PROFIT WARNING

This announcement is made by EGL Holdings Company Limited (the "Company", and together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") pursuant to Rule 13.09(2) of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Listing Rules") and the Inside Information Provisions (as defined in the Listing Rules) under Part XIVA of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

The board of directors of the Company (the "Board") wishes to inform the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") and potential investors that, based on information currently available to the Board, it is expected that the Group will record a consolidated net profit attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$35 million for the year ended 31 December 2025 (the "FY2025"), representing a decrease of approximately 51% as compared to a consolidated net profit attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$71 million for the year ended 31 December 2024.

The substantial decrease in net profit has been caused by a number of factors. In 2025, the global economic environment faced extensive challenges, stemming primarily from intensified geopolitical tensions, escalating international trade disputes and continuing fluctuations of tariff policies. These elements heightened market uncertainties, causing disrupted global trade and investment flows. Furthermore, a rumour circulated extensively on various social media in the first half of FY2025, claiming that a Japanese manga artist had predicted in the 1990s that a major earthquake in Japan would occur on 5 July 2025. As the Group's travel related products and services mainly focus on Japan, this unsubstantiated speculation had materially dampened the enthusiasm of Japan travel, leading to a significant reduction in outbound travel from Hong Kong to Japan, despite it being an enduring popular travel destination for Hong Kong residents. Eventually, the predicted earthquake did not occur, and the rumour was confirmed to be unfounded. As a result, sentiment towards travel to Japan recovered accordingly, and public confidence gradually restored. Notwithstanding this recovery, the Group's travel related business sustained notable declines in revenue and gross profit for FY2025, principally attributable to the combined impact of the aforementioned global economic conditions and the temporary contraction in Japan-bound travel caused by the baseless rumour. Although the Group's hotel business segment delivered a satisfactory performance with solid growth, the headwinds above collectively resulted in a substantial decrease in the Group's overall profit for FY2025.

The information contained in this announcement is only based on the information available to the Board up to the date of this announcement and the preliminary assessment by the Company's management with reference to the unaudited consolidated management accounts of the Group for FY2025. Such information has not been finalised, audited or reviewed by the Company's independent auditor, and has not been confirmed by the audit committee of the Board, and is thus subject to change. Shareholders and potential investors are advised to refer to the details in the results announcement of the Company for FY2025, which is expected to be published in late March 2026.

Subsequent to FY2025, there has been a recent escalation of conflict in the Middle East. As the Group has no direct operations in the affected regions, the Board does not anticipate a material impact on the Group's financial performance based on current visibility. However, management of the Group remains acutely aware of the potential for broader geopolitical instability to impact consumer sentiment, travel patterns and/or fuel costs. The Board will continue to diligently monitor the situation and provide further updates to shareholders and potential investors as and when appropriate.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares of the Company.
