CHAPTER 5 RULES FOR PROCEEDINGS OF MEETINGS

ARTICLE 17. The meetings of the Committee shall be divided into regular meetings and interim meetings.

ARTICLE 18. The regular meeting shall be convened at least once each year. The chairman of the Committee shall be responsible for convening the meetings. Where the chairman cannot perform the function for any reason, an Independent Non-executive Director designated by the chairman shall convene such a meeting, and where the chairman fails to make the designation, one of the Independent Non-executive Director members of the Committee shall convene the meeting. An interim meeting of the Committee shall be held where one of the following situations occurs:

- (1) When the Board proposes to convene such a meeting;
- (2) When the chairman of the Committee proposes to convene such a meeting;
- (3) When two members or more of the Committee propose to convene such a meeting; and
- (4) When the chairman of the Board proposes to convene such a meeting.

ARTICLE 19. Seven days' notice shall be given to all members before the meeting of the Committee. The meeting shall be chaired by the chairman, or, where the chairman is unable to present at the meeting, another Independent Non-executive Director member as authorized by the chairman.

The requirement of the above notice period shall not apply to the convening of an interim meeting but, in principle, the relevant materials and information of the meeting shall be provided no later than three days before the convening of the meeting.

ARTICLE 20. The meetings of the Committee shall only be held when two-thirds or more of members are present. Each member shall have one vote. Resolutions made at the meeting shall be passed by more than half of all members (excluding the members who shall abstain from voting).

ARTICLE 21. Resolutions at the meetings of the Committee shall be determined by show of hands or by poll. The meetings of the Committee shall be held on-site as a matter of principle. On the premise of ensuring that all participating Directors are able to fully communicate and express their opinions, meetings may be convened via video, telephone or other means in accordance with the procedures when necessary. A member of the Committee who entrusts another member to attend the meeting and exercise voting rights on behalf of him shall submit a power of attorney to the moderator of the meeting no later than the commencement of voting.

- ARTICLE 22. The member shall abstain from voting when the meeting of the Committee discusses a proposal related with him. If deemed necessary by the Committee, it may invite Directors, supervisors, president or other Senior Management of the Company to sit in the meetings.
- ARTICLE 23. Where necessary, the Committee may appoint intermediary agencies, such as the accounting firms, law firms etc. to attend the meeting of the Committee and provide independent and professional advice for its decision-making and the fees and expenses as reasonably incurred shall be borne by the Company.
- ARTICLE 24. The convening procedures, the methods of voting and the resolutions passed at the meetings of the Committee shall be in accordance with the relevant law, regulations, Articles of Association and the rules in these terms of reference.
- ARTICLE 25. Minutes shall be taken for the meetings of the Committee. Draft and final versions of minutes of the meetings should be sent to all Committee members for their comments and records respectively, in both cases within a reasonable time after the meeting. Members present at the meeting shall sign on the final version of the minutes and the minutes shall be kept by the secretary of the Committee and shall be open for inspection by any Directors. The minutes of the meeting shall be retained for at least ten years.
- ARTICLE 26. The recommendations, resolutions and voting results at the meeting of the Committee shall be reported to the Board of the Company in written form. If the deliberation opinions or suggestions put forward by the Committee to the Board on matters within the scope of its responsibilities are not adopted by the Board, the opinions of the Committee and the specific reasons for not adopting them shall be recorded in the resolutions of the Board and disclosed.
- ARTICLE 27. Members who attend the meetings shall keep confidential all the proceedings at the meetings and shall not disclose any relevant information without authorization unless the relevant laws, regulations and/or regulatory authorities require the member to do so.

CHAPTER 6 ABSTENTION SYSTEM

ARTICLE 28. When the member of the Committee or his immediate relatives or the other companies controlled by the Committee member and/or his immediate relatives have the direct or indirect interests with the proposals discussed at the meeting of the Committee, he shall disclose the nature and extent of the interests to the Committee as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 29. If the situation mentioned in the above Article 29 happens, the interested member shall explain the relevant conditions in detail and express clearly that he will abstain from voting voluntarily. However, where the other members of the Committee unanimously agree that the interests shall not have material impact on the proposal after discussion, such member may vote on this proposal.

The Board has the right to revoke the voting results of relevant proposal and require the members who do not have interests with this proposal to vote again, if it considers the interested member described above is inappropriate for voting.

ARTICLE 30. The meeting of the Committee examines the proposal and makes a resolution under the circumstances where the votes of interested members are not counted towards the total number of valid votes. If a quorum is not present at the meeting when the interested member is not counted towards quorum, all members of the Committee (including the interested member) shall make resolutions on the procedural issues including on whether a proposal shall be submitted to the Board. Such proposal shall be considered and approved by the Board.

ARTICLE 31. The minutes and resolutions of the Committee's meeting shall specify the situations that the votes of the interested member has been excluded from the total number of valid votes and that such member has abstained from voting.

CHAPTER 7 MISCELLANEOUS

ARTICLE 32. In these terms of reference, the terms "not less than" and "not more than" include the figure itself, while "more than" do not include the figure itself.

ARTICLE 33. These terms of reference will come into effect from the date on which it is approved at the Board meeting of the Company.

ARTICLE 34. Matters which are not provided for in these terms of reference shall be governed by the requirements of the relevant laws and regulations in the People's Republic of China, the Articles of Association, the Listing Rules and other applicable laws and regulations. If these terms of reference conflict with any applicable laws, regulations promulgated by relevant governments in the future or the Articles of Association as modified through procedures in compliance with laws or the Listing Rules as amended from time to time, the terms of reference shall be implemented in accordance with the requirements of relevant laws, regulations and Articles of Association as well as the Listing Rules and shall be modified forthwith and submitted to the Board for approval.

ARTICLE 35. The Board shall have the right to interpret these terms of reference.

(Adopted by the Company pursuant to the Board resolution passed on January 30, 2019)

1. PURPOSE

This Director Nomination Policy (the “Policy”) aims to:

- set out the criteria and process in the nomination and appointment of directors of the Company;
- ensure that the board of directors (the “Board”) of the Company has a balance of skills, experience and diversity of perspectives appropriate to the Company; and
- ensure the Board continuity and appropriate leadership at Board level.

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to the directors of the Company and where applicable, senior management prepared for Board positions under the succession planning of the Company.

3. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Board may delegate its authority and duties for matters relating to selection and appointment of directors of the Company to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Company and set out the same in the terms of reference of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Save as otherwise provided, the ultimate responsibility for selection and appointment of directors of the Company rests with the entire Board.

* For identification purpose only

4. NOMINATION AND APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTORS

4.1 CRITERIA

In evaluating and selecting any candidate for directorship, the following criteria should be considered:

- Character and integrity.
- Qualifications including professional qualifications, skills, knowledge and experience and diversity aspects under the Board Diversity Policy that are relevant to the Company's business and corporate strategy.
- Any measurable objectives adopted for achieving diversity on the Board.
- Requirement for the Board to have independent directors in accordance with the domestic laws and regulations and rules of the stock exchange(s) and the Hong Kong Listing Rules and whether the candidate would be considered independent with reference to the independence guidelines set out in the domestic laws and regulations and rules of the stock exchange(s) and the Hong Kong Listing Rules.
- Any potential contributions the candidate can bring to the Board in terms of qualifications, skills, experience, independence and gender diversity.
- Willingness and ability to devote adequate time to discharge duties as a member of the Board and/or Board committee(s) of the Company.
- Such other perspectives that are appropriate to the Company's business and succession plan and where applicable, may be adopted and/or amended by the Board and/or the Nomination and Remuneration Committee from time to time for nomination of directors and succession planning.

4.2 NOMINATION PROCESS

(a) Appointment of New Director

- (i) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board may select candidates for directorship from various channels, including but not limited to internal promotion, re-designation, referral by other member of the management and external recruitment agents.
- (ii) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should, upon receipt of the proposal on appointment of new director and the biographical information (or relevant details) of the candidate, evaluate such candidate based on the criteria as set out above to determine whether such candidate is qualified for directorship.
- (iii) If the process yields one or more desirable candidates, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should rank them by order of preference based on the needs of the Company and reference check of each candidate (where applicable).

- (iv) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee should then recommend to the Board to appoint the appropriate candidate for directorship, as applicable.
- (v) For any person that is nominated by a shareholder for election as a director at the general meeting of the Company, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should evaluate such candidate based on the criteria as set out above to determine whether such candidate is qualified for directorship.

Where appropriate, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should make recommendation to shareholders in respect of the proposed election of director at the general meeting.

(b) Re-election of Director at General Meeting

- (i) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should review the overall contribution and service to the Company of the retiring director and the level of participation and performance on the Board.
- (ii) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should also review and determine whether the retiring director continues to meet the criteria as set out above.
- (iii) The Nomination and Remuneration Committee and/or the Board should then make recommendation to shareholders in respect of the proposed re-election of director at the general meeting.

Where the Board proposes a resolution to elect or re-elect a candidate as director at the general meeting, the relevant information of the candidate will be disclosed in the circular to shareholders and/or explanatory statement accompanying the notice of the relevant general meeting in accordance with the Listing Rules and/or applicable laws and regulations. In particular, the Board should set out in the circular to shareholders and/or explanatory statement accompanying the notice of the relevant general meeting:

- (a) the process used for identifying the candidate and why the Board believes the candidate should be elected and the reasons why it considers the candidate to be independent;
- (b) if the proposed independent non-executive director will be holding their seventh (or more) listed company directorship, why the Board believes the candidate would still be able to devote sufficient time to the Board;
- (c) the perspectives, skills and experience that the candidate can bring to the Board; and
- (d) how the candidate contributes to diversity of the Board.

5. MONITORING AND REPORTING

A summary of this Policy including the nomination procedures and the process and criteria adopted for selection and recommendation for directorship, should be disclosed in the Company's Corporate Governance Report.

6. REGULAR REVIEW

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will conduct regular review on the structure, size and composition of the Board and this Policy and where appropriate, make recommendations on changes to the Board to complement the Company's corporate strategy and business needs.

Note: If there is any inconsistency between the English and Chinese versions of this document, the Chinese version shall prevail.
