This Offering Circular is for distribution to Professional Investors only.

Notice to Hong Kong investors: Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor confirms that the Notes are intended for purchase by Professional Investors only and the Programme and the Notes, to the extent that such Notes are to be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, will be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange on that basis. Accordingly, each of the Issuer and the Guarantor confirms that the Notes are not appropriate as an investment for retail investors in Hong Kong. Investors should carefully consider the risks involved.

The Hong Kong Stock Exchange has not reviewed the contents of this Offering Circular, other than to ensure that the prescribed form disclaimer and responsibility statements, and a statement limiting distribution of this Offering Circular to Professional Investors only have been reproduced in this Offering Circular. Listing of the Programme or the Notes on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is not to be taken as an indication of the commercial merits or credit quality of the Programme, the Notes or the Issuer or the Guarantor or the Group (as defined herein) or quality of disclosure in this Offering Circular. Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange take no responsibility for the contents of this Offering Circular, make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness and expressly disclaim any liability whatsoever for any loss howsoever arising from or in reliance upon the whole or any part of the contents of this Offering Circular.

The relevant Pricing Supplement in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or listed, traded or quoted on or by any other competent authority, exchange or quotation system.

Notes may be issued in bearer or registered form. Notes of each Series (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) issued in bearer form (“Bearer Notes”) will be initially issued in the form of a temporary global note in bearer form (each a “Temporary Global Note”) or a permanent global note in bearer form (each a “Permanent Global Note”) (together with any Temporary Global Note, collectively, the “Global Note”). Bearer Notes that are issued in compliance with rules in substantially the same form as U.S. Treasury Regulations § 1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) for purposes of Section 4701 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) (“TEFRA D”) must be initially represented by a Temporary Global Note and interests in a Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable, in whole or in part, for interests in a Permanent Global Note on or after the date 40 days after the later of the commencement of the offering and the relevant Issue Date (the “Exchange Date”), upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership. Notes in registered form will be represented by registered certificates (each a “Certificate”), and each Certificate shall represent each Noteholder’s entire holding of Registered Notes of one Series. Notes of each Series in registered form will initially be represented by a global certificate (each a “Global Certificate”). Global Notes and Global Certificates may be deposited on the relevant Issue Date with a common depository on behalf of Euroclear Bank SA/NV (“Euroclear”) and/or Clearstream Banking S.A. (“Clearstream”), or with a sub-custodian for the Central Money Markets Unit Service (the “CMU”) operated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority. Beneficial interests in Global Notes or Certificates held in book-entry form through Euroclear or Clearstream will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by Euroclear or Clearstream, as the case may be. Beneficial interests in Global Notes or Certificates held in book-entry form through the CMU will be shown on, and transfers thereof will be effected only through, records maintained by the CMU. The provisions governing the exchange of interests in Global Notes for other Global Notes or if so stated in the relevant Pricing Supplement, definitive Notes (“Definitive Notes”), or Global Certificates for Certificates are described in “Summary of Provisions Relating to the Notes while in Global Form”.

The Notes and the Guarantee have not been and will not be registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) or with any securities regulatory authority of any state of the United States and may not be offered or sold in, or in case of Bearer Notes, delivered, in the United States or, in certain circumstances, to or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (as such term is defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act (“Regulation S”)) except pursuant to an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. There will be no public offer of securities in the United States. The Notes and the Guarantee are being offered outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act. Bearer Notes are subject to U.S. tax law requirements. See “Subscription and Sale”.

MiFID II product governance/target market – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, “MiFID II”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels. A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the “MiFID Product Governance Rules”), any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance/target market – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a “UK distributor”) should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a UK distributor subject to the FCA Handbook Product Intervention and Product Governance Sourcebook (the “UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules”) is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels. A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors”, the Notes is not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the European Economic Area (“EEA”). For the purposes of this offering, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (ii) a customer within the meaning of Directive (EU) 2016/97 (as amended, the “Insurance Distribution Directive”), where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (as amended, the “Prospectus Regulation”). Consequently no key information document required by Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 (as amended, the “PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors”, the Notes is not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the United Kingdom (the “UK”). For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “EUWA”); (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (the “FSMA”) and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of the Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK Prospectus Regulation”). Consequently no key information document required by the Regulation (EU) No 1286/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA (the “UK PRIIPs Regulation”) for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 OF SINGAPORE – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification” which will state the product classification of the Notes pursuant to section 309B(1) of the Securities and Futures Act 2001 of Singapore (the “SFA”). The Issuer will make a determination and provide the appropriate written notification to “relevant persons” in relation to each issue about the classification of the Notes being offered for purposes of section 309B(1)(a) and section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA.

The Notes may be issued on a continuing basis to one or more of the Dealers specified under “Summary of the Programme” and any additional Dealer appointed under the Programme from time to time by the Issuer and the Guarantor (each a “Dealer” and together the “Dealers”), which appointment may be for a specific issue or on an ongoing basis. References in this Offering Circular to the “relevant Dealer” shall, in the case of an issue of Notes being (or intended to be) subscribed by more than one Dealer, be to all Dealers agreeing to subscribe such Notes.

The Programme has been expected to be assigned ratings of “A-” by Fitch Rating Inc. (“Fitch”) and “A-” by S&P Global Ratings (“S&P”). The ratings are only correct as at the date of this Offering Circular. Tranches of Notes to be issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is to be rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the ratings assigned to the Programme. A rating does not constitute a recommendation to buy, sell or hold the Notes and may be subject to suspension, reduction, revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Investing in the Notes involves certain risks and may not be suitable for all investors. Investors should have sufficient knowledge and experience in financial and business matters to evaluate the information contained in this Offering Circular and in the applicable Pricing Supplement and the merits and risks of investing in a particular issue of Notes in the context of their financial position and particular circumstances. Investors also should have the financial capacity to bear the risks associated with an investment in Notes. Investors should not purchase Notes unless they understand and are able to bear risks associated with Notes. Prospective investors should have regard to the factors described under the section entitled “Risk Factors” in this Offering Circular

The Issuer and the Guarantor accept full responsibility for the accuracy of the information contained in this Offering Circular and confirm, having made all reasonable enquiries, that to the best of their knowledge and belief there are no other facts the omission of which would make any statement herein misleading.

Listing of the Programme or the Notes on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange is not to be taken as an indication of the merits of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group or the Notes. In making an investment decision, investors must rely on their own examination of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the terms of the offering, including the merits and risks involved. Please see “Risk Factors” for a discussion of certain factors to be considered in connection with an investment in the Notes. Each Tranche of Notes will be issued on the terms set out herein under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes” as amended and/or supplemented by a Pricing Supplement. This Offering Circular must be read and construed together with any amendments or supplements hereto and with any information incorporated by reference herein (see “Information Incorporated by Reference and Financial Information”) and, in relation to any Tranche of Notes, must be read and construed together with the relevant Pricing Supplement. This Offering Circular shall be read and construed on the basis that such documents are incorporated in and form part of this Offering Circular.

The Issuer and the Guarantor, having made all reasonable inquiries, confirm that: (i) this Offering Circular contains all information with respect to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group (as defined herein), the Notes and the Guarantee which is material in the context of the issue, offering, sale and distribution of the Notes and the giving of the Guarantee (including all information which is required by applicable laws and which, according to the particular nature of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group, the Notes and the Guarantee, is necessary to enable investors and their investment advisers to make an informed assessment of the assets and liabilities, financial position, profits and losses, and prospects of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Group and the rights attaching to the Notes and the Guarantee); (ii) the statements contained in this Offering Circular relating to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group, the Notes and the Guarantee are true and accurate, and do not include an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements herein, in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; (iii) the opinions and intentions expressed in this Offering Circular are honestly and reasonably held, have been reached after considering all relevant circumstances and are based on reasonable assumptions; (iv) there are no other material facts in relation to the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group, the Notes or the Guarantee, the omission of which would, in the context of the issue and offering of the Notes, make any statement, opinion or intention expressed in this Offering Circular misleading; and (v) the Issuer and the Guarantor have made all reasonable enquiries to ascertain such facts and to verify the accuracy of all such information and statements in this Offering Circular. The Issuer and the Guarantor accept responsibility accordingly.

The distribution of this Offering Circular and any Pricing Supplement and the offering, sale and delivery of the Notes in certain jurisdictions may be restricted by law. Persons into whose possession this Offering Circular comes are required by the Issuer, the Guarantor, Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited, CLSA Limited and Industrial and Commercial Bank of China (Asia) Limited (the “Arrangers”), the Dealers (as defined herein), the Trustee and the Agents (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) and each of their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents and advisers and each person who controls any of them to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. None of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Arrangers, the Dealers, the Trustee or the Agents or any of their respective affiliates, directors, officers, employees, representatives, agents or advisers or any person who controls any of them represents that this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement may be lawfully distributed, or that any Notes may be lawfully offered, in compliance with any applicable registration or other requirements in any such jurisdiction, or pursuant to an exemption available thereunder, or assumes any responsibility for facilitating any such distribution or offering. No action is being taken to permit a public offering of any of the Notes or the distribution of this Offering Circular or any Pricing Supplement in any jurisdiction where action would be required for such purposes. Accordingly, no Notes may be offered or sold, directly or indirectly, and none of this Offering Circular, any Pricing Supplement or any advertisement or other offering material may be distributed or published in any jurisdiction, except under circumstances that will result in compliance with any applicable laws and regulations.

MiFID II product governance/target market – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “MiFID II Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to MiFID II is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

UK MiFIR product governance/target market – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “UK MiFIR Product Governance” which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any UK distributor should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a UK distributor subject to the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels. A determination will be made in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules, any Dealer subscribing for any Notes is a manufacturer in respect of such Notes, but otherwise neither the Arrangers nor the Dealers nor any of their respective affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the UK MiFIR Product Governance Rules.

IMPORTANT – EEA RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to EEA Retail Investors”, the Notes are not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the EEA. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client as defined in point (11) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; (ii) a customer within the meaning of Insurance Distribution Directive, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client as defined in point (10) of Article 4(1) of MiFID II; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Regulation. Consequently, no key information document required by PRIIPs Regulation for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the EEA has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the EEA may be unlawful under the PRIIPs Regulation.

IMPORTANT – UK RETAIL INVESTORS – If the Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes includes a legend entitled “Prohibition of Sales to UK Retail Investors”, the Notes is not intended to be offered, sold or otherwise made available to and should not be offered, sold or otherwise made available to any retail investor in the UK. For these purposes, a retail investor means a person who is one (or more) of: (i) a retail client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2 of Regulation (EU) No 2017/565 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; (ii) a customer within the meaning of the provisions of the FSMA and any rules or regulations made under the FSMA to implement the Directive (EU) 2016/97, where that customer would not qualify as a professional client, as defined in point (8) of Article 2(1) of Regulation (EU) No 600/2014 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the EUWA; or (iii) not a qualified investor as defined in Article 2 of the UK Prospectus Regulation. Consequently, no key information document required by the UK PRIIPs Regulation for offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to retail investors in the UK has been prepared and therefore offering or selling the Notes or otherwise making them available to any retail investor in the UK may be unlawful under the UK PRIIPs Regulation.

PRODUCT CLASSIFICATION PURSUANT TO SECTION 309B OF THE SECURITIES AND FUTURES ACT 2001 OF SINGAPORE – The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled “Singapore Securities and Futures Act Product Classification” which will state the product classification of the Notes pursuant to section 309B(1) of the SFA. The Issuer will make a determination and provide the appropriate written notification to “relevant persons” in relation to each issue about the classification of the Notes being offered for purposes of section 309B(1)(a) and section 309B(1)(c) of the SFA.

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct – Important Notice to Prospective Investors: Prospective investors should be aware that certain intermediaries in the context of certain offerings of Notes pursuant to this Programme, each such offering, a “CMI Offering”, including certain Dealers, may be “capital market intermediaries” (together, the “CMIs”) subject to Paragraph 21 of the Code of Conduct for Persons Licensed by or Registered with the Securities and Futures Commission (the “SFC Code”). This notice to prospective investors is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on such CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of prospective investors.

Certain CMIs may also be acting as “overall coordinators” (together, the “OCs”) for a CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Issuer, the Guarantor, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an association (an “Association”) with the Issuer, the Guarantor, the CMI or the relevant group company. Prospective investors associated with the Issuer, the Guarantor or any CMI (including its group companies) should specifically disclose this when placing an order for the relevant Notes and should disclose, at the same time, if such orders may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not disclose their Associations are hereby deemed not to be so associated. Where prospective investors disclose their Associations but do not disclose that such order may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such order is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should ensure, and by placing an order prospective investors are deemed to confirm, that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). A rebate may be offered by the to all private banks for orders they place (other than in relation to Notes subscribed by such private banks as principal whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors), payable upon closing of the relevant CMI Offering based on the principal amount of the Notes distributed by such private banks to investors. Private banks are deemed to be placing an order on a principal basis unless they inform the CMIs otherwise. As a result, private banks placing an order on a principal basis (including those deemed as placing an order as principal) will not be entitled to, and will not be paid, the rebate. Details of any such rebate will be set out in the applicable Pricing Supplement or otherwise notified to prospective investors. If a prospective investor is an asset management arm affiliated with any relevant Dealer(s), such prospective investor should indicate when placing an order if it is for a fund or portfolio where the relevant Dealer(s) or its group company has more than 50 per cent. interest, in which case it will be classified as a “proprietary order” and subject to appropriate handling by CMIs in accordance with the SFC Code and should disclose, at the same time, if such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. If a prospective investor is otherwise affiliated with any relevant Dealer(s), such that its order may be considered to be a “proprietary order” (pursuant to the SFC Code), such prospective investor should indicate to the relevant Dealer(s) when placing such order. Prospective investors who do not indicate this information when placing an order are hereby deemed to confirm that their order is not a “proprietary order”. Where prospective investors disclose such information but do not disclose that such “proprietary order” may negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering, such “proprietary order” is hereby deemed not to negatively impact the price discovery process in relation to the relevant CMI Offering.

Prospective investors should be aware that certain information may be disclosed by CMIs (including private banks) which is personal and/or confidential in nature to the prospective investor. By placing an order, prospective investors are deemed to have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by the relevant Dealer(s) and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Issuer, the Guarantor, any OCs, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, it being understood and agreed that such information shall only be used for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. Failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected.

You should read the entire Offering Circular, including the section entitled “Risk Factors” and our consolidated financial information and related notes thereto, before making an investment decision.

OVERVIEW

Established in 2012, we are the only red-chip listed company under CSSC Group. We stand as the premier shipyard-affiliated leasing company in Greater China and are among the foremost ship leasing companies in the world. Leveraging our close relationship with CSSC Group which possess robust industrial foundation and extensive maritime industry expertise, we are dedicated to expanding our leasing and investment operations in vessels and marine equipment, offering tailored and adaptable integrated shipping services, along with financial solutions, to ship operators, shippers, and traders worldwide.

Our core business is the provision of leasing services which include finance lease and operating lease. Leveraging our strong expertise in the marine industry, our leasing services primarily focus on ship leasing. In addition, we provide shipbroking and loan services to our customers. We have a diversified, modern and young vessel fleet. As at 30 June 2025, our fleet size was 143 vessels, including 121 vessels in operation and 22 vessels under construction. The average age of our vessels in operation was approximately 4.13 years. The average remaining life of the bareboat and long-term chartered projects (excluding current operational projects and leases expiring within one year) was 7.64 years. As at 30 June 2025, in terms of initial investment amount, offshore clean energy equipment, container vessels, liquid cargo vessels, bulk carriers and specialized vessels accounted for approximately 14.7%, 17.4%, 23.1%, 23.1% and 21.7% of our operating fleet portfolio, respectively. Leveraging our unique insights into the marine industry, we carefully allocate and adjust our fleet size, enabling our fleet stock to become more valuable and younger and fleet structure to be further optimized.

As a leading market player in the global ship leasing industry, we offer customized ship leasing solutions that are tailored to our customers’ different needs. In terms of the amount of leased vessels and lease contracts in 2024, we were ranked seventh in China’s ship leasing industry in terms of the total assets.

We have exerted notable influence in operating lease and finance lease industries by integrating ESG concepts into our business operations. Serving the national strategy of “clean energy”, we have built a high-tech fleet featuring clean energy offshore equipment. As of 31 December 2024, we received a total of 15 new vessels, including three 16,000 TEU container vessels, four 1,100 TEU container vessels, four 1,600 TEU container vessels, three 93,000 cubic meters VLGCs and one LR2 refined oil tanker. Through our persistent efforts and commitment to promote green energy, we are the first company in the leasing industry to build a complete offshore clean energy storage and transportation system. We also innovated green finance with the issuance of green and blue dual-certified U.S.$-denominated bonds. We won several awards under the Hong Kong Green and Sustainable Finance Awards from Hong Kong Quality Assurance Agency (HKQAA) in 2021 and 2023, including the Pioneering Award for ESG Disclosure Contribution in 2023. We were awarded a score of 45 from S&P CSA and an A ESG rating for 2024 from Wind. The ESG efforts were recognized by the SASAC, CSSC Group and other parties. The Company was included as an exemplary case in the “Central State-owned Enterprises Listed Companies ESG Blue Book 2024”.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our total revenue amounted to HK$3,208.2 million, HK$3,626.1 million, HK$4,034.4 (U.S.$513.9), HK$1,965.8 million and HK$2,018.0 (U.S.$257.1), respectively. The Notes will be issued in series (each a “Series”) having one or more issue dates and on terms otherwise identical (or identical other than in respect of the first payment of interest and/or the issue price), the Notes of each Series being intended to be interchangeable with all other Notes of that Series. Each Series may be issued in tranches (each a “Tranche”) on the same or different issue dates. The specific terms of each Tranche (which will be completed, where necessary, with the relevant terms (if applicable), the issue price, the first payment of interest on them, nominal amount of the Tranche and the timing for submission of the NDRC Post-Issue Filing and the timing for making the related notifications to the Trustee and the Noteholders thereof, will be identical to the terms of other Tranches of the same Series) will be completed in the Pricing Supplement.

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes will initially be in the form of either a Temporary Global Note or a Permanent Global Note, in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Each Tranche of Registered Notes will initially be represented by a Global Certificate.

Where TEFRA D is applicable, Bearer Notes must initially be issued in the form of a Temporary Global Note, exchangeable for Permanent Global Notes or Definitive Notes upon certification of non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

Clearing Systems

Clearstream, Euroclear, the CMU and, in relation to any Tranche, such other clearing system as may be selected by the Issuer and/or the Guarantor, and notified to the Trustee, the Issuing and Paying Agent or, as the case may be, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent and, if applicable, the Registrar.

Initial Delivery of Notes

On or before the issue date for each Tranche, the Global Note or Global Certificate representing the Notes may be deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream or deposited with a sub-custodian for the CMU. Global Notes or Global Certificates may also be deposited with any other clearing system or may be delivered outside any clearing system provided that the method of such delivery has been agreed in advance by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee, the Issuing and Paying Agent and the relevant Dealer(s). Registered Notes that are to be credited to one or more clearing systems on issue will be registered in the name of, or in the name of nominees or a common nominee for, such clearing systems.

Currencies	Subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives, Notes may be issued in any currency agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s).
Maturities	Subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives, any maturity as may be agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s).
Specified Denomination	Definitive Notes will be in such denominations as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, subject to compliance with all relevant laws, regulations and directives. Unless otherwise permitted by the then current laws and regulations, Notes (including Notes denominated in sterling) which have a maturity of less than one year and in respect of which the issue proceeds are to be accepted by the Issuer in the United Kingdom, or where the activity of issuing the Notes is carried on from an establishment maintained by the Issuer in the United Kingdom or whose issue otherwise constitutes a contravention of section 19 of the FSMA will have a minimum denomination of £100,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies).
Interest	Notes may be interest-bearing or non-interest bearing. Interest (if any) may accrue at a fixed rate or a floating rate or other variable rate or be index-linked and the method of calculating interest may vary between the issue date and the maturity date of the relevant Series.
Fixed Rate Notes	Fixed interest will be payable in arrear on such date or dates as may be agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s) and on redemption and will be calculated on the basis of such Day Count Fraction as may be agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s).

Floating Rate Notes

Floating Rate Notes will bear interest determined separately for each Series as follows:

- on the same basis as the floating rate under a notional interest rate swap transaction in the relevant Specified Currency governed by an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions; or
- by reference to EURIBOR, HIBOR, CNH HIBOR or SOFR (or such other benchmark as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement) as adjusted for any applicable margin; or
- on such other basis as may be agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s).

Interest periods will be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Zero Coupon Notes

Zero Coupon Notes may be issued at their nominal amount or at a discount to it and will not bear interest.

Dual Currency Notes

Index Linked Notes

Payments of principal in respect of Index Linked Redemption Notes or of interest in respect of Index Linked Interest Notes will be calculated by reference to such index and/or formula or to changes in prices of securities or commodities or to such other factors as the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer(s) may agree and as may be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Interest Periods and Interest Rates

The length of the interest periods for the Notes and the applicable interest rate or its method of calculation may differ from time to time or be constant for any Series. Floating Rate Notes and Index Linked Interest Notes may also have a maximum interest rate, a minimum interest rate, or both. The use of interest accrual periods permits the Notes to bear interest at different rates in the same interest period. All such information will be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

Redemption

The relevant Pricing Supplement will specify the basis for calculating the redemption amounts payable (detailed in a formula, index or otherwise). Unless permitted by then-current laws and regulations, Notes (including Notes denominated in sterling) which have a maturity of less than one year and in respect of which the issue proceeds are to be accepted by the Issuer in the United Kingdom or the activity of issuing the Notes is carried on from an establishment maintained by the Issuer in the United Kingdom or whose issue otherwise constitutes a contravention of section 19 of the FSMA must have a minimum redemption amount of £100,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies).

Optional Redemption

Notes may be redeemed before their stated maturity at the option of the Issuer (either in whole, if so provided in the relevant Pricing Supplement, or in part) and/or the Noteholders to the extent (if at all) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and as further described in Condition 6(e) and Condition 6(f), respectively, of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Issuer Residual Call Option

If Issuer Residual Call is specified as being applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement and, Notes may be redeemed prior to their stated maturity at the option of the Issuer at any time, the outstanding aggregate nominal amount of the Notes is five per cent. or less of the aggregate nominal amount of the Series issued, the Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time (if this Note is not a Floating Rate Note) or on any Interest Payment Date to the extent (if at all) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and as further described in Condition 6(f) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Issuer Maturity Call Option

If Issuer Maturity Call is specified as being applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Issuer may at its option, redeem all the Notes then outstanding, but not some only, on any Business Day during the period commencing on (and including) the day that is 30 days prior to the Maturity Date to (and excluding) the Maturity Date to the extent (if at all) specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement and as further described in Condition 6(g) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Redemption for a Change of Control

Following the occurrence of a Change of Control, any Noteholder will have the right, at such Noteholder's option, to require the Issuer to redeem all, but not some only, of such Noteholder's Note at 101 per cent. of their principal amount, together with any accrued interest, as further described in Condition 6(d) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Redemption for Taxation Reasons

Notes will be redeemable at the Issuer's option prior to maturity for taxation reasons as further described in Condition 6(c) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Status of Notes

The Notes and any Receipts and Coupons relating to them will constitute direct, unsubordinated, unconditional and (subject to Condition 4(a) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) unsecured obligations of the Issuer and will at all times rank pari passu and without any preference among themselves. The payment obligations of the Issuer under the Notes and the Receipts and the Coupons relating to them shall, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable laws and regulations and subject to Condition 4(a) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, at all times rank at least equally with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer.

Status of the Guarantee

The payment obligations of the Guarantor under the Guarantee shall, save for such exceptions as may be provided by applicable laws and regulations and subject to Condition 4(a) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, at all times rank at least equally with all other present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Guarantor.

Negative Pledge

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes will contain a negative pledge provision as further described in Condition 4(a) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Cross-Default

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes will contain a cross-default provision as described in Condition 10(c) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Withholding Tax

All payments of principal, premium (if any) and interest by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor in respect of the Notes, the Receipts and Coupons or under the Guarantee will be made without set-off or counterclaim and free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within the British Virgin Islands, Hong Kong or the PRC or any other jurisdiction to which the Issuer or the Guarantor becomes subject in respect of payments made by it of principal, premium and interest on the Notes, and in each case any political subdivision or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax, unless such set-off, counterclaim, withholding or deduction is required by law. The Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor will, subject to certain customary exceptions, pay such additional amounts so that the net amount received by Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders equals the amount which would otherwise have been receivable by them had no such set-off or counterclaim, or withholding or deduction been required as further described in Condition 8 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Ratings

The Programme has been assigned ratings of “A-” by Fitch and “A-” by S&P. Tranches of Notes will be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is to be rated, such rating will be specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction, revision or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

Governing Law and Jurisdiction

Listing and Admission to Trading

Application has been made to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the listing of the Programme under which Notes may be issued by way of debt issues to Professional Investors only during the 12-month period after the date of this Offering Circular on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

However, unlisted Notes and Notes to be listed, traded or quoted on or by any other competent authority, stock exchange or quotation system may be issued pursuant to the Programme. The relevant Pricing Supplement in respect of the issue of any Notes will specify whether or not such Notes will be listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or listed, traded or quoted on or by any other competent authority, exchange or quotation system.

Notes listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange are required to have a denomination of at least HK$500,000 (or its equivalent in other currencies).

Selling Restrictions

There are restrictions on the offer, sale and transfer of the Notes in the United States, the EEA, the United Kingdom, Japan, Hong Kong, the PRC, Singapore and the British Virgin Islands and such other restrictions as may be required in connection with the offering and sale of a particular Tranche of Notes, see “Subscription and Sale”.

Bearer Notes will be issued in compliance with rules in substantially the same form as TEFRA D unless (i) the relevant Pricing Supplement states that the Bearer Notes are issued in compliance with rules in substantially the same form as U.S. Treasury Regulation §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code (“TEFRA C”) or (ii) the Bearer Notes are issued other than in compliance with TEFRA D or TEFRA C. In the case of Bearer Notes, only Notes with a term of 365 days or less (taking into account any unilateral extensions and rollovers) will be issued other than in compliance with TEFRA D or TEFRA C and will be referred to in the relevant Pricing Supplement as a transaction to which the United States Tax Equity and Fiscal Responsibility Act of 1982 (“TEFRA”) is not applicable. Bearer Notes with a term of more than 365 days (taking into account any unilateral extensions and rollovers) that are held through the CMU must be issued in compliance with TEFRA C, unless at the time of issuance the CMU and CMU Lodging and Paying Agent have procedures in place so as to enable the Issuer to comply with the certification requirements under TEFRA D.

RISK FACTORS

Prior to making an investment decision, prospective investors should carefully consider the following risk factors, along with the other matters set out in this Offering Circular. PRC laws and regulations may differ from the laws and regulations in other countries. Additional risks not described below or not currently known to the Issuer or the Company or that the Issuer and the Company currently deem immaterial may also adversely affect the value of the Notes. The Issuer and the Company believe that the risk factors described below represent the principal risks inherent in investing in the Notes, but the inability of the Issuer to pay interest, principal or other amounts on or in connection with any Notes may occur for reasons which may not be considered as significant risks by the Issuer or the Company based on information currently available to it or which it may not currently be able to anticipate or which the Issuer or the Company may currently deem immaterial. All of these factors are contingencies which may or may not occur and none of the Issuer and the Company is in a position to express a view on the likelihood of any such contingency occurring. The Issuer and the Company do not represent that the statements below regarding the risk factors of holding any Notes are exhaustive. Prospective investors should also read the detailed information set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and reach their own views prior to making any investment decision.

Risks Relating to our Business

The value of our leased assets, and the other collateral or guarantees, may not be sufficient to compensate our loss.

As part of our risk management, we obtain ownership of the leased assets as security and/or require our customers to provide other collateral and guarantees (such as ship mortgage). In the event of a material breach by our customers, we are entitled to recover and dispose of the leased assets and/or enforce our security rights.

There is no assurance that the value of our leased assets, or the other collateral or guarantees, will be sufficient to compensate the loss that we may suffer as a result of our customers' default. The value of our leased assets or the other collateral or guarantees may significantly decline due to factors such as damage, wear and tear, age, excess market supply and reduced market demand. Any material deterioration in the business performance, financial condition and/or creditworthiness of our customers may also reduce the amount that we could recover. We cannot assure you that we will be able to obtain additional security from our customers in the event that the value of the leased assets, or the other collateral or guarantees, is insufficient to compensate our loss. Any decline in the value of our leased assets, or the other collateral or guarantees, or any failure to obtain additional security from our customers, may cause us to make additional allowance for or write off our non-performing assets, which may in turn materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Furthermore, given that we have no prior experience in enforcing our security rights against the collateral or guarantees, there is no assurance that we will be able to successfully enforce our security rights, or liquidate or otherwise realise the value of our leased assets upon our customers' default, in particular in circumstances where our security interests are subordinated to the rights of other third parties. The procedures for liquidating or otherwise realising the value of the collateral or guarantees may also be protracted. Any failure in realising the value of our leased assets, or the other collateral or guarantees, in a timely manner or at all may have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Fluctuations in interest rates may have an adverse impact on our business.

Our finance lease income is generally priced on a floating rate basis and with reference to Secured Overnight Financing Rate (“SOFR”) presently or London Interbank Offered Rate (“LIBOR”) historically. Our finance lease income increased from HK$784.5 million in 2022 to HK$1,171.8 million in 2023 and further to HK$1,219.7 million (U.S.$155.4 million) in 2024. Our finance lease income decreased from HK$619.9 million for the six months in 2024 to HK$550.0 million (U.S.$70.1 million) for the same period in 2025. Our interest income from loan borrowings is also subject to fluctuations in interest rates. Our interest income from loan borrowings increased from HK$524.0 million in 2022 to HK$606.1 million in 2023, and decreased to HK$545.2 million (U.S.$69.4 million) in 2024. Our interest income from loan borrowings decreased from HK$276.4 million for the six months in 2024 to HK$236.6 million (U.S.$30.1 million) or the same period in 2025. Fluctuations in interest rates are subject to a number of factors beyond our control, such as economic environment and monetary policies. Any decrease in interest rates may reduce the amount of finance lease income and interest income from loan borrowings that we receive from our customers.

In addition, any changes in interest rates may have an impact on our borrowing and debt financing costs. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our finance costs and bank charges amounted to HK$760.2 million, HK$1,106.3 million, HK$1,047.6 million (U.S.$133.4 million), HK$515.6 million and HK$416.0 million (U.S.$ 53.0 million), respectively. If interest rates follow a rising trend in the future, our finance costs will increase accordingly.

While our finance lease income and interest income from loan borrowings may be positively affected by the fluctuations in interest rates, any volatility in interest rates may also lead to an increase in our borrowing and debt financing costs, which shall have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

The regulation and reform of “benchmark” rates of interest and indices may adversely affect the value of bonds linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”.

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be or used as “benchmarks” are the subject of recent international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. For instance, LIBOR is being discontinued as a floating rate benchmark. The date of discontinuation will vary depending on the LIBOR currency and tenor. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past or to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any bonds linked to or referencing such a benchmark.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by any international reforms in making any investment decision with respect to any bonds linked to or referencing a benchmark.

Any payment default on the part of our customers may have an adverse impact on our results of operations.

Credit risk is one of our major risks. We cannot assure you that all our customers will be creditworthy or that they will fulfil their payment obligations. Any adverse changes in our customers' operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flow due to factors such as unfavourable industry or market developments as well as fluctuations in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and finance costs may affect their ability to fulfil their payment obligations to us in a timely manner. During the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024, our provision of impairment loss on loan and lease receivables was HK$90.3 million, HK$91.2 million, HK$447.0 million (U.S.$56.9 million) and HK$105.7 million, respectively, while we recorded reversal of impairment loss on loan and lease receivables of HK$132.3 million (U.S.$16.9 million) for the six months ended 30 June 2025, respectively. If our customers fail to make payment to us on time or if they default in their payments, our liquidity, cash flow, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected.

Furthermore, our credit risk assessment may be limited by the comprehensiveness, quality and reliability of the credit information available at the material time. If we fail to accurately identify all credit risks associated with our customers, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected.

Any significant deterioration in the quality of our loan receivables may materially and adversely affect our results of operations.

We are principally engaged in the provision of leasing and loan services, and our business growth is largely dependent on our ability to effectively manage and maintain the quality of our loan receivables. As at 30 June 2025, we made provision for impairment loss on loan receivables of HK$67.4 million (U.S.$8.6 million), which comprised 12-month expected credit loss of HK$61.9 million (U.S.$7.9 million) for assets under stage 1 and lifetime expected credit loss of HK$5.5 million (U.S.$0.7 million) and nil for assets under stage 2 and stage 3, respectively.

The quality of our loan receivables may deteriorate due to a number of reasons, such as global or regional economic slowdown, downturn, recession or instability, the occurrence of global financial or credit crisis and other factors beyond our control. Furthermore, any adverse changes in our customers' operations, financial condition, liquidity and cash flow may affect their ability to fulfil their payment obligations to us, thus resulting in an increase in our non-performing assets. These adverse changes may be due to factors such as unfavourable developments in the industries and markets in which our customers operate or are engaged, fluctuations in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and finance costs as well as an increase in operating costs. Any significant deterioration in the quality of our loan receivables may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Our historical financial and operating results may not be indicative of our future performance.

For the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our total revenue amounted to HK$3,208.2 million, HK$3,626.1 million, HK$4,034.4 million (U.S.$513.9 million), HK$1,965.8 million and HK$2,018.0 million (U.S.$257.1 million), respectively. For the same periods, our net profit was HK$1,734.5 million, HK$1,911.7 million, HK$2,155.1 million (U.S.$274.5 million), HK$1,339.9 million and HK$1,151.2 million (U.S.$146.6 million), respectively.

However, the trend of our historical financial information is a mere analysis of our past performance and does not have any positive implication on and may not necessarily reflect our future financial performance. There is no assurance that our short-term operating results are indication of our long-term prospects. There is also no assurance that our revenue and net profit will continue to achieve a similar level of growth rate in the future.

We relied on our major customers in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025.

Our customers generally include ship operators, shipbuilders and trading companies. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, our top five customers accounted for 49.7%, 51.8%, 48.9% and 54.6% of our total revenue, respectively. See “Description of the Group – Our Customers” in this Offering Circular for further details.

Any deterioration in the operating conditions or financial performance of our major customers may result in a delay and/or default in their payments to us. If any of our major customers fails to make timely payment to us or if they default in their payment obligations to us, our liquidity, cash flow, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be adversely affected.

The value, lease rates and utilisation rates of our leased assets may significantly decline.

Our leased assets primarily include vessels. In addition to the factors relating to or affecting the entire marine industry, the value, lease rates and utilisation rates of our leased assets may decline due to a variety of factors, including but not limited to (i) the history and documented records of maintenance and operation; (ii) the age of the leased assets; (iii) the introduction or availability of more advanced marine technology; (iv) the regulatory regime in relation to the sale, purchase and/or re-leasing of leased assets; and (v) the market value of comparable assets. Any significant decline in the market value of our leased assets will impact their lease rates and utilisation rates, reduce the proceeds that we may receive from their sale as well as increase pressure on our attempts to sell or lease them.

Our lessees may not properly maintain or sufficiently insure our leased assets.

Under our leasing arrangements, our lessees are generally responsible for the maintenance and insurance of the leased assets during the lease term. There is no assurance that our lessees will, upon expiry of the lease term, return to us the leased assets in satisfactory condition. If our lessees fail to perform their maintenance obligations under the lease agreements or otherwise properly maintain the leased assets, we may have to incur substantial costs to restore these assets to an acceptable condition. The market value of such assets may also decrease due to their unsatisfactory condition, and we may not be able to re-lease or sell them on favourable terms. Any of the aforesaid circumstances may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Furthermore, although our lessees are generally required under the lease agreements to obtain specified levels of insurance for and insure against losses resulting from the operation of the leased assets, there is no assurance that they will maintain adequate insurance coverage throughout the lease term or that they will pay the insurance premium in a timely manner. Inadequate insurance coverage or the failure to make timely premium payment will reduce the insurance proceeds that we may receive when we suffer a loss as a result of any damage to or our lessees' operation of the leased assets.

Our assets have finite economic useful lives and their value will depreciate over time.

Our assets primarily include vessels. Vessels are long-life assets and are subject to the risk of becoming obsolete, particularly if unanticipated events occur and shorten their economic useful lives. These events include but are not limited to (i) introduction of newer or more advanced models; (ii) changes in market demand or preferences; and (iii) changes in the regulatory framework or industry standards over marine safety and technical standards. If our existing vessels and those on order become obsolete, their selling price or lease rates may significantly decline, and our depreciation expenses or impairment charges may increase.

The value of our vessels depreciates and their demand decreases as they age. They also typically generate lower revenue and cash flow. If we are unable to replace our older vessels with newer models in a timely manner, our asset portfolio may become relatively less attractive and our competitiveness may weaken. Furthermore, if we sell any of our assets at a price lower than its depreciated book value, we may recognise a loss on such sale, which may materially and adversely affect our results of operations for the period in which such loss is recognised. Any of the aforesaid circumstances may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

We are exposed to foreign exchange risks.

During the course of our business, we hold a relatively small portion of our monetary funds in Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi and Euros. As such, we are exposed to foreign currency risks as a result of fluctuations in the exchange rate of Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi and Euros. For the six months ended 30 June 2025, our net foreign exchange gain recognised in the condensed consolidated income statement amounted to HK$147.7 million (U.S.$18.8 million). In the event of a significant change in the exchange rate of Hong Kong dollars, Renminbi and Euros or if our holdings of monetary funds in such currencies increase, we may record substantial foreign exchange loss, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Our derivative financial instruments may materially and adversely affect our financial condition.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we purchased a number of derivative financial instruments to manage the fluctuations in exchange rates and interest rates. In the six months ended 30 June 2025, we had net loss recorded in the other comprehensive income due to changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments which qualified for hedging purposes of HK$40.8 million (U.S.$5.2 million).

Derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which they are entered into, and are subsequently re-measured at fair value. Any gain or loss arising from changes in the fair value of our derivative financial instruments that do not qualified for hedging purpose is directly recognised in our consolidated income statements. While we purchase derivative financial instruments for risk management and not speculative purposes, we will incur gain or loss as a result of changes in the fair value of derivative financial instruments. Such treatment of gain or loss may therefore cause volatility in our period-to-period earnings, and may have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. Furthermore, our financial performance may be affected by the fair value of financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as well as valuation uncertainty due to the use of unobservable inputs.

Our business operations require substantial capital resources and we may not be able to obtain adequate financing for our business in the future.

Since we are principally engaged in the provision of leasing and loan services, which are capital intensive in nature, we require substantial working capital for our daily operations. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we partially utilised cash generated from our borrowings to maintain our cash flow and finance our capital expenditure. As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, our total bank borrowings amounted to HK$17,611.7 million, HK$18,436.0 million, HK$12,829.3 million (U.S.$1,634.3 million) and HK$13,889.1 million (U.S.$1,769.3 million), respectively.

In order to cope with our business growth, we expect that we will incur additional indebtedness in the future. Our ability to raise additional capital will depend on, among others, our business performance, market conditions and overall economic climate, and may be restricted by the restrictive covenants to which we may be subject under certain financial instruments. There is no assurance that we will be able to obtain bank borrowings and other external financing or resources on commercially acceptable terms or in a timely manner in the future. If we are unable to obtain the necessary financing or if we fail to obtain such financing on favourable terms due to factors beyond our control, we may be forced to curtail our expansion plans, and our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our indebtedness may have a negative impact on our liquidity.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, our total bank borrowings amounted to HK$17,611.7 million, HK$18,436.0 million, HK$12,829.3 million (U.S.$1,634.3 million) and HK$13,889.1 million (U.S.$1,769.3 million), respectively. As at 30 June 2025, our bonds amounted to HK$10,369.8 million (U.S.$1,321.0 million).

Our level of indebtedness may (i) require us to allocate a higher portion of our cash flow from operations for the repayment of bank borrowings (including interest thereon), which may reduce the availability of our cash flow from operations to fund our working capital and capital expenditure and for other general corporate purposes; (ii) increase our vulnerability to adverse economic, industry and market conditions; (iii) limit our ability to pursue additional debt financing; (iv) reduce our flexibility in planning for or responding to changes in our business or the industry in which we operate; and (v) potentially restrict us from pursuing business opportunities. Furthermore, some of our creditors are entitled to, under certain financing agreements, require us to repay our debts early if any of the prepayment events occurs or arises. If we are required to repay our debts early, our liquidity, cash flow, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our provision for impairment loss on loan receivables may not be adequate to cover our credit loss.

We make reversal of and provision for impairment loss on loan receivables in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards. As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2024 and 2025, we had provision for impairment loss on loan receivables of HK$141.2 million, HK$90.6 million, HK$72.1 million (U.S.$9.2 million), HK$64.8 million and HK$67.4 million (U.S.$8.6 million), respectively.

The amount of our provision for impairment loss on loan receivables is determined based on our internal provisioning policies and guidelines, taking into account considerations such as the operating and financial condition of our customers, our customers' creditworthiness, the nature and characteristics of the industry in which our customers operate, general economic and market conditions as well as the value of the underlying collateral and guarantees. In addition, our asset quality classification system and asset impairment loss provision policies may be different from those adopted by other leasing corporations or financial institutions. As the assessment of future credit risks involves significant judgement and estimation, we may underestimate such risks and our provision for impairment loss on loan receivables may not be adequate to cover our actual credit loss. If we are required to make additional provision for impairment loss on loan receivables, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Our short operating history may make the evaluation of our business and prospects difficult.

Our Group was established in 2012. Because of our relatively limited operating history, our past performance may not be indicative of our future performance, and there is no assurance that we will be able to maintain or achieve the same business growth in the future. In addition, because of (i) our relatively short operating history; (ii) the fact that our leasing projects are generally long-term projects ranging from five to 15 years, we have limited track record of completed projects, which may prevent you from having sufficient basis to fully assess our capabilities in managing, among others, the entire project cycle and our cash flow. We also have no prior experience in enforcing our security rights over the collateral or guarantees or foreclosing the leased assets. As a result, there may not be an adequate basis upon which our future results of operations and prospects could be evaluated. You should evaluate our business and prospects in light of the risks, uncertainties and challenges that we will face as a relatively young leasing service provider.

Our cash flow position may deteriorate because of potential mismatch in the time between cash inflows and cash outflows.

Our ability to repay our bank borrowings and to fund our vessel acquisitions depends to a certain extent on the level of our lease income and operating cash flow. According to Frost & Sullivan, as an industry norm, companies engaging in the provision of leasing services typically generate cash inflows to service the cash outflows for the repayment of bank borrowings and the purchase of vessels, and may have a mismatch in the time between cash inflows and cash outflows. There is no assurance that our business will generate steady and sufficient cash inflows to service the cash outflows for the repayment of bank borrowings and the purchase of vessels. There is also no assurance that our customers will make lease payment to us promptly. In circumstances of a mismatch in the time between cash inflows and cash outflows, we may not have sufficient cash flows and financial resources to repay our bank borrowings or fund our purchase of vessels, which may hinder our business development and the implementation of our future plans. We may also need to obtain additional bank borrowings to meet our payment obligations. Any significant cash flow mismatch may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

For the year ended 31 December 2022 and 2024 and for the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, we recorded net cash generated from operating activities of HK$3,844.7 million, HK$6,768.3 million (U.S.$862.2 million), HK$4,273.1 million and HK$1,320.3 million (U.S.$168.2 million), respectively, while we recorded net cash used in operating activities of HK$452.2 million for the year ended 31 December 2023. There is no assurance that we will not record negative operating cash flow in the future. If we record negative operating cash flow in the future, the working capital for our operations may be constrained, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

We generated a portion of our net profit from non-recurring profit items in the six months ended 30 June 2025.

In the six months ended 30 June 2025, our share of results of joint ventures amounted to HK$131.3 million (U.S.$16.7 million) representing 11.4% of our net profit for the same period. We cannot assure that such non-recurring gains will recur in the future. If such non-recurring gains do not recur in the future, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Failure to retain the services of our key personnel may materially and adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our success to date has largely been attributable to the contributions of our management team and key personnel. We rely on their substantial experience and specialised expertise in the leasing and/or marine industry to, among others, effectively manage our asset portfolio, continuously monitor our risk exposure as well as formulate and implement our business strategies. If we lose our key management personnel without a suitable and timely replacement or if we lose them to our competitors, our competitiveness, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, our future growth and ability to implement our business strategies will depend on, among others, the successful recruitment and retention of experienced employees. We cannot assure you that we will be able to hire or retain such employees, and the failure to do so may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

There is no assurance that our risk management and internal control systems will effectively reduce our risk exposure and ensure compliance.

In order to monitor our risk exposure and ensure overall compliance, we have established certain risk management and internal control policies and procedures. However, there is no assurance that our risk management and internal control systems, policies and procedures are adequate or effective in mitigating our risk exposure and protecting us against unidentified, unforeseeable or unanticipated risks. There is also no assurance that the implementation of our risk management and internal control systems, policies and procedures will not involve human errors or mistakes. In particular, the assessment of our risk exposure may depend on our management's evaluation of market information and industry conditions, which may not be accurate, complete, up-to-date or properly analysed.

Any potential deficiency in our risk management and internal control systems or any failure in properly implementing the relevant policies and procedures may prevent us from effectively mitigating our risk exposure and promptly detecting instances of non-compliance, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operation, financial condition and prospects.

Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient to cover all risks involved in our business operations.

We have taken out insurance policies to cover certain risks generally associated with our business operations. There is no assurance that our current insurance coverage will be able to cover all types of risks involved in our business operations, or be sufficient to cover the full extent of losses, damages or liabilities arising therefrom. If we suffer any losses, damages or liabilities in the course of our business operations arising from events for which we do not have any or adequate insurance coverage, we will have to bear all or a certain portion of such losses, damages or liabilities. In such circumstances, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

In addition, there is no assurance that our insurance premium will not increase or that we will not be required by law to obtain additional insurance coverage in the future. Any increase in insurance costs may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Any disruption, malfunction or breakdown of our information technology infrastructure systems may interrupt our business operations.

Our business operations depend on the satisfactory performance, stability and reliability of our information technology infrastructure and related proprietary software. However, our information technology infrastructure and related proprietary software may experience disruption, malfunction, breakdown or other performance issues due to reasons such as (i) increasing pressure on our servers and network capacities as a result of growing customer base and expanding operations; (ii) undetected programming errors, bugs, flaws, corrupted data or other defects; (iii) hacking or other attacks on our network infrastructure and system programmes; and (iv) floods, fires, extreme temperatures, power loss, telecommunications failures, technical error, computer viruses or similar events. Any disruption, malfunction, breakdown or other performance issues of our information technology infrastructure and related proprietary software may significantly disrupt our business operations and reduce our work efficiency, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Our controlling shareholders are able to exercise significant influence over us.

CSSC International and CSSC Group are our controlling shareholders and are interested in approximately 74% of our Company's issued share capital as at the date of this Offering Circular. Subject to our Articles of Association and the applicable laws and regulations, our controlling shareholders will continue to have the ability to exercise significant influence on our business and operations by, among others, controlling the composition of our Board, determining the timing and amount of our dividend payments, approving significant corporate transactions (including mergers and acquisitions), approving our annual budgets and taking other actions that require shareholders' approval.

There is no assurance that CSSC Group will continue to support us, and any changes in its control over us may have a material adverse effect on our business.

As the sole leasing company under CSSC Group, we have been enjoying strong support from CSSC Group. See "Summary – Our Strengths" and "Summary – Our Strategies" in this Offering Circular for details. Although, CSSC Group will not provide any guarantee or any form of credit enhancement for the offering of the Note under the Programme and it has no obligation to and will not assist the Issuer or us to repay the Notes, if CSSC Group ceases to support us, our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected. In particular, some of our financing agreements require CSSC Group to remain as our controlling shareholder. In the event that CSSC Group ceases to be our controlling shareholder, our credit rating may decline and our finance costs may increase.

We may be adversely affected as a result of our provision of services that are connected to certain countries or persons that are, or become subject to, sanctions administered by the United States, the European Union, the United Nations, Australia and other relevant sanctions authorities.

The United States and other jurisdictions or organisations, including the European Union, the United Nations and Australia, have, through executive order, passing of legislation or other governmental means, implemented measures that impose economic sanctions against such countries or against targeted industry sectors, groups of companies or persons, and/or organisations within such countries.

In the first half of 2019, we entered into sale-and-leaseback transactions in respect of two vessels with a customer based in Hong Kong (the “HK Customer”). The HK Customer then chartered the vessels to the sub-charterer incorporated in France (the “Sub-charterer”) for the purpose of delivering certain products for a construction project in Russia. Russia, as well as certain industry sectors and other persons located in Russia, is subject to various sanctions programmes administered by, among others, the United States and the European Union. The construction project in Russia is owned by a joint venture (the “Russian Joint Venture”). In 2019 and 2020, one of the joint venture parties (the “Russian Joint Venture Partner”) was subject to targeted sanctions. However, our customer in the transactions relating to these two vessels was the HK Customer, and except for this sub-chartering arrangement by the HK Customer, we are not aware of any other back-to-back transactions, payments or arrangements of any kind, in USD or otherwise, among the Russian Joint Venture Partner, the Russian Joint Venture, the Sub-charterer and the HK Customer. As at the date of this Offering Circular, the above sale-and-leaseback transactions have been terminated.

We will not use the proceeds from the offering of the Notes under the Programme, as well as any other funds raised through the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, to finance or facilitate, directly or indirectly, activities or business with, or for the benefit of, any Countries subject to international sanctions or any other government, individual or entity sanctioned by the United States, the European Union, the United Nations or Australia, including, without limitation, any government, individual or entity that is the subject of any OFAC-administered sanctions or on the “Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons” list (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/sdnlist.pdf>). Further, we will not use the proceeds from the offering of the Notes under the Programme to pay any damages for terminating or transferring any contract that violates International Sanctions. While we have implemented internal control measures to minimise our risk exposure to International Sanctions, sanctions laws and regulations are constantly evolving, and new persons and entities are regularly added to the list of sanctioned persons. Furthermore, new requirements or restrictions could come into effect which might increase the scrutiny on our business or result in one or more of our business activities being deemed to have violated sanctions. Our business and reputation could be adversely affected if the authorities of United States, the European Union, the United Nations, Australia or any other jurisdictions were to determine that any of our future activities constitutes a violation of the sanctions they impose or provides a basis for a sanctions designation of our Group.

Our controlling shareholder, CSSC Group, is subject to certain Executive Orders issued by the United States.

Since 2018, the U.S.-China trade war has brought uncertainty to global markets and to a certain extent, impacted businesses and financial market sentiment, influenced financial market volatility, and slowed investment and trade. The continued intensification of tensions between the U.S. and China has caused the U.S. government to focus on national security concerns and increase scrutiny of foreign businesses, particularly those businesses that are owned or controlled by the PRC's "military-industrial complex." The CSSC Group is designated by the Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC") of the U.S. Department of the Treasury on the Non-SDN Chinese Military-Industrial Complex Companies ("NS-CMIC") List pursuant to Executive Order 13959 and Executive Order 14302, as amended (the "Executive Orders"). Under the Executive Orders, U.S. persons (as defined in the Executive Orders), are prohibited from buying and selling (subject to a divestment period) publicly traded securities or any publicly traded securities that are derivative of such securities or are designed to provide investment exposure to such securities of the CSSC Group. As of the date of this Offering Circular, the Company is not named on the NS-CMIC and, as such, the restriction does not apply to the Company. Investors who are considered as U.S. persons for purposes of the Executive Orders should nonetheless consider whether this is an appropriate investment. CSSC Group is also listed on the DOD List released by the U.S. Department of Defense, please refer to "Risks Relating to the Industry – Changes in international policies with regard to China may adversely impact our business and operating results" for details.

Should there be any further escalation of the U.S.-China tensions in the future, the U.S. government may impose further sanctions and/or restrictions on the CSSC Group and/or its subsidiaries, including the Company, which would enhance prohibition of transactions by the sanctioned entity through the U.S. financial system and blocking sanctions. The CSSC Group has been closely monitoring the development of the Executive Orders and other similar laws, acts and regulations, and actively implementing corresponding mitigation measures in response to the latest development of such situations. However, there can be no assurance that any potential restrictions or sanctions on the CSSC Group, the Company and/or its subsidiaries or affiliate will not materially and adversely affect the business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations of the CSSC Group, the Company and/or its subsidiaries or affiliate and their future business expansion in the overseas markets (including the U.S).

We may not be able to detect or prevent breach of law, fraud or other misconduct committed by our employees or third parties.

Breach of law, fraud or other misconduct by our employees (such as unauthorized business transactions and bribery) or by third parties is difficult to detect or prevent, and may subject us to substantial liabilities, financial loss and administrative penalties. It may also subject us to sanctions imposed by government authorities, which may damage our reputation as well as impair our ability to attract prospective customers, obtain financing on favourable terms and conduct our business activities. If we fail to detect or prevent any such instances in a timely manner or at all, our reputation, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects may be materially and adversely affected.

Legal disputes or proceedings may expose us to liabilities, divert our management's attention and adversely impact our reputation.

During the ordinary course of our business operations, we may be involved in legal disputes or proceedings relating to, among other things, contractual disputes and employees' claims. Such legal disputes or proceedings may subject us to substantial liabilities and may have a material and adverse effect on our reputation, business operations, financial condition and prospects.

If we become involved in material or protracted legal proceedings or other legal disputes in the future, we may need to incur substantial legal costs and our management may need to devote significant time and attention to handle such proceedings and disputes, which may divert their attention from our business operations. In addition, the outcome of such proceedings or disputes may be uncertain and could result in settlement or outcomes which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

We may not be able to adequately protect our intellectual property rights and may be exposed to third-party claims of infringement or misappropriation of intellectual property rights.

Our intellectual property rights comprise our domain name. See “Description of the Group – Intellectual Property” for more details. We cannot assure you that the steps we have taken to protect and safeguard our intellectual property rights are adequate, or that our intellectual property rights will not be infringed by any third party in the future. Any unauthorised use of our intellectual property rights may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects. We may resort to legal proceedings in order to protect and enforce our intellectual property rights, and the legal fees and expenses involved in such proceedings can be substantial. Furthermore, the diversion of resources and our management’s effort and attention in addressing such intellectual property claims may significantly affect our operations and hinder our business development.

The success of our business also depends on our ability to operate without infringing on third-party intellectual property rights. We may be subject to litigation involving claims of violation of third parties’ intellectual property rights. The defence of intellectual property lawsuits and related legal and administrative proceedings can be costly and time consuming. An adverse judgement in any such proceedings may result in substantial liabilities, which may materially and adversely affect our reputation, business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

There is no assurance that our business strategies and future plans will be successfully implemented.

The successful implementation of our business strategies and future plans may be hindered by risks set out in this section and is subject to numerous factors, including but not limited to our ability to (i) retain our major customers and broaden our customer base; (ii) manage the quality of our leased assets; (iii) monitor and reduce our risk exposure; and (iv) raise additional funds to support our business expansion. There is no assurance that we will be able to successfully implement our business strategies or future plans. Even if our business strategies or future plans are implemented, there is no assurance that they will increase our market share or enhance our market position.

In addition, the continued expansion of our business may place significant strain on our managerial, operational and financial resources. We may not be able to successfully manage the growth of our business despite the adoption of various measures, such as recruiting additional staff members to oversee our operations and increasing our working capital to support our business. There is no assurance that we will achieve the intended growth of our business or that our business will be profitable.

Risks Relating to the Industry

The marine industry is highly cyclical, which may have a material impact on our business.

The marine industry is highly cyclical. As we are a leasing service provider primarily focusing on ship leasing, our business may be materially and adversely affected by the marine cycle. The state of the marine cycle may be affected by a number of factors, such as global and regional economic and political conditions, developments in international trade, demand for and supply of marine services, number and types of vessels available globally, delivery of new buildings and retirement of older units, introduction of new marine technologies, changes in seaborne transportation and energy patterns, changes in the regulatory regimes governing the marine industry as well as vessels, fluctuations in foreign exchange and interest rates, ship financing costs, fuel prices, as well as extreme weather conditions. We cannot predict the impact that changes in the marine cycle may have on our business. Any adverse changes in the marine cycle may significantly reduce the demand for leasing services, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Our business may be affected by the macro-economic environment in Hong Kong and elsewhere in the world.

Our business performance is largely affected by the macro-economic environment and market conditions in Hong Kong and elsewhere in the world. Any adverse changes in the macro-economic environment and market conditions, such as economic slowdown, downturn or recession, the occurrence of global financial or credit crisis, negative market outlook as well as fluctuations in interest rates, foreign exchange rates and finance costs, may reduce the demand for leasing services, increase our customers' risk of default, restrict our access to financial resources as well as increase our finance cost. Any of the aforesaid circumstances may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

The outlook for the world economy and financial markets remains uncertain. In Europe, several countries are facing difficulties in refinancing sovereign debt. In the United States, the recovery in the housing market remains subdued. In Asia and other emerging markets, some countries are expecting increasing inflationary pressure as a consequence of liberal monetary policy or excessive foreign fund inflow, or both. In addition, China's economic growth may also slow down due to weakened exports as a result of tariffs and trade tensions caused by the U.S.-China trade war. In 2018 and 2019, the U.S. government, under the administration of President Donald J. Trump, imposed several rounds of tariffs on Chinese products. In retaliation, the Chinese government responded with tariffs on U.S. products. Political tensions between the U.S. and China have further escalated due to, among other things, trade disputes, tensions over Taiwan, and various restrictions related to the Chinese semiconductor industry imposed by the U.S. government. Furthermore, in September 2024, the United States implemented tariff increases on certain goods and technologies imported from China, including electric vehicles, chips, battery technologies, solar panels, certain medical equipment and other goods. In addition, on February 1, 2025, President Trump issued an executive order imposing a 10% tariff on imports from China, which was amended on March 3, 2025, raising tariffs on imports from China to 20%. More recently, on April 2, 2025, President Trump imposed an additional 34% tariff on all imports from China, which was subsequently increased to 125% on April 9, 2025. On May 12, 2025, the United States and China agreed to drastically roll back tariffs on each other's goods for an initial 90-day period. In August 2025, the tariff truce was extended for another 90 days until November 2025. It is uncertain if the United States may take further actions to eliminate perceived unfair competitive advantages. These policies have adversely affected the global economy and financial markets, such as significant declines in the global stock markets.

Although there have been positive signs of progress on trade negotiations, the roadmap to the comprehensive resolution remains unclear, and the lasting impact the trade war may have on China's economy and the industries in which we operate remains uncertain. Additionally, the U.S. government is now undergoing an administration change and it remains uncertain what the new administration's trade policy with China will be going forward. Should the trade war between the United States and the PRC begin to materially impact the PRC economy, the purchasing power of our customers in the PRC would be negatively affected.

Changes in international policies with regard to China may adversely impact our business and operating results.

Since 2018, the U.S. government has made statements and taken certain actions that may lead to changes to U.S. and international policies, including imposing tariffs affecting a variety of products manufactured in China or threatening to sanction certain companies with connections with China. It is unknown whether and to what extent new tariffs (or other new laws or regulations) will be adopted, or the effect that any such actions would have on us or our industry. There is also a concern that the imposition of additional tariffs by the United States could result in the adoption of tariffs by other countries as well. Any unfavourable government policies on international trade, such as capital controls or tariffs, may affect the demand for our business, impact the competitive position of our market position or prevent us from being able to operate business in certain countries. If any of these new tariffs, legislation and/or regulations are implemented, or if existing trade agreements are renegotiated or, in particular, if the U.S. government takes retaliatory trade actions due to the recent U.S.-China trade tension, such changes could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations.

In addition, the U.S. Department of Defense released a list of certain Chinese companies (including the Company's controlling shareholder, CSSC Group, and a fellow subsidiary of the Company's controlling shareholder) under the list of Chinese military companies operating directly or indirectly in the United States in accordance with the statutory requirement of Section 1260H of the National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2021 (the "DOD" List), claiming that the companies are Communist Chinese military companies. The list was based on the U.S. government's intelligence, and determined that the companies therein are controlled by the Chinese military. Currently, inclusion on the DOD List will impose both direct and indirect restrictions on the ability of the U.S. Department of Defense to enter into contracts for the procurement of goods, services or technology with the CSSC Group (and entities under its control). It is not possible to predict with certainty what additional restrictions or consequences may result from inclusion on the DOD List, if any, may arise in the future, or what impact such developments could have on our business. As at the date of the Offering Circular, the Company's payment and collection of funds is conducted as usual.

The global leasing industry is increasingly competitive.

The global leasing industry is becoming more competitive. The global ship leasing industry is relatively fragmented. Due to the nature of our business, we compete with Hong Kong, PRC and overseas leasing companies, whether state-owned, bank-affiliated or independent. These competitors may have a longer operating history, be larger in terms of business scale and enjoy more financial, operational and management resources than we do. They may also be able to tolerate a higher level of risk exposure, obtain financing at a lower cost, offer more favourable lease terms to customers and establish stronger relationship with customers. If we fail to withstand the intense competition in the industry or compete effectively with our competitors, our market position may weaken, which may materially and adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Any changes in the leasing regulatory regime in Hong Kong and the PRC may have a material and adverse impact on our business operations.

The provision of leasing services in the PRC is subject to certain laws and regulations. See “PRC Regulations” in this Offering Circular for further details. The government authorities in the PRC underwent a series of regulatory body reforms in 2018, pursuant to which the responsibilities of formulating the rules in relation to the operations of and supervision over leasing companies will be transferred from the Ministry of Commerce of the PRC to the China Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission. There is no assurance that the governments of Hong Kong and the PRC will not tighten their control over the leasing industry or impose additional or stricter laws, rules, regulations, policies or administrative measures in relation to the provision of leasing services in the future. Any changes in the regulatory framework may render it more restrictive for us to conduct our business. There is also no assurance that we will be able to adapt to such changes in a timely manner. In addition, compliance with such new Laws, rules, regulations, policies or administrative measures may significantly increase our operating costs, which may lower our profitability and have a material adverse impact on our business, results of operations, financial condition and prospects.

Our results of operations may be affected by social and political instability as well as the occurrence of epidemics and natural disasters.

Any social or political unrest, wars, acts of terrorism and other instability in Hong Kong, the PRC or other parts of the world may disrupt our business operations and have a material adverse impact on our business performance. In addition, our business may be affected by major natural disasters, such as typhoon, floods, windstorms and earthquakes, or widespread outbreaks of infectious diseases in Hong Kong, the PRC or any other parts of the world. Past occurrences of epidemics, depending on their scale of occurrence, have caused different degrees of damage to national and local economies. Outbreaks of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome (SARS), influenza A (H1N1), avian flu (H5N1), Ebola virus or Middle East Respiratory Syndrome (MERS), COVID-19 and other epidemics, in Hong Kong, the PRC or any other parts of the world may cause disruption of regional or national economic activities, which may affect or interrupt our business activities in the affected areas.

Similarly, war, terrorist activity, threat of war or terrorist activity, social unrest and the corresponding heightened travel security measures instituted in response to such events, as well as geopolitical uncertainty and international conflict and tension, would affect economic development. In turn, there could be a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

RISKS RELATING TO THE PRC

Changes in the economic, political and social conditions in the PRC may have a material adverse effect on the Group’s business, results of operations and financial condition.

The PRC economy differs from the economies in developed countries in many respects, including the degree of government involvement, control of capital investment, as well as the overall level of development. The Group believes the PRC Government has indicated its commitment to the continued reform of the economic system as well as the structure of the government. The PRC Government’s reform policies have emphasised the independence of enterprises and the use of market mechanisms. Since the introduction of these reforms, significant progress has been achieved in economic development, and enterprises have enjoyed an improved environment for their development. However, any changes in the political, economic or social conditions in the PRC may have a material adverse effect on the Group's present and future business operations.

Under the Enterprise Income Tax law, the Issuer (or any other overseas entity of the Group) may be treated as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC tax purposes, which will subject it to PRC enterprise income tax on its worldwide income and may subject non-PRC resident investors in the Notes to PRC withholding taxes on interest payments and any gains derived on a transfer of the Notes.

Under the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law (中華人民共和國企業所得稅法), which became effective on 1 January 2008 and was amended on 29 December 2018 and the Implementing Regulations of the PRC Enterprise Income Tax Law (Revised in 2019) (together, the “EIT Law”), enterprises organised under the laws of jurisdictions outside the PRC with their “de facto management bodies” located within the PRC are deemed to be “resident enterprises for PRC tax purposes”, meaning that they are treated in a manner similar to PRC enterprises for enterprise income tax purposes, and therefore subject to PRC enterprise income tax at the rate of 25 per cent. on their worldwide income (although dividends paid from one resident to another may qualify as “tax-exempt income”). The Implementing Regulation defines the term “de facto management body” as a management body that exercises substantial and overall control and management over the production and operations, personnel, accounting and properties of an enterprise. A circular issued by the State Administration of Taxation on 22 April 2009 provides that a foreign enterprise controlled by a PRC company or a PRC company group will be classified as a “resident enterprise” with a “de facto management body” located within the PRC if all of the following requirements are satisfied: (i) the senior management and core management departments in charge of daily operations are located mainly within the PRC; (ii) financial and human resources decisions are subject to determination or approval by persons or bodies in the PRC; (iii) major assets, accounting books, company seals and minutes and files of board and shareholders’ meeting are located or kept within the PRC; and (iv) at least half of the enterprise’s directors with voting rights or senior management reside within the PRC. The State Administration of Taxation issued the Circular on Income Tax for Chinese-Controlled Enterprises Registered Abroad as Resident Enterprises (境外註冊中資控股居民企業所得稅管理辦法(試行)), which became effective on 1 September 2011 and was amended on 15 June 2018, and which provides that a foreign enterprise controlled by a PRC company or a PRC company group shall be deemed a “resident enterprise” either by a final decision of the State Administration of Taxation if the foreign enterprise applies for such determination or by an investigation by the relevant tax authorities.

The Group confirms that, as at the date of this Offering Circular, none of its overseas entities, including the Issuer, has been treated as a PRC resident enterprise by the PRC tax authorities. There is however no assurance that the Issuer or other overseas entities in the Parent Group will not be treated as “resident enterprises” under the EIT Law, any aforesaid circulars or any amended regulations in the future. If the Issuer is treated as a PRC resident enterprise for PRC enterprise income tax purpose, among other things, it would be subject to the PRC enterprise income tax at the rate of 25 per cent. on its worldwide income. Furthermore, if the Issuer were treated as a PRC resident enterprise, payments of interest by the Issuer may be regarded as income derived from sources within the PRC and therefore the Issuer may be obligated to withhold PRC income tax at 10 per cent. on payments of interest on the Notes to non-PRC resident enterprise Noteholders. In the case of non-PRC resident individual Noteholders, the tax may be withheld at a rate of 20 per cent. In addition, if the Issuer were treated as a PRC resident enterprise, any gain realised on the transfer of the Notes by non-PRC resident Noteholders may be regarded as income derived from sources within the PRC and may be subject to PRC income tax of 10 per cent. (in the case of non-PRC resident enterprises) or 20 per cent. (in the case of non-PRC resident individuals). According to the Protocol IV to the Arrangement between the Mainland and the Hong Kong for the Avoidance of Double Taxation and the Prevention of Fiscal Evasion with Respect to Taxes on Income (《內地和香港特別行政區關於對所得避免雙重徵稅和防止偷漏稅的安排》第四議定書), certain qualified Noteholders who are Hong Kong residents may be exempted from PRC income tax on capital gains derived from a sale or exchange of the Notes.

Furthermore, if the Issuer is considered to be a PRC resident enterprise, interest payments on the Notes that are consequently deemed to be derived from sources within the PRC may be subject to PRC value added tax (“VAT”) at a rate of six per cent., plus local levies, which tax may be withheld at source.

In addition, in the event that the Company is considered to be a PRC resident enterprise and is required to fulfill its obligations under the Guarantee by making interest payments on behalf of the Issuer, the Company will be obliged to withhold PRC enterprise income tax at a rate of 10 per cent. on such payments to non-resident enterprise Noteholders and 20 per cent. for non-resident individual Noteholders if such interest payments are deemed to be derived from sources within the PRC. Such guarantor may also be required to withhold VAT from payments of interest, at the above-mentioned rate. Any PRC income tax liability may be reduced by an applicable income tax treaty.

If the Issuer or the Guarantor is required to withhold PRC tax from interest payments on the Notes, the Issuer or the Guarantor may be required, subject to certain exceptions, to pay such additional amounts as will result in receipt by the holders of the Notes of such amounts as would have been received had no such withholding been required. The requirement to pay additional amounts will increase the cost of servicing interest payments on the Notes and could have an adverse effect on the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s financial condition.

The Group’s labour costs may increase for reasons such as the implementation of the PRC Labour Contract Law or inflation in the PRC.

The PRC Labour Contract Law (中華人民共和國勞動合同法) became effective on 1 January 2008 in the PRC and was amended on 28 December 2012. It imposes more stringent requirements on employers in relation to entry into fixed-term employment contracts and dismissal of employees. Pursuant to the PRC Labour Contract Law, the employer is required to make compensation payment to a fixed-term contract employee when the term of their employment contract expires, unless the employee does not agree to renew the contract even though the conditions offered by the employer for renewal are the same as or better than those stipulated in the current employment contract. In general, the amount of compensation payment is equal to the monthly wage of the employee multiplied by the number of full years that the employee has worked for the employer, any period of no less than six months but less than one year shall be counted as one year. The economic compensations payable to an employee for any period of less than six months shall be one-half of his/her monthly wages. A minimum wage requirement has also been incorporated into the PRC Contract Law. In addition, unless otherwise prohibited by the PRC Labour Contract Law or objected to by the employees themselves, the employer is also required to enter into non-fixed-term employment contracts with employees who have previously entered into fixed-term employment contracts for two consecutive terms or have been working for the employer for more than ten years.

In addition, under the Regulations on Paid Annual Leave for Employees (職工帶薪年休假條例), which became effective on 1 January 2008, employees who have worked continuously for more than one year are entitled to paid annual leave ranging from 5 to 15 days, depending on the length of the employees' work time. Employees who consent to waive such vacation at the request of employers shall be compensated an amount equal to three times their normal daily salaries for each vacation day being waived. Under the National Leisure and Tourism Outline 2013-2020 (國民旅遊休閒綱要2013-2020) which became effective on 2 February 2013, the workers shall basically receive paid annual leave by 2020. As a result of the PRC Labour Contract Law, the Regulations on Paid Annual Leave for Employees and the National Leisure and Tourism Outline 2013-2020, the Parent Group's labour costs (inclusive of those incurred by contractors) may increase. Further, under the PRC Labour Contract Law, when an employer terminates its PRC employees' employment, the employer may be required to compensate them for such amount which is determined based on their length of service with the employer, and the employer may not be able to efficiently terminate non-fixed-term employment contracts under the PRC Labour Contract Law without cause. In the event the Parent Group decides to significantly change or decrease its workforce, the PRC Labour Contract Law could adversely affect its ability to effect these changes in a cost-effective manner or in the manner that the Parent Group desires, which could result in an adverse impact on the Group's businesses, financial condition and results of operations.

To further strengthen the protection on labour remuneration, rest and vacations, social insurance and other basic rights and interests of labourers, the Opinion of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China and the State Council on Building Harmonious Labour Relationships (中共中央、國務院關於構建和諧勞動關係的意見) was issued on 21 March 2015, which acts as a guideline on PRC labour legislation.

Further, if there is a shortage of labour or for any reason the labour cost in the PRC rises significantly, the costs of production of the Group's products is likely to increase. This may in turn affect the selling prices of the products and services, which may then affect the demand of such products and services and thereby adversely affect the Group's sales and financial condition. Increase in costs of raw materials and other components required for the Group's business operation may cause similar adverse effects, particularly if the Group is unable to identify and employ other appropriate means to reduce the costs. In such circumstances, the profit margin may decrease and the financial results may be adversely affected.

In addition, inflation in the PRC has increased in recent years. Inflation in the PRC increases the costs of labour and the costs of raw materials the Group must purchase for production. Rising labour costs may increase the Group's operating costs and partially erode the cost advantage of the Group's PRC-based operations and therefore negatively impact the Group's profitability.

The uncertainties of the PRC legal system and its laws and regulations may have a negative impact on the Group's operations.

The Group's domestic leasing business is conducted in the PRC and such operations are located in the PRC, hence its business operations are regulated primarily by PRC laws and regulations. The PRC legal system is a civil law system based on written statutes. Unlike the common law systems, past court judgements in the PRC have limited precedential value and may be cited only for reference. Furthermore, PRC written statutes often require detailed interpretations by courts and enforcement bodies for their application and enforcement. Since 1979, the PRC government has been committed to developing and refining its legal system and has achieved significant progress in the development of its laws and regulations governing business and commercial matters, such as in foreign investment, company organisation and management, commercial transactions, tax and trade. However, as these laws and regulations are still evolving, in view of how the PRC's financial services industry is still developing, and because of the limited number and non-binding nature of published cases, there exist uncertainties about their interpretation and enforcement, and such uncertainties may have a negative impact on the Group's business.

Furthermore, the administration of PRC laws and regulations may be subject to a certain degree of discretion by the executive authorities. This has resulted in the outcome of dispute resolution not being as consistent or predictable compared to more developed jurisdictions. In addition, it may be difficult to obtain a swift and equitable enforcement of laws in the PRC, or the enforcement of judgements by a court of another jurisdiction. These uncertainties relating to the interpretation and implementation of PRC laws and regulations may adversely affect the legal protections and remedies that are available to the Group in its operations and to holders of the Notes. See also "Risks relating to the Notes and the Guarantee – Additional procedures may be required to be taken to bring English law governed matters or disputes to the Hong Kong courts. There is also no assurance that the PRC courts will recognise and enforce judgements of the Hong Kong courts in respect of English law governed matters or disputes."

Certain PRC regulations governing PRC companies are less developed than those applicable to companies incorporated in more developed countries.

Most of the Group's members are established in the PRC and are subject to PRC regulations governing PRC companies. These regulations contain certain provisions that are required to be included in the joint venture contracts, articles of association and all other major operational agreements of these PRC companies and are intended to regulate the internal affairs of these companies. These regulations in general, and the provisions for protection of shareholders' rights and access to information in particular, are less developed than those applicable to companies incorporated in Hong Kong, the United States, the United Kingdom and other developed countries or regions.

Any force majeure events, including the outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable diseases in Hong Kong or the PRC, could materially and adversely affect the Group's business and results of operations.

Any force majeure events, including the outbreak, or threatened outbreak, of any severe communicable disease (such as severe acute respiratory syndrome or avian influenza) in Hong Kong or the PRC, could materially and adversely affect the overall business sentiment and environment in the PRC, particularly if such outbreak is inadequately controlled. This, in turn, could materially and adversely affect domestic consumption, labour supply and, possibly, the overall gross domestic product growth of the PRC. The Group's domestic revenue is currently derived from its PRC operations, and any labour shortages or contraction or slowdown in the growth of domestic consumption in the PRC could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations. In addition, if any of the Group's employees are affected by any severe communicable disease, it could adversely affect or disrupt production levels and operations at the relevant plants and materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition and results of operations, which may also involve a closure of the Group's facilities to prevent the spread of the disease. The spread of any severe communicable disease in the PRC may also affect the operations of the Group's customers and suppliers, which could materially and adversely affect the Group's business, financial condition, and results of operations.

Governmental control of currency conversion may limit the Group's ability to utilise cash effectively, which may adversely affect the value of your investment.

The PRC Government has imposed controls on the convertibility of Renminbi into foreign currencies and, in certain cases, the remittance of currencies out of China. Any shortage in the availability of foreign currencies may restrict the ability of the Issuer's PRC subsidiaries to remit sufficient foreign currencies to pay dividends or make other distributions to the Issuer, or otherwise satisfy their foreign currency-denominated obligations. If the foreign exchange control system prevents the Issuer from obtaining sufficient foreign currencies to satisfy its currency demands, the Issuer may not be able to pay dividends in foreign currencies to its shareholders.

Under the existing PRC foreign exchange regulations, payments of current account items, including profit distributions, interest payments and expenditures from trade-related transactions, can be made in foreign currencies without prior approval from the SAFE by complying with certain procedural requirements. However, approval from the SAFE or its local branch is required where Renminbi is to be converted into foreign currencies and remitted out of China to pay capital expenses such as the repayment of loans denominated in foreign currencies. More restrictions and extensive vetting processes have been put in place by the SAFE to regulate cross-border transactions under the capital account, such as the Notice of the SAFE on Further Promoting the Reform of Foreign Exchange Administration and Improving Authenticity and Compliance Review (國家外匯管理局關於進一步推進外匯管理改革完善真實合規性審核的通知). The PRC Government may also at its discretion restrict access to foreign currencies for current account transactions in the future. The restrictions on foreign exchange transactions under capital accounts could also affect the ability of the Issuer's PRC subsidiaries to obtain foreign exchange through debt or equity financing, including by means of loans or capital contribution from the Issuer.

Fluctuations in the exchange rate and value of Renminbi may have a material adverse effect on the Group's results of operations and financial condition.

The value of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar, the Hong Kong dollar and other currencies fluctuates, and is subject to changes resulting from the monetary policies of the PRC Government, domestic and international economic and political developments as well as supply and demand in the monetary market. Since July 2005, the PRC Government has adopted a managed floating exchange rate system to allow the value of Renminbi to fluctuate within a regulated band based on market supply and demand and with reference to a basket of currencies. In May 2007, the PBOC enlarged the floating band for the trading price of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar on the interbank spot exchange market to 0.5% around the central parity rate. In April 2012, the PBOC enlarged the floating band for the trading price of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar on the interbank spot exchange market to 1% around the central parity rate. In March 2014, the PBOC further enlarged the floating band for the trading price of Renminbi against the U.S. dollar on the interbank spot exchange market to 2% around the central parity rate. There remains significant international pressure on the PRC Government to adopt more flexible currency policies. In the event of material fluctuations in the exchange rates of the Hong Kong dollar and the U.S. dollar against Renminbi, the Group's ability to pay dividends in foreign currencies may be materially and adversely affected.

Fluctuations in the exchange rate of Renminbi against the Hong Kong dollar and the U.S. dollar will affect the relative purchasing power in Renminbi with the proceeds from the offering of the Notes under the Programme. Such fluctuations may also cause the Group to incur foreign exchange losses and affect the relative value of any dividends distributed by the Group's PRC subsidiaries. In addition, appreciation or depreciation in the value of Renminbi relative to the Hong Kong dollar or the U.S. dollar may affect the Group's financial results in Hong Kong dollars without giving effect to any underlying change in the Group's business or results of operations.

PRC regulations in relation to direct investment and loans by offshore holding companies to PRC entities may delay or limit the Issuer from using the proceeds from the offering of the Notes under the Programme to make additional capital contributions or loans to its PRC subsidiaries.

As an offshore holding company of PRC subsidiaries, the Issuer may make additional capital contributions or loans to its PRC subsidiaries. Any capital contribution or loans to its PRC subsidiaries are subject to PRC regulations and foreign exchange loan registrations. For example, the total annual new foreign debt balance of its PRC subsidiaries shall not exceed the balance of 10 times of their respective net assets after deducting the total risk assets at the end of the previous year, and such loans must be registered with the SAFE or its local branches. Apart from the abovementioned registration procedures, any medium or long term loan to be provided by the Issuer to its PRC subsidiaries must be recorded by and registered with the NDRC. In addition, according to the relevant PRC regulations on foreign-invested enterprises, our capital contributions to our PRC subsidiaries must be filed with the Ministry of Commerce or its local counterpart and registered with other government authorities in China.

There is no assurance that the PRC Government will not impose more stringent requirements in relation to direct investment and loans by offshore holding companies to PRC entities. If the PRC Government imposes more stringent requirements in relation to direct investment and loans by offshore holding companies to PRC entities, the Issuer's ability to make equity contributions or provide loans to its PRC subsidiaries or to fund their operations with the net proceeds from the offering of the Notes under the Programme may be negatively affected, which may materially and adversely affect their ability to fund their working capital and expansion projects as well as meet their obligations and commitments.

The Company may rely on dividend payments from its subsidiaries in the PRC for funding.

The Company may rely on dividends paid by its PRC subsidiaries for cash requirements, including the funds necessary to service any debt the Company may incur. If any of the Company's subsidiaries incurs debt in its own name in the future, the instruments or agreements governing the debt may restrict its dividend payment or other distributions. Furthermore, applicable PRC Laws, rules and regulations permit payment of dividends by its PRC subsidiaries only out of their accumulated retained earnings determined in accordance with PRC accounting standards. The Company's PRC subsidiaries are also required to set aside a certain percentage of their after-tax profits each year to their statutory reserves in accordance with the requirements of applicable PRC laws and the provisions in their respective articles of associations. As a result, the Company's PRC subsidiaries are restricted in their ability to transfer a portion of their net income to it, whether in the form of dividends, loans or advances. These restrictions and requirements could reduce the amount of distributions that the Company receives from its subsidiaries, which may restrict its ability to fund the Company's operations, generate income, pay dividends and service our indebtedness.

It may be difficult to effect service of process in relation to disputes brought in courts outside the PRC on, or to enforce judgements obtained from non-PRC courts against, the Company's subsidiaries in the PRC.

As the PRC has not entered into treaties or arrangements providing for the recognition and enforcement of judgements made by courts of most other jurisdictions, there is no assurance that you will be able to effect service of process in connection with disputes brought in courts outside the PRC on, or to enforce judgements obtained from non-PRC courts against, the Company's subsidiaries in the PRC.

On 14 July 2006, Hong Kong and the PRC entered into the Arrangement on Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters by the Courts of the Mainland and of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region Pursuant to Choice of Court Agreements Between Parties Concerned (關於內地與香港特別行政區法院相互認可和執行當事人協議管轄的民商事案件判決的安排) (the “Choice of Court Arrangement”), pursuant to which a party with a final court judgment rendered by a Hong Kong court requiring payment of money in a civil and commercial case according to a “choice of court” agreement in writing may apply for recognition and enforcement of the judgment in the PRC. Similarly, a party with a final court judgment rendered by a PRC court requiring payment of money in a civil and commercial case pursuant to a “choice of court” agreement in writing may apply for recognition and enforcement of such judgment in Hong Kong. A “choice of court” agreement in writing is defined as any agreement in writing entered into between parties after the effective date of the Choice of Court Arrangement in which a Hong Kong court or a PRC court is expressly designated as the court having sole jurisdiction for resolving the dispute. Therefore, it is not possible to enforce a judgment rendered by a Hong Kong court in the PRC if the parties in dispute do not enter into a “choice of court” agreement in writing. As a result, it may be difficult or impossible for investors to effect service of process against the Issuer or the Issuer’s directors or members of its senior management in the PRC and/or to seek recognition and enforcement for foreign judgments in the PRC. On 18 January 2019, Hong Kong and the PRC entered into the Arrangement on Reciprocal Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters between the Courts of the Mainland and of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (關於內地與香港特別行政區法院相互認可和執行民商事案件判決的安排) (the “2019 Arrangement”), which seeks to establish a bilateral legal mechanism with greater clarity and certainty for recognition and enforcement of judgments in a wider range of civil and commercial matters between the courts of Hong Kong and the PRC. The 2019 Arrangement has already took effect on 20 January 2024. Upon commencement of the 2019 Arrangement, the Choice of Court Arrangement shall be terminated, except for “choice of court” agreements in writing made between parties before the commencement of the 2019 Agreement, in which case the Choice of Court Arrangement shall continue to apply. However, the recognition and enforcement of judgments rendered by a Hong Kong court in the PRC are subject to the provisions, limits, procedures and other terms and requirements of the 2019 Arrangement. There can be no assurance that investors can successfully effect service of process against the Issuer or the Issuer’s directors or members of its senior management in the PRC and/or to seek recognition and enforcement for judgments rendered by a Hong Kong court in the PRC.

Furthermore, the PRC does not have treaties or agreements providing for the reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments awarded by courts of the United States, the United Kingdom, or most other European countries or Japan. Hence, the recognition and enforcement in the PRC of judgment of a court in any of these jurisdictions in relation to any matter not subject to a binding arbitration provision may be difficult or even impossible.

RISKS RELATING TO NOTES AND THE GUARANTEE

The Notes and the Guarantee are unsecured obligations.

The Notes and the Guarantee are unsecured obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor, respectively. The repayment of the Notes and payment under the Guarantee may be adversely affected if:

- the Issuer or the Guarantor enters into bankruptcy, liquidation, reorganisation or other winding-up proceedings;
- there is a default in payment under the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s future secured indebtedness or other unsecured indebtedness; or
- there is an acceleration of any of the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s indebtedness.

If any of these events were to occur, the Issuer’s or the Guarantor’s assets may not be sufficient to pay amounts due on the Notes.

The Notes may not be a suitable investment for all investors.

The Notes are complex financial instruments and may be purchased as a way to reduce risk or enhance yield with an understood, measured and appropriate addition of risk to their overall portfolios. A potential investor should not invest in any Notes unless it has the expertise (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) to evaluate how the relevant Notes will perform under changing conditions, the resulting effects on the value of such Notes and the impact this investment will have on the potential investor's overall investment portfolio.

Each potential investor in any Notes must determine the suitability of that investment in light of its own circumstances. In particular, each potential investor should:

- (i) have sufficient knowledge and experience to make a meaningful evaluation of the relevant Notes, the merits and risks of investing in the relevant Notes and the information contained or incorporated by reference in this Offering Circular or any applicable supplement;
- (ii) have access to, and knowledge of, appropriate analytical tools to evaluate, in the context of its particular financial situation, an investment in the Notes and the impact such investment will have on its overall investment portfolio;
- (iii) have sufficient financial resources and liquidity to bear all of the risks of an investment in the relevant Notes, including where principal or interest is payable in one or more currencies, or where the currency for principal or interest payments is different from the potential investor's currency;
- (iv) understand thoroughly the terms of the relevant Notes and be familiar with the behaviour of any relevant financial markets; and
- (v) be able to evaluate (either alone or with the help of a financial adviser) possible scenarios for economic, interest rate and other factors that may affect its investment and its ability to bear the applicable risks.

Any failure to complete the relevant filings under the NDRC Administrative Measures within the prescribed timeframes following the completion of the issue of the Notes or to comply with the continuing reporting obligations under the NDRC Administrative Measures may have some impact on the Issuer and/or the Noteholders.

Under the NDRC Administrative Measures, the Company shall (i) file or cause to be filed with the NDRC the requisite information and documents within ten PRC business days after each foreign debt issuance and the expiration of the relevant pre-issuance certificate of review and registration of enterprise borrowing of foreign debts with respect to the relevant Notes in accordance with the NDRC Administrative Measures, (ii) so long as any Note remains outstanding, file or cause to be filed with the NDRC the requisite information and documents within five PRC business days before the end of January and the end of July each year, and (iii) file or cause to be filed the requisite information and documents on a timely basis upon the occurrence of any material event that may affect the enterprise's due performance of its debt obligations and take risk control measures to mitigate cross-default risks. The NDRC Administrative Measures set forth certain legal liabilities and disciplinary measures which would be imposed on enterprises and intermediaries if they fail to comply with the relevant requirements. According to the NDRC Administrative Measures, for any enterprise that fails to report relevant information according to the NDRC Administrative Measures, the review and registration authorities shall, depending on the seriousness of the circumstances, impose disciplinary measures such as interviews and public warnings on such enterprise concerned and its principal responsible person. Furthermore, conducts in violation of the NDRC Administrative Measures committed by enterprises will be published on, among others, the Credit China (信用中國) website and the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System (國家企業信用信息公示系統). In the worst case scenario, non-compliance with the NDRC reporting obligations under the NDRC Administrative Measures may result in it being unlawful for the Issuer or the Guarantor to perform or comply with any of its obligations under the Notes and the relevant Notes might be subject to enforcement as provided in Condition 10 (Events of Default) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes.

Any failure to complete the relevant filings under the NDRC Administrative Measures within the prescribed timeframes following the completion of the issue of the Notes may have some impact on the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or the investors of the Notes. Potential investors of the Notes are advised to exercise due caution when making their investment decisions.

Decisions that may be made on behalf of all holders of the Notes may be adverse to the interests of individual holders of the Notes.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes contain provisions for calling meetings of holders of the Notes to consider matters affecting their general interests. These provisions permit defined majorities to bind all holders of the Notes, including holders who did not attend and vote at the relevant meeting and holders who voted in a manner contrary to the majority. Furthermore, there is a risk that the decision of the majority of holders of the Notes may be adverse to the interests of individual Noteholders.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes also provide that the Trustee may (but shall not be obliged to), without the consent of the Noteholders, Receiptholders (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) or Couponholders (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), agree to (i) any modification of any of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or any of the provisions of the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement that is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or is to comply with any mandatory provision of applicable law, and (ii) any other modification (except for certain reserved matters as mentioned in the Trust Deed), and any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach, of any of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or any of the provisions of the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement that is in the opinion of the Trustee not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders.

Changes in interest rates may have an adverse effect on the price of Notes.

The Noteholders may suffer unforeseen losses due to fluctuations in interest rates. Generally, a rise in interest rates may cause a fall in the prices of Notes, resulting in a capital loss for the Noteholders. However, the Noteholders may reinvest the interest payments at higher prevailing interest rates. Conversely, when interest rates fall, the prices of Notes may rise. The Noteholders may enjoy a capital gain but interest payments received may be reinvested at lower prevailing interest rates.

The Notes do not restrict the Group's ability to incur additional debt or to take other actions that could negatively impact holders of the Notes. The Company may issue notes or provide guarantees for other notes of the Issuer or other subsidiaries of the Company in the future without consent from any holder of the Notes issued under the Programme and without providing a guarantee or other direct obligation to the holder of the Notes.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes do not prohibit the Company from issuing notes or providing guarantees for other notes of the Issuer or other subsidiaries of the Company in the future. As a result, the Company may, without consent from any holder of the Notes, issue notes or guarantee notes issued by the Issuer or subsidiaries of the Company in the future, without (i) providing any unsubordinated guarantee or indemnity in respect of the Notes, or (ii) offering to exchange the Notes for securities issued by the Company with terms substantially identical to those of the Notes. In the event that the Company decides to issue notes or guarantee other notes issued by its subsidiaries or the Issuer in the future, holders of such notes issued or guaranteed by the Company will also have a direct claim against the Company, as the case may be, while the holders of the Notes issued under the Programme do not.

The Group is not restricted under the Terms and Conditions from incurring additional debt, including secured debt, or from repurchasing the Notes. In addition, the covenants applicable to the Notes do not require the Group to achieve or maintain any minimum financial results relating to the Group's financial position or results of operations. The Group's ability to recapitalise, incur additional debt and take other actions that are not limited by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes could diminish the Group's ability to make payments on the Notes and amortising notes when due.

The Issuer has no business activities of its own and will be dependent on funds from the Group to make payments under the Notes.

The Issuer is a BVI business company incorporated under the laws of the British Virgin Islands with limited liability on 21 January 2015, specifically for the purpose of raising funds through the issue of securities or entering into loans. As at the date of this Offering Circular, the Issuer is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Issuer has not engaged, since its incorporation, in any material activities other than the issue of the Notes and other activities reasonably incidental thereto, with the benefit of guarantee provided by the Company, and those relating to the proposed issue of the Notes under the Programme and the on-lending of the proceeds thereof to the Company and/or its subsidiaries or affiliates, and the authorisation of documents and agreements referred to in this Offering Circular to which it is or will be a party. As a result, the Issuer is subject to all the risks to which the Group that will receive proceeds from the Notes is subject, to the extent that such risks could limit its ability to satisfy in full and on a timely basis its respective obligations to the Issuer under any such loans.

The Notes and the Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to the existing and future indebtedness and other liabilities of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's existing and future subsidiaries, other than the Issuer, and effectively subordinated to the Issuer's and the Guarantor's secured debt to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such indebtedness.

The Notes and the Guarantee will be structurally subordinated to any debt and other liabilities and commitments, including trade payables and lease obligations, of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's existing and future subsidiaries, other than the Issuer, whether or not secured. The Notes will not be guaranteed by any of the Issuer's or the Guarantor's subsidiaries, and the Issuer and the Guarantor may not have direct access to the assets of such subsidiaries unless these assets are transferred by dividend or otherwise to the Issuer or the Guarantor. The ability of such subsidiaries to pay dividends or otherwise transfer assets to the Issuer or the Guarantor is subject to various restrictions under applicable laws.

Each of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's subsidiaries are separate legal entities that have no obligation to pay any amounts due under the Notes or the Guarantee or make any funds available therefore, whether by dividends, loans or other payments. The Issuer's and the Guarantor's right to receive assets of any of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's subsidiaries, respectively, upon that subsidiary's liquidation or reorganisation will be effectively subordinated to the claim of that subsidiary's creditors (except to the extent that the Issuer or the Guarantor are creditors of that subsidiary). Consequently, the Notes and the Guarantee will be effectively subordinated to all liabilities, including trade payables and lease obligations, of any of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's subsidiaries, other than the Issuer, and any subsidiaries that the Issuer or the Guarantor may in the future acquire or establish.

The Notes and the Guarantee are the Issuer's and the Guarantor's unsecured obligations, respectively, and will (i) rank equally in right of payment with all the Issuer's and the Guarantor's other present and future unsubordinated and unsecured indebtedness; and (ii) be effectively subordinated to all of the Issuer's and the Guarantor's present and future secured indebtedness to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such obligations. Accordingly, claims of secured lenders, whether senior or junior, with respect to assets securing their loans will be prior with respect to those assets. In the event of the Issuer's or the Guarantor's bankruptcy, insolvency, liquidation, reorganisation, dissolution or other winding up, or upon any acceleration of the Notes, these assets will be available to pay obligations on the Notes only after all other debt secured by these assets has been repaid in full. Any remaining assets will be available to the Noteholders rateably with all of the Guarantor's other unsecured and unsubordinated creditors, including trade creditors. If there are not sufficient assets remaining to pay all these creditors, then all or a portion of the Notes then outstanding would remain unpaid.

If the Issuer or the Guarantor is unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in their respective debt agreements (if any), or the Notes, there could be a default under the terms of these agreements, or the Notes, which could cause repayment of the debt of the Issuer or the Guarantor to be accelerated.

If the Issuer or the Guarantor is unable to comply with the restrictions and covenants in the Notes, or current or future debt obligations and other debt agreements (if any), there could be a default under the terms of these debt agreements. In the event of a default under these debt agreements, the holders of the debt could terminate their commitments to lend to the Issuer or the Guarantor, accelerate repayment of the debt, declare all amounts borrowed due and payable or terminate the relevant debt agreements, as the case may be. Furthermore, such debt agreements may contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions. As a result, the default by the Issuer or the Guarantor under one debt agreement may cause the acceleration of repayment of debt or result in a default under its other debt agreements, including the Notes. If any of these events occur, there can be no assurance that there would be sufficient assets and cash flows to repay in full all the indebtedness of the Issuer or the Guarantor, or that it would be able to find alternative financing. Even if the Issuer or the Guarantor could obtain alternative financing, there can be no assurance that it would be on terms that are favourable or acceptable to the Issuer or the Guarantor.

Notes may be represented by Global Notes or Global Certificates and holders of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of the relevant Clearing System(s).

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes (in the case of Bearer Notes) or Global Certificates (in the case of Registered Notes). Such Global Notes and Global Certificates will be deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream or lodged with the CMU (each of Euroclear, Clearstream and the CMU, a “Clearing System”). Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate, investors will not be entitled to receive Definitive Notes. The relevant Clearing System(s) will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes or Global Certificates. While Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through the Clearing System(s).

While Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes or Global Certificates, the Issuer, or failing which, the Guarantor will discharge its payment obligations under any Notes by making payments to the relevant Clearing System(s) for distribution to their account holders or in the case of the CMU, to the persons for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in accordance with the procedures of the CMU (the “CMU Rules”).

A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note or Global Certificate must rely on the procedures of the relevant Clearing System(s) to receive payments under the relevant Notes. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor has any responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes or Global Certificates.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes or Global Certificates will not have a direct right to vote in respect of the relevant Notes. Instead, such holders will be permitted to act only to the extent that they are enabled by the relevant Clearing System(s) to appoint appropriate proxies. Similarly, holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes or Global Certificates will not have a direct right under the respective Global Notes or Global Certificates to take enforcement action against the Issuer or the Guarantor in the event of a default under the relevant Notes but will have to rely on the procedures of the relevant Clearing System(s), and if such holder is not a participant in the relevant Clearing System(s), on the procedures of the participant through which such holder owns its interest, to exercise upon their rights under the Trust Deed.

Noteholders should be aware that Definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

In relation to any issue of Notes which have a denomination consisting of a minimum Specified Denomination (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) plus a higher integral multiple of another smaller amount, it is possible that the relevant Notes may be traded in amounts in excess of the minimum Specified Denomination that are not integral multiples of such minimum Specified Denomination. In such case a Noteholder who, as a result of trading such amounts, holds a nominal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a Definitive Note in respect of such holding (should Definitive Notes be printed) and would need to purchase a nominal amount of Notes such that it holds an amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations. If Definitive Notes are issued, holders should be aware that Definitive Notes which have a denomination that is not an integral multiple of the minimum Specified Denomination may be illiquid and difficult to trade.

The Issuer may not be able to redeem the Notes upon the due date for redemption thereof.

If specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, the Issuer may, at its option, at maturity, at Noteholders' option or following the occurrence of a Change of Control (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes), be required to redeem all or some of the Notes. If such an event were to occur, the Issuer may not have sufficient cash in hand and may not be able to arrange financing to redeem the relevant Notes in time, or on acceptable terms, or at all. The ability to redeem Notes in such event may also be limited by the terms of other debt instruments. The Issuer's failure to repay, repurchase or redeem tendered Notes could constitute an event of default under the relevant Notes, which may also constitute a default under the terms of the Issuer's or the Group's other indebtedness.

Notes subject to optional redemption by the Issuer may have a lower market value than Notes that cannot be redeemed.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide the Issuer options to redeem the Notes before their stated maturity to the extent described under Condition 6(e) (Redemption at the Option of the Issuer), Condition 6(f) (Issuer Residual Call Option) and Condition 6(g) (Issuer Maturity Call Option) if such options are specified as being applicable in the relevant Pricing Supplement. An optional redemption feature is likely to limit the market value of Notes. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period. The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes when its cost of borrowing is lower than the interest rate on the Notes. At such times, an investor generally would not be able to reinvest the redemption proceeds at an effective interest rate as high as the interest rate on the Notes being redeemed and may only be able to do so at a significantly lower rate. Potential investors should consider reinvestment risk in light of other investments available at that time.

The ratings of the Programme may be downgraded or withdrawn and the ratings assigned to the Notes may not reflect all risks.

The Programme has been assigned ratings of “A-” by Fitch and “A-” by S&P. Tranches of Notes to be issued under the Programme may be rated or unrated. Where a Tranche of Notes is to be rated, such rating will not necessarily be the same as the ratings assigned to the Programme.

The ratings represent the opinions of the rating agencies and their assessment of the ability of the Issuer and the Guarantor to perform their respective obligations under the Notes and the Guarantee and credit risks in determining the likelihood that payments will be made when due under the Notes. Such ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks related to structure, market, additional factors discussed and other factors that may affect the value of the Notes. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold any Notes and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawn by the rating agency at any time. There can be no assurance that the ratings assigned to any Notes will remain in effect for any given period or that the ratings will not be lowered, suspended or withdrawn by the rating agencies in the future if, in their judgment, the circumstances so warrant. Neither the Issuer nor the Guarantor is obligated to inform holders of the Notes of any such suspension, revision, downgrade or withdrawal. A suspension, downgrade or withdrawal of the ratings of any Notes at any time may materially and adversely affect the market price of the Notes and the Issuer’s and the Guarantor’s ability to access the debt capital markets.

Any downgrading of the Guarantor’s corporate ratings, or those of its subsidiaries, by rating agencies could adversely affect the Group’s business and the Group’s liquidity.

Any adverse revision to the Guarantor’s corporate ratings, or those of its subsidiaries, for domestic and international debt by rating agencies may adversely affect the Group’s business, its financial performance and the trading price of the Notes. Further, the Group’s ability to obtain financing or to access to capital markets may also be limited, thereby lowering its liquidity.

The insolvency laws of the British Virgin Islands, Hong Kong and other local insolvency laws may differ from those of another jurisdiction with which the holders of the Notes are familiar.

As the Issuer and the Guarantor are incorporated under the laws of the British Virgin Islands and Hong Kong, respectively, any insolvency proceeding relating to the Issuer or the Guarantor would likely involve the British Virgin Islands or Hong Kong insolvency laws, respectively, the procedural and substantive provisions of which may differ from comparable provisions of the local insolvency laws of jurisdictions with which the holders of the Notes are familiar.

The Trustee may request the Noteholders to provide an indemnity, security and/or pre-funding to its satisfaction.

In certain circumstances, including, without limitation, giving of notice to the Issuer and the Guarantor pursuant to Condition 10 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and taking any steps and/or actions and/or instituting any proceedings pursuant to Condition 12 of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the Trustee may request the Noteholders to provide an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding to its satisfaction before it takes any steps and/or actions and/or institutes any proceedings on behalf of the Noteholders. The Trustee shall not be obliged to take any such steps and/or actions and/or to institute any such proceedings if not indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction. Negotiating and agreeing to an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding can be a lengthy process and may impact when such steps and/or actions can be taken and/or when such proceedings can be instituted. The Trustee may not be able to take such steps and/or actions and/or institute such proceedings, notwithstanding the provision of an indemnity and/or security and/or pre-funding to it, in breach of the terms of the Trust Deed or the Terms and Conditions of the Notes and in such circumstances, or where there is uncertainty or dispute as to the applicable laws or regulations, to the extent permitted by the Trust Deed and the applicable law, it will be for the holders of the relevant Notes to take such steps and/or actions and/or institute proceedings directly.

A change in English law which governs the Notes may adversely affect Noteholders.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes are governed by English law. No assurance can be given as to the impact of any possible judicial decision or change to English law or administrative practice after the date of issue of the Notes.

Additional procedures may be required to be taken to bring English law governed matters or disputes to the Hong Kong courts and the holders of the Notes would need to be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Hong Kong courts.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes, the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) are governed by English law, whereas parties to these documents have submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Hong Kong courts. In order to hear English law governed matters or disputes, the Hong Kong courts may require certain additional procedures to be taken. Compared to other similar debt securities issuances in the international capital markets where the relevant holders of the debt securities would not typically be required to submit to an exclusive jurisdiction, the holders of the Notes will be deemed to have submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Hong Kong courts, and thus the holders' ability to initiate a claim outside of Hong Kong will be limited.

RISKS RELATING TO THE STRUCTURE OF A PARTICULAR ISSUE OF NOTES UNDER THE PROGRAMME

A wide range of Notes may be issued under the Programme. A number of these Notes may have features which contain particular risks for potential investors. Set out below is a description of certain such features:

Risks associated with Index Linked Notes and Dual Currency Notes.

The Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest determined by reference to an index or formula, to changes in the prices of securities or commodities, to movements in currency exchange rates or other factors (each, a “Relevant Factor”). In addition, the Issuer may issue Notes with principal or interest payable in one or more currencies which may be different from the currency in which the Notes are denominated. Potential investors should be aware that:

- the market price of such Notes may be volatile;
- they may receive no interest;
- payment of principal or interest may occur at a different time or in a different currency than expected;
- the amount of principal payable at redemption may be less than the nominal amount of such Notes or even zero;
- a Relevant Factor may be subject to significant fluctuations that may not correlate with changes in interest rates, currencies or other indices;
- if a Relevant Factor is applied to Notes in conjunction with a multiplier greater than one or contains some other leverage factor, the effect of changes in the Relevant Factor on principal or interest payable will likely be magnified; and
- the timing of changes in a Relevant Factor may affect the actual yield to investors, even if the average level is consistent with their expectations. In general, the earlier the change in the Relevant Factor, the greater the effect on yield.

The historical experience of an index should not be viewed as an indication of the future performance of such index during the term of any Index Linked Notes. Accordingly, each potential investor should consult its own financial and legal advisers about the risk entailed by an investment in any Index Linked Notes and the suitability of such Notes in light of its particular circumstances.

Failure by an investor to pay a subsequent instalment of partly-paid Notes may result in an investor losing all of its investment.

The Issuer may issue Notes where the issue price is payable in more than one instalment. Failure to pay any subsequent instalments could result in an investor losing all of its investment.

The regulation and reform of “benchmark” rates of interest and indices may adversely affect the value of Notes linked to or referencing such “benchmarks”.

Interest rates and indices which are deemed to be or used as “benchmarks” are the subject of recent international regulatory guidance and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented. These reforms may cause such benchmarks to perform differently than in the past or to disappear entirely, or have other consequences which cannot be predicted. Any such consequence could have a material adverse effect on any Note linked to or referencing such a benchmark.

Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the “EU Benchmarks Regulation”) applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark within the EU. Among other things, it (i) requires benchmark administrators to be authorised or registered (or, if non-EU-based, to be subject to an equivalent regime or otherwise recognised or endorsed) and (ii) prevents certain uses by European Union supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised or registered (or, if non-European Union based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed). Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the “UK Benchmarks Regulation”) among other things, applies to the provision of benchmarks and the use of a benchmark in the United Kingdom.

Similarly, it prohibits the use in the United Kingdom by United Kingdom supervised entities of benchmarks of administrators that are not authorised by the United Kingdom Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) or registered on the FCA register (or, if non-United Kingdom based, not deemed equivalent or recognised or endorsed).

The EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable could have a material impact on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark is changed in order to comply with the requirements of the EU Benchmarks Regulation and/or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable. Such changes could, among other things, have the effect of reducing, increasing or otherwise affecting the volatility of the published rate or level of the relevant benchmark.

More broadly, any of the international reforms or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements.

Separately, the euro risk free-rate working group for the euro area has published a set of guiding principles and high-level recommendations for fallback provisions in, amongst other things, new euro denominated cash products (including bonds) referencing the Euro Interbank Offered Rate (“EURIBOR”). The guiding principles indicate, amongst other things, that continuing to reference EURIBOR in relevant contracts (without robust fallback provisions) may increase the risk to the euro area financial system. The potential elimination of any benchmark, or changes in the manner of administration of any benchmark, could require an adjustment to the terms and conditions, or result in other consequences, in respect of any Notes linked to such benchmark. Such factors may have the following effects on certain benchmarks: (i) discourage market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to the benchmark; (ii) trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in the benchmark; or (iii) lead to the disappearance of the “benchmark”. Any of the above changes or any other consequential changes as a result of international reforms or other initiatives or investigations, could have a material adverse effect on the value of and return on any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks imposed by any international reforms in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to or referencing a benchmark.

The use of Secured Overnight Financing Rate as a reference rate is subject to important limitations.

The rate of interest on floating rate Notes may be calculated on the basis of SOFR (as further described under Condition 5(b)(iii) (Rate of Interest for Floating Rate Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes).

In June 2017, the New York Federal Reserve’s Alternative Reference Rates Committee (the “ARRC”) announced SOFR as its recommended alternative to U.S. dollar London interbank offered rate (“LIBOR”). However, the composition and characteristics of SOFR are not the same as those of LIBOR. SOFR is a broad U.S. Treasury repo-financing rate that represents overnight secured funding transactions. This means that SOFR is fundamentally different from LIBOR for two key reasons. First, SOFR is a secured rate, while LIBOR is an unsecured rate. Second, SOFR is an overnight rate, while LIBOR represents interbank funding over different maturities. As a result, there can be no assurance that SOFR will perform in the same way as LIBOR would have at any time, including, without limitation, as a result of changes in interest and yield rates in the market, market volatility or global or regional economic, financial, political, or regulatory events. For example, since publication of SOFR began in April 2018, daily changes in SOFR have, on occasion, been more volatile than daily changes in comparable benchmark or other market rates.

As SOFR is an overnight funding rate, interest on SOFR-based Notes with interest periods longer than overnight will be calculated on the basis of either the arithmetic mean of SOFR over the relevant interest period or compounding SOFR during the relevant interest period. As a consequence of this calculation method, the amount of interest payable on each interest payment date will only be known a short period of time prior to the relevant interest payment date. Noteholders therefore will not know in advance the interest amount which will be payable on such Notes.

Although the Federal Reserve Bank of New York has published historical indicative SOFR information going back to 2014, such prepublishing of historical data inherently involves assumptions, estimates and approximations. Noteholders should not rely on any historical changes or trends in SOFR as an indicator of future changes in SOFR.

The Federal Reserve Bank of New York notes on its publication page for SOFR that use of SOFR is subject to important limitations and disclaimers, including that the Federal Reserve Bank of New York may alter the methods of calculation, publication schedule, rate revision practices or availability of SOFR at any time without notice. In addition, SOFR is published by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York based on data received from other sources, and the Issuer has no control over its determination, calculation or publication. There can be no guarantee that SOFR will not be discontinued or fundamentally altered in a manner that is materially adverse to the interests of the Noteholders. If the manner in which SOFR is calculated is changed or if SOFR is discontinued, that change or discontinuance may result in a reduction or elimination of the amount of interest payable on the Notes and a reduction in the trading prices of the Notes which would negatively impact the Noteholders who could lose part of their investment.

The Terms and Conditions of the Notes provide for certain fallback arrangements in the event that a Benchmark Event (as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) occurs, which is based on the ARRC recommended language. There is however no guarantee that the fallback arrangements will operate as intended at the relevant time or operate on terms commercially acceptable to all Noteholders. Any of the fallbacks may result in interest payments that are lower than, or do not otherwise correlate over time with, the payments that would have been made on the Notes if SOFR had been provided by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York in its current form. Investors should consult their own independent advisers and make their own assessment about the potential risks in making any investment decision with respect to any Notes linked to SOFR.

The market continues to develop in relation to SOFR as a reference rate for Floating Rate Notes.

Investors should be aware that the market continues to develop in relation to SOFR as a reference rate in the capital markets and its adoption as an alternative to U.S. dollar LIBOR. Market participants and relevant working groups are exploring alternative reference rates based on SOFR (which seek to measure the market's forward expectation of a SOFR rate over a designated term). The market or a significant part thereof may adopt an application of SOFR that differs significantly from that set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes. In addition, the manner of adoption or application of SOFR in the bond markets may differ materially compared with the application and adoption of SOFR in other markets, such as the derivatives and loan markets. Investors should carefully consider how any mismatch between the adoption of SOFR in the bond, loan and derivatives markets may impact any hedging or other financial arrangements which they may put in place in connection with any acquisition, holding or disposal of Notes referencing SOFR. In addition, the development of SOFR as an interest reference rate for the bond markets, as well as continued development of SOFR-based rates, indices and averages for such markets and the market infrastructure for adopting such rates, could result in reduced liquidity or increased volatility or could otherwise affect the market price of Notes referencing SOFR. Similarly, if SOFR does not prove widely used in securities such as the Notes referencing SOFR, investors may not be able to sell such Notes referencing SOFR at all or the trading price of Notes referencing SOFR may be lower than those of bonds linked to indices that are more widely used.

The use of SOFR as a reference rate for bonds is nascent, and may be subject to change and development, both in terms of the substance of the calculation and in the development and adoption of market infrastructure for the issuance and trading of bonds referencing such rates. Notes referencing SOFR may have no established trading market when issued, and an established trading market may never develop or may not be very liquid which, in turn, may reduce the trading price of such Notes or mean that investors in such Notes may not be able to sell such Notes at all or may not be able to sell such Notes at prices that will provide them with a yield comparable to similar investments that have a developed secondary market, and may consequently suffer from increased pricing volatility and market risk. Investors should consider these matters when making their investment decision with respect to Notes referencing SOFR.

The administrator of SOFR or any related indices may make changes that could change the value of SOFR or any related index, or discontinue SOFR or any related index.

The Federal Reserve or the Bank of New York (or their successors) as administrators of SOFR (and the SOFR Compounded Index), may make methodological or other changes that could change the value of these risk-free rates and/or indices, including changes related to the method by which such risk-free rate is calculated, eligibility criteria applicable to the transactions used to calculate SOFR, or timing related to the publication of SOFR or any related indices. In addition, the administrator may alter, discontinue or suspend calculation or dissemination of SOFR or any related index (in which case a fallback method of determining the interest rate on the Notes will apply). The administrator has no obligation to consider the interests of Noteholders when calculating, adjusting, converting, revising or discontinuing any such risk-free rate.

Inverse floating rate Notes are typically more volatile than conventional floating rate debt.

Inverse floating rate Notes have an interest rate equal to a fixed rate minus a rate based upon a reference rate such as the EURIBOR. The market values of such Notes are typically more volatile than market values of other conventional floating rate debt securities based on the same reference rate (and with otherwise comparable terms). Inverse floating rate Notes are more volatile because an increase in the reference rate not only decreases the interest rate of the Notes, but may also reflect an increase in prevailing interest rates, which further adversely affects the market value of these Notes.

Notes carrying an interest rate which may be converted from fixed to floating interest rates and vice versa, may have lower market values than other Notes.

Fixed Rate Notes and Floating Rate Notes (each as defined in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes) may bear interest at a rate that the Issuer may elect to convert from a fixed rate to a floating rate, or from a floating rate to a fixed rate. The Issuer's ability to convert the interest rate will affect the secondary market and the market value of such Notes since the Issuer may be expected to convert the rate when it is likely to produce a lower overall cost of borrowing. If the Issuer converts from a fixed rate to a floating rate, the spread on the Fixed Rate Notes may be less favourable than then-prevailing spreads on comparable Floating Rate Notes tied to the same reference rate. In addition, the new floating rate at any time may be lower than the rates on other Notes. If the Issuer converts from a floating rate to a fixed rate, the fixed rate may be lower than then-prevailing rates on its Notes.

The market prices of Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than prices for conventional interest-bearing securities do.

The market values of Notes issued at a substantial discount or premium to their nominal amount tend to fluctuate more in relation to general changes in interest rates than do prices for conventional interest-bearing securities. Generally, the longer the remaining term of the Notes, the greater the price volatility as compared to conventional interest-bearing securities with comparable maturities.

Investors may lose part or all of their investment in any Index Linked Notes issued.

If, in the case of a particular Tranche of Notes, the relevant Pricing Supplement specifies that the Notes are Index Linked Interest Notes or Index Linked Redemption Notes, there is a risk that the investor may lose the value of its entire investment or part of it.

RISKS RELATING TO THE MARKET GENERALLY

Set out below is a brief description of certain market risks, including liquidity risk, exchange rate risk, interest rate risk and credit risk:

Notes issued under the Programme have no current active trading market and may trade at a discount to their initial offering price and/or with limited liquidity.

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market (unless in the case of any particular Tranche, such Tranche is to be consolidated with and form a single series with a Tranche of Notes which is already issued). If the Notes are traded after their initial issuance, they may trade at a discount to their initial issue price, depending upon prevailing interest rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions and the financial condition of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Group. If the Notes are trading at a discount, investors may not be able to receive a favourable price for their Notes, and in some circumstances investors may not be able to sell their Notes at all or at their fair market value. Although application has been made to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the listing of the Programme under which Notes may be issued by way of debt issues to Professional Investors only during the 12-month period after the date of this Offering Circular on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, there is no assurance that such application will be accepted, that any particular Tranche of Notes will be so admitted or that an active trading market will develop. In addition, the market for investment grade and crossover grade debt has been subject to disruptions that have caused volatility in prices of securities similar to the Notes issued under the Programme. Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market, or that disruptions will not occur, for any particular Tranche of Notes.

The liquidity and price of the Notes following any offering of the Note under the Programme may be volatile.

The price and trading volume of the Notes may be highly volatile. Factors such as variations in the revenues, earnings and cash flows of the Group and proposals of new investments, strategic alliances and/or acquisitions, interest rates and fluctuations in prices for comparable companies could cause the price of the Notes to change. Any such developments may result in large and sudden changes in the volume and price at which the Notes will trade. There can be no assurance that these developments will not occur in the future.

Developments in other markets may adversely affect the market price of the Notes.

The market price of the Notes may be adversely affected by declines in the international financial markets and world economic conditions. The market for the Notes is, to varying degrees, influenced by economic and market conditions in other markets, especially those in Asia. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can affect the securities markets and the securities of issuers in other countries, including China. The international financial markets have experienced significant volatility in the past. If similar developments occur in the international financial markets in the future, the market price of the Notes could be adversely affected.

Exchange rate risks and exchange controls may result in a Noteholder receiving less interest or principal than expected.

The Issuer will pay principal and interest on the Notes in the currency specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement (the “Specified Currency”). This presents certain risks relating to currency conversions if a Noteholder’s financial activities are denominated principally in a currency or currency unit (the “Investor’s Currency”) other than the Specified Currency. These include the risk that exchange rates may significantly change (including changes due to devaluation of the Specified Currency or revaluation of the Investor’s Currency) and the risk that authorities with jurisdiction over the Investor’s Currency may impose or modify exchange controls. An appreciation in the value of the Investor’s Currency relative to the Specified Currency would decrease (i) the Investor’s Currency equivalent yield on the Notes; (ii) the Investor’s Currency equivalent value of the principal payable on the Notes; and (iii) the Investor’s Currency equivalent market value of the Notes.

Governments and monetary authorities may impose (as some have done in the past) exchange controls that could adversely affect an applicable exchange rate. As a result, a Noteholder may receive less interest or principal than expected, or no interest or principal.

Changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Notes.

Investment in Fixed Rate Notes involves the risk that subsequent changes in market interest rates may adversely affect the value of Fixed Rate Notes.

RISKS RELATING TO RENMINBI-DENOMINATED NOTES

Notes denominated in Renminbi (“Renminbi Notes”) may be issued under the Programme. Renminbi Notes contain particular risks for potential investors.

Renminbi is not freely convertible and there are significant restrictions on remittance of Renminbi into and outside the PRC which may adversely affect the liquidity of Renminbi Notes.

Renminbi is not freely convertible at present. The PRC government continues to regulate conversion between Renminbi and foreign currencies, including the Hong Kong dollar.

However, there has been a significant reduction in control by the PRC government in recent years, particularly over trade transactions involving import and export of goods and services as well as other frequent routine foreign exchange transactions. These transactions are known as current account items.

On the other hand, remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for the settlement of capital account items, such as capital contributions, debt financing and securities investment is generally only permitted upon obtaining specific approvals from, or completing specific registrations or filings with, the relevant authorities on a case-by-case basis and is subject to a strict monitoring system. Regulations in the PRC on the remittance of Renminbi into and out of the PRC for settlement of capital account items are being adjusted from time to time to match the policies of the PRC government.

Although the Renminbi was added to the Special Drawing Rights basket created by the International Monetary Fund in 2016, and the PBOC and the Ministry of Commerce of the PRC have implemented policies for further improving accessibility to Renminbi to settle cross-border transactions in foreign currencies, there is no assurance that the PRC government will continue to gradually liberalise control over cross-border remittance of Renminbi in the future, that any pilot schemes for Renminbi cross-border utilisation will not be discontinued or that new regulations in the PRC will not be promulgated in the future which have the effect of restricting or eliminating the remittance of Renminbi into or out of the PRC. In the event that any regulatory restrictions inhibit the ability of the Issuer to repatriate funds outside the PRC to meet its obligations under the Renminbi Notes, the Issuer will need to source Renminbi offshore to finance such obligations under the relevant Renminbi Notes, and its ability to do so will be subject to the overall availability of Renminbi outside the PRC.

In addition, holders of beneficial interests in Renminbi Notes may be required to provide certifications and other information (including Renminbi account information) in order to allow such holder to receive payments in Renminbi in accordance with the Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong.

There is only limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC, which may affect the liquidity of Renminbi Notes and the Issuer's ability to source Renminbi outside the PRC to service such Renminbi Notes.

As a result of the restrictions by the PRC government on cross-border Renminbi fund flows, the availability of Renminbi outside of the PRC is limited. Since February 2004, in accordance with arrangements between the PRC central government and the Hong Kong government, licensed banks in Hong Kong may offer limited Renminbi denominated banking services to Hong Kong residents and specified business customers. PBOC has also established a Renminbi clearing and settlement system for participating banks in Hong Kong. On July 2010, further amendments were made to the Settlement Agreement on the Clearing of Renminbi Business (《關於人民幣業務的清算協議》) (the “Settlement Agreement”) between PBOC and Bank of China (Hong Kong) Limited (the “Renminbi Clearing Bank”) to further expand the scope of Renminbi business for participating banks in Hong Kong. Pursuant to the revised arrangements, all corporations are allowed to open Renminbi accounts in Hong Kong; there is no longer any limit on the ability of corporations to convert Renminbi; and there will no longer be any restriction on the transfer of Renminbi funds between different accounts in Hong Kong. In addition, PBOC has now established Renminbi clearing and settlement systems with financial institutions in other major global financial centres (each also a “Renminbi Clearing Bank”), including London, Frankfurt, Paris and Singapore to further internationalise the Renminbi.

There are restrictions imposed by PBOC on Renminbi business participating banks in respect of cross-border Renminbi settlement, such as those relating to direct transactions with PRC enterprises. Furthermore, Renminbi business participating banks do not have direct Renminbi liquidity support from PBOC. The Renminbi Clearing Banks only have access to onshore liquidity support from PBOC for the purpose of squaring open positions of participating banks for limited types of transactions and are not obliged to square for participating banks any open positions resulting from other foreign exchange transactions or conversion services. In such cases, the participating banks will need to source Renminbi from outside the PRC to square such open positions.

Although it is expected that the offshore Renminbi market will continue to grow in depth and size, its growth is subject to many constraints as a result of PRC laws and regulations on foreign exchange. There is no assurance that new PRC regulations will not be promulgated or the settlement arrangements will not be terminated or amended in the future which will have the effect of restricting availability of Renminbi outside the PRC. The limited availability of Renminbi outside the PRC may affect the liquidity of the Renminbi Notes. To the extent the Issuer or the Guarantor is required to source Renminbi in the offshore market to service its Renminbi Notes, there is no assurance that either the Issuer or the Guarantor will be able to source such Renminbi on satisfactory terms, if at all.

Investment in the Renminbi Notes is subject to interest rate risks.

The value of Renminbi payments under Renminbi Notes may be susceptible to interest rate fluctuations occurring within and outside the PRC, including PRC Renminbi repo rates and/or the Shanghai inter-bank offered rate. The PRC government has gradually liberalised its regulation of interest rates in recent years. Further liberalisation may increase interest rate volatility. In addition, the interest rate for Renminbi in markets outside the PRC may significantly deviate from the interest rate for Renminbi in the PRC as a result of foreign exchange controls imposed by PRC law and regulations and prevailing market conditions.

The Renminbi Notes may carry a fixed interest rate. Consequently, the trading price of such Notes will vary with the fluctuations in the Renminbi interest rates. If holders of Renminbi Notes propose to sell their Notes before their maturity, they may receive an offer lower than the amount they have invested.

Payments in respect of Renminbi Notes will only be made to investors in the manner specified in such Renminbi Notes.

All payments to investors in respect of Renminbi Notes will be made solely (i) when Renminbi Notes are represented by Global Notes or Global Certificates, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing CMU rules and procedures, or (ii) when Renminbi Notes are in definitive form, by transfer to a Renminbi bank account maintained in Hong Kong in accordance with prevailing rules and regulations. The Issuer or the Guarantor (as the case may be) cannot be required to make payment by any other means (including in any other currency or in bank notes, by cheque or draft or by transfer to a bank account in the PRC).

SUMMARY OF PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE NOTES WHILE IN GLOBAL FORM

Terms used in this section that are not otherwise defined shall have the meanings given to them in “Terms of Conditions of the Notes”.

INITIAL ISSUE OF NOTES

Global Notes and Global Certificates may be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to a common depository for Euroclear and Clearstream (the “Common Depository”) or a sub-custodian for the CMU.

Upon the initial deposit of a Global Note or a Global Certificate with the Common Depository or with a sub-custodian for the CMU or registration of Registered Notes in the name of (i) any nominee of the Common Depository for Euroclear and Clearstream or (ii) the Hong Kong Monetary Authority as operator of the CMU and delivery of the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate to the Common Depository or the sub-custodian for the CMU (as the case may be), Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU (as the case may be) will credit each subscriber with a nominal amount of Notes equal to the nominal amount thereof for which it has subscribed and paid.

Notes that are initially deposited with the Common Depository may also be credited to the accounts of subscribers with (if indicated in the relevant Pricing Supplement) other clearing systems through direct or indirect accounts with Euroclear and Clearstream held by such other clearing systems. Conversely, Notes that are initially deposited with any other clearing system may similarly be credited to the accounts of subscribers with Euroclear, Clearstream or other clearing systems.

RELATIONSHIP OF ACCOUNTHOLDERS WITH CLEARING SYSTEMS

Each of the persons shown in the records of Euroclear, Clearstream or any other clearing system (an “Alternative Clearing System”) as the holder of a Note represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate must look solely to Euroclear, Clearstream or any such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be) for his share of each payment made by the Issuer to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, and in relation to all other rights arising under the Global Notes or Global Certificates, subject to and in accordance with the respective rules and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or such Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be). Such persons shall have no claim directly against the Issuer in respect of payments due on the Notes for so long as the Notes are represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and such obligations of the Issuer will be discharged by payment to the bearer of such Global Note or the holder of the underlying Registered Notes, as the case may be, in respect of each amount so paid.

If a Global Note or a Global Certificate is lodged with a sub-custodian for or registered with the CMU, the person(s) for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in accordance with the CMU Rules as notified by the CMU to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent in a relevant CMU Instrument Position Report or any other relevant notification by the CMU (which notification, in either case, shall be conclusive evidence of the records of the CMU save in the case of manifest error) shall be the only person(s) entitled or in the case of Registered Notes, directed or deemed by the CMU as entitled to receive payments in respect of Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate and the Issuer will be discharged by payment to, or to the order of, such person(s) for whose account(s) interests in such Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held in the CMU in respect of each amount so paid. Each of the persons shown in the records of the CMU as the beneficial holder of a particular nominal amount of Notes represented by such Global Note or Global Certificate must look solely to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent (as agent of the Issuer) for his share of each payment so made by the Issuer in respect of such Global Note or Global Certificate.

EXCHANGE

Temporary Global Notes

Each Temporary Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date:

- (i) if the relevant Pricing Supplement indicates that such Global Note is issued in compliance with TEFRA C or in a transaction to which TEFRA is not applicable (as to which, see “Summary of the Programme – Selling Restrictions”), in whole, but not in part, for the Definitive Notes defined and described below; and
- (ii) otherwise, in whole or in part upon certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement for interests in a Permanent Global Note or, if so provided in the relevant Pricing Supplement, for Definitive Notes.

The CMU may require that any such exchange for a Permanent Global Note is made in whole and not in part and in such event, no such exchange will be effected until all relevant account holders (as set out in a CMU Instrument Position Report (as defined in the rules of the CMU) or any other relevant notification supplied to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent by the CMU) have so certified.

The holder of a Temporary Global Note issued pursuant to TEFRA D will not be entitled to collect any payment of interest, principal or other amount due on or after the Exchange Date unless, upon due certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement, exchange of the Temporary Global Note for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused. The payments in respect of a Note issued under TEFRA D pursuant to Conditions 6(d) (Redemption for a Change of Control) and 6(h) (Redemption at the Option of Noteholders) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may not be collected without certificate as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership.

In respect of a Note issued under TEFRA D, for the purpose of dealing in Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU, any further issue of Notes by the Issuer pursuant to Condition 15 (Further Issues) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may not be consolidated and form a single series with the outstanding securities of any series (including the Notes) until the exchange of interests in a Temporary Global Note for interests in a Permanent Global Note upon the relevant Certification.

Permanent Global Notes

Each Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable, free of charge to the holder, on or after its Exchange Date in whole but not, except as provided in the paragraph titled “Partial Exchange of Permanent Global Notes” below, in part for Definitive Notes if the Permanent Global Note is held on behalf of Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or an Alternative Clearing System and any such clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or in fact does so.

In the event that a Global Note is exchanged for Definitive Notes, such Definitive Notes shall be issued in Specified Denomination(s) only. A Noteholder who holds a nominal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a Definitive Note in respect of such holding and would need to purchase a nominal amount of Notes such that it holds an aggregate nominal amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

Global Certificates

The following will apply in respect of transfers of Notes held in Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or an Alternative Clearing System. These provisions will not prevent the trading of interests in the Notes within a clearing system whilst they are held on behalf of such clearing system, but will limit the circumstances in which the Notes may be withdrawn from the relevant clearing system. Transfer of the holding of Notes represented by any Global Certificate pursuant to Condition 2(b) (Transfer of Registered Notes) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes may only be made in part if the relevant clearing system is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of holidays, statutory or otherwise) or announces an intention permanently to cease business or does in fact do so.

In the event that a Global Certificate is exchanged for a definitive Certificate, such definitive Certificate shall be issued in Specified Denomination(s) only. A Noteholder who holds a nominal amount of less than the minimum Specified Denomination will not receive a definitive Certificate in respect of such holding and would need to purchase a nominal amount of Notes such that it holds an aggregated nominal amount equal to one or more Specified Denominations.

Partial Exchange of Permanent Global Notes

For so long as a Permanent Global Note is held on behalf of a clearing system and the rules of that clearing system permit, such Permanent Global Note will be exchangeable in part on one or more occasions for Definitive Notes (i) if principal, interests and Instalment Amounts in respect of any Notes is not paid when due or (ii) if so provided in, and in accordance with, the Terms and Conditions of the Notes (which will be set out in the relevant Pricing Supplement) relating to Partly Paid Notes.

DELIVERY OF NOTES

On or after any due date for exchange, the holder of a Global Note may surrender such Global Note or, in the case of a partial exchange, present it for endorsement to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent).

In exchange for any Global Note, or the part thereof to be exchanged, the Issuer will (i) in the case of a Temporary Global Note exchangeable for a Permanent Global Note, deliver, or procure the delivery of, a Permanent Global Note in an aggregate nominal amount equal to that of the whole or that part of a Temporary Global Note that is being exchanged or, in the case of a subsequent exchange, endorse, or procure the endorsement of, a Permanent Global Note to reflect such exchange or (ii) in the case of a Global Note exchangeable for Definitive Notes, deliver, or procure the delivery of, an equal aggregate nominal amount of duly executed and authenticated Definitive Notes. Global Notes, Global Certificates and Definitive Notes will be delivered outside the United States and its possessions. In this Offering Circular, “Definitive Notes” means, in relation to any Global Note, the definitive Bearer Notes for which such Global Note may be exchanged (if appropriate, having attached to them all Coupons and Receipts in respect of interest or Instalment Amounts that have not already been paid on the Global Note and a Talon).

Definitive Notes will be security printed in accordance with any applicable legal and stock exchange requirements substantially in the form set out in the Schedules to the Trust Deed. On exchange in full of each Permanent Global Note, the Issuer will, if the holder so requests, procure that it is cancelled and returned to the holder together with the relevant Definitive Notes.

EXCHANGE DATE

“Exchange Date” means, in relation to a Temporary Global Note, the day falling after the expiry of 40 days after its issue date and, in relation to a Permanent Global Note, a day falling not less than 60 days, after that on which the notice requiring exchange is given and on which banks are generally open for business in the city in which the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent (or in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent) is located and in the city in which the relevant clearing system is located.

AMENDMENT TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The Temporary Global Notes, Permanent Global Notes and Global Certificates contain provisions that apply to the Notes that they represent, some of which modify the effect of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes set out in this Offering Circular. The following is a summary of certain of those provisions:

PAYMENTS

No payment falling due after the Exchange Date will be made on any Global Note unless exchange for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes is improperly withheld or refused.

Payments on any Temporary Global Note issued in compliance with TEFRA D before the Exchange Date will only be made against presentation of certification as to non-U.S. beneficial ownership in the form set out in the Agency Agreement. All payments in respect of Notes represented by a Global Note (except with respect to a Global Note held through the CMU) will be made against presentation for endorsement and, if no further payment falls to be made in respect of the Notes, surrender of that Global Note to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent as shall have been notified to the Noteholders for such purpose. A record of each payment so made will be enfaced on each Global Note, which endorsement will be prima facie evidence that such payment has been made in respect of the Notes. For the purpose of any payments made in respect of a Global Note, the relevant place of presentation (if applicable) shall be disregarded in the definition of “business day” set out in Condition 7(h) (Non-Business Days) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes but (in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU) shall also require such day to be a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which the CMU is operating.

All payments in respect of Notes represented by a Global Certificate (other than a Global Certificate held through the CMU) will be made to, or to the order of, the person whose name is entered on the Register at the close of business on the record date which shall be the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the date for payment, where “Clearing System Business Day” means Monday to Friday inclusive except 25 December and 1 January.

In respect of a Global Note or Global Certificate held through the CMU, any payments of principal, interest (if any) or any other amounts shall be made to the person(s) for whose account(s) interests in the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate are credited as being held by the CMU at the relevant time (as set out in a CMU Instrument Position Report or any other relevant notification supplied to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent by the CMU) and, save in the case of final payment, no presentation of the relevant bearer Global Note or Global Certificate shall be required for such purpose.

PRESCRIPTION

Claims against the Issuer in respect of Notes that are represented by a Permanent Global Note will become void unless it is presented for payment within a period of 10 years (in the case of principal) and five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date (as defined in Condition 8 (Taxation) of the Terms and Conditions of the Notes).

The holder of a Permanent Global Note or of the Notes represented by a Global Certificate shall be treated as two persons for the purposes of any quorum requirements of a meeting of Noteholders and, at any such meeting, the holder of a Permanent Global Note or of the Notes represented by a Global Certificate shall be treated as having one vote in respect of each integral currency unit of the Specified Currency of the Notes. All holders of Registered Notes are entitled to one vote in respect of each integral currency unit of the Specified Currency of the Notes comprising such Noteholders holding, whether or not represented by a Global Certificate.

CANCELLATION

Cancellation of any Note represented by a Permanent Global Note that is required by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes to be cancelled (other than upon its redemption) will be effected by reduction in the nominal amount of the relevant Permanent Global Note or its presentation to or to the order of the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent) for endorsement in the relevant schedule of such Permanent Global Note or, in the case of a Global Certificate, by reduction in the aggregate nominal amount of the Certificates in the Register, whereupon the nominal amount thereof shall be reduced for all purposes by the amount so cancelled and endorsed.

PURCHASE

Notes represented by a Permanent Global Note or by a Global Certificate may only be purchased by the Issuer, the Guarantor or any of their respective subsidiaries if they are purchased together with the rights to receive all future payments of interest and Instalment Amounts (if any) thereon.

ISSUER'S OPTION

Any option of early redemption of the Issuer provided for in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note or by a Global Certificate shall be exercised by the Issuer giving notice to the Noteholders within the time limits set out in and containing the information required by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, except that the notice shall not be required to contain the serial numbers of Notes drawn in the case of a partial exercise of an option and accordingly no drawing of Notes shall be required. In the event that any option of the Issuer is exercised in respect of some but not all of the Notes of any Series, the rights of accountholders with a clearing system in respect of the Notes will be governed by the standard procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream, the CMU or Alternative Clearing System (as the case may be).

NOTEHOLDERS' OPTIONS

Any option of the Noteholders provided for in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes of any Notes while such Notes are represented by a Permanent Global Note or a Global Certificate may be exercised by the holder of the Permanent Global Note or a Global Certificate giving notice to the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent) within the time limits relating to the deposit of Notes with a Paying Agent, a Transfer Agent or the Registrar (as applicable) set out in the Terms and Conditions of the Notes substantially in the form of the notice available from any Paying Agent, any Transfer Agent or the Registrar (as applicable), except that the notice shall not be required to contain the certificate numbers of the Notes in respect of which the option has been exercised, and stating the nominal amount of Notes in respect of which the option is exercised and (in the case of a Permanent Global Note only) at the same time presenting the Permanent Global Note to the Issuing and Paying Agent (or, in the case of Notes lodged with the CMU, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent), for notation accordingly in relevant schedule of such Permanent Global Note.

TRUSTEE'S POWERS

In considering the interests of Noteholders while any Global Note is held on behalf of, or Registered Notes are registered in the name of, or in the name of any nominee for, a clearing system, the Trustee may, to the extent it considers it appropriate to do so in the circumstances, but without being obliged to do so, have regard to any information provided to it by such clearing system or its operator as to the identity (either individually or by category) of its accountholders with entitlements to such Global Note or Registered Notes and may consider such interest if such accountholders were the holders of the Notes represented by such Global Note or the relevant Global Certificate, as the case may be.

NOTICES

So long as any Notes are represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate and such Global Note or Global Certificate is held on behalf of (i) Euroclear and/or Clearstream or Alternative Clearing System (except as provided in (ii) below), notices to the holders of Notes of that Series may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to that clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication as required by the Terms and Conditions of the Notes or by delivery of the relevant notice to the holder of the Global Note or (ii) the CMU, notices to the holders of Notes of that Series may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to each relevant accountholder via the CMU.

PARTLY PAID NOTES

The provisions relating to Partly Paid Notes are not set out in this Offering Circular, but will be contained in the relevant Pricing Supplement and thereby in the Global Notes. While any instalments of the subscription moneys due from the holder of Partly Paid Notes are overdue, no interest in a Global Note representing such Notes may be exchanged for an interest in a Permanent Global Note or for Definitive Notes (as the case may be). If any Noteholder fails to pay any instalment due on any Partly Paid Notes within the time specified, the Issuer may forfeit such Notes and shall have no further obligation to their holders in respect of them.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The net proceeds from the issue of each Tranche of Notes will be used for working capital and general corporate purpose including but limited to repayment of existing loans, payment of vessel purchase fees and other loan lending costs or otherwise disclosed in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THE NOTES

The following is the text of the terms and conditions that, save for the words in italics and subject to completion and amendment and as supplemented or varied in accordance with the provisions of the relevant Pricing Supplement, shall be applicable to the Notes in definitive form (if any) issued in exchange for the Global Note(s) or the Global Certificate(s) representing each Series. Either (i) the full text of these terms and conditions together with the relevant provisions of the applicable Pricing Supplement or (ii) these terms and conditions as so completed, amended, supplemented or varied (and subject to simplification by the deletion of non-applicable provisions), shall be endorsed on such Bearer Notes or on the Certificates relating to such Registered Notes. All capitalised terms that are not defined in these Conditions will have the meanings given to them in the relevant Pricing Supplement or the Trust Deed, as the case may be. Those definitions will be endorsed on the definitive Bearer Notes or Certificates, as the case may be. References in these Conditions to “Notes” are to the Notes of one Series only, not to all Notes that may be issued under the Programme.

The Notes are issued by CSSC Capital 2015 Limited (the “Issuer”) and guaranteed by CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited (中國船舶集團(香港)航運租賃有限公司) (the “Guarantor”), and are constituted by a Trust Deed dated 29 September 2025 (as amended, restated, novated and/or supplemented from time to time, the “Trust Deed”) between the Issuer, the Guarantor and China CITIC Bank International Limited (the “Trustee”, which expression shall, where the context so permits, include its successor(s) and all other persons for the time being the trustee or trustees under the Trust Deed) as trustee for itself and the Noteholders (as defined below). These terms and conditions (these “Conditions”) include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Trust Deed, which includes the forms of the Bearer Notes, the Certificates, the Receipts, the Coupons and the Talons referred to below. An agency agreement dated 29 September 2025 (as amended, restated, novated and/or supplemented from time to time, the “Agency Agreement”) has been entered into in relation to the Notes between the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee, China CITIC Bank International Limited as initial issuing and paying agent and as initial CMU lodging and paying agent for Notes to be held in the Central Moneymarkets Unit Service operated by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority (the “CMU”, which term shall, where the context so permits, include its operator) and the other agents named therein. The issuing and paying agent, the CMU lodging and paying agent, any other paying agents, the registrar, the transfer agent(s) and the calculation agent(s) for the time being are referred to below respectively as the “Issuing and Paying Agent” (which expression includes any successor issuing and paying agent appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes), the “CMU Lodging and Paying Agent” (which expression includes any successor CMU Lodging and Paying Agent appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes), the “Paying Agents” (which expression shall include the Issuing and Paying Agent and the CMU Lodging and the Paying Agent and any additional or successor paying agents appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes), the “Registrar” (which expression includes any successor registrar appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes), the “Transfer Agents” (which expression shall include the Registrar and any successor transfer agents appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes) and the “Calculation Agent(s)” (which expression includes any successor calculation agent(s) appointed from time to time in connection with the Notes) and collectively, the “Agents”. For the purposes of these Conditions, all references to the Issuing and Paying Agent shall, with respect to a Series of Notes to be held in the CMU, be deemed to be a reference to the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent and all such references shall be construed accordingly.

Copies of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement are available for inspection during usual business hours (being between 9:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m., Monday to Friday other than public holidays) at the principal office of the Trustee (presently at 80/F, International Commerce Centre, 1 Austin Road West, Kowloon, Hong Kong) and at the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent (as specified in the Agency Agreement) following prior written request and provision of proof of holding and identity satisfactory to the Trustee or, as the case may be, the Issuing and Paying Agent.

The Noteholders, the holders (the “Couponholders”) of the interest coupons (the “Coupons”) relating to interest-bearing Bearer Notes and, where applicable in the case of such Notes, talons for further Coupons (the “Talons”), and, where applicable, the holders (the “Receiptholders”) of receipts for the payment of instalments of principal (the “Receipts”) relating to Bearer Notes of which the principal is payable in instalments, are entitled to the benefit of, are bound by, and are deemed to have notice of, all the provisions of the Trust Deed and are deemed to have notice of those provisions applicable to them of the Agency Agreement. The statements in these Conditions include summaries of, and are subject to, the detailed provisions of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement.

As used in these Conditions, “Tranche” means Notes which are identical in all respects, and “Series” means a Tranche of Notes together with any further Tranche or Tranches of Notes which are (a) expressed to be consolidated and form a single series with such Tranche of Notes and (b) identical in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, the issue price, the first payment of interest on them, and (if applicable) the timing for submission of the NDRC Post-Issue Filing and the timing for making the related notifications to the Trustee and the Noteholders).

All capitalised terms that are not defined in these Conditions will have the meanings given to them in the relevant Pricing Supplement or the Trust Deed.

1. FORM, DENOMINATION AND TITLE

The Notes are issued in bearer form (“Bearer Notes”) or in registered form (“Registered Notes”) in each case in the Specified Denomination(s) shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

This Note is a Fixed Rate Note, a Floating Rate Note, a Zero Coupon Note, an Index Linked Interest Note, an Index Linked Redemption Note, an Instalment Note, a Dual Currency Note or a Partly Paid Note, a combination of any of the foregoing or any other kind of Note, depending upon the Interest and Redemption/Payment Basis shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

Bearer Notes are serially numbered and are issued with Coupons (and, where appropriate, a Talon) attached, save in the case of Zero Coupon Notes in which case references to interest (other than in relation to interest due after the Maturity Date), Coupons and Talons in these Conditions are not applicable. Instalment Notes are issued with one or more Receipts attached.

Each Tranche of Bearer Notes will be initially issued in the form of a Temporary Global Note or, if so specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, a Permanent Global Note which, in either case, will be delivered on or prior to the original issue date of the Tranche to either (i) a common depositary (the “Common Depositary”) for Euroclear and Clearstream; or (ii) a sub-custodian for the CMU. Alternatively, any subsequent Tranche of an existing Series may be represented by an increase in the principal amount of Notes represented by a Permanent Global Note of an earlier Tranche of the same Series, or both such Tranches (and any earlier Tranches) may be represented by a replacement Permanent Global Note representing the aggregate principal amount of Notes of such Tranches.

Registered Notes are represented by registered certificates (“Certificates”) and, save as provided in Condition 2(c), each Certificate shall represent the entire holding of Registered Notes by the same holder.

Title to the Bearer Notes and the Receipts, Coupons and Talons shall pass by delivery. Title to the Registered Notes shall pass by registration in the register that the Issuer shall procure to be kept by the Registrar in accordance with the provisions of the Agency Agreement (the “Register”). Except as ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction or as required by law, the holder (as defined below) of any Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon shall be deemed to be and may be treated as its absolute owner for all purposes whether or not it is overdue and regardless of any notice of ownership, trust or an interest in it, any writing on it (or on the Certificate representing it in the case of Registered Notes) or its theft or loss (or that of the relevant Certificate) and no person shall be liable for so treating the holder.

For so long as any of the Notes are represented by a Global Note or a Global Certificate held on behalf of Euroclear and/or Clearstream and/or a sub-custodian for the CMU, each person (other than Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU) who is for the time being shown in the records of Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU as the holder of a particular nominal amount of such Notes (in which regard any certificate or other document issued by Euroclear or Clearstream or the CMU as to the nominal amount of such Notes standing to the account of any person shall be conclusive and binding for all purposes save in the case of manifest error) shall be treated by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee and the Agents as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes for all purposes other than with respect to the payment of principal or interest on such nominal amount of such Notes, for which purpose the bearer of the relevant Global Note or the registered holder of the relevant Global Certificate shall be treated by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Trustee and any Agent as the holder of such nominal amount of such Notes in accordance with and subject to the terms of the relevant Global Note or Global Certificate and the expressions “Noteholder” and “holder of Notes” and related expressions shall be construed accordingly. Notwithstanding the above, if a Note (whether in global or definitive form) is held through the CMU, any payment that is made in respect of such Note shall be made at the direction of the bearer or the registered holder to the person(s) for whose account(s) interests in such Note are credited as being held through the CMU in accordance with the CMU Rules at the relevant time and such payments shall discharge the obligation of the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Trustee (as the case may be) in respect of that payment under such Note. In addition, these Conditions are modified by certain provisions contained in the Global Note or the Global Certificate (as the case may be).

In these Conditions, “Noteholder” means the bearer of any Bearer Note and the Receipts relating to it or the person in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be), “holder” (in relation to a Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon) means the bearer of any Bearer Note, Receipt, Coupon or Talon or the person (or in the case of joint holders, the first-named thereof) in whose name a Registered Note is registered (as the case may be) and capitalised terms have the meanings given to them in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the absence of any such meaning indicating that such term is not applicable to the Notes.

References in these Conditions to Coupons, Couponholders, Talons, Receipts and Receiptholders relate to Bearer Notes only. References in these Conditions to Certificates relate to Registered Notes only.

2. NO EXCHANGE OF NOTES, TRANSFERS OF REGISTERED NOTES AND CERTIFICATES

In the case of a transfer of part only of a holding of Registered Notes (which shall be in a Specified Denomination) represented by one Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the transferee in respect of the part transferred and a further new Certificate in respect of the balance of the holding not transferred (which shall be in a Specified Denomination) shall be issued to the transferor. All transfers of Notes and entries on the Register will be made in accordance with detailed regulations concerning transfers of Notes, the initial form of which is scheduled to the Agency Agreement (the “Regulations”). The Regulations may be changed by the Issuer, with the prior written approval of the Registrar and the Trustee, or by the Registrar, with the prior written approval of the Trustee. A copy of the current Regulations will be made available (free of charge to the Noteholder and at the expense of the Issuer, failing which the Guarantor) by the Registrar to any Noteholder following prior written request and provision of proof of holding and identity satisfactory to the Registrar. No transfer of title to a Registered Note will be valid unless and until entered on the Register.

- (c) Exercise of Options or Partial Redemption in Respect of Registered Notes: In the case of an exercise of the Issuer's or a Noteholders' option in respect of, or a partial redemption of, a holding of Registered Notes represented by a single Certificate, a new Certificate shall be issued to the holder to reflect the exercise of such option or in respect of the balance of the holding not redeemed. In the case of a partial exercise of an option resulting in Registered Notes of the same holding having different terms, separate Certificates shall be issued in respect of those Registered Notes of that holding that have the same terms. New Certificates shall only be issued against surrender of the existing Certificates to the Registrar or any other Transfer Agent. (A) ISDA Determination for Floating Rate Notes

Where ISDA Determination is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period shall be determined by the Calculation Agent as a rate equal to the relevant ISDA Rate, provided that in any circumstances where under the ISDA Definitions the Calculation Agent would be required to exercise any discretion, including the selection of any reference banks and seeking quotations from reference banks, when calculating the relevant ISDA Rate, the relevant determination(s) which require the Calculation Agent to exercise its discretion shall instead be made by the Issuer or its designee. For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), “ISDA Rate” for an Interest Accrual Period means a rate equal to the Floating Rate that would be determined by the Calculation Agent under a Swap Transaction under the terms of an agreement incorporating the ISDA Definitions and under which:

(x) if the Pricing Supplement specifies either “2006 ISDA Definitions” or “2021 ISDA Definitions” as the applicable ISDA Definitions:

(1) the Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement;

(2) the Designated Maturity (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions), if applicable, is a period specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement; and

(3) the relevant Reset Date (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) is as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement;

(4) if the specified Floating Rate Option is an Overnight Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions), Compounding is specified to be applicable in the applicable Pricing Supplement and:

(I) Compounding with Lookback is specified as the Compounding Method in the applicable Pricing Supplement, then (a) Compounding with Lookback is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method and (b) Lookback is the number of Applicable Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement;

(II) Compounding with Observation Period Shift is specified as the Compounding Method in the applicable Pricing Supplement, then (a) Compounding with Observation Period Shift is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method, (b) Observation Period Shift is the number of Observation Period Shift Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement and (c) Observation Period Shift Additional Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions), if applicable, are the days specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement; or

(III) Compounding with Lockout is specified as the Compounding Method in the applicable Pricing Supplement, then (a)

Compounding with Lockout is the Overnight Rate Compounding Method, (b) Lockout is the number of Lockout Period Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement and (c) Lockout Period Business Days, if applicable, are the days specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement; and

- (5) if the specified Floating Rate Option is an Index Floating Rate Option (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) and Index Provisions are specified to be applicable in the applicable Pricing Supplement), the Compounded Index Method with Observation Period Shift shall be applicable and, (a) Observation Period Shift is the number of Observation Period Shift Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement); and (b) Observation Period Shift Additional Business Days (as defined in the relevant ISDA Definitions) are the days, if applicable, specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement);

For the purposes of this sub-paragraph (A), “Floating Rate”, “Calculation Agent” and “Swap Transaction” have the meanings given to those terms in either the “2006 ISDA Definitions” or “2021 ISDA Definitions” as the applicable ISDA Definitions.

(B) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes not referencing SOFR Benchmark

(x) Subject to Condition 5(b)(v), where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined (other than in respect of Notes for which the Reference Rate is SOFR Benchmark), the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will, subject as provided below, be either:

(1) the offered quotation; or

(2) the arithmetic mean of the offered quotations,

(expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate which appears or appear, as the case may be, on the Relevant Screen Page as at either 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time in the case of EURIBOR or Hong Kong time in the case of HIBOR) or in the case of CNH HIBOR, 11.15 a.m. (Hong Kong time) or if, at or around that time it is notified that the fixing will be published at 2.30 p.m. (Hong Kong time), then 2.30 p.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Interest Determination Date in question, in each case as determined by the Calculation Agent. If five or more of such offered quotations are available on the Relevant Screen Page, the highest (or, if there is more than one such highest quotation, one only of such quotations) and the lowest (or, if there is more than one such lowest quotation, one only of such quotations) shall be disregarded by the Calculation Agent for the purpose of determining the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations.

If the Reference Rate from time to time in respect of Floating Rate Notes is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as being other than EURIBOR, HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, the Rate of Interest in respect of such Notes will be determined as provided in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

(y) if the Relevant Screen Page is not available or, if sub-paragraph (x)(1) applies and no such offered quotation appears on the Relevant Screen Page, or, if sub-paragraph (x)(2) applies and fewer than three such offered quotations appear on the Relevant Screen Page, in each case as at the time specified above, subject as provided below, the Issuer shall request, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the principal Euro-zone office of each of the Reference Banks, or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, the principal Hong Kong office of each of the Reference Banks, to provide the Calculation Agent with its offered quotation (expressed as a percentage rate per annum) for the Reference Rate if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the Interest Determination Date in question. If two or more of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered quotations, the Rate of Interest for such Interest Accrual Period shall be the arithmetic mean of such offered quotations as determined by the Calculation Agent; and

- (z) if paragraph (y) above applies and the Calculation Agent determines that fewer than two Reference Banks are providing offered quotations, subject as provided below, the Rate of Interest shall be the arithmetic mean of the rates per annum (expressed as a percentage) as communicated to (and at the request of) the Calculation Agent by the Reference Banks or any two or more of them, at which such banks were offered, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time) on the relevant Interest Determination Date, deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate by leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, the Hong Kong inter-bank market, as the case may be, or, if fewer than two of the Reference Banks provide the Calculation Agent with such offered rates, the offered rate for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, or the arithmetic mean of the offered rates for deposits in the Specified Currency for a period equal to that which would have been used for the Reference Rate, at which, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, at approximately 11.00 a.m. (Hong Kong time), on the relevant Interest Determination Date, any one or more banks (which bank or banks is or are in the opinion of the Issuer suitable for such purpose) informs the Calculation Agent it is quoting to leading banks in, if the Reference Rate is EURIBOR, the Euro-zone inter-bank market or, if the Reference Rate is HIBOR or CNH HIBOR, the Hong Kong inter-bank market, as the case may be, provided that, if the Rate of Interest cannot be determined in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this paragraph, the Rate of Interest shall be that determined as at the last preceding Interest Determination Date (though substituting, where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period, in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period).

(C) Screen Rate Determination for Floating Rate Notes referencing SOFR Benchmark

Subject to Condition 5(b)(vi), where Screen Rate Determination is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement as the manner in which the Rate of Interest is to be determined where the Reference Rate is SOFR Benchmark, the Rate of Interest for each Interest Accrual Period will, subject as provided below, be equal to the relevant SOFR Benchmark plus or minus the Margin (if any) in accordance with Condition 5(i), all as determined by the Calculation Agent on the relevant Interest Determination Date.

The “SOFR Benchmark” will be determined based on Simple SOFR Average, Compounded Daily SOFR or Compounded SOFR Index, as follows (subject in each case to Condition 5(b)(vi) as further specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement):

If a Benchmark Event occurs in relation to an Original Reference Rate when any Rate of Interest (or any component part thereof) remains to be determined by reference to such Original Reference Rate the Issuer shall use its reasonable endeavours to appoint an Independent Adviser, as soon as reasonably practicable, to determine a Successor Rate, failing which an Alternative Rate (in accordance with Condition 5(b)(v)(B)) and, in either case, an Adjustment Spread and any Benchmark Amendments (in accordance with Condition 5(b)(v)(D)). In making such determination, Independent Adviser appointed pursuant to this Condition 5(b)(v) shall act in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner as an expert. In the absence of bad faith or fraud, the Independent Adviser shall have no liability whatsoever to the Issuer, the Trustee, the Paying Agents, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders or the Couponholders for any determination made by it, pursuant to this Condition 5(b)(v).

If (i) the Issuer is unable to appoint an Independent Adviser or (ii) the Independent Adviser appointed by it fails to determine a Successor Rate or, failing which, an Alternative Rate in accordance with this Condition 5(b)(v)(A) prior to the date which is 10 business days prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Rate of Interest applicable to the next succeeding Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the Rate of Interest last determined in relation to the Notes in respect of the immediately preceding Interest Accrual Period. If there has not been a first Interest Payment Date, the Rate of Interest shall be the initial Rate of Interest. Where a different Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest is to be applied to the relevant Interest Accrual Period from that which applied to the last preceding Interest Accrual Period, the Margin or Maximum or Minimum

Rate of Interest relating to the relevant Interest Accrual Period shall be substituted in place of the Margin or Maximum or Minimum Rate of Interest relating to that last preceding Interest Accrual Period. For the avoidance of doubt, this paragraph shall apply to the relevant next succeeding Interest Accrual Period only and any subsequent Interest Accrual Periods are subject to the subsequent operation of, and to adjustment as provided in, the first paragraph of this Condition 5(b)(v)(A).

(B) Successor Rate or Alternative Rate

If the Independent Adviser, determines that:

- (x) there is a Successor Rate, then such Successor Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 5(b)(v)); or
- (y) there is no Successor Rate but that there is an Alternative Rate, then such Alternative Rate and the applicable Adjustment Spread shall subsequently be used in place of the Original Reference Rate to determine the Rate of Interest (or the relevant component part thereof) for all future payments of interest on the Notes (subject to the operation of this Condition 5(b)(v)).

(C) Adjustment Spread

The Adjustment Spread (or the formula or methodology for determining the Adjustment Spread) shall be applied to the Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be). If the Independent Adviser is unable to determine the quantum of, or a formula or methodology for determining, such Adjustment Spread, then the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate (as applicable) will apply without an Adjustment Spread.

(D) Benchmark Amendments

If any Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and, in either case, the applicable Adjustment Spread is determined in accordance with this Condition 5(b)(v) and the Independent Adviser, determines (i) that amendments to these Conditions, the Trust Deed and/or the Agency Agreement are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and/or (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread (such amendments, the “Benchmark Amendments”) and (ii) the terms of the Benchmark Amendments, then the Issuer shall, subject to giving notice thereof in accordance with Condition 5(b)(v)(E), without any requirement for the consent or approval of Noteholders, vary these Conditions and/or the Agency Agreement to give effect to such Benchmark Amendments with effect from the date specified in such notice.

At the request of the Issuer, but subject to receipt by the Trustee of a certificate signed by an Authorised Signatory of the Issuer pursuant to Condition 5(b)(v)(E) confirming that a Benchmark Amendment has occurred, the Trustee shall (at the expense of the Issuer), without any requirement for the consent or approval of the Noteholders, be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments (including, inter alia, by the execution of a deed supplemental to or amending the Trust Deed), provided that the Trustee shall not be obliged so to concur if in the opinion of the Trustee doing so would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions afforded to the Trustee in these Conditions or the Trust Deed (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any supplemental trust deed) in any way. The Trustee shall have no obligation to monitor or take any action to ascertain whether the Benchmark Amendments are authorised or permitted under these Conditions and the Trust Deed and shall be entitled to accept and rely conclusively, without further inquiry or investigation, upon any such certificate as sufficient evidence that such Benchmark Amendments are permitted pursuant to and is being made in accordance with this Condition 5(b)(v)(D) and the Trust Deed without liability to the Issuer, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders or the Couponholders or any other person, and the same shall be conclusive and binding on the Issuer, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders and the Couponholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 5(b)(v), the Calculation Agent or any Paying Agent is not obliged to concur with the Issuer or the Independent Adviser in respect of any changes or amendments as contemplated under this Condition 5(b)(v) to which, in the sole opinion of the Calculation Agent or the relevant Paying Agent, as the case may be, would impose more onerous obligations upon it or expose it to any additional duties, responsibilities or liabilities or reduce or amend the protective provisions afforded to the Calculation Agent or the relevant Paying Agent (as applicable) in the Agency Agreement and/or these Conditions. If in the opinion of the relevant Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent, there is any uncertainty as to which course of action to adopt in making any determination or calculation under this Condition 5(b)(v), such Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent shall as soon as reasonably practicable seek written instructions from the Issuer and/or the Independent Adviser and the Issuer shall instruct such Agent or the Calculation Agent (in writing) as to which alternative course of action to adopt. If such Paying Agent or the Calculation Agent is not promptly provided with such instruction, or is otherwise unable to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer and/or the Independent Adviser, and such Paying Agent and the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

In connection with any such variation in accordance with this Condition 5(b)(v)(D), the Issuer shall comply with the rules of any stock exchange on which the Notes are for the time being listed or admitted to trading.

(E) Notices, etc.

Any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread and the specific terms of any Benchmark Amendments determined under this Condition 5(b)(v) will be notified at least 10 business days prior to the relevant Interest Determination Date by the Issuer to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agents. In accordance with Condition 16, notice shall be provided to the Noteholders promptly thereafter. Such notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the effective date of the Benchmark Amendments, if any.

No later than notifying the Noteholders of the same, the Issuer shall deliver to the Trustee, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agents a certificate signed by two Authorised Signatories of the Issuer:

- (x) confirming (i) that a Benchmark Event has occurred, (ii) the Successor Rate or, as the case may be, the Alternative Rate, (iii) the applicable Adjustment Spread and (iv) the specific terms of the Benchmark Amendments (if any), in each case as determined in accordance with the provisions of this Condition 5(b)(v); and
- (y) certifying that the Benchmark Amendments (if any) are necessary to ensure the proper operation of such Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and (in either case) the applicable Adjustment Spread.

Each of the Trustee, the Calculation Agent and the Paying Agents shall be entitled to rely conclusively on such certificate (without further inquiry and without liability to any person) as sufficient evidence thereof. The Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) specified in such certificate will (in the absence of manifest error or bad faith in the determination of the Successor Rate or Alternative Rate and the Adjustment Spread and the Benchmark Amendments (if any) and without prejudice to the Trustee's or the Calculation Agent's or the Paying Agents' ability to rely on such certificate as aforesaid) be binding on the Issuer, the Trustee, the Calculation Agent, the Paying Agents and the Noteholders.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Condition 5(b)(v), if following the determination of any Successor Rate, Alternative Rate, Adjustment Spread or Benchmark Amendments (if any), in the Calculation Agent's opinion there is any uncertainty between two or more alternative courses of action in making any determination or calculation under this Condition 5(b)(v), the Calculation Agent shall as soon as reasonably practicable notify the Issuer thereof and the Issuer shall direct the Calculation Agent in writing as to which alternative course of action to adopt. If the Calculation Agent is not promptly provided with such direction, or is otherwise unable (other than due to its own gross negligence, wilful default or fraud) to make such calculation or determination for any reason, it shall notify the Issuer thereof and the Calculation Agent shall be under no obligation to make such calculation or determination and (in the absence of such gross negligence, wilful default or fraud) shall not incur any liability for not doing so.

(F) Survival of Original Reference Rate

Without prejudice to the obligations of the Issuer under Conditions 5(b)(v)(A), (B), (C) and (D), the Original Reference Rate and the fallback provisions provided for in Condition 5(b)(iii) will continue to apply unless and until a Benchmark Event has occurred.

(G) Definitions:

- (y) the Independent Adviser determines, is customarily applied to the relevant Successor Rate or the Alternative Rate (as the case may be) in international debt capital markets transactions to produce an industry-accepted replacement rate for the Original Reference Rate; or (if Independent Adviser determines that no such spread is customarily applied);

The following provisions shall apply if “Benchmark Discontinuation for Floating Rate Notes referencing SOFR Benchmark” is specified as applicable in the applicable Pricing Supplement:

(A) Benchmark Replacement

If the Issuer or its designee determines on or prior to the relevant Reference Time that a Benchmark Event and its related Benchmark Replacement Date have occurred with respect to the then-current Benchmark, the Benchmark Replacement will replace the then-current Benchmark for all purposes relating to the Notes in respect of all determinations on such date and for all determinations on all subsequent dates.

(B) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes

“Benchmark Replacement Date” means the earliest to occur of the following events with respect to the then-current Benchmark (including any daily published component used in the calculation thereof):

As from the Maturity Date, the Rate of Interest for any overdue principal of such a Note shall be a rate per annum (expressed as a percentage) equal to the Amortisation Yield (as described in Condition 6(b)(i)).

For these purposes “unit” means the lowest amount of such currency that is available as legal tender in the jurisdiction(s) of such currency.

- (h) Calculations: The amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of any Note for any Interest Accrual Period shall be equal to the product of the Rate of Interest, the Calculation Amount specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, and the Day Count Fraction for such Interest Accrual Period, unless an Interest Amount (or a formula for its calculation) is applicable to such Interest Accrual Period, in which case the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Note for such Interest Accrual Period shall equal such Interest Amount (or be calculated in accordance with such formula). Where any Interest Period comprises two or more Interest Accrual Periods, the amount of interest payable per Calculation Amount in respect of such Interest Period shall be the sum of the Interest Amounts payable in respect of each of those Interest Accrual Periods. In respect of any other period for which interest is required to be calculated, the provisions above shall apply save that the Day Count Fraction shall be for the period for which interest is required to be calculated.

- (i) Determination and Publication of Rates of Interest, Interest Amounts, Final Redemption Amounts, Early Redemption Amounts, Optional Redemption Amounts and Instalment Amounts: The Calculation Agent shall, as soon as practicable on each Interest Determination Date, or such other time on such date as the Calculation Agent may be required to calculate any rate or amount, make any determination or calculation, determine such rate and calculate the Interest Amounts for the relevant Interest Accrual Period, calculate the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount or Instalment Amount, make such determination or calculation, as the case may be, and cause the Rate of Interest and the Interest Amounts for each Interest Accrual Period and the relevant Interest Payment Date and, if required to be calculated, the Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount, Optional Redemption Amount or any Instalment Amount to be notified to the Trustee, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents, each of the Transfer Agents, the Noteholders, any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes that is to make a further calculation upon receipt of such information as soon as possible after their determination but in no event later than (i) the commencement of the relevant Interest Period, if determined prior to such time, in the case of notification to such exchange of a Rate of Interest and Interest Amount, or (ii) in all other cases, the fourth Business Day after such determination. Where any Interest Payment Date or Interest Period Date is subject to adjustment pursuant to Condition 5(b)(ii), the Interest Amounts and the Interest Payment Date so published may subsequently be amended (or appropriate alternative arrangements made with the consent of the Trustee by way of adjustment) without notice in the event of an extension or shortening of the Interest Period. If the Notes become due and payable under Condition 10, the accrued interest and the Rate of Interest payable in respect of the Notes shall nevertheless continue to be calculated as previously in accordance with this Condition 5 and notified to the Trustee, the Issuer, each of the Paying Agents and any other Calculation Agent appointed in respect of the Notes but no publication of the Rate of Interest or the Interest Amount so calculated need be made unless the Trustee otherwise requires. The determination of any rate or amount and the making of each determination or calculation by the Calculation Agent(s) shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon all parties.
- (j) Determination or Calculation by an agent of the Issuer: Without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 5(l) below, if the Calculation Agent does not at any time for any reason determine or calculate the Rate of Interest for an Interest Accrual Period or any Interest Amount, Instalment Amount, Final Redemption Amount, Early Redemption Amount or Optional Redemption Amount, the Issuer shall appoint an agent on its behalf to do so (and notify the Trustee in writing of such appointment) and such determination or calculation shall be deemed to have been made by the Calculation Agent. In doing so, such agent shall apply the foregoing provisions of this Condition 5, with any necessary consequential amendments, to the extent that, in its opinion, it can do so, and, in all other respects it shall do so in such manner as it shall deem fair and reasonable in all the circumstances.

- (iv) if “Actual/360” is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the actual number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360;
- (v) if “30/360”, “360/360” or “Bond Basis” is specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the number of days in the Calculation Period divided by 360, calculated on a formula basis as follows:

$$\text{Day Count Fraction} = \frac{[360 \times (Y_2 - Y_1)] + [30 \times (M_2 - M_1)] + (D_2 - D_1)}{360}$$ where:

“Y₁” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the first day of the Calculation Period falls;

“Y₂” is the year, expressed as a number, in which the day immediately following the last day included in the Calculation Period falls;

6. REDEMPTION, PURCHASE AND OPTIONS

(a) Redemption by Instalments and Final Redemption:

- (i) Unless previously redeemed, purchased and cancelled as provided in this Condition 6, each Note that provides for Instalment Dates and Instalment Amounts shall be partially redeemed on each Instalment Date at the related Instalment Amount specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement. The outstanding nominal amount of each such Note shall be reduced by the Instalment Amount (or, if such Instalment Amount is calculated by reference to a proportion of the nominal amount of such Note, such proportion) for all purposes with effect from the related Instalment Date, unless payment of the Instalment Amount is improperly withheld or refused, in which case, such amount shall remain outstanding until the Relevant Date relating to such Instalment Amount.
- (ii) Unless previously redeemed or purchased and cancelled as provided below, each Note shall be finally redeemed on the Maturity Date specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement at its Final Redemption Amount (which, unless otherwise provided in the applicable Pricing Supplement, is its nominal amount) or, in the case of a Note falling within Condition 6(a)(i) above, its final Instalment Amount.

(b) Early Redemption:

(i) Zero Coupon Notes:

- (A) The Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any Zero Coupon Note, the Early Redemption Amount of which is not linked to an index and/or a formula, upon redemption of such Note pursuant to Condition 6(c), Condition 6(e) or Condition 6(h) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 shall be the Amortised Face Amount (calculated as provided below) of such Note unless otherwise specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

- (C) If the Early Redemption Amount payable in respect of any such Note upon its redemption pursuant to Condition 6(c), Condition 6(e) or Condition 6(h) or upon it becoming due and payable as provided in Condition 10 is not paid when due, the Early Redemption Amount due and payable in respect of such Note shall be the Amortised Face Amount of such Note as defined in sub-paragraph (B) above of this Condition 6(b)(i), except that such sub-paragraph shall have effect as though the date on which the Note becomes due and payable were the Relevant Date. The calculation of the Amortised Face Amount in accordance with this sub-paragraph shall continue to be made (both before and after judgment) until the Relevant Date, unless the Relevant Date falls on or after the Maturity Date, in which case the amount due and payable shall be the scheduled Final Redemption Amount of such Note on the Maturity Date together with any interest that may accrue in accordance with Condition 5(c).

Where such calculation is to be made for a period of less than one year, it shall be made on the basis of the Day Count Fraction shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

pay Additional Tax Amounts as provided or referred to in Condition 8 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Relevant Jurisdiction (as defined in Condition 8 below), or any change in the application or official interpretation of, such laws or regulations (including but not limited to any decision by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the date on which agreement is reached to issue the first tranche of the Notes, and (ii) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) taking reasonable measures available to it, provided that no Tax Redemption Notice shall be given earlier than 90 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) would be obliged to pay such Additional Tax Amounts were a payment in respect of the Notes (or the Guarantee, as the case may be) then due.

The Trustee shall be entitled (but shall not be obliged) to accept and rely conclusively upon such certificate and opinion (without further investigation or query and without liability to the Noteholders or any other person) as sufficient evidence of the satisfaction of the conditions precedent set out in (i) and (ii) above of this Condition 6(b), in which event the same shall be conclusive and binding on the Noteholders.

In order to exercise such right, the holder of the relevant Note must deposit (in the case of Bearer Notes) such Note (together with all unmatured Receipts and Coupons and unexchanged Talons) with any Paying Agent or (in the case of Registered Notes) the Certificate representing such Note(s) with the Registrar or any Transfer Agent at its specified office, together with a duly completed and signed notice of redemption, in the form for the time being current, obtainable from the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent or any other Paying Agent (a "Put Exercise Notice"), by not later than 30 days following the occurrence of a Change of Control, or, if later, 30 days following the date upon which notice thereof is given to Noteholders by the Issuer in accordance with Condition 16.

The “Put Settlement Date” shall be the fourteenth day after the expiry of such period of 30 days as referred to in the preceding paragraph of this Condition 6(d). A Put Exercise Notice, once delivered, shall be irrevocable and the Issuer shall redeem the Notes the subject of the Put Exercise Notices delivered as aforesaid on the Put Settlement Date.

The Issuer shall give notice in writing to Noteholders in accordance with Condition 16 and to the Trustee and the Issuing and Paying Agent in writing by not later than 14 days following the first day on which it becomes aware of the occurrence of a Change of Control, which notice shall specify the procedure for exercise by holders of their rights to require redemption of the Notes pursuant to this Condition 6(d).

For the purposes of these Conditions: a “Change of Control” occurs when:

- (i) the Guarantor ceases to directly or indirectly hold or own 100 per cent. of the issued share capital of the Issuer; or
- (ii) SASAC and/or its successors together with any other person(s) directly or indirectly Controlled by SASAC or the central government of the PRC cease to directly or indirectly hold or own at least 51 per cent. of the issued share capital of the Guarantor; or

Any such redemption of Notes shall be at their

Any such redemption or exercise must relate to Notes of a nominal amount at least equal to the Minimum Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement and no greater than the Maximum Redemption Amount specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement. Neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents shall be under any duty to monitor whether any event or circumstance has happened or exists within or as contemplated in this Condition 6 and none of them will be responsible or liable to the Noteholders or any other person for any loss arising from any failure by it to do so. Unless and until the Trustee or any Agent has notice in writing of the occurrence of any event or circumstance within this Condition 6, it shall be entitled to assume that no such event or circumstance has occurred or exists.

Neither the Trustee nor any of the Agents (other than, where specifically provided for in these Conditions, the relevant Calculation Agent) shall be responsible for calculating or verifying the calculations of any amount payable under any notice of redemption under this Condition 6, whether from the Issuer or any Noteholder and none of them shall be liable to the Noteholders, the Issuer, the Guarantor or any other person for not doing so.

So long as the Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Certificate and the Global Note or Global Certificate is held by or on behalf of Euroclear or Clearstream or an Alternative Clearing System (as defined in the form of the Global Note or Global Certificate), each payment in respect of the Global Certificate will be made to, or to the order of, the person shown as the holder of the Notes in the Register at the close of business (of the relevant clearing system) on the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the due date for such payment, where “Clearing System Business Day” means a weekday (Monday to Friday, inclusive) except 25 December and 1 January.

So long as the Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Certificate and the Notes are cleared through the CMU, payments of interest, principal or premium will be made by the CMU to the persons for whose account a relevant interest in the Global Note or Global Certificate is credited as being held by the Hong Kong Monetary Authority as operator of the CMU at the close of business of the Clearing System Business Day immediately prior to the date of payment, where “Clearing System Business Day” means a day on which the CMU is operating and open for business. Such payment shall discharge the obligations of the Issuer in respect of that payment. Any payments by the CMU participants to indirect participants will be governed by arrangements agreed between the CMU participants and the indirect participants and will continue to depend on the inter-bank clearing system and traditional payment methods. Such payments will be the sole responsibility of such CMU participants, and the Trustee, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent and the other Agents shall have no liability to the Noteholders, the Issuer, the Guarantor, the CMU participants, the indirect participants or any other person in respect of any such payment.

(d) Payments subject to Fiscal Laws: All payments are subject in all cases to (i) any applicable fiscal or other laws, regulations and directives applicable thereto in the place of payment (but without prejudice to the provisions of Condition 8) and (ii) any withholding or deduction required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) or Any amount so deducted shall be paid in the manner mentioned above against surrender of such missing Coupon within a period of 10 years from the Relevant Date for the payment of such principal (whether or not such Coupon has become void pursuant to Condition 9).

- (ii) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note comprising a Floating Rate Note, Dual Currency Note or Index Linked Note, unmatured Coupons relating to such Note (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of them.

- (iv) Upon the due date for redemption of any Bearer Note that is redeemable in instalments, all Receipts relating to such Note having an Instalment Date falling on or after such due date (whether or not attached) shall become void and no payment shall be made in respect of them.
- (v) Where any Bearer Note that provides that the relevant unmatured Coupons are to become void upon the due date for redemption of those Notes is presented for redemption without all unmatured Coupons, and where any Bearer Note is presented for redemption without any unexchanged Talon relating to it, redemption shall be made only against the provision of such indemnity as the Issuer may require.
- (vi) If the due date for redemption of any Note is not a due date for payment of interest, interest accrued from the preceding due date for payment of interest or the Interest Commencement Date, as the case may be, shall only be payable against presentation (and surrender if appropriate) of the relevant Bearer Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be. Interest accrued on a Note that only bears interest after its Maturity Date shall be payable on redemption of such Note against presentation of the relevant Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be.

- (f) Talons: On or after the Interest Payment Date for the final Coupon forming part of a Coupon sheet issued in respect of any Bearer Note, the Talon forming part of such Coupon sheet may be surrendered at the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent on any business day in the location of the specified office of the Issuing and Paying Agent in exchange for a further Coupon sheet (and if necessary another Talon for a further Coupon sheet) (but excluding any Coupons that may have become void pursuant to Condition 9).
- (g) Redemption Date Not an Interest Payment Date: If the due date for redemption of any Note is not a due date for payment of interest, interest accrued from the preceding due date for payment of interest or the Interest Commencement Date, as the case may be, shall only be payable against presentation (and surrender if appropriate) of the relevant Bearer Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be. Interest accrued on a Note that only bears interest after its Maturity Date shall be payable on redemption of such Note against presentation of the relevant Note or Certificate representing it, as the case may be.
- (h) Non-Business Days: If any date for payment in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon is not a business day, the holder shall not be entitled to payment until the next following business day nor to any interest or other sum in respect of such postponed payment.

In this Condition 7, “business day” means a day (other than a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business in the relevant place of presentation, in such jurisdictions as shall be specified as “Additional Financial Centres” in the applicable Pricing Supplement and:

- (ii) (in the case of a payment in euro) which is a T2 Business Day; or
- (iii) (in the case of a payment in Renminbi) on which banks and foreign exchange markets are open for business and settlement of Renminbi payments in Hong Kong.

8. TAXATION

All payments of principal, premium (if any) and interest by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor in respect of the Notes, the Receipts, the Coupons or under the Guarantee shall be made without set-off or counterclaim and free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction for or on account of, any taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or within any Relevant Jurisdiction, unless such set-off, counterclaim, withholding or deduction is required by law.

If the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor is required to make any set-off or counterclaim, or any deduction or withholding by or within any Relevant Jurisdiction, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor in such event shall pay such additional amounts (“Additional Tax Amounts”) so that the net amount received by Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders equals the amount which would otherwise have been receivable by them had no such set-off or counterclaim, or withholding or deduction been required, except that no such Additional Tax Amounts shall be payable in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon:

- (a) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder who is liable to such taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges in respect of such Note, Receipt or Coupon by reason of his having some connection with such Relevant Jurisdiction other than the mere holding of the Note, Receipt or Coupon; or
- (b) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who could lawfully avoid (but has not so avoided) such deduction or withholding by complying or procuring that any third party complies with any statutory requirements or by making or procuring that any third party makes a declaration of non-residence or other similar claim for exemption to any tax authority in the place where the relevant Note (or the Certificate representing it), Receipt or Coupon is presented for payment; or
- (c) presented (or in respect of which the Certificate representing it is presented) for payment (where presentation is required) more than 30 days after the Relevant Date except to the extent that the Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder would have been entitled to such Additional Tax Amounts on presenting it for payment on the thirtieth day.

As used in these Conditions,

“Relevant Date” in respect of any Note, Receipt or Coupon means the date on which payment in respect of it first becomes due or (if any amount of the money payable is improperly withheld or refused) the date on which payment in full of the amount outstanding is made or (if earlier) the date falling seven days after that on which notice is duly given to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 16 that, upon further presentation of the Note (or relevant Certificate), Receipt or Coupon being made in accordance with these Conditions, such payment will be made, provided that payment is in fact made upon such presentation. References in these Conditions to (i) “principal” shall be deemed to include any premium payable in respect of the Notes,

“Relevant Jurisdiction” means the British Virgin Islands, Hong Kong or the PRC or any other jurisdiction to which the Issuer or the Guarantor becomes subject in respect of payments made by it of principal, premium and interest on the Notes, and in each case any political subdivision or any authority therein or thereof having power to tax.

For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Trustee nor any Agent shall be responsible or liable for paying any tax, duty, charge, assessment, governmental charge, withholding or other payment referred to in this Condition 8 or for determining whether such amounts are payable or the amount thereof, and none of the Trustee or any of the Agents shall be responsible or liable for (A) determining whether the Issuer, the Guarantor or any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder is liable to pay any tax, duty, charge, assessment, governmental charge, withholding or other payment referred to in this Condition 8; or (B) determining the sufficiency or insufficiency of any amounts so paid. None of the Trustee or the Agents shall be responsible or liable for any failure of the Issuer, the Guarantor, any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder, or any other third party to pay such tax, duty, charge, assessment, governmental charge, withholding or other payment in any jurisdiction or to provide any notice or information to the Trustee or any Agent that would permit, enable or facilitate the payment of any principal, premium (if any), interest or other amount under or in respect of the Notes without deduction or withholding for or on account of any tax, duty, charge, assessment, governmental charge, withholding or other payment imposed by or in any jurisdiction.

9. PRESCRIPTION

Claims against the Issuer and/or the Guarantor for payment in respect of the Notes, Receipts and Coupons (which, for this purpose, shall not include Talons) shall be prescribed and become void unless made within 10 years (in the case of principal) or five years (in the case of interest) from the appropriate Relevant Date in respect of them.

The Trustee shall be entitled to, rely conclusively upon any such certificate without further investigation or query and without liability to the Noteholders or any other person.

11. MEETINGS OF NOTEHOLDERS, MODIFICATION, WAIVER AND SUBSTITUTION

- (a) Meetings of Noteholders: The Trust Deed contains provisions for convening meetings of Noteholders (including meetings held by way of video or audio conference call) to consider matters affecting their interests, including without limitation the sanctioning by Extraordinary Resolution of a modification of any of these Conditions or any provisions of the Trust Deed and the Agency Agreement. Such a meeting may be convened by the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Trustee and shall be convened by the Trustee upon the written request of Noteholders holding not less than 10 per cent. in aggregate nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed) and subject to the Trustee being indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction. The quorum for any meeting convened to consider an Extraordinary Resolution will be two or more persons holding or representing more than 50 per cent. in aggregate nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed), or at any adjourned meeting two or more persons being or representing Noteholders whatever the nominal amount of the Notes held or represented, unless the business of such meeting includes consideration of proposals, inter alia, (i) to amend the dates of maturity or redemption of the Notes, any Instalment Date or any date for payment of interest or Interest Amounts on the Notes, (ii) to reduce or cancel the nominal amount of, or any Instalment Amount of, or any Redemption Amount in respect of, or any premium payable on redemption of, the Notes, (iii) to reduce the rate or rates of interest in respect of the Notes or to vary the method or basis of calculating the rate or rates or amount of interest or the basis for calculating any Interest Amount in respect of the Notes, (iv) if a Minimum Rate of Interest and/or a Maximum Rate of Interest is shown in the applicable Pricing Supplement, to reduce any such Minimum Rate of Interest and/or Maximum Rate of Interest, (v) to vary any method of, or basis for, calculating the Final Redemption Amount, the Early Redemption Amount or the Optional Redemption Amount, including the method of calculating the Amortised Face Amount, (vi) to vary the currency or currencies of payment or denomination of the Notes, or (vii) to modify the provisions concerning the quorum required at any meeting of Noteholders or the majority required to pass an Extraordinary Resolution, or (viii) to modify or cancel the relevant Guarantee otherwise than in accordance with Condition 11(b), in which case the necessary quorum will be two or more persons holding or representing not less than 75 per cent. or at any adjourned meeting not less than 25 per cent. in aggregate nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed). Any Extraordinary Resolution duly passed shall be binding on Noteholders (whether or not they were present at the meeting at which such resolution was passed) and on all Receiptholders and Couponholders.

The Trust Deed provides that a resolution (A) in writing signed by or on behalf of the holders of not less than 90 per cent. in aggregate nominal amount of the Notes for the time being outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed), or (B) passed by Electronic Consent (as defined in the Trust Deed) shall for all purposes be as valid and effective as an Extraordinary Resolution passed at a meeting of Noteholders duly convened and held. Such a resolution in writing may be contained in one document or several documents in the same form, each signed by or on behalf of one or more Noteholders. A resolution in writing and/or Electronic Consent will be binding on all Bondholders of the relevant Series whether or not they participated in such resolution in writing and/or Electronic Consent, as the case may be.

The Conditions may be amended, supplemented or varied in relation to any Series of Notes by the terms of the relevant Pricing Supplement in relation to such Series.

- (b) Modification of Agreements and Deeds: The Trustee may (but shall not be obliged to) agree, without the consent of the Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders, to (i) any modification of any of these Conditions or any of the provisions of the Trust

Deed or the Agency Agreement that is of a formal, minor or technical nature or is made to correct a manifest error or is to comply with any mandatory provision of applicable law, and (ii) any other modification (except as mentioned in the Trust Deed), and any waiver or authorisation of any breach or proposed breach, of any of these Conditions or any of the provisions of the Trust Deed or the Agency Agreement that is in the opinion of the Trustee not materially prejudicial to the interests of the Noteholders. Any such modification, authorisation or waiver shall be binding on the Noteholders, the Receiptholders and the Couponholders. Unless the Trustee otherwise agrees, such modification, authorisation or waiver shall be notified by the Issuer to the Noteholders in accordance with Condition 16 as soon as practicable thereafter. In addition, the Trustee and the Calculation Agent(s) shall be obliged to concur with the Issuer in effecting any Benchmark Amendments in the circumstances set out in Condition 5(b)(v)(D) without the consent of the Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders.

- (c) Entitlement of the Trustee: In connection with the exercise of its duties, functions, rights, authorities, powers and discretions (including but not limited to those referred to in this Condition 11) the Trustee shall have regard to the interests of the Noteholders as a class and shall not have regard to the consequences of such exercise for individual Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders, and the Trustee shall not be entitled to require on behalf of any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder, nor shall any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder be entitled to claim, from the Issuer, the Guarantor or the Trustee any indemnification or payment in respect of any tax consequence of any such exercise upon individual Noteholders or Couponholders.

12. ENFORCEMENT

At any time after the Notes become due and payable, the Trustee may (but shall not be obliged to), at its discretion and without further notice, take such steps and/or actions and/or institute such proceedings against the Issuer or the Guarantor as it may think fit to enforce the terms of the Trust Deed and the Notes, the Receipts and the Coupons, but it need not take any such steps and/or actions and/or institute any such proceedings unless (a) it shall have been so directed by an Extraordinary Resolution or so requested in writing by Noteholders holding at least 25 per cent. in aggregate nominal amount of the Notes then outstanding (as defined in the Trust Deed), and (b) it shall first have been indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction. No Noteholder, Receiptholder and/or Couponholder may proceed directly against the Issuer or the Guarantor unless the Trustee, having become bound so to proceed, fails to do so within a reasonable time and such failure is continuing.

13. INDEMNIFICATION OF THE TRUSTEE, APPOINTMENT OF AGENTS

- (a) Indemnification of the Trustee: The Trust Deed contains provisions for the indemnification of the Trustee and for its relief from responsibility, including, without limitation, provisions relieving it from taking such steps and/or actions and/or instituting such proceedings to enforce payment under the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement and/or these Conditions and in respect of the Notes unless first indemnified and/or secured and/or pre-funded to its satisfaction. The Trustee is entitled to enter into business transactions with the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or any entity related (directly or indirectly) to the Issuer or the Guarantor without accounting for any profit.

None of the Trustee or any of the Agents shall be responsible for the performance by the Issuer, the Guarantor and any other person appointed by the Issuer and/or the Guarantor in relation to the Notes of the duties and obligations on their part expressed in respect of the same and, unless it has written notice from the Issuer or the Guarantor to the contrary, the Trustee and each Agent shall be entitled to assume that the same are being duly performed. None of the Trustee or any Agent shall be liable to any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder or any other person for any action taken by the Trustee or such Agent in accordance with the instructions, directions, requests or resolutions of the Noteholders. The Trustee shall be entitled to rely conclusively without further inquiry and without liability on any instruction, direction, request or resolution of Noteholders given by holders of the requisite nominal amount of Notes outstanding or passed at a meeting of Noteholders convened and held in accordance with the Trust Deed. Whenever the Trustee is required or entitled by the terms of the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement or these Conditions to exercise any discretion or power, take any action, make any decision or give any direction, the Trustee is entitled, prior to its exercising any such discretion or power, taking any such action, making any such decision, or giving any such direction, to seek directions from the Noteholders by way of an Extraordinary Resolution, and the Trustee is not responsible for any loss or liability incurred by Issuer, the Guarantor, the Noteholders, the Receiptholders or the Couponholders or any person as a result of any delay in it exercising such discretion or power, taking such action, making such decision, or giving such direction where the Trustee is seeking such directions or in the event that no such directions are received. The Trustee and the Agents shall not be under any obligation to ascertain whether any Event of Default or Potential Event of Default (as defined in the Trust Deed) or Change of Control, as the case may be, has occurred or may occur or to monitor compliance by the Issuer or the Guarantor with the provisions of the Trust Deed, the Agency Agreement or these Conditions.

The Trustee and the Agents may rely conclusively without further inquiry and without liability to the Issuer, the Guarantor, Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders or any other person on any report, confirmation, opinion, information or certificate or any advice of any legal advisers, accountants, financial advisers, financial institution or any other expert, whether or not addressed to them and whether their liability in relation thereto is limited (by its terms or by any engagement letter relating thereto entered into by the Trustee or any other person or in any other manner) by reference to a monetary cap, methodology or otherwise. The Trustee or any Agent may accept and shall be entitled to rely conclusively without further inquiry and without liability on any such report, confirmation, opinion, information or certificate or advice and, in such event, such report, confirmation, opinion, information or certificate or advice shall be binding on the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Noteholders, Receiptholders and the Couponholders.

Each Noteholder shall be solely responsible for making and continuing to make its own independent appraisal and investigation into the financial condition, creditworthiness, condition, affairs, status and nature of the Issuer, the Guarantor and their respective Subsidiaries, and the Trustee shall not at any time have any responsibility for the same and each Noteholder, Receipholder and Couponholder shall not rely on the Trustee in respect thereof.

The Issuer and the Guarantor reserve the right at any time with the prior written approval of the Trustee (where required in accordance with these Conditions and/or the Agency Agreement) to vary or terminate the appointment of the Issuing and Paying Agent, the CMU Lodging and Paying Agent, any other Paying Agent, the Registrar, any other Transfer Agent or the Calculation Agent(s) and to appoint additional or other Paying Agents, Transfer Agents or Calculation Agents, provided that the Issuer and the Guarantor shall at all times maintain (i) an Issuing and Paying Agent, (ii) a Registrar in relation to Registered Notes, (iii) a Transfer Agent in relation to Registered Notes, (iv) a CMU Lodging and Paying Agent in relation to Notes accepted for clearance through the CMU, (v) one or more Calculation Agent(s) where these Conditions so require, and (vi) such other agents as may be required by any stock exchange on which the Notes may be listed, in each case, as approved by the Trustee.

14. REPLACEMENT OF NOTES, CERTIFICATES, RECEIPTS, COUPONS AND TALONS

15. FURTHER ISSUES

The Issuer may from time to time without the consent of the Noteholders, Receiptholders or Couponholders create and issue further securities having the same terms and conditions as the Notes in all respects (or in all respects except for the issue date, the issue price, the first payment of interest on them, and (if applicable) the timing for submission of the NDRC Post-Issue Filing and the timing for making the related notifications to the Trustee and the Noteholders) and so that such further issue shall be consolidated and form a single series with the outstanding Notes. References in these Conditions to the Notes include (unless the context requires otherwise) any such other securities issued pursuant to this Condition 15 and forming a single series with the Notes.

16. NOTICES

So long as the Notes are represented by a Global Note or Global Certificate and the Global Note or Global Certificate is held by or on behalf of: (i) Euroclear or Clearstream or an Alternative Clearing System (as defined in the form of the Global Note or Global Certificate), any notice to the holders of the Notes shall be validly given by the delivery of the relevant notice to Euroclear or Clearstream or the Alternative Clearing System for communication by the relevant clearing system to entitled accountholders in substitution

17. CURRENCY INDEMNITY

Any amount received or recovered in a currency other than the currency in which payment under the relevant Note, Receipt or Coupon is due (whether as a result of, or of the enforcement of, a judgment or order of a court of any jurisdiction, in the insolvency, winding-up or dissolution of the Issuer, the Guarantor or otherwise) by the Trustee or any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder in respect of any sum expressed to be due to it from the Issuer shall only constitute a discharge to the Issuer and the Guarantor to the extent of the amount in the currency of payment under the relevant Note, Receipt or Coupon that the recipient is able to purchase with the amount so received or recovered in that other currency on the date of that receipt or recovery (or, if it is not practicable to make that purchase on that date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so). If the amount received or recovered is less than the amount expressed to be due to the recipient under any Note, Receipt or Coupon, the Issuer and the Guarantor jointly and severally shall indemnify it, on demand, against any loss sustained by it as a result. In any event, the Issuer and the Guarantor jointly and severally shall indemnify, on demand, the recipient against the cost of making any such purchase. For the purposes of this Condition 17, it shall be sufficient for the Trustee or the Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder, as the case may be, to demonstrate that it would have suffered a loss had an actual purchase been made. These indemnities constitute a separate and independent obligation from the other obligations of the Issuer and the Guarantor, respectively, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any indulgence granted by the Trustee and/or any Noteholder, Receiptholder or Couponholder and shall continue to be in full force and effect despite any other judgment, order, claim or proof for a liquidated amount in respect of any sum due under any Note, Receipt or Coupon or any other judgment or order.

Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor has in the Trust Deed irrevocably submitted to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts and irrevocably waives any objection to any Proceedings in any such courts whether on the ground of venue or on the ground that the Proceedings have been brought in an inconvenient forum.
- (c) Agent for Service of Process: The Issuer has irrevocably appointed in the Trust Deed the Guarantor at Room 1802-3, 18/F Worldwide House, 19 Des Voeux Road Central, Central, Hong Kong to receive service of process in any Proceedings in Hong Kong. Nothing herein shall affect the right to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.
- (d) Independence and Waiver of Immunity: Each of the Issuer and the Guarantor has in the Trust Deed waived any right to claim sovereign or other immunity from jurisdiction or execution and any similar defence, and irrevocably consented to the giving of any relief or the issue of any process, including, without limitation, the making, enforcement or execution against any property whatsoever (irrespective of its use or intended use) of any order or judgment made or given in connection with any Proceedings.

Our Strengths

We believe that our historical success and future prospects are directly related to a combination of our strengths, including the following:

We are one of the world's leading ship leasing companies and enjoy wide recognition.

Established in 2012, we are the only red-chip listed company under CSSC Group. We stand as the premier shipyard-affiliated leasing company in Greater China and are among the foremost ship leasing companies in the world. Leveraging our close relationship with CSSC Group which possess robust industrial foundation and extensive maritime industry expertise, we are dedicated to expanding our leasing and investment operations in vessels and marine equipment, offering tailored and adaptable integrated shipping services, along with financial solutions, to ship operators, shippers, and traders worldwide.

We continued to deepen the reform as a state-owned enterprise with a market-oriented approach in general. We have formulated a special action plan for the Company and a list of work tasks to create value for world-class enterprises. The majority of our project partners are overseas customers and our vessels are sailing all over the world. We have established close ties with a large number of international maritime and financial institutions. Through our regular exchanges and cooperation with them, we have established an extensive international network that helps us to quickly grasp industry information and seize market opportunities.

In recognition of our outstanding business performance, established market presence and strong development potential, we were recognized as a “benchmark enterprise” in the assessment of “double hundred enterprises” of SASAC in 2022 and 2023. We were also awarded the recognition of “excellent” in the evaluation of the Board of China State Shipbuilding Corporation Limited in 2023 and named the Board of the Year in 2022. We were awarded a score of 45 from S&P CSA and an A ESG rating for 2024 from Wind. The ESG efforts were recognized by the SASAC, CSSC Group and other parties. The Company was included as an exemplary case in the “Central State-owned Enterprises Listed Companies ESG Blue Book 2024”.

As a shipyard-affiliated leasing company, we have a unique competitive edge through our strong connection with the parent company.

As the first and a premier shipyard-affiliated leasing company in Greater China, we leverage our synergies and close business relationships with shipyards, and possess updated information on the supply and demand in the marine market and our customers’ needs, which allow us to capture business opportunities in a timely manner. As at the date of this Offering Circular, we have maintained cooperation with 13 shipyards for the provision of ship leasing services to approximately 50 customers in 13 countries and regions. In 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we also helped CSSC Group obtain 14 and six new shipbuilding orders with a contract value of approximately U.S.$1.17 billion and U.S.$308.32 million, respectively. We work closely with shipyards to dig deeper into customers’ needs in order to provide professional, one-stop and customised leasing services.

As the only red-chip listed company under CSSC Group, we are significant to CSSC Group for implementing their corporate strategy of “combination of industry and finance (產融結合)” and also benefit from this corporate strategy. CSSC Group is a world-class and leading state-owned shipbuilding conglomerate in the PRC, and is a Fortune Global 500 and Fortune China 500 company in 2024. CSSC Group owns a large number of shipbuilding and ship repair corporations, ship design and research institutions, marine support service providers as well as ship trading companies in the PRC, and its resources encompass the entire value chain of the marine industry.

We benefit from the stable supply of high quality shipbuilding services from CSSC Group and its subsidiaries. In the past few years, we have ordered various type of vessels from CSSC Group and its subsidiaries, including ultra-large container ship, bulk carrier, polar module carrier, VLGC, heavy-lift ship, LRI product tanker and LRII product tanker. We also benefit from the technical capabilities of CSSC Group, which had several leading research and design institutes in China’s shipbuilding industry in 2023. In addition, CSSC Group provides us with credit supports, such as credit line and guarantee, and funding of share capital.

We have strong expertise and extensive experience in the marine industry, which allow us to capture business opportunities and enhance environmental engagement.

We possess insights into the cyclical conditions of various marine market segments. We are able to grasp industry fluctuations, which allows us to capture cyclical profits. Leveraging our robust expertise and strong industrial background in the marine business, we focus on developing ship and marine equipment leasing business, and have maintained close cooperation with customers in 13 countries and regions around the world. Through careful lease arrangements, accurate timing and sensible cost control, we achieved higher returns as compared to market benchmark in 2023 despite market volatility since 2022.

Our extensive industry experience and strong industry background have enabled us to lead the industry by enhancing our environmental engagement. We are the first leasing company to have established a business layout in relation to offshore clean energy. We have also expanded into the field of clean energy offshore equipment and are the first company in the leasing industry to build a complete offshore clean energy storage and transportation system. We actively launch new ships by leveraging our advantages. We focus on the clean energy field, continue to develop the ship types and equipment in the LNG transportation industry chain, and actively arrange the launch of new energy powered ship types. In 2015, we entered into the clean energy industry and provided finance lease services for a FLNG. In 2019, we invested in four 174,000 cubic meters LNG carriers and upgraded the clean energy industry strategy as one of our core strategies. We had seven large-scale joint venture LNG carriers under construction in total as of 30 June 2025.

In addition, we emphasize the use of biofuels to promote the low-carbon ship transformation. Our “CSSC-Amsterdam” ship has conducted a marine trial of 310 tonnes of B30 biofuel and achieved a satisfactory success. According to the statement issued by DNV Classification society for this trial, the reduced carbon dioxide emission was 274 tonnes, which was approximately 23.8% less than traditional fuel oil. In 2024, we utilised 170MWh of renewable energy in international renewable energy certificates purchased from a third-party energy supplier.

Leveraging our first-mover advantage, we believe that we are well positioned to capture the development potential of emerging markets.

Our comprehensive risk management system has allowed us to achieve stability in asset quality.

As a leading ship leasing company in Greater China, we have established a comprehensive and effective risk management system, which allows us to maintain sound operations and achieve stability in asset quality. As at 30 June 2025, we made provision for impairment loss on loan and lease receivables of HK$557.6 million (U.S.$71.0 million), which comprised 12-month expected credit loss of HK$122.9 million (U.S.$15.7 million) for assets under stage 1 and lifetime expected credit loss of HK$256.8 million (U.S.$32.7 million) and HK$177.9 million (U.S.$22.7 million) for assets under stage 2 and stage 3, respectively.

Our risk management system covers various types of risks involved in our business operations. We apply quantitative risk assessment model in project assessment, pricing and review, as well as post-loan management, among others. We also continue to monitor the development of international sanctions, track global regulatory developments in export control and economic sanctions in a systematic manner. To reduce compliance risks, we have established a compliance management system pursuant to our Compliance Management Measures (合規管理辦法) to ensure that our business operations are in compliance at every major stage.

Our continuous optimisation of asset portfolio has allowed us to attain progressive growth in fleet value and enjoy performance stability.

As at 30 June 2025, we (including joint ventures and associates) owned a total of 143 vessels, comprising 21 offshore clean energy equipment, 25 container vessels, 33 liquid cargo vessels, 33 bulk carriers and 31 specialized vessels.

The demand for container vessels, liquid cargo vessels and bulk carriers, being the three major vessel types, are primarily influenced by macro-economic and trade environment, whereas the demand for offshore clean energy equipment and specialized vessels, being vessels in the clean energy sector, are mainly influenced by the energy as well as oil and gas industries. In 2023, despite soaring vessel prices, extended charter period and a constrained supply of vessels, financial leasing companies flocked into the vessel leasing market which led to intensified competition in the industry. We have adopted a prudent approach by maintaining a balanced vessel portfolio. In line with the overall trend in zero-carbon emissions, we focus on high value-added assets such as clean energy equipment. Our balanced vessel portfolio creates a hedging effect among them and allows us to diversify our risk exposure and enjoy performance stability.

Leveraging our extensive experience in the marine industry and through the sharing of customer databases with various shipyards, we possess information on the performance of a large number of customers in multiple rounds of industry cycles, which facilitates our assessment of the performance risks of our customers. Our customers are of high quality and they include (i) a French container transport giant; (ii) the world's largest refined oil transporter, which is a listed company in the United States; (iii) one of the world's largest grain merchants and a Fortune Global 500 company; (iv) the largest bulk carrier owner and a listed company in the United States; (v) two transport giants for the oil and gas industries, which are listed companies in the United States; and (vi) the largest integrated conglomerate in Singapore.

We have an experienced, committed and professional management team.

Our success is built on the leadership of our experienced, committed and professional management team. Our management team has an average of 25 years of experience in the marine industry, and possesses solid experience and strong expertise in vessel selection and combination, leasing transactions, technical review, risk management as well as lease management. In particular, Mr. Li Hongtao, our Executive Director, has more than 25 years of experience in the marine industry, and their strong execution capabilities have allowed us to develop and pursue sustainable business strategies, seize market opportunities as well as anticipate and promptly respond to changes in market conditions. See "Directors and Senior Management” in this Offering Circular for more information on the experience and qualifications of our Directors and members of our senior management. We believe that the insight and strategic vision of our management team will continue to bring business growth and profitability, thereby solidifying our market position in the global ship leasing industry.

Furthermore, since we have employees based in important shipping hubs such as Hong Kong, Shanghai and Singapore, we are able to grasp the opportunities in the global ship leasing industry, and actively pursue and develop new business opportunities in the marine economy.

We benefit from regional and national policies.

As one of the world’s leading ship leasing companies, we believe that we are well positioned to seize the business opportunities brought by the favourable regional and national policies.

Marine economy – According to the PRC’s “14th Five-Year Plan for Marine Economy Development (十四五海洋經濟發展規劃)”, by 2025, China’s gross marine production is expected to increase. As an important participant in China’s marine economy, we will make use of our extensive experience in the vessel and offshore equipment sectors as well as the competitive advantages of our leasing business to capture new business opportunities in the marine economy.

Shipbuilding Industry – In December 2023, Chinese government published an action outline for green development of shipbuilding industry, which sets out various outlines for facilitating the green development and transformation of shipbuilding industry. As an important participant in China’s shipbuilding industry, we believe we can benefit from this policy and continue to develop our green energy business.

Belt and Road Initiatives and long-term strategic cooperation between China and Africa – China’s major national development strategies of the Belt and Road Initiatives and China-Africa strategic cooperation have brought business opportunities overseas. Since 2015, we have been providing leasing services for two polar class heavy-transport deck carriers, which are vessels for transporting module parts of a construction project to polar regions, to serve in the world’s then largest natural gas field, and to a leading offshore LNG operator listed in the United States for a FLNG conversion unit based in Cameroon, which is the world’s first FLNG conversion project.

Hong Kong government’s policies that benefit the ship leasing industry – In May 2018, the Financial Services Development Council of Hong Kong published a research report entitled “Maritime Leasing Paper”, which sets out various recommendations for facilitating the development of Hong Kong’s ship financing and leasing businesses. As a ship leasing company based in Hong Kong, we believe that we will benefit from the Hong Kong government’s policies that benefit the ship leasing industry.

Our Strategies

To solidify our position as a leading company in vessel and marine equipment leasing, we plan to implement the following strategies:

To continue to focus on ship leasing and develop professional and high-value businesses

The global seaborne trading volume has experienced volatility since 2022. We expect the seaborne trading volume will bounce back gradually with the post-COVID-19 recovery in travel activities. Such an increase is likely to boost the demand for marine services. Under the expected favourable industry developments, we intend to make use of our substantial expertise in the marine industry and our existing business relationships with upstream and downstream industry participants (e.g. shipyards, ship operators, trading companies and energy corporations) to ensure performance of lease agreements, which will provide us with long-term and stable cash flow. We also endeavour to adopt professional and flexible leasing strategies. We will continue to understand and analyse the demands of lessees from different backgrounds in terms of allocation of ships and offshore equipment, and design leasing structures that best suit their needs.

We will continue to utilise our expertise and resources as a shipyard-affiliated leasing company to optimise our asset structure. Leveraging our unique insights into the marine industry, we will continue to make use of the complementarity among the cycles of different ship types to build a vessel portfolio which brings stable income and minimises our risk exposure. In particular, we plan to focus on further developing our operating lease business, which we believe will allow us to better utilise our advantages as the first shipyard-affiliated leasing company in Greater China.

As we seek to strengthen our market position through undertaking traditional projects, we also plan to invest in high-value projects that have strong market demand and development potential as well as require a high level of technological expertise and value-added content (e.g. projects in relation to the marine resource development and application industry chain). We believe that such initiatives will enable us to provide quality and comprehensive leasing services to both domestic and overseas top-notch ship operators, shipping companies, trading companies as well as energy corporations.

To cope with changes in the global energy landscape and comprehensively deploy the new energy industry chain

With the global energy landscape undergoing profound adjustments, new energy types such as LNG and shale gas are gaining popularity. Going green and low carbon have been a key trend in the shipping industry. In December 2022, a preliminary agreement was reached within the European Union, calling for the inclusion of the shipping industry under European Union carbon market's control, where shipping companies are required to pay for the carbon emissions of their vessels. In 2023, CII and EEXI policies came into force, and IMO adjusted its emission reduction target from the previous 50% reduction in emissions by 2050 to net zero emissions by around 2050. Decarbonizing the shipping industry will necessitate upgrades and overhauls of energy sources, technological advancements, the accelerated retirement of obsolete vessels, stimulation of new vessel orders, and the maintenance of a high level of activity in the shipbuilding market.

In view of the market trend and policy requirement, we have conducted compliance evaluations on more than 30 vessels under our self-management, and planned ahead for any modification or disposal required for the poorly performed vessels to minimize negative impacts. We strive to continue to deepen our business layout in the clean energy sector, by developing vessel types and equipment in the LNG transportation industry chain and actively launching new energy-power ship types. We attend to IMO requirements and will continue to formulate IMO carbon reduction measures to improve our CII rating of ships. From 2024 to 2027, we plan to install more cost-effective energy-saving hub hats and fan-shaped catheters during the dry-docking period for ULTRAMAX bulk carriers, which is expected to increase CII's acquisition value by approximately 5%. From 2025 to 2026, we plan to install more cost-effective energy-saving hub hats and fan-shaped catheters during the dry-docking period for MINI-CAPE bulk carrier, which is expected to increase CII's acquisition value by approximately 5%.

We will also strive to focus on offshore equipment sector and natural gas affiliated chemical industry chain, bringing our industry resources and professionalism as a shipyard-affiliated leasing company into play, as well as establish high-value and high-tech industry-leading entry barriers.

To diversify our financing channels and stabilise our finance costs

Going forward, we intend to diversify our financing channels, obtain more project and working capital loans and conduct financing activities according to market conditions and interest rate trends. We will obtain financing through different channels, including bank loans and syndicated loans from large banks, policy banks and international commercial banks, as well as bond issuances. Over the years, we have developed a close relationship and established business cooperation in credit and settlement with various banks, including state-owned and policy-based banks as well as Chinese and foreign banks, many of which have also financed our leasing projects with long-term project loans, which effectively reduce our liquidity risks and finance costs. As at 30 June 2025, the credit lines granted to us by various financial institutions amounted to HK$34.8 billion (approximately U.S.$4.5 billion), of which HK$15.2 billion (approximately U.S.$2.0 billion) had been used and HK$19.7 billion (approximately U.S.$2.5 billion) were unused. In addition, we have a sophisticated project financing model, quality lessees and excellent asset quality, which allow us to enjoy a stable cash flow from our leasing business. We will continue to work closely with our financing partners to expand our financing channels and stabilise our finance costs.

In order to stabilise our finance costs, we will continue to prudently manage the exchange rate and interest rate risks. In addition, we will strictly monitor our financing channels under the guidance of our Board or senior management.

To continue to develop our non-ship leasing business

The marine industry is cyclical. In order to manage the relevant risks, we intend to strengthen our capabilities in withstanding risks through diversification of leasing business as well as upstream and downstream extension of industry chain. In this connection, we plan to develop our non-ship leasing business in areas such as ship-related equipment, marine economy (including fisheries, seawater treatment and marine tourism), manufacturing equipment, medical equipment, energy and power industry, energy-saving and environmental protection industry as well as information technology industry. We intend to identify two to three target industries as core areas for the long-term development of our non-ship leasing business. For example, we plan to develop customers from agriculture, oil, energy and chemical industries and assist them to build self-operated fleets. In view of the strong market demand and development potential of the marine industry, we also consider expand our business into high-value marine economic projects, such as marine resource development, smart vessels and project relating to marine technology application.

Our History and Development

Overview

Our Group's history dates back to the year of 2012 when our Company was incorporated in Hong Kong to serve as the sole leasing company under China State Shipbuilding Industry Corporation Limited (中國船舶工業集團有限公司), which was merged into the CSSC Group in 2019. As the first and a premier shipyard-affiliated leasing company in Greater China, we leverage our unique insights into the marine industry and offer customised ship leasing solutions to customers.

In order to capture the business opportunities brought about by the increasing demand for ship leasing services in the PRC, CSSC Shanghai and CSSC Tianjin were established in the PRC in 2014. Kylin Offshore was also incorporated by our Company and a company incorporated in Singapore, which is an independent third party, in Singapore in 2014.

Over the years, we have continued to expand our scale of operations as well as our vessel portfolio. In terms of the amount of leased vessels and lease contracts in 2024, we were ranked seventh in China's ship leasing industry in terms of the total assets.

Leasing Services

We provide tailored and flexible leasing services to our customers with the options of finance lease and operating lease. Leveraging our strong expertise in the marine industry, our leasing services primarily focus on ship leasing. As a leasing service provider primarily focusing on ship leasing, our business may be materially and adversely affected by the marine cycle. For the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our lease income, comprising finance lease income and operating lease income, amounted to HK$2,627.2 million, HK$2,991.7 million, HK$3,455.7 million (U.S.$440.2 million), HK$1,667.0 million and HK$1,758.8 million (U.S.$224.1 million), respectively, accounting for 81.9%, 82.5%, 85.7%, 84.8% and 87.2% of our total revenue, respectively.

As at 30 June 2024, we (including joint ventures and associates) owned a total of 148 vessels, and our committed vessel portfolio comprised 23 vessels, which are expected to be completed and begin to generate lease income to our Group no later than 2030. These 23 vessels were of an aggregate vessel value (i.e. shipbuilders' cost of shipbuilding) of U.S.$2,520.9 million.

(i) Finance Lease

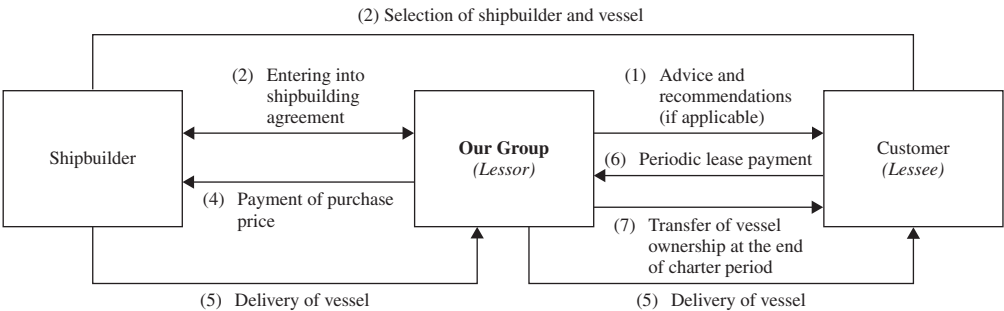

Finance lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor purchases an asset according to the lessee's specific requirements and choice of supplier or the lessor purchases an asset from the lessee, and then leases it to the lessee for periodic lease payments. A lease is classified as a finance lease if the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an asset (including its residual value) to the lessee.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our finance lease income was HK$784.5 million, HK$1,171.8 million, HK$1,219.7 million (U.S.$155.4 million), HK$619.9 million and HK$550.0 million (U.S.$70.1 million), respectively, accounting for 24.5%, 32.3%, 30.3%, 31.5% and 27.3% of our total revenue, respectively. Our finance lease is further categorised into direct finance lease and sale-and-leaseback. The increase in finance lease income from 2022 to 2024 was mainly due to the (1) increase of SOFR as most of our finance lease is based on floating rates with reference to SOFR and (2) new finance lease contracts engaged by the Group. The decrease in finance lease income from the six months ended 30 June 2024 to the six months ended 30 June 2025 was primarily due to completion of finance lease projects in the second half of 2024 and the first half of 2025.

In respect of our finance lease transactions, our customers are generally not allowed to enter into any sub-chartering arrangement without obtaining our prior written consent or first informing us of such arrangement.

Direct finance lease

In a typical direct finance lease transaction, leveraging our strong expertise in the marine industry, we provide advice and recommendations to our customer to assist its selection of vessel. We enter into a shipbuilding agreement with the shipbuilder designated by our customer for the construction of vessel according to our customer's specific requirements. We then lease the vessel to our customer for use in return for periodic lease payments. At the end of the charter period, our customer is obliged to purchase the leased vessel at a fixed price. The title ownership of the leased vessel remains with us until we transfer the same to our customer at the end of the charter period. The following diagram illustrates the relationship among the lessor, the lessee and the shipbuilder in a typical direct finance lease transaction:

Sale-and-leaseback

In a typical sale-and-leaseback transaction, we purchase our customer's vessel at a negotiated price and then lease it back to our customer in return for periodic lease payments. At the end of the charter period, our customer is obliged to purchase the leased vessel. The title ownership of the leased vessel remains with us until we transfer the same to our customer at the end of the charter period. The following diagram illustrates the relationship between the lessor and the lessee in a typical sale-and-leaseback transaction:

Major terms of direct finance lease and sale-and-leaseback agreements

The direct finance lease and sale-and-leaseback agreements we enter into with our customers for ship leasing are legally binding and generally include the following major terms:

	Direct finance lease agreement	Sale-and-leaseback agreement
Vessel sale:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> N/A 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The agreement will contain details in relation to the sale of the vessel by the lessee to us, including the purchase price, the payment terms as well as the delivery time and place.

Charter payment:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The lessee will, on each payment date during the charter period, pay us for the lease and use of the vessel. The amount payable by the lessee on each payment date is generally (i) a pre-determined amount; or (ii) a pre-determined amount plus interest accrued on the outstanding principal, which is calculated with reference to the applicable interest rate (i.e. fixed rate or SOFR or LIBOR plus a margin). We generally require payment to be made on a monthly or quarterly basis.

Vessel delivery and acceptance:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Upon the delivery of the vessel in accordance with the shipbuilding agreement and the satisfaction of certain conditions, the lessee will be deemed to have accepted and taken delivery of the vessel. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The ownership of the vessel will be transferred to us by the lessee on a “as is, where is and with all faults” basis. Lessee’s major obligations:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The lessee shall, during the charter period: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ensure the vessel is in compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, international conventions, codes and regulations; permit us to inspect or survey the vessel or instruct a duly authorised surveyor to carry out such inspection or survey in order to ascertain the condition of the vessel; notify us of any accident, arrest or event resulting in a total loss of the vessel; and inform us of any event constituting a lessee’s default under the agreement.
Lessee’s purchase obligations:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Upon expiry of the charter period, the lessee will generally be obliged to unconditionally purchase the vessel at a fixed price.
Termination:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Upon the occurrence of a lessee’s fault which is continuing, we may terminate the agreement. A lessee’s default includes (i) the lessee’s failure to make payment on its due date; (ii) the lessee’s failure to observe or perform any of its obligations under the agreement, and such failure is not remedied within a specified time period; and (iii) the filing of a petition or the making of an order for the winding-up or dissolution of the lessee.

(ii) Operating Lease

Operating lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor grants the right to use an asset to the lessee for a specified period and in return for periodic lease payments. A lease is classified as an operating lease if substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to the ownership of an asset (including its residual value) remain with the lessor.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our operating lease income amounted to HK$1,842.7 million, HK$1,819.9 million, HK$2,236.0 million (U.S.$284.8 million), HK$1,047.1 million and HK$1,208.8 million (U.S.$154.0 million), respectively, accounting for 57.4%, 50.2%, 55.4%, 53.3% and 59.9% of our total revenue, respectively. Such increase in operating lease income was due to the increase in the Group's total shipping capacity and well performance of the bulk carrier market as the Baltic Dry Index (BDI) generally increased. Our operating lease is further categorised into bareboat charter and time charter.

In a typical operating lease transaction, we enter into a shipbuilding agreement with a shipbuilder chosen by us for the construction of vessel, after taking into account our customer's requirements on the type, specifications and capabilities of the vessel it intends to lease. With a view to optimising our operating lease business, we also enter into shipbuilding agreements at our own initiatives, after taking into account considerations such as market cycle, profitability and liquidity of particular types of vessels. We then lease the vessel to our customer for use in return for periodic lease payments. At the end of the charter period, our customer will return the leased vessel to us. The following diagram illustrates the relationship among the lessor, the lessee and the shipbuilder in a typical operating lease transaction:

In a bareboat charter, the lessee is responsible for the employment of the crew as well as the operation and management of the vessel. In a time charter, we are responsible for the payment of expenses in relation to crew employment and vessel management.

In respect of our operating lease transactions, our customers are generally required to inform us of any sub-chartering arrangements.

Major terms of operating lease agreements

The operating lease agreements we enter into with our customers for ship leasing are legally binding and generally include the following major terms:

	Bareboat charter	Time charter
Charter period:	<ul style="list-style-type: none">The agreement will specify the charter period, which generally ranges from three to 15 years for bareboat charter and approximately six months to one year for time charter.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Under our leasing services, we have established a monthly communication mechanism with shipbuilder, construction supervision team and charterers to closely monitor ship construction status. Through timely communication, we aim to ensure construction quality and timely delivery of vessels. We also plan to build a platform, under which cargo owners and ship owners are able to share information of shipping, cargo source and market condition.

Shipbroking Services

Leveraging our extensive network and substantial experience in the marine industry, we provide shipbroking services to shipbuilders incidental to the conduct of our leasing business. Acting as an intermediary between shipbuilders and prospective purchasers, we provide a wide range of services, including identifying market opportunities for shipbuilders, recommending shipbuilders to interested purchasers, advising interested purchasers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities, providing market information to shipbuilders and interested purchasers, liaising with and serving as the channel of communication between shipbuilders and interested purchasers, negotiating the terms of shipbuilding agreements, as well as resolving issues that arise during the execution of shipbuilding agreements. If we facilitate the successful conclusion of a shipbuilding transaction, we will receive a commission from the shipbuilder. The amount of shipbroking commission generally represents 0.5% to 2.0% of the contract price of the vessel, and is normally paid to us within a specified time period (generally 30 days) after the shipbuilder's receipt of the instalment payment from the purchaser. It is an industry norm for shipbuilders to pay shipbroking commission to shipbrokers who facilitate the successful conclusion of shipbuilding transactions, and it is rare for purchasers to pay such commission.

For the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our commission income was HK$57.0 million, HK$28.4 million, HK$33.5 million (U.S.$4.3 million), HK$22.3 million and HK$22.5 million (U.S.$2.9 million), respectively, accounting for 1.8%, 0.8%, 0.8%, 1.1% and 1.1% of our total revenue, respectively. During the same period, CSSC Group and its associates were the only customers in respect of our shipbroking business.

Loan Services

We provide loan services in the ordinary and usual course of our business, and such loan services mainly include pre-delivery loan, secured loan and factoring services. We believe that our customers procure loan services from us instead of obtaining borrowings directly from commercial banks and financial institutions mainly because of the flexibility of our financing options, and we are not aware of any of these customers encountering any major difficulties in obtaining borrowings directly from commercial banks and financial institutions. It is not uncommon for leasing companies to provide loan services. In order to reduce the risk exposure of our loan services, we carefully select our customers based on their creditworthiness, repayment capabilities and financing needs. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, none of our loan receivables was written off.

In 2022, 2023 and 2024, our interest income from loan borrowings was HK$524.0 million, HK$606.1 million and HK$545.2 million (U.S.$69.4 million), respectively, accounting for 16.3%, 16.7% and 13.5% of our total revenue, respectively. The increase between 2023 and 2024 was due to the increase of U.S. SOFR as our loan borrowings are based on floating rates with reference to U.S. SOFR. The decrease between 2023 and 2024 was primarily due to the completion of several loan projects in the year of 2023. For the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our interest income from loan borrowings was HK$276.4 million HK$236.6 million (U.S.$30.1 million), respectively, accounting for 14.1% and 11.7% of our total revenue, respectively. The decrease was due to completion of loan projects in the second half of 2024 and the first half of 2025.

As at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and 30 June 2025, the amount of receivables in respect of our loan services was HK$8,319.3 million, HK$7,207.8 million, HK$6,383.2 million (U.S.$813.2 million) and HK$6,198.9 million (U.S.$789.7 million) respectively. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, the interest rate we charged for our loan services generally ranged from 3.6% per annum to 9.3% per annum, which is in line with the industry norm.

Pre-delivery Loan Services

In general, as part of our ship leasing services, we provide pre-delivery loan services to customers who require funding to satisfy their pre-delivery payment obligations under their shipbuilding agreements. The pre-delivery loans we extend are solely to finance the purchase of vessels under our finance lease transactions, and are generally secured by corporate guarantee, the assignment of shipbuilding agreement and refund guarantee rendered by our customers. A corporate guarantee is an agreement whereby a corporate entity (i.e. the guarantor) undertakes to assume responsibilities for the repayment of a loan if the borrower defaults on its repayment or upon maturity of the loan. A refund guarantee is commonly provided in new shipbuilding transactions, whereby a bank in favour of the seller undertakes that, in the event the seller fails to perform its obligations under the shipbuilding agreement, it will refund the advance instalments paid (together with interest accrued) under the relevant shipbuilding agreement to the buyer.

The pre-delivery loan agreements we enter into with our customers are legally binding and generally include the following major terms:

|---------------------------------------|---|
| Loan facility: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We will make a loan facility available to our customer, and the agreement will specify, among others, the loan amount, interest rate, drawdown period and repayment schedule.• We generally charge our customer a fixed interest rate. |
| Purpose of loan facility: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The loan facility will solely be for the purpose of financing our customer's instalment payments towards the contract price of a shipbuilding transaction. |
| Security documents: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We require our customer to execute certain security documents (e.g. corporate guarantee, assignment of shipbuilding agreement and refund guarantee) to secure the performance of its obligations under the agreement. |
| Cancellation of loan facility: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The agreement will specify the events of default, which generally include (i) our customer failing to make payment on the due date; (ii) our customer failing to comply with the financial covenants; (iii) our customer suspending or ceasing to carry on all or a substantial part of its business; and (iv) any representation made in the agreement or other transaction documents being incorrect or misleading in any material respect.• Upon the occurrence of an event of default which is continuing, we may cancel the loan facility and declare that all or part of the loan, together with accrued interest, be immediately due and payable. |

Secured Loan Services

In addition, we provide secured loan services to customers to satisfy their working capital needs and/or finance their purchase of assets (such as vessels). We determine the loan amount, interest rate, maturity period and use of funds primarily based on our customers' creditworthiness, repayment capabilities as well as financing needs. Our loans are generally secured by our customers' vessels or assets. As part of our secured loan services, we provide entrusted loan services to customers to finance their purchase of vessels or other assets. Under the entrusted loan arrangements, we (as trustor) provide funds to qualified financial institutions (as trustee), which then lend the funds to our customers under the terms and conditions specified by us.

The secured loan agreements we enter into with our customers are legally binding and generally include the following major terms:

|--------------------------------------|--|
| Loan facility: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• We will make a loan facility available to our customer, and the agreement will specify, among others, the loan amount, interest rate and repayment schedule.• We generally charge our customer a fixed interest rate or an interest rate that equals to SOFR or LIBOR plus a margin. |
| Purpose of loan facility: | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• The agreement will set out the specific purpose(s) of the loan facility (e.g. financing the purchase of an asset and for general capital purpose). |

In 2019, we conducted our entrusted loan business in the PRC through CSSC Shanghai, CSSC Tianjin and certain SPVs in the PRC. According to the Measures on Supervision of Financial Leasing Enterprises (融資租賃企業監督管理辦法) (the “Measures for Financial Leasing Enterprises”) and the Administrative Measures for Entrusted Loans Undertaken by Commercial Banks (商業銀行委託貸款管理辦法) (the “Measures for Entrusted Loans”), no particular licence or approval, other than business licence, is required for engaging in the provision of entrusted loan services in the PRC. As at the date of this Offering Circular, each of CSSC Shanghai, CSSC Tianjin and the SPVs engaging in entrusted loan business possessed the requisite business licence to engage in the provision of entrusted loan services as trustor in the PRC. According to the Measures for Financial Leasing Enterprises, a financial leasing company is prohibited from providing entrusted loans to third parties as trustee. However, it does not prohibit a financial leasing company from providing entrusted loans to third parties as trustor. In 2019, our PRC subsidiaries acted as trustor when providing entrusted loans to third parties, and such arrangements did not violate the Measures for Financial Leasing Enterprises. During the same period, certain of our PRC subsidiaries did not carry on leasing business as their principal business as required by the PRC laws and regulations in relation to financial leasing. Instead, they principally engaged in the provision of loan services through entrusted banks. Save as disclosed aforementioned, our entrusted loan business in the PRC is in compliance with the Measures for Financial Leasing Enterprises.

The Measures for Entrusted Loans, which was promulgated by the CBIRC and became effective on 5 January 2018, have set out certain restrictions on the usage of entrusted loans, and require that the loans shall not be used (i) for production, operation, or investment fields and purposes prohibited by the State; (ii) for investment in, among others, bonds, futures, financial derivatives or asset management products; (iii) as registered capital or for registered capital verification; (iv) for equity capital investment or for increase in registered capital or shares (except as otherwise specified by the regulatory authorities); or (v) other purposes in violation of the regulatory provisions. After the Measures for Entrusted Loans became effective, our PRC subsidiaries have not entered into any new entrusted loan agreements. Our existing entrusted loan agreements were entered into by our PRC subsidiaries in 2015 and 2016 (i.e. prior to the effective date of the Measures for Entrusted Loans), and the usage of the funds provided for therein was for payment of shipbuilding fees and fees relating to vessel operation, or purchase of textile equipment and related equipment, which do not fall within the usage restrictions set out in the Measures for Entrusted Loans. According to the Legislation Law of the PRC (中華人民共和國立法法), laws, administrative regulations, local regulations, autonomous regulations, separate regulations and rules shall not apply retroactively, except where the regulations are specifically formulated for the purpose of better protecting the rights and interests of citizens, legal persons and other organisations. As the Measures for Entrusted Loans is silent on whether the provisions therein will apply retrospectively, we made an inquiry with the CBIRC, and the CBIRC confirmed on 31 October 2018 that the Measures for Entrusted Loans will not apply retrospectively. Therefore, any inconsistency in the entrusted loan agreements effective prior to the effective date of the Measures for Entrusted Loans requires no rectification. Regardless of whether the Measures for Entrusted Loans will take effect retrospectively, the usage of funds in our existing entrusted loan agreements is in compliance with the Measures for Entrusted Loans. Based on the abovementioned, we believe that the existing entrusted loan business of our PRC subsidiaries will not be adversely affected by the Measures for Entrusted Loans.

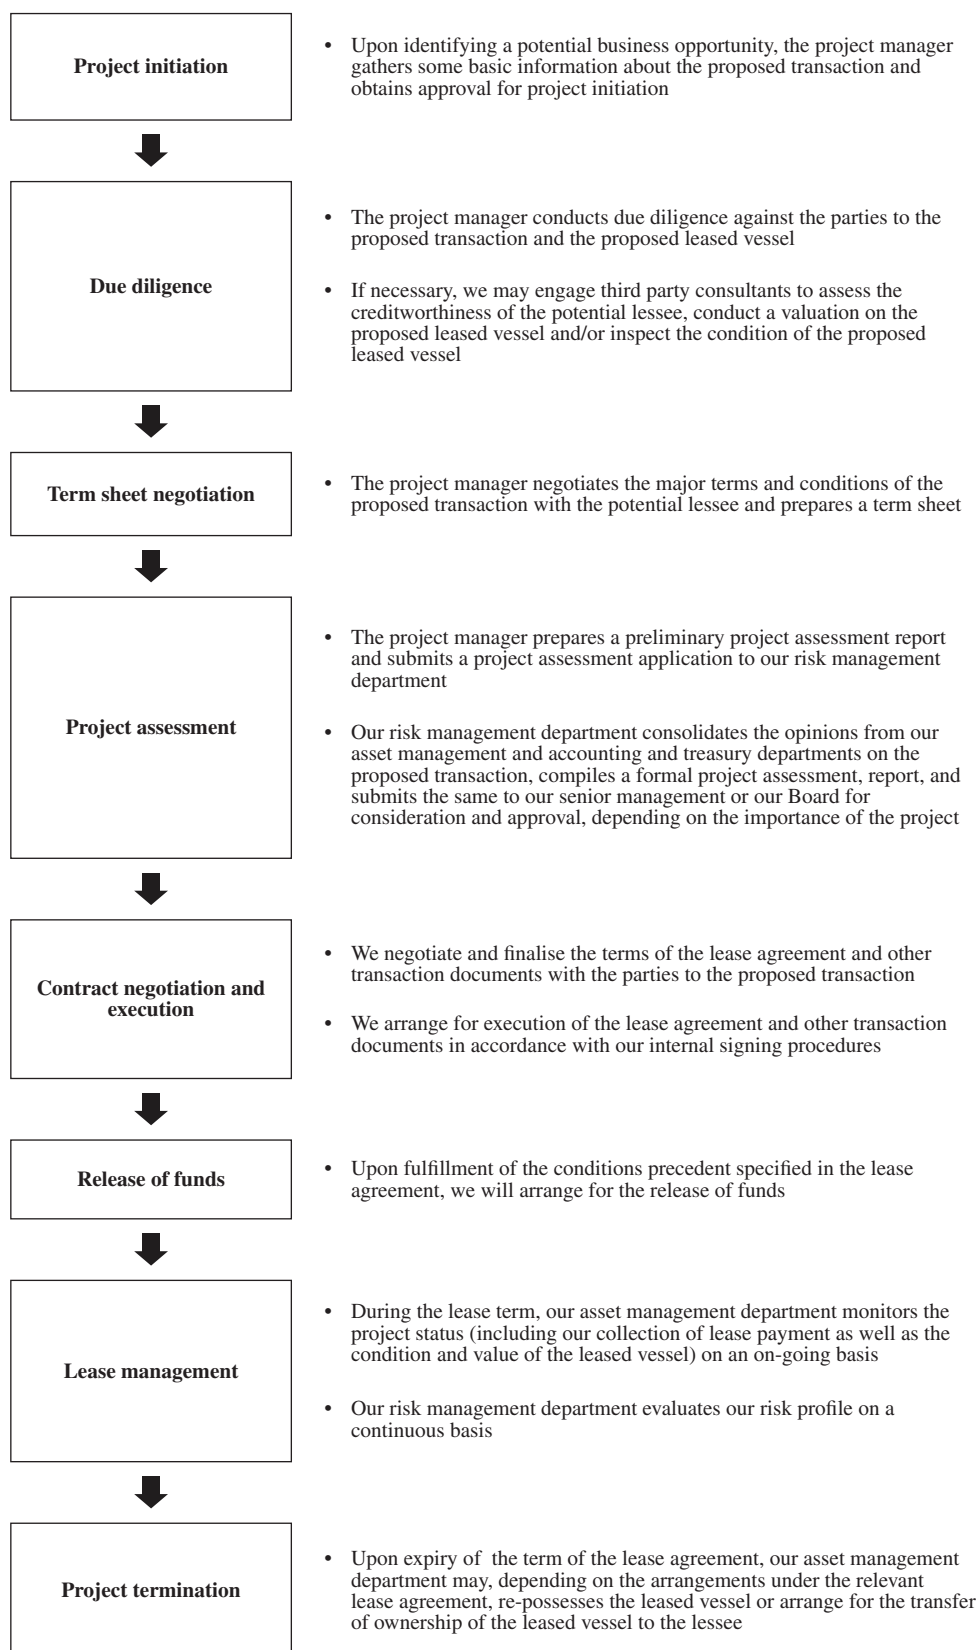

Our Vessel Portfolio

As at 30 June 2025, we (including joint ventures and associates) owned a total of 143 vessels, including 121 vessels in operation and 22 vessels under construction. The following table sets out the number of each type of vessels in relation to our vessel fleet as at 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024:

	As at 31 December
Offshore clean energy equipment	22	26	21
Container vessels	29	23	25
Liquid cargo vessels	35	29	33
Bulk carriers	47	41	33
Specialized vessels	25	32	31
Total	158	151	143

We consider a variety of factors during our selection of vessels. These factors generally include (i) price, quality and capabilities of vessels; (ii) market liquidity of vessels; (iii) income stability and return of vessels; (iv) market conditions and trends; (v) financial condition, creditworthiness and performance capabilities of our customers; and (vi) whether the purchase of vessels is in line with our business strategies.

Our Business Process

Sales And Marketing

We generally acquire new customers and originate new businesses through our own sales and marketing initiatives as well as referrals by shipbrokers and shipbuilders. Our business department is responsible for exploring new business opportunities and developing new projects in accordance with our business development strategies, maintaining customer relationship as well as collecting market information.

As part of our sales and marketing initiatives, we attend maritime exhibitions and ship finance forums from time to time. These exhibitions and forums not only provide us with an opportunity to enhance our industry reputation and network with ship operators and shipbuilders across the globe, but also keep us abreast of new industry developments and trends. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we participated in a number of maritime exhibitions and ship finance forums, including Marintec China in Shanghai, Posidonia in Greece, SMM in Hamburg as well as various forums organised by Capital Link and Marine Money.

Pricing

We determine the price of our services on a case-by-case basis, and generally take into account the following considerations in our decision-making process: (i) the size and complexity of the transaction; (ii) the value, type and/or condition of the leased asset; (iii) general market and industry conditions; (iv) the business, financial performance, scale of operations, industry reputation, credit history as well as creditworthiness of our customer; (v) the level of our risk exposure; (vi) the security provided by our customer and whether it is sufficient to cover our risk exposure; and (vii) whether the transaction is in line with our business strategies.

Seasonality

As a leasing service provider primarily focusing on ship leasing, our business performance is largely dependent on the demand for leasing and loan services in relation to vessel procurement, which is not subject to seasonal fluctuations. In addition, our finance lease income is subject to the repayment schedules set out in the lease agreements and is not affected by seasonal factors. While some of our operating leases are of a term of less than a year, they do not contribute significantly to our revenue and are unlikely to cause our revenue to be materially affected by seasonal factors. Our business performance is therefore generally not subject to seasonal fluctuations.

Our Customers

Our customers generally include ship operators, shipbuilders and trading companies.

Our Major Customers

In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, our five largest customers accounted for 49.7%, 51.8%, 48.9% and 54.6% of our total revenue, respectively. Our major customers are located in the PRC, Asia, United States and Europe, with whom we have maintained business relationships for three to six years. The payments made to us by our five largest customers are primarily in U.S. dollars, and by way of telegraphic transfer.

We confirm that, (i) our five largest customers in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025 were independent third parties; and (ii) none of our Directors, their respective close associates or shareholders who own more than 5% of the share capital of our Company had any interest in our five largest customers. Our Directors further confirm that none of our five largest customers in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025 were our major suppliers.

Our Suppliers

Because of the nature of our business, we have no major suppliers. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we purchased vessels mainly from CSSC Group and/or its associates as well as other independent shipbuilders.

Competition

The global ship leasing industry is relatively fragmented, with approximately 400 ship leasing companies across the globe in 2018. The global ship leasing industry may be further segmented into the non-bank ship leasing industry, with approximately 150 non-bank ship leasing companies across the globe in 2018. The global top five ship leasing service providers accounted for a total market share of 24.5% in terms of revenue in 2020, whereas the global top three non-bank ship leasing service providers accounted for a total market share of 29.2% in terms of revenue in 2018. In terms of the amount of leased vessels and lease contracts in 2023, we were ranked fifth in China's ship leasing industry in terms of the total assets. Ship leasing companies generally compete in terms of professionalism, customer network coverage, risk assessment and management capabilities as well as asset operation.

Employees

As at 30 June 2025, we had 79 employees performing management, asset management, risk management, credit and structured finance, accounting and treasury, human resources and administration and strategy and digitization functions.

For the years ended 31 December 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2024 and 2025, our staff cost amounted to HK$124.7 million, HK$106.3 million, HK$105.3 million (U.S.$13.4 million), HK$31.0 million and HK$28.7 million (U.S.$3.7 million), respectively.

We generally recruit our employees through recruitment agencies as well as the posting of job advertisements on public recruitment platforms. We seek to remunerate our employees on a market- competitive basis. The remuneration package of our employees includes basic salary and performance- related bonus. We review the remuneration package and performance of our employees annually. In accordance with applicable Hong Kong laws and regulations, we have made mandatory provident fund contributions for our Hong Kong employees. In accordance with applicable PRC laws and regulations, we have made social insurance and housing provident fund contributions for our PRC employees. In accordance with applicable Singapore laws and regulations, we have made central provident fund contributions for our Singapore employees.

In order to improve the professional skills of our employees, we provide them with training that is specific to their job duties. Our training programmes generally cover industry updates, legal and financial knowledge as well as management and leadership skills.

We have not established any labour union. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we had not experienced any material dispute with our employees or disruption to our operations as a result of labour dispute nor any difficulty in the recruitment and retention of employees.

Intellectual Property

Our intellectual property rights comprise our domain name. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025 and up to the date of this Offering Circular, no material claim or dispute was brought against us in relation to any infringement of intellectual property rights. Our Directors are not aware of any use by any third-party of our brand and believe that there had been no infringement of our intellectual property rights that would result in a significant potential impact on our business during the same period.

Insurance

In respect of the assets underlying the leases, we normally require the lessees to maintain insurance that are customary in the marine industry throughout the lease term, and such insurance generally includes hull and machinery insurance, war risk insurance, protection and indemnity insurance as well as kidnap and ransom insurance. See “– Our Business – Leasing Services – (i) Finance Lease – Major terms of direct finance lease and sale-and-leaseback agreements” and “Our Business Leasing Services – (ii) Operating Lease – Major terms of operating lease agreement” in this section for further details. The scope and amount of insurance are set out in the relevant lease agreements, and we have a list of approved insurance companies with which the lessees shall maintain insurance. In line with industry practice, while the insurance premium is normally borne by the lessees, we are generally named as the beneficiary of the insurance policies.

In addition, we maintain medical insurance and employees’ compensation insurance for our employees in Hong Kong. In relation to our PRC employees, we make contributions towards five categories of insurance, including basic pension insurance, basic medical insurance, work-related injury insurance, unemployment insurance and maternity insurance. We also maintain medical insurance for our employees in Singapore.

Our Directors believe that our current insurance coverage is sufficient and adequate and in line with the industry norm. We will continue to review and assess our risk portfolio and make necessary and appropriate adjustments to our insurance coverage.

Properties

As at the date of this Offering Circular, we leased a total of three properties for office premises use in the PRC.

As at the date of this Offering Circular, we had not been provided with valid title certificates in respect of our leased properties in the PRC. We believe the likelihood of our business being materially affected by such title defects is remote. As at the date of this Offering Circular, none of our lease agreements had been registered with the relevant PRC government authorities. According to the Administrative Measures on Lease of Commodity Properties (商品房屋租賃管理辦法), lease agreements shall be registered with the relevant PRC government authorities, and any non-registration of lease agreements may result in the relevant PRC government authorities ordering for rectification within a prescribed time limit and, if the relevant entity still fails to register the relevant lease agreements, imposing a fine ranging from RMB1,000 to RMB10,000 per lease agreement. The maximum fine in relation to the non-registration of our three lease agreements shall be RMB30,000, and the lessors' failure to register the relevant lease agreements will not affect their validity or enforceability. As at the date of this Offering Circular, we had not received any notice or demand from the PRC government authorities requesting us to take rectification actions or imposing a fine on us. We believe the likelihood of our business being materially affected by such title defects is remote.

We believe that there would be no material difference in the rental that we would have to pay for our leased properties in the PRC if they were not subject to title defects.

Licences, Permits and Approvals

For the material licences, permits and approvals we hold for carrying on our business operations, see "PRC Regulations" in this Offering Circular. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025 and up to the date of this Offering Circular, we had obtained all requisite licences, permits and approvals that are material to our business operations from the relevant government authorities.

Our management reviews our business practises regularly to ensure compliance with all licencing requirements and conditions as well as the successful renewal of our licences, permits and approvals. We believe there was no major legal impediment for the renewal of our licences, permits and approvals, and no circumstances existed that would render their revocation or cancellation as at the date of this Offering Circular.

Occupational Health, Work Safety and Environmental Protection

We are committed to providing a safe and healthy working environment for our employees. We have policies and guidelines to ensure and promote workplace safety. In 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, we had not been involved in any major accident or fatality in the course of our business operations. We believe that the annual cost of compliance with the applicable laws and regulations relating to occupational health and work safety was not material during the same period, and that the cost of such compliance is not expected to be material going forward.

Because of the nature of our business, we do not generate any hazards or industrial pollutants during the course of our operations. We did not incur any expenses in relation to compliance with environmental protection laws, rules and regulations in 2022, 2023 and 2024 and the six months ended 30 June 2025, and do not expect to incur any such expenses going forward.

Legal Proceedings

We may be from time to time involved in legal proceedings on disputes arising in the ordinary course of business. As at the date of this Offering Circular, to the best knowledge and belief of our Directors, there was no pending or threatened litigation, arbitration or claim against any member of our Group or any of them which, in the opinion of our Directors, would have a material adverse effect on our financial condition or results of operations as a whole.

The PRC Civil Code took effect as of 1 January 2021, and the Contract Law was repealed simultaneously. Compared with the Contract Law, there exist the following material changes in relation to the financial leasing under the PRC Civil Code:

A financial leasing contract concluded by the parties concerned by falsifying a leased item shall be null and void.

If administrative license is required for the operation or use of a leased item under laws and administrative regulations, failure of the lessor to obtain the administrative license shall not affect the validity of the financial leasing contract.

If the seller breaches the obligation for delivery of the subject matter to the lessee, which falls under any of the following circumstances, the lessee may refuse to collect the subject matter delivered by the seller: (1) Grave inconformity of the subject matter with the agreement; (2) Failing to deliver the subject matter as agreed upon and still failing to deliver the subject matter within a reasonable period of time after being urged by the lessee or the lessor. The lessee, if refusing to collect the subject matter, shall notify the lessor thereof in a timely manner.

The lessee’s exercise of the right to claim compensation from the seller shall not affect its performance of the obligation to pay rental. However, if the lessee relies on the skills of the lessor to determine the leased item or the lessor interferes with the selection of the leased item, the lessee may request reduction or exemption of corresponding rental.

If the lessor falls under any of the following circumstances, resulting in failure of the lessee to exercise the right to claim compensation from the seller, the lessee shall have the right to request the lessor to take corresponding liability: (1) Having clear knowledge, but failing to inform the lessee, of the defects in the quality of the leased item; (2) Failing to provide necessary assistance in a timely manner when the lessee exercises the right to claim compensation. If the lessor is indolent to exercise the right, exercisable by it exclusively, to claim compensation from the seller, causing loss to the lessee, the lessee shall have the right to request the lessor to take liability for compensation.

The ownership of the leased item enjoyed by the lessor shall not prevail over a bona fide third party without registration.

The lessor shall guarantee the possession and use of the leased item by the lessee.

If the lessor falls under any of the following circumstances, the lessee shall have the right to request the lessor to compensate for loss: (1) Taking back the leased item without justification; (2) Obstructing or interfering with the lessee's occupation and use of the leased item without justification; (3) Claiming by a third party the right to the leased item due to reasons attributable to the lessor; (4) Other circumstances which improperly affect the occupation and use of the leased item by the lessee.

In case of invalidity of a financial leasing contract, if the parties have agreement on the ownership to leased item in such circumstance, the agreement shall prevail; in the absence of agreements or explicit agreement, the leased item shall be returned to the lessor. However, if the contract is invalidated due to reasons attributable to the lessee, and the lessor does not require the return of the leased item, or the efficacy of leased item will be significantly reduced after it is returned, the lessee shall have the ownership to the leased item and shall provide the lessor with reasonable compensation.

During the occupation of the leased item by the lessee, the lessee bears the risk of loss or damage of the leased item, and the lessor requires the lessee to continue to pay rental unless otherwise agreed by the parties or specified by law. Where the finance lease contract is terminated due to the reasons which are not attributable to the parties such as accidental loss of or damage to the leased item after delivery to the lessee, and the lessor requires the lessee to make compensation according to the depreciation of the leased item.

If the finance lease contract is terminated because the sales contract is terminated, determined as invalid or revoked, on the ground that the seller and the leased item are chosen by the lessee, the lessor shall have the right to request that the lessee should compensate the relevant loss, except that the termination, invalidity or revocation of the sales contract is attributable to the lessor.

Interpretation of the Supreme People's Court on Issues Concerning the Application of Law in Hearing Cases of Finance Lease Contract Disputes

The Interpretation of the Supreme People's Court on Issues Concerning the Application of Law in Hearing Cases of Finance Lease Contract Disputes (Fa Shi [2020] No. 17) (最高人民法院關於審理融資租賃合同糾紛案件適用法律問題的解釋(法釋[2020]17號)) (the “Interpretation of Finance Lease Contract Disputes”) was promulgated by Supreme People's Court on 24 February 2014 and amended on 29 December 2020. According to the Interpretation of Finance Lease Contract Disputes, where the lessee sells its own property to the lessor and leases the property back from the lessor through a finance lease contract, the people's court shall not determine that the legal relation of finance lease is not constituted only on the ground that the lessee and the seller are the same person.

Pursuant to the above regulations, Renminbi is freely convertible for current account items such as profit distributions, interest payments and trade and service-related foreign exchange transactions, but not for capital account items such as direct investment, loans, repatriation of investments and investments in securities outside of China unless prior approval or registration is obtained from or made with the SAFE.

In the event that a foreign investor makes contribution in monetary form (including cross-border foreign exchange remittance and Renminbi), the deposit bank shall, upon receipt of the relevant capital funds, carry out entry and registration of monetary contribution of domestic direct investment via the SAFE Capital Account Information System directly before the capital funds can be used.

According to the EIT Law, the income tax rate for both domestic and foreign-invested enterprises (excluding non-resident enterprises) is 25%. In order to clarify certain provisions in the EIT law, the Implementation Regulations on the Enterprise Income Tax of the PRC (中華人民共和國企業所得稅法實施條例) (the “EIT Implementation Rules”) were promulgated by the State Council on 6 December 2007 and amended 6 December 2024. Under the EIT Law and the EIT Implementation Rules, enterprises are classified as either “resident enterprises” or “non-resident enterprises”. According to the EIT Law and the EIT Implementation Rules, in addition to enterprises established within the PRC, enterprises established outside of China whose “actual management bodies” are located in China are considered “resident enterprises” and subject to the uniform 25% enterprise income tax rate for the global income. In addition, the EIT Law provides that a non-resident enterprise refers to an entity established under foreign law whose “actual management bodies” are not within the PRC but have an establishment or place of business in the PRC, or which do not have an establishment or place of business in the PRC but have income sourced within the PRC. According to the Circular No. 36, if the actual VAT burden on a pilot general taxpayer engaging in financial leasing upon approval of the PBOC, the CBIRC or the Ministry of Commerce for the tangible personal property financial leasing and sale-and-leaseback services provided by it is more than 3%, such VAT will be refunded upon collection thereof.

According to the Notice of the Ministry of Finance and the State Administration of Taxation on Adjusting Value-added Tax Rates (Cai Shui [2018] No. 32) (財政部、國家稅務總局關於調整增值稅稅率的通知(財稅[2018]32號)) issued on 4 April 2018 and came into effect on 1 May 2018, a taxpayer who is previously subject to the rates of 17% and 11%, respectively, for VAT-taxable sales activities or imported goods shall have the applicable tax rates adjusted to 16% and 10%, respectively.

TAXATION

The following summary of certain British Virgin Islands, Hong Kong, PRC and, EU tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of Notes is based upon applicable laws, regulations, rulings and decisions in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular, all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect). This discussion does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of Notes and does not purport to deal with consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules. Neither these statements nor any other statements in this Offering Circular are to be regarded as advice on the tax position of any Noteholder or any persons acquiring, selling or otherwise dealing in the Notes or on any tax implications arising from the acquisition, sale or other dealings in respect of the Notes. Persons considering the purchase of the Notes should consult their own tax advisors concerning the tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposition of Notes. Prospective investors should consult their professional advisers on the possible tax consequences of buying, holding or selling any Notes under the laws of their country of citizenship, residence or domicile.

BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

Payments of interest on the Notes and other amounts paid by the Issuer to persons who are not resident in the British Virgin Islands and any capital gains realised with respect to the Notes, by persons who are not resident in the British Virgin Islands are exempt from all provisions of the Income Tax Act in the British Virgin Islands.

No estate, inheritance, succession or gift tax, rate, duty, levy or other charge is payable by persons who are not resident in the British Virgin Islands with respect to the Notes.

All instruments relating to transactions in respect of the Notes are exempt from payment of stamp duty in the British Virgin Islands. This assumes that the Issuer does not hold an interest in real estate in the British Virgin Islands.

There are currently no withholding taxes or exchange control regulations in the British Virgin Islands applicable to the Issuer. However, the British Virgin Islands has implemented both the EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC and subsequently the Organisation for Economic Co-Operation and Development's Common Standard on Reporting and Due Diligence for Financial Account Information into the laws of the British Virgin Islands. As a result British Virgin Islands-based paying agent may be obliged under the applicable implementing legislation to disclose financial account information to the British Virgin Islands International Tax Authority on behalf of the Financial Secretary who will in turn comply with the information exchange policy under the applicable international obligations of the British Virgin Islands.

PRC

The following summary describes certain PRC tax consequences of ownership of the Notes by beneficial owners who, or which, are not residents of the PRC for PRC tax purposes (except as described in the section titled “VAT” below). These beneficial owners are referred to as non-PRC Noteholders in this section. In considering whether to invest in the Notes, investors should consult their individual tax advisers with regard to the application of PRC tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the laws of any other tax jurisdiction.

Income Tax

Pursuant to the EIT Law and its implementation regulations, enterprises that are established under laws of foreign countries and regions (including Hong Kong, Macau and Taiwan) but whose “de facto management bodies” are within the territory of the PRC are PRC tax resident enterprises for the purpose of the EIT Law and they must pay enterprise income tax at the rate of 25 per cent. in respect of their income derived from sources within and outside the PRC. The relevant PRC tax authorities may decide, in accordance with applicable tax rules and regulations, that the “de facto management body” of the Issuer within the territory of the PRC and the Issuer may be deemed to be a PRC tax resident enterprise for the purpose of the EIT Law. As confirmed by the Issuer, as at the date of this Offering Circular, the Issuer has not been informed by the PRC tax authorities that it is considered as a PRC tax resident enterprise for the purpose of the EIT Law. On that basis, Noteholders will not be subject to withholding tax, income tax or any other taxes or duties (including stamp duty) imposed by any governmental authority in the PRC in respect of the holding of or transfer of the Notes or any repayment of principal and payment of interest made by the Issuer thereon.

However, there is no assurance that the Issuer will not be treated as a PRC tax resident enterprise under the EIT Law and related implementation regulations in the future. Pursuant to the EIT Law and its implementation regulations, any non-resident enterprise without establishment within the PRC or whose income has no actual connection to its establishment within the PRC must pay enterprise income tax at the rate of 10 per cent. on income derived from sources within the PRC, unless a preferential rate is provided by tax treaties or arrangements entered into between the country or region where the non-resident is established and the PRC, and such income tax must be withheld at source payments of interest to non-resident individual holders of the Notes may be subject to withholding at a rate of 20 per cent if the Issuer is deemed a PRC resident enterprise and payments of interest are considered to be from sources within the PRC. However, the Issuer has agreed to pay additional amounts (subject to certain exceptions) to Noteholders so that Noteholders would receive the full amount of the scheduled payment, as further set out in the “Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Taxation”.

Non-PRC Noteholders will not be subject to the PRC tax on any capital gains derived from a sale or exchange of Notes unless the Issuer is treated as a PRC tax resident enterprise under the EIT Law and related implementation regulations in the future. In that case, any gain realised by the non-PRC enterprise Noteholders from the transfer of the Notes may be regarded as being derived from sources within the PRC and be subject to 10 per cent. of PRC tax unless decreased or exempted by an applicable tax treaty. Further, non-PRC individual Noteholders may be subject to individual income tax at the rate of 20 per cent. on the capital gains, which may be decreased or exempted by an applicable tax treaty.

VAT

On 23 March 2016, MOF and SAT promulgated the Circular on Comprehensively Promoting the Pilot Programme of the Collection of Value-Added Tax to Replace Business Tax (關於全面推開營業稅改徵增值稅試點的通知(財稅[2016]36號)) (“Circular 36”), partially abolished on 1 July 2017 and 1 April 2019, which confirms that since 1 May 2016, the income derived from the provision of financial services which were subject to business tax has been replaced by VAT.

According to Circular 36, the entities and individuals providing the services within China shall be subject to VAT. The services are treated as provided within China where either the service provider or the service recipient is located in the PRC. The services subject to VAT include the provision of financial services such as the provision of loans. Under Circular 36, “loans” refers to the activity of lending capital for another’s use and receiving the interest income thereon. Based on the definition of “loans” under Circular 36, the PRC Noteholders may be treated as providing loans to the Issuer, which thus may be regarded as providing financial services subject to VAT. Thus, the PRC Noteholders may be subject to VAT under Circular 36 and related surcharges when receiving the interest payments under the Notes, Which tax may be required to be withheld at source.

Where a holder of the Notes who is an individual transfers the Notes, VAT may be exempted according to Circular 36 if the transfers is treated as resale of financial products. Where a holder of the Notes who is an entity located outside of the PRC resells the Notes to an entity or individual located outside of the PRC, since neither the service provider nor the service recipient is located in the PRC, Circular 36 should not apply. However, where a holder of the Notes who is an enterprise resells the Notes, there is uncertainty as to the applicability of VAT if either the seller or buyer of Notes is located inside the PRC.

The above statement may change upon the issuance of clarification rules and/or different interpretation by the competent tax authority. There is uncertainty as to the application of Circular 36.

Stamp Duty

No PRC stamp duty will be chargeable upon the issue or transfer (for so long as the register of Noteholders is maintained outside the PRC) of a Note.

HONG KONG

Withholding tax

No withholding tax is payable in Hong Kong in respect of payments of principal (including any premium payable on redemption of the Notes) or interest on the Notes or in respect of any capital gains arising from the sale of the Notes.

Profits tax

Hong Kong profits tax is chargeable on every person carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong in respect of profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong from such trade, profession or business (excluding profits arising from the sale of capital assets).

Interest on the Notes may be deemed to be profits arising in or derived from Hong Kong from a trade, profession or business carried on in Hong Kong in the following circumstances:

- (a) interest on the Notes is derived from Hong Kong and is received by or accrues to a corporation carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong;

- (d) interest on the Notes is received by or accrues to a corporation, other than a financial institution, and arises through or from the carrying on in Hong Kong by the corporation of its intra-group financing business (within the meaning of section 16(3) of the IRO).

Pursuant to the Exemption from Profits Tax (Interest Income) Order, interest income accruing to a person other than a financial institution, on deposits (denominated in any currency and whether or not the deposit is evidenced by a certificate of deposit) placed with, inter alia, an authorised institution in Hong Kong (within the meaning of section 2 of the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) of Hong Kong) is exempt from the payment of Hong Kong profits tax. This exemption does not apply, however, to deposits that are used to secure or guarantee money borrowed in certain circumstances. Based on the definition of “deposit” in the Banking Ordinance (Cap. 155) of Hong Kong and provided no prospectus involving the issue of the Notes is registered under the Companies (Winding Up and Miscellaneous Provisions) Ordinance (Cap. 32) of Hong Kong, the issue of the Notes is likely to constitute a deposit to which the above exemption from payment will apply.

Sums received by or accrued to a financial institution by way of gains or profits arising through or from the carrying on by the financial institution of its business in Hong Kong from the sale, disposal and redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax. Sums received by or accrued to a corporation, other than a financial institution, by way of gains or profits arising through or from the carrying on in Hong Kong by the corporation of its intra-group financing business (within the meaning of section 16(3) of the IRO) from the sale, disposal or other redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax.

Sums derived from the sale, disposal or redemption of Notes will be subject to Hong Kong profits tax where received by or accrued to a person, other than a financial institution, who carries on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong and the sum has a Hong Kong source unless otherwise exempted. The source of such sums will generally be determined by having regard to the manner in which the Notes are acquired and disposed of.

In addition, the Inland Revenue (Amendment) (Taxation on Specified Foreign-sourced Income) Ordinance 2022 of Hong Kong (the “Amendment Ordinance”) came into effect on 1 January 2023. Under the Amendment Ordinance, certain foreign-sourced interest on the Notes accrued to an MNE entity (as defined in the Amendment Ordinance) carrying on a trade, profession or business in Hong Kong is regarded as arising in or derived from Hong Kong and subject to Hong Kong profits tax when it is received in Hong Kong. The Amendment Ordinance also provides for relief against double taxation in respect of certain foreign-sourced income and transitional matters.

In certain circumstances, Hong Kong profits tax exemptions (such as concessionary tax rates) may be available. Investors are advised to consult their own tax advisors to ascertain the applicability of any exemptions to their individual position.

Stamp duty

Stamp duty will not be payable on the issue of Bearer Notes provided that either:

- (a) such Bearer Notes are denominated in a currency other than the currency of Hong Kong and are not repayable in any circumstances in the currency of Hong Kong; or
- (b) such Bearer Notes constitute loan capital (as defined in the Stamp Duty Ordinance (Chapter 117 of the Laws of Hong Kong) (the “Stamp Duty Ordinance”).

If stamp duty is payable, it is payable by the Issuer on the issue of Bearer Notes at a rate of 3.0 per cent. of the market value of the Notes at the time of issue. No stamp duty will be payable on any subsequent transfer of Bearer Notes.

No stamp duty is payable on the issue of Registered Notes. Stamp duty may be payable on any sale and purchase, or change in beneficial ownership of Registered Notes if the relevant transfer is required to be registered in Hong Kong. Stamp duty will, however, not be payable on any sale and purchase, or change in beneficial ownership of Registered Notes provided that either:

- (a) such Registered Notes are denominated in a currency other than the currency of Hong Kong and are not repayable in any circumstances in the currency of Hong Kong; or
- (b) such Registered Notes constitute loan capital (as defined in the Stamp Duty Ordinance).

If stamp duty is payable in respect of the sale and purchase of Registered Notes, it will be payable at the rate of 0.1 per cent. by the seller and 0.1 per cent. by the buyer, by reference to the consideration or its value, whichever is higher. In addition, stamp duty is payable at the fixed rate of HK$5 on each instrument of transfer executed in relation to any transfer of the Registered Notes if the relevant transfer is required to be registered in Hong Kong.

The Proposed Financial Transactions Tax (“FTT”)

On 14 February 2013, the European Commission published a proposal (the “Commission’s Proposal”) for a Directive for a common FTT in Belgium, Germany, Estonia, Greece, Spain, France, Italy, Austria, Portugal, Slovenia and Slovakia (the “participating Member States”). However, Estonia has since stated that it will not participate.

The Commission’s Proposal has very broad scope and could, if introduced, apply to certain dealings in Notes (including secondary market transactions) in certain circumstances. The issuance and subscription of Notes should, however, be exempt.

Under the Commission’s Proposal, the FTT could apply in certain circumstances to persons both within and outside of the participating Member States. Generally, it would apply to certain dealings in Notes where at least one party is a financial institution, and at least one party is established in a participating Member State. A financial institution may be, or be deemed to be, “established” in a participating Member State in a broad range of circumstances, including (a) by transacting with a person established in a participating Member State or (b) where the financial instrument which is subject to the dealings is issued in a participating Member State.

However, the FTT proposal remains subject to negotiation between participating Member States, and the scope of any such tax is uncertain. Additional EU Member States may decide to participate.

Prospective holders of Notes are advised to seek their own professional advice in relation to the FTT.

FATCA Withholding

Pursuant to certain provisions of U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a “foreign financial institution” may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign passthru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. The Issuer may be a foreign financial institution for these purposes. A number of jurisdictions (including Hong Kong and the British Virgin Islands) have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published in the U.S. Federal Register, and Notes characterised as debt (or which are not otherwise characterised as equity and have a fixed term) for U.S. federal tax purposes that are issued on or prior to the date that is six months after the date on which final regulations defining “foreign passthru payments” are filed with the U.S. Federal Register generally would be grandfathered for purposes of FATCA withholding unless materially modified after such date (including by reason of a substitution of the Issuer). However, if additional notes (as described under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes – Further Issues”) that are not distinguishable from previously issued Notes are issued after the expiration of the grandfathering period and are subject to withholding under FATCA, then withholding agents may treat all Notes, including the Notes offered prior to the expiration of the grandfathering period, as subject to withholding under FATCA. Holders should consult their own tax advisers regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.

PRC CURRENCY CONTROLS

The following is a general description of certain currency controls in the PRC and is based on the law and relevant interpretations thereof in effect as at the date of this Offering Circular, all of which are subject to change, and does not constitute legal advice. It does not purport to be a complete analysis of all applicable currency controls in the PRC relating to the Notes. Prospective holders of Notes who are in any doubt as to PRC currency controls are advised to consult their own professional advisers.

Remittance of Renminbi into and outside the PRC

Renminbi is not a freely convertible currency. The remittance of Renminbi into and outside the PRC is subject to control imposed under PRC law.

Current Account Items

Under PRC foreign exchange control regulations, current account items refer to any transaction for international receipts and payments involving goods, services, earnings and other frequent transfers.

Prior to July 2009, all current account items were required to be settled in foreign currencies. Since July 2009, the PRC has adopted the Measures for the Administration of Pilot RMB Settlement in Cross-border Trade (跨境貿易人民幣結算試點管理辦法, 中國人民銀行、財政部、商務部、海關總署、國家稅務總局、中國銀行業監督管理委員會公告([2009]第10號)) and commenced a pilot scheme pursuant to which Renminbi may be used for settlement of imports and exports of goods between approved pilot enterprises in five designated cities in the PRC including Shanghai, Guangzhou, Dongguan, Shenzhen and Zhuhai, and enterprises in designated offshore jurisdictions including Hong Kong and Macau. In June 2010, July 2011 and February 2012 respectively, the PRC government promulgated the Circular on Issues concerning the Expansion of the Scope of the Pilot Programme of Renminbi Settlement of Cross-Border Trades (關於擴大跨境貿易人民幣結算試點有關問題的通知, 銀發[2010]186號), the Circular on Expanding the Regions of Cross-border Trade Renminbi Settlement (關於擴大跨境貿易人民幣結算地區的通知, 銀發[2011]203號) and the Notice on Matters Relevant to the Administration of Enterprises Engaged in Renminbi Settlement of Export Trade in Goods (關於出口貨物貿易人民幣結算企業管理有關問題的通知, 銀發[2012]23號), Circulars with regard to the expansion of designated cities and offshore jurisdictions implementing the pilot Renminbi settlement scheme for cross-border trades. Pursuant to these circulars (i) Renminbi settlement of imports and exports of goods and of services and other current account items became permissible, (ii) the list of designated pilot districts was expanded to cover 20 provinces and cities, (iii) the restriction on designated offshore districts has been uplifted, and (iv) any enterprise qualified for the export and import business is permitted to use Renminbi as settlement currency for exports of goods, provided that the relevant provincial government has submitted to the PBOC and five other PRC authorities (the “Six Authorities”) a list of key enterprises subject to supervision and the Six Authorities have verified and signed off such list (the “Supervision List”). On 8 May 2012, the PBOC issued a notice stating that the Six Authorities had jointly verified and announced a Supervision List and as a result any enterprise qualified for the export and import business is permitted to use Renminbi as settlement currency for exports.

Accordingly, offshore enterprises are entitled to use Renminbi to settle imports of goods and services and other current account items. Renminbi remittance for exports of goods from the PRC may only be effected by (a) enterprises with the foreign trading right and incorporated in a province which has already submitted the Supervision List (for the avoidance of doubt, that PRC enterprise does not necessarily need to be included in the Supervision List) or (b) enterprises that have been approved as a pilot enterprise for using Renminbi for exports before the Six Authorities reviewed and approved the Supervision List submitted by relevant province.

On 5 July 2013, the PBOC promulgated the Circular on Policies related to Simplifying and Improving Cross-border Renminbi Business Procedures (關於簡化跨境人民幣業務流程和完善有關政策的通知) (銀發[2013]168號), which, in particular, simplifies the procedures for cross-border Renminbi trade settlement under current account items. For example, PRC banks may conduct settlement for the PRC enterprises (excluding those on the Supervision List) upon the PRC enterprises presenting the payment instruction. PRC banks may also allow the PRC enterprises to make/receive payments under current account items prior to the relevant PRC bank's verification of underlying transactions (noting that verification of underlying transactions is usually a precondition for cross-border remittance).

On 23 October 2019, the SAFE promulgated the Notice by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of Simplifying Foreign Exchange Accounts (國家外匯管理局關於精簡外匯賬戶的通知, 匯發[2019]29號) which became effective on 1 February 2020. SAFE has decided to review and integrate certain foreign exchange accounts and further reduce the types of accounts in order to further intensify the reform of foreign exchange administration, simplify the relevant business operating procedures, and facilitate true and compliant foreign exchange transactions by banks, enterprises and other market participants. For example, "Current accounts – foreign currency cash account" and "current accounts – foreign exchange account under current accounts of overseas institutions" are included in "current accounts – foreign exchange settlement account".

On the same day, the SAFE issued the Notice by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of Further Facilitating Cross-border Trade and Investment (國家外匯管理局關於進一步促進跨境貿易投資便利化的通知, 匯發[2019]28號), based on which, for the revenue obtained by an enterprise from trade in goods, the enterprise may, on its own, decide whether to open a to-be-inspected account for export revenue ("to-be-inspected account"). If an enterprise has not opened a to-be-inspected account, the examined revenue from trade in goods by the bank in accordance with the existing provisions may be directly deposited into the foreign exchange account under current accounts or used for foreign exchange settlement.

On 28 August 2020, the SAFE issued the Notice of the State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Issuing the Guidelines for Foreign Exchange Business of Current Account (2020 Edition) (國家外匯管理局關於印發《經常項目外匯業務指引(2020年版)》的通知, 匯發[2020]14號), (the "SAFE Current Account Guidelines") in order to integrate and simplify then existing laws and regulations regarding foreign exchange transactions under current account items. The SAFE Current Account Guidelines do not create substantial amendments to existing laws and regulations.

The foregoing measures and circulars will be subject to interpretation and application by the relevant PRC authorities. Local authorities may adopt different practises in applying these circulars and impose conditions for settlement of current account items.

Capital Account Items

Under PRC foreign exchange control regulations, capital account items include cross-border transfers of capital, direct investments, securities investments, derivative products and loans. Capital account payments are generally subject to approval of, and/or registration or filing with, the relevant PRC authorities.

Settlements for capital account items are generally required to be made in foreign currencies. For instance, foreign investors (including any Hong Kong investors) are generally required to make any capital contribution to foreign invested enterprises in a foreign currency in accordance with the terms set out in the relevant joint venture contracts and/or articles of association as approved by the relevant authorities. Foreign invested enterprises or any other relevant PRC parties are also generally required to make capital item payments including proceeds from liquidation, transfer of shares, reduction of capital, interest and principal repayment to foreign investors in a foreign currency. That said, the relevant PRC authorities may approve a foreign entity to make a capital contribution or a shareholder's loan to a foreign invested enterprise with Renminbi lawfully obtained by it outside the PRC and for the foreign invested enterprise to service interest and principal repayment to its foreign investor outside the PRC in Renminbi on a trial basis. The foreign invested enterprise may also be required to complete a registration and verification process with the relevant PRC authorities before such Renminbi remittances.

On 7 April 2011, SAFE promulgated the Notice on Relevant Issues regarding Streamlining the Business Operation of Cross-border RMB Capital Account Items (國家外匯管理局綜合司關於規範跨境人民幣資本項目業務操作有關問題的通知(匯綜發[2011]38號)) (“the SAFE Circular”), which became effective on 1 May 2011. The SAFE Circular clarifies that the foreign debts borrowed, and the foreign guarantee provided, by an onshore entity (including a financial institution) in Renminbi shall, in principle, be regulated under the current PRC foreign debt and foreign guarantee regime.

On 13 October 2011, the PBOC promulgated the Measures for the Administration on RMB Settlement in Foreign Direct Investment (外商直接投資人民幣結算職業管理辦法) (“PBOC RMB FDI Measures”) as amended in June 2015, pursuant to which, PBOC special approval for RMB FDI and shareholder loans which was required by an earlier circular of PBOC is no longer necessary. The PBOC RMB FDI Measures provide that, among others, foreign invested enterprises are required to conduct registrations with the local branch of PBOC within ten working days after obtaining the business licenses for the purpose of Renminbi settlement, and a foreign investor is allowed to open Renminbi special accounts for designated usage in relation to making equity investment in a PRC enterprise or receiving Renminbi proceeds from distribution (dividends or otherwise) by its PRC subsidiaries. The PBOC RMB FDI Measures also state that the foreign debt quota of a foreign invested enterprise constitutes its Renminbi debt and foreign currency debt from its offshore shareholders, offshore affiliates and offshore financial institutions, and a foreign invested enterprise may open a Renminbi account to receive its Renminbi proceeds borrowed offshore by submitting the Renminbi loan contract to the commercial bank and make repayments of principal of and interest on such debt in Renminbi by submitting certain documents as required to the commercial bank.

On 19 November 2012, SAFE promulgated the Notice of State Administration of Foreign Exchange on Further Improvements and Adjustments to Foreign Exchange Control Policies for Direct Investments (國家外匯管理局關於進一步改進和調整直接投資外匯管理政策的通知(匯發 [2012]59號)) (“SAFE Circular on DI”), which became effective on 17 December 2012 and was later amended on 4 May 2015, 10 October 2018 and 30 December 2019, respectively. According to the SAFE Circular on DI, SAFE removes or adjusts certain administrative licensing items with regard to foreign exchange administration over direct investments to promote investment, including, but not limited to, the abrogation of SAFE approval for opening of and payment into foreign exchange accounts under direct investment accounts, the abrogation of SAFE approval for reinvestment with legal income generated within the PRC of foreign investors, the simplification of the administration of foreign exchange reinvestments by foreign investment companies, and the abrogation of SAFE approval for purchase and external payment of foreign exchange under direct investment accounts.

On 3 December 2013, the MOFCOM promulgated Announcement on Issues Relating to Cross-border Renminbi-denominated Direct Investments (關於跨境人民幣直接投資有關問題的公告(商務部公告2013年第87號)) (“MOFCOM Circular”), which became effective on 1 January 2014, to further facilitate FDI by simplifying and streamlining the applicable regulatory framework. The MOFCOM Circular replaced the Notice of Ministry of Commerce on Issues Relating to Cross-border Renminbi Direct Investment (商務部關於跨境人民幣直接投資有關問題的通知(商資函[2011]第889號)) and the Notice on General Office of Ministry of Commerce on Issues Relating to Administration of Cross-border Renminbi-denominated Direct Investments (商務部辦公廳關於商務系統實施跨境人民幣直接投資管理相關問題的通知(商辦資函[2011]1171號)) (together, “2011 MOFCOM Notice”). Pursuant to the MOFCOM Circular, written approval from the appropriate office of MOFCOM and/or its local counterparts specifying “Renminbi Foreign Direct Investment” and the amount of capital contribution is required for each FDI. Compared with the 2011 MOFCOM Notice, the MOFCOM Circular no longer contains the requirements for central level MOFCOM approvals for investments of RMB300 million or above, or in certain industries, such as financial guarantee, financial leasing, microcredit, auction, foreign invested investment companies, venture capital and equity investment vehicles, cement, iron and steel, electrolyse aluminium, ship building and other industries under the state macroregulation. Unlike the 2011 MOFCOM Notice, the MOFCOM Circular has also removed the approval requirement for foreign investors who intend to change the currency of their existing capital contribution from a foreign currency to Renminbi. In addition, the MOFCOM Circular also clearly prohibits FDI funds from being used for any investments in securities and financial derivatives (except for investments in PRC listed companies by strategic investors) or for entrustment loans in the PRC.

On 30 March 2015, SAFE promulgated the Notices of Reformation on Administration of Settlement of Capital Foreign Exchange of Foreign-invested Enterprises (關於改革外商投資外匯資本金結匯管理方式的通知(匯發[2015]19號)), which became effective on 1 June 2015. In order to further deepen the reform of the foreign exchange administration system, better satisfy and facilitate the needs of foreign-invested enterprises for business and capital operation, the SAFE has decided to reform the management approach regarding the settlement of the foreign exchange capital of foreign-invested enterprises nationwide on the basis of summarising the pilot experience of certain regions in the early days. The key points of this notice set out as the following:

- the foreign exchange capital of foreign-invested enterprises shall be subject to the discretionary foreign exchange settlement;

- the capital in Renminbi obtained by foreign-invested enterprises from the discretionary settlement of foreign exchange capital shall be managed under the account pending for foreign exchange settlement payment;
- the use of capital by foreign-invested enterprises shall follow the principles of authenticity and self-use within the business scope of enterprises;
- facilitating foreign-invested enterprises in carrying out domestic equity investment with the capital obtained from foreign exchange settlement;
- further standardising the administration of payment by the capital obtained by foreign exchange settlement;
- administration of the settlement and use of the capital in other foreign exchange accounts under direct investment; and
- further strengthening the ex-post regulation as well as investigation on and punishment against violations by the foreign exchange bureaus.

Previously, Renminbi may only be converted for capital account expenses once the prior approval of the SAFE had been obtained. However, according to the Circular of the SAFE on Further Simplifying and Improving the Foreign Exchange Administration Policies of Foreign Direct Investment (國家外匯管理局關於進一步簡化和改進直接投資外匯管理政策的通知(匯發[2015]13號)) issued on 28 February 2015, the SAFE authorised some qualified local banks in the PRC to carry out foreign exchange procedures in relation to inbound and outbound investment from 1 June 2015.

On 26 January 2017, the SAFE issued the Notice on Further Promoting the Reform of Foreign Exchange Administration and Improving the Examination of Authenticity and Compliance (國家外匯管理局關於進一步推進外匯管理改革完善真實合規性審核政策的通知(匯發[2017]3號)) to further advance the reform of foreign exchange administration, such as:

- settlement of domestic foreign exchange loans are allowed for export trade in goods. A domestic institution shall repay loans with the foreign exchange funds received from export trade in goods, rather than, in principle, purchased foreign exchange;
- a debtor may directly or indirectly repatriate the funds under guarantee and use them domestically by, among others, granting loans and making equity investment domestically. Where a bank performs its guarantee obligation under overseas loans with domestic guarantee, relevant foreign exchange settlement and sale shall be managed as the bank's own foreign exchange settlement and sale;
- the deposits absorbed by a domestic bank through its principal international foreign exchange account and allowed to be used domestically are no more than 100 per cent. of the average daily deposit balance in the previous six months as opposed to the former 50 per cent. The funds used domestically are not included in the bank's outstanding short-term external debt quota;

- allowing foreign exchange settlement in the domestic foreign exchange accounts of overseas institutions within pilot free trade zones: Where funds are repatriated and used domestically after settlement, a domestic bank shall, under the relevant provisions on cross-border transactions, handle such funds by examining the valid commercial documents and vouchers of domestic institutions and domestic individuals; and
- where a domestic institution grants overseas loans, the total of the balance of overseas loans granted in domestic currency and the balance of overseas loans granted in foreign currency shall not exceed 30 per cent. of owner's equity in the audited financial statements of the previous year.

Since September 2015, qualified multinational enterprise groups can extend Renminbi-denominated loans to, or borrow Renminbi-denominated loans from, eligible offshore member entities within the same group by leveraging the cash pooling arrangements. The Renminbi funds will be placed in a special deposit account and may not be used to invest in stocks, financial derivatives, or non-self-use real estate assets, or purchase wealth management products or extend loans to enterprises outside the group.

The securities markets, specifically the Renminbi Qualified Foreign Institutional Investor (“RQFII”) regime and the China Interbank Bond Market (“CIBM”), have been further liberalised for foreign investors. PBOC has relaxed the quota control for RQFII, initiated a bond market mutual access scheme between mainland and Hong Kong to allow eligible investors to invest in CIBM and has also expanded the list of foreign investors eligible to directly invest in CIBM, removed quota restriction, and granted more flexibility for the settlement agents to provide the relevant institutions with more trading facilities (for example, in relation to derivatives for hedging foreign exchange risk).

The interbank foreign exchange market is also opening up. In 2018, CFETS further relaxed qualifications, application materials and the procedures for foreign participating banks (which needs to have a relatively large scale of Renminbi purchase and sale business and international influence) to access the inter-bank foreign exchange market.

On 23 October 2019, the SAFE promulgated Notice by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of Simplifying Foreign Exchange Accounts (國家外匯管理局關於精簡外匯賬戶的通知, 匯發[2019]29號) which became effective on 1 February 2020, according to which, several measures were taken to intensify, for example, “Capital accounts – special account for domestic reinvestment” is included in “capital accounts – foreign exchange capital account”.

On the same day, the SAFE issued Notice by the State Administration of Foreign Exchange of Further Facilitating Cross-border Trade and Investment (國家外匯管理局關於進一步促進跨境貿易投資便利化的通知, 匯發[2019]28號) in order to further promote the reform of “simplification of administrative procedures and decentralization of powers, combination of decentralization and appropriate control, and optimization of services”. It cancelled restrictions on the use of funds in domestic asset realization accounts for foreign exchange settlement and restrictions on the number of opened foreign exchange accounts under capital accounts.

Recent reforms introduced were aimed at controlling the remittance of Renminbi for payment of transactions categorised as capital account items. There is no assurance that the PRC Government will continue to gradually liberalise the control over Renminbi payments of capital account item transactions in the future. The relevant regulations are relatively new and will be subject to interpretation and application by the relevant PRC authorities. Further, if any new PRC regulations are promulgated in the future which have the effect of permitting or restricting (as the case may be) the remittance of Renminbi for payment of transactions categorised as capital account items, then such remittances will need to be made subject to the specific requirements or restrictions set out in such rules.

CLEARANCE AND SETTLEMENT

*The information set out below is subject to any change in or reinterpretation of the rules, regulations and procedures of Euroclear, Clearstream or the CMU (together, the “Clearing Systems”) currently in effect. The information in this section concerning the Clearing Systems has been obtained from sources that each of the Issuer and the Guarantor believes to be reliable, but none of the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Group, the Arranger, the Dealers, the Trustee or the Agents takes any responsibility for the accuracy thereof. The relevant Pricing Supplement will specify the Clearing System(s) applicable for each Series.

The Clearing Systems

Euroclear and Clearstream

Euroclear and Clearstream each holds securities for participating organisations and facilitates the clearance and settlement of securities transactions between their respective participants through electronic book-entry changes in accounts of such participants. Euroclear and Clearstream provide to their respective participants, among other things, services for safekeeping, administration, clearance and settlement of internationally-traded securities and securities lending and borrowing. Euroclear and Clearstream participants are financial institutions throughout the world, including underwriters, securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations and certain other organisations. Indirect access to Euroclear or Clearstream is also available to others, such as banks, brokers, dealers and trust companies which clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Euroclear or Clearstream participant, either directly or indirectly.

Distributions of principal with respect to book-entry interests in the Notes held through Euroclear or Clearstream will be credited, to the extent received by the Issuing and Paying Agent, to the cash accounts of Euroclear or Clearstream participants in accordance with the relevant system’s rules and procedures.

CMU

The CMU is a central depositary service provided by the Central Moneymarkets Unit of the HKMA for the safe custody and electronic trading between the members of this service (“CMU Members”) of Exchange Fund Bills and Notes Clearing and Settlement Service securities and capital markets instruments (together, “CMU Instruments”) which are specified in the CMU Reference Manual as capable of being held within the CMU.

The CMU is only available to CMU Instruments issued by a CMU Member or by a person for whom a CMU Member acts as agent for the purposes of lodging instruments issued by such persons. Membership of the CMU is open to all financial institutions regulated by the HKMA, Securities and Futures Commission, Insurance Authority or Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority. For further details on the full range of the CMU's custodial services, please refer to the CMU Reference Manual.

The CMU has an income distribution service which is a service offered by the CMU to facilitate the distribution of interest, coupon or redemption proceeds (collectively, the “income proceeds”) by CMU Members who are paying agents to the legal title holders of CMU Instruments via the CMU system. Furthermore, the CMU has a corporate action platform which allows an issuer (or its agent) to make an announcement/notification of a corporate action and noteholders to submit the relevant certification. For further details, please refer to the CMU Reference Manual.

An investor holding an interest through an account with either Euroclear or Clearstream in any Notes held in the CMU will hold that interest through the respective accounts which Euroclear and Clearstream each have with the CMU.

Book-Entry Ownership

Bearer Notes

The Issuer may make applications to Euroclear and/or Clearstream for acceptance in their respective book-entry systems in respect of any Series of Bearer Notes. The Issuer may also apply to have Bearer Notes accepted for clearance through the CMU. In respect of Bearer Notes, a Temporary Global Note and/or a Permanent Global Note will be deposited with a common depositary for Euroclear and Clearstream or a sub-custodian for the CMU. Transfers of interests in a Temporary Global Note or a Permanent Global Note will be made in accordance with the normal market debt securities operating procedures of the CMU, Euroclear and Clearstream.

Registered Notes

The Issuer may make applications to Euroclear and/or Clearstream for acceptance in their respective book-entry systems in respect of the Notes to be represented by a Global Certificate. The Issuer may also apply to have Registered Notes to be represented by a Global Certificate accepted for clearance through the CMU. Each Global Certificate will have an International Securities Identification Number (“ISIN”) and a Common Code. Investors in Notes of such Series may hold their interests in a Global Certificate through Euroclear, Clearstream or the CMU (if applicable).

Each Global Certificate will be subject to restrictions on transfer contained in a legend appearing on the front of such Global Certificate, as set out under “Subscription and Sale”.

All Registered Notes will initially be represented by a Global Certificate. Individual Certificates will be available, in the case of Notes initially represented by a Global Certificate, in amounts specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement.

SUBSCRIPTION AND SALE

The Dealers have, in a dealer agreement dated 29 September 2025 and as further amended, restated and/or supplemented from time to time (the “Dealer Agreement”), agreed with the Issuer and the Guarantor a basis on which they or any of them may from time to time agree to subscribe Notes. Any such agreement will extend to those matters stated under “Terms and Conditions of the Notes”. Under the terms of the Dealer Agreement, the Issuer, failing whom the Guarantor, will pay each relevant Dealer a commission (if any) agreed between the Issuer, the Guarantor and the relevant Dealer in respect of Notes subscribed by it. The Issuer and the Guarantor have agreed to reimburse the Arrangers for certain of their expenses incurred in connection with the establishment of the Programme and any future update of the Programme and the Dealers for certain of their activities in connection with the Programme.

The Issuer and the Guarantor have agreed to indemnify the Dealers against certain liabilities in connection with the offer and sale of the Notes. The Dealer Agreement entitles the Dealers to terminate any agreement that they make to subscribe Notes in certain circumstances prior to payment for such Notes being made to the Issuer.

The Dealers and certain of their affiliates may have performed certain investment banking and advisory services for the Issuer the Guarantor and/or their respective affiliates from time to time for which they have received customary fees and expenses and may, from time to time, engage in transactions with and perform services for the Issuer, the Guarantor and/or their respective affiliates in the ordinary course of their business. In connection with each Tranche of Notes issued under the Programme, the Dealers or certain of their affiliates may purchase Notes and be allocated Notes for asset management and/or proprietary purposes but not with a view to distribution. Further, the Dealers or their respective affiliates may purchase Notes for its or their own account and enter into transactions, including credit derivatives, such as asset swaps, repackaging and credit default swaps relating to such Notes and/or other securities of the Issuer, the Guarantor or their respective subsidiaries or affiliates at the same time as the offer and sale of each Tranche of Notes or in secondary market transactions. Such transactions would be carried out as bilateral trades with selected counterparties and separately from any existing sale or resale of the Tranche of Notes to which a particular Pricing Supplement relates (notwithstanding that such selected counterparties may also be purchasers of such Tranche of Notes).

Notice to capital market intermediaries and prospective investors pursuant to paragraph 21 of the Hong Kong SFC Code of Conduct – Important Notice to CMIs (including private banks)

This notice to CMIs (including private banks) is a summary of certain obligations the SFC Code imposes on CMIs, which require the attention and cooperation of other CMIs (including private banks). Certain CMIs may also be acting as OCs for the relevant CMI Offering and are subject to additional requirements under the SFC Code. The application of these obligations will depend on the role(s) undertaken by the relevant Dealer(s) in respect of each CMI Offering.

Prospective investors who are the directors, employees or major shareholders of the Issuer, the Guarantor, a CMI or its group companies would be considered under the SFC Code as having an Association with the Issuer, the Guarantor, the CMI or the relevant group company. CMIs should specifically disclose whether their investor clients have any Association when submitting orders for the relevant Notes. In addition, private banks should take all reasonable steps to identify whether their investor clients may have any Associations with the Issuer, the Guarantor, or any CMI (including its group companies) and inform the relevant Dealer(s) accordingly.

CMIs are informed that, unless otherwise notified, the marketing and investor targeting strategy for the relevant CMI Offering may include institutional investors, sovereign wealth funds, pension funds, hedge funds, family offices and high net worth individuals, in each case, subject to the selling restrictions and any MiFID II product governance language or any UK MiFIR product governance language set out elsewhere in this Offering Circular and/or the applicable Pricing Supplement.

CMIs should ensure that orders placed are bona fide, are not inflated and do not constitute duplicated orders (i.e. two or more corresponding or identical orders placed via two or more CMIs). CMIs should enquire with their investor clients regarding any orders which appear unusual or irregular. CMIs should disclose the identities of all investors when submitting orders for the relevant Notes (except for omnibus orders where underlying investor information may need to be provided to any OCs when submitting orders). Failure to provide underlying investor information for omnibus orders, where required to do so, may result in that order being rejected. CMIs should not place “X-orders” into the order book.

CMIs should segregate and clearly identify their own proprietary orders (and those of their group companies, including private banks as the case may be) in the order book and book messages.

CMIs (including private banks) should not offer any rebates to prospective investors or pass on any rebates provided by the Issuer and the Guarantor. In addition, CMIs (including private banks) should not enter into arrangements which may result in prospective investors paying different prices for the relevant Notes. CMIs are informed that a private bank rebate may be payable as stated above and in the applicable Pricing Supplement, or otherwise notified to prospective investors.

The SFC Code requires that a CMI disclose complete and accurate information in a timely manner on the status of the order book and other relevant information it receives to targeted investors for them to make an informed decision. In order to do this, those Dealer(s) in control of the order book should consider disclosing order book updates to all CMIs.

When placing an order for the relevant Notes, private banks should disclose, at the same time, if such order is placed other than on a “principal” basis (whereby it is deploying its own balance sheet for onward selling to investors). Private banks who do not provide such disclosure are hereby deemed to be placing their order on such a “principal” basis. Otherwise, such order may be considered to be an omnibus order pursuant to the SFC Code. Private banks should be aware that placing an order on a “principal” basis may require the relevant affiliated Manager(s) (if any) to categorise it as a proprietary order and apply the “proprietary orders” requirements of the SFC Code to such order and will result in that private bank not being entitled to, and not being paid, any rebate.

In relation to omnibus orders, when submitting such orders, CMIs (including private banks) that are subject to the SFC Code should disclose underlying investor information in respect of each order constituting the relevant omnibus order (failure to provide such information may result in that order being rejected). Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus orders should consist of:

- The name of each underlying investor;
- A unique identification number for each investor;
- Whether an underlying investor has any “Associations” (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a “Proprietary Order” (as used in the SFC Code);
- Whether any underlying investor order is a duplicate order.

Underlying investor information in relation to omnibus order should be sent to the Managers named in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

To the extent information being disclosed by CMIs and investors is personal and/or confidential in nature, CMIs (including private banks) agree and warrant: (A) to take appropriate steps to safeguard the transmission of such information to any OCs; and (B) that they have obtained the necessary consents from the underlying investors to disclose such information to any OCs. By submitting an order and providing such information to any OCs, each CMI (including private banks) further warrants that they and the underlying investors have understood and consented to the collection, disclosure, use and transfer of such information by any OCs and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, including to the Issuer, the Guarantor, relevant regulators and/or any other third parties as may be required by the SFC Code, for the purpose of complying with the SFC Code, during the bookbuilding process for the relevant CMI Offering. CMIs that receive such underlying investor information are reminded that such information should be used only for submitting orders in the relevant CMI Offering. The relevant Dealer(s) may be asked to demonstrate compliance with their obligations under the SFC Code, and may request other CMIs (including private banks) to provide evidence showing compliance with the obligations above (in particular, that the necessary consents have been obtained). In such event, other CMIs (including private banks) are required to provide the relevant Dealer(s) with such evidence within the timeline requested.

By placing an order, prospective investors (including any underlying investors in relation to omnibus orders) are deemed to represent to the Dealers that it is not a Sanctions Restricted Person. A “Sanctions Restricted Person” means an individual or entity (a “Person”): (a) that is, or is directly or indirectly owned or controlled by a Person that is, described or designated in (i) the most current “Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons” list (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/sdnlist.pdf>) or (ii) the Foreign Sanctions Evaders List (which as of the date hereof can be found at: <http://www.treasury.gov/ofac/downloads/fse/fselist.pdf>) or (iii) the most current “Consolidated list of persons, groups and entities subject to EU financial sanctions” (which as of the date hereof

The Notes and the relevant Guarantee are being offered and sold outside the United States in reliance on Regulation S.

In respect of Notes offered or sold in reliance on Regulation S Category 2 as specified in the applicable Pricing Supplement, the Notes and the Guarantee have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act, and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons except in accordance with Regulation S or pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act. Accordingly, neither it, its affiliates nor any persons acting on its or their behalf have engaged or will engage in any directed selling efforts with respect to the Notes, and it and they have complied and will comply with the offering restrictions requirement of Regulation S. Each Dealer who has subscribed for Notes of a Tranche (or in the case of a sale of a Tranche of Notes issued to or through more than one Dealer, each of such Dealers as to the Notes of such Tranche purchased by or through it or, in the case of a syndicated issue, the relevant lead manager) shall determine and certify to the Issuing and Paying Agent the completion of the distribution of the Notes of such Tranche. Each Dealer also agrees, and each further Dealer appointed under the Programme will be required to agree, that, at or prior to confirmation of sale of Notes, it will have sent to each distributor, Dealer or person receiving a selling concession, fee or other remuneration that purchases Notes from it during the distribution compliance period a confirmation or notice to substantially the following effect:

“The Notes and the Guarantee covered hereby have not been and will not be registered under the Securities Act and may not be offered or sold within the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. persons (i) as part of their distribution at any time or (ii) otherwise until 40 days after the completion of the distribution of the Securities as determined and certified by the relevant Dealer(s), in the case of a non-syndicated issue, or the lead manager, in the case of syndicated issue, except in either case in accordance with Regulation S.”

Terms used in the paragraphs above shall have the meanings given to them by Regulation S.

In addition, unless the Pricing Supplement or the Subscription Agreement relating to one or more Tranches specifies that the applicable TEFRA exemption is either “TEFRA C” or “not applicable”, each Dealer represents and agrees in relation to each Tranche of Notes in bearer form:

- (i) except to the extent permitted under U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”)) (the “TEFRA D”):
 - (a) it has not offered or sold, and during the restricted period shall not offer or sell, Notes in bearer form to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person; and

- (b) it has not delivered and shall not deliver within the United States or its possessions definitive Notes in bearer form that are sold during the restricted period;
- (ii) it has and throughout the restricted period shall have in effect procedures reasonably designed to ensure that its employees or agents who are directly engaged in selling Notes in bearer form are aware that such Notes may not be offered or sold during the restricted period to a person who is within the United States or its possessions or to a United States person, except as permitted by the TEFRA D;
- (iii) if it is a United States person, it is acquiring the Notes in bearer form for purposes of resale in connection with their original issuance and if it retains Notes in bearer form for its own account, it shall only do so in accordance with the requirements of U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(D)(6) or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code;
- (iv) with respect to each affiliate of such Dealer, or other person with whom it enters into a written contract for purposes of TEFRA D (if permitted pursuant to Section 3.2.5) that acquires from it Notes in bearer form for the purpose of offering or selling such Notes during the restricted period, it either (a) repeats and confirms the representations contained in Clauses 3.2.1, 3.2.2 and 3.2.3 on behalf of such affiliate or other person or (b) agrees that it shall obtain from such affiliate or other person for the benefit of the Issuer the representations contained in Clauses 3.2.1, 3.2.2 and 3.2.3; and
- (v) it has not entered into and agrees that it will not enter into any contractual arrangement with any distributor (as such term is defined in the Regulation S) with respect to the distribution or delivery of the Notes except with its affiliates or with the prior written consent of the Issuer.

In addition, to the extent that the Pricing Supplement or the Subscription Agreement relating to one or more Tranches of Bearer Notes specifies that the applicable TEFRA exemption is “TEFRA C”, under U.S. Treas. Reg. §1.163-5(c)(2)(i)(C) (or any successor rules in substantially the same form that are applicable for purposes of Section 4701 of the Code) (the “TEFRA C”) to set out the criteria for “foreign targeted obligations” that are exempt from the excise tax under Section 4701(b)(1)(B) of the Code, Notes in bearer form must be issued and delivered outside the United States and its possessions in connection with their original issuance. In relation to each such Tranche, each Dealer represents and agrees that it has not offered, sold or delivered, and shall not offer, sell or deliver, directly or indirectly, Notes in bearer form within the United States or its possessions in connection with their original issuance. Further, in connection with the original issuance of Notes in bearer form, each Dealer represents and agrees that it has not communicated, and shall not communicate, directly or indirectly, with a prospective purchaser if either of them is within the United States or its possessions or otherwise involve its U.S. office in the offer or sale of Notes in bearer form. Terms used in this paragraph have the meanings given to them by the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and regulations thereunder, including the TEFRA C.

Each issuance of index-, commodity- or currency-linked Notes shall be subject to such additional U.S. selling restrictions as the relevant Dealer(s) shall agree with the Issuer as a term of the issuance and purchase or, as the case may be, subscription of such Notes. Each relevant Dealer agrees that it shall offer, sell and deliver such Notes only in compliance with such additional U.S. selling restrictions.

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation and presentation of this interim financial information in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard 34 “Interim Financial Reporting”.

We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with Hong Kong Standard on Review Engagements 2410, “Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity” as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with Hong Kong Accounting Standard 34 “Interim Financial Reporting”.

- Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives and equity securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.
- Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.
- Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

Changes in level 2 and 3 fair values are analysed at the end of each reporting periods during the half yearly valuation discussion between the finance department and the valuation team. As part of this discussion the team presents a report that explains the reason for the fair value movements.

There was no transfer among level 1, 2 and 3 during six months ended 30 June 2025.

The carrying value of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities carried at amortised costs approximate their fair value due to their short-term maturities. The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Group for similar financial instruments, unless the discounting effect is insignificant.

5. Significant Accounting Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of interim financial information requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

In preparing the interim financial information, the significant judgements made by management in applying the Group's accounting policies and the key sources of estimation uncertainty were the same as those applied to in the preparation of the consolidation financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024.

6. Segment Information and Revenue

The chief operating decision maker ("CODM") has been identified as the executive director of the Company. The executive director reviews the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources. Management has determined the operating segments based on these reports and analysed from a business perspective: (i) integrated shipping services and (ii) financing services.

Integrated shipping services

Integrated shipping services include operating lease services to the Group's customers and shipbroking services to shipbuilders and charterers. Operating lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor grants the right to use an asset to the lessee for a specified period and in return for periodic lease payments. Shipbroking services to shipbuilders includes recommending shipbuilders to interested purchasers and advising interested purchasers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities. Shipbroking services to charterers includes advising interested charterers to lease the vessels in form of finance lease and operating lease and advising interested charterers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities.

Financing services

Financing services include finance lease services and loan borrowing services to the Group's customers. Finance lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor purchases an asset according to the lessee's specific requirements and choice of supplier or the lessor purchases an asset from the lessee, and then leases it to the lessee for periodic lease payments. Loan borrowings mainly include pre-delivery loans and secured loans. Pre-delivery loan services are offered as part of leasing services and to customers who require funding to satisfy their pre-delivery payment obligations under their shipbuilding agreements. Secured loan services are offered to customers to satisfy their funding needs and are generally secured by customers' vessels or assets.

Hong Kong China profits tax is provided at the rate of 16.5% (2024: 16.5%) based on the estimated assessable profits arising from Hong Kong China during the period.

In December 2021, the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) released the Pillar Two Model Rules (also referred to as the “Global Anti-Base Erosion” or “GloBE” Rules) to reform international corporate taxation. Large multinational enterprises with consolidated revenue of over EUR750 million in at least 2 of the 4 fiscal years immediately preceding the current fiscal year are subject to GloBE Rules. They are required to calculate their GloBE effective tax rate for each jurisdiction where they operate and will be liable to pay a minimum effective tax rate of 15%.

9. Income Tax Expenses (Continued)

The Group, together with China State Shipbuilding Corporation Limited (中國船舶集團有限公司) (“China Shipbuilding Group”), has consolidated revenues exceeding EUR750 million and thus fall within the scope of GloBE Rules. On 6 June 2025, Hong Kong China has gazetted the bill on the implementation of the GloBE Rules (comprising the income inclusion rule (“IIR”) and the undertaxed profits rule (“UTPR”)) under Base Erosion and Profit Shifting Pillar Two and the Hong Kong China minimum top-up tax (“HKMTT”). Both the IIR and HKMTT provisions will take effect retrospectively from 1 January 2025.

The Group is within the scope of these rules since it has operations in Hong Kong China. Under these rules, the Group’s profits generated from international shipping and certain related ancillary activities are exempt, while other non-qualifying profits will incur the minimum tax rate. Additionally, under the HKMTT, the Group must pay a top-up tax if the combined corporate tax rate of its entities in Hong Kong China is below the 15% minimum effective tax rate. Furthermore, under Hong Kong China’s IIR, the Group is also obligated to pay top-up tax on a jurisdictional basis if the combined corporate tax rate of its entities in jurisdictions outside Hong Kong China is below the 15% minimum effective tax rate.

The Group also applied the temporary mandatory exception to recognising and disclosing information about deferred tax assets and liabilities related to Pillar Two income taxes and would account for the top-up tax as current Hong Kong China profits tax when incurred, as provided in the Amendments to HKAS12 issued in July 2023.

For the six months ended 30 June 2025, the Group’s Hong Kong China profits tax has been provided in accordance with the requirements of Pillar Two income taxes.

Mainland China corporate income tax is charged at the statutory rate of 25% (2024: 25%) based on the estimated assessable income as determined with the relevant tax rules and regulations of the Mainland China.

Malta corporate income tax is charged at the statutory rate of 35% (2024: 35%) of the estimated assessable income as determined with the relevant tax rules and regulations of Malta. Normally, 6/7 of the tax paid would be deducted, taking the effective tax rate to be 5%.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the members of CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited
(incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) set out on pages 98 to 204, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2024, and the consolidated income statement, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2024, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Lease arrangements Refer to notes 2.14 and 4 to the consolidated financial statements. Management assessed the classification of leases in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard 16 “Leases”. The Group has entered into certain agreements whereby the Group has determined that it has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased vessels to the lessees/borrowers, as the present values of the minimum lease payments of the lease amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the leased assets at the inception of the leases. Accordingly, the Group has excluded the vessels from its consolidated statements of financial position and has instead, recognised finance lease receivables. Otherwise the Group includes the vessels under operating lease in property, plant and equipment. The determination of whether the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership depends on an assessment of the relevant arrangements relating to the lease which involves critical judgments by management. In particular, management assessed the lease term, the present value of minimum lease payments, the nature of leased assets, and that there were no ownership transfers and no purchase options at the end of the lease terms. The key judgments are in respect of the economic lives and fair values of the leased assets, the discount rate in the calculation of the present value of minimum lease payments and whether the purchase option will be exercised. Due to the significance of management’s judgments and estimates applied in assessing the classification of leases, we considered this as a key audit matter.	We performed the following procedures to assess management’s classification of leases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • examined the lease agreements and discussed with management the key terms in order to identify any inconsistency from our understanding; • performed the following procedures for the appropriateness of the judgments made by management in the determination of lease classification on a sample basis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – assessed the impact of the agreed terms in the lease agreements on the classification; – tested the mathematical accuracy of the present value of minimum lease payment calculation and verified relevant input data (i.e. lease terms, lease payments and lease period) to the agreements; – assessed the reasonableness of the discount rate of the respective lease arrangement; – evaluated the appropriateness of the economic lives and the fair value of leased assets with reference to similar types of assets in the market; and – assessed the existence of the purchase option under the lease arrangement by checking to the lease agreements and possibility of lessees/borrowers to exercise such option by comparing the rate to exercise to the current market rate.

Key Audit Matter

How the matter was addressed in our audit

Impairment of loan and lease receivables

Refer to notes 2.8, 3.2(i), 4 and 17 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 December 2024, the net carrying amounts of the Group's loan and lease receivables amounted to approximately HK$20,714,833,000, in which provision for impairment loss of approximately HK$689,895,000 were recorded.

The balances of provision for impairment loss of loan and lease receivables represent the management's best estimates at the reporting date of the expected credit losses ("ECL") under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard 9 "Financial Instruments".

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period, and the ECL was calculated and provided based on the "three-stages" model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition. For loan and lease receivables classified into stage 1, the ECL is measured on a 12-month basis. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 2 and 3, the ECL is measured on a lifetime basis.

The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring, of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using Probability of Default ("PD"), Exposure at Default ("EAD") and Loss Given Default ("LGD").

We performed the following procedures to assess the impairment of loan and lease receivables prepared by management:

- we understood the process for identification of impairment indicators and tested the calculation of provision for impairment loss of loan and lease receivables;
- we selected samples, in consideration of the financial information and non-financial information of the lessees/borrowers, relevant external evidence and other factors, to assess the appropriateness of the management's identification of receivables with significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and credit-impaired loan and lease receivables;
- we reviewed the methodologies for ECL for impairment assessment and assessed the reasonableness of significant judgments and assumptions including, inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques. We tested whether or not the measurement methods reflect the methodologies documented by management;
- we examined major data inputs to the ECL models on selected samples, including historical data and data at the measurement date, to assess their accuracy and completeness; and
- for loan and lease receivables in stages 2 and 3, we examined, on a sample basis, financial information of the lessees/borrowers and other available information.

Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Impairment of loan and lease receivables (Continued)
The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period, primarily including the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables have experienced a significant increase in credit risk; (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets; (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL (i.e. PD, EAD, LGD); and (4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL (i.e. forecasted economic growth rates which reflect the general economic conditions of the industry in which the lessees/borrowers operate). 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • we reviewed the management's analysis for forward-looking information using forecasted economic growth rate, assessed the reasonableness and performed sensitivity analysis on possible scenarios.

Due to the significance of management's judgment and estimates applied in assessing the amount of ECL at the reporting date, we considered this as a key audit matter.

Other Information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the 2024 annual report of the Company, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA and the Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors assisted by the Audit Committee are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Companies Ordinance and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. General information

CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited (the “Company”) is a limited liability company incorporated in Hong Kong. The registered office and its principal place of business is located at Room 1801, 18th Floor, Worldwide House, No. 19 Des Voeux Road Central, Central, Hong Kong. Shares of the Company was successfully listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“The Stock Exchange”) on 17 June 2019.

The Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) are principally engaged in provision of integrated shipping services (including operating lease services and ship brokerage services) and financing services (including finance lease services and loan borrowings).

These consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 26 March 2025.

2. Summary of material accounting policies

This note provides a list of the material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated and the adoption of new and amended Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) and the impacts on the Group’s consolidated financial statements, if any, are disclosed in note 2.1.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs, which collective term includes all applicable individual HKFRSs, Hong Kong Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”), the requirements of the Companies Ordinance and the applicable disclosure requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except for certain financial assets and liabilities as specified below which are stated at fair value.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs require the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in note 4.

Amended HKFRSs that are effective for annual period beginning on 1 January 2024

In the current year, the Group has applied for the first time the following amended HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA which are relevant to the Group's operation and effective for the consolidated financial statements for the period beginning on 1 January 2024:

Amendments to HKAS 1	Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-current and related amendments to Hong Kong Interpretation 5 (2020)
Amendments to HKAS 1	Non-current Liabilities with Covenants
Amendments to HKAS 7 and HKFRS 7	Supplier Finance Arrangements
Amendments to HKFRS 16	Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback

Except for those mentioned below, the adoption of the amended HKFRSs had no material impact on how the results and financial position for the current and prior periods have been prepared and presented.

Amendments to HKFRS 16 "Lease Liability in a Sale and Leaseback"

In September 2022, the HKICPA finalised narrow-scope amendments to the requirements for sale and leaseback transactions in HKFRS 16 Leases which explain how an entity accounts for a sale and leaseback after the date of the transaction.

The amendments specify that, in measuring the lease liability subsequent to the sale and leaseback, the seller-lessee determines lease payments and revised lease payments in a way that does not result in the seller-lessee recognising any amount of the gain or loss that relates to the right of use that it retains. This could particularly impact sale and leaseback transactions where the lease payments include variable payments that do not depend on an index or a rate.

This new policy did not result in a change in the Group's accounting policy for its sale and leaseback transactions since the transfer of assets does not meet the requirements for a sale in HKFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers, there is no sale and the transaction is accounted for as a financing arrangement under HKFRS 9 Financial Instruments.

⁴ Effective date not yet determined

The directors anticipate that all of the pronouncements will be adopted in the Group's accounting policy for the first period beginning on or after the effective date of the pronouncement. Information on new and amended HKFRSs that are expected to have impact on the Group's accounting policies is provided below. Other new and amended HKFRSs are not expected to have a material impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements.

HKFRS 18 "Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements" and related amendments to Hong Kong Interpretation 5

HKFRS 18 will replace HKAS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements", introducing new requirements that will help to achieve comparability of the financial performance of similar entities and provide more relevant information and transparency to users. Even though HKFRS 18 will not impact the recognition or measurement of items in the financial statements, its impacts on presentation and disclosure are expected to be pervasive, in particular those related to the statement of financial performance and providing management-defined performance measures within the financial statements.

Management is currently assessing the detailed implications of applying the new standard on the Group’s consolidated financial statements. From the high-level preliminary assessment performed, the following potential impacts have been identified:

- Although the adoption of HKFRS 18 will have no impact on the Group’s net profit, the Group expects that grouping items of income and expenses in the statement of profit or loss into the new categories will impact how operating profit is calculated and reported. From the high-level impact assessment that the group has performed, the following items might potentially impact operating profit;
 - Foreign exchange differences currently aggregated in the line item “Other gains, net” in profit from operations might need to be disaggregated, with some foreign exchange gains or losses presented below operating profit.
 - HKFRS 18 has specific requirements on the category in which derivative gains or losses are recognised which is the same category as the income and expenses affected by the risk that the derivative is used to manage. Although the group currently recognises some gains or losses in operating profit and others in finance costs, there might be a change to where these gains or losses are recognised, and the group is currently evaluating the need for change.
- The line items presented on the primary financial statements might change as a result of the application of the concept of “useful structured summary” and the enhanced principles on aggregation and disaggregation. In addition, since goodwill will be required to be separately presented in the statement of financial position, the Group will disaggregate goodwill and other intangible assets and present them separately in the statement of financial position;
- The Group does not expect there to be a significant change in the information that is currently disclosed in the notes because the requirement to disclose material information remains unchanged, however, the way in which the information is grouped might change as a result of the aggregation/disaggregation principles. In addition, there will be significant new disclosures required for:
 - management-defined performance measures;
 - a break-down of the nature of expenses for line items presented by function in the operating category of the statement of profit or loss – this break-down is only required for certain nature expenses; and
 - for the first annual period of application of HKFRS 18, a reconciliation for each line item in the statement of profit or loss between the restated amounts presented by applying HKFRS 18 and the amounts previously presented applying HKAS 1.

- From a cash flow statement perspective, there will be changes to how interest received and interest paid are presented. Interest paid will be presented as financing cash flows and interest received as investing cash flows, which is a change from current presentation as part of operating cash flows.

The Group will apply the new standard from its mandatory effective date of 1 January 2027. Retrospective application is required, and so the comparative information for the financial year ending 31 December 2026 will be restated in accordance with HKFRS 18.

2.2 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of financial position and consolidated statement of changes in equity.

Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence, which is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investees but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

Joint arrangements

Investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions relating about relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Joint ventures

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.7.

2.3 Separate financial statements

On the Company's statement of financial position, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker ("CODM").

The board of directors has appointed executive directors of the Company as the CODM to assess the financial performance and position of the Group, make strategic decisions and corporate planning.

2.5 Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the consolidated financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates (the “functional currency”). United States dollars (“US$”) is the functional currency of the Company and its major subsidiaries. The financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”), which is the Group’s presentation currency.

Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss. They are deferred in equity if they relate to qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges or are attributable to part of the net investment in a foreign operation.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in profit or loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in profit or loss on a net basis within other income and other gains.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in profit or loss. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income.

Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each reporting date presented are translated at the closing rate at the reporting date;
- income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period.

2.6 Property, plant and equipment

Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents vessel under construction which is carried at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Construction in progress includes construction expenditure incurred, borrowing costs and other direct costs attributable to the construction. On completion, the construction in progress is transferred to vessel. No depreciation is provided for construction in progress.

Other property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

Vessels	30 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Office equipment	3 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the lease term

Upon acquisition of a vessel, the components of the vessel which are required to be replaced at the next dry-docking are identified and their costs are depreciated over the period to the next estimated dry-docking date. Costs incurred on subsequent dry-docking of vessels are capitalised and depreciated over the period to the next estimated dry-docking date. When significant dry-docking costs incurred prior to the expiry of the depreciation period, the remaining costs of the previous dry-docking are written off immediately.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (note 2.7).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss.

2.7 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2.8 Investments and other financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income or through profit or loss), and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”).

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

The Group derecognises a financial asset, if the part being considered for derecognition meets one of the following conditions: (i) the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial asset expire; or (ii) the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset have been transferred, the Group transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset; or (iii) the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to the eventual recipient in an agreement that meets all the conditions of de-recognition of transfer of cash flows (“pass through” requirements) and transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains, together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in profit or loss.
- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through consolidated statement of comprehensive income, except for the recognition of impairment losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in consolidated statement of comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss.
- Fair value at profit or loss ("FVTPL"): Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVTPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVTPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains in the period in which it arises.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in consolidated statement of comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised in other gains in the consolidated income statements as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on debt investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses (“ECL”) associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For loan and lease receivables, the Group applies the general approach permitted by HKFRS 9 “Financial Instruments”, see notes 3.2(i) and 17 for further details.

2.9 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position where the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts, and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The Group has also entered into arrangements that do not meet the criteria for offsetting but still allow for the related amounts to be set off in certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy or the termination of a contract.

2.10 Derivatives and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged. The Group designates certain derivatives as hedges of a particular risk associated with the cash flows of recognised assets and liabilities and highly probable forecast transactions (cash flow hedges).

At the inception of the hedging, the Group documents the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, including whether changes in the cash flows of the hedging instruments are expected to offset changes in the cash flows of hedged items. The Group documents its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking its hedge transactions.

The fair values of derivative financial instruments designated in hedge relationships are disclosed in note 18. Movements in the hedging reserve in shareholders' equity are shown in the consolidated statement of changes in equity.

Cash flow hedges that qualify for hedge accounting

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedging is recognised in the hedge reserve within equity. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in profit or loss, within other gains.

Amounts accumulated in equity are reclassified in the periods when the hedged item affects profit or loss. The gain or loss relating to the effective portion of the interest rate swaps hedging variable rate borrowings is recognised in profit or loss within finance cost at the same time as the interest expense on the hedged borrowings.

When a hedging instrument expires, or is sold or terminated, or when a hedging no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative deferred gain or loss and deferred costs of hedging in equity at that time remains in equity until the forecast transaction occurs. When the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss and deferred costs of hedging that were reported in equity are immediately reclassified to profit or loss.

Derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting

Certain derivative instruments do not qualify for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value of any derivative instrument that does not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised immediately in profit or loss and are included in other gains.

2.11 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash at bank and on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.12 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable.

The Group recognises revenue when the contract of services transferred to customer, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities as described below.

Finance lease income – refer to note 2.14(i).

Operating lease income – refer to note 2.14(ii).

Interest income – recognised using the effective interest method, refer to note 2.26.

Dividend income – recognised as revenue when the right to receive payment is established. This applies even if they are paid out of pre-acquisition profits. However, the investment may need to be tested for impairment as a consequence.

Commission income – recognised in the accounting period in which the actual shipbroking services provided to the shipbuilding company. The Group considers the revenue will be highly probable that will not be subsequently reversed, which normally when the Group successfully facilitates the conclusion of shipbuilding transaction and when it is highly probable that there will be no default in the transaction. Commission income from the charterer would be recognised over the period of related lease.

2.13 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions. Government grants are deferred and recognised in profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that the grants are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to income is presented in gross as other income in the consolidated income statement.

2.14 Leases

Definition of a lease and the Group as a lessee

At inception of a contract, the Group considers whether a contract is, or contains a lease. A lease is defined as a contract, or part of a contract, that conveys the right to use an identified asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To apply this definition, the Group assesses whether the contract meets three key evaluations which are whether:

- the contract contains an identified asset, which is either explicitly identified in the contract or implicitly specified by being identified at the time the asset is made available to the Group;
- the Group has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset throughout the period of use, considering its rights within the defined scope of the contract; and
- the Group has the right to direct the use of the identified asset throughout the period of use. The Group assess whether it has the right to direct 'how and for what purpose' the asset is used throughout the period of use.

As a lessee

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

The Group has elected to account for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets using the practical expedients. Instead of recognising a right-of-use asset and lease liability, the payments in relation to these leases are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 month or less.

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions and credit rating of the Group since third party financing was received;
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases held by the Group, which does not have recent third party financing; and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. value of right-of-use assets, term, country, currency and value of security.

The Group is exposed to potential future increases in variable lease payments based on an index or rate, which are not included in the lease liability until they take effect. When adjustments to lease payments based on an index or rate take effect, the lease liability is reassessed and adjusted against the right-of-use asset.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are included in the consolidated statement of financial position based on their nature.

(i) Finance lease

A finance lease is a lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased asset to the lessee. At the commencement of the lease term, the Group recognises the minimum lease payments receivable by the Group as a finance lease receivable and records the unguaranteed residual value as an asset within the same category. The difference between (a) the aggregate of the minimum lease payments and the unguaranteed residual value and (b) their present value (presented in the consolidated statement of financial position as net investments in finance leases under loan and lease receivables) is recognised as unearned finance income. Minimum lease payments are the payments over the lease term that the lessee is or can be required to make plus any residual value guaranteed to the lessor by the lessee, or a party unrelated to the lessor.

Unearned finance income is allocated to each period during the lease term using the effective interest method that allocates each rental between finance income and repayment of capital in each accounting period in such a way that finance income is recognised as a constant periodic rate of return (implicit effective interest rate) on the lessor's net investment in the lease. Lease agreements for which the base rent is based on floating interest rates are included in minimum lease payments based on the floating interest rate existing at the commencement of the lease; any increase or decrease in lease payments that result from subsequent changes on floating interest rate is recorded as an increase or a decrease in finance lease income in the period of the interest rate change.

Initial direct costs, such as commissions, legal fees and internal costs that are incremental and directly attributable to negotiating and arranging a lease, are included in the initial measurement of the finance lease receivable and reduce the amount of income recognised over the lease term.

(ii) Operating lease

Leases where substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets remain with the lessor are accounted for as operating leases. Where the Group is the lessor, assets leased by the Group under operating leases are included in property, plant and equipment, and rentals receivable under the operating leases are credited to the consolidated income statement on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Leasing services revenue are generated from a combination of bareboat charters and time charters. Revenue from a bareboat charter, is recognised in accordance with HKFRS 16.

Revenue from a time charter, is recognised over time based on daily rate. The Group separately accounts for the lease and non-lease components (i.e. vessel management services) for time charter contracts. The Group estimates the stand-alone selling price of lease component by reference to the total transaction price less the sum of the observable stand-alone selling prices of non-lease components promised in the contract.

2.15 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.16 Other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.17 Amounts due to fellow subsidiaries, a joint venture and non-controlling interests

They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.18 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.19 Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the drawdown occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the consolidated statement of financial position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss as other income or finance costs.

2.20 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.21 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on the current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred income tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries or jurisdiction where the Company's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for:

- temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future; and
- those related to the income taxes arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two Model Rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”).

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies the requirements in HKAS 12 to the lease liabilities and the related assets separately. The Group recognises a deferred tax asset related to the lease liabilities to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary difference can be utilised and a deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority on either: (i) the same taxable entity; or (ii) different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred income tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Investment allowances and similar tax incentives

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred income tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred income tax assets.

2.22 Employee benefits

Retirement benefits

Retirement benefits to employees are provided through defined contribution plans. In addition, the employees employed under the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance are also entitled to LSP if the eligibility criteria are met. The LSP are defined benefits plans.

(a) Defined contribution plans

The Group participated the MPF Scheme under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for those qualifying employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance, and who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme.

The MPF Scheme is a defined contribution scheme, the assets of which are held in separate trustee-administered funds. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contribution has been paid. Contributions are made based on a percentage of the employees' basic salaries and the Group's contributions to the scheme are recognised as employee benefit expenses when they are due. When employees leave the scheme prior to the full vesting of the employer's voluntary contributions, the amount of forfeited contributions is used to reduce the contributions payable by the Group.

The Group's PRC subsidiaries participate in defined contribution retirement benefit plans organised by relevant government authorities for its employees in the PRC and contributes to these plans based on a certain percentage of the salaries of the employees on a monthly basis, up to a maximum fixed monetary amount, as stipulated by the relevant government authorities.

The government authorities undertake to assume the retirement benefit obligations payable to all existing and future retired employees under these plans.

Contributions are recognised as an expense in profit or loss as employees render services during the year. The Group's obligations under these plans are limited to the fixed percentage contributions payable.

(b) Defined benefit plans

The amount of long service benefit that an employee will receive on cessation of employment in certain circumstances is defined by reference to the employee's length of service and corresponding salary. The legal obligations for any benefits remains with the Group.

The LSP obligations recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position is the present value of the LSP obligation at the end of the reporting period.

Management estimates the LSP obligations annually. This is based on the discount rate, the salary growth rate, turnover rate and the expected investment return on offsetable MPF accrued benefits. Discount factors are determined close to the end of each annual reporting period by reference to high quality corporate bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid and have terms to maturity approximating the terms of the related defined benefit liability.

Defined benefit costs are categorised as follows:

- service cost (including current and past service cost, and gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- net interest expense or income; and
- remeasurement.

Service cost on the Group's defined benefit plan is included in employee benefits expense. Employee contributions, all of which are independent of the number of years of service, are treated as a reduction of service cost.

Net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability is included in employee benefits expenses.

Gains and losses resulting from remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability, comprising actuarial gains and losses, are included in other comprehensive income and are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as other payables in the consolidated statement of financial positions.

Share-based employee compensation

The Group operates equity-settled share-based compensation plans for remuneration of its employees.

All employee services received in exchange for the grant of any share-based compensation are measured at their fair values. These are indirectly determined by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted. This fair value is appraised at the grant date and excludes the impact of any non-market vesting conditions (for example, profitability and sales growth targets and performance conditions).

All share-based compensation is recognised as an expense in profit or loss over the vesting period if vesting conditions apply, or recognised as an expense in full at the grant date when the equity instruments granted vest immediately unless the compensation qualifies for recognition as asset, with a corresponding increase in the “share option reserve” in equity. If vesting conditions apply, the expense is recognised over the vesting period, based on the best available estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. Non-market vesting conditions are included in assumptions about the number of equity instruments that are expected to become exercisable. Estimates are subsequently revised, if there is any indication that the number of equity instruments expected to vest differs from previous estimates. Any adjustment to cumulative share-based compensation resulting from a revision is recognised in the current period. The number of vested options ultimately exercised by holders does not impact the expense recorded in any period.

At the time when the share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in “share option reserve” will be transferred to “share capital”. After vesting date, when the vested share options are later forfeited or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in “share option reserve” will be transferred to “retained profits”.

Profit-sharing and bonus plans

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses and profit-sharing based on a formula that takes into consideration the profit attributable to the Company's shareholders after certain adjustments. The Group recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of HKAS 37 “Provisions, Contingent liabilities and Contingent Assets” and involves the payment of terminations benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to present value.

2.23 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to equity holders of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after-income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2.24 Dividend income

Dividends are received from financial assets measured at FVTPL and at FVOCI. Dividends are recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right to receive payment is established. This applies even if they are paid out of pre-acquisition profits, unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of an investment. In this case, the dividend is recognised in other comprehensive income if it relates to an investment measured at FVOCI. However, the investment may need to be tested for impairment as a consequence.

2.25 Dividend distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.26 Interest income

Interest income on financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at FVOCI calculated using the effective interest method is recognised in profit or loss as part of other income.

Interest income is presented as finance income where it is earned from financial assets that are held for cash management purposes, see note 6 below. Any other interest income is included in other income.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the loss allowance).

2.27 Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of:

- the amount determined in accordance with the ECL model under HKFRS 9; and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15 “Revenue from Contracts with Customers”.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined based on the present value of the difference in cash flows between the contractual payments required under the debt instrument and the payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

Where guarantees in relation to loans or other payables of associates are provided for no compensation, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognised as part of the cost of the investment.

2.28 Asset held for sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset, but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the asset is recognised at the date of derecognition.

Asset are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Assets classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the consolidated statement of financial position.

2.29 Related parties

For the purposes of these consolidated financial statements, a party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group.
- (b) the party is an entity and if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group.
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

3.2 Financial risk factors

Exposure to credit, liquidity, interest rate and foreign currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. The Group's exposure to risks and the financial risk management policies and practises used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(i) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk are primarily attributable to financial instruments, loan and lease receivables, deposits and other receivables, amounts due from joint ventures and associates, time deposits, pledged time deposits, financial assets at FVOCI – debt instruments, and cash and cash equivalents. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. In this respect, management considers the credit risk is significantly reduced.

The amounts due from joint ventures, and associates are considered by management to be fully recoverable with no significant increase in credit risk identified.

The credit risk on cash and cash equivalents and time deposits are placed in reputable financial institutions with sound credit ratings assigned by international credit rating agencies.

For deposits and other receivables and financial assets at FVOCI – debt instruments, management makes periodic collective assessments as well as individual assessment on the recoverability with no significant increase in credit risk identified.

The Group also issued financial guarantees to banks and other financial institutions for borrowings of its joint ventures. These guarantees are subject to ECL under the HKFRS 9. The Group assessed those joint ventures have strong financial capacity to meet the contractual cash flow obligation in the near future and hence, does not expect significant credit losses arising from these guarantees.

Impairment allowance policies for loan and lease receivables

The Group applies ECL model for impairment assessment and considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. No significant credit risk is conscious for the reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information, especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- external credit rating (as far as available)
- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the counter party's ability to meet its obligations
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the counter party
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same counter party
- significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of third-party guarantees or credit enhancements
- significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the counter party, including changes in the payment status of borrower in the Group and changes in the operating results of the counter party

To manage risk arising from loan and lease receivables, standardised credit management procedures are performed. For pre-approval investigation, the Group optimises the review process by using big data technology through its platform and system, including credit analysis, assessment of collectability of borrowers, monitoring the cash flow status, possibility of misconduct and fraudulent activities. In terms of credit examining management, specific policies and procedures are established to assess loans offering. For subsequent monitoring, the Group monitors the cash flow and operation status of each borrowers. Once the loan was issued, all borrowers would be assessed by fraud examination model to prevent fraudulent behaviours.

In post-loan supervision, the Group establishes risk monitoring alert system through periodical monitoring. The estimation of credit exposure for risk management purposes is complex and requires use of models as the exposure varies with changes in market conditions, expected cash flows and passage of time.

The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using Probability of Default (“PD”), Exposure at Default (“EAD”) and Loss Given Default (“LGD”). This is consistent with the general approach used for the purposes of measuring ECL under HKFRS 9.

ECL model for loan and lease receivables, as summarised below:

- The ECL was calculated and provided based on the “three-stages” model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition.
- The loan and lease receivables that is not credit-impaired on initial recognition is classified in “Stage 1” and has its credit risk continuously monitored by the Group. The ECL is measured on a 12-month basis.
- If a significant increase in credit risk (as defined below) since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to “Stage 2” but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. The ECL is measured on lifetime basis.
- If the financial instrument is credit-impaired (as defined below), the financial instrument is then moved to “Stage 3”. The ECL is measured on lifetime basis.
- In Stages 1 and 2, interest income is calculated on the gross carrying amount (without deducting the loss allowance). If a financial asset subsequently becomes credit-impaired (Stage 3), the Group is required to calculate the interest income by applying the effective interest method in subsequent reporting periods to the amortised cost of the financial asset (the gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) rather than the gross carrying amount.

The key judgments and assumptions adopted by the Group in addressing the requirements of the standard are discussed below:

- (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk
The Group considers whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk when backstop criteria have been met. A backstop is applied and the loan and lease receivables considered to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk if the borrower is past due on its contractual payments.
- (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets
The Group identifies a financial instrument as in default, when the borrower is more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments. This has been applied to all loan and lease receivables held by the Group.
- (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL
The ECL is measured on either a 12-month or lifetime basis depending on whether a significant increase in credit risk has occurred since initial recognition or whether an asset is considered to be credit-impaired. The ECL are the discounted product of the PD, EAD, and LGD.

The ECL is determined by projecting the PD, LGD and EAD for each future month and for each portfolio. These three components are multiplied together and adjusted for the likelihood of survival (i.e. the exposure has not prepaid or defaulted in an earlier month). This effectively calculates an ECL for each future month, which is then discounted back to the reporting date and summarised. The discount rate used in the ECL calculation is the original effective interest rate or an approximation thereof.

(4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL models

The calculation of ECL incorporates forward-looking information. The Group has performed historical analysis and identified the per capita disposable income of urban residents as the key economic variables impacting credit risk and ECL.

As with any economic forecasts, the projections and likelihoods of occurrence are subject to a high degree of inherent uncertainty and therefore the actual outcomes may be significantly different to those projected. The Group considers these forecasts to represent its best estimate of the possible outcomes and has analysed the non-linearities and asymmetries within the Group's different portfolios to establish that the chosen scenarios are appropriately representative of the range of possible scenarios.

Provision for impairment loss

The provision for impairment loss recognised in the period is impacted by a variety of factors, as described below:

- Transfers between Stage 1 and Stage 2 or 3 due to loan and lease receivables experiencing significant increases (or decreases) of credit risk in the period, and the subsequent “step up” (or “step down”) between 12-month and lifetime ECL;
- Additional provisions for new financial instruments recognised, as well as releases for loan and lease receivables derecognised in the period;
- Loan and lease receivables derecognised and write-offs of provisions related to assets that were written off during the period.

Write-off policy

The Group writes off loan and lease receivables, in whole or in part, when it has exhausted all practical recovery efforts and has concluded there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include ceasing enforcement activity.

The Group may write-off loan and lease receivables that are still subject to enforcement activity.

Modification

The Group rarely modifies the terms of loans provided to customers due to commercial renegotiations, or for distressed loans, with a view to maximising recovery. The Group considers the impact from such modification is not significant.

(ii) Liquidity risk

The Group is responsible for its own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands, subject to approval by the board of directors when borrowings exceed certain predetermined levels of authority. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The tables below analyse the Group's financial assets and liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities for:

- (a) all non-derivative financial assets and liabilities, and
- (b) net and gross settled derivative financial instruments for which the contractual maturities are essential for an understanding of the timing of the cash flows.

The amounts disclosed in the tables are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.

The amounts included above for financial guarantee contracts are the maximum amounts the Group could be forced to settle under the arrangement for the full guaranteed amount if that amount is claimed by the counterparty to the guarantee. Based on expectations at the end of the reporting period, the directors considered that it was not probable that the borrower of the loan would default the repayment of the loan and therefore no provision for the Group's obligation under the guarantee has been made.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from its loan receivables and bank borrowings with floating interest rate which expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group hedges the cash flow volatility risk as the result of the interest rate fluctuation through derivatives such as interest rate swap contracts. The Group switches the floating rate into fixed rate through interest rate swap contract to effectively match the future fixed lease income, and fix the interest spread. The interest rate swap settles at maturity. The Group will settle the difference between the fixed and floating interest rate on a net basis. The Group's hedge relationship between interest rate swaps and the designated hedged items were highly effective.

Interest rate profile

	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000

Instruments used by the Group

Swaps currently in place cover approximately 34% (2023: 21%) of the variable loan principal outstanding. The fixed interest rates of the swaps range between 0.72% and 3% (2023: 0.72% and 3%), and the variable rates of the loans are mainly at 3 month SOFR rate (2023: 3 month SOFR rate) which, at the end of the reporting period, was 4.69% (2023: 5.36%). The swap contracts require settlement of net interest receivable or payable every 3 months. The settlement dates coincide with or are close with the dates on which interest is payable on the underlying debt. The details and effects of the interest rate swaps on the Group's consolidated financial position and performance are as follows:

Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2024, it is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 100 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would increase/decrease the Group's profit after taxation and retained profits by approximately HK$16,764,000 (2023: HK$5,068,000). Other components of equity would not be affected by the changes in interest rates.

The sensitivity analysis above has been determined assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to the exposure to interest rate risk for non-derivative financial instruments in existence at that date. The 100 basis point increase or decrease represents management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rates over the period until the next annual reporting date. The analysis is performed on the same basis for both years.

(iv) Foreign currency risk

The Group has foreign currency income, expenses and fund remittances, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk. Since the fluctuation of US$ and HK$ is minimal under the Linked Exchanged Rate System, the directors of the Company consider the Group mainly exposes to Euro (“EUR”), Singapore dollars (“SGD”) and Renminbi (“RMB”). The Group manages the foreign exchange risks by performing regular reviews of the Group’s net foreign exchange exposure.

The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% increase in the relevant functional currencies against HK$ as at 31 December 2024. 5% is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the possible change in foreign currency rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation for 5% change in foreign currency rates during the year. A positive/negative number indicates an increase/a decrease in profit for the year where respective functional currencies strengthening 5% as at 31 December 2024. During the year, for a 5% weakening of respective functional currencies against HK$, there would be an equal but opposite impact on the profit for the year.

3.3 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for equity holders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to equity holders, return capital to equity holders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. The gearing ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total equity. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings (including "bank borrowings", "bonds" and "other borrowings" as disclosed in note 24 to the consolidated financial statements).

3.3 Capital risk management (Continued)

The gearing ratios as at 31 December 2024 and 2023 were as follows:

	2024 HK$'000	2023 HK$'000
Borrowings	27,587,155	31,333,427
Total equity	14,298,036	12,829,911
Gearing ratio	1.9 times	2.4 times

Loan covenants

Under the terms of the major borrowing facilities, the Group is required to comply with the following financial covenants:

- the debt to asset ratio must be not more than 85%, and
- the ratio of net finance cost to earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (“EBITDA”) must be not more than 62%.

The Group has complied with these covenants throughout the reporting period.

3.4 Fair value estimation

The three levels of a fair value hierarchy of financial instruments carried at fair value have been defined as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1);
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices), and not using significant unobservable inputs (level 2);
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (these are, significant unobservable inputs) (level 3).

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

3.4 Fair value estimation (Continued)

The following table presents the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value as at:

Total financial assets at fair values		427,768	720,383	–	1,148,151

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives and equity securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

Changes in level 2 and 3 fair values are analysed at the end of each reporting period during the half-yearly valuation discussion between the CFO and the valuation team. As part of this discussion the team presents a report that explains the reason for the fair value movements.

There was no transfer among level 1, 2 and 3 during the year.

The carrying values of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities carried at amortised costs approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities. The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Group for similar financial instruments, unless the discounting effect is insignificant.

3.5 Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

There is no material offsetting, enforceable master netting arrangement and similar agreements as at 31 December 2024 and 2023.

4. Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments and estimates, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

Classification of leases

The Group has entered into certain agreements whereby the Group has determined that it has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased vessels to the lessees/borrowers, as the present values of the minimum lease payments of the lease amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the leased assets at the inception of the leases. Accordingly, the Group has excluded the vessels from its consolidated statement of financial position and has instead, recognised as finance lease receivables. Otherwise, the Group includes the vessels under operating lease in property, plant and equipment.

The determination of whether the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership depends on an assessment of the relevant arrangements relating to the lease and this has involved critical judgments by management. In particular, management assessed the lease term, the present value of minimum lease payments, the nature of leased assets, and that there were no ownership transfers and no purchase options at the end of the lease terms. The key judgments are in respect of the economic lives and fair values of the leased assets and the incremental borrowing rate in the calculation of the present value of minimum lease payments, and whether the purchases option will be exercised. As set out in notes 13 and 17.2 to the consolidated financial statements, vessels in property, plant and equipment and lease receivables consist of leasing during 2024 and 2023. As at 31 December 2024, the carrying amounts of vessels and construction in progress in property, plant and equipment and lease receivables are HK$15,981,805,000 (2023: HK$15,148,542,000), HK$406,835,000 (2023: HK$1,069,152,000) and HK$14,331,654,000 (2023: HK$16,526,516,000), respectively.

Impairment loss for loan and lease receivables

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period, and the ECL was calculated and provided based on “three-stages” model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 1, the ECL is measured on 12-month basis. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 2 and 3, the ECL is measured on lifetime basis.

The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring, of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using PD, EAD and LGD.

The Group measures the loss allowance for loan and lease receivables equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognised lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increase in the likelihood of risk of default occurring since initial recognition.

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial assets at the reporting date with the risk of default occurring on the financial assets at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

The Group uses judgments in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group’s past history, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of each reporting period, primarily including the following:

- (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk,
- (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets,
- (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL, and
- (4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL models.

Explanation of the inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques used in measuring ECL, and the carrying amounts of loan and lease receivables as at 31 December 2024, are disclosed in further detail in note 3.2(i) to the consolidated financial statements.

Useful lives and residual value of property, plant and equipment

The Group estimates residual values of its vessels by reference to the lightweight tonnes of the vessels and the average demolition steel price of similar vessels in the market.

The Group estimates the useful life of its vessels with reference to the average historical useful life of similar vessels, their expected usage, expected repair and maintenance programme, and technical or commercial obsolescence arising from changes or improvements in the shipping market.

The carrying amount of vessels is disclosed in note 13 to the consolidated financial statements.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

The Group regularly reviews whether there are any indications of impairment and will recognise an impairment loss if the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment is lower than its recoverable amount which is the greater of its net selling price or its value in use. In determining the value in use, the Group assesses the present value of the estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Estimates and judgments are applied in determining these future cash flows and the discount rate. The Group estimates the future cash flows based on certain assumptions, such as market competition and development and the expected growth in business. The carrying amount of property, plant and equipment is disclosed in note 13 to the consolidated financial statements.

Income taxes

Significant management judgments on the future tax treatment of certain transactions are required in determining income tax provisions. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of transactions and tax provisions are made accordingly. The tax treatment of such transactions is reconsidered periodically to take into account all changes in tax legislation.

Estimation of the fair values of financial assets

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. The Group uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period. Changes in these assumptions and estimates could materially affect the respective fair value of these financial assets. The carrying amounts of financial assets measured at fair value are disclosed in notes 20 and 21 to the consolidated financial statements.

Lease term and discount rate determination

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated). Potential future cash outflows have not been included in the lease liability because it is not reasonably certain that the leases will be extended (or not terminated). The assessment is reviewed if a significant event or a significant change in circumstances occurs which affects this assessment and that is within the control of the lessee.

In determining the discount rate, the Group is required to exercise considerable judgment in relation to determining the discount rate taking into account the nature of the underlying asset and the terms and conditions of the leases, at both the commencement date and the effective date of the modification.

Impairment of investments in associates and joint ventures

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for investments in associates and joint ventures at the end of each reporting period. Investments in associates and joint ventures are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of investment in associates or joint ventures exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. When value in use calculations are undertaken, the Group must estimate the present values of cash flows expected to arise from continuing to hold the investments and choose a discount rate commensurate with the associated risk in order to calculate the present values of those cash flows. The carrying amounts of investments in associates and joint ventures are disclosed in notes 16 and 15 to the consolidated financial statements, respectively.

5. Segment information and revenue

The chief operating decision maker (“CODM”) has been identified as the executive director of the Company. The executive directors review the Group’s internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources.

During the year, the Group changed its identification of reportable segments. The Group combined income from operating lease services and shipbroking services to the integrated shipping services segment; and combined income from finance lease services and loan borrowing services to the financing services segment. In the opinion of the directors, the revised basis of segment identification provides a more appropriate presentation of segment information and reflects the changes in CODM’s review on the Group’s internal reporting of performance assessment and resources allocation. Prior year’s segment information has been restated for comparative purposes.

Management has determined the operating segments based on these reports and analysed from a business perspective: (i) integrated shipping services and (ii) financing services.

Integrated shipping services

Integrated shipping services include operating lease services to the Group’s customers and shipbroking services to shipbuilders and charterers. Operating lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor grants the right to use an asset to the lessee for a specified period and in return for periodic lease payments. Shipbroking services to shipbuilders includes recommending shipbuilders to interested purchasers and advising interested purchasers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities. Shipbroking services to charterers includes advising interested charterers to lease the vessels in form of finance lease and operating lease and advising interested charterers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities.

Financing services

Financing services include finance lease services and loan borrowing services to the Group’s customers. Finance lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor purchases an asset according to the lessee’s specific requirements and choice of supplier or the lessor purchases an asset from the lessee, and then leases it to the lessee for periodic lease payments. Loan borrowings mainly include pre-delivery loans and secured loans. Pre-delivery loan services are offered as part of leasing services and to customers who require funding to satisfy their pre-delivery payment obligations under their shipbuilding agreements. Secured loan services are offered to customers to satisfy their funding needs and are generally secured by customers’ vessels or assets.

OECD Pillar Two Model Rules

In December 2021, OECD released the Pillar Two Model Rules (also referred to as the “Global Anti-Base Erosion” or “GloBE” Rules) to reform international corporate taxation. Large multinational enterprises with consolidated revenue of over EUR750 million are subject to GloBE Rules. They are required to calculate their GloBE effective tax rate for each jurisdiction where they operate and will be liable to pay a minimum effective tax rate of 15%.

The Group, together with China State Shipbuilding Corporation Limited (中國船舶集團有限公司) (“China Shipbuilding Group”), has consolidated revenues exceeding EUR750 million and thus fall within the scope of GloBE Rules. Under these rules, the Group’s profits derived from international shipping and certain related ancillary activities are exempted, while other non-qualifying profits will be subject to the minimum tax rate. For the year ended 31 December 2024, the Income Inclusion Rule (“IIR”) under GloBE Rules are only applicable in Cyprus among all the jurisdictions in which the Group operates, and the related current tax expense is assessed to be immaterial.

The Group also applied the temporary mandatory exception to recognising and disclosing information about deferred tax assets and liabilities related to Pillar Two income taxes and would account for the tax as current tax when incurred, as provided in the Amendments to HKAS12 issued in July 2023.

Hong Kong has released the draft legislation to implement Pillar Two Model Rules domestically, but the rules have not yet been substantively enacted as of the date of this report. Subject to the approval of the Legislative Council, the rules which consist of the IIR and the Hong Kong Minimum Top-up Tax (“HKMTT”) will apply retrospectively from 1 January 2025 onwards. This will bring the whole of the Group under the Pillar Two Model Rules for the accounting year ending 31 December 2025. For other jurisdictions where Pillar Two Model Rules have been enacted or substantively enacted as of the date of this report and are applicable to the Group from 1 January 2025 onwards, such as Singapore, the current tax exposure estimated based on the Group’s financial information is assessed to be immaterial.

As the Group is assessed to be not a minority-owned constituent entity, if there is any potential top-up tax for China Shipbuilding Group and its subsidiaries (“CSSC Group”), it is possible that relevant tax may be further allocated or recharged to respective entities of the CSSC Group that contribute to the top-up tax. The GloBE Rules are highly complicated and would involve interpretation of laws as well as inputs from upstream entities (i.e. CSSC Group), hence, the relevant quantitative impact of application of GloBE Rules is not yet reasonably estimable. The Group would continue to analyse and assess the impact brought by Pillar Two Model Rules.

Hedge effectiveness is determined at the inception of the hedge relationship, and through periodic prospective effectiveness assessments to ensure that an economic relationship exists between the hedged item and hedging instrument.

The Group enters into interest rate swaps that have similar critical terms as the hedged item, such as reference rate, reset dates, payment dates, maturities and notional amount. The Group does not hedge 100% of its loans, therefore the hedged item is identified as a proportion of the outstanding loans up to the notional amount of the swaps. As critical terms matched during the year, there is an economic relationship.

Hedge ineffectiveness for interest rate swaps is assessed by using hypothetical derivative which has terms that mirror those of the hedged item. It may occur due to:

- the credit value/debit value adjustment on the interest rate swaps which is not matched by the loan, and
- differences in critical terms between the interest rate swaps and loans.

Fair value measurement

Details of the methods and assumptions used in determining the fair value of derivatives are as set out in note 3.4.

27. Deferred tax (Continued)

At 31 December 2024, the Group did not recognise deferred tax assets in respect of tax losses of approximately HK$89,512,000 (2023: HK$56,972,000) due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. Subject to the agreement by Hong Kong tax authorities, such losses of HK$542,495,000 (2023: HK$345,288,000) do not expire under current tax legislation. The Group had no other significant un-provided deferred taxation as at 31 December 2024. Deferred tax has not been recognised for withholding taxes that would be payable on the unremitted earnings that are subject to withholding taxes of the Group's subsidiaries established in the PRC. In the opinion of the directors, it is not probable that these subsidiaries will distribute such unremitted earnings in the unforeseeable future.

28. Long service payment obligations

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance, Chapter 57, Hong Kong employees that have been employed continuously for at least five years are entitled to LSP under certain circumstances (e.g. dismissal by employers or upon retirement).

The amount of LSP payable is determined with reference to the employee's last monthly salary (capped at HK$22,500) and the years of service, reduced by the amount of any accrued benefits derived from the Group's contributions to MPF scheme, with an overall cap of HK$390,000 per employee. Currently, the Group does not have any separate funding arrangement in place to meet its LSP obligations.

In June 2022, the Government gazetted the Amendment Ordinance, which abolishes the use of the accrued benefits derived from employers' mandatory MPF contributions to offset the LSP. The Amendment Ordinance will take effect on the Transition Date. Separately, the Government has indicated that it would launch a subsidy scheme to assist employers after the abolition.

Among other things, once the abolition of the offsetting mechanism takes effect, an employer can no longer use any of the accrued benefits derived from its mandatory MPF contributions (irrespective of the contributions made before, on or after the Transition Date) to reduce the LSP in respect of an employee's service from the Transition Date. However, where an employee's employment commenced before the Transition Date, the employer can continue to use the above accrued benefits to reduce the LSP in respect of the employee's service up to that date. In addition, the LSP in respect of the service before the Transition Date will be calculated based on the employee's monthly salary immediately before the Transition Date and the years of service up to that date.

The benefit payment under LSP remains capped at HK$390,000 per employee. If an employee's total benefit payment exceeds HK$390,000, the amount in excess of the cap is deducted from the portion accrued from the Transition Date.

The Group has accounted for the offsetting mechanism and its abolition as disclosed in note 2.22 to the consolidated financial statements.

Pursuant to which, the maximum number of shares to be issued upon the exercise of the share options shall not in aggregate exceed 613,606,623 shares, representing approximately 10% of the total number of issued shares of the Company as at the date of approval of the Scheme at the extraordinary general meeting.

Participants of the Scheme shall be employees of the Company and include executive directors and senior management members (the “Grantees”) of the Company, as well as core technical personnel and backbone management whom the board of directors considers will have a direct impact on the Company’s overall operating performance and sustainable development.

The exercise price represents the highest of (i) the closing price as stated in the daily quotations sheet issued by the Stock Exchange on the First and Second Grant Date; and (ii) the average closing price as stated in the daily quotations sheet issued by the Stock Exchange for the five business days immediately preceding the First and Second Grant Date. The options shall be vested to the Grantees during the period and in the respective proportions as follows:

- (i) The first batch (being 33% of the share options granted) will be vested on the first trading day after 24 months from the Grant Date;
- (ii) The second batch (being 33% of the share options granted) will be vested on the first trading day after 36 months from the Grant Date; and
- (iii) The third batch (being 34% of the Share Options granted) will be vested on the first trading day after 48 months from the Grant Date.

The options are exercisable within a period of ten years from the Grant Date. Each option gives the holder the right to subscribe for one ordinary share in the Company. Details of the Scheme are as set out in the Company’s circular dated 13 April 2021.

All share-based employee compensation will be settled in equity. The Group has no legal or constructive obligation to repurchase or settle the options other than by issuing the Company’s ordinary shares.

To the members of CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited
(incorporated in Hong Kong with limited liability)

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of CSSC (Hong Kong) Shipping Company Limited (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (together, the “Group”) set out on pages 110 to 220, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2023, and the consolidated income statement, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2023, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the Companies Ordinance.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing (“HKSAs”) issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA’s Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the “Code”), and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key Audit Matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Lease arrangements Refer to notes 2.15 and 4 to the consolidated financial statements. Management assessed the classification of leases in accordance with Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard 16 “Leases”. The Group has entered into certain agreements whereby the Group has determined that it has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased vessels to the lessees/borrowers, as the present values of the minimum lease payments of the lease amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the leased assets at the inception of the leases. Accordingly, the Group has excluded the vessels from its consolidated statements of financial position and has instead, recognised finance lease receivables. Otherwise the Group includes the vessels under operating lease in property, plant and equipment. The determination of whether the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership depends on an assessment of the relevant arrangements relating to the lease which involves critical judgments by management. In particular, management assessed the lease term, the present value of minimum lease payments, the nature of leased assets, and that there were no ownership transfers and no purchase options at the end of the lease terms. The key judgments are in respect of the economic lives and fair values of the leased assets, the incremental borrowing rate in the calculation of the present value of minimum lease payments and whether the purchase option will be exercised. Due to the significance of management's judgments and estimates applied in assessing the classification of leases, we considered this as a key audit matter.	We performed the following procedures to assess management's classification of leases: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • examined the lease agreements and discussed with management the key terms in order to identify any inconsistency from our understanding; • performed the following procedures for the appropriateness of the judgments made by management in the determination of lease classification on a sample basis: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – assessed the impact of the agreed terms in the lease agreements on the classification; – tested the mathematical accuracy of the present value of minimum lease payment calculation and verified relevant input data (i.e. lease terms, lease payments and lease period) to the agreements; – assessed the reasonableness of the incremental borrowing rate of the respective lease arrangement; – evaluated the appropriateness of the economic lives and the fair value of leased assets with reference to similar types of assets in the market; and – assessed the existence of the purchase option under the lease arrangement by checking to the lease agreements and possibility of lessees/borrowers to exercise such option by comparing the rate to exercise to the current market rate.

Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Impairment of loan and lease receivables Refer to notes 2.9, 3.2(i), 4 and 17 to the consolidated financial statements. As at 31 December 2023, the net carrying amounts of the Group's loan and lease receivables amounted to approximately HK$23,734,332,000, in which provision for impairment loss of approximately HK$667,290,000 were recorded. The balances of provision for impairment on loan and lease receivables represent the management's best estimates at the reporting date of the expected credit losses ("ECL") under Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standard 9 "Financial Instruments". The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period, and the ECL was calculated and provided based on the "three-stages" model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition. For loan and lease receivables classified into stage 1, the ECL is measured on a 12-month basis. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 2 and 3, the ECL is measured on a lifetime basis. The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring, of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using Probability of Default ("PD"), Exposure at Default ("EAD") and Loss Given Default ("LGD").	We performed the following procedures to assess the impairment of loan and lease receivables prepared by management: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • we understood the process for identification of impairment indicators and tested the calculation of provision for impairment on loan and lease receivables; • we selected samples, in consideration of the financial information and non-financial information of the lessees/borrowers, relevant external evidence and other factors, to assess the appropriateness of the management's identification of receivables with significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition and credit-impaired loan and lease receivables; • we reviewed the methodologies for ECL for impairment assessment and assessed the reasonableness of significant judgments and assumptions including, inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques. We tested whether or not the measurement methods reflect the methodologies documented by management; • we examined major data inputs to the ECL models on selected samples, including historical data and data at the measurement date, to assess their accuracy and completeness; and • for loan and lease receivables in stages 2 and 3, we examined, on a sample basis, financial information of the lessees/borrowers and other available information.

Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit

The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group's past history, existing market conditions as well as forward looking estimates at the end of each reporting period, primarily including the following:

- (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables have experienced a significant increase in credit risk;
- (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets;
- (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL (i.e. PD, EAD, LGD); and
- (4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL (i.e. forecasted economic growth rates which reflect the general economic conditions of the industry in which the lessees/borrowers operate).

- we reviewed the management's analysis for forward-looking information using forecasted economic growth rate, assessed the reasonableness and performed sensitivity analysis on possible scenarios.

Due to the significance of management's judgment and estimates applied in assessing the amount of ECL at the reporting date, we considered this as a key audit matter.

Other Information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all the information included in the 2023 annual report of the Company, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of Directors for the Consolidated Financial Statements

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors assisted by the Audit Committee are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with section 405 of the Companies Ordinance and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

1. General information

The registered office and its principal place of business is located at Room 1801, 18th Floor, Worldwide House, No. 19 Des Voeux Road Central, Central, Hong Kong. Shares of the Company was successfully listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (“The Stock Exchange”) on 17 June 2019.

These consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 26 March 2024.

2. Summary of material accounting policies

This note provides a list of the material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated and the adoption of new and amended Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards (“HKFRSs”) and the impacts on the Group’s consolidated financial statements, if any, are disclosed in note 2.1.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with HKFRSs, which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”), the requirements of the Companies Ordinance and the applicable disclosure requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except for certain financial assets and liabilities as specified below which are stated at fair value.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRSs require the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in note 4.

New and amended HKFRSs that are effective for annual period beginning on 1 January 2023

In the current year, the Group has applied for the first time the following new and amended HKFRSs issued by the HKICPA which are relevant to the Group's operation and effective for the consolidated financial statements for the period beginning on 1 January 2023:

HKFRS 17	Insurance Contracts and related amendments
Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKFRS Practice Statement 2	Disclosure of Accounting Policies
Amendments to HKAS 8	Definition of Accounting Estimates
Amendments to HKAS 12	Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction
Amendments to HKAS 12	International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules

Except for those mentioned below, the adoption of the new and amended HKFRSs had no material impact on how the results and financial position for the current and prior periods have been prepared and presented.

Amendments to HKAS 1 and HKFRS Practice Statement 2 “Disclosure of Accounting Policies”

The amendments to HKAS 1 require entities to disclose material accounting policy information instead of significant accounting policies in its financial statements. Accounting policy information is material if, when considered together with other information included in an entity's financial statements, it can reasonably be expected to influence decisions that the primary users of general purpose financial statements make on the basis of those financial statements. The amendments also provide some guidance on how material policy information are being identified and provide some examples of when accounting policy information is likely to be material.

In March 2021, HKICPA issued HKFRS Practice Statement 2 “Making Materiality Judgements” to provide entities with non-mandatory guidance on how to make materiality judgements when preparing their general purpose financial statements in accordance with HKFRS. HKFRS Practice Statement 2 was subsequently revised to provide guidance and examples on how to apply the concept of materiality to accounting policy disclosures.

The amendments to HKAS 1 are applied by the Group on 1 January 2023 and are applied prospectively. The Group revisited the accounting policy information it has been disclosing and considered it is consistent with the amendments.

Amendments to HKAS 8 “Definition of Accounting Estimates”

The amendments clarify how entities should distinguish changes in accounting policies from changes in accounting estimates by introducing a definition for accounting estimates, which is now defined as “monetary amounts in the financial statements that are subject to measurement uncertainty”.

Besides, the amendments also clarify the relationship between accounting policies and accounting estimates by specifying that an entity develops an accounting estimate to achieve the objective set out by an accounting policy. Accounting estimates typically involve the use of judgements or assumptions based on latest available reliable information. A change in accounting estimate that results from new information or new development is not correction of an error. Therefore, the effects of a change in an input or a measurement technique used to develop an accounting estimate are changes in accounting estimates if they do not result from the correction of prior period errors. In addition, two illustrative examples are added to illustrate how to apply the new definition of accounting estimates.

The amendments are applied by the Group on 1 January 2023 and are applied prospectively. The amendments have no impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Group.

Amendments to HKAS 12 “Deferred Tax related to Assets and Liabilities arising from a Single Transaction”

The amendments clarify that the initial recognition exemption of deferred tax in HKAS 12 “Income Taxes” does not apply to transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences, such as lease contracts that give rise to the recognition of a lease liability and the corresponding right-of-use assets and contracts that give rise to the recognition of decommissioning obligations and corresponding amounts recognised as assets. Instead, entities are required to recognise the related deferred tax asset and liability on initial recognition, with the recognition of any deferred tax asset being subject to the recoverability criteria in HKAS 12 “Income Taxes”.

The Group adopted the amendments from 1 January 2023 and are required to recognise the associated deferred tax assets and liabilities from leases that occurred on or after 1 January 2022, with any cumulative effect recognised as an adjustment to retained profits at that date.

Prior to the application of the amendments, the Group had recognised the deferred tax assets and liabilities arising from leases on a net basis. Following the requirements of the amendments, the Group has recognised a separate deferred tax asset in relation to its lease liabilities and a deferred tax liability in relation to its right-of-use assets as at 1 January 2022. As the balances are qualified for offset under paragraph 74 of HKAS 12, there is no material impact on the opening retained profits as at 1 January 2022 as a result of the amendments. The key impact of the Group relates to disclosure of components of deferred tax assets and liabilities in note 27 of the consolidated financial statements.

Amendments to HKAS 12 “International Tax Reform – Pillar Two Model Rules”

The amendments introduce a temporary mandatory exception from deferred tax accounting for the income tax arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (“OECD”) (income tax arising from such tax laws is hereafter referred to as “Pillar Two income taxes”), including tax laws that implement qualified domestic minimum top-up taxes described in those rules. The amendments also introduce disclosure requirements about such tax including the estimated tax exposure to Pillar Two income taxes. The amendments are immediately effective upon issuance and require retrospective application.

The Group has applied the temporary mandatory exception to recognising and disclosing information about deferred tax assets and liabilities related to Pillar Two income taxes and would account for the tax as current tax when incurred.

Pillar Two legislation has been enacted or substantively enacted in certain jurisdictions in which the Group operates and the legislation will be effective for the Group’s financial year beginning 1 January 2025.

The Group is currently assessing its exposure to Pillar Two income taxes with the assistance of its tax advisors.

At the date of authorisation of these consolidated financial statements, certain amended HKFRSs have been published but not yet effective and have not been early adopted by the Group.

The adoption of the amended HKFRSs are not expected to have material impact on the Group’s consolidated financial statements.

2.2 New HKICPA guidance on the accounting implication of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism

In June 2022, the Hong Kong SAR Government (the “Government”) gazetted the Hong Kong Employment and Retirement Schemes Legislation (Offsetting Arrangement) (Amendment) Ordinance 2022 (the “Amendment Ordinance”), which will take effect on 1 May 2025 (the “Transition Date”). The Amendment Ordinance abolishes the use of the accrued benefits derived from employers’ Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the “MPF”) contributions to offset long service payment (“LSP”) in respect of an employee’s service from the Transition Date (the “Abolition”). In addition, the last month’s salary immediately preceding the Transition Date is used to calculate the portion of the LSP in respect of the employment period before the Transition Date.

Prior to 1 January 2023, the Group applied practical expedient in paragraph 93(b) of HKAS 19 (the “Practical Expedient”) to account for the offsettable MPF benefits as deemed employee contributions to reduce the current service costs in the period in which the related services were rendered.

In July 2023, the HKICPA published “Accounting implications of the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism in Hong Kong” (“the Guidance”) that provides guidance for the accounting for the offsetting mechanism and the impact arising from the abolition of the MPF-LSP offsetting mechanism.

By following the Guidance, the Group has changed its accounting policy in connection with its LSP obligations. As a result of the Abolition, these contributions are no longer considered “linked solely to the employee’s service in that period” since the mandatory employer MPF contribution after the Transition Date can still be used to offset the pre-transition LSP obligation. Therefore, the Group ceased to apply the Practical Expedient and reattribute the deemed employee contributions to periods of service in the same manner as the gross LSP benefit by applying paragraph 93(a) of HKAS 19.

This change does not have any material impact to the opening balance of equity at 1 January 2022, the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2022 and 2023, and the consolidated income statement and consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the years then ended. It also does not have a material impact on the company-level statements of financial position as at 31 December 2022 and 31 December 2023.

2.3 Principles of consolidation and equity accounting

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Intercompany transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between Group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated statement of financial position and consolidated statement of changes in equity.

Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence, which is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investees but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

Joint arrangements

Investments in joint arrangements are classified as either joint operations or joint ventures. The classification depends on the contractual rights and obligations of each investor, rather than the legal structure of the joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions relating about relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

Joint ventures

Interests in joint ventures are accounted for using the equity method of accounting (see below), after initially being recognised at cost in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

When the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in note 2.8.

2.4 Separate financial statements

On the Company's statement of financial position, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

2.5 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker ("CODM").

The board of directors has appointed executive directors of the Company as the CODM to assess the financial performance and position of the Group, make strategic decisions and corporate planning.

2. Summary of material accounting policies (Continued)

2.6 Foreign currency translation

Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the consolidated financial statements are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the Group operates (the “functional currency”). United States dollars (“US$”) is the functional currency of the Company and its major subsidiaries. The financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars (“HK$”), which is the Group’s presentation currency.

Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are generally recognised in profit or loss. They are deferred in equity if they relate to qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges or are attributable to part of the net investment in a foreign operation.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings are presented in profit or loss, within finance costs. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in profit or loss on a net basis within other income and other gains.

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in profit or loss. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income.

Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each reporting date presented are translated at the closing rate at the reporting date;
- income and expenses for each statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions); and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period.

2.7 Property, plant and equipment

Construction in progress

Construction in progress represents vessel under construction which is carried at cost less any accumulated impairment losses. Construction in progress includes construction expenditure incurred, borrowing costs and other direct costs attributable to the construction. On completion, the construction in progress is transferred to vessel. No depreciation is provided for construction in progress.

Other property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation and any impairment. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items. Cost may also include transfers from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges of foreign currency purchases of property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to profit or loss during the reporting period in which they are incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their cost, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives or, in the case of leasehold improvements, the shorter lease term as follows:

Vessels	30 years
Motor vehicles	5 years
Office equipment	3 years
Leasehold improvements	Over the lease term

Upon acquisition of a vessel, the components of the vessel which are required to be replaced at the next dry-docking are identified and their costs are depreciated over the period to the next estimated dry-docking date. Costs incurred on subsequent dry-docking of vessels are capitalised and depreciated over the period to the next estimated dry-docking date. When significant dry-docking costs incurred prior to the expiry of the depreciation period, the remaining costs of the previous dry-docking are written off immediately.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount (note 2.8).

Gains and losses on disposals are determined by comparing proceeds with carrying amount. These are included in profit or loss.

2.8 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash inflows which are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

2.9 Investments and other financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets into the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income or through profit or loss), and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or other comprehensive income. For investments in debt instruments, this will depend on the business model in which the investment is held. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”).

The Group reclassifies debt investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

The Group derecognises a financial asset, if the part being considered for derecognition meets one of the following conditions: (i) the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the financial asset expire; or (ii) the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset have been transferred, the Group transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset; or (iii) the Group retains the contractual rights to receive the cash flows of the financial asset, but assumes a contractual obligation to pay the cash flows to the eventual recipient in an agreement that meets all the conditions of de-recognition of transfer of cash flows (“pass through” requirements) and transfers substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset.

Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are expensed in profit or loss.

Financial assets with embedded derivatives are considered in their entirety when determining whether their cash flows are solely payment of principal and interest.

Debt instruments

Subsequent measurement of debt instruments depends on the Group's business model for managing the asset and the cash flow characteristics of the asset. There are three measurement categories into which the Group classifies its debt instruments:

- Amortised cost: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows where those cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest are measured at amortised cost. Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest rate method. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition is recognised directly in profit or loss and presented in other gains, together with foreign exchange gains and losses. Impairment losses are presented as separate line item in profit or loss.
- FVOCI: Assets that are held for collection of contractual cash flows and for selling the financial assets, where the assets' cash flows represent solely payments of principal and interest, are measured at FVOCI. Movements in the carrying amount are taken through consolidated statement of comprehensive income, except for the recognition of impairment losses, interest income and foreign exchange gains and losses which are recognised in profit or loss. When the financial asset is derecognised, the cumulative gain or loss previously recognised in consolidated statement of comprehensive income is reclassified from equity to profit or loss.
- Fair value at profit or loss ("FVTPL"): Assets that do not meet the criteria for amortised cost or FVOCI are measured at FVTPL. A gain or loss on a debt investment that is subsequently measured at FVTPL is recognised in profit or loss and presented net within other gains in the period in which it arises.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in consolidated statement of comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised in other gains in the consolidated income statements as applicable. Impairment losses (and reversal of impairment losses) on debt investments measured at FVOCI are not reported separately from other changes in fair value.

Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses ("ECL") associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost and FVOCI. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For loan and lease receivables, the Group applies the general approach permitted by HKFRS 9 "Financial Instruments", which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables, see notes 3.2(i) and 17 for further details.

2.10 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position where the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts, and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The Group has also entered into arrangements that do not meet the criteria for offsetting but still allow for the related amounts to be set off in certain circumstances, such as bankruptcy or the termination of a contract.

2.11 Derivatives and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognised at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently remeasured to their fair value at the end of each reporting period. The accounting for subsequent changes in fair value depends on whether the derivative is designated as a hedging instrument, and if so, the nature of the item being hedged. The Group designates certain derivatives as hedges of a particular risk associated with the cash flows of recognised assets and liabilities and highly probable forecast transactions (cash flow hedges).

At the inception of the hedging, the Group documents the economic relationship between hedging instruments and hedged items, including whether changes in the cash flows of the hedging instruments are expected to offset changes in the cash flows of hedged items. The Group documents its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking its hedge transactions.

The fair values of derivative financial instruments designated in hedge relationships are disclosed in note 18. Movements in the hedging reserve in shareholders' equity are shown in the consolidated statement of changes in equity.

Cash flow hedges that qualify for hedge accounting

The effective portion of changes in the fair value of derivatives that are designated and qualify as cash flow hedging is recognised in the hedge reserve within equity. The gain or loss relating to the ineffective portion is recognised immediately in profit or loss, within other gains.

Amounts accumulated in equity are reclassified in the periods when the hedged item affects profit or loss. The gain or loss relating to the effective portion of the interest rate swaps hedging variable rate borrowings is recognised in profit or loss within finance cost at the same time as the interest expense on the hedged borrowings.

When a hedging instrument expires, or is sold or terminated, or when a hedging no longer meets the criteria for hedge accounting, any cumulative deferred gain or loss and deferred costs of hedging in equity at that time remains in equity until the forecast transaction occurs. When the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, the cumulative gain or loss and deferred costs of hedging that were reported in equity are immediately reclassified to profit or loss.

Derivatives that do not qualify for hedge accounting

Certain derivative instruments do not qualify for hedge accounting. Changes in the fair value of any derivative instrument that does not qualify for hedge accounting are recognised immediately in profit or loss and are included in other gains.

2.12 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents includes cash at bank and on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

2.13 Revenue recognition

Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received or receivable.

The Group recognises revenue when the contract of services transferred to customer, it is probable that future economic benefits will flow to the entity and specific criteria have been met for each of the Group's activities as described below.

Finance lease income – refer to note 2.15(i).

Operating lease income – refer to note 2.15(ii).

Interest income – recognised using the effective interest method, refer to note 2.27.

Dividend income – recognised as revenue when the right to receive payment is established. This applies even if they are paid out of pre-acquisition profits. However, the investment may need to be tested for impairment as a consequence.

Commission income – recognised in the accounting period in which the actual shipbroking services provided to the shipbuilding company. The Group considers the revenue will be highly probable that will not be subsequently reversed, which normally when the Group successfully facilitates the conclusion of shipbuilding transaction and when it is highly probable that there will be no default in the transaction. Commission income from the charterer would be recognised over the period of related lease.

2.14 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions. Government grants are deferred and recognised in profit or loss over the period necessary to match them with the costs that the grants are intended to compensate.

Government grants relating to income is presented in gross as other income in the consolidated income statement.

2.15 Leases

Definition of a lease and the Group as a lessee

At inception of a contract, the Group considers whether a contract is, or contains a lease. A lease is defined as a contract, or part of a contract, that conveys the right to use an identified asset (the underlying asset) for a period of time in exchange for consideration. To apply this definition, the Group assesses whether the contract meets three key evaluations which are whether:

- the contract contains an identified asset, which is either explicitly identified in the contract or implicitly specified by being identified at the time the asset is made available to the Group;
- the Group has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the identified asset throughout the period of use, considering its rights within the defined scope of the contract; and
- the Group has the right to direct the use of the identified asset throughout the period of use. The Group assess whether it has the right to direct 'how and for what purpose' the asset is used throughout the period of use.

As a lessee

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Contracts may contain both lease and non-lease components. The Group allocates the consideration in the contract to the lease and non-lease components based on their relative stand-alone prices.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the following lease payments:

- fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments), less any lease incentives receivable;
- variable lease payments that are based on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date;
- amounts expected to be payable by the Group under residual value guarantees;
- the exercise price of a purchase option if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise that option; and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease, if the lease term reflects the Group exercising that option.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

The Group has elected to account for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets using the practical expedients. Instead of recognising a right-of-use asset and lease liability, the payments in relation to these leases are recognised as an expense in profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 month or less.

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted for under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group:

- where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions and credit rating of the Group since third party financing was received;
- uses a build-up approach that starts with a risk-free interest rate adjusted for credit risk for leases held by the Group, which does not have recent third party financing; and
- makes adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. value of right-of-use assets, term, country, currency and value of security.

The Group is exposed to potential future increases in variable lease payments based on an index or rate, which are not included in the lease liability until they take effect. When adjustments to lease payments based on an index or rate take effect, the lease liability is reassessed and adjusted against the right-of-use asset.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

As a lessor

Lease income from operating leases where the Group is a lessor is recognised in income on a straight-line basis over the lease term. The respective leased assets are included in the consolidated statement of financial position based on their nature.

(i) Finance lease

A finance lease is a lease that transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased asset to the lessee. At the commencement of the lease term, the Group recognises the minimum lease payments receivable by the Group as a finance lease receivable and records the unguaranteed residual value as an asset within the same category. The difference between (a) the aggregate of the minimum lease payments and the unguaranteed residual value and (b) their present value (presented in the consolidated statement of financial position as net investments in finance leases under loan and lease receivables) is recognised as unearned finance income. Minimum lease payments are the payments over the lease term that the lessee is or can be required to make plus any residual value guaranteed to the lessor by the lessee, or a party unrelated to the lessor.

Unearned finance income is allocated to each period during the lease term using the effective interest method that allocates each rental between finance income and repayment of capital in each accounting period in such a way that finance income is recognised as a constant periodic rate of return (implicit effective interest rate) on the lessor's net investment in the lease. Lease agreements for which the base rent is based on floating interest rates are included in minimum lease payments based on the floating interest rate existing at the commencement of the lease; any increase or decrease in lease payments that result from subsequent changes on floating interest rate is recorded as an increase or a decrease in finance lease income in the period of the interest rate change.

Initial direct costs, such as commissions, legal fees and internal costs that are incremental and directly attributable to negotiating and arranging a lease, are included in the initial measurement of the finance lease receivable and reduce the amount of income recognised over the lease term.

(ii) Operating lease

Leases where substantially all the rewards and risks of ownership of assets remain with the lessor are accounted for as operating leases. Where the Group is the lessor, assets leased by the Group under operating leases are included in property, plant and equipment, and rentals receivable under the operating leases are credited to the consolidated income statement on the straight-line basis over the lease terms.

Leasing services revenue are generated from a combination of bareboat charters and time charters. Revenue from a bareboat charter, is recognised in accordance with HKFRS 16.

Revenue from a time charter, is recognised over time based on daily rate. The Group separately accounts for the lease and non-lease components (i.e. vessel management services) for time charter contracts. The Group estimates the stand-alone selling price of lease component by reference to the total transaction price less the sum of the observable stand-alone selling prices of non-lease components promised in the contract.

2.16 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity.

Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

2.17 Other payables

These amounts represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of financial year which are unpaid. They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.18 Amounts due to fellow subsidiaries, a joint venture and non-controlling interests

They are recognised initially at their fair value and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

2.19 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

2.20 Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the drawdown occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

Borrowings are removed from the consolidated statement of financial position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss as other income or finance costs.

2.21 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

2.22 Current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the year is the tax payable on the current year's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred income tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses.

Current income tax

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries or jurisdiction where the Company's subsidiaries and associates operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantially enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred income tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

For leasing transactions in which the tax deductions are attributable to the lease liabilities, the Group applies the requirements in HKAS 12 to the lease liabilities and the related assets separately. The Group recognises a deferred tax asset related to the lease liabilities to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary difference can be utilised and a deferred tax liability for all taxable temporary differences.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority on either: (i) the same taxable entity; or (ii) different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Current and deferred income tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Investment allowances and similar tax incentives

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense. A deferred income tax asset is recognised for unclaimed tax credits that are carried forward as deferred income tax assets.

2.23 Employee benefits

Retirement benefits

Retirement benefits to employees are provided through defined contribution plans. In addition, the employees employed under the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance are also entitled to LSP if the eligibility criteria are met. The LSP are defined benefits plans.

(a) Defined contribution plans

The Group participated the MPF Scheme under the Hong Kong Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance for those qualifying employees employed under the jurisdiction of the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance, and who are eligible to participate in the MPF Scheme.

The MPF Scheme is a defined contribution scheme, the assets of which are held in separate trustee-administered funds. The Group has no further payment obligations once the contribution has been paid. The Group's contributions to the scheme are recognised as employee benefit expenses when they are due. When employees leave the scheme prior to the full vesting of the employer's voluntary contributions, the amount of forfeited contributions is used to reduce the contributions payable by the Group.

The Group's PRC subsidiaries participates in defined contribution retirement benefit plans organised by relevant government authorities for its employees in the PRC and contributes to these plans based on a certain percentage of the salaries of the employees on a monthly basis, up to a maximum fixed monetary amount, as stipulated by the relevant government authorities.

The government authorities undertake to assume the retirement benefit obligations payable to all existing and future retired employees under these plans.

Contributions are recognised as an expense in profit or loss as employees render services during the year. The Group's obligations under these plans are limited to the fixed percentage contributions payable.

(b) Defined benefit plans

The amount of long service benefit that an employee will receive on cessation of employment in certain circumstances is defined by reference to the employee's length of service and corresponding salary. The legal obligations for any benefits remains with the Group.

The LSP obligations recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position is the present value of the LSP obligation at the end of the reporting period.

Management estimates the LSP obligations annually. This is based on the discount rate, the salary growth rate, turnover rate and the expected investment return on offsetable MPF accrued benefits. Discount factors are determined close to the end of each annual reporting period by reference to high quality corporate bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid and have terms to maturity approximating the terms of the related defined benefit liability.

Defined benefit costs are categorised as follows:

- service cost (including current and past service cost, and gains and losses on curtailments and settlements);
- net interest expense or income; and
- remeasurement.

Service cost on the Group's defined benefit plan is included in employee benefits expense. Employee contributions, all of which are independent of the number of years of service, are treated as a reduction of service cost.

Net interest expense on the net defined benefit liability is included in employee benefits expenses.

Gains and losses resulting from remeasurements of the net defined benefit liability, comprising actuarial gains and losses, are included in other comprehensive income and are not reclassified to profit or loss in subsequent periods.

Short-term obligations

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits and accumulating sick leave that are expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the period in which the employees render the related service are recognised in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period and are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. The liabilities are presented as other payables in the consolidated statement of financial positions.

Share-based employee compensation

The Group operates equity-settled share-based compensation plans for remuneration of its employees.

All employee services received in exchange for the grant of any share-based compensation are measured at their fair values. These are indirectly determined by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments granted. This fair value is appraised at the grant date and excludes the impact of any non-market vesting conditions (for example, profitability and sales growth targets and performance conditions).

All share-based compensation is recognised as an expense in profit or loss over the vesting period if vesting conditions apply, or recognised as an expense in full at the grant date when the equity instruments granted vest immediately unless the compensation qualifies for recognition as asset, with a corresponding increase in the “share option reserve” in equity. If vesting conditions apply, the expense is recognised over the vesting period, based on the best available estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. Non-market vesting conditions are included in assumptions about the number of equity instruments that are expected to become exercisable. Estimates are subsequently revised, if there is any indication that the number of equity instruments expected to vest differs from previous estimates. Any adjustment to cumulative share-based compensation resulting from a revision is recognised in the current period. The number of vested options ultimately exercised by holders does not impact the expense recorded in any period.

At the time when the share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in “share option reserve” will be transferred to “share capital”. After vesting date, when the vested share options are later forfeited or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in “share option reserve” will be transferred to “retained profits”.

Profit-sharing and bonus plans

The Group recognises a liability and an expense for bonuses and profit-sharing based on a formula that takes into consideration the profit attributable to the Company's shareholders after certain adjustments. The Group recognises a provision where contractually obliged or where there is a past practice that has created a constructive obligation.

Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable when employment is terminated by the Group before the normal retirement date, or when an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits. The Group recognises termination benefits at the earlier of the following dates: (a) when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits; and (b) when the entity recognises costs for a restructuring that is within the scope of HKAS 37 “Provisions, Contingent liabilities and Contingent Assets” and involves the payment of terminations benefits. In the case of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy, the termination benefits are measured based on the number of employees expected to accept the offer. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to present value.

2.24 Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing:

- the profit attributable to equity holders of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares
- by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account:

- the after-income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and
- the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

2.25 Dividend income

Dividends are received from financial assets measured at FVTPL and at FVOCI. Dividends are recognised as other income in profit or loss when the right to receive payment is established. This applies even if they are paid out of pre-acquisition profits, unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of an investment. In this case, the dividend is recognised in other comprehensive income if it relates to an investment measured at FVOCI. However, the investment may need to be tested for impairment as a consequence.

2.26 Dividend distribution

Provision is made for the amount of any dividend declared, being appropriately authorised and no longer at the discretion of the entity, on or before the end of the reporting period but not distributed at the end of the reporting period.

2.27 Interest income

Interest income on financial assets at amortised cost and financial assets at FVOCI calculated using the effective interest method is recognised in profit or loss as part of other income.

Interest income is presented as finance income where it is earned from financial assets that are held for cash management purposes, see note 6 below. Any other interest income is included in other income.

Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial assets that subsequently become credit-impaired. For credit-impaired financial assets the effective interest rate is applied to the net carrying amount of the financial asset (after deduction of the loss allowance).

2.28 Financial guarantee contracts

Financial guarantee contracts are recognised as a financial liability at the time the guarantee is issued. The liability is initially measured at fair value and subsequently at the higher of:

- the amount determined in accordance with the ECL model under HKFRS 9; and
- the amount initially recognised less, where appropriate, the cumulative amount of income recognised in accordance with the principles of HKFRS 15 “Revenue from Contracts with Customers”.

The fair value of financial guarantees is determined based on the present value of the difference in cash flows between the contractual payments required under the debt instrument and the payments that would be required without the guarantee, or the estimated amount that would be payable to a third party for assuming the obligations.

Where guarantees in relation to loans or other payables of associates are provided for no compensation, the fair values are accounted for as contributions and recognised as part of the cost of the investment.

2.29 Asset held for sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if their carrying amount will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use and a sale is considered highly probable. They are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell.

An impairment loss is recognised for any initial or subsequent write-down of the asset to fair value less costs to sell. A gain is recognised for any subsequent increases in fair value less costs to sell of an asset, but not in excess of any cumulative impairment loss previously recognised. A gain or loss not previously recognised by the date of the sale of the asset is recognised at the date of derecognition.

Asset are not depreciated or amortised while they are classified as held for sale. Assets classified as held for sale are presented separately from the other assets in the consolidated statement of financial position.

2.30 Related parties

For the purposes of these consolidated financial statements, a party is considered to be related to the Group if:

- (a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family and if that person:
 - (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or of a parent of the Group.
- (b) the party is an entity and if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group.
 - (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a group of which the other entity is a member).
 - (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party.
 - (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity.
 - (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group.
 - (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a).
 - (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity).
 - (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

3.2 Financial risk factors

Exposure to credit, liquidity, interest rate and foreign currency risks arises in the normal course of the Group's business. The Group's exposure to risks and the financial risk management policies and practises used by the Group to manage these risks are described below.

(i) Credit risk

The Group's credit risk are primarily attributable to financial instruments, loan and lease receivables, deposits and other receivables, amounts due from joint ventures, fellow subsidiaries and associates, time deposits, pledged time deposits, financial assets at FVOCI – debt instruments, and cash and cash equivalents. Management has a credit policy in place and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. In this respect, management considers the credit risk is significantly reduced.

The amounts due from the fellow subsidiaries, joint ventures, and associates are considered by management to be fully recoverable with no significant increase in credit risk identified.

The credit risk on cash and cash equivalents and time deposits are placed in reputable financial institutions with sound credit ratings assigned by international credit rating agencies.

For deposits and other receivables and financial assets at FVOCI – debt instruments, management makes periodic collective assessments as well as individual assessment on the recoverability with no significant increase in credit risk identified.

The Group also issued financial guarantees to banks and other financial institutions for borrowings of its joint ventures. These guarantees are subject to ECL under the HKFRS 9. The Group assessed those joint ventures have strong financial capacity to meet the contractual cash flow obligation in the near future and hence, does not expect significant credit losses arising from these guarantees.

Impairment allowance policies for loan and lease receivables

The Group applies ECL model for impairment assessment and considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. No significant credit risk is conscious for the reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information, especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating
- external credit rating (as far as available)
- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the counter party's ability to meet its obligations
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the counter party
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same counter party
- significant changes in the value of the collateral supporting the obligation or in the quality of third-party guarantees or credit enhancements
- significant changes in the expected performance and behaviour of the counter party, including changes in the payment status of borrower in the Group and changes in the operating results of the counter party

To manage risk arising from loan and lease receivables, standardised credit management procedures are performed. For pre-approval investigation, the Group optimises the review process by using big data technology through its platform and system, including credit analysis, assessment of collectability of borrowers, monitoring the cash flow status, possibility of misconduct and fraudulent activities. In terms of credit examining management, specific policies and procedures are established to assess loans offering. For subsequent monitoring, the Group monitors the cash flow and operation status of each borrowers. Once the loan was issued, all borrowers would be assessed by fraud examination model to prevent fraudulent behaviours.

In post-loan supervision, the Group establishes risk monitoring alert system through periodical monitoring. The estimation of credit exposure for risk management purposes is complex and requires use of models as the exposure varies with changes in market conditions, expected cash flows and passage of time.

The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using Probability of Default (“PD”), Exposure at Default (“EAD”) and Loss Given Default (“LGD”). This is consistent with the general approach used for the purposes of measuring ECL under HKFRS 9.

ECL model for loan and lease receivables, as summarised below:

- The ECL was calculated and provided based on the “three-stages” model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition.
- The loan and lease receivables that is not credit-impaired on initial recognition is classified in “Stage 1” and has its credit risk continuously monitored by the Group. The ECL is measured on a 12-month basis.
- If a significant increase in credit risk (as defined below) since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to “Stage 2” but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. The ECL is measured on lifetime basis.
- If the financial instrument is credit-impaired (as defined below), the financial instrument is then moved to “Stage 3”. The ECL is measured on lifetime basis.
- In Stages 1 and 2, interest income is calculated on the gross carrying amount (without deducting the loss allowance). If a financial asset subsequently becomes credit-impaired (Stage 3), the Group is required to calculate the interest income by applying the effective interest method in subsequent reporting periods to the amortised cost of the financial asset (the gross carrying amount net of loss allowance) rather than the gross carrying amount.

The key judgments and assumptions adopted by the Group in addressing the requirements of the standard are discussed below:

- (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk
The Group considers whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk when backstop criteria have been met. A backstop is applied and the loan and lease receivables considered to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk if the borrower is past due on its contractual payments.
- (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets
The Group identifies a financial instrument as in default, when the borrower is more than 90 days past due on its contractual payments. This has been applied to all loan and lease receivables held by the Group.
- (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL
The ECL is measured on either a 12-month or lifetime basis depending on whether a significant increase in credit risk has occurred since initial recognition or whether an asset is considered to be credit-impaired. The ECL are the discounted product of the PD, EAD, and LGD.

The ECL is determined by projecting the PD, LGD and EAD for each future month and for each portfolio. These three components are multiplied together and adjusted for the likelihood of survival (i.e. the exposure has not prepaid or defaulted in an earlier month). This effectively calculates an ECL for each future month, which is then discounted back to the reporting date and summarised. The discount rate used in the ECL calculation is the original effective interest rate or an approximation thereof.

(4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL models

The calculation of ECL incorporates forward-looking information. The Group has performed historical analysis and identified the per capita disposable income of urban residents as the key economic variables impacting credit risk and ECL.

As with any economic forecasts, the projections and likelihoods of occurrence are subject to a high degree of inherent uncertainty and therefore the actual outcomes may be significantly different to those projected. The Group considers these forecasts to represent its best estimate of the possible outcomes and has analysed the non-linearities and asymmetries within the Group's different portfolios to establish that the chosen scenarios are appropriately representative of the range of possible scenarios.

The provision for impairment recognised in the period is impacted by a variety of factors, as described below:

- Transfers between Stage 1 and Stage 2 or 3 due to loan and lease receivables experiencing significant increases (or decreases) of credit risk in the period, and the subsequent “step up” (or “step down”) between 12-month and lifetime ECL;
- Additional provisions for new financial instruments recognised, as well as releases for loan and lease receivables derecognised in the period;
- Loan and lease receivables derecognised and write-offs of provisions related to assets that were written off during the period.

Write-off policy

The Group writes off loan and lease receivables, in whole or in part, when it has exhausted all practical recovery efforts and has concluded there is no reasonable expectation of recovery. Indicators that there is no reasonable expectation of recovery include ceasing enforcement activity.

The Group may write-off loan and lease receivables that are still subject to enforcement activity.

Modification

The Group rarely modifies the terms of loans provided to customers due to commercial renegotiations, or for distressed loans, with a view to maximising recovery. The Group considers the impact from such modification is not significant.

(ii) Liquidity risk

The Group is responsible for its own cash management, including the short term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands, subject to approval by the board of directors when borrowings exceed certain predetermined levels of authority. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements to ensure that it maintains sufficient reserves of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

The tables below analyse the Group's financial assets and liabilities into relevant maturity groupings based on their contractual maturities for:

- (a) all non-derivative financial assets and liabilities, and
- (b) net and gross settled derivative financial instruments for which the contractual maturities are essential for an understanding of the timing of the cash flows.

The amounts disclosed in the tables are the contractual undiscounted cash flows. Balances due within 12 months equal their carrying balances as the impact of discounting is not significant.

Based on expectations at the end of the reporting period, the directors considered that it was not probable that the borrower of the loan would default the repayment of the loan and therefore no provision for the Group's obligation under the guarantee has been made.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's exposure to interest rate risk arises primarily from its loan receivables and bank borrowings with floating interest rate which expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group hedges the cash flow volatility risk as the result of the interest rate fluctuation through derivatives such as interest rate swap contracts. The Group switches the floating rate into fixed rate through interest rate swap contract to effectively match the future fixed lease income, and fix the interest spread. The interest rate swap settle at maturity. The Group will settle the difference between the fixed and floating interest rate on a net basis. The Group's hedge relationship between interest rate swaps and the designated hedged items were highly effective.

Interest rate profile

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Loan and lease receivables	16,511,380	18,573,561
Borrowings	15,904,429	17,611,691

Instruments used by the Group

Swaps currently in place cover approximately 21% (2022: 21%) of the variable loan principal outstanding. The fixed interest rates of the swaps range between 0.72% and 3% (2022: 0.72% and 3%), and the variable rates of the loans are mainly at 3 month SOFR rate (2022: 3 month LIBOR rate) which, at the end of the reporting period, was 5.36% (2022: 4.77%). The swap contracts require settlement of net interest receivable or payable every 3 months. The settlement dates coincide with or are close with the dates on which interest is payable on the underlying debt. The details and effects of the interest rate swaps on the Group's consolidated financial position and performance are as follows:

Sensitivity analysis

At 31 December 2023, it is estimated that a general increase/decrease of 100 basis points in interest rates, with all other variables held constant, would increase/decrease the Group's profit after taxation and retained profits by approximately HK$5,068,000 (2022: increase/decrease by approximately HK$8,032,000). Other components of equity would not be affected by the changes in interest rates.

The sensitivity analysis above has been determined assuming that the change in interest rates had occurred at the end of the reporting period and had been applied to the exposure to interest rate risk for non-derivative financial instruments in existence at that date. The 100 basis point increase or decrease represents management's assessment of a reasonably possible change in interest rates over the period until the next annual reporting date. The analysis is performed on the same basis for both years.

(iv) Foreign currency risk

The Group has foreign currency income, expenses and fund remittances, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk. Since the fluctuation of US$ and HK$ is minimal under the Linked Exchanged Rate System, the directors of the Company consider the Group mainly exposes to Euro (“EUR”), Singapore dollars (“SGD”) and Renminbi (“RMB”). The Group manages the foreign exchange risks by performing regular reviews of the Group’s net foreign exchange exposure.

The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% increase in the relevant functional currencies against HK$ as at 31 December 2023. 5% is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the possible change in foreign currency rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding foreign currency denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation for 5% change in foreign currency rates during the year. A positive/negative number indicates an increase/a decrease in profit for the year where respective functional currencies strengthening 5% as at 31 December 2023. During the year, for a 5% weakening of respective functional currencies against HK$, there would be an equal but opposite impact on the profit for the year.

3.3 Capital risk management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for equity holders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure to reduce the cost of capital.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to equity holders, return capital to equity holders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The Group monitors its capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. The gearing ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total equity. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings (including "bank borrowings", "bonds" and "other borrowings" as disclosed in note 24 to the consolidated financial statements).

3.3 Capital risk management (Continued)

The gearing ratios as at 31 December 2023 and 2022 were as follows:

	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000
Borrowings	31,333,427	27,788,264
Total equity	12,829,911	11,642,326
Gearing ratio	2.4 times	2.4 times

Loan covenants

Under the terms of the major borrowing facilities, the Group is required to comply with the following financial covenants:

- the debt to asset ratio must be not more than 80%, and
- the ratio of net finance cost to earnings before interest, tax, depreciation and amortisation (“EBITDA”) must be not more than 63%.

The Group has complied with these covenants throughout the reporting period.

3.4 Fair value estimation

The different levels of financial instruments carried at fair value have been defined as follows:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1);
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2), and not using significant unobservable inputs;
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, significant unobservable inputs) (level 3).

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

3.4 Fair value estimation (Continued)

The following table presents the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities that are measured at fair value as at:

Total financial assets at fair values		94,478	980,703	217,840	1,293,021

Level 1: The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets (such as publicly traded derivatives and equity securities) is based on quoted market prices at the end of the reporting period. The quoted market price used for financial assets held by the Group is the current bid price. These instruments are included in level 1.

Level 2: The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-the-counter derivatives) is determined using valuation techniques which maximise the use of observable market data and rely as little as possible on entity-specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in level 2.

Level 3: If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in level 3.

3.4 Fair value estimation (Continued)

Valuation techniques used to determine fair values

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- the use of quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments, and
- the fair value of the unlisted exchangeable note is determined using binomial option pricing model.

The following table summarises the quantitative information about the significant unobservable inputs used in recurring level 3 fair value measurements.

	Fair value at 31 December		Unobservable inputs	Range of inputs		Relationship of unobservable inputs to fair value
	2023 HK$'000	2022 HK$'000		2023	2022
Unlisted exchangeable note	–	217,840	Discount rate	N/A	14.21%	The higher the discount rate, the lower the fair value
			Expected volatility	N/A	27.97%	The lower the expected volatility, the lower the fair value.

There were no significant inter-relationships between unobservable inputs that materially affect fair values.

It is estimated that on the assumption of a movement of 35% and 10% increase and increase of (i) the expected volatility; and/or (ii) the expected rate of return, where applicable, with all other variables held constant, the profit before income tax for the year ended 31 December 2022 would have been decreased by approximately HK$2,000 and HK$275,000 respectively and the Group's equity would have been decreased by approximately HK$2,000 and HK$230,000 respectively, which are not significant to the financial performance and financial position of the Group.

Valuation processes

The Group has engaged the professional valuer that performs the valuations of non-property items required for financial reporting purposes, including level 3 fair values. This valuer reports directly to the finance department. Discussions of valuation processes and results are held between the finance department and the professional valuer at least annually.

The main level 3 inputs used by the Group are derived and evaluated as follows:

- Discount rates for financial assets and financial liabilities are determined using a capital asset pricing model to calculate a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risk specific to the asset;
- Risk adjustments specific to the counterparties (including assumptions about credit default rates) are derived from credit risk grading determined by internal credit risk management of Group.

Changes in level 2 and 3 fair values are analysed at the end of each reporting period during the half-yearly valuation discussion between the CFO and the valuation team. As part of this discussion the team presents a report that explains the reason for the fair value movements.

There was no transfer among level 1, 2 and 3 during the year.

The carrying values of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities carried at amortised costs approximate their fair values due to their short-term maturities. The fair value of financial liabilities for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Group for similar financial instruments, unless the discounting effect is insignificant.

3.5 Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

There is no material offsetting, enforceable master netting arrangement and similar agreements as at 31 December 2023 and 2022.

4. Significant accounting judgments and estimates

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, and their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities. Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

In the process of applying the Group's accounting policies, management has made the following judgments and estimates, apart from those involving estimations, which have the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements:

Classification of leases

The Group has entered into certain agreements whereby the Group has determined that it has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the leased vessels to the lessees/borrowers, as the present values of the minimum lease payments of the lease amounts to at least substantially all of the fair value of the leased assets at the inception of the leases. Accordingly, the Group has excluded the vessels from its consolidated statement of financial position and has instead, recognised as finance lease receivables. Otherwise the Group includes the vessels under operating lease in property, plant and equipment.

The determination of whether the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership depends on an assessment of the relevant arrangements relating to the lease and this has involved critical judgments by management. In particular, management assessed the lease term, the present value of minimum lease payments, the nature of leased assets, and that there were no ownership transfers and no purchase options at the end of the lease terms. The key judgments are in respect of the economic lives and fair values of the leased assets and the incremental borrowing rate in the calculation of the present value of minimum lease payments, and whether the purchases option will be exercised. As set out in notes 13 and 17.2 to the consolidated financial statements, vessels in property, plant and equipment and lease receivables consist of leasing during 2023 and 2022. As at 31 December 2023, the carrying amounts of vessels and construction in progress in property, plant and equipment and lease receivables are HK$15,148,542,000 (2022: HK$12,752,267,000), HK$1,069,152,000 (2022: HK$3,160,998,000) and HK$16,526,516,000 (2022: HK$12,291,021,000), respectively.

Impairment loss for loan and lease receivables

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period, and the ECL was calculated and provided based on “three-stages” model by referring to the changes in credit quality since initial recognition. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 1, the ECL is measured on 12-month basis. For loan and lease receivables classified into stages 2 and 3, the ECL is measured on lifetime basis.

The assessment of credit risk of a portfolio of assets entails further estimations as to the likelihood of defaults occurring, of the associated loss ratios and of default corrections between counterparties. The Group measures credit risk using PD, EAD and LGD.

The Group measures the loss allowance for loan and lease receivables equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, the Group recognised lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increase in the likelihood of risk of default occurring since initial recognition.

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial assets at the reporting date with the risk of default occurring on the financial assets at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

The Group uses judgments in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group’s past history, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the end of each reporting period, primarily including the following:

- (1) Consideration on whether the loan and lease receivables to have experienced a significant increase in credit risk;
- (2) Identification of default and credit-impaired assets;
- (3) Inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques in measuring ECL, and
- (4) Forward-looking information incorporated in the ECL models.

Explanation of the inputs, assumptions and estimation techniques used in measuring ECL is further detailed in note 3.2(i) to the consolidated financial statements.

Useful lives and residual value of property, plant and equipment

The Group estimates residual values of its vessels by reference to the lightweight tonnes of the vessels and the average demolition steel price of similar vessels in the market.

The Group estimates the useful life of its vessels with reference to the average historical useful life of similar vessels, their expected usage, expected repair and maintenance programme, and technical or commercial obsolescence arising from changes or improvements in the shipping market.

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

The Group regularly reviews whether there are any indications of impairment and will recognise an impairment loss if the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment is lower than its recoverable amount which is the greater of its net selling price or its value in use. In determining the value in use, the Group assesses the present value of the estimated future cash flows expected to arise from the continuing use of the asset and from its disposal at the end of its useful life. Estimates and judgments are applied in determining these future cash flows and the discount rate. The Group estimates the future cash flows based on certain assumptions, such as market competition and development and the expected growth in business.

Income taxes

Significant management judgments on the future tax treatment of certain transactions are required in determining income tax provisions. The Group carefully evaluates tax implications of transactions and tax provisions are made accordingly. The tax treatment of such transactions is reconsidered periodically to take into account all changes in tax legislation.

Estimation of the fair values of financial assets

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. The Group uses its judgment to select a variety of methods and make assumptions that are mainly based on market conditions existing at the end of each reporting period. Changes in these assumptions and estimates could materially affect the respective fair value of these financial assets.

Lease term and discount rate determination

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option, or not exercise a termination option. Extension options (or periods after termination options) are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended (or not terminated). Potential future cash outflows have not been included in the lease liability because it is not reasonably certain that the leases will be extended (or not terminated). The assessment is reviewed if a significant event or a significant change in circumstances occurs which affects this assessment and that is within the control of the lessee.

In determining the discount rate, the Group is required to exercise considerable judgment in relation to determining the discount rate taking into account the nature of the underlying asset and the terms and conditions of the leases, at both the commencement date and the effective date of the modification.

Impairment of investments in associates and joint ventures

The Group assesses whether there are any indicators of impairment for investments in associates and joint ventures at the end of each reporting period. Investments in associates and joint ventures are tested for impairment when there are indicators that the carrying amounts may not be recoverable. An impairment exists when the carrying value of investment in associates or joint ventures exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of its fair value less costs of disposal and its value in use. When value in use calculations are undertaken, the Group must estimate the present values of cash flows expected to arise from continuing to hold the investments and choose a discount rate commensurate with the associated risk in order to calculate the present values of those cash flows.

Estimation of LSP obligations

Management's estimate of the LSP obligations is based on a number of critical underlying assumptions such as the discount rate, the salary growth rate, turnover rate and the expected investment return on offsetable MPF accrued benefits. Variation in these assumptions may significantly impact the LSP obligations amount and the annual defined benefit expenses amount.

Any changes in these assumptions will impact the carrying amount of LSP obligations.

5. Segment information and revenue

The CODM has been identified as the executive directors of the Company. The executive directors review the Group's internal reporting in order to assess performance and allocate resources. Management has determined the operating segments based on these reports and analysed from a business perspective: (i) leasing services, (ii) loan borrowings and (iii) shipbroking services.

Leasing services

The Group provides tailored vessel leasing services to the Group's customers with the options of finance lease and operating lease. Finance lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor purchases an asset according to the lessee's specific requirements and choice of supplier or the lessor purchases an asset from the lessee, and then leases it to the lessee for periodic lease payments. Operating lease refers to a leasing model whereby the lessor grants the right to use an asset to the lessee for a specified period and in return for periodic lease payments.

Loan borrowings

Loan borrowings mainly include pre-delivery loan and secured loan. Pre-delivery loan services are offered as part of leasing services and to customers who require funding to satisfy their pre-delivery payment obligations under their shipbuilding agreements. Secured loan services are offered to customers to satisfy their funding needs and are generally secured by customers' vessels or assets.

Shipbroking Services

Shipbroking services to shipbuilders includes recommending shipbuilders to interested purchasers and advising interested purchasers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities. Shipbroking services to charterers includes advising interested charterers to lease the vessels in form of finance lease and operating lease and advising interested charterers on vessel types, specifications and capabilities.

5. Segment information and revenue (Continued)

The segment information provided to the executive directors for the years ended 31 December 2023 and 2022 are as follows:

Segment assets and liabilities

No assets and liabilities are included in the Group's segment reporting that are submitted to and reviewed by CODM internally. Accordingly, no segment assets and liabilities are presented.

5. Segment information and revenue (Continued)

Geographic information

During the year, the Group provided a majority of leasing services and financing and other services to customers mainly located in the PRC, Asia, United States and Europe.

The Group's assets, consisted of its property, plant and equipment, right-of-use assets, joint ventures, associates, financial instruments, loan and lease receivables, prepayments, deposits and other receivables, time deposits with maturity over three months, pledged time deposits and cash and cash equivalents. The vessels (included in property, plant and equipment) are primarily utilised across geographical markets throughout the world. Accordingly, it is impractical to present the locations of the vessels by geographical areas and thus no analysis by geographical area is presented.

Hedge effectiveness is determined at the inception of the hedge relationship, and through periodic prospective effectiveness assessments to ensure that an economic relationship exists between the hedged item and hedging instrument.

The Group enters into interest rate swaps that have similar critical terms as the hedged item, such as reference rate, reset dates, payment dates, maturities and notional amount. The Group does not hedge 100% of its loans, therefore the hedged item is identified as a proportion of the outstanding loans up to the notional amount of the swaps. As critical terms matched during the year, there is an economic relationship.

Hedge ineffectiveness for interest rate swaps is assessed by using hypothetical derivative which has terms that mirror those of the hedged item. It may occur due to:

- the credit value/debit value adjustment on the interest rate swaps which is not matched by the loan, and
- differences in critical terms between the interest rate swaps and loans.

Fair value measurement

Details of the methods and assumptions used in determining the fair value of derivatives are as set out in note 3.4.

27. Deferred tax (Continued)

At 31 December 2023, the Group did not recognise deferred tax assets in respect of tax losses of approximately HK$32,658,000 (2022: HK$18,435,000) due to the unpredictability of future profit streams. Subject to the agreement by Hong Kong tax authorities, such losses of HK$197,930,000 (2022: HK$111,726,000) do not expire under current tax legislation. The Group had no other significant un-provided deferred taxation as at 31 December 2023. Deferred tax has not been recognised for withholding taxes that would be payable on the unremitted earnings that are subject to withholding taxes of the Group's subsidiaries established in the PRC. In the opinion of the directors, it is not probable that these subsidiaries will distribute such unremitted earnings in the unforeseeable future.

28. Long service payment obligations

Pursuant to the Hong Kong Employment Ordinance, Chapter 57, Hong Kong employees that have been employed continuously for at least five years are entitled to LSP under certain circumstances (e.g. dismissal by employers or upon retirement).

The amount of LSP payable is determined with reference to the employee's last monthly salary (capped at HK$22,500) and the years of service, reduced by the amount of any accrued benefits derived from the Group's contributions to MPF scheme, with an overall cap of HK$390,000 per employee. Currently, the Group does not have any separate funding arrangement in place to meet its LSP obligations.

In June 2022, the Government gazetted the Amendment Ordinance, which abolishes the use of the accrued benefits derived from employers' mandatory MPF contributions to offset the LSP. The Amendment Ordinance will take effect on the Transition Date. Separately, the Government has indicated that it would launch a subsidy scheme to assist employers after the abolition.

Among other things, once the abolition of the offsetting mechanism takes effect, an employer can no longer use any of the accrued benefits derived from its mandatory MPF contributions (irrespective of the contributions made before, on or after the Transition Date) to reduce the LSP in respect of an employee's service from the Transition Date. However, where an employee's employment commenced before the Transition Date, the employer can continue to use the above accrued benefits to reduce the LSP in respect of the employee's service up to that date. In addition, the LSP in respect of the service before the Transition Date will be calculated based on the employee's monthly salary immediately before the Transition Date and the years of service up to that date.

The benefit payment under LSP remains capped at HK$390,000 per employee. If an employee's total benefit payment exceeds HK$390,000, the amount in excess of the cap is deducted from the portion accrued from the Transition Date.

The Group has accounted for the offsetting mechanism and its abolition as disclosed in notes 2.2 and 2.23 to the consolidated financial statements.
