CHAPTER 3 SHARES

Section 1 Issuing of Shares

Article 13

The Company shall have ordinary shares, at all times, which include domestic shares and foreign shares. The Company may create other classes of shares as and when necessary after fulfilling the relevant necessary procedures.

Article 14

The Company shares shall be in the form of share certificates. All the shares issued by the Company shall have a par value which shall be RMB1.00 for each share.

For the purposes of the above paragraph, the term “RMB” shall refer to the legal currency of the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”).

Article 15

Issuing of the Company shares shall adopt an open, fair and just principle. Shares of the same class shall rank pari passu with each other.

For the same class of shares issued in the same tranche, each share shall be issued at the same price and subject to the same conditions. For the shares subscribed by any organization or individual under the same offering, the price payable for each of such shares shall be the same.

Article 16

Domestic Shares issued by the Company are under centralized depository of China Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation Limited. Overseas listed foreign shares issued by the Company are mainly under the securities depository and clearing company in Hong Kong, and can also be held in the name of individual shareholder.

Article 21

The Company and subsidiaries of the Company (including the affiliated enterprises of the Company) shall not provide any assistance to a person who is acquiring or is proposing to acquire shares of the Company by way of gift, advancement, guarantee, indemnity or loans or other means.

Section 2 Increase, Decrease and Buy-back of Shares

Article 22

The Company may, based on its requirements for operation and development and in accordance with laws and regulations and by special resolution of shareholders' meeting, increase its share capital in the following manners:

- (1) public offering of shares;
- (2) non-public offering of shares;
- (3) issuing bonus shares to its existing shareholders;
- (4) transfer into share capital from the reserve fund;
- (5) by any other means which is permitted by laws and administrative regulations and the regulatory authorities.

Article 23

In accordance with the Company Law, other relevant regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association, the Company may reduce its registered capital.

When the Company increases or reduces its registered capital, it shall register the change with the company registration authority in accordance with the law.

Article 24

The Company shall prepare a balance sheet and a list of assets when it reduces its registered share capital.

The Company shall notify its creditors within ten (10) days from the date of the resolution passed by shareholders' meeting on reduction of registered share capital and shall publish an announcement in the newspaper or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within thirty (30) days from the date of such resolution. A creditor has the right, within thirty (30) days of receiving the notice from the Company or, in the case of a creditor who does not receive the notice, within forty-five (45) days from the date of the announcement, to require the Company to repay its debt or provide a corresponding guarantee for such debt.

If the Company reduces its registered share capital, the reduction in its capital contribution or shares shall be in proportion to the capital contributions or shares held by the shareholders, unless otherwise provided by laws or the Articles of Association.

The registered share capital of the Company following the reduction of share capital shall not fall below the minimum statutory requirement.

Article 25

If the Company faces a shortfall in making up losses in accordance with the Company Law, it may reduce the registered share capital to make up losses. When the registered share capital is reduced to make up losses, the Company may neither make distributions to shareholders nor release them from obligation to pay for capital contributions or pay for shares.

If the Company reduces its registered share capital according to the preceding paragraph, it is exempted from paragraph 2 of the Article 24 in the Articles of Association. However, the Company shall make a public announcement in a newspaper or on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within thirty (30) days after the shareholders' meeting to resolve the reduction of the registered share capital.

After a reduction of registered share capital under the preceding paragraphs, the Company shall not distribute profit before the cumulative amount of the statutory reserve fund and discretionary reserve fund reach 50% of the Company's registered share capital.

Article 26

If a reduction of registered share capital is in violation of the requirements of the Company Law or the provisions of the Articles of Association, the shareholders shall return the funds so received, and the reduced capital contribution of the shareholders shall be restored to its original amount; in case of losses caused to the Company, the shareholders and the responsible Directors, supervisors and senior management members shall be held liable for compensation to the Company.

Article 27

Except any one of the following circumstances, the Company shall not acquire its own shares:

- (1) reduction of the registered share capital of the Company;
- (2) merging with another company that holds shares in the Company;
- (3) using shares for employee shareholding plans or for equity incentives;
- (4) purchasing the shares held by shareholders who have voted against the resolutions on the merger or division of the Company at a shareholder's meeting upon their request;
- (5) using the shares for conversion of convertible corporate bonds issued by the Company;
- (6) necessary acts by the Company to maintain its value and protect the interests of the shareholders.

The Company's repurchase of its shares may be carried out through open centralized trading or other methods recognized by laws, administrative regulations and regulatory authorities.

Where the Company repurchases of its shares due to the circumstances set out in item (1) and item (2) of the first paragraph of this Article, it shall be approved by the resolution of the shareholders' meeting. If the Company repurchases of its shares for the circumstances set out in items (3), (5) and (6) of the first paragraph of this Article, it shall be resolved by more than two-thirds of the Directors attending the Board meeting according to the provisions of the Articles of Association or the authorization of the shareholders' meeting.

If the Company repurchases shares for the circumstances set out in the first paragraph of this Article, the shares repurchased under item (1) shall be cancelled within ten (10) days from the date of acquisition and the registered share capital shall be deducted accordingly; shares repurchased under items (2) and (4) shall be transferred or cancelled within six (6) months; and shares repurchased by the Company under items (3), (5) and (6) shall not exceed 10% of the Company's total issued shares, and the shares acquired shall be transferred or cancelled within three (3) years.

A controlled subsidiary of the Company shall not acquire shares of the Company. Where a controlled subsidiary of the Company holds shares of the Company due to a merger of the Company or the exercise of the right of pledge, it shall not exercise the voting right corresponding to the shares held and shall dispose of the relevant shares of the Company in a timely manner.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 28

The Company's shares may be transferred in accordance with the law.

Article 29

The Company shall not accept its shares as the subject of a pledge.

Section 4 Shareholders

Article 30

The Company shall maintain a register of shareholders based on the certificates provided by the securities registrar. The register of shareholders is sufficient evidence to prove the shareholdings of shareholders in the Company. Shareholders shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the type of shares they hold; shareholders holding the same type of shares shall enjoy the same rights and bear the same obligations.

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the Company intends to change or abolish the rights of any class shareholders which shall be approved by way of special resolution of shareholders of the affected class at a separately convened shareholders' meeting. Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner which is as similar as possible to that of shareholders' meeting. The provisions of the Articles of Association relating to the manner for the holding of shareholders' meeting are also applicable to class meetings.

The Company's branch register of shareholders in Hong Kong shall be open for inspection by shareholders during business hours. However, the Company may close the register in accordance with the terms equivalent to Section 632 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (that is, a total of not exceeding thirty (30) days per year by a Board resolution, or for an extension of up to thirty (30) days by ordinary resolution).

Article 31

If the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, distributes dividends and carries out liquidation and other actions that require confirmation of the identification of shareholders, the Board or the convener of the shareholders' meeting shall determine the record date, and shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders after market close at the record date have relevant interests.

Article 32

The shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (1) the right to receiving dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (2) the right to file a petition to convene, hold, attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' meetings and to exercise the right to speak and the corresponding voting right thereat (except where a shareholder is required, by the Listing Rules, to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration);

- (3) the right to supervise and manage the operation of the Company and to put forward proposals and raise inquiries;
- (4) the right to transfer, donate, or pledge shares held by them in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) the right to inspect and make copies of the Articles of Association, the register of shareholders, the minutes of the shareholders' meetings, the resolutions of the board of directors, the resolutions of the supervisory committee and the financial and accounting reports;
- (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (7) to request the Company to purchase their shares for the shareholders who object to the resolution on merger or division of the Company made at the shareholders' meetings;
- (8) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any shareholder requesting for inspection and copying of the relevant information as set forth in this Article or for obtaining information shall furnish with the Company written document evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company he/she holds and the Company shall comply with such shareholder's request upon verification of the shareholder's identity.

Article 33

The shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (1) To abide by the laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association;
- (2) To pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;

- (3) Not to withdraw their contribution unless required by the laws and administrative regulations;
- (4) Not to abuse their shareholders' rights to jeopardize the interests of the Company or other shareholders, and not to abuse the status of the Company as an independent legal entity and the limited liability of shareholders to jeopardize the interests of any creditors of the Company;
- (5) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholder's rights and causes loss to the Company or other shareholders, he/she shall be liable for the compensation according to the laws. If any shareholder of the Company abuses the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and severely damage the interests of the creditors of the Company, he/she shall bear joint liability for the debts owed by the Company.

CHAPTER 5 SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGS

Article 34

The shareholders' meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the laws.

Article 35

The shareholders' meeting may exercise the following functions and powers:

The shareholders' meeting may authorize the Board to make a resolution on the issuance of Company's bonds.

Article 36

Except in exceptional circumstances, such as when the Company is in crisis, unless prior approval by special resolution is obtained in a shareholders' meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contract with any party other than the Directors, general managers and other senior management members pursuant to which such party shall be responsible for managing the whole or any substantial part of the Company's business.

Article 37

Shareholders' meetings are divided into annual general meetings and extraordinary general meetings. An annual general meeting shall be convened by the Board. The annual general meeting shall be held once every year and within six (6) months after the end of the previous financial year.

The Board shall hold an extraordinary general meeting within two months upon the occurrence of one of the following circumstances:

- (1) the number of Directors is less than the number required by the Company Law or less than two-thirds of the number required by the Articles of Association;
- (2) the uncovered losses reach one third of the Company's total share capital;
- (3) upon request by shareholders individually or collectively holding at least 10% of the Company's shares;
- (4) the Board considers it necessary;
- (5) the Supervisory Committee proposes to convene;
- (6) other circumstances stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 38

When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, it shall notify the shareholders twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting in relation to the time and place of the meeting as well as the matters to be examined at the meeting. When the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, it shall notify the shareholders fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting in relation to the time and place of the meeting as well as the matters to be examined at the meeting. For the purpose of calculating the starting date of the aforesaid periods for convening a shareholders' meeting, the date of the meeting shall be excluded.

Article 39

The contents of the motions to be raised should be within the scope of duties of the shareholders' meetings. It should have a specified subject and specific resolution to be decided, in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 40

When the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, the Board of Directors and the Supervisory Committee as well as shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding at least 1% of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose motions.

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding at least 1% of the Company's shares may submit a provisional motion in writing to the convener ten (10) days before the shareholders' meeting is convened; the convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' meeting to announce the content of the provisional motion within two (2) days after receipt of the motion.

Except for circumstances stipulated in the preceding paragraph, upon announcement of the notice of shareholders' meeting, the convener shall not amend the motions set out in the notice of shareholders' meeting or insert new motions.

Article 41

A shareholders' meeting shall not vote on or pass the resolutions which are not stated in the notice convening the shareholders' meeting or do not meet the motions as stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 42

A notice of the shareholders' meeting shall be in writing and including the following contents:

- (1) the place, date and duration of the meeting;
- (2) the matters and motions raised for consideration at the meeting;

- (3) a clear statement to state that: all ordinary shareholders (including the preferred shareholders who has resumed their voting rights) are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting and entrust a proxy in writing to attend the meeting and vote, and that such proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (4) the date of registration of equity entitlements for shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting;
- (5) other matters specified in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 43

Notice of shareholders' meetings shall be served to each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid mail to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders (whether such addresses are within Hong Kong or in regions outside Hong Kong).

Notice of shareholders' meeting issued to holders of domestic shares can also be made in the form of announcement. Announcements to holders of domestic shares shall be published on the media that meets the conditions prescribed by CSRC. Once the announcement has been published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting.

Subject to the compliance with the laws and regulations of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the relevant rules governing the listing of securities, corporate communications issued to the holders of overseas listed shares including notice of the shareholders' meeting shall be sent by the Company to shareholders by electronic means, announcement, or any other means as provided in the Articles of Association.

Corporate communication as mentioned in the preceding clause shall have the meaning as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 44

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one (1) or several persons (who may not be shareholders) to act as his proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf. Any shareholder being a corporation shall be entitled to appoint a representative to attend and vote at any shareholders' meeting and, where a corporation is so represented, it shall be treated as being present at any meeting in person. The proxy so appointed by the shareholder may, pursuant to the instructions of the shareholder, exercise the following rights:

- (1) the right which the shareholder has to speak at the shareholders' meeting;
- (2) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others;
- (3) the right to exercise voting rights on a show of hands or on a poll, provided that where two or more proxies are appointed, the proxies may only exercise such voting rights on a poll.

If the said shareholder is a recognized clearing house by the Law of Hong Kong, the shareholder may authorize suitable representative or corporate representative to act as its representative at any shareholders' meeting and creditors' meeting; representative or corporate representative so authorized shall have the same statutory rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

Article 45

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the shareholder or his attorney duly authorized in writing; for a corporate shareholder, the proxy must be affixed with the common seal or signed by its director or attorney or officer duly authorized in writing. The letter of authorization shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the attorney. If several persons are authorized as the attorney of the shareholder, the letter of authorization shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.

Article 46

Proxy forms shall be lodged at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting 24 hours before the relevant meeting for voting according to the proxy form, or 24 hours before the designated time of voting. Where the proxy form is signed by a person under a power of attorney on behalf of the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed shall be notarized. A notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authorization documents, together with the proxy form, shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting.

Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorized by the resolutions of the Board or other decision-making organ to act as its representatives may attend the general meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.

Article 47

Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board for use by him for appointing a proxy shall allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against each resolution relating to each matter to be considered at the relevant meeting. Such form shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, his proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 48

The Company is entitled to ask the proxy who represents an individual shareholder to attend the shareholders' meeting to provide his identification document as well as the power of attorney signed by the appointer or the representative authorized by the appointer.

In the case of a corporate shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the Company is entitled to ask the legal representative to provide the valid copy of the resolution or the power of attorney by which the board of directors or other authoritative department of the corporate shareholder appoints the legal representative and which has been notarized (other than a recognized clearing house) as well as valid copy of the corporate shareholder's identification document and power of attorney.

Article 49

Where the appointer has deceased, incapacitated to act, withdrawn the appointment or the power of attorney, or where the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the letter of authorization shall remain valid provided that no written notice of such event has been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 50

There shall be two (2) types of resolutions of shareholders' meetings, namely ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To adopt an ordinary resolution of shareholders' meeting, votes representing over one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

To adopt a special resolution of shareholders' meeting, votes representing at least two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

A shareholder (including his proxy) attending the meeting shall vote in favour of or against each resolution relating to every matter which has been put to vote at the relevant meeting. If such shareholder or his proxy abstains from voting, which will be deemed that the voter has waived his rights to vote, the Company shall not treat it as vote with voting right when calculating the voting results of the such matter.

Article 51

A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a shareholders' meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote and each share shall have one vote.

Shares held by the Company have no voting rights. This portion of shares is not considered as part of the total number of shares with voting rights and present at the shareholders' meetings.

Where any shareholder is, under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and/or any applicable laws and regulations, required to abstain from voting on a particular resolution or restricted to voting only in favour of or against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article 52

Except where the chairman, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands, all votes of the shareholders at the shareholders' meeting shall be taken by poll.

Article 53

When the shareholders' meeting resolves on the related party transactions of the Company or on a particular resolution for which any shareholders shall be refrained from voting or shall be restricted to vote for (or against) in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any votes cast by such shareholders or their representative in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted in the total number of valid voting. The public announcement of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the voting of non-related shareholders.

Article 54

The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' meeting:

- (1) work reports of the Board and the Supervisory Committee;
- (2) plans formulated by the Board for distribution of profits and for making up losses;
- (3) the appointment and removal of members of the Board and their remuneration and payment methods;
- (4) the appointment and removal of members of the Supervisory Committee and their remuneration and payment methods;

- (5) the Company's annual report;
- (6) matters other than these required by the laws and administrative regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 55

The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' meeting:

- (1) increase or reduction of the registered share capital of the Company;
- (2) division, merger, dissolution, liquidation of the Company;
- (3) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (4) purchase or sale of major assets, or provision of guarantee by the Company in excess of 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets within one year;
- (5) the equity incentive plans
- (6) other matters which are provided for by the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and considered by the shareholders' meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, to have a substantial impact on the Company and require approval by a special resolution;
- (7) other matters required by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and other normative documents.

Article 56

Shareholders who request for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting shall comply with the following procedures:

- (1) Shareholders individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares shall have right requiring the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall make such request to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after the resolution is made by the Board. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of relevant shareholders.

- (2) If the Board does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a reply within ten (10) days after receipt of the request, shareholders individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares shall be entitled to propose and request in writing to the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The Supervisory Committee shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.

If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after receipt of the request. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of relevant shareholders.

- (3) If the Supervisory Committee fails to give the notice of a shareholders' meeting within the specified time limit, it shall be deemed to have failed to convene or preside over the shareholders' meeting, in which case, shareholders who individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over the meeting themselves.

Article 57

The Supervisory Committee shall have right requiring the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall make such request to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after the resolution is made by the Board. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of Supervisory Committee.

If the Board does not agree to hold an extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a reply within ten (10) days after receipt of the request, the Board shall be considered to be unable or fail to perform the duty of convening a shareholders' meeting. The Supervisory Committee can convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

If the Supervisory Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' meeting on their own, the Company shall bear the reasonable expenses incurred thereby.

Article 58

Shareholders' meetings convened by the Board shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board. If the Chairman cannot or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, one Director shall be elected to preside over the meeting with the approval of over one-half of the Directors.

If the Board is unable or fails to perform its duty in convening a shareholders' meeting, the Supervisory Committee shall timely convene and preside over such meeting. If the Supervisory Committee fails to convene and preside over such meeting, shareholders who individually or collectively hold at least 10% of the shares for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over the meeting themselves.

Shareholders' meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee, the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside over such meeting. When the chairman of the Supervisory Committee cannot or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, one supervisor shall be elected to preside over the meeting with the approval of over one-half of the supervisors.

A shareholders' meeting convened by shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convener.

Article 59

The shareholders' meeting can be convened and votes can be conducted using either on-site meetings or electronic communication means. The chairman of the meeting shall announce the vote and result of each proposal and the decision on whether a resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be adopted. His decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.

Article 60

In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward to the vote, he may have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.

Article 61

In the event that the votes are counted at the shareholders' meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting and the summary minutes of the meeting along with the signature book of the shareholders attending the meeting and the power of attorney for the proxies shall be kept in the Company.

CHAPTER 6 BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Article 62

The Company sets a Board which is responsible to the shareholders' meeting. The Board shall comprise seven (7) to eleven (11) Directors, and the number of independent (non-executive) Directors shall not be less than three (3) at any time and shall account for at least one-third of the total number of Directors of the Board. The chairman of the Company and the Director who transacts corporate business are elected and replaced by the Board.

Article 63

Directors shall be elected or replaced at shareholders' meeting and may be removed from office prior to the expiry of their tenure by shareholders' meeting. The term of office of each session of the Board shall be three (3) years. Upon maturity of the term of office, a Director shall be eligible to offer himself/herself for re-election and re-appointment.

The Board shall have a Chairman. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected and removed by over one-half of all Directors. The term of office of the Chairman shall be three (3) years, renewable upon re-election.

The shareholders' meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his/her term of office (but without prejudice to such Director's right to claim damages based on any contract), subject to full compliance with relevant laws and administrative regulations.

The Directors shall not be required to hold shares of the Company.

Article 64

A Director may resign before the expiry of his/her term of office, subject to submission of a written resignation report to the Board.

The Board shall make disclosure of relevant information within two (2) days. Where the number of members of the Board falls below the quorum due to the resignation of any director, the original director shall, before the newly-elected director assumes his/her post, carry out duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Where a Director resigns, he/she shall notify the Company in writing, and the resignation shall take effect on the day the Company receives the notice, however, if the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph exist, the Director shall continue to perform his/her duties.

- (7) to formulate plans for merger, division, dissolution and change the form of the Company;
- (8) to determine the establishment of the Company's internal management structure;
- (9) to appoint or remove the general manager of the Company and to appoint or remove the deputy manager and other senior management members of the Company based on the nomination by the general manager and to decide on their remunerations and incentives and penalties;

- (10) to formulate the basic management system of the Company;
- (11) to formulate proposals for amendment to the Articles of Association;
- (12) within the scope authorized by the shareholders' meeting, to decide the Company's external investment, acquisition and disposal of assets, assets pledge, external guarantees, consigned financial management, connected transactions, external donations and such matters;
- (13) to propose the appointment or change of the Company's auditors to the shareholders' meetings;
- (14) other duties conferred by the provisions of the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Except for the Board resolutions in respect of the matters specified in items (6), (7) and (11) of the preceding paragraph which shall be passed by more than two-thirds of the Directors, the above Board resolutions in respect of all other matters may be passed by over one-half of the Directors.

Board resolutions in respect of the Company's related party transactions must be endorsed by Independent (non-executive) Director before they can become effective.

Article 66

The Chairman of the Board is entitled to the following powers:

- (1) to preside over shareholders' meetings and to convene and preside over Board meetings;
- (2) to supervise and review the implementation of resolutions of the Board;
- (3) to sign the share certificates, bonds or other marketable securities issued by the Company;

- (4) to sign important documents of the Board and other documents that require signing by the Company's legal representative;
- (5) to exercise the power of legal representative;
- (6) to exercise the power to handle corporate affairs in accordance with the laws and the Company's interests in cases of emergency caused by natural disasters or other force majeure, and report to the Board and shareholders' meeting thereafter;
- (7) to exercise other powers conferred by the Board.

If the Chairman is unable or fails to perform his duties, a Director jointly elected by over one-half of members of the Board shall perform the duties of the Chairman.

Article 67

The Board of the Company shall establish an audit committee, and establish strategic, remuneration, nomination and other special committees where necessary. The Board shall seek the opinion of the relevant special committees before making any resolutions.

The members of the special committees under the Board are all composed of directors and elected by the Board.

Each special committee has a convener who is responsible for convening special committee meetings. The composition, responsibilities and operating mechanism of each special committee shall be determined by the Board and shall comply with the relevant laws and regulations of the PRC and the relevant stipulations of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Article 68

Meetings of the Board shall be held at least four times a year at approximately quarterly intervals. When the Board convenes a regular meeting, it shall notify all Directors and supervisors fourteen (14) days before the meeting. When the Board convenes an extraordinary meeting, it shall notify all Directors and supervisors three

(3) days before the meeting.

Shareholders representing at least one-tenth of the voting rights, or at least one-third of the Board or the Supervisory Committee may propose to hold an extraordinary Board meeting. The chairman should convene and preside over a Board meeting within ten (10) days after the proposal is received.

Article 69

Regular and extraordinary Board meetings shall be noticed by way as follows:

- (1) A notice of a Board meeting includes the following contents: date and place of meeting, duration of the meeting, reasons and discussion items, date of issuance of notice.

Article 100

The fiduciary duties of the Directors, supervisors, general manager and other senior management members of the Company do not necessarily cease with the termination of their tenure. The duty of confidence in relation to trade secrets of the Company survives the termination of their tenure. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time lapse between the termination of tenure and the occurrence of the event concerned and the circumstances under which the relationships between them and the Company are terminated.

CHAPTER 11 FINANCIAL AND ACCOUNTING SYSTEM, PROFIT DISTRIBUTION AND AUDIT

Article 101

The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirement of relevant regulatory departments of the PRC.

Article 102

At the end of each fiscal year, the Company shall compile a financial accounting report which shall be audited by an accounting firm in compliance with the laws. The financial accounting report shall be prepared in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the provisions of the Ministry of Finance of the PRC.

Article 103

The Board shall place before the shareholders at every annual general meeting such financial reports as are required by any laws, administrative regulations or normative documents promulgated by local government and competent authorities to be prepared by the Company.

Article 104

The Company's financial reports shall include directors' report, balance sheet (including documents to be attached in accordance with PRC laws, other laws, and administrative regulations), income statement, cash flow statement or (under condition of not violating PRC laws) summary financial report approved by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. The Company's financial reports shall be made available for shareholders' inspection at the Company twenty (20) days before the date of an annual general meeting. Each shareholder shall be entitled to obtain a copy of the financial reports referred to in this Article.

The Company shall provide the aforesaid report together with the directors' report to shareholders in the form prescribed in Article 153 of the Articles of Association at least twenty-one (21) days before the date of an annual general meeting.

Article 105

The financial statements of the Company shall, in addition to being prepared in accordance with PRC accounting standards and regulations, be prepared in accordance with either international accounting standards or that of the overseas place where the Company's shares are listed. When the Company is to distribute its after-tax profits, the lower of the after-tax profits as shown in the two financial statements shall be adopted.

Article 106

The interim results or financial information published or disclosed by the Company shall be prepared in accordance with PRC Accounting Standards and regulations as well as the international accounting standards or such accounting standards in the place of listing overseas.

Article 107
