The board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of the Company wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") and potential investors that, based on a preliminary assessment of the latest unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries (the "Group") for the six months ended 30 September 2025 (the "Reporting Period") and the information currently available to the Board, the Group is expected to record a net loss attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company of approximately HK$87.7 million (for the six months ended 30 September 2024: loss of HK$160.7 million).

The net loss attributable to the equity shareholders of the Company for the Reporting Period was primarily attributable to the research and development ("R&D") and administrative expenses of approximately HK$93.5 million incurred in connection with the continued development and expansion of the Group's business in semiconductor and solar industry.

The decrease in loss of approximately HK$73.0 million as compared with the corresponding period in 2024 was mainly due to:

(1) Improved operating and investment results in corresponding period of 2024, including: (i) a decrease in administrative and R&D expenses by approximately HK$37.7 million from approximately HK$131.1 million, which was mainly due to the implementation of cost control measures in response to the downturn in the market environment and the reduction of R&D material costs following the completion of development of the Group's major products; (ii) an increase in investment income from fair value changes of the fund investment by approximately HK$9.6 million from a loss of approximately HK$0.9 million; and (iii) the absence of impairment loss on investment in an associate from approximately HK$40.4 million; and

(2) Partly offset by a decrease in gross profit contribution of approximately HK$20.0 million from both the crude oil and equipment business of the Company, together into account a decline in total revenue during the Reporting Period.

The Company is in the course of preparing its unaudited interim results for the Reporting Period. The information contained in this announcement is only a preliminary assessment by the Board based on the latest unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group and the latest information currently available.
