Company Profile

2. ABOUT US

Approved by Wuhan Branch of the People's Bank of China for the establishment, Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. ("Bank of Jiujiang" or the "Bank") is a regional commercial bank incorporated in November 2000 from eight urban credit cooperatives in Jiujiang City. In October 2008, the Bank officially changed its name to Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. On July 10, 2018, Bank of Jiujiang was listed on the Main Board of the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (stock code: 6190).

Since its establishment, the staff of Bank of Jiujiang, with unwavering faith, persistent pursuit, selfless dedication, and the mindset that success only comes through hard work, have endured great hardships in order to realize the achievements that Bank of Jiujiang has today. Meanwhile, the Bank consistently optimized its shareholder structure and successively introduced strategic investors such as Industrial Bank and Beijing Automotive Group to enhance its brand image. In addition, the Bank has successively received numerous recognitions including "National Advanced Grassroots Party Organization" and "National May Day Labour Award".

As of the end of the reporting period, Bank of Jiujiang (including controlled county banks) has 6,055 employees, with an average age of 31.24. Among them, 5,241 had undergraduate degrees or graduated from junior colleges, accounting for 86.56%, while 805 had master's degrees (and above), accounting for 13.29%. The Bank operates its business through the head office, 13 branches and 272 sub-branches. As a city commercial bank, the Bank was the first to realize the full coverage of cities with districts in Jiangxi Province.

Management Discussion and Analysis

1. PAST ECONOMIC AND POLITICAL SCENARIOS

In 2025, facing increasing external pressures and growing internal difficulties in a complex and severe situation, under the strong leadership of the Party Central Committee with Comrade Xi Jinping at its core, the people of all ethnic groups in China forged ahead and overcame challenges. The national economy maintained overall stability with steady progress, key economic and social development goals for the year were successfully achieved, high-quality development was solidly advanced, new quality productive forces developed steadily, and new strides were made in Chinese modernization. The national GDP reached RMB140.19 trillion for the year, representing a year-on-year increase of 5.0%.

In 2025, Jiangxi Province, guided by Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, thoroughly implemented the spirit of the 20th CPC National Congress, all plenary sessions of the 20th CPC Central Committee, and General Secretary Xi Jinping's important speeches during his inspection of Jiangxi. The province fully implemented the decisions and deployments of the Party Central Committee and the State Council, as well as the work requirements of the Provincial Party Committee. Driven by the in-depth education campaign to thoroughly implement the spirit of the Party's eight-point frugality code, the province faced difficulties head-on, strove arduously, and focused on stabilizing employment, enterprises, markets, and expectations. Key economic and social development goals for the year were successfully met, and solid strides were made in the construction of a modernized Jiangxi.

In 2025, the National Financial Regulatory Administration and its regional offices closely focused on the main task of preventing risks, strengthening regulation, and promoting high-quality development. It firmly held the bottom line of preventing systemic financial risks, and achieved positive progress in various aspects of its work. Firstly, it unswervingly promoted comprehensive strict governance of the Party. Secondly, it took effective and orderly measures to prevent and mitigate key risks, making significant progress in the reform and risk resolution of small and medium-sized financial institutions, expanding the scope and effectiveness of urban real estate financing coordination mechanisms, and actively supporting the rollover, replacement, and restructuring of operating financial debts of financing platforms. Thirdly, an atmosphere of stronger and stricter regulation has gradually taken shape. In collaboration with public security and other departments, it resolutely cracked down on "black and gray" industries in the financial sector. Fourthly, it implemented comprehensive measures to guide industry reform and transformation. Fifthly, it provided precise and effective support for the stable and positive economic development. Policies related to ultra-long-term loans were issued to serve the implementation of "major national strategies and capacity building in key security areas." Support for mechanisms that are intended to coordinate financing for small and micro enterprises was deepened and solidified. The "four pilot programs" for technology finance were advanced steadily. The functions of insurance as an economic shock absorber and stabilizer of social stability were further enhanced.

Management Discussion and Analysis

In 2025, the People's Bank of China resolutely implemented the decisions and deployments of the Party Central Committee and the State Council. Building upon the effective execution of existing monetary policies, the Bank introduced a new set of monetary policy measures, which effectively supported the stable growth of the real economy and the smooth operation of financial markets. The Bank continued to deepen structural reforms on the supply side of finance, prudently managed financial risks in key areas, and actively promoted the reform and improvement of global financial governance. Furthermore, it advanced the comprehensive strict governance of the Party, achieving new progress in various aspects of its work. The Bank accelerated the construction of a macroprudential management system, enhanced governance mechanisms, and strengthened the standardization, institutionalization, and practical capacity of macroprudential monitoring and assessment. Emphasis was placed on key areas such as systemically important financial institutions, financial markets, and cross-border capital flows. Significant strides were made in advancing the "Five Priorities", supporting the expansion of consumption, and resolving the debt risks of local government financing platforms. Positive results were achieved in these efforts. The operational mechanisms for the "Five Priorities" became more efficient, the debt risks of financing platforms were significantly mitigated, and the quality and effectiveness of financial support for the high-quality development of the real economy continued to improve.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2. OPERATION OVERVIEW

In 2025, the Group actively practiced the political and people-oriented nature of financial work, adhered to the general tone of seeking progress while maintaining stability, adhered to its market positioning of “serving the local economy, small and medium-sized enterprises, and urban and rural residents” and deeply embedded the philosophy of “compliance by all, compliance in all matters”, thus taking even more solid strides on the path to high-quality development. 3.2 Interest income

In 2025, the Group continued to carry out and implement the national decisions and arrangements on reducing fees and making interest concessions, actively introduced measures to benefit enterprises and the people, further reduced the operating costs of the real economy and the burden on financial consumers and strived to improve the quality and efficiency of financial services. During the reporting period, the Group achieved interest income of RMB17,140 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB2,072 million or 10.8%. The decrease in interest income was mainly due to the decrease in the average yield of interest-earning assets, partially offset by an increase in the average balances. During the reporting period, the increase in the average balance of interest-earning assets was mainly due to the increase in the loans originated by the Group in line with the business development; the decrease in the average yield was mainly due to the decreased profitability of loans and advances to customers and financial investment business as a result of the advancement of interest rate marketization and the downward trend of the macro market interest rate, and the fact that the Group actively implemented various national policies on reducing fees and making interest concessions.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3.2.1 Interest income from loans and advances to customers

During the reporting period, interest income from the Group's loans and advances to customers was RMB13,057 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB1,272 million or 8.9%.

The following table sets forth the average balance, interest income and average yield of various components of loans and advances to customers of the Group in the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,
	Average balance	2025 Interest income	Average yield (%)	Average balance	2024 Interest income	Average yield (%)
	(All amounts expressed in millions of RMB except percentages, unless otherwise stated)
Corporate loans and advances	206,412.3	9,272.5	4.49	190,842.9	9,559.6	5.01

Total	317,128.4	13,057.0	4.12	305,270.1	14,328.6	4.69

3.2.2 Interest income from financial investments

During the reporting period, the interest income from financial investments of the Group amounted to RMB3,319 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB749 million or 18.4%, mainly due to the decrease in the average yield of financial investment, which was partially offset by the increase in average balance.

3.2.3 Interest income from financial assets held under resale agreements

During the reporting period, interest income from financial assets purchased under agreements to resell of the Group amounted to RMB252 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB129 million or 34.0%, mainly due to a decrease in both the average balance and the average yield of financial assets purchased under agreements to resell.

3.2.4 Interest income from balances with the central bank

During the reporting period, interest income from balances with the central bank of the Group was RMB363 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB27 million or 6.8%, mainly due to the decrease in the average balance of the Group's reserves in the central bank.

3.2.5 Interest income from deposits with banks and other financial institutions

During the reporting period, the interest income from deposits with banks and other financial institutions of the Group was RMB149 million, an increase of RMB104 million compared to the same period last year. This increase was mainly attributable to rises in both the average balance and the average yield of deposits placed with other banks and financial institutions.

3.3 Interest expense

During the reporting period, the interest expense of the Group was RMB8,541 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB1,500 million or 14.9%, mainly due to a decrease in the interest expense on customer deposits as a result of the decreased average interest rate of customer deposits.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3.3.1 Interest expense on customer deposits

During the reporting period, interest expense on customer deposits of the Group amounted to RMB6,796 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB1,007 million or 12.9%, mainly due to the decrease in the average interest rate of customer deposits, partially offset by the increase in the average balance of customer deposits. The decrease in the average interest rate of customer deposits was mainly because the Group reduced the nominal interest rate for deposits and the interest rate for deposit products according to the market conditions of banks; the increase in the average balance of customer deposits was mainly due to the overall growth in the scale of the deposit business as a result of progressive customer expansion by the Group.

The following table sets forth the average balance, interest expense and average interest rate for each component of the Group's customer deposits in the periods indicated.

	For the year ended December 31,

3.3.2 Interest expense on deposits from banks and other financial institutions

During the reporting period, the interest expense on deposits from other banks and financial institutions of the Group was RMB184 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB126 million or 40.5%, mainly due to the combined effect of a reduction in both the average balance and the average interest rate of deposits from other banks and financial institutions.

3.3.3 Interest expense on financial assets sold under repurchase agreements

During the reporting period, the interest expense on financial assets sold under repurchase agreements of the Group was RMB290 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB76 million or 20.9%, mainly due to the combined effect of a decrease in both the average balance and the average interest rate of financial assets sold under repurchase agreements.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3.3.4 Interest expense from debt securities issued

During the reporting period, the interest expense from debt securities issued of the Group was RMB910 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB83 million or 8.4%, mainly due to a decline in the average interest rate of the Group's debt securities issued.

3.3.5 Interest expense on borrowings from the central bank

During the reporting period, the interest expense on borrowings from the central bank of the Group was RMB354 million, representing a year-on-year decrease of RMB206 million or 36.9%, mainly due to the combined effect of a decrease in both the average balance and the average interest rate of borrowings from the central bank of the Group.

3.4 Non-interest income

3.4.1 Net fee and commission income

During the reporting period, the net fee and commission income of the Group amounted to RMB578 million.

Management Discussion and Analysis

4.1.3 Other Components of the Group's Assets

Other components of the Group's assets mainly include: (i) cash and balances with the central bank; (ii) deposits with banks and other financial institutions; (iii) placements with banks and other financial institutions; and (iv) financial assets held under resale agreements.

As of the end of the reporting period, the total amount of cash and balances with the central bank was RMB26,522 million, remaining largely stable compared to the end of last year.

As of the end of the reporting period, the total amount of deposits with banks and other financial institutions was RMB4,675 million, representing an increase of RMB3,483 million as compared to the end of last year. This increase was primarily driven by the Group's strategic adjustments to its asset structure and interbank placements in alignment with its asset-liability allocation strategy.

As of the end of the reporting period, the total amount of placements with banks and other financial institutions was RMB1,060 million, remaining largely stable compared to the end of last year.

As of the end of the reporting period, the total amount of financial assets held under resale agreements of the Group was RMB3,279 million, representing a decrease of RMB6,177 million compared to the end of last year. This reduction was mainly due to the Group's optimization of fund utilization and asset portfolio structure, leading to the decrease in financial assets held under resale agreements.

4.2 Liabilities

As of the end of the reporting period, the total liabilities of the Group amounted to RMB474,812 million, remaining largely stable compared to the end of last year.

The following table sets forth, as at the dates indicated, the amount of each component of total liabilities of the Group and the percentage of total liabilities.

4.2.2 Deposits from banks and other financial institutions

As of the end of the reporting period, the deposits from other banks and financial institutions of the Group amounted to RMB1,985 million, a decrease of RMB6,988 million compared to the end of the previous year. This reduction was primarily due to the Group's strategic adjustment of its interbank liability portfolio, which involved an appropriate reduction in deposits from other banks and financial institutions.

4.2.3 Borrowings from the central bank

As of the end of the reporting period, the borrowings from the central bank of the Group amounted to RMB18,032 million, a decrease of RMB4,412 million compared to the end of the previous year. This reduction was primarily due to the Group's enhanced liability management and optimization of its liability structure, which included an appropriate reduction in borrowings from the central bank.

Management Discussion and Analysis

4.2.4 Placements from banks and other financial institutions

As of the end of the reporting period, the funds borrowed of the Group amounted to RMB2,257 million, remaining largely stable compared to the end of the previous year.

4.2.5 Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements

As of the end of the reporting period, the financial assets sold under repurchase agreements of the Group amounted to RMB939 million, a decrease of RMB795 million compared to the end of the previous year. This reduction was primarily due to the Group's enhanced liability management and optimization of its liability structure, which included adjustments to the sale of bonds and bills under repurchase agreements.

4.2.6 Debt securities issued

As of the end of the reporting period, the issued debt securities of the Group amounted to RMB42,544 million, a decrease of RMB4,792 million compared to the end of the previous year. This reduction was primarily due to the Group's strengthened proactive management of interbank liabilities, which involved scaling down the issuance of interbank certificates of deposit.

4.3 Equity

As of the end of the reporting period, the total equity of the Group amounted to RMB48,623 million, representing an increase of RMB6,090 million, or 14.3%, compared to the end of the previous year. The equity attributable to the Bank's shareholders amounted to RMB47,970 million, an increase of RMB6,223 million, or 14.9%, compared to the end of the previous year. This growth was primarily due to the Group's issuance of perpetual capital bonds at the end of 2025.

The following table sets forth the amounts of the various components of the Group's equity and their percentages of total amounts as of the dates indicated.

	As of December 31, 2025		As of December 31, 2024

6.9 Changes in allowance for impairment losses on loans

The Group has performed impairment accounting and recognised loss allowance based on expected credit losses. If the credit risk of a financial instrument, is low at the end of the reporting period or has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures its loss allowance based on the amount of the next 12-month expected credit losses. For other financial instruments, the Group measures its loss allowance based on amounts of lifetime expected credit losses.

The Group re-measures expected credit losses at the end of each reporting period. In addition, the Group regularly reviews a number of key parameters and assumptions involved in the process of determining impairment allowance based on the expected credit loss model, including division of loss stages, probability of default, loss given default, default risk exposure, discount rate, forward-looking adjustment and other adjustment factors.

Management Discussion and Analysis

9. BUSINESS OPERATIONS

9.1 Corporate financing business

Adhering to the gist of macro policies, the Bank proactively aligned with the “Five Priorities” for sound financial stewardship, held fast to the market positioning of “serving the local economy, small and medium enterprises, and urban and rural residents”, gave full play to the driving role of financial institutions, and increased lending for key areas to serve the high-quality development of the real economy. Following the operation philosophy of “customer first”, the Bank worked diligently to expand its customer base, enhance customer quality, and continuously consolidate the foundation for serving corporate customers.

Strengthening accountability, deepening and refining the “Five Priorities”, and persisting in serving the real economy without slackness. In 2025, the Bank deeply implemented the decisions and arrangements of the CPC Central Committee on financial work, the spirit of General Secretary Xi Jinping's remarks during his inspection of Jiangxi, and the spirit of the Central Financial Work Conference, and continued to excel in the “Five Priorities” for sound financial stewardship. As of the end of the reporting period, the balance of the Bank's technology finance loans was RMB44.568 billion, representing an increase of 11.40% over the previous year; the balance of green finance loans was RMB45.605 billion, representing an increase of 18.49% over the previous year; the balance of inclusive finance loans was RMB65.099 billion, representing an increase of 8.30% over the previous year; the balance of pension finance loans was RMB138 million, representing an increase of 298.61% over the previous year; and the balance of digital finance loans was RMB11.501 billion, representing an increase of 2.03% over the previous year. Meanwhile, the Bank continued to increase credit issuance to small and micro enterprises through strengthening assessment and guidance, implementing preferential policies for internal funds transfer pricing (FTP), and optimizing business processes. As at the end of the reporting period, the Bank's balance of corporate inclusive loans for small and micro enterprises amounted to RMB39.064 billion, representing an increase of RMB4.822 billion or 14.08% from the beginning of the year; the cumulative number of borrowers was 9,227, representing an increase of 941 or 11.36% from the beginning of the year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Cultivating strong customer relationships and continuing to consolidate the foundation of corporate customers. As at the end of the reporting period, the number of corporate customers and corporate credit exposure customers of the Bank were 127,700 and 13,600, respectively, representing increases of 21,700 and 1,832, or 20.46% and 15.56%, respectively, as compared to the end of last year. Firstly, the Bank enhanced its foundational management structure for the corporate business line by establishing four systems, namely customer marketing, customer operations, risk management, and team building. Secondly, the Bank adopted a tiered operating strategy to enhance service performance for strategic customers. To deliver the intended results, the Bank established a leadership group for marketing coordination of major projects and strategic customers, which strengthened resource coordination, deepened customer collaboration, optimized business processes, and dynamically tracked the progress of business implementation. Additionally, the Bank improved its operational capabilities for small and medium-sized corporate customers and developed strategies to list the target customers based on both internal and external data. As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank has supported 1,148 first-time small and micro corporate borrowers with cumulative disbursements of RMB4.874 billion. Thirdly, the Bank innovated its corporate business model and workflow by launching a new workflow for SME working capital loans of up to RMB10 million in October 2024. This workflow leverages external data (such as transaction records, invoices, and electricity bills) to assist in evaluating borrowers' operating conditions, addressing SMEs' absence of audited financials and non-standardized data, and reducing information asymmetry. In 2025, the standardized small and micro business facilities were disbursed to 2,238 SMEs, resulting in cumulative loans of RMB5.725 billion.

Driven by digital intelligence, the Bank advanced the digital transformation of its corporate banking services. Firstly, adhering to a customer experience-centric approach, the Bank comprehensively integrated the customer and account systems of the corporate e-banking and treasury platforms, enabling one-stop online processing for high-frequency transactions. By unifying the login portal and optimizing transaction functions, the Bank has introduced innovative services such as digital electronic invoices, online reconciliation for non-online banking corporate customers, multi-channel third-party payments, and fully automated bill signing. These enhancements have effectively reduced the frequency of in-branch visits, enhanced operational convenience and intelligence levels, and significantly improved the customer experience. Secondly, the Bank digitally upgraded the marketing process, entering a new model of digital operation and management for corporate customers. The customer manager workstation and the customer relationship management system have been seamlessly integrated. And in doing so, the Bank can build multi-dimensional corporate customer labels and customer portraits to deepen customer insights and improve accessibility, as well as offer digital advertising platforms, which enhanced management visualization for both the head office and local branches.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Investment Banking Business

The Bank took capital saving as the transformation strategy and made use of the tool of investment banking to improve quality, reduce cost, and increase efficiency, and laid a solid foundation for the development of asset-light business.

Deepening lead underwriting of bonds to support strong innovation in technology finance.

Against the backdrop of the national policy vigorously advancing technology finance to support the real economy, the Bank took the lead in implementing Jiangxi Province's first interbank market fintech innovation bond and the province's first technology innovation bond issued by a private enterprise. The Bank also innovatively introduced Credit Risk Mitigation Warrants (CRMWs) and, under a "bond issuance + credit protection" model, successfully issued the province's first medium – to long-term technology innovation bond for a private enterprise, setting a new benchmark for serving technology companies and the private economy.

Expanding special bond consultancy services to drive new breakthroughs in regional penetration.

In line with the strategic layout of "focus on key regions + expansion across the province", the Bank, on one hand, continued to consolidate its core service advantages in Jiujiang by establishing special service teams to achieve closed-loop management throughout the lifecycle of special bond projects; on the other hand, the Bank comprehensively strengthened service empowerment for branches within the province to help build differentiated competitiveness. The Bank achieved breakthroughs in obtaining consultancy service bank qualifications in Ganzhou and Pingxiang, driving continuous upgrades in head office-branch collaborative service capabilities.

9.2 Retail banking business

In 2025, the Bank embraced a development concept focused on "putting people at the center" and aligned its strategies with the market positioning of a city commercial bank: "serving the local economy, small and medium enterprises, and urban and rural residents." Focusing on livelihood consumption and optimizing customer experience, the Bank leveraged financial tools to boost consumption in the livelihood sector. It also deepened inclusive finance, adhered to the commitment of "serving small and micro enterprises", flexibly deployed financial resources, and implemented multiple measures to enhance the quality and efficiency of its financial services. First, consolidating the customer base. By deeply exploring the local market, leveraging regional advantages, and enriching customer service channels and scenarios, the Bank achieved steady growth in its total customer base, with deposit scale and strengths in customer-base operations continuing to expand. Second, deepening digital technology. Adhering to a "customer-focused" service philosophy, the Bank continuously enhanced service efficiency and customer satisfaction. To meet evolving customer needs, it deepened its understanding of customers' diversified financial needs and steadily enhanced its capacity for digital-based precision operations. Third, serving people's well-being. The Bank earnestly fulfilled its social responsibilities by adopting a model of "government funding, platform support, and enterprise participation", effectively pooling the collective strengths of various market players to stimulate consumption recovery and unlock potential. Meanwhile, the Bank actively responded to the government's call, fully supported the provincial efforts for social security card issuance and application, launched the "Bank of Jiujiang Happy Time Club", and built a "15-minute elderly-care service circle", making elderly care financial services more quality-oriented and caring.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Consumer Finance Business

In 2025, the Bank's consumer finance business actively responded to the national policy guidance of "expanding domestic demand and promoting consumption". By building a diversified marketing system and deepening regional financial services, the Bank fully supported the upgrading of resident consumption.

Looking ahead to 2026, the Bank will focus on three major directions: optimizing business structure, deepening the scenario ecosystem, and strengthening technological risk control, to further promote the deep integration of consumer finance with people's livelihood needs, and effectively enhance service efficiency and risk control capabilities.

9.3 Financial market business

In 2025, the financial market business followed macro policies, complied with regulatory requirements, and gathered strength to achieve high-quality and stable development.

Accolades multiply, evidencing enhanced institutional credentials. The Bank was approved as a primary participating institution for inter-bank deposits by CFETS. It successively won multiple honors, such as the "Top 100 Proprietary Dealer" by China Central Depository & Clearing Co., Ltd., "Excellent Market Maker" in the underwriting of financial bonds by The Export-Import Bank of China, and "Outstanding Contribution Award for Agricultural Development Cooperation" and "Collaborative Innovation Award" for financial bond underwriting and market-making institutions by the Agricultural Development Bank of China.

9.4 Industrial finance business

The Bank takes empowering the real economy as its core, focuses on industrial integration and in-depth exploration of customer groups, and makes every effort to promote business expansion and mechanism building. The Bank has taken proactive actions in key industrial docking and expanding the customer base, achieving remarkable results. At the same time, the Bank actively embraces the transformation of financial technology, promotes the in-depth integration of digital transformation and industrial finance, and continuously strengthens the foundation for risk control and digitalization. As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank served over 4,200 enterprises in the key industrial chains of Jiangxi Province's "1269" action plan, with credit granted of RMB54.779 billion.

Precise positioning of customer group management. Centered on the core idea of "deepening industry penetration, solidifying customer groups, and strengthening scenarios", the Bank deepened full-process management across "acquiring customers – activating customers – retaining customers", and built a customer group operations system featuring "industry research – scenario development – process management". Overall customer growth remained sound, with significant growth in the high-value customer segment.

Breakthroughs were achieved in county-level pilot programs. The Bank deepened its footprint in county-level areas and anchored its operations in county-level industrial clusters to serve regional economic development. The Bank continued to implement "one county, one policy" and "one industry, one plan", and took the lead in implementing and promoting financial solutions, such as "Mold Industry Loan", "Silicone Industry Loan", "Shipping Industry Loan", and "Textile Industry Loan", so as to support the development of county-level industrial clusters.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Continuous optimization of business processes. In terms of basic systems, combined with the characteristics of the three major business scenarios, the key points of control operations are refined. In terms of system construction, the connection between the integrated industrial financial service platform and the channels of chain leader enterprises has been completed, and a full-process closed-loop system for bank acceptance, bill credit enhancement, and Kuai Huo Discount business has been built. The construction of a supply chain bill platform was completed, and the upgrade of the new international business system was advanced. In terms of process optimization, functions, such as automatic loan disbursement for tax-related scenarios of intelligent logistics loans, one-click automatic ticket issuance, and automatic settlement of bill credit enhancement business upon maturity, have been achieved. In terms of risk prevention and control, the transformation of cooperative warehouses from private ones to state-owned ones or self-operated warehouses of cooperative platforms has been promoted. Risk early-warning push for the third-party channels has been realized. The Bank strengthened the correlation verification between bills and trade contracts and the early warning for invoice red-letter reversals (issuing a red-letter invoice/credit note to reverse and cancel an original invoice), implemented intelligent verification of the source of deposit margins, launched a forfeiting fund-repatriation early-warning model, embedded invoice-control rules into bill operations, and accelerated the restructuring of low-risk bank-acceptance business processes.

Quantum-leap advancements in training empowerment. Focusing on the development of financial talents in the industry and taking “practicality and effectiveness” as the guiding principle, the Bank implemented two sessions of the “Benchmark Leadership Program” to train key personnel; created 11 lightweight micro-courses to accelerate onboarding and role fit for new staff; and launched 22 essential courses covering industry-finance integration, trade finance, and bills, comprehensively incorporating professional key points. Through a closed-loop optimization mechanism, the Bank dynamically aligned training with business needs, strengthened talent development, and provided solid support for the development of the industrial finance business.

Brand image achieved multi-dimensional penetration. Closely aligned with the core theme of “making the new voice of Bank of Jiujiang heard and telling stories of industry-finance integration well”, the Bank carried out systematic publicity under a “one theme per month” approach. Representative cases were included in the Supply Chain Finance Yearbook, and multiple professional articles were published by mainstream media, such as Xinhua Finance and People’s Daily Online, continuously shaping the image of a “specialist bank in industry finance”. At the China International Financial Exhibition, the Bank showcased its industry-finance capabilities and proven results in a 360-degree presentation, continuously burnishing the distinctive brand card of “having a good command of industry and finance”.

9.5 Specialty business

Inclusive Financial Business

The Bank’s inclusive-finance program is anchored in the overarching goals of “maintaining volume, improving quality, stabilizing pricing, and optimizing structure”, while focusing on excelling in the “Five Priorities” for sound financial stewardship. By leveraging our professional strengths and strengthening internal support mechanisms, the Bank is actively involved in every stage of the small and micro-enterprise financing coordination process, ensuring that loans are “delivered directly to the grassroots level, processed quickly and conveniently, and priced appropriately”. As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank had established 830 inclusive financial service stations in township-seat villages. The balance of the Bank’s inclusive loans for small and micro enterprises stood at RMB63.452 billion, serving 57,843 customers at a weighted-average interest rate of 4.13%.

To support rural revitalization, the Bank has continuously refined its inclusive finance credit products, focusing on planters, farmers, township mom-and-pop stores, and agricultural products processing traders. By integrating multi-dimensional data from industrial and commercial records, credit reporting systems, and agricultural insurance, the products provide credit services for the entire agricultural industry chain, steadily improving the quality and efficiency of inclusive finance.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Green Financial Business

Increasing the release of green credit to drive the development of the green economy. Focusing on key green industries and important green projects, thorough research was conducted, and the Bank has introduced the Green Credit Policy of Bank of Jiujiang 2025, which promotes the steady growth of the Bank's green loans. The Bank raised special funds to increase green credit placement and successfully issued the 2025 Green Financial Bond with an issuance scale of RMB4.0 billion to support key areas of green development. As of the end of the reporting period, the balance of green loans of the Bank amounted to RMB45.605 billion, with year-on-year growth of 18.49%. This effectively served the real economy and promoted green transformation.

Aiming towards the carbon peak and carbon neutrality goals and supports the green and low-carbon transformation of entities. The Bank issued the Action Plan of Bank of Jiujiang for Comprehensively Advancing Transformational Finance Business, clarifying key support areas and measures for transformational finance. The Bank launched special financial products for transformation, namely "Carbon-Efficient Loan", "Digital and Carbon Integration" and "Copper Loan", in Jiujiang, Pingxiang and Yingtan, pilot cities of transformation finance in Jiangxi. This innovatively linked loan pricing with the carbon emission performance of enterprises, supporting small and medium-sized industrial enterprises in reducing carbon emissions in their production structures. Aiming at industrial and commercial distributed photovoltaic, the Bank launched a special green financial product "Photovoltaic Loan" to support the construction of distributed photovoltaic power stations and to promote carbon reduction in energy consumption structure. Serving key areas of carbon emission reduction, the Bank has cumulatively disbursed RMB419 million in carbon reduction loans, driving an estimated annual emission reduction of 84,800 tonnes of carbon dioxide equivalent.

Harnessing collective efforts from multiple parties to serve sustainable development. As the only financial institution in the province to support the "Jiangxi Seminar on Advancing Integrated Development of the 'New Energy + Energy Storage' Industry", the Bank has actively deepened industry-finance integration. The Bank participated in a series of industry-finance matchmaking activities, including the promotion of green technologies in the province's new wall materials and brewing industries, thereby establishing a collaborative platform among government, industry and financial institutions. The Bank has also strengthened international cooperation by participating in thematic events such as the 2025 China Sustainable Investment Forum (China SIF) Summer Summit and the International Zero Carbon Cities and Villages and Zero Carbon Buildings Conference, where we shared and exchanged practices in green finance to jointly promote regional green, low-carbon and sustainable development.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Automobile Finance Business

Focusing on high-frequency scenarios to empower real-economy development. Targeting domestic automobile brands and focusing on segmented markets in vehicle circulation, the Bank customized supporting financial services for high-frequency transaction scenarios, such as auto dealership, centralized procurement, and exports. Over the year, the Bank served more than 1,000 automobile industry customers in total, supporting the efficient online processing of vehicle inbound and outbound operations, and effectively helping improve quality and efficiency in the real economy of the automotive industry.

Deepening chain-based services and extending scenario penetration. Collaborating with its branches, the Bank promoted a chain-based marketing model, deeply explored local automobile industry resources, and implemented segmented customer-group management along the automotive industry chain. The Bank provided comprehensive financial services to full-chain customer groups, including suppliers, OEMs, dealers, centralized purchasers, and operators, effectively addressing operational pain points, such as vehicle purchase payment, goods settlement, freight advance funding, and vehicle operations.

Strengthening the risk-control defense line and improving asset quality. The Bank routinely tracked business operation trends and risk early-warning indicators and established an efficient risk early-warning response mechanism to achieve early identification, early assessment, and early disposal of risks. The Bank comprehensively sorted out our business and customer base, completed profiling of five major customer groups, and developed a supporting business-oriented strategy map for customer groups. The Bank clearly defined four major strategies - “proactive marketing”, “retention of existing customers”, “gradual reduction”, and “strict entry restrictions”, which set the direction for compliant and prudent business development, reinforced the risk management firewall, and continuously improved asset quality.

Strengthening technology enablement to enhance service effectiveness. The Bank built an automated loan-disbursement scenario for auto finance and established an intelligent approval system. It formulated differentiated risk-control approval strategies by customer group and enabled system-based automatic approval for customers meeting preset rules, compressing traditional manual approval time from hours to minutes and significantly improving approval efficiency. The Bank continuously optimized system direct-connection functions with OEMs and third-party supervision companies, moving from online information sharing toward deeper simplification of business processes, precisely responding to the needs of all parties, and iteratively optimizing direct-connection services to achieve improvement in both business processing and risk-management effectiveness.

Trading and Financial Business

The Bank’s trading and financial business focused on “three excellence and one enhancement (三優一強化)”: excellent products, excellent services and excellent efficiency, and enhanced policy execution, comprehensively targeting the real economy with sustained growth and resilience.

“Practical” policy execution and key areas focus. In 2025, the cross-border RMB settlement scale of the Bank in Jiangxi Province reached RMB5.171 billion. Current account and direct investment cross-border RMB settlement volume reached RMB5.169 billion, accounting for 68.82% of the total RMB and foreign currency volume. As of the end of the reporting period, the completion rate for first-time customers for exchange rate risk hedging reached 104%.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Bill Business

Innovating and developing supply chain bills to excel in the “Five Priorities” for sound financial stewardship. In 2025, the Bank seized opportunities from Jiangxi Province’s industrial development policies, fully expanded the development space for industrial chain and supply chain business, proactively integrated into the broader local development agenda, and actively explored new models for supply chain bill business. The Bank launched the “Bank of Jiujiang Digital Chain” supply chain platform, became the first incorporated banking institution in Jiangxi Province to connect to the Shanghai Commercial Paper Exchange’s supply chain platform, and successfully implemented the first supply chain bill business transaction by a local incorporated financial institution, unblocking financing channels for small, medium, and micro enterprises along upstream and downstream segments of industrial chains via the supply chain bill platform.

Improving theoretical research on bills and reinforcing our brand image of the bill business. The Bank held the Seminar on the Development of China’s Bill Market During the 15th Five-Year Plan Period, which, at the critical juncture linking the conclusion of the 14th Five-Year Plan and the launch of the 15th Five-Year Plan, systematically summarized the achievements in bill market development, conducted in-depth discussions on the market’s development pathways, focused on stimulating market innovation vitality, and looked toward future development directions, with the aim of enhancing the bill market’s capability to serve the real economy.

Deepening the construction of intelligent risk control and solidify the foundation for compliant operations. The Bank remains committed to building a robust, normalized intelligent risk control framework, approaching risk control with a “constant-vigilant” sense of responsibility and driving the shift from “human defense” to “technology defense” and “intelligent control”. Intelligent risk warnings and dynamic capture capabilities are continuously enhanced.

Management Discussion and Analysis

9.6 Construction of Digital Bank of Jiujiang

During the reporting period, the Bank accelerated the construction of digital Bank of Jiujiang, focusing on “consolidating basic capabilities for digital operations” and “empowering high-quality business development.” The Bank continued to enhance our financial technology capabilities, deepen the integration of technology, data, and business, accelerate the application of new technologies such as AI large models, and further strengthen technological empowerment to improve the quality and efficiency of business development.

Deepening technological empowerment

In terms of deepening the integration of industry and technology, the Bank continued to increase investment in technology resources, comprehensively promote digital transformation, improve the agile organizational system, and foster deep integration between business and technology. In 2025, the Bank continuously empowered our business by focusing on the following three aspects: Firstly, the Bank constantly improved the construction of the three systems for digital marketing, operations, and risk control. The Bank improved the customer marketing system to enhance customer marketing conversion efficiency; optimized the integrated customer operation system to improve the customer reach; established a full-cycle intelligent risk control system covering “pre-loan, during-loan, and post-loan” controls, to comprehensively enhance risk prevention and control capabilities. Secondly, the Bank promoted the bank-wide process management to enhance operational efficiency. The Bank propelled the streamlining and efficiency improvement of the bank-wide management processes and business processes, improved the process management mechanism, strengthened operational efficiency management, and effectively implemented the objective of “three reductions in processes.” Thirdly, the Bank steadily expanded the construction of financial ecosystem scenarios to effectively expand the customer base. Through innovative applications in scenarios such as smart canteens and smart housing and urban-rural development, the Bank broke through traditional boundaries and integrated GBC resources to form a scenario-based financial ecosystem covering high-frequency consumption and people’s livelihood services, effectively expanding the customer base.

In terms of the application of new technologies, the Bank began deploying AI large model ecosystem construction in 2023. Based on domestic open-source large models and combining cutting-edge technology frameworks, the Bank built a full-stack independently innovative technology platform “Bank of Jiujiang Brain.” Based on “Bank of Jiujiang Brain,” the Bank dynamically integrated large models of different types, fields, and vendors. While ensuring controllable risks, the Bank steadily advanced the phased application exploration and scenario development of AI large models. In 2025, the Bank developed multiple application scenarios, including customer marketing strategy recommendation, AI compliance review, auxiliary writing of credit review reports, and AI risk screening, proactively sought innovative breakthroughs, and continuously iterated to enhance the support capabilities of financial technology for business. The platform’s average daily call volume increased by 183% year-on-year. The project won multiple awards, including the 2023 Financial Technology Development Award from the People’s Bank of China, providing new ideas for digital transformation and AI innovative applications for small and medium-sized banks.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Enhancing technological support

In 2025, the Bank continued to improve the active-active transformation of key systems, accelerated the implementation of active-active access for key system applications to production for business service delivery, reduced failover time, and improved emergency response efficiency. The Bank constantly explored technology innovation based on business scenarios, and was granted 18 software copyright registration certificates and 1 invention patent. The Bank continuously enhanced the all-round security defense system and actively participated in various cybersecurity capture-defense competitions. In the Jiangxi Province “Ganyin Cup” Financial Industry Cybersecurity Attack-Defense Competition, the Bank won the second prize individually and the third prize as a team, and was awarded the “Excellent Organization Award.” The Bank further strengthened data security management, built a data security responsibility system, regularly cleaned up sensitive information, standardized email outbound practices, and improved risk monitoring and emergency mechanisms to build a strong security defense line.

9.7 Subsidiary business

In 2025, the Bank completed the absorption and merger by restructuring Nanchang Changdong Jiuyin County Bank, Lushan Jiuyin Yishu County Bank, and Jinggangshan Jiuyin County Bank into its branches. As of the end of 2025, the Bank has established a total of 17 Jiuyin County Banks, of which 15 were merged and controlled. For details about Jiuyin County Banks, see “Information on Directors, Senior Management, Staff, and Institution — 7. BASIC INFORMATION OF INSTITUTIONS UNDER THE BANK” and Note 47 of the financial statements in the annual report. Since 2025, the Jiuyin county bank system has consistently adhered to the operational and management philosophy of “promoting reform, stabilizing development, addressing shortcomings, and controlling risks” and has deeply practiced the market positioning of “supporting small enterprises and agriculture.” By comprehensively implementing the rural revitalization development strategy and actively contributing to “inclusive finance,” it strives to promote the high-quality and sustainable development of county banks.

As at the end of the reporting period, the total assets of county banks controlled by the Bank were RMB14.967 billion, with total loans (including discount) of RMB7.844 billion and the balance of deposits of RMB13.222 billion; the total assets of the county banks in which the Bank has shareholdings were RMB4.988 billion, with total loans (including discount) of RMB3.421 billion and the balance of deposits of RMB4.266 billion.

As the principal initiating bank of Jiuyin County Banks, the Bank will continue to guide each county bank to remain true to its original aspiration and forge ahead with determination. The Bank will actively fulfill its responsibilities as the principal initiating bank, and fully support Jiuyin County Banks in forging a distinctive and differentiated path towards high-quality development.

Management Discussion and Analysis

10. DEVELOPMENT STRATEGY

The year 2026 marks the beginning of the “15th Five-Year Plan” and a critical starting period for a new journey to comprehensively build a modern socialist China. The Bank’s overarching theme for work in 2026 is: Anchoring strategy to strengthen execution, consolidating systems to solidify foundations, and writing a new chapter of high-quality development.

Party building will always guide the development of the Bank. Guided by Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, the Bank will thoroughly implement the spirit of the 20th CPC National Congress, all plenary sessions of the 20th CPC Central Committee, and General Secretary Xi Jinping’s important speeches during his inspection of Jiangxi, and fully implement the spirit of the Central Economic Work Conference and the Central Financial Work Conference. The Bank will earnestly implement the decisions, deployments, and work requirements of the Provincial Party Committee and Municipal Party Committee. The Bank will continue to invest efforts in the “Five Priorities”, provide in-depth services for the construction of a modernized industrial system in Jiangxi and the high-standard and high-quality construction of Jiujiang as an important node city of the Yangtze River Economic Belt.

The Bank, as an urban commercial bank, will always adhere to the market positioning of “three services”. It will further promote the strategy of “optimizing structure, saving capital, promoting compliance, controlling nonperforming loans and stabilizing growth”, adhere to the concept of industrial finance based on economic cycles, and implement the strategy of inclusive finance with downward expansion in lower tier markets and the strategy of industrial finance with differentiated characteristics. The Bank will proactively integrate its business development into regional development and take initiative to support the development of the regional economy, so as to align its development with local development. The Bank will strengthen the construction of the customer marketing system, comprehensive customer operation system, and risk management system, continuously improve operational efficiency, personnel efficiency, and financial efficiency, and strive to develop a mechanism featuring “customers driving frontline staff, frontline staff driving front office, and front office driving middle office and back office”, so as to comprehensively enhance the Bank of Jiujiang’s ability to serve customers.

Management Discussion and Analysis

11. RISK MANAGEMENT

11.1 Risk management structure

The risk management organization structure of the Bank consists of the Board and its sub-committees, senior management and its sub-committees, significant risk sector composed of functional departments, risk directors, and risk managers, establishing a top-to-bottom and bank-wide risk management structure.

The Board is the Bank's highest decision-making body for risk management. It is responsible for establishing and maintaining an effective risk management system and bears the ultimate responsibilities in respect of the Bank's comprehensive risk management. The Risk Management Committee under the Board assists the Board in reviewing and approving the Bank's risk strategy, risk appetite, risk limits, risk management policies, and major risk management regulations and reports. The Audit Committee of the Board bears the supervisory responsibility for the Bank's comprehensive risk management, and is responsible for overseeing and inspecting the performance of the Board and senior management in risk management, and urging corrective actions. Senior management and its sub-committees formulate and implement corresponding risk management strategies in accordance with the risk management objectives of the Board, and provide and secure resources to implement specific risk management work. The Risk Management Department of the Bank is the lead department for the management of credit risk, market risk, and information technology risk. The Planning and Finance Department, Legal and Compliance Department, and General Management Department are the lead departments for management of other risks.

11.2 Credit risk management

Credit risk refers to the risk of losses arising from the default of debtors or counterparties or the reduction in their credit ratings or performance capabilities. The Bank's credit risks mainly arise from loans, investments, guarantees, commitments, and other on – and off-balance sheet credit exposures. The credit risk management organization system of the Bank is composed of the Board, senior management, Risk Management Department, and other credit risk-taking departments, forming a credit risk management structure characterized by centralized and unified management and hierarchical authorization and implementation.

1. Standardizing the credit risk control logic and improving the management mechanism for the full credit process. The Bank prioritized asset quality control, strove to optimize the business structure, strengthened credit allocation to the real economy, and steadily advanced the "Five Priorities". It standardized the credit risk control logic, established a framework covering pre-loan due diligence, loan approval, and post-loan management, created a tiered management mechanism for credit customers, and strengthened capabilities in pre-loan risk identification, loan approval, and post-loan management, to make risk management more forward-looking, effective, and penetrating.
2. Optimizing the institutional system and building a full-process "precision" monitoring system. The Bank enhanced its credit risk monitoring and reporting management system to track and collect significant risk events in a timely manner; implemented the management of the gap between overdue loans and non-performing loans (NPLs), enforced the responsibility of potential risk management, and strengthened the management of overdue risk mitigation; established a closed-loop management mechanism for retail credit risk monitoring to enhance the supervision and management of retail loans that are approaching maturity, and continued to carry out asset quality planning.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3. Deepening digital and intelligent empowerment and bringing system construction to a new level of “intelligence.” The Bank continuously optimized risk management systems, utilized digital risk control tools and methods to enhance credit risk control, and improved the mobile risk information integration broadcasting platform (“Wind Bell”) and the one-stop risk management platform (“Wind Eye”); deepened full-process risk management for collaterals, enhanced the accuracy of credit risk early warnings, and established a comprehensive risk management model featuring precise identification, efficient warning, and timely disposal.

11.3 Market risk management

Market risk refers to the risk of losses to the commercial bank’s on – and off-balance sheet activities arising from adverse movements in market prices (interest rates, exchange rates, stock prices, and commodity prices). Market risk exists in both the trading and non-trading activities of banks. The Bank’s market risks primarily stem from the trading book and banking book. Interest rate risk and exchange rate risk are the major market risks faced by the Bank.

Based on the asset scale, business nature, and business complexity, the Bank has established an appropriate market risk management system and book classification rules, clarified the responsibilities of the Board, senior management, and relevant departments under the market risk governance framework, and effectively monitored and managed market risks by means of core market risk measurement indicators and stress testing.

Trading book risk management. The Bank measured the interest rate risk in the trading book using market risk indicators such as the overall position limits, value at risk (VaR), price value of a basis point (PVBP), interest rate sensitivity, and single-bond stop-loss limits, supplemented by stress testing and other auxiliary methods to monitor and manage the interest rate risk in the trading book. In terms of daily management, the Bank sets market risk limits in accordance with the Bank’s defined risk appetite and business plans. The market risk management department is responsible for daily monitoring and continuous reporting. During the reporting period, the Bank generally adopted a cautious trading strategy and prudent risk control measures, ensuring that all interest rate risk indicators for the trading book remained within the target range.

Banking book foreign exchange risk management. The Bank strictly implemented its foreign exchange risk appetite and exposure limits, conducted regular stress testing, and dynamically monitors changes in risk. During the reporting period, the Bank’s foreign currency business mainly involved the U.S. dollar, euro, Hong Kong dollar and Japanese yen. As the Bank has not yet obtained the qualification to trade foreign exchange derivatives, it primarily hedges exchange rate risks by cooperating with counterparties to conduct forward foreign exchange settlement and sales, and effectively manages its foreign exchange risk exposure by optimizing the currency structure of its assets and liabilities. As of the end of the reporting period, the banking book foreign exchange risk remained under control, and all relevant indicators were in compliance with regulatory requirements.

11.4 Interest rate risk management in the banking book

Interest rate risk in the banking book (IRRB) refers to the risks that changes in interest rate levels, term structures, and other factors lead to losses in the economic value and overall earnings of the banking book. It mainly includes gap risk, basis risk, and option risk.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The Bank has established an IRRBB management system that is commensurate with its risk appetite and business complexity, and is consistent with the Bank's overall development strategy and comprehensive risk management system. The Bank's IRRBB management system primarily includes the following basic elements: a sound risk management policy system; an effective risk governance structure; comprehensive risk management strategies, policies, and processes; comprehensive risk identification, measurement, monitoring, control, and mitigation; a sound internal control and audit mechanism; and sufficient information disclosure and reporting. The Bank strictly adhered to regulatory requirements related to IRRBB management, implemented IRRBB management, and established an IRRBB governance structure featuring well-defined roles and responsibilities, clear hierarchical levels, and a comprehensive framework. The Board bears the ultimate responsibility for IRRBB management; the senior management bears the responsibility for implementing IRRBB management; the Head Office's Planning and Finance Department is responsible for leading the IRRBB management, the Head Office's Risk Management Department is responsible for incorporating the IRRBB management into the Bank's comprehensive risk management system; and other departments and institutions implement the IRRBB management policies and standards according to their allocation of responsibilities; the Audit Department, Legal and Compliance Department, and other departments are responsible for the review and assessment of IRRBB management.

The goals of IRRBB management are to formulate and implement corresponding management policies according to the Bank's overall development strategy, interest rate trend forecasts, and measured changes in overall earnings and economic value, and coordinate the use of interest rate risk management tools for risk mitigation and control, to ensure that the actual interest rate risk level borne by the Bank is consistent with its risk tolerance and appetite. The Bank formulated IRRBB management policies based on management strategies and goals, clarifying management methods and management tools. By formulating or adjusting interest rate risk management methods, the Bank flexibly used asset-liability quantitative and pricing tools for management and control. It also comprehensively employed capital assessment, operational planning, performance appraisal, limit management system, and other methods to assess interest rate risk management, thereby achieving effective control over interest rate risk levels across business lines, branches, and products and portfolios significantly impacted by interest rate risk.

During the reporting period, the Bank adhered to a prudent and sound interest rate risk appetite for the banking book, closely monitored interest rate trends in deposits, loans, and financial market, and maintained a balance between volume and price to keep stable and sustainable asset-liability growth; adopted a balanced and prudent interest rate risk management strategy, proactively and flexibly adjusted pricing strategies through posted interest rate adjustment, customer pricing authorization, funds transfer pricing, and other means; measured and analyzed IRRBB using methods such as repricing gap analysis, net interest income and economic value sensitivity analysis, duration analysis, and stress testing, and regularly monitored compliance with risk limits. During the reporting period, the Bank's overall IRRBB level was controllable.

Management Discussion and Analysis

11.5 Country risk management

Country risk refers to the risks that make debtors of a country or region unable or refuse to pay debts of banking financial institutions, that make the commercial presence of the banking financial institutions in that country or region suffer losses, or that make banking financial institutions suffer other losses due to political, economic and social changes and events in the country or region.

In strict compliance with the regulatory requirements, the Bank has established a country risk management system that is compatible with the strategic goals of the Bank, the scale of exposure and complexity of the country risks, specified the responsibilities of the Board, senior management, and relevant departments, and strictly integrated country risk management into the comprehensive risk management system, so as to regularly monitor the operation of country risk limits as well as business management.

During the reporting period, the Bank strengthened its country risk management mainly through the following measures:

1. Establishing a list of high-risk countries and regions. The Bank standardized business operations involving high-risk countries and regions and prevented money laundering risks associated with cross-border transactions. According to the development of trade finance business, industry research findings, and changes in the international and domestic anti-money laundering trend, the Bank regularly reviewed high-risk country and region classifications, and updated its list of high-risk countries and regions.
2. Strictly granting credits and understanding customers. International and domestic credit activities are governed by the same principles. The Bank strictly adhered to the principle of “know your customer,” and conducted thorough due diligence on customers to ensure that they have sufficient assets or income sources to fulfill their obligations; carefully verified customers’ identities and ultimate ownership to avoid excessive risk concentration; diligently checked the actual purpose of funds to prevent misuse of loans; prudently assessed the legality and enforceability of overseas collateral and established a sound post-loan management system.
3. Conducting due diligence. When conducting due diligence on customers or counterparties, the Bank strictly adhered to anti-money laundering and counter-terrorist financing laws and regulations; maintained a high degree of vigilance regarding business and transactions involving sensitive countries or regions; promptly updated information regarding high-risk and suspicious transaction customers to prevent particular organizations or individuals from using the Bank to engage in activities supporting terrorism, money laundering, or other illegal activities.

As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank’s country risk exposure indicator was 0.15%, which is below the threshold for the country risk exposure indicator.

Management Discussion and Analysis

11.6 Operational risk management

Operational risk refers to the risk of losses caused by problems existing in internal procedures, employees, or information technology systems, or from external incidents.

The Bank has set up a good operational risk governance organizational structure composed of the Board, senior management, and three lines of defense. The Board is our Bank's highest decision-making body regarding operational risk management. The Audit Committee under the Board undertakes the supervisory functions previously performed by the Board of Supervisors, and is responsible for overseeing the performance of duties by the Board and senior management. The senior management is responsible for implementing operational risk management strategies and overall policies and systems approved by the Board, as well as continuously establishing and improving the three lines of defense against operational risk, and improving the operational risk management system that is appropriate for the business scope, risk characteristics, scale of operation, and regulatory requirements.

During the reporting period, the Bank strengthened its operational risk management mainly through the following measures:

1. Improving the operational risk governance and control system. The Bank incorporated operational risk management into the comprehensive risk management system, constantly promoted the building of the operational risk management system, endeavored to improve the operational risk management structure, clearly defined the roles and responsibilities of the Board, senior management, and the three lines of defense, and established a closed-loop governance framework; improved the operational risk identification, assessment, monitoring, and mitigation processes, and issued a series of risk management documents, such as operational risk appetite statements, to improve the risk appetite and its transmission mechanism and control the operational risk within a tolerable range; promoted the cascading and full implementation of risk responsibilities across all levels.
2. Strengthening the application of management tools and methodologies. The Bank optimized the key risk indicator (KRI) system for operational risks and enhanced KRI monitoring. The Bank conducted annual re-inspections and regularly monitored key operational risk indicators, focusing on high-risk areas such as internal fraud, external fraud, system operation, and outsourcing management, accurately identified the changes in operational risks in various areas based on the areas and frequency of indicator abnormality, to achieve timely screening and rapid push of abnormal indicators. The Bank strengthened the identification and management of loss data collection (LDC). The Bank optimized the operational risk loss event management process, improved operational risk loss event collection channels, continuously updated the operational risk loss event database, and carried out identification, collection, confirmation, and dynamic management of operational risk loss data on a regular basis, to achieve early identification, early warning, and early resolution, strictly preventing the spread of risks.

Management Discussion and Analysis

3. Continuously optimizing management processes and mechanism construction. Through the risk-weighted assets (RWA) measurement system, the Bank realized the functions of the operational risk capital measurement system, and optimized the functionality of internal control, compliance and operational risk management system, strengthening system application. The Bank consolidated the key process control, continuously embedded compliance key points into processes, and strengthened the rigid control of risks; reinforced compliance as a top priority and conducted comprehensive risk assessment and management, with a focus on pre-approval compliance review for key credit exposure businesses; carried out remediation in key areas, and strengthened on-site inspection and troubleshooting of operational risks. It improved various management mechanisms, and strengthened oversight, inspection, and rectification efforts to consolidate the defense line against risks. The Bank carried out routine special inspections of operational risks to expand the inspection coverage and depth; established a list-based management and closure mechanism for rectification, with clear responsibilities, measures, and deadlines, reinforced the review of rectification effectiveness, thoroughly investigated the root causes of problems and improved long-term control mechanisms to prevent recurrence of similar problems; established a sound mechanism for information communication, regularly coordinated and shared information on internal control, compliance, law, employee misconduct risk control, outsourcing, auditing, disciplinary inspection, etc., to achieve joint prevention and control.
4. Strengthening risk culture cultivation and assessment mechanisms. The Bank conducted tiered and targeted special training on operational risks and case-based warning education, covering pre-service training for new employees, regular training for on-duty employees, and thematic learning for the management, thereby enhancing risk awareness among all employees. It improved the operational risk appraisal mechanism by integrating both process-oriented and result-oriented operational risk appraisal into the comprehensive risk management appraisal system, thereby consolidating risk control responsibilities and enhancing control improvement.

11.7 Liquidity risk management

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of failure of commercial banks to acquire sufficient funds in a timely manner at a reasonable cost to pay off debts due or meet liquidity demands in line with the expansion of business operations.

Management Discussion and Analysis

The organizational structure for liquidity risk management of the Bank consists of a decision-making system, an executive system, and a supervision system. The decision-making system includes the Board of Directors and the Risk Management Committee under the Board of Directors. The executive system includes the senior management and its Asset and Liability Management Committee, Risk Management Department, Planning and Finance Department, Operation Management Department, and other relevant business management departments. The supervision system includes the Board Audit Committee, Audit Department, and the Legal and Compliance Department. The Board is the Bank's highest decision-making body for liquidity risk management and bears the ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management. The senior management is fully responsible for organizing and implementing the Bank's liquidity risk management. The Board Audit Committee oversees and appraises the performance of the Board and senior management in the execution of their liquidity risk management duties. The Head Office's Risk Management Department, as the comprehensive risk management function department, is responsible for incorporating liquidity risk strategies, policies, and procedures into the Bank's risk strategy implementation key points, integrating liquidity risk appetite and limits into the Bank's risk appetite statement and risk limit management plan, and submitting them to the senior management and Board for review and approval. The Head Office's Planning and Finance Department serves as the centralized management department for liquidity risk, managing liquidity risk through risk appetite, limit management, fund position management, asset-liability structure adjustment, stress testing, and emergency drills. The Capital Operation Center and other departments (lines) in the Head Office are the executive departments for the Bank's liquidity risk management, and are responsible for coordinating the implementation of liquidity risk management. The Audit Department performs independent audits and supervision on the Bank's liquidity risk management activities.

During the reporting period, the Bank managed liquidity risk mainly through the following measures. Firstly, the Bank improved its liquidity risk management system, and adopted a "sound and prudent" liquidity risk management strategy. On the basis of meeting regulatory requirements, the Bank formulated liquidity risk management policies based on the external macro-operating environment and the Bank's business development conditions, so as to retain adequate liquidity, maintain normal operational order and the sustainable development of all business lines, and achieve a balance between liquidity and profitability. Secondly, the Bank strengthened the intraday fund position management, optimized the requirements for intraday fund position control, and improved the experience of customer clearing with liquidity risk control considered so as to enhance the effectiveness of liquidity management. Thirdly, the Bank strengthened liquidity risk monitoring and control, enhanced the monitoring and early warning of abnormal deposit and withdrawal activities and liquidity risk limit indicators, effectively implemented liquidity emergency drills, conducted liquidity stress testing and assessment on a quarterly basis, and strengthened the application of stress test results in the balance sheet plans. Fourthly, the Bank optimized the allocation of assets and liabilities, strengthened the balanced management of the balance sheet plans and liquidity risk, and controlled the overall maturity mismatch level within a reasonable range. Fifthly, the Bank continuously optimized liquidity risk management-related systems and reports to improve the precision of liquidity management. During the reporting period, the Bank maintained stable development in its asset and liability operations, held sufficient high-quality liquid asset reserves, and had adequate funding sources to meet the needs of sustainable and sound business development. All liquidity risk indicators remained sound.

Management Discussion and Analysis

As of the end of the reporting period, the Group's liquidity ratio was 86.38%, the net stable funding ratio was 141.07%, and the liquidity coverage ratio was 388.10%. Among them, the balance of high-quality liquid assets was RMB76.189 billion, and the net cash outflow in the next 30 days was RMB19.631 billion.

Item	As of	As of	As of
	December 31, 2025	September 30, 2025	June 30, 2025
	(Unless otherwise stated, all amounts expressed in millions of RMB except percentages)
Net stable funding ratio	141.07%	133.42%	129.36%

Required stable funding	286,756.43	293,974.94	293,634.61

11.8 Compliance risk management

Compliance risk refers to the potential that a financial institution or its employees could bear criminal, administrative, or civil liability, as well as property damage, reputational harm, and other negative consequences due to violations of compliance regulations in the financial institution's business operational and management practices or the employees' performance of duties.

The Bank has established a compliance management organizational structure consisting of the Board, senior management, Legal and Compliance Department, Audit Department, business line departments and branches. The Board bears the ultimate responsibility for the effectiveness of compliance management. The Compliance Management Committee under the Board performs compliance management duties as authorized by the Board. The senior management is responsible for implementing compliance management objectives and assumes leadership responsibility for the compliance of their respective areas of business, and continuously establishing and improving a compliance risk management system suitable for the operational scope, organizational structure, and business scale.

During the reporting period, the Bank managed compliance risk through the following measures:

1. Implementing regulatory opinions. Adhering to the business policy of "promoting compliance," the Bank continuously improved the long-term mechanism for implementing regulatory opinions, and effectively implemented the four-process management workflow, namely, decomposition and transmission, process supervision, result verification, and evaluation and handling. The Bank consolidated management responsibilities through continuous follow-up, rolling issue closure, appraisal and supervision, and effectively improved the Bank's internal control and compliance as well as the operation management capability and level.

Management Discussion and Analysis

2. Enhancing the quality and effectiveness of compliance management. The Bank formulated plans and defined implementation strategies to systematically implement the “Measures for the Compliance Management of Financial Institutions” 《金融機構合規管理辦法》 across its organizational structure, management systems, and institutional mechanisms. Adopting a risk-based policy, the Bank developed annual bank-wide compliance management plans, specifying the objectives for compliance inspections, compliance training, and key compliance tasks at all organizational levels. The Bank organized comprehensive compliance self-inspections to thoroughly review the compliance of the Bank’s operations and management as well as the effectiveness of internal controls in recent years. Focusing on key areas and core businesses, the Bank proactively managed compliance risks by fully utilizing off-site monitoring and compliance alert mechanisms, and promoted the timely and effective remediation of compliance vulnerabilities and internal control weaknesses. It optimized the compliance risk monitoring indicator system, assessed the probability and impact of compliance risk occurrence using a risk matrix methodology, and regularly conducted compliance risk assessments to strengthen the Bank’s capabilities of identifying, monitoring, and addressing compliance risks.
3. Improving the institutional management mechanism. The Bank revised the “Bank of Jiujiang Policy Management Measures” 《九江銀行制度管理辦法》, improved the policy management mechanism, standardized the policy management process, enhanced the policy management effectiveness, and optimized relevant provisions of the institutional framework. The Bank formulated the “Guidelines for the Internalization of External Regulations of Bank of Jiujiang (Trial)” 《九江銀行外規內化工作指引(試行)》, established and promoted the implementation of an internalization mechanism for external regulations, ensuring that external regulatory requirements were promptly translated into internal management policies, thereby achieving the organic integration of internal management regulations with national laws and regulations, industry regulatory standards, and the Bank’s actual management situation. The Bank conducted a comprehensive assessment and review of internalization regulations, thoroughly examined the mapping relationship between regulatory provisions and internal bank policies, systematically sorted out compliance requirements, and enhanced the effectiveness and operability of policies.
4. Enhancing the whole-process compliance management level. In pre-event controls, the Bank established a legal and compliance review mechanism for pre-approval review of the seal use, external information release, non-standard form contracts, large-value investment business, related party transactions, and new products. In terms of ongoing controls, the Bank improved the internal control compliance and operational risk management system, optimized the employee behavior monitoring model, and implemented ongoing monitoring and early warning. In terms of post-event controls, with the aim of root cause management and systematic hard control, the Bank conducted traceability analysis of major risk events such as identified cases, administrative penalty matters, and consumer protection complaints from the whole chain, whole process, and all aspects including policies, systems, processes, and operations, and product evaluation, and put forward improvement suggestions and promoted rectification, thereby strengthening the whole-process compliance management.

Management Discussion and Analysis

11.9 Money laundering risk management

Money laundering risk refers to the likelihood or probability of an act or process where the criminals or lawbreakers use various means to cover up or conceal the source and nature of illegal funds and turn them into legitimate funds in the process of establishing business relationships with customers, selling financial products and providing financial services by commercial banks.

The Bank has established and improved the anti-money laundering organizational structure in which the Board, senior management, business departments, functional departments, and branches assume their own responsibilities and conduct management at different levels. The Head Office's Special Committee of Anti-Money Laundering is the leading and decision-making body of the Bank's anti-money laundering work. The President serves as the chairperson of the committee, the bank leaders in charge of anti-money laundering and major business lines serve as the vice chairpersons, and the heads of the Head Office's relevant departments (offices) are members of the Special Committee. The Special Committee of Anti-Money Laundering has an Anti-Money Laundering Work Office, and the Head Office's Legal and Compliance Department (Anti-Money Laundering Center) under the Anti-Money Laundering Work Office takes the lead in handling specific affairs.

During the reporting period, the Bank reinforced its capability to manage money laundering risk mainly through the following measures:

1. Strengthening risk early warning and actively fulfilling anti-money laundering reporting obligations. In 2025, the Bank continuously submitted 1,050,848 large-value transaction reports and 638 suspicious transaction reports in total through the "Data Receiving Platform for High-Value Transaction and Suspicious Transaction Reports from Banking Industry (銀行業大額交易和可疑交易報告數據接收平台)" of China Anti-money Laundering Monitoring and Analyzing Center. In April 2025, the Bank was awarded the Second Prize (Group) in Jiangxi Province's 2024 Financial Intelligence Analysis Competition ("Safeguarding Jiangxi"), organized by Jiangxi Branch of the People's Bank of China and co-organized by Jiangxi Provincial Public Security Department, Jiangxi Provincial High People's Court, Jiangxi Provincial People's Procuratorate, and other institutions.
2. Promoting the comprehensive filing of beneficial owner information for existing market entities. To effectively enhance market transparency, maintain the market and financial order, and prevent and curb money laundering and terrorist financing activities, the Bank, under the coordinated guidance of the local People's Bank of China, has continuously communicated the new requirements of the Administrative Measures for Beneficial Owner Information (《受益所有人信息管理辦法》) to primary account customers and actively carried out the filing of beneficial owner information.
3. Upgrading system functions and strengthening the system support capabilities for anti-money laundering and anti-fraud operations. In 2025, the Bank continuously optimized the suspicious transaction monitoring model of the anti-money laundering system, improved the early warning accuracy of the monitoring model, and improved the anti-fraud protective blocking rules, achieving technical defense capability improvement and further reducing the risk of money laundering and fraud.

Management Discussion and Analysis

4. Safeguarding the interests of the public, and firmly improving the quality and effectiveness of anti-telecommunications network fraud efforts. Firmly focusing on the fundamental interests of the people, the Bank steadily conducted and promoted the governance of the “funding chain” for telecommunications network fraud and cross-border gambling to cut off the transfer chain of criminals’ fraudulent funds, and carried out police-bank cooperation to intercept fraudulent funds by blocking abnormal account openings, comprehensively improving the effectiveness of anti-crime and administration efforts. In 2025, the Bank intercepted 209 cases of abnormal account openings through counter persuasion, blocked 184 cases of telecommunications network fraud, and handled 303 cases through police-bank collaboration, directly averting losses of fraudulent funds totaling RMB15.4277 million. In addition, the Bank intercepted 1,535 abnormal accounts, blocking RMB68.1300 million.
5. Focusing on enhancing public financial security awareness and promoting the construction of the “Dual-Network Integration” Jiangxi Illegal Financial Activity Prevention Service Stations. In line with the spirit of the Central Financial Work Conference, the Bank issued the Bank of Jiujiang Measures for the Construction and Management of “Dual-Network Integration” Illegal Financial Activity Prevention Service Stations (Trial) 《九江銀行“雙網融合”防非服務站建設管理辦法(試行)》 and established a publicity framework encompassing “branch-based promotion + community outreach + targeted customer segments.” A total of 67 illegal financial activity prevention service stations were built throughout the year, achieving full coverage in provincial branches and county-level sub-branches in Jiujiang. Three were built in the urban area of Jiujiang, among which the service stations at the Development Zone Sub-branch and Lianxi Sub-branch are the first illegal financial activity prevention service stations in the urban area of Jiujiang.
6. Strengthening publicity and training, enhancing employees’ job performance capabilities, and strengthening the public’s awareness of anti-money laundering. Focusing on the key points of the anti-money laundering, the Bank has developed a detailed and accurate anti-money laundering training program, continuously optimized and enriched teaching courseware, expanded the lecturer team, and made anti-money laundering courses mandatory for various positions such as senior management, new employees, tellers, and account managers, to ensure full coverage of anti-money laundering requirements across all business operations and all employees, thereby ensure the steady improvement in the Bank’s anti-money laundering awareness. The Bank mobilized the outlets of the Bank to continuously innovate publicity forms through a combination of regular publicity and special centralized publicity. The promotional short video “Regret for Illegal Fundraising” 《追悔莫“集”》 produced by the Bank was selected as an “Outstanding Works” in the 5th Short Video Competition on Preventing Illegal Financial Activities, themed “Guard Your Money, Protect Your Happiness”, guided by the Office of the Inter-Ministerial Joint Conference on Preventing and Combating Illegal Financial Activities and hosted by China Financial Media, and won the second prize (social group category) in the 2025 Short Video Competition on Preventing Illegal Financial Activities in Jiangxi Province.

Management Discussion and Analysis

11.10 Information technology risk management

Information technology risk refers to any operational, legal, and reputational risk arising from natural factors, human factors, technical vulnerabilities, and management deficiencies in connection with the application of information technologies by the banks.

The Bank has set up an information technology risk management organizational structure composed of the Board, senior management and the Information Technology Management Committee under it, and the implementation level. The Bank's information technology risk management framework, under the leadership of the Board and senior management, is built upon the three lines of defense, jointly establishing an effective risk prevention system covering pre-event, ongoing, and post-event controls.

1. Optimizing the policy framework and standardizing the information technology risk management across the Bank. The Bank improved policies related to information technology risk management and business continuity, defined bank-wide requirements for information technology data reporting, disaster recovery resource planning, and drill evaluation, and reinforced accountability across all departments to improve the Bank's overall information technology risk management capabilities.
2. Strengthening the closed-loop mechanism for information technology risk monitoring and disposal. In accordance with regulatory requirements, the Bank dynamically updated the information technology risk monitoring indicator library, developed clear operational procedures for graded early warning of routine monitoring signals and closed-loop disposal, strengthened the linkage mechanism between the first and second lines of defense departments to achieve "early identification, early warning, and early disposal" of risks.
3. Continuously improving the business continuity management framework. The Bank optimized the development of the dedicated contingency plan framework for business and information technology systems, enhanced the effectiveness of coordination among contingency plans, clarified the decision-making processes for the activation of emergency response and disaster recovery switchover, and institutionalized the emergency response mechanism. The Bank fully leveraged the results of business impact analysis, and based on various business impact analysis results, took the lead in coordinating with the Information Technology Department, business departments, and support departments to implement updates in areas such as business assurance and resource allocation, thereby progressively achieving business recovery objectives.

11.11 Reputational risk management

Reputational risk refers to the risk that stakeholders, the public, or the media have a negative evaluation of the Bank due to the Bank's institutional behaviors, employee behaviors or external events, which damages the Bank's brand value, is harmful to the Bank's normal operation and even affects market and social stability.

The Bank attaches great importance to reputational risk management. We continuously improve our political stance, enhance risk awareness, and incorporate reputational risk management into our comprehensive risk management system. The Bank conducts 365 days x 24 hours continuous reputational risk monitoring and regularly carries out reputational risk hazard inspections, while formulating emergency plans for reputational risk events based on identified risks and hazards, pushing the reputational risk management defense line forward, with the aim to prevent public opinion incidents from the source, continuously reduce potential reputational risks, and promote the Bank's sustained and steady operation.

Management Discussion and Analysis

In the next stage of reputational risk management, the Bank will continue to improve various reputational risk management policies and processes, implement 24/7 dynamic monitoring for public opinions, intensify reputation risk screening, strengthen reputational risk training, and improve the “all-staff, full-process, grid-based” management system to continuously enhance the Bank’s reputational risk management capabilities. In addition, the Bank will strengthen positive publicity and guidance, build a more harmonious and stable external public opinion environment, and consolidate, maintain and enhance the Bank’s good brand image.

11.12 Strategic risk management

Strategic risk refers to the risk caused by improper operation policies of a commercial bank or changes in the external operating environment.

The Bank’s strategic risk management goals are to set up and improve the strategic risk management system to systematically identify and evaluate potential risks in the Bank’s existing strategic plans, and adopt scientific decision-making approaches and risk management measures to minimize or avoid substantial losses.

The Bank has established a well-rounded strategic risk management organizational structure composed of the Board and its Strategy Committee, senior management, the Head Office’s strategy management functional department and other related functional departments. During the reporting period, the Bank proactively strengthened strategic risk management: Firstly, the Bank established and improved regulations and implemented strategic risk policies. It strictly executed the Management Measures for Strategy and Operation Planning of Bank of Jiujiang 《九江銀行戰略與經營規劃管理辦法》, and proactively launched strategic risk management to identify strategic management risks. Secondly, the Bank improved systems and carried out strategic closed-loop management. It balanced short-term financial goals and long-term sustainable development goals, strengthened the integration of strategy with daily operation and management, built a strategic management system that includes goal setting – measure implementation – implementation evaluation – feedback and improvement, and played a role in the strategic adjustment. In addition, the Bank conducted strategic research, promoted strategy implementation, and improved the strategic leadership. Thirdly, the Bank strengthened performance of duties and the strategic risk management. The Bank designated full-time strategic management personnel, continuously strengthened the performance of functions such as strategic planning, strategic monitoring, and strategic execution, further improved the design of strategic policies and processes, and improved the strategy implementation efficiency. Fourthly, the Bank broke down tasks and promoted strategy implementation. It formulated and decomposed its strategic goals in the form of three-year medium-term and long-term plans and annual business plans. The Bank strengthened the overall strategic deployment, formulated practical step-by-step implementation plans, and accelerated the establishment and improvement of effective strategy implementation management mechanisms to effectively guarantee the smooth achievement of development strategy goals.

Management Discussion and Analysis

As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank's strategic risk level remained generally stable and controllable, and strategic risks were effectively managed.

Next, in terms of strategy formulation, the Bank plans to further strengthen the retrospective analysis to accurately estimate its own competitiveness, the strength of its competitors, and various opportunities and threats presented in the external environment. The Bank will emphasize differentiation and the development of distinctive features to enhance its core competitiveness. In terms of strategy implementation, the Bank will refine the breakdown of strategic goals, transforming the strategy into controllable objectives, measurable indicators, and implementable plans. This will be achieved through measures such as task decomposition, timeline phasing, and allocation by department or position to ensure that the plans are implemented on time and with the required quality. In terms of strategy supervision, the Bank will strengthen the monitoring of the implementation process, closely track and oversee the progress of strategy implementation, and continuously improve the incentive mechanism closely linked to the achievement of strategic goals to encourage high performers and motivate those who lag behind. In terms of guarantee mechanisms, the Bank will enhance strategy publicity, strengthen resource support, and further elevate the professional capabilities of personnel in strategic planning positions, uniting efforts to advance the orderly progression of all strategy management tasks.

For details, please refer to the section 2.3 “Interests and short positions of substantial shareholders in shares and underlying shares under Hong Kong laws and regulations” in this chapter.

Changes in Share Capital and Information on Shareholders

2.6 Other substantial domestic shareholders

According to the Interim Measures for the Equity Management of Commercial Banks, substantial shareholders of a commercial bank mean shareholders who hold or control 5% or more shares or voting rights of the commercial bank, or who hold less than 5% of total capital or total shares of the commercial bank but have significant influence on the business management of the commercial bank. The significant influence mentioned above includes but not limited to dispatching directors, supervisors or senior management of a commercial bank.

As of the end of the reporting period, other than Jiujiang Finance Bureau, Beijing Automotive Group Co., Ltd. and Industrial Bank Co., Ltd., Fangda Carbon New Material Co., Ltd. (“Fangda Carbon”) together with its related company, Jiangxi PXSteel Industrial Co. Ltd. hold more than 5% of total shares of the Bank and Fangda Carbon has dispatched director to the Bank, and is therefore a substantial domestic shareholder of the Bank.

In addition, Foshan Gaoming Jindun Hengye Computer Special Printing Co.,Ltd. (“Foshan Gaoming Jindun”) holds less than 5% of total shares of the Bank but appointed supervisors to the Bank during the reporting period. In accordance with the Interim Measures for the Equity Management of Commercial Banks, it was a substantial domestic shareholder of the Bank during the reporting period. Given that the Bank has ceased to establish its Board of Supervisors and Supervisors with effect from December 31, 2025, Foshan Gaoming Jindun is no longer a substantial domestic shareholder of the Bank as of the end of the reporting period.

Fangda Carbon New Material Co., Ltd.

Fangda Carbon holds approximately 136.07 million Domestic Shares of the Bank, which are social legal person shares, accounting for 4.78% of the Bank’s total issued share capital as of the end of the reporting period. In addition, Jiangxi PXSteel Industrial Co. Ltd., a related company of Fangda Carbon holds 35.00 million Domestic Shares of the Bank. Therefore, Fangda Carbon controls an aggregate of 6.01% of the ordinary shares of the total issued share capital of the Bank. As of the end of the reporting period, Fangda Carbon and its related party did not pledge the equity of the Bank.

Founded in January 1999, Fangda Carbon, with a registration place in Lanzhou City, Gansu Province and a total of RMB4,026 million registered capital, is mainly engaged in research and development and sale of carbon products and is a leading enterprise of the National Science and Technology Development and Innovation Base. 6.2 Staff training plan

Upholding the good vision of “building a brand bank and establishing a century-aged shop” and adhering to the training concept of “serving strategy, empowering frontlines and driving innovation”, the Bank closely aligns with the overall strategic layout and talent development needs. With five key innovation initiatives as key drivers, the Bank has systematically established a comprehensive, multi-level and practical-oriented education and training system, thereby laying a solid talent foundation for its high-quality development.

In advancing the development of its training system, the Bank has pursued focused innovation and breakthroughs across five key dimensions. First, the Bank innovated institutional mechanisms and strengthened the leadership of Party building. Guided by Xi Jinping Thought on Socialism with Chinese Characteristics for a New Era, the Bank formally established the Jiujiang Bank Party School, integrating the guiding principles of the Fourth Plenary Session of the 20th Central Committee of the Communist Party of China into mandatory executive education programs, with systematic efforts carried out in theoretical education, ideal and belief reinforcement, and Party discipline and regulation training. Second, the Bank innovated training planning and improved system design. The Bank issued its inaugural “2025 Bank-wide Education and Training Work Plan”, introducing customised training schemes under the “one program, one design” model, along with “menu-based” empowerment mechanism. Third, the Bank innovated the construction of trainers and activated internal training capabilities. The Bank led pilot initiatives across three core business lines, certifying 240 internal trainers at the head office level, establishing a standardised course system, and recognising outstanding internal trainers. Fourth, the Bank innovated competition forms to enhance business capabilities. The Bank hosted the 23rd Business Skills Competition, which for the first time included a live Q&A session to highlight practical capability assessment, fostering a competitive atmosphere through “offline viewing + online live streaming”. Fifth, the Bank innovated brand building and expanded its influence in the industry. Leveraging its comprehensive training system, targeted empowerment services and notable outcome transformation, the Bank successively received multiple industry awards, including the “2025 China Top 100 Corporate Education Advanced Units” and the “Enterprise Benchmark Learning Platform”.

During the reporting period, efforts were made to coordinate both online and offline education and training. A total of 53 internal full-time training sessions were conducted, covering 3,019 attendees, with a cumulative training duration of 334 days. The overall post-training evaluation satisfaction rate reached 96.2%. Online learning covered 5,942 attendees, with total learning hours amounting to 433,599 hours and an average of 73 hours per person.

Information on Directors, Senior Management, Staff and Institution

6.3 Employee gender

As of the end of the reporting period, the percentage of male and female employees (including senior management) is 46.57% and 53.43%, respectively. The Bank fully respects the individual differences of talents, created a professional, inclusive and diverse working atmosphere in working space, and is committed to providing equal opportunities for all employees. The Bank considered it kept a balance of the gender ratio of existing employees (including senior management). Therefore, no quantifiable targets have been set to achieve gender diversity among employees. The Bank is expected to continue to maintain the gender diversity at the employee (including senior management) level in a reasonable manner. During the reporting period, the Board was not aware of any factors or circumstances that would make achieving gender diversity among all employees (including senior management) more challenging or less relevant.

6.4 Remuneration policies

(I) Remuneration management structure and decision-making procedures

In order to standardize the remuneration management of the Bank, improve the remuneration management mechanism of the Bank, and establish a scientific remuneration management structure and decision-making procedures, the Bank has established a remuneration management structure formed by the Board of Directors, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee under the Board, and Performance Appraisal Committee.

There is a Nomination and Remuneration Committee under the Board of Directors of the Bank, which is mainly responsible for reviewing the remuneration management system and policies of the Bank; formulating remuneration plans for Directors and the senior management, and provides suggestions to the Board on remuneration plans and supervising the implementation of remuneration plans. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee under the Board of the Bank was composed of a chairman and two members.

There is a Performance Appraisal Committee thereunder internally in the Bank, which is mainly responsible for organizing, promoting and coordinating the performance appraisal work of the Bank. The Performance Appraisal Committee is composed of the chairman, the vice-chairman and the members.

(II) Balance of remuneration and performance, standard of risk adjustment

The Bank followed the guiding ideology of “Performance-driven” to implement a remuneration mechanism as both an incentive and constraint to employees. The remuneration is directly linked to performances and contributions to the Bank and is evaluated by EVA of each branch and net operating income. The remuneration adjustments of the Bank are based on operational performance and other factors, including the completion of risk cost control indicators, including at least capital adequacy ratio, non-performing loan ratio, general allowance ratio, case risk ratio, leverage ratio, etc.

Information on Directors, Senior Management, Staff and Institution

(III) Deferred payment remuneration, non-cash remuneration and deduction system

In order to ensure full effectiveness of remuneration in the banks' risk management and control and to establish a scientific and reasonable incentive and restraint mechanism, in accordance with relevant laws and regulations such as the Supervisory Guidelines on Sound Compensation in Commercial Banks, the Bank established a deferred payment management system of the remuneration for employees, and strictly implemented the remuneration deferred payment system that associated performance remuneration of key employees to business risk exposure. Exposure shall be subject to corresponding recourse and clawback system. During deferred payment period, in case of significant risk losses exposure in respect of the responsibilities, the Bank will cease the deferred payment of the responsible personnel and could recover the performance salary already paid. For any exposed extraordinary risk losses in respect of the responsibilities, the Bank has implemented the recourse and clawback work according to the relevant performance-based remuneration recourse and clawback system.

(IV) Contributions to the defined contribution schemes

The contributions that the Bank contributes to the defined contribution schemes are recognized as expenses when incurred. No forfeited contributions (i.e. contributions processed by the Bank on behalf of employees who withdraw from the scheme before the relevant contributions are vested in them) will be used to reduce the existing level of contributions (as described in paragraph 26(2) of Appendix D2 to the Listing Rules). Therefore, there is no such an issue that forfeited contributions may be used by the Group to reduce the existing level of contributions.

(V) Remuneration policies, formulation and filing of annual remuneration plans and assessment of the completion of economic, risk and social responsibility indicators

In order to enhance our competitive advantages and stimulate the enthusiasm of employees, the remuneration management of the Bank adheres to the principle of efficiency, fairness, performance and business orientation. The remuneration system of the personnel consists of basic salary, post salary, performance salary and allowances and benefits. The basic salary is the Bank's guaranteed compensation to ensure the daily life of the personnel; the post salary is the incentive compensation approved by the Bank based on the performance of the personnel on the post; the performance salary is a reward compensation determined by the Bank based on the performance of personnel; the allowances are the compensatory compensation determined for the personnel's special effort and labor consumption; and the benefits reflect the indirect compensation of the Bank's care for the personnel. The diversified and sound remuneration system effectively meets the needs of personnel's life and career development, enhances staff cohesion and centripetal force, and promotes the Bank's high-quality and sustainable development. The performance appraisal policy of the Bank is aligned with its overall development strategy, and strictly implements national development goals, requirements for serving the real economy and regulatory requirements. The performance appraisal indicators include those for compliant operation, risk management, business performance, development and transformation, and social responsibility, while also giving due consideration to high-quality process management, to comprehensively reflect the current risk status and operating results. The appraisal results are linked to the performance of both the institutions and individuals, motivating the entire Bank to continuously improve its performance level and value creation.

Corporate Governance Report

2. OVERVIEW OF CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Bank is committed to improving corporate governance in accordance with domestic and overseas laws and regulations and setting up a corporate governance framework with coordination, continuously improving the corporate governance mechanism, and consistently enhancing the effectiveness of corporate governance so as to promote the steady development of the Bank's business with high-quality corporate governance.

During the reporting period, the Bank convened Shareholders' General Meetings, Board of Directors meetings, and meetings of former Board of Supervisors meetings in accordance with the laws, and all corporate governance bodies performed their duties in an earnest manner, effectively safeguarding the interests of all shareholders and stakeholders, and steadily enhancing the level of corporate governance. Firstly, the Bank continuously strengthened the integration of the Party's leadership with corporate governance, always seriously complied with the requirements of the two "Consistencies", integrated the strengthening of the Party's leadership throughout the entire process of reform, development, and management of businesses of the Bank, and incorporated the Party building into all aspects of corporate governance. Secondly, the Bank advanced reforms in the corporate governance structure, completed the dissolution of the Board of Supervisors, amended corporate governance systems, i.e. the Articles of Association, rules of procedure for shareholders' general Meeting and rules of procedure for Board meetings this year. Thirdly, the Bank enhanced the execution of Board resolutions, continued to refine the "deliberation-tracking-reporting" system for meetings based on existing mechanisms such as the follow-up on Directors' opinions and the evaluation of resolution execution. Fourthly, the Bank stimulated directors' motivation to fulfill their duties, established a director performance mechanism encompassing "intention consultation – performance activities – problem identification – reporting and discussion", organized activities that leverage on their own professional expertise and align with the Bank's key priorities by consulting Directors' intentions regarding their duties and the performing Directors reporting on the problems discovered and suggestions for optimization and improvement at the board meeting.

The Bank adopts the principles and code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code as our corporate governance code and the benchmark for corporate governance. The Bank has fulfilled the requirements of the Regulations Governing Commercial Banks and Corporate Governance in the PRC and has established a good corporate governance system.

During the reporting period, the Bank strictly complied with the provisions in Part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code in Appendix C1 to the Listing Rules and, where appropriate, adopted the proposed best practices. To the knowledge of Directors, there is no information showing that the Bank failed to comply with the provisions contained in Part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code during the reporting period.

4. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

4.1 Operation of Board of Directors

The Board meetings of the Bank can be divided into regular meetings and interim meetings and take the forms of on-site meetings and written signature. Meetings such as conference calls and video conferences that feature real-time discussions and full exchanges are deemed as on-site meetings. The Board holds at least one regular meeting every quarter and at least four meetings every year. Pursuant to the Bank's Articles of Association, the Bank would notify all Directors in writing at least 14 days before the regular meeting. For interim Board meetings, the Bank would notify all Directors 5 days before the meeting.

A sound communication and reporting mechanism has been set up between Directors and senior management. The senior management is responsible for providing sufficient, complete and reliable data to the Board and each relevant special committee of the Board. All Directors have the right to access the documents and relevant data regarding the Board. Directors can seek professional advice when appropriate under reasonable requests at the expense of the Bank. At Board meetings, all Directors are free to voice their opinions, and important decisions shall be made after in-depth discussions. If any Director who has material interests in a proposal to be considered by the Board he or she should recuse and abstain from discussion and voting on the relevant proposal, and will not be counted in the quorum of the relevant proposal.

The Board of Directors shall make minutes of the decisions on the matters discussed at the on-site meeting and the Directors attending the meeting shall have the right to require that an explanatory record be made in the minutes of the speeches made by them at such meetings. If a director has different opinions on the minutes of the meeting, he/she may attach an explanation when signing. Minutes of the Board meetings shall be kept in the Bank's archives for a permanent period.

The Board is also responsible for formulating corporate governance policies of the Bank, and performing its duties in accordance with Code A.2.1 set out in Part 2 of the Corporate Governance Code. The Board takes charge of formulate and review the Bank's policies and corporate governance practices, review and monitor the training and continuous professional development of Directors and the senior management, review and monitor the Bank's compliance with the policies and practices as stipulated in laws and regulatory provisions, and review the Bank's compliance with the Code and disclosures within the Corporate Governance Report.

4.2 Members of Board of Directors

As at the end of the reporting period, the Board consisted of 11 Directors, including 3 executive Directors, namely Mr. ZHOU Shixin (Chairman), Mr. XIAO Jing (Vice Chairman) and Mr. YUAN Delei, 4 non-executive Directors, namely Mr. LUO Feng, Mr. SHI Zhishan, Ms. ZHOU Miao and Mr. LIU Yanan, as well as 4 independent non-executive Directors, namely Ms. WANG Wanqiu, Mr. ZHANG Yonghong, Mr. TIAN Li and Mr. GUO Jiequn.

Directors of the Bank (including non-executive Directors) are elected for a three-year term and can be re-elected upon expiry of term. Independent non-executive Directors can serve for a term of not more than six years on an accumulative basis in the same commercial bank.

Corporate Governance Report

4.3 Changes in and Remuneration of Members of Board of Directors

Please refer to the section headed “Information on Directors, Senior Management, Staff and Institution”, and Note 14 to the Financial Statements of this annual report for changes in members and remuneration of Directors.

4.4 Board Diversity Policy

The Bank seeks diversity of members from multiple perspectives during establishment of the Board, and selects candidates for the Board based on a range of diverse criteria, including but not limited to gender, age, location, expertise, skill, knowledge and education background. The Bank treats the increasing diversity at the Board level as a key contributor to sustainable development and fulfilment of our strategic goals as well as maintaining a sound corporate governance level.

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors of the Bank will review this policy when appropriate to ensure its effectiveness. The Nomination and Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors will discuss any required revisions and then put forward the opinions on revisions to the Board for approval. During the reporting period, the Board has reviewed the implementation of the Board diversity policy, and considered such policy is appropriate and effective.

As at the publish date of this annual report, the Board consists of 11 Directors, of whom two are female; four are aged 40 to 49, seven are aged 50 to 59. Directors are with an extensive background in fields such as finance, accounting, audit, economics and management, while some of them have multiple professional backgrounds. The Board believes that it has a balanced and diverse composition and has therefore not established any quantifiable targets for implementing its diversity policy.

Since there are two female members of the Board of Directors, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee has one female member, the composition of the Board of Directors satisfies the requirement regarding the gender diversity policy as set out in the Listing Rules as well as the Board diversity policy of the Bank. The Bank recognizes the importance and benefits of the gender diversity of members of the Board of Directors. The Board diversity policy of the Bank ensures that the Board of Directors has alternative potential successors to maintain the existing gender diversity of the Board of Directors.

For details of the staff composition of the Bank, please refer to the section headed “Information on Directors, Senior Management, Staff and Institution” in this annual report.

Corporate Governance Report

4.5 Mechanism to Ensure Independent Views and Opinions are Available to the Board of Directors

Directors are free to express their views at the Board meetings, and major decisions are made only after detailed discussion. Directors may also engage independent professional institutions at the Bank's expense after going through due procedures, if they think it necessary to get independent professional opinions. If any Director has interests in a proposal to be considered by the Board, he or she should recuse and abstain from discussion and voting on the relevant proposal, and will not be counted in the quorum of the relevant proposal. In addition, independent non-executive Directors shall give objective, fair and independent opinions on the matters discussed by the Bank. Independent non-executive Directors of the Bank do not hold any position in the Bank other than Directors, and neither does they have relationship with the Bank and its substantial shareholders that may affect their independent and objective judgment, nor any business or financial interests in the Bank and its subsidiaries. Therefore, the participation of independent non-executive Directors also constitutes a strong and sufficient independent element on the Board.

4.10 Performance of Independent Non-executive Directors

The Board currently has four independent non-executive Directors, and the qualification, number and proportion of independent non-executive Directors comply with the relevant provisions set forth by the National Financial Regulatory Administration and the Listing Rules. None of our independent non-executive Directors are involved in any circumstances incurring questionable independence as stipulated in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules. The Bank has received the annual letters of confirmation from each independent non-executive Director with regard to their independence as stipulated in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules. Therefore, the Bank considered that all independent non-executive Directors are in compliance with the independence requirements as set out in the Listing Rules. The Audit Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee under the Board of the Bank are all composed of independent non-executive Directors. Independent non-executive Directors are dominant in number and act as the chairperson in the Related Party Transactions Control Committee.

During the reporting period, the Bank's independent non-executive Directors adhered to objective, independent, and prudent procedural principles, effectively leveraged their expertise and extensive industry experience in areas such as financial analysis and banking management, and actively participated in various duty fulfillment activities from the perspective of safeguarding the interests of investors and all relevant stakeholders. They positively offered recommendations and suggestions regarding the matters discussed by the Board of Directors, especially the review of significant issues, and provided independent opinions on important matters such as profit distribution plans, appointment and dismissal of senior management, and significant related transactions, thereby enhancing the level of scientific decision-making by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors and the Audit Committee under the Board of Directors are unanimously in agreement with regard to the selection and appointment of external auditors of the Bank. The Bank has not changed its external auditor in any of the past three years.

17. CORPORATE CULTURE

The Bank has always adhered to the construction of corporate culture since its inception on November 18, 2000. The Bank formulated the Bank of Jiujiang Corporate Culture Manual and continued to amend and improve it.

Our vision: Creating a branded bank and building a century-old store

Our mission: To create maximum value for our customers and optimal positions for our employees

Our core values: Customer centricity, compliance, integrity, hard work, self-criticism, carefulness and well-being

Our spirits: Unity, integrity, perseverance and creativity

Our principles: To act in good conscience, follow rules and value talents

18. RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

During the reporting period, the Bank continued to strengthen its risk management system and effectively responded to the challenges of credit risk, market risk, operational risk and liquidity risk by improving its governance structure and optimising its risk strategies. In our daily operations, we have been continuously improving our overall risk management standards through various measures, including setting up a risk management structure to ensure the integration of efficient management and all-round support. We have been formulating and implementing effective risk management plans, improving our risk management mechanism and the risk identification and control technical competency. With the help of an effective incentive and accountability system, we have improved our assessment and supervision efficiency, while strengthening and refining our risk management methodologies and measures.

Corporate Governance Report

During the reporting period, centering on five elements of internal control and with the Basic System of Internal Control of Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. as the outline system, the Bank established a relatively scientific, complete, reasonable and tight internal control system with the aim of improving risk control capability and customer service capability, promoting sustainable development, and continuously and effectively upgrading and improving internal control. In terms of internal control environment, we established the enterprise culture of “with internal control and compliance as our top priorities”, adhered to the business philosophy of “with the risk control as the core”, optimised our organizational structure and established an internal control governance and organizational structure with a reasonable division of labor, clear responsibilities and clear reporting relationships, consisting of the Board of Directors, the Board of Supervisors, the Shareholder’s Meeting and the Senior Management (三會一層), functional department of internal control management, audit department and business department. In terms of risk assessment, we established a relatively sound system for comprehensive risk management, focused its efforts on initiatives to improve quality, expand coverage and enhance efficiency, conducted the reconstruction of credit risk management system and mechanism and efficient to effectively identify, monitor, measure, evaluate and control various risks and keep the risks within tolerable limits. Besides, we took rigorous measures to curb new risks, reduce existing risk exposures and make every effort to resolve risks. In terms of control measures, the Bank has thoroughly implemented the three-year action plan to promote and cultivate the “Integrity and Trustworthiness, Righteous Profits, Prudent Stewardship, Innovation with Purpose and Rule of Law (五要五不)” financial culture with Chinese characteristics, continuously pushed forward the standardization of the entire credit process, continuously pushed forward the export of key compliance points and the embedding of the process, and vigorously implemented the digital transformation, so as to solidify the foundation of internal control and compliance. The Bank also integrated various control measures to implement effective control over various businesses and matters, and the scope of internal control basically covers all management and business processes. In terms of information and communication, the information system was relatively complete, the internal and external data indicator system was relatively sound. The Bank has developed a sound overseeing working mechanism to put the integrated operation into practice and to establish a long-term mechanism for implementing supervisory opinions, and the information exchange and communication among the three lines of defense were relatively smooth and effective. In terms of internal supervision, the Bank focused on inspection and evaluation, mainly carried out the inspection on the compliance of internal control, evaluation on the internal control and supervision and evaluation of the audit department, gave more priority to the “three-in-one” supervision (namely the inspection of the compliance department, the audit department and discipline inspection committee), effectively corrected problems found and basically formed an internal control mechanism featuring beforehand risk prevention, in-progress control and post-event supervision and correction in place.

The Bank dynamically adjusts the internal control evaluation system on an annual basis, conducts internal control evaluation from design defects at the head office level and operation defects at the branch level, and evaluates the level of internal control defects and the effectiveness of internal control of each branch in a fair and objective manner through negative correction of the result indicators based on a combination of qualitative and quantitative methods, and enhances the application of the evaluation results of internal control. Normally, the Bank conducts internal control special evaluations in a timely manner according to important business, major risks and important management matters, and urges to improve systems, optimise processes and upgrade systems based on the evaluation results to promote further improvement of internal control management.

Corporate Governance Report

The Board of Directors of the Bank assumes ultimate responsibilities for comprehensive risk management, including performing duties such as the establishment of risk culture, the formulation of risk management policies, and the setting of risk appetite, risk tolerance and risk limit; formulates risk management and internal control policies and reviews the effectiveness of annual risk management and internal control at least once a year; ensures the establishment and implementation of a fully effective internal control system, which guarantees the Bank operates prudently within the legal and policy framework; and assumes responsibilities regarding the risk management and internal control system of the Bank, which aims to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failing to achieve business goals, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatements or losses.

As the Bank has ceased to establish its Board of Supervisors with effect from December 31, 2025, the supervisory responsibilities over risk management and internal control have been assumed by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors in accordance with applicable laws. Such responsibilities primarily include overseeing and reviewing the performance of duties by the Board of Directors and Senior Management in respect of risk management and urging rectification where necessary, as well as supervising the Board of Directors and Senior Management in improving the internal control system and fulfilling their internal control responsibilities.

For the year ended December 31, 2025, the Board of Directors completed the annual review and evaluation of the effectiveness of the Group's internal control and risk management system. The evaluation covers all of the Group's key internal control environment, including financial, operational and compliance as well as risk management. Upon receiving relevant reports on the effectiveness of the internal control and risk management system of the senior management of the Bank, the Board considered that the operations of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group were adequate and effective on the whole, and there were no material matters that need to be brought to attention during the year. During the reporting period, the Bank has not implemented any changes to its internal control and risk management systems.

19. INTERNAL AUDIT

Effective internal audit is of vital importance for ensuring sustainable development of the Bank's business operation. The Bank has established a vertical and independent internal audit organizational structure and sticks to the principles of independence and objectivity throughout the internal audit work. Meanwhile, the Board of Directors of the Bank has an Audit Committee which is responsible for reviewing the important regulations and reports related to internal audit and more, as well as approving medium-to long-term audit plans and annual audit plans.

The objectives of our internal audit are the review, evaluation and improvement of our business operations, risk management, internal control and compliance and corporate governance by combination of the on-site audit and off-site audit through independent and objective supervision, evaluation and advisory activities in a systematic and standardized manner, so as to promote our steady operation and value enhancement. The Bank has established an unobstructed problem-sharing bridge to accurately connect with various business lines, branches and management departments to strengthen audit guidance and rectification supervision; and strengthened the Bank's risk prevention and operational control capabilities through audit reminders and regular release of rectification status.

Corporate Governance Report

21. PURCHASE, SALE, OR REDEMPTION OF LISTED SECURITIES OF THE BANK

During the reporting period, the Bank or any of its subsidiaries did not purchase, sell or redeem any listed securities of the Bank (including sale of treasury shares). As of the end of the reporting period, the Bank did not hold any treasury shares.

22. PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS AND SHARE OPTION

There are no relevant laws of mainland China and the provisions in the Articles of Association for granting the Bank's shareholders with the pre-emptive rights and share option. The Articles of Association stipulates that after being considered and approved at the general meeting and approved by the national financial regulatory institution, the capital may be increased by the following means: issuance of shares to unspecified investors; issuance of shares to specified investors; distribution of new shares to its existing shareholders; conversion of funds in the capital reserve to share capital; other means stipulated by law and administrative regulations.

23. DONATION

The Bank made charitable and other donations totaling approximately RMB359,000 for the year ended December 31, 2025.

Report of the Board of Directors

24. EQUITY-LINKED AGREEMENT

In order to actively implement the government's special debt policy of RMB200 billion, enhance the Bank's capital strength and risk resistance level, the Bank carried out the convertible negotiated deposit business to replenish other tier-one capital. On June 25, 2021, the Bank held the 2020 Annual General Meeting, the first domestic shareholder class meeting of 2021 and the first H shareholders class meeting of 2021 to consider and approve the replenishment of other tier-one capital through a convertible negotiated deposit by the Bank.

On September 7, 2021, the Bank and Jiujiang Finance Bureau entered into an Agreement on Replenishing the "Convertible Negotiated Deposit" of Small and Medium-sized Banks' Capital with the Special Bonds (the "Agreement"). Pursuant to the Agreement, the Bank received special bonds of RMB2 billion through a convertible negotiated deposit, and all the funds were used to supplement other tier-one capital of the Bank. The interest rate of the convertible negotiated deposit was 3.11%, which matched with the corresponding local government special debt issuance interest rate and shall be mature in batches.

The parties agree that the conversion of the convertible negotiated deposit into the ordinary Shares of the Bank shall be subject to the following conditions:

- ① The core tier-one capital adequacy ratio of the Bank is lower than 5.125%;
- ② The class and number of the converted ordinary Shares and the shareholding structure of the Bank after the conversion shall satisfy the particular requirements of Hong Kong Stock Exchange for the Minimum Public Float, otherwise the conversion shall be terminated.

If the above conditions are met, all or part of the convertible negotiated deposit placed in the Bank by Jiujiang Finance Bureau will be converted into the Shares of the Bank and will be held by the qualified municipal level state-owned enterprises under the State-owned Assets Supervision and Administration Commission of Jiujiang ("Jiujiang SASAC"). The qualified municipal level state-owned enterprises under Jiujiang SASAC will pay the corresponding considerations to Jiujiang Finance Bureau in respect of such Shares. The shareholding ratio of which will be determined based on the conversion price standards set out in the Agreement. When the core tier-one capital adequacy ratio of the Bank is lower than 5.125% while the above Condition 2 is not satisfied, Jiujiang Finance Bureau shall not convert the Shares in a mandatory manner.

The conversion price is determined on the basis of the higher value of average trading price of H ordinary Shares of the Bank for 20 trading days preceding the date of the Board resolution approving the convertible negotiated deposit (i.e. April 30, 2021) (the average trading price of H ordinary Shares of the Bank for the 20 preceding trading days = the total trading amount of H ordinary Shares of the Bank for the 20 preceding trading days/total trading volume of H ordinary Shares of the Bank for the 20 preceding trading days), which will be converted into the price of RMB with the central parity of the RMB against the Hong Kong dollars announced by State Administration of Foreign Exchange on the date of the Board resolution (the "Initial Conversion Price"), i.e. HK$10.9, equivalent to approximately RMB9.08, and the net assets per Share attributable to the owners of the parent company based on the consolidated statement after asset and capital verification at the time of conversion of the convertible negotiated deposit. The closing price of H Shares of the Bank was HK$10.98 on the signing date of the Agreement (i.e. September 7, 2021).

Report of the Board of Directors

The convertible negotiated deposit can be converted to a maximum of 220,264,317 H Shares of the Bank (taking up approximately 8.38% of the enlarged total share capital of the Bank), with a par value of RMB1.00 per Share, provided that the conditions for conversion are satisfied. Based on that and the estimated lower conversion price of RMB9.08, the theoretical dilution effect is 0.061%. The Bank has complied with the theoretical dilution effect requirement in accordance with Rule 7.27B of Listing Rules at the time of entering into the Agreement and will also ensure to comply with the theoretical dilution effect requirement in accordance with Rule 7.27B of Listing Rules requirement at the time of completion of the convertible negotiated deposit.

As of the date of this annual report, the Bank has received a convertible negotiated deposit of RMB2 billion from Jiujiang Finance Bureau, all of which was used to supplement other tier-one capital of the Bank. Such deposit had not been converted into the Shares of the Bank. For details, please refer to the announcements of the Bank dated June 9, 2021, June 25, 2021 and September 7, 2021 as well as the supplemental circular of the Bank dated June 10, 2021.

Save for the above, during the reporting period, the Bank did not enter into or continue to keep any other equity-linked agreement.

25. RELATIONSHIP WITH SUPPLIERS, EMPLOYEES AND CUSTOMERS

Employees are indispensable to the steady development of the Bank. They are also the perpetual driving force for the Bank's sustainable and healthy development. We are always keenly aware of the paramount importance of human resources and do our best to provide high-quality jobs and create a harmonious working place for our people.

Due to the nature of its business, the Bank doesn't have major suppliers, and the top five suppliers together account for less than 30% of the purchase volume.

For details about the Bank's relationship with suppliers, employees and customers, please refer to the Environmental, Social and Governance Report issued by the Bank.

26. PUBLIC FLOAT

When it applied for the listing of its H Shares, the Bank applied to the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange has granted the Bank a waiver that the minimum public float requirement under Rule 19A.13A of the Hong Kong Listing Rules be reduced and the minimum percentage of the H Shares from time to time held by the public to be the higher of (a) 15.15% of the total issued share capital of the Bank (assuming the over-allotment option is not exercised); or (b) such percentage of H Shares of the Bank to be held by the public after the exercise of the over-allotment option. Immediately after the completion of the Bank's global offering and the partial exercise of the over-allotment option, the number of H-shares held by the public represents approximately 16.92% of the Bank's total issued share capital (the "Minimum Public Float").

As of the date of this annual report, based on the public information available to the Bank and to the knowledge of the Directors, the number of H Shares in public hands represents approximately 16.94% of the total issued share capital of the Bank, which satisfies the minimum public float requirement following the waiver granted by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Report of the Board of Directors

27. CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Bank is committed to maintaining a high level of corporate governance. Please refer to the “Corporate Governance Report” of this annual report.

28. MAJOR DEPOSITORS AND BORROWERS

The Bank does not rely heavily on any single major depositor or borrower. At the end of the reporting period, the deposit balances of the Bank’s top five corporate depositors and the loan balances of the Bank’s top five borrowers accounted for less than 30% of the Bank’s total deposits and total customer loans and advances.

29. AUDITORS

For information about the auditors of the Bank, please refer to the section headed “Corporate Governance Report – External Auditors and Auditor Emoluments” of this annual report.

30. CONSUMER RIGHTS PROTECTION

Improving the institutional framework to solidify the foundation of consumer protection. In 2025, the Bank further enhanced its consumer rights protection institutional framework by revising the Administrative Measures for Consumer Rights Protection Work, Administrative Measures for Personal Information Protection, and the Contingency Plan for Personal Information Security Incidents. The Bank also formulated the Implementation Rules for Consumer Protection Review, the Administrative Measures for Small-Amount and Expedited Dispute Resolution (Trial), and the Working Procedures for Third-Party Mediation (Trial). This has established a three-tier system of “overarching policies + specialized measures + operational guidelines”. By refining the delineation of roles and responsibilities and standardizing business processes, the Bank has provided systematic institutional support for its consumer protection efforts across the Bank.

Optimizing working mechanisms to enhance management efficiency. The Bank improved its assessment mechanism by adjusting the indicator weights and increasing the proportion of assessment results, reinforcing positive incentives and goal orientation. The Bank also enhanced the rating tracking mechanism by establishing a consumer protection rating issue rectification ledger, conducting regular tracking and implementing closure management, and clarifying responsibilities and timelines for corrective actions, and driving the resolution of identified gaps. Furthermore, the Bank optimized its collaboration and coordination mechanisms. For complex complaints, the Legal and Compliance Department at the head office took the lead in organizing discussions with relevant departments, achieving full-process and closed-loop management from “risk assessment – policy analysis – solution formulation – implementation of measures”.

Deepening root-cause governance to strengthen complaint management. The Bank innovated diversified dispute resolution models by partnering with the Jiujiang Banking Association and Insurance Industry Association to establish the “Xunrong e-Resolution” multi-channel dispute resolution station, implementing a one-stop dispute resolution mechanism combining “industry mediation + judicial confirmation”, thus improving dispute handling efficiency and enabling fast, localized resolution of financial conflicts. The Bank strictly implemented the “dual-line disposal, root-cause governance, and diversified resolution” complaint handling process, with clear time efficiency requirements: “three-hour initial response, eight-hour team handling, and twenty-four-hour institutional feedback”. The Bank continued to strengthen preemptive dispute resolution and reduction efforts, resulting in a further decrease in the total number of complaints throughout the year. The Bank advanced root-cause rectification by establishing complaint monitoring and root-cause analysis mechanisms. In addition, the Bank conducted special initiatives to strengthen traceability and analysis of complaint hotspots and key issues, promoting targeted and root-cause governance in critical areas. In 2025, the Bank received a total of 499 complaints, a decrease of 30 cases or 5.67% year-on-year. In terms of the distribution of complaints by business area, the majority were concentrated in loans, credit cards, and debit cards, totaling 420 cases and accounting for 84.17% of all complaints. Geographically, complaints were mainly concentrated in regions including Jiujiang, Guangzhou, and Ji'an.

Strengthening financial education and publicity to fulfill social responsibilities. The Bank upgraded its educational outreach efforts by integrating red financial culture into the content system of the Jiujiang Bank Bailudong Financial Education Demonstration Site, enhancing both online and offline content columns to improve the quality of financial knowledge offerings. Regular publicity activities were also intensified, with themes such as “‘3•15’ Financial Consumer Rights Protection Education and Publicity”, “Financial Education and Publicity Week”, and “10 Years of Deposit Insurance”, conducted through a combination of branch networks, online reach, and targeted in-person activities to create a robust financial publicity atmosphere. Special focus was placed on key groups, such as “the elderly and youth”, with tailored financial knowledge education and publicity on topics such as fraud prevention, anti-illegal fund-raising, deposit insurance, and pension finance, aiming to enhance financial awareness of the public and strengthen financial risk prevention capabilities.

31. ENVIRONMENTAL AND SOCIAL POLICY

As a listed bank emerging from the “red land”, the Bank insists on taking green finance as the core, advancing through exploration and developing in advance, constantly providing new ideas and methods for “transforming the ecological environment advantages into the economic and social development advantages and turning the lucid waters and lush mountains into invaluable assets”, and fully supporting the philosophy of ecological civilization construction.

Taking advantage of the policy advantage that Ganjiang New District in Jiangxi Province was approved as the first batch of green financial reform and innovation pilot zones in China, the Bank took the lead in establishing the first “Green Finance Division” in Jiangxi Province on August 9, 2017, led the development of green business with Party building, included the development of green finance as the “secretarial project” in the Party building assessment of the Bank, and incentivized the branches to increase green credit investment; the Bank promoted capacity enhancement through knowledge penetration, carried out special training on green finance, and established a branch-specific tracking service mechanism to provide an effective handhold for the expansion of the green finance business; and the Bank promoted the implementation of business through special support policies. Focusing on the key areas of carbon emission reduction, the Bank defined special internal fund transfer pricing and other support policies to promote business implementation. The Bank made full efforts in system construction, business promotion, product innovation, exchanges and cooperation to fully support the high-quality development of green finance in Jiangxi Province.

For details about the Bank’s environmental and social policies and their performance, please refer to the Environmental, Social and Governance Report published by the Bank simultaneously with this annual report.

Important Events

1. ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Bank will make further announcement in relation to details of the convening of the 2025 Annual General Meeting.

2. SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENT AND PLANS

During the reporting period, the Bank neither made any significant investment, nor had any concrete plans on significant investment or on acquiring significant capital assets or other businesses.

3. MATERIAL LAWSUITS, ARBITRATION MATTERS AND MATERIAL CASES

During the reporting period, there were no litigations or arbitrations which had a material impact on the operation activities of the Bank.

4. SIGNIFICANT CONTRACTS AND THEIR PERFORMANCE

During the reporting period, the Bank did not enter into significant contracts.

5. SIGNIFICANT ASSETS PLEDGED

The Bank did not pledge any significant assets during the reporting period.

6. SIGNIFICANT ACQUISITION AND DISPOSAL OF ASSETS AND BUSINESS COMBINATION

In 2025, upon approval by the national financial regulatory authority, the Bank acquired Lushan Jiuyin Art County Bank Co., Ltd., Jinggangshan Jiuyin County Bank LLC., and Nanchang Changdong Jiuyin County Bank Co., Ltd., all of which were originally established by the Bank as the main sponsor, and converted them into branches of the Bank. For details, please refer to the Bank's circular dated April 17, 2025.

Apart from this, the Bank was not involved in any significant acquisition and disposal of assets or business combination during the reporting period.

Important Events

7. PROPOSED NON-PUBLIC ISSUANCE OF DOMESTIC SHARES AND H SHARES UNDER A SPECIAL MANDATE

To effectively replenish the Bank's core tier-one capital, substantially enhance its risk mitigation capacity, and optimize its shareholding structure, on October 31, 2025, the Board of Directors of the Bank passed a resolution proposing the issuance of not more than 860,000,000 (inclusive) Domestic Shares and not more than 175,000,000 (inclusive) H Shares to eligible subscribers (collectively, the "Issuance"). The net proceeds from the Issuance, after deducting relevant issuance expenses, will be used entirely to replenish the Bank's core tier-one capital.

The subscribers in the proposed issuance of Domestic Shares include Jiujiang Finance Bureau and Industrial Bank (collectively, the "Substantial Shareholders Subscribers"). The Bank received letters of intent from Jiujiang Finance Bureau and Industrial Bank, each dated January 23, 2026. According to these letters of intent, subject to all necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of the Bank's shareholders at the extraordinary general meeting and class meetings for the Issuance and the Subscriptions by Substantial Shareholders (defined as below), Jiujiang Finance Bureau intends to subscribe for Domestic Shares with an aggregate subscription amount not exceeding RMB500 million, representing a proportion of the total actual proceeds raised from the Issuance not exceeding its then shareholding percentage in the Bank directly held as at the date of the letter of intent, i.e., approximately 12.85%. Industrial Bank intends to subscribe for Domestic Shares with an aggregate subscription amount representing a proportion of the total actual proceeds raised from the Issuance not exceeding its then shareholding percentage in the Bank as at the date of the letter of intent, i.e., approximately 10.34% (collectively, the "Subscriptions by Substantial Shareholders").

On February 28, 2026, the first extraordinary general meeting of 2026, the first domestic shareholder class meeting of 2026 and the first H shareholders class meeting of 2026 considered and approved the resolution on the non-public issuance of Domestic Shares and H Shares under a special mandate by the Bank. The first extraordinary general meeting of 2026 considered and approved the resolution on the proposed subscription of Domestic Shares by the Substantial Shareholders Subscribers. As the Issuance and the Subscriptions by Substantial Shareholders are subject to the fulfilment of certain conditions, they may or may not proceed. For details, please refer to the Bank's announcements dated October 31, 2025, January 23, 2026 and February 28, 2026, and the circular dated February 10, 2026.

8. PUNISHMENT AGAINST THE BANK AND ITS DIRECTORS, FORMER SUPERVISORS AND SENIOR MANAGEMENT

During the reporting period, the Bank, as well as its Directors, former supervisors or senior management of the Bank were neither under any investigation, administrative penalty or open criticism by the CSRC, nor under any public censure by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange or under any punishment by other regulatory authorities which had a material effect on the Bank's operation.

9. AUDIT ON ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

KPMG has conducted audit on the financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS and disclosed in this annual report and issued the audit report with unqualified opinion. The annual report is reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee of the Board and the Board of the Bank.

10. SIGNIFICANT EVENTS AFTER THE REPORTING PERIOD

From the end of the reporting period and as at the date of this annual report, no significant events have taken place that may affect the Bank.

Independent Auditor's Report

To the shareholders of Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd.

(A joint stock company incorporated in the People's Republic of China with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. (the "Bank") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 151 to 277, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at December 31, 2025, the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended and notes, comprising material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at December 31, 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IFRS Accounting Standards) and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (ISAs) issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants' International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) (IESBA Code), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Independent Auditor's Report

1. Loss allowances of loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost

Refer to Note 19 and Note 20 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies in Note 2(7).

The Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
The determination of loss allowances using the expected credit loss model is subject to a number of key parameters and assumptions, including the identification of loss stages, estimates of probability of default, loss given default, exposures at default and discount rate, adjustments for forward-looking information and other adjustment factors. Management judgement is involved in the selection of those parameters and the application of the assumptions. In particular, the determination of the expected credit loss model is heavily dependent on the external macro environment and the Group's internal credit risk management strategy. The expected credit losses for corporate loans and advances and financial investments are derived from estimates including the historical losses, external credit grading and other adjustment factors. The expected credit losses for personal loans and advances are derived from estimates whereby management takes into consideration historical overdue data, the historical loss experience for personal loans and advances and other adjustment factors.	Our audit procedures to assess loss allowances of loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• understanding and assessing the design, implementation and operating effectiveness of key internal controls of financial reporting over the approval, recording and monitoring of loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost, the credit grading process and the measurement of loss allowances;• involving our internal financial risk management specialists to assess the appropriateness of the expected credit loss model used by management in determining loss allowances, including assessing the appropriateness of the key parameters and assumptions in the expected credit loss model, including the identification of loss stages, probability of default, loss given default, exposures at default, discount rate, adjustments for forward-looking information and other management adjustments;

Refer to Note 19 and Note 20 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies in Note 2(7).

The Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Management also exercises judgement in determining the quantum of loss given default based on a range of factors. These include available remedies for recovery, the financial situation of the borrower, the recoverable amount of collateral, the seniority of the claim and the existence and cooperativeness of other creditors. The enforceability, timing and means of realisation of collateral can also have an impact on the recoverable amount of collateral and, therefore, the amount of loss allowances as at the end of the reporting period. We identified the measurement of loss allowance for expected credit losses of loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost as a key audit matter because of the inherent uncertainty and management judgement involved and because of its significance to the financial results and capital of the Group.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• assessing the completeness and accuracy of data used for the key parameters in the expected credit loss model. For key parameters derived from internal data relating to original loan agreements, we compared the total balance of the loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost list used by management to assess the loss allowances with the general ledger, selecting samples and comparing individual loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost information with the underlying agreements and other related documentation to assess the accuracy of compilation of loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost list. For key parameters derived from external data, we selected samples to inspect the accuracy of such data by comparing them with public resources;• for selecting key parameters for forward – looking information adjustments, critically assessing management judgement used in input parameters. As part of these procedures, we challenged the reasons for modifications to estimates and input parameters compared with prior period and considered the consistency of judgement. We compared the macro-economic factors used in the models with market information to assess whether they were aligned with market and economic development;

2. Consolidation of structured entities

Refer to Note 40 to the consolidated financial statements and the accounting policies in Note 2(26).

The Key Audit Matter	How the matter was addressed in our audit
Structured entities are generally created to achieve a narrow and well-defined objective with restrictions around their ongoing activities. The Group may acquire or retain an ownership interest in, or act as a sponsor to, a structured entity, through issuing a wealth management product, or act as an investor to a structured entity through investing in an asset management plan, a trust plan, an asset-backed security or fund investments. In determining whether a structured entity is required to be consolidated by the Group, management is required to consider the power the Group is able to exercise over the activities of the entity and its ability to influence the Group's own returns from the entity. In certain circumstances the Group may be required to consolidate a structured entity even though it has no equity interest therein. We identified the consolidation of structured entities as a key audit matter because it involves significant management judgement to determine whether a structured entity is required to be consolidated by the Group or not and because the impact of consolidating a structured entity on the consolidated statement of financial position and relevant regulatory capital requirements could be significant.	Our audit procedures to assess the consolidation of structured entities included the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• understanding and assessing the design and implementation of the key internal controls of financial reporting over consolidation of structured entities;• assessing the Group's analysis and conclusions on whether it controls structured entities by evaluating the Group's analysis on its power over structured entities, the magnitude and variability of variable returns from its involvement with structured entities. On a sample basis, inspecting the terms of the relevant contracts to assess whether the Group should consolidate a structured entity; and• evaluating whether the disclosures in the consolidated financial statements in relation to structured entities meet the requirements of the relevant accounting standards.

INFORMATION OTHER THAN THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AND AUDITOR'S REPORT THEREON

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE DIRECTORS FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors are assisted by the Audit Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Independent Auditor's Report

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

Independent Auditor's Report

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence and, where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Choi Ching Hin.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

1 GENERAL INFORMATION

Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the “Bank”) is formerly known as Jiujiang Commercial Bank, a joint-stock commercial bank established on the basis of Jiujiang Urban Credit Cooperatives as approved by the People’s Bank of China Wuhan Branch (Wuyinfu [1999] No. 300). The Bank formally changed its name to Bank of Jiujiang Co., Ltd. in October 2008.

The Bank is licensed as a financial institution by the former China Banking Regulatory Commission (the “former CBRC”, currently the National Financial Regulatory Administration, the “NFRA”) Jiangxi Province Bureau (No. B0348H336040001) and is registered as a business enterprise with the approval of Jiujiang Administration of Industry and Commerce of the People’s Republic of China (the “PRC”) (No. 9136040070552834XQ). On July 10, 2018, the Bank was listed on Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited with the stock code of 6190.

The principal activities of the Bank and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) comprise public deposit taking, granting short-term, medium-term and long-term loans; handling domestic and overseas settlements; handling bill acceptance, settlement and discounting; issuing financial bonds; acting as agent to issue, settle and underwrite government bonds; trading of government bonds and financial bonds; inter-bank placement; providing letters of credit services and guarantees; acting as agent on inward and outward payments, acting as insurance agent; providing safe-box service; selling of securities investment funds and other business approved by the authorities (except for the above activities with special national regulations; those involving administrative licensing shall be operated with licenses).

2 MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

(1) Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the IFRS Accounting Standards, which collective term includes all applicable individual IFRS Accounting Standards (“IFRS”), International Accounting Standards (“IAS”) and Interpretations issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance. These financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure provisions of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited.

Material accounting policies adopted by the Group are disclosed below.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

(2) Basis of preparation of the financial statements

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025 comprise the Bank and its subsidiaries (together referred to as the “Group”) and the Group’s interest in associates.

The measurement basis used in the preparation of the financial statements is the historical basis, except for financial investments at fair value through other comprehensive income, or financial investments at fair value through profit or loss (see Note 2(7)) are stated at their fair value as explained in the accounting policies.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with IFRS Accounting Standards requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, income and expenses. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and various other factors that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis of making the judgements about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the year in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that year, or in the year of the revision and future years if the revision affects both current and future years.

Judgements made by management in the application of IFRS Accounting Standards that have a significant effect on the financial statements and major sources of estimation uncertainty are discussed in Note 2(27).

The financial statements are presented in RMB, rounded to the nearest thousand, which is the functional currency of the Group.

(3) Changes in accounting policies

The Group has applied amendments to IAS 21, The effects of changes in foreign exchange rates – Lack of exchangeability issued by the IASB to these financial statements for the current accounting period. The amendments do not have a material impact on these financial statements as the Group has not entered into any foreign currency transactions in which the foreign currency is not exchangeable into another currency.

The Group has not applied any new standard or interpretation that is not yet effective for the current accounting period.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

(4) Consolidated financial statements

The scope of consolidated financial statements is based on control and the consolidated financial statements comprise the Bank and its subsidiaries (including the structured entities controlled by the Bank). Control exists when the investor has all of the following: power over the investee; exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee. When assessing whether the Group has power, only substantive rights (held by the Group and other parties) are considered. The financial position, financial performance and cash flows of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases.

A structured entity is one that is not designed to have voting or similar rights as a determining factor when determining its controlling party. The basis for the activities related to this entity is usually a contractual arrangement or other forms of arrangement.

Non-controlling interests are presented separately in the consolidated balance sheet within shareholders' equity. Net profit or loss attributable to non-controlling shareholders is presented separately in the consolidated income statement below the net profit line item. Comprehensive income attributable to non-controlling shareholders is presented separately in the consolidated income statement below the total comprehensive income line item. When the amount of loss for the current period attributable to the non-controlling shareholders of a subsidiary exceeds the non-controlling shareholders' portion of the opening balance of owners' equity of the subsidiary, the excess is still allocated against the non-controlling interests.

When the accounting period or accounting policies of a subsidiary are different from those of the Bank, the Bank makes necessary adjustments to the financial statements of the subsidiary based on the Bank's own accounting period or accounting policies. Intra-group balances and transactions, and any unrealised profit or loss arising from intra-group transactions, are eliminated when preparing the consolidated financial statements. Unrealised losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains, unless they represent impairment losses that are recognised in the financial statements.

(5) Translation of foreign currencies

When the Group receives capital in foreign currencies from investors, the capital is translated to Renminbi at the spot exchange rate ruling at the date of receipt. Other foreign currency transactions are, on initial recognition, translated to Renminbi at the spot exchange rates or the rates that approximate the spot exchange rates ruling at the transaction dates.

A spot exchange rate is quoted by the PBOC, the State Administration of Foreign Exchange, or a cross rate determined based on quoted exchange rates. A rate that approximates the spot exchange rate is determined by a systematic and rational method, normally the average exchange rate of the current period.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

Monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are translated to Renminbi at the spot exchange rate at the balance sheet date. The resulting exchange differences are generally recognised in profit or loss. Non-monetary items that are measured at historical cost in foreign currencies are translated to Renminbi using the exchange rate at the transaction date. Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rate at the date the fair value is determined. The resulting exchange differences are recognised in profit or loss, except for the differences arising from the re-translation of financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, which are recognised in other comprehensive income.

(6) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand, non-restricted balances with central bank, short-term deposits and placements with banks and other financial institutions, and highly liquid short-term investments that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value, having been within three months of maturity at acquisition. Cash and cash equivalents are assessed for expected credit losses (ECL) in accordance with the policy set out in Note 2(7).

(7) Financial instruments

(i) Recognition and initial measurement of financial assets and financial liabilities

A financial asset or financial liability is recognised in the balance sheet when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provisions of a financial instrument.

Financial assets and financial liabilities are measured initially at fair value. For financial assets and financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, any related directly attributable transaction costs are charged to profit or loss; for other categories of financial assets and financial liabilities, any related directly attributable transaction costs are included in their initial costs.

(ii) Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Classification of financial assets

The Group classifies financial assets into different categories upon initial recognition based on the business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets:

- Financial assets measured at amortised cost, including loans and advances to customers and financial investments measured at amortised cost;
- Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVOCI”), including loans and advances to customers at FVOCI and financial investments at FVOCI; and
- Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”).

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

(7) Financial instruments (Continued)

Financial assets may not be reclassified after initial recognition unless the Group changes the business model for managing the financial assets, in which case, all affected financial assets are reclassified on the first day of the first reporting period after the business model changes.

Financial assets not designated as FVTPL that meet the following conditions are classified as financial assets measured at amortised cost:

- The purpose of the Group's business model for managing the financial assets is to receive contractual cash flows;
- The contractual terms of the financial assets stipulate that the cash flows generated on specific dates are only for payment of the principal and the interest based on the amount of principal outstanding.

The Group classifies financial assets not designated as FVTPL that meet the following conditions as financial assets at FVOCI:

- The purpose of the Group's business model for managing the financial assets is to receive contractual cash flows and to sell the financial assets;
- The contractual terms of the financial assets stipulate that the cash flows generated on specific dates are only for payment of the principal and the interest based on the amount of principal outstanding.

For equity investment not held for trading, the Group may irrevocably designate it as financial asset at FVOCI upon initial recognition. The designation is made on an individual basis and the investment is in line with the definition of the equity instrument from the issuer's perspective.

Except for the above-mentioned financial assets that are measured at amortised cost and at FVOCI, the Group classifies all other financial assets into financial assets at FVTPL. At the time of initial recognition, if the accounting mismatch can be eliminated or significantly reduced, the Group can irrevocably designate financial assets that should be measured at amortised cost or FVOCI as financial assets at FVTPL.

The business model for managing financial assets refers to how the Group manages financial assets to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether the sources of cash flows for financial assets managed by the Group is contractual cash flows, the sale of financial assets or both. The Group determines the business model for managing financial assets based on objective facts and specific business objectives for the management of financial assets as determined by key management personnel.

The Group assesses the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets to determine whether the contractual cash flows generated by the relevant financial assets on specific dates are solely for payment of the principal and the interest based on the amount of principal outstanding. Of which, the principal is the fair value of the financial assets at initial recognition; the interest includes the time value of money, the credit risk associated with the outstanding principal amount for a specific period, and the consideration of other basic borrowing risks, costs and profits. In addition, the Group assesses the contractual terms that may result in a change in the time distribution or amount of contractual cash flows generated by the financial assets to determine whether they meet the requirements of the above contractual cash flow characteristics.

Subsequent measurement of financial assets

– Financial assets at FVTPL

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value, and the resulting gains or losses (including interest and dividend income) are included in profit or loss, unless the financial asset is part of a hedging relationship.

– Financial assets measured at amortised cost

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. Gains or losses arising from financial assets that are measured at amortised cost and are not a component of any hedges are recognised in profit or loss at the time of derecognition and amortisation using the effective interest method or recognition of impairment.

– Financial assets at FVOCI

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value. Interest calculated using the effective interest method, impairment losses or gains and exchange gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss, and other gains or losses are included in other comprehensive income. At the time of derecognition, the cumulative gains or losses previously recognised in other comprehensive income are transferred to profit or loss.

– Equity investments at FVOCI

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial assets are measured at fair value. Dividend income is recognised in profit or loss; other gains or losses are recognised in other comprehensive income. At the time of derecognition, the cumulative gains or losses previously included in other comprehensive income are transferred to retained earnings.

(iii) Classification and subsequent measurement of financial liabilities

The Group classifies financial liabilities into financial liabilities at FVTPL and financial liabilities carried at amortised cost.

– Financial liabilities at FVTPL

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial liabilities are measured at fair value. Any resulting gains or losses (including interest expenses), unless related to hedge accounting, are recognised in profit or loss.

– Financial liabilities measured at amortised cost

Subsequent to initial recognition, other financial liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

(iv) Impairment

The Group recognises provision for expected credit loss (“ECL”) on:

- Financial assets measured at amortised cost;
- Debt instruments at FVOCI;
- Credit commitments;
- Financial guarantee contracts.

Other financial assets measured at fair value, including debt or equity securities at FVTPL and equity securities designated at FVOCI (non-recycling), are not subject to the ECL assessment.

Measurement of ECLs

Expected credit loss is a weighted average of credit losses on financial instruments weighted at the risk of default. ECLs are a probability-weighted estimate of credit losses. Credit losses are measured as the present value of all cash shortfalls (i.e. the difference between the cash flows due to the entity in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive).

The Group's method of measuring ECLs of financial instruments reflects the following elements: (i) unbiased weighted average probability determined by the results of evaluating a range of possible outcomes; (ii) time value of money; (iii) reasonable and evidence-based information about past events, current conditions, and future economic forecasts that are available at no additional cost or effort at the end of the reporting period.

The maximum period considered when estimating ECLs is the maximum contractual period (including extension options) over which the Group is exposed to credit risk.

Lifetime ECLs are the ECLs that result from all possible default events over the expected life.

12-month ECLs are the portion of ECLs that result from default events that are possible within the 12 months after the balance sheet date (or a shorter period if the expected life of the instrument is less than 12 months).

ECLs on these financial assets are estimated using a provision matrix based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors and an assessment of both the current and forecast general economic conditions at the balance sheet date.

The Group's measurement of expected credit losses is described in Note 45(1).

Presentation of provision for ECLs

ECLs are remeasured at each balance sheet date to reflect changes in the financial instrument's credit risk since initial recognition. Any change in the ECL amount is recognised as an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss. For financial assets measured at amortised cost, provision is offset against their carrying amount in the balance sheet. The Group recognises provision for debt instruments at FVOCI in other comprehensive income and does not deduct the carrying amount of the financial assets.

(iv) Impairment (Continued)

The gross carrying amount of a financial asset is written off (either partially or in full) to the extent that there is no realistic prospect of recovery. A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. This is generally the case when the Group determines that the debtor does not have assets or sources of income that could generate sufficient cash flows to repay the amounts subject to the write-off. However, financial assets that are written off could still be subject to enforcement activities in order to comply with the Group's procedures for recovery of amounts due.

Subsequent recoveries of an asset that was previously written off are recognised as a reversal of impairment in profit or loss in the period in which the recovery occurs.

(v) Derecognition of financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets are derecognised when the following conditions are met:

- The Group's contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire;
- The financial asset has been transferred and the Group transfers substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset;
- The financial asset has been transferred, although the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset, it does not retain control over the transferred asset.

Where a transfer of a financial asset in its entirety meets the criteria for derecognition, the difference between the two amounts below is recognised in profit or loss:

- The carrying amount of the financial asset transferred measured at the date of derecognition;
- The sum of the consideration received from the transfer and, when the transferred financial asset is a debt investment at FVOCI, any cumulative gain or loss that has been recognised directly in other comprehensive income for the part derecognised.

The Group derecognises a financial liability (or part of it) only when its contractual obligation (or part of it) is discharged.

(vi) Offsetting

Financial assets and financial liabilities are presented separately in the balance sheet and are not offset. However, a financial asset and a financial liability are offset and the net amount is presented in the balance sheet when both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- The Group currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts;
- The Group intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the financial asset and settle the financial liability simultaneously.

(8) Financial assets purchased under resale agreements and sold under repurchase agreements

The assets purchased under resale agreements are not recognised, and the payment is reported as a receivable in the balance sheet and is carried at amortised cost.

Financial assets sold under repurchase agreements continue to be recognised in the balance sheet and are measured in accordance with applicable accounting policies. The funds received are reported as liabilities in the balance sheet and are carried at amortised cost.

Interest earned on resale agreements and interest incurred on repurchase agreements are recognised respectively as interest income and interest expense over the life of each agreement using the effective interest method.

(9) Fair value measurement

Unless otherwise specified, the Group measures fair value as follows:

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

When measuring fair value, the Group takes into account the characteristics of the particular asset or liability (including the condition and location of the asset and restrictions, if any, on the sale or use of the asset) that market participants would consider when pricing the asset or liability at the measurement date, and uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data and other information are available to measure fair value. Valuation techniques mainly include the market approach, the income approach and the cost approach.

(10) Long-term equity investments

(i) Investment in subsidiaries

In the Group's consolidated financial statements, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for in accordance with the principles described in Note 2(4).

In the Bank's separate financial statements, long-term equity investments in subsidiaries are accounted for using the cost method for subsequent measurement. Except for cash dividends or profit distributions declared but not yet distributed that have been included in the price or consideration paid in obtaining the investments, the Bank recognises its share of the cash dividends or profit distributions declared by the investee as investment income for the current period. The investments in subsidiaries are stated in the balance sheet at cost less impairment losses (see Note 2(16)).

(ii) Investments in associates

An associate is an enterprise over which the Group has significant influence.

A long-term equity investment in an associate is accounted for using the equity method for subsequent measurement, unless the investment is classified as held for sale.

Under the equity method:

Where the initial cost of a long-term equity investment exceeds the Group's interest in the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition, the investment is initially recognised at cost. Where the initial investment cost is less than the Group's interest in the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition, the investment is initially recognised at the investor's share of the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets, and the difference is recognised in profit or loss.

After the acquisition of the investment, the Group recognises its share of the investee's profit or loss and other comprehensive income as investment income or losses and other comprehensive income respectively and adjusts the carrying amount of the investment accordingly. Once the investee declares any cash dividends or profit distributions, the carrying amount of the investment is reduced by the amount attributable to the Group. Changes in the Group's share of the investee's owners' equity, other than those arising from the investee's net profit or loss, other comprehensive income or profit distribution ("other changes in owners' equity"), is recognised directly in the Group's equity, and the carrying amount of the investment is adjusted accordingly.

In calculating its share of the investee's net profits or losses, other comprehensive income and other changes in owners' equity, the Group recognises investment income and other comprehensive income after making appropriate adjustments to align the accounting policies or accounting periods with those of the Group based on the fair value of the investee's identifiable net assets at the date of acquisition. Unrealised profits and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associates. Unrealised losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated in the same way as unrealised gains but only to the extent that there is no impairment.

The Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses of the investee after the carrying amount of the long-term equity investment and any long-term interest that in substance forms part of the Group's net investment in the associate is reduced to zero, except to the extent that the Group has an obligation to assume additional losses. If the associate subsequently reports net profits, the Group resumes recognising its share of those profits only after its share of the profits has fully covered the share of losses not recognised.

For the impairment of the investments in associates, refer to Note 2(16).

(11) Property and equipment and construction in progress

Property and equipment are tangible assets held by the Group for operation and administration purposes with useful lives over one year.

Property and equipment are stated in the balance sheet at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses (see Note 2(16)). Construction in progress is stated in the balance sheet at cost less impairment loss (Note 2(16)).

The cost of a purchased property and equipment comprises the purchase price, related taxes, and any directly attributable expenditure for bringing the asset to working condition for its intended use.

All direct and indirect costs that are related to the construction of the property and equipment and incurred before the assets are ready for their intended use are capitalised as the cost of construction in progress. Construction in progress is transferred to property and equipment when it is ready for its intended use. No depreciation is provided against construction in progress.

(11) Property and equipment and construction in progress (Continued)

Any subsequent costs including the cost of replacing part of an item of property and equipment are recognised as assets when it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the costs will flow to the Group, and the carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognised. The costs of the day-to-day maintenance of property and equipment are recognised in profit or loss as incurred.

Gains or losses arising from the retirement or disposal of an item of property and equipment are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the item and are recognised in profit or loss on the date of retirement or disposal.

The cost of property and equipment are depreciated using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives, after taking into account their estimated residual values and accumulated impairment losses (that is the cost of property and equipment (net of the estimated residual values) divided by the estimated useful lives). The estimated useful lives, estimated residual value rates and annual depreciation rates of each class of property and equipment are as follows:

Asset category	Estimated useful life	Estimated residual value rates	Annual depreciation rates
Premises	5 – 50 years	0 – 3%	1.94% – 20.00%
Electronic equipment	3 – 5 years	0 – 3%	19.40% – 33.33%
Motor vehicles	5 years	3%	19.40%
Furniture and fixtures	3 – 5 years	0 – 3%	19.40% – 33.33%
Leasehold improvements and others	1 – 10 years	0%	10.00% – 100.00%

Estimated useful lives, estimated residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed at least at each year-end.

(12) Investment properties

Investment properties are properties held to earn rentals and/or for capital appreciation (including properties under construction for such purposes).

Investment properties are initially measured at cost, including any directly attributable expenditure. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment properties are stated at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses. Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of investment properties over their estimated useful lives and after taking into account of their estimated residual value, using the straight-line method.

Construction costs incurred for investment properties under construction are capitalised as part of the carrying amount of the investment properties under construction.

An investment property is derecognised upon disposal or when the investment property is permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefits are expected from its disposals. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the property (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss in the period in which the property is derecognised.

(13) Leases

A contract is lease if the lessor conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset to lessee for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

At inception of a contract, the Group assesses whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

To assess whether a contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset, the Group assesses whether:

- the contract involves the use of an identified asset. An identified asset may be specified explicitly or implicitly specified in a contract and should be physically distinct, or capacity portion or other portion of an asset that is not physically distinct but it represents substantially all of the capacity of the asset and thereby provides the customer with the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from the use of the asset. If the supplier has a substantive substitution right throughout the period of use, then the asset is not identified;
- the lessee has the right to obtain substantially all of the economic benefits from use of the asset throughout the period of use;
- the lessee has the right to direct the use of the asset.

For a contract that contains lease and non-lease components, the Group has elected not to separate non-lease components from lease components and account for the lease and non-lease components as a single lease component.

(13) Leases (Continued)

(i) As a lessee

The Group recognises a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the lease commencement date. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability, any lease payments made at or before the commencement date (less any lease incentives received), any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the site on which it is located or restore the underlying asset to the condition required by the terms and conditions of the lease.

The right-of-use asset is depreciated using the straight-line method. If the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option by the end of the lease term, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the remaining useful lives of the underlying asset. Otherwise, the right-of-use asset is depreciated from the commencement date to the earlier of the end of the useful life of the right-of-use asset or the end of the lease term. Impairment losses of right-of-use assets are accounted for in accordance with the accounting policy described in Note 2(16).

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date. Each institution of the Group uses interest rate that a lessee would have to pay to borrow over a similar term, and with a similar security, the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment as incremental borrowing rate.

A constant periodic rate is used to calculate the interest on the lease liability in each period during the lease term with a corresponding charge to profit or loss or included in the cost of assets where appropriate. Variable lease payments not included in the measurement of the lease liability is charged to profit or loss or included in the cost of assets where appropriate as incurred.

Under the following circumstances after the commencement date, the Group remeasures lease liabilities based on the present value of revised lease payments:

- there is a change in the amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee;
- there is a change in future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or a rate used to determine those payments;
- there is a change in the assessment of whether the Group will exercise a purchase, extension or termination option, or there is a change in the exercise of the extension or termination option.

When the lease liability is remeasured, a corresponding adjustment is made to the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset, or is recorded in profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

(13) Leases (Continued)

(ii) As a lessor

The Group determines at lease inception whether each lease is a finance lease or an operating lease. A lease is classified as a finance lease if it transfers substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset irrespective of whether the legal title to the asset is eventually transferred. An operating lease is a lease other than a finance lease.

When the Group is a sub-lessor, it assesses the lease classification of a sub-lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease, not with reference to the underlying asset. If a head lease is a short-term lease to which the Group applies practical expedient described above, then it classifies the sub-lease as an operating lease.

Under a finance lease, at the commencement date, the Group recognises the finance lease receivable and derecognises the finance lease asset. The finance lease receivable is initially measured at an amount equal to the net investment in the lease. The net investment in the lease is measured at the aggregate of the unguaranteed residual value and the present value of the lease receivable that are not received at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease.

The Group recognises finance income over the lease term, based on a pattern reflecting a constant periodic rate of return. The derecognition and impairment of the finance lease receivable are recognised in accordance with the accounting policy in Note 2(7). Variable lease payments not included in the measurement of net investment in the lease are recognised as income as they are earned.

Lease receipts from operating leases is recognised as income using the straight-line method over the lease term. The initial direct costs incurred in respect of the operating lease are initially capitalised and subsequently amortised in profit or loss over the lease term on the same basis as the lease income. Variable lease payments not included in lease receipts are recognised as income as they are earned.

(14) Intangible assets and Land use rights

Intangible assets and land use rights are stated in the balance sheet at cost less accumulated amortisation (where the estimated useful life is finite) and impairment losses (see Note 2(16)). The cost of intangible assets and land use rights less estimated residual value and accumulated impairment losses is amortised on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives.

The respective amortisation periods for such intangible assets and land use rights are as follows:

Land use rights	20 – 50 years
Softwares	1 – 10 years

(15) Repossessed assets

Repossessed assets are physical assets or property rights obtained by the Group from debtors, warrantors or third parties following the enforcement of its creditor's rights. The repossessed assets are initially recognised at fair value, and are subsequently measured at the lower of the carrying value and net realisable value. If the net realisable value is lower than the carrying value of the repossessed assets, the assets are written down to the net realisable value.

(16) Impairment of non-financial assets

The carrying amount of the following assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date based on internal and external sources of information to determine whether there is any indication of impairment:

- Property and equipment;
- Construction in progress;
- Right-of-use assets;
- Intangible assets and Land use rights
- Investment properties; and
- Investments in subsidiaries and associates.

If any indication that an asset may be impaired, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

An asset group is composed of assets directly related to cash generation and is the smallest identifiable group of assets that generates cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or asset groups.

The recoverable amount of an asset (or asset group, set of asset groups) is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its present value of expected future cash flows. If there is any indication that an asset may be impaired, the recoverable amount is estimated for the individual asset; if it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of the individual asset, the Group determines the recoverable amount of the asset group to which the assets belong.

The present value of expected future cash flows of an asset is determined by discounting the future cash flows, estimated to be derived from continuing use of the asset and from its ultimate disposal, to their present value using an appropriate pre-tax discount rate, taking into account the expected future cash, useful life and discount rate.

An impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss when the recoverable amount of an asset is less than its carrying amount. A provision for impairment of the asset is recognised accordingly. Impairment losses related to an asset group or a set of asset groups are allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill allocated to the asset group or set of asset groups, and then to reduce the carrying amount of the other assets in the asset group or set of asset groups on a pro rata basis. However, such allocation would not reduce the carrying amount of an asset below the highest of its fair value less costs to sell (if measurable), its present value of expected future cash flows (if determinable) and zero.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, to the extent that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount had no impairment loss been recognised. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised in the consolidated income statement.

(17) Employee benefits

(i) Short-term employee benefits

Employee wages or salaries, bonuses, social security contributions such as medical insurance, work injury insurance, maternity insurance and housing fund, measured at the amount incurred or accrued at the applicable benchmarks and rates, are recognised as a liability as the employee provides services, with a corresponding charge to profit or loss or included in the cost of assets where appropriate. If the liability is not expected to be fully paid within 12 months after the end of the annual reporting period in which the employee provides the services, and the financial impact is significant, the liability is measured at the discounted amount.

(ii) Post-employment benefits – defined contribution plans

Pursuant to the relevant laws and regulations of the People's Republic of China, the Group participates in a defined contribution basic pension insurance, unemployment insurance and annuity plans in the social insurance system established and managed by government organisations. The Group makes contributions to basic pension insurance and unemployment insurance plans based on the applicable benchmarks and rates stipulated by the government. The Group provides an annuity plan for eligible employees and makes contribution based on a certain percentage of the total salaries of the employees. The corresponding expenses incurred are recognised in profit or loss.

(iii) Termination benefits

When the Group terminates the employment with employees before the employment contracts expire, or provides compensation under an offer to encourage employees to accept voluntary redundancy, a provision is recognised with a corresponding expense in profit or loss at the earlier of the following dates:

- When the Group cannot unilaterally withdraw the offer of termination benefits because of an employee termination plan or a curtailment proposal;
- When the Group has a formal detailed restructuring plan involving the payment of termination benefits and has raised a valid expectation in those affected that it will carry out the restructuring by starting to implement that plan or announcing its main features to those affected by it.

(17) Employee benefits (Continued)

(iv) Supplementary retirement benefits

Early retirement benefits

According to the Group's policy on early retirement benefits, certain employees are entitled to take leave of absence and in return receive a certain level of staff salaries and related benefits from the Group. The salaries and benefit payments are made from the date of early retirement to the normal retirement date. The amounts of retirement benefits expense and present value of these liabilities are dependent on assumptions used in calculating such amounts. These assumptions include discount rates, retirement benefit growth rates and other factors. Gains and losses arising from the changes in assumptions and amendments to pension plans are recognised in the income statement as they occur.

Retirement benefit annuity plan

In addition to the basic pension insurance scheme, employees and early retirees of the Group also participate in a defined contribution plan established by the Group (the "Annuity Plan"). The Group and its employees are required to contribute a certain percentage of the employees' previous year basic salaries to the Annuity Plan. The contribution is charged to the income statement when it incurs. The Group has no obligation to pay further contributions if the Annuity Plan does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits.

Contributions to the defined contribution retirement plan are recognised as expenses when incurred, and there are no forfeited contributions that may be used by the Group to reduce the existing level of contribution.

(18) Income tax

Current tax and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss except to the extent that they relate to items that are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, in which case the relevant amounts of tax are recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

Current tax is the expected tax payable calculated at the applicable tax rate on the taxable income for the period, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

At the balance sheet date, current tax assets and liabilities are offset if the taxable entity has a legally enforceable right to set off them and the entity intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

for the year ended December 31, 2025
(Expressed in thousands of Renminbi, unless otherwise stated)

(18) Income tax (Continued)

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arise from deductible and taxable temporary differences being the differences between the carrying amount of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and their tax bases, which include the deductible losses and tax credits carried forward to subsequent periods. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be used.

Deferred tax is not recognised for the temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit (or tax loss) and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. The temporary difference arising from the initial recognition of goodwill does not give rise to deferred tax. And those related to the income taxes arising from tax laws enacted or substantively enacted to implement the Pillar Two model rules published by the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development do not give rise to deferred tax.

The Group recognised deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities separately in relation to its lease liabilities and right-of-use assets.

At the balance sheet date, the amount of deferred tax recognised is measured based on the expected manner of realisation or settlement of the carrying amount of the assets and liabilities using tax rates that are expected to be applied in the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled in accordance with tax laws.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the balance sheet date. The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow the benefit of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Any such reduction is reversed to the extent that it becomes probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available.

At the balance sheet date, deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if all the following conditions are met:

- The taxable entity has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities; and
- They relate to income taxes levied by the same tax authority on either the same taxable entity or different taxable entities which intend either to settle current tax liabilities and assets on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities, simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

(19) Financial guarantees, provisions and contingent liabilities

(i) Financial guarantees

Financial guarantees are contracts that require the issuer (i.e. the guarantor) to make specified payments to reimburse the beneficiary of the guarantee (the “holder”) for a loss the holder incurs because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due in accordance with the terms of a debt instrument.

The Group used the expected credit loss model to measure losses incurred because a specified debtor fails to make payment when due, and included them in provisions. Refer to Note 2(7)(iv) for details of the expected credit loss model.

(ii) Other provisions

A provision is recognised for an obligation related to a contingency if the Group has a present obligation that can be estimated reliably, and it is probable that an outflow of economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation.

A provision is initially measured at the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the related present obligation. Where the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows. Factors pertaining to a contingency such as the risks, uncertainties and time value of money are taken into account as a whole in reaching the best estimate. Where there is a continuous range of possible outcomes for the expenditure required, and each possible outcome in that range is as likely as any other, the best estimate is the mid- point of that range. In other cases, the best estimate is determined according to the following circumstances:

- Where the contingency involves a single item, the best estimate is the most likely outcome;
- Where the contingency involves a large population of items, the best estimate is determined by weighting all possible outcomes by their associated probabilities.

The Group reviews the carrying amount of a provision at the balance sheet date and adjusts the carrying amount to the current best estimate.

(20) Fiduciary activities

The Group acts in fiduciary activities as a manager, a custodian, or an agent for customers. Assets held by the Group and the related undertakings to return such assets to customers are recorded as off-balance sheet items as the risks and rewards of the assets reside with customers.

The Group enters into entrusted loan agreements with customers, whereby the customers provide funding (the “entrusted funds”) to the Group, and the Group grants loans to third parties (the “entrusted loans”) under instructions of the customers. As the Group does not assume the risks and rewards of the entrusted loans and the corresponding entrusted funds, the entrusted loans and funds are recorded as off-balance sheet items at their principal amount. No provision for impairment loss is made for entrusted loans.

(21) Income recognition

Income is recognised when the Group satisfies the performance obligation in the contract which by transferring the control over relevant goods or services to the customers.

The following is the description of accounting policies regarding income from the Group’s principal activities.

(i) Interest income

Interest income for financial assets is recognised in profit or loss as it is incurred, based on the time for alienation of right to use capital and effective interest rates. Interest income includes the amortisation of any discount or premium or differences between the initial carrying amount of an interest-bearing asset and its amount at maturity calculated using the effective interest rate.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset and of allocating the interest income over the relevant periods. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash payments or receipts through the expected life of the financial instrument or, when appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount of the financial asset. When calculating the effective interest rate, the Group estimates cash flows considering all contractual terms of the financial instrument (for example, prepayment, call and similar options) but does not consider future credit losses. The calculation includes all fees and points paid or received between parties to the contract, transaction costs and all other premiums or discounts that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

Interest on the impaired assets is recognised using the rate of interest used to discount future cash flows for the purpose of measuring the related impairment loss.

(21) Income recognition (Continued)

(ii) Fee and commission income

The Group earns fee and commission income from a diverse range of services it provides to its customers. The fee and commission income recognised by the Group reflects the amount of consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for transferring promised services to customers, and income is recognised when its performance obligation in contracts is satisfied.

The Group recognises income over time by measuring the progress towards the complete satisfaction of a performance obligation, if one of the following criteria is met:

- The customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group's performance as the Group performs;
- The customer controls the service provided by the Group in the course of performance;
- The Group does not provide service with an alternative use to the Group, and the Group has an enforceable right to payment for performance completed to date; or
- In other cases, the Group recognises revenue at a point in time at which a customer obtains control of the promised services.

(iii) Government grants

Government grants are recognised in the consolidated statements of financial position initially when there is reasonable assurance that they will be received and that the Group will comply with the conditions attaching to them. Grants that compensate the Group for expenses incurred are recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis in the same periods in which the expenses are incurred. Grants that compensate the Group for the cost of an asset are deducted from the carrying amount of the asset and consequently are effectively recognised in profit or loss over the useful life of the asset by way of reduced depreciation expense.

(iv) Other income

Other income is recognised on an accrual basis.

(22) Expense recognition

(i) Interest expenses

Interest expenses from financial liabilities are accrued on a time proportion basis with reference to the amortised cost and the applicable effective interest rate.

(ii) Other expenses

Other expenses are recognised on an accrual basis.

(23) Dividends

Dividends proposed in the profit appropriation plan which will be authorised and declared after the balance sheet date are not recognised as a liability at the balance sheet date but disclosed separately in the notes to the financial statements.

(24) Related parties

- (i) A person, or a close member of that person's family, is related to the Group if that person:
 - (a) has control or joint control over the Group;
 - (b) has significant influence over the Group; or
 - (c) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or the Group's parent.
- (ii) An entity is related to the Group if any of the following conditions applies:
 - (a) The entity and the Group are members of the same Group (which means that each parent, subsidiary and fellow subsidiary is related to the others);
 - (b) One entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or an associate or joint venture of a member of a Group of which the other entity is a member);
 - (c) Both entities are joint ventures of the same third party;
 - (d) One entity is a joint venture of a third entity and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
 - (e) The entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
 - (f) The entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (i);
 - (g) A person identified in (i)(a) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity);
 - (h) The entity, or any member of a Group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the Group's parent.

Close members of the family of a person are those family members who may be expected to influence, or be influenced by, that person in their dealings with the entity.

(25) Segment reporting

Reportable segments are identified based on operating segments which are determined based on the structure of the Group's internal organisation, management requirements and internal reporting system, whose operating results are regularly reviewed by the Group's management to make decisions about resources to be allocated to the segment and assess its performance. Inter-segment revenues are measured on the basis of the actual transaction prices for such transactions for segment reporting. Segment accounting policies are consistent with those for the consolidated financial statements.

(26) Determination of control over investees

Management applies its judgement to determine whether the Group is acting as agent or principal in relation to the structured entities in which the Group acts as an asset manager. In assessing whether the Group is acting as agent, the Group considers factors such as scope of the asset manager's decision-making authority, rights held by other parties, remuneration to which it is entitled and exposure to variability of returns.

(27) Use of judgements and estimates

In determining the carrying amounts of some assets and liabilities, the Group makes assumptions for the effects of uncertain future events on the assets and liabilities at the end of the reporting period. These estimates involve assumptions about cash flows and the discount rates used. The Group's estimates and assumptions are based on historical experience and expectations of future events and are reviewed periodically. In addition to the assumptions and estimations of future events, judgements are also made during the process of applying the Group's accounting policies.

Except for accounting estimates relating to depreciation and amortisation of assets such as property and equipment and construction in progress, investment properties, intangible assets and land use rights, and other assets (see Note 2(11), Note 2(12) and Note 2(14)) and allowances for impairment losses of various types of assets (see Notes 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 25). Other material accounting estimates are as follows:

- (i) Note 24: Recognition of deferred tax assets;
- (ii) Note 40: Structured entities; and
- (iii) Note 46: Fair value of financial instruments.

3 SEGMENT ANALYSIS

Operating segments are identified on the basis of internal reports about components of the Group that are regularly reviewed by the Board of Directors and relevant management committees (Chief Operating Decision Maker) for the purposes of allocating resources to segments and assessing their performance. The Group's chief operating decision maker reviews consolidated financial statements mainly based on operating segments for the purpose of allocating resources and performance assessment.

Measurement of segment assets and liabilities and segment income and results is based on the Group's accounting policies. Segment information is prepared in conformity with the accounting policies adopted for preparing and presenting the consolidated financial statements as disclosed in Note 2.

Internal charges and transfer pricing are determined with reference to market rates and have been reflected in the performance of each segment. Interest income and expense arising from internal charges and transfer pricing adjustments are referred to as "inter-segment interest income/expense". Interest income and expense earned from/incurred with third parties are referred to as "external interest income/expense".

Segment revenue, results, assets and liabilities include items directly attributable to a segment as well as those that can be allocated on a reasonable basis.

The Group provides a diversified range of banking and related financial services. The products and services offered to customers are organised into the following operating segments:

Corporate banking

The corporate banking segment provides financial products and services to corporations, government agencies and financial institutions. The products and services include corporate loans, trade financing, deposit takings and other types of corporate intermediary services, except for those carried by subsidiaries of the Bank.

Retail banking

The retail banking segment provides financial products and services to individual customers. The products and services include personal loans, deposit products, card business, personal wealth management services and other types of personal intermediary services, except for those carried by subsidiaries of the Bank.

Financial market business

The Group's financial market business conduct money market or repurchase transactions, and financial investments for its own accounts or on behalf of customers, except for those carried by subsidiaries of the Bank.

Segment result represents the profit earned by each segment without allocation of certain other income, gains or losses, share of profits of associates, income tax expense and results from subsidiaries of the Group. Segment assets/liabilities are allocated to each segment, excluding investment properties, loans and advances to customers, interests in associates and assets/liabilities of the subsidiaries of the Group. This is the measure reported to the Chief Operating Decision Maker for the purposes of resource allocation and performance assessment.

The Group leases land and buildings, machinery and equipment for its operations. Lease contracts are entered into for fixed term of 1 year to 20 years. Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. In determining the lease term and assessing the length of the non-cancellable period, the Group applies the definition of a contract and determines the period for which the contract is enforceable.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group had entered into RMB1.66 million leases that have not yet commenced (December 31, 2024: RMB1.86 million).

(2) Main terms of Perpetual Bonds

With the approval of Jiangxi Office of National Financial Regulatory Administration on Jiujiang Bank's Issuance of undated tier 1 capital bonds (Gan Jin Jian Fu [2025] No. 215) and the Decision of the People's Bank of China on Granting Administrative License (Bank Approval Word [2025] No. 45), the Bank issued a total of RMB5.8 billion (2025 first tranche) and RMB1.2 billion (2025 second tranche) undated tier 1 capital bonds in the national interbank bond market on December 5, 2025 and December 25, 2025, respectively. The unit par value of the bond (including the first and second tranches, the bonds below are synonymous) is RMB100, the interest rate for the first 5 years is 2.80% and 2.85%, respectively, and the coupon rate adjusted period will be every 5 years from the issuance of the bonds. In any coupon rate adjusted period, the coupon rate of the bonds will be made at a prescribed fixed coupon rate.

With the approval of Jiangxi Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission on Jiujiang Bank's Issuance of undated tier 1 capital bonds (Jiangxi Banking and Insurance Regulatory Commission [2020] No. 363) and the Decision of the People's Bank of China on Granting Administrative License (Bank Approval Word [2021] No. 17), the Bank issued a total of RMB3 billion (2021 first tranche) and RMB4 billion (2021 second tranche) undated tier 1 capital bonds in the national interbank bond market on February 9, 2021 and April 15, 2021, respectively. The unit par value of the bond (including the first and second tranches, the bonds below are synonymous) is RMB100, the interest rate for the first 5 years is 4.80%, and the coupon rate adjusted period will be every 5 years from the issuance of the bonds. In any coupon rate adjusted period, the coupon rate of the bonds will be made at a prescribed fixed coupon rate.

The Bonds will continue to be outstanding so long as the Bank's business continues to operate. This bond issuance is subject to the Bank's conditional redemption clause. The Issuer shall have the right to redeem the current Bonds in whole or in part on the annual Coupon payment Date (including the coupon payment date of the fifth year after the issuance date) five years after the issuance date. The issuer has the right to redeem the Bonds in whole, but not in part, in the event of an unpredictable regulatory change that prevents the current issuance from being counted as other Tier 1 capital. The issuer shall exercise the right of redemption upon the approval of the NFRA and upon meeting the following conditions: (1) replace the redeemed bond with a capital instrument of the same or higher class, and the replacement of the capital instrument shall be implemented only if the profitability of the Bank remains sustainable; (2) Or the capital adequacy ratio remains significantly higher than the regulatory after the exercise of the right.

The Bank has the right to cancel, in whole or in part, distributions on the Bonds and any such cancellation does not constitute an event of default. The Bank will fully consider the interests of bondholders when exercising this right. Cancellation of any distributions to the Bonds, no matter in whole or in part, will not impose any other restriction on the Bank, except in relation to dividend distributions to ordinary shares. The dividend is paid on a non-cumulative basis, that is, the dividend not paid in full to the shareholder previously will not accumulated to the next interest-bearing year. The Bonds do not contain interest rate step-up mechanism or any other redemption incentives.

After deducting the issuance expenses, the Bonds will be used to replenish the other tier 1 capital of the issuer in accordance with applicable laws and the approval of the competent authorities.

(3) Surplus reserve

Pursuant to the Company Law of PRC, corporation is required to transfer 10% of its net profit, determined under the relevant accounting rules in the PRC, to a non-distributable statutory surplus reserve. Appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve may cease when the balance of such reserve has reached 50% of the share capital.

After making the appropriation to the statutory surplus reserve, the corporation may also appropriate its net profit for the year to a discretionary surplus reserve upon approval by the shareholders in General Meeting. Subject to the approval by the shareholders, the discretionary surplus reserve may be used to offset accumulated losses of the corporation, if any, and may be converted into capital.

44 CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Group's capital management includes capital adequacy ratio management, capital financing management and economic capital management, of which the primary focus is on capital adequacy ratio management. The Group calculates the capital adequacy ratio in accordance with "Regulation Governing Capital of Commercial Banks" and other relevant regulations promulgated by the NFRA on October 26, 2023. The capital of the Group is divided into core tier-one capital, other tier-one capital and tier-two capital.

Capital adequacy ratio management is the key in capital management. The capital adequacy ratio reflects the soundness of the Group's operations and risk management capabilities. The main objective in capital adequacy ratio management is to set an optimal capital adequacy ratio that meets the regulatory requirements by benchmarking against the capital adequacy ratio level of leading peer banks with reference to its own business environment and conditions.

The Group considers its strategic development plans, business expansion plans and risk variables when conducting scenario analysis and stress testing and executing other measures to forecast, plan and manage its capital adequacy ratio.

The NFRA requires commercial banks to meet the requirements of capital adequacy ratios by in accordance with "Regulation Governing Capital of Commercial Banks". For commercial banks, the minimum ratios for core tier-one capital adequacy ratio, tier-one capital adequacy ratio and capital adequacy ratio are 5.00%, 6.00% and 8.00%, respectively and capital conservation buffer requires additional 2.5% of Common Equity Tier-one Capital Adequacy Ratio.

Both the on-balance and off-balance sheet risk-weighted assets are measured using different risk weights, which are determined according to the credit, market and other risks associated with each asset and counterparty as well as any eligible collateral or guarantees.

45 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Overview

The primary objectives of risk management of the Group are to maintain risk within acceptable parameters and satisfy the regulatory requirements.

The Group's risk management policies are designed, and controls are set up to identify, analyse, monitor and report risks arising from normal operation. The Group regularly reviews its risk management policies and systems to address changes in markets, products and emerging best practices.

Details of the financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes to the consolidated financial statements. The risks associated with these financial instruments include credit risk, liquidity risk and market risk (i.e. interest rate risk, foreign currency risk and other price risk). The Group manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented on a timely and effective manner.

Risk management framework

The risk management organisation structure of the Group consists of the Board of Directors and its committees, senior management and its committees and Significant Risk Sector composed of functional departments, risk directors and risk managers, which is a top-to-bottom and bank-wide risk management structure.

The Board of Directors is the Group's highest decision-making body for risk management, and is responsible for establishing and maintaining an effective risk management system and assumes the ultimate responsibilities in respect of comprehensive risk management. The Risk Management Committee under the Board of Directors assists the Board of Directors in reviewing the Group's risk strategy, risk appetite, risk limits, risk management policies and major risk management systems and reports. During the reporting period, the Board of Supervisors assumes the supervisory responsibility for the comprehensive risk management of the Group, overseeing the performance of the Board of Directors and senior management in risk management and urging corrective actions. From 31 December 2025, the Group cancelled the Board of Supervisors, and the functions and powers of the Board of Supervisors were performed by the Audit Committee of the Board. Senior management and its sub-committees formulate and implement corresponding risk management strategies in accordance with the risk management objectives of the Board of Directors, and provide and secure resources to implement specific risk management work. The significant risk sector, consisting of the Risk Management Department, Credit Extension Department and Risk Asset Management Department of the head office, integrates resources and collaborates to carry out the integrated management of major risks within the Group. Risk managers are assigned to branches, important business lines, centers and departments, subject to the management and assessment of the head office, to carry out risk management of their institutions.

The Risk Management Department of the Group is the lead department for management of credit risk, market risk, and information technology risk, and is the management department for other risks. The Planning and Finance Department, Legal and Compliance Department and General Management Department are the lead departments for management of other risks.

(1) Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of losses due to the default of the debtors or counterparties or the reduction in their credit ratings and performance capabilities. The credit risks of the Group mainly distributed among loans, financial investments, guarantees, commitments and other on-balance and off-balance sheet credit risk exposures. The Group monitors all financial assets that are subject to impairment test requirements to assess whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition. If there has been a significant increase in credit risk, the Group will measure the loss allowance based on lifetime ECL rather than 12-month ECL.

Credit risk management

The credit risk management organisation system of the Group is composed of the Board of Directors, senior management, Risk Management Department, Audit Department and other credit risk-taking department, etc., thus forming a credit risk management structure characterised by centralised and unified management and hierarchical authorisation and implementation. The Board of Directors is the Group's highest decision-making body for credit risk management, which undertakes the ultimate responsibility of credit risk management. The Risk Management Committee subordinate to the Board of Directors is responsible for deliberating on the strategic planning of credit risk management, major policies and risk capital allocation schemes, evaluating their implementation and effect, making recommendations to the Board of Directors and reviewing major credit risk management matters as authorised by the Board of Directors. Senior management is the Group's highest decision-making body for daily credit risk management, which is responsible for fully organising the implementation of credit risk management strategies and risk appetite approved by the Board of Directors, putting credit risk management policies, procedures and measures into practice, and undertaking the credit risk arising from business operation. Risk Management Department is the Group's leading department for credit risk management, which is responsible for formulating and organising the implementation of basic policies, systems, measures, procedures and risk evaluation criteria for credit risk management. Credit Approval Department is responsible for implementing risk of the credit approval process. The competent department of each business line is responsible for their respective credit approval, as well as inspection and supervision over the implementation and execution of the Group's credit risk-related policies. Audit Department is responsible for the independent review and evaluation of the Group's credit risk management system, including but not limited to auditing the effectiveness of credit risk management measures and system operation.

Impairment Assessment

Measurement of Expected Credit Loss (ECL)

In accordance with IFRS 9, the Group classifies financial instruments measured at amortised cost or FVOCI into three stages and makes provisions for expected credit losses, accordingly, depending on whether credit risk on that financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. Detailed definition of stages is included in Note 2.

For the purpose of ECL measurement, the Group has divided exposures with common credit risk characteristics into separate groups. When grouping corporate business, the Group considered credit risk characteristics such as client type and the industry in which the client operates. When grouping personal business, the Group considered credit risk characteristics such as product type. The Group obtained sufficient information to ensure it is statistically reliable.

In order to minimise credit risk, the Group has tasked its Risk Management Committee to develop and maintain the Group's credit risk grading to categorise exposures according to their degree of risk of default. The Group's credit risk grading framework comprises ten categories. The credit rating information is based on a range of data that is determined to be predictive of the risk of default and applying experienced credit judgement. The nature of the exposure and type of borrower are taken into account in the analysis. Credit risk grades are defined using qualitative and quantitative factors that are indicative of risk of default.

Significant increase in credit risk

The Group takes into consideration all reasonable and supportable information (including forward-looking information) that reflects significant change in credit risk for the purposes of classifying financial instruments. The main considerations are regulatory and industry environment, internal and external credit risk gradings, operational and financial situation, contractual terms, and historical repayment records etc. The Group compares the risk of default of a single financial instrument or a portfolio of financial instruments with similar credit risk characteristics as at the reporting date and its risk of default at the date of initial recognition to determine changes in the risk of default during the lifetime of a financial instrument or a portfolio of financial instruments.

When one or more quantitative or qualitative standards are triggered, the Group assumes that credit risk on financial instruments has increased significantly:

- (i) The principal or interest of loan is past due for more than 30 days;
- (ii) The five-category loan classification is special mention; or
- (iii) Risk warning signals appear: a credit risk event that is likely to cause a significant adverse effect; deterioration of willingness for repayment, such as malicious debt evasion, fraud, etc; less value of the collaterals (for the collateralised loans and pledged loans only); and etc.

As at December 31, 2024 and December 31, 2025, the Group has not considered that any of its financial instruments has lower credit risk and no longer compared the credit risk at the balance sheet date with that at the initial recognition to identify whether there was a significant increase in credit risk.

Definition of default

The Group defines a borrower as in default when it meets any of the following criteria:

- (i) The principal or interest of loan is past due for more than 90 days; or
- (ii) The corporate borrower is unlikely to pay its credit obligations to the Group in full, without recourse by the Group to actions such as liquidation against collateral.

Generally, a financial asset is considered to be credit-impaired if:

- It has been overdue for more than 90 days;
- In light of economic, legal or other factors, the Group has made concessions to a borrower in financial difficulties, which would otherwise have been impossible under normal circumstances;
- The borrower is probable to be insolvent or carry out other financial restructurings;
- Due to serious financial difficulties, the financial asset cannot continue to be traded in an active market;
- There are other objective evidences that the financial asset is impaired;
- Borrowers' ability to repay their loans is in question and they cannot rely entirely on normal operational revenues to repay principal and interest. Losses may ensue even when collateral or guarantees are invoked;
- Borrowers cannot repay principal and interest in full and significant losses will need to be recognised even when collateral or guarantees are invoked;
- Only a small portion or none of the principal and interest can be recovered after taking all possible measures and exhausting all legal remedies.

Description of parameters, assumptions, and estimation techniques

ECL is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECL or lifetime ECL depending on whether a significant increase in credit risk has occurred since initial recognition or whether an asset is considered to be credit-impaired. The Group uses the probability of default/loss given default model to assess ECL. ECL is the product of the Probability of Default (“PD”), Loss Given Default (“LGD”), and Exposure at Default (“EAD”), considering the time value of money. Related definitions are as follows:

- probability of default (PD): is an estimate of the likelihood of default over 12 months or lifetime horizon;
- loss given default (LGD): is the proportion of the loss arising on default to the exposure at default;
- exposure at default (EAD): is an estimate of the exposure at a future default date, taking into account expected changes in the exposure after the reporting date, including repayments of principal and interest, and expected drawdowns on committed facilities.

The assumptions underlying the ECL calculation, such as how the PDs and LGDs of different maturity profiles change are periodically monitored and reviewed by the Group. These parameters are generally derived from internally developed statistical models and other historical data and they are adjusted to reflect probability-weighted forward-looking information.

Forward-looking information contained in ECL

According to the different risk characteristics of assets, the Group divides assets into different asset groups, identifies macro indicators related to credit risks, and establishes regression models. The Group uses forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort and predict the macro-economic assumptions. External information includes macro-economic data, forecast information issued by government or regulatory agencies. The key macro-economic assumptions used by the Group mainly includes GDP (cumulative year-on-year) and stock of social financing: CNY loans (month-on-month). Under the baseline scenario, the projected values for the above are 5.10% (4.00% in 2024) and 7.00% (9.70% in 2024) respectively.

The Group assumes three economic scenarios: the baseline scenario in line with the average internal forecast; the optimistic scenario and the pessimistic scenario. As at December 31, 2025, the weighting of the baseline scenario determined by the Group’s assessment is 50%, the optimistic scenario weight is 30%, and the weighting of the pessimistic scenario is 20% (December 31, 2024: same as above). Weighted credit loss is the expected credit loss calculated by assigning scenario weighting of multiple scenarios.

As at December 31, 2025, the Group has taken into account different macroeconomic scenarios and made forward-looking forecasts of key economic indicators, and has carried out sensitivity analysis of key economic variables used in forward-looking measurement. When the weighting of the optimistic scenario increases by 10% and the weighting of the baseline scenario decreases by 10%, the ECL amount at December 31, 2025 will decrease by no more than 1% compared to the current result. When the weighting of the pessimistic scenario increases by 10% and the weighting of the baseline scenario decreases by 10%, the ECL amount at December 31, 2025 will increase by no more than 1% compared to the current result.

Collateral and other credit enhancements

The amount and type of collateral required depend on the assessment of the credit risk of the counterparty. Guidelines are in place specifying the types of collateral and valuation parameters which can be accepted.

Reverse repurchase business is mainly collateralised by bills or bonds. As part of the reverse repurchase agreements, the Group has received securities that it is allowed to sell or repledge in the absence of default by their owners.

Corporate loans and discounted bills are mainly collateralised/pledged by properties or other assets. As at December 31, 2025, the carrying value (before deduction of expected credit loss) of corporate loans and discounted bills amounted to RMB248,752.89 million (December 31, 2024: RMB231,453.98 million), of which credit exposure covered by collateral/pledge amounted to RMB116,176.56 million (December 31, 2024: RMB113,683.24 million).

Retail loans are mainly collateralised by residential properties. As at December 31, 2025, the carrying value (before deduction of expected credit loss) of retail loans amounted to RMB80,089.83 million (December 31 2024: RMB89,390.96 million), of which credit exposure covered by collateral amounted to RMB41,332.99 million (December 31, 2024: RMB48,904.56 million).

Management monitors the market value of collateral periodically and requests additional collateral in accordance with the underlying agreement when it is considered necessary.

It is the Group's policy to dispose of repossessed assets in an orderly manner. In general, the Group does not occupy repossessed assets for business use.

(a) Rescheduled loans and advances

Rescheduled loans and advances arise from rescheduling or deferring the repayment terms mainly representing offering lower interest rate or extending payment schedule. Rescheduled loans and advances are under continuous monitoring by the Group.

Contractual amount of rescheduled loans and advances for the Group as at December 31, 2025 amounted to RMB13,357.29 million (December 31, 2024: RMB14,542.91 million), among which loans and advances overdue for more than 90 days amounted to RMB430.01 million (December 31, 2024: RMB412.96 million).

(2) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk refers to the risk of failure of commercial banks to acquire sufficient funds in a timely manner at a reasonable cost to pay off debts due or meet liquidity demands in line with expansion of business operations. The objective of the Group's liquidity management is to ensure sufficient fund positions to meet requirements for solvency obligations and business settlement in a timely manner.

On the basis of predicting liquidity demands, the Group formulates corresponding liquidity management plans. The specific methods mainly include:

- Setting target ratio on assets and liabilities structure in accordance with the regulatory requirements and business plan;
- Maintaining stability of deposit base; and
- Making advanced projection on future cash flows and evaluating the appropriate current assets position.

- (b) Indefinite amount of loans and advances to customers includes all the credit-impaired loans, as well as those overdue more than one month. Loans and advances to customers with no impairment but overdue within one month are classified into the category of repayable on demand.
- (c) Financial investments comprise financial investments at amortised cost, financial investments at fair value through profit or loss and financial investments at fair value through other comprehensive income. Indefinite amount of financial investments represent credit-impaired investments or those overdue more than one month. Unlisted equity investments is listed in the category of indefinite.

(3) Market risk

Market risk refers to the risk of losses to the Group's on and off-balance sheet activities, arising from adverse movements in market prices (interest rates, exchange rates, stock prices and commodity prices). According to the Group's asset allocation, the market risks faced by the Group are mainly interest rate risk and exchange rate risk, including trading books and bank books.

The Group considers the market risk arising from equity price movements in respect of its trading and investment portfolios as immaterial.

The Group's foreign currency risk is the risk of loss in respect of its foreign currency exposures, arising from transactions taken on foreign currency denominated assets and liabilities, which results from movements in foreign currency exchange rates.

The Group is primarily exposed to interest rate risk arising from corporate and retail banking business and treasury business. Interest rate risk is inherent in many of its businesses and largely arises from mismatches between the re-pricing dates of interest-generating assets and those of interest-bearing liabilities.

The table below indicates the potential effect of a 10% appreciation or depreciation of foreign currency exchange spot rates against RMB on net profit.

	2025 Increase/ (decrease) in net profit	2024 Increase/ (decrease) in net profit
10% appreciation	127,893	126,358
10% depreciation	(127,893)	(126,358)

The impact on net profit arises from the effects of movement in exchange rates on the net positions of foreign currency monetary assets and monetary liabilities. Changes in foreign currency exchange rate will affect other comprehensive income.

The effect on net profit is calculated based on the assumption that the Group's net foreign currency exposure at the end of each reporting period remains unchanged. The Group mitigates its foreign currency risk through active management of its foreign currency exposures, based on the management expectation of future foreign currency movements, and therefore the above sensitivity analysis may differ from the actual situation.

Interest rate risk

The interest rate risk of the Group arises from the mismatches between contractual maturities or re-pricing of interest-generating assets and interest-bearing liabilities. The interest-generating assets and interest-bearing liabilities of the Group are mainly denominated in RMB. The PBOC establishes RMB benchmark interest rates which serve as references for commercial banks.

The Group manages its interest rate risk by:

- Regularly monitoring the macro-economic factors that may impact the PBOC benchmark interest rates;
- Minimising the mismatches between contractual maturities or re-pricing of interest-generating assets and interest-bearing liabilities; and
- Enhancing the interest rate margin between the interest-generating assets and interest-bearing liabilities with reference to the prevailing PBOC benchmark interest rates.

The following table illustrates the potential impact of a parallel upward or downward shift of 100 basis points in RMB's yield curve on the net interest income and other comprehensive income, based on the Group's position of interest-generating assets and interest-bearing liabilities excluding current deposits at the end of each reporting period.

	2025		2024
	Net interest income	Other comprehensive income	Net interest income	Other comprehensive income
+100 basis points	(125,064)	(977,960)	(210,051)	(1,828,875)
- 100 basis points	125,280	1,053,215	210,791	2,026,553

The sensitivity analysis on net interest income is carried out based on reasonably possible changes in interest rates in the coming year with the assumption that the structure of financial assets and financial liabilities (except current deposits) held at the end of the reporting period remain unchanged.

The sensitivity analysis on other comprehensive income is the effect on changes of fixed rate financial investments measured at FVOCI at the end of each reporting period after adjusting for reasonably possible changes in interest rates.

(4) Operational risk

Operational risk refers to risks caused by problems existed in internal procedures, employees or information technology systems, as well as external incidents.

The Group has set up a good operational risk governance organisational structure composed of the Party Committee, the Board of Directors, the senior management and three lines of defense. The Board of Directors is the Group's highest decision-making body regarding operational risk management. During the reporting period, the Board of Supervisors is responsible for supervising the performance of duties by the Board of Directors and the senior management. From 31 December 2025, the Group cancelled the Board of Supervisors, and the functions and powers of the Board of Supervisors were performed by the Audit Committee of the Board. The senior management is responsible for implementing operational risk management strategies, overall policies and systems approved by the Board of Directors, as well as continuously establishing and improving the three lines of defense for operational risk, and improving the operational risk management system that is appropriate for the scope of business, risk characteristics, scale of operation and regulatory requirements.

46 FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Certain financial instruments of the Group are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value measurements are categorised into Level 1, 2 or 3 based on the degree to which the inputs to the fair value measurements are observable and the significance of the inputs to the fair value measurement in its entirety, which are described below:

- Level 1 fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in active market for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2 fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the assets or liabilities, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3 fair value measurements are those derived from valuation techniques that include inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

The following tables give the information about how the fair values of these financial instruments are categorised and determined, in particular, the valuation technique(s) and input(s) used.

There were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 during the year ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Financial assets at FVTPL and financial assets at FVOCI are stated at fair value by reference to the quoted market prices when available.

If quoted market prices are not available, fair values are estimated on the basis of discounted cash flows or other pricing models. For debt securities, the fair values of bonds are determined based on the valuation results provided by China Central Depository Trust & Clearing Co., Ltd., which are determined based on a valuation technique for which all significant inputs are observable market data.

For the investment funds, the fair value is measured based on the observable quoted price of the underlying investment portfolio in active market.

The fair value of loans and advances to customers at FVOCI are categorised as Level 2. Based on the different credit risk, the Group uses the Shanghai Interbank Offered Rate (“SHIBOR”) as the basis for calculating the fair value of discounted bills.

For Level 3 financial assets, the Group adopts the discounted cash flow method or other valuation methods to determine the fair value. The fair value of trust beneficiary rights and asset management plans and others type of financial assets is measured by the expected discounted cash flows with unobservable input of discount rate reflecting the credit risk of debtors, and the fair value of equity investments type of financial assets are measured by market comparison approach with unobservable input of discount for lack of marketability.

51 POSSIBLE IMPACT OF AMENDMENTS, NEW STANDARDS AND INTERPRETATIONS ISSUED BUT NOT YET EFFECTIVE FOR THE YEAR ENDED DECEMBER 31, 2025

Up to the date of issue of these financial statements, a number of amendments, new standards and interpretations are issued which are not yet effective for the year ended December 31, 2025 and which have not been adopted in these financial statements. These developments include the following which may be relevant to the Group.

	Effective for accounting period beginning on or after
Amendments to IFRS 9, Financial instruments and IFRS 7, Financial instruments: disclosures – Amendments to the classification and measurement of financial instruments	January 1, 2026
Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11	January 1, 2026
IFRS 18, Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements	January 1, 2027
IFRS 19, Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures	January 1, 2027

The Group is in the process of making an assessment of what the impact of these developments is expected to be in the period of initial application. So far it has concluded that the adoption of them is unlikely to have a significant impact on the consolidated financial statements expect for the following:

IFRS 18, Presentation and disclosure in financial statements

IFRS 18 will replace IAS 1 Presentation of financial statements and aims to improve the transparency and comparability of information about an entity's financial statements. IFRS 18 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 and is to be applied retrospectively.

Among other changes, under IFRS 18, entities are required to classify all income and expenses into five categories in the statement of profit or loss, namely the operating, investing, financing, discontinued operations and income tax categories. Entities are also required to provide specific disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note in the financial statements.

The Group does not plan to early adopt IFRS 18 and is still in the process of assessing the impact of the adoption.
