- (5) to provide the relevant remuneration system and the implementation of the system of the Company as required by the Committee.

Article 14 The Committee shall, in accordance with the performance evaluation standards and procedures, conduct performance evaluation of directors and senior management and formulate remuneration plans.

Chapter 4 Meetings of the Committee

Article 15 The Committee may convene extraordinary meetings on irregular basis according to its needs. The Committee may convene an extraordinary meeting under any of the following circumstances:

- (1) when it is necessary in the opinion of the Board of Directors;
- (2) when it is necessary in the opinion of the chairman of the Committee;
- (3) when proposed by more than two (2) members.

Article 16 The Office of the Board of Directors shall be responsible for duly delivering the meeting notice and meeting documents by hand, by fax, by email or by other means to all members of the Committee and the relevant persons invited to attend the meeting as audience three (3) days prior to the date of convening the meeting. But under special or emergency circumstances, the aforementioned notice period for convening an extraordinary meeting may be exempted. The contents of the notice of meeting shall include the method, time, venue and agenda for convening a meeting, the issue date of the notice, etc.

Article 17 After the members of the Committee have received the notice of meeting, they shall acknowledge receipt on a timely basis through an appropriate method, and feedback with the relevant information (including but not limited to whether he/she will attend the meeting, the arrangement of itinerary, etc.).

Article 18 The members of the Committee shall attend the meeting in person. If a member is unable to attend a meeting in person, he/she may submit an authorization letter signed by him/her to appoint another member of the Committee to attend the meeting on his/her behalf to express opinions. The authorization letter shall state clearly the scope and period of authorization. Each member shall not accept authorizations from more than two (2) members at the same time. If a member, who is independent director, is unable to attend the meeting in person for some reasons, he/she shall review meeting materials in advance to form clear opinions and authorize in writing another member who is also an independent director to attend on his/her behalf.

The authorized member who attends the meeting on behalf of another member shall exercise the rights within the scope of authorization. If a member is unable to attend the meeting of the Committee in person, but has not authorized another member to exercise his/her rights on his/her behalf, he/she will be deemed to have abstained from exercising his/her rights.

Article 19 If a member of the Committee fails to attend the meetings of the Committee in person for two (2) times consecutively, and does not appoint other members as representative, or if the number of meetings of the Committee that a member has attended in person within a year is less than three-fourths, such member will be deemed to have failed in performing his/her duties, the Board of Directors may adjust the members of the Committee according to these Rules of Procedure.

Article 20 A meeting of the Committee shall be convened when more than two-thirds of the members are present; each member has one (1) vote; and a resolution made by the meeting shall be passed by more than half of all members. A meeting shall be presided by the chairman of the Committee, and if the chairman of the Committee is unable to attend the meeting, another member who is an independent director may be authorized to chair the meeting.

According to the relevant regulations, where a member shall stop performing his/her duties but has not stop performing his/her duties or shall be removed from his/her duties but has not been removed, when that member attends and votes at a meeting of the Committee, his/her vote shall be invalid and shall not be counted in the quorum.

Article 21 When a discussion is conducted at the meeting of the Committee to study the matters on the agenda of the meeting, members of the Committee shall express their own opinions clearly, independently and sufficiently based on their own judgement; and if unanimous opinions cannot be reached, it shall be recorded in the meeting minutes.

Article 22 Meetings of the Committee shall be convened in the form of physical meetings. On the premise of ensuring that all participating members can fully communicate and express their opinions, upon consent given by the chairman of the Committee, the meeting may be held by video, telephone or other means in accordance with the procedures if necessary.

Article 23 If necessary, the Committee may invite directors and supervisors of the Company, relevant senior management, the relevant experts of the Company or experts and academics in society, as well as intermediaries and relevant persons to attend the meeting as audience. Persons who attend the meeting as audience shall give explanation and presentation as requested by the members of the Committee.

Article 24 If a member of the Committee is interested in the matters to be discussed at the meeting of the Committee, such member shall abstain from attending the meeting.

Article 25 All persons who are attending a meeting are obliged to keep confidential all the matters which have been considered at the meeting, and they are forbidden to disclose any related information without authorization.

Article 26 Meeting minutes shall be compiled for the meetings of the Committee, and the meeting minutes shall be true, accurate and complete, and shall fully reflect the opinions of the participants on the matters considered. Members, recorders and other relevant personnel attending the meeting shall sign on the meeting minutes. The meeting minutes shall be delivered to all members of the Committee within reasonable time after the meeting for seeking their comments.

Article 27 After convening a meeting of the Committee, the secretary to the Committee may prepare the meeting summary of the Committee as necessary.

Article 28 The meeting minutes, meeting summary, authorization letter and other meeting materials arising from the meetings of the Committee shall be kept by the Human Resources Department in accordance with the relevant filing management system of the Company.

The above meeting materials shall be kept at least ten (10) years.
