Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board of directors of the Company, I am pleased to present the annual report of CHK Oil Limited and its subsidiaries for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Over the past year, our oil trading business in China faced a series of unprecedented challenges as slower economic growth and weakened domestic demand in China. The downstream industries of our clients were particularly hard hit, resulting in tighter profit margins and causing several key refineries to make intermittent production adjustments.

These factors directly impacted the oil market, affecting the operational viability and profitability of our industry. To address these challenges, our team demonstrated adaptability, readjusted our trading strategies, and enhanced operational efficiency to mitigate the impact of these challenges.

I am pleased to report that there has been an improvement in industry profit margins recently, and some client refineries are gradually resuming operations, indicating that the market is beginning to recover. This positive momentum demonstrates the resilience of our business model and the effectiveness of our strategic response to adversity.

Under the current geopolitical climate, there is significant uncertainty in US-China relations, leading to a layer of political risk that cannot be ignored. We maintained basic operational levels in our natural gas and liquefied petroleum gas fields in Utah throughout the year, highlighting the need to balance investment considerations with escalating political risks. This cautious approach reflects our commitment to protecting shareholder value while carefully assessing the evolving geopolitical landscape.

On behalf of the board of directors of the Company, I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to our customers, suppliers, business associates, shareholders and other stakeholders for their support. I would also like to express our gratitude to our staff for their invaluable service and contributions throughout the year.

Looking ahead, we remain cautiously optimistic about the recovery of China's economy and its positive impact on domestic demand. Our strategic position and proactive measures have prepared us to capitalise on this anticipated recovery, driving growth, and sustainability in our operations in China and beyond. We are committed to delivering lasting value to all our stakeholders, navigating the complexities of the global market with resilience and strategic foresight.

Yu Jiyuan

Management Discussion and Analysis

RESULTS AND REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

For the year ended 31 December 2023 (the “Year” or “FY2023”), the Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) recorded a consolidated revenue of approximately HK$161,497,000 (2022: approximately HK$355,277,000) mainly contributed from the trading of oil, oil-related products and other products business. Basic and diluted loss per share for the Year was HK5.89 cents (2022: HK0.14 cents). Basic and diluted loss per share were based on the weighted average of approximately 842 million shares (2022: approximately 842 million shares) in issue for the Year. Gross profit for the Year amounted to approximately HK$1,509,000 (2022: Gross profit amounted to approximately HK$15,277,000), which was mainly contributed by the trading of oil and oil-related product in Mainland China.

The net loss attributable to the owners of the Company for the Year was approximately HK$49,552,000, as compared with the net loss attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$1,193,000 for the year ended 31 December 2022 (“FY2022”). The increase in the net loss FY2023 is mainly attributable to approximately 55% decrease in the revenue of the Group for FY2023 in the sales of oil and oil-related products as compared to that of FY2022, such decrease in revenue for FY2023 is combined with approximately HK$46.5 million of the impairment loss oil and gas properties and intangible assets in the oil and gas segment.

In respect of the impairment loss on the oil and gas properties and intangible assets in the oil and gas segment, the decline in the fair value of oil and gas properties and intangibles is primarily attributable to lower natural gas and oil prices, with forecasts indicating a relatively stable outlook for oil prices. The current low natural gas prices are partly due to an overestimation of global gas demand during the previous winter season, further exacerbated by a build-up of excess gas inventory.

BUSINESS REVIEW

Trading Business

The crude oil industry has its industry-specific characteristics as domestic supplies is concentrated in a few enterprises. Based on the industry practice in the PRC, to secure a steady crude oil supply for trade, procurement agreements usually would be signed with suppliers and prepayment of purchase would be made in advance. However, due to unfavorable price movements in 2023, some oil refineries faced thin margins or even losses, and scaled down their production, which eventually limited the extent of trade activities and caused significant impact on performance for our trading business in term of trading volume and profit margin. During the Year, the Group recorded revenue of approximately HK$161,497,000 (2022: HK$355,269,000) in the trading of oil, oil-related and other products segment.

Utah Gas and Oil Field

During the Year, the Group maintained stable daily operations and maintenance of the oil and gas field in Utah, the USA. Due to uncertainties (such as turnover of workers, tight construction schedule, and increased difficulties in purchase and transportation of equipment) in relation to local oil and gas service providers in Utah, our well overhaul schedule for the oil and gas field is expected to be prolonged. However, the Group will retain close attention and continuously follow up on the repairment works. In addition, the changes of international political landscape and the growing tensions in Sino-American relations brought further uncertainties to our business. The Group will continue to evaluate the situation in the Utah Oil and Gas Field, steadily push forward works, and promptly adjust our development direction and strategy in line with changes in the situation. With the impairment loss on the oil and gas properties and intangible assets in the oil and gas segment, the segment loss of oil and gas sales was recorded HK$48,091,000 in FY2023 (FY2022: Segment profit of HK$5,660,000).

Management Discussion and Analysis

Principal Risks and Uncertainties Facing the Group

Price risk

The revenue and results of our operation at Utah Gas and Oil Field and trade business are sensitive to changes in natural gas and oil prices and general economic conditions. Any substantial decline in natural gas or oil prices may result in delay or cancellation of existing or future drilling, exploration or reduction and closure of production. Furthermore, it could have a negative impact on the value and amount of our reserves, net income from production and trade, our cash flow and profitability.

In the 2023, oil price fluctuated between US$71.8 and US$96.6 and natural gas run with a downward trend. At the beginning of 2023, the price of Brent crude oil started at US$85.9 per barrel, surged to a high of US$96.6 in late-September 2023 and closed at US$77.0 per barrel in December 2023. From January to early March 2024, oil prices closed high at above US$83.6 per barrel. The price of Natural Gas started at US$4.4 at the beginning of 2023 and closed at US$2.5 in December 2023 and US$1.8 in early March 2024. (Source: <https://markets.businessinsider.com/>)

Natural gas and oil prices are both expected to fluctuate in the foreseeable future due to uncertain factors related to the supply and demand of these commodities in the market. These uncertain factors are in turn resulting from the high degree of uncertainty in the growth of the global economy and war situation between Russia and Ukraine. As such, it may be difficult to budget and project the returns on the development and exploitation projects. In order to alleviate the negative impact of the price uncertainties, the Group has reviewed its pricing policies and ensure that the contracts entered into by the Group include necessary price adjustment mechanism with reference to the quoted market price.

Cost risks and risk associated by hiring third party service providers

The exploration for and development of our well sites of Utah Gas and Oil Field requires a significant amount of capital investment. The operation of the Gas and Oil Field also depends on services provided by third parties, including, without limitation, processing pipelines for the transportation of products, equipment procurement, and operation and construction services on the certain infrastructure. The possible costs for the construction and production equipment as well as the services can inflate costs of project development and increase future production cost. Furthermore, the failure of any third service party to comply with the terms and conditions of the applicable agreements will have a negative impact on our operations. The Group actively seeks alternative third party service providers with reasonable cost and necessary licences across the world and conducts due diligence on the counter-parties to mitigate the risks associated with the third party service providers.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW AND UPDATE ON RESERVES

The Group has not undertaken any further exploration and development on the oil and gas fields in Utah this Year. During the Year, there have been no exploration, development or production activities in the oil and gas fields in Utah. The expenditure for the maintenance activities at the oil and gas fields in Utah during the Year was approximately HK$1,208,000.

To the best of the Group's knowledge, as of 31 December 2023, there was no material difference in the reserves of the Utah Gas and Oil Field when compared with that of 2022.

PROSPECTS

Utah Gas and Oil Field

From the beginning of 2023, oil prices continued to fluctuate, and natural gas price reveals a predominant downward trend, Brent and WTI oil prices fluctuated by about 29% and 33% respectively during the year, while Henry Hub natural gas price has fallen by approximately 57%. Specifically, the price of Brent crude oil rose from US$85.9 per barrel at the beginning of 2023 to US$96.6 per barrel in late September 2023 and falling to US$77.4 at the end of December 2023. Likewise, the price of WTI crude oil rose from US$80.5 per barrel at the beginning of 2023 to US$93.7 in late September 2023 and falling to US$71.7 at the end of December 2023. Henry Hub natural gas price has fallen from US$4.4 per MMBtu at the beginning of 2023 to US$2.5 at the end of December 2023. The fluctuations in global supply and demand determine the changes in oil prices and natural gas prices this year.

Based on its most recent monthly report released on 6 February 2024, the U.S. Energy Information Administration (EIA) forecasts for the future benchmark oil prices, under which the Brent price is expected to average US$82 per barrel in 2024.

Given the expected continuous wild fluctuation of the oil and gas prices in the short run, and the uncertainties arising from the lasting international geopolitical tension, we must prudently re-evaluate our investment in the project to better manage the operating risks.

Trading and Service Business

Due to the improvement in the prices of petrochemical products at the beginning of 2024, it can be expected that more refineries will resume production as their profits returns to reasonable levels. Therefore, in the beginning of 2024, the Group signed a procurement contract with a supplier to secure supplies, in order to maintain expected trade demands for 2024. In the first quarter of 2024, the Company has been proactively discussing with its heavy industry customers and the Company entered into a framework agreement with one of its customers to arrange for delivery of crude oil in the forthcoming year. The Group expects that, with the heavy and manufacturing industry sector gradually resuming normal in the PRC, the domestic demands for crude oil and oil-related products and the Group's trading business will be improving in 2024. The Company will continue to strive to improve its operating results and financial position to address the going concern assumption for the subsequent reporting period. Looking ahead, the oil trading business is still affected by the progress of international trade normalization, especially in terms of China's low inflation and international political situations. In spite of the uncertainties and challenges ahead, the Group will continue to maintain and develop its existing business as well as explore new business opportunities in the following areas of international trade on oil and oil-related products; seeking high-quality leaseable and purchasable projects in the upstream and the downstream of the industry, striving to achieve vertical synergies in the whole industries of the petroleum and petrochemical. In the mid-long run, providing oil field development and maintenance services to oil field owners including oil exploration, oil well constructions, oil field management, providing energy efficient equipment for oil exploration; in the long run, the Group will also explore potential investments in clean energy, waste-to-energy technology and renewable energy, aiming to minimise emissions, achieve long-term sustainability and environmentally friendly objectives.

Management Discussion and Analysis

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND CAPITAL STRUCTURE

As at 31 December 2023, there were HK$2,980,000 outstanding balance of interest-free loans owed to its ultimate holding company (being the controlling shareholder of the company) (As at 31 December 2022: Nil) and RMB 12,600,000 (Approximately equivalent to HK$13,854,000) outstanding balance of interest bearing loan with variable interest rate owed to bank and interest-free loan owed to other borrower (As at 31 December 2022: Nil). Details of borrowings are set out in note 20 and note 21 to the consolidated financial statements. The Group's cash and bank balances as at 31 December 2023 was approximately HK$1,252,000 (approximately HK$15,147,000 as at 31 December 2022), it was mainly due to the decrease in the net cash from operating activities compared with last year. As at 31 December 2023, the current ratio (calculated on the basis of the Group's current assets over current liabilities) was 2.29 (As at 31 December 2022: 4.16).

The Group requires additional capital from time to time to maintain operations and maximise trading returns. Our source of funds primarily generated from our business activities and we adopt a relatively conservative treasury policy to reduce business risks. During the year, the Group did not use any financial instruments for hedging.

The Group's total finance costs was HK$249,000 for the Year (2022: HK$124,000). The increase was mainly due to the increase in bank borrowing amount, average interest rate on the bank borrowings and interest on lease liabilities during the year.

Further details regarding the liquidity of the Group are set out in note 2(b) to the consolidated financial statement.

CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

As at 31 December 2023, the Group had no material contingent liabilities (31 December 2022: Nil).

CHARGES ON GROUP ASSETS

As at 31 December 2023, the Group did not have any charges on assets (31 December 2022: Nil).

MATERIAL ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF SUBSIDIARIES AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES

The Group had no material acquisition and disposal of subsidiaries and associated companies during the Year.

FUTURE PLANS FOR MATERIAL INVESTMENTS OR CAPITAL ASSETS

Save as disclosed in the section headed "Prospects" in this annual report, there were no future plans for material investments or capital assets.

SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT

Save as those disclosed under the section headed "Management Discussion and Analysis" in this annual report, the Group did not have any significant investment during the Year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

FOREIGN EXCHANGE EXPOSURE

The operating revenue of the Group is mainly denominated in RMB. The results of operations and the financial position of the Group may be affected by any changes in the exchange rates. The conversion of RMB denominated balances into foreign currencies is subject to the rules and regulations of foreign exchange control promulgated by the PRC government. During the Year, the Group conducted its business transactions principally in US dollars and RMB or in the local currencies of the operating subsidiaries. Having considered (i) the historical trend of the exchange rates between the RMB and HK$; and (ii) the operation of the Group which does not involve significant volume of cross-border remittances, the Directors considered that the Group had no significant exposure to foreign exchange fluctuations and believed it was not necessary to hedge against any exchange risk. Nevertheless, the management will continue to monitor the foreign exchange exposure position and will take any future prudent measure it deems appropriate.

GEARING RATIO

As at 31 December 2023, the gearing ratio (debt-to-asset ratio) of the Group, calculated as total liabilities divided by total assets, was approximately 23.41% (31 December 2022: 16.77%).

EMPLOYEES AND REMUNERATION POLICIES

As at 31 December 2023, the number of employees of the Group was about 27 (2022: 25). The remuneration packages of employees are maintained at competitive levels and include monthly salaries, mandatory provident fund, medical insurance and share option schemes; and other employee benefits include travelling allowances and discretionary bonuses.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO THE GOING CONCERN

The following is an extract of Mazars's report on the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023.

We draw attention to the "Going concern" section in note 2(b) to the consolidated financial statements concerning the adoption of the going concern basis on which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared. The Group incurred a net loss attributable to owners of the Company of HK$49,552,000 for the year ended 31 December 2023 and, as of that date, the Group's total trade and other payables (excluding contract liabilities), loans from ultimate holding company, bank loan and other borrowings, lease liabilities, tax payable in aggregated to approximately HK$50,581,000, of which HK$49,007,000 are due for repayment within the next twelve months after 31 December 2023, and also the Group had only bank balances and cash of HK$1,252,000. These conditions along with other matters as set forth in note 2(b) the consolidated financial statements, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore, the Group may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The Directors of the Company, having considered the plans and measures being taken by the Group, are of opinion that the Group would be able to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

ABOUT US

CHK Oil Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group” or “we”) is principally engaged in the investment holding, exploring, exploiting and sale of oil and natural gas, and trading of oil, oil-related and other products. The Group holds exploitation interest in the Utah Gas and Oil Field Project located in Utah of the United States of America (the “US”).

ABOUT THE ENVIRONMENT, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

This Environmental, Social and Governance Report (the “ESG Report”) aims to provide a balanced representation of the efforts made by the Group on its environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) management approaches, performance, strategies, priorities, objectives, and compliance with the relevant laws and regulations.

Reporting Period

Unless otherwise stated, the ESG Report covers the activities, challenges and measures with respect to ESG aspects of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2023 (the “Reporting Period” or “2023”).

Reporting Scope

The reporting scope is determined based on the revenue contribution of the business segments under the Group’s direct operational control.

Unless otherwise stated, the ESG Report covers the Group’s business operations at the head office in Hong Kong and three offices of principal subsidiaries in the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) and the US. All of the Group’s revenue were derived from the above operations. ESG key performance indicators (“KPIs”) data are obtained from the aforementioned business operations. The ESG Report excludes any business operations which have been outsourced or subcontracted, where the related ESG information is not made available to the Group.

Reporting Framework

The ESG Report has been prepared in accordance with the Environmental, Social and Governance Reporting Guide (the “ESG Reporting Guide”) as set out in Appendix C2 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”). Information relating to the Group’s corporate governance practices can be found in the Corporate Governance Report of the Annual Report.

During the preparation for this ESG Report, the Group has applied the reporting principles in the ESG Reporting Guide as follows:

Materiality: A materiality assessment was conducted to identify material issues during the Reporting Period, thereby adopting the confirmed material issues as the focus for the preparation of the ESG Report. The materiality of issues was reviewed and confirmed by the board of directors (the “Board”) and the ESG Task Force (the “Task Force”) of the Company. For further details, please refer to the sections headed “STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT” and “MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT”.

Quantitative: The standards, methodologies and applicable assumptions used in the calculation of KPIs data were supplemented by explanatory notes.

Consistency: Unless otherwise stated, the preparation approach of this ESG Report is consistent with the year ended 31 December 2022 (“2022”) for comparison. If there are any changes in the scope of disclosure and calculation methodologies that may affect the comparison with previous reports, explanations will be provided to the corresponding data.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

BOARD STATEMENT

Dear Valued Stakeholders,

On behalf of the Board, I am pleased to present the ESG Report of the Group, which demonstrates our growing commitment to improving our ESG performance in five aspects, including corporate governance, environmental protection, employment practices, operating practices and community investment.

The Group believes that sustainable development is vital to the earth and contributes to the long-term prosperity and development of the Group's business. In alignment with the international trend and the PRC government's ambitious pledge to hit peak emissions by 2030 and carbon neutrality by 2060 ("30-60 goals"), the Group is responding to climate change and preparing for energy transition. The Group is exploring ways to decarbonise its operations and is considering possible investment in renewable and low-carbon alternatives, aiming to transform itself into an integrated energy company. Starting from the year ended 31 December 2021 ("2021"), the Group has set environmental targets covering aspects of emissions reduction, waste management and resources conservation. To achieve these targets, the Group actively implements the principles of sustainable development and adopts relevant measures at operational levels. The Board has delegated the Task Force to track and review the Group's performance and evaluate its progress towards the targets. Relevant progress is summarised in the section headed "Environmental Targets".

As a responsible corporate citizen, the Group has also established a group-wide "Climate Change and Environmental Protection Policy" in order to proactively identify, analyse, and manage concerns relating to climate change. Our business agenda will continue to place a high priority on combating climate change, and we will continue to incorporate climate-related risk into our risk management framework.

Besides, the Group recognises the importance of strengthening awareness and education within the Group in order to promote a deeper understanding of resource management and environmental preservation. We remain committed to the strategy of balancing economic growth with environmental responsibility. This requires us to continually enhance the skills and capabilities of our employees. We also consider the synergy between sustainable development strategies and the optimal utilisation of natural resources, emphasising the need for technological innovation to minimise waste and safeguard against resource depletion to ensure both our business success and a sustainable future.

While keeping compliance and effectiveness as our top priorities, we continue to improve our governance practices. The Group makes an effort to create a solid governance structure to effectively manage ESG issues that concern the Group in order to effectively address environmental and social issues. The Board is responsible for overseeing the Group's ESG issues, assessing how ESG issues may affect the Group's overall strategies, and developing ESG management approaches and strategies. Information about the Group's ESG governance structure is stated in the section headed "ESG GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE".

We enhance communications with internal and external stakeholders in order to identify and prioritise material ESG issues that have an impact on the economy, environment and society and influence on stakeholders. The Group works with an independent third party to conduct materiality assessment. Information about the stakeholder engagement channels and the materiality assessment conducted by the Group is stated in the sections headed "STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT" and "MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT" respectively.

In closing, on behalf of the Board, I would like to convey my heartfelt gratitude to our valued stakeholders for their steadfast support, while also expressing my appreciation to our employees for their valuable contribution to the development of the Group. Looking forward, the Group will continue to deepen the integration of ESG concepts into its business strategy and management system, operate its business in a more responsible manner and promote safety and green development in order to create value for shareholders and pursue a sustainable future.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

ESG GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

To ensure its ESG governance aligns with its business strategy and commitment to sustainability, the Group has developed an ESG governance structure that integrates ESG management into its business operations and decision-making process.

The Board holds the overall responsibility for the Group's ESG issues and sets out ESG management approach, strategy, priorities and objectives. The Board is diverse in its composition and is considered to have a balance of skills and experience in overseeing the ESG matters of the Group. In order to better manage the Group's ESG performance, related issues and potential risks, the Board should at least annually discuss ESG issues collectively, and review the materiality of ESG issues, ESG-related risks and opportunities of the Group, as well as its performance against ESG-related targets. The Board is also responsible for ensuring the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems and approving disclosures in the ESG reports.

The Group has established the Task Force to develop systematic management of ESG issues under the Board's delegations. To facilitate the Board's oversight of ESG matters, the Task Force is composed of an executive director and senior management of the Company with relevant expertise in each ESG aspect. The Task Force is responsible for monitoring and evaluating the Group's ESG performance, keeping track of and reviewing the progress made against the Group's ESG-related targets and ensuring the compliance with ESG-related laws and regulations, which is fundamental for ensuring the sound and sustainable development of the Group. The Task Force also assists in assessing and identifying the Group's ESG risks and opportunities, ensuring the implementation and effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems. The Task Force works with an independent third party to conduct materiality assessment and prepare ESG reports. The Task Force arranges meetings at least annually to evaluate the effectiveness of current policies and procedures, and formulates appropriate solutions to improve the overall performance of ESG policies. The Task Force should report the findings, decisions and suggestions to the Board at least once per year.

During the Reporting Period, the Group confirms that it has established appropriate and effective management policies and monitoring systems on ESG issues, and confirms that the disclosures meet the requirements of the ESG Reporting Guide.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

We believe that stakeholder engagement is crucial to the sustainable growth of our business, as it improves our understanding of emerging risks and opportunities, and also facilitates the mitigation of these risks as well as the realisation of opportunities. To fully understand, respond to, and address the core concerns of various stakeholders, we have been maintaining close communication with key stakeholders. Using the diversified cooperation methods and communication channels shown in the table below, we bring the expectation of our stakeholders into the Group's operation and ESG strategies.

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

In hope of understanding the views and expectations of stakeholders on the Group’s ESG performance effectively, we adopt a systematic approach in conducting the annual materiality assessment. With reference to the Group’s business development strategies and industry practices, the Group identified and determined a list of material ESG issues, which covers five major areas: corporate governance, environmental protection, employment practices, operating practices and community investment. The Group prepared a questionnaire based on the list and invited relevant stakeholder representatives to rate the potential material issues according to the influence of the ESG issues on the stakeholders’ assessments and decisions and the significance of their impacts on the economy, environment and society. The results of the survey were analysed to develop the materiality matrix. The materiality matrix and the identified material topics were reviewed and confirmed by the Board and the Task Force and disclosed in the ESG Report. During the Reporting Period, the Group’s materiality matrix is shown below:

A. ENVIRONMENTAL

Environmental Targets

Environmental protection and sustainable development rely on collective efforts from all industries and society. It is our goal to integrate environmental sustainability into our business operations and continuously control the level of emissions associated with our operations.

The Group has set quantitative and qualitative targets for the environmental aspect in 2021 to better manage the Group's material topics and its sustainability performance. Relevant data and year-on-year comparisons are presented in the subsequent sections. The table below summarises the Group's environmental targets and its progress towards the targets:

Aspects	Environmental targets	Status
Air Emissions	Gradually reducing the intensity of air emissions in the next five years, using 2021 as the baseline year.	In progress
	Replacing all company vehicles with electric vehicles on or before the year ended 31 December 2025 ("2025").	In progress
Greenhouse Gas ("GHG") Emissions	Gradually reducing the intensity of GHG emissions in the next five years, using 2021 as the baseline year.	In progress
Non-hazardous Wastes	Gradually reducing the intensity of total non-hazardous wastes in the next five years, using 2021 as the baseline year.	In progress
Energy Management	Gradually reducing the intensity of total energy consumption in the next five years, using 2021 as the baseline year.	In progress
	Replacing all lighting in its offices with LED lights on or before 2025.	In progress
	From 2022 onwards, participating in Earth Hour to raise its employees' awareness of energy conservation.	Achieved
Water Management	Gradually reducing the intensity of total water consumption in the next five years, using 2021 as the baseline year.	In progress
	From 2022 onwards, participating in environmental protection activities such as World Water Day and posting water-saving slogans at prominent locations in the office to promote water conservation.	Achieved

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

A1. Emissions

As engaging in the trading, exploration, exploitation and sale of oil and gas related products, it is crucial for us to consider the control of emissions, which is not only driven by the need to protect the environment, but also to fulfil our social responsibility. The Group has established “Energy Saving and Emission Reduction Procedures” to regulate the air emissions, GHG emissions and wastes generated during the operation in order to reduce its environmental footprint and pollution, as well as to mitigate ecological degradation. The Group has formed an energy-saving working group, which is responsible for formulating measures at operational level, and supervising and inspecting its energy and emissions performance. The Group believes that implementing effective emissions control measures enables cost savings for its businesses through the adoption of low-energy, low-consumption, and cost-effective practices.

Besides, the Group has formulated “Pollution Prevention and Waste Management Procedures” to manage its environmental impacts during the stages of oil exploration and development. All parties including contractors who are involved in drilling and oil production operations are required to comply with the Group’s guidelines. Relevant emergency preparedness plan and preventive measures should be taken place to avoid any emissions of flammable gases, toxic gases and dust, and prevent any contamination to the water bodies and any pollution to the environment.

The Group keeps track of the latest national and regional environmental protection laws and regulations. During the Reporting Period, the Group was not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations relating to air and GHG emissions, discharge into water and land, and the generation of hazardous and non-hazardous wastes that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the “Environmental Protection Law of the People’s Republic of China”, the “Law of the People’s Republic of China on the Prevention and Control of Environment Pollution Caused by Solid Wastes” of the PRC, the “Air Pollution Control Ordinance”, the “Waste Disposal Ordinance” of Hong Kong, and the “Clean Air Act”, the “Clean Water Act”, the “National Environmental Policy Act” of the US.

Air Emissions

The Group’s air emissions were mainly generated from the petrol consumption by its company vehicles, small amounts of town gas used in the staff quarter in Hong Kong. To reduce its impact to the environment, the Group actively executes the following emission reduction measures regarding vehicle usage:

- Regularly maintain and repair vehicles to prevent them from generating excess exhaust gas emissions from broken parts and other reasons;
- Phase out unqualified trucks in accordance with the local emission regulations; and
- Subsidise employees who commute to work by public transportation and drive new energy vehicles.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group has actively adopted various green commuting options, such as carpooling and taking public transport to reduce its air emissions. During the Reporting Period, due to reduced business operations and lower vehicle utilisation, the intensities¹ of nitrogen oxides (“NO_x”), sulphur oxides (“SO_x”) and particulate matter (“PM”) have decreased from 14.75g/million HK$ revenue, 0.14g/million HK$ revenue and 1.15g/million HK$ revenue in 2022 to 7.12g/million HK$ revenue, 0.06g/million HK$ revenue and 0.56g/million HK$ revenue in 2023 respectively. The summary of the Group’s air emissions performance is as follows:

Indicator ²	Unit	2023	2022
NO _x	kg	1.15	5.24
SO _x	kg	0.01	0.05
PM	kg	0.09	0.41

Notes:

1. During the Reporting Period, the Group’s revenue was approximately HK$161,497,000 (2022: approximately HK$355,277,000). The data are also used for calculating other intensity data. The intensities of the Group’s air emissions have been supplemented to monitor the Group’s progress towards relevant target.
2. The calculation method of air emissions is based on “How to prepare an ESG Report – Appendix 2: Reporting Guidance on Environmental KPIs” issued by the Stock Exchange.

GHG Emissions

The major sources of GHG emissions of the Group were:

- Direct GHG emissions (Scope 1) generated from natural gas consumption for heating, petrol consumption for vehicles, and small amounts of town gas used in the staff quarter in Hong Kong;
- Energy indirect GHG emissions (Scope 2) generated from purchased electricity and town gas; and
- Other indirect GHG emissions (Scope 3) generated from paper waste disposed at landfills and employees’ business travel.

With respect to the emission sources mentioned above, we actively adopted the following GHG emissions reduction measures:

- Actively adopt emission reduction measures on vehicles, which are described in the section headed “Air Emissions” in this Aspect;
- Actively adopt environmental protection and energy-saving measures, which are described in the section headed “Energy Management” in Aspect A2;
- Actively adopt paper-saving measures, which are described in the section headed “Waste Management” in this Aspect;
- Encourage staff to use e-communication channels, such as video conference for business meetings whenever possible; and
- Encourage staff to reduce unnecessary overseas business trip.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

The Group switched its source of heating for its PRC offices from natural gas consumption to the municipal heating network. As the heating is controlled by the property management company throughout the year, the Group is unable to obtain the amount of purchased heat consumption. In addition, the Group has actively implemented green commuting measures to reduce petrol consumption. During the Reporting Period, due to reduced business operations and the lower vehicle utilisation, there is a decrease in total GHG emissions in 2023, the intensity has decreased as compared to 2022. The summary of the Group's GHG emissions performance is as follows:

Indicator ³	Unit	2023	2022
Scope 1 – Direct GHG emissions	tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent (“tCO ₂ e”)	2.33	48.38
– Natural gas	tCO ₂ e	0.04	36.91
– Petrol	tCO ₂ e	2.26	9.58
– LPG	tCO ₂ e	–	1.74
– Diesel	tCO ₂ e	–	0.10
– Town gas	tCO ₂ e	0.03	0.05
Scope 2 – Energy indirect GHG emissions	tCO ₂ e	16.48	13.06
– Purchased electricity	tCO ₂ e	16.47	13.05
– Town gas	tCO ₂ e	0.01	0.01
Scope 3 – Other indirect GHG emissions	tCO ₂ e	7.78	6.94
– Employees’ business travel	tCO ₂ e	7.20	5.47
– Paper waste disposed at landfills	tCO ₂ e	0.58	1.47
Total GHG emissions	tCO ₂ e	26.59	68.38
Total GHG emissions intensity	tCO ₂ e/million HK$ revenue	0.16	0.19

Note:

- GHG emissions data are presented in terms of carbon dioxide equivalent and are based on, including but not limited to, “The Greenhouse Gas Protocol: A Corporate Accounting and Reporting Standards” issued by the World Resources Institute and the World Business Council for Sustainable Development, “IPCC Fifth Assessment Report, 2014 (AR5)”, “2006 IPCC Guidelines for National Greenhouse Gas Inventories”, “How to prepare an ESG Report – Appendix 2: Reporting Guidance on Environmental KPIs” issued by the Stock Exchange, the “Notice on the Management of Enterprise Greenhouse Gas Emissions Reporting by Power Generation Industry for 2023– 2025” issued by the Ministry of Ecology and Environment of the PRC, “2022 Sustainability Report” released by CLP Power Hong Kong Limited, “Environmental, Social and Governance Report 2022” released by The Hong Kong and China Gas Company Limited and the emissions and generation resource database of the US in 2022 released by the US Environmental Protection Agency.

Sewage Discharge

The office operations of the Group do not generate any industrial wastewater in the course of operation, but only domestic sewage. Since the wastewater produced is discharged into the sewage treatment plant through the sewage pipeline network for processing, the amount of water consumption of the Group represents the wastewater discharge volume. Information related to water consumption is described in the section headed “Water Management” in Aspect A2.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Waste Management

The Group adheres to the principles of waste management and is dedicated to the reasonable management and disposal of wastes generated from its business activities. The Group maintains a high standard in reducing wastes, educates employees the importance of sustainable development and provides them with relevant supports to improve their skills and knowledge in sustainable development.

Hazardous wastes

As the Group is principally engaged in the trading business, the Group does not generate significant amount of hazardous wastes during its daily operation. Nevertheless, we are devoted to waste reduction. If any hazardous waste is generated, the Group must appoint a qualified waste collector to handle such waste to comply with relevant environmental laws and regulations.

Non-hazardous wastes

The major non-hazardous wastes generated during our operation are general waste and paper waste. We have implemented the following measures to achieve the target:

- Encourage employees to maximise the usage of electronic copies instead of hardcopies;
- Set duplex printing as default setting in printers for printing internal documents;
- Reuse office stationaries, such as envelopes and folders; and
- Recycle paper, plastic bottle and tin can.

As a result of the decreased paper consumption due to the Company's commitment to green and sustainable practices, including promoting remote work whenever possible and strict control over paper usage, the Group's total non-hazardous wastes produced in 2023 decreased as compared to 2022. However, due to the decline in annual revenue, the non-hazardous wastes intensity has increased as compared to 2022. The summary of the Group's non-hazardous waste performance is as follows:

Indicator	Unit	2023	2022
Total non-hazardous wastes produced	tonnes	0.19	0.32
– Paper waste	tonnes	0.12	0.31
– General waste	tonnes	0.07	0.01
Total non-hazardous waste intensity	kg/million HK$ revenue	1.18	0.90

A2. Use of Resources

The Group upholds and promotes the principle of efficient use of resources. It has established the aforementioned environmental policies and procedures to optimise the use of energy across business operations and thus to reduce corresponding GHG emissions.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Energy Management

The major sources of energy consumption by the Group are:

- Direct energy consumption, which includes natural gas for heating, petrol for vehicles, and small amounts of town gas used in the staff quarter in Hong Kong; and
- Indirect energy consumption, which includes purchased electricity for its office operations.

Aside from measures for vehicles described in the section headed “Air Emissions” under Aspect A1, the Group also actively promotes a green office culture and adopts electricity-saving measures to control its electricity consumption. Relevant measures are listed below:

- Participate in Earth Hour to raise its employees’ awareness of energy conservation;
- Replace all lighting in its offices with LED lights on or before 2025;
- Turn off electrical appliances or switch them to standby mode when they are not in use;
- Switch off all unnecessary lighting, air-conditioning, and electrical appliances upon leaving the office;
- Optimise the temperature of air-conditioning to create a comfortable working environment for its employees as well as to limit energy loss;
- Prioritise electrical appliances with high energy efficiency ratings when purchasing office equipment; and
- Post notices or reminders at prominent locations in the offices to remind its employees to conserve energy.

The Group switched its source of heating for its PRC offices from natural gas consumption to the municipal heating network. As the heating is controlled by the property management company throughout the year, the Group is unable to obtain the amount of purchased heat consumption. In addition, the Group has actively implemented green commuting measures to reduce petrol consumption. During the Reporting Period, due to the reduced business operations and the lower vehicle utilisation, there is a decrease in total energy consumption in 2023, the total energy consumption intensity has decreased as compared to 2022. The summary of the Group’s energy consumption performance is as follows:

Indicator	Unit	2023	2022
Direct energy consumption ⁴	kWh	8,318.50	225,824.20
– Natural gas	kWh	209.18	182,193.84
– Petrol	kWh	7,975.99	34,905.56
– LPG	kWh	–	8,056.76
– Diesel	kWh	–	401.37
– Town gas	kWh	133.33	266.67
Indirect energy consumption	kWh	31,461.00	28,014.90
– Purchased electricity	kWh	31,461.00	28,014.90
Total energy consumption	kWh	39,779.50	253,839.10
Total energy consumption intensity	kWh/thousand HK$ revenue	0.25	0.71

Note:

4. The unit conversion method of direct energy consumption data is based on the “Energy Statistics Manual” issued by the International Energy Agency.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Water Management

The Group's water consumption is mainly for domestic use in the office area. Due to the geographical location of the Group's operations, the Group does not have any issues in sourcing water that is fit for purpose. To reduce water use, the Group has also actively adopted the following measures:

- Participate in environmental protection activities such as World Water Day and posting water-saving slogans at prominent locations in the office to promote water conservation;
- Remind employees to turn off water taps after use to avoid unnecessary flushing;
- Strengthen daily maintenance of water pipes and inspect regularly to prevent leakage; and
- Encourage employees to report any leakages as soon as possible.

During the Reporting Period, the Group's total water consumption has increased as compared to 2022 due to the gradual easing in the pandemic situation in 2023, which resulted in a return to normal office operations, the total water consumption intensity has increased as compared to 2022. The summary of the Group's water consumption performance is as follows:

Indicator	Unit	2023	2022
Total water consumption	m ³	752.00	563.00
Total water consumption intensity	m ³ /million HK$ revenue	4.66	1.58

Use of Packaging Materials

Due to the nature of the Group's business, no packaging materials are used in our business operations.

A3. The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group believes that corporate development should not come at the expense of the environment and natural resources, therefore, the Group recognises the responsibility in minimising the negative environmental impacts of its business operations as an ongoing commitment to good corporate citizenship. The Group remains conscious of its potential impact and has established aforementioned environmental policies and procedures to regularly assess the environmental risks of its business model, adopt preventive measures to reduce risks, and ensure compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

Green Working Environment

The Group considers that providing a pleasant and safe working environment to its employees is of paramount importance. Air quality is therefore regularly monitored and measured. In offices, air purifying equipment is placed, and the ventilation system is cleaned periodically. At well sites in the oil field, preventive and monitoring measures will be performed to regulate air emissions.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In addition to air quality, noise is regularly monitored and measured at the operation sites. The Group has formulated relevant guidelines for all parties involved in drilling operations to ensure that workers and the surrounding neighbourhood will not be disturbed. Such measures include:

- Equip the operation engines with soundproof enclosure or muffling devices;
- Install acoustic barriers and install equipment and pipeline underground;
- Arrange office or staff dormitory in the upwind direction of the prevailing wind;
- Inspect and maintain all equipment before use to ensure the compliance of permitted noise level; and
- Only undertake drilling operation during permitted hours and days.

A4. Climate Change

Climate change is one of the most crucial issues of the past decade. In response to the community's gradual concern on climate change and related issues, the Group has implemented the "Climate Change and Environmental Protection Policy", which outlines the Group's management approach on climate-related issues and commitment to climate mitigation, adaptation and resilience across its operations and along the value chain.

With reference to the recommendations of the Task Force on Climate-related Financial Disclosures framework, the Group has identified and assessed the potential climate risks in its operations, thereby facilitating the formulation of its climate risk mitigation measures. Through the above method, the Group identified the material impacts on the Group's business arising from the following risks:

Physical Risks

The increasing frequency and severity of extreme weather events such as extreme cold, extreme heat, rainstorms and typhoons, could lead to an increased risk of power shortages, interrupt the supply chain and damage the Group's operation facilities, therefore interrupting the field operation and slowing down the project progress. These events may lead to reduced revenue, as well as an increase in the costs of repairing or restoring damaged sites. These events could also disrupt the work of employees and even cause casualties. Furthermore, the rising global average temperature may increase the office refrigeration and equipment cooling demand, which would increase the operating costs of the Group.

Considering the abovementioned risks, the Group retains close attention and continuously follows up on the maintenance and repairment works of the field to make sure its resilience to extreme weather. In addition, the Group regularly organises emergency drills and strictly complies with the emergency plan initiated by the local government. The Group closely monitors the latest weather news and suggestions issued by the local government and has established special work arrangements to ensure that all personnel are well-prepared for extreme weather events. We are also actively implementing management policies and conservation measures on the use of resources in our operations and improving the efficiency of our office facilities to reduce operating costs.

Transition Risks

As part of its efforts to achieve sustainable development, the PRC government has focused on energy transition to meet its 30–60 goals. Due to the reorientation of the country's energy strategy and new demand for low-carbon energy products, oil companies will be facing an uncertain future and will have to explore ways to expand their core business beyond products related to oil. The Group may also be exposed to risks of claims and lawsuits if it fails to meet the climate change compliance requirements.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In respond to climate change, the Group will regularly monitor existing and emerging climate-related trends, policies and regulations to avoid reputational risks due to delayed response. In addition, the Group is striving to decarbonise its operations through various low-carbon strategies and will consider possible investments in renewable and lower-carbon alternatives, with the aim to transform itself into an integrated energy enterprise. In order to enhance the Group’s resilience to climate-related risks, the Group will continue to assess the effectiveness of its actions to incorporate climate change into its short-, mid- and long-term development plans.

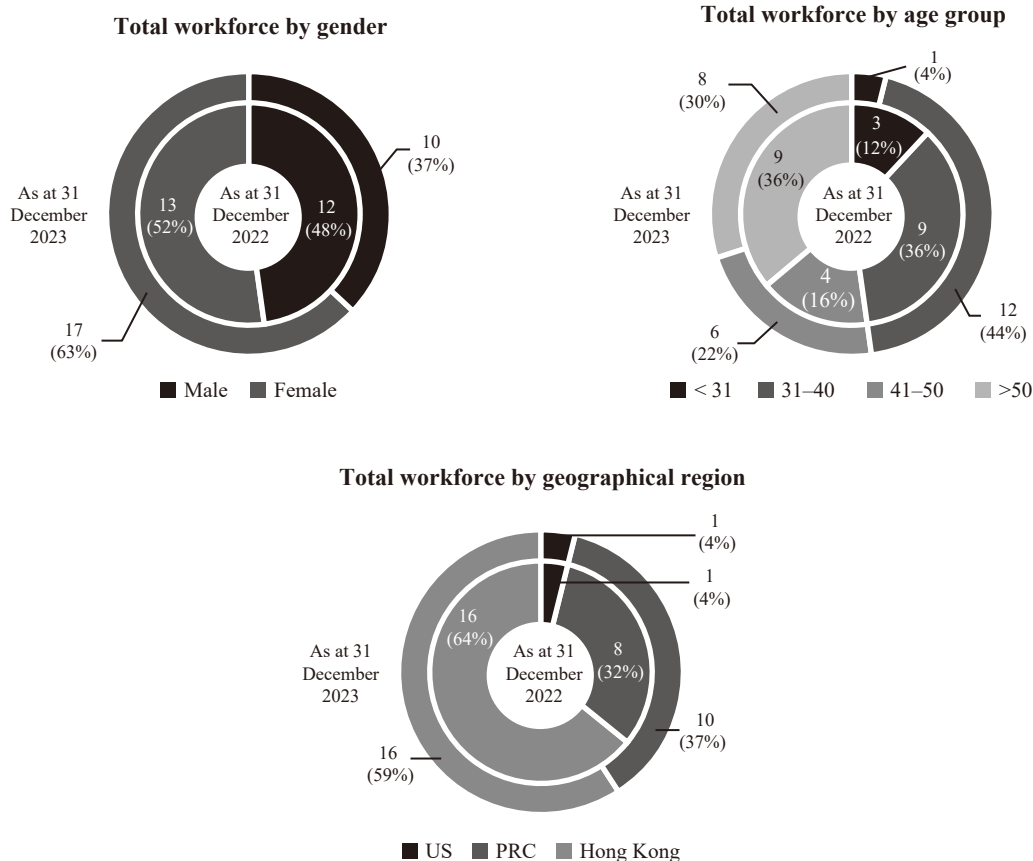

B. SOCIAL

B1. Employment

When pursuing economic goals, we also bear social responsibilities in order to achieve sustainable development together with the local community. The Group places considerable emphasis on staff management and has developed a set of human resources management procedures in the “Employee Handbook” for each subsidiary, striving to create a favourable working environment for its employees and reduce labour and employment risks for the Group.

During the Reporting Period, the Group was not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations relating to compensation and dismissal, recruitment and promotion, working hours, rest periods, equal opportunity, diversity, anti-discrimination, and other benefits and welfare that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the “Labour Law of the People’s Republic of China”, the “Labour Contract Law of the People’s Republic of China” of the PRC, the “Employment Ordinance” of Hong Kong, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act” of the US.

As at 31 December 2023, the Group had a total of 27 full-time employees (As at 31 December 2022: 25 full-time employees) within the reporting scope and the composition is shown below:

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Recruitment, Promotion, Remuneration and Dismissal

We uphold the principles of fairness, impartiality and openness in recruiting talents to provide sufficient talent reserves for the Group's businesses and strengthen our competitiveness. Job applicants are assessed based on their suitability for the positions and potential to fulfil the Group's current and future needs, regardless of their race, gender, religion, physical disability, marital status, sexual orientation, etc.

We offer competitive remuneration packages and promotion opportunities for outperforming employees to explore employees' capabilities. In accordance with labour laws and regulations, the remuneration packages of our employees are clearly laid down in the "Employee Handbook" and in respective employment contracts of each employee. Through an open and fair performance review system, the Group determines employees' salaries, benefits and promotion opportunities based upon their job nature, experience, work performance, and with reference to the Group's financial performance and prevailing market conditions.

Apart from basic salary, the Group's employees are entitled to benefits and rights, which include but are not limited to Mandatory Provident Fund, statutory holidays and various types of paid leaves, where applicable, including annual leave, sick leave, maternity leave, parental leave, marital leave and bereavement leave. For employees in the PRC, the Group pays "Five Social Insurance and One Housing Fund" in accordance with the law, including endowment insurance, medical insurance, unemployment insurance, employment injury insurance, maternity insurance and housing provident fund to protect employees' social insurance entitlements.

Besides, the Group does not tolerate the dismissal of employees on any unreasonable basis. Any termination of the employment contract would be based on reasonable and lawful grounds supported by internal policies of the Group.

There is a decrease in employee turnover rate as compared to 2022. The employee turnover rate of the Group and its composition is as follows:

Employee turnover rate⁵	2023	2022
Total	8%	52%
By gender
Male	18%	65%
Female	–	40%
By age group
< 31	–	86%

Note:

5. Turnover rate = the number of departures during the reporting year ÷ [(number of employees at the beginning of the reporting year + number of employees at the end of the reporting year) ÷ 2] × 100%.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Equal Opportunity, Diversity and Anti-discrimination

The Group does not tolerate any form of discrimination within its operations, including but not limited to gender, disability, pregnancy, family status, race, religion, age, sexual orientation and other conditions as recognised by relevant anti-discriminatory regulations. All of our staff members enjoy equal opportunities for recruitment, work, training, remuneration and promotion. Not only do our efforts against discrimination help develop the professionalism and professional ethics among employees, but they also create a more friendly working environment of the Group, a more harmonious and peaceful social atmosphere, thus fulfilling social responsibility.

Team-building Activities

The Group is highly aware of the importance of teamwork in a corporate environment. Where opportunities arise, the Group organises team-building events and staff gatherings to enhance the level of interaction amongst its staff members. Team events set outside the regular working environment provides our staff with an opportunity to have an enjoyable time in a relaxing environment.

B2. Health and Safety

The Group attaches great importance to the health and safety of its employees. It has established “Health, Safety and Environment Management Approach” for each subsidiary in an effort to create a safe working environment for employees and to avoid any occupational hazards.

In the past three years (including the Reporting Period), there were zero incidents of work-related fatalities. During the Reporting Period, there were no lost days due to work injury (2022: zero lost days). The Group was not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations relating to health and safety that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the “Labour Law of the People’s Republic of China”, the “Law of the People’s Republic of China on the Prevention and Treatment of Occupational Diseases”, the “Fire Control Law of the People’s Republic of China” of the PRC, the “Occupational Safety and Health Ordinance” of Hong Kong, and the “Occupational Health and Safety Act” of the US.

Occupational Health and Safety

Since oil mining is a high-risk activity, the Group has distributed safety instructions and training guidelines provided by the authorities to all parties involved in the exploitation. To ensure safety, the operations of storage and transportation facilities, public works facilities and other auxiliary facilities should be strictly in accordance with national, industrial and corporate standards to prevent any material leakage and accidents that could result in occupational hazards.

To prevent occupational hazards in our office operations, we display warning signs on facilities and machines which are potentially hazardous or prone to accidents. We perform regular inspections in our offices to ensure that a safe working environment is provided to our employees. Our offices are equipped with first-aid kits for providing basic treatment in case of minor office injuries.

The Group complies with related working safety guidelines and constantly educates and reminds employees on the importance of occupational health and safety. The Group provides employees with relevant information on the emergency response through training, promotions, drills and regular safety inspections. We also participate in regular fire drills to raise employees’ safety and fire prevention awareness.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In recent years, COVID-19 has significantly impacted our way of living and work. It is observed that there is a gradual easing in the pandemic situation. Despite the decreasing level of restrictions in the relevant COVID-19 countermeasures implemented by the Company, our commitment to prioritizing the health and safety of our employees remains steadfast.

B3. Development and Training

The Group attaches great importance to the working performance and development of employees during their employment periods. Training is also believed to be capable of improving personnel quality, enhancing team capabilities, and boosting the prospects for enterprise development. In order to stimulate the potential of our employees and enhance their operational skills, we are committed to providing a diversified training development framework for the needs of different staff members working at different positions. Details on its training management procedures have been clearly stated in the Group's "Employee Handbook".

Provision of Training Opportunities

The Group provides a wide variety of training for its employees to equip themselves with work-related skills. New joiners will receive orientation training covering corporate culture, regulations and system, safety training, environmental health and safety training, job skills and work procedures. The Group evaluates and monitors its training programmes to ensure effective and quality execution.

Apart from internal training, the Group also highly encourages the directors and employees to attend industry conferences, seminars and workshops to enrich professional knowledge and to keep up with the latest development in the industry.

During the Reporting Period, the Group actively conducted training related to ESG and anti-corruption, there is an increase in the percentage of employees trained as compared to 2022 that all employees attended the relevant training during 2023. The employee training performance by gender and employee category is as follows:

	Percentage of employees trained ⁶		Breakdown of employees trained ⁷		Average training hours ⁸
	2023	2022	2023	2022	2023	2022

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Notes:

6. Percentage of employees trained = (number of employees trained in the category during the reporting year \div number of employees in the category at the end of the reporting year) \times 100%.
7. Breakdown of employees trained = (number of employees trained in the category during the reporting year \div total number of employees trained during the reporting year) \times 100%.
8. Average training hours = number of training hours of employees in the category during the reporting year \div number of employees in the category at the end of the reporting year.

B4. Labour Standards

The Group strictly prohibits human rights abuses and has formulated the “Corporate Social Responsibility Policy” to ensure that all work that is performed on its behalf is in compliance with all relevant labour laws and regulations. During the Reporting Period, the Group was not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations relating to the prevention of forced labour and child labour that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the “Regulation on Labour Security Supervision”, the “Labour Law of the People’s Republic of China” and the “Labour Contract Law of the People’s Republic of China” of the PRC, the “Employment Ordinance” of Hong Kong, and the “Fair Labor Standards Act” of the US.

Prevention of Child and Forced Labour

To avoid illegal employment of child labour, applicants are required to submit copies of their identification documents for verification of their age and identity during the recruitment process. Personal data and credentials of job applicants are kept in a secure data system for human resource purposes, which is only accessible to authorised personnel.

To avoid any violation of the labour standards and protect employees’ legal rights and interests, the Group’s employees work overtime on a voluntary basis. Terms of leave entitlement, working hours, rest, labour protection and termination of employment are clearly laid out in the “Employee Handbook” and respective employment contracts of each employee.

The Group will conduct investigations, punishment or dismissal of relevant employees immediately when any non-compliance is being discovered. If necessary, the Group will further improve the labour mechanism against illegal behaviours.

B5. Supply Chain Management

The Group believes that effective supply chain management can serve to lower costs, improve quality and mitigate social or environmental risks that an organisation may face, as well as to improve customer service and foster the growth and expansion of its business. It is also a vital component in the production and development of enterprises, encompassing comprehensive elements such as quality management, safety management, economic management, financial evaluation, market analysis, and operational management.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

To manage potential environmental and social risks in its supply chain, the Group has established the “Suppliers Management Requirements” to assign relevant personnel to manage its supplier selection process. In respect of supply management of our operation of gas and oil field, our main suppliers include service providers for on-site support.

The number of suppliers in 2023 is the same as in 2022. The geographical breakdown of the Group’s suppliers is as follows:

Number of suppliers	2023	2022
Total	5	5
By geographical region
PRC	5	4
US	–	1

Procurement Mechanism

We promote fair and open competition and aim to develop long-term relationships based on mutual trust. In view of the complexity of the supply chain, during the supplier selection process by our operating units, criteria including price, quality of service, location, productivity (service capacity) and legal procedures must be taken into account. In addition, the Group also pays attention to the corporate responsibility performance of suppliers, including but not limited to their social responsibility and environmental protection efforts. The Group is concerned about the integrity of suppliers and partners, it will only select those with a good business track record without any material non-compliance or unethical behaviours.

The Group has formulated “Anti-fraud and Anti-corruption Policy” and “Conflict of Interest Policy” to monitor the procurement activities and strictly prohibit any practices that are against business ethics. We closely communicate with our subsidiaries and require them to carefully manage the relationship with suppliers and business partners in avoidance of transfer of interests or exploitation of suppliers. During the Reporting Period, the Group has implemented the above practices relating to the engagement of all suppliers.

Sustainable Supply Chain

The Group expects suppliers to meet its standards in terms of environment, society, corporate governance, business ethics, etc. The Group will evaluate the environmental and social risks of suppliers’ operation and business regularly to ensure suppliers’ compliance with relevant environmental and social regulations, as well as other requirements, and to examine the suppliers’ awareness in each of these areas.

As stated in Aspect A1, we have formulated several environmental policies to involve suppliers in the implementation of our environmental objectives. In order to minimise the adverse effect of pollution and waste on the surrounding environment, and to ensure the health and safety of the operations, the Group’s suppliers must follow the preventive measures specified in the policies. The Group regularly visits the sites to inspect the quality, environment, health and safety conditions.

Furthermore, we promote environmentally responsible purchasing through the adoption of sustainable and responsible selection criteria whenever applicable. The Group will continue to review its supply chain periodically with regard to the suppliers’ performance and environmental and social standards. Any material violation of laws and regulations may lead to the termination of supplier contracts. The Group will also regularly monitor the effectiveness of the above supply chain management mechanism.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

B6. Product Responsibility

The Group is committed to providing quality products and services to its customers. The Group has formulated a set of stringent policies and procedures for its production and sales activities. As high-quality products and services can help build a strong corporate reputation, we are dedicated to maintaining high-level service and product quality through internal control. We maintain ongoing communication with our customers to ensure that we understand and meet their demands and expectations, as well as their level of satisfaction to improve our service quality.

During the Reporting Period, the Group was not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations concerning product health and safety, advertising, labelling, and privacy matters relating to products and services provided and methods of redress that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the “Law of the People’s Republic of China on the Protection of Consumer Rights and Interests”, the “Advertising Law of the People’s Republic of China”, the “Interim Measures for the Administration of Internet Advertising”, the “Product Quality Law of the People’s Republic of China” of the PRC, the “Trade Descriptions Ordinance” of Hong Kong, and the “US Consumer Protection Safety Act” of the US.

As the Group is principally engaged in the trading business, no recalls of the Group’s products due to health and safety reasons are required.

Quality Assurance

The Group strives to provide its customers with competitive products and services with standardised service quality, humanised service process and regulated service management. We stress the importance of understanding clients’ needs and regard them as the foundation for the continuous improvement of our business. Customers can submit their opinions or complaints via email, phone or in person. The process is confidential to protect all parties’ interests and ensure fairness and proper documentation of the process.

The complaint handling procedures have been established by the Group to allow relevant departments to carry out a detailed investigation, actively monitor the handling process, coordinate and communicate with all involved parties, and properly respond to complaints. We strive to understand the truth and root causes of complaints made by our customers and identify responsible parties and improvement areas in order to enhance the Group’s service quality, retain customers by earning their loyalty towards the Group’s service, and facilitate the Group’s future development. During the Reporting Period, there were zero material complaints about products and services (2022: zero material complaints). Customer satisfaction has reached our expected level.

Customer Privacy Protection

The Group attaches high importance to safeguarding clients’ interests and privacy and strives to maintain and protect personal data. All personal data collected from customers are kept confidential, and our computers and servers are protected by access passwords to prevent unauthorised access. As stipulated in the Group’s Code of Conduct in the “Employee Handbook”, employees are instructed to ensure that data is collected, used, maintained, managed, stored and handled properly and secured appropriately. The Group will conduct regular inspection on the information system to monitor the execution of the said policy.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Intellectual Property Rights

Despite intellectual property rights are not considered as a material ESG aspect to the Group due to the Group's business nature, the Group has established relevant policies in the "Employee Handbook" to govern the information technology management within the Group. Employees are not allowed to download software or use any information that would infringe copyright. Furthermore, the Group closely monitors and prevents any infringement behaviour such as counterfeit trademarks in the market. The Group will continue to monitor such behaviour to ensure that its intellectual property rights are not being infringed upon.

Advertising and Labelling

Due to the Group's business nature, the Group conducts limited advertising campaigns and therefore does not involve any significant advertising-related risks. Nevertheless, in terms of the advertisement of products and services, we strictly regulate and monitor products and services promotion to ensure the compliance with advertising and labelling related laws and regulations. Such marketing and promotion must accurately reflect the quality and performance of the Group's products and services in order to let clients "get what they see".

B7. Anti-corruption

The Group adheres to "Anti-fraud and Anti-corruption Policy" that describes the integrity of business practices, ethical standard, conflicts of interest, breach of conduct, handling of confidential information and legal requirement on prevention of bribery and against corruption. The Group has adopted best practices with respect to whistle-blowing and anti-corruption, and formulated its anti-corruption strategy based on Anti-Corruption Programme – A Guide for Listed Companies published by Independent Commission Against Corruption.

During the Reporting Period, there was no concluded legal cases regarding corrupt practices brought against the Group or its employees (2022: zero cases). The Group was also not aware of any material non-compliance with laws and regulations concerning bribery, extortion, fraud, and money laundering that would have a significant impact on the Group, including but not limited to the "Company Law of the People's Republic of China", the "Bidding Law of the People's Republic of China" of the PRC, the "Prevention of Bribery Ordinance" of Hong Kong, and the "Foreign Corrupt Practices Act" of the US.

The Group arranges anti-corruption training and spread learning materials at least annually. During the Reporting Period, the directors and employees of the Group have received approximately 1.5 and 4 hours of anti-corruption training respectively (2022: approximately 2.5 and 4.5 hours respectively). Such training familiarises the Board and employees at various levels with their corresponding roles and responsibilities in anti-corruption and business ethics, and helps cultivate employees' awareness towards anti-corruption and a high standard of professional conduct to comply with the laws in the operating locations of the Group.

Whistle-blowing Mechanism

The Group strives to maintain a high level of ethical corporate culture and has established the "Whistleblowing Management Requirements". Employees are encouraged to report occurrences of suspicious activities. Investigations will be performed on the suspicious activities, and if required, a detailed investigation will be performed and a formal investigation report will be issued to the management for review. Regardless of whether the reported cases are found to require further investigation, all reported cases are confidential and are kept on record. The Group will regularly evaluate the effectiveness of the mechanism to monitor the execution of the said policy.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

B8. Community Investment

The Group is devoted to becoming a responsible corporate citizen and offering appropriate resources to the needy in the community. To fulfil corporate social responsibility, the Group has formulated the “Social Welfare Policy” on community engagement which states its selection criteria of the suitable donation partners. Meanwhile, we also encourage our staff to donate to the recognised charitable institutions in order to help the grass-roots communities or those in need.

Corporate Social Responsibility

The Group actively looks for the opportunities and focuses on supporting its local communities, engaging in activities such as cleaning up weeds from properties, assisting elderly individuals and donation. Such activities help raise the environmental awareness of our employees, at the same time providing opportunities for team building and work-life balance. During the Reporting Period, the Group’s employees have participated in community welfare activities, including beautifying the environment by assisting with the removal of weeds on properties, as well as providing support to elderly individuals in maintaining cleanliness and hygiene. The Group will continue to embolden and support the public by various means of social participation and contribution as part of its strategic development.

Corporate Governance Report

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) committed to achieving high standard of corporate governance. The Board is responsible for performing the corporate governance functions of the Company. The Board regularly reviews and monitors our corporate governance practice to ensure that the Company is in compliant with the applicable laws, regulations and requirements of the Listing Rules. The Company’s corporate governance practices are based on the principles as set out in the Corporate Governance Code (“CG Code”) contained in Appendix C1 to of the Listing Rules.

In the opinion of the Board, with the exception of code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code, the Company has complied throughout the Year with the CG Code as contained in Appendix C1 to the Listing Rules.

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code stipulates that the roles of chairman and chief executive officer should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual.

Mr. Yu Jiyuan, who is the Chairman of the Board and the CEO of the Company, is responsible for overseeing the general operations of the Group. The Board meets regularly to consider major matters concerning the operations of the Group and the Chairman has been encouraging each member of the Board and the senior management to raise any comments and concerns relating to the operation and management of the Company. The Board considers that this structure will not impair the balance of power and authority between the Board and the management of the Company. The roles of the respective executive directors and senior management who are in charge of different functions complement the role of the chairman and chief executive officer. The Board believes that this structure is conducive to a strong and consistent leadership enabling the Group to make and implement decisions promptly and efficiently.

CORPORATE CULTURE AND STRATEGY

By recognising the importance of stakeholders at the Board level and ensuring sustainable growth and continuous development, the Board of the Company has set out the following corporate values to provide guidance on employees’ conduct and behaviours as well as the business activities, and to ensure they are embedded throughout the Company’s vision, mission, policies and business strategies:

Integrity

The Group has established policy and measures that promote and support anti-corruption laws and regulations; and adopted whistleblowing policy and measures for employees, suppliers and business partners to raise concerns or complaints in confidence and anonymity. The Group has also provided several anti-corruption trainings to employees in different locations to enhance their understanding of the corporate culture and relevant laws and regulations.

Sustainability

The Group believes that corporate development should not come at the expense of the environment and natural resources or health of employee, several guidelines and policies were established to ensure the relevant goal to be achieved, details of which are set out in the “Environmental, Social and Governance Report”.

The Group will continuously review and adjust, if necessary, its business strategies and keep track of the changing market conditions to ensure prompt and proactive measures will be taken to respond to the changes and meet the market needs to foster the sustainability of the Group.

Corporate Governance Report

Open-minded culture

Our company has embraced an open-minded corporate culture, where diversity of thought and inclusivity are valued. Our leadership is receptive to feedback and actively seeks input from all employees, encouraging new ideas and approaches to problem-solving. Collaboration is at the heart of our culture, and we recognize the importance of working together to achieve our goals. By embracing an open-minded corporate culture, we have created an environment where employees feel empowered to contribute their unique perspectives and talents, resulting in improved efficiency for our group.

DIRECTORS' SECURITIES TRANSACTIONS

The Company has adopted a code of conduct regarding securities transactions by Directors on terms no less exacting than the required standard set out in Appendix 10 to the Listing Rules (the "Model Code"). Having made specific enquiry of all Directors, all Directors confirmed they have complied with the required standard set out in the Model code and the code of conduct regarding securities transactions by directors adopted by the Company throughout the Year.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

As at the date of this report, the Board comprised five executive Directors, three non-executive Directors and four independent non-executive Directors (the "INED"). The list of Directors is set out headed "Directors' Report" of this annual report.

The Board has a balance of skills and experience appropriate for the requirements of the business of the Company. The Directors' biographical information is set out in the section headed "Profiles of Directors" of this annual report.

The Board met regularly during the Year on a regular basis as required by business needs. The Board's primary purpose is to set and review the overall strategic development of the Group and to oversee the achievement of the plans to enhance Shareholders' value. The Board is responsible for the oversight of the management of the business and affairs of the Group with the objective of enhancing shareholders value. The Board is responsible for the leadership and the overall development of the Group. The Board focuses on determining the business strategies, approving the development and investment plan and annual budget of the Group; approving the annual financial statements of the Group; supervising the effectiveness of the internal control system and risk management system of the Group; and monitoring the financial and operating performances of the Group.

In addition, Board committees were established by the Board to carry out various responsibilities as set out in the respective terms of reference. The Board from time to time may delegate certain functions and powers to senior management of the Company to facilitate the execution of the business development plans, strategies, measures or policies adopted by the Board and the senior management on a regular basis reports the progresses to the Board.

The Company has insured director's liability insurances for the directors, which provided protection to the Directors for liabilities that might arise in the course of their performance of duties.

Daily operational decisions are delegated to the executive Directors. The executive Directors and the senior management are responsible for the day-to-day management, administration and operation and the implementation of policies of the Group. The management should report to the Board before any significant decisions and commitments are to be made and approval has to be obtained from the Board prior to any significant transactions entered into by the executive Director(s) and senior management. The delegated functions are periodically reviewed by the Board to ensure that these are appropriate and effective.

Corporate Governance Report

In addition, the Board has also delegated various responsibilities to each of the Company's audit committee (the "Audit Committee"), remuneration committee (the "Remuneration Committee") and nomination committee (the "Nomination Committee"). Further details of these committees are set out in the sections headed "Audit Committee", "Remuneration Committee" and "Nomination Committee" below.

Each of the INEDs has made an annual confirmation of independence pursuant to Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules. The Company considers all INEDs to be independent under the guidelines set out in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules.

NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

All non-executive Director and INEDs have been appointed for a fixed term. Pursuant to the letters of appointment between the Company and the INEDs, the INEDs have been appointed for a term of one year which may be terminated by either party by giving one month's written notice. Pursuant to service contract between the Company and the non-executive Director, the non-executive Director has been appointed for a term of one year which may be terminated by either party by giving one month's written notice. Every Director is subject to re-election on retirement by rotation in accordance with the Bye-Laws.

BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

During the Year, the Board has adopted a board diversity policy which sets out the approach to achieve diversity on the Board. The Company recognizes and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board to enhance the quality of its performance.

The Company aims to achieve board diversity through the consideration of a range of measurable objectives, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of service. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board. The Nomination Committee will from time to time discuss and agree on the measurable objective for achieving diversity of the Board. The existing Board members come from a variety of business and professional backgrounds: six out of twelve Board members are women; two of the Board members have a legal education background, two of the Board members have tax and accounting background one of the Board members has auditing experiences. With regard to age groups, four members of the Board are at the age 40 or below, five members of the Board are at the age between 41 to 50, and three members of the Board are at the age 51 or above.

Having considered the existing composition of the Board, the Board is of the view that there has been a significant degree of diversity at the Board level in terms of gender, educational and professional background of the relevant directors. The Company has adopted nomination policy and will from time to time consider any suitable candidates to ensure that there will be a pipeline of potential successors to the Board to achieve gender diversity.

As at 31 December 2023, the gender ratio of the Group's workforce was approximately 37% male to 63% female. In respect of gender diversity, the Company intends to maintain at least one-third of the Board and the workforce be held by women. Throughout the recruitment process, the Group has always been non-discriminatory and hiring based on the merits and background of the candidates. Based on the above, the Board is satisfied that the Company has achieved gender diversity in its workforce.

POLICY ON DISCLOSURE OF INSIDE INFORMATION

The Board has adopted the Policy on the Disclosure of Inside Information ("Policy") with respect to the procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information. The Policy sets out guidelines and procedures to the Directors and relevant officers of the Group to ensure inside information of the Group is to be disseminated to the public on an equal basis and in timely manner. Directors and relevant officers in possession of potential inside information and/or inside information are required to take reasonable measures to ensure that proper safeguards are in place to preserve strict confidentiality of inside information and to ensure that its recipients recognise their obligations to maintain the information confidential. COMPLIANCE WITH RULE 3.10A OF THE LISTING RULES DURING THE YEAR

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 17 April 2023 in respect of appointment of Executive Director, resignation and re-designation of Directors. Following the above changes, the composition of the Board comprised five Executive Directors, three Non-executive Directors and three INEDs. As a result, the number of the INEDs was less than one-third of the Board as required under Rule 3.10A of the Listing Rules.

On 14 July 2023, the Company appointed Ms. Lam Shuk Yi Marianna (“Ms. Lam”) as an INED of the Company. Following the appointment of Ms. Lam, there are altogether four INEDs of the Company. As such, the number of INEDs of the Company represents one-third of the Board and is in compliance with the requirements under Rule 3.10A of the Listing Rules.

On 14 July 2023, Ms. Lam obtained the legal advice as referred to in Rule 3.09D of the Listing Rules and confirmed that she understood her obligations as a director of a listed issuer.

REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

As at 31 December 2023, the Remuneration Committee comprises three Directors, namely Ms. Zhong Bifeng (Chairlady), Mr. Yu Jiyuan and Mr. Shen Shigang.

The Remuneration Committee met thrice in the Year. Individual attendance of each committee member at these meetings is shown in the section headed “Board Meetings, Committee Meetings and Shareholders’ Meeting Attendance” in this annual report.

The primary role of the Remuneration Committee under its terms of reference is to:

- (i) make recommendations to the Board on the Company’s policy and structure for all directors and senior management remuneration and on the establishment of formal and transparent procedure for developing remuneration policy on such remuneration;
- (ii) review and approve the management’s remuneration proposals with reference to the Board’s corporate goals and objectives; and
- (iii) make recommendations to the Board on the remuneration packages of individual executive directors and senior management.

During the Year, the Remuneration Committee had performed the following works:

- (i) reviewed and recommended for the Board’s approval the existing policy and structure for the remuneration of Directors; and
- (ii) assessed the performance of and reviewed the remuneration packages of all the Directors for the Year. Details of the remuneration of Directors for the Year are set out in note 11 to the consolidated financial statements.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE

As at 31 December 2023, the Nomination Committee comprises three Directors, namely Mr. Shen Shigang (Chairman), Mr. Yu Jiyuan and Ms. Zhong Bifeng.

The principal role of the Nomination Committee is responsible for the procedure of agreeing to the appointment of its members and for nominating appropriate person for election by shareholders at the annual general meeting, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Directors.

The Nomination Committee met thrice in the Year. Individual attendance of each committee member at these meetings is shown in the section headed “Board Meetings, Committee Meetings and Shareholders’ Meeting Attendance” in this annual report.

Corporate Governance Report

The Nomination Committee has formulated and set out the nomination policy (“Nomination Policy”) in its terms of reference. The objective of the Nomination Policy is to ensure that the Board has a balance of skills, experience and diversity of perspectives appropriate to the requirements of the Company’s business. The Nomination Committee will from time to time discuss and agree on measurable objective for achieving diversity of the Board. For details, please refer to the section headed “Board diversity policy” in this annual report. To ensure changes to the Board composition can be managed without undue disruption, a formal, considered and transparent procedure is in place for selection, appointment and re-appointment of Directors, as well as plans in place for orderly succession (if considered necessary), including periodical review of such plans. The appointment of a new Director (to be an additional Director or fill a casual vacancy as and when it arises) or any re-appointment of Directors is a matter for decision by the Board upon the recommendation of the proposed candidate by the Nomination Committee.

The criteria to be applied in considering whether a candidate is qualified shall be his or her ability to devote sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company and contribute to the diversity of the Board as well as the effective carrying out by the Board of the responsibilities. Further details of the selection criteria and the procedure are set out in the terms of reference of the Nomination Committee which are available on the websites of the Stock Exchange and the Company.

The nomination procedures of the Nomination Committee are set out below:

1. The secretary of the Nomination Committee or the Company Secretary shall call a meeting of the Nomination Committee, and invites nominations of candidates from Board member if any, for consideration by the Nomination Committee prior to its meeting. The Nomination Committee may also put forward candidates who are not nominated by Board members.
2. For filling a casual vacancy, the Nomination Committee shall make recommendations for the Board’s consideration and approval. For proposing candidates to stand for election at a general meeting, the Nomination Committee shall make nominations to the Board for its consideration and recommendation.
3. Until the issue of the shareholder circular, the nominated persons shall not assume that they have been proposed by the Board to stand for election at the general meeting.
4. In order to provide information of the candidates nominated by the Board to stand for election at a general meeting, and to invite nominations from shareholders, a circular will be sent to shareholders. The circular will set out the lodgment period for shareholders to make the nominations. The names, brief biographies (including qualifications and relevant experience), independence, proposed remuneration and any other information, as required pursuant to the applicable laws, rules and regulations, of the proposed candidates will be included in the circular to shareholders.
5. A shareholder can serve a notice to the Company Secretary within the lodgment period of its intention to propose a resolution to elect a certain person as a Director, without the Board’s recommendation or the Nomination Committee’s nomination, other than those candidates set out in the shareholder circular. The particulars of the candidates so proposed will be sent to all shareholders for information by a supplementary circular. A candidate is allowed to withdraw his candidature at any time before the general meeting by serving a notice in writing to the Company Secretary or Chairman.
6. The Board shall have the final decision on all matters relating to its recommendation of candidates to stand for election at any general meeting. The Nomination Committee may obtain independent professional advice, at the Company’s expense, to perform its responsibilities if it considers necessary.

Corporate Governance Report

During the Year, the Nomination Committee performed the works as summarised below:

- (i) reviewed and recommended for the Board's approval the proposed resolutions for re-election of the retiring Directors at the annual general meeting of the Company held on 29 May 2023;
- (ii) reviewed the structure, size, composition and diversity (including the skills, knowledge and experience) of the Board; and
- (iii) reviewed and considered the qualification and the background in respect of appointment of the Directors.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

As at 31 December 2023, the Audit Committee comprises three INEDs, namely Ms. Huang Qingwei (Chairlady), Ms. Zhong Bifeng and Mr. Shen Shigang. During the Year, the Audit Committee held two meetings to review annual financial results and reports in respect of the year ended 31 December 2022, and interim financial results and reports in respect of the period ended on 30 June 2023. The Audit Committee is provided with sufficient resources to discharge its duties. The Audit Committee has clear terms of reference and its principal duties include the review of the financial reporting and internal control system of the Group, review of half-yearly and annual reports and accounts review and monitoring of the appointment of the auditors and their independence.

During the Year, the Audit Committee performed the works as summarised below:

- (i) making recommendations to the board on the appointment of the external auditor and approval of the remuneration and terms of engagement of the external auditor;
- (ii) monitoring the external auditor's independence and objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process in accordance with applicable standards, and discussing with the external auditor the nature and scope of the audit and reporting obligations;
- (iii) implementing the Company's policy on the engagement of an external auditor to supply non-audit services;
- (iv) reviewing and monitoring the integrity of the financial statements of the Company and the Company's annual and interim reports and the auditors' report to ensure that the information presents a true and balanced assessment of the Company's financial position;
- (v) making recommendation to the Board any appropriate extensions or changes in the duties of the Audit Committee;
- (vi) reviewing the Company's financial controls, risk management and internal control systems to ensure that management has discharged its duty to have effective systems including discussing the risk management and internal control systems with management;
- (vii) ensuring the coordination between the internal and external auditors and that the internal audit function is adequately resourced and has appropriate standing within the Company, and reviewing and monitoring the effectiveness of the audit function;
- (viii) reviewing the Company's financial and accounting policies and practices;
- (ix) reviewing the external auditor's management letter, material queries raised by the external auditor to the management in respect of the accounting records, financial accounts or systems of control and the management's response to such queries; and
- (x) reporting to the Board on the matters set out in the Corporate Governance Code on the audit committee.

Corporate Governance Report

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Board acknowledges its responsibility to ensure that a sound and effective internal control system and risk management, which serves as an integral part of the Company's management system, is maintained. The Board is responsible for approving and reviewing internal control policy, while the responsibility of day-to-day management of operational risks and implementation of mitigation measures lies with the management. The Group's internal control system is based on the Integrated Framework of the Committee of Sponsoring Organisations of the Treadway Commission on Internal Control. An internal control system is designed to provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that material misstatement or loss can be avoided, and to manage and minimise risks of failure in operational systems. Key control procedures include:

- establishing a structure with defined authority and proper segregation of duties
- monitoring the strategic plan and performance
- designing an effective accounting and information system
- encouraging internal reporting on serious concern about malpractice
- conducting internal independent review by internal audit function

The Company places great value upon creating an environment where employees maintain the highest standard of integrity. To this end, the Board encourages the raising of concerns by employees about internal malpractice directly to the Board which will review complaints and decide how the investigation should be conducted. The Group has an Internal Audit ("IA") function, which consists of professional staff with relevant expertise, the IA function is independent of the Group's daily operation and carries out appraisal of the risk management and internal control systems by conducting interviews, walkthroughs and tests of operating effectiveness.

According to the established plan, a review of the risk management and internal control systems of the Company and its subsidiaries is conducted annually and the report of internal control assessment and the report of the risk management are submitted to the Audit Committee for their consideration. The Audit Committee will then report to the Board the key findings and recommendations for their consideration and implementation.

The Board has reviewed the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems and considers the risk management and internal control systems effective and adequate. Such systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

Systems and procedures are put in place to identify, evaluate and manage the risks of different businesses and activities. The annual assessment is performed through the completion by the relevant business units and department heads of their respective responsibility statements as co-ordinated by the IA function. The management conducted interviews with relevant staff members, reviewing relevant documentation of the internal control system, identifying and evaluating findings of any deficiencies in the design of the Company's internal control system, providing recommendations for improvement and following up on the effectiveness of implementation of such recommendations, where appropriate. Procedure manuals and operational guidelines are in place to safeguard the assets against unauthorised use or disposition, ensuring maintenance of proper accounting records in compliance with the applicable laws, rules and regulations for the provision of reliable financial information for internal use and/or external publication. The result and findings are reported to the Chairman who puts forward the same to the Audit Committee and the Board for review on the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems, which have been considered effective and adequate.

AUDITOR'S REMUNERATION

For the year ended 31 December 2023, the nature of the audit and non-audit services provided by the auditors of the Company, Mazars CPA Limited, and the relevant fee paid and payable by the Company for such services are as follows:

	HK$'000
Annual audit services	880
Non-assurance services	170
	1,030

The other non-assurance services mainly cover the interim results of the Group for the six months ended 30 June 2023.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Directors acknowledge their responsibility for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements of the Company and ensure that they are prepared in accordance with statutory requirements and applicable accounting standards. The Directors also ensure the timely publication of such consolidated financial statements.

The Directors were not aware of any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

The statement of the external auditors of the Company, Mazars CPA Limited, with regard to their reporting responsibilities on the Company's consolidated financial statements is set out in the Independent Auditor's Report on pages 62 to 66.

SHAREHOLDERS' RIGHTS AND INVESTOR RELATIONS

Shareholders to convene a Special General Meeting ("SGM")

The Directors of the Company, notwithstanding anything in its Bye-laws shall, on the requisition of Shareholders of the Company holding at the date of the deposit of the requisition not less than one-tenth of such of the paid-up capital of the Company as at the date of the deposit carries the right of voting at general meetings of the Company, forthwith proceed duly to convene a SGM of the Company.

The requisition must state the purposes of the meeting, and must be signed by the requisitionists and deposited with the Company Secretary at the Company's principal place of business at Units 2617-18, 26/F, Mira Place Tower A, No. 132 Nathan Road, Kowloon, Hong Kong, and may consist of several documents in like form each signed by one or more requisitionists.

The request will be verified with the Company's Share Registrars and upon their confirmation that the request is proper and in order, the Company Secretary will ask the Board to include the resolution in the agenda for the general meeting.

The notice period to be given to all the Shareholders for consideration of the proposal raised by the Shareholders concerned at AGM or SGM varies according to the nature of the proposal, as follows:

- At least 21 days' notice (the notice period must include not less than 20 clear business days) in writing if the proposal constitutes a resolution of the Company in AGM
- At least 21 days' notice (the notice period must include not less than 10 clear business days) in writing if the proposal constitutes a special resolution of the Company in SGM
- At least 14 days' notice (the notice period must include not less than 10 clear business days) in writing for all other SGM of the Company

To safeguard shareholder interests and rights, separate resolutions are proposed at shareholder meetings on each substantial issue, including the election of individual Directors.

All resolutions put forward at a shareholder meeting will be taken by poll pursuant to the Listing Rules and the poll results will be posted on the websites of the Company and of the Stock Exchange after the shareholder meeting.

The Group will continue to maintain a close relationship with investors and develop greater understanding about the Group for international investors, to enhance investors' confidence in the Group.

COMMUNICATIONS WITH SHAREHOLDERS AND INVESTORS

To promote effective communication, the Company maintains a website at where extensive information and updates on the Company's business developments and operations, financial information, corporate governance practices and other information are available for public access.

The Company has adopted a shareholders communication policy to ensure there will be timely and effective channels for the shareholders to communicate their view on various matters concerning the Company.

Corporate Governance Report

A summary of the Company's shareholders communication policy is as follows:

- the Company's financial reports, circulars, announcements and notice AGMs and other general meetings will be published on the Stock Exchange's website as required under the Listing Rules;
- the Company through its website from time to time publishes information including its press releases, announcements, circulars, financial statements, business developments and operations and other information so that the shareholders will have a better understanding of the business development and performance of the Company;
- at the shareholders' meetings, through annual general meetings and other general meetings, the shareholders may make enquiries to the Company by directly raising questions to the Company. The chairman of the Board, together with the chairman of the Board committees or their delegates, the senior management executives and external auditors are strongly encouraged to attend the annual general meetings to attend to the questions from the shareholders;
- any shareholder(s) holding not less than one-tenth of the paid-up capital of the Company is entitled to propose convening a special general meeting under the bye-laws of the Company; and
- any shareholder of the Company may make enquiries to the Investor Relations Department of the Company at (852) 2522 2898 or by enquiry@chkoilltd.com.

The Company will from time to time review the shareholders communication policy to ensure that there exist effective communication channels to facilitate the shareholders to express their concerns and enquiries on the affairs of the Company and for the Company to understand the views of the shareholders and stakeholders.

The Board have considered the Company's shareholders' engagement and communication activities, the publication of announcements and circulars and other related documents on the Company's and the Stock Exchange's website and the outcome and attendance of the annual meeting convened during the Year. Based on the above, the Board is of the view that the shareholders communication policy is effective during the Year.

To the shareholders of
CHK Oil Limited
(Incorporated in Bermuda with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of CHK Oil Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together the “Group”) set out on pages 67 to 125, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023, and of its financial performance and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSA”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements” section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

MATERIAL UNCERTAINTY RELATED TO GOING CONCERN

We draw attention to the “Going concern” section in note 2(b) to the consolidated financial statements concerning the adoption of the going concern basis on which the consolidated financial statements have been prepared. The Group incurred a net loss attributable to owners of the Company of HK$49,552,000 for the year ended 31 December 2023 and, as of that date, the Group’s total trade and other payables (excluding contract liabilities), loans from ultimate holding company, bank loan and other borrowings, lease liabilities, tax payable in aggregated to approximately HK$50,581,000, of which HK$49,007,000 are due for repayment within the next twelve months after 31 December 2023, and also the Group had only bank balances and cash of HK$1,252,000. These conditions along with other matters as set forth in note 2 (b) to the consolidated financial statements, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Group’s ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore, the Group may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The directors of the Company, having considered the plans and measures being taken by the Group, are of opinion that the Group would be able to continue as a going concern. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters. Except for the matter described in Material Uncertainty Related to Going Concern section, we have determined that matters described below to be the key audit matters to be communicated in our report.

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment assessment of intangible assets and oil and gas properties
Refer to notes 12 and 14 to the consolidated financial statements. As at 31 December 2023, the Group's intangible assets of HK$292,379,000 and property, plant and equipment of HK$48,621,000 were allocated to and monitored within the oil and gas sales segment. Any impairment of these non-current assets identified may have material impact on the consolidated financial statements. The carrying amounts of these non-current assets are subject to impairment assessments annually or when there is an indication of impairment or an impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favorable change in the estimates used to determine their recoverable amount. For the purpose of assessing impairment, these intangible assets and property, plant and equipment, being the oil and gas properties, were identified as a cash generating unit (the "Oil and Gas Sales CGU"), and the Group engaged an independent and qualified professional valuer to assess the recoverable amount of the Oil and Gas Sales CGU which is determined based on the higher of the fair value less costs of disposal and the value in use. The management estimated the recoverable amount of the Oil and Gas Sales CGU based on their fair value less costs of disposal and concluded that an impairment loss in aggregate of HK$46,500,000 in relation to the intangible assets and property, plant and equipment is recognised for the year ended 31 December 2023. Impairment assessment of the significant carrying amount of those assets is highly judgmental and involves a high degree of estimation uncertainty. We therefore identified the impairment assessment as a key audit matter.	In addressing this matter, we had performed the following key procedures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) We evaluated the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the valuer; b) We performed procedures to understand the key processes and controls relating to the assessment of the recoverable amount of the Oil and Gas Sales CGU; c) We evaluated the appropriateness of the methodology used for the determination of recoverable amount of the Oil and Gas Sales CGU; d) We evaluated the reasonableness of key assumptions applied in the fair value less costs of disposal calculations with reference to available market data; e) We reviewed the sensitivity analysis over the key assumptions used in order to assess the potential impact of a range of possible outcomes; f) We checked with comparable data through internal or external sources, on a sample basis, the accuracy and relevancy of the input data used; and g) We considered the adequacy of the Group's disclosure in respect of the impairment assessment.

Independent Auditor's Report

Key Audit Matter	How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matter
Impairment assessment of trade deposits paid to suppliers
Refer to notes 17(a) and 27(c) to the consolidated financial statements. As at 31 December 2023, included in the Group's trade deposits of HK$169,684,000 were trade deposits of HK$118,250,000 paid to a supplier that have been long-aged. The trade deposits represent the second largest asset item of the Group. If trade deposits were not utilised or recovered in full, there would be significant impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group. Impairment assessment of the carrying amount of those trade deposits is highly judgmental and involves a high degree of estimation uncertainty. We therefore identified the impairment assessment as a key audit matter.	In addressing this matter, we had performed the following key procedures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) We obtained an understanding of management's key controls relating to the Group's credit control; b) We arranged audit confirmation with suppliers for balance of trade deposits as at 31 December 2023; c) We obtained the breakdown of trade deposits and examined the historical records for delivery of goods by the supplier and supporting documents for prepayments made; d) We examined the subsequent utilization or refund of the trade deposits; e) We assessed the method, basis, key assumptions and rationale for the allowance for credit loss made by the management's valuer; f) We evaluated the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the valuer; g) We reviewed the expected credit loss ("ECL") assessment prepared by management and the ECL valuation report issued by the independent professional valuer; and h) We reviewed the sensitivity analysis over the key assumptions used by the valuer.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the 2023 annual report of the Company but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with Section 90 of the Bermuda Companies Act 1981, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

CHK Oil Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries are collectively referred to as the “Group”) is a limited liability company incorporated in Bermuda. The address of its registered office is Clarendon House, 2 Church Street, Hamilton HM 11, Bermuda and its principal place of business is situated at Units 2617–18, 26th Floor, Mira Place Tower A, No. 132 Nathan Road, Kowloon, Hong Kong. The Company’s shares are listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”).

In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the Company’s parent and ultimate holding company is Xin Hua Petroleum (Hong Kong) Limited (“Xin Hua”), a company incorporated in Hong Kong.

These consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”) which is the same as the functional currency of the Company and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand except where otherwise indicated.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of preparation

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”), which collective term includes all applicable HKFRSs, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKASs”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the “HKICPA”), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosures provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

The measurement basis used in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements is the historical cost basis.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a basis consistent with the accounting policies adopted in the 2022 consolidated financial statements except for the adoption of the new/revised HKFRSs that are relevant to the Group and effective from the current year, and which the Group elected to early adopt in the current year. A summary of the principal accounting policies adopted by the Group is set out below.

Adoption of new/revised HKFRSs

The Group has applied, for the first time, the following new/revised HKFRSs that are relevant to the Group:

Amendments to HKAS 1	Disclosure of Accounting Policies
Amendments to HKAS 8	Definition of Accounting Estimates
Amendments to HKAS 12	Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction

Amendments to HKAS 1: Disclosure of Accounting Policies

The amendments require companies to disclose their material accounting policy information rather than their significant accounting policies. The amendments have no effect on the measurement, recognition or presentation of any items in the consolidated financial statements. Management has reviewed the disclosure of accounting policy information and considered it is consistent with the amendments.

(a) Basis of preparation (Continued)

Amendments to HKAS 8: Definition of Accounting Estimates

The amendments clarify how companies should distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates. The adoption of the amendments does not have any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 12: Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction

The amendments narrow the scope of the recognition exemption in paragraphs 15 and 24 of HKAS 12 so that it no longer applies to transactions that, on recognition, give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. The adoption of the amendments does not have any significant impact on the consolidated financial statements.

(b) Going concern

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the principles applicable to a going concern basis. The applicability of these principles is dependent upon continued availability of adequate finance or attaining profitable operations in the future in view of the cash requirements to meet its financial obligations as and when they fall due within the next twelve months. The Group incurred a net loss attributable to owners of the Company of HK$49,552,000 for the year ended 31 December 2023 and, as of that date, the Group's total trade and other payables (excluding contract liabilities), loans from ultimate holding company, bank loan and other borrowings, lease liabilities, tax payable in aggregated to approximately HK$50,581,000, of which HK$49,007,000 are due for repayment within the next twelve months after 31 December 2023, and also the Group had only bank balances and cash of HK$1,252,000. These conditions indicate a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and, therefore, the Group may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business.

The directors are of the Company are of the opinion that the Group will have sufficient working capital to finance its operations and to meet its financial obligations for at least the next twelve months from the date of approval of the consolidated financial statements which can be prepared on a going concern basis, after taking into consideration of the followings:

- (i) the Group's ultimate holding company and its substantial beneficial shareholder have committed to provide continuous financial support to the Group as is necessary to enable the Group to meet its day-to-day operations and its financial obligations as they fall due;
- (ii) with reference to the cash flow projection for the next twelve months, the Group will maintain sufficient cash and cash equivalents through internally generated cash flows to finance its activities and pay its debts as and when they fall due;
- (iii) the Group will consider other financing arrangements and fund-raising alternatives with a view to increasing the Group's capitalisation/equity and to support the daily operations of the Group; and
- (iv) the Group will continue to improve the operating efficiency by implementing measures to tighten cost controls over various operating expenses in order to enhance its profitability and to improve the cash flows from its operation in future.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(b) Going concern (Continued)

Having regard to the cash flow projection of the Group, which are prepared assuming that the above measures are successful, the directors of the Company are of the opinion that, in light of the measures taken to-date, together with the expected results of the other measures in progress, the Group will have sufficient funding resources to satisfy its future working capital and other financing requirements.

However, should the above measures not be able to implement successfully, the Group may not have sufficient funds to operate as a going concern, in which case adjustments might have to be made to reduce the carrying values of the Group's assets to their net realisable amounts, to reclassify the non-current assets and non-current liabilities as current assets and current liabilities, respectively and to provide for any further liabilities which might arise. The effects of these adjustments have not been reflected in these consolidated financial statements.

(c) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company (its subsidiaries). Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- has the ability to use its power to affect its returns.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control listed above.

All intra-group transactions, balances, income and expenses are eliminated in full on consolidation. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Where necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with those used by other members of the Group.

Non-controlling interest in subsidiary is presented separately from the Group's equity therein, which represents present ownership interest entitling its holder to a proportionate share of net assets of the relevant subsidiaries upon liquidation.

Allocation of total comprehensive income

Profit or loss and each item of other comprehensive income are attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests. Total comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the Company and to the non-controlling interests even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(d) Foreign currency translation

Foreign currency transactions during the year are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the foreign exchange rates ruling at the end of the reporting period. Exchange gains and losses are recognised in profit or loss.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates. Non-monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies that are stated at fair value are translated using the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates the fair value was measured.

The results of foreign operations are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the exchange rates approximating the foreign exchange rates ruling at the dates of the transactions. Statement of financial position items are translated into Hong Kong dollars at the closing foreign exchange rates at the end of the reporting period. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated separately in equity in the translation reserve.

On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount of the exchange differences relating to that foreign operation is reclassified from equity to profit or loss when the profit or loss on disposal is recognised.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(e) Property, plant and equipment

Oil and gas properties

Oil and gas properties are initially recorded at cost and are subsequently carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

The successful efforts method of accounting is used for oil and gas exploration and production activities. The Group capitalises the initial acquisition costs of oil and gas properties. Upon discovery of commercial reserves, acquisition costs are transferred to proved properties. The costs of drilling and equipping successful exploratory wells, all development expenditures on construction, installation or completion of infrastructure facilities such as platforms, pipelines, processing plants and the drilling of development wells and the building of enhanced recovery facilities, including those renewals and betterments that extend the economic lives of the assets, and the related borrowing costs are capitalised. The costs of unsuccessful exploratory wells and all other exploration costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group carries exploratory well costs as an asset when the well has found a sufficient quantity of reserves to justify its completion as a producing well and where the Group is making sufficient progress assessing the reserves and the economic and operating viability of the project. Exploratory well costs not meeting these criteria are charged to expenses. Exploratory wells that discover potentially economic reserves in areas where major capital expenditure will be required before production would begin and when the major capital expenditure depends upon the successful completion of further exploratory work remain capitalised and are reviewed periodically for impairment.

Oil and gas properties are depreciated on a unit-of-production basis over the proved reserves. Common facilities that are built specifically to service production directly attributed to designated oil and gas properties are depreciated based on the proved and probable developed reserves of the respective oil and gas properties on a pro-rata basis. Common facilities that are not built specifically to service identified oil and gas properties are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives. Costs associated with significant development projects are not depreciated until commercial production commences and the reserves related to those costs are excluded from the calculation of depreciation.

Other property, plant and equipment

Other items of property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses.

Cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the asset. Purchased software that is integral to the functionality of the related equipment is capitalised as part of that equipment.

Depreciation is provided to write off the cost less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method, at the following rates per annum:

Leasehold improvements	Over the shorter of the lease terms or 5 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment	20% to 25%
Motor vehicles	20%

(e) Property, plant and equipment (Continued)

Other property, plant and equipment (Continued)

The assets' residual values, depreciation methods and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each reporting date.

The gain or loss arising on retirement or disposal is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. All other costs, such as repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

(f) Intangible assets

Acquired intangible assets are recognised initially at cost. The cost of intangible assets acquired in a business combination is the fair value at the date of acquisition. After initial recognition, intangible assets with finite useful life are carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses.

The intangible assets of oil and gas possessing right of the natural gas and oil properties are amortised upon the commercial production of oil and gas on a unit-of-production basis over the total proved reserves.

(g) Financial assets

All financial assets are recognised when, and only when, the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument and on trade date basis.

Derecognition of financial assets occurs when the rights to receive cash from the investments expire or are transferred and substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership have been transferred.

Financial assets are initially stated at fair value plus directly attributable transaction costs, except for those financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVPL") for which transaction costs are recognised directly in profit or loss. Financial assets are subsequently accounted for, depending on their classification.

Financial assets held by the Group are all classified as amortised cost. The financial asset is held for the collection of contractual cash flows which represent solely payments of principal and interest. Interest income is calculated using effective interest method.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets

(i) Credit losses from financial instruments

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses (“ECLs”) on its financial assets measured at amortised cost (including cash and cash equivalents, deposits paid, statutory deposits and other assets, and trade and other receivables).

Measurement of ECLs

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all expected cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

The expected cash shortfalls are discounted using the following discount rate where the effect of discounting is material:

- fixed-rate financial assets: effective interest rate determined at initial recognition or an approximation thereof.
- variable rate financial assets: current effective interest rate.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

In measuring ECLs, the Group takes into account reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort. This includes information about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions.

ECLs are measured on either of the following bases:

- 12-month ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from possible default events within the 12 months after the reporting date; and
- lifetime ECLs: these are losses that are expected to result from all possible default events over the expected lives of the items to which the ECL model applies.

Loss allowances for trade receivables are always measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. ECLs on trade receivables are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the reporting date.

For all other financial instruments, the Group recognises a loss allowance equal to 12-month ECLs unless there has been a significant increase in credit risk of the financial instrument since initial recognition, in which case the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Significant increases in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of default occurring on the financial instrument assessed at the reporting date with that assessed at the date of initial recognition. In making this reassessment, the Group considers that a default event occurs when (i) the borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as realising security (if any is held); or (ii) the financial asset 90 days past due. The Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition:

- failure to make payments of principal or interest on their contractually due dates;
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in a financial instrument's external or internal credit rating (if available);
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor; and
- existing or forecast changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have a significant adverse effect on the debtor's ability to meet its obligation to the Group.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual basis or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

ECLs are remeasured at each reporting date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

Credit-impaired financial assets

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether a financial asset is credit-impaired. A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset have occurred.

Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable events:

- significant financial difficulties of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- it becoming probable that the borrower will enter into bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- significant changes in the technological, market, economic or legal environment that have an adverse effect on the debtor; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties of the issuer.

Write-off policy

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset or contract asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(h) Credit losses and impairment of assets (Continued)

(ii) Impairment of other non-current assets

The following assets are subject to impairment testing:

- Intangible assets;
- Right-of-use assets;
- Property, plant and equipment; and
- The Company's interests in subsidiaries

All the above assets are tested for impairment whenever there are indications that the asset's carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value, reflecting market conditions less costs of disposal, and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessment of time value of money and the risk specific to the asset.

For the purposes of assessing impairment, where an asset does not generate cash inflows largely independent from those from other assets, the recoverable amount is determined for the smallest group of assets that generate cash inflows independently (i.e. a cash-generating unit). As a result, some assets are tested individually for impairment and some are tested at cash-generating unit level.

An impairment loss is reversed if there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount and only to the extent that the asset's carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation or amortisation, if no impairment loss had been recognised.

(i) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash at bank and in hand, demand deposits with banks and short term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(j) Financial liabilities

The Group's financial liabilities include trade and other payables, loans from ultimate holding company, bank loan and other borrowings.

Financial liabilities are recognised when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. All interest related charges are recognised in accordance with the Group's accounting policy for borrowing costs.

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires. Where an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability and the recognition of a new liability, and the difference in the respective carrying amount is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group's financial liabilities are initially recognised at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method, unless the effect of discounting would be insignificant, in which case they are stated at cost. In the case of financial liabilities not carried at FVPL, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the issue of the financial liabilities.

(k) Leases

A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

For contracts entered into or modified or arising from business combinations, the Group assesses whether a contract is or contains a lease based on the definition under HKFRS 16 at inception, modification date or acquisition date, as appropriate. Such contract will not be reassessed unless the terms and conditions of the contract are subsequently changed.

(k) Leases (Continued)

Short-term leases

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option. Lease payments on short-term leases are recognised as expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use asset includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability;
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;
- any initial direct costs incurred by the Group; and
- an estimate of costs to be incurred by the Group in dismantling and removing the underlying assets, restoring the site on which it is located or restoring the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets in which the Group is reasonably certain to obtain ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term are depreciated from commencement date to the end of the useful life. Otherwise, right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

When the Group obtains ownership of the underlying leased assets at the end of the lease term, upon exercising purchase options, the cost of the relevant right-of-use assets and the related accumulated depreciation and impairment loss are transferred to property, plant and equipment.

The Group presents right-of-use assets as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date if the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise the option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating a lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising an option to terminate the lease.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group remeasures lease liabilities (and makes a corresponding adjustment to the related right-of-use assets) whenever the lease term has changed or there is a change in the assessment of exercise of a purchase option, in which case the related lease liability is remeasured by discounting the revised lease payments using a revised discount rate at the date of reassessment.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(l) Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Share capital is determined using the nominal value of shares that have been issued.

Any transaction costs associated with the issuing of shares are deducted from share premium (net of any related income tax benefit) to the extent they are incremental costs directly attributable to the equity transaction.

Where the Company's equity share capital is repurchased (treasury shares), the consideration paid, including any directly attributable incremental costs (net of income taxes) is deducted from equity attributable to owners of the Company until the shares are cancelled or reissued. Where such ordinary shares are subsequently reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to owners of the Company.

(m) Revenue recognition

(i) Revenue from contracts with customers within HKFRS 15

Nature of goods

The Group engages in oil and gas sales; and trading of oil and oil-related and other products.

Identification of performance obligations

At contract inception, the Group assesses the goods promised in a contract with a customer and identifies as a performance obligation each promise to transfer to the customer either:

- (i) a good (or a bundle of goods or services) that is distinct; or
- (ii) a series of distinct goods that are substantially the same and that have the same pattern of transfer to the customer.

A good that is promised to a customer is distinct if both of the following criteria are met:

- (i) the customer can benefit from the good either on its own or together with other resources that are readily available to the customer (i.e. the good is capable of being distinct); and
- (ii) the Group's promise to transfer the good to the customer is separately identifiable from other promises in the contract (i.e. the promise to transfer the good is distinct within the context of the contract).

(m) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Timing of revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised when (or as) the Group satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good (i.e. an asset) to a customer. An asset is transferred when (or as) the customer obtains control of that asset.

The Group transfers control of a good over time and, therefore, satisfies a performance obligation and recognises revenue over time, if one of the following criteria is met:

- (i) the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- (ii) the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset (for example, work in progress) that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced; or
- (iii) the Group's performance does not create an asset with an alternative use to the Group and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date.

If a performance obligation is not satisfied over time, the Group satisfies the performance obligation at a point in time when the customer obtains control of the promised asset. In determining when the transfer of control occurs, the Group considers the concept of control and such indicators as legal title, physical possession, right to payment, significant risks and rewards of ownership of the asset, and customer acceptance.

Revenue from trading of oil and oil-related and other products is recognised at a point in time at which the customer obtains the control of the promised asset, which generally coincides with the time when the goods are delivered to customers and the title is passed.

Oil and gas sales are recognised at a point in time at which the customer accepts and takes the control of the products, being when the products are physically transferred into a vessel, pipe or other delivery mechanism agreed with customers.

(ii) Interest income

Interest income is recognised as it accrues using the effective interest method. For financial assets measured at amortised cost that are not credit-impaired, the effective interest rate is applied to the gross carrying amount of the asset. For credit-impaired financial assets, the effective interest rate is applied to the amortised cost (i.e. gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) of the asset (see Note 2(g)(i)).

(n) Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when the customer pays consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. A contract liability would also be recognised if the Group has an unconditional right to receive consideration before the Group recognises the related revenue. In such cases, the corresponding receivable would also be recognised.

(o) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term employee benefits

Salaries, annual bonuses, paid annual leave, and the cost of non-monetary benefits are accrued in the year in which the associated services are rendered by employees.

(ii) Retirement benefits

Retirement benefits to employees are provided through defined contribution plans.

The Group operates a defined contribution retirement benefit plan in Hong Kong under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes (“MPF”) Ordinance, for all of its employees who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees’ basic salaries.

Pursuant to the relevant People’s Republic of China (“PRC”) laws and regulations, each of the PRC subsidiaries of the Group is required to participate in a retirement benefit scheme organised by the local municipal government whereby the Group is required to contribute a certain percentage of the salaries of its employees to the retirement benefit scheme. The obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to pay the ongoing required contributions.

Contributions are recognised as an expense in profit or loss as employees render services during the year. The Group’s obligations under these plans are limited to the fixed percentage contributions payable.

(p) Income taxes

Income tax comprises current tax and deferred tax.

Current income tax assets and/or liabilities comprise those obligations to, or claims from, fiscal authorities relating to the current or prior reporting period, that are unpaid at the reporting date. They are calculated according to the tax rates and tax laws applicable to the fiscal periods to which they relate, based on the taxable profit for the year. All changes to current tax assets or liabilities are recognised as a component of tax expense in profit or loss.

Deferred tax is calculated using the liability method on temporary differences at the reporting date between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and their respective tax bases. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, tax losses available to be carried forward as well as other unused tax credits, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit, including existing taxable temporary differences, will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilised.

(p) Income taxes (Continued)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither taxable nor accounting profit or loss.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax is calculated, without discounting, at tax rates that are expected to apply in the period the liability is settled or the asset realised, provided they are enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Changes in deferred tax assets or liabilities are recognised in profit or loss, or in other comprehensive income or directly in equity if they relate to items that are charged or credited to other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and current tax liabilities are presented in net if, and only if,

- (i) the Group has the legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and
- (ii) intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

The Group presents deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities in net if, and only if,

- (i) the Group has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities; and
- (ii) the deferred tax assets and the deferred tax liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either:
 - (a) the same taxable entity; or
 - (b) different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

(q) Segment reporting

The Group identifies operating segments and prepares segment information based on the regular internal financial information reported to the executive directors for their decisions about resources allocation to the Group's business components and for their review of the performance of those components. The business components in the internal financial information reported to the executive directors are determined following the Group's major product and service lines.

Each of the operating segments is managed separately as each of the product and service lines requires different resources as well as marketing approaches.

The measurement policies the Group uses for reporting segment results under HKFRS 8 are the same as those used in its consolidated financial statements prepared under HKFRSs, except that:

- finance costs
- income tax
- corporate income and expenses which are not directly attributable to the business activities of any operating segment are not included in arriving at the operating results of the operating segment.

Segment assets exclude corporate assets which are not directly attributable to the business activities of any operating segment. Corporate assets include certain property, plant and equipment, prepayments, deposits and other receivables and bank balances and cash.

Segment liabilities exclude deferred tax liabilities and corporate liabilities which are not directly attributable to the business activities of any operating segment. Corporate liabilities include certain other payables and accruals, loans from ultimate holding company, lease liabilities and tax payable.

(r) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2. SUMMARY OF PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(s) Related parties

- (i) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
 - (a) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (b) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (c) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.
- (ii) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (a) The entity and the Group are members of the same group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others).
 - (b) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (c) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (d) One entity is a joint venture of a third party and the other entity is an associate of the third party.
 - (e) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (f) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (i).
 - (g) A person identified in (i)(a) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (h) The entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity and include:

- (a) that person's children and spouse or domestic partner;
- (b) children of that person's spouse or domestic partner; and
- (c) dependants of that person or that person's spouse or domestic partner.

In the definition of a related party, an associate includes subsidiaries of the associate and a joint venture includes subsidiaries of the joint venture.

3. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

Estimates and judgements are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal to the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below:

Estimation of oil and natural gas reserves

Changes in proved oil and natural gas reserves will affect the depreciation, depletion and amortisation under the unit-of-production method recorded in the Group's consolidated financial statements for property, plant and equipment and intangible assets related to oil and gas production activities. The proved oil and natural gas reserves are also key determinants in assessing whether the carrying value of the Group's oil and gas properties and intangible assets have been impaired. Proved reserves are determined using estimates such as oil in place, future product prices and drilling and development plans.

Estimation of impairment of oil and gas assets and intangible assets

Oil and gas assets and intangible assets are reviewed for possible impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable or there has been a favourable change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount. Determination as to whether and how much an asset is impaired or impairment loss is reversed involves the management estimates and judgements such as future price of oil and gas, the production profile and any significant changes in factors or assumptions used in estimating reserves.

Estimation of impairment of trade deposits paid

The Group's management estimates the loss allowance for trade deposits paid by using various inputs and assumptions including risk of a default and expected loss rate. The estimation involves high degree of uncertainty which is based on the Group's historical information, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of each reporting period. Where the expectation is different from the original estimate, such difference will impact the carrying amount of trade deposit paid. Details of the key assumption and inputs used in estimating ECL are set out in note 27(c) to the consolidated financial statements. If the ECL rates on the trade deposits paid over 365 days had been 1% higher (lower) at the end of the reporting period, with other assumptions held constant, the loss allowance would have been HK$1,200,000 (2022: HK$Nil) higher (lower).

PRC	161,497	355,269	83	16
	161,497	355,277	347,166	394,941

The geographical location of customers is based on the location at which the goods are delivered. The geographical location of the non-current assets is based on physical location of the asset in the case of property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, statutory deposits and other assets and the location of the operation to which they are allocated in the case of intangible assets.

The Group's customer base includes three (2022: four) customers with whom transactions have exceeded 10% of the Group's total revenue. Revenue from sales to these customers were amounted to approximately HK$43,218,000, HK$27,854,000 and HK$19,786,000 respectively (2022: HK$119,842,000, HK$79,897,000, HK$48,774,000 and HK$43,227,000 respectively) and were related to trading of oil, oil-related and other products segment.

8. INCOME TAX CREDIT (EXPENSE)

Hong Kong Profits tax

The two-tiered profits tax rates regime has been implemented in Hong Kong since 1 April 2018.

For the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, no provision for Hong Kong profits tax has been made for the Hong Kong incorporated subsidiaries of the Group as they had no assessable profits for the year.

Overseas taxes

Taxation on overseas profits has been calculated on the estimated assessable profits for the year at the rates of taxation prevailing in the country in which the Group operates.

PRC Enterprise Income tax (“EIT”)

EIT has not been provided as the subsidiaries operating in the PRC incurred a loss for taxation purposes for the year ended 31 December 2023. EIT had been provided on the estimated assessable profits of subsidiaries operating in the PRC at a statutory rate of 25% for the year ended 31 December 2022.

PRC withholding tax

In addition, according to the EIT law, dividends, interests, rent, royalties and gains on transfers of property received by a foreign enterprise, i.e. a non-Chinese tax resident enterprise, will be subject to PRC withholding tax at 10%.

Withholding income tax of 10% is provided on the dividends distributed or expected to be distributed by the PRC subsidiaries of the Group. As at 31 December 2023 and 2022, no deferred tax has been recognised for withholding taxes that would be payable on the unremitted earnings of the Groups’ subsidiaries established in the PRC of HK$79,295,000 (2022: HK$81,382,000). In the opinion of the directors, these accumulated undistributed profits, at the present time, are required for financing the continuing operations of the entities and no distribution would be made in the foreseeable future.

US tax

For the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, no provision for US tax has been made for the US incorporated subsidiaries of the Group as they had no assessable profits for the year. The tax rate adopted to measure the deferred tax balances is 21%.

9. DIVIDENDS

The board of directors does not recommend the payment of a final dividend for the year ended 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$ Nil).

10. LOSS PER SHARE

The calculation of basic and diluted loss per share attributable to owners of the Company is based on the followings:

	2023	2022
Loss for the year attributable to owners of the Company (HK$'000)	(49,552)	(1,193)
Weighted average number of ordinary shares ('000)	841,636	841,636
Basic and diluted loss per share (HK cents)	(5.89)	(0.14)

(a) Basic loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss for the year attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022, excluding ordinary shares held as treasury shares.

(b) Diluted loss per share

The calculation of diluted loss per share is the same as basic loss per share as there were no dilutive potential ordinary shares during the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022.

The intangible assets represent oil and gas processing rights in Utah, the USA. The intangible assets are amortised upon the commercial production of oil and natural gas on a unit-of-production basis over the total proved reserves.

For the purpose of impairment test, the oil and gas properties of HK$48,621,000 (2022: HK$55,251,000) included in property, plant and equipment set out in Note 12 to the consolidated financial statements and intangible assets set out in this note have been allocated to the oil and gas sales segment of the Group, which is an individual cash-generating unit ("Oil and Gas Sales CGU").

The recoverable amount for this Oil and Gas Sales CGU was determined based on fair value, reflecting market conditions less cost of disposal with reference to a valuation performed by an independent valuer, Ravia Global Appraisal Advisory Limited. The fair value less cost of disposal calculations use cash flow projections of 65 years (2022: 65 years) in which substantial reserves expected to be extracted within 39 years (2022: 39 years) upon commencement of drilling, which is the expected period of time estimated by the management to fully utilise the reserve as per the latest competent person report, and a discount rate of 11.96% (2022: 11.92%). The management determined the key assumptions based on past performance and expectation on market development by reference to market information such as forecast to future oil and gas prices, historical growth rate of oil and gas prices, expectation on oil and gas consumption and cost of exploration.

After assessing the information, in view of the decrease in estimated prices of oil and natural gas in coming years, the recoverable amount of Oil and Gas Sales CGU at the end of the reporting period was decreased to HK$341,000,000 which is lower than its carrying amount. As a result, a provision of impairment loss on oil and gas properties of HK$6,630,000 (2022: reversal of provision of HK$1,105,000) and oil and gas processing rights of HK$39,870,000 (2022: reversal of provision of HK$6,645,000) was recognised during the year.

14. INTANGIBLE ASSETS (Continued)

The fair value measurement in the impairment assessment is categorised in level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The significant unobservable input including the future price of oil and gas, gross margin, growth rate, discount rate and cost of exploration, where the higher the price of oil and gas, gross margin and growth rate and the lower of the discount rate and cost of exploration, the higher the fair value of the Oil and Gas Sales CGU would be. This measurement requires the Group to make estimates about expected future cash flows and discount rates, hence they are subject to uncertainty. If the future price of oil and gas had been increased or decreased by 2% (2022: 2%) from the management's estimates, with other assumptions held constant, the recoverable amount of these assets in the Oil and Gas Sales CGU would be increased or reduced by HK$39,000,000 or HK$31,200,000 respectively (2022: HK$39,000,000 or HK$31,200,000). If the discount rate had been increased or decreased by 1% (2022: 1%) from the management's estimates, with other assumptions held constant, the recoverable amount of these assets in the Oil and Gas Sales CGU would be reduced or increased by HK$31,200,000 or HK$39,000,000 respectively (2022: HK$31,200,000 or HK$39,000,000).

		176,945	125,962

Information about the Group's exposure to credit risks for deposits paid and other receivables is included in Note 27(c) to the consolidated financial statements.

(a) Trade deposits paid

Trade deposits paid represent prepayments to suppliers and will be utilised in future purchases from suppliers. Included in trade deposits paid of HK$118,250,000 (2022:HK$123,746,000) are unsecured and interest-bearing at 4.35% per annum (2022: 3.88% per annum). In view of changes in international situation which led to significant fluctuations in oil prices, changes in the demand of crude oil in the PRC and the underperformance of the economic recovery after the epidemic in the PRC, the Group has not carried out the procurement of crude oil in accordance with its original plan. On 9 October 2023, the Group entered into an agreement with the supplier for a full refund of the trade deposits paid of the balance of HK$118,250,000. Subsequent to the end of the reporting period, trade deposits paid and the corresponding interest receivable of HK$123,825,000 have been refunded.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each supplier. The default risk of the industry and country in which suppliers operate also has an influence on credit risk but to a lesser extent. At the end of each reporting period, the Group has a certain concentrations of credit risk as 70% (2022: 100%) and 100% (2022: 100%) of the total prepayments made to the Group's largest supplier and the five largest suppliers respectively.

(b) Impairment losses on deposits paid and other receivables

The movement in the loss allowance for deposits paid and other receivables during the year is summarised below:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
At beginning of the reporting period	–	71,609

At end of the reporting period	–	–

18. BANK BALANCES AND CASH

At end of reporting period, the bank balances of the Group denominated in Renminbi ("RMB") amounted to HK$720,000 (2022: HK$1,695,000). The government of the PRC has implemented foreign exchange control and the remittance of these funds out of the PRC is subject to exchange restrictions imposed by the government of the PRC.

At 31 December 2023	61,161	(8,263)	(10,871)	42,027

The amounts recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position are as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Deferred tax assets	(19,134)	(17,747)
Deferred tax liabilities	61,161	69,501
Net deferred tax liabilities	42,027	51,754

At end of the reporting period, the Group has unrecognised unused tax losses of approximately HK$55,316,000 (2022: HK$55,316,000) available for offset against future profits. However, no deferred tax asset in respect of them had been recognised due to the unpredictability of future profit streams even though those tax losses may be carried forward indefinitely.

The holders of ordinary shares are entitled to receive dividends as declared from time to time and are entitled to one vote per share at general meetings of the Company. All ordinary shares rank equally with regard to the Company's residual assets.

25. RESERVES

(a) Capital reserve

The capital reserve of the Group represents the difference between the nominal value of the share capital issued by the Company and the aggregate of the share capital and the share premium account of the subsidiaries acquired pursuant to the Group reorganisation in 1996.

(b) Treasury shares reserve

The reserve for the Company's own shares comprises the cost of the Company's shares held by a subsidiary of the Group. At 31 December 2023, the subsidiary held 243,600 ordinary shares of the Company (31 December 2022: 243,600 ordinary shares).

(c) Statutory reserves

Statutory reserves were established in accordance with the relevant rules and regulations in PRC and the articles of association of the PRC subsidiaries. Those PRC subsidiaries which are domestic enterprises in the PRC are required to transfer no less than 10% of their profit after taxation, as determined under PRC accounting regulations, to the statutory reserve until the reserve balance reaches 50% of the registered capital. Appropriations to the reserves were approved by the respective boards of directors. These reserves may be used to make good previous years' losses, if any, and may be converted into capital in proportion to the existing equity interests of investors, provided that the balance after such conversion is not less than 25% of the registered capital. These reserves are non-distributable other than upon liquidation. Transfers to these reserves must be made before distributing dividends.

25. RESERVES (Continued)

(d) Contributed surplus

The contributed surplus of the Company represents the excess of the nominal value of the share capital issued by the Company and the aggregate net asset value of the subsidiaries acquired at the date of acquisition pursuant to the Group reorganisation in 1996. Under the Companies Act 1981 of Bermuda (as amended), the Company may make distributions to its members out of contributed surplus in certain circumstances.

Under the Companies Act 1981 Bermuda, the contributed surplus of the Company is available for distribution. However, the Company cannot declare or pay a dividend, or make a distribution out of contributed surplus, if:

- (i) it is, or would after the payment be, unable to pay its liabilities as they become due; or
- (ii) the realisable value of its assets would thereby be less than the aggregate of its liabilities and its issued share capital and share premium.

(e) Share premium

The share premium is available for distribution to shareholders subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association of the Company and no distribution may be paid to shareholders out of the share premium unless, immediately following the date on which the distribution or dividend is proposed to be paid, the Company shall be able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business.

(f) Translation reserve

Translation reserve of the Group comprises all foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of operations outside Hong Kong. The reserve is dealt with in accordance with the accounting policies set out in note 2 to the consolidated financial statements.

26. RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Save as disclosed elsewhere in the consolidated financial statements, during the year, the Group had the following significant transactions and balances with its related parties:

Key management personnel remuneration

Remuneration for key management personnel of the Group, including amounts paid/payable to the Company's directors, as disclosed in Note 11(a) to the consolidated financial statements, is as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Key management personnel:
– Short term employee benefits	6,016	4,169
– Pension scheme contribution	36	36
	6,052	4,205

27. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

The Group is exposed to financial risks through its use of financial instruments in its ordinary course of operations and in its investment activities. The financial risks include market risk (including foreign currency risk and interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk.

The Group actively and regularly reviews and manages its financial risks and takes actions to mitigate such risks. The board of directors reviews and agrees policies for managing each of these risks.

(a) Foreign currency risk

The Group's transactions are mainly denominated in HK$, RMB and United States dollars ("US$") which are the functional currencies of the respective subsidiaries. The Group does not have significant exposure to foreign currency risk.

(b) Interest rate risk

The Group's interest-earning financial assets comprise bank balances. The Group's interest-bearing financial liabilities comprise bank loan and lease liabilities. The Group has no significant exposure to interest rate risk.

27. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT AND FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS (Continued)

(c) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in a financial loss to the Group.

The carrying amount of financial assets recognised on the consolidated statement of financial position, which is net of impairment losses, represents the Group's exposure to credit risk without taking into account the value of any collateral held or other credit enhancements. The credit risk of the Group is primarily attributable to trade receivables, prepayments, deposits and other receivables, and bank balances and cash.

Trade receivables

The Group trades only with recognised and creditworthy parties. It is the Group's policy that all customers who wish to trade on credit terms are subject to credit verification procedures. The management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. The Group does not obtain collateral in respect of trade receivables. Credit evaluations of its customers' financial position and condition are performed on each and every major customer periodically. The Group limits its exposure to credit risk from trade receivables by closely monitoring the unsettled balances and taking promptly follow-actions.

The Group's exposure to credit risk is influenced mainly by the individual characteristics of each customer. The default risk of the industry and country in which customers operate also has an influence on credit risk but to a lesser extent. Credit evaluations focus on the customer's past history of making payments when due and current ability to pay, and take into account information specific to the customer as well as pertaining to the economic environment in which the customer operates.

At the end of the reporting period, the Group had a concentration of credit risk as 77% (2022: 35%) and 100% (2022: 100%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest customer and the five largest customers respectively.

The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs, which is calculated using a provision matrix. As the Group's historical credit loss experience does not indicate significantly different loss patterns for different customer segments, the loss allowance based on past due status is not further distinguished between the Group's different customer bases.

The Group does not hold any collateral over trade receivables as at 31 December 2023 (2022: HK$Nil). No loss allowance is recognised on these trade receivables as at 31 December 2023 as the management considers that the allowance for ECL on trade receivables is insignificant (2022: HK$Nil).

Trade deposits paid to a supplier of HK$118,250,000 in note 17(a)

In estimating the ECL and in determining whether there is a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and whether the financial asset is credit-impaired, the Group has taken into account the historical actual credit loss experience over the past years and adjusted for forward-looking factors that are specific to the suppliers and general economic conditions of the industry in which the counterparties operate, in estimating the probability of default of these financial assets, as well as the loss upon default in each case. There was no change in the estimation techniques or significant assumptions made during the year.

The directors have reassessed the recoverability of the unutilised prepayments based on all relevant information available to the Group including available public information and the experiences of the historical credit loss experience and default of delivery of goods.

The information about the exposure to credit risk and ECL for trade deposit paid, by aging analysis based on the date of payment made, is summarised below.

The expected loss rate for calculating ECL of trade deposits paid to suppliers is based on the Group's assessment of the credit quality of each individual supplier. A specific expected loss rate will be applied, on case-by-case basis, when the management of the Group considers there has been significant increase in credit risk for the trade deposits paid of the individual supplier. No impairment loss has been recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income during the year ended 31 December 2023 as the management considers that the allowance for ECL on trade deposits paid to suppliers is insignificant (2022: HK$Nil).

Statutory deposits, other assets, rental and other deposits, and other receivables

The management considers the credit risk on statutory deposits, other assets, rental and other deposits, and other receivables, net of impairment losses, is minimal after considering the financial conditions of counterparties. Management has performed assessment over the recoverability of these balances and does not expect any losses from these balances. Other than the written off of loss allowance for non-recoverable amount in Note 17(b), there is no change in loss allowance for deposits and other receivables (2022: HK$Nil).

Bank balances

The credit risk for bank balances is considered negligible as the counterparties are reputable banks.

(d) Liquidity risk

In the opinion of the directors, the Group should have adequate resources to meet its obligation in the forthcoming year.

The following table details the remaining contractual maturities at the end of the reporting period of the Group's non-derivative financial liabilities, which are based on contractual undiscounted cash flows (including interest payments computed using contractual rates or, if floating, based on the rates current at the end of the reporting period) and the earliest date the Group can be required to pay.

28. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group's capital management objectives are to ensure the Group's ability to continue as a going concern and to maintain healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximise shareholders' value.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments in light of changes in economic conditions. The Group monitors its capital structure on the basis of net debt to total equity ratio and gearing (debt-to-asset) ratio. For this purpose net debt is defined as total borrowings less cash and cash equivalents. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividends paid to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or raise new debt financing.

The Group's risk management committee reviews the capital structure on a semi-annual basis. As part of this review, the committee considers the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital.
