KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

STABLE PROJECT DEVELOPMENT AND RESILIENT OPERATIONAL PERFORMANCE

- In April 2025, Shui On Land celebrated its 20th anniversary in Wuhan. The Group has deep roots in Wuhan stretching back to its redevelopment of the Yongqing area in 2005. Our three developments – “Wuhan Xintiandi”, “KIC Wuhan”, “Wuhan Changjiang Tiandi” – spanning over 3 million sq.m. have contributed significantly to Wuhan’s evolution as a national central city.
- Nanqiao Tiandi started its construction in January and acquired its first residential land parcel in April 2025. Shui On Land holds a 5% interest in the project and provides management services across project development, sales & marketing and asset management.
- Construction of public infrastructure at Zhaolou Xintiandi commenced in July 2025. The area’s urban functional zoning, transportation networks, and ecology have been prepared for a transformative upgrade, propelling the project into its substantive development phase.
- In September 2025, Shui On Land elevated “Xintiandi” from a commercial identity to a comprehensive community brand, drawing on its urban regeneration expertise to unlock new possibilities for city living. The “Xintiandi” community brand centres on the core value proposition of “Bring Places to Life,” emphasising the cultural and natural heritage of the landmark community while embracing an urban lifestyle of the future delivered through four pillars: high mixed-use community development, bringing heritage to life, fostering creativity and innovation, and sustainable development.
- To strengthen coherence and ecosystem synergies, six existing “Tiandi” communities have unified under the “Xintiandi” brand: Wuhan Xintiandi, Chongqing Xintiandi, Lingnan Xintiandi, Ruihong Xintiandi, Hongqiao Xintiandi, and Panlong Xintiandi.
- At the end of September 2025, KIC Park had its grand opening as the lively commercial centre of KIC Wuhan, a flagship Knowledge Community in the city. Positioned as a “knowledge innovation community” and embracing the concept of “commerce in the park,” the project has quickly become a new commercial hotspot that has captured the attention of Wuhan consumers.

- Xintiandi Dongtaili, located in the eastern section of Shanghai Xintiandi, officially opened in December 2025. Featuring a 6,500 sq.m. panoramic canopy and 84,000 sq.m. of open-air commercial space, it has revitalised the local heritage while reviving the city's vibrancy and stimulating consumption.
- Wuhan Xintiandi is a city landmark that preserves local cultural heritage while combining upscale residences, premium business spaces, and dynamic retail environments. The final phase of its residential development launched at the end of November 2025, achieving strong demand, with over 70% of units subscribed.
- The heritage-inspired villas of Lakeville VI attracted significant interest from high-net-worth buyers. All villas and townhouses with pre-sale permits have been sold. The remaining villas and townhouses are ready for sales contracts to be signed once the pre-sale permit is obtained.

SUCCESSFULLY FULFILLED FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

- Adhering to a prudent capital management strategy, the Group successfully fulfilled all its financial obligations during the year, including repayment of USD490 million senior notes due on 3 March 2025.

NEW DEVELOPMENT

- In June 2025, a new joint venture established by Shui On Land with Tian An China Investments Company Limited has succeeded in the acquisition via public tender of Yong Ye Group's 50% equity interest in a company holding three residential and commercial land parcels to the east of Shanghai Xintiandi, which together form the "Yong Xin Li" project, a high-end residential project under the Lakeville brand. The Group effectively owns a 15% interest in the project.
- In November 2025, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Shui On Land entered into a new partnership with Shanghai Lujiatzui, Shanghai Pudong Real Estate and Shanghai Sanlin to carry out an urban village renewal project ("Sanlin Project") in Xilin Village, Sanlin Town, Pudong Shanghai. The Group's effective interest in this project is 13.26%.

5C SUSTAINABILITY INITIATIVES AND ACHIEVEMENTS

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

“A major milestone during the year was the elevation of “Xintiandi” from a commercial brand to a comprehensive community brand that reflects decades of experience in urban regeneration and community operation. ”

The operating environment for the Group's businesses remained challenging in 2025. Despite persistent geopolitical uncertainties and trade tensions, China's economy achieved its 5% growth target, even as it continued to undergo structural transition. However, consumer confidence remained muted, while the property market was generally subdued. Selective policy easing early in the year brought a brief improvement in sentiment, but the recovery proved short-lived, with property sales softening again from the second quarter. Against this backdrop, developers across the country continued to confront liquidity constraints and operational pressures.

The Group reported a loss attributable to shareholders of RMB1,782 million in 2025, mainly due to downward revaluation adjustments on investment properties and impairment losses on inventories. It should be noted that such fair value losses are non-cash in nature and have no impact on either operating cash flows or core earnings. The Group's overall operating performance for the year remained resilient. Excluding the decrease in fair value of investment properties, the Group's core earnings were RMB397 million. Total rental and related income (including joint ventures and associates) increased to RMB3,625 million, while recognised property sales (after deduction of applicable taxes) amounted to RMB5,581 million.

Relentless Focus on Capital Management

Prudent and proactive capital management remained a central priority for the Group in 2025. The prolonged adjustment and correction of China's property sector, combined with constrained access to offshore financing channels, continues to test developers' liquidity and balance sheets. Throughout the year, the Group therefore focused on maintaining financial discipline, safeguarding liquidity and ensuring that all obligations were met in a timely manner.

VINCENT H. S. LO
Chairman

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The Group's financial position remains healthy. As at 31 December 2025, the Group's net gearing ratio stood at 52%, supported by cash and bank deposits of RMB6,451 million. We successfully fulfilled all financial obligations during the year, including the USD490 million senior notes due on 3 March 2025. Since 2021, a total gross amount of RMB48.6 billion of offshore debts has been repaid. As a result, the proportion of foreign-currency funding has been reduced substantially, from 77% in 2021 to 19% at the end of 2025. This in turn has substantially lowered the Group's overall cost of debt.

To enhance liquidity and optimise the Group's capital structure, we adopt a diversified approach to funding. This includes issuance of Commercial Mortgage-Backed Securities, selective asset disposals, repurchases of USD senior bonds, onshore financing initiatives and restructuring measures where appropriate. These actions not only strengthened the balance sheet but also supported the steady operation of our businesses under challenging market conditions.

Looking ahead, ensuring sufficient liquidity will remain our utmost priority. We will continue to exercise strong discipline in cost control, maintain a prudent investment stance and proactively manage our debt profile.

Xintiandi Communities Bring Places to Life

Throughout 2025, China's commercial property market presented a challenging landscape, characterised by a universal downward trend in rents across both the office and retail sectors. The office segment remained under pressure owing to persistent supply-demand imbalances, with uncertainty weighing on business sentiment and corporates' appetite for expansion. Meanwhile, the retail sector continued to undergo a reshaping of consumption patterns. Cultural and experiential spending, along with inbound tourism, have increasingly emerged as key drivers of retail demand. Despite this mixed picture, the Group's total rental and related income (including joint ventures and associates) continued its growth trend for the third consecutive year, rising 2% year-on-year to RMB3,625 million.

A major milestone during the year was the elevation of "Xintiandi" from a commercial brand to a comprehensive community brand that reflects decades of experience in urban regeneration and community operation. Under this new framework, Xintiandi embodies a forward-thinking lifestyle that celebrates cultural and natural heritage while embracing innovation, creativity and sustainability.

Xintiandi communities proved its strength in 2025. Average retail occupancy remained stable at 94%, with footfall and sales rising by 12% and 15% respectively. Two newly opened projects, namely Xintiandi Dongtaili in Shanghai and KIC Park in Wuhan, further expanded our recurring income generating portfolio. While the national office market remained subdued, our mature portfolio centred on Shanghai maintained a high average occupancy of 93%, supported by a refined leasing strategy, strong tenant relationships and differentiated community services. These strengths enabled our commercial assets to remain resilient despite the market volatility.

Lakeville Brand Redefines Urban Living

The supply-demand dynamics in China's residential market have shifted significantly, with the market continuing its adjustment in 2025. The volume and value of nationwide residential property sales fell by 9.2% and 13% year-on-year respectively in 2025. While first-tier and core second-tier cities continued to demonstrate relative resilience, supported by their stronger economic fundamentals, even they were not immune to market pressures in the second half of the year, reflecting a more cautious demand environment. Nonetheless, the high-end residential segment continued to stand out, with demand remaining comparatively strong as homebuyers increasingly prioritised product quality, service standards and long-term value retention.

Against this backdrop, the Group achieved contracted sales of RMB7,916 million in 2025, alongside RMB639 million of subscribed sales that are expected to convert into contracted sales in the coming months. Our flagship luxury living brand, Lakeville, continued to set benchmarks for premium urban living. Building on the strong performance of the Lakeville VI high-rise residences, the newest collection of heritage-inspired villas attracted significant interest from high-net-worth buyers. All villas and townhouses with pre-sale permits have been sold with an average price of RMB311,000 per sq.m.. The remaining villas and townhouses are ready for sales contracts to be signed once the pre-sale permit is obtained. This success reflects the enduring strength of the Lakeville brand and the confidence that discerning buyers place in our quality and service, and the premium lifestyle they create.

The Lakeville brand also continued to unlock new partnership opportunities in the premium segment. During the year, we expanded our Asset Light collaborations to undertake two new high-end residential projects, Yong Xin Li and Yong Nian Li, within Shanghai Xintiandi community. These projects will be developed and operated under the Lakeville brand, reinforcing our best-in-class product strategy.

Wuhan remained our largest regional market outside Shanghai. The final phase of Wuhan Xintiandi's residential development launched at the end of November, achieving strong demand. As at year-end, over 70% of units had been subscribed. The success of the Lakeville VI villas and the final phase of Wuhan Xintiandi reaffirms that premium assets offering "good homes and good services" continue to outperform and remain the preferred choice of high-net-worth individuals, even amid broader market weakness.

Sustainability Builds Community Resilience and Vibrancy

The strategic elevation of Xintiandi to a community brand reflects our conviction that the future of cities is shaped by communities, not standalone buildings. Our commitment to a low-carbon, climate-resilient, and culturally rich future is built into every community we develop and manage.

Guided by our 5C Sustainability Strategy, we are making concrete progress towards our 2030 decarbonisation targets by securing renewable electricity usage, implementing energy-reduction measures, deepening tenant engagement and continuing the use of lower-carbon emission materials in our developments. These efforts delivered a 57% reduction in Scope 1 & 2 emissions intensity and a 32% reduction in Scope 3 tenant emissions intensity versus our 2019 baseline. In parallel, we are strengthening climate resilience by embedding clear measures across the project lifecycle, from master-planning through operations, to prepare our assets better for physical climate risks.

Our performance is further evidenced by external recognition from leading benchmarks. In 2025, we achieved GRESB 5 Star and HKQAA "AA" ratings, while maintaining our leadership status on the CDP "A-List" in Climate. We were also honoured with the "Most Sustainable Organisations Awards" from the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. Together, these recognitions validate our capability to create sustainable communities, reinforcing that sustainability is embedded in our DNA as we build best-in-class, premium urban communities.

Outlook

Looking ahead, the global geopolitical landscape remains complex and marked by heightened volatility, requiring strategic vigilance. Global economic growth is projected to moderate as geopolitical tensions increasingly redefine trade relations and technological competition, suggesting that economic uncertainties will likely persist.

Domestically, the period of the 15th Five-Year Plan represents a critical phase in China's transition toward high-quality development. The Plan outlines strategic long-term opportunities, with a decisive emphasis on stimulating domestic demand, scientific and technological self-reliance through innovation, as well as the development of smart and green cities. These initiatives support national goals for sustainable growth and common prosperity.

China's property market is expected to remain in transition for the foreseeable future, as the sector moves toward a more sustainable, demand-driven development model. Market conditions are likely to remain challenging in the near term and the divergence between cities will continue to widen. Top-tier cities are expected to continue attracting population inflows, capital and talent, hence high-quality assets in these cities are expected to remain in demand. At the local level, provincial and municipal governments nationwide have intensified their focus on promoting urban regeneration. Shanghai has launched a comprehensive initiative to accelerate urban village renewal from 2026 onward, a strategic move designed to drive the city's highquality development.

Within this evolving context, the Group will continue to identify suitable investment and urban regeneration opportunities in top-tier cities in the Yangtze River Delta and Greater Bay Area in a prudent and disciplined manner, with Shanghai remaining our strongest foothold. Following the start of public infrastructure construction in July 2025, our urban village renewal project Zhaolou Xintiandi in Shanghai successfully secured its first residential plot in January 2026. The entire project is scheduled to be completed and launched in 2032.

In parallel, we will continue to broaden access to external sources of capital and expand strategic partnerships in accordance with the Asset Light strategy, leveraging our strengths in urban regeneration and community operation. In November, we entered into our latest such partnership, with Shanghai Lujiazui (Group) Co., Ltd., Shanghai Pudong New Area Real Estate (Group) Co., Ltd. and Shanghai Sanlin Asset Management (Group) Co., Ltd. to undertake another urban village renewal project at Sanlin in the Pudong New Area of Shanghai. The Group has an effective 13.26% interest in the project, which represents an excellent opportunity to unleash our brand advantage to develop a new landmark in one of Shanghai's most dynamic districts.

Appreciation to our Stakeholders

Finally, I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my fellow Board members for their counsel, and to our management team and employees for helping the Group to remain resilient during another year of challenges. I am also grateful to our shareholders, partners and customers for their continued trust and support. Guided by prudence, discipline and a proven long-term strategy, I am confident that we will continue to navigate the current difficult market as we create and sustain the vibrant communities that are our hallmark.

Lot 123 (Tower 2) and Lot 124 (Tower 1) were completed in 2024. Xintiandi Dongtaili, the retail podium of Lot 123 and Lot 124 officially opened for operations in December 2025.

Panlong Xintiandi

Panlong Xintiandi comprises residential sites, culture and recreation areas, restaurant and hotel developments, as well as parkland and open space for the public. The project is located in Shanghai's Qingpu District, which is part of the Hongqiao central business district ("CBD"). - Chongqing Tiandi partnership portfolio is a project developed by associates of the Group. The Group holds a 19.8% interest in the partnership portfolio.
- Except for Riverville, Wuhan Changjiang Tiandi and Chongqing Tiandi partnership portfolio, the projects have been renamed and were previously known as Shanghai Taipingqiao, Ruihong Tiandi, Panlong Tiandi, Wuhan Tiandi, Wuhan Innovation Tiandi, Lingnan Tiandi and Chongqing Tiandi respectively.

Contracted Property Sales, Subscribed Sales, and Locked-in Sales

The Group's contracted property sales for 2025 decreased by 47% to RMB7,916 million compared to 2024, with residential property sales accounting for 92% and the remainder contributed by the sale of commercial units. The ASP for residential property sales was RMB64,600 per sq.m. in 2025, compared to RMB134,900 per sq.m. in 2024. The decreases in contracted property sales and in the ASP for residential property sales were primarily due to changes in project mix. In 2025, a lower proportion of contracted property sales was generated from higher ASP projects in Shanghai. We target more launches in 2026 and beyond, mainly in Shanghai and Wuhan (subject to construction progress and the timing of government pre-sale approval).

As of 31 December 2025:

- i) total subscribed sales were RMB639 million, with RMB299 million contributed by Riverville in Shanghai. These were subject to formal sales and purchase agreements in the coming months.
- ii) total locked-in sales of RMB17,231 million were recorded and available for delivery to customers and to be recognised in the Group's financial results in 2026 and beyond.

The table below provides an analysis by project of contracted sales (stated before the deduction of applicable taxes) for 2025 and 2024:

SXTD: The Group's Flagship Commercial Business Unit

SXTD invests in and manages premium commercial properties in China. With over two decades of experience in investing and operating in China, we have built landmark communities over the years including our flagship project Xintiandi Shikumen Block. With high quality services and constant innovation, we aim to build landmark communities that combine culture, heritage and lifestyle.

Commercial Properties Portfolio

Our retail portfolio remained stable with an average occupancy of 94% as of 31 December 2025, demonstrating the strength of Xintiandi Communities. In 2025, overall sales in our portfolio increased by 15%, and shopper traffic rose by 12%. Rental reversion was negative, given the impact of changing consumption patterns in the retail market.

The office market has remained under pressure owing to persistent supply-demand imbalances, with uncertainty weighing on business sentiment. Despite the subdued office market, occupancy of our mature Shanghai office portfolio remained stable, achieving an average occupancy rate of 93% as of 31 December 2025 and outperforming the overall Grade A office occupancy rate of 75.7% in Shanghai reported by Jones Lang LaSalle ("JLL"). This resilience is underpinned by the high quality of our assets and services, prime locations of our properties and strong tenant relationships. Rental reversion remained negative as of 31 December 2025 amidst intense competition.

Rental and related income for the Group fell by 21% to RMB1,949 million in 2025 compared to RMB2,456 million in 2024. The drop was mainly due to the restructuring of KIC Shanghai as announced in November 2024, resulting in the reclassification of rental income of RMB435 million to rental income from joint venture in 2025.

Including the rental and related income from joint venture and associate properties, the total rental and related income grew 2% year-on-year to RMB3,625 million in 2025, of which 78% of the total was contributed by the portfolio located in Shanghai, with the remainder from other cities in China.

This innovative space redefines urban living with 84,000 sq.m. of open-air shops, offering a rich mix of dining, art, and lifestyle experiences. By celebrating local culture and hosting cultural events, Xintiandi Dongtaili aims to revive the city's vibrancy and become a lively urban hub. Benefitting from the opening of Xintiandi Dongtaili, rental and related income at Shanghai Xintiandi achieved strong growth of 14% for the year.

Hongqiao Xintiandi:

Located in the heart of the Hongqiao central business district ("CBD"), Hongqiao Xintiandi is the only commercial complex that is directly connected to the Hongqiao Transportation Hub, offering convenient access to major transportation nodes such as the Shanghai High-Speed Rail Terminal, Shanghai Hongqiao International Airport, five underground metro lines, the long-haul bus station and the future maglev terminal. Hongqiao Xintiandi features four office towers, a Xintiandi commercial zone, a shopping facility and a performance and exhibition centre. Rental and related income reduced by 18% in 2025 reflecting a decline in the rental reversion of the office portfolio, caused by oversupply and downward pressure on market rents. Strategically located in Hongqiao CBD, the gateway to the Yangtze River Delta region, Hongqiao Xintiandi has attracted regional headquarters and branch offices of leading companies from various industries, including Fortune 500 companies.

Ruihong Xintiandi:

In addition to office space and services, KIC comprises retail and mixed-use areas, including University Avenue and the KIC Village Zone, which offer the community a wide selection of gourmet cuisine, coffee shops, bookstores, galleries and creative retail stores. Through the KIC project, we have facilitated the transformation of the Yangpu District from an industrial and manufacturing area into a community for knowledge and innovation. The KIC project has thus been regarded as a landmark of innovation and entrepreneurship in Shanghai. In November 2024, the Group entered into a cooperation agreement with the existing shareholders of the KIC Shanghai to restructure its investment holding structure through the formation of a limited partnership and an equity transfer. The equity transfer was completed in December 2024 and KIC Shanghai ceased to be subsidiaries of the Company accordingly. In 2025, rental and related income at KIC Shanghai was 9% lower than in 2024, partly due to a decline in the rental reversion of the office portfolio amidst a subdued market.

Inno KIC:

Since its opening, Hong Shou Fang has become a local landmark as our signature project in the centre of the neighbourhood. Shopper traffic has remained high and it marks a significant milestone in our neighbourhood community product line-up. Rental and related income achieved strong growth of 49% in 2025, supported by a higher occupancy rate in the office portfolio.

Wuhan Xintiandi:

Wuhan Xintiandi is a large-scale, mixed-use community project comprising office, retail, food and beverage and entertainment facilities. STRATEGY GOING FORWARD

Since 2016, the Group has pursued an Asset-Light strategy to propel its growth in a more effective and productive way. Under this approach, the Group has been progressively introducing financial investors for our mature commercial assets to strategically recycle capital, and undertakes new development projects through partnerships in which we hold a minority stake, while providing professional management services for the development, sales and marketing, asset management and operations of the projects. Through this strategy, the Group can fully leverage and capitalise on its brand and expertise in project development and asset management to expand the business amidst a highly volatile market, while creating new revenue streams from various management fee income sources.

The latest such partnership was formed in November 2025, with Shanghai Lujiazui (Group) Co., Ltd., Shanghai Pudong New Area Real Estate (Group) Co., Ltd. and Shanghai Sanlin Asset Management (Group) Co., Ltd. for carrying out an urban village renewal project at Sanlin in the Pudong New Area of Shanghai, which has a planned gross floor area of approximately 724,000 sq.m., comprising both residential and commercial space. The project will strengthen the Group's urban renewal product line by establishing a new landmark in one of Shanghai's most dynamic districts. The Group holds a 13.26% effective interest in the project. The table below summarises the Asset-Light projects the Group has participated in as of 31 December 2025:

The Group's effective funding commitment for the project amounts to approximately RMB1,215 million. The Group holds a 13.26% effective interest in the project.

Looking ahead, we will continue to drive business expansion through our Asset-Light strategy in a prudent and disciplined manner, focusing on investment and urban regeneration opportunities in top-tier cities in the Yangtze River Delta and Greater Bay, with Shanghai remaining our strongest foothold. In the near term, the Group's top priority remains maintaining liquidity and ensuring financial stability. Our long-term goal is to become the "best in class" leader in selective markets and in the various products we create, delivering a balanced strategy between property development and asset management and driving sustainable growth in profitability.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The Group's revenue for 2025 decreased by 50% to RMB4,093 million, compared to RMB8,173 million in 2024, due mainly to a decline in property sales.

Property sales for 2025 were sales of residential and carpark inventories across various projects, totalling RMB499 million (2024: RMB4,356 million). No new residential project was completed in 2025. In comparison, property sales in 2024 were mainly from Wuhan Xintiandi La Riva III (Lot B12), which completed in September 2024 and contributed RMB4,138 million.

Rental and related income from property investment for 2025 fell 21% to RMB1,949 million (2024: RMB2,456 million). The decrease was mainly due to the restructuring of the ownership of KIC Shanghai as announced in November 2024, following which the income from KIC Shanghai in 2025 of RMB435 million was accounted for as income from a joint venture and not reflected in the Group's revenue. Excluding the impact from the deconsolidation of KIC Shanghai, which contributed RMB441 million to Group's revenue in 2024, rental and related income of the Group for 2025 declined by 3%, primarily due to a decrease in rental income from the office portfolio.

Rental and related income from the Group's Shanghai properties, which accounted for 66% (2024: 73%) of the total, was also affected by the deconsolidation of KIC Shanghai and decreased to RMB1,296 million (2024: RMB1,786 million). On a like-for-like basis, rental and related income from the Group's Shanghai properties decreased by 4% compared to the same period last year, primarily due to a decline in the rental reversion of the Shanghai office portfolio, caused by oversupply and downward pressure on market rents. The decrease was partially offset by the rental growth in Xintiandi Shikumen Block, which generated rental and related income of RMB511 million in 2025 (2024: RMB488 million). Rental and related income from the Group's properties outside Shanghai decreased by 3% to RMB653 million in 2025 (2024: RMB670 million).

Property management income for 2025 decreased by 9% to RMB552 million (2024: RMB608 million), of which RMB390 million (2024: RMB447 million) was derived from services rendered to commercial properties, and the remaining RMB162 million (2024: RMB161 million) was from residential properties. The decrease in property management income was mainly attributable to the deconsolidation of KIC Shanghai. Excluding this impact, property management income from commercial properties for 2025 was stable compared with 2024.

Construction income generated by the construction business increased to RMB492 million in 2025 (2024: RMB395 million), with the growth mainly from the construction services rendered to the Group's joint ventures, Riverville and KIC Wuhan.

Other revenue, mainly comprising asset management fee income, management services fee income from Asset-Light projects and hotel operation income, advanced by 68% to RMB601 million in 2025 (2024: RMB358 million). The growth reflects the effectiveness of the Group's Asset-Light strategy in expanding its assets under management and enhancing its recurring fee income streams.

Gross profit for 2025 declined by 60% to RMB2,115 million (2024: RMB5,228 million) in line with the lower Group's revenue. Since the profit margin on the inventory sales was relatively low, the gross profit margin declined to 52% in 2025 (2024: 64%).

Other income for 2025 dropped by 57% to RMB141 million (2024: RMB326 million), mainly comprising bank interest income and interest income from joint ventures. The decrease was primarily due to the reduced interest rates on loans to joint ventures.

Selling and marketing expenses for 2025 fell by 17% to RMB110 million (2024: RMB133 million).

General and administrative expenses, which comprise staff costs, depreciation charges and advisory costs, decreased by 11% to RMB825 million in 2025 (2024: RMB932 million). Excluding the impact from the deconsolidation of KIC Shanghai, general and administrative expenses decreased by 9%, reflecting the effectiveness of the Group's ongoing cost control initiatives.

Decrease in the fair value of investment properties totalled RMB643 million in 2025 (2024: RMB207 million), comprising a valuation loss of RMB43 million (2024: a valuation gain of RMB33 million) from the Shanghai portfolio and a valuation loss of RMB600 million (2024: RMB240 million) from properties outside Shanghai. The section on "Investment Properties" in the Business Review part of this report provides detailed descriptions of these properties.

Other gains and losses recorded a net loss of RMB924 million in 2025 (2024: net loss of RMB279 million), comprised of:

(LOSSES)/GAINS	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million
Impairment provision for assets classified as held for sale	(907)	–
Provision for impairment losses under expected credit loss model	(31)	(287)
Gain from fair value change of derivative financial instruments	–	50
Others	14	(42)
TOTAL	(924)	(279)

On 31 December 2025, the Group reviewed the market conditions of assets classified as held for sale, the properties under development and properties held for sale of the Group and its associates and joint ventures as of that date. The Group measured assets classified as held for sale at the lower of their carrying amount and the estimated fair price (including deposit already received) less cost of disposal. In 2025, an impairment provision of RMB907 million was made for assets classified as held for sale based on the best available information. The Group estimated the net realisable value of properties under development and properties held for sale by mainly taking into account the estimated selling prices and prevailing market conditions, estimated development costs (where appropriate, borrowing costs capitalised) to completion and costs necessary to make the sales. Provision for impairment is made for properties under development and properties held for sale whose net realisable value is lower than the cost. In 2025, impairment provisions were made for unsold inventories held by joint ventures, the financial impact on the Group's results on attributable basis was RMB230 million which was recorded in share of results of joint ventures.

Share of results of associates and joint ventures recorded a net loss of RMB238 million in 2025 (2024: a net gain of RMB217 million). The net loss from commercial properties amounted to RMB485 million (2024: RMB170 million), primarily comprising a net revaluation loss of RMB480 million (2024: RMB93 million). This loss was partially offset by net gains from residential projects of RMB247 million (2024: RMB387 million), comprising RMB477 million (2024: RMB387 million) of gains from property sales and savings in the final settlement of construction costs and land appreciation tax, and RMB230 million of losses from (2024: nil) impairment provision for unsold inventories.

Finance costs, inclusive of exchange differences, totalled RMB1,553 million in 2025 (2024: RMB2,027 million), comprising finance costs of RMB1,468 million (2024: RMB1,925 million) and a net exchange loss of RMB85 million (2024: RMB102 million). Total interest costs decreased by 25% to RMB1,546 million (2024: RMB2,058 million) which was in line with the Group's reduced outstanding balance of debt and lower average cost of debt of 5.35% in 2025 (2024: 6.0%). Of the abovementioned interest costs, 5% (2024: 6%) or RMB78 million (2024: RMB133 million) was capitalised as the cost of property development, with the remaining 95% (2024: 94%) of interest costs relating to mortgage loans on completed properties and borrowings for general working capital purposes being accounted for as expenses.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Taxation recorded a credit amount of RMB304 million in 2025 (2024: charge of RMB2,337 million). The year-on-year decrease was mainly attributable to: i) a 96% decrease in land appreciation tax to RMB52 million (2024: RMB1,225 million) and a reduction in People's Republic of China ("PRC") enterprise income tax to RMB174 million (2024: RMB832 million) as a result of the decline in property sales; ii) a reduction in deferred tax provision relating to the investment properties; and iii) a decrease in PRC withholding tax mainly arising from transactions and restructuring. PRC enterprise income tax has been provided for at the applicable tax rate of 25% on the assessable profits during the year. Land appreciation tax was levied at progressive rates ranging from 30% to 60% based on the appreciation value, which is the proceeds of property sales less deductible expenditures, including costs of land, development, and construction.

Loss for the year 2025 was RMB1,733 million (2024: profit of RMB810 million).

Loss attributable to shareholders of the Company for 2025 was RMB1,782 million (2024: profit of RMB180 million).

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Cash Flow Management and Liquidity Risk

Management of cash flow is the responsibility of the Group's treasury function at the corporate level.

The Group's commitment is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through a combination of internal resources, bank borrowings and debt financing, as appropriate. Cash flow forecasting is performed in the operating entities of the Group and aggregated by the treasury. Treasury monitors rolling forecasts of the Group's liquidity requirements to ensure it has sufficient cash to meet operational needs while maintaining sufficient headroom on its undrawn committed borrowing facilities at all times so that the Group does not breach borrowing limits or covenants (where applicable) on any of its borrowing facilities. Such forecasting takes into consideration the Group's debt financing plans, covenant compliance, compliance with internal balance sheet ratio targets and, if applicable, external regulatory or legal requirements.

On 26 January 2026, the Group issued USD300 million in 9.75% senior notes due 2029. The net proceeds were used to fund a concurrent tender offer for its outstanding USD400 million 5.50% notes due 2026. On 29 January 2026, an aggregate principal amount of USD295 million of the notes due 2026 was purchased and cancelled. The Group will continue to take a very prudent approach to capital management, with healthy cashflow a top priority for its liquidity management.

Exchange Rate and Interest Rate Risks

The Group's revenue is denominated in RMB. Thus, the coupon payments and repayment of the principal amounts of the RMB bank and other borrowings do not expose the Group to any exchange rate risk.

However, a portion of the revenue is converted into other currencies to meet foreign-currency-denominated debt obligations, such as bank borrowings denominated in HKD and USD, and senior notes denominated in USD issued in 2021. Thus, to the extent that the Group has a net currency exposure, there is exposure to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. As of 31 December 2025, the Group had entered into USD104 million of cross currency swaps to hedge the USD currency risk against the RMB. The Group continues to monitor its exposure to exchange rate risk closely. It may consider employing additional derivative financial instruments to hedge against its remaining exposure to exchange rate risk, if necessary.

The Group's exposure to interest rate risk results from fluctuations in interest rates. Most of the Group's bank borrowings consist of variable-rate debt obligations with original maturities ranging from 1 to 15 years. Increases in interest rates would raise interest expenses relating to the outstanding variable rate borrowings and the cost of new debt. Fluctuations in interest rates may also lead to significant fluctuations in the fair value of the debt obligations.

As of 31 December 2025, the Group had various outstanding loans that bear variable rates of interest linked to Hong Kong Inter-bank Offered Rates ("HIBOR"), the Secured Overnight Financing Rate ("SOFR"), Offshore RMB HIBOR and the Loan Prime Rate. The Group had hedged against the variability of cash flow arising from interest rate fluctuations by entering into cross currency swaps in which the Group received interest at variable rates at SOFR and paid interest at fixed rates, based on the notional amount of USD104 million. The Group continues to monitor its exposure to interest rate risk closely. It may consider employing additional derivative financial instruments to hedge against its remaining exposure to interest rate risk, if necessary.

Save as disclosed above, as of 31 December 2025, the Group does not hold any other derivative financial instruments linked to exchange rates or interest rates. The Group continues to monitor its exposure to exchange rate and interest rate risks closely and may employ derivative financial instruments to hedge against risk.

MARKET OUTLOOK

The global economic landscape underwent significant disruption in 2025. Unilateral protectionist tariffs and a fragmenting multilateral system have increased market volatility, causing enduring damage to established economic norms. This shifting global order, marked by intensifying strategic competition and evolving security alliances, continues to challenge traditional trade and investment patterns. Nevertheless, the global economy has shown a degree of resilience against these headwinds. This led the IMF to revise marginally its 2026 growth forecast upward to 3.3%, reflecting a temporary buffering effect from AI-related technological investment, supportive fiscal policies, and a transitory de-escalation in trade tensions. However, this stability remains “narrow-based” with risks tilted to the downside, particularly regarding the sustainability of high public debt and a potential recalibration of AI productivity expectations. As heightened uncertainty continues to weigh on corporate decision-making, a cautious approach is necessitated despite the apparent resilience.

The Chinese economy displayed a pronounced structural divergence in 2025. On the supply side, manufacturing excellence and high-tech innovation, notably in AI and robotics, remained robust. Supported by a competitive currency, China recorded an unprecedented USD1.19 trillion trade surplus, anchoring real GDP growth at the 5% target. This progress underscores a strategic shift toward a high-productivity economy driven by “new quality productive forces”. Conversely, domestic demand remained soft, with consumption and investment hindered by the fading momentum of previous stimulus and a cautious private sector. This imbalance is reflected in persistent disinflationary pressure, as nominal GDP growth has trailed real growth for 11 consecutive quarters. The prolonged property slump continues to weigh on household wealth, underscoring the urgency of revitalising internal consumption to ensure a more balanced recovery. To address these challenges, the 15th Five-Year Plan prioritises the expansion of domestic demand through targeted measures to bolster household income and the social safety net. While the government remains committed to indigenous innovation for long-term resilience, the strategic focus is increasingly shifting toward rebalancing the growth model, seeking to harmonise industrial advancement with a more vibrant and sustainable domestic market.

The correction in China’s residential property sector persisted throughout 2025. Annual real estate investment declined by 17.2%, marking the fourth consecutive year of contraction. Market activity remained subdued, with the annual sales value and gross floor area of new commodity housing decreasing by 12.6% and 8.7%, respectively. Purchasing sentiment continues to be hindered by falling prices across all city tiers and a cautious outlook on income growth. Recent central policy signals from Qiushi, the official theoretical journal of the Communist Party of China, acknowledge the macroeconomic impact of declining property prices, yet they reiterate that a broad-based stimulus remains unlikely. The Government remain committed to risk prevention and the establishment of a “new development model” for the sector. Consequently, financing conditions remain constrained, and a definitive market bottom has yet to be established. Looking ahead, the 15th Five-Year Plan shifts the strategic focus from scale expansion toward urban renewal. Future growth will be increasingly driven by high-quality regeneration projects and “quality homes”, aligning with the national transition toward sustainable, high-quality development. This is also a core focus of Shui On Communities.

The commercial office market faced persistent structural challenges in 2025. According to JLL, Shanghai’s citywide rents adjusted downward by 11.6% year-on-year to RMB5.2/sq.m./day. Corporate occupiers remained highly cost-conscious, focusing on space consolidation rather than expansion. Looking ahead, a significant supply overhang remains a primary headwind, with over 4.3 million sq.m. of new completions expected in Shanghai through 2030. This influx will continue to intensify market competition and keep rental growth under pressure. Amid the broader softening, certain policy-backed sectors, such as AI-driven technology and consumer services, have provided pockets of demand. However, the overall market trajectory remains cautious, as the pace of recovery will largely depend on the effective absorption of the substantial supply pipeline and a broader restoration of business confidence.

The retail property market in 2025 was marked by intensifying competition and structural divergence. According to JLL, occupancy in Shanghai’s prime malls improved even as rents adjusted downward, with prime and decentralised rents declining by 4.3% and 6.4% year-on-year, respectively. This reflects a shift where landlords prioritise footfall and tenant quality over rental growth. Amid this transition, experiential offerings and cultural consumption have emerged as resilient growth drivers. This momentum is further bolstered by Shanghai’s resurgence in inbound tourism, with a 40% surge in international travellers contributing USD15 billion in consumption. These trends increasingly favour integrated destinations that offer a unique sense of place and social value. Our Xintiandi Community is ideally positioned to capitalise on this shift. By blending cultural heritage with experience-driven lifestyle offerings, our strategy aligns with the evolving demand for social enrichment and sustainability. This focus on creating unique, customer-centric destinations ensures our portfolio remains a resilient benchmark in a bifurcating market.

Shanghai’s economic growth regained momentum in 2025, reaching 5.4% – outperforming the national average. This resurgence was driven by a robust high-tech manufacturing sector, where the three prioritised industries – integrated circuits, artificial intelligence, and biopharmaceuticals – posted growth of nearly 10%. The year concluded with a series of high-profile capital market debuts by innovation-driven enterprises, further solidifying the city’s role as a premier financial and technology hub. On the demand side, retail sales grew by 4.6%, significantly bolstered by the city’s resurgence in inbound tourism and its evolving consumption landscape. Looking ahead, the proposals for Shanghai’s 15th Five-Year Plan reaffirm the city’s ambition to enhance its “Five Centres” functions. By 2035, Shanghai aims to align its key development indicators with internationally leading levels, targeting a doubling of GDP per capita from 2020 levels. These initiatives are set to boost Shanghai’s urban capacity and core competitiveness substantially, reinforcing its long-standing role in global resource allocation and its strategic capacity to serve the national economy.

Wuhan recorded 5.6% GDP growth in 2025, driven by an accelerated transition toward high-tech industries. Despite the property sector downturn, robust investment in advanced manufacturing sustained growth in fixed-asset investment. As a result of the city’s long-term commitment to innovation, Wuhan has advanced in global rankings as a research-intensive hub, with its high-tech manufacturing sector also fuelling double-digit export growth. Boosted by the city’s transport connectivity, Wuhan continues to consolidate its position as a key exhibition and convention hub in China. In 2025, the city’s MICE sector expanded rapidly, with the number of hosted events increasing by nearly 40%, further enhancing its international profile. Meanwhile, Wuhan’s retail sales registered a 4.5% growth. Looking ahead, under the 15th Five-Year Plan, Wuhan aims to expand its GDP beyond RMB3 trillion, striving to become a national centre for technology innovation, commerce and logistics, and international exchange.

Chongqing's GDP grew by 5.3% in 2025, reaching RMB3.38 trillion, underpinned by the dual momentum of advanced manufacturing and modern services. The city's industrial value-added expanded by 5.9%, led by a 9.7% surge in automobile production. With an annual output of 2.79 million units, Chongqing has solidified its position as China's largest automotive manufacturing hub. Simultaneously, the service sector grew by 6.2%, with commercial services and IT posting robust double-digit gains. The city's consumption engine remains a national leader. In 2025, Chongqing registered a record-high RMB 1.67 trillion in retail sales, the largest aggregated value in China. This was further bolstered by a resurgence in tourism, as inbound international arrivals hit a record 2.48 million. For 2026, the municipal government has set targets of 5% GDP growth and 4% retail growth, emphasising a balanced approach to stabilising investment and encouraging consumption. Under the 15th Five-Year Plan, Chongqing aims to reach a RMB4 trillion GDP by further strengthening its role as Western China's primary hub for advanced manufacturing and industrial innovation.

Foshan recorded a marginal 0.2% GDP growth in 2025, reflecting the combined impact of the property market correction and the structural transition of traditional industries. In response, the city is accelerating its industrial upgrading, prioritising AI integration and brand innovation to revitalise its manufacturing base. A key future catalyst is the Pearl River Delta International Airport in Gaoming District, which is to commence construction in 2026. As a cornerstone of the 15th Five-Year Plan, the airport will significantly enhance Foshan's regional connectivity and logistics capacity upon its 2028 opening. Simultaneously, the city is focusing on urban revitalisation, pledging increased support for preserving historic districts to bolster cultural tourism. These strategic pivots, alongside deeper integration within the Greater Bay Area, remain essential to Foshan's long-term economic resilience.

Nanjing's GDP growth in 2025 reached 5.2%. Despite a broader decline in overall fixed asset investment, the city's industrial investment surged by 12.1%, signalling a decisive shift toward high-end manufacturing. This transition is anchored by the software and information services sector, which maintained its robust scale with an annual output exceeding RMB1 trillion. While broader retail sales showed moderate growth, Nanjing's tourism and service-related consumption delivered a record-breaking performance. For the first time, the city's annual visitor traffic surpassed 200 million arrivals, a 10.6% increase, while total tourism revenue grew by 9.3% to RMB239 billion. Looking ahead, the 15th Five-Year Plan identifies renewable energy, new materials, and the "low-altitude" economy as strategic growth engines. These priorities, combined with Nanjing's deep academic and research foundations, provide a stable outlook for the city's long-term economic competitiveness.

As China enters 2026, the 15th Five-Year Plan commences with a focus on policy continuity and structural consolidation. The national agenda remains anchored in "seeking progress while maintaining stability". Fiscal and monetary policies are expected to provide calibrated support, ensuring necessary liquidity while prioritising long-term economic health. While external complexities persist, the domestic growth model is steadily pivoting toward industrial innovation and high-quality consumption. For the real estate sector, 2026 will be a year of continued adjustment. The industry is fundamentally recalibrating. The era of high-leverage growth has given way to a "new normal" centered on urban rejuvenation and the efficient management of existing assets. Market dynamics will remain highly bifurcated. Resilience is expected to be concentrated in prime locations and high-specification developments that meet evolving user needs. Against this backdrop, the Group will continue to align our strategy with these structural trends, with a focus on urban regeneration, disciplined asset management and the delivery of high-quality developments, as it adapts to the next phase of China's urban evolution.

SUSTAINABILITY REPORT

Sustainability Landscape of China

In 2025, China continued advancing its sustainability agenda, signalling a more ambitious shift toward high-quality, low-carbon development amid an evolving economic landscape. The government strengthened its national climate commitments by announcing an updated Nationally Determined Contribution (NDC), including a 2035 interim decarbonisation target to reduce economy-wide net greenhouse gas emissions by 7–10% from peak levels, outlining a clearer pathway for emissions reduction and energy transition. Regulatory clarity on sustainability disclosures also progressed. Following the 2024 issuance of the Sustainability Disclosure Standard for Business Enterprises – Basic Standard (Trial), the Ministry of Finance and other authorities released the Corporate Sustainability Disclosure Standard No. 1 – Climate (Trial) in December 2025. Together, these establish a comprehensive national framework for sustainability disclosure including climate risk mitigation and adaptation through 2030.

In parallel, China introduced new guidelines which provide stronger policy and financial support for urban renewal projects to promote high-quality urban development and improve living conditions in ageing communities. This aligns with the Ministry of Housing and Urban-Rural Development (MOHURD)'s call to advance the establishment of “Good Housing, Good Neighbourhoods, Good Communities and Good Urban Districts,” reinforcing the broader vision of building a People's City.

These advances were further reinforced by the formulation of the 15th Five-Year Plan, which elevates sustainability as a core pillar of national development. The Plan calls for safe, comfortable, eco-friendly and smart housing, supported by full lifecycle safety management, and accelerated adoption of greener, low-carbon lifestyles.

Anchored in our 5C Strategy, Shui On Land continues strengthening sustainability governance and embedding sustainability across the entire project lifecycle in alignment with China's evolving regulatory and market landscape. Supporting national priorities for high-quality urban development, we leverage our role as a leading urban solution provider to deliver people-centred, mixed-use communities through ongoing urban renewal projects. We also enhanced climate resilience of our assets by embedding the Shui On Land Resilience and Adaptation Guideline for Physical Climate Risks into our development process and asset operation.

Our progress has been recognised through improved external ratings. In 2025, our GRESB rating increased to 5 Star, our HKQAA rating improved to “AA”, and we remained as a CDP “A-List” company. We also received the “Decarbonisation Award” from the American Chamber of Commerce in Shanghai and the “Most Sustainable Organisation Award” at the “Best Corporate Governance & ESG Awards 2025” from the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants. These achievements reflect strong performance, transparency, and our ongoing commitment to sustainability excellence.

Elevation of the “Xintiandi” Community Brand

In 2025, Shui On Land elevated “Xintiandi” from a commercial identity to a comprehensive urban community brand, reflecting our role as an urban community solution provider and our long-standing commitment to people-centred, sustainable development. Anchored in the proposition “Bring places to life”, the brand integrates heritage preservation, integrated development and longterm operations.

Through our four adaptable community models—Greater XTD, Neighbourhood, Urban Retreat and Knowledge Communities—we provide flexible solutions tailored for diverse city contexts. This strategic evolution unifies our residential, office, commercial and cultural ecosystems, redefining how people live, work, and connect, shaping the next generation of sustainable urban environments.

Embedding Sustainability into our Project Lifecycle

Building upon our efforts in 2024 to integrate sustainability in master-planning for all new large-scale community developments, we expanded this commitment into a comprehensive, lifecycle-wide approach in 2025. By launching the Shui On Land Product Sustainability Standard, we now apply a unified framework that ensures sustainability is woven into the fabric of our communities from planning and design through construction and decades of operations.

This Standard serves as a guide for both our communities and building products, integrating climate considerations across our entire portfolio while fostering our partners and suppliers to share our commitment to sustainability. We reinforce this lifecycle approach through dual green and healthy certifications, including LEED for Community, LEED Core and Shell, the WELL Community Standard, the China Green Building Label and the China Healthy Building Label or equivalent, to provide credible assurance of the health and resilience of our urban spaces.

Connecting, Committing and Co-creating with Tenants

Tenants are our key partners in advancing sustainability and we continue to deepen collaboration through our three-tiered approach: Connect, Commit, and Co-Creat. In 2025, we maintained a 100% Green Pledge signatory rate for all new tenants, achieving exceptional participation rates of 100% for F&B tenants, 98.6% for retail tenants and 98.4% for office tenants.

Since 2023, we have introduced the Deep Green Lease programme to deepen collaboration and co-create measurable sustainability outcomes. Building on this momentum, we launched the “XINTIANDI GREENOVATORS” tenant sustainability engagement programme in 2025, partnering with ten pioneering tenants to drive decarbonisation, circularity, and improvements in health and wellbeing. While these initiatives celebrate leadership, we have also standardised sustainability and occupational health and safety (OHS) requirements within all leasing contracts, ensuring a high standard of responsibility for every tenant.

SUSTAINABILITY REPORT

Our Performance in 2025 – Clean

Key Highlights of 2025

- Achieved a 57% reduction in Scope 1 & 2 carbon emissions intensity, and a 32% reduction in Scope 3 tenant emissions intensity from the 2019 baseline
- Maintained a 35% portfolio-wide share of renewable electricity, with over 1,000m² of roof-top solar panels installed at CPIC Xintiandi Tower 1 and Tower 2
- Achieved a reduction of 15,645 tonnes of embodied carbon emissions through the use of lower emission construction materials, including concrete, cement, rebar, and steel
- Developed the Shui On Land Resilience and Adaptation Guideline for Physical Climate Risks to embed climate resilience into the project lifecycle and future-proof our assets against physical climate threats
- Over 98% of existing assets by GFA obtained at least one green or healthy building certification with 12 additional green and healthy building certifications obtained in 2025, including five at the operational stage
- Piloted holistic ecological planning at Zhaolou Xintiandi—using ecological zoning and corridors—to advance urban biodiversity and ecological function of the water-town ecosystem

Driving Decarbonisation Forward

Guided by the Group's Climate Change Policy, our commitment to achieving net-zero emissions anchors a clear decarbonisation roadmap aligned with our 1.5°C Science-based targets (SBTs). We drive this progress through effective energy management and the strategic adoption of renewable energy. In 2025, we achieved significant efficiency gains with pilot installations of EC fans at Hongqiao Xintiandi with 40% projected energy savings; while AI-driven chiller plant system optimisation—now active across 90% of our operating assets with centralised control system—reduced cooling energy use by an average of 21%. Complementing these efficiencies, we maintained a 35% share of renewable electricity use across our portfolio, a benchmark held since 2024.

Decarbonising our value chain requires translating strategy into tangible tenant action. In 2024, we provided energy and indoor environmental audits for 16 major tenants—10 of whom achieved an average of 9% energy reduction within one year. We extended this service to nine additional tenants in 2025, bringing our three-year total to 35 participating tenants. This collaborative effort to ensure continuous resource efficiency and operational excellence across our leased spaces.

Addressing embodied carbon emissions is a core pillar of our decarbonisation strategy, and we focus on high-impact building materials including concrete, steel, and cement. In 2025, we scaled our low-carbon material supplier inventory to 89 partners and integrated an embodied carbon database into the Shui On Cloud Construction System that enables real-time tracking. Eight ongoing development projects adopted low-carbon materials this year, reducing embodied carbon by 15,645 tonnes compared with national standard values.

Future-proofing our Assets against Climate Change Risks

Since 2023, we have completed comprehensive physical climate risk assessments and onsite self-inspections across all assets, identifying risks associated with extreme precipitation, heatwaves and strong winds. In 2024, we completed a Group-wide and asset-level transition risk scenario analysis, informed by the Network for Greening the Financial System scenarios across three time horizons.

These insights informed the development and release of the Shui On Land Resilience and Adaptation Guideline for Physical Climate Risks in 2025, now embedded throughout the project lifecycle to enhance resilience against growing climate-related risks. They also underpin our transition pathway toward achieving our 2030 sustainability targets, providing deeper insight into transition risks and opportunities and strengthening long-term resilience.

Championing Urban Biodiversity Conservation

We recognise the essential role of urban biodiversity in supporting resilient, healthy urban environments. At Zhaolou Xintiandi, we are pioneering a holistic ecological planning approach that includes a revitalisation of its historic water-town ecosystem. This strategy utilises an integrated ecological corridor—supported by “stepping stone” habitats—to enhance connectivity and restore community ecological function.

To ground our efforts in advancing local urban biodiversity, the project team conducted seasonal biodiversity surveys across the site. This citizen-science initiative helped establish a baseline of existing species and habitats in the Xiaoyan Lake area, deepening our collective understanding of the natural heritage we aim to protect.

Beyond physical restoration, we continued our collaboration with The Nature Conservancy (TNC) in 2025, co-organising an urban biodiversity workshop—“Beautiful Urban Biodiversity: The Secret of Nests”—at the new Ether Bloom market in Ruihong Xintiandi. By combining interesting biodiversity concepts with community experience, this initiative fosters a culture of stewardship and strengthens the bond between our residents and the natural world.

Our Performance in 2025 – Culture

Key Highlights of 2025

- Staged the “Heritage Now Festival” at Panlong Xintiandi and Lingnan Xintiandi, engaging over six million visitors through traditional performances and exhibitions, bringing heritage to life and creative festive memories
- Engaged 1.6 million visitors through more than 80 performances during the 2025 Art To Gather Festival, deepening neighbourhood bonds through art and creativity
- Concluded the three-year partnership with Tongji University on Urban Regeneration Talent Development programme, distilling our expertise into a 700-page teaching resource for the industry
- Transformed the historic Dongtaili street into Xintiandi Dongtaili, an 84,000 m² living gallery, featuring 16 “Dongtai Cabinets” that reinterpret the district’s antique heritage
- Nurtured over 50 local young artists through the three-year “RanRan” programme with UCCA, reaching a bold finale with a street exhibition at Xintiandi Dongtai

Urban Regeneration and Adaptive Reuse

By preserving and revitalising local culture while facilitating meaningful cultural exchange, we strengthen community identity and unlock economic value.

We strive to create spaces that promote local culture whilst preserving it for the future generations. This year, we fully integrated adaptive reuse principles into the Riverville Project, repurposing existing buildings for new functions while preserving historical integrity. This approach not only ensures long-term economic and social viability but also seamlessly connects the past with the present.

Apart from utilising adaptive reuse techniques, we aim to equip tomorrow’s leaders with the knowledge to shape sustainable cities. In 2025, we successfully concluded our three-year partnership with Tongji University, delivering over 60 published project outcomes, extensive internal and external knowledge-sharing sessions and courses, and a dedicated pamphlet capturing the programme’s essence. This collaboration has solidified our leadership in urban regeneration and heritage preservation while cultivating a new generation of future urban solution providers. Through these efforts, we continue to set new standards for urban regeneration.

Bringing Heritage to Life

One of our core missions is to rejuvenate heritage with creativity. Through our 2025 “Heritage Now Festival”, we brought historical moments vividly to life by hosting over 60 Mid-Autumn Festival celebration events at Panlong Xintiandi and Lingnan Xintiandi, spotlighting the rich traditions of Jiangnan and Foshan cultures for over six million visitors.

Beyond seasonal activations, we weave cultural storytelling into the permanent fabric of our communities. A prime example is the “Dongtai Cabinets”, where historic moments are illustrated across 16 gates across Xintiandi Dongtaili’s public space. By turning physical infrastructure into a canvas for local history, we ensure that heritage remains a living part of our communities and serves as an educational touchpoint for visitors.

Fostering Cultural Expression and Exchange Platforms

We build platforms that ignite creativity, drive innovation, and breathe life into spaces, connecting communities, fostering collaboration and unlocking commercial potential.

Through the three-year “RanRan” Young Artist Incubation Programme in partnership with UCCA, we empowered over 50 emerging artists to design site-specific installations across our Xintiandi communities and collaborate directly with tenants, offering a vibrant stage to showcase their talents.

Complementing this initiative, we hosted the Creative X Conference “Breaking Boundaries”, a dynamic forum and marketplace which brought hundreds of attendees together to explore innovative connections between commerce and community life, address contemporary urban development challenges and inspire fresh visions for future city spaces.

This focus on continuous learning was reflected in our annual Career Week, featuring insightful sessions with senior leaders to foster open dialogue on career development. Meanwhile, the 2025 Career Week attracted over 1,200 employees, aiming to expand employees’ horizon through diverse initiatives. As a result, we achieved an average of 47 training hours per employee, exceeding our annual target of 24 hours. This highlights our commitment to unlocking employee potential and building a capable and well-rounded workforce.

Prioritising Diversity and Wellbeing

We are committed to fostering an inclusive workplace, supported by policies including the Board Diversity Policy, the Diversity and Inclusion Policy, and the Code of Conduct and Business Ethics. These ensure equal opportunities across all aspects of employment. Meanwhile, female representation on the Board has increased to 40%, marking four consecutive years of progress towards leadership diversity.

Building on this foundation, we prioritise employee health and well-being through proactive and holistic initiatives. In 2025, all employees completed health and safety training, totalling 2,354 hours, while 119 consultations were delivered through the Employee Assistance Platform and more than 825 days of special leave were approved under the iFamily Programme. Our health and safety culture extends to our contractors, where they have achieved a zero contractor safety incident rate per 1,000 workers, keeping this well below our annual target of below 3 per 1,000 workers. These efforts provide ongoing support to help our people thrive both professionally and personally.

Giving Back to Society through Engagement and Volunteerism

We believe corporate responsibility extends beyond operations to active contributions within the communities we serve. We encourage employees to invest time and skills in community development, strengthening local bonds.

The Board also oversees risk management and internal controls to safeguard assets and protect shareholder interests. We organised specialised sustainability training sessions for senior leaders to enhance their ability to navigate evolving sustainability risks and opportunities.

The Group maintained the highest business compliance standards, with no confirmed incidents of corruption-related non-compliance in 2025 and full adherence to labour laws, including those related to child and forced labour. The Foreign Corrupt Practices Act (FCPA) Compliance Training module was launched on our internal digital platform, and the Irregularity Reporting Policy was updated to enhance reporting effectiveness.

We further advanced cybersecurity capabilities through the new Information Safety Policy, supported by simulated cyberattack exercises and strengthened data protection controls. In preparation for broader AI adoption, we initiated development of the Group’s AI Policy, due for release in 2026, to guide responsible and secure use of emerging technologies.

To uphold integrity in communications, we conducted regular internal audits assessing compliance with responsible marketing policies. In 2025, targeted training on advertising compliance and common marketing risks was delivered, reinforcing our commitment to the highest ethical standards.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board of Directors of the Company (the “Board”) is pleased to present the Corporate Governance Report for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Corporate Governance Values, Strategy, and Practices of the Company

The Company and its subsidiaries (the “Group”) have embraced the “Shui On Spirit – Integrity • Dedication • Innovation • Excellence”. The Group is dedicated to delivering excellent products and services, sustaining its vision by integrating the idea of quality into all its operations. It strives for world-class standards of management, planning, execution, and corporate governance while pursuing sustainable growth. The Board strives to instil these cultures and values into every aspect of the Company’s operations, promoting lawful, ethical, and responsible behaviours across the Group.

The Company has a strong commitment to ethics and integrity. To ensure that everyone in the Group understands the expected behaviours, the Company has implemented various policies such as the Code of Conduct and Business Ethics, the Irregularity Reporting Policy, and the Supplier Code of Conduct. Furthermore, training and experience-sharing sessions are conducted regularly.

The Company has implemented a 5C Sustainability Strategy consisting of five key pillars: Community, Clean, Culture, Care, and Corporate Governance. Each pillar plays a significant role in achieving sustainability goals and upholding the Group’s values. The execution of this strategy has further strengthened the Company’s corporate culture. For detailed information, please refer to the “Sustainability Report”. Based on the policies and practices of the Group, the Board is satisfied that the purpose, values, and strategic directions are aligned with the corporate culture.

The Board believes that good corporate governance is essential to the success of the Company, the enhancement of shareholder value, and stakeholders' confidence in the Company. Good corporate governance practices have enabled the Company to leverage its competitive advantages from many perspectives. The trust and support of the Company's stakeholders drive its continuing success and growth. The Company has experienced these benefits during its on-shore and off-shore fund-raising, as well as when entering into long-term strategic partnerships with renowned companies. From an ethical perspective, we believe our integrity has won the trust of the Government of the People's Republic of China, which has, in consequence, granted the Company more opportunities involving large-scale metropolitan development projects.

The Company reviews its corporate governance practices from time to time to ensure it complies with all the applicable code provisions set out in the Corporate Governance Code (the "CG Code") contained in Appendix C1 of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities (the "Listing Rules") on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "Stock Exchange"). During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Company has applied the principles of and complied with all the applicable code provisions of the CG Code, except for a deviation as specified below.

Code provision C.1.5 of the CG Code states that independent non-executive directors and other non-executive directors should also attend general meetings to gain and develop a balanced understanding of the views of shareholders. Mr. Shane TEDJARATI ("Mr. Tedjarati") and Ms. Randy W. S. LAI ("Ms. Lai"), the Independent Non-executive Directors ("INEDs") of the Company, could not attend the annual general meeting of the Company held on 16 May 2025 ("2025 AGM") due to other business engagements. Save for the above, all the INEDs attended the 2025 AGM.

Board of Directors

The Board is responsible for the leadership and control of the Company and oversees the Company's businesses, strategic decisions, and performance. The Board has reserved for its decision or consideration matters concerning the Company's overall strategy, annual operating budget, annual and interim results, recommendations on Directors' appointments or re-appointments, material contracts, and transactions as well as other significant policies and financial matters.

The Board has delegated the daily operations and administration of the Company to the management. The respective functions of the Board and the management of the Company are published on the Company's website (<http://www.shuionland.com/en-us/governancePolicy/getPolicy>) and are reviewed from time to time as appropriate.

In addition, to assist in fulfilling its duties, the Board has established five Board committees, namely the Audit and Risk Committee, the Remuneration Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Sustainability Committee, and the Strategy Committee. It has delegated various responsibilities to these committees as set out in their respective terms of reference.

Board Mechanism for Accessing Independent Views and Input

All Directors have full and timely access to all relevant information as well as the advice and services of the Company Secretary, to ensure that the Board procedures and all applicable rules and regulations are followed. Coupled with the "Independent Element on the Board" as set out below under the Board Diversity Policy, the Company has always ensured independent views and input are available to the Board. To enable the Directors, in the discharge of their duties, to have independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances, the Company has always procured the services of external legal advisors, valuers, and financial advisors to provide independent views on notifiable transactions. INEDs are entitled to engage independent advice while discharging their duties. The Board has reviewed and concluded that the relevant mechanism is effective.

Board Composition

Other than what is disclosed below, during the year ended 31 December 2025, there was no change to the Board composition.

At the conclusion of the 2025 AGM, Professor Gary C. BIDDLE ("Professor Biddle") retired as an INED of the Company and ceased to be a Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee and a member of each of the Remuneration Committee, the Nomination Committee, and the Strategy Committee of the Company.

Mr. Clement K. M. KWOK ("Mr. Kwok") was appointed as an INED of the Company on 1 July 2025. Mr. Kwok obtained the legal advice referred to in Rule 3.09D of the Listing Rules on 24 June 2025 and has confirmed that he understood his obligations as a Director of the Company.

With deepest sorrow, Mr. Gregory K. L. SO ("Mr. So"), an INED and a member of the Audit and Risk Committee and the Remuneration Committee of the Company, passed away on 13 December 2025.

Apart from Ms. Stephanie B. Y. LO ("Ms. Lo") being the daughter of Mr. Vincent H. S. LO ("Mr. Lo"), none of the Directors has any relationship (including financial, business, family, or other material/ relevant relationship(s)) with any other Directors.

As a commitment to good corporate governance, the Company's Articles of Association stipulate that subject to the provisions contained therein, the Board shall include a majority of INEDs. The Company has appointed six INEDs representing more than half of the Board members, and such composition complied with the requirement as stipulated under Rules 3.10(1) and 3.10A of the Listing Rules. The number of INEDs who have appropriate professional qualifications or accounting or related financial management expertise exceeds the requirement as stipulated under Rule 3.10 of the Listing Rules. The Board has received from each INED an annual confirmation of his/her independence and considers that all the INEDs are independent under the guidelines in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules.

Notwithstanding that an INED has served the Company for more than nine years, the Board has assessed and reviewed the annual confirmation of independence based on the criteria set out in Rule 3.13 of the Listing Rules and affirmed that he remains independent and free of any relationship which could materially interfere with the exercise of his independent judgment.

Chairman and Chief Executive

The roles of the Chairman and the Chief Executive of the Company are separated and currently performed by Mr. Lo and Ms. Jessica Y. WANG ("Ms. Wang"), respectively. In May 2024, Ms. Lo was appointed as the Vice Chairman of the Company to assist Mr. Lo in leading the Board in deciding on the direction and future development of the Company. The division of responsibilities between the Chairman and the Chief Executive is established and set out in writing, a copy of which has been published on the Company's website (<http://www.shuionland.com/en-us/governancePolicy/getPolicy>).

Directors' Time and Directorship Commitments

Sufficient time and attention

The existing Directors, including the INEDs, possess a wide range of skills, and bring a broad spectrum of valuable business experience, knowledge, and professionalism to the Board to ensure its efficient and effective functioning. Further details of the Directors' qualifications and working experiences are set out in "Skill and Experience" below under the Board Diversity section and the "Biographies of Directors and Senior Management" section on pages 86 to 91. INEDs are invited to serve on the Board committees of the Company. Their active participation in the Board and the Board committees' meetings brings independent judgment on issues relating to the Company's strategies, performance, and management processes, considering the interests of shareholders of the Company. Based on the attendance at the "Board and Board Committees' Meetings, and Shareholders' Meetings" section below, the Directors have given sufficient time and attention to the affairs of the Company during the year.

In addition to the formal company meetings, site visits to the Company's projects are arranged occasionally to allow the Board members to keep abreast of project developments. In November 2025, the Board members visited our projects in Shanghai and also projects of other reputable local developers in Shanghai for benchmarking.

Other directorships, offices and commitments

The Directors disclosed to the Company the details and nature of offices they hold in listed public companies and organisations, as well as other significant commitments. None of the Directors held directorships in more than six public companies listed on the Stock Exchange (including the Company) as of 31 December 2025.

Board Evaluation

To enhance the Board's function and effectiveness, the Board conducted an evaluation of the performance of the Board and the Board committees in 2025. The performance review was conducted internally, and each of the Board members provided an evaluation of identified areas, including (i) roles of the Board, (ii) Board and Board committee composition, skill and application, (iii) Board proceedings and practices, and (iv) Board culture and behaviour.

The overall feedback of the evaluation was positive, and no material issue was identified. All Directors agreed that the evaluation process serves as a valuable opportunity to identify areas for further performance enhancement. The evaluation results were compiled from feedback of all Directors and were subsequently submitted to the Board, and discussed in the relevant Board meeting, with constructive suggestions being duly noted.

Board Diversity

The Board has adopted a board diversity policy (the "Board Diversity Policy"), a copy of which is publicly available on the Company's website (www.shuionland.com/en-us/governancePolicy/getPolicy). The Company understands the increasing importance of diversity at the Board level. The implementation and effectiveness of the Board Diversity Policy are reviewed by the Nomination Committee annually.

The Nomination Committee also reviewed the Board's structure, size, and composition to ensure that it has a balance of expertise, skills, and experience appropriate for the requirements of the Company's business. The Board believes that its current composition reflects the necessary balance of skills and experience desirable for effective leadership of the Company and independence in decision-making.

Under the Board Diversity Policy, in designing the composition of the Board and during the selection of candidates, the Nomination Committee considers various diversity indicators, including but not limited to independence, gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional and industry experience, skills, knowledge, nationality, ethnicity and other qualities essential to the Company's business. Decisions are made based on merit and the contribution that the selected candidates will bring to the Board, having due regard to the benefits of diversity on the Board and the needs of the Board, and without focusing on a single diversity aspect.

Independent Element on the Board

The Board shall include a balanced composition of executive and non-executive directors (including INEDs) so that there is a strong independent element on the Board that can effectively exercise independent judgment. The Company's Articles of Association stipulate that the Board shall comprise a majority of INEDs.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

As of 31 December 2025, six out of ten Directors, accounting for 60% of the Board, are INEDs. The following comparison shows the proportion of INEDs in the board composition for the same period from 2023 to 2025:

Gender

The Board is committed to maintaining an environment of respect for people regardless of their gender in all business dealings. The Board would ensure that an appropriate balance of gender diversity is achieved with reference to stakeholders' expectations and international and local recommended best practices.

The Board targets to appoint or maintain gender diversity and targets to refrain from having a single gender in respect of the Board. The Nomination Committee will identify potential candidates through various means, such as internal promotion, referrals, and engaging employment agencies if necessary. Based on the criteria set out in the Nomination Policy and the Board Diversity Policy, the Nomination Committee will then recommend these candidates to the Board for consideration.

Since Ms. Lo was appointed as an Executive Director in August 2018, the Board has already achieved gender diversity as per the Listing Rules requirement. Ms. Ya Ting WU ("Ms. Wu"), Ms. Wang, and Ms. Lai were appointed as Directors of the Company in January 2021, January 2022, and July 2023, respectively. As of 31 December 2025, four out of ten Directors, accounting for 40% of the Board, are females. The following comparison shows the proportion of females in the board composition for the same period from 2023 to 2025:

Skills and Experience

Pursuant to the CG Code, the Board shall possess a balance of skills appropriate for the business of the Company. The composition of the Board has a mix of finance, legal, and management backgrounds and experiences in a range of activities, including varied industries or expertise covering economic, environmental, and social topics that provides strategic insights into sustainability-related risks and opportunities. With their respective background and experience, our Directors offer varying perspectives to the Board.

Board Committees

The Board has established five Board committees with defined terms of reference, namely the Audit and Risk Committee, the Remuneration Committee, the Nomination Committee, the Sustainability Committee, and the Strategy Committee, for overseeing particular aspects of the Company's affairs.

The terms of reference of the Board committees, which set out the Board committees' respective duties, are in line with the CG Code and are approved by the Board. The terms of reference of the Board committees are reviewed from time to time to address the latest amendments to the Listing Rules and the needs of the Company.

The Board committees are provided with sufficient resources to discharge their duties and, upon reasonable request, can seek independent professional advice in appropriate circumstances at the Company's expense.

The Audit and Risk Committee held five meetings during the year ended 31 December 2025. The Audit and Risk Committee also held separate private meetings with the external auditor and the internal auditor during the year to discuss issues pertinent to the Company.

The Audit and Risk Committee also reviewed the auditor's remuneration and made a recommendation to the Board on the re-appointment of the auditor. The Audit and Risk Committee has the same view as the Board regarding the selection, appointment, resignation, or dismissal of external auditors.

The Audit and Risk Committee received regular updates on the Cybersecurity and Personal Information Protection Programme from the IT and Digital Innovation Department ("ITD"). It made recommendations on the practices, tests, and policies for strengthening cybersecurity and personal data protection during the relevant Audit and Risk Committee meetings. Specific enquiry has been made of all the Directors, and the Directors have confirmed that they have complied with the required standard set out in the Model Code throughout the year ended 31 December 2025.

To comply with the CG Code, the Company has established and adopted a Code for Securities Transactions by Relevant Employees (as defined by the Listing Rules), on terms no less exacting than the Model Code, to regulate dealings in the securities of the Company by certain employees of the Company or any of its subsidiaries who are considered likely to be in possession of unpublished inside information in relation to the Company or its securities because of their offices or employment.

Risk Assessment and Management

Strategic Planning

In 2025, the Company continued the implementation of its Asset-Light business model and landbank replenishment plan. This business strategy has allowed the Company to expand its commercial portfolio with long-term strategic partners, capture new business opportunities, and create shareholder value.

The Company continued to develop its competitive advantages in innovation and to strive for excellence. Strategic action plans were developed, implemented, and monitored by relevant executives and management to improve services and enhance the customer experience to achieve an operational model that is market-driven and customer-focused. The Company also developed balanced scorecards to measure individual performance against these corporate objectives.

Resources Planning and Cost Controls

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Company's main resources planning focus on the completion and delivery of properties which are under development and strengthening its ability to manage its retail resources to meet future challenges. This was carried out successfully, enabling the Company to increase its focus on delivering the targets in its business plan.

Management continues to focus on controlling costs over the short and long term, enhancing the Company's cost-conscious culture and behaviour, as well as reviewing and monitoring the Company's expenditures.

Enterprise Risk Management

The Company has had a risk identification and management process in place. The Company has elected to formalise its existing risk management system with a Risk Management Policy to reference its conformance explicitly to the guidance set forth in Appendix C1 of the Listing Rules.

The Company adopts the "Three Lines Model" issued by The Institute of Internal Auditors ("IIA") as its risk governance structure. The Company's Three Lines Model specifies duties and responsibilities to enhance collaboration, communication, and governance within the Group. The second line roles are strengthened and monitored by the Executive Committee ("EXCOM"), Chief Executive Officers, and risk management working team. This team assists Chief Executive Officers in overall planning and communication between the business project teams, setting the standards and methods for risk identification and assessment, and compiling the principal risks to the EXCOM.

The Company's risk management framework is a "Top-Down" strategic risk management approach combined with a "Bottom-Up" operational risk management approach. The Company recognises that most of its corporate risk stems from uncontrollable events in its business and operating environments, which can only be addressed by Board level policy. Thus, the most effective enterprise risk management is facilitated by solid oversight exercised by the Board, the Audit and Risk Committee, and the EXCOM in the establishment and maintenance of the risk management policy, framework, and programme. These oversight components provide leadership and guidance that the business needs to focus on, balance risk and reward, and steer the Company in the planned direction. This approach ensures clarity about the most extreme/high risks involved in shaping the Company's objectives and performance, supports risk-related decisions by the Board/EXCOM, and ensures effective communication amongst the management and operations teams with a view to identifying and reporting new risks of potentially strategic importance to senior management.

The project directors and functional department heads of the Company are responsible for operational risk assessment. The operational risk assessment comprises risk identification, risk assessment and prioritisation, risk response, risk monitoring, and risk reporting. The Audit and Risk Committee requires relevant management to present risk assessment/management updates of their responsible functions periodically. For example, the Chief Executive Officer should regularly provide an update on business performance to the Audit and Risk Committee. Additionally, the ITD is required to present updates on information technology security and compliance with relevant laws and regulations on data privacy in each Audit and Risk Committee meeting. The head of the IARD also discusses the emerging risks faced by the Company and new management initiatives with the Audit and Risk Committee members. Details about the Group's risk management framework and risk assessment, including principal risks, risk mitigation, and ESG-related risk management measures, are set out in the "Risk Management Report" on pages 81 to 85.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Internal Controls

During the year ended 31 December 2025, management and the IARD conducted reviews of the effectiveness of the Company's systems of risk management and internal controls, including those of its subsidiaries and major associates. The Audit and Risk Committee reviewed the summary report prepared by the internal auditors on the effectiveness of the Company's systems of risk management and internal controls and reported its summary results to the Board covering all material controls, including financial, operational, and compliance controls and risk management functions. The Board also considered the adequacy of resources, staff qualifications and experience, training programmes, and budget of the Company's accounting, internal audit, and financial reporting functions as well as those relating to the Company's ESG performance and reporting.

In summary, the scope of the above review covers: (i) the changes in the nature and extent of significant risks, and the Company's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment, (ii) the scope and quality of management's ongoing monitoring of risks and of the internal control systems, (iii) the adequacy of resources for designing, implementing and monitoring the risk management and internal control systems.

Based on the aforesaid, the Board has concluded that the Company's systems of risk management and internal control are appropriate and effective for the purposes set out in Principle D2 of the CG Code. No significant change was identified during the reporting period in (i) the Company's assessment of risks (including ESG risks) and (ii) the risk management and internal control system.

The Company is in the process of updating its policies and procedures to reflect ongoing organisational changes.

Internal Audit and Risk

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the head of the IARD functionally reported to Ms. Lo and had a functional reporting line to the Audit and Risk Committee. The internal audit charter allows the internal auditors unrestricted access to all functions, records, property, and personnel while maintaining appropriate confidentiality in performing their work.

The IARD is a corporate member of the Institute of Internal Auditors Hong Kong Limited, an affiliate of the IIA, which is headquartered in the United States of America. The IARD subscribes to and is guided by the Global Internal Audit Standards developed by the IIA and has incorporated these Standards into its audit practices. The head of the IARD attended the IIA Conference Hong Kong 2025 in October 2025, with the theme "Embrace Challenges & Drive Transformation", to keep abreast with the internal audit industry trends and learn how the profession can move beyond traditional risk assessments to drive transformation in a rapidly changing environment.

The IARD helps the Company accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluating and improving the effectiveness of the risk management, internal control, and governance processes. The IARD performs internal audit services in accordance with the Global Internal Audit Standards as well as the Code of Ethics issued by the IIA. In addition, it adopts the "Internal Control – Integrated Framework" and "Enterprise Risk Management – Integrated Framework" issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO"). The IARD presents the relevant concepts and COSO principles to management to enhance the implementation and maintenance of the Company's internal control and risk management system.

The IARD formulates a risk-based internal audit plan based on interviews and discussions with management and staff for the Audit and Risk Committee's approval.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the IARD issued reports to the Chairman and relevant management personnel covering various operational and financial processes and projects of the Company. It provides summary reports to the Audit and Risk Committee together with the status of the implementation of their recommendations in each Audit and Risk Committee meeting.

To help further enhance the effectiveness of the risk management system of the Company and refine the work related to risk management, the IARD has taken the following initiatives:

- Conducted risk management training at each project when performing audits.
- Reviewed the risk inventory with relevant management/staff.
- Performed various data analyses to identify abnormal cases/red-flag items and pass the information to Corporate Finance and/or relevant business departments for follow-up.

The IARD has continued to work on its risk management initiatives and also assisted senior management in refining ethics-related processes and practices. In particular, the IARD has embedded ethics training into all audit sections and risk interviews with management and continuously assessed the "control environment" and "tone at the top" with a view to enhancing the Company's ethical culture.

In 2025, the IARD provided internal control and risk management training to the various functions at headquarters (such as Finance, HRD, ITD and Marketing) and to project teams. These training sessions include sharing the principles of COSO internal control and risk management to enhance employees' risk management awareness.

Ethical Corporate Culture

The Company has established various policies, including its Code of Conduct and Business Ethics, to govern business ethics and best practices. The Company emphasises integrity as an important foundation of its corporate culture and a strategic choice and leverages it as one of its competitive advantages. The Company's Code of Conduct and Business Ethics regulates, including but not limited to, (i) conflicts of interests (external work, business relationships with family members and interested parties, corporate opportunities); (ii) business practices (discrimination and harassment, confidentiality, proper use of company assets); (iii) business relationships (fair dealing, gifts and hospitality, external contributions); (iv) financial dealings (financial records, controls and reporting) and applies to all wholly-owned subsidiaries of the Group.

The IARD embedded ethics considerations in each audit assignment and assessed the "control environment" to ensure ethical values are integrated into all business segments and processes. Ethics training sessions were organised with the assistance of the Ethics Committee and the IARD and were delivered to management, new employees, suppliers, various departments, and project teams during 2025. The training sessions are summarised as follows:

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Anti-Fraud Measures

An Irregularity Reporting System (or whistle-blowing system) was introduced for reporting violations of the Company's Code of Conduct and Business Ethics and for making complaints about integrity-related matters from staff, vendors, customers, and/or business partners. A telephone hotline (86-21-53829390) and special email addresses (irsx@shuion.com.cn and irs@shuion.com.cn) were set up to enable any such complaints to reach the Chairman of the Audit and Risk Committee or the Chairman of the Ethics Committee. At each Audit and Risk Committee meeting, a summary report of the complaints received and their follow-up actions are tabled for review. The summary report included the complaints and incident reporting involving any suspected ethical issues and conflict of interest issues, and relevant disciplinary and remedial actions. The Audit and Risk Committee continues to oversee the ethical conduct of the Company's businesses.

To enhance anti-fraud awareness, news clippings on reported fraud cases in the real estate industry are collated and sent by the IARD to key executives quarterly. In addition, the "Fraud Risk Management Guide" issued by COSO has been adopted to assist management in preventing and managing fraud risks associated with all business processes. An annual fraud risk self-assessment is conducted using a standard questionnaire.

The Ethics Committee has also issued an Irregularity Reporting Policy. This policy clarifies the Company's treatment and procedures for handling potential reported violations, but at the same time tries to discourage abuse by disgruntled employees or ex-employees. Persons making appropriate complaints under this policy are assured of protection against unfair dismissal, victimisation, or unwarranted disciplinary action, even if the concerns turn out to be unsubstantiated. In January 2025, the Irregularity Reporting

Policy was reviewed and updated to strengthen the internal process management. The updated version has been published and is available on the Company's website (www.shuionland.com/en-us/governanceBehavior/query).

All views and suggestions from our shareholders to promote transparency are welcome.

RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

The Company is committed to the continuous improvement of its risk management and internal control systems to ensure the long-term sustainability of its business.

Before its initial public offering, the Company established and has since continuously operated a risk identification and management system under the responsibility of the Audit and Risk Committee. Our approach to and methodology used in establishing the risk management mechanism are tailored to the Company's complex business, as it operates in numerous locations throughout the People's Republic of China ("PRC") and amid a fast-changing business environment. The Company has elected to formalise its existing risk management system with a Risk Management Policy to reference its conformance explicitly to the guidance set forth in Appendix C1 of the Listing Rules.

Risk Management Framework

The Group's risk management framework comprises a risk governance structure and a risk management process with reference to the "Three Lines Model" issued by The Institute of Internal Auditors and the "Enterprise Risk Management – Integrated Framework" issued by the Committee of Sponsoring Organizations of the Treadway Commission ("COSO").

RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

(i) Risk Governance Structure

Three Lines Model

First Line Roles

The corporate and project heads of the Group participate in the implementation and monitoring of the risk management process, identify the risks associated with the Group's business activities, manage and conduct risk assessment, and put in place measures to mitigate the risks.

Second Line Roles

The Executive Committee of the Company ("EXCOM") assists the Board and the Audit and Risk Committee in overseeing the risk management system on an ongoing basis, ensuring that the risk management culture is fostered and endeavoring to implement an effective system for the Group's daily operation.

The Chief Executive Officers of the Company and of Shui On Xintiandi Limited ("SXTD") each take ownership and accountability for risk management within the Group. They oversee the risk management activities and identify and report the principal risks and relevant risk mitigations to EXCOM.

In the process, the risk management working team (comprising the relevant corporate development department colleagues) assists the Chief Executive Officers to:

- (i) formulate the principal risk mitigation plans and core management tasks, and deliver these plans and tasks to key corporate and project teams for implementation;

- (ii) strengthen the management mechanism by setting key risk indicators; and
- (iii) regularly monitor the status of risk mitigation measures and the effectiveness of their implementation and adjust the risk priorities as appropriate.

Third Line Roles

The Board is ultimately responsible for overseeing the Group's risk management and internal control systems and their effectiveness. The Board has delegated to the Audit and Risk Committee the responsibility of overseeing the corporate governance roles in the Group's financial, operational, compliance, risk management, and internal controls.

Under the third line roles, the Internal Audit and Risk Department ("IARD") carries out the role of an independent assessor with reference to the "Enterprise Risk Management – Integrated Framework" and the "Three Lines Model". It performs analysis and independent appraisal to assess the adequacy and effectiveness of the Company's risk management framework. As ESG-related risks have been rapidly evolving in recent years, it has adopted an Enterprise Risk Management ("ERM") framework to monitor ESG-related risks with reference to the relevant guidelines issued by COSO. The IARD reports the results of the independent risk and control assessment to EXCOM and provides a summary to the Audit and Risk Committee.

(ii) Risk Management Process

The Company has developed a risk management process to manage the Group's strategic and operational risks. A "Top-Down" strategic risk management approach and a "Bottom-Up" operational risk management approach are used to identify, evaluate, and manage the Group's principal risks.

RISK MANAGEMENT REPORT

(a) Risk Identification

The corporate and project heads, as risk owners, are responsible for identifying the preliminary risks that arise in their daily operations. Risks identified during the risk identification process are reflected in the risk inventory collated by the risk coordinators. The risk management working team assists in identifying the principal risks based on communication with the relevant corporate and project heads and the risk inventories compiled by the risk coordinators. The risk coordinators assist in coordinating the overall risk inventories of the Group and track the risks recorded in the risk registration list.

(b) Risk Assessment and Prioritisation

All risks identified will be assessed and prioritised by the risk management working team. Such risks will be continually evaluated, and the top risks of the Group are prioritised.

(c) Risk Response

The risk management working team will assist Chief Executive Officers to formulate the principal risk mitigation plans and core management tasks, coordinate all enterprise risk management activities, and coordinate key corporate/project teams to formulate crisis emergency management plans. The relevant corporate and project teams shall implement the risk mitigation plans and continuously monitor the implementation of the risk mitigation plans.

(d) Risk Monitoring

The Audit and Risk Committee is regularly updated on the risk assessment and management process. The IARD reviews the risk mitigation measures and reports their effectiveness to management to take further action, if necessary.

(e) Risk Reporting

An annual risk assessment is conducted to manage the Company's risk profile effectively. A continuous update is made to the Board at the scheduled meetings throughout the year based on the key control results reported by the management. On an annual basis, the management and the IARD provide confirmation to the Board on the effectiveness of the risk management system.

Principal Risks

A list of risks covering both strategic and operational risks is identified by the risk management process. The principal risks were identified and extracted from the list. Through the integrated top-down and bottom-up risk management process, the Company strives to manage and mitigate the risks in a timely manner. Below is a summary of the current principal risks.

Financial Risks

Risk Description	Risk Mitigations
Default Defaulting on debt repayments or non-compliance with bond and loan covenants may lead to liquidity issue and disruption of the business.	- Active compliance measures were taken by management. Closely worked with banks in the ongoing monitoring process. - Cautious cash flow management was implemented through the Company.
Liquidity & Refinancing Poor cash flow management will increase liquidity risk and may result in financial default and damage the Company's reputation and credibility.	The Company has taken an active role in managing its liquidity through a prudent budget and financing plan, funding arrangements, and capital expenditure plan.

Strategic Risks

Risk Description	Risk Mitigations
Change of Business Environment The Company is exposed to various economic risks. The huge uncertainties in the macro economy, consumer confidence, tenants' business performance and demand/supply of property spaces will create liquidity pressure and make investment decisions more difficult. This will also cause changes in capital market sentiment and the focus of potential investors and joint venture partners.	- Active monitoring of macroeconomic performance and office and retail market conditions. - Formulated an internal view on the structural trends of the commercial market.
Competition The Company faces fierce competition from other residential and commercial property developers and asset managers, in particular in a soft economy. This is likely to affect our revenue income.	- Developed community strategies to provide stakeholders with unique products and services, to enhance the Group's core competitiveness. - Further implemented the Asset-Light strategy in collaboration with suitable partners. - Expanded product differentiation to strengthen the extension of the Group's brand.

Operational Risks

Risk Description	Risk Mitigations
ESG Sustainable development is increasingly important to investors and to obtaining financing. Failure to meet investor/lender expectations on ESG standards could affect the ability to raise funds or attract investment partners.	- Identified extreme heat and flooding as the key physical climate risks to the Company's development and assets. - Engaged consultants to develop climate physical risk guidelines, provided action plans for land acquisition, design, procurement, construction, and daily operations as the first step toward climate change adaptation. - Implemented emissions management and energy efficiency, waste management, and tenant and customer wellbeing.
Cybersecurity The use of digital platforms and the digitalisation of our internal processes is increasing common, if there is any personal data leakage occurred, this may damage the Company's reputation and credibility.	- All application system access is granted only with proper line management approval. - Implemented response programmes for cybersecurity and personal data leakage incidents to minimise their impact on business operations.

Relevant policies and controls have also been long established to ensure that assets are safeguarded against improper use or disposal. Relevant regulations are complied with and the financial and accounting records are prepared and maintained according to relevant accounting standards and regulatory reporting requirements. Major risks that may impact the Group's performance are identified and managed appropriately. It should be acknowledged that the risk management framework can only provide reasonable, but not absolute, assurance against material mis-statement or loss. It is designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure in achieving the business goals of the Company.

The ever-evolving landscape of ESG-related risks continues to have a significant impact on the Group's business operations, and these risks have been incorporated into the enterprise risk management framework to identify better the full spectrum of ESG-related risks. For details, please refer to the "Sustainability Report".

Provident and Retirement Fund Schemes

Hong Kong

The Group participated in both a defined benefit plan (the "Plan") which was registered under the Occupational Retirement Schemes Ordinance and a Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme (the "MPF Scheme") established under the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Ordinance in December 2000.

The MPF Scheme

All new employees joining the Group on or after 1 December 2000 are required to join the MPF Scheme. For members of the MPF Scheme, contributions are made by the employees at 5% of relevant income and by the Group at rates ranging from 5% to 10% of the employees' salaries, depending on the employees' length of services with the Group.

The Plan

Contributions to the Plan were made by the members at 5% of their salaries and by the Group which were based on recommendations made by the actuary of the Plan.

The Plan has been wound up with an effective date of 31 August 2025. Accrued benefit of the existing members has been transferred to the MPF Scheme or paid in cash.

The actuarial valuations of the plan assets and the present value of the defined benefit obligation were carried out as at 31 December 2025 by Ms. Elaine Hwang and Mr. Jack Siu of Towers Watson Hong Kong Limited who are Fellows of the Society of Actuaries.

The market value of plan assets was nil as of 31 December 2025 (2024: RMB16 million).

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF SHUI ON LAND LIMITED

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

Opinion

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Shui On Land Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 113 to 186, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2025, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the International Accounting Standard Board ("IASB") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSA") as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (the "HKICPA"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matter

Key audit matter is the matter that, in our professional judgement, was of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. The matter was addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on the matter. For the matter below, our description of how our audit addressed the matter is provided in that context.

We have fulfilled the responsibilities described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements section of our report, including in relation to the matter. Accordingly, our audit included the performance of procedures designed to respond to our assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements. The results of our audit procedures, including the procedures performed to address the matter below, provide the basis for our audit opinion on the accompanying consolidated financial statements.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Valuation of investment properties stated at fair value We identified the valuation of completed investment properties stated at fair value and investment properties under construction or development at fair value as a key audit matter due to the significance of the balances to the consolidated financial statements and the involvement of management's judgement in determining the fair value. As disclosed in note 13 to the consolidated financial statements, the investment properties are located in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"). The fair values of completed investment properties and investment properties under construction or development at fair value amounting to RMB38,322 million and RMB1,760 million, respectively, were significant as of 31 December 2025, which in aggregate represented 49% of the Group's total assets. A decrease in fair values of RMB643 million was recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss for the year then ended. In estimating the fair values of these investment properties stated at fair value, the Group engaged an independent, qualified professional valuer to perform the valuation. The related disclosures are included in notes 4 and 13 of the consolidated financial statements.	Our procedures in relation to the valuation of completed investment properties stated at fair value and investment properties under construction or development at fair value included: • Evaluating the competence, capabilities, and objectivity of the independent, qualified professional valuer; • Obtaining an understanding of the valuation processes and significant assumptions from the management of the Group and the valuer; • Involving our internal valuation specialist to assist us in evaluating the estimations used by management of the Group and the valuer, in particular, the valuation models, assumptions, parameters, and significant inputs used by the management of the Group and the valuer; and • Assessing the key inputs used in the valuation models by comparing the market rent, capitalisation rate, and gross development value, on a sampling basis, against current market data and entity-specific information.

Other information included in the Annual Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the Annual Report, other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the consolidated financial statements

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The directors of the Company are assisted by the Audit and Risk Committee in discharging their responsibilities for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the consolidated financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Our report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report.

Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSA's, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the group as a basis for forming an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for the purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit and Risk Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit and Risk Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit and Risk Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Ng Cheung (Practising certificate number: P04900).

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Corporate and group information

Shui On Land Limited (the “Company”) was incorporated on 12 February 2004 as an exempted company with limited liability in the Cayman Islands under the Companies Law, Chapter 22 (Law 3 of 1961, as consolidated and revised) of the Cayman Islands. The shares of the Company have been listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) with effect from 4 October 2006. The Company’s ultimate holding company is Shui On Company Limited (“SOCL”), a private limited liability company incorporated in the British Virgin Islands (“BVI”).

The addresses of the registered office and principal place of business of the Company are disclosed in the Corporate Information section of the annual report.

The Company acts as an investment holding company. The principal activities of the Company’s major subsidiaries are set out in note 45. The Company and its subsidiaries are hereinafter collectively referred to as the Group.

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with IFRS accounting standards as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”). In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange (the “Listing Rules”) and by the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The Group’s financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for certain investment properties and derivative financial instruments measured at fair value, assets classified as held for sale are stated at the lower of their carrying amounts and fair values less costs to sell. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi (“RMB”), and all values are rounded to the nearest million except where otherwise indicated.

Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the “Group”) for the year ended 31 December 2025. A subsidiary is an entity (including a structured entity), directly or indirectly, controlled by the Company. Control is achieved when the Group is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee and has the ability to affect those returns through its power over the investee (that is, existing rights that give the Group the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee).

Generally, there is a presumption that a majority of voting rights results in control. When the Company has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- (a) the contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee;
- (b) rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- (c) the Group’s voting rights and potential voting rights.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries are prepared for the same reporting period as the Company, using consistent accounting policies. The results of subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which the Group obtains control and continue to be consolidated until the date that such control ceases.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income is attributed to the owners of the parent of the Group and the non-controlling interests, even if this results in the non-controlling interests having a deficit balance. All intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses, and cash flows relating to transactions between members of the Group are eliminated in full-on consolidation.

The Group reassesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate changes to one or more of the three elements of control described above. A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction.

If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it derecognises the related assets (including goodwill), liabilities, non-controlling interest, and exchange reserve; and recognises the fair value of any investment retained and any resulting surplus or deficit in profit or loss. The Group’s share of components previously recognised in other comprehensive income is reclassified to profit or loss or retained profits, as appropriate, on the same basis as required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities.

2.2 Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

The Group has adopted the following amended IFRS accounting standards for the first time for the current year's financial statements. The Group has not early adopted any other standard or amendments that has been issued but is not effective.

Amendments to IAS 21

Lack of Exchangeability

The nature and the impact of the amended IFRS accounting standards are described below:

Amendments to IAS 21 specify how an entity shall assess whether a currency is exchangeable into another currency and how it shall estimate a spot exchange rate at a measurement date when exchangeability is lacking. The amendments require disclosures of information that enable users of financial statements to understand the impact of a currency not being exchangeable. As the currencies that the Group had transacted in and the functional currencies of overseas subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates for translation into the Group's presentation currency were exchangeable, the amendments did not have any impact on the Group's financial statements

2.3 Standards issued but not yet effective

The Group has not applied the following new and amended IFRS accounting standards, that have been issued but are not yet effective, in these financial statements. The Group intends to apply these new and amended IFRS accounting standards, if applicable, when they become effective.

IFRS 19 and its amendments

Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures²

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7

Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28

Amendments to IAS 21

Annual Improvements to IFRS

Amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7, IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7¹

Accounting Standards – Volume 11

1 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026

2 Effective for annual/reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027

3 No mandatory effective date yet determined but available for adoption

Further information about those IFRS accounting standards that are expected to be applicable to the Group is described below.

IFRS 18 replaces IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements. While a number of sections have been brought forward from IAS 1 with limited changes, IFRS 18 introduces new requirements for presentation within the statement of profit or loss, including specified totals and subtotals. Entities are required to classify all income and expenses within the statement of profit or loss into one of the five categories: operating, investing, financing, income taxes and discontinued operations and to present two new defined subtotals. It also requires disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note and introduces enhanced requirements on the grouping (aggregation and disaggregation) and the location of information in both the primary financial statements and the notes. Some requirements previously included in IAS 1 are moved to IAS 8 Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors, which is renamed as IAS 8 Basis of Preparation of Financial Statements. As a consequence of the issuance of IFRS 18, limited, but widely applicable, amendments are made to IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows, IAS 33 Earnings per Share and IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. In addition, there are minor consequential amendments to other IFRS accounting standards. IFRS 18 and the consequential amendments to other IFRS accounting standards are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 with earlier application permitted. Retrospective application is required. The Group is currently analysing the new requirements and assessing the impact of IFRS 18 on the presentation and disclosure of the Group's financial statements.

IFRS 19 allows eligible entities to elect to apply reduced disclosure requirements while still applying the recognition, measurement and presentation requirements in other IFRS accounting standards. To be eligible, at the end of the reporting period, an entity must be a subsidiary as defined in IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements, cannot have public accountability and must have a parent (ultimate or intermediate) that prepares consolidated financial statements available for public use which comply with IFRS accounting standards. Earlier application is permitted. As the Company is a listed company, it is not eligible to elect to apply IFRS 19 and its amendments. Some of the Company's subsidiaries are considering the application of IFRS 19 and its amendments in their specified financial statements.

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments clarify the date on which a financial asset or financial liability is derecognised and introduce an accounting policy option to derecognise a financial liability that is settled through an electronic payment system before the settlement date if specified criteria are met. The amendments clarify how to assess the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets with environmental, social and governance and other similar contingent features. Moreover, the amendments clarify the requirements for classifying financial assets with non-recourse features and contractually linked instruments. The amendments also include additional disclosures for investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial instruments with contingent features. The amendments shall be applied retrospectively with an adjustment to opening retained profits (or other component of equity) at the initial application date. Prior periods are not required to be restated and can only be restated without the use of hindsight. Earlier application of either all the amendments at the same time or only the amendments related to the classification of financial assets is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 address an inconsistency between the requirements in IFRS 10 and in IAS 28 in dealing with the sale or contribution of assets between an investor and its associate or joint venture. The amendments require a full recognition of a gain or loss resulting from a downstream transaction when the sale or contribution of assets constitutes a business. For a transaction involving assets that do not constitute a business, a gain or loss resulting from the transaction is recognised in the investor's profit or loss only to the extent of the unrelated investor's interest in that associate or joint venture. The amendments are to be applied prospectively. The previous mandatory effective date of amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 was removed by the IASB. However, the amendments are available for adoption now.

Amendments to IAS 21 Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency require the translation from a non-hyperinflationary functional currency into a hyperinflationary presentation currency at the closing rate. The amendments also require an entity whose functional currency and presentation currency are the currency of a hyperinflationary economy to restate the comparative amounts of a foreign operation whose functional currency is that of a non-hyperinflationary economy, by applying the general price index, in accordance with paragraph 34 of IAS 29 Financial Reporting in Hyperinflationary Economies, to the foreign operation's comparative figures. The amendments introduce certain additional disclosures. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 set out amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7 (and the accompanying Guidance on implementing IFRS 7), IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:

- IFRS 7 Financial Instruments: Disclosures: The amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph B38 of IFRS 7 and paragraphs IG1, IG14 and IG20B of the Guidance on implementing IFRS 7 for the purpose of simplification or achieving consistency with other paragraphs in the standard and/or with the concepts and terminology used in other standards. In addition, the amendments clarify that the Guidance on implementing IFRS 7 does not necessarily illustrate all the requirements in the referenced paragraphs of IFRS 7 nor does it create additional requirements. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- IFRS 9 Financial Instruments: The amendments clarify that when a lessee has determined that a lease liability has been extinguished in accordance with IFRS 9, the lessee is required to apply paragraph 3.3.3 of IFRS 9 and recognise any resulting gain or loss in profit or loss. However, the amendments do not address how a lessee distinguishes between a lease modification as defined in IFRS 16 and an extinguishment of a lease liability in accordance with IFRS 9. In addition, the amendments have updated certain wording in paragraph 5.1.3 of IFRS 9 and Appendix A of IFRS 9 to remove potential confusion. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.

Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 set out amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7 (and the accompanying Guidance on implementing IFRS 7), IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and IAS 7. Details of the amendments that are expected to be applicable to the Group are as follows:– continued

- IFRS 10 Consolidated Financial Statements: The amendments clarify that the relationship described in paragraph B74 of IFRS 10 is just one example of various relationships that might exist between the investor and other parties acting as de facto agents of the investor, which removes the inconsistency with the requirement in paragraph B73 of IFRS 10. Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any significant impact on the Group's financial statements.
- IAS 7 Statement of Cash Flows: The amendments replace the term "cost method" with "at cost" in paragraph 37 of IAS 7 following the prior deletion of the definition of "cost method". Earlier application is permitted. The amendments are not expected to have any impact on the Group's financial statements.

3. Material accounting policies

Fair value measurement

The Group measures its investment properties, derivative financial instruments, and liability arising from a rental guarantee arrangement at fair value at the end of each reporting period. Fair value is the price received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. The fair value measurement is based on the presumption that the transaction to sell the asset or transfer the liability occurs either in the principal market for the asset or liability or, in the absence of a principal market, in the most advantageous market for the asset or liability. The principal or the most advantageous market must be accessible by the Group. The fair value of an asset or a liability is measured using the assumptions that market participants would use when pricing the asset or liability, assuming that market participants act in their economic best interest.

A fair value measurement of a non-financial asset considers a market participant's ability to generate economic benefits by using the asset in its highest and best use or by selling it to another market participant that would use the asset in its highest and best use.

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and for which sufficient data are available to measure fair value, maximising the use of relevant observable inputs and minimising the use of unobservable inputs.

All assets and liabilities for which fair value is measured or disclosed in the financial statements are categorised within the fair value hierarchy, described as follows, based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement as a whole:

Level 1 – based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities

Level 2 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is observable, either directly or indirectly

Level 3 – based on valuation techniques for which the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement is unobservable

Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method. The consideration transferred is measured at the acquisition date fair value, which is the sum of the acquisition date fair values of assets transferred by the Group, liabilities assumed by the Group to the former owners of the acquiree, and the equity interests issued by the Group in exchange for control of the acquiree. For each business combination, the Group elects whether to measure the non-controlling interests in the acquiree that are present ownership interests and entitle their holders to a proportionate share of net assets in the event of liquidation at fair value or the proportionate share of the acquiree's identifiable net assets. All other components of non-controlling interests are measured at fair value. Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The Group determines that it has acquired a business when the acquired set of activities and assets includes an input and a substantive process that together significantly contribute to the ability to create outputs.

When the Group acquires a business, it assesses the financial assets and liabilities assumed for appropriate classification and designation per the contractual terms, economic circumstances, and pertinent conditions as of the acquisition date. This includes the separation of embedded derivatives in the host contracts of the acquiree.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the previously held equity interest is remeasured at its acquisition date fair value, and any resulting gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Any contingent consideration to be transferred by the acquirer is recognised at fair value at the acquisition date. Contingent consideration classified as an asset or liability is measured at fair value with changes in fair value recognised in profit or loss. Contingent consideration classified as equity is not remeasured, and subsequent settlement is accounted for within equity.

Related parties

A party is related to the Group if:

(a) the party is a person or a close member of that person's family, and that person

- (i) has control or joint control over the Group;
- (ii) has significant influence over the Group; or
- (iii) is a member of the key management personnel of the Group or a parent of the Group;

or

(b) the party is an entity where any of the following conditions applies:

- (i) the entity and the Group are members of the same group;
- (ii) one entity is an associate or joint venture of the other entity (or of a parent, subsidiary, or fellow subsidiary of the other entity);
- (iii) the entity and the Group are joint ventures of the same third party;
- (iv) one entity is a joint venture of a third entity, and the other entity is an associate of the third entity;
- (v) the entity is a post-employment benefit plan for the benefit of employees of either the Group or an entity related to the Group;
- (vi) the entity is controlled or jointly controlled by a person identified in (a);
- (vii) a person identified in (a)(i) has significant influence over the entity or is a member of the key management personnel of the entity (or of a parent of the entity); and
- (viii) the entity, or any member of a group of which it is a part, provides key management personnel services to the Group or to the parent of the Group.

Investment properties

Investment properties are interests in land and buildings (including right-of-use assets) held to earn rental income and/or for capital appreciation. Such properties are measured initially at cost, including transaction costs. After initial recognition, investment properties are stated at fair value, which reflects market conditions at the end of the reporting period.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair values of investment properties are included in the statement of profit or loss in the year in which they arise.

Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of an investment property are recognised in the statement of profit or loss in the year of the retirement or disposal.

For a transfer from investment properties to owner-occupied properties or inventories, the deemed cost of a property for subsequent accounting is its fair value at the date of use change. If a property occupied by the Group as an owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under “Property and equipment” for owned property and/or accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under “Right-of-use assets” for property held as a right-of-use asset up to the date of use change, any difference at that date between the carrying amount and the fair value of the property is accounted for as a revaluation in accordance with the policy stated under “Property and equipment” below. For a transfer from inventories to investment properties, any difference between the fair value of the property at that date and its carrying amount is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Non-current assets held for sale

The Group classifies non-current assets (principally investment property) and disposal groups as held for sale if their carrying amounts will be recovered principally through a sale transaction rather than through continuing use. Non-current assets and disposal groups classified as held for sale (except for investment property measured at fair value) are measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Costs to sell are the incremental costs directly attributable to the disposal of an asset (disposal group), excluding finance costs and income tax expenses.

The criteria for held-for-sale classification is regarded as met only when the sale is highly probable, and the asset or disposal group is available for immediate sale in its present condition. Actions required to complete the sale should indicate that it is unlikely that significant changes to the sale will be made or that the decision to sell will be withdrawn. Management must be committed to the plan to sell the asset and the sale is expected to be completed within one year from the date of the classification. Events or circumstances may extend the period to complete the sale beyond one year. An extension of the period required to complete a sale does not preclude an asset (or disposal group) from being classified as held for sale if the delay is caused by events or circumstances beyond the entity’s control and there is sufficient evidence that the entity remains committed to its plan to sell the asset (or disposal group).

Property, plant and equipment, and intangible assets are not depreciated or amortised once classified as held for sale.

Assets and liabilities classified as held for sale are presented separately as current items in the statement of financial position.

Investment property held for sale continues to be measured at fair value.

Properties under development for sale

Properties under development for sale that are intended to be sold upon completion of development are classified as current assets. Properties under development for sale are carried at the lower of cost or net realisable value. Cost is determined on a specific identification basis, including allocation of the related development expenditure incurred and, where appropriate, borrowing costs capitalised. The net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for the properties less the estimated cost to completion and costs necessary to make the sales.

Properties under development for sale are transferred to properties held for sale upon completion of development activities, which is when the relevant completion certificates are issued by the respective government authorities.

Investments in associates and joint ventures

An associate is an entity in which the Group has a long-term interest of generally not less than 20% of the equity voting rights and has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

A joint venture is a type of joint arrangement whereby the parties that have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint venture. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group's investments in associates and joint ventures are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at the Group's share of net assets under the equity method of accounting, less any impairment losses. Adjustments are made to bring into line any dissimilar accounting policies that may exist.

The Group's share of the post-acquisition results and other comprehensive income of associates and joint ventures is included in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and consolidated other comprehensive income, respectively. In addition, when there has been a change recognised directly in the equity of the associate or joint venture, the Group recognises its share of any changes, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity. Unrealised gains and losses resulting from transactions between the Group and its associates or joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's investments in the associates or joint ventures, except where unrealised losses provide evidence of an impairment of the assets transferred. Goodwill from the acquisition of associates or joint ventures is included as part of the Group's investments in associates or joint ventures.

If an investment in an associate becomes an investment in a joint venture or vice versa, the retained interest is not remeasured. Instead, the investment continues to be accounted for under the equity method. Upon loss of significant influence over the associate or joint control over the joint venture, the Group measures and recognises any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate or joint venture upon loss of significant influence or joint control and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognised in profit or loss.

When an investment in an associate or a joint venture is classified as held for sale, it is accounted for in accordance with IFRS 5.

Impairment of non-financial assets

Where an indication of impairment exists, or when annual impairment testing for a non-financial asset is required (other than inventories, contract assets, deferred tax assets, investment properties, and non-current assets/a disposal group classified as held for sale), the asset's recoverable amount is estimated. An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of the asset's or cash-generating unit's value in use and its fair value less costs of disposal. It is determined for an individual asset unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets, in which case the recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs. In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, a portion of the carrying amount of a corporate asset (e.g., a headquarters building) is allocated to an individual cash-generating unit if it can be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis or, otherwise, to the smallest group of cash-generating units.

An impairment loss is recognised only if the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. An impairment loss is charged to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset.

An assessment is made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is an indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such an indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss of an asset other than goodwill is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the recoverable amount of that asset, but not to an amount higher than the carrying amount that would have been determined (net of any depreciation/amortisation) had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. A reversal of such an impairment loss is credited to the statement of profit or loss in the period in which it arises.

Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial assets are classified at initial recognition, and subsequently measured at amortised cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, or fair value through profit or loss.

The classification of financial assets at initial recognition depends on the financial asset's contractual cash flow characteristics and the Group's business model for managing them. With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient, the Group initially measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, transaction costs. Rental and other trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group has applied the practical expedient are measured at the transaction price determined under IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers in accordance with the policies set out for "Revenues from contracts with customers" below.

For a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI"), it needs to give rise to cash flows that are 'solely payments of principal and interest ("SPPI")' on the principal amount outstanding. This assessment is called the SPPI test and is performed at an instrument level. Financial assets with cash flows not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), irrespective of the business model.

The Group's business model for managing financial assets refers to how it manages its financial assets to generate cash flows. The business model determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling the financial assets, or both. Financial assets classified and measured at amortised cost are held within a business model of holding financial assets to collect contractual cash flows, while financial assets classified and measured at FVTOCI are held within a business model with the objective of both holding to collect contractual cash flows and selling. Financial assets that are not held within the aforementioned business models are classified and measured at FVTPL.

Purchases or sales of financial assets that require delivery of assets within the period generally established by regulation or convention in the marketplace are recognised on the trade date, that is, the date that the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial assets depends on their classification as follows:

Financial assets at amortised cost (debt instruments)

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified, or impaired.

Derecognition

A financial asset (or, where applicable, a part of a financial asset or part of a group of similar financial assets) is primarily derecognised (i.e., removed from the Group's consolidated statement of financial position) when:

- the rights to receive cash flows from the asset have expired; or
- the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from the asset or has assumed an obligation to pay the received cash flows in full without material delay to a third party under a 'pass-through' arrangement; and either (a) the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, or (b) the Group has neither transferred nor retained substantially all the risks and rewards of the asset, but has transferred control of the asset.

When the Group has transferred its rights to receive cash flows from an asset or has entered into a pass-through arrangement, it evaluates if and to what extent it has retained the risks and rewards of ownership. When it has neither transferred nor retained substantially all of the risks and rewards of the asset nor transferred control of the asset, the Group continues to recognise the transferred asset to the extent of its continuing involvement. In that case, the Group also recognises an associated liability. The transferred asset and the associated liability are measured on a basis that reflects the rights and obligations the Group has retained.

Continuing involvement that takes the form of a guarantee over the transferred asset is measured at the lower of the original carrying amount of the asset and the maximum amount of consideration that the Group could be required to repay.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises an allowance for expected credit losses (“ECLs”) for all debt instruments not held at fair value through profit or loss. ECLs are based on the difference between the contractual cash flows due per the contract and all the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at an approximation of the original effective interest rate. The expected cash flows will include cash flows from the sale of collateral held or other credit enhancements integral to the contractual terms.

General approach

ECLs are recognised in two stages. For credit exposures for which there has not been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, ECLs are provided for credit losses that result from default events that are possible within the next 12 months (a 12-month ECL). For those credit exposures for which there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, a loss allowance is required for credit losses expected over the remaining life of the exposure, irrespective of the default timing (a lifetime ECL).

At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition. When making the assessment, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. It considers reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort, including historical and forward-looking information. The Group considers that there has been a significant increase in credit risk when contractual payments are more than 90 days past due.

The Group considers a financial asset in default when contractual payments are 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise. However, in certain cases, the Group may also consider a financial asset to default when internal or external information indicates that the Group is unlikely to receive the outstanding contractual amounts in full before taking into account any credit enhancements held by the Group. A financial asset is written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovering the contractual cash flows.

Debt investments at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at amortised cost are subject to impairment under the general approach, and they are classified within the following stages for measurement of ECLs except for trade receivables and contract assets, which apply the simplified approach as detailed below.

- Stage 1 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to 12-month ECLs
- Stage 2 – Financial instruments for which credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition but that are not credit-impaired financial assets and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs
- Stage 3 – Financial assets that are credit-impaired at the reporting date (but that are not purchased or originated credit-impaired) and for which the loss allowance is measured at an amount equal to lifetime ECLs

Simplified approach

For rental and other trade receivables and contract assets that do not contain a significant financing component or when the Group applies the practical expedient of not adjusting the effect of a significant financing component, the Group applies the simplified approach in calculating ECLs. Under the simplified approach, the Group does not track changes in credit risk but instead recognises a loss allowance based on lifetime ECLs at each reporting date. The Group has established a provision matrix based on its historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward-looking factors specific to the debtors and the economic environment. For a rental receivable, the cash flows used for determining the ECL are consistent with the cash flows used in measuring the rental receivable in accordance with IFRS 16.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities are classified, at initial recognition, as financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss, loans, and borrowings, payables, or derivatives designated as hedging instruments in an effective hedge, as appropriate.

All financial liabilities are recognised initially at fair value and, in the case of loans and borrowings and payables, net of directly attributable transaction costs.

The Group's financial liabilities include derivative financial instruments, accounts and other payables, amounts due to joint ventures, loans from/amounts due to associates, amounts due to related companies, amounts due to non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries, bank and other borrowings, senior notes, lease liabilities, receipts under securitisation arrangements and liability arising from a rental guarantee arrangement.

Subsequent measurement

The subsequent measurement of financial liabilities depends on their classification as follows:

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

After initial recognition, accounts payable, deposits received, and accrued charges, amounts due to associates, loans from an associate, amounts due to joint ventures, loans from a joint venture, amounts due to related companies, amounts due to non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries, receipts under securitisation arrangements, senior notes, bank and other borrowings and lease liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest rate method unless the effect of discounting would be immaterial, in which case they are stated at cost. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the liabilities are derecognised, as well as through the effective interest rate amortisation process.

Amortised cost is calculated by considering any discount or premium on acquisition and fees or costs that are an integral part of the effective interest rate. The effective interest rate amortisation is included in finance costs in the statement of profit or loss.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

A financial liability is derecognised when the obligation under the liability is discharged or cancelled or expires.

When an existing financial liability is replaced by another from the same lender on substantially different terms, or the terms of an existing liability are substantially modified, such an exchange or modification is treated as a derecognition of the original liability. A recognition of a new liability, and the difference between the respective carrying amounts is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Offsetting of financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are offset, and the net amount is reported in the statement of financial position if there is a currently enforceable legal right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

Leases

The Group assesses at contract inception whether a contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for some time in exchange for consideration.

Group as a lessee

The Group applies a single recognition and measurement approach for all leases, except for short-term leases and leases of low-value assets. The Group recognises lease liabilities to make lease payments and right-of-use assets representing the right to use the underlying assets.

(a) Right-of-use assets

Right-of-use assets are recognised at the commencement date of the lease (that is the date the underlying asset is available for use). Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities. The cost of right-of-use assets includes the amount of lease liabilities recognised, initial direct costs incurred, and lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received. Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of the lease terms, and the estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:

Leasehold land	20 to 50 years
Leased properties	3 years

If ownership of the leased asset transfers to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost reflects the exercise of a purchase option, depreciation is calculated using the estimated useful life of the asset.

When the right-of-use assets relate to interests in leasehold land held as properties under development for sales or properties held for sale, they are subsequently measured at the lower of cost and net realisable value per the Group's policy for "properties under development for sales" or "properties held for sale". When a right-of-use asset meets the definition of investment property, it is included in investment properties. The corresponding right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost and subsequently measured at fair value per the Group's policy for "investment properties".

(b) Lease liabilities

Lease liabilities are recognised at the commencement date of the lease at the present value of lease payments to be made over the lease term. The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees. The lease payments also include the exercise price of a purchase option reasonably sure to be exercised by the Group and payments of penalties for a lease termination if the lease term reflects the Group exercising the option to terminate the lease. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as an expense in the period in which the event or condition that triggers the payment occurs.

In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses its incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date because the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable. After the commencement date, the amount of lease liabilities is increased to reflect the accretion of interest and reduced for the lease payments made. In addition, the carrying amount of lease liabilities are remeasured if there is a modification, a change in the lease term, a change in lease payments (for example, a change to future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or rate) or a change in assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

(c) Short-term leases and leases of low-value assets

The Group applies the short-term lease recognition exemption to its short-term leases of premises (that is, those leases that have a lease term of 12 months or less from the commencement date and do not contain a purchase option). It also applies the recognition exemption for leases of low-value assets to leases of office equipment and laptop computers that are considered low value.

Lease payments on short-term leases and leases of low-value assets are recognised as an expense on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Group as a lessor

When the Group acts as a lessor, it classifies at lease inception (or when there is a lease modification) each of its leases as either an operating or a finance lease.

Leases in which the Group does not transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an asset are classified as operating leases. When a contract contains lease and non-lease components, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each component on a relative stand-alone selling price basis. Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease terms and is included in revenue in the statement of profit or loss due to its operating nature. Initial direct costs incurred in negotiating and arranging an operating lease are added to the carrying amount of the leased asset and recognised over the lease term on the same basis as rental income. Contingent rents are recognised as revenue in the period they are earned.

Leases that transfer substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of an underlying asset to the lessee are accounted for as finance leases.

When the Group is an intermediate lessor, a sublease is classified as a finance lease or operating lease with reference to the right-of-use asset arising from the head lease.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, or production of qualifying assets, i.e., assets that necessarily take a substantial period to get ready for their intended use or sale, are capitalised as part of the cost of those assets. The capitalisation of such borrowing costs ceases when the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. All other borrowing costs are expensed in the period they are incurred. Borrowing costs consist of interest and other costs that an entity incurs in connection with the borrowing of funds.

Income tax

Income tax comprises current and deferred tax. Income tax relating to items recognised outside profit or loss is recognised outside profit or loss, either in other comprehensive income or directly in equity.

Current tax assets and liabilities are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the tax authorities based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period, taking into consideration interpretations and practices prevailing in the countries in which the Group operates.

Deferred tax is provided, using the liability method, on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except:

- when the deferred tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates, and joint ventures, when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, and the carryforward of unused tax credits and any unused tax losses. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carryforward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred tax asset relating to the deductible temporary differences arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences; and
- in respect of deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates, and joint ventures, deferred tax assets are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary differences will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be utilised. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period. They are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates expected to apply to the period when the asset is realised, or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same tax authority.

Foreign currencies

These financial statements are presented in RMB, which is the Company's functional currency. Each entity in the Group determines its functional currency and items included in the financial statements of each entity are measured using that functional currency. Foreign currency transactions recorded by the entities in the Group are initially recorded using their respective functional currency rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated at the functional currency rates of exchange ruling at the end of the reporting period. Differences arising on settlement or translation of monetary items are recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Non-monetary items measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the dates of the initial transactions. Non-monetary items measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was measured. The gain or loss arising on translation of a non-monetary item measured at fair value is treated in line with the recognition of the gain or loss on change in fair value of the item (i.e., translation difference on the item whose fair value gain or loss is recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income or profit or loss, respectively).

In determining the exchange rate on initial recognition of the related asset, expense, or income on the derecognition of a non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability relating to an advance consideration, the date of the initial transaction is the date on which the Group initially recognises the non-monetary asset or non-monetary liability arising from the advance consideration. If there are multiple payments or receipts in advance, the Group determines the transaction date for each payment or receipt of the advance consideration.

The functional currency of certain overseas subsidiaries is USD or HKD. At the end of the reporting period, the assets and liabilities of these entities are translated into RMB at the exchange rates prevailing at the end of the reporting period, and their statements of profit or loss are translated into RMB at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuate significantly during the period, in which case, the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions are used.

The resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of "Exchange reserve", except to the extent that the differences are attributable to non-controlling interests. On disposal of a foreign operation, the cumulative amount in reserve relating to that particular foreign operation is recognised in the statement of profit or loss.

Any goodwill arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation and any fair value adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities arising on acquisition are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the rate of the closing date.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with customers

Revenue from contracts with customers is recognised when control of goods or services is transferred to the customers at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for those goods or services.

When the consideration in a contract includes a variable amount, the amount of consideration is estimated to which the Group will be entitled in exchange for transferring the goods or services to the customer. The variable consideration is estimated at contract inception and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved.

When the contract contains a financing component that provides the customer with a significant benefit of financing the transfer of goods or services to the customer for more than one year, revenue is measured at the present value of the amount receivable, discounted using the discount rate that would be reflected in a separate financing transaction between the Group and the customer at contract inception. When the contract contains a financing component that provides the Group with a significant financial benefit for more than one year, revenue recognised under the contract includes the interest expense accreted on the contract liability under the effective interest method. For a contract where the period between the payment by the customer and the transfer of the promised goods or services is one year or less, the transaction price is not adjusted for the effects of a significant financing component, using the practical expedient in IFRS 15.

Sale of properties

Revenue arising from the sale of properties is recognized when the control over the ownership of the property is transferred to the customer, which is the point in time when the customer has the ability to direct the use of the property and obtain substantially all of the remaining benefits of the property.

Revenue from lease

Rental income is recognised on a time proportion basis over the lease terms. Variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are recognised as income in the accounting period they are incurred.

Rendering of services

Revenue from the provision of property management and real estate asset management service is recognised over the scheduled period on a straight-line basis because the customer simultaneously receives and consumes the benefits provided by the Group.

Construction services

Revenue from the provision of construction services is recognised over time, using an input or output method to measure progress towards complete satisfaction of the service, because the Group's performance creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls as the asset is created or enhanced.

Claims to customers are amounts that the Group seeks to collect from the customers as reimbursement of costs and margins for the scope of work not included in the original construction contract. Claims are accounted for as variable consideration and constrained until it is highly probable that a significant revenue reversal in the amount of cumulative revenue recognised will not occur when the associated uncertainty with the variable consideration is subsequently resolved. The Group uses the expected value method to estimate the amounts of claims because this method best predicts the amount of variable consideration to which the Group will be entitled.

Other income

Interest income is recognised on an accrual basis using the effective interest method by applying the rate that exactly discounts the estimated future cash receipts over the expected life of the financial instrument or a shorter period, when appropriate, to the net carrying amount of the financial asset.

Dividend income is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment has been established. It is probable that the economic benefits associated with the dividend will flow to the Group, and the amount of the dividend can be measured reliably.

Contract assets

If the Group performs by transferring goods or services to a customer before being unconditionally entitled to the consideration under the contract terms, a contract asset is recognised for the earned consideration that is conditional. Contract assets are subject to impairment assessment, details of which are included in the accounting policies for impairment of financial assets. They are reclassified to trade receivables when the right to the consideration becomes unconditional.

Contract liabilities

A contract liability is recognised when a payment is received, or a payment is due (whichever is earlier) from a customer before the Group transfers the related goods or services. Contract liabilities are recognised as revenue when the Group performs under the contract (i.e., transfers control of the related goods or services to the customer).

Contract costs

Other than the costs which are capitalised as property under development for sale, property held for sale, property and equipment, and intangible assets, costs incurred to fulfil a contract with a customer is capitalised as an asset if all of the following criteria are met:

- (a) The costs relate directly to a contract or an anticipated contract that the entity can specifically identify.
- (b) The costs generate or enhance resources of the entity that will be used in satisfying (or continuing to satisfy) performance obligations in the future.
- (c) The costs are expected to be recovered.

The capitalised contract costs are amortised and charged to the statement of profit or loss on a systematic basis that is consistent with the transfer to the customer of the goods or services to which the asset relates. Other contract costs are expensed as incurred.

Bank balances and cash

Bank balances and cash in the statement of financial position comprise cash on hand and at banks and short-term highly liquid deposits with a maturity of generally within three months that are readily convertible into known amounts of cash, subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value and held for meeting short-term cash commitments.

For the consolidated statement of cash flows, bank balances and cash comprise cash on hand and at banks, and short-term deposits as defined above, less bank overdrafts which are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the Group's cash management.

4. Material accounting judgements and estimates

The preparation of the Group's financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates, and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of revenues, expenses, assets and liabilities, their accompanying disclosures, and the disclosure of contingent liabilities.

Uncertainty about these assumptions and estimates could result in outcomes that could require a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of the assets or liabilities affected in the future.

Estimation uncertainty

The key assumptions concerning the future and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of the reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year, are described below.

4. Material accounting judgements and estimates – continued

Fair value measurements and valuation processes

The Group's certain assets and liabilities are measured at fair value for financial reporting purposes. In estimating the fair value of an asset or a liability, the management of the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. Where Level 1 inputs are unavailable, the Group engages third-party qualified valuers to perform the valuation. At the end of the reporting period, the management of the Group works closely with the qualified external valuers to establish and determine the appropriate valuation techniques and inputs for Level 2 and Level 3 fair value measurements. The management of the Group will first consider and adopt Level 2 inputs, where inputs can be derived from observable quoted prices in the active market. When Level 2 inputs are not available, the management of the Group will adopt valuation techniques that include Level 3 inputs. Where there is a material change in the fair value of an asset or a liability, the causes of the fluctuations will be reported to the directors of the Company for appropriate actions to be taken.

Information about the valuation techniques, inputs and key assumptions used in determining the fair value of various assets and liabilities is disclosed in notes 13 and 41 (c).

Land appreciation tax

The Group is subject to land appreciation tax in the Chinese Mainland. However, the implementation and settlement of the tax vary amongst different tax jurisdictions in various cities of the Chinese Mainland and the Group has not finalised its land appreciation tax calculation and payments with local tax authorities for the properties already sold in the Chinese Mainland. Accordingly, significant judgement is required in determining the amount of the land appreciation tax and its related income tax provisions. The Group recognised the land appreciation tax based on management's best estimates. The final tax outcome could be different from the amounts that were initially recorded, and these differences will impact the income tax provisions in the periods in which such tax is finalised with local tax authorities.

Estimated impairment of properties under development for sale and properties held for sale

Properties under development for sale and properties held for sale are stated at lower of cost or net realisable value. The net realisable value is the estimated selling price of the completed units (based on the current prevailing market conditions), less estimated selling expenses and estimated cost of completion (if any), which are determined based on the best available information. Where there is any decrease in the estimated selling price arising from any changes to the property market conditions in the Chinese Mainland, a further loss will be recognised on the properties under development for sale and properties held for sale in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

Property sales

Revenue from sales of residential properties is recognised at a point in time when the completed property is transferred to the customer, being at the point that the customer obtains control of the completed property and the Group has the present right to payment and collection of the consideration is probable.

The Group receives payments from customers based on billing schedules as established in the property sales contracts. Such advance payment schemes result in contract liabilities being recognised throughout the property construction period.

Construction services

The Group provides building construction services to customers. Such services are recognised as a performance obligation satisfied over time as the Group creates or enhances an asset that the customer controls. Revenue is recognised for these construction services based on the stage of completion of the contract using the input or output method.

The Group's construction contracts include payment schedules, which require stage payments over the construction period once certain specified milestones are reached.

A contract asset, net of contract liability related to the same contract, is recognised over the period in which the construction services are performed, representing the Group's right to consideration for the services performed because the rights are conditioned on the Group's future performance in achieving specified milestones. The contract assets are transferred to trade receivables when the rights become unconditional. The Group typically achieves specified milestones and thus has the right to bill the customers when the progress certificate, settlement letter, or payment notice is obtained.

5. Revenue and segment information – continued

B. Set out below is the reconciliation of the revenue from contracts with customers with the amounts disclosed in the segment information – continued

Property management services

Revenue from property management services is recognised over time when such services are rendered. The property management service fees are billed to the clients periodically.

Rental and rental-related income

The Group's accounting policy for revenue recognition from operating leases is described in the accounting policy for leases.

C. Transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligation for contracts with customers

The transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligations (unsatisfied or partially unsatisfied) as of 31 December 2025 and 2024, and the expected timing of recognising revenue is as follows:

Sales of properties	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million
Within one year	1	1

D. Operating segments

Operating segments are identified from the financial information provided regularly to the Group's chief operating decision maker ("CODM") (i.e., the executive directors and the chairman of the Group) for the purposes of allocating resources to and assessing the performance of the Group's various lines of business.

The Group is organised based on its business activities and has the following four major reportable segments:

- Property development – development and sale of properties
- Property investment – offices and commercial/mall leasing
- Property management – provision of daily management service to the properties
- Construction – construction, interior fitting-out, renovation and maintenance of building premises

The property development and property investment projects of the Group are located in Shanghai, Wuhan, Foshan, Chongqing, and Nanjing, the Chinese Mainland, and their revenues are primarily derived from property sales and leasing, respectively. The directors of the Company consider that the various operating segments under property development, property investment, property management, and construction segments are aggregated for financial reporting purposes because those segments have similar characteristics in terms of the production process, class of customers, and distribution method and are under similar economic conditions and subject to similar regulatory policies.

5. Revenue and segment information – continued

Segment results represent the profit earned or loss incurred by each segment without allocation of central administration costs, directors' salaries, interest income, the share of results of associates and joint ventures, gain on disposal of subsidiaries, other gains and losses, finance costs inclusive of exchange differences, and other unallocated income/expense. This is the measure reported for resource allocation and performance assessment.

For monitoring segment performance and allocating resources between segments:

- all assets are allocated to reportable segments other than interests in associates, interests in joint ventures, loans to/amounts due from associates, loans to/amounts due from joint ventures, amounts due from related companies, deferred tax assets, derivative financial instruments, pledged bank deposits, bank balances and cash, prepaid taxes, and other unallocated corporate assets; and
- all liabilities are allocated to reportable segments other than amounts due to associates, lease liabilities, amount due to a joint venture, loans from/amounts due to related companies, loans from/amounts due to non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries, tax liabilities, deferred tax liabilities, derivative financial instruments, defined benefit liabilities, bank and other borrowings, senior notes, receipts under securitisation arrangements and other unallocated corporate liabilities.

Over 90% of the Group's revenue and contribution to operating profit are attributable to customers in the Chinese Mainland for both years. Accordingly, no analysis of the geographical segment is presented.

No geographical segment information of the Group's non-current assets is shown, as the assets are substantially located in the Chinese Mainland.

During the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024, there were no revenues from transactions with a single external customer that accounted for 10% or more of the revenue of the Group.

Chinese Mainland EIT was provided for at the applicable income tax rate of 25% on the estimated assessable profits of the Group's subsidiaries established in the Chinese Mainland during the years.

The EIT Law of Chinese Mainland requires withholding tax to be levied on the distribution of profits earned by entities established in the Chinese Mainland for profits generated after 1 January 2008 at a rate of 5% for Hong Kong resident companies and at a rate of 10% (5% if obtained the Hong Kong residents) for companies incorporated in BVI and Republic of Mauritius ("Mauritius"), which are the beneficial owners of the dividend received. As of 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024, the deferred tax was provided for in respect of the temporary differences attributable to such profits, except to the extent that the Group is able to control the timing of the reversal of such temporary differences and probably, that such temporary differences would not likely to be reversed in the foreseeable future.

The provision of LAT of Chinese Mainland is estimated according to the requirements as stipulated in the relevant tax laws and regulations. The LAT has been provided for at progressive rates of the appreciation value, with certain allowable deductions, including land costs, borrowing costs, and the relevant property development expenditures.

9. Tax – continued

Pillar Two income taxes

The Group has assessed its potential exposure to Pillar Two rules based on the information available regarding the financial performance of the Group in the current year. As such, it may not be entirely representative of future circumstances, based on the assessment, the Group's effective tax rates in all jurisdictions in which it operates are above 15% and the directors of the Company are not currently aware of any circumstances under which they might change. Therefore, the Group does not expect material potential exposure to Pillar Two "top-up" taxes. The Group continues to follow Pillar Two legislative developments, as more countries prepare to enact the Pillar Two model rules, to evaluate the potential future impact on its financial statements.

The tax (credit)/charge for the year is reconciled to the (loss)/profit before tax to the consolidated statement of profit or loss as follows:

	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million

The Group is in the process of obtaining land use rights certificates in respect of investment properties under construction or development with the aggregate amount of RMB78 million (2024: RMB78 million). The directors of the Company believe that the relevant land use rights certificates will be granted in due course and no impairment is required for the absence of land use rights certificates of the relevant properties.

The fair values of the Group's completed investment properties and investment properties under construction or development at fair value as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024, and the fair values of properties at the dates of transfer to/from investment properties have been arrived at on the basis of valuations carried out on those dates by Knight Frank Petty Limited, independent qualified professional valuers not connected to the Group.

For completed investment properties and investment properties sublease of right-of-use assets, the valuations have been arrived at by using the income approach term and reversion method by capitalizing the net income shown on tenancy schedules, and the market rentals of all lettable units of the properties, which are assessed by reference to the rentals achieved in the lettable units as well as other lettings of similar properties in the neighbourhood. The capitalisation rate adopted refers to the yield rates observed by the valuers for similar properties in the locality and adjusted based on the valuers' knowledge of the factors specific to the respective properties.

For investment properties under construction or development that are measured at fair value, the valuations have been arrived at assuming that the investment properties will be completed according to the development plans and that the relevant approvals for the plans have been obtained. The key inputs in the valuations include the market value of the completed investment properties, which are estimated with reference to sales evidence of similar properties in the nearest locality, with adjustments made to account for differences in locations and other factors specific to the respective properties based on the valuers' judgement. Costs of development are also taken into account, including construction costs, finance costs and professional fees, as well as the developer's profit margin which reflects the remaining risks associated with the development of the properties at the valuation date and the return that the developer would require for bringing the properties to completion status, which is determined by the valuers based on an analysis of recent land transactions and market value of similar completed properties in the respective locations.

In estimating the fair value of the properties, the management of the Group has considered the highest and best use of the properties.

The Company shall pay to the trustee monies and give directions or recommendation to the trustee to apply such monies and/or such other net amount of cash derived from shares held as part of the fund of the trusts to acquire shares from the market and/or to allot and issue shares to the trustee, to satisfy any award made to selected participants. The remuneration committee of the Company shall select eligible persons and determine the number of shares to be awarded. (b) Disposal of equity interests in Shanghai Jiu Ze Property Co., Ltd.

In December 2023, the Group agreed with Shanghai Hongrui Shouyuan Consulting Management Partnership (Limited Partnership) to dispose of its 65% equity interest in Shanghai Jiu Ze Property Co., Ltd. ("Hong Shou Fang") at a consideration of RMB1,209 million and the transaction was completed in January 2024 and Hong Shou Fang is accounted for as a joint venture after the completion of the transaction. The transaction didn't have material impact on the Group's profit or loss.

37. Pledge of assets

The following assets are pledged to banks as securities to obtain certain banking facilities at the end of the reporting year:

	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million

In addition, the equity interest in a Group's subsidiary with a carrying amount of net assets of RMB2,827 million (2024: RMB2,924 million) was pledged to banks as securities to obtain banking facilities granted to the Group at the end of the reporting period.

38. Commitments and contingencies

(a) Capital and other commitments

At the end of the reporting year, the Group has the following commitments:

	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million
Contracted but not provided for:
Development costs for properties under development held for sale	197	21

	7,358	5,099

Note:

The Group agreed to contribute capital to certain joint venture companies for property development or urban village renewal projects.

(b) Contingent liabilities

The Group provided guarantees to banks in favour of its customers in respect of the mortgage loans provided by the banks to those home-buyers for the purchase of the Group's developed properties. These guarantees provided by the Group to the banks will be released upon receiving the building ownership certificates of the respective properties by the banks from the home-buyers as a pledge for security to the mortgage loans granted. On 31 December 2025, the Group considered these outstanding guarantees amount to be insignificant.

In determining whether financial liabilities should be recognised in respect of the Group's financial guarantee contracts, the directors of the Company exercise judgment in the evaluation of the probability of resources outflow that will be required and the assessment of whether a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the fair values of the financial guarantee contracts of the Group are insignificant at initial recognition, and the directors consider that the possibility of the default of the parties involved is remote, and accordingly, nil amount was recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024. Should the actual outcome differ from the expected, provision for losses would be recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

40. Capital risk management

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged from the prior year.

The capital structure of the Group consists of net debt, which includes bank and other borrowings, senior notes, and receipts under securitisation arrangements disclosed in notes 27, 30, and 31, respectively, net of bank balances and cash and pledged bank deposits and equity comprising issued share capital and reserves and non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries.

The directors of the Company review the capital structure of the Group by using a net gearing ratio, which is calculated based on dividing the net debt by total equity. The review is conducted at least quarterly and before each major financing or investment decision is made.

The net gearing ratios at the end of reporting periods are as follows:

	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million
Bank and other borrowings	19,200	19,277
Senior notes	2,809	6,437
Receipts under securitisation arrangements	4,285	4,213

b. Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include derivative financial instruments, loans to joint ventures, receivables and prepayments of relocation costs, amounts due from associates, amounts due from related companies, amounts due from joint ventures, loans to a non-controlling shareholder of a subsidiary, bank balances and cash, pledged bank deposits, accounts and other payable, loans from/amounts due to joint ventures, loans from/amounts due to associates, amounts due to related companies, amounts due to non-controlling shareholders of subsidiaries, bank and other borrowings, senior notes, receipts under securitisation arrangements, lease liabilities and liability arising from a rental guarantee arrangement.

Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in the respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented in a timely and effective manner.

The main risks arising from the Group's financial instruments are currency risk, interest rate risk, credit risk and liquidity risk. The directors review and agree on policies for managing each of these risks and they are summarised below.

Currency risk

All of the Group's revenues are denominated in RMB. However, the Group has certain bank balances and debt obligations denominated in foreign currency. As a result, the Group is exposed to fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. The foreign currency exposure is managed within approved policy parameters utilising currency forward contracts.

The Group determines the economic relationship between the hedged items and the hedging instruments by reviewing their critical terms and performing a quantitative assessment. The Group applies hedge accounting for those currency forward contracts that the risk being hedged for the hedged items and the risk inherent in the hedging instruments are sufficiently aligned.

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency-denominated monetary assets and liabilities at the end of the reporting year are as follows:

	2025 RMB'million	2024 RMB'million
HKD
Assets	35	75
Liabilities	8	390
USD
Assets	174	403
Liabilities	4,413	10,201

The Group has entered into a contract in relation to the foreign currency-denominated monetary liabilities amounting to RMB731 million (equivalent to USD104 million forward contract) (31 December 2024: RMB748 million (equivalent to USD104 million forward contract)).

Sensitivity analysis

The Group is mainly exposed to the currency risk of HKD and USD.

The following paragraphs detail the Group's sensitivity to a 5% increase and decrease in functional currency against the relevant foreign currency. The sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel is 5%, and it represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates.

The sensitivity analysis only includes foreign currency outstanding denominated monetary items assuming the balances at the end of the reporting period outstanding for the whole year. It adjusts its translation at the year's end for a 5% change in foreign currency rates.

41. Financial instruments – continued

If RMB strengthens/weakens by 5% against HKD with all other variables held constant, the effect on the profit or loss of the Group will be RMB1 million (2024: RMB2 million). This is mainly attributable to the exposure for those bank balances and cash and outstanding bank borrowings denominated in HKD, which are neither subject to cash flow hedges nor belong to certain overseas subsidiaries, of which functional currency is not RMB, at the end of the reporting year.

If the RMB strengthens/weakens by 5% against USD with all other variables held constant, the effect on the profit or loss of the Group will be RMB66 million (2024: RMB130 million). This is mainly attributable to the exposure for those bank balances and cash, bank borrowings and senior notes denominated in USD, which are neither subject to cash flow hedges nor belong to certain overseas subsidiaries, of which functional currency is not RMB, at the end of the reporting year.

In management's opinion, the sensitivity analysis is unrepresentative of the inherent foreign exchange risk as the year-end exposure does not reflect the exposure during the year.

Interest rate risk

The Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates. The Group's exposure to changes in interest rates is mainly attributable to its bank balances and restricted bank balances (note 21) and bank and other borrowings (note 27) at variable rates.

Management aims at keeping bank and other borrowings at fixed rates at an appropriate level by entering into interest rate swaps. Management adopts a policy of ensuring that bank and other borrowings of the Group at an appropriate portion are effectively hedged on a fixed rate basis using interest rate swaps.

The Group's exposures to interest rates on financial liabilities are detailed in the liquidity risk management section of this note. The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of HIBOR, SOFR, CNH HIBOR, and LPR arising from the Group's HKD, USD, and RMB borrowings.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for non-derivative instruments at the end of the reporting period. For variable-rate bank and other borrowings the analysis is prepared assuming the amount of liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period was outstanding for the whole year. A 100 basis point increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

Bank balances are excluded from sensitivity analysis as the Company directors consider that the exposure of cash flow interest rate risk arising from variable-rate bank balances is insignificant.

If interest rates had been 100 basis points higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's profit/loss for the year would decrease/increase by RMB131 million (2024: RMB145 million). This is mainly attributable to the Group's exposure to interest rates on its variable-rate bank and other borrowings, after considering the effects of the capitalisation of interest costs.

Credit risk and impairment assessment

The Group's maximum exposure to credit risk, which will cause a financial loss to the Group due to failure to discharge an obligation by the counterparties and financial guarantees provided by the Group, is arising from the carrying amount of the respective recognised financial assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position and the amount in relation to a financial guarantee issued by the Group as disclosed in note 38(b).

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to its loans to related parties (including loan to a non-controlling shareholder of a subsidiary, loans to joint ventures, amounts due from associates, amounts due from related companies, and amounts due from joint ventures), receivables and prepayments of relocation costs, other receivables, contract assets, cash deposits with banks and amount in relation to the financial guarantees provided by the Group.

Receivables and contract assets arising from contracts with customers

To minimise the credit risk, the Group has policies in place to ensure that sales are made to purchasers with appropriate financial strength and percentage of down payments. It also has other monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group performs impairment assessment under the ECL model on trade balances arising from sales of properties and arising from construction revenue based on the provision matrix. The credit risk of rental receivables is minimal as the Group has collected rental deposits from the tenants to secure any potential losses from uncollectible debts.

For other receivables, the Group makes periodic individual assessments on the recoverability of other receivables, prepayments of relocation costs, and deposits based on historical settlement records, experience, and quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportive of forward-looking information. The Group believes there is no significant increase in credit risk of these amounts since initial recognition and the Group provided impairment based on 12-month ECL.

Loans to/amounts due from related companies

The Group has loans to related companies, including loans to joint ventures, loans to a non-controlling shareholder of a subsidiary, amounts due from associates, amounts due from related companies, and amounts due from joint ventures. The Group regularly monitors the business performance of the associates and joint ventures. The Group's credit risks in the loans to joint ventures, amounts due from associates/joint ventures are mitigated through the value of the assets held by these entities and the power to participate or jointly control the relevant activities of these entities. The credit risk of amounts due from related companies is managed internally. The Group also actively monitors the outstanding amounts owed by each debtor and uses past-due information to assess whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition. The Group believes that there has been no significant increase in the credit risk of loans to a non-controlling shareholder of a subsidiary, amounts due from associates, amounts due from joint ventures and amounts due from related companies since initial recognition and the Group provided impairment based on 12-month ECL. For the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024, the Group assessed the ECL for loans to related companies as insignificant, and thus no loss allowance was recognised.

The Group has a concentration of credit risk from loans to joint ventures of RMB3,513 million (2024: RMB5,108 million), amounts due from joint ventures of RMB2,128 million (2024: RMB7,669 million), amounts due from related companies of RMB390 million (2024: RMB407 million) and amounts due from associates of RMB150 million (2024: RMB178 million).

Cash deposits with banks

Cash deposits are mainly placed with state-owned financial institutions and reputable banks, all high-credit-quality financial institutions. Therefore, the Group's credit risk on liquid funds is limited.

Other than the concentration of credit risk in some of the loans to related parties, as disclosed above, the Group has no other significant concentration of credit risk. Receivables consist of a large number of customers and counterparties.

The Group's internal credit risk grading assessment comprises the following categories:

Internal credit rating	Description	Receivables/ contract assets	Other financial assets/ other items
Low risk	The counterparty has a low risk of default and does not have any past-due amounts	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	12-month ECL
Watch list	Debtor frequently repays after due dates but usually settle in full	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	12-month ECL
Doubtful	There have been significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition through information developed internally or through external sources	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – not credit-impaired
Loss	There is evidence indicating the asset is credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired	Lifetime ECL – credit-impaired
Write-off	There is evidence indicating that the debtor is in severe financial difficulty, and the Group has no realistic prospect of recovery	Amount is written-off	Amount is written-off

2. For receivables and contract assets, the Group has applied the simplified approach in IFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. Except for debtors with significant outstanding balances or credit-impaired, the Group determines the expected credit losses on these items by using a provision matrix.

Credit risk and impairment assessment – continued

As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group uses debtors' aging to assess the impairment of its customers in relation to its property sales and construction operation because these customers consist of many small customers with common risk characteristics that are representative of the customers' abilities to pay all amounts due per the contractual terms. The following table provides information about the exposure to credit risk for receivables and contract assets, which are assessed based on the provision matrix as of 31 December 2025 within lifetime ECL (not credit-impaired).

	2025 loss rate	2024 loss rate	Receivables and contracts assets 2025 RMB'million	Receivables and contracts assets 2024 RMB'million
Gross carrying amount
Current (not past due)	0.1%	0.1%	60	124
1-30 days past due	1%	1%	70	54
31-60 days past due	2%	2%	4	6
61-90 days past due	4%	4%	2	7
More than 90 days past due	17%	10%	130	183
			266	374

The loss rates are estimated based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and adjusted for forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group made a provision of RMB31 million for impairment allowance for receivables, based on the provision matrix.

The following table shows the movement in lifetime ECL that has been recognised for receivables and contract assets under the simplified approach and for other receivables and loans to/amounts due from joint ventures by using past-due information.

Liquidity risk

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility using derivative financial liabilities, bank and other borrowings, senior notes, receipts under securitisation arrangements, amounts due to related companies, loans from/amounts due to a joint venture/associates, amounts due to non-controlling shareholders and lease liabilities. The Group also monitors the current and expected liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants regularly to ensure it maintains sufficient working capital and adequate committed lines of funding to meet its liquidity requirement.

The following table details the maturities of the Group's financial liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date the Group can be required to pay. The table includes both interest and principal cash flows.

For derivative instruments that are settled on a net basis, undiscounted net cash outflows are presented.

Notes:

The amounts included above for financial guarantee contracts are the maximum amounts the Group could be required to settle under the arrangement for the full guaranteed amount if that amount is claimed by the counterparty to the guarantee. Based on the expectations at the end of the reporting period, the Group considers that it is more likely than not that no amount will be payable under such an arrangement. However, this estimate is subject to change depending on the probability of the counterparty claiming under the guarantee, which is a function of the likelihood that the financial receivables held by the counterparty which are guaranteed suffer credit losses.

The amounts included above for variable interest rate instruments for non-derivative financial liabilities are subject to change if changes in variable interest rates differ from those estimates of interest rates determined at the end of the reporting period.

c. Fair value measurement

The fair values of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities, excluding derivative financial instruments, are determined by generally accepted pricing models based on discounted cash flow analysis.

The Group's investments in unlisted companies are not traded in an active market, the majority of their fair values are categorized within Level 3 hierarchy and have been determined using net asset value model. The fair value measurement of these investments may involve unobservable inputs such as credit spread, net value of underlying investment, probability of default, loss given default, volatility and liquidity discount. The fair values of these instruments in Level 3 were not significantly sensitive to a reasonable change in these unobservable inputs.

The Group's derivative financial instruments are measured at fair value at the end of the reporting period, and they are grouped under Level 2 financial instruments based on the degree to which the fair value is observable.

The Group's currency forward contract amounting to RMB37 million as financial liabilities (2024: RMB3 million as financial liabilities) are measured at the present value of future cash flows, estimated based on forward exchange rates (from observable forward exchange rates at the end of the reporting year) and contracted forward rates, discounted at a rate that reflects the credit risk of various counterparties.

During the year, there were no transfers of fair value measurements between Level 1 and Level 2 and no transfers into or out of Level 3 for both financial assets and financial liabilities (2024: nil).

c. Fair value measurement – continued

The fair values of the fixed rate interest-bearing loans from an associate, loans from a joint venture, loans to joint ventures, bank and other borrowings and receipts under securitisation arrangements categorized within Level 3 hierarchy have been calculated by discounting the expected future cash flows using rates currently available for instruments with similar terms, credit risk, and remaining maturities. The amounts of the Group's fixed rate interest-bearing loans from an associate, loans from a joint venture, loans to joint ventures, bank and other borrowings and receipts under securitisation arrangements at 31 December 2025 and 2024 approximated their fair values.

The fair values of senior notes are based on market prices.

Where there is a material change in the fair value of an asset or a liability, the causes of the fluctuations will be reported to the directors of the Company for appropriate actions to be taken.
