Association

The controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company have a fiduciary obligation to the Company and to its public shareholders. The controlling shareholders shall exercise their rights as capital contributors in strict compliance with law. They shall not use profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, use of capital, loan guarantee or other methods to impair the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and of the public shareholders, or use their controlling position to harm the interests of the Company and public shareholders.

Article 43 The term "controlling shareholder" referred to in the preceding provision means a person who satisfies any one of the following conditions:

Article 193 of
the
Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (1) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, is entitled to elect more than half of the Board;

- (2) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, is entitled to exercise or to control the exercise of more than 30% of the voting rights of the Company;
- (3) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, holds more than 30% of the outstanding issued shares of the Company;
- (4) a person who, acting alone or in concert with others, has de facto control over the Company in any other manner(s).

For the purposes hereof, the term “de facto controller” means the persons, not being shareholders of the Company, who are able to exercise actual control over the acts of the Company through an investment relationship, agreement or other arrangements.

Chapter 7 General Meeting

Article 44 The general meeting shall be the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise the functions and powers according to law.

Article 45 The general meeting shall exercise the following functions and powers:

- (1) Decide the operational policy and investment plan of the Company;
- (2) Elect and replace directors who are not staff representatives. Make decisions on matters in relation to the remuneration of the relevant directors;
- (3) Elect and replace supervisors who are not staff representatives. Make decisions on matters in relation to the remuneration of the relevant supervisors;
- (4) Examine and approve the reports of the Board;
- (5) Examine and approve the reports of the supervisory committee;
- (6) Examine and approve the annual financial budgets and final accounting of the Company;
- (7) Examine and approve the profit distribution plan and loss compensation plan of the Company;
- (8) Decide on increasing or reducing the registered capital of the Company and acquiring its shares under the circumstances set forth in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 26 hereof;
- (9) Decide on matters such as merger, division, dissolution, liquidation and changing the form of the Company;
- (10) Decide on the issuance of bonds and other securities by the Company or listing thereof;
- (11) Adopt resolutions on the appointment, dismissal or non-reappointment of accounting firms by the Company;

Article 41 of
the
Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

- (12) Amend this Articles of Association;
- (13) Examine and approve the guarantee issues which shall be passed at the general meeting as prescribed in this Articles of Association;
- (14) Examine matters relating to the purchases and sales of significant assets within one year exceeding 30% of the latest audited total assets of the Company;
- (15) Consider the matters regarding connected transactions to be decided at the general meeting as stipulated by the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed;
- (16) Examine and approve changes in use of proceeds;
- (17) Examine share incentive plans and employee shareholding plan;
- (18) Examine other matters to be decided at the general meeting as prescribed by the law, administrative regulations, departmental rules or this Articles of Association.

Matters which, in accordance with the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, are required to be decided at the general meeting, shall be considered at the general meeting so as to protect the decision-making power of the shareholders of the Company on such matters. Under necessary and reasonable circumstances, the general meeting may authorize the Board to determine, within the scope of authorization granted by such general meeting, specific issues relating to matters which shall be resolved but cannot be decided upon immediately at such general meeting.

The annual general meeting of the Company may authorize the Board to approve the issuance of domestic shares with a total financing amount of not more than RMB300 million and not more than 20% of the net assets as at the end of the latest year to specific subscriber(s), and such authorization will expire on the date of the annual general meeting for the next year, subject to relevant laws and regulations, including the Hong Kong Listing Rules (if applicable).

An authorization to the Board by general meeting in relation to matters to be decided by ordinary resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing exceeding half of the voting rights present at the general meeting; an authorization to the Board in relation to matters to be decided by special resolutions shall be passed by shareholders (including their proxies) representing more than two-thirds of the voting rights present at the general meeting. The contents of the authorization shall be clear and specific.

Article 46 The following external guarantees of the Company must be reviewed and passed at the general meeting:

- (1) Any subsequent guarantee in addition to the aggregate of all external guarantees provided by the Company or its controlled subsidiary with a total amount more than 50% of the Company's latest audited net assets;
- (2) Any subsequent guarantee in addition to the aggregate of all external guarantees provided by the Company with a total amount more than 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets;

the
Guidelines
to Articles of Association

- (3) Any guarantee provided by the Company to other companies, where the amount of guarantees within one year exceeds thirty percent of the latest audited net assets;
- (4) To provide guarantee to any person or entity with a gearing ratio in excess of 70%;
- (5) A single guarantee whose amount exceeds 10% of the latest audited net assets;
- (6) To provide guarantee for shareholders, de facto controllers and their related parties;
- (7) Other guarantees which shall be passed at the general meeting as prescribed by the local stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and this Articles of Association.

When the general meeting is considering a motion to provide guarantee for any shareholder, de facto controllers or their respective related parties, the said shareholder or the shareholders controlled by the said de facto controllers shall be abstained from voting on the motion, and the approval of such motion shall be subject to exceeding half of the voting rights of the other attending shareholders.

Article 47 Except in special circumstances such as the Company is in a crisis, the Company shall not, without the approval by special resolution, enter into a contract to handover all or part of the management of important matters of the Company to a person other than to a director, general manager, vice general manager(s) and other senior management.

Article 81 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 48 The general meetings shall include annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. Annual general meetings shall be convened once a year and shall be held within six (6) months from the end of the preceding financial year.

Articles 43 and 44 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The Board shall convene an extraordinary general meeting within two (2) months upon the occurrence of any of the following circumstances:

- (1) The number of directors is less than the number provided for in the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number prescribed in this Articles of Association;
- (2) The losses of the Company that have not been made up reach one-third of the total share capital of the Company;
- (3) Shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the shares of the Company require in writing an extraordinary general meeting to be convened;
- (4) Whenever the Board considers necessary or when the supervisory committee proposes a meeting;
- (5) Other circumstances prescribed by the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or this Articles of Association.

Article 49 The venue of the general meeting shall be the domicile of the Company or the venue specified in the notice of the general meeting.

Article 45 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The Company shall set the meeting venue by way of on-site meetings. In addition, the Company will provide online and other means for the convenience of participation by the shareholders. Shareholders attending the general meeting via the abovementioned methods are considered to be present at such meeting. Online voting is not applicable to the holders of H shares.

Article 50 When the Company holds a general meeting, it shall engage lawyers to provide legal opinions and prepare announcements on the following matters:

Article 46 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) Whether the procedures for convening and holding the general meeting comply with the requirements of the relevant laws, administrative regulations, and this Articles of Association;
- (2) Whether the qualifications of the attendees and the convener are legally valid;
- (3) Whether the voting procedures and results of the general meeting are legally valid;
- (4) Provide legal opinion on any other matters as may be required by the Company.

Article 51 When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given twenty (20) working days before the date of the meeting, and when the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, written notice of the meeting shall be given fifteen (15) days or ten (10) working days, whichever is longer, before the date of meeting. The written notice shall notify all shareholders whose names appear in the share register of the matters to be considered and the date and place of the meeting.

The “working days” in the preceding paragraph refers to the days on which the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is open for business for dealing in securities.

Article 52 The contents of proposals shall fall within the scope of powers of the general meeting, have definite topics and specific matters to resolve, and conform to the Laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association.

Article 53 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 53 Whenever the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board, the supervisory committee and shareholder(s) individually or together holding more than 1% of the Company’s shares shall have the right to propose motions in writing to the Company. The Company shall place such proposed motions on the agenda of such meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of general meetings.

Article 54 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Shareholder(s) individually or together holding more than 1% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose an extempore motion ten (10) days prior to the general meeting by submitting the same to the convener in writing. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of general meeting within two (2) days after receiving the proposed motion to notify other shareholders, and shall place such proposed motions on the agenda of such general meeting if they are matters falling within the functions and powers of general meetings and submit to the general meeting for consideration. Where required otherwise by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, such requirements shall be satisfied. Shareholders shall propose motions which meet the following requirements:

- (1) The content does not infringe the law, regulations and falls within the scope of the Company's business and the functions and powers of general meetings;
- (2) With definite topics to discuss and specific matters to resolve; and
- (3) Is made in writing submitted or delivered to the Board.

Article 54 Proposals not specified in the general meeting notice or not complying with the provisions of Article 52 shall not be voted on or resolved at the general meeting.

Article 55 Notice of the general meeting shall meet the following requirements:

- (1) Specify the place, date and time of the meeting;
- (2) Specify the matters and proposals submitted to the meeting for consideration;
- (3) Contain conspicuously a statement that all shareholders of ordinary shares are entitled to attend the general meeting and may appoint proxies in writing to attend and vote at the meeting. The proxies need not be shareholders of the Company;
- (4) Specify the record date for the entitlement of the shareholders to attend the general meeting;
- (5) Specify the name and telephone number of the contact person for the meeting;
- (6) Specify the voting time and voting procedure for voting on the network or otherwise.

Any notice and supplementary notice of general meetings shall sufficiently and completely disclose all contents of all motions in full. If any matter to be discussed requires opinions of the independent directors, the opinions and reasons of the independent directors shall be disclosed together with the issuance of such notice.

the
Guidelines
to Articles of Association

Article 56 of
the
Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Article 56 Where the election of directors and supervisors are scheduled to be discussed at a general meeting, the notice of the general meeting shall sufficiently disclose the detailed information about the director and supervisor candidate(s), including at least the following contents:

- (1) personal information including education background, working experience and part-time job;
- (2) whether he is connected with the Company or its controlling shareholders and actual controller;
- (3) his shareholding in the Company;
- (4) whether he has received any punishment from the CSRC and other relevant authorities and any penalty and warning from the stock exchange.

Except the election of directors and supervisors by means of cumulative voting, election of every director and supervisor candidate shall be conducted by separate resolution.

Article 57 Notices of general meetings shall be served on each shareholder (regardless of whether entitled to vote or not at general meetings), by notice specified under this Articles of Association or through other methods provided by securities regulatory authorities of the places on which the Company's shares are listed.

The accidental omission to give notice of a meeting to, or the non-receipt of notice of a meeting by, any person entitled to receive such notice shall not invalidate the meeting and the resolutions passed at the meeting.

Article 58 After the notice of the general meeting is issued, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled, and the motions set out in such notice shall not be cancelled without valid reasons. Where a general meeting has to be postponed or cancelled, the convener shall publish a public announcement at least 2 working days before the original date of the general meeting and state the relevant reasons.

Article 59 The Board and other convener shall take necessary measures to ensure the good order of the general meeting, take measures to deter any act disturbing the meeting, picking quarrels and provoking troubles or infringing the lawful rights and interests of any shareholder, and shall report in a timely manner such act to the relevant authority for investigation and punishment.

Article 60 All ordinary shareholders or their authorized proxies in the register of members on the share registration date shall have the right to attend the general meeting and exercise their voting rights in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and this Articles of Association. A shareholder may attend and vote either personally or by proxy at a general meeting of shareholders.

Article 61 The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointing shareholder or his duly authorized proxy in writing; where the appointing shareholder is a legal entity, such instrument shall be under its seal or under the hand of its director or duly authorized proxy. Such instrument shall contain:

1. Name of the proxy;
2. Whether the proxy has voting rights;
3. Indication of consent, objection or abstention concerning each proposal on the shareholders' general meeting agenda;
4. Date of signing of the authorization letter and validity period;
5. Signature (or chop) of the appointing shareholder. If the appointing shareholder is a corporate shareholder, it should add the chop of the legal person.

Article 62 Where the power of attorney for voting proxy is signed by another person authorized by the entrusting party, the authorization letter or other document authorizing the signatory shall be notarized. The notarized authorization letter or other authorization document shall be placed together with the instrument appointing the voting proxy at the domicile of the Company or at such other place as specified in the notice of the meeting.

If the entrusting party is a legal entity, its legal representative or any representative authorized by the Board or by other decision-making body shall attend the general meeting of the Company on its behalf.

If a shareholder is a recognized clearing house or its agent, it may authorize one or more proxy(ies) as it thinks fit to act as its proxy(ies) at any general meeting or any class meeting. However, if more than one (1) proxies are appointed, the power of attorney shall specify the number and class of shares represented by each of such persons under the authorization, and signed by authorized persons of recognized clearing house. Such authorized persons may attend meeting on behalf of the recognized clearing house or its agent (without presentation of evidence of its shareholding, notarized authorization and/or any further proof demonstrating the duly granting of the same) and exercise the right of the recognized clearing house or its agent, as if they were individual shareholders of the Company.

Article 63 Any form issued by the Board of the Company to the shareholders for the appointment of proxies shall give the shareholders free choice to instruct their proxies to cast vote in favor of or against on each resolution and enable the shareholders to give separate instructions on each matter to be voted at the meeting. The proxy form shall state that if the shareholder does not give instructions, the proxy shall vote at his own discretion.

An individual shareholder who attends the general meeting in person shall produce his identification documents or other valid document or certificate which can prove his identity and his stock account card. Where a proxy is appointed to attend the meeting, the proxy shall produce his own identification documents and the proxy form.

A legal person shareholder shall attend the meeting by its authorized representative or the attorney as appointed by such authorized representative. An authorized representative who attends the general meeting in person shall produce his identification documents, valid certificate which can prove his identity. Where an attorney is appointed to attend the meeting, the attorney shall produce his own identification documents and the relevant power of attorney executed by such authorized representative pursuant to the laws.

Article 64 The Company shall prepare a log book to record the parties attending the general meeting. The log book shall set out the name of the person or unit attending the meeting, their identification document numbers, resident address, the number of voting shares they have and the name of the principals or unit.

Article 65 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 65 The convener and the legal advisers retained by the Company shall jointly verify the eligibility of the shareholders to vote based on the Company's shareholder register provided by the securities registration and clearing authority and shall register the name of the shareholders together with the numbers of voting shares they have. Registration shall come to a close before the chairman of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies physically present at the meeting as well as the total number of voting shares represented by the shareholders who are entitled to vote.

Article 66 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 66 All directors, supervisors and the Secretary to the Board shall be present at general meetings, and the managers and other senior management members shall be in attendance at the meetings.

Article 67 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 67 The Company shall formulate the rules of procedures for general meetings, which stipulate procedures for convening general meetings and voting procedures, including the notice, registration, consideration of proposed motions, voting, vote counting, announcement of voting results, formation of meeting resolutions, keeping and signing of meeting minutes, and announcement, as well as the authorization principle by the general meetings to the Board and the specific powers so authorized. The rules of procedures for general meetings shall constitute an appendix to the Article of Association, which shall be proposed by the Board and approved by the general meeting.

Article 69 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 68 At the annual general meeting, the Board and the supervisory committee shall make report on their works in the past year to the general meeting. Each independent director shall also make work report.

Article 70 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 69 The directors, supervisors and senior management members shall make explanation and interpretation on the inquiry and suggestions of the shareholders at the general meeting.

Article 71 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 70 The meeting presider shall declare the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of shares with voting rights they hold before voting. To determine the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of shares with voting rights they hold, the meeting register shall prevail.

Article 72 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 71 The conveners shall ensure the continuation of the general meeting, till the final resolution is made. If the general meeting is suspended or the resolution cannot be made due to force majeure or other special cause, necessary measures shall be taken to restore the general meeting or directly terminate the general meeting, and public announcement shall be made in time. Meanwhile, the convener shall report to the local office of the CSRC at the place where the Company is situated and the relevant stock exchange.

Article 75 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 72 Resolutions of the general meeting include ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

Article 76 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Ordinary resolution at a general meeting shall be passed by exceeding half of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the general meeting.

Special resolution at a general meeting shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the voting rights held by shareholders (including their proxies) attending the general meeting.

Article 73 Shares held by the Company do not carry voting rights, and shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders present at a general meeting. When shareholders (including proxies) vote at the general meeting, they shall exercise their voting rights according to the number of voting shares that they represent. Each share shall carry one voting right.

Articles 79 and 80 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Paragraph 14(4) of Appendix A1 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

When material issues affecting the interests of small and medium investors are being considered at the general meeting, the votes of such investors shall be counted separately. The separate counting results shall be promptly and publicly disclosed.

Shareholders who purchase the voting shares of the Company in violation of Clause 1 and Clause 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law shall not exercise the voting right of the shares that exceed the prescribed ratio within 36 months after purchasing them, and such number shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares represented by shareholders attending a general meeting.

The Board, independent directors and shareholders holding 1% or more shares with voting rights or investor protection agencies established pursuant to laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of CSRC may publicly solicit voting rights from the shareholders. When soliciting voting rights from the shareholders, information such as specific voting intentions should be fully disclosed to the shareholders being solicited. Soliciting voting rights from the shareholders with compensation or disguised compensation is prohibited. Save for statutory conditions, the Company shall not set a lowest shareholding percentage when soliciting the shareholder voting rights.

When considering related transactions during the general meeting, the related shareholders must not participate in the voting, and the number of shares with voting rights represented by him/her shall not be included in the total number of valid votes. The announcement on the resolutions shall fully disclose the voting of the non-related shareholders.

In accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company's shares are listed, where any shareholder is required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution, or is restricted to vote only for or against such resolution, any votes in violation of such requirement or restriction by the shareholders (or their proxies) shall not be counted.

Article 74 Voting at the general meeting shall be conducted by poll with registration.

Article 86 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association
Article 89 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 75 Shareholders who attend the general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a proposal is put forward for voting: for, against or abstain, except for the securities registration and settlement institutions which, being the nominal holders of shares under Stock Connect between the Mainland and Hong Kong, shall make declarations according to the intentions of the beneficial holders.

For voters whose voting slips are left blank, incorrectly completed, illegible or without vote casting, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights, and the votes in respect of the number of shares held by him shall be counted as “abstain”.

Article 76 A resolution put to vote at the general meeting of the Company shall be decided on a poll, save that the chairman of the meeting, may in good faith, allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative issue to be decided on a show of hands, subject to compliance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Rule 13.39(4) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

Article 77 Where a resolution is voted by a show of hands as permitted under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried, or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minute book of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of that fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favor of or against such resolution.

Article 78 The following matters shall be resolved by way of ordinary resolutions at a general meeting:

Article 77 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) Work reports of the Board and the supervisory committee;
- (2) Profit distribution plan and loss make-up plan formulated by the Board;
- (3) Appointment or dismissal of the members of the Board and the members of the supervisory committee and their remuneration and payment methods thereof;
- (4) Annual preliminary and final budgets of the Company;
- (5) Annual report of the Company;
- (6) Matters other than those requiring approval by special resolutions in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the stock exchange on which our shares are listed or this Articles of Association.

Article 79 The following matters shall be resolved by way of special resolutions at a general meeting:

Article 78 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Paragraphs 15, 16 and 21 of Appendix A1 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

- (1) Increase or reduction of the share capital, repurchase of the shares of the Company under the circumstances set forth in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of Article 26 hereof and issue of shares of any class, stock warrants or other similar securities of the Company;
- (2) Issuance of corporate bonds;
- (3) Division, spin-off, merger, dissolution and liquidation, voluntary winding-up or change in the form of the Company;
- (4) Amendments to this Articles of Association;
- (5) Any purchase or disposal of substantial assets made or guarantee provided by the Company within one (1) year, the amount of which exceeds 30% of the total assets as presented in the latest audited consolidated financial statements of the Company;
- (6) Share incentive scheme;
- (7) Any other matters as required by the laws, administrative regulations, listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed or this Articles of Association and matters which, if resolved by way of an ordinary resolution at general meeting, will have a material impact on the Company and need be adopted by way of special resolutions.

The resolution on spin-off and listing of its subsidiaries, in addition to being required to be passed by more than two-thirds of voting rights held by shareholders present at the general meeting, requires also the approval of more than two-thirds of voting rights held by other shareholders present at the meeting excluding the Company's directors, supervisors, senior management and shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 5% of the Company's shares.

Article 80 Independent directors are entitled to propose to the Board to convene extraordinary general meetings. Concerning the above request, the Board shall, in accordance with the requirements of laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, response in writing as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be dispatched within 5 days after the resolution has been adopted by the Board. If the Board refuses to hold an extraordinary meeting, it shall publicly announce the reasons.

Article 47 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 81 The supervisory committee is entitled to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association, response in writing as to whether or not it agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal. If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, a notice of such meeting shall be dispatched within 5 days after the resolution has been adopted by the Board. Changes made to the original proposal in the notice shall be approved by the supervisory committee.

Article 48 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If the Board refuses to hold an extraordinary general meeting, or gives no response within 10 days upon receipt of such proposal, the Board shall be deemed to be unable or to have failed to perform its duties and responsibilities of convening the general meeting, and the supervisory committee may hold and preside over such meeting by itself.

Article 82 Shareholders who individually or in aggregate hold more than 10% of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held requesting the convening of an extraordinary general meeting or a meeting of shareholders of different classes shall proceed in accordance with the procedures set forth below:

Articles 49
and 50 of the Guidelines
to Articles of Association

- (1) Two or more shareholders holding a total of more than 10% of the shares carrying the right to vote at the meeting sought to be held may sign one or more written requests of identical form and substance requesting the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting or a class meeting and stating the subject of the meeting. The Board shall make a written response as to whether or not it agrees to hold the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting within ten (10) days after having received the above-mentioned written request. The shareholding referred to above shall be calculated as of the date on which the written request is made by shareholder(s).
- (2) If the Board agrees to convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, it shall issue the notice of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting in 5 days after making the resolution of the Board. If there is any change to the original proposal in the notice, it shall be approved by the relevant shareholder.
- (3) If the Board disapproves the proposal to convene the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, or fails to provide a response in 10 days after receiving the request, shareholders shall be entitled to propose to the supervisory committee in writing for the purpose of convening the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting.
- (4) If the supervisory committee approves the convening of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting, it shall issue a notice thereof within 5 days of receipt of said request, provided that any changes made in such notice to the original proposal shall be subject to prior consent from the relevant shareholder.
- (5) If no notice is issued by the supervisory committee of the extraordinary general meeting or the class meeting within the stipulated period, the supervisory committee shall be deemed to have failed to convene and chair the general meeting, in which case the shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding more than 10% of the Company's shares for consecutive 90 days may convene and chair such meeting on their own. The procedures according to which they convene such meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical to the procedures according to which general meetings are to be convened by the Board. The shareholding proportion of the convening shareholders before the announcement of the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting shall not be under 10%.

Article 83 In the event that the supervisory committee or shareholders convenes a general meeting by themselves, they shall notify the Board in writing and lodge a filing with the stock exchange(s).

Articles 50, 51 and 52 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

The supervisory committee or convening shareholders shall submit the relevant evidentiary materials to the stock exchange(s) when the notice of shareholders' general meeting and the announcement of the resolutions passed at the shareholders' general meeting are issued.

The Board and the secretary to the Board shall cooperate with regard to such meeting and the Board shall provide the register of members as of the record day.

All necessary expenses for the meeting convened by shareholders or the supervisory committee shall be borne by the Company and shall be set off against sums owed by the Company to the directors in default.

Article 84 A general meeting shall be convened by the Board, and presided over and chaired by the chairman of the Board. If the chairman is unable to attend the meeting for reasons, the Board may designate a director to convene and take the chair of the meeting in his stead. If no chairman of the meeting has been designated, shareholders present shall choose one (1) person to be the chairman of the meeting. Where the shareholders fail to elect a chairman for any reasons, the shareholder (including his proxy) presents in person or by proxy who holds the largest number of shares carrying the right to vote thereat shall be the chairman of the meeting.

Article 68 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If a general meeting is convened by the supervisory committee, the chairman of the supervisory committee shall preside over the meeting. If the chairman of the supervisory committee is unable to or will not discharge his duties, more than half of the supervisors shall nominate a supervisor to preside over the meeting.

If a general meeting is convened by the shareholders themselves, the convener will nominate a representative to conduct the meeting.

In a general meeting, if the chairman of the meeting contravenes the meeting procedures, making the meeting impossible to proceed, with consent from exceeding half of the attendant shareholders with voting rights, the shareholders may nominate one person to serve as the chairman of the meeting and continue with the meeting.

Article 85 The list of candidates for directors and supervisors shall be submitted to general meetings for voting by way of a motion.

Articles 82 and 83 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

When a voting is made on the election of directors or supervisors at a general meeting, the cumulative voting system may be adopted in accordance with the provisions of this Articles of Association or the resolutions of the general meeting.

The "cumulative voting system" as mentioned in the preceding paragraph means that each share shall have the same voting right as the number of directors or supervisors to be elected, and the voting right held by the shareholders may be used collectively when the directors or supervisors are elected at the general meeting. The Board shall simultaneously provide shareholders with the biographical details and basic information about the candidates for directors and supervisors.

Save and except for the cumulative voting system, the general meeting shall vote on all motions item by item, and shall vote on the motions in time sequence when various proposals are put forward for a single matter. Unless the general meeting is adjourned or is prevented from making resolutions due to force majeure or other extraordinary reasons, the general meeting shall not delay in voting on, or fail to vote on any proposal.

Article 86 Proposals shall not be modified when being reviewed by the general meeting. Otherwise, any modification shall be deemed to be a new proposal and shall not be put to vote at such general meeting.

Article 84 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 87 One single vote may be cast only once by using one single method of voting, being on-site voting, or online voting, or another method of voting. If one single vote has been cast multiple times, the vote of the first time shall govern.

Article 85 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 88 Before the general meeting votes on a proposal, two shareholders shall be elected as representatives to join in the vote calculation and supervision. Where any matter to be reviewed has shown connected relationship with any shareholder, such shareholder and its proxy shall not join in the vote calculation and supervision.

Article 87 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

When the general meeting votes on a proposal, the lawyers, shareholders' representatives and supervisors' representatives shall jointly take charge of vote calculation and supervision and announce the voting results on site. The voting results of the resolutions shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Shareholders or their proxies who vote online or by means of another method shall have the right to inspect and verify their own voting results through the relevant voting system.

Article 89 The conclusion time of the on-site general meeting shall not occur earlier than its counterpart in the online form or in another form; and the chairman of the meeting shall announce the particulars and result of the votes cast on each proposal and declare, on the basis of such voting results, if the relevant proposal(s) have been passed.

Article 88 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Until the formal announcement of the voting results, the companies, vote counters, scrutineers, substantial shareholders, internet service providers and other related parties involved in the on-site, online and other voting methods are obligated to maintain in confidence the particulars of the vote.

Article 90 If the chairman of the meeting has any doubts about the voting result of a resolution, he may count the number of votes cast. If the chairman of the meeting fails to count the votes, a shareholder or proxy attending the meeting who dissent from the result announced by the chairman of the meeting shall be entitled to request counting of votes immediately after such announcement, in which case the chairman of the meeting shall immediately count the votes.

Article 90 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 91 Minutes of the general meeting shall be taken by the secretary of the Board. The minutes shall state the following contents:

- (1) Time, venue and agenda of the meeting and name or title of the convener;
- (2) The name of the chairman of the meeting and the names of the directors, supervisors, managers and other senior management attending or present at the meeting;
- (3) The numbers of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, number of voting shares they represent and the percentages of the voting shares held by them to the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) The process of review and discussion, summary of any speech and voting results of each proposal;
- (5) Shareholders' questions, opinions or suggestions and corresponding answers or explanations;
- (6) Names of the lawyers, the vote-counter and the scrutineer(s);
- (7) The contents to be included as specified in this Articles of Association.

If counting of votes is held at a general meeting, the result of the counting shall be recorded in the minutes of meeting.

The minutes of meeting and the attendance record of attendants signed by the attending shareholders and proxies together with authorization letters shall be kept at the Company's domicile. The convener shall warrant that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, supervisors, secretary of the Board, convener or their representatives and the presider of the meeting shall sign the minutes. The minutes shall be kept together with the signature register of shareholders attending the meeting in person and proxy forms and valid materials relating to voting through internet or otherwise for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 92 The resolution made at the general meeting shall be announced betimes. The number of shareholders and their proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares in their possession, the proportion of their voting shares in the total voting shares of the Company, the voting mode, the voting result of each motion, and the details of each approved resolution shall be specified in the announcement.

Article 93 If the motion is not approved or the resolution made at the previous general meeting is amended at that meeting, the special prompt shall be provided in the announcement of general meeting's resolution.

Article 94 Where a resolution relating to the distribution of cash dividends, the issue of bonus shares or the increase in share capital by way of a conversion of the capital reserve has been passed by the general meeting, the Company shall implement such resolution within 2 months of the conclusion of the general meeting.

Chapter 8 Special Procedures for Voting by Class Shareholders

Article 95 Shareholders who hold different classes of shares are class shareholders.

Class shareholders shall enjoy rights and undertake obligations in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association.

Article 96 The Company shall not proceed to change or abrogate the class shareholders' rights unless such change or abrogation has been approved by way of a special resolution at the general meeting and by a separate class meeting of the affected class shareholders in accordance with Article 98 to 102 of this Articles of Association.

Paragraph 15
of Appendix
A1 to the
Hong Kong
Listing Rules

Upon approval by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council, transfer by the Company's shareholders of domestic shares of their shares to overseas investors for listing and trading overseas, or the conversion of domestic shares into foreign shares for listing and trading overseas, shall not be deemed as change or abrogation of the rights of class shareholders.

Article 97 The rights of shareholders of a certain class shall be deemed to have been changed or abrogated in the following circumstances:

- (1) An increase or decrease in the number of shares of such class or an increase or decrease in the number of shares of a class having voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of such class;
- (2) A conversion of all or part of the shares of such class into shares of another class, a conversion of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of such class or the grant of the right to such change;
- (3) A removal or reduction of rights to accrued dividends or cumulative dividends attached to shares of such class;
- (4) A reduction or removal of a dividend preference or property distribution preference during liquidation of the Company, attached to shares of such class;
- (5) An addition, removal or reduction of share conversion rights, options, voting rights, transfer rights, preemptive rights to rights issues or rights to acquire securities of the Company attached to shares of such class;
- (6) A removal or reduction of rights to receive amounts payable by the Company in a particular currency attached to shares of such class;
- (7) A creation of a new class of shares with voting rights, distribution rights or other privileges equal or superior to those of the shares of that class;
- (8) An imposition of restrictions or additional restrictions on the transfer of ownership of shares of such class;

- (9) An issuance of rights to subscribe for, or convert into, shares of such class or another class;
- (10) An increase in the rights and privileges of shares of another class;
- (11) Restructuring of the Company which causes shareholders of different classes to bear liability to different extents during the restructuring;
- (12) Any amendment or cancellation of the provisions of this section.

Article 98 Shareholders of the affected class, whether or not having the right to vote at general meeting, shall have the right to vote at class meetings in respect of matters referred to in paragraphs (2) to (8) and (11) to (12) in Article 97, except that interested shareholders shall not vote at class meetings.

Article 99 Resolutions of a class meeting may be passed only by more than two-thirds of the voting rights of that class represented at the meeting in accordance with Article 98.

Article 100 When the Company is to hold a class meeting, it shall issue a written notice with reference to the requirements of Article 51 of the Articles of Association on the notice period for convening a general meeting, informing all the registered shareholders of that class of the matters to be considered at the meeting as well as the date and place of the meeting.

Article 101 The notice of class meeting of shareholders shall be delivered only to the shareholders entitled to vote thereat.

The procedure for a class meeting shall, to the extent possible, be identical with the procedure for a general meeting. Provisions of this Articles of Association relevant to the procedure for the holding of a general meeting shall be applicable to a class meeting.

Article 102 In addition to holders of other classes of shares, holders of domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares are deemed to be different classes of shareholders.

The special procedure for voting by class shareholders shall not apply under the following circumstances:

- (1) Where the Company issues domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares, upon approval by a special resolution of its shareholders at a general meeting, either separately or concurrently once every 12 months, not exceeding 20% of each of the existing issued domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares of the Company;
- (2) Where the Company's plan to issue domestic shares and overseas-listed foreign shares upon its incorporation is implemented within 15 months from the date of approval by the securities regulatory authorities under the State Council; or
- (3) Where with the approval by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council the shareholders who hold the unlisted shares of the Company cause these shares held by them to be listed and traded on an overseas stock exchange.

Chapter 9 Board of Directors

Article 103 The Company shall set up a board of directors. The Board shall consist of 5 to 19 directors with one (1) chairman but no vice chairman. Of which, external directors (hereinafter referred to as directors who do not hold any office within the Company) shall represent at least one half of the total number of directors of the Board and independent non-executive directors shall represent at least one-third of the total number of directors and shall have at least three (3) members.

Article 106 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 104 Directors shall be elected or replaced at the general meeting and may be removed before the expiry of the term at the general meeting. Every term of a director is three (3) years, and upon expiry of the term, a director shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

Articles 96, 99, 100 and 104 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Paragraph 4 of Appendix A1 to the Hong Kong Listing Rules

The term of office of a director commences from the date he takes up the appointment, until the current term of office of board of directors expires. If the term of office of a director expires but re-election is not made forthwith, the resigning director shall continue to carry out his duties in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, department regulations and this Articles of Association before the elected director takes office.

Managers or other senior management may serve concurrently as directors. However, the total number of directors serving the office of manager or other senior management concurrently and staff representative holding the office of director shall not exceed half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Directors candidates shall be nominated by the Board, the supervisory committee or the shareholders who hold nomination right and elected by the general meeting.

The chairman shall be elected or dismissed by exceeding half of all directors. Every term of the chairman is three (3) years. Upon expiry of the term, the chairman shall be eligible for re-election and re-appointment.

Subject to the compliance with the relevant laws and administrative regulations, the general meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his term of office without prejudice to the director's right as provided in any contracts to claim for damages arising from his removal.

If any director fails to attend in person or entrust other directors as his representative to attend meetings of the Board for two consecutive times, such director shall be deemed to have failed to perform his duties, and the Board or the supervisory committee shall propose to replace such director at the general meeting.

A director may resign before expiry of his term of service. When a director resigns, he shall submit a written resignation notice to the Board. The Board will disclose the relevant information within two days.

Save for the circumstances in relation to the number of directors is less than the minimum requirement as required by law due to a director's resignation as referred to in this articles, the director's resignation takes effect upon delivery of his resignation report to the Board. If the number of the directors of the Board falls below the quorum as a result of any resignation, such resignation shall not become effective until the vacancy resulting from such resignation is filled up by a succeeding director. The remaining directors shall convene an extraordinary general meeting as soon as possible to elect a director to fill the vacancy caused by the said resignation. Such newly elected director or any person appointed as an additional director to the Board, shall have a term of office commencing from the date on which he is elected until the expiry of the term of the current session of the Board, and shall then be eligible for re-election at the meeting.

A director is not required to hold any shares in the Company.

Article 105 Where the resign of a director takes effect or the term of office of a director comes to expiration, the director shall conduct all the handover procedures with the Board. The director is still not free from the duty of loyalty to the Company and shareholders, which will not be certainly lifted upon the expiration of the term and remains effective during the reasonable period specified in this Articles of Association.

Article 101 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 106 Any director shall not act in his own name on behalf of the Company or the Board, without the legitimate authorization of this Articles of Association or the Board. Where a director acts in his own name, in case the third party shall reasonably believe he is on behalf of the Company or the Board, the director shall state his position and identity in advance.

Article 102 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 107 Where a director violates laws, administrative regulations, department regulations or this Articles of Association in performance of his duties to the Company, and thus causes losses to the Company, he or she shall be liable for compensation.

Article 103 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 108 Independent non-executive directors are directors who do not hold any position in the Company other than as director, member or chairman of the special committee of the Board and do not maintain with the Company or its substantial shareholders a connection which may possibly hamper their independent and objective judgments.

Rule 3.10(2), 3.10A, 3.11 and 19A.18 of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

- (10) To decide on establishment of internal management organizations of the Company;
- (11) To decide on appointing or dismissing general manager, secretary to the Board and other senior management as well as their remunerations, rewards and penalties; to decide on appointing or dismissing senior management including vice general manager(s) and the person in charge of finance of the Company in accordance with the nominations by general manager, and to decide on their remunerations and rewards and punishments;
- (12) To formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (13) To formulate proposals to amend this Articles of Association;

- (14) To manage information disclosure of the Company;
- (15) To propose to the general meeting the appointment or replacement of the accounting firms which provide audit services to the Company;
- (16) To listen to work reports submitted by the general manager of the Company either on regular or ad hoc basis and review his work;
- (17) To review any notifiable or disclosable transactions and connected transactions which are required to be approved by the general meeting under the listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company's shares are listed;
- (18) To approve notifiable or disclosable transactions and connected transactions which are not required to be approved by the general meeting under the listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company's shares are listed;
- (19) To decide on other major affairs of the Company, save and except for matters to be approved by the general meetings as required by the Company Law and this Articles of Association;
- (20) Other powers and duties authorized by the laws, administrative regulations, department rules, listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company's shares are listed, the general meeting or this Articles of Association.

Article 110 The Board of the Company shall explain to the general meeting any non-standard audit opinions issued by the certified public accountants on the Company's financial statements.

Article 108 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 111 The Board shall formulate the rules of procedures for the Board to ensure its implementation of the resolutions passed at the general meeting to enhance efficiency and to ensure scientific decision-making.

Article 109 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 112 The Board shall establish the limits of authority for external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, pledge of assets, external guarantee, entrusted wealth management, connected transaction and donations, and put in place stringent examination and decision-making procedures; major investment projects shall be assessed and examined by an expert or professional panel and put to the general meeting for approval.

Article 110 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Article 113 The chairman of the Board shall exercise the following functions and powers:

Articles 112 and 113 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) To preside over general meetings and to convene and preside over Board meetings;
- (2) To check the implementation of resolutions of the Board;
- (3) To sign securities issued by the Company;
- (4) Other functions and powers conferred by the Board or required under the listing rules of the stock exchange at the location where the Company's shares are listed.

When the chairman is unable to perform his duties, the director recommended jointly by more than half of the directors of the Company shall be appointed to exercise such functions and powers on his behalf.

Article 114 Meetings of the Board shall be held at least four (4) times a year. Meetings shall be convened by the chairman of the Board. Notice of the meetings shall be sent to all directors fourteen (14) days before the meeting is held. The chairman shall convene and preside over the extraordinary meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal under the following circumstances:

Articles 114 and 115 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

- (1) Necessary as deemed by the chairman or proposed by the general manager;
- (2) Proposed by shareholders representing more than one tenth of the voting right;
- (3) Proposed by more than one-third of the directors;
- (4) Proposed by exceeding half of the independent directors;
- (5) Proposed by the supervisory committee.

Article 115 The forms of notification of extraordinary meetings of the Board shall be as follows: by telephone, facsimile or other verbal means. The time limit for sending the notice of such extraordinary meetings shall be: such notice shall be delivered to the directors three (3) days prior to the meetings.

- (2) The method by which the meeting is held;
- (3) The matters to be discussed (the motions);
- (4) The contact person and the contact information;
- (5) The issue date of the notice.

Verbal notice shall at least include the information of the aforesaid item (1) and (2) and the explanations on holding the extraordinary meeting of the Board under urgent circumstance.

Article 117 The meetings of the Board shall be held only if exceeding half of the directors are present.

Article 118 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Each director shall have one vote. Exceeding half of the votes of all directors is required for passing of a Board resolution. External guarantee that should be approved by the Board must be reviewed and decided by more than two-thirds of the directors present at the Board meeting.

Article 118 Meetings of the Board shall be attended by the directors in person. If a director cannot attend a meeting for any reason, he may entrust in writing another director with attending the meeting on his behalf. The instrument of entrustment shall specify the scope of authority.

A director who attends a meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights of a director within the scope of authority granted. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the Board and has not appointed a representative to attend on his behalf, he shall be deemed to have waived his voting rights in respect of that meeting.

Article 119 Extraordinary meetings of the Board may be held by means of communication including telephone conference or video conference provided that directors can fully express their views, and directors attending the meetings shall sign on the resolutions.

The Board may accept meetings of the Board in the form of communications over written resolutions to replace meetings on-site. However, such motions must be delivered to each director by hand, mail, telegraph, email or facsimile. After the Board has delivered the motion to all the directors and that the number of directors giving consent and signature to the motion has reached the quorum, such motion, if delivered to the secretary to the Board by means of communication referred above, shall become a Board resolution and no convening of the meeting of the Board shall be required.

Article 120 If any director of the Company is associated with the enterprises that are involved in the matters to be resolved at the meeting of the Board, he shall not exercise his or her voting rights for such matters, nor shall such director exercise voting rights on behalf of other directors. Such meeting of the Board shall be convened by a majority of the directors present thereat who are not connected. The resolution of the meeting of the Board shall be passed by more than half of the non-connected directors. If the number of non-connected directors present at such meeting is less than three, relevant proposals shall be submitted to the general meeting for consideration.

Article 121 The Board shall keep minutes of resolutions on matters discussed at the meeting. The minutes shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting and by the person who recorded the minutes. The directors shall be liable for the resolutions of the Board. If a resolution of the Board violates the laws, administrative regulations or this Articles of Association and results in the Company sustaining serious losses, the directors participating in the resolution shall be liable to compensate the Company. If, however, it can be proven that a director expressly objected to the decision when the resolution is voted on and that such objection is recorded in the minutes of the meeting, such director may be released from such liability.

Opinions expressed by independent non-executive directors shall be stated in the resolution of the Board.

The minutes of the meeting of the Board shall be kept for no less than 10 years by the secretary of the Company as the Company's files.

Article 122 The minutes shall consist of the following:

- (1) The session of the meeting, time, venue and form of the meeting;

Article 150 of
the
Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Article 156 After the end of the first six (6) months of each financial year, the Company shall publish its results within a period of 2 months and issue its interim report within a period of three (3) months. After the end of each financial year, the Company shall publish its results within a period of three (3) months and issue its annual report within a period of 4 months.

Article 151 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association, Rule 13.46, 13.48, 13.49(1) and (6) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules

The Company shall disclose and deliver its annual report to the CSRC and the stock exchanges within 4 months from the ending date of each financial year, shall disclose and deliver its interim report to the CSRC branches and stock exchanges within 2 months from the ending date of the first half of each financial year, the above annual report and interim report shall be prepared according to the laws, regulations and requirements of the CSRC and stock exchanges. The Company shall disclose its first quarterly financial report and third quarterly financial report within 1 month from the ending dates of the first 3 months and first 9 months respectively of each financial year.

Article 157 The Company shall not maintain any account books other than statutory account books.

Article 152 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

Assets of the Company shall not be held in any accounts opened in the name of any individuals.

Article 158 Where the Company distributes its after-tax profits of the current year, it shall draw 10 percent of the profits as the Company's statutory common reserve. The Company may stop drawing if the accumulative balance of the common reserve has already accounted for over 50 percent of the Company's registered capital.

Article 153 of the Guidelines to Articles of Association

If the accumulative balance of the Company's statutory common reserve is not enough to make up for the losses of the Company of the previous year, the current year's profits shall be used first for making up the losses before the statutory common reserve is drawn therefrom according to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

After the Company draws the statutory common reserve from the after-tax profits, it may, upon a resolution made by the general meeting, draw a discretionary common reserve from the after-tax profits.

After the losses have been made up and common reserves have been drawn, the remaining profits shall be distributed to shareholders in light of their proportions of shares held.

If the general meeting distributes the profits by violating the provisions of the preceding paragraph before the losses are made up and the statutory common reserves are drawn, the profits distributed must be refunded to the Company.

No profit shall be distributed in respect of the shares of the Company which are held by the Company.

Article 159 The common reserves of the Company is used to make up the Company's losses, increase the production operation of the Company or increase the Company's capital. However, capital common reserve shall not be used to make up the Company's losses.

When the statutory common reserve is converted into capital, the remaining balance of that reserve shall not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before the conversion.

Article 160 The Company may distribute dividends in the following forms:

- (1) Cash;
- (2) Shares.

Dividends and other amounts payable by the Company to holders of domestic shares shall be denominated and declared in RMB. Dividends and other amounts payable by the Company to holders of foreign shares shall be denominated and declared in RMB. The exchange rate shall be the average central parity rate for the relevant foreign currency against the RMB announced by the People's Bank of China five (5) working days prior to the date of the declaration of the dividend or other distributions. Payment in foreign currency to holders of foreign shares shall be made in accordance with the relevant foreign exchange control regulations of the PRC.

Article 161 Decision-making Procedures and Mechanism relating to Profit Distribution

- (I) The annual profit distribution proposal of the Company shall be proposed and prepared by the Board of Directors in accordance with the requirements of the Articles of Association and in view of the profitability and capital supply and needs. The profit distribution proposal is subject to the consideration and approval by the Board of Directors before submission to the general meeting for consideration and approval by the Shareholders. Where independent directors consider that the specific cash dividend plan might jeopardize the Company's or its minority shareholders' interests, they have the right to issue their independent opinions.
- (II) In considering the profit distribution proposal at the general meeting, the Shareholders shall be provided with the method of online voting. A number of channels shall be adopted to actively communicate and exchange information with the Shareholders, especially minority Shareholders, take into full account the opinions and requests of them and answer their questions in a timely manner. Once the general meeting has approved a resolution on the profit distribution plan or the Board has formulated a specific plan based on the conditions and upper limit of the interim dividend for the subsequent year as approved by the annual general meeting, the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within 2 months of the general meeting or the Board meeting.
- (III) If the Company is profitable for any year and the conditions for cash dividends have been met, but the Board of Directors fails to submit a profit distribution proposal at the general meeting in accordance with the existing profit distribution policy, the Board of Directors shall give a special explanation on the reason for no cash dividend distribution, the use of funds that has not been utilised for distribution but retained by the Company and the utilisation plan, and shall disclose the same in regular reports.

Article 162 Profit Distribution Policy:

- (I) Profit distribution principles: The Company adopts consistent and stable profit distribution policies, which should emphasize on investors' reasonable investment return while maintaining sustainable development of the Company, but the profit distribution shall not exceed the range of the accumulated distributable profits or damage the Company's ability to continue operations.
- (II) Form of the profit distribution: The Company may distribute profit in the form of cash, shares, or by the combination of cash and shares, and shall adopt cash distribution provided that the conditions for cash distribution are satisfied.
- (III) Cash distribution interval
  1. The Company must make profit distribution at least once a year, provided that the Company records profit for the year with positive accumulative profit undistributed.
  2. The Company may make interim profit distribution. When the Company convenes an annual general meeting to consider the annual profit distribution plan, it may consider and approve the conditions of the distribution of interim cash dividend, the proportional limits, and the upper amount limits and etc. for the subsequent year, provided that the upper limit of the interim dividends for the subsequent year considered at the annual general meeting shall not exceed the net profit attributable to the listed Company's shareholders for the corresponding period. Subject to profit distribution conditions, the Board should formulate a specific interim profit distribution plan which conforms with the conditions of profits distribution according to the resolution of the general meeting.
- (IV) The Board shall propose differentiated cash dividend policies according to the procedures as set out in the Articles of the Association by considering the following different circumstances after taking into full consideration the characteristics of the industry in which the Company operates, its stage of development, its business model, profitability, debt repayment capacity, any arrangements for significant capital expenses and returns for investors:
  - (1) If the Company is at mature stage and there are no arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 80% of the total profit to be distributed;
  - (2) If the Company is at mature stage and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 40% of the total profit to be distributed;
  - (3) If the Company is at growth stage and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, in making profit distribution, cash dividends shall account for at least 20% of the total profit to be distributed;

If the stage of development of the Company is difficult to identify and there are arrangements for significant capital expenses, the preceding provision shall apply.

The specific conditions for the cash dividend distribution are as follows:

- (1) Positive figures are recorded for the distributable profits of the Company (i.e. the remaining after-tax profits after the Company has covered loss and has extracted statutory reserve fund) during the preceding financial year;
- (2) A standard unqualified audit report is issued by an auditor for the financial report of the Company during the preceding financial year.

If the Company recorded negative distributable profits for the preceding financial year or the auditor issued non-standard qualified audit report, the Company shall not distribute cash dividends during that year.

- (3) The Company has no such events as major investment plans or significant cash expenditures (excluding fund-raising projects).

Significant investment plans or significant cash expenditures refer to: the accumulated expenses for proposed external investment, acquisition of assets or purchase of equipment by the Company in the coming twelve months amount to or exceed 50% of the latest audited net assets of the Company and are more than RMB50 million.

- (V) Conditions for distributing scrip dividends: When the Company has a good business operation and the Board believes that the distribution of scrip dividends will be in the interests of the Shareholders of the Company as a whole, the Company may propose a plan for distribution of scrip dividends, provided that there are sufficient cash for dividend distribution. In distributing profit by way of scrip dividend, true and reasonable factors such as the growth of the Company and the dilution to net assets per share shall be taken into account.
- (VI) If there is any misappropriation of the Company's capital by any shareholder of the Company, the Company shall deduct the cash dividends allocated to such shareholder in order to repay the amount of misappropriated capital.

Article 163 Conditions, Decision-making Procedure and Mechanism for Adjusting the Profit Distribution Policy:

the
Guidelines
to Articles of Association

- (I) Conditions for adjusting the profit distribution policy
  1. The profit distribution policy shall be adjusted when the state or the competent authorities promulgate new laws, regulations or regulatory rules in relation to the profit distribution policy of the listed companies.
  2. The Company may make any adjustment to the profit distribution policy based on the actual circumstance when there are material changes in the external operating environment or the operation of the Company. The above material changes in the external operating environment or the operation of the Company refer to the significant adverse effect on the operation of the Company as a result of the changes in the market, policy or macroeconomy environment where the Company operates.

(II) Decision-making Procedure for Adjusting the Profit Distribution Policy

The Board shall take full consideration of the opinions of the minority shareholders during the process of studying and demonstrating the adjustment of the profit distribution policy. When considering and passing the adjustment of profit distribution policy, the Board shall obtain approval from the majority of all directors. If there are adjustments or amendments to the profit distribution policy as set out in the Articles of Association, the Board should consider and passed the same before submitting to the general meeting for consideration and approval, and the Company can provide the voting platform in the form of network for the convenience of the shareholders to attend the general meeting. The Company shall take the right protection of the shareholders as the starting point, and give detailed demonstration and explain reasons in the proposal of the general meeting. The passing of the adjustment or amendments to the profit distribution policy at the general meeting shall be subject to the approval from two thirds of the voting rights held by the shareholders (including their proxies) present at the general meeting.

If the Company adjusts the profit distribution policy according to the production and operation conditions, investment plans and the long-term needs, the adjusted profit distribution policy shall not be in breach of the relevant requirements of the stock exchanges where the shares are listed.

Article 164 The Board may, for the interests of the Company, invest the dividend which is unclaimed for one year after the date on which the dividend is declared by the Company or apply such dividend for other purposes. Subject to relevant laws and regulations of the PRC, the Company may exercise power to confiscate the dividends which nobody has claimed only after the expiry of the relevant applicable limitation period.

Article 165 The Company shall appoint receiving agents in Hong Kong on behalf of the holders of overseas-listed foreign shares to receive and keep on behalf of the relevant shareholders the dividends distributed by the Company in respect of overseas-listed foreign shares and other payables, and make payment to such shareholders.

Rule 19A.51
of the Hong Kong Listing
Rules

The receiving agents appointed by the Company shall meet the requirements of the laws of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the relevant regulations of the stock exchange.

Article 166 The Company shall implement its internal audit system with professional auditors to carry out internal audit supervision to the financial and economic activities of the Company. The system of the internal audit and the duties of such auditors shall be implemented after the approval of the Board. The responsible auditor shall be responsible for and report to the Board.

Articles 157
and 158 of the
Guidelines
to Articles of
Association

Chapter 15 Engagement of Accounting Firms

Article 167 The Company shall engage an accounting firm that complies with relevant PRC regulations to audit financial statements, verify net assets, and provide other related consulting services.
