VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
INSILICO MEDICINE AND TENACIA BIOTECHNOLOGY EXPAND AI-DRIVEN CNS COLLABORATION WITH ADDITIONAL DEAL VALUE UP TO USD94.75 MILLION

This announcement is made by InSilico Medicine Cayman TopCo (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group" or "Insilico Medicine") on a voluntary basis to inform the shareholders and potential investors of the Company about the latest business updates of the Group.

The board of directors of the Company (the "Board") is pleased to announce that, building on the productive collaboration over the past year, Insilico Medicine and Tenacia Biotechnology (Hong kong) Co., Limited ("Tenacia Biotechnology"), a commercial-stage biopharmaceutical company dedicated to developing innovative therapeutics for patients with underserved neurological disorders, have entered into an expanded AI-driven R&D collaboration (the "Collaboration").

Through the Collaboration, the two parties aim to provide a broader and more precise set of therapeutic options for highly challenging nerve system-related conditions, contributing to the mitigation of late-stage development risk and improvement of potential clinical benefit.

Under the terms of the relevant agreement, the parties will leverage generative AI to jointly develop an additional innovative molecule candidate with defined properties for challenging neurological diseases and advance it to the preclinical candidate (PCC) stage to address differentiated clinical needs. The expanded collaboration carries additional potential deal value of up to USD94.75 million, with Insilico Medicine being eligible to receive near-term and milestone payments from Tenacia Biotechnology.
