BUSINESS REVIEW AND OUTLOOK

Industry review

In the ever-changing year of 2024, the advertising industry continued to stand as a key driver of global economic growth. We also witnessed a boom in digital advertising, especially as social media, search engine optimisation and video content marketing innovations continued to drive the industry forward. With the continuous advancement of 5G and AI technology, advertising personalisation and audience targeting reached unprecedented precision.

Core players in the advertising market, from traditional ad groups to tech giants, were all adapting to this shift, seeking innovative ways to engage consumers and improve advertising efficiency. Throughout the year, we also observed the impact of COVID-19 on consumer behaviours, which forced brands to understand user needs online deeply. Content marketing and influencer marketing were on the rise, while the industry was increasingly emphasizing transparency and ethical standards in response to gradually tightening regulatory environments.

Despite challenges, the industry's spirit of innovation remained strong, and emerging technologies like augmented reality and virtual reality were paving the way for new interactive channels, showing the potential to reshape future advertising practices. Regarding industry regulation, data privacy protection has become a global focus, which impacts advertising strategies and operational models profoundly. However, the resilience and innovation shown by the advertising market made people optimistic about its future development. Generally, 2024 was a year of challenges and opportunities for this industry. These experiences will lay a solid foundation for its future growth and evolution.

The increase in total revenue was due to the abundance of experience in serving customers gleaned over the years, the introduction of schemes and products that better meet customer marketing needs, the ability to attract more investment from customers, and the impact of the DouYin projects which contributed to the substantial growth in revenue for our digital marketing services.

This is mainly due to the increase in revenue from digital marketing DouYin projects in this period, which led to a YoY rise in media advertising resources costs.

Gross Profit

The following table sets out the analysis of gross profit with respective gross profit margins, breakdown by type of revenue, for the reporting periods indicated.

	For the year ended 31 December
	2024		2023		Change (+/(-))
	RMB'000	Gross profit margin (%)	RMB'000	Gross profit margin (%)
Marketing services	127,689	7.1	117,846	9.9	8.4

During the Reporting Period, our total gross profit reached approximately RMB127,689,000, a YoY increase of approximately 8.4% (approximately RMB117,846,000 in the same period in 2023). The increase in the gross profit of the Company's marketing services was mainly due to a YoY increase in the gross profit of our cooperation with TikTok as its first-tier agent.

Selling and Marketing Expenses

Our selling and marketing expenses mainly consist of (i) salaries and benefits of marketing and technical support personnel; (ii) business entertainment and travel expenses, principally including business entertainment, accommodation and travel expenses; (iii) amortisation and depreciation, mainly referring to the depreciation of equipment, automobiles, leased property renovation, and leased right-of-use assets and the amortisation of computer software; and (iv) other expenses, including advertising and promotional expenses, property management fees, office expenses and local transportation expenses. During the Reporting Period, our selling and marketing expenses reached approximately RMB53,109,000, a YoY increase of approximately 741.8% (approximately RMB6,309,000 in the same period in 2023). This is mainly due to the increase in advertising and promotional expenses incurred by the Company.

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses primarily include: (i) employee costs and benefits, principally including administrative, employee salaries and training expenses; (ii) legal and professional fees, mainly referring to legal and professional fees incurred in connection with the Group's business operation; (iii) amortisation and depreciation, primarily referring to the depreciation of equipment, vehicles, and renovation of our leased properties, and leased right-of-use assets and the amortisation of computer software; (iv) research and development ("R&D") costs, principally referring to the salaries of R&D employees of content engine; (v) other taxes, mostly consisting of urban maintenance and construction taxes and stamp taxes; and (vi) other expenses. During the Reporting Period, our general and administrative expenses amounted to approximately RMB20,099,000, a YoY decrease of approximately 16.6% (approximately RMB24,104,000 in the same period in 2023). This is mainly due to the decrease in R&D expenses during the Reporting Period.

Provision for Impairment Loss on Trade Receivables and Other Financial Assets during the Reporting Period

During the Reporting Period, our provision for impairment loss on trade receivables and other financial assets was approximately RMB128,837,000, representing an increase of approximately 96.4% YoY (approximately RMB65,607,000 in the same period in 2023). Such an increase was primarily due to the fact that significant growth in revenue was accompanied by a rise in trade receivables, leading to an increase in provision for bad debts during the Reporting Period.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Other Revenue

The following table provides a breakdown of components of other revenue for the years indicated:

	For the year ended 31 December
	2024 (RMB'000)	2023 (RMB'000)	Change (+/(-)) %
Government subsidies	6,317	4,443	42.2
Bank interest income	46	418	(89.0)
Interest income on other financial assets	379	997	(62.0)
Additional value-added tax input deduction	970	4,636	(79.1)
Others	37	34	8.8
Total	7,749	10,528	(26.4)

During the Reporting Period, our other revenue amounted to approximately RMB7,749,000, representing a YoY decrease of approximately 26.4% (the same period in 2023: approximately RMB10,528,000), mainly due to the expiration of the additional value-added tax input deduction policy during the Reporting Period.

Other Gains and Losses

During the Reporting Period, our other losses amounted to approximately RMB11,577,000 (other gains of approximately RMB642,000 in 2023). Such a turnaround was mainly due to the write-off losses of intangible assets incurred by the Company during the Reporting Period.

Finance Costs

Finance costs primarily comprise (i) interest expense on bank borrowings; (ii) interest expense on third-parties' loans; and (iii) interest expenses on lease liabilities.

During the Reporting Period, our finance costs reached approximately RMB3,208,000, a YoY increase of approximately 7.6% (approximately RMB2,981,000 in the same period in 2023). Such increase was largely attributed to the additional borrowings made during the Reporting Period.

(Loss)/profit before Income Tax

As a result of the above, our loss before income tax for the year ended 31 December 2024 stood at approximately RMB189,299,000, representing a YoY decrease of approximately 730.7% (profit before income tax of approximately RMB30,015,000 in the same period in 2023).

Income Tax Credit

During the Reporting Period, our income tax credit was approximately RMB3,727,000, a YoY increase of approximately 22.6% (approximately RMB3,040,000 in the same period in 2023).

This was mainly due to the deferred income tax recognised in tandem with the increase in trade receivables during the Reporting Period. The actual tax rates (income tax expense/profit before income tax) for 2024 and 2023 were 2.0% and -10.1%, respectively.

Net (Loss)/profit and Net (Loss)/profit Margin

During the Reporting Period, the Group's net loss was RMB185,572,000, representing a YoY decrease of approximately 661.4% (net profit approximately RMB33,055,000 in the same period of 2023), with a net loss margin of 10.4% (net profit margin of 2.8% in the same period of 2023). This was mainly due to the provisions for impairment loss on trade receivables and provision for impairment loss on intangible assets recognised during the Reporting Period.

Non-HKFRS Measurement

To complement the consolidated annual results presented in accordance with HKFRS, we have also used EBITDA (i.e. earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortisation), adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net profit, which are not required by or presented in accordance with HKFRS, as additional financial measures. We believe that these non-HKFRS measurement tools can eliminate the potential impact of items that the management considers cannot reflect our operating performance, which is conducive to the comparison of operating performance across years and companies. We believe that these measurement tools provide investors and others with useful information to understand and evaluate our consolidated results of operation in the same manner as the management. However, the EBITDA, adjusted EBITDA and adjusted net profit presented by us are not necessarily comparable to similar measurement tools presented by other companies. These non-HKFRS measurement tools have limitations as analytical tools and should not be considered independent of or as a substitute for our analysis of results of operation or financial conditions presented in accordance with HKFRS.

This was primarily due to the public offering during the period and the net (loss)/profit for the year.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

LIQUIDITY AND FINANCIAL SOURCES

The Group's operations were primarily financed through its operating activities. 4 PURSUING GREEN DEVELOPMENT (Continued)

4.1 Green Office

We actively promote the concept of green office and encourage our employees to start out small and gradually enhance their awareness of environmental protection and energy conservation. In 2023, the Group took a series of measures for energy conservation and emission reduction:

- We regularly remove waste and manage waste in strict categories, focusing on recycling waste that can be reused and encouraging recycling;
- We encourage our employees to go paperless, so as to minimize document copying and printing, advocate double-sided printing and reuse of waste paper, and avoid unnecessary paper waste;
- All air conditioner pedals are covered by locking boxes in the offices of the main building, so the temperature in the office area is uniformly controlled at 26°C by the security guard;
- In strict accordance with the Regulations of Xiamen Municipality on Domestic Waste Management, we strengthen the publicity of garbage classification, accelerate the popularization process of garbage classification knowledge, paste posters with garbage classification signs in the office area, and provide garbage cans on each floor uniformly;
- We encourage teleconferencing and web conferencing, and advocate the green meeting mode; and
- We adopt LED lights for our lighting system and make full use of natural light.

The Group's emissions are from GHG emission reduction objects and the Group's vehicles (exhaust gases other than GHG), among which emissions of GHG Scope 1 are mainly from vehicle fuel consumption, and those of Scope 2 are from electricity consumption during operation of the Group. To reduce emissions, we not only regularly maintain our fleet, encourage our employees to take transit trips, and optimize our vehicle routes, but also promote low-carbon technology innovation and actively track low-carbon technologies and new products in the industry.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

This year, we continued to conduct GHG inventories for the environmental scope of this report with reference to the GHG Protocol issued by the World Resources Institute and the World Business Council for Sustainable Development and to ISO14064-1 formulated by the International Organization for Standardization. The results are as follows:

Resource consumption	2024
Electricity purchased (kWh)	147,375.85
Fuel consumed by vehicles (L)	15,850.34

Emissions	2024
GHG emissions (tCO ₂ e)	128.13
Scope 1 (tCO ₂ e)	12.44
Scope 2 (tCO ₂ e)	115.69
GHG emission intensity (tCO ₂ e/revenue (RMB'000))	0.0003

Note:

The GHG emissions are presented in carbon dioxide equivalent, and calculated by the method and conversion factors in the Guidelines for GHG Emission Accounting and Reporting of Public Building Enterprises issued by the National Development and Reform Commission.

As electricity consumption and fuel consumed by vehicles were the major sources of the Group's GHG emission, the Group will continue to strengthen its energy-saving measures in daily operation. We encouraged our staff to turn off idle appliances and use energy-efficient appliances. The use of natural lighting in our office was also encouraged. Apart from these measures, the Group will also conduct regular checks and maintenance of the vehicles, in order to ensure energy efficiency and minimize the production of GHG.

The Group is well aware of the importance of waste emission reduction. During the Reporting Period, the Group did not generate any hazardous waste. The main business premises of the Group are offices, so the non-hazardous waste is mainly from domestic waste and waste paper, of which the domestic waste mainly includes waste from office supplies and food residues. In terms of the treatment of non-hazardous waste, the non-hazardous waste generated by the Group is collected and processed by the property management unit, and then transferred to the waste transfer station for disposal in accordance with national treatment standards. To maintain a low level of non-hazardous waste, we advocate a paperless work environment and encourage our employees to use electronic systems instead of printed documents. A recycling box has also been placed in the office to collect paper products including paper boxes, envelopes and reusable paper. To further strengthen our reduction in paper waste, the Group will advocate natural resources conservation in a bid to remind our employees of the importance of paper waste education.

Waste generation	Unit	Emissions
		2024	2023
Total non-hazardous waste produced	Ton(s)	0.6	0.6
Non-hazardous waste production density	Ton(s)/employee	0.004	0.004

4.2 Resource Saving

With the goal of rational use of electricity, water and other resources, the Group actively implements different energy conservation measures to prevent the waste of resource. The breakdown of electricity consumption and water consumption of the Group during the Reporting Period is as follows.

Power consumption		Unit	Consumption 2024
Power consumption		MWh	147.4
Power consumption density		MWh/employee	1.1

Water consumption		Unit	Consumption 2024
Water consumption		Ton(s)	665.7
Water consumption density		Ton(s)/employee	5.1

The Group attaches great importance to the management of rational use of resources. The Group has adopted various measures to reduce energy consumption in energy-saving offices, including using high-energy-efficiency equipment, turning off lighting equipment, air-conditioning equipment and other electronic equipment when they are not in use, cleaning electrical appliances regularly and keep it running as efficiently as possible, check electrical appliances regularly and make necessary repairs and maintenance. We also collect statistics on electricity consumption every month to monitor the situation of electricity consumption, find out the reasons for any abnormality and make necessary improvements immediately.

The Group has formulated and adopted a number of regulations on energy conservation and water conservation, implemented education in terms of energy conservation and environmental protection awareness in daily office work so as to improve employees' energy conservation awareness. The Group requires employees to turn off all power, electrical equipment, and air-conditioning systems before getting off work every day and the employee who leaves last each day must make sure that all power is turned off so that electricity can be saved. Meanwhile, we gradually introduce and update energy-saving and water-saving equipment and technologies, respond to the national "double carbon" goals, and promote green development. The Group has a stable source of water supply, and there is no problem in obtaining suitable water sources. In addition, the Group is not involved in the manufacture of any product during its operations, therefore, the Group does not use any packaging materials.

4.3 Addressing Climate Change

The Group understands that climate change is closely related to its business development and therefore continuously monitors the impact of climate change on the Group. Through consultation with senior consultants, we assessed and identified the physical risks and transition risks related to climate change this year with reference to relevant international research and the Group's existing risk management policies.

Market risks belonging to transition risks are identified as high risks. We understand that a growing number of stakeholders are increasingly demanding of companies on climate change. If we fail to meet our stakeholders' expectations, we risk losing our reputation, customers and even our competitive edge. In this regard, we will improve the identification of climate change risks and opportunities in accordance with the requirements of the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosure ("TCFD").

As the Group's geographical location is less likely to be affected by extreme weather (such as hurricanes, heavy rainfall, and flooding) or chronic risks (such as sea level rise), and no high-intensity carbon emissions are from its business, the regulatory risks belonging to physical risks are rated as low risks.

5 ANTI-CORRUPTION

The Group operates with a high standard of integrity and ethics. Employees are required to behave in a manner that demonstrates integrity, ethics and professionalism. It is necessary for them to comply with the applicable laws and regulations of the countries in which the Group operates. The Group has established relevant internal regulations to monitor the behaviour of our staff.

Prior to staff appointments, anti-money laundry checks and reference checks with previous employers may be conducted when it is appropriate.

Despite the Group has no anti-money laundering policy in place, all receipts of monies are matched to the customer invoices before banking in and all payments are matched to valid supplier invoices before processing payment. The Group is committed to further enhancing its anti-corruption system, developing its anti-money laundering policy and providing regular trainings to its employees in the future.

Any unethical approach in connection with the Group's business should be reported to the management. We provide channels for our employees to report instances that they believe to be unethical or in breach of the Group's policies. The Group's whistleblowing policy allows employees to report suspicious cases in a confidential manner.

During the year, the Group was not aware of any material breach of laws and regulations relating to bribery, extortion, fraud and money laundering that have a significant impact on the Group.

6 SOCIAL SERVICES BY SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

We understand that philanthropy should not simply be about "donating" and "doing good", but requires sustainable self-development and self-regeneration. Therefore, we are committed to helping public interest organizations reduce channel costs and system development costs, enhance their independence, and allow them to devote more energy to social services. In the future, we will also participate in social services and philanthropy to develop ourselves into the most influential enterprise.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF MANY IDEA CLOUD HOLDINGS LIMITED

(incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Many Idea Cloud Holdings Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together the “Group”) set out on pages 98 to 173, which comprises the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2024, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2024, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the “Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements” section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s “Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants” (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Expected credit losses on trade receivables

Refer to note 22 to the consolidated financial statements

As at 31 December 2024, the Group's net trade receivables amounting to approximately RMB561,841,000 which represented approximately 67% of total assets of the Group. The Group's expected credit losses ("ECLs") recognised on trade receivables as at 31 December 2024 amounted to approximately RMB240,675,000.

The management is required to apply judgement in assessing the loss allowance for trade receivables under the ECLs model and the management of the Group applies the simplified approach to calculate ECLs, which is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs. This approach is based on management's estimated loss rates for trade receivables. The estimated loss rates take into account the ageing of the trade receivables, outstanding balances and information regarding the ability and intention of the debtor to pay and historical data on default rates and forward looking information, which involves inherent uncertainty.

We identified expected credit loss assessment of trade receivables as a key audit matter due to the significance of trade receivables to the Group's consolidated financial position and the involvement of subjective judgement and management estimates in evaluating the ECLs of the Group's trade receivables at the end of the reporting period.

Our response:

We performed audit procedures in relation to management's impairment assessment of trade receivables which included:

- discussing the ECLs assessment with the management, where necessary:
 - evaluating the methodology and key assumptions adopted by management in assessing ECLs and discussing them with management;
 - challenging the reasonableness of key assumptions based on our knowledge of the business and industry;
 - checking, on a sample basis, the accuracy and relevance of the input data used by management in capturing the aging; and
- checking subsequent settlements of the trade receivables on sampling basis to review the reasonableness of the ECLs.

Revenue recognition of digital marketing services

Refer to note 7 to the consolidated financial statements

The revenue recognised by the Group in connection with digital marketing services for the year ended 31 December 2024 amounting to approximately RMB1,440,291,000, which represented approximately 81% of the total revenue for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Since revenue is one of the key performance indicators of the Group, and the appropriate recognition of revenue has a material impact on data of the financial statements and various financial indicators of the Group, revenue recognition of digital marketing services was identified as a key audit matter.

For disclosure on the revenue recognition policy, please refer to Note 4(i)(ii); for disclosure on the revenue, please refer to Note 7.

Our response:

We performed audit procedures in relation to revenue recognition of digital marketing services which included:

- understanding the revenue recognition policy in connection with the digital marketing services and assess the appropriateness of its revenue recognition;
- inspecting the revenue contracts, project completion reports and other relevant documents on a sampling basis to evaluate the timing and process of the revenue recognition;
- performing transaction test by checking the revenue contracts, invoices, project completion reports and other relevant documents to review the existence of the revenue;
- comparing the actual revenue in connection with the digital marketing services with the budgeted revenue to review the reasonableness of the revenue; and
- reviewing the disclosure of the consolidated financial statement in relation to the revenue recognition of digital marketing services as well as the presentation of the revenue disclosure.

Impairment of non-current assets in relation to SaaS business

Refer to note 20 to the consolidated financial statements

For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group incurred gross loss of RMB12,059,000 in relation to the SaaS business.

The management of the Group engaged external valuation expert to assist them in determining the recoverable amount of the property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and right-of-use assets if there is indication that those assets may be impaired. The recoverable amount is determined based on value-in-use calculations which required the use of estimates such as future cash flows and discount rate. The use of these estimates involves a significant degree of management judgement and therefore could have a material impact on any impairment recorded for the year.

We considered the impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and right-of-use assets to be a matter of most significance in our audit due to the significant degree of judgment and the key assumptions used by management in forecasting future cash flows, which may affect the recoverable amount of the Group's property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and right-of-use assets.

Our response:

We performed audit procedures in relation to the impairment losses recognised for the non-current assets in relation to SaaS business which included:

- assessing the reasonableness of management's forecast of future years' cash flows and key assumptions used in the forecast by comparing this to historical results of the Group and other relevant information;
- assessing the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the external valuation expert who assisted the management in determining the value-in-use calculation;
- performing a sensitivity analysis to assess the potential impact of reasonably possible downside changes in key assumptions;
- assessing the discount rate employed in the calculation of value-in-use by reviewing its basis of calculation and comparing its input data to market sources; and
- testing the mathematical accuracy of management's underlying calculations.

OTHER INFORMATION IN THE ANNUAL REPORT

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Company's annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

DIRECTORS' RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that gives a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are also responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process. The Audit Committee assists the directors in discharging their responsibility in this regard.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with the terms of our engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the work performed for the purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the directors, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION (Continued)

(d) Going Concern

The Group incurred a loss of RMB185,572,000 for the year ended 31 December 2024. Although, as of the same date, the Group had net current assets of RMB396,232,000, the gross carrying amount of trade receivables, as disclosed in note 22, increased from RMB424,977,000 as at 31 December 2023 to RMB802,516,000 as at 31 December 2024 due to longer settlement times from customers under the prevailing economic environment in which the Group operated.

In view of such circumstances, the Directors of the Company have given careful consideration to the future liquidity, performance and the available sources of financing of the Group in assessing whether the Group will have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern. A number of plans and measures have been taken to mitigate the liquidity pressure and to improve the Group's financial position and its operations. These include the following:

- (i) The Group has been in active communications with banks and other financial institutions to secure the necessary borrowings and to obtain new facilities to fund the Group's capital expenditures and operations;
- (ii) The Group has been strengthen its credit control policies and actively implemented measures to speed up the collection of substantial payments from customers;
- (iii) The Group will continue to make efforts to keep the Group in operation in anticipation of the potential changes in economic environment; and
- (iv) the Group will continue to take active measures to control administrative and financial costs through various channels including debt structure optimisation, establishment of budget and control standards, and containment of capital expenditures.

Based on the above, the Directors of the Company consider that the Group would have sufficient financial resources to continue as a going concern and accordingly it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(a) Basis of consolidation

When the Company has control over an investee, it is classified as a subsidiary. The Company controls an investee when it has power over the investee, is exposed or has rights to variable returns from the investee, and has the ability to use its power to affect those variable returns. Control is reassessed whenever facts and circumstances indicate that there may be a change in any of these elements of control.

Financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date control is obtained until the date on which control ceases.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

(b) Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses.

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated so as to write off their cost net of expected residual value over their estimated useful lives on a straight-line basis. The principal annual rates are as follows:

Leasehold improvement	The shorter of 3 years or period of the related
lease Furniture and equipment	20% – 33.33%
Motor vehicles	12.5%

The useful lives, residual value and depreciation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

(c) Intangible assets

Intangible assets acquired separately are initially recognised at cost. Subsequently, intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are carried at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates. All other expenditure, including expenditure on internally generated goodwill and brands, is recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Amortisation is provided on a straight-line basis over their useful lives. The principal annual rate are as follows:

Computer software	10% – 33.33%
Licences	Over the term of licence agreement

The useful lives and amortisation method are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

SaaS related software acquired in the course of business operation is recognised as computer software. The SaaS related software have a finite useful life that is dependent to the SaaS interactive marketing business of the Group and is carried at cost less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortisation is calculated using the straight-line method over the expected useful life of the SaaS related software, which is estimated to be 10 years. The expected useful life is principally determined based on (1) the typical term of the service contracts; (2) the business expansion plan of SaaS interactive marketing business formulated by the management; (3) the capability and functionality of the SaaS related software; and (4) technological obsolescence.

(d) Financial instruments

(i) Financial asset

A financial asset (unless it is a trade receivable without a significant financing component) is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue. A trade receivable without a significant financing component is initially measured at the transaction price.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are two measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method. Interest income, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Any gain or loss on derecognition is recognised in profit or loss.

Fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVOCI"): Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Debt investments at FVOCI are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income calculated using the effective interest method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in profit or loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss.

Equity instruments

On initial recognition of an equity investment that is not held for trading, the Group could irrevocably elect to present subsequent changes in the investment's fair value in other comprehensive income. This election is made on an investment-by-investment basis. Equity investments at FVOCI are measured at fair value. Dividend income are recognised in profit or loss unless the dividend income clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investments. Other net gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income and are not reclassified to profit or loss. All other equity instruments are classified as FVTPL, whereby changes in fair value, dividends and interest income are recognised in profit or loss.

(d) Financial instruments (Continued)

(ii) Impairment loss on financial assets

The Group recognises loss allowances for expected credit losses (“ECLs”) on trade receivables and other debt financial assets.

ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive. The shortfall is then discounted at an approximation to the assets’ original effective interest rate.

The Group measures loss allowances for trade receivables using HKFRS 9 simplified approach and has calculated ECLs based on lifetime ECLs. The Group has established a provision matrix that is based on the Group’s historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment.

For other debt financial assets, the ECLs are based on lifetime ECLs except when there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the allowance will be based on the 12-months ECLs.

When determining whether the credit risk of a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition and when estimating ECLs, the Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort. This includes both quantitative and qualitative information analysis, based on the Group’s historical experience and informed credit assessment and including forward-looking information.

The Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly if it is more than 30 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset to be in default when the debtor is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to action such as realising security (if any is held); or the financial asset is more than 90 days past due.

Depending on the nature of the financial instruments, the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk is performed on either an individual or a collective basis. When the assessment is performed on a collective basis, the financial instruments are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics, such as past due status and credit risk ratings.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(d) Financial instruments (Continued)

(ii) Impairment loss on financial assets (Continued)

The Group considers a financial asset to be credit-impaired when:

- significant financial difficulty of the debtor;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or being more than 90 days past due;
- the restructuring of a loan or advance by the Group on terms that the Group would not consider otherwise;
- it is probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- the disappearance of an active market for a security because of financial difficulties.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments with a corresponding adjustment to their carrying amount through a loss allowance account, except for investments in debt instruments that are measured at FVTOCI, for which the loss allowance is recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in "FVTOCI reserve (recycling)".

The Group writes off a financial asset when there is information indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice where appropriate. Any recoveries made are recognised in profit or loss.

Interest income on credit-impaired financial assets is calculated based on the amortised cost (i.e. the gross carrying amount less loss allowance) of the financial asset. For non credit-impaired financial assets, interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount.

(iii) Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities at amortised costs are initially measured at fair value, net of directly attributable costs incurred. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method. The related interest expense is recognised in profit or loss.

Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised as well as through the amortisation process.

(iv) Derecognition

The Group derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the future cash flows in relation to the financial asset expire or when the financial asset has been transferred and the transfer meets the criteria for derecognition in accordance with HKFRS 9.

Financial liabilities are derecognised when the obligation specified in the relevant contract is discharged, cancelled or expires.

(e) Interests in associates

Associates are those entities in which the Group has significant influence, but not control or control, over the financial and operating policies.

Interests in associates are accounted for under the equity method. They are initially recognised at cost, which includes any transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, consolidated financial statements include the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the investees, until the date on which significant influence ceases.

(f) Leases

The Group as lessee

All leases are capitalised in the statement of financial position as right-of-use assets and lease liabilities, except for leases which are short-term leases and/or (ii) leases for which the underlying asset is of low-value. The lease payments associated with those leases have been expensed on straight-line basis over the lease term.

Right-of-use asset

The right-of-use asset is initially recognised at cost and would comprise:

- (i) the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability (see below for the accounting policy to account for lease liability);
- (ii) any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received;

(f) Leases (Continued)

Right-of-use asset (Continued)

- (iii) any initial direct costs incurred by the lessee; and
- (iv) an estimate of costs to be incurred by the lessee in dismantling and removing the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease, unless those costs are incurred to produce inventories.

The Group measures the right-to-use at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liability. Right- of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms and the estimated useful lives of the underlying assets.

Lease liability

The lease liability is recognised at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the date of commencement of the lease. The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease, if that rate can be readily determined. If that rate cannot be readily determined, the Group uses the lessee's incremental borrowing rate.

Subsequent to the commencement date, the Group measures the lease liability by:

- (i) increasing the carrying amount to reflect interest on the lease liability;
- (ii) reducing the carrying amount to reflect the lease payments made; and
- (iii) remeasuring the carrying amount to reflect any reassessment or lease modification, or to reflect revised in-substance fixed lease payments.

(g) Foreign currencies

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the translation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise. Exchange differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items carried at fair value are included in profit or loss for the period except for differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items in respect of which gains and losses are recognised in other comprehensive income, in which case, the exchange differences are also recognised in other comprehensive income.

(h) Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are employee benefits (other than termination benefits) that are expected to be settled wholly before twelve months after the end of each reporting period in which the employees render the related service. Short-term employee benefits are recognised in the year when the employees render the related service.

(i) Revenue recognition

(i) Revenue from content marketing services

Content marketing primarily involve planning, design and production and the implementation of a variety of interactive contents and marketing materials, such as text, pictures, audio, videos, and mini-games to advertise and promote the customer's brands and products. A single performance obligation is generally identified in contracts for content marketing services due to the high degree of integration of the various tasks forming a combined output that is transferred to the customer over time or because the Group is unable to fulfil its promises by transferring each of the services independently. However, where there are contracts with more than one service that are capable of being distinct and are distinct within the context of the contract, those services are accounted for as separate performance obligations, and revenue is allocated to each of the performance obligations based on relative stand-alone selling prices. The stand-alone selling price is estimated using expected cost plus a margin approach, factoring in expected costs of satisfying the performance obligations and add an appropriate margin for that services.

The duration of each project of content marketing projects typically ranges from within one month to ten months. The customer typically would make payments by stages with the first stage of payment shortly after execution of the agreement and the last stage of payment after the delivery of the project report or confirmation by customers of the fulfilment of their obligations under the agreement. Invoices issued are generally payable within 180 days. The Group has applied the practical expedient not to recognise any financing element as the contracts are typically completed within one year and because of the payment terms.

Revenue from content marketing services is recognised over time based on output method because the Group would be required to provide the customer with the design information completed to date in the case of termination and periodically provides the customer with interactive contents and marketing materials in a level of detail that would not require the customer to contract with another entity to substantially re-perform the work.

(ii) Revenue from digital marketing services

Digital marketing typically involve directly marketing and advertising the customers' brands and products on various online media channels. The Group is primarily responsible for providing strategic advertisements placement strategies and plans; providing design and third party service providers may be engaged by the Group to produce creative advertising contents and materials; procuring and placing of advertising contents on online media channels; and managing and coordinating with those third party service providers involved in the project. The Group also involved in produce creative advertising contents and materials by utilising its staffs. In the provision of such service, the Group periodically pay a fixed fee in exchange for the rights to use certain advertising resources. In most instance, promised services in a contract are not considered distinct or represent a series of services that are substantially the same with the same pattern of transfer to the customer and, as such, are accounted for as a single performance obligation. The promises are not distinct because there is a high degree of integration of the various tasks forming a combined output or because the Group is unable to fulfil its promises by transferring each of the services independently.

The duration of each project of digital marketing projects typically ranges from within one month to twelve months. The customer typically would make payments by stages or after fulfilment of the service obligations in the agreement. Invoices issued are generally payable within 180 days. The Group has applied the practical expedient not to recognise any financing element as the contracts are typically completed within one year and because of the payment terms.

Revenue from digital marketing services is recognised over time based on output method because the customer simultaneously received and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

(i) Revenue recognition (Continued)

(iii) Revenue from public relations event planning services

Public relations event planning services is to provide exclusive marketing solutions to customers targeting for their specific offline marketing and promotion needs involving hosting and execution of events. The Group is generally responsible for running the whole event which may include proposing creative and interactive themes for the event, formulating detailed work plans, procuring supplies such as venue rental and decoration supplies, engaging third party service providers to assist with setting up the event venue, fine-tuning the work plans and overseeing and managing the smooth running of the whole event. A single performance obligation is generally identified in contracts for public relations event planning services due to the high degree of integration of the various tasks forming a combined output that is transferred to the customer over time or because the Group is unable to fulfil its promises by transferring each of the services independently.

The duration of each project of public relations event planning services typically ranges from within one month to twelve months. The customer typically would make payments by stages or after fulfilment of the service obligations in the agreement. Invoices issued are generally payable within 180 days. The Group has applied the practical expedient not to recognise any financing element as the contracts are typically completed within one year and because of the payment terms.

Revenue from public relations event planning is recognised over time based on output method because the customer simultaneously received and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

The duration of each project of media advertising services typically ranges from within one month to twelve months. The Group has applied the practical expedient not to recognise any financing element as the contracts are typically completed within one year and because of the payment terms.

Revenue from media advertising services is recognised over time based on output method because the customer simultaneously received and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

(v) Revenue from SaaS interactive marketing services

No further activities will be undertaken that will significant affect the customised marketing contents and materials from that point of time.

(i) Revenue recognition (Continued)

Contract assets and liabilities

A contract asset represents the Group's right to consideration in exchange for services that the Group has transferred to a customer that is not yet unconditional. In contrast, a receivable represents the Group's unconditional right to consideration, i.e., only the passage of time is required before payment of that consideration is due. Contract assets are subject to impairment assessment on the same basis as trade receivables, details of which are included in the accounting policies for impairment of financial assets.

A contract liability represents the Group's obligation to transfer services to a customer for which the Group has received consideration (or an amount of consideration is due) from the customer.

Contract costs

The Group recognises an asset from the costs incurred to fulfil a contract when those costs meet all of the following criteria:

- (a) the costs relate directly to a contract or to an anticipated contract that the entity can specifically identify;
- (b) the costs generate or enhance resources of the entity that will be used in satisfying (or in continuing to satisfy) performance obligations in the future; and
- (c) the costs are expected to be recovered.

The asset recognised is subsequently amortised to profit or loss on a systematic basis that is consistent with the transfer to the customer of the goods or services to which the cost relate. The asset is subject to impairment review.

(j) Government grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Group recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate.

Government grants that are receivable as compensation for expenses or losses already incurred or for the purpose of giving immediate financial support to the Group with no future related costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they become receivable and are recognised as other revenue, rather than reducing the related expense.

(k) Income taxes

Income taxes for the year comprise current tax and deferred tax. Income taxes are recognised in profit or loss except when they relate to items recognised in other comprehensive income in which case the taxes are also recognised in other comprehensive income or when they relate to items recognised directly in equity in which case the taxes are also recognised directly in equity.

Current tax is based on the profit or loss from ordinary activities adjusted for items that are non-assessable or disallowable for income tax purposes and is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting period. The amount of current tax payable or receivable is the best estimate of the tax amount expected to be paid or received that reflects any uncertainty related to income tax.

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences. Except for goodwill not deductible for tax purposes and initial recognition of assets and liabilities that are not part of the business combination which affect neither accounting nor taxable profits and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, taxable temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future, deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised, provided that the deductible temporary differences are not arises from initial recognition of assets and liabilities in a transaction other than in a business combination that affects neither taxable profit nor the accounting profit and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred tax is measured at the tax rates appropriate to the expected manner in which the carrying amount of the asset or liability is realised or settled and that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of each reporting period, and reflects any uncertainty related to income taxes.

(l) Impairment of assets (other than financial assets)

At the end of each reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of the following assets to determine whether there is any indication that those assets have suffered an impairment loss or an impairment loss previously recognised no longer exists or may have decreased:

- property, plant and equipment;
- right-of-use assets;
- intangible assets;
- interests in an associate; and
- prepayment under non-current assets

If the recoverable amount (i.e. the greater of the fair value less costs of disposal and value in use) of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately. For impairment testing, assets are grouped together into the smallest group of assets that generates cash inflows from continuing use that are largely independent of the cash inflows of other assets.

(m) Research and development costs

All research costs are charged to profit or loss as incurred.

Expenditure incurred to develop new products is capitalised and deferred only when the Group can demonstrate the technical feasibility of completing the intangible asset so that it will be available for use or sale, its intention to complete and its ability to use or sell the asset, how the asset will generate future economic benefits, the availability of resources to complete and the ability to measure reliably the expenditure during the development. Product development expenditure which does not meet these criteria is expenses when incurred.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, the directors of the Company are required to make judgements, estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

(a) Critical judgements in applying accounting policies

(i) Determination of functional currency

The Group measures foreign currency transactions in the respective functional currencies of the Company and its subsidiaries. In determining the functional currencies of the group entities, judgement is required to determine the currency that mainly influences sales prices for goods and services and of the country whose competitive forces and regulations mainly determines the sales prices of its goods and services. The functional currencies of the group entities are determined based on management's assessment of the economic environment in which the entities operate and the entities' process of determining sales prices.

(b) Key sources of estimation uncertainty

(i) Useful lives and residual values of property, plant and equipment

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and residual values for its property, plant and equipment. This estimate is based on the historical experience of the actual useful lives of property, plant and equipment of similar nature and functions. Management will increase the depreciation charge where useful lives are less than previously estimated. It will write off or write down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives; actual residual values may differ from estimated residual values. Periodic view could result in a change in depreciable lives and residual values and therefore depreciation expense in the future periods.

5. CRITICAL ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENT AND KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY (Continued)

(ii) Impairment of trade receivables, deposits and other receivables and other financial assets

The measurement of impairment losses under HKFRS 9 requires judgement, in particular, the estimation of the amount and timing of future cash flows and collateral values when determining impairment losses and the assessment of a significant increase in credit risk. These estimates are driven by a number of factors, including the economic downturn, have made these estimates more judgemental, in which can result in different levels of allowances.

At the end of each reporting period, the Group assesses whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk for exposures since initial recognition by comparing the risk of default occurring over the expected life between the reporting date and the date of initial recognition. The Group considers reasonable and supportable information that is relevant and available without undue cost or effort for this purpose. This includes quantitative and qualitative information and also, forward-looking analysis.

(iii) Income tax and deferred tax

Determining income tax provisions requires the Group to make judgements on the future tax treatment of certain transactions. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of transactions in accordance with prevailing tax regulations and makes tax provisions accordingly. In addition, deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences can be utilised. This requires significant judgement on the tax treatments of certain transactions and also assessment on the probability that adequate future taxable profits will be available for the deferred tax assets to be recovered.

(iv) Useful lives of intangible assets

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and related amortisation charges for the Group's intangible assets with reference to the estimated periods that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of these assets. Management will revise the amortisation charges where useful lives are different to that of previously estimated, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete or non-strategic assets that have been abandoned or sold. Actual economic lives may differ from estimated useful lives. Periodic review could result in a change in depreciable lives and therefore amortisation expense in future periods.

(v) Impairment of property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and right-of-use assets

Property, plant and equipment, intangible assets and right-of-use assets are tested for impairment when indicators exist. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which an asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount being fair value less costs of disposal or value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows.

20. INTANGIBLE ASSETS (Continued)

The Group has performed a review to reassess the estimated useful lives of the computer software and licences based on more experiences attained by the Group's operational management, and has changed the expected useful lives of the computer software and licences from 3-10 years to 1-10 years to better reflect their actual useful lives. The change has been accounted for prospectively as a change in an accounting estimate in accordance with HKAS 8 "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors" effective from 1 January 2025.

The change has been applied prospectively and will result in a decrease in amortisation of approximately RMB16,900,000 for the year ending 31 December 2025.

Impairment assessment of intangible assets

As at 31 December 2024, an amount of RMB109,379,000 represented the carrying amount of licenses and computer software for generating revenue from SaaS interactive marketing services. Due to the rapid development of artificial intelligence as a substitute of SaaS interactive marketing services offered by the Group, the SaaS business of the Group has suffered an unexpected decline in revenue and incurred gross loss of RMB12,059,000 during the year ended 31 December 2024. Accordingly, management considered that impairment indicator existed and performed impairment assessment to estimate the recoverable amounts of the aforementioned intangible assets.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group has engaged an external valuer to assist them in determining the recoverable amount of the intangible assets in relation to the SaaS business ("SaaS Intangible Assets"). The recoverable amount of SaaS Intangible Assets is determined based on value-in-use calculation. The value-in-use calculation uses pre-tax cash flow projection over the SaaS Intangible Assets' useful life, which is based on financial budget approved by management covering a one-year period. Management's forecast for the budget period takes into account the performance of the SaaS business in current period and incorporating management's latest plans for the SaaS business, with annual revenue growth rate until the end of remaining useful life of one year as 0%. The pre-tax discount rate used to determine the recoverable amounts is 13.52%.

The discount rates applied by the Group reflects the current market assessment of the time value of money and the risk specific to the SaaS Intangible Assets. Revenue growth rate is based on past practices and expectations on market and operational development.

As a result, the directors of the Company estimate that the recoverable amount of the SaaS Intangible Assets is approximately RMB1,538,000. Therefore, an impairment of the SaaS Intangible Assets, amounting to approximately RMB107,841,000, have been recognised in profit or loss.

Written-off of intangible assets

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group externally acquired a building construction design amounting to RMB13,400,000 for the original development plan of head office of the Group which was then abandoned and a full write-off of RMB13,400,000 was provided for the year ended 31 December 2024.

- (b) Under the EIT Law and Implementation Regulations, PRC withholding income tax is applicable to interest and dividends payable to investors that are “non-tax resident enterprises”, which do not have an establishment or place of business in the PRC, or which have such establishment or place of business but the relevant income is not effectively connected with the establishment or place of business, to the extent such interest or dividends have their sources within the PRC. Under such circumstances, dividends distributed from the PRC subsidiaries to off-shore group entities shall be subject to the withholding tax at 10% or a lower treaty rate. For the Group, the applicable tax rate is 10%. Deferred taxation has not been provided for in the consolidated financial statements in respect of taxable temporary differences attributable to accumulated profits of the PRC subsidiaries amounting to approximately RMB2,122,000 (2023: RMB196,183,000).

Consequently, the Group has not provided for the deferred tax liabilities in respect of withholding tax on the remaining undistributed earnings of the Group's PRC entities as the Group is capable of controlling the timing of reversal of such temporary difference, and it is highly likely that such temporary difference would not be reversed in the foreseeable future.

37. RELATED PARTY DISCLOSURES

(a) Compensation of key management personnel

The key management personnel of the Group represent directors and other senior management of the Group. Details of the remuneration paid to them during the years ended 31 December 2024 and 2023 are set out in Note 14 to the consolidated financial statements.

(b) Guarantees provided by related parties

During the year ended 31 December 2024, directors of the Group provided personal guarantees to certain banks for general banking facilities granted to the Group (Note 30).

38. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's principal financial assets are trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, debt instruments measured at FVTOCI and cash and cash equivalents that derive directly from its operations. Principal financial liabilities of the Group include trade payables, other payables and accruals, borrowings, lease liabilities, amount due to an investee and convertible bonds. The main purpose of these financial liabilities is to finance the Group's operations.

The Group has not issued and does not hold any financial instruments for trading purposes at the end of the reporting period. The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are credit risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk and foreign currency risk. Generally, the Group utilises conservative strategies on its risk management.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that a counterparty will not meet its obligations under a financial instrument or customer contract, leading to a financial loss. The Group is exposed to credit risk from its operating activities (primarily for trade receivables), debt instruments measured at FVTOCI and deposits with banks.

The Group's customers are mainly reputable corporations and thus credit risk is considered to be low. Credit risk on other receivables and debt instruments measured at FVTOCI are minimal as the Group performs ongoing credit evaluation on the financial condition of its debtors and tightly monitors the ageing of the receivable balances. Follow up action is taken in case of overdue balances. In addition, management reviews the recoverable amount of the receivables individually and collectively at each reporting date to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts. The credit policies have been followed by the Group during the reporting period and are considered to have been effective in limiting the Group's exposure to credit risk to a desirable level.

(a) Credit risk (Continued)

The Group applies the simplified approach to provide for expected credit losses on trade receivables as prescribed by HKFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected credit loss provision for all trade receivables from transactions that is within the scope of HKFRS 15. Management has assessed the risk of default by counterparties and Note 22 details the loss allowance provision that was recognised during the reporting period.

To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables were grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The provision is determined as follows:

	Not yet past due	Less than 6 months past due	Over 6 months but less than 12 months past due	Over 12 months but less than 18 months past due	Over 18 months but not more than 24 months past due	Over 24 months past due	Total
As at 31 December 2024
Expected loss rate	7.12%	24.25%	45.47%	100.00%	100.00%	100.00%	29.98%
Gross carrying amount (RMB'000)	436,626	139,784	92,473	41,138	28,596	63,899	802,516
Loss allowance provision (RMB'000)	31,093	33,898	42,051	41,138	28,596	63,899	240,675
As at 31 December 2023
Expected loss rate	6.07%	17.57%	48.02%	100.00%	100.00%	100.00%	26.23%
Gross carrying amount (RMB'000)	240,387	76,605	47,243	18,171	25,603	16,968	424,977
Loss allowance provision (RMB'000)	14,591	13,463	22,686	18,171	25,603	16,968	111,482

(a) Credit risk (Continued)

As at 31 December 2024 and 2023, the fair value of trade receivables approximated their carrying amounts. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date was the carrying value of each class of receivable mentioned above. The Group does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancement over these balances.

The Group had a concentration of credit risk as certain of the Group's trade receivables were due from the Group's five largest customers as detailed below.

	2024 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000
Five largest customers	178,659	218,794

The Group's major bank balances are deposited with banks with good reputation and with high credit-ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies and hence management does not expect any losses from non-performance by these banks.

(b) Liquidity risk

In the management of liquidity risk, the Group's policy is to regularly monitor its liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants in order to maintain sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major banks to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and long term. The liquidity policies have been followed by the Group during the reporting period and are considered to have been effective in managing liquidity risk.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non- derivative financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. The maturity dates for other non-derivative financial liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates. The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest rates are floating, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rates at the end of the reporting period.

(c) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk means the risk on fluctuation of fair value or future cash flows of financial instruments which arise from changes in interest rates. Floating interest rate instruments will result in the Group facing cash flow interest rate risk, and fixed interest rate instruments will result in the Group facing fair value interest rate risk.

Other than cash at bank in Note 26 and debt instrument measured at FVTOCI in Note 21, the Group does not have significant interest-bearing assets. Any change in the interest rate promulgated by banks from time to time is not considered to have significant impact to the Group.

The Group's fair value interest-rate risk mainly arises from borrowings as disclosed in Note 30, convertible bond as disclosed in Note 32 and debt instruments measured at FVTOCI in Note 21. These instruments were issued at fixed rates which expose the Group to fair value interest-rate risk. The Group has no cash flow interest-rate risk as there are no borrowings which bear floating interest rates. The Group has not used any financial instruments to hedge potential fluctuations in interest rates.

The interest rates and terms of repayment of the Group's borrowings, convertible bonds and debt instruments measured at FVTOCI are disclosed in Note 30, Note 32 and Note 21.

(d) Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to foreign currency risk arising from various currency exposures, primarily with respect to the United States dollars ("USD") and Hong Kong Dollars ("HKD") as the Group's bank balances and convertible bonds are denominated in these currencies. The Group has not entered into any derivative instruments to hedge its foreign exchange exposures.

As at 31 December 2024, if the USD and HKD had weakened/strengthened by 0.5% against the RMB with all other variables held constant, loss (2023: profit) for the year and equity would have been RMB44,000 lower/higher (2023: RMB3,000 higher/lower) and RMB44,000 higher/lower (2023: RMB3,000 lower/higher) respectively, mainly as a result of net foreign exchange losses/gains on translation of USD and HKD denominated bank balances and convertible bonds. The Group's management manages this risk by closely monitoring the exchange rate movement and changes in market conditions that may have a significant impact on the operations and financial performance.

(e) Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholder and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions. To maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the dividend payment to shareholders, return capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt. No changes in the objectives, policies or processes were made during the reporting period.

The Group monitors capital using a gearing ratio, which is total debt divided by total capital plus total debt. Total debt is calculated as borrowings, lease liabilities, amount due to an investee and convertible bonds. Capital includes equity attributable to owners of the Company.

	2024 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000
Total debt	84,985	57,414
Equity attributable to the owners of the Company	480,973	576,515
Total debt and equity	565,958	633,939
Gearing ratio	15%	9%

(f) Fair value

Financial instruments not measured at fair value

Financial instruments not measured at fair value mainly include trade receivables, deposits and other receivables, cash and cash equivalents, trade payables, other payables and accruals, borrowings, amount due to an investee and liability portion of convertible bonds. Due to their short term nature, their carrying value approximates fair value.

Financial instruments measured at fair value

Financial instruments measured at fair value include financial asset at FVTOCI and conversion option derivative of convertible bonds measured at FVTPL. The Group's financial instruments carried at fair value as at 2023 are categorised by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1).
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The following table presents the Group's assets that are measured at fair value as at 31 December 2024 and 31 December 2023.

	Level 1 RMB'000	Level 2 RMB'000	Level 3 RMB'000
31 December 2024
Assets
Financial assets at FVTOCI	–	–	2,000
31 December 2023
Assets
Financial assets at FVTOCI	–	–	18,721

The financial asset at FVTOCI represent unlisted equity investments and debt instrument (Note 21). The fair value of unlisted equity investments as at 31 December 2024 is determined with reference to a valuation report issued by an independent valuation expert using market approach.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(f) Fair value (Continued)

The fair value of debt instrument as at 31 December 2023 was determined with reference to a valuation report issued by an independent valuation expert using income approach.

The determination of fair value of unlisted equity investments and debt instrument are based on certain parameters including discount for lack of marketability and bond yield, which are unobservable. The significant unobservable input is shown as below:

	2024	2023
Financial asset at FVTOCI
Discount for lack of marketability	22.10%	N/A
Bond yield	N/A	0.14%

As at 31 December 2024, increased in discount for lack of marketability by 1% would decrease the fair value of financial assets at FVTOCI by RMB28,000, whilst decrease in bond yield by 1% would increase the fair value of the financial assets at FVTOCI by RMB28,000.

As at 31 December 2023, increased in bond yield by 1% would decrease the fair value of financial assets at FVTOCI by RMB89,000, whilst decrease in bond yield by 1% would increase the fair value of the financial assets at FVTOCI by RMB89,000.

Reconciliation for financial instruments carried at fair value based on significant unobservable inputs (Level 3) are as follows:

	2024 RMB'000	2023 RMB'000
Assets
At the beginning of the year	18,721	17,390
Additions	2,000	10
Redemption of financial assets	(17,900)	–
Interest income	379	1,576
Interest received	(1,099)	–
Reversal of expected credit loss	(356)	–
Fair value change recognised in other comprehensive income	255	(255)
At the end of the year	2,000	18,721
