Company’s properties shall be divided accordingly.

Article 151 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 175 and 176 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

In case of a division of the Company, all the parties involved therein shall sign an agreement on the division, and prepare balance sheets and checklists of properties. The Company shall inform the creditors within 10 days after the date of making the resolution for such division, and make at least three (3) announcements on newspapers within 30 days as required by the applicable laws, administrative regulations or the regulatory provisions of the place where the Company’s shares are listed.

Debts incurred by the Company before its division shall be borne by the company which exists after the division according to the agreement reached, except otherwise prescribed when the Company has reached a written agreement on debt settlement with the creditors before the division.

Article 213 Where any of the registered items is changed during the process of merger or division, the Company shall go through modification registration with the company registration authority according to the law. If the Company is dissolved, it shall be deregistered according to the law. If a new company is established, it shall go through the procedures for company establishment according to the law.

Article 152 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 178 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Chapter 18 Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article 214 The Company shall be dissolved and liquidated according to the law under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) The business term of the Company set out in the Articles of Association expires, or other events which triggers the dissolution of the Company occurs;
- (2) The general meeting decides to dissolve it;
- (3) It needs to be dissolved due to merger or division of the Company;
- (4) The Company is declared bankrupt according to the law for being unable to pay its due debts;
- (5) The Company's business licence is revoked or it is ordered to close down or it is deregistered according to laws;
- (6) If the Company gets into serious trouble in operations and management and continual operation may incur material losses of the interests of the shareholders, and no solution can be found through any other channel, the shareholders holding more than 10% of the total voting rights of the Company may request the people's court to dissolve the Company.

Article 153 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 180 of the Company Law, Article 179 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 215 Upon the occurrence of the situation mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the Company may continue to exist by amending the Articles of Association.

Article 154 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 181 and 188 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The amendment to the Articles of Association pursuant to the preceding Article shall be subject to the approval of more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meetings.

Where the Company is dissolved according to the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1), (2), (5) and (6) of the preceding Article, a liquidation committee shall be formed within 15 days and the members of which shall be appointed by way of ordinary resolution at a general meeting. If a liquidation committee is not established within the stipulated period, the creditors can apply to the people's court, requesting the court to appoint relevant personnel to form the liquidation committee to carry out liquidation work. If the Company is dissolved according to the provisions of sub-paragraph (4) of the preceding Article, the bankruptcy liquidation shall be carried out in accordance with the laws relating to the enterprise bankruptcy.

Article 216 If the Board decides that the Company shall be liquidated (except for the liquidation as a result of the Company's declaration of bankruptcy), the notice of the general meeting convened for such purpose shall include a statement to the effect that the Board has made full inquiry into the position of the Company and that the Board is of the opinion that the Company can pay its debts in full within 12 months after the commencement of the liquidation.

The functions and powers of the Board of the Company shall terminate immediately after the general meeting has passed the resolution to carry out liquidation.

The liquidation committee shall take instructions from the general meeting and shall make a report to the general meeting on the committee's income and expenditure as well as the business of the Company and the progress of the liquidation at least annually. It shall make a final report to the general meeting when the liquidation is completed.

Article 217 The liquidation committee shall notify creditors within 10 days of its establishment, and make at least three (3) announcements on newspapers within 60 days of its establishment. Creditors shall, within 30 days from the date of receipt of notice or (for creditors who have not personally received such notice) within 45 days from the date of the notice, claim for their creditors' rights to the liquidation committee. When filing their claims, creditors shall explain those creditor-related issues and provide supporting documentation thereon. The liquidation committee shall register such claims.

During the period of claiming of creditors' rights, the liquidation group shall not make repayment to the creditors.

Article 218 The liquidation committee exercises the following functions during the process of liquidation:

- (1) Liquidating the properties of the Company, and preparing balance sheets and asset checklists;
- (2) Informing creditors by notice or public announcement;
- (3) Disposing and liquidating the businesses of the Company that have not been completed;
- (4) Clearing off the outstanding taxes and taxes incurred during the liquidation process;
- (5) Clearing off credits and debts;
- (6) Disposing the residual properties after such debt clearing;
- (7) Participating in the civil litigation on behalf of the Company.

Article 219 After liquidating the properties of the Company and preparing balance sheets and checklists of properties, the liquidation committee shall make a plan of liquidation, and report it to the general meeting or the competent authority for confirmation.

Article 158 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 186 of the Company Law, Article 184 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The properties of the Company shall be liquidated in the following order of priority:

- (1) Liquidation costs;
- (2) Salaries, social insurance premiums and statutory compensation owed to the employees of the Company;
- (3) Outstanding taxes;
- (4) Debts of the Company.

The remaining properties of the Company upon repayment as specified in the preceding paragraph shall be distributed to the shareholders of the Company as per the classes of their shares and their shareholding percentages.

During the period of liquidation, the Company shall not carry out any new business operations.

Before the settlement of repayments as prescribed in the preceding Article, the Company's properties shall not be distributed to shareholders.

Article 220 In case of liquidation upon dissolution, if the liquidation committee notices that the properties of the Company are insufficient for clearing off the debts after liquidating the properties of the Company and preparing balance sheets and checklists of properties, it shall immediately apply to the people's court to declare bankruptcy.

Article 159 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 185 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Once the people's court declares the bankruptcy of the Company, the liquidation committee shall hand over the liquidation matters to the people's court.

Article 221 Following the completion of liquidation of the Company, the liquidation committee shall formulate a liquidation report, a revenue and expenditure statement and financial accounts in respect of the liquidation period and, after verification thereof by a certified public accountant in China, submit the same to the general meeting or the competent authority for confirmation. Within 30 days from the date of the general meeting's or the competent authority's confirmation, the liquidation committee shall submit the aforementioned documents to the company registration authority to apply for company de-registration, and announce the Company's termination.

Article 160 of the Mandatory Provisions, Article 186 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 222 Members of the liquidation committee shall perform their duty honestly and discharge the obligation of liquidation in accordance with laws.

Article 187 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Members of the liquidation committee shall not take personal advantage of their posts to take bribes, receive other illegal incomes, or misappropriate assets of the Company.

Members of the liquidation committee shall compensate the losses brought to the Company or the creditors due to their intentional or gross negligence.

Article 223 Where the Company is declared bankrupt according to law, it shall carry out bankruptcy liquidation in accordance with laws relating to the enterprise bankruptcy.

Article 188 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Chapter 19 Notice and Public Announcement

Article 224 Subject to compliance with the laws and regulations of the places where the Company is incorporated and listed and the Hong Kong Listing Rules, a notice of the Company may be sent as follows:

Article 164 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) Delivery by hand in an envelope addressed to such shareholder at the registered address shown in the register of members or at any other address supplied by him to the Company for such purpose. The Company does not prohibit the service of notice to any shareholder whose registered address is outside Hong Kong;
- (2) By post in an envelope addressed to such shareholder at the registered address shown in the register of members or at any other address supplied by such shareholder to the Company for such purpose. The Company does not prohibit the service of notice to any shareholder whose registered address is outside Hong Kong;
- (3) By fax or email;
- (4) Subject to compliance with the laws, regulations, regulatory documents and relevant rules of the securities regulatory authority of the place where the Company's shares are listed, by posting on the website designated by the Company and stock exchange;
- (5) By public announcement;
- (6) Such ways as the Company and the notified party agreed in advance or any other way which is recognized by the notified party upon receipt of the notice;

- (7) Other ways which are recognized by the securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed or stipulated in this Articles of Association.

Whilst this Articles of Association may have otherwise provided for the delivery methods of any notice, communication or any other written material, the Company may publish its communications by the means specified in sub-paragraph (4) of paragraph 1 of this Article to replace the means of sending written documents to each holder of the overseas-listed foreign shares by hand or by prepaid mail provided that doing so will be in compliance with the relevant regulations of securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed. The said communications refer to any documents sent or to be sent by the Company to the shareholders for reference or taking action, including, but not limited to, report of the Board (together with balance sheet and profit and loss statement), annual report (including annual financial reports), interim report (including interim financial reports), listing documents, meeting notice, circulars, proxy forms and reply slips, etc.

Article 225 Where a notice from the Company is served by hand and is signed (or stamped) by the recipient on the return receipt of delivery, the date of the recipient's signature shall be deemed to be the delivery date. Where the notice is served by post, the delivery date shall be 48 hours after such notice is delivered to the post office. Where the notice is served by fax or email or published on website, the delivery date shall be the date when the notice is sent out. The delivery date shall be the date indicated on the report slip of the facsimile. Where the notice is served by public announcement, the delivery date shall be the first date of publication of such announcement provided that such announcement is published in newspapers or websites that meet relevant requirements. The requirements of the regulatory authority of the place in which the Company's shares are listed shall apply, if such requirements specify otherwise.

Rules 2.07C, 2.07B and 2.07A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules, Articles 165 and 169 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

For notices issued by the Company to the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares by way of announcement, the Company shall on the same day submit an electronic version to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange EPS for immediate release on the website of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in accordance with the listing rules of the listing place. The announcement shall also be published on the Company's website at the same time. In addition, the notice shall be delivered to each of the registered addresses as set forth in the register of members of overseas-listed foreign shares by personal delivery or postage-paid mail subject to the listing rules of the listing place so as to give the shareholders sufficient notice and time to exercise their rights or act in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Holders of the Company's overseas-listed foreign shares may elect in writing to receive the corporate communication that the Company is required to send to shareholders either by electronic means or by post, and may also elect to receive either the English or Chinese version only, or both the English and Chinese versions. They shall have the right to change their choices as to the manner of receiving the same and the language at any time by reasonable prior written notice to the Company in accordance with applicable procedures. Where relevant corporate documents must be in the English language and be accompanied by a Chinese version and be served through delivery, post, distribution, sending out, announcement or other means according to the relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authority of the place where the shares of the Company are listed, in respect of shareholders who under proper arrangements by the Company confirm to receive such information only in English or Chinese version as well as to the extent permitted by the applicable laws and regulations, the Company may send such documents in the English or Chinese version to relevant shareholders according to their prescribed wills.

In order to prove that such notices, documents, information or written statements have already been delivered to the Company, shareholders or directors shall provide evidence to prove that such notice, document, information or written statement have been delivered within the prescribed time by ordinary post or prepaid mail to the correct address.

Article 226 The Company shall issue notice and disclose information to shareholders of A shares through media and websites in line with the requirements of the CSRC. Unless otherwise provided, any notice or announcement issued by the Company on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange under this Articles of Association in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules shall be disclosed in the domestic market at the same time. The Company shall issue notices and announcements to the shareholders of overseas-listed foreign-invested Shares in the manner and on the websites provided by this Articles of Association and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 171 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Chapter 20 Procedures for Amendment to the Articles of Association

Article 227 The Company shall amend this Articles of Association on the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (1) After the amendment of the Company Law or the relevant laws or administrative regulations, the provisions of this Articles of Association are in conflict with the amended Company Law or the relevant laws or administrative regulations;
- (2) There is change in the Company which makes it inconsistent with this Articles of Association;

Article 161 of
the Mandatory
Provisions,
Article 189 of
the Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (3) The amendments to this Articles of Association have been decided by the general meeting.

Article 228 The amendments to the Articles of Association involving the Mandatory Provisions shall become effective upon approval by the company approval department authorized by the State Council and the securities regulatory authority under the State Council. Amendments to the Articles of Association passed by resolutions at the shareholders' general meeting shall be required to be examined and approved by the competent authorities, and shall be submitted to the competent authorities for approval. If there is any change relating to the registered particulars of the Company, the changes shall be registered in accordance with law.

Article 162 of the Mandatory Provisions, Articles 190, 191 and 192 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The Board shall revise the Articles of Association in accordance with the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting regarding the revision of the Articles of Association and the approval opinion from the competent authorities. Where the amendment to the Articles of Association is related to the information required to be disclosed by laws and regulations, such changes, in accordance with laws or regulations, shall be announced.

Chapter 21 Settlement of Disputes

Article 229 The Company shall comply with the following rules in settling disputes:

- (1) Whenever any disputes or claims arise from this Articles of Association or any rights or obligations conferred or imposed by the Company Law or other relevant laws and administrative regulations concerning the affairs of the Company between a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares and the Company, between a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares and a director or supervisor or the general manager, vice general manager or other senior management of the Company, and between a holder of overseas-listed foreign shares and a holder of domestic shares, the parties concerned shall resolve such disputes or claims through arbitration.

Article 163 of the Mandatory Provisions, Rule 19A.52(2) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

Where a dispute or claim described above is submitted for arbitration, the entire dispute or claim shall be resolved through arbitration; all persons who have a cause of action based on the same facts giving rise to the dispute or claim or whose participation is necessary for the resolution of such dispute or claim, if they are companies or shareholders, directors, supervisors, general manager, vice general manager(s) or other senior management of the Company, shall abide by arbitration.

Disputes over who is a shareholder and over the share register do not have to be resolved through arbitration.

- (2) The party seeking arbitration may elect to have the dispute or claim arbitrated either by the China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission in accordance with its arbitration rules or by the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre in accordance with its securities arbitration rules. Once the party seeking arbitration submits a dispute or claim to arbitration, the other party must submit to the arbitral body selected by the party seeking the arbitration.

If the party seeking arbitration elects to arbitrate the dispute or claim at the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre, then either party may apply to have such arbitration conducted in Shenzhen according to the securities arbitration rules of the Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre.

- (3) The laws of PRC shall govern the arbitration of disputes or claims described in clause (1) above, unless otherwise provided by the law or administrative regulations.
- (4) The award of the arbitral body is final and shall be binding on the parties thereto.

Chapter 22 Supplementary Provisions

Article 230 This Articles of Association are written in Chinese. Where there is any inconsistency between any other languages or different versions and the Chinese version of the same, the Chinese version which has been approved and registered at the company registration authority at the latest time shall prevail.

Article 231 In this Articles of Association, the terms “more than”, “within” and “less than” shall include the given figure, and the terms “under”, “beyond”, “below” and “exceeding” shall not include the given figure.

Article 196 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 232 Reference to the term “Accounting Firm”, “Connected” and “Related Parties” herein shall have the same meaning as ascribed to the terms “Auditors”, “Connected” and “Connected Persons” in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 165 of the Mandatory Provisions

Article 233 Annex to this Articles of Association shall include the procedural rules for the general meeting, the procedural rules for the Board meeting and the procedural rules for the meeting of the Supervisory Committee.

Article 234 The Board shall be responsible for the interpretation of this Articles of Association. Where there are matters not contained in this Articles of Association, such matters shall be proposed by the Board and be passed by way of resolutions at the general meeting.
