PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION PROPOSED ABOLISHMENT OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE AND
NOTICE OF EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of this circular is to provide you with further details of the proposed amendments to Articles of Association and proposed abolishment of the establishment of the Supervisory Committee as well as the notice of the EGM.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION AND PROPOSED ABOLISHMENT OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE SUPERVISORY COMMITTEE

Reference is made to the announcement of the Company dated 18 July 2025 in relation to the Board's recommendation to make amendments to the Articles of Association and to abolish the establishment of the Supervisory Committee. Given the following circumstances:

* for identification purpose only

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

- (1) In view of the actual business operations of the Company, it is recommended to change the scope of business to include property management, property service evaluation and park management services in order to meet the actual operational needs.
- (2) According to the Company Law which came into effect on 1 July 2024, the updates and revisions to the new Company Law include but not limited to reforming the corporate capital system and organizational structure, strengthening the protection of the rights and interests of small and medium shareholders, strengthening the responsibilities of controlling shareholders, directors and senior management, and allowing the replacement of the supervisory committee with the audit committee, etc. Later on 28 March 2025, the China Securities Regulatory Commission issued the revised “Guidelines for Articles of Association of Listed Companies”, which also came into effect.
- (3) In January 2025, the Stock Exchange published the “Consultation Conclusions on Proposals to Further Expand the Paperless Listing Regime and Other Rule Amendments”, which includes, among other things, the proposed amendments in respect of hybrid shareholders’ meetings and electronic voting, requiring issuers to ensure that their company constitution allows them to hold hybrid shareholders’ meetings where shareholders can attend virtually and vote electronically using technology.

In order to implement the above-mentioned operational needs of the Company and the relevant requirements of laws and regulations, the Board proposes to make certain amendments to the current Articles of Association, which mainly include but are not limited to (1) abolishing the establishment of the Supervisory Committee and having the Audit Committee exercise the duties and powers of the Supervisory Committee as prescribed by laws and regulations; (2) strengthening information disclosure management; (3) changing the Company’s business scope; (4) amending the provisions of Articles of Association in response to changes in applicable laws and regulations; and (5) other housekeeping and miscellaneous amendments. After the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association take effect, the establishment of the Supervisory Committee will be abolished and the office of the members of the Supervisory Committee will be automatically removed.

The details of the proposed amendments to the Articles of Association (the “Proposed Articles Amendments”) are set out in the Appendix to this circular. The Proposed Articles Amendments are subject to the approval by way of special resolution by the Shareholders at the EGM, and shall be effective after obtaining all necessary approvals, registrations or filings from relevant governments or regulatory authorities. Before the above conditions are satisfied, the current Articles of Association and the Supervisory Committee shall continue to be effective.

The legal advisers to the Company as to the laws of Hong Kong and the laws of the PRC have respectively confirmed that the Proposed Articles Amendments comply with requirements of the Listing Rules and applicable laws of the PRC. The Company confirms that there is nothing unusual about the Proposed Articles Amendments for a company incorporated in the PRC and listed on the Stock Exchange.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The English translation of the Proposed Articles Amendments are included in the English version of this circular. The original language version, i.e. the Chinese version, of the same is set out in the Chinese version of this circular. The English translations are included for reference only and in the event of any inconsistency, the Chinese version shall prevail.

EGM

A notice convening the EGM is set out on pages 87 to 88. The proposed amendments to Articles of Association and the proposed abolishment of the establishment of the Supervisory Committee will be proposed by way of special resolutions for Shareholders' approval at the EGM.

A form of proxy for use at the EGM is also enclosed. Whether or not you intend to attend the EGM, you are requested to complete and return the enclosed proxy form (for use at the EGM) in accordance with the instructions printed thereon as soon as possible to the Company's Hong Kong H share registrar and transfer office, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited, Shops 1712-1716, 17/F., Hopewell Centre, 183 Queen's Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong (in case of holders of H Shares) or the Company's registered office, No. 10 Maqun Avenue, Qixia District, Nanjing City, Jiangsu Province, the PRC (in case of holders of Domestic Shares) but in any event not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the EGM.

Completion and return of the said proxy form will not preclude you from attending and voting in person at the EGM or at any adjourned meeting should you so wish.

According to Rule 13.39(4) of the Listing Rules, any vote of Shareholders at a general meeting must be taken by poll. Therefore, all resolutions at the EGM will be voted by poll. An announcement on the poll vote results will be made by the Company after the EGM in the manner prescribed under the Listing Rules.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Having considered the above, the Directors consider that the proposed amendments to Articles of Association the proposed abolishment of the establishment of the Supervisory Committee are in the interests of the Company and the Shareholders as a whole and accordingly, the Directors recommend the Shareholders to vote in favour of the resolutions to be proposed at the EGM.

LETTER FROM THE BOARD

The shares transferred each year during the term of office determined when taking office shall not exceed 25% of the total number of shares of the same category held by them; the shares held by them shall not be transferred within one year from the date of listing of the Company's shares. The above-mentioned personnel shall not transfer the Company's shares held within six months after leaving the company.

If the rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed have other provisions on the transfer of shares, such provisions shall also be complied with.

Chapter 4 Shareholders

Section 1 General Provisions on Shareholders

Article ~~30~~28

The Company shall maintain a register of shareholders based on the certificates provided by the securities registrar. The register of shareholders is sufficient evidence to prove the shareholdings of shareholders in the Company. Shareholders shall enjoy rights and bear obligations according to the ~~type~~ class of shares they hold; shareholders holding the same ~~type~~ class of shares shall enjoy the same rights and bear the same obligations.

If at any time the share capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, the Company intends to change or abolish the rights of any class shareholders which shall be approved by way of special resolution of shareholders of the affected class at a separately convened shareholders' meeting. Class meetings shall be conducted in a manner which is as similar as possible to that of shareholders' meeting. The provisions of the Articles of Association relating to the manner for the holding of shareholders' meeting are also applicable to class meetings.

The Company's branch register of shareholders in Hong Kong shall be open for inspection by shareholders during business hours. However, the Company may close the register in accordance with the terms equivalent to Section 632 of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance (that is, a total of not exceeding thirty (30) days per year by a Board resolution, or for an extension of up to thirty (30) days by ordinary resolution).

Article 3129

If the Company convenes a shareholders' meeting, distributes dividends and carries out liquidation and other actions that require confirmation of the identification of shareholders, the Board or the convener of the shareholders' meeting shall determine the record date, and shareholders whose name appears on the register of shareholders after market close at the record date have relevant interests.

Article 3230

The shareholders of the Company shall be entitled to the following rights:

- (1) the right to receiving dividends and other distributions in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (2) the right to file a petition to convene, hold, attend or appoint a proxy to attend shareholders' meetings and to exercise the right to speak and the corresponding voting right thereat (except where a shareholder is required, by the Listing Rules, to abstain from voting to approve the matter under consideration);
- (3) the right to supervise and manage the operation of the Company and to put forward proposals and raise inquiries;
- (4) the right to transfer, donate, or pledge shares held by them in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) the right to inspect and make copies of the Articles of Association, the register of shareholders, the minutes of the shareholders' meetings, the resolutions ~~minutes of the meeting of the board of directors~~ Board, ~~the resolutions of the supervisory committee~~ and the financial and accounting reports, the qualified shareholders may review the Company's accounting books and accounting vouchers;
- (6) in the event of the termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (7) to request the Company to purchase their shares for the shareholders who object to the resolution on merger or division of the Company made at the shareholders' meetings;
- (8) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Any shareholder requesting for inspection and copying of the relevant information as set forth in this Article or for obtaining information shall furnish with the Company written document evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company he/she holds and the Company shall comply with such shareholder's request upon verification of the shareholder's identity. If a shareholder requests to review or copy relevant materials of the Company, he or she shall comply with the provisions of the Company Law, the Securities Law and other laws and administrative regulations. The shareholder shall keep confidential the information and materials reviewed.

Article 31

If the content of the resolutions of the Company's shareholders or the Board violates laws or administrative regulations, shareholders have the right to request the people's court to declare them invalid.

If the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders' meeting or the Board meeting violate the laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or the content of the resolution violates the Articles of Association, the shareholders have the right to request the people's court to revoke it within sixty (60) days from the date of the resolution. However, this does not apply if the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders' meeting or the Board meeting have only minor flaws and have no substantial impact on the resolution.

If the Board, shareholders and other relevant parties have disputes over the validity of the resolution of shareholders' meeting, they shall promptly file a lawsuit with the people's court. Before the people's court makes a judgment or ruling to revoke the resolution, the relevant parties shall implement the resolution of shareholders' meeting. The Company, Directors and senior management shall earnestly perform their duties to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

If the people's court makes a judgment or ruling on the relevant matters, the Company shall perform its obligation of information disclosure in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the provisions of the CSRC and the stock exchange regulations, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate in the execution after the judgment or ruling takes effect. If it involves correcting previous matters, it will handle it in a timely manner and perform the corresponding obligation of information disclosure.

Article 32

- (5) Other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If any shareholder of the Company abuses the shareholder's rights and causes loss to the Company or other shareholders, he/she shall be liable for the compensation according to the laws. If any shareholder of the Company abuses the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to evade debts and severely damage the interests of the creditors of the Company, he/she shall bear joint liability for the debts owed by the Company.

Section 2 Controlling Shareholders and Actual ControllersArticle 36

The Company's controlling shareholder and actual controller shall exercise their rights and perform their obligations to safeguard the interests of the listed company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, and the regulations of the CSRC and the stock exchange.

Article 37

The controlling shareholder and actual controller of the Company shall comply with the following provisions:

- (1) exercise shareholder's rights in accordance with the law and do not abuse control or use affiliated relationships to damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Company or other shareholder;

- (2) strictly implement the public statements and commitments made, and do not change or exempt them without authorization;
- (3) strictly perform obligations of information disclosure in accordance with relevant regulations, actively cooperate with the Company in information disclosure, and promptly inform the Company of major events that have occurred or are about to occur;
- (4) do not occupy the Company's funds in any way;
- (5) do not force, instruct or require the Company and related personnel to provide guarantees in violation of laws and regulations;
- (6) do not use the Company's undisclosed major information to seek benefits, do not disclose undisclosed significant information related to the Company in any way, and do not engage in insider trading, short-term trading, market manipulation and other illegal and irregular activities;
- (7) the legal rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders shall not be damaged by any means such as unfair connected transactions, profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, etc.;
- (8) the integrity of the Company's assets, personnel independence, financial independence, institutional independence and business independence shall be guaranteed, and the independence of the Company shall not be affected in any way;
- (9) other provisions of laws, administrative regulations, regulations of the CSRC, the stock exchange and the Articles of Association.

If the controlling shareholder or actual controller of the Company does not serve as a Director of the Company but actually executes the Company's affairs, the provisions of this Articles of Association regarding the Directors' fiduciary duties and duties of diligence shall apply.

If the controlling shareholder or actual controller of the Company instructs the Directors or senior management to engage in acts that harm the interests of the Company or shareholders, they shall bear joint and several liability with the Directors or senior management.

Article 38

If a controlling shareholder or actual controller pledges the Company's shares that he/she holds or actually controls, he/she shall maintain the Company's controlling right and the stability of production and operation.

Article 39

If a controlling shareholder or actual controller transfers the shares of the Company held by him/her, he/she shall comply with the restrictive provisions on share transfer in laws, regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, administrative rules, regulations of the CSRC and the stock exchanges, as well as his/her commitments made on restricting share transfer.

CHAPTER 5 SHAREHOLDERS' MEETINGSSection 1 General provisions of shareholders' meetings*Article 3440

The Company's shareholders' meeting is composed of all shareholders. The shareholders' meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise its functions and powers in accordance with the laws.

Article 3541

The shareholders' meeting may exercise the following functions and powers:

The Board shall convene the shareholders' meeting on time within the prescribed time limit.

With the consent of more than half of all independent (non-executive) Directors, independent (non-executive) Directors have the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting. In response to the proposal of the independent (non-executive) Directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, the Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, provide written feedback on whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the proposal.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice to convene a shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after making the Board resolution. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall state the reasons and make an announcement.

Article 47

The Audit Committee has the right to propose to the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, and shall submit such proposal to the Board in written form. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of the law, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, provide written feedback on whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the proposal.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after making the Board resolution. Any changes to the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the Audit Committee. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, or fails to provide feedback within ten (10) days after receiving the proposal, it shall be deemed that the Board cannot or does not perform its duties of convening a shareholders' meeting, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the meeting on its own.

Article 48

Shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares (excluding treasury shares) have the right to request the Board to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, which shall be submitted to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of the law, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association, provide written feedback on whether it agrees or disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.

If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening a shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after making the Board resolution. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders. If the Board disagrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, or fails to provide feedback within ten (10) days after receiving the request, shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares (excluding treasury shares) have the right to propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, and shall submit a request to the Audit Committee in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary shareholders' meeting, it shall issue a notice of convening the shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after receiving the request. Any changes to the original request in the notice shall be subject to the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the Audit Committee fails to issue a shareholders' meeting notice within the prescribed period, it shall be deemed that the Audit Committee does not convene and preside over the shareholders' meeting. Shareholders who hold more than 10% of the Company's shares (excluding treasury shares) individually or in total for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the meeting on their own.

Article 49

The Board and the secretary to the Board shall cooperate with the shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders themselves. The Board shall provide the register of shareholders on the shareholders' record date.

Article 50

The expenses necessary for a shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders themselves shall be borne by the Company.

Section 3 Motions and Notices of Shareholders' MeetingArticle 3851

When the Company convenes an annual general meeting, it shall notify the shareholders twenty-one (21) days prior to the meeting in relation to the time and place of the meeting as well as the matters to be examined at the meeting. When the Company convenes an extraordinary general meeting, it shall notify the shareholders fifteen (15) days prior to the meeting in relation to the time and place of the meeting as well as the matters to be examined at the meeting. For the purpose of calculating the starting date of the aforesaid periods for convening a shareholders' meeting, the date of the meeting shall be excluded.

Article 3952

The contents of the motions to be raised should be within the scope of duties of the shareholders' meetings. It should have a specified subject and specific resolution to be decided, in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 4053

Shareholder(s) individually or jointly holding at least 1% of the Company's shares may submit a provisional motion in writing to the convener ten (10) days before the shareholders' meeting is convened; the convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the shareholders' meeting to announce the content of the provisional motion within two (2) days after receipt of the motion. However, this does not apply if the provisional motion violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association, or is not within the scope of powers of the shareholders.

Except for circumstances stipulated in the preceding paragraph, upon announcement of the notice of shareholders' meeting, the convener shall not amend the motions set out in the notice of shareholders' meeting or insert new motions.

Article 41

~~A shareholders' meeting shall not vote on or pass the resolutions which are not stated in the notice convening the shareholders' meeting or do not meet the motions as stipulated in the Articles of Association.~~

Article 4254

A notice of the shareholders' meeting shall be in writing and including the following contents:

- (1) the place, date and duration of the meeting;
- (2) the matters and motions raised for consideration at the meeting;
- (3) a clear statement to state that: all ordinary shareholders (including the preferred shareholders who has resumed their voting rights) are entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting and entrust a proxy in writing to attend the meeting and vote, and that such proxy need not be a shareholder;
- (4) the date of registration of equity entitlements for shareholders entitled to attend the shareholders' meeting;
- (5) name and telephone number of the permanent contact person for the meeting;
- ~~(4)~~(6) voting time and voting procedures online or by other means;
- ~~(5)~~(7) other matters specified in laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Hong Kong Listing Rules.

Article 55

Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, notices of shareholders' meetings shall be issued in the manner prescribed in Article 176 of the Articles of Association, and the address of the recipient shall be the address registered in the register of shareholders (there is no prohibition on issuing notices to shareholders whose registered addresses are outside Hong Kong). Notices of shareholders' meetings may also be issued by way of announcement.

Notices of shareholders' meetings, circulars to shareholders and related documents may be published on the Company's website and the website designated by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, subject to the conditions of laws, administrative regulations, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Articles of Association. Once announced, all shareholders shall be deemed to have received the notice of the shareholders' meeting.

After the notice of shareholders' meeting is issued, the shareholders' meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without justifiable reasons, and the motions listed in the notice of shareholders' meeting shall not be cancelled. In the event of postponement or cancellation, the convener shall issue a notice and explain the reasons at least two (2) working days before the originally scheduled date of the meeting.

Section 4 Convening of Shareholders' MeetingsArticle 56

The Board of the Company and other conveners will take necessary measures to ensure the normal order of the shareholders' meeting. Measures will be taken to stop any acts that interfere with the shareholders' meeting, provoke trouble, and infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of shareholders, and the acts will be reported to the relevant departments for investigation and punishment in a timely manner.

Article 57

All shareholders registered as at the shareholders' record date or their proxies have the right to attend the shareholders' meeting and exercise their voting rights in accordance with relevant laws and regulations, the listing rules of the Company's stock listing place, and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders may attend the shareholders' meeting in person or appoint proxies to attend and vote on their behalf.

Article 43

~~Notice of shareholders' meetings shall be served to each shareholder (whether or not such shareholder is entitled to vote at the shareholders' meeting), by personal delivery or prepaid mail to the address of the shareholder as shown in the register of shareholders (whether such addresses are within Hong Kong or in regions outside Hong Kong).~~

~~Notice of shareholders' meeting issued to holders of domestic shares can also be made in the form of announcement. Announcements to holders of domestic shares shall be published on the media that meets the conditions prescribed by CSRC. Once the announcement has been published, all holders of domestic shares shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant shareholders' meeting.~~

~~Subject to the compliance with the laws and regulations of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the relevant rules governing the listing of securities, corporate communications issued to the holders of overseas listed shares including notice of the shareholders' meeting shall be sent by the Company to shareholders by electronic means, announcement, or any other means as provided in the Articles of Association.~~

~~Corporate communication as mentioned in the preceding clause shall have the meaning as defined in the Hong Kong Listing Rules.~~

Article 4458

Any shareholder entitled to attend and vote at the shareholders' meeting shall have the right to appoint one (1) or several persons (who may not be shareholders) to act as his proxy to attend and vote at the meeting on his behalf. Any shareholder being a corporation shall be entitled to appoint a representative to attend and vote at any shareholders' meeting and, where a corporation is so represented, it shall be treated as being present at any meeting in person. A corporate shareholder may sign a shareholder's proxy form by its duly authorized officer, unless an individual shareholder is required by the Hong Kong Listing Rules to abstain from voting on certain matters. Such shareholder and/or the proxy so appointed by the shareholder may, pursuant to the instructions of the shareholder, exercise the following rights:

- (1) the right which the shareholder has to speak at the shareholders' meeting;
- (2) the right to demand a poll alone or jointly with others;
- (3) unless otherwise provided by laws and regulations, or by the securities regulatory authorities or stock exchanges where the Company's shares are listed, the right to exercise voting rights on a show of hands or on a poll, provided that where two or more proxies are appointed, the proxies may only exercise such voting rights on a poll.

If the said shareholder is a recognized clearing house by the law of Hong Kong, the shareholder may authorize suitable representative or corporate representative to act as its representative at any shareholders' meeting and creditors' meeting; representative or corporate representative so authorized shall have the same statutory rights as other shareholders, including the right to speak and vote.

Article 59

If an individual shareholder attends the meeting in person, he/she shall present his/her identification card or other valid documents or certificates that can prove his/her identity; if someone attends the meeting on behalf of another person, he/she shall present his/her valid identification documents and shareholder's proxy form.

Corporate shareholders shall be represented by their legal representative or a proxy authorized by the legal representative to attend the meeting. If the legal representative attends the meeting, he/she shall present his/her identification card and a valid certificate that can prove his/her qualifications as a legal representative; if a proxy attends the meeting, the proxy shall present his/her identification card and a proxy form issued by the corporate shareholder.

Article ~~45~~60

The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing under the hand of the shareholder or his attorney duly authorized in writing; for a corporate shareholder, the proxy must be affixed with the common seal or signed by its director or attorney or officer duly authorized in writing. The letter of authorization shall contain the number of the shares to be represented by the attorney. If several persons are authorized as the attorney of the shareholder, the letter of authorization shall specify the number of the shares to be represented by each attorney.

Article ~~46~~61

Proxy forms shall be lodged at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting 24 hours before the relevant meeting for voting according to the proxy form, or 24 hours before the designated time of voting. Where the proxy form is signed by a person under a power of attorney on behalf of the appointer, the power of attorney or other authorization documents authorized to be signed shall be notarized. A notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or other authorization documents, together with the proxy form, shall be deposited at the domicile of the Company or other places specified in the notice of meeting.

~~Where the appointer is a legal person, its legal representative or other persons authorized by the resolutions of the Board or other decision-making organ to act as its representatives may attend the general meeting of the Company as a representative of the appointer.~~

The Company shall be responsible for preparing the attendance register of the meeting. The attendance register of the meeting shall state the names (or corporate names) of the attendees, their identification numbers, the number of shares held or represented with voting rights, the names (or corporate names) of the principal, etc.

Article 63

If the shareholders' meeting requires Directors and senior management to attend the meeting, the Directors and senior management shall attend and accept inquiries from the shareholders.

Article 64

The shareholders' meeting shall be chaired by the chairman of the Company. If the chairman of the Company is unable to perform his duties or fails to perform his duties, a Director jointly nominated by more than half of the Directors shall preside over the meeting.

The shareholders' meeting convened by the Audit Committee shall be chaired by the convener from the Audit Committee. If the convener from the Audit Committee is unable to perform his/her duties or fails to perform his/her duties, a member of the Audit Committee jointly nominated by more than half of the members of the Audit Committee shall preside over the meeting.

The shareholders' meeting convened by the shareholders shall be chaired by a representative nominated by the convener.

When convening a shareholders' meeting, if the chairperson of the meeting violates the provisions of laws, regulations and the Articles of Association and makes it impossible for the shareholders' meeting to continue, the shareholders may nominate one person to serve as the chairperson of the meeting and continue the meeting with the consent of more than half of the shareholders with voting rights attending the shareholders' meeting.

If for any reason, the shareholders are unable to elect a chairperson of the meeting, the shareholder (including shareholder's agents) holding the most voting shares attending the meeting shall serve as the chairperson of the meeting.

Article 65

Directors and senior management shall explain and clarify shareholders' inquiries and suggestions at shareholders' meetings, except for those involving the Company's commercial secrets that cannot be disclosed at shareholders' meetings.

Article 66

The meeting host shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting and the total number of voting shares held before voting. The number of shareholders and proxies present at the meeting and the total number of voting shares held shall subject to registration of the meeting.

Article 67

The shareholders' meeting shall have a meeting minutes, which shall be the responsibility of the secretary to the Board. The meeting minutes shall record the following contents:

- (1) the time, place, agenda and name of the convener of the meeting;
- (2) the name of the meeting host and the Directors and senior management attending the meeting;
- (3) the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting, the total number of voting shares held and the proportion of the total number of shares of the Company;
- (4) the review process, key points of speeches and voting results of each proposal;
- (5) shareholders' inquiries, comments or suggestions and corresponding replies or explanations;
- (6) the names of the vote counter and vote scrutineer;
- (7) other contents that should be included in the meeting minutes as stipulated in the Articles of Association.

Article 68

The convener shall ensure that the minutes of the meeting are true, accurate and complete. The Directors, secretary to the Board, convener or their representatives, and meeting host who attend or sit in on the meeting shall sign the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting shall be kept together with the signature book of shareholders attending the meeting on site, the power of attorney for proxy attendance, and the valid data of voting by internet and other means, and the preservation period shall not be less than ten (10) years.

Article 69

The convener shall ensure that the shareholders' meeting is held continuously until the final resolution is reached. If the shareholders' meeting is suspended or unable to make a resolution due to force majeure or other special reasons, necessary measures shall be taken to resume the shareholders' meeting as soon as possible or directly terminate the shareholders' meeting, and timely announce it.

Section 5 Voting and Resolutions of Shareholders' MeetingsArticle 47

Any form issued to a shareholder by the Board for use by him for appointing a proxy shall allow the shareholder to freely instruct the proxy to vote in favour of or against each resolution relating to each matter to be considered at the relevant meeting. Such form shall contain a statement that in the absence of instructions by the shareholder, his proxy may vote as he thinks fit.

Article 48

The Company is entitled to ask the proxy who represents an individual shareholder to attend the shareholders' meeting to provide his identification document as well as the power of attorney signed by the appointer or the representative authorized by the appointer.

In the case of a corporate shareholder appoints its legal representative to attend the meeting, the Company is entitled to ask the legal representative to provide the valid copy of the resolution or the power of attorney by which the board of directors or other authoritative department of the corporate shareholder appoints the legal representative and which has been notarized (other than a recognized clearing house) as well as valid copy of the corporate shareholder's identification document and power of attorney.

Article 49

Where the appointer has deceased, incapacitated to act, withdrawn the appointment or the power of attorney, or where the relevant shares have been transferred prior to the voting, a vote given in accordance with the letter of authorization shall remain valid provided that no written notice of such event has been received by the Company prior to the commencement of the relevant meeting.

Article 50

There shall be two (2) types of resolutions of shareholders' meetings, namely ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

To adopt an ordinary resolution of shareholders' meeting, votes representing over one-half of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

To adopt a special resolution of shareholders' meeting, votes representing at least two-thirds of the voting rights represented by the shareholders (including proxies) present at the shareholders' meeting must be exercised in favour of the resolution in order for it to be passed.

A shareholder (including his proxy) attending the meeting shall vote in favour of or against each resolution relating to every matter which has been put to vote at the relevant meeting. If such shareholder or his proxy abstains from voting, which will be deemed that the voter has waived his rights to vote, the Company shall not treat it as vote with voting right when calculating the voting results of the such matter.

Article ~~51~~71

A shareholder (including proxy) when voting at a shareholders' meeting may exercise voting rights in accordance with the number of shares carrying the right to vote and each share shall have one vote.

Shares held by the Company have no voting rights. This portion of shares is not considered as part of the total number of shares with voting rights and present at the shareholders' meetings.

Where any shareholder is, under the Hong Kong Listing Rules and/or any applicable laws and regulations, required to abstain from voting on a particular resolution or restricted to voting only in favour of or against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

Article ~~52~~72

Except where the chairman, in good faith, decides to allow a resolution which relates purely to a procedural or administrative matter to be voted on by a show of hands, all votes of the shareholders at the shareholders' meeting shall be taken by poll.

Article ~~53~~73

When the shareholders' meeting resolves on the related party transactions of the Company or on a particular resolution for which any shareholders shall be refrained from voting or shall be restricted to vote for (or against) in accordance with the Hong Kong Listing Rules, any votes cast by such shareholders or their representative in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted in the total number of valid voting. The public announcement of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the voting of non-related shareholders.

Article ~~54~~74

The following matters shall be resolved by an ordinary resolution at a shareholders' meeting:

- (1) work reports of the Board ~~and the Supervisory Committee~~;
- (2) plans formulated by the Board for distribution of profits and for making up losses;
- (3) the appointment and removal of members of the Board and their remuneration and payment methods;
- (4) ~~the appointment and removal of members of the Supervisory Committee and their remuneration and payment methods;~~

(5) ~~the Company's annual report;~~

~~(6)~~(4) matters other than these required by the applicable laws and ~~administrative~~ regulations or by the Articles of Association to be adopted by special resolutions.

Article 5575

The following matters shall be resolved by a special resolution at a shareholders' meeting:

- (1) increase or reduction of the registered share capital of the Company;
- (2) division, merger, dissolution, liquidation of the Company;
- (3) amendments to the Articles of Association;
- (4) purchase or sale of major assets, or provision of guarantee by the Company in excess of 30% of the Company's latest audited total assets within one year;
- (5) the equity incentive plans
- (6) other matters which are provided for by the laws, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association and considered by the shareholders' meeting, by way of an ordinary resolution, to have a substantial impact on the Company and require approval by a special resolution;
- (7) other matters required by the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed and other normative documents.

Article 76

When the shareholders' meeting deliberates on matters related to connected transactions, connected shareholders and shareholders who have a significant interest in the relevant matters under consideration (hereinafter referred to as "Connected Shareholders") shall not participate in the voting, and the number of voting shares represented by them shall not be counted in the total number of valid votes; the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall fully disclose the voting situation of non-connected shareholders.

When the shareholders' meeting deliberates on matters related to connected transactions, Connected Shareholders shall abstain; if the meeting requires Connected Shareholders to attend the meeting to explain, Connected Shareholders shall attend the meeting and make a truthful explanation.

The matters on which Connected Shareholders abstain from voting and do not participate in the voting shall be announced by the meeting host at the beginning of the meeting.

For matters related to connected transactions to be formed into ordinary resolutions, they must be passed by more than half of the number of voting shares of non-connected shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting; for special resolutions to be formed, they must be passed by more than two-thirds of the number of voting shares of non-connected shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting.

Article 77

Except when the Company is in crisis or other special circumstances, the Company will not enter into a contract with a person other than a Director or senior management to entrust the management of all or important business of the Company to that person without the approval of the shareholders by special resolution.

Article 78

When the shareholders' meeting deliberates on a proposal, it will not modify the proposal. If it is modified, it shall be regarded as a new proposal and cannot be voted on at that shareholders' meeting.

Article 79

The shareholders' meeting shall vote by open ballot.

Article 80

Before the shareholders vote on the proposal, two shareholder representatives shall be nominated to participate in the counting and scrutinizing the votes. If the deliberation matters are connected to certain shareholders, the relevant shareholders and their proxies shall not participate in the counting and scrutinizing the votes.

When the shareholders vote on the proposal, the shareholder representatives shall be responsible for counting and scrutinizing the votes, and the voting results shall be announced on the spot, and the voting results of the resolution shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

The shareholders of the Company or their proxies who vote through the internet or other means have the right to check their voting results through the corresponding voting system.

Article 81

The on-site shareholders' meeting shall not end earlier than that by online or other methods. The meeting host shall announce the voting situation and results of each proposal and announce whether the proposal is passed based on the voting results.

Before the voting results are officially announced, the Company, vote counters, vote scrutineer, shareholders, network service providers and other relevant parties involved in the shareholders' meeting by on-site, online and other voting methods shall have the obligation to keep the voting situation confidential.

Article 82

Shareholders attending the shareholders' meeting shall express one of the following opinions on the proposals submitted for voting: agree, oppose or abstain.

Unfilled, incorrectly filled, illegible votes, and uncast votes shall be deemed as the voter's waiver of voting rights, and the voting results of the number of shares held by the voter shall be counted as "abstain".

Article 83

The resolutions of the shareholders' meeting shall be announced in a timely manner in accordance with laws and regulations, the regulatory rules of the Company's stock listing place or the provisions of the Articles of Association. The announcement shall state, the total number of voting shares held and the proportion of the total number of voting shares of the Company, the voting method, the voting results of each proposal and the details of each resolution passed.

Article 84

If the proposal is not passed, or the current shareholders' meeting amends the resolution of the previous shareholders' meeting, a special reminder shall be made in the announcement of resolutions of shareholders' meeting.

Article 85

If the shareholders' meeting passes the proposal on the election of Directors, the new Directors shall take office on the date of the shareholders' resolution, unless otherwise provided in the shareholders' resolution.

Article 86

If the shareholders' meeting passes the proposal on cash dividend, bonus shares or conversion of capital reserve into capital, the Company shall implement the specific plan within two (2) months after the shareholders' meeting.

Article 56

~~Shareholders who request for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting shall comply with the following procedures:~~

- ~~(1) Shareholders individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares shall have right requiring the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall make such request to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.~~

~~If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after the resolution is made by the Board. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of relevant shareholders.~~

- ~~(2) If the Board does not agree to hold the extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a reply within ten (10) days after receipt of the request, shareholders individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares shall be entitled to propose and request in writing to the Supervisory Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting. The Supervisory Committee shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.~~

~~If the Supervisory Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of such shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after receipt of the request. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of relevant shareholders.~~

- ~~(3) If the Supervisory Committee fails to give the notice of a shareholders' meeting within the specified time limit, it shall be deemed to have failed to convene or preside over the shareholders' meeting, in which case, shareholders who individually or jointly holding at least 10% of the shares for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over the meeting themselves.~~

~~The Supervisory Committee shall have right requiring the Board to convene an extraordinary general meeting, and shall make such request to the Board in writing. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, give a written feedback on approval or disapproval for the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within ten (10) days after receiving the request.~~

~~If the Board agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, it shall serve a notice of shareholders' meeting within five (5) days after the resolution is made by the Board. Changes in the original proposal in the notice shall be subject to the approval of Supervisory Committee.~~

~~If the Board does not agree to hold an extraordinary general meeting or fails to give a reply within ten (10) days after receipt of the request, the Board shall be considered to be unable or fail to perform the duty of convening a shareholders' meeting. The Supervisory Committee can convene and preside over the meeting on its own.~~

~~If the Supervisory Committee or shareholders convene a shareholders' meeting on their own, the Company shall bear the reasonable expenses incurred thereby.~~

Article 58

~~Shareholders' meetings convened by the Board shall be presided over by the Chairman of the Board. If the Chairman cannot or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, one Director shall be elected to preside over the meeting with the approval of over one-half of the Directors.~~

~~If the Board is unable or fails to perform its duty in convening a shareholders' meeting, the Supervisory Committee shall timely convene and preside over such meeting. If the Supervisory Committee fails to convene and preside over such meeting, shareholders who individually or collectively hold at least 10% of the shares for 90 consecutive days or more may convene and preside over the meeting themselves.~~

~~Shareholders' meeting convened by the Supervisory Committee, the chairman of the Supervisory Committee shall preside over such meeting. When the chairman of the Supervisory Committee cannot or fails to fulfill the duty thereof, one supervisor shall be elected to preside over the meeting with the approval of over one-half of the supervisors.~~

~~A shareholders' meeting convened by shareholders themselves shall be presided over by a representative elected by the convener.~~

Article 59

~~The shareholders' meeting can be convened and votes can be conducted using either on-site meetings or electronic communication means. The chairman of the meeting shall announce the vote and result of each proposal and the decision on whether a resolution of the shareholders' meeting shall be adopted. His decision shall be final and conclusive and shall be announced at the meeting and recorded in the minutes.~~

Article 60

~~In the event that the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the result of a resolution put forward to the vote, he may have the votes counted. In the event that the chairman of the meeting does not have the votes counted, any shareholder present in person or by proxy objects to the result announced by the chairman of the meeting may demand that the votes be counted immediately after the declaration of the voting result, the chairman of the meeting shall have the votes counted immediately.~~

Article 61

~~In the event that the votes are counted at the shareholders' meeting, the counting results shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of the meeting and the summary minutes of the meeting along with the signature book of the shareholders attending the meeting and the power of attorney for the proxies shall be kept in the Company.~~

CHAPTER 6 DIRECTORS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORSSection 1 General Provisions for Directors*Article 87

A Director of the Company is a natural person who shall not serve as a Director of the Company if he/she has any of the following circumstances:

- (1) lack of civil capacity or limited civil capacity;
- (2) being sentenced to a punishment for corruption, bribery, embezzlement, misappropriation of property or disruption of the socialist market economic order, or being deprived of political rights for a crime, and the term of execution has not expired for more than five years, and being given a suspended sentence, the term of probation has not expired for more than two years;
- (3) serving as a director or factory director or manager of a company or enterprise that is undergoing bankruptcy liquidation and is personally responsible for the bankruptcy of the company or enterprise, and the period of time has not exceeded three years since the completion of the bankruptcy liquidation of the company or enterprise;
- (4) served as the legal representative of a company or enterprise whose business license was revoked or ordered to close due to illegal activities and was personally responsible, and the period of time has not exceeded three years since the company or enterprise was revoked its business license or ordered to close;

- (5) listed as a dishonest person subject to enforcement by the people's court for a relatively large amount of personal debts that were not repaid when due;
- (6) banned from the securities market by the CSRC, and the term has not expired;
- (7) publicly identified by the stock exchange as unsuitable to serve as a director, senior management, etc. of a listed company, and the term has not expired;
- (8) other contents stipulated by laws, the Hong Kong Listing Rules, administrative regulations or departmental regulations.

If the election or appointment of a Director violates the provisions of the Articles of Association, the election, delegation or appointment shall be invalid. If a Director encounters the circumstances described in this article during his/her term of office, the Company will remove him/her from his/her position and stop him/her from performing his/her duties.

Article 88

Directors shall be elected or replaced by the shareholders' meeting and may be removed from office by the shareholders' meeting before the expiration of their term of office. The term of office of a Director is three years and he/she may be re-elected upon the expiration of his/her term of office.

The term of office of a Director shall be calculated from the date of his appointment until the expiration of the term of office of the current Board. If a Director's term of office expires and is not re-elected in time, before the re-elected Director takes office, the original Director shall still perform the duties of a Director in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and the Articles of Association.

Article 89

Directors shall abide by the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, have a duty of loyalty to the Company, take measures to avoid conflicts between their own interests and the interests of the Company, and shall not use their power to seek improper benefits. Directors shall have the following fiduciary duties to the Company:

- (1) not to embezzle the Company's property or misappropriate the Company's funds;
- (2) not to deposit the Company's funds in an account opened in their own name or in the name of any other individual;
- (3) not to use their power to bribe or accept other illegal income;

- (4) not to directly or indirectly enter into a contract or conduct transactions with the Company without reporting to the Board or the shareholders' meeting and obtaining a resolution of the Board or the shareholders' meeting in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (5) not to use their position to seek business opportunities belonging to the Company for themselves or others, except where they have reported to the Board or the shareholders' meeting and obtained a resolution of the shareholders' meeting, except the Company cannot take advantage of the business opportunity in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association;
- (6) not to operate similar business as the Company's for themselves or for others without reporting to the Board or the shareholders' meeting and obtaining a resolution of the shareholders' meeting;
- (7) not to accept commission from transactions between others and the Company and keep it for himself;
- (8) not to disclose secrets of the Company without authorization;
- (9) not to use their affiliated relationships to harm the interests of the Company;
- (10) other fiduciary obligations stipulated in applicable laws, regulations, departmental rules and regulations and the Articles of Association.

The income obtained by the Directors in violation of this article shall belong to the Company; if losses are caused to the Company, they shall bear liability for compensation.

Subject to the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the provisions of paragraph 2, item (4) of this article shall apply to contracts or transactions entered into between the Company and the close relatives of Directors and senior management, enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by Directors, senior management or their close relatives, and related persons with other affiliated relationships with Directors and senior management.

Article 90

Directors shall abide by the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, have a duty of diligence to the Company, and shall perform their duties with due care that management should normally take and for the best interests of the Company.

Directors shall have the following duties of diligence to the Company:

- (1) exercise the rights granted by the Company with caution, seriousness and diligence to ensure that the Company's business behavior complies with the requirements of national laws, administrative regulations and various national economic policies, and that business activities do not exceed the business scope specified in the business license;
- (2) treat all shareholders fairly;
- (3) keep abreast of the Company's business operations and management;
- (4) sign written confirmation on the Company's regular reports to ensure that the information disclosed by the Company is true, accurate and complete;
- (5) provide the Audit Committee with relevant information and materials truthfully and shall not hinder the Audit Committee from exercising its powers;
- (6) other duties of diligence stipulated by applicable laws, regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

Article 91

A Director who fails to attend the Board meeting in person for two consecutive times and does not authorize other Directors to attend the Board meeting shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties, and the Board shall recommend the shareholders' meeting to remove him/her.

Article 92

A Director may resign before the expiration of his/her term of office. A Director shall submit a written resignation report to the Company when resigning, and the resignation shall take effect on the day the Company receives the resignation report. The Company will disclose the relevant circumstances within one trading day.

If the resignation of a Director causes the number of members of the Company's Board to fall below the statutory minimum number, before the re-elected Director takes office, the original Director shall still perform the duties of a Director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations and the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 93

The shareholders' meeting may, by ordinary resolution, remove any Director (including the managing Director or other executive Director) before the expiration of his/her term of office. Such removal shall not affect the Director's claim for damages under any contract, and the removal shall take effect on the day the resolution is made.

If a Director is dismissed before the expiration of his/her term of office without justifiable reasons, the Director may demand compensation from the Company.

Article 94

No Director may act on behalf of the Company or the Board in his/her personal name without the provisions of the Articles of Association or the legal authorization of the Board. When a Director acts in his/her personal name, if a third party would reasonably believe that the Director is acting on behalf of the Company or the Board, the Director shall declare his/her position and identity in advance.

Article 95

If a Director causes damage to others while performing his/her duties, the Company shall bear the liability for compensation; if the Director is intentional or grossly negligent, he/she shall also bear the liability for compensation.

If a Director violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental regulations or the Articles of Association while performing his/her duties and causes losses to the Company, he/she shall bear the liability for compensation.

Section 2 Board of DirectorsArticle 6296

The Company sets a Board which is responsible to the shareholders' meeting. The Board shall comprise seven (7) ~~to eleven (11)~~ Directors, and the number of independent (non-executive) Directors shall not be less than three (3) at any time and shall account for at least one-third of the total number of Directors of the Board. The chairman of the Company and the Director who transacts corporate business ~~are shall be~~ elected and replaced by the Board.

Article 6397

~~Directors shall be elected or replaced at shareholders' meeting and may be removed from office prior to the expiry of their tenure by shareholders' meeting. The term of office of each session of the Board shall be three (3) years. Upon maturity of the term of office, a Director shall be eligible to offer himself/herself for re-election and re-appointment.~~

The Board shall have a Chairman. The Chairman of the Board shall be elected and removed by over one-half of all Directors. The term of office of the Chairman shall be three (3) years, renewable upon re-election.

~~The shareholders' meeting may by ordinary resolution remove any Director before the expiration of his/her term of office (but without prejudice to such Director's right to claim damages based on any contract), subject to full compliance with relevant laws and administrative regulations.~~

Article 64

1. Any member of the Company (“Member”) entitled to attend and vote at the EGM is entitled to appoint one or more proxies to attend and vote on his behalf. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. In the case of a joint holding, the form of proxy may be signed by any joint holder, but if more than one joint holder is present at the meeting, whether in person or by proxy, that one of the joint holders whose name stands first on the register of Members in respect of the relevant joint holding shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof.
2. To be valid, a proxy form and the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of such authority must be delivered to the Company’s H Share Registrar, Computershare Hong Kong Investor Services Limited at Shops 1712-1716, 17th Floor, Hopewell Center, 183 Queen’s Road East, Wanchai, Hong Kong (in case of holders of H Shares) or to the Company’s registered office at No. 10 Maqun Avenue, Qixia District, Nanjing City, Jiangsu Province, the PRC (in case of holders of Domestic Shares) not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the holding of the EGM or 24 hours before the time appointed for taking the poll. Delivery of the form of proxy shall not preclude a shareholder of the Company from attending and voting in person at the meeting and, in such event, the instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to be revoked.
3. Members or their proxies shall present identity proof (and form of proxy in case of proxies) upon attending the EGM.
4. In order to determine the identity of the shareholders to attend and vote at the EGM, the register of members of the Company will be closed from Thursday, 14 August 2025 to Tuesday, 19 August 2025 (both days inclusive), during which period no transfer of Shares will be effected. Instruments of transfer accompanied by relevant share certificates must be lodged with the H Share Registrar by 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday, 13 August 2025.
