Other important information on the Company's operation during the reporting period that needs to be brought to the attention of investors

✓ Applicable □ Not applicable

In the first quarter of 2024, the global economy demonstrated resilience and China's economy growth regained momentum. International oil prices rose amid fluctuations, with the average price of Brent crude oil standing at US$81.76 per barrel, remaining relatively stable. The Company continued to increase efforts in oil and gas exploration, and steadily promoted its actions to improve quality and efficiency, leading to a steady growth in net oil and gas production and bolstering its cost competitiveness. Net profits attributable to equity shareholders of the Company hit a record high.

During the first quarter of 2024, the Company achieved a total net production of 180.1 million barrels of oil equivalent ("BOE"), representing an increase of 9.9% year over year ("YoY"). Net production from China increased by 6.9% YoY to 123.2 million BOE, mainly due to the contribution from new projects; overseas net production increased by 16.9% YoY to 56.9 million BOE, mainly due to the increased production in Guyana and Canada.

For the first quarter of 2024, the Company made two new discoveries and successfully appraised four oil and gasbearing structures. In offshore China, the Company successfully appraised Bozhong 8-3 South, opening up a new exploration chapter in ultra-deep plays. Overseas, the discovery of Bluefin in the Stabroek block in Guyana further expanded the resource scale in the southeastern part of the block.

In terms of development and production, Suizhong 36-1/Luda 5-2 Oilfield Secondary Adjustment and Development Project has been put into production, and other new projects are progressing smoothly.

The unaudited oil and gas sales revenue of the Company reached approximately RMB89.98 billion for the first quarter of 2024, representing an increase of 21.3% YoY, mainly due to the higher oil and gas sales volumes and higher realised oil prices. Net profits attributable to equity shareholders of the Company amounted to RMB39.72 billion, representing a YoY increase of 23.7%. All-in cost was US$27.59 per BOE, representing a YoY decrease of 2.2%. During the quarter, the Company's average realised oil price increased by 6.2% YoY to US$78.75 per barrel, and the average realised gas price was US$7.69 per thousand cubic feet, representing a decrease of 7.7% YoY.

For the first quarter of 2024, the Company's capital expenditures amounted to approximately RMB29.01 billion, increased by 17.3% YoY as a result of increased workloads of projects under construction and adjustment wells. During this period, the Company remained stable in health, safety, and environmental protection.
