SHARE CAPITAL

POTENTIAL CHANGES TO SHARE CAPITAL AFTER [REDACTED]

Circumstances under which general meeting and class meeting are required

Our Company may by ordinary resolution (i) increase its share capital by the creation of new shares; (ii) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount than its existing shares; (iii) cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person; and (iv) sub-divide its shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount. In addition, our Company may by special resolution reduce its share capital or any capital redemption reserve subject to any conditions prescribed by the Cayman Companies Act.

See “Summary of the Constitution of our Company and Cayman Islands Company Law—2. Articles of Association—(a) Shares—(iii) Alteration of capital” in Appendix III for further details.

If at any time the share capital of our Company is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights attached to any class of shares for the time being issued (unless otherwise provided for in the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of the Cayman Companies Act, be varied or abrogated only with (in addition to a special resolution to amend the Memorandum or the Articles) the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths in nominal value of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the shares of that class by members holding shares representing three-fourths in nominal value of the shares Present (as defined in the Articles) and voting at such meeting.

See “Summary of the Constitution of our Company and Cayman Islands Company Law—2. Articles of Association—(a) Shares—(ii) Variation of rights of existing shares or classes of shares” in Appendix III for further details.

General mandate to issue Shares

- the total number of Shares repurchased by our Company pursuant to the authority referred to in “—General mandate to repurchase Shares” below.

This mandate only relates to repurchases on the Stock Exchange or on any other stock exchange on which the securities of our Company may be [REDACTED] and which is recognized by the SFC and the Stock Exchange for this purpose, and in accordance with all applicable laws and the requirements under the Listing Rules or equivalent rules or regulations of any other stock exchange as amended from time to time.
