II. Reasons for and Significance of Changing the Logo

This change of corporate logo extends beyond a mere transformation of visual identity. It represents the outward manifestation of the Group's evolving strategic vision, ecological landscape and brand philosophy, and has profound strategic significance and brand value.

1. Demonstrate strategic advancement and ecological vision

Reference is made to the Company's announcements dated 14 September and 16 September 2025 in relation to, among other things, the Group's venturing into the area of global on-chain financial ecosystem thoroughly through the "ETHK" core brand and the proposed innovative "ETHK Global RWA Exchange – Exchange within Exchange" business model. Following the ongoing implementation of these strategic initiatives, the original logo can no longer encapsulate the Group's new positioning as "an enabler of global digital industry innovation and on-chain financial infrastructure".

The new logo symbolises the complete transition of the Group into the role as the next-generation builder of on-chain financial ecosystem which is underpinned by blockchain technology, structured within the compliance framework and oriented towards an open ecosystem. It marks the official leap of "IVD" into the new era of Ether Kingdom with a focus on "on-chain finance + digital industry", bolding ushering in the great age of "ETHK Ecosystem".

2. Synthesis of core value and philosophical inner core of "ETHK" ecosystem

The "ETHK" ecosystem is founded on the belief that "technology is for the public good, with blockchain as the vehicle that forges the path" and is dedicated to constructing an open, collaborative, trustworthy, efficient new on-chain financial ecosystem. The new logo prominently features "ETHK Labs" as its core visual element and integrates the essence of "Ether" which symbolises interconnectedness of all things and value circulation, alongside the vision of orderly innovation, mutual prosperity and co-existence represented by "Kingdom". The design elements convey the following meanings:

- Technical foundation: Represents the robustness and reliability of the underlying technical infrastructure of the ecosystem;
- Ecological interconnectivity: Reflects the seamless linkage among assets, capital, compliance and global participants;
- Open empowerment: Symbolises the Group, as a core driver of the ecosystem, empowering global partnerships through technical output and compliance support.

3. Strengthening brand synergy and trust endorsement under the strategic model of “Exchange within Exchange”

The “ETHK Global RWA Exchange – Exchange within Exchange” model aims to provide on-chain financial ecosystem infrastructure for leading enterprises across various industries, facilitating the joint construction of a vertical RWA exchange. A unified and forward-looking brand image is essential for gaining trust in the global market. By enhancing professionalism, internationalisation and stringent regulatory compliance in respect of the “ETHK” ecosystem, the new logo will provide a clearer value proposition and trust assurance for ecosystem participants including asset issuers, licensed financial institutions and institutional investors.

4. Achieving global market expansion and value recognition

As the Group proposes to rename itself to “ETHK Labs Inc./華檢數字產業集團有限公司”, the new logo will become the key identifier of the Group within the global capital market and digital industry ecosystem, which is conducive to elevating our international visibility and impact, attracting partners within the ecosystem and bolstering investors’ recognition of the Group’s strategic execution capabilities.

III. General

The change of the Company’s logo will not affect any rights of existing shareholders of the Company or the business operations or financial position of the Company. All the existing share certificates of the Company in issue bearing the former logo will continue to be effective as documents of title to such shares of the Company and will continue to be valid for trading, settlement, registration and delivery purposes.
