I. Past Economy and Environment and Operation Overview

(I) Past Economy and Environment

In the first half of 2025, the international political and economic situation became increasingly volatile and uncertain due to the U.S. tariff policies, international conflicts, and geopolitical contradictions, with the sluggish economic development remaining unchanged. Under the firm leadership of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China headed by President Xi Jinping, Chinese people of all ethnic groups, regional departments, by conscientiously implementing the strategies and decisions of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and the State Council, forged ahead with determination, overcome difficulties, and implemented various macro policies in a more proactive and effective manner. Despite facing multiple pressures. the overall national economy performed in a stable manner and achieved improvement, such as, the stable growth of the main objectives of economic and social development, effective implementation of high-quality development, orderly development of new quality productivity, continuous recovery of demand, overall stability in employment and prices, continuous growth in residents' income, thus achieving new progress in highquality development. In the first half of 2025, the gross domestic product (GDP) amounted to RMB66.05 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 5.3%. On an industrial structure basis, the growth rates of primary, secondary and tertiary industries were 3.7%, 5.3% and 5.5%, respectively. At the end of June 2025, the balance of M2 amounted to RMB330.29 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 8.3%; the balance of M1 amounted to RMB113.95 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 4.6%, and the balance of M0 amounted to RMB13.18 trillion, representing a year-on-year increase of 12%. In the first half of 2025, the new RMB loans increased by RMB12.92 trillion; and new RMB deposits increased by RMB17.94 trillion.

In the first half of 2025, Heilongjiang Province resolutely carried out the decisions and deployments of the Party Central Committee and the State Council and diligently implemented the work requirements of the Heilongjiang Provincial Party Committee and the Provincial Government. Adhering to the general keynote of seeking progress while maintaining stability, the province fully, accurately and comprehensively applied the new development philosophy, actively served and integrated into the new development pattern, and focused on the central task of economic construction and the primary task of high-quality development. As a result, the economy of Heilongjiang Province maintained overall stability. In the first half of 2025, the regional gross domestic product (RGDP) of Heilongjiang Province reached RMB708.77 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 5.1%. Specifically, the added value of the primary industry was RMB49.66 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 3.5%; the added value of the secondary industry was RMB498.96 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 3.5%; and the added value of the tertiary industry was RMB460.15 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 5.6%. The per capita disposable income of urban and rural residents increased by 4.8% and 5.6%, respectively.

(II) Operation Overview

In the first half of 2025, under the strong leadership of the Party Committee and the Board of Directors, and with the oversight and support of the Board of Supervisors and the resident discipline inspection and supervisory team, as well as the guidance from the provincial and municipal Party committees and governments in Heilongjiang Province, the People's Bank of China and regulatory authorities, the Bank adhered to the guidance of President Xi Jinping's Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, thoroughly implemented President Xi Jinping's Thought on Economy and his important exposition on financial work, and comprehensively implemented the spirit of the 20th National Congress of the Communist Party of China and the Second and Third Plenary Session of the 20th Central Committee. The Bank strictly implemented regulatory requirements, comprehensively strengthened the Party's leadership, continuously deepened reform and transformation, accelerated the restructuring of balance sheet and income statement, provided in-depth services to the real economy, actively prevented and defused risks. Our business development has shown a positive trend of steady progress with improved quality in terms of "scale, quality, structure and efficiency".

Steady business development

As at 30 June 2025, the Bank had total assets of RMB927,527.5 million, representing an increase of RMB11,295.6 million or 1.23% as compared to the end of last year; the balance of loans and advances to customers amounted to RMB397,566.3 million, representing an increase of RMB18,472.4 million or 4.87% as compared to the end of last year; and the balance of customer deposit amounted to RMB695,055.9 million, representing an increase of RMB1,376.5 million or 0.20% as compared to the end of last year.

Stable and positive operating efficiency

In the first half of 2025, the Bank recorded a net profit of RMB992.1 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB146.2 million or 17.28%; and the net profit attributable to shareholders of the Company was RMB915.4 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB152.3 million or 19.96%. The return on average total assets of the Bank was 0.22%, representing a year-on-year increase of 0.02 percentage point and the return on average equity of the Bank was 2.07%, representing a year-on-year increase of 0.57 percentage point.

Stable loan quality

As of 30 June 2025, the balance of the Bank's non-performing loans was RMB11,269.7 million, and the non-performing loan ratio was 2.83%, representing a decrease of 0.01 percentage point as compared to the end of last year; the impairment coverage ratio was 209.95%, representing an increase of 7.36 percentage points as compared to the end of last year; and impairment losses on loans was 5.95%, representing an increase of 0.20 percentage point as compared to the end of last year, showing that the Bank's capability to risk resistance remained basically stable.

Stable development of subsidiaries

As at 30 June 2025, HB Leasing, HBCF and 26 village and township banks controlled by the Company kept stable and healthy development momentum as a whole. As at 30 June 2025, HB Leasing had total assets of RMB26,782 million, representing an increase of 7.69% as compared to the end of last year; HBCF had total assets of RMB25,418 million, representing an increase of 4.30% as compared to the end of last year. Total assets of the 26 village and township banks controlled by the Company amounted to RMB22,621 million.

Compliance with applicable laws and regulations

The Bank has been, throughout its operation, in compliance with applicable laws and regulations, including the Commercial Bank Law of the People's Republic of China, the Company Law of the People's Republic of China, the Hong Kong Listing Rules and other laws and regulations. During the Reporting Period, there was no material violation of the laws and regulations by the Bank.

(III) Analysis of Key Issues

1. Net interest margin

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net interest spread was 1.11%, representing a decrease of 0.34 percentage point as compared to the same period of last year, and its net interest margin was 1.10%, representing a decrease of 0.26 percentage point as compared to the same period of last year. In response to the national policy guidance, the Bank focused on its main responsibilities and business, actively practiced its mission of serving the real economy, continued to deepen the implementation of the "Five Major Areas (五篇大文章)", and strengthened the intensity of credit disbursement. The Bank also actively adapted to the downward trend of LPR, lowered the finance costs for the real economy, strengthened efforts of financial service security and fully supported the high-quality development of local economies. The Bank has also continuously improved the liability product and service system, actively provided financial service guarantees for the general public to achieve a better life, expanded the sources of low-cost deposits, strengthened the control of long-term and high-cost deposits, and lowered the customer deposit interest rate several times. While maintaining a stable growth trend of the deposit scale, it has gradually optimized the liability term and cost structure. However, affected by factors such as the insufficient effective demand for credit in the real economy, the maturity of high-yield asset businesses, the downward trend of market interest rates, and repricing, the decline rate of the asset yield was greater than that of rate of the liability cost compared with the same period, resulting in a decrease in the net interest margin and net interest spread compared with the same period.

Looking forward to the second half of 2025, there are still uncertainties in the external environment. The effective domestic demand is still in the recovery stage, market interest rates remain at a low level, and competition among peers is fierce. The net interest spread and net interest margin are expected to still face pressure. To this end, on the basis of deeply serving the local real economy, the Bank will strive to create a benign development model driven by credit disbursement to further drive asset growth, optimize the asset portfolio and credit structure in combination with market dynamics, expand liability sources with low costs through multiple channels, continuously optimize the cost structure, improve the marginal benefit, and ensure the basic stability of the net interest spread and net interest margin.

2 · Quality of assets

As of 30 June 2025, the balance of the Bank's non-performing loans was RMB11,269.7 million, and the non-performing loan ratio was 2.83%, representing a decrease of 0.01 percentage point as compared to the end of last year. Impairment coverage ratio was 209.95%, representing an increase of 7.36 percentage points as compared to the end of last year; and impairment losses on loans were 5.95%, representing an increase of 0.20 percentage point as compared to the end of last year, showing that the Bank's capability to risk resistance remained basically stable.

During the Reporting Period, in accordance with the support direction of national industrial policy and based on the characteristics of regional economic development, the Bank strengthened its credit support to the local real economy and increased loan disbursements to relevant key sectors including manufacturing industry, regional featured industries with competitive advantages, high-tech industry, green finance, and inclusive finance. The Bank closely monitored changes in internal and external environments, continuously optimized risk access standards and policy requirements, built a risk control system prioritizing risk management and control, strictly controlled the risk of new defaults, increased efforts in addressing stock-related risks, disposed of non-performing assets with the combination of collection in cash, collection by litigation, and write-off of doubtful debts, and steadily pushed forward the structural adjustment of its assets, maintaining the overall stability of asset quality.

3 Capital management

During the Reporting Period, in accordance with the Administration Measures for the Capital of Commercial Banks, the Bank continuously strengthened the construction of its capital management fundamental capability, and further enhanced the role of capital in leading and restraining its business development. During the Reporting Period, the Bank met the regulatory requirements for the capital adequacy ratios as required by the NFRA.

As at 30 June 2025, the core tier-1 capital adequacy ratio, tier-1 capital adequacy ratio and capital adequacy ratio of the Bank were 8.52%, 12.23%, 13.47%, respectively, representing a decrease of 0.16 percentage point, 0.14 percentage point and 0.14 percentage point, respectively, as compared to the end of last year, which was mainly due to the change in net capital. As at the end of the Reporting Period, the Bank's net capital was RMB79.5443 billion, representing a decrease of RMB0.9305 billion or 1.2% as compared to the end of last year. Looking ahead to the second half of 2025, the Bank will continue to strengthen capital management through the following initiatives. First, it will continue to implement differentiated competition strategies, establish diversified revenue streams, and further enhance internal capital generation capabilities. Second, it will actively adapt to the current evolving market conditions, enhance active capital management, constantly optimize business structure, and raise awareness of the intensive use of capital. Third, it will establish a multi-tiered capital replenishment mechanism to ensure that capital levels consistently meet regulatory requirements.

4 · Investment in debt instruments issued by financial institutions

The Bank consistently performed a rigorous review on risk and compliance with respect to the use of capital in accordance with the requirements of the Notice on Regulating the Interbank Business of Financial Institutions (Yin Fa [2014] No. 127). The Bank accurately measured risks, and set aside capital and made provisions accordingly based on the principle of "substance over formality" and the nature of the underlying assets. With reference to loan provision requirements, the Bank progressively raised the coverage ratio for investment in debt instruments issued by financial institutions to a relatively higher level in a steady, prudent and dynamic manner based on the expected credit loss model measurement. As of 30 June 2025, the total investment by the Bank in debt instruments issued by financial institutions amounted to RMB120,404.7 million, representing a decrease of 12.2% as compared to the end of last year. As of 30 June 2025, the balance of provision for investments by the Bank in debt instruments issued by financial institutions amounted to RMB8,259.3 million, representing an increase of RMB819.0 million as compared to the end of last year, and the coverage ratio was 6.86%, representing an increase of 1.43 percentage points as compared to the end of last year.

5. Net stable funding ratio

As at 30 June 2025, the net stable funding ratio of the Bank was 138.54%, which was in compliance with the net stable funding ratio of commercial banks required by the Measures for the Liquidity Risk Management of Commercial Banks (Order No. 3 [2018], CBIRC). #### Notes:

- Include financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets measured at amortised cost.
- (2) Include due from banks and other financial institutions and financial assets held under reverse repurchase agreements.
- (3) Include due to banks, financial assets sold under repurchase agreements and borrowings from banks and other financial institutions
- (4) Calculated as the difference between the average yield ratio of total interest-earning assets and the average cost ratio of total interest-bearing liabilities, based on the daily average of the interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities.
- (5) Calculated by dividing net interest income by the balance of interest-earning assets, based on the daily average of the interest-earning assets.
- (6) Calculated as the average of the Bank's daily balances.

The following table sets out the changes in the Bank's interest income and interest expense attributable to changes in volumes and interest rates for the periods indicated. Changes in volumes are measured by changes in the average balances of the Bank's interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities, while changes in interest rates are measured by changes in the average interest rates of the Bank's interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. The combined effects of changes in volumes and interest rates are included in changes in interest.

(II) Interest Income

In the first half of 2025, the Bank realised an interest income of RMB14,124.0 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB1,080.6 million or 7.1%. The decrease in interest income was primarily due to a decrease in average yield on interest-earning assets from 4.16% for the same period last year to 3.51% for the first half of 2025.

1. Interest income from loans and advances to customers

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest income from loans and advances to customers amounted to RMB7,837.1 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB431.3 million or 5.2%, primarily because the Bank actively played its role in serving the real economy, implemented the requirements of the "Five Major Areas ( $\Xi$ 篇大文章)", and improved its quality and efficiency of services in key sectors and weak sections, increasing its credit size as compared to the same period last year. However, with the effects of factors such as the downward trend of the LPR, the repricing of existing loan rates, and the settlement of high-priced businesses, the average yield decreased by 0.80 percentage point as compared to the same period last year, resulting in a year-on-year decrease in interest income.

The following table sets out the average balance, interest income and average yield ratio for each component of the Bank's loans and advances to customers for the periods indicated.

2. Interest income from investments in debt securities

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest income from investments in debt securities was RMB4,720.4 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB316.8 million or 6.3%, primarily because the Bank allocated bond investment assets in line with its liquidity to enhance the contribution value of funds, contributing to an increase in investment size as compared to the same period last year. However, due to factors such as the maturity of existing high-yield businesses and the downward trend of market interest rates, the average yield on debt securities investments decreased by 0.67 percentage point, resulting in a year-on-year decrease in interest income.

3. Interest income from cash and balances with Central Bank

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest income from cash and balances with Central Bank amounted to RMB324.7 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB25.8 million or 7.4%, mainly due to the reduction in the Central Bank's reserve requirement ratio, resulting in a decrease of RMB4,248.0 million in the average balance of cash and balances with Central Bank as compared to the same period of last year.

4. Interest income from amounts due from banks and other financial institutions

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest income from amounts due from banks and other financial institutions amounted to RMB465.8 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB208.6 million or 30.9%, primarily attributable to the fact that the Bank's adjustment of asset allocation structure and prioritization on funds to support the issuance of credit assets resulted in a year-on-year decrease of RMB3,907.1 million in the balance of amounts due from banks and other financial institutions, coupled with the downward trend of market interest rates, leading to a decrease of 0.70 percentage point in average yield ratio.

5. Interest income from financial lease receivables

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest income from financial lease receivables amounted to RMB776.0 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB98.1 million or 11.2%, mainly due to a year-on-year decrease of 0.51 percentage point in the average yield ratio of financial lease receivables.

(III) Interest Expense

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest expense was RMB9,711.4 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB514.5 million or 5.0%, primarily due to a decrease in average cost ratio from 2.71% for the same period of last year to 2.40% for the first half of 2025, being offset by the increase in average balances of overall interest-bearing liabilities from RMB760,114.1 million for the same period last year to RMB817,183.1 million for the first half of 2025.

1. Interest expense due to customers

In the first half of 2025, the Bank continuously improved its liability products and service system, continued to consolidate its customer base and expanded the sources of low-cost deposits, and maintained a steady growth in deposit scale. The Bank's interest expense on due to customers decreased by RMB518.5 million or 5.8% year on year to RMB8,364.0 million, primarily because the Bank voluntarily lowered deposit interest rates for customers several times, continuously optimized deposit terms and cost structure, contributing to a year-on-year decrease in interest rates.

2. Interest expense on due to banks

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest expense on amounts due to banks decreased by RMB138.9 million or 14.2% year on year to RMB841.7 million, primarily attributable to a decrease of 0.54 percentage point in the average cost ratio of amounts due to banks.

3. Interest expense on debt securities issued and others

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's interest expense on debt securities issued and others amounted to RMB459.9 million, representing an increase of RMB139.9 million or 43.7% year on year, mainly attributable to the Bank's adjustment of liability structure in light of market and liquidity and an increase in the daily transaction volume.

(IV) Net Interest Spread and Net Interest Margin

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net interest spread decreased from 1.45% for the same period of last year to 1.11%, and the net interest margin decreased from 1.36% for the same period of last year to 1.10%. For the analysis of the reasons for the change in net interest spread and net interest margin, please refer to I. (III) Analysis of Key Issues.

(V) Non-interest Income

1. Net fee and commission income

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net fee and commission income was RMB269.3 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB61.7 million or 29.7%, primarily due to an increase in the Bank's agency fees.

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's advisory and consultancy fee income was RMB52.9 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB17.8 million or 50.7%, primarily due to changes in the volume of the advisory and consultancy business.

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's settlement fee income was RMB62.1 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB13.3 million or 27.3%, primarily due to changes in the volume of the settlement business.

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's agency fee income was RMB130.6 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB21.0 million or 19.2%, primarily due to an increase in the scale of agency business.

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's bank card fee income was RMB88.0 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB14.2 million or 13.9%, mainly attributable to the changes in bank card intermediary business volume.

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's other fee and commission income was RMB19.3 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB14.5 million or 302.1%.

2. Net trading income or loss

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net trading income or loss was RMB383.0 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB927.4 million or 70.8%, primarily due to decreases in gains and losses arising from changes in the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and interest income.

3. Net gains or losses on financial investments

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net gains or losses on financial investments were RMB2,305.2 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB1,639.8 million or 246.4%, primarily due to an increase in the net gains on disposal of financial assets measured at amortised cost and financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income.

4. Net other operating income or loss

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's net other operating income or loss was RMB15.4 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB21.2 million or 57.9%.

(VI) Operating Expenses

In the first half of 2025, the Bank's operating expenses were RMB2,245.4 million, representing a year-on-year increase of RMB144.0 million or 6.9%.

V. Analysis of Loan Quality

During the Reporting Period, the Bank proactively implemented high-quality development goals, adhered to the principles of active defence and precise risk resolution, focused on stabilizing existing business, optimizing new business, and strengthening mechanisms, and continuously improved and refined risk prevention and control. The Bank accelerated the digital transformation of risk management, continuously improved intelligent early warning risk control models and full-process risk monitoring mechanisms, and significantly enhanced the forward-looking nature of risk identification and the scientific nature of decision-making. While strictly controlling new risks, the Bank took multiple measures to speed up the disposal of existing non-performing assets, effectively activating inefficient assets through market-oriented transfer, debt restructuring, and legal recovery. As at 30 June 2025, the non-performing loan ratio was 2.83%, representing a decrease of 0.01 percentage point as compared to the end of last year. The impairment coverage ratio was 209.95%, representing an increase of 7.36 percentage points as compared to the end of last year. The impairment losses on loans ratio was 5.95%, representing an increase of 0.20 percentage point as compared to the end of last year, showing the ability of risk resilience remained stable.

During the Reporting Period, due to factors such as the slowdown in economic growth, overcapacity in certain industries, and weak recovery of consumer spending, the real economy continued to face pressure. The Bank continuously tracked, researched and assessed the external economic situation, and adjusted business guidance and admission rules in a timely manner. The Bank made dynamic adjustments to policies, optimized customer base and asset structures, and strictly prevented default risks in new businesses. The Bank established regular monitoring and feedback mechanisms, intelligent early warning management, and elaborate overdue supervision systems, and paid close attention to source prevention and control and full-process management to continuously improve the quality and efficiency of risk prevention and control. As of 30 June 2025, the Bank's non-performing loan ratio was 2.83%, its non-performing loan ratio for corporate loans was 2.23%, and its non-performing loan ratio for personal loans was 5.11%.

During the Reporting Period, the Bank kept abreast of the support direction of national industrial policy and the characteristics of regional economic development, strengthened its credit support for the local real economy and increased loan disbursements to relevant key sectors such as regional featured industries with competitive advantages, manufacturing industry, science and technology enterprises, and green finance. Meanwhile, the Bank reinforced its financial cooperation among peers and proactively promoted the development of the syndicate business. For key programmes within the province, it continued to improve the matching of financing needs and offered financing support to private enterprises and small and micro enterprises. As of 30 June 2025, the total corporate loans of the Bank amounted to RMB233,224.8 million, representing an increase of RMB27,819.8 million as compared to the end of last year. The Bank's non-performing loans are mainly concentrated in the wholesale and retail industry and manufacturing industry. The Bank has always followed its microcredit strategy and implemented policies on inclusive finance as most of its customers are Micro, Small and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs), whereas the wholesale and retail industry and the manufacturing industry account for a relatively large proportion of MSMEs customers. Given that factors such as the low-level running of the macro economy and the growth slowdown of regional economies have exerted certain pressure on MSMEs customers' operation and development, enterprises need a certain period of time to recover their cash flows. As of 30 June 2025, the Bank's non-performing loans to the wholesale and retail industry and manufacturing industry amounted to RMB1,583.1 million and RMB1,457.6 million, respectively.

Note:

During the Reporting Period, the Bank has always adhered to the principle of "asset quality is our lifeline", prevented and controlled operating risks, reasonably guided credit resources, enhanced the quality and efficiency of financial services, continuously strengthened asset quality management, constantly optimized risk prevention and control measures, made preliminary risk control by developing the concept of pre-management featuring forward look and proactiveness, and made "controlling new delinquencies" a key task for the whole Bank to effectively curb the deterioration of asset quality at source. Meanwhile, the Bank intensified the collection and disposal efforts by taking various measures by classification, formulating differentiated collection and disposal plans based on the actual business conditions, and making every effort to reduce non-performing assets by comprehensive use of collection in cash and by litigation, bad debt write-off and other means, so as to drive its all-round, high-quality development. As at 30 June 2025, the percentage of overdue loans in total loans decreased by 0.6 percentage point as compared to the beginning of the year.

<sup>(1)</sup> Loans to customers with specific repayment date are classified as overdue when the principal or interest becomes overdue.

(VIII) Movements of Allowance for Impairment Losses on Loans

Pursuant to the requirements of IFRS 9, the Bank made use of "expected credit loss model" for the measurement of impairment of underlying financial assets. The Bank adhered to the prudence principle and made provision for impairment losses on loans in full amount. As at 30 June 2025, the allowance for impairment losses on loans amounted to RMB23,661.1 million, which increased by RMB1,868.5 million as compared to the end of last year. The allowance for impairment losses on loans ratio was 5.95%, representing an increase of 0.20 percentage point as compared to the end of last year. Risk resilience remained stable.

Movements in allowance for impairment losses on loans are as follows:

(VIII) Information Technology

In the first half of the year, closely aligning with the strategic development objective of the Group, the Bank steadily advanced the construction of "Digital Harbin Bank", continuously strengthened the foundation for safe and stable operations, consistently enhanced technological support and innovation-driven capabilities, and deepened reforms in the technological systems and mechanisms to build new engines to support high-quality development.

Safe and stable operations. The Bank adhered to the bottom line of safe operations, advanced the digital transformation of operations and maintenance, and comprehensively enhanced operational support capabilities. The availability rate of the Bank's core business systems reached above 99.988%, providing strong support for business development. The Bank optimized the structural layout of "three centers in two areas", coordinated and promoted the site selection and planning and construction of the disaster recovery center in the same city, and continuously enhanced the in-depth defense capabilities of the Bank's data centers, in a bid to gradually establish a multi-tiered, highly available data center architecture. The Bank also intensified the digital handling of production incidents by establishing an operation and maintenance guarantee mechanism for the first-, second – and third-line production systems, and refined problem diagnosis and standardized handling procedures to enable rapid issue identification and standardized handling, thereby further improving processing efficiency and issue resolution rates. By strengthening the control over system deployment and changes, and optimizing change plans, no production incidents caused by deployment changes occurred during the Reporting Period.

Technology-enabled efficiency improvements. The Bank developed a smart credit project and successfully launched "Qian Dao Jia (錢到家)", a digital financial product, accelerating the digital transformation of retail credit business. By enriching and refining financial products and business models, the Bank successfully launched a cross-border mutual market trade service, which has provided efficient and convenient settlement tools for border economies and enabled digital financial services for border trade. Moreover, the Bank enhanced its capacity for inclusive financial services to respond to the "nearby services (就近辦)" initiative of the Department of Human Resources and Social Security, and established a multi-channel social security handling system covering 21 high-frequency services across 6 categories to enhance the capabilities of smart terminal services. Currently, self-service terminals and mobile platforms have launched three core functions, including social insurance inquiries, business applications, and certificate printing, significantly improving public service experience and strengthening the Bank's capabilities in government-related financial services.

Governance system enhancement. The Bank strengthened the top-level design of financial technology governance by formulating a Three-Year Implementation Plan for Information Technology Strategy (2025-2027). This plan clarifies the development direction, implementation strategies, and specific pathways, identifies the "Ten Key Initiatives (十大工程)" of the strategy, and outlines a blueprint for financial technology development encompassing the governance system, data elements, infrastructure, research and development efficiency, operation and maintenance guarantee, security risks, and other areas. A "three-dimensional" research and development management framework encompassing business, technology, and governance domains was established to further advance the refinement of a business-technology integrated agile system. The Bank has intensified Group-wide technology integration by establishing standardized working mechanisms between parent and subsidiaries, designating liaison officers with clearly defined responsibilities and operational guidelines, addressing key challenges in subsidiaries' development processes, and promoting holistic and coordinated advancement of Group-wide technology capabilities.

Robust security defenses. To achieve standardized and regulated operations for information technology security assurance during the critical periods, the Bank has established an information technology security assurance system for these periods. Specifically, the Bank strengthened terminal security protection capabilities by implementing Group-wide unified terminal management measures. These measures enabled centralized monitoring, protection, and control of users, files, data, and other software/hardware equipment to ensure all terminal devices comply with security standards, thereby preventing data breaches and system intrusions. The Bank also enhanced the monitoring and prevention of cyberattack risks by continuously conducting activities such as traffic monitoring, penetration testing of internet information systems, and cyber defense drills, thereby consistently strengthening its cybersecurity protection capabilities. In the first half of the year, the Bank achieved centralized management and control of over 4,500 office network terminals across the Group, monitored 401.79 Tbit of network traffic, identified and blocked 74 malicious IP addresses, and handled over 100 security threats. These efforts have effectively supported and ensured the Bank's safe and stable operations.

IX. Risk Exposure and Management

Adhering to the core philosophy of "creating value through risk management", the Bank maintains a steady and prudent risk appetite, fosters a risk culture of "compliance and stability", and has coordinated and promoted the construction of a comprehensive risk management system that is commensurate with its development strategy, business scale, organisational structure and risk characteristics. The Bank continuously enhanced the proactivity and foresight of its risk management and integrated risk management into the whole process of strategic development, performance targets and value enhancement, and into all aspects of business development, so as to ensure the effective operation of management mechanisms. The Bank continued to enrich its risk management strategies and methods, optimising its risk identification, measurement, monitoring and control processes covering the whole range, process and cycle, while effectively strengthening its internal control mechanisms of pre-prevention, in-process control, post-event monitoring and correction, thereby promoting the continuous improvement of risk management capabilities and laying a solid foundation for its high-quality development.

During the Reporting Period, the Bank adhered strictly to the legal and compliance operating principles, improved the risk management system, communicated and implemented risk appetite and policies, reinforced the foundation of various risk management measures, enhanced intelligent risk control capabilities, and actively prevented and responded to various risks, so as to safeguard the sound and sustainable development of the Bank's various businesses.

(I) Credit Risk

Credit risk refers to the Bank's risk of economic losses caused by a debtor or a counter-party failing to fulfil his obligations under the contract, or credit quality changes affecting the value of the financial products. The Bank's credit risks exist mainly in loan portfolios, investment portfolios, guarantees, commitments and other on-and off-balance sheet exposures. The Bank executes a unified risk appetite in credit risk management and controls risk within an acceptable range, in order to achieve a higher risk return and effectively identify, measure, monitor, and control credit risk.

Closely focusing on both control risks and operational risks under the work goal of "Enhancing Development Quality", the Bank continuously enhanced its credit risk management. Return to the basis of business and strengthen policy guidance. Based on the requirement of local economic development and the guidance of regulatory policies, the Bank returned to the basic and local business while focusing on the main responsibility and business. With the mission of "taking root in black soil and gathering momentum for the economic development of Heilongjiang", the Bank improved the quality and efficiency of financial services servicing the local economy and the real economy. With the national strategies and cutting-edge technology in high-tech industry development as its guidance, the Bank made efforts in developing the "Five Major Areas (五篇大文章)", directed branches to prioritize support the "implementation of major national strategies and the construction of security capabilities in key areas (兩重)", "promotion of a new round of large-scale equipment renewal and the tradein of old consumer goods (兩新)", scientific and technological innovation, consumption promotion, "agriculture, rural areas and farmers" and the development of small and micro enterprises, and increased policy guidance and financial assistance for the real economy. Strengthen the active management of credit risk and improve the quality and efficiency of compliance and risk control. The Bank continued to enhance the proactivity, foresight, differentiation, and intelligence of credit risk management, focused on both the quality and efficiency of risk management, optimized the allocation of management resources, and drove the entire Bank to strengthen daily proactive management through mechanisms such as potential risk management, large-amount risk reporting, joint consultations for major customers, and maturity reminders, so as to continuously solidify its asset control efforts and rigorously control the addition of overdue and non-performing assets. The Bank also organized the development of an intelligent risk monitoring platform that leverages both internal and external data to deeply explore and detect customer warning rules, which enhances the scientific and timely monitoring management and achieves early warning alerts and review processes within our full-process credit management system through technology empowerment. Strengthen proactive risk management to maintain and improve the stability of asset quality. The Bank strengthened guidance under the Party's principles, enhanced risk control over major credit businesses, introduced a pre-deliberation and discussion process by the Bank's Party Committee, and strictly guarded against risks to ensure the safety of credit funds. The Bank gave priority to the first source of repayment from customers. With compliance with legal and regulatory policies as the guiding principle, the Bank fully utilized the "Contact Bank" and "Account Manager" mechanism to clarify marketing directions through collaboration between branches and headquarters, thereby establishing a robust "firewall" for new admissions. The Bank standardized the review and approval criteria for credit business operations, issued typical cases of credit business and guidelines for review and approval to guide the approval process, and enhance the quality of reviews. The Bank also strengthened the analysis and sorting of customer risks to accurately identify risk points, providing a basis for review and approval decisions. Through parallel operation mechanisms and information-sharing systems, the Bank managed to intervene early in the investigations of key projects and major clients, achieving forward-shifted risk management and control. Increase efforts in the disposal of non-performing assets to prevent and resolve financial asset risks. The Bank continued to pursue the goal of "high-quality recovery and disposal", with cash recovery as the core and diversified disposal methods as supplements, concentrated efforts on advancing the recovery and disposal of non-performing assets to achieve a steady improvement in both the quality and efficiency of non-performing assets disposal. The Bank formulated an annual recovery work plan, specifying clear objectives and measures. The Bank strengthened organizational leadership, assigned solid responsibility to leaders, and enforced the management responsibility of the head office and primary responsibility of branches for non-performing assets recovery and disposal. allowing the head office and branches to work in tandem to enhance the effectiveness of non-performing assets recovery. The Bank conducted a comprehensive analysis of non-performing assets, implemented refined project management, adopted tailored strategies, and focused on key areas for breakthroughs. While continuously enhancing in-house recovery and disposal capabilities, the Bank further leveraged external resources to broaden channels for disposing of non-performing assets, thus continually improving the disposal efficiency of non-performing assets.

(II) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of commercial banks failing to acquire sufficient funds at reasonable cost in time in order to pay the due debt, fulfill other payment obligations or meet other capital requirements for normal operation.

Adhering to the philosophy of "prevention first, enhanced monitoring, and effective emergency response", the Bank pursued the principle of prudent liquidity management and adopted a steady liquidity management strategy, it coordinated and optimized the liquidity security and capital income, so as to firmly uphold the bottom line against regional and systemic financial risks and maintain local financial stability. The Bank regularly analysed economic and financial situation, market trends and policy orientations, paid close attention to specific situations or events that may cause liquidity risks, assessed their impact on the liquidity of the Bank in a prudent manner, and identified the potential source of liquidity risk. The Bank established a compliant, reasonable and effective liquidity risk management and control mechanism according to regulatory requirements, so as to identify, measure, monitor and control the liquidity risks, striving to achieve a state where liquidity risks are "clearly understood and effectively managed (摸得清、管得住)". The liquidity risk was measured by indicator analysis, gap analysis, cash flow analysis, scenario simulation, stress testing and other approaches. A limits management system and reporting system was built to continuously monitor the liquidity risks by taking liquidity risk appetite, operation, management level and changes in the external environment into account. Through formulating liquidity risk limits management policy and procedure, establishing mechanisms for setting and adjusting liquidity risk limits, and relevant reviewing and approving processes, the Bank monitored the implementation of the liquidity risk limits in real time, so as to give early warning in time, and timely take effective measures to control the liquidity risk when the limit is exceeded. It has established a standardized liquidity risk reporting system, which specifies the content, form, frequency and scope of reporting to ensure that the Board of Directors, senior management and other management personnel have a timely understanding of the level of liquidity risk and its management status. The Bank has established a liquidity monitoring system that integrates coordination between the head office and branches and combines online and offline channels. This system conducts regular and multidimensional monitoring of important sensitive transactions, providing reliable support for risk warnings, risk situation assessments, and emergency responses. At the same time, it regularly counts and monitors the scale and structure of qualified high-quality current assets in bonds, and information on bonds that are readily realizable and can be used for collateralized repurchase financing. Therefore, in the normal operating environment or under stress, the Bank can have sufficient daytime liquidity positions and financing arrangements to meet the needs of asset allocation and liability repayment at maturity in a timely manner.

As at 30 June 2025, the liquidity coverage ratio of the Bank was 253.75%, which was in compliance with the liquidity coverage ratio of commercial banks required by the Measures for the Liquidity Risk Management of Commercial Banks (Order [2018] No. 3, CBIRC).

(III) Market Risk

Market risk refers to the risk of loss on the Bank's on-and off-balance sheet businesses as a result of adverse changes in market prices (interest rates, exchange rates, stock and commodity prices). Currently, the market risks mainly faced by the Bank are interest rate risk and exchange rate risk.

The Bank had established a market risk management system commensurate to the nature, scale and complexity of the Bank's business, and continuously improved the market risk management efficiency in light of new regulatory requirements and market dynamics. In addition, the Bank improved the market risk management system by continuously sorting out regulations and establishing systems to consolidate the foundation of market risk management. It also carried out market risk measurement in an orderly manner, regularly conducting duration analysis, foreign exchange exposure analysis, value-at-risk measurement and stress testing, etc., to quantify the level of market risk. Besides, it improved the market risk quota system, regularly assessed the setting up of market risk quota system to strengthen market risk research, judgment and early warning capabilities. During the Reporting Period, the Bank conducted daily monitoring and reporting of market risk routinely in accordance with risk appetite determined by the Board and market risk limits.

In terms of trading account management, the Bank adopts a relatively prudent trading account investment strategy with the investment mostly in interest rate bonds, and carries out market risk control in conjunction with the quota system and measurement methods such as stress testing and sensitivity analysis, so as to ensure that market risks remain under control. The Bank established a risk management system for the interest rate risk of bank books commensurate with the risk profile and business complexity, and clarified the main responsibilities of the Board of Directors, senior management and relevant departments. It employs reasonable interest rate shock scenarios and model assumptions, utilizing methods such as repricing gap analysis, net interest income analysis and stress testing to measure the interest rate risk of bank books. The Bank sets limit management targets and continuously monitors the indicators. It also closely monitors changes in external markets, actively adjusts the structure of assets and liabilities, and implements forward-looking management of interest rate risk on bank books.

(IV) Operational Risk

During the Reporting Period, the Company strictly implemented the requirements of the regulatory authorities on operational risk, continued to build a more effective operational risk management system, accelerated the development of an operational risk management information system, gradually improved the level of online and automated management, strengthened the cultivation of an operational risk management culture with full participation of all staffs, and promoted the long-term governance of operational risk in daily running. By formulating and transmitting risk appetite and management policies, it strengthened the identification, assessment, monitoring, and control of operational risks, and by reconstructing the operational risk management system, it further enhanced the adaptability of mechanisms, processes, management tools, and management requirements. The Bank also accurately collected the operational risk loss data to ensure the implementation of the new standard law and the smooth conversion of the Bank's capital measurements, and to further enhance the capability of operational risk refinement and management.

(V) Information Technology Risk

Information technology risk refers to operational, legal, reputational and other risks caused by natural factors, human factors, technical loopholes and flawed management in the course of the Bank's usage of information technology.

During the Reporting Period, the Bank continued to strengthen the top-level design of information technology (IT) risk, improve the organizational structure of IT risk management, and enhance the professional ability of IT risk management. It also regularly carried out re-evaluations on the monitoring indicators of IT risks and optimized the monitoring indicator system to identify and assess IT risks, as well as managed the IT outsourcing risk and strengthened outsourcing risk prevention and control capabilities, thus to prevent and reduce outsourcing risks by enhancing the service capability of our own technical team and strengthening the level of independent development and maintenance of systems.

(VI) Compliance Risk Management

During the Reporting Period, the Company was committed to preventing and resolving financial risks, with emphasis placed on strengthening supervision, implementing corrective measures, enhancing governance, and driving continuous improvement. These efforts were aimed at promoting the compliance risk management of the Company to operate in the same track and direction as the steady development of the financial industry. Firstly, we have strengthened system management. The Company continuously established a scientifically designed, stringent and clear structure and regularly conducted special rectification of system implementation to standardize system management. Secondly, we have strictly prevented legal risks. The Company continued to establish a legal risk prevention and control system with clear responsibilities and effective checks and balances, and continued to implement process-based control mechanisms such as prereview, mid-term tracking, post-assessment, and full-process support, thereby improving the level of law-based management. Thirdly, we have focused on compliance supervision. The Company continued to promote the rectification and governance of internal and external risk issues, effectively implemented comprehensive internal control compliance inspections and special verification work mechanisms, built an accountability mechanism with an integration of punishment and linkage and cooperation, a due diligence exemption mechanism, and thoroughly conveyed the concept of strict governance. Fourthly, we have strengthened the foundation for case prevention. The Company has continuously optimized its case prevention organizational structure and institutional mechanisms, promoted the handling of cases and risk mitigation, strengthened the investigation of case risks and convened case warning and education conferences to continuously improve the quality and efficiency of case risk prevention and control. Fifthly, we have provided frequent training and education. The Company continued to refine the construction work of internal control and compliance culture, extensively carried out the daily promotion of the compliance culture, compiled compliance teaching materials, and persistently conducted the concept and cultivation education.

(VII) Anti-money Laundering (AML) Management

During the Reporting Period, the Company strictly adhered to all AML laws, regulations, and supervisory requirements, diligently fulfilled its legal obligations and social responsibilities under AML laws, implemented a "risk-based" AML approach, continuously improved its AML risk control system, and effectively enhanced its AML risk control capabilities and operational efficiency. Firstly, we have improved our top-level design by establishing a comprehensive AML management system that aligns with the Company's strategic development, risk preferences, and operational scale. This has been achieved through optimizing organizational structures and work mechanisms to advance the optimization and full implementation of the management system. Secondly, we have strengthened system development by formulating and revising internal control systems such as basic anti-money laundering risk management regulations and suspicious transaction monitoring model management. This has involved refining role assignments and optimizing the AML institutional framework. Thirdly, we have increased technological investment and orderly advanced the construction of a new AML monitoring system. By enhancing the system's scalability and computational efficiency, it improves the accuracy and effectiveness of risk identification. Fourthly, we have strengthened refined management and improved the customer and product money laundering risk assessment indicator system. By focusing on the application of assessment results, we establish standards for suspicious transaction reporting, optimize suspicious transaction monitoring models, standardize list management processes, and enhance money laundering risk management capabilities. Fifthly, we have fostered a positive AML environment. Internally, we have organised multi-level, diverse AML training activities to continuously enhance the AML awareness and risk prevention capabilities of all staff. Externally, we have actively conducted AML public awareness campaigns to educate the public about AML knowledge, enhance public AML awareness, and create a favorable financial ecosystem.

X. Internal Control and Internal Audit

(I) Internal Control

During the Reporting Period, the Company followed the principles of comprehensiveness, prudence, effectiveness and independence, carried out multiple initiatives to optimize and strengthen internal controls. First, the Company committed to establishing and maintaining a sound and prudent internal control environment in compliance with laws and regulations. The Company has a clear and reasonable internal control management framework. The Board, senior management personnel, various departments and branches carry out compliance work within their respective scope of responsibilities. Second, the Company constantly improved its risk evaluation system. The Company has established a comprehensive risk management system geared to the Bank, developing a working pattern in which business units and business lines, compliance and risk control lines, internal audit departments and other supervision units work together. Third, the Company took multiple measures and implemented practical and effective risk control measures. The Company established and optimized comprehensive, systematic and standardized business and management systems for various business and management activities, so as to continuously regulate system management. Fourth, the Company established standardized and reasonable information transmission and communication channels. The Company established information reporting systems such as compliance reports, and formulated a two-way information communication mechanism from two dimensions, namely top-down and bottom-up communication. Fifth, the Company has continuously strengthened its internal supervision mechanism. "Board of Directors, Board of Supervisors and management" continuously reviewed and made decisions on the internal control compliance management across the Bank, giving full play to the roles of leadership, supervision and management.

(II) Internal Audit

The internal audit of the Company closely focuses on the key areas of regulatory concern and the work priorities of the Company. With the identification and disclosure of risks as the core and the purpose of improving the operation and management, an independent and vertical internal audit management system is established. The Internal Audit Department is the internal audit department of the Company, responsible for independently carrying out audit work within its duties and authorities. It is accountable to the Board and the Audit Committee of the Board and reports its work to them, and notifies the senior management of the audit situation.

During the Reporting Period, the internal audit department actively implemented regulatory regulations and overall requirement of stringent auditing by the Party Committee of the Bank. In accordance with work deployments by the Party Committee of the Bank, the Board and the Audit Committee, the internal audit department focused on key areas and institutions, paid attention to important links, closely monitored key individuals, implemented key tasks. By adopting measures such as data monitoring to identify potential risks, take-over audits to detect vulnerabilities, periodic follow-ups to drive rectification and multi-level joint reviews to ensure quality, the internal audit department strengthened a focused, effective and high-quality full coverage of audits. The internal audit covered areas such as credit operation, basic operation, financial management, risk management, and information technology management as well as the performance of economic responsibilities assumed by key persons, and continuously carried out supervision of subsidiaries. By effectively revealing the deficiencies in internal control and risk management, it supervised all units to conduct in-depth systematic and root cause rectifications, continuously improved the management mechanism, business processes, and system functions, enhanced risk compliance awareness, effectively played the value-added role of audit, thereby promoting the stable operation of the Company and the achievement of strategic goals.

XI. Prospects

In the second half of the year, China's economy will maintain stable performance, and its long-term positive trajectory remains unchanged. As the effects of various policies continue to materialize, the country possesses the capability to achieve its annual socio-economic targets. Opportunities and challenges coexist for China's banking sector. With the continuous implementation of industrial policies, proactive fiscal policies, and appropriately accommodative monetary policies, China's economy will be propelled to overcome the difficulties of transition and insufficient effective demand, making progress in challenges.

Guided by Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, the Bank will adhere to the spirit of the 20th National Congress of the CPC and the second and third plenary session of the 20th Central Committee of the CPC in the new development stage and put the new development philosophy into practice. In particular, it will fulfill the responsibility of implementing the national financial strategy by providing comprehensive services to the real economy, making efforts to enhance the refined management, so as to deeply integrate into the new development pattern. Being committed to the general principle of seeking advancement amidst stability and under the leadership of the CPC, the Bank will persist in deepening reforms and safeguarding against systemic risks. In the course of coordinating reform advancement with risk mitigation and transformational development, it will adopt market-oriented approaches and persist in high-quality development, continuously optimizing the asset and liability structure, and improving the profitability and anti-risk capability. Furthermore, it seeks to forge core competitive advantages and industry leadership by integrating compliance operations with pioneering initiatives, leveraging digitalization to enable agile transformation, and aligning value creation with customer-centric solutions. This facilitates the organic integration of efficiency, quality, and scale. On the path to accelerating the development of a modern financial system with Chinese characteristics, the Bank will embark on a distinctive growth trajectory suitable to its development.

(II) Staff Training Programmes

During the Reporting Period, the Bank emphasized on the development demands of the Group and focused on various stages of career development and the training needs of staff from different levels with respect to job competency and core competency improvement, with particular emphasis on new employees, those in the early and middle stages of their careers, and those who have been newly promoted or transferred to new positions. The Bank continued to advance the professional capabilities of the staff by creating the "embark, guide, escort, endure, voyage, cruise, pilot" (啟航、導航、續航、適航、巡航、領航) training system. Leveraging both internal and external high-quality resources, the Group combined online and offline training methods by utilizing diverse methodologies such as "on-site training" (送教上門), "going out to learn" (走出去) and "inviting experts" (請進來) to create excellent training programs. Both training completion rate and coverage rate were 100% during the Reporting Period. In the first half of 2025, the Company arranged 384 training sessions in total, including 351 internal training sessions, and 57 external training sessions for selected staff of the Company. The total training hours amounted to 1,576.

(III) Staff Incentive Policy

The Bank has established a scientific and reasonable staff evaluation system to implement comprehensive performance management. At the beginning of each year, the Bank sets up performance plans for each staff by breaking down its strategic objectives layer by layer, and carries out the annual review mechanism. Apart from the performance review, the Bank has also adopted a multi-dimensional measurement to evaluate employee performance, and innovatively adopted an autonomous allocation of performance levels within the total points to ensure truthful staff performance evaluation. In addition, the effective performance communication helps employee reach their performance goals.

The Bank has established a series of staff incentive policies in line with its development needs based on scientific performance review results: firstly, the Bank has implemented the management of total annual performance remuneration of the head office departments, and gave them the right to distribute performance remuneration. They would focus on distributing performance remuneration to staff with "good performance review results", "high value contribution" and in "key positions", so as to form a remuneration determination mechanism of "fixed remuneration reflecting historical contribution and performance remuneration reflecting current contributions". Secondly, the Bank has adopted a points system to adjust employee job grades and salary levels, with employees' annual performance review results translated into points, which may be redeemed for rank or salary promotion qualifications, ensuring the "fairness, openness, transparency" in the rank and salary promotion system. Thirdly, the Bank has established a career development platform, implementing three talent development initiatives including "Young Talent Cultivation," "Career Ladder," and "Outstanding Talent". These initiatives are integrated with the "Navigation Series" training system to build a tiered training framework covering the entire career development lifecycle of employees.

(IV) Remuneration Policy for Employees

The Bank has successfully established a broadband salary management system with diversified composition, standardised management and systematic implementation and adopted a market-oriented and region-diversified management scheme in order to scientifically and effectively motivate the Bank's employees and ensure the smooth implementation of the Bank's strategic development. The Bank's remuneration package is composed of fixed remuneration, variable remuneration and welfare income. The Bank is able to strictly comply with regulatory requirements in remuneration payment by adopting deferred payment and setting up a lock-up period for paying senior management as well as employees holding positions that may exert significant influence to risks in order to tie job duties with risk management responsibilities. Meanwhile, the Bank will pursue and deduct the performance remuneration of the senior management and key staff who have been exposed to risks within the scope of their duties due to obvious negligence or failure to fulfill their prudent management obligations.

(V) Retirement and Benefits

The Bank pays living expenses and other welfare benefits for employees who have not yet reached the statutory retirement age limit but are approved by the Bank to voluntarily retire from their employment from the internal retirement date to the statutory retirement age limit. For details of the retirement benefit scheme, please refer to Note 31 of "Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information". Save as disclosed in Note 31 of "Notes to the Condensed Consolidated Interim Financial Information" in this report (if any), there was no forfeiture of retirement benefits schemes contributions (by employers on behalf of employees who leave the scheme prior to vesting fully in such contributions) in the Group. As at 30 June 2025, no forfeited contribution under the retirement benefits schemes of the Group is available to reduce the contribution payable in future years.

TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF HARBIN BANK CO., LTD.

(incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

Introduction

We have reviewed the interim financial information set out on pages 97 to 195, which comprise the condensed consolidated statement of financial position of Harbin Bank Co., Ltd. (the "Bank") and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") as at 30 June 2025 and the related condensed consolidated statement of profit or loss, condensed consolidated statement of comprehensive income, condensed consolidated statement of changes in equity and condensed consolidated statement of cash flows for the six-month period then ended and other explanatory notes. The Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited require the preparation of a report on interim financial information to be in compliance with the relevant provisions thereof and International Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting" ("IAS 34") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). The directors are responsible for the preparation and presentation of interim financial information in accordance with IAS 34. Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this interim financial information based on our review. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Scope of review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410 "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the accompanying interim financial information are not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with IAS 34.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION AND PRINCIPAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.2 Standards and amendments that are not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group in 2025 (Continued)

The Group has not early adopted any new standards and amendments that are not yet effective for the current accounting period. Except as described below, the application of the new standards and amendments will have no material impact on the result and the financial position of the Group.

IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements

In April 2024, the IASB issued IFRS 18 'Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements', effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027. The new accounting standard aims to give users of financial statements more transparent and comparable information about a company's financial performance. It will replace IAS 1 'Presentation of Financial Statements' but carries over many requirements from this IAS unchanged. In addition, there are three sets of new requirements relating to the structure of the income statement, management defined performance measures and the aggregation and disaggregation of information.

While IFRS 18 will not change recognition criteria or measurement bases, it is expected to have an impact on presenting information in the financial statements. The Group has already commenced an assessment of the potential impact but is not yet in a position to state whether the impact will be material to the Group.

Amendments to IFRS 9 Financial Instruments and IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures

In May 2024, the IASB issued Amendments to IFRS 9 'Financial Instruments' and IFRS 7 'Financial Instruments: Disclosures', effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026. The amendments include clarifications on how ESG-linked features could affect the assessment of contractual cash flows. Further, the amendments provide clarification on the date on which a financial asset or a financial liability is derecognised. The Group has already commenced an assessment of the potential impact but is not yet in a position to state whether the impact will be material to the Group.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING JUDGEMENTS AND ESTIMATES

The nature and assumptions related to the Group's accounting estimates are consistent with those adopted in the Group's annual financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)

19. DERIVATIVE FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The Group enters into derivative financial instruments related to interest rate, currency rate and price of precious metal, for trading and on behalf of customers.

The contractual/notional amounts of financial instruments provide a basis for comparison with fair value instruments recognised on the statement of financial position but do not necessarily indicate the amounts of future cash flows involved or the current fair value of the instruments and, therefore, do not indicate the Group's exposure to credit or market risks. The derivative instruments become favourable (assets) or unfavourable (liabilities) as a result of fluctuations in interest rates, currency rates and prices of precious metal relative to their terms. The aggregate fair values of derivative financial assets and liabilities can fluctuate significantly from time to time. The contractual/notional amounts and fair values of derivative instruments held by the Group are set out in the following tables.

(i) Convertible negotiated deposit

After obtaining the proceeds from issuance of local government special bonds, the Department of Finance of Heilongjiang Province has deposited the relevant funds in the form of negotiated deposit into the special convertible negotiated deposit account in the Bank. The deposit is included in the Bank's other tier-one capital and is converted to ordinary shares in stages to replenish the Bank's capital and be included in its core tier-one capital when the conversion conditions specified in the agreement are triggered. The maturity of the deposit shall be set in accordance with the maturity requirements in batches. Among them, RMB2.0 billion is for the six-year maturity, RMB2.0 billion is for the seven-year maturity, RMB2.0 billion is for the eight-year maturity, RMB2.0 billion is for the nine-year maturity and RMB2.0 billion is for the ten-year maturity. The interest is paid semi-annually on the convertible negotiated deposit, and the interest rate shall match with the corresponding local government special bonds issuance interest rate.

The conversion for convertible negotiated deposit may be fully or partially converted into the ordinary shares of the Bank if one of the following triggering events occurs: (i) The core tier-one capital adequacy ratio of the Bank drops to 5.125% or below; or (ii) As confirmed by the regulatory authorities, the core tier-one capital adequacy ratio of the Bank is not less than 5.125%, but non-viability trigger events occurred to the Bank. The non-viability trigger event is defined as the earlier of: (a) the NFRA having decided that without a conversion, the Bank would become non-viable; or (b) the relevant authorities having decided that injection of capital or equivalent support by a public sector is necessary, without which the Bank would become non-viable. Subject to the above triggering conditions, if the core tier-one capital adequacy ratio of the Bank is still lower than 5.125% as calculated after all the convertible amount is converted into the ordinary shares of the Bank in accordance with the agreement, the Bank shall at the same time take other measures to ensure that the core tier-one capital adequacy ratio reaches 5.125%, otherwise the Harbin Municipal Finance Bureau has the right to suspend the conversion. Subject to the above triggering conditions, if the designated share-holding entity does not satisfy the relevant requirements of the NFRA and the Harbin Municipal Government, or if the class and number of ordinary shares to be converted and the shareholding structure of the Bank after the conversion as calculated do not satisfy the relevant requirements of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange in respect of the minimum public float, no conversion shall be made until the conversion is in compliance with the relevant requirements of the NFRA, the Hong Kong Stock Exchange and the Harbin Municipal Government. In principle, only one conversion can be made during the term of the convertible negotiated deposit.

Under the Company Law of the People's Republic of China, the Bank is required to appropriate 10% of its net profit to the statutory surplus reserve. The appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve may cease when the balance of such reserve has reached 50% of the share capital. Subject to the approval of the shareholders, the statutory surplus reserve can be used for replenishing the accumulated losses or increasing the Bank's share capital. The statutory surplus reserve amount used to increase the share capital is limited to a level where the balance of the statutory surplus reserve after such capitalisation is not less than 25% of the share capital.

After making the appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve, the Bank may also appropriate its profit for the year to the discretionary surplus reserve upon approval by the shareholders in general meetings. Subject to the approval by the shareholders, the discretionary surplus reserve may be used to offset accumulated losses of the Bank, if any, and may be converted into capital.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)

40. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

(a) Capital commitments

As at the end of the Reporting Period, the Group had capital commitments as follows:

|                              | 30 June | 31 December |
|------------------------------|---------|-------------|
|                              | 2025    | 2024        |

| Total                        | 179,855 | 181,880     |

(b) Credit commitments

At any given time, the Group has outstanding commitments to extend credit. These commitments are in the form of approved loans and undrawn credit card limits.

The Group provides letters of credit and financial guarantees to guarantee the performance of customers to third parties.

Bank acceptances comprise undertakings by the Group to pay bills of exchange drawn on customers.

The Group expects most acceptances to be settled simultaneously with the reimbursement from the customers.

The contractual amounts of credit commitments by category are set out below. The amounts disclosed in respect of credit commitments and the undrawn credit card limit are under the assumption that the amounts will be fully advanced. The amounts for bank acceptances, letters of credit and guarantees represent the maximum potential losses that would be recognised at the end of the reporting period had the counterparties failed to perform as contracted.

|                             | 30 June    | 31 December |
|-----------------------------|------------|-------------|
|                             | 2025       | 2024        |

| Total                       | 24,278,317 | 24,275,150  |

(b) Credit commitments (Continued)

Credit risk-weighted amount of financial guarantees and credit related commitments

|   | 30 June   | 31 December |
|---|-----------|-------------|
|   | 2025      | 2024        |
| Financial guarantees and credit related commitments | 3,344,183 | 5,214,695   |

The credit risk-weighted amount of financial guarantees and credit related commitments refers to the amount as computed in accordance with the formula promulgated by the NFRA and depends on the status of the counterparty and the maturity characteristics. The risk weights used range from 0% to 100% for contingent liabilities and commitments.

(c) Legal proceedings

As at 30 June 2025, significant legal proceedings exceeding RMB10,000 thousand outstanding against the Group (for itself or as a third party) were RMB29,665 thousand (As at 31 December 2024: RMB29,665 thousand). As at 30 June 2025, the Group did not recognised a provision for liabilities in the balance sheet based on the best estimate (As at 31 December 2024: Nil).

(d) Redemption commitments of government bonds

As an underwriting agent of the government, the Bank underwrites certain PRC government bonds and sells the bonds to the general public. The Group is obliged to redeem these bonds at the discretion of the holders at any time prior to maturity. The redemption price for the bonds is based on the nominal value of the bonds plus any interest accrued up to the redemption date. As at 30 June 2025, the Bank had underwritten and sold bonds with an accumulated amount of RMB191 million (As at 31 December 2024: RMB194 million) to the general public, and these government bonds have not yet matured nor been redeemed. Management expects that the amount of redemption of these government bonds through the Bank prior to maturity will not be material. The MOF will not provide funding for the early redemption of these government bonds on a back-to-back basis but is obliged to repay the principal and the respective interest upon maturity.

(e) Assets pledged as security

Financial assets of the Group including securities and finance lease receivables have been pledged as security for liabilities or contingent liabilities, and mainly arise from repurchase agreements, fixed time deposit agreements, debt securities lending and borrowing agreement, securities lending and repurchase agreements, due to the central bank and borrowings from banks and other financial institutions. As at 30 June 2025, the carrying value of the financial assets of the Group pledged as security amounted to approximately RMB42,803 million (As at 31 December 2024: approximately RMB48,418 million).

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)

41. FIDUCIARY ACTIVITIES

|                  | 30 June   | 31 December |
|------------------|-----------|-------------|
|                  | 2025      | 2024        |
| Designated funds | 1,827,825 | 2,208,747   |
| Designated loans | 1,827,628 | 2,208,747   |

The designated funds represent the funding that the trustors have instructed the Group to use to grant loans to third parties as designated by them. The credit risk remains with the trustors.

The designated loans represent the loans granted to specific borrowers designated by the trustors on their behalf according to the entrusted agreements signed by the Group and the trustors. The Group does not bear any risk.

42. TRANSFERS OF FINANCIAL ASSETS

The Group enters into transactions in the normal course of business by which it transfers recognised financial assets to third parties or to special purpose entities. In some cases where these transferred financial assets qualify for derecognition, the transfers may give rise to full or partial derecognition of the financial assets concerned. In other cases where the transferred assets do not qualify for derecognition as the Group has retained substantially all the risks and rewards of these assets, the Group continues to recognise the transferred assets.

Repurchase agreements

Transferred financial assets that do not qualify for derecognition mainly include debt securities held by counterparties as collateral under repurchase. The counterparties are allowed to sell or repledge those securities in the absence of default by the Group, but have an obligation to return the securities at the maturity of the contract. If the securities increase or decrease in value, the Group may in certain circumstances require or be required to pay additional cash collateral. The Group has determined that the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of these securities and therefore has not derecognised them. In addition, the Group recognised a financial liability for cash received as collateral.

As at 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024, none of the above-mentioned financial assets or financial liabilities which did not qualify for derecognition was transferred to third parties.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)

Securitisation of credit assets

The Group enters into securitisation of credit assets in the normal course of business by which it transfers credit assets to special purpose entities which in turn issue asset-backed securities to investors. The Group may acquire some subordinated tranches of securities and accordingly may retain part of the risks and rewards of the transferred credit assets. The Group would determine whether or not to derecognise the associated credit assets by evaluating the extent to which it retains the risks and rewards of the assets. With respect to the credit assets that were securitised and qualified for derecognition, the Group derecognised the transferred credit assets in their entirety.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025, the Group neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks (mainly including the credit risk, early repayment risk and interest rate risk of the transferred assets) and rewards of the ownership and retained the control in these financial assets (For the year ended 31 December 2024: Nil).

As at 30 June 2025, the Group recognised the securitised credit assets with an original value of RMB550,000 thousand (As at 31 December 2024: RMB550,000 thousand) and recognised RMB449,717 thousand of payable of asset-backed securities as debt securities issued (As at 31 December 2024: RMB411,811 thousand).

43. INTERESTS IN STRUCTURED ENTITIES

The Group is principally involved with structured entities through financial investments, asset management and credit asset transfers. These structured entities generally finance the purchase of assets by issuing securities or by other means. The Group determines whether or not to consolidate these structured entities depending on the Group's controls on them.

Structured entities consolidated by the Group include certain securitisation products issued, managed and invested by the Group. The Group controls these entities because the Group has power over, is exposed to, or has right to variable returns from its involvement with these entities and has the ability to use its power over these entities to affect the amount of the Group's returns. As at 30 June 2025, the consolidated structured entities amounted to RMB600,000 thousand (As at 31 December 2024: RMB567,312 thousand).

The interests held by the Group in the unconsolidated structured entities are set out below:

43.1 Structured entities managed by the Group

Wealth management products

When conducting the wealth management business, the Group has established various structured entities to provide customers with specialised investment opportunities within narrow and well-defined objectives. As at 30 June 2025, the balance of the unconsolidated wealth management products issued by the Group amounted to RMB35,362,620 thousand (As at 31 December 2024: RMB32,960,652 thousand). For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025, fee and commission income from the wealth management business that amounted to RMB79,666 thousand (For the six-month period ended 30 June 2024: RMB68,603 thousand).

Wealth management products (Continued)

For the purpose of asset-liability management, wealth management products may trigger short-term financing needs for the Group and other banks. However, the Group is not contractually obliged to provide financing. For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025, the Group did not provide any financing to the unconsolidated wealth management products (For the six-month period ended 30 June 2024: Nil).

43.2 Structured entities sponsored by other financial institutions

The Group has invested in some structured entities which are issued or managed by other institutions and are out of the consolidation scope, and the Group recognises its investment income. These structured entities include trust fund plans and asset management plans, funds, etc. These structured entities' nature and purpose are to earn management fees by managing the investors' assets, and the way of financing is to issue investment products to investors. For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 and the year ended 31 December 2024, the Group has not provided liquidity support for those kinds of structured entities.

45. SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Operating segments

For management purposes, the Group is organised into four different operating segments as follows according to products and services:

Corporate financial business

Corporate financial business covers the provision of financial products and services to corporate customers. The products and services include deposits, loans, settlement and clearing and other products and services relating to the trading business.

Retail financial business

Retail financial business covers the provision of financial products and services to retail customers. The products and services include deposits, bank cards and credit cards, personal loans and collateral loans, and personal wealth management services.

Interbank financial business

Interbank financial business covers money market placements, investments and repurchasing, foreign exchange transactions for the Group's own accounts or on behalf of customers.

Other business

This represents businesses other than the corporate financial business, retail financial business and interbank financial business, whose assets, liabilities, income and expenses are not directly attributable or cannot be allocated to a segment on a reasonable basis.

The transfer prices among segments are determined by the capital sources and due time which should match with the level of lending and deposit rates and interbank market rates announced by the People's Bank of China (the "PBOC"). Expenses are distributed among different segments according to their benefits.

46. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENT RISK MANAGEMENT

A description and an analysis of the major risks faced by the Group are as follows:

The Board has the ultimate responsibility for risk management and oversees the Group's risk management functions through the Risk Management Committee and the Audit Committee of the Board.

The President supervises the risk management strategies and reports directly to the Board. He chairs two management committees including the Risk Management Committee and the Asset and Liability Management Committee. These two committees formulate and make recommendations in respect of risk management strategies and policies through the President to the Risk Management Committee of the Board. The Chief Risk Officer assists the President to supervise and manage various risks.

The Group has also assigned departments to monitor financial risks within the Group, including the Risk Management Department to monitor credit risk and operational risk as well as the Asset and Liability Management department together with the Risk Management Department to monitor market and liquidity risks. The Risk Management Department is primarily responsible for coordinating and establishing a comprehensive risk management framework, preparing consolidated reports on credit risk, market risk, liquidity risk and operational risk and reporting directly to the Chief Risk Officer.

The Group maintains a dual-reporting line structure at the branch level for risk management purposes. Under this structure, the risk management departments of the branches report to both the corresponding risk management departments at the head office and management of the relevant branches.

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of loss arising from a borrower's or counterparty's inability to meet its obligations. Credit risk can also arise from operational failures that result in an unauthorised or inappropriate guarantee, commitment or investment of funds. Credit risk affecting the group is primarily due to loans, debt instruments, guarantees, commitment as well as other risks both on and off the statement of financial position.

The principal features of the Group's credit risk management function include:

- Centralised credit management procedures;
- Risk management rules and procedures that focus on risk control throughout the entire credit business process, including customer investigation and credit rating, granting of credit limits, loan evaluation, loan review and approval, granting of loan and post-disbursement loan monitoring;
- A stringent qualification system for the loan approval officers; and
- Information management systems designed to enable a real time risk monitoring.

To enhance the credit risk management practices, the Group also launches training programs periodically for credit officers at different levels.

Risk concentration

Credit risk is often greater when counterparties are concentrated in one single industry, or geographic location or have comparable economic characteristics.

(i) Credit risk measurement

Measurement of ECLs

The ECL is a weighted average of credit losses on financial instruments weighted at the risk of default. Credit loss is the difference between all receivable contractual cash flows according to the contract and all cash flows expected to be received by the Group discounted to present value at the original effective interest rate, i.e. the present value of all cash shortfalls.

According to the changes of credit risk of financial instruments since initial recognition, the Group calculates the ECL by three stages:

- Stage 1: The financial instruments without significant increases in credit risk after initial recognition are included in Stage 1 to calculate their impairment allowance at an amount equivalent to the ECL of the financial instrument for the next 12 months;
- Stage 2: Financial instruments that have had a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition but have no objective evidence of impairment are included in Stage 2, with their impairment allowance measured at an amount equivalent to the ECL over the lifetime of the financial instruments; and
- Stage 3: Financial assets with objective evidence of impairment at the financial reporting date are included in Stage 3, with their impairment allowance measured at the amount equivalent to the ECL for the lifetime of the financial instruments.

For the previous accounting period, the impairment allowance has been measured at the amount equivalent to the ECL over the entire lifetime of the financial instrument. However, at the financial reporting date of the current period, if the financial instrument no longer belongs to the situation of there being a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group will measure the impairment allowance of the financial instruments at the financial reporting date of the current period according to the ECL in the next 12 months.

Measurement of ECLs (Continued)

For credit-impaired financial assets that have been purchased or owned, the Group only recognises the accumulated amount equivalent to the ECL for the lifetime as impairment allowance since the initial recognition at the financial reporting date. The Group recognises the amount of the change to the ECL for the lifetime as an impairment loss or gain in profit on each financial reporting date.

The Group shall measure the ECL of a financial instrument in a way that reflects:

- an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes;
- the time value of money; and
- reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of future economic condition.

When measuring the ECL, an entity need not necessarily identify every possible scenario. However, the Group shall consider the risk or probability that a credit loss occurs by reflecting the possibility that a credit loss occurs and the possibility that no credit loss occurs, even if the possibility of the occurrence of a credit loss is very low.

The Group conducts an assessment of ECLs according to forward-looking information and uses complex models and assumptions in its expected measurement of credit losses. These models and assumptions relate to the future macroeconomic conditions and borrower's creditworthiness (e.g., the likelihood of default by customers and the corresponding losses). The Group adopts judgement, assumptions and estimation techniques in order to measure ECLs according to the requirements of accounting standards such as:

- Criteria for judging a significant increase in credit risk;
- Definition of credit-impaired financial assets;
- Models and parameters for measuring ECLs;
- Forward-looking information; and
- Individual impairment assessment.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)

Criteria for judging significant increases in credit risk

The Group assesses whether or not the credit risk of the relevant financial instruments has increased significantly since the initial recognition at each financial reporting date. While determining whether the credit risk has significantly increased since initial recognition or not, the Group takes into account the reasonable and substantiated information that is accessible without exerting unnecessary cost or effort, including qualitative and quantitative analysis based on the historical data of the Group, external credit risk rating, and forward-looking information. Based on the single financial instrument or the combination of financial instruments with similar characteristics of credit risk, the Group compares the risk of default of financial instruments at the financial reporting date with that on the initial recognition date in order to figure out the changes of default risk in the expected lifetime of financial instruments.

The Group considers a financial instrument to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk when one or more of the following quantitative, qualitative or backstop criteria have been met:

Quantitative criteria

- At the reporting date, the rating or the Probability of Default ("PD") of the financial instruments reaches a certain extent, compared with the one at initial recognition; and
- The debtors' contractual payment (including principal and interest) are overdue more than 30 days.

Qualitative criteria

- The operating or financial condition of the debtor which is highly likely to lead to significant adverse effects;
- Be classified into the Special Mention category; and
- The list of pre-warning debtors.

Definition of credit-impaired financial asset

The method adopted by the Group to determine whether a credit impairment occurs under IFRS 9 is consistent with the internal credit risk management objectives of the relevant financial instrument, and takes into account quantitative and qualitative criteria. When the Group assesses whether a credit impairment of a debtor occurs, the following main factors are considered:

- The issuer or the debtor encounters significant financial difficulty;
- The debtor is in breach of contract, such as defaulting on interest or becoming overdue on interest or principal payments overdue;
- The creditor of the debtor, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the debtor's financial difficulty, has granted to the debtor a concession that the creditor would not otherwise consider;
- It is becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial restructuring;
- An active market for that financial asset disappears because of financial difficulties of the issuer or the debtor;
- The purchase or origination of a financial asset at a deep discount reflects the incurred credit losses; and
- Any principal, advances, interest and corporate bond investments held by debtors are overdue for more than 90 days.

The credit impairment of a financial asset may be caused by the combined effect of multiple events and may not be necessarily due to a single event.

Parameters of ECL measurement

Depending on whether there is a significant increase in credit risk and whether there is an impairment of assets, the Group measures the impairment loss for different assets with ECLs of 12 months or the entire lifetime respectively. The key measuring parameters of ECLs include the PD, Loss Given Default ("LGD") and Exposure at Default ("EAD"). Based on the current New Basel Capital Accord used in risk management and the requirements of IFRS 9, the Group takes into account the quantitative analysis of historical statistics (such as ratings of counterparties, manners of guarantees and types of collateral and repayments) and forward-looking information in order to establish the model of PD, LGD and EAD.

Relative definitions are listed as follows:

- PD refers to the possibility that the debtor will not be able to fulfil its obligations of repayment over the next 12 months or throughout the entire remaining lifetime. The Group's PD is adjusted based on the results of the Internal Rating-Based Approach under the New Basel Capital Accord, taking into account the forward-looking information and deducting the prudential adjustment to reflect the debtor's point-in-time (PIT) PD under the current macroeconomic environment;
- LGD refers to the Group's expectation of the extent of the loss resulting from the default exposure.
   Depending on the type of counterparty, the method and priority of the recourse, and the type of collateral, the LGD varies. LGD is expressed as a percentage loss per unit of exposure at the time of default and is calculated on a 12-month or lifetime basis; and
- EAD is the amount that the Group should be reimbursed at the time of the default in the next 12 months or throughout the entire remaining lifetime.

Forward-looking information

The assessment of a significant increase in credit risk and the calculation of ECLs both involve forward-looking information. Through the analysis of historical data, the Group identifies the key economic indicators that affect the credit risk and ECLs of various business types, such as Gross domestic product ("GDP"), Industrial added value, Consumer Price Index, and Producer Price Index.

The impact of these economic indicators on the PD and the LGD varies according to different types of business. In this process, the Group mainly applies the experts' judgement. According to the result, the Group forecasts these economic indicators regularly and also determines the impact of these economic indicators on the PD and the LGD by conducting regression analysis.

When calculating the weighted average ECL provision, the Group determines the optimistic, neutral and pessimistic scenarios and their weightings through a combination of macro-statistical analysis and expert judgement.

As at 30 June 2025, the Group has taken into account different macro-economic scenarios, made forward-looking forecasts of macro-economic indicators. Of which, the quarterly year-on-year GDP growth rate used to estimate ECL is 4.8% in the neutral scenario for the next year (from July 2025 to June 2026).

Collateral

The amount and type of collateral required depend on the assessment of the credit risk of the counterparty. Guidelines are in place specifying the types of collateral and valuation parameters which can be accepted.

Reverse repurchase business is mainly collateralised by bills or investment securities. As part of the reverse repurchase agreements, the Group has received securities that it is allowed to sell or repledge in the absence of default by their owners.

Corporate loans are mainly collateralised by properties or other assets. As at 30 June 2025, the carrying value of corporate loans covered by collateral amounted to RMB70,437 million (As at 31 December 2024: RMB73,256 million).

Personal loans are mainly collateralised by residential properties. As at 30 June 2025, the carrying value of personal loans covered by collateral amounted to RMB34,441 million (As at 31 December 2024: RMB36,161 million).

The Group prefers more liquid collateral with a relatively stable market value and does not accept the collateral that is illiquid, with difficulties in registration or high fluctuations in market value. The value of collateral should be assessed and confirmed by the Group or valuation agents identified by the Group. The value of collateral should adequately cover the outstanding balance of loans. The loan-to-value ratio depends on types of collateral, usage condition, liquidity, price volatility and realisation cost. All collateral has to be registered in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations. The credit officers inspect the collateral and assess the changes in the value of collateral regularly.

Although collateral can be an important mitigation of credit risk, the Group grants loans based on the assessment of the borrowers' ability to meet obligations out of their cash flows, instead of the value of collateral. The necessity of collateral is dependent on the nature of the loan.

In the event of default, the Group might sell the collateral for repayment. The fair values of collateral of past due but not impaired loans and impaired loans are disclosed in note 46(a)(iv).

The credit business management department monitors the market value of collateral periodically and requests additional collateral in accordance with the underlying agreement when it is considered necessary.

It is the Group's policy to dispose of repossessed assets in an orderly manner. In general, the Group does not occupy repossessed assets for business use.

(i) Maturity analysis of contractual undiscounted cash flows

The tables below summarise the maturity profile of the Group's financial instruments based on the contractual undiscounted cash flows. The balances of some items in the tables below are different from the balances on the statement of financial position as the tables incorporate all cash flows relating to both principal and interest. The Group's expected cash flows on these instruments may vary significantly from the following analysis. For example, demand deposits from customers are expected to maintain a stable or increasing balance although they have been classified as repayable on demand in the following tables.

|   | Repayable  | Less than  | One to       | Three months | One to      | More than   | Overdue/   |                          |

(c) Market risk

Market risk is the risk of loss, in respect of the Group's on-and off-balance sheet activities, arising from adverse movements in market rates including interest rates, foreign exchange rates, commodity prices and stock prices. Market risk arises from both the Group's trading and non-trading businesses.

The Group's market risk contains interest rate risk and currency risk.

The Group is primarily exposed to structural interest rate risk arising from commercial banking and position risk arising from treasury transactions.

The Group's currency risk mainly results from the risk arising from exchange rate fluctuations on its foreign exchange exposures. Foreign exchange exposures include the mismatch of foreign exchange assets and liabilities, and off-balance sheet foreign exchange positions arising from derivative transactions.

Sensitivity analysis, interest rate repricing gap analysis and foreign exchange risk concentration analysis are the major market risk management tools used by the Group. The Bank uses different management methods to control market risks, including trading book and banking book risks.

(i) Currency risk

The Group conducts it businesses mainly in RMB, with certain transactions denominated in USD, HKD, Russian ruble ("RUB") and, to a lesser extent, other currencies. Transactions in foreign currencies mainly arise from the Group's treasury operations and foreign exchange dealings.

The exchange rate of RMB to USD is managed under a floating exchange rate system.

The tables below indicate a sensitivity analysis of exchange rate changes of the currencies in which the Group has significant exposure on its monetary assets and liabilities and its forecasted cash flows. The analysis shows the effect of a reasonably possible movement in the currency rates against RMB, with all other variables held constant, on profit before tax and equity. A negative amount in the table reflects a potential net reduction in profit before tax or equity, while a positive amount reflects a potential net increase. This effect, however, is based on the assumption that the Group's foreign exchange exposures as at the period/year end are kept unchanged and, therefore, has not incorporated actions that would be taken by the Group to mitigate the adverse impact of this foreign exchange risk.

(i) Currency risk (Continued)

The Group sets trading limits, stop-loss limits and exposure limits to foreign exchange transactions to manage foreign exchange risk and to keep currency risk within limits. Based on the guidelines provided by the Risk Management Committee, laws and regulations as well as evaluation of the current market, the Group sets its risk limits and minimises the possibility of mismatch through more reasonable allocation of foreign currency sources and deployment.

| RUB      | -1%             | (136)         | (216)          |

While the table above indicates the effect on profit before tax of 1% depreciation of USD, HKD and RUB, there will be an opposite effect with the same amount if the currencies appreciate by the same percentage.

(d) Capital management

The Group's objectives on capital management are:

- to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern so that it can continue to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders;
- to support the Group's stability and growth;
- to allocate capital using an efficient and risk-based approach to optimise the risk adjusted return to the shareholders; and
- to maintain an adequate capital base to support the development of its business.

The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in light of changes in economic conditions and the risk characteristics of its activities. In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust its profit distribution policy, issue or redeem own shares, issue long-term subordinated bonds, etc.

Capital adequacy and the use of regulatory capital are monitored regularly by the Group's management based on regulations issued by the NFRA. The required information is filed with the NFRA by the Group and the Bank semi-annually and quarterly.

The capital adequacy ratios and related components of the Group are computed in accordance with the statutory financial statements of the Group prepared under PRC GAAP. During the period, the Group has fully complied with all the externally imposed capital requirements. The requirements pursuant to these regulations may have significant differences comparing to those applicable in Hong Kong and other countries.

(d) Capital management (Continued)

Since 1 January 2024, the Group has begun to calculate the capital adequacy ratio based on the "Capital Rules for Commercial Banks" issued by the NFRA in 2023 and will continue to promote the content of this disclosure. According to the requirements of the NFRA, commercial banks should meet the regulatory requirements of the capital adequacy ratio. The regulatory requirements request a commercial bank to maintain its core tier 1 capital adequacy ratio above 7.5%, the tier 1 capital adequacy ratio above 8.5% and the capital adequacy ratio above 10.5%.

47. FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Financial assets and liabilities measured at fair value

The Group uses the following hierarchy for the determination and disclosure of the fair value of financial instruments:

- Level 1: quoted (unadjusted) prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is directly or indirectly observable; and
- Level 3: valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable.

During the six-month period ended 30 June 2025, there is no significant transfer among each level (During the year ended 31 December 2024: Nil).

Subject to the existence of an active market, such as an authorised securities exchange, the market value is the best reflection of the fair value of financial instruments. As there is no available market value for certain of the financial assets and liabilities held and issued by the Group, the discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods are adopted to determine the fair values of these assets and liabilities.

The financial instruments classified as Level 2 by the Group are mainly debt investment, derivative financial instruments and discounted bills measured at fair value through other comprehensive income. For debt securities, the fair values of these bonds are determined based on the valuation results provided by China Central Depository Trust & Clearing Co., Ltd; For derivative financial instruments, the fair values are determined based on discounted cash flow and other valuation methods; For discounted bills, the fair values are determined based on discounted cash flow. The determinations are based on a valuation technique for which all significant inputs are observable market data.

The financial instruments classified as Level 3 by the Group are mainly unlisted equity instruments and trust fund plans and asset management. The valuation methods used are mainly market method and discounted cash flow method, and the unobservable parameters involved are mainly net assets, discount rate, liquidity discount, etc.

All of the above-mentioned assumptions and methods provide a consistent basis for the calculation of the fair values of the Group's assets and liabilities. However, other financial institutions may use different assumptions and methods. Therefore, the fair values disclosed by different financial institutions may not be entirely comparable.

As at 30 June 2025 and 31 December 2024, the Group and the Bank had no assets or liabilities measured at fair value that were discontinued.

For the six-month period ended 30 June 2025 (Amount in thousands of RMB, unless otherwise stated)
