- The cumulative voting method shall be adopted for the voting of Resolution No. 15 and Resolution No. 16. The cumulative voting method refers to the voting for the election of directors, independent directors or supervisors where each share is entitled to the same number of votes which equals to the total number of directors, independent directors or supervisors to be elected on a general meeting, and Shareholders may consolidate their voting rights when casting a vote. The cumulative voting method includes the regular voting method where Shareholders may cast their votes with partial or all voting rights. In particular: (1) each Shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes as shall be equal to the number of Shares held by him/her multiplied by the total number of non-independent Directors upon whom he/she can vote, when electing non-independent Directors. Each Shareholder may vote at his/her own discretion in favour of one non-independent Director candidate, or each Shareholder may vote at his/her own discretion in favour of different non-independent Director candidates in any combination; (2) each Shareholder shall be entitled to such number of votes as shall be equal to the number of Shares held by him/her multiplied by the total number of independent Directors upon whom he/she can vote, when electing independent Directors. Each Shareholder may vote at his/her own discretion in favour of one independent Director candidate or different independent Director candidates in any combination. The sum of your votes for one or more candidates shall not exceed your total voting rights to the corresponding resolution, failing which the voting shall be invalid; if the sum of your votes cast for one or more candidates is less than your total voting rights to the corresponding resolution, your voting shall be valid, and the difference shall be regarded as abstained votes.
