INSIDE INFORMATION
RECEIPT OF SUMMON FROM THE COURT

This announcement is made by FAR International Holdings Group Company Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") pursuant to Part XIVA of the Securities and Futures Ordinance and Rule 13.09 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange").

On 19 December 2025, the board of directors of the Company (the "Board") became aware that the Group received a summons dated 18 December 2025 from the Intermediate People's Court of Hangzhou, Zhejiang Province, directing Hangzhou FAR International Logistics Shareholding Co. Ltd* (杭州泛遠國際物流股份有限公司) ("Hangzhou FAR"), a subsidiary of the Company, and two of its employees (one of whom has resigned) to appear at the Hangzhou People's Court at 9:30 a.m. on 24 December 2025, to respond to a charge of smuggling ordinary goods (the "Case").

After communication between the Board and the PRC legal advisors of the Company, it is understood that this Case involves the cross-border e-commerce import customs clearance and logistics services engaged in by Hangzhou FAR from July 2017 to June 2018. During such period, a customer of Hangzhou FAR was suspected of underreporting imports, and the then head of the import business department of Hangzhou FAR, along with the subordinate employees, failed to fulfill their review and oversight responsibilities. Relevant authorities believe that this conduct caused a certain loss to national tax revenue, and are pursuing the legal liabilities of the parties involved on this basis.

The Board has sought legal advice from the PRC legal advisors of the Company regarding this Case, and the PRC legal advisors of the Company advised the Board that:

1. the current executive officers and Directors of the Company and/or those of Hangzhou FAR are not involved in the Case; and

2. if the court ultimately rules that Hangzhou FAR shall bear responsibilities, it will only impose a fine on Hangzhou FAR, with the estimated maximum fine being several millions of Renminbi (the exact amount subject to the ruling by the court).

The Company is currently unable to make a definite prediction regarding the outcome of this Case. Based on the opinions of the PRC legal advisors mentioned above, the Company expects that the outcome of this Case will not have any material adverse impact on the financial performance of the Group. The Company will issue further announcement(s) regarding the progress of this Case when and as necessary or appropriate.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in securities of the Company.
