3. Any unitholder entitled to attend the AGM (or any adjournment thereof) is entitled to appoint no more than two proxies to attend and vote (as the case may be) in its/his/her stead. Any unitholder being a corporation may by resolution of its directors (or other governing body) authorise any person to act as its representative at any meeting of unitholders and a person so authorised shall at such meeting be entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise as if it were an individual unitholder. Completion and return of this proxy form will not preclude you from attending and voting in person at the AGM or any adjournment thereof should you so wish and, in such event, this proxy form shall be deemed to have been revoked.
6. Where a resolution is put to any meeting of unitholders, in the case of joint registered unitholders of a unit, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote (whether in person or by proxy) shall be accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint registered unitholders and for this purpose, seniority shall be determined by the order in which the name stands in the register of unitholders in respect of such unit.
7. Any alternation made to this proxy form must be initialed by the person who signs it.
