CORPORATE PROFILE

As a renewable energy enterprise specialised in wind power operation, China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited (the “Company”) together with its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) is principally engaged in the businesses of wind power generation. The Group has also been seeking development opportunities in the renewable energy sectors, with the aim to facilitate the development of, and complement with each other, the continuous enhancement of the Group’s industrial structure and the establishment of a solid foundation, in order to reinforce the comprehensive development of its wind power operation.

Since 2013, through steady acquisition of additional ownership interest in Hebei Hongsong Renewable Energy Investment Co., Ltd. (“Hongsong Renewable Energy”) (the second largest shareholder of Hebei Hongsong Wind Power Co., Ltd. (“Hongsong”)), the Group’s current indirect control in Hongsong is 86.55%.

Hongsong’s wind farm (the “Hongsong Wind Farm”) has an installed capacity of 398.4 megawatt (“MW”), and its maximum installable capacity is 596.4 MW.

The Group has expanded its business structure through the development of a grid side independent energy storage power station project by the Company’s subsidiary, Hebei Ruifeng Yunlian Digital Company Limited* (河北瑞風雲聯數字新能源有限公司) (“Hebei Ruifeng Yunlian Digital”). The project is located at Chabei Management District of Zhangjiakou City of Hebei Province in the PRC. The project met grid connection conditions in December 2024 and generated revenue since the second half of 2025.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board (the "Board") of directors (the "Directors") of China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries referred to as the "Group"), I hereby present to the shareholders of the Company (the "Shareholders") the results of the Group for the year ended 31 December 2025 (the "Reporting Period").

During the Reporting Period, the Group adhered to its core development philosophy of "Green Power as the Foundation, Computing Power as the Core, and Energy Storage as the Lifeblood". Confronting industry transformation and operational challenges head-on, we drove the shift in our business from scale expansion to quality and efficiency improvement. The Group achieved year-on-year growth in operating revenue. Operational quality and management continued to be optimised. The core wind power business maintained steady and positive performance, the energy storage segment delivered remarkable results and the strategic layout of green computing power made milestone breakthroughs, laying a solid foundation for long-term sustainable development.

Steady Operation of Wind Power Business: The Hongsong Wind Farm maintained stable operation and continued to contribute core income and cash flow. During the Reporting Period, the emission reduction effects were significant, fulfilling the "Dual Carbon" goals with concrete actions.

Historic Breakthrough in Energy Storage Business: The Group's strategically deployed energy storage business achieved key results in the Reporting Period. The 300MW/1.2 gigawatt hours ("GWh") independent energy storage power station in Chabei Management District was fully connected to the grid in January 2025, quickly completed commercial operation and entered the medium-to-long-term trading phase. The project led the industry in construction efficiency and delivered excellent operational performance, successfully verifying commercial viability in market-oriented scenarios including capacity leasing, electricity spot arbitrage and ancillary services.

Looking ahead to 2026, with the commencement of the 15th Five-Year Plan period, China will accelerate the construction of a new energy system. The National Energy Administration has confirmed that wind and solar power will maintain steady growth during the 15th Five-Year Plan period. The market-oriented reform of the power sector will continue to deepen, and policies in the computing power sector will also explicitly support the integrated development of "computing, power and storage". This opens up broad space for the integrated development of the new energy and green computing power industries.

The Group entered into a strategic cooperation with Hebei Province Zhangjiakou Xuanhua Economic Development Zone and signed an agreement for an artificial intelligence ("AI") computing center project, planning to build an integrated park of "AI Computing Centre + Green Electricity + Energy Storage" as forward-looking strategic layout of green computing power. Leveraging Zhangjiakou's dual geographical advantages as a national-level renewable energy demonstration zone and a Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei hub node of the "East Data and West Computing" initiative, the project will build a core carrier of the national integrated computing power network, ushering in a new phase of the "Computing-Power-Storage Synergy" strategy.

CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

The Group will focus on the development theme of “Quality & Efficiency First, Collaboration for Empowerment”. In wind power, we will continue to promote technological renovation and refined operation and maintenance of existing units to enhance power generation efficiency. In energy storage, we will accelerate the construction of follow-up energy storage projects and explore diversified technical routes and market-oriented profit models. In computing power, we will fully advance phase 1 of the Xuanhua AI computing centre project to ensure its commissioning as scheduled, building it into a core carrier of the Zhangjiakou hub node.

On behalf of the Board, I would like to express my gratitude to all shareholders, investors and business partners for their trust in and support for the Group. I would also like to thank the management team and all staff for their hard work and unremitting efforts. The Group will continue to uphold a steady and pragmatic operation philosophy, respond to market changes with strategic resolve, and strive to become a first-class green energy integrated service provider in China, delivering long-term and stable investment returns to shareholders.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

Wind farm operations

For the year ended 31 December 2025, the revenue from the wind farm operations amounted to approximately RMB308,012,000 (2024: approximately RMB336,274,000), representing a decrease of approximately 8% from that of year ended 31 December 2024.

Energy storage power station operations

The market-based operation of the Group's energy storage power station commenced in mid-2025.

For the year ended 31 December 2025, the revenue from the energy storage power station operations amounted to approximately RMB98,231,000 (2024: Nil).

Hongsong Wind Farm

Hongsong Wind Farm currently has an installed capacity of 398.4 MW, and had a steady and stable operation in 2025 which made significant contribution to the Group's revenue for the year ended 31 December 2025. The average utilisation hours of the Hongsong's wind farm in Hebei Province for the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024 were approximately 1,789 hours and 1,803 hours, respectively.

Development and operation of energy storage power station in the Chabei Management District (300 MW/1.2 GWh) — Grid side Independent Energy Storage Project

The 300MW/1.2GWh grid side independent energy storage power station project invested and constructed by the Company's subsidiary, Hebei Ruifeng Yunlian Digital is located at Chabei Management District of Zhangjiakou City of Hebei Province in the PRC. The project started construction in September 2024, met grid connection conditions in December 2024 and successfully achieved full capacity grid connection on 22 January 2025, with electricity market trading as its main revenue model. The project is connected to the grid which can gather abundant local renewable energy resources and transport them to the load center for consumption, further increase the proportion of renewable energy consumption in the Beijing Tianjin Hebei region and effectively alleviate the problem of limited renewable energy consumption in the Bashang area and the northern Hebei region.

OPERATING ENVIRONMENT

In 2025, the pace of global economic recovery slowed down. China's economy maintained stable operation underpinned by strong resilience. The adjustment of industrial structure continued to deepen, and the green and low-carbon transition became a core driver of high-quality development. The renewable energy industry reached a critical juncture as the 14th Five-Year Plan drew to a close, featuring continuous expansion in scale, remarkable improvement in quality and efficiency, and an improving policy framework. The coordinated development of wind power, energy storage and green computing has provided a favorable industry environment for the Group's business layout.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

In the overall landscape of new energy, installed capacity hit a record high, marking landmark achievements in the energy structure transition. In 2025, the newly installed capacity of wind and solar photovoltaic power nationwide exceeded 430 million kilowatts, with the cumulative installed capacity surpassing 1.8 billion kilowatts, and renewable energy power generation installed capacity accounting for more than 60%. Among them, the wind power industry shifted from rapid growth to high-quality development. Newly installed capacity remained stable for the whole year, onshore wind power continued to optimise its layout, and offshore wind power accelerated the pace of technological breakthroughs. The focus of industry competition shifted from “scale expansion” to “technological innovation and lean operation”. In terms of power generation, national wind power generation maintained growth, with average utilization remaining at a high level, further consolidating its position in power supply. Meanwhile, the market-oriented reform of on-grid electricity prices for new energy was deepened. “Notice on Deepening the Market-Oriented Reform of On-Grid Electricity Prices for Renewable Energy to Promote the High-Quality Development of Renewable Energy” (《關於深化新能源上網電價市場化改革促進新能源高質量發展的通知》) guided rational investment in the industry, tilted structurally toward large-scale bases and offshore wind power, and strengthened the capacity for green power consumption.

The energy storage industry reached a market-oriented inflection point, transitioning from policy-driven to dual-driven by policy and market. In 2025, with the continuous expansion of the national electricity market trading volume, which reached 6.6 trillion kilowatt-hours, accounting for 64% of the total social electricity consumption, the capacity price compensation mechanism was gradually improved, and the feasibility of energy storage projects achieving independent revenue increased significantly. At the policy level, the state rolled out a spate of policies related to energy storage technological innovation, market access, and power ancillary services, promoting the research and development and application of new technologies such as network-forming energy storage and long-duration energy storage. In terms of industry scale, investment in new-type energy storage doubled, and application scenarios extended from the grid side to the power generation side and user side. In particular, energy storage demand supporting AI computing centers boomed rapidly, becoming a new growth driver of the industry.

The green computing industry experienced explosive growth amid the deep integration of the digital economy and green economy, with a progressively sound policy system and standards. In 2025, the national “East Data and West Computing” (東數西算) strategy was further implemented, and the green development of computing infrastructure was integrated into the overall national strategy. At the policy level, documents including the “Implementation Plan for Power Guarantee for Computing Infrastructure” (《算力基礎設施電力保障實施方案》) and the “Notice on Orderly Promoting the Direct Connection of Green Power” (《關於有序推動綠電直連發展有關事項的通知》) were successively issued, clarifying power guarantee requirements for computing centers, promoting the implementation of the green power direct connection model and effectively reducing electricity costs for green computing centers. In terms of the standard system, the first national standard for green data center evaluation, Assessment Standard for Green Data Centers, was officially implemented. The Ministry of Industry and Information Technology released the 2025 National Green Computing Infrastructure List, guiding the industry toward low power usage effectiveness (“PUE”) and high green power utilisation. In terms of geographical advantages, Zhangjiakou, as a hub node of the national integrated computing network, further highlighted its advantages in undertaking computing demand from eastern regions, providing unique conditions for the Group to deploy green computing business locally.

Overall, the renewable energy and green computing industries maintained a momentum characterised by coordinated development and quality-and-efficiency prioritisation in 2025, with a continuously improving policy system, gradually mature market-oriented mechanisms, and sustained technological breakthroughs. Despite challenges such as intensified competition and cost pressure, the industry enjoys broad development prospects, providing a sound operating environment for the Group to advance the three-in-one strategy of “Wind Power + Energy Storage + Computing”.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

MAJOR RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

(1) Risks of wind turbine equipment utilisation hours fluctuation

The average number of utilisation hours of power generation equipment is influenced by the electricity supply and demand, and therefore fluctuate accordingly. The total wind power generated by the Company's Hongsong Wind Farm in Hebei Province for the years ended 31 December 2025 and 2024 were 712.62 GWh and 718.43 GWh, respectively. Should the economic growth rate slacken, there are risks in fluctuations of the average utilisation hours of the Company's wind turbine equipment in the future, and these will impact the Group's profitability.

(2) Risks of wind power pricing fluctuation

In December 2016, the National Development and Reform Commission of China (the "NDRC") issued the "Notice on Adjustments to Benchmark On-grid Tariffs for Photovoltaic Power and Onshore Wind Power" (《關於調整光伏發電陸上風電標杆上網電價的通知》) to promote healthy and orderly development of the photovoltaic ("PV") power and wind power industry and decided to adjust the new energy benchmark on-grid tariff policy pursuant to the "Renewable Energy Law (《可再生能源法》)". In May 2019, the NDRC issued the "Notice on Improving Wind Power On-Grid Tariff Policy" (《關於完善風電上網電價政策的通知》), requiring that all newly approved onshore wind power projects shall fully achieve grid parity from 1 January 2021 and will no longer be subsidised by the PRC government. In January 2020 and October 2020, the Ministry of Finance, the NDRC and the National Energy Administration of China issued the "Opinions on Promoting the Healthy Development of Non-hydro Renewable Energy Power Generation" (《關於促進非水可再生能源發電健康發展的若干意見》) and its Supplementary Circular (《關於<關於促進非水可再生能源發電健康發展的若干意見>有關事項的補充通知》), setting out the settlement rules for the additional subsidy funds for renewable energy electricity prices. Through technological advancement and market competition, efforts will be made to further significantly reduce the cost of wind power development, and gradually reduce its dependence on subsidies. It is anticipated that wind power prices will continue to fall, and this may have an impact on the Company's profitability.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

(3) Risks arising from interest rate fluctuations

The Group's renewable energy business is capital intensive, and electricity project constructions are characterised as large-scale investments with lengthy return on investment periods. The Group has launched many new projects in recent years, and some of the investment capital other than those for special projects were mainly secured through loans and other methods. The Group's financial costs will be influenced by possible interest rate fluctuations arising from changes in macro-political and economic environment, both domestically and internationally, as well as from changes in China's economic policies.

FUTURE PROSPECTS

2026 marks the inaugural year of the 15th Five-Year Plan period. In accordance with the deployment of the 2026 National Energy Work Conference, China will add more than 200 million kilowatts of newly installed wind power and solar power capacity throughout the year, and launch pilot programs for the integration of "AI +" energy. The National Energy Administration has set the overall goal of initially building a new energy system during the 15th Five-Year Plan period, raising the share of non-fossil fuel energy consumption to 25%, and making renewable energy the main source of power installed capacity.

The first batch of green power direct connection projects in Hebei Province for 2026 has been officially publicised, with a total scale of 1.28 million kilowatts. The Group has a deep presence in both the national-level renewable energy demonstration zone in Zhangjiakou and the Beijing-Tianjin-Hebei hub node of the "East Data and West Computing" initiative. Its strategic layout is highly aligned with national and local policies.

At the industry level, the China Electricity Council forecasts that China's total electricity consumption will reach 10.9 to 11.0 trillion kilowatt-hours in 2026, representing a year-on-year increase of 5% to 6%. The national installed power generation capacity will reach approximately 4.3 billion kilowatts, of which non-fossil fuel power generation will account for 63%. The combined installed capacity of wind power and solar power will account for half of the total installed capacity, and solar power installed capacity is expected to surpass coal-fired power for the first time.

The wind power industry has entered a stage of value competition centered on lean operation. The energy storage market will continue to expand, with new technologies such as grid-forming technology and sodium-ion batteries accelerating commercialization. In terms of green computing, low PUE has become a core entry threshold for data centers, and computing centers capable of green power direct connection are increasingly demonstrating competitive advantages.

Based on industry development trends and the Group's strategic layout, the Group will focus on the core tasks of "Consolidating the Foundation with Wind Power, Strengthening Efficiency with Energy Storage, and Implementing Computing Infrastructure" to promote high-quality development of its businesses in 2026. Specific plans are as follows:

Wind Power Business: Strengthen lean operation and maintenance to secure core income. Continuously optimise the operation and maintenance management of existing wind farm in Northern China, increase investment in technological transformation of old units, and improve equipment utilisation efficiency and power generation. Closely track opportunities related to large-scale wind and solar power base projects under the 15th Five-Year Plan, actively participate in project development or cooperation to expand the wind power business landscape. Deepen cooperation with electricity market participants, flexibly participate in electricity spot and ancillary service market transactions, and enhance the profitability of wind power generation.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Energy Storage Business: Accelerate project construction of phase 2 and achieve commercial breakthroughs. Speed up the construction of the 200MW/800MWh grid-forming hybrid energy storage power station project in the Chabei Management District, explore the technical route for collaborative application of lithium iron phosphate batteries and sodium-ion batteries, and build an industry benchmark project. Optimise the operation strategy of the existing 300MW/1.2GWh energy storage power station, and fully leverage market mechanisms such as capacity compensation, peak-valley price arbitrage and ancillary services to improve project profitability. Increase investment in energy storage technology research and development, cooperate with research institutions, keep abreast of the developments in new technologies such as solid-state batteries, and enhance technical reserves and core competitiveness.

Green Computing Business: Accelerate project implementation and build a collaborative ecosystem. Fully promote the construction of the first phase of the Xuanhua Artificial Intelligence Computing Center, ensuring its commissioning by February 2028 as scheduled, to build an A-level intelligent computing center with no fewer than 3,000 racks, and strictly control the PUE to no higher than 1.2 and the water usage effectiveness value to no higher than 1.1. Simultaneously advance the construction of the supporting 200MW/800MWh grid-side independent energy storage power station, implement the green power direct connection model, and build an integrated collaborative ecosystem of "AI Computing Centre + Green Electricity + Energy Storage". We will focus on connecting with customers such as internet technology enterprises, financial institutions and intelligent manufacturing enterprises, and plan for businesses such as computing power leasing and customised computing services in advance to lay a foundation for market development after project commissioning.

In addition, the Group will continue to optimise its financial structure, strengthen risk management and control, actively seek high-quality cooperation and acquisition opportunities in the industry, expand into renewable energy sectors such as photovoltaic power and biomass energy, and build a diversified and complementary business system. Meanwhile, the Group will actively fulfill its social responsibilities, promote the deep integration of renewable energy and the digital economy, and contribute to the achievement of the "Dual Carbon" goals and the building of a strong energy country.

We are deeply aware that the development of an enterprise cannot be separated from the support and trust of society. The Group will always uphold a sound and pragmatic business philosophy, actively fulfill its social responsibilities, and promote the deep integration of renewable energy and the digital economy to contribute to the realisation of the "Dual Carbon" goals and the building of a strong energy country. We will work hand in hand with shareholders, investors and all partners, strive to become a first-class green energy integrated service provider in China and a leader in green computing, and jointly create a bright future for the integrated development of green energy and intelligent computing.

Revenue

During the Reporting Period, the Group's revenue was derived from the business of wind power generation, provision of energy storage services, sales of mechanical and electrical equipment, and provision of construction and consultancy services. The Group's operating bases for the business of wind power generation and energy storage services are mainly located in Chengde City and Zhangjiakou City of Hebei Province, the PRC.

Revenue for the year ended 31 December 2025 was approximately RMB406,243,000 representing an increase of approximately 21% compared to approximately RMB336,274,000 for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Analysis of the Group's revenue for the years ended 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 are set out below:

Cost of Sales

Cost of sales mainly includes the cost of raw materials, staff costs, depreciation, repair and maintenance cost, water, electricity, gas, and other ancillary materials. Cost of sales for the year ended 31 December 2025 accounted for approximately RMB265,928,000 (2024: approximately RMB217,108,000), which represented approximately 65% of the Group's revenue (2024: approximately 65%).

Gross Profit

Gross profit was approximately RMB140,315,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB119,166,000) which was primarily derived from the operation of wind power generation. The gross profit margin for the year ended 31 December 2025 was approximately 35%, as compared to approximately 35% for the year 31 December 2024.

Other Income and Other Gains, net

Other income and other gains, net for the year ended 31 December 2025 were mainly comprised of (i) refund of value-added tax from the PRC government amounted to approximately RMB18,063,000 (2024: approximately RMB14,213,000); (ii) rental income from operating leases amounted to approximately RMB3,563,000 (2024: approximately RMB3,119,000); (iii) waiver of principal and interest payables of Corporate Bonds and other loans amounted to approximately RMB5,385,000 (2024: approximately RMB46,000); (iv) gain on disposals of subsidiaries amounted to approximately RMB110,000 (2024: approximately RMB4,031,000) and (v) fair value gain on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss amounted to approximately RMB8,217,000 (2024: fair value loss on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss of approximately RMB2,468,000).

Administrative Expenses

Administrative expenses mainly included salaries and welfare expenses, professional fees, rental expenses, depreciation expenses, office expenses and other taxation expenses. It increased by approximately 34% to approximately RMB115,120,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025 as compared with that of approximately RMB86,136,000 for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Provision for Expected Credit Losses on Other Receivables

Provision for expected credit losses on other receivables amounted to approximately RMB52,201,000 were recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB28,681,000). The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss model on other receivables individually. Based on the assessment, the recoverability of certain other receivables was remote and provision of expected credit losses was recognised.

Impairment on property, plant and equipment

Impairment loss on construction in progress of the wind farm in Baotou City of Inner Mongolia (the “Baotou Wind Farm”) owned by a subsidiary, Baotou City Yinfeng Huili New Energy Investment Limited, amounted to approximately RMB27,032,000 (2024: Nil) was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025, which is the difference between the carrying amount of approximately RMB36,810,000 and the recoverable amount of the Baotou Wind Farm based on its fair value less cost of disposal of approximately RMB9,778,000 performed by an independent valuer prior to the disposal of the subsidiary and its related investment holding companies in December 2025.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Impairment on prepayments for acquisition of property, plant and equipment

Impairment loss on prepayments for acquisition of property, plant and equipment related to the construction of the Baotou Wind Farm, amounted to approximately RMB23,851,000 (2024: Nil) was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025. The Group has negotiated with several suppliers on the delivery status of certain prepayments for the acquisition of property, plant and equipment of the Baotou Wind Farm and reassessed their recoverability. This primarily comprises: (i) an impairment of approximately RMB11,496,000 arising from a commercial settlement with a supplier regarding a prepayment of approximately RMB22,118,000, which resulted in the Group receiving equipment and a committed cash repayment totaling approximately RMB10,622,000; and (ii) a full impairment of approximately RMB12,355,000 relating to another prepayment, as management determined the amount was no longer recoverable due to the counterparty's financial difficulties and inability to fulfill the equipment delivery.

Loan Receivables

Debtor A

Debtor A is a company incorporated in the PRC with limited liability, which is primarily engaged in investment holding and management. The projects in which Debtor A are involved include comprehensive tourism development spanning hotels, leisure and cultural attractions.

Through Debtor A, the Group would be able to gain access to business network and opportunities in the tourism sector, within which the Group sees potential for expansion, e.g. by conducting tourism activities related to or at its wind farms. The Group considers that such cooperations with tourism companies could generate an additional source of revenue from its existing wind farm assets at a relatively low cost, as well as boost the Group's reputation within the general public and help promote renewable energies. In particular, Debtor A is involved in two tourism development projects in Chengde city, Hebei province, the PRC, where some of the Group's wind farms are located in. The Group saw similar networking opportunities with Debtor A, as it is involved in tourism development. The Company therefore considered potential cooperation with Debtor A would be beneficial.

Debtor C

Debtor C is a company incorporated in the PRC with limited liability, which is primarily engaged in technology development and services. Debtor C is experienced in providing energy management and conservation services in Chengde city, Hebei province, the PRC. As one of the Group's wind farms is located in Chengde city, the Group saw potential in business cooperation with Debtor C by combining the renewable energy generation resources of the Group with Debtor C's network of energy-conscious customers and its energy management and conservation experience.

Chengde Libao

Chengde Libao is a company incorporated in the PRC with limited liability which is primarily engaged in construction. In prior years, the Group was engaged in power grid construction operation. In order to enhance its construction capacities, the Group intended to invest in Chengde Libao and therefore loan facility was provided by a PRC subsidiary of the Group to Chengde Libao for business development.

Taking into account the potential business development and network benefits of a good business relationship between the Group and the respective debtors as detailed above, as well as the interest income which may be generated, the Directors consider that the terms reached were fair and reasonable and that the provision of the financial assistance to each of Debtor A, Debtor C and Chengde Libao was in the interests of the Company and its Shareholders as a whole. To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief, having made all reasonable enquiries, each of Debtor A, Debtor C and Chengde Libao is not connected person(s) of the Company and its subsidiaries and is a third party independent of the Company and connected persons of the Company.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Beichen Electricity

Beichen Electricity is a company incorporated in the PRC with limited liability, which is primarily engaged in power grid construction. The Group entered into a framework agreement for the cooperation in the development of wind power, photovoltaic and tourism projects with Beichen Electricity in 2018.

Pursuant to such framework agreement, the Group as an investor is responsible for funding the projects while Beichen Electricity is responsible for the preliminary work involving the utilisation of its own human resources, assessment work concerning the project area and marketing and planning. Therefore, the Group paid an initial deposit to support the projects. Nonetheless, due to the non-approval of the projects by the local government of the PRC, the projects could not proceed. During the Reporting Period, the Group informed Beichen Electricity in writing to cease future co-operation with Beichen Electricity due to the Group's latest development plan and to demand Beichen Electricity for full repayment of the deposit.

To the best of the Directors' knowledge, information and belief, having made all reasonable enquiries, Beichen Electricity is not connected person(s) of the Company and its subsidiaries and is a third party independent of the Company and connected persons of the Company.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Impairment Assessment of Loan Receivables and Other Receivables

Reference is made to section “Financial and Capital Risk Management” in notes to the consolidated financial statements in this report for the basis of impairment assessment.

As at 31 December 2025, Beichen Electricity is classified as “Stage 3” as the balance is past due which indicated increase in credit risk and there were evidence indicating that the recoverability of the balance may be low. As the Group cannot obtain the financial statements of Beichen Electricity so as to assess its current financial position and recoverability, after taken into account the legal opinion of the Group’s PRC legal representative and historical repayment records, provision of ECL amounted to approximately RMB46,568,000 was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025 on the receivables due from Beichen Electricity. Debtor A and Debtor C are classified in “Stage 2” as the balances are past due which indicated increase in credit risk. As settlement plans have been obtained from Debtor A and Debtor C, services have been rendered by Debtor A and Debtor C during the Reporting Period and subsequent settlements have been received from Debtor C, such balances are not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. Reversal of provision of ECL amounted to approximately RMB4,316,000 and RMB16,230,000 were recognised for the receivables due from Debtor A and Debtor C, respectively. Chengde Libao is classified in “Stage 3” as the balance is credit impaired due to default of payments in prior years and there were evidence indicating that the counterparty was in financial difficulties.

Action Plan for Loan Receivables and Other Receivables

The Group will use its best endeavours to continue taking active measures to control and monitor the conditions of each of the loan receivables and other receivables and will actively seek actions for recovery of such receivables to safeguard the Group’s assets, including but not limited to taking legal actions to recover the overdue balances. The Company’s PRC legal representative has issued demand letters to Debtor A, Debtor C and Beichen Electricity demanding the settlement of all outstanding balances and will continue to closely monitor the repayment progress and seek PRC legal advice for further actions when necessary.

Finance Costs

Finance costs mainly referred to the interest expenses of the Group’s borrowings including bank loans and other loans obtained, Corporate Bonds and New Convertible Bonds (as defined below) issued by the Company amounted to approximately RMB153,734,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB132,318,000). The increase was mainly due to the maturity and default interest of the New Convertible Bonds and increase in the bank loan obtained for the construction of energy storage power station project incurred during the Reporting Period.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Taxation

Taxation expenses increased to approximately RMB31,882,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB24,817,000). Such increase was mainly derived from the increase in taxable profits of Hongsong during the Reporting Period.

Loss for the Year

Loss for the year ended 31 December 2025 was approximately RMB216,723,000 (2024: approximately RMB125,777,000). The increase in loss for the year was mainly due to the increase in provision for expected credit losses on other receivables by 82% which amounted to approximately RMB23,520,000, impairment on property, plant and equipment amounted to approximately RMB27,032,000 and impairment on prepayments for acquisition of property, plant and equipment amounted to approximately RMB23,851,000 during the Reporting Period.

Loss attributable to the owners of the Company was approximately RMB161,291,000 (2024: approximately RMB132,517,000).

Net Current Liabilities and Net Liabilities

Net current liabilities as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 were approximately RMB300,750,000 and RMB252,551,000 respectively. Increase in net current liabilities position was mainly due to increase in bank loans obtained and default interest incurred for the New Convertible Bonds during the Reporting Period which were due within one year and were classified as current liabilities.

Net liabilities as at 31 December 2025 were approximately RMB119,010,000 (2024: net assets of approximately RMB86,669,000). Existence of net liabilities position as at 31 December 2025 was mainly due to additional bank loans of approximately RMB562,224,000 being obtained for the construction of energy storage power station project and the operation of the Group.

Liquidity and Financing

The cash and bank balances as at 31 December 2025 and 31 December 2024 amounted to approximately RMB219,342,000 (mainly denominated in RMB and Hong Kong dollar ("HK$") which is comprised of approximately RMB213,910,000 and HK$6,042,000, respectively), and approximately RMB244,609,000 (mainly denominated in RMB and HK$ which is comprised of approximately RMB243,336,000 and HK$1,360,000, respectively) respectively.

Total borrowings as at 31 December 2025 amounted to approximately RMB2,466,676,000, representing an increase by approximately RMB390,049,000 when compared with approximately RMB2,076,627,000 as at 31 December 2024.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

The Group repaid its debts mainly through the steady recurrent cash-flows generated by its operations and by other external financing. The Group's gearing ratio increased to approximately 105% as at 31 December 2025 from approximately 97% as at 31 December 2024. The ratio was calculated by dividing the Group's total liabilities by its total assets. During the year ended 31 December 2025, all of the Group's borrowings were settled in RMB and HK$ and all of the Group's income was denominated in RMB. Interest-bearing borrowings were approximately RMB2,466,676,000 as at 31 December 2025. Among the interest-bearing borrowings of the Group, approximately RMB676,935,000 were fixed-rate loans, while approximately RMB1,789,741,000 were variable rate loans. The Group had not engaged in any currency hedging facility for the year ended 31 December 2025 and up to the date of this report, as the Board considered that the cost of any hedging facility would be higher than the potential risk of the costs incurred from currency fluctuations and interest rate fluctuations in individual transactions.

Issuance of Corporate Bonds

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Company did not issue any additional corporate bonds (the "Corporate Bonds") to investors. Corporate Bonds with principal amount of approximately HK$49,480,000 were matured and redeemed during the year ended 31 December 2025 (for the year ended 31 December 2024: the Company issued additional Corporate Bonds with principal amount of RMB5,000,000; and Corporate Bonds with principal amount of approximately HK$16,420,000 were matured and redeemed).

As at 31 December 2025, the principal amount of approximately HK$50,516,000 and RMB5,000,000 of the Corporate Bonds had been issued and had not been repaid (2024: approximately HK$99,996,000 and RMB5,000,000 had been issued and had not been repaid). For more details, please refer to the announcements of the Company dated 10 July 2014 and 28 April 2015.

Notes (previously known as Convertible Notes)

On 26 May 2016, the Company entered into a placing agreement with Get Nice Securities Limited (the "Placing Agent") pursuant to which the Placing Agent has conditionally agreed to procure the placee(s) on a best effort basis during the placing period to subscribe for the convertible notes to be issued by the Company of up to an aggregate principal amount of HK$171,600,000 due 2017, with the conversion rights to convert the outstanding principal amount of the convertible notes into ordinary shares of the Company at an initial conversion price of HK$0.65 per conversion share (the "Convertible Notes").

The mechanism to convert the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Notes was removed on 12 February 2020. Convertible Notes have since then been reclassified as notes (the "Notes").

As at 31 December 2025, all outstanding principal and interest amounts of the Notes had been repaid.

Further details are set out in the announcements of the Company dated 26 May 2016, 15 June 2016, 12 December 2017, 19 December 2017, 22 August 2019, 23 August 2019, 10 February 2020 and 12 February 2020.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Issuance of New Convertible Bonds

On 31 December 2018, the Company, Filled Converge Limited ("Filled Converge") and Well Foundation Company Limited ("Well Foundation") entered into a subscription agreement (the "Subscription Agreement"), pursuant to which the Company conditionally agreed to issue and (i) Filled Converge conditionally agreed to subscribe for the convertible bonds (the "Convertible Bonds") in the principal amount of HK$294,183,000 and (ii) Well Foundation conditionally agreed to subscribe for the Convertible Bonds in the principal amount of HK$19,612,000. The Convertible Bonds are in the aggregate amount of HK$313,795,000 due in 2021 and extendable to 2022 at an interest rate of 8% per annum, with the conversion rights to convert the outstanding principal amount of the Convertible Bonds into the shares at an initial conversion price of HK$0.485 per conversion share.

On 28 January 2022, the Company entered into a subscription agreement (the "New Subscription Agreement") with one of the holders of the Convertible Bonds, Filled Converge, in respect of subscription of convertible bonds in the principal amount of HK$356,375,000 due 2025 (the "New Convertible Bonds"). Pursuant to the New Subscription Agreement, the Company conditionally agreed to issue and Filled Converge conditionally agreed to subscribe for the New Convertible Bonds in the principal amount of HK$356,375,000.

The principal amount of HK$294,183,000 and outstanding interests payable by the Company to Filled Converge under the Convertible Bonds were fully settled through the New Convertible Bonds issued by the Company to Filled Converge. The remaining amount of proceeds from the subscription of the New Convertible Bonds (i.e. approximately HK$4,000) were used to partially settle the professional fees incurred by the Company. The New Convertible Bonds will be due in 2025 at an interest rate of 10% per annum, with the conversion rights to convert the outstanding principal amount of the New Convertible Bonds into the Company's ordinary shares at an initial conversion price of HK$0.18 per conversion share.

Assuming full conversion of the New Convertible Bonds, a total of 1,979,861,111 new shares of the Company, being the conversion shares, would be allotted and issued, representing (i) approximately 100.04% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of the New Subscription Agreement; and (ii) approximately 50.01% of the issued share capital of the Company as at the date of the New Subscription Agreement as enlarged by the allotment and issue of the conversion shares upon full conversion of the New Convertible Bonds.

The issuance of the New Convertible Bonds was approved by the Shareholders at the extraordinary general meeting held on 19 April 2022 and approved by the Stock Exchange on 22 April 2022. The issuance of the New Convertible Bonds was completed on 28 April 2022.

None of the rights attached to the New Convertible Bonds have been exercised and no conversion shares have been allotted or issued from the conversion of the New Convertible Bonds during the year ended 31 December 2025.

Subsequent to the rights issue with effect from 22 August 2023, the number of shares to be allotted and issued upon exercise of all the conversion rights under the New Convertible Bonds are adjusted to 494,278,779 new shares, at the conversion price of HK$0.721 per conversion share. The New Convertible Bonds matured in April 2025 and remained outstanding as at 31 December 2025.

Further details of the issuance of the New Convertible Bonds are set out in the announcements of the Company dated 28 January 2022, 11 March 2022, 17 March 2022, 19 April 2022, 20 April 2022, 28 April 2022 and 21 August 2023 and the circular of the Company dated 29 March 2022.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Capital Reorganisation

Rights Issue

On 12 May 2023, the Company proposed to implement the issue by way of rights (the “Rights Issue”) of up to 1,277,353,730 Shares (the “Rights Share(s)”) on the basis of five (5) Rights Shares for every two (2) Consolidated Shares held on the record date at the subscription price of HK$0.18 per Rights Share, to raise gross proceeds of approximately HK$229.9 million before expenses (assuming no change in the number of Shares in issue on or before the record date other than the exercise of all outstanding Share Options).

The Rights Issue became effective on 22 August 2023. 1,187,403,730 Rights Shares with par value of HK$0.05 each were allotted and issued. The net proceeds from the Rights Issue after deducting the expenses were approximately HK$211.0 million. Further details of the Rights Issues were set out in the announcements of the Company dated 12 May 2023, 4 July 2023, 7 August 2023 and 21 August 2023, the circular of the Company dated 14 June 2023, and the prospectus of the Company dated 19 July 2023. All net proceeds have been utilised as intended as at 31 December 2025.

The intended and actual use of the net proceeds from the Rights Issue is stated as below:

	Intended use of the net proceeds (HK$ million)	Actual use of the net proceeds up to 31 December 2025 (HK$ million)	Unutilised net proceeds up to 31 December 2025 (HK$ million)

Ltd* (河北交投德能能源有限公司) (the “Target Interests”), at a consideration of RMB6.75 million.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

On 31 December 2025, Share Subscription A and CB Subscription A were terminated, as the conditions precedent as set out in Share Subscription Agreement A and CB Subscription Agreement A were not fulfilled by 31 December 2025. As a result, Share Subscription Agreement A and CB Subscription Agreement A were terminated in accordance with their terms. On the same day, the acquisition of the Target Interests was also terminated, as the effectiveness conditions under the Formal Equity Transfer Agreement have not been fully satisfied by 31 December 2025. As a result, the remaining provisions of the Formal Equity Transfer Agreement did not become effective and operative.

Material Acquisition and Disposal

Disposal of Sino Renewable Energy Holdings Limited

In December 2025, the Group disposed of the entire equity interest in Sino Renewable Energy Holdings Limited and its subsidiaries which possessed the Baotou Wind Farm with a capacity of 49.8 MW, at a consideration of HK$1. The construction of the Baotou Wind Farm was suspended since 2021 due to a supplier was in financial difficulties and failed to deliver certain machineries and equipment for the construction. The Group performed a strategic review of its project portfolio and concluded that the disposal of the Baotou Wind Farm shall enhance the Group's capital discipline and prioritise its financial resources toward high-growth business—specifically energy storage services and the optimisation of existing operating wind power plants.

Further details are set out in note 36(a) to the financial statements.

Save as disclosed in this report, there were no material acquisition and disposal of subsidiaries and associated companies by the Group for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Sale and Leaseback Transactions

On 29 November 2019, Huaneng Tiancheng Financial Leasing Co., Ltd.* (華能天成融資租賃有限公司) (the “Lessor”) and Hongsong, an indirectly non wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (the “Lessee”), entered into a series of sale and leaseback agreements (the “Sale and Leaseback Agreements”), pursuant to which, among other things, the Lessor agreed to purchase from the Lessee certain wind power generators, ancillaries, buildings and land use rights (the “Leased Assets”) of the operation of a wind farm in Chengde City, Hebei Province, the PRC, at an aggregate consideration of RMB1,800,000,000, which shall be leased back to the Lessee with lease periods range from 5 to 13 years as stipulated in each of the Sale and Leaseback Agreements. Upon expiry of the lease term of each of the Sale and Leaseback Agreements, the Lessee can purchase the Leased Assets at a consideration of RMB20,000. The total purchase consideration for the Leased Assets shall be RMB100,000 in aggregate. The total consideration of the Leased Assets of RMB1,800,000,000 represents a premium of approximately 9.5% over the appraised value of the Leased Assets of approximately RMB1,644,500,000 as at 31 October 2019 as appraised by an independent valuer.

During the lease periods of the Sale and Leaseback Agreements, the ownership of the Leased Assets will be vested in the Lessor. The Lessee shall have the right to possess and use the Leased Assets. In accordance with the requirements of HKFRSs, the sale and leaseback transactions shall be accounted for as a financing transaction and therefore would not give rise to any gain or loss, or reduction in value of the Leased Assets. The Sale and Leaseback Agreements was approved, confirmed and ratified at the extraordinary general meeting held on 13 January 2020. During the year ended 31 December 2025, nil has been paid by the Lessor. Up to the date of this report, an aggregate consideration of RMB1,400,000,000 has been received by the Lessee.

ACCOUNTABILITIES AND AUDIT

The Directors understand their responsibility to prepare the Group's financial statements according to relevant legal provisions and the Hong Kong Generally Accepted Accounting Principles to ensure that the financial reports present a true and fair view of the Group's financial conditions. In preparation of the Group's financial reports for the year ended 31 December 2025, the Directors had adopted and implemented the appropriate accounting policies, made prudent and reasonable judgments and projections and prepared the financial statements on a going concern basis.

The Board had presented information on the Group's developments and various corporate information which aimed to be comprehensive, balanced and easily understood, including but not limited to the interim and yearly financial reports as stipulated in the Listing Rules, disclosure of and public announcement of information which influence the Shares and submitted reports to the regulatory authorities and made other disclosures pursuant to regulatory provisions.

The auditors' responsibilities are set out in the Independent Auditor's Report on pages 84 to 90 of this report.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The accounts for the year ended 31 December 2025 were audited by Linksfield CPA Limited whose term of office will expire upon the AGM. The Audit Committee has recommended to the Board that Linksfield CPA Limited be re-appointed as the auditors of the Company at the AGM.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

Effectively implementing the risk management and internal control measures is an ongoing responsibility of the Board and the management of the Company. The monitoring objectives of the Company are to provide reasonable assurance that the Company's operational management is lawful and compliant, the assets are safe, the financial statements and related information are true, fair and complete, and operational efficiency and effectiveness are enhanced, thereby the development strategy of the Company is accomplished.

The Company paid particular attention to the ongoing optimization of internal control, including risk assessment and internal control evaluation, into its daily supervision and management of the Company. The internal control awareness and system are gradually strengthened, while the duties are clearer segregated and elaborated. Through effective assessment in accordance with the confirmative risk assessment and internal control evaluation plan, the internal control infrastructure through the said assessment and evaluation is further established. With an internal control system which can effectively summarise the general defects identified in the Company's operating system, corresponding solutions and remediations can be easily identified.

The Board acknowledges its responsibility to evaluate and determine the nature and extent of the risks it is willing to take in achieving the Group's strategic objectives, and to ensure that the Group establishes and maintains appropriate and effective risk management and internal control systems. However, risk-taking is an unavoidable necessity and an accepted part of the Company's business, effective risk management is an integral to preserving competitive advantages and ensures the Company achieves its strategic and business objectives. The risk management and internal control systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives, and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

Risk Management

Risk management applies to all aspects of the Group's business and is a critical component in developing strategic plans, preparing operational plans and budgets, approving investment projects and managing project plans. The major procedures of risk assessment of the Company consist of: goal setting, information collection and risk identification, risk analysis, response to risk, risk monitoring and reporting.

Business units and divisions specify the risk management strategies and the solutions to risk management, and set a risk alert level and the relevant strategies pursuant to the prescribed risk tolerance corresponding to the operating objectives. Solutions to risk management are established for each significant risk based on the risk management strategy. Combining with the development stages and the business expansion needs, information relating to changes in risks is continuously collected for risk identification and risk assessment, and for prompt adjustment to the strategies in response to risks.

The management of the Group maintains and evaluates the risk management system on a regular basis.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Group integrates the risk management and internal control system into various business processes, and adopts various measures and procedures to evaluate and prudently improve the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control system, including organizing the Group and affiliated companies to conduct self-assessment on risks on a regular basis, and to conduct independent risk assessment and internal control evaluation as well.

Risks are evaluated by the Board and management based on the severity of the impact on the Company and the probability that the risk will occur.

Based on the risk evaluation, the Group will manage the risks as follows:

- Risk elimination: management may identify and implement certain changes or controls that in effect eliminate the risk entirely.
- Risk mitigation: management may implement a risk mitigation plan designed to reduce the likelihood and/or the severity of impact to an acceptable level.
- Risk acceptance: management may decide that the risk rating is acceptable for the Company meanwhile and as such no action is required. However, the risk would continue to be monitored to ensure the level of risk does not increase to an unacceptable level.

Controls and review

Policies and procedures are in place to ensure that relevant management directives are carried out and actions that may be needed to address risks are taken. These may include approvals and verifications, reviews, safeguarding of assets and segregation of duties.

Control activities can be divided into operations, financial reporting and compliance, although there may, on occasion, be some overlap among them. The typical control activities adopted by Group companies include:

- analytical reviews: such as conducting reviews of actual performance versus budgets, forecasts, prior periods and competitors;
- direct functional or activity management: reviews of performance reports;
- physical controls: ensuring equipment, inventories and other assets are safeguarded and subjected to periodic checks; and
- segregation of duties: dividing and segregating duties among different people, with a view to strengthening checks and minimizing the risk of errors and abuse.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

Inside Information

The Board is the governing body of inside information. In order to standardise the inside information management of the Group, the Board takes reasonable precautions to preserve the confidentiality of inside information, maintains the principle of fairness of information disclosure, and protects the legitimate rights and interests of the Company, Shareholders, creditors and other stakeholders. The Company formulates a control system in accordance with relevant laws, regulations and rules by taking into consideration the actual situation of the Company.

With respect to procedures and internal controls for the handling and dissemination of inside information, the Group:

- conducts its affairs with close regard to the “Guidelines on Disclosure of Inside Information” issued by the Securities and Futures Commission;
- closely communicates and seeks advice from its legal advisor in the assessment of the likely impact of any unexpected and significant event that may impact the price of the Shares or their trading volume and to determine whether the relevant information is considered inside information that needs to be disclosed as soon as reasonably practicable pursuant to the SFO and the Listing Rules;
- has included in its Corporate Code of Conduct a strict prohibition on the unauthorised use of confidential or inside information; and
- ensures, through its own internal reporting processes and the consideration of their outcome by senior management, the appropriate handling and dissemination of inside information.

Assessing the effectiveness of Risk Management and Internal Control Systems

The Board, via the Audit Committee, is responsible for the review and assessment of the major risks the Group faces and the review, approval and monitoring of the Group’s response to such risks annually.

The Audit Committee oversees the risk management process and reviews the effectiveness of the risk management and internal control systems by performing the following procedures:

- review the reports on compliance with the risk management policy with the management annually;
- discuss with management annually on the Group’s major risks and the steps management has taken since then or should take to address and deal with such risks; and
- review the effectiveness of the Group’s risk management practices.

Management is responsible for ensuring the Group’s business operations are conducted in line with our risk management policy, taking the changes in external environment and the Group’s risk tolerance level into consideration.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

In addition to the Board's supervision, the Group has developed a risk management process to identify, evaluate and manage significant risks and to remediate material internal control deficiencies (if any). Management, through the engagement of the independent internal control and risk advisory consultant, is responsible for the annual risk reporting process. The independent internal control and risk advisory consultant meets with members of the senior management to review and assess risks and discuss remedial measures to address material internal control deficiencies (if any), including any changes relevant to a given year. Risks are compiled, ratings assigned and mitigation plans documented. The risk assessment is reviewed by management and presented to the audit committee and the Board for their review.

The Group has in place effective processes and systems for the identification, capture and reporting of operational, financial and compliance-related information in a form and timeframe intended to ensure that staff carry out their designated responsibilities.

Risk Management and Internal Control Process

On behalf of the Board, the Audit Committee reviews annually the continued effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems dealing with risk and financial accounting and reporting, the effectiveness and efficiency of operations, compliance with laws and regulations, and risk management functions.

This assessment considers:

- the scope and quality of management's ongoing monitoring of risks and of the risk management and internal control systems;
- the extent and frequency with which the results of monitoring are communicated, enabling the Audit Committee to build up a cumulative assessment of the state of control in the Group and the effectiveness with which risk is being managed;
- the incidence of any significant control failings or weaknesses that have been identified at any time during the period and the extent to which they have resulted in unforeseen outcomes or contingencies that have had, could have had, or may in the future have, a material impact on the Group's financial performance or condition;
- the effectiveness of the Group's processes in relation to financial reporting and statutory and regulatory compliance;
- areas of risk identified by management;
- significant risks reported by the independent internal control and risk advisory consultant;

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

- work programs proposed by the independent internal control and risk advisory consultant and the external auditors; and
- significant issues arising from internal and external audit.

As a result of the above review, the Board considers that the Group's risk management and internal control systems are effective and adequate and have complied with the Code Provisions on risk management and internal control throughout the year Reporting Period and up to the date of this report. There were no significant changes in the assessment of risks (including ESG risks) and the systems since last annual review

Internal Audit

The Group has engaged an independent internal control and risk advisory team, which plays a major role in monitoring the corporate governance of the Group and providing an objective assessment to the Board that a sound internal control system is maintained and operated by the management.

The internal control and risk advisory team would conduct regular and independent reviews of the effectiveness of the Group's internal control system. The Audit Committee reviews the findings and recommendations of the internal control and risk advisory team on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control system and reports to the Board on such reviews.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee comprises three independent non-executive Directors, namely Mr. Jiang Senlin, Mr. Qu Weidong and Ms. Hu Xiaolin, and Mr. Jiang Senlin is the chairman of the Audit Committee. The annual results of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2025 and this report has been reviewed by the Audit Committee before being presented to the Board for approval.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE

The Nomination Committee comprised one executive Director/Chief Executive Officer, namely Mr. Zhang Zhixiang and three independent non-executive Directors namely, Mr. Jiang Senlin, Mr. Qu Weidong and Ms. Hu Xiaolin. Mr. Qu Weidong currently serves as the chairman of the Nomination Committee.

The roles and functions of the Nomination Committee include, inter alia, reviewing the structure, size and composition of the Board assisting the board in maintaining a board skills matrix, making recommendations on any proposed changes to the Board, identifying individuals suitably qualified to become Directors, assessing the independence of the independent non-executive Directors, making recommendations to the Board on the appointment or re-appointment of Directors and succession planning of directors, reviewing the nomination procedures and the process and criteria for selection and recommendation of candidates for directorship, determining the policy for nomination of Directors and reviewing its own performance, constitution and terms of reference, as well as supporting the Company's regular evaluation of the Board's performance. The terms of reference of the Nomination Committee are in compliance with the Code and are available on the website of the Stock Exchange and the Company.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Nomination Committee held one meeting during the Reporting Period. The attendance record of the Nomination Committee meetings is as follows:

Name of member	Number of Nomination Committee meeting attended/Number of meeting held	Title
Mr. Qu Weidong (chairman of the Nomination Committee)	1/1	Independent non-executive Director
Mr. Zhang Zhixiang	1/1	Executive Director and Chief Executive Officer
Ms. Hu Xiaolin	1/1	Independent non-executive Director
Mr. Jiang Senlin	1/1	Independent non-executive Director

During the Reporting Period, the Nomination Committee adopted a diversity policy setting out the approach to diversify the members of the Board. The Company recognises and embraces the benefits of having a diversified Board. The Nomination Committee works to ensure a balance of skills, experience and diversity of perspectives appropriate to the requirements of the Company's business and objectives. All Board appointments would continue to be made based on meritocracy. Selection of candidates would be based on a range of diversity perspectives, which would include but not be limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of service. The ultimate decision would be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates would bring to the Board as well as the needs of the Company.

BOARD DIVERSITY

The Board has established a policy setting out the approach to achieve diversity on the Board with the aims of enhancing Board effectiveness and corporate governance as well as achieving better performance of the Company. The Board believes that a board of directors with a diverse composition will enable the Company to, in a more efficient manner, improve the work quality of the Board, understand and meet customer needs and enhance decision making ability of the Board. In selecting candidates, the Board, Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee consider a large number of factors including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, professional experience, skills and knowledge and years of service, in order to achieve the diversity of members of the Board. The Nomination Committee and Remuneration Committee report annually on the composition of the Board from the perspective of diversity. The Board considers that the current structure and composition of the Board is appropriate to enable it to carry out its responsibilities of leadership and monitoring of the Company.

As at 31 December 2025, the Board comprised 6 Directors, of whom 5 were male and 1 was female. The Board members are diverse in terms of gender, education background, professional experience, skills, knowledge and service term. It is the Board's objective to maintain female representation on the Board so as to achieve an appropriate balance of gender diversity and take opportunities to balance the proportion when suitable candidates are identified.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

GENDER DIVERSITY OF WORKFORCE

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had approximately 158 employees (including executive Directors and senior management). The proportion of male and female workforce (excluding senior management) of the Group was approximately 78% and 22% respectively and 100% of the senior management were male. The Board regularly assesses the Group's diversity profile of all levels of employees and considers the diversity policy to attract, retain and motivate employees from the widest possible pool of available talent. Due to the industry characteristics of the renewable energy sector, the proportion of male employees is relatively higher. However, the Group implements the principle of equal employment, respects and treats employees of different genders fairly, and provides equal opportunities for employees in terms of recruitment, training and development, promotion, salary and benefits. As such, the Board has not specified any quotas or similar measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity. The Board considers that the gender ratio of the workforce of the Group, including the senior management, is appropriate for the operations of the Group and will strive to maintain this ratio.

COMPANY SECRETARY

Ms. Wong has been appointed as the Company Secretary with effect from 31 December 2019. The Company Secretary reports directly to the Board. All the Directors have easy access to the services of the Company Secretary and responsibility of the Company Secretary is to ensure the Board meetings are properly held and are in compliance with the relevant laws and regulations. The Company Secretary is also responsible for giving advice with respect to the Directors' obligations on securities interest disclosure, disclosure requirements of disclosable transactions, connected transactions and inside information.

Ms. Wong had taken no less than 15 hours of relevant professional training during the year ended 31 December 2025.

INVESTORS RELATIONS

The Board recognises the importance of maintaining clear, timely and effective communication with Shareholders and investors. The Board also recognises that effective communication with investors is the key to establish investor confidence and to attract new investors. Therefore, the Group is committed to maintaining a high degree of transparency to ensure that the investors and the Shareholders receiving accurate, clear, comprehensive and timely information of the Group by the publication of annual reports, interim reports, announcements and circulars. The Company also publishes all corporate correspondence on the Company's website. The Board continues to maintain regular dialogues with institutional investors and analysts from time to time to keep them informed of the Group's strategy, operations, management and plans. The Directors and the members of the Board committees would attend and are available to answer questions at annual general meetings of the Company. Separate resolutions would be proposed at general meetings of the Company on each substantially separate issue.

Save as disclosed in this report, during the year ended 31 December 2025, the Company did not make any significant changes to its memorandum and Articles of Association.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

COMMUNICATION WITH SHAREHOLDERS

The Board and senior management recognise the responsibility of safeguarding the interest of Shareholders. The Company reports its financial and operating performance to Shareholders through annual reports and interim reports. Shareholders can also obtain information of the Group in time through annual reports, interim reports, announcements, circulars, press releases and the Group's company website. Shareholders can raise questions directly to the Board in respect of the performance and future development of the Group at annual general meetings.

The Company has conducted a review of the implementation and effectiveness of the Shareholder's communication policy during the Reporting Period. To promote effective communication, the Company maintains a website at www.c-ruifeng.com, where up-to-date information and updates on the Company's business operations and developments, financial information, corporate governance practices and other information are available for public access. Procedures for putting forward proposals at general meetings by Shareholders

Pursuant to Article 64 of the Articles of Association, extraordinary general meetings shall be convened on the requisition of one or more Shareholders holding, at the date of deposit of the requisition, not less than one-tenth of the paid-up capital of the Company having the right of voting at general meetings. Such requisition shall be made in writing to the Board or the Company Secretary for the purpose of requiring an extraordinary general meeting to be called by the Board for the transactions of any business specified in such requisition. If within 21 days of such deposit, the Board fails to proceed to convene such meeting, the requisitionist(s) may do so in the same manner.

Pursuant to Article 113 of the Articles of Association, no person (other than a retiring Director), shall, unless recommended by the Board for election, be eligible for election to the office of Director at any general meeting, unless notice in writing of the intention to propose that person for election as a Director and notice in writing by that person of his willingness to be elected shall have been lodged at the head office or at the registration office of the Company. The period for lodgment of the notices required under the Articles of Association will commence no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting appointed for such election and end no later than 7 days prior to the date of such general meeting and the minimum length of the period during which such notices to the Company may be given will be at least 7 days.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

THE BOARD STATEMENT

As the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited, we are pleased to present our Environmental, Social, and Governance (“ESG”) Report for the year ending 31 December 2025. This report reflects our commitment to transparency and accountability in our operations, particularly in the vital sector of wind energy generation.

Our mission is to lead the transition to sustainable energy solutions, and we recognise the crucial role we play in addressing climate change and promoting environmental stewardship. As a wind energy generation farm, we are dedicated to harnessing renewable resources to provide clean, sustainable energy while minimizing our environmental footprint.

Throughout this reporting period, we have made significant strides in enhancing our operations and sustainability practices. We actively engaged with our stakeholders to understand their concerns and expectations, ensuring our initiatives align with their values. Regular communication with our employees, local communities, and investors has enabled us to gather valuable insights that inform our decision-making processes.

We are proud of our achievements, including increased energy production, reduced greenhouse gas emissions, and community engagement initiatives that support local development. However, we also recognise the challenges ahead. We are committed to continuously improving our practices, expanding our renewable energy capacity, and addressing the social and environmental impacts of our operations.

Our governance framework ensures that sustainability is integrated into our strategic planning and operational execution. We prioritise ethical business practices and compliance with applicable regulations, fostering a culture of responsibility and integrity within our organization.

This ESG Report outlines our performance in key areas, including environmental impact, social responsibility, and corporate governance. We invite you to review the details and join us in our journey toward a sustainable future.

Thank you for your ongoing support and commitment to our mission.

ABOUT THIS REPORT

China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited (the “Company”) together with its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Group”) is pleased to present the ESG Report to provide an overview of the Group’s management on significant issues affecting the operation, and the performance of the Group in terms of environmental and social aspects.

The objective of the ESG Report is to demonstrate the ESG performance of the Group, assisting stakeholders to understand our ESG principles, development and practices in pursuit of sustainable development for the future.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Reporting Scope and Boundary

The Group regularly reviews its reporting scope to ensure the material impacts of the Group are addressed. This ESG Report covers the Group's management approaches and performance across environmental and social aspects for the period from 1 January 2025 to 31 December 2025 (the "Reporting Period").

The scope includes our headquarter office in Hong Kong, Hongsong Wind Farm ("Hongsong") and the Yunlian energy storage power station ("Yunlian") in Hebei Province, the PRC. Yunlian has commenced operation in the second half of 2025, due to this expansion of our operations has led to variance in environmental performance.

The reporting boundary is determined based on the materiality of the businesses involved. Specifically, operations that generate significant revenue are selected to ensure a comprehensive presentation of the Group's impact and sustainability performance. During the Reporting Period, Hongsong and Yunlian have contributed to approximately 99.5% revenue of the Group. We are committed to improving internal data collection procedures and gradually expanding the scope of the disclosure when necessary.

Reporting Principles and Standards

The ESG Report is prepared in accordance with the requirements of Appendix C2 Environmental, Social, and Governance Reporting Code ("ESG Reporting Code") under of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "HKEx"). The Group has complied with all "comply or explain" provisions set out in the ESG Reporting Code and followed the four reporting principles — materiality, quantitative, balance and consistency, in the preparation of the ESG Report.

Materiality — materiality assessments have been carried out to identify material environmental and social issues that have major impacts on investors and other stakeholders, the significant stakeholders, procedures, and results of the engagement of which are presented in the section "Stakeholder Engagement and Materiality" in the ESG Report.

Quantitative — key performance indicators ("KPIs") have been established and are measurable and applicable to make valid comparisons under appropriate conditions; information on the standards, methodologies, assumptions, and/or calculation tools used, and sources of conversion factors used, have been disclosed when applicable.

Balance — performance of the Group was presented impartially, avoiding choices, omissions or presentation formats that may unduly influence readers' decisions or judgements.

Consistency — consistent statistical methodologies and presentation of KPIs have been used to allow meaningful comparisons of related data over time.

Our Governance Structure

The Board has overall responsibility for the Group's ESG strategy and reporting. It is responsible for evaluating and determining the Group's ESG-related risks and ensuring that appropriate and effective ESG risk management and internal control systems are in place. The management is responsible for effectively coordinating the application of the Group's environment, employment, and service quality assurance policies.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Board leads and provides direction to management by instituting ESG policies and initiatives, supervising their implementation and monitoring ESG performance. The Board regularly reviews ESG affairs, including environmental protection, employment and labour practices, operating practices, and community investment, and implements appropriate measures to enhance the ESG performance of the Group. The Board continues to explore ways to strengthen the Group's ESG governance further.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

The Group engages with key internal and external stakeholders through daily interactions to understand their concerns and expectations regarding ESG issues. Through these regular engagement sessions, the Group gathers valuable feedback and identifies areas of focus that will assist the business in achieving its growth potential and preparing for future ESG challenges. Detailed methods of stakeholder engagement are presented in the following table.

Stakeholders	Expectations and Concerns	Communication channels
Government and regulatory organisations	Compliance with laws and regulations	Announcements and other regulatory reports
Shareholders and investors	- Return on investments - Corporate governance mechanism - Sustainable development - Compliance with laws and regulations	- Information disclosed on the HKEx website and the corporate website - Annual general meetings and other shareholders' meetings
Employees	- Employees' compensation and benefits - Career development - Occupational safety and health	- Employee performance evaluation - On-the-job training - Internal email - Regular meetings
Suppliers and sub-contractors	- Creditworthiness - Fulfilment of promises - Fair procurement	- Selection and performance assessment - Meetings
Customers	- Stable supply of goods and services - Strategies response to climate change	Corporate website
Community and public	- Compliance with laws and regulations - Involvement in communities - Environmental protection awareness	- Industry events - Corporate social responsibility activities

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

To ensure our sustainability strategy remains aligned with the interests of our key stakeholders, the Group conducts a comprehensive stakeholder engagement exercise and materiality assessment every two years. For the current reporting period, the Board has determined that the results of the previous stakeholder survey remain valid and representative.

Various ESG-related issues were listed in the survey, including environmental protection, operational practices, community involvement and human resources. Different stakeholders were invited to rate the relative importance of the ESG factors to the Group's development as well as to the stakeholders.

The result of the assessment reflects the concerns of our stakeholders regarding various ESG factors. This insight helps us in optimizing the planning and implementation of relevant policies and measures, enabling more effective management of critical sustainability matters. Based on the result of the assessment, the Board has established the foundation for the Group's ESG development strategy.

We will continue to maintain close communication with stakeholders, regularly review relevant strategies and objectives to align with business development needs and expectations, thereby driving continual improvements in the Group's sustainability performance.

STAKEHOLDERS' FEEDBACK

The Group welcomes stakeholders' feedback on our ESG approach and performance. Any suggestions or views can be sent by email at ir@c-ruifeng.com.

ENVIRONMENTAL

To demonstrate the Group's commitment to sustainable development and compliance with applicable regional laws and regulations related to environmental protection, we strive to maintain green manufacturing processes and operational practices in our offices. Our goal is to minimise the adverse environmental impacts of our business activities.

The Group is dedicated to achieving a balance among the three pillars of sustainable development: society, economy, and environment. Furthermore, we provide sufficient investments and resources for environmentally friendly facilities, equipment, and instruments that operate safely, effectively, and efficiently.

Emissions

The Group acknowledges its responsibility to the environment and recognises its ethical duty to reduce emissions. While the nature of our business results in minimal impacts on the environment and natural resources, we remain committed to minimizing our environmental footprint. This commitment involves responsibly managing our business operations, reducing our carbon emissions, and utilizing resources effectively.

The Group's major environmental aspects mainly include energy consumption and waste generation. Nevertheless, the impact on natural resources is minimal due to our business nature.

Air Emissions

Our primary operational sites, Hongsong and Yunlian, are situated in remote locations significantly separated from urban centers. To ensure the safety and well-being of our workforce while minimizing the logistical challenges of commuting to these isolated areas, the Group provides dedicated shuttle transportation and on-site accommodation for employees.

Furthermore, due to the extensive geographical footprint of the Hongsong and Yunlian sites, the use of motor vehicles for internal transit is essential for maintaining efficient operations and facilitating the movement of personnel across large distances.

This growth of our business operation led to a direct increase in our environmental footprint due to the increase in petrol and diesel for transportation purpose and the use of liquefied petroleum gas ("LPG") as cooking fuels.

Types of exhaust gas ¹	Unit	2025	2024
Nitrogen oxides	kg	3,360,369.5	248.9
Sulphur oxides	kg	16,801.2	0.8

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Greenhouse Gas (GHG) Emissions

As a renewable energy facilities, Hongsong and Yunlian significantly reduces carbon emissions compared to fossil fuel-based energy sources. During the Reporting Period, Hongsong and Yunlian have sold approximately 676,652 MWh (2024: 718,430 MWh) and 234,369 MWh of electricity respectively. The wind power sold has eliminated approximately 483,388 tCO₂e (2024: 409,720 tCO₂e) of GHG emissions.

The variation in Scope 1 GHG emissions during the Reporting Period was primarily attributable to consumption of LPG used for cooking purposes in Yunlian and the use of refrigerant in Hongsong is now directly managed by the state grid power supply company. As a result, the related refrigerant consumption data, together with the corresponding Scope 1 emissions, have been excluded from the Group's reporting boundary from 2025 onwards.

The GHG emissions intensity decreased by approximately 28.3%, from 2.54 tCO₂e per GWh of electricity sold to 1.82 tCO₂e per GWh electricity sold. The reduction was primarily attributable to an increase in electricity sold during the Reporting Period, which improved the overall emissions intensity ratio.

The GHG emissions reported include the following activities and scopes:

GHG Emissions by Scope	Unit	2025	2024
Scope 1 — Direct emissions²
Combustion of fuels in stationary sources	tCO ₂ e	61.1	4.2
Combustion of fuels in mobile sources	tCO ₂ e	298.6	334.9
Release of refrigerants from the operation of equipment and systems	tCO ₂ e	/	79.9
Scope 2 — Indirect emissions
Purchased electricity in PRC ³	tCO ₂ e	1,275.0	1,387.7
Purchased electricity in Hong Kong ⁴	tCO ₂ e	12.0	9.1
Scope 3 — Other indirect emissions²
Electricity used for fresh water processing	tCO ₂ e	3.0	3.0
Electricity used for sewage processing	tCO ₂ e	1.5	1.5
Paper waste disposed at landfills	tCO ₂ e	2.4	2.4
Total GHG emissions	tCO₂e	1,653.7	1,822.7
GHG emission intensity	tCO ₂ e/GWh of electricity sold	1.82	2.54

² Emission factors were made reference to Appendix C2 to the Listing Rules and their referred documentation as set out by Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing Limited, unless stated otherwise.

⁴ The emission factor of 0.6 kg CO₂e/kWh was used for purchased electricity in the Hong Kong, which was made reference to HK Electric Sustainability Report 2024.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Wastes production

To ensure responsible water management and mitigate environmental impact, our facilities rely on on-site self-built sewage collection systems. All sewage generated is captured and stored in dedicated holding tanks, preventing any unauthorised discharge into the local ecosystem. Disposal and treatment are managed by the local government authorities.

The hazardous waste generated from our operations mainly comprises of waste gear oil for machinery maintenance. The amount of solid hazardous waste generated remained stable.

The non-hazardous waste generated mainly consists of papers and domestic waste. To minimise office waste, we have adopted various green office measures, such as maximising the use of electronic means and reused paper to replace printing, as well as conducting recycling in office.

Wastes generated	Unit	2025	2024
Sewage	M ³	432	/
Sewage intensity	M ³ /GWh of electricity sold	638.43	/
Hazardous wastes
Waste oil barrel	kg	185.0	822.5
Waste filter	kg	343.3	/
Waste gear oil	kg	8,854.4	8,012.5
Contaminated wastes	kg	72.5	/
Total hazardous wastes	kg	9,455.4	8,835.0
Hazardous wastes intensity	Kg/GWh of electricity sold	10.38	12.30
Non-hazardous wastes ⁵	kg	24,528.9	24,366.0
Non-hazardous wastes intensity	Kg/GWh of electricity sold	26.92	33.91

⁵ The daily production of non-hazardous waste is estimated to approximately 2 tonnes each month. While the process of energy generation and storage produces zero solid waste, incidental waste is limited to domestic wastes and insignificant amount of packaging materials of office supplies.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Compliance status

During the Reporting Period, the Group stringently complies with national and local laws and regulations concerning environmental protection and pollution control, including but not limited to:

- Energy Conservation Law of the PRC;
- Environmental Protection Law of the PRC;
- Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Control of Water Pollution;
- Law of the PRC on Prevention and Control of Air Pollution; and
- Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Control of Environmental Pollution by Solid Waste.

Measures to Mitigate Emissions and Emission Reduction Targets

The greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions generated from the Group's daily electricity consumption, as well as petrol and diesel combustion in vehicles and the canteen, represent the primary sources of the Group's carbon footprint. To actively mitigate GHG emissions, the Group has implemented the following measures:

- Conduct regular vehicle inspections and maintenance to improve efficiency.
- Turn off vehicle engines while idling.
- Replace substandard vehicles with hybrid or petrol-driven alternatives.
- Utilise teleconferencing or video meetings to minimise non-essential business air travel.

Wastes Reduction Initiatives and Targets

The Group strictly abides the national laws and complies with the requirements of the Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Control of Environmental Pollution by Solid Waste and the National Catalogue of Hazardous Wastes in handling both hazardous and non-hazardous waste. Internally, the Group has established various waste management and reduction measures.

The Group advocates for waste reduction at the source and implements the 3R waste management strategy to minimise both hazardous and non-hazardous waste generation. This approach emphasises reducing, reusing, and recycling materials before disposal, aiming for a goal of "zero harmless waste." To enhance waste reduction performance, the Group actively works to reduce single-use disposable items and recycle office and electronic equipment at the end of their life cycles.

The primary hazardous waste generated by the Group's wind farms consists of used lubricating grease and associated containers. Lubricating grease is essential for turbine unit operation. To manage this hazardous waste effectively, the Group has established strict measures to prevent leakage and ensure proper handling. Technicians conduct regular inspections, cleaning, and repairs of the turbine units, adding lubricating grease according to original factory maintenance guidelines to minimise waste. Additionally, the Group has set up specialised warehouses for the secure storage of hazardous waste and ensures that chemical waste is properly classified, packed, and labeled before being transported for disposal. Qualified contractor is appointed to manage the recycling and disposal of materials contaminated with lubricant oil, in compliance with relevant laws and regulations.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Use of Resources

The Group aims to reduce the environmental impact of its operations by identifying and implementing measures to enhance energy and resource efficiency. We are committed to integrating the principles of resource conservation and environmental protection into our business practices. This commitment includes effectively utilizing resources, minimizing waste, and controlling waste generation in our business and production processes to achieve resource optimization, promote environmental protection, and reduce operating costs.

The primary resources consumed by the Group include electricity and water, particularly at the Hongsong wind farm. We aim to improve the efficiency of our natural resource utilization to achieve low-carbon practices and reduce emissions.

Energy conservation

Following the commencement of the operation of Yunlian, the site became electrically self-sustained. This transition has resulted in a decrease in total purchased electricity in PRC.

The Group has adopted the following energy saving measures in the workplace:

- Encourage natural lighting in the offices in order to reduce power consumption for lighting during the daytime;
- Maintain air-conditioned room temperature between 24°C and 26°C in the office;
- Switch off idle office equipment, such as computer displays and printers at the end of the working day;
- Review the energy consumption of the Group and improve the energy-saving plan continuously.

Water Use Efficiency

Water for Hongsong and Yunlian are sourced from self-constructed groundwater wells. The supply from these sources is considered sufficient and stable, and no issues or risks related to water sourcing have been identified.

The Group strives to increase its water use efficiency and ensures its operations comply with the relevant laws and regulations for the effective use of water. The following water use efficiency measures are implemented:

- Promote the concept of water consumption among employees and strengthens the maintenance, inspection and management of water-consuming equipment for water conservation.
- Pay attention to the efficient use of water resources and carries out effective management from both awareness and practice perspectives.
- Promote employee awareness of water conservation by putting up posters and signs, striving to achieve “turn off water when you leave”;
- Regular inspection of water pipes and related equipment, and handle drips and leaks timely; and
- Review the water consumption of the Group and improve the water-saving plan continuously.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Energy and Water Consumption

The details of energy and water consumptions were as follows:

	Unit	2025	2024
Energy sources
Electricity	MWh	2,403.0	2,447.2
Petrol	MWh	819.4	631.1
LPG	MWh	252.0	/

Total energy consumption	MWh	4,061.1	3,488.6
Energy consumption intensity	MWh/GWh of electricity sold	4.46	4.86
Water	M ³	7.15	6.91
Water consumption intensity	M ³ /GWh of electricity sold	10.57	9.62

Note: Conversion factors were made reference to IEA Energy Statistics Manual and 2006 IPCC Guidelines for National Greenhouse Gas Inventories.

Packaging Material

The Group did not consume any packaging materials during the Reporting Period.

The Environment and Natural Resources

The Group recognises its responsibility to minimise adverse impacts on the environment and natural resources through our daily operations. We continuously strive to improve and review the environmental measures to achieve optimal performance in GHG emissions and waste reduction over the long term.

During the construction and operation of wind farms, the Group has implemented various environmental protection measures. We acknowledge that the development and operation of wind farms can negatively impact the ecological environment and the nearby areas, potentially leading to issues such as noise pollution and land and marine space usage. We conduct thorough assessments on the ecological value of the site, the impact on surrounding areas before the site selection and construction. We ensure that all constructions receive the necessary environmental assessment approvals from regulatory authorities and comply with national environmental protection policies.

The Group also adheres to operational requirements, national laws, and regulations to minimise potential environmental impacts while maximizing the benefits of clean wind power.

Additionally, the Group promotes green procurement strategies by prioritizing the use of energy-efficient refrigerators and electrical equipment. We utilise environmentally friendly materials, such as reusable ink cartridges, recycled paper, and second-hand furniture, to avoid excessive resource consumption.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Environmental targets

Following the commencement of the operation of Yunlian, the electricity sold has increased by approximately 27%, which is the key factor lead to decrease in various emission intensities and consumption intensities.

The Group strives to review and improve waste reduction measures continuously to maintain waste reduction efficiency in the long term. Table below summarises our environmental targets and the achievements:

Target	Performance in 2021	Performance in 2025	Achievement
To reduce the total GHG emissions intensity by 5% by 2025, with 2021 as the base year.	3.88 tCO ₂ e/GWh of electricity sold	1.82 tCO ₂ e/GWh of electricity sold	↓approximately 53%
To reduce non-hazardous wastes intensity by 5% by 2025, with 2021 as the base year	32.2 kg/GWh of electricity sold	26.92 kg/GWh of electricity sold	↓approximately 16%
To reduce hazardous wastes intensity by 5% by 2025, with 2021 as the base year	16 kg/GWh of electricity sold	10.38 tCO ₂ e/GWh of electricity sold	↓approximately 35%
To reduce water consumption intensity by 5% by 2025, with 2021 as the base year.	9.52 M ³ /of electricity sold	10.57 M ³ /GWh of electricity sold	↑approximately 35%

Climate

Governance of Climate-related Risks Management

The Board meets at least once a year to discuss about managing the risks associated with climate change by integrating climate-related issues into the corporate governance process. This includes improving board-level supervision and guiding management in addressing climate risks within existing business operations and overall strategy.

Climate-related risk management has been incorporated into the Group's risk management system. The Board is responsible for monitoring the effectiveness of this management approach, discussing and reporting on relevant measures during Board meetings, and formulating emergency plans based on identified risks. This proactive strategy aims to strengthen the Group's ability to respond to the negative impacts of extreme weather conditions while ensuring normal production and operations, as well as maintaining the safety of public security and the well-being of employees.

Strategy

The Group has conducted a qualitative assessment of the current and anticipated financial effects of climate-related risks and opportunities on its financial position, performance, and cash flows. Based on this assessment, the Group does not currently consider these effects to be material.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Financial Performance and Cash Flows: The Group anticipates that any impact on near-term profitability and cash flows will not be material. This is due to a business model with limited direct exposure to physical climate risks, such as extreme weather, and transition risks, like carbon pricing. Potential financial effects are primarily operational and indirect, relating to changes in operating costs (e.g., office utilities, business travel) which are managed within existing budgets and financial controls.

Financial Position: The Group does not foresee climate-related risks and opportunities driving material changes to its financial position in the near to medium term. Consequently, no significant climate-driven capital expenditures, asset impairments or disposals, or changes in funding arrangements are anticipated. Any incremental spending related to climate initiatives is expected to be managed within the Group's existing operational and capital budgeting processes.

Climate-related Risks Management

An ESG risk assessment has been conducted, evaluating the likelihood and impact of each identified risk. These risks are categorised into three levels: high, moderate, and low, based on their probability and potential impact ratings.

The warming planet presents a wide range of risks for businesses, including disrupted supply chains, rising insurance costs, and labour challenges. As the threat of climate change intensifies—alongside physical damage, changing market perceptions, and a shift in public preferences toward more environmentally friendly products and services—the financial, reputational, and strategic implications are becoming increasingly significant.

Climate change will undoubtedly remain a pressing concern for the Group and the industry as a whole in the foreseeable future. The Group has identified climate-related risks and opportunities through the use of a comprehensive matrix.

To ensure clarity and accountability, our ESG risks and opportunities are defined across short-, medium-, and long-term horizons. Each period has a distinct purpose on our path to creating lasting value.

- Short-Term (1 to 2 years): These are our immediate priorities, focused on operational efficiency, compliance, and establishing the data and governance foundations for our broader strategy.
- Medium-Term (3 to 5 years): These goals represent significant progress and strategic investment. They are designed to embed sustainable practices across our value chain and achieve substantial improvements on our material topics. This timeframe aligns with our corporate strategic planning cycle.
- Long-Term (6 to 10 years): These are our visionary goals that aim for transformational impact. They guide our contribution to broader societal and environmental objectives, such as climate action and the circular economy, positioning us as a leader in a sustainable future.

Risk levels	Definition of the overall risk levels
High	Risks at this level may have serious consequences. There will highly likely be some impacts on the Group and hindrances for the Group to achieve strategic goals.
Moderate	Risks at this level may have serious consequences, but they are less likely to occur. Conversely, the consequences could be minor in nature, but the probability of occurrence is higher.
Low	Risks at this level have limited harm and consequences for the Group to achieve its strategic goals, and the probability of occurrence is low.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Climate-related Risk	Time Horizon	Potential financial impacts	Risk level	Trend
Physical risks
Extreme weather	Short term	Extreme weather events, such as typhoons, storm surges and rainstorms, may cause physical damage to infrastructure, and failure of technology and equipment incur costs on recovery and repair. Recovery and repair can take months or even years.	Moderate	Increase
	Long term	The Group's capacity and productivity will be reduced under extreme weather events, which leads to a direct negative impact on the Group's revenue	High	Increase
Transition Risks
Tightening of climate related policies	Long term	Tightened environmental policies increase the cost of fulfilling such requirements. It might also raise the operating costs, insurance costs and penalties for noncompliance, such as the change of policies may increase the costs of handling hazardous wastes.	Low	Increase
Cost to transition to lower emissions technology	Long term	Substitution of existing technology and equipment with lower emissions or resource-saving options to comply with the new energy and sustainability standards incur investment and maintenance costs.	Low	Increase
Changing customer behaviour	Medium term	A change in customer or user behaviour and preferences leads to a loss in customer and income if there is a failure to meet stakeholders' expectations on climate risk management and goals.	Low	Increase
Reputation Risk	Medium term	The change in customer or user preferences may increase the chance of receiving negative stakeholder feedback about the existing logistic services. It may affect the reputation of the Group.	Low	Increase

Measures to cope with the climate-related physical and transition risks

1. During extreme weather events, employees are advised to remain in a safe place until it is safe to resume normal activities. The Group continues to enhance internal awareness and training for the Group's professionals regarding climate risk so that the ability of the Group to cope with the negative impacts of extreme weather can be strengthened.
2. The Group has established mitigation plans including flexible working arrangements, and precautionary measures such as regular inspection of office premises.
3. The Group maintains comprehensive insurance coverage for assets that are prone to damage by extreme weather conditions in order to minimise the potential maintenance and repair costs required.
4. The Group adopts industry best practices according to the potential climate-related risks identified, which aims to improve energy efficiency throughout the Group's operation. All internal professionals and frontline staff are encouraged to focus on the daily procedure to achieve the objective of climate change mitigation.
5. The Group regularly researches stakeholders' preferences on climate-related performance and disclosure and ensures transparent communication with stakeholders.
6. The Group monitors any changes in laws, regulations and global trends on climate change constantly to avoid cost increments, non-compliance fines and reputational risks due to delayed response.

Opportunity

While there are climate-related risks that the business of the Group is vulnerable to in general, the Group continuously explores opportunities brought about by climate change. With the increasing market preference for environmentally friendly products and services, it is believed that expanding the Group's business is an opportunity to meet the market expectation as the Group's business nature is generating renewable wind power.

Scenario Framework and Financial Analysis

Wind energy operations in China face distinct climate and market pathways that fundamentally reshape financial returns. An orderly 1.5°C transition scenario assumes coherent policy implementation—accelerated coal phase-out, mature green electricity markets, and grid infrastructure upgrades—while physical climate risks remain modest. The dominant financial pressures here are transitional: supply chain cost inflation, mandated storage requirements that materially increase project capital expenditures, and price cannibalization from high renewable penetration suppressing capture prices despite strong headline demand.

A delayed or disorderly 2°C+ transition reverses these priorities. Policy uncertainty and lagging grid investment create elevated curtailment and market volatility, while physical stressors intensify—declining wind speeds in northern regions, increased icing events, sand erosion, and battery degradation in extreme heat. Revenue becomes both lower and more volatile.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The core financial model tracks delivered energy as a function of capacity, capacity factor, curtailment rates, and realised prices adjusted for systematic discounts during high-output periods. Research suggests scenario-adjusted parameters should encompass variations across capacity factor, curtailment rates, realised prices, and O&M costs, with scenario-specific capital expenditures for storage or resilience flowing through depreciation and financing costs. Under the 1.5°C scenario, financing strategy becomes critical—front-loaded capital expenditures demands access to green bonds and policy bank facilities. Under 2°C+, cash flow stress testing and balance sheet resilience dominates considerations.

Quantitative Risk Thresholds and Capital Allocation

Three-tier threshold architecture organises risk management by decision type. First, corporate materiality thresholds flag risks affecting annual EBITDA by more than 5% or persistently by 2% or more or triggering covenant breaches (debt service coverage below 1.2×). Second, project-level screening thresholds classify risks as high when scenario-adjusted downside drives unlevered IRR below the company hurdle rate (typically 6–8% for PRC wind) or when resilience investments raise LCOE more than 10% above base case. Third, operational triggers initiate immediate management action: elevated curtailment activates storage retrofit assessment, availability shortfalls trigger spare parts review, and icing-related downtime exceeding site thresholds justifies anti-icing technology investment.

These thresholds directly inform five capital allocation decisions: site selection and pipeline gating based on scenario-adjusted capacity factor and curtailment, storage technology choice reflecting regional temperature and price-shifting economics, contracting strategy that raises long-term PPA volumes when downside scenarios threaten DSCR, engineering standards calibrated to physical exceedance probabilities, and capital structure choices — green bonds for 1.5°C buildout phases, equity financing for 2°C+ volatility mitigation.

Two critical refinements emerge. Portfolio-level risk analysis should quantify geographic diversification benefits, recognizing that northern region assets face correlated physical risks. Time-phased financial disclosures should show how EBITDA, coverage ratios, and IRR evolve across the 20–25 years asset life under each scenario, since projects viable in decade one may face stranding risk in decade two under deteriorating physical or market conditions.

Metrics and Targets

The Group does not currently use a comprehensive set of quantitative, cross-industry metrics to assess its climate-related risks and opportunities, beyond the GHG data presented in the section “Greenhouse Gas (GHG) Emissions”. While risks such as changes in energy policy, grid integration challenges, and physical risks from extreme weather are monitored qualitatively through our enterprise risk management process, we have not yet defined specific quantitative indicators (e.g., revenue exposed to transition risk, value of assets exposed to physical risk).

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Capital Deployment

As an operator of renewable energy assets, the Group's capital allocation is intrinsically linked to climate-related opportunities. During the Reporting Period, significant portion of the Group's capital expenditure was directed towards the development, construction, and acquisition of wind power and energy storage projects, which directly contribute to the transition to a low-carbon economy.

Internal Carbon Pricing

The Group does not currently apply an internal carbon price in its investment analysis or operational planning. Given that our investments are exclusively focused on low-carbon energy infrastructure, an internal carbon price has not been considered a critical decision-making tool to date.

Remuneration

Currently, there are no explicit, quantitative climate-related performance metrics linked to executive remuneration. The Board evaluates executive performance based on the overall financial and operational success of the Group, which includes the successful commissioning and operation of our renewable energy assets. The Remuneration Committee will review the possibility of incorporating specific ESG and climate-related KPIs into the executive remuneration framework in the future.

SOCIAL

The Group's achievement over the business performance is largely rooted in the recruitment, retention of talents and the relative training for staff members. The Group recognises the importance of attracting and retaining talents are constructive for the Group to remain competitive. The Group's talent management policy covers the expansion of the recruitment platform, providing attractive remuneration packages and benefits, facilitating employee training and career development and promoting employees' work-life balance, aiming to become the "best employer". Meanwhile, the Group strives to create a safe, inclusive and caring work environment. The human resources committee will review and improve employment-related policies and ensure they comply with local laws and regulations. The Group also ensures employment practices are aligned with the set of legal requirements and industrial standards.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Employment and labour practices

The Group strictly complies with national and local laws and regulations concerning employment and Labour practices, including but not limited to:

- Labour Law of the PRC;
- Labour Contract Law of the PRC;
- Law on the Protection of Minors; and
- Law on the Protection of Disabled Persons.

No non-compliance with relevant laws and regulations that had a significant impact on the Group relating to compensation and dismissal, recruitment and promotion, working hours, rest periods, equal opportunity, diversity, anti-discrimination, and other benefits and welfare had been identified during the Reporting Period.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Inclusive Workplace

The Group is committed to creating a working environment of mutual respect, harmonious inclusiveness and safety. Non-discrimination and diversification are important to its management and operation planning. The Group's Employee Handbook has clearly stated the anti-discrimination guidelines and principles of equal opportunities, stipulating that all employees are provided with equal opportunities, regardless of their race, religion, colour, gender, physical or mental disability, age, place of origin, marital status and sexual orientation.

The Group has adopted diversity and non-discriminatory policies to ensure that each job applicant is entitled to his or her respective rights. Employees are recruited according to the employment procedures and standards as stipulated in the Group's systems and laws and regulations relating to employment and labour practices.

Any employee who is intimidated, humiliated, bullied or harassed, including sexual harassment, may report to the management representative or the general manager, and the complaints will be filed. The Group will take serious actions to resolve these problems after receiving the complaints.

The Group has zero tolerance for any form of harassment, intimidation, bias and discrimination on the grounds of age, gender, disability, religion, family status and obligations, race and colour.

Employees Communication

The Group believes that the cohesion between the Group and its employees serves as an important driver for its business development. Therefore, the Group uses electronic channels and notice boards for announcing the latest information to employees regularly, and employees can express their suggestions freely in any communication channel.

Recruiting and Retaining Talents

In order to ensure the sufficient qualified individuals are recruited for corporate development, the Group reviews its human resources demand regularly and discusses the issues about talent requirements with department heads. Furthermore, the Group emphasises conducting a fair and impartial appraisal of its employees' performance. In order to evaluate employee performance and provide an unbiased and reliable basis for remuneration decisions, education and training, promotion, reward and recognition, the Group has established Administrative Measures on Employee Performance.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Labour Contract Management

The Labour contracts Management Methods formulated by the Group comply with the national laws and regulations relating to labour practices, including but not limited to the Labour Law of the PRC and the Labour Contract Law of the PRC. The Labour contract management of the Group included signing and termination of Labour contracts, and regulated positions, working hours, remuneration and benefits of the employees clearly in the purpose of ensuring the Labour standards. Any overtime arrangement must be made under the principle of negotiation between the company and the employees and the employees' voluntary principle. The Group performs the procedure of retirement formalities for employees who have reached the statutory retirement age and dismissal procedures in accordance with the relevant laws and regulations. The Group does not tolerate the dismissal of employees for any irrational reasons. In the event of a work-related accident, the Group will make reasonable compensation. During the Reporting Period, the Group complied with employment-related laws and regulations.

Employee Treatment

The Group has developed a comprehensive salary review mechanism. In order to provide employees with fair and competitive compensation packages, The Group consider the research findings for a salary review in the job market in addition to business performance, employee duties, and their annual performance appraisals.

The Attendance Management System has been formulated in accordance with relevant national regulations to ensure that the working routine of employees is operated systematically. This system is utilised to reinforce labour discipline, improve labour efficiency, and protect employees' right to rest periods and vacations.

The Group has developed employee welfare policies in compliance with PRC Labor Law and standards stipulated by the Ministry of Human Resources and Social Security. In accordance with laws and regulations, the Group offers five social insurance and one housing fund for its employees in the PRC. These five social insurances are endowment insurance, medical insurance, unemployment insurance, work injury insurance, maternity insurance, and housing provident fund. During the Reporting Period, each employee receives appropriate remuneration with sufficient compensation for rest periods, vacation, sickness, injury and occupational diseases, as well as childbirth benefit and death compensation. Duration and remuneration levels for periods of medical treatment, pregnancy, childbirth and lactation are all complied with relevant laws and regulations.

Employee Health and Safety

The Group cares about the health, safety and security of all the staff, and strives to protect the physical and mental health, safety and security of employees.

The Group has established the Work Safety Supervision System and assigned dedicated staff to manage occupational health and safety issues, ensuring effective supervision of work safety. To reduce the incidence of work-related accidents, the Group conducts regular meetings to discuss environmental, safety, and health issues, as well as to review the effectiveness of its occupational health and safety systems.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

The Safety Hazard Screening System is employed to identify accident risks in the Group's workplaces and equipment. Occupational health and safety issues are addressed in compliance with applicable national laws.

The Group has formulated the Labour Protection System to effectively safeguard the safety and health of its employees. Protective equipment, including safety helmets, insulated boots, and dust masks, is provided in accordance with work safety legislation to further mitigate the risk of work-related accidents.

Additionally, the Group organised various occupational health and safety training programs during the reporting period to enhance health and safety awareness among employees and contractors. The Safety Education and Training System includes unified planning, management, graded implementation, classification guidance, and safety training, all aligned with state regulations for the electrical power industry and other relevant guidelines.

The Group aims to arrange regular health and safety training for employees based on the principle of "training before work begins" and has incorporated safety training into its annual training program.

The data of the Group's work-related injuries and fatalities during the Reporting Period and the past two reporting periods is as follows:

	2025	2024	2023
The number of work-related fatalities	0	0	0
Work-related fatality rate	0%	0%	0%
Lost days due to work-related injury	58	0	0

Compliance status

The Group strictly complies with the relevant laws and regulations including but not limited to:

- Labour Law of the PRC;
- Law of the PRC on the Prevention and Treatment of Occupational Diseases; and
- Fire Protection Law of the PRC.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Development and Training

The Group is committed to the growth and development of its employees, providing skills improvement and development training tailored to different job roles and positions. To ensure that employee training is organised systematically, the Group has established relevant training policies to guarantee that all employees possess the essential knowledge and abilities. These policies also encourage participation in professional certification and evaluation.

The Group organises orientation training to help new employees adapt to the working environment and integrate into the Group's culture more quickly. Additionally, a mentorship program involving veteran employees has been implemented to guide new employees in their daily tasks. Through this program, veteran employees share their expertise and skills related to job roles, operational safety procedures, and relevant experiences, which helps new employees achieve greater job satisfaction and success.

Employees may also attend external training courses approved by their department heads and can apply for reimbursement of training expenses.

As of 31 December 2025, staff in Hongsong, Yunlian and head office had attended 2,830 training hours to a total of 72 employees. The average training hours per employee was 39.3 hours. The number of employees who received training and average training hours completed are as follows.

	Average training hours attended	Percentage of staff attended training
Gender
Male	40.0	48.8%
Female	35.3	33.3%
Employee category
Frontline and general staff	12.0	35.7%
Middle management	10.4	12.8%
Senior management	43.8	39.2%

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Labour Standards

Child and forced labour are strictly prohibited within the Group. We adhere to all applicable laws and regulations regarding employment and labour standards, including the Labour Law of the PRC, the Provisions on Prohibiting the Use of Child Labour, the Labour Contract Law of the PRC, and the Law on the Protection of Minors.

The Group only recruits employees who are above the legal working age, and new hires are required to provide accurate personal information. Background checks are conducted during the recruitment process to verify the identity of potential employees. Should any violations be discovered, disciplinary actions will be taken as necessary. The Group regularly reviews its employment practices to prevent child and forced labour.

Employment contracts clearly specify working hours, deliverables, job descriptions, and labour protection measures, ensuring that employees commence their work with full awareness and agreement. The Group prohibits all forms of forced labour and exploitation, ensuring that all employees work voluntarily. The recruitment process is fair and voluntary; any recruitment conducted through coercion or fraudulent means is strictly prohibited.

During the reporting period, no non-compliance with laws and regulations pertaining to the prevention of child and forced labour was identified. There were no significant risks associated with incidents of child or forced labour at the Group's operational sites, and no child or forced labour was employed within the Group.

Supply Chain Management

The Group collaborates with its suppliers to mitigate the environmental and social impacts of its business operations. A comprehensive assessment system has been established to ensure adherence to social responsibility standards. Approved suppliers and subcontractors are verified annually for the quality of their services and products, safety and environmental performance, labor standards, and financial stability. Priority is given to suppliers that provide eco-friendly and recyclable products.

The Group employs a thorough supplier selection process, which includes comparing supplier prices against those of other suppliers and external benchmarks. In addition to price comparisons, background checks are performed to assess the validity of licenses, certificates, and proof of support before engaging suppliers. To promote social responsibility within the supply chain, the reputation and track record of suppliers in environmental management and social responsibility are also considered.

To comply with national laws and regulations, the Group conducts open tendering for relevant projects, such as civil engineering and wind turbine orders, through commissioned agents. For non-tender purchases, quotations are requested from at least three suppliers or service providers and evaluated by relevant departments and management before confirming the winning bid and proceeding with the bid opening.

The Group maintains strong partnerships with suppliers to minimise carbon footprints in procurement processes. During the reporting period, the Group totally engaged with 40 material and equipment suppliers and 89 service providers, all are located in PRC, specifically in or near Hebei Province.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Product Responsibility

Quality Control and Assurance

Hongsong provides electricity to the state power grid, and a stable power supply is crucial to our operations and the overall reliability of energy services in the region. The electric power system incorporates automatic detection functionality, ensuring that all supplied power meets established standards. These standards include permissible deviations in supply voltage, frequency for power systems, three-phase voltage unbalance factors, voltage fluctuations and flicker, harmonics in the public supply network, and temporary and transient overvoltage.

The Group promptly addresses serious issues based on feedback from the power grid and provides adjustment reports when necessary, ensuring that only products meeting quality and technical requirements are delivered to customers. The quality of the Group's supply conforms to the standards and key indicators set by the National Standardization Technical Committee on Voltages, Current Ratings, and Frequencies, as well as the following national standards:

- Permissible Deviation of Supply Voltage (GB12325–1990)
- Permissible Deviation of Frequency for Power Systems (GB/T15945–199)
- Permissible Three-Phase Voltage Unbalance Factor (GB/T15543–199)
- Permissible Voltage Fluctuation and Flicker (GB12326–1990)
- Harmonics in Public Supply Network (GB/T14549–1993)
- Demands of Temporary and Transient Overvoltage of Electrical Equipment Used in the Power System, Insulation Level of Electrical Equipment, and Overvoltage Protection Methods (GB/T18481–2001)

To ensure that produced products comply with industry and national safety standards, the Group conducts effective product testing. During the reporting period, there were no product recalls or service complaints related to health and safety. Since the Group does not manufacture any products, it is not applicable to disclose product recall procedures.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Customer Satisfaction

Hongsong operates as a dedicated electricity provider for the state power grid, focusing on delivering a reliable and stable power supply to meet the needs of this sole customer. Our operations prioritise customer satisfaction through continuous monitoring and optimization of power delivery. We maintain open communication with the state power grid to promptly address any concerns or feedback, ensuring that our services align with their operational requirements. Regular assessments and adjustments are made to enhance the quality of our electricity supply, adhering to industry standards and regulations. By fostering a proactive relationship with the state power grid, we aim to ensure their satisfaction and the overall reliability of energy services in the region.

Data Protection

The Group acknowledges the importance of protecting the privacy and confidentiality of relevant stakeholders and prohibits the misuse of any personal information. The employment contract emphasises the critical importance of confidentiality among employees, stating that all workers are responsible for safeguarding sensitive information related to the company's operations. This includes personnel matters, contracts, customer data, statistical information, technical details, management strategies, and accounting records. Any breach of confidentiality, particularly regarding the company's operational and confidential information or violations of the Group's intellectual property rights, may result in immediate termination.

During the reporting period, no cases of non-compliance related to confidentiality, privacy, or data protection were recorded that would have had a significant impact on the Group. We will continue to adhere to the relevant laws and regulations, such as the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance.

Product Labelling and Advertising

The Group does not rely heavily on marketing and advertising; instead, the official website serves as an introduction to the Group's operations and governance structures. To avoid any misleading information, we continuously review and update the content on the website to ensure that it is accurate and appropriate for use.

Intellectual Property Rights

The Group places great importance on the protection of intellectual property rights. To ensure that only safe and genuine computer software and systems are installed, any unauthorised installation of software is strictly prohibited.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Compliance status

In order to ensure the stability and reliability of services, the protection of intellectual property rights and data protection, the Group complies with the following laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- Trademark Law of the PRC;
- Patent Law of the PRC;
- Law of the PRC on the Protection of Consumer Rights and Interests;
- Product Quality Law of the PRC; and
- Advertising Law of the PRC.

There was no non-compliance with laws and regulations relating to health and safety, advertising, labelling and privacy matters relating to products and services provided and methods of redress in the Reporting Period.

Anti-corruption

Whistle-blowing Policy

The Group is committed to the highest standards of openness and accountability, as well as the prevention, detection, and reporting of fraud. A whistle-blowing policy has been established to allow employees and stakeholders to voice their concerns about suspected fraudulent activities. Whistle-blowers can report their concerns anonymously via mail, email, or telephone. All received reports will be investigated, and the details of reported cases will be handled confidentially. The Group recognises the importance of protecting whistle-blowers during the reporting and investigation processes and prohibits any unlawful discrimination, retaliation, or hostile actions against investigators and whistle-blowers.

Anti-corruption training

To strengthen awareness of anti-corruption in the workplace, the Group conducts effective communication and training to ensure employees understand the concepts outlined in the code of conduct and can identify legal versus illegal actions, as well as ethical versus dishonest behavior. During the reporting period, the reading material "Anti-corruption Programme: A Guide for Listed Companies," published by ICAC, was shared with all directors. Additionally, the Group prepared anti-corruption materials to disseminate relevant knowledge among employees.

ENVIRONMENTAL, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE REPORT

Compliance status

The Group regards honesty, integrity, and fairness as its core values and strictly complies with relevant national laws and regulations, including but not limited to:

- Criminal Law of the PRC;
- Company Law of the PRC;
- Anti-Money Laundering Law of the PRC; and
- Law Against Unfair Competition of the PRC.

During this reporting period, the Group had no incidents of non-compliance related to bribery, extortion, fraud, or money laundering. Anti-corruption measures are implemented in accordance with all relevant laws and regulations. The Group has established an internal code of business ethics, which guides interactions with stakeholders to ensure proper conduct in all aspects of operations. This code outlines policies, practices, and rules regarding gifts, entertainment, transactions, and financial management. Additionally, the Group requires employees to avoid excessively lavish or frequent hospitality with business partners to prevent any deliberate enticement or inappropriate expectations of reciprocation.

Community Investment

During the reporting period, the Group actively engaged with the community, believing that participation in these activities fosters positive values in helping people and society. The Group collaborated with community organizations that share similar values aligned with its corporate responsibility, making significant efforts to address the needs of the local community.

The Group's contributions were primarily focused on supporting local community needs. Employees voluntarily participated in a community cleaning campaign organised by local authorities in the PRC, during which the Group provided cleaning supplies to assist with the effort.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF CHINA RUIFENG RENEWABLE ENERGY HOLDINGS LIMITED

(Incorporated in the Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

What we have audited

The consolidated financial statements of China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (the "Group") set out on pages 91 to 207, which comprise:

- the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 December 2025;
- the consolidated statement of profit or loss for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of comprehensive income for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of changes in equity for the year then ended;
- the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, comprising material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

Our opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 December 2025, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matters identified in our audit are summarised as follows:

- impairment on property, plant and equipment; and
- assessment of the expected credit losses ("ECL") on other receivables.

Key Audit Matters

Impairment on property, plant and equipment

Refer to Note 4(a) and Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements for related disclosure.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had property, plant and equipment of approximately RMB1,502,705,000, representing approximately 57.3% of the Group's total assets.

Management performs assessment whenever there are any events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amounts of property, plant and equipment may not be recoverable. When carrying out the impairment assessment, management identified and determined cash-generating units ("CGUs") for impairment assessment as required by HKAS 36 "Impairment of assets".

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the construction of energy storage service project in Hebei ("Energy Storage Service Project") was completed and commenced operation. This CGU recorded a loss of approximately RMB36,405,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025 and this represented an impairment indicator.

In addition, during the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group conducted a strategic review of its project portfolio and decided to dispose a wind farm project in Baotou City of Inner Mongolia recognised as construction in progress under property, plant and equipment ("Baotou Project"), and the intention for this CGU has changed from owner occupied to disposal. The disposal was completed in December 2025.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters

We performed the following procedures to address the key audit matter:

- Obtained an understanding and evaluated the management's internal controls over the determination of individual CGU, the identification of relevant CGU having impairment indicators and preparation of the cash flow forecasts and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors such as complexity, subjectivity, changes and susceptibility to management bias or fraud;
- Evaluated the appropriateness of management's assessment process on CGUs determination and impairment indicator identification by:
 - Enquiring management on their basis of identifying impairment indicators; and
 - Challenging the judgments made in the identification of impairment indicators;
- Tested management's impairment assessment of property, plant and equipment by assessing the appropriateness and consistency of the methodology used and the inputs, assumptions and estimates adopted in the DCF calculation as set out below:
 - Comparing the key input data in management's DCF to the budget and the business plan approved by senior management; and
 - Assessing the methodology adopted and the mathematical accuracy of the underlying DCF calculation;

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Key Audit Matters

Management conducted an impairment assessment for the Energy Storage Service Project by determining the recoverable amount based on the higher of fair value less cost of disposal ("FVLCD") derived from market search and value-in-use ("VIU") calculation using the discounted cash flows forecast ("DCF").

Preparation of DCF required the use of assumptions, and management exercised significant judgments in determining these assumptions and estimates with the assistance of an independent external valuer. Key assumptions and estimates adopted and judgment exercise in the preparation of the DCF included:

- Revenue growth rates; and
- Pre-tax discount rate.

For the Baotou Project, the recoverable amount was based on FVLCD in which management considered the market value of property, plant and equipment by referencing the transaction price and adjusting for the fair value of the other financial assets and financial liabilities included in the disposal group.

Based on the results of management's impairment assessment, an impairment loss of RMBNil and approximately RMB27,032,000 on property, plant and equipment of Energy Storage Service Project and Baotou Project, respectively, was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025.

We focused on this area due to the magnitude of the balance, the higher degree of estimation uncertainty and subjectivity in management's judgment involved to determine the recoverable amount of property, plant and equipment.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters

- Involved our valuation specialist in our discussion with the external valuer and management to understand the rationale and assess the appropriateness and consistency of the methodology used and the inputs, assumptions and estimates adopted in the valuation by (i) examining the underlying financial information; and (ii) assessing the key parameters used, such as revenue growth rates and pre-tax discount rate, against available market information;
- Tested management's market value assessment on underlying property, plant and equipment by reviewing the sale and purchase agreement and the underlying financial information, considering the transaction price and assessing the valuation methodologies and key assumptions used in the valuation;
- Assessed the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the independent external valuer; and
- Assessed management's sensitivity analysis on the key assumptions, to consider the extent to which adverse changes, would result in property, plant and equipment being impaired and discussed with management the likelihood of such change in the key assumption arising.

Based on the procedures performed, we found the significant judgments and assumptions made by management to identify whether any impairment indicators existed for any of property, plant and equipment and determine the recoverable amounts of property, plant and equipment to be supported by available evidence.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Key Audit Matters

Assessment of the ECL on other receivables

Refer to Note 3.1(b), Note 4(b) and Note 24 to the consolidated financial statements for related disclosure.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group had other receivables of approximately RMB396,190,000 (after provision of approximately RMB244,746,000), representing approximately 15.1% of the Group's total assets.

The Group applies the general approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the ECL of other receivables. Management assessed the ECL based on estimation about risk of default, expected loss rates and whether there has been any significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition for other receivables. The Group used judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, including the credit loss experience, historical settlement records, internal credit ratings, financial positions, relationships with debtors and other factors that impacted their abilities of repayment. Management also took into account of existing market conditions and forward looking information.

We focused on this area due to the magnitude of the relevant balances and the complexity of models and subjectivity of significant assumptions and data used in the estimation of expected credit losses.

How our audit addressed the Key Audit Matters

We performed the following procedures to address the key audit matter:

- Obtained an understanding of management's internal control and assessment process of the ECL of other receivables and assessed the inherent risk of material misstatement by considering the degree of estimation uncertainty and level of other inherent risk factors such as complexity of models and subjectivity of significant assumptions and data used;
- Evaluated the Group's policy for estimating the ECL allowance with reference to the requirements of the prevailing accounting standard;
- Tested, on a sample basis, the historical and subsequent settlement by checking to the bank slips to assess the effectiveness of management's estimation process;
- Assessed the key assumptions and data used in management's estimate of expected credit loss by agreeing information to relevant supporting documents;
- Checked the mathematical accuracy of the calculation of impairment provision of other receivables;
- Challenged management's estimation of the risk of default and ECL rate referencing to the debtors' credit information including settlement records, their financial positions and ability of repayment and collaborated management's explanations with publicly available information and supporting evidence; and
- Evaluated the appropriateness of the forward looking information with reference to our industry knowledge and relevant published macroeconomic data.

We found the models, significant assumptions and data applied by management in the assessment of the ECL on other receivables were supported by available evidence.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises all of the information included in the annual report other than the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. We report our opinion solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSA's will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business activities within the Group to express an opinion on the consolidated financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and performance of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Kwok Chi Kan.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1 GENERAL INFORMATION

China Ruifeng Renewable Energy Holdings Limited (the “Company”) was incorporated in the Cayman Islands on 23 June 2005 as an exempted company with limited liability under the Companies Law, Cap. 22 (Law 3 of 1961 as consolidated and revised) of the Cayman Islands.

The Company’s registered office is at Windward 3, Regatta Office Park, P.O. Box 1350, Grand Cayman KY1-1108, Cayman Islands. The principal place of business of the Company is Room 2801–2804, 28/F, Office Tower, Convention Plaza, 1 Harbour Road, Wanchai, Hong Kong. The shares of the Company have been listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Stock Exchange”) since 9 June 2006. The Company and its subsidiaries are together referred to as the Group hereinafter.

The Company is an investment holding company of the Group. The Group is principally engaged in wind farm operations and energy storage power station operations.

These consolidated financial statements are presented in thousands of Renminbi (“RMB’000”), unless otherwise stated.

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the HKFRS Accounting Standards, which collective term includes all applicable individual Hong Kong Financial Reporting Standards, Hong Kong Accounting Standards (“HKAS”) and Interpretations issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants (“HKICPA”), accounting principles generally accepted in Hong Kong and the requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap. 622. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except for the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss (“FVTPL”) and the financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income (“FVTOCI”), which is carried at fair value.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with HKFRS Accounting Standards requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(a) New and amended standards adopted by the Group

The Group has applied the following new and amended standards, improvements and interpretation for the first time for their annual reporting period commencing 1 January 2025:

HKAS 21 and HKFRS 1	Lack of Exchangeability (amendments)
---------------------	--------------------------------------

The amendments listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

(b) New and amended standards and interpretations not yet adopted

The following new and amended standards and interpretations have been published that are not mandatory for the current reporting period and have not been early adopted by the Group:

		Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments (amendments)	1 January 2026
HKFRS 1, HKFRS 7, HKFRS 9, HKFRS 10 and HKAS 7	Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards — Volume 11	1 January 2026

HKFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements (new standard)	1 January 2027
HKFRS 19	Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures (new standard)	1 January 2027
HKFRS 19	Amendments to HKFRS 19 Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures	1 January 2027
HK Interpretation 5	Hong Kong Interpretation 5 Presentation of Financial Statements — Classification by the Borrower of a Term Loan that Contains a Repayment on Demand Clause (amendments)	1 January 2027
HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture (amendments)	To be determined

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(b) New and amended standards and interpretations not yet adopted (continued)

HKFRS 18, Presentation and disclosure in financial statements

HKFRS 18 will replace HKAS 1 Presentation of financial statements and aims to improve the transparency and comparability of information about an entity's financial statements. HKFRS 18 is effective for annual reporting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027 and is to be applied retrospectively.

Among other changes, under HKFRS 18, entities are required to classify all income and expenses into five categories in the statement of profit or loss, namely the operating, investing, financing, discontinued operations and income tax categories. Entities are also required to provide specific disclosures about management-defined performance measures in a single note in the financial statements.

The Group does not plan to early adopt HKFRS 18 and is currently assessing the impact of applying HKFRS 18 on the presentation and the disclosures of the consolidated financial statements.

Except from the above, the directors of the Company have assessed the financial impact on the Group of the adoption of the above new and amended standards and interpretations. These new and amended standards and interpretations are not expected to have a material impact on the Group in the future reporting periods and on foreseeable future transaction. The Group is currently revisiting their accounting policy information disclosures to ensure consistency with the requirements. The Group intends to adopt the above new and amended standards and interpretations when they become effective.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

2 BASIS OF PREPARATION AND ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

(c) Going concern

The Group recorded a loss of approximately RMB216,723,000 for the year ended 31 December 2025. As at 31 December 2025, the Group had accumulated losses and deficit in equity of approximately RMB2,148,381,000 and RMB119,010,000, respectively and the Group's current liabilities exceeded its current assets by approximately RMB300,750,000.

The directors of the Company have reviewed the Group's cash flow projections prepared by management. The cash flow projections cover a period of not less than twelve months from 31 December 2025 taking into consideration the following plans and measures:

- (i) In March 2026, Filled Converge Limited ("Filled Converge"), the convertible bondholder of the Company has agreed not to demand for repayment of the convertible bonds including principal and interest of approximately RMB456,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$507,230,000) as at 31 December 2025 (Note 31(d)) and the upcoming interest payments until June 2027;
- (ii) On 6 March 2026, the resolutions in relation to the issuance of (a) 119,437,859 subscription shares ("Subscription Shares") for a consideration of approximately RMB21,046,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$23,410,000) and (b) convertible bonds ("2026 Convertible Bonds") in an aggregated principal amount of approximately RMB233,471,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$259,701,000) under specific mandate were duly passed by shareholders. The directors of the Company expected the issuance of Subscription Shares and 2026 Convertible Bonds will be completed by April 2026; and
- (iii) As at 31 December 2025, the Group had unutilised loan facilities from a finance leasing company of RMB400,000,000. The directors of the Company are confident that the Group could draw down the remaining unutilised loan as and when needed.

In the opinion of the directors of the Company, in light of the above plans and measures, the Group will have sufficient working capital to fulfill its financial obligations as and when they fall due in the coming twelve months from 31 December 2025. Accordingly, the directors of the Company are satisfied that it is appropriate to prepare the consolidated financial statements on a going concern basis.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

3 FINANCIAL AND CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to market risk (including price risk, foreign exchange risk and cash flow and fair value interest rate risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the analysis, evaluation, acceptance and monitoring of such risks which are an inevitable consequence of being in business. The Group's aim is therefore to achieve an appropriate balance between risk and return and minimise potential adverse effect on the Group's financial performance.

3.1 Financial risk factors

(a) Market risk

(i) Price risk

Price risk is the risk that the fair value of the Group's financial assets at fair value through profit or loss will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices, whether those changes are caused by factors specific to the individual investment or factors affecting all instruments in the market.

The Group held listed equity investments, which can be affected by fluctuations in share price and is exposed to other price risk on share price of the listed investments.

If the stock price of the listed equity investments had been 5% (2024: 5%) higher/lower, loss for the year would have decreased/increased by approximately RMB34,000 (2024: approximately RMB52,000).

For unlisted equity investments, in arriving at the fair value of the financial assets at fair value through profit or loss and at fair value through other comprehensive income, the Group may use valuation techniques which require the estimation of key variables. Details of the valuation method and the sensitivity analysis for the possible impact given a reasonable shift in the key variable are set out in Note 3.3.

(ii) Foreign exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk arises from future commercial transactions, recognised assets or liabilities denominated in a currency that is not the functional currency of the relevant group entity. The Group mainly operates in Hong Kong and the PRC. The majority of the transactions at each location are settled in the respective functional currencies, namely HK$ and RMB. The directors are of the opinion that the Group does not have significant foreign exchange risk, the exposure to fluctuation in exchange rates will only arise from the translation to the presentation currency of the Group. Accordingly, no sensitivity analysis is performed.

3 FINANCIAL AND CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

Management closely monitors foreign currency exchange exposure and will take measures to minimise the currency translation risk. The Group manages its foreign exchange risk by performing regular reviews of the Group's net foreign exchange exposure. The Group has not used any hedging arrangement to hedge its foreign exchange risk exposure as management considers its exposure is not significant.

(iii) Cash flow and fair value interest rate risk

The Group's interest rate risk arises primarily from the Group's bank deposits and borrowings. Borrowings issued at variable rates and at fixed rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk and fair value interest rate risk respectively. The Group does not use financial derivatives to hedge against the interest rate risk.

If interest rate of variable-rate borrowings had been 100 (2024: 100) basis points higher/lower and all other variable were held constant, the Group's loss for the year would have increased/decreased by approximately RMB13,423,000 (2024: approximately RMB11,511,000).

(b) Credit risk

Credit risk arises if a customer or other counterparty fails to meet its contractual obligations. The credit risk of the Group mainly arises from cash at banks and trade and other receivables.

Impairment of Financial Assets

The Group has three types of assets that are subject to the ECL model:

- Cash at banks;
- Trade receivables; and
- Other receivables.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(i) Cash at banks

The cash at banks of the Group are mainly placed with state-owned financial institutions and reputable banks. Therefore, the ECL rate of cash at banks is assessed to be immaterial and no provision was made as at 31 December 2025 and 2024.

(ii) Trade receivables

As at 31 December 2025 and 2024, the Group has concentration of credit risk as approximately 97% and 94%, respectively, of its trade receivables were due from the Group's largest customer, which was a state-owned power grid company.

The trade receivables mainly represent receivables from the power grid company. The Group has applied the simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance for trade receivables on a collective group basis based on different credit risk characteristics and the days past due. The management assessed the ECL based on historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, historical settlement records, the general economic conditions, the existing market conditions and forward-looking information.

(ii) Trade receivables (continued)

The Group's trade receivables are mainly due from the power grid company. The Group is not exposed to significant credit risk from the power grid company as the Group maintains long-term and stable business relationships with the power grid company. Given the track record of settlements of trade receivables from sales of electricity and the collection of tariff adjustment are well supported by the government policy, the management are of the opinion that these trade receivables are fully recoverable considering that there is no bad debt experience with this power grid company in the past and the tariff adjustment is funded by the PRC government authorities will be settled in accordance with prevailing government policies and prevalent payment trends of Ministry of Finance, and hence, the risk of default by this customer is not significant and the Group do not expect any losses from non-performance by this customer. Therefore, as at 31 December 2025, save for the trade receivables from the customers who are not the power grid company with the gross amount of approximately RMB9,880,000 (2024: approximately RMB15,662,000), ECL rate of trade receivables from the power grid company is assessed to be close to zero and no provision was made for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: Nil). Besides, other than approximately RMB2,030,000 which were previously recognised, the ECL of the trade receivables from the customers who are not the power grid company is assessed to be immaterial and no provision was made as at 31 December 2025 and 2024 as the Group maintain stable business relationships with these customers.

(iii) Other receivables

Other receivables include loan receivables, amount due from an associate, amount due from a non-controlling interest, deposits and others. In order to minimise the credit risk, the Group has a credit policy for assessing the impairment on other receivables and the exposures to these credit risks are monitored on an ongoing basis. The Group has applied the general approach in accordance with HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance for other receivables. The Group assessed the ECL based on estimation about risk of default and expected loss rates, and judgment was used in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, including the credit loss experience, historical settlement records, internal credit ratings, financial positions, relationships with debtors and other factors that impacted their ability of repayment. The management also took into account of existing market conditions and forward-looking information.

- Other receivables that are not credit-impaired on initial recognition are classified in “Stage 1” and have their credit risk continuously monitored by the Group. The ECLs is measured on 12-month basis.
- If a significant increase in credit risk (specifically, when the debtor is more than 30 days past due on its contractual payments) since initial recognition is identified, the financial instrument is moved to “Stage 2” but is not yet deemed to be credit-impaired. The ECLs loss is measured on lifetime basis.
- If the financial instrument is credit-impaired (specifically, when there is evidence indicating the debtor is in severe financial difficulty or it is probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation), the financial instrument is then moved to “Stage 3”. The ECLs is measured on lifetime basis.

As at 31 December 2025, certain other receivables with the gross carrying amount of approximately RMB145,233,000 (2024: approximately RMB176,508,000) were credit-impaired because they were default of payments from the counterparties. Such receivables were assessed for ECL individually and measured at lifetime ECL. An impairment loss of approximately RMB62,582,000 (2024: approximately RMB5,197,000) was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025. The loss of allowance for certain other receivables of approximately RMB119,234,000 were disposed for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: nil).

As at 31 December 2025, certain other receivables with the gross carrying amount of approximately RMB29,557,000 (2024: approximately RMB110,882,000) were assessed individually and measured at lifetime ECL and the Group has recognised impairment loss of approximately RMB607,000 during the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB8,299,000). Management considers there is a significant increase in credit risk on these balances.

The remaining other receivables are separately assessed. Management considers that the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition with reference to the counterparty historical default rate, adjusted by current and forward looking information. The impairment loss on the remaining other receivables of approximately RMB1,468,000 are based on the 12-month ECL for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB601,000). The loss of allowance for certain other receivables of approximately RMB134,000 were disposed for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB1,000).

As at 31 December 2025, certain loan receivables with the gross carrying amount of approximately RMB48,423,000 (2024: approximately RMB39,558,000) were credit-impaired because there were default of payments from the counterparties for years and the counterparties were in financial difficulties. Such receivables were assessed for ECL individually and measured at lifetime ECL. An impairment loss of approximately RMB10,319,000 (2024: approximately RMB5,863,000) was recognised for the year ended 31 December 2025.

As at 31 December 2025, certain loan receivables with the gross carrying amount of approximately RMB58,443,000 (2024: approximately RMB159,760,000) were assessed individually and measured at lifetime ECL as management considers there is a significant increase in credit risk on these balances. The Group has recognised the reversal of impairment loss of approximately RMB22,775,000 during the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: impairment loss of approximately RMB8,720,000).

The remaining loan receivables are separately assessed. Management considers that the credit risk has not increased significantly since initial recognition with reference to the counterparty historical default rate, adjusted by current and forward looking information. The impairment loss on the remaining loan receivables of nil are based on the 12-month ECL for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: approximately RMB1,000).

As at 31 December 2025, the amount due from an associate, were due from Shenzhen Qianhai Jiefeng Financing and Leasing Limited with the gross carrying amount of approximately RMB29,187,000 (2024: approximately RMB29,187,000) were credit-impaired because the associate was in financial difficulties. Such receivables were assessed for ECL individually and measured at lifetime ECL.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group considered the other receivables and loan receivables of approximately RMB8,843,000 and RMB5,843,000, respectively, are not recoverable and had written-off the entire amounts (2024: none of the other receivables and loan receivables had been written-off the entire amounts).

(c) Liquidity risk

Individual operating entities within the Group are responsible for their own cash management, including the short-term investment of cash surpluses and the raising of loans to cover expected cash demands, subject to approval of board of directors. The Group's policy is to regularly monitor current and expected liquidity requirements and its compliance with lending covenants to ensure that it maintains sufficient amount of cash and adequate committed lines of funding from major financial institutions to meet its liquidity requirements in the short and longer term.

3 FINANCIAL AND CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT (continued)

3.2 Capital risk management

The Group's primary objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to shareholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The management regularly reviews and manages the capital structure by considering the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. In view of this, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new share issues as well as the issuance of new debt or the redemption of existing debt as it sees fit and appropriate. During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group's strategy remained unchanged from 2024.

The Group monitors its capital structure by reviewing its net debt-to-equity ratio and cash flow requirements, taking into account its future financial obligations and commitments. The gearing ratios at 31 December 2025 and 2024 were as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Borrowings:
Current portion	837,207	787,772
Non-current portion	1,629,469	1,288,855
Total borrowings (Note 31)	2,466,676	2,076,627
Less: cash and cash equivalents (Note 25)	(219,342)	(244,609)
Net debt	2,247,334	1,832,018
Total (deficit)/equity	(119,010)	86,669
Gearing ratio	(1,888)%	2,114%

The gearing ratio changed from approximately 2,114% as at 31 December 2024 to approximately (1,888)% as at 31 December 2025 as a result of the decrease in total equity and the increase in bank loans.

3.3 Fair value estimation

The table below analyses financial instruments carried at fair value, by level of the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Such inputs are categorised into three levels within a fair value hierarchy as follows:

- Level 1: Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the assets or liabilities, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices).
- Level 3: Inputs for the assets or liabilities that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs).

— unlisted equity investment	—	—	2,300	2,300
	1,043	—	61,729	62,772

There was no transfer of financial assets and liabilities between the fair value hierarchy classification during the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: same).

The carrying amounts of the Group's financial assets and financial liabilities recorded at amortised cost in the consolidated statement of financial position approximate to their fair values. The fair value for disclosure purposes is estimated by discounting the future contractual cash flows at the current market interest rate that is available to the Group for similar financial instruments, unless the discounting effect is insignificant.

3.4 Fair value of financial assets and liabilities measured at amortised cost

The fair value of the following financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying values:

- Trade receivables
- Other receivables
- Cash and cash equivalents
- Trade and other payables
- Borrowings
- Lease liabilities

3.5 Offsetting financial assets and financial liabilities

No material financial assets and financial liabilities were subject to offsetting, enforceable master netting arrangements and similar arrangements as at 31 December 2025 and 2024.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGMENTS

Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Critical judgement in applying accounting policies

The following is the critical judgment, apart from those arising from estimates (see below), that the directors of the Group have made in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies and that has the most significant effect on the amounts recognised in the consolidated financial statements.

(a) Principal versus agent consideration (agent)

The Group has determined that it acts as an agent in providing energy storage services to local grid company. A significant judgement was required to assess whether the Group controls the electricity before it is transferred back to the local grid company.

The Group considers that it does not obtain control of the electricity because it lacks pricing discretion (as rates are dictated by peak and slack hour electricity rates), bears no inventory risk, and is unable to redirect the electricity to any party other than the local grid company. Consequently, revenue is recognised on a net basis, representing the service fees earned for the energy storage services.

Key sources of estimation uncertainty

The Group makes estimates and assumptions concerning the future. The resulting accounting estimates will, by definition, seldom equal the related actual results. The estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are addressed below.

(a) Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment with finite useful lives are stated at costs less accumulated depreciation and impairment, if any. Where an impairment indicator exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is determined. The recoverable amount of a cash-generating unit (“CGU”) is determined based on the higher of fair value less cost of disposal (“FVLCD”) and value-in-use (“VIU”) models. The methodologies are based upon a number of key estimates and other information, both internal and external, including (i) the revenue growth rate; (ii) the terminal growth rates; and (iii) pre-tax discount rates used in VIU model. These calculations require the use of estimates. Changing the assumptions selected by the Group to determine the level, if any, of impairment, including the pre-tax discount rate or the growth rate assumptions, could significantly affect the Group’s reported financial position and results of operations. The key assumptions used are set out in Note 16.

(b) Impairment of other receivables

The Group makes provision for impairment of other receivables based on assumptions about risk of default and the ECL rates (Note 3.1(b)). The Group uses judgment in making these assumptions and selecting the inputs to the impairment calculation, based on the Group’s past history, existing market conditions as well as forward-looking estimates at the date of the statement of financial position.

(c) Useful lives of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets, after taking into account the estimated residual values. The Group reviews the estimated useful lives of the assets regularly in order to determine the amount of depreciation expense to be recorded during the reporting period. The useful lives are based on the Group’s historical experience with similar assets and taking into account anticipated technological changes. The depreciation expense for future periods is adjusted if there are significant changes from previous estimates.

(d) Income tax and deferred tax

Significant judgment is required in determining the provision for income and deferred tax. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate determination is uncertain. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such difference will impact the current tax and deferred tax assets and liabilities in the period in which such determination is made. Deferred tax assets relating to certain temporary differences and tax losses are recognised when management considers it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences or tax losses can be utilised. The outcome of their actual utilisation may be different.

(e) Valuation of the fair value of certain financial assets

The fair value of financial instruments, including financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (Level 3) (Note 21) and measured at fair value through profit or loss (Level 3) (Note 22) and are established by using valuation techniques. Selection of appropriate valuation parameters, assumptions and modelling techniques require management estimates and judgment. Management estimates and assumptions are reviewed periodically and are adjusted if necessary. Should any of the estimates and assumptions change, it may lead to a change in the fair value of these financial instruments.

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

(a) Business segments

The Group's chief operating decision maker ("CODM"), which has been identified as the Board of Directors, consider the segment from a business perspective and monitor the operating results of its operating segment for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment.

The Group's internal reporting and organisational structure were revised in 2025 following the expansion of the energy storage service business. Previously, the activities related to energy storage were not material and included within the wind power segment. In 2025, management determined that the energy storage service business met the criteria of an operating segment and a reportable segment under HKFRS 8.

Accordingly, the Group has restated the corresponding segment information for the year ended 31 December 2024 to reflect the current segment structure as if the energy storage service business had been a reportable segment in that period. The Group's reportable and operating segments are as follows:

- (i) Wind power business — using wind turbine blades to generate electricity power in the PRC and other wind power related business; and
- (ii) Energy storage service business — operates energy storage power station located in the PRC to provide the energy storage services.

(b) Geographic Information

Revenue from external customers

The Group's revenue from external customers by geographical area, which is determined by the location where the services were provided. The Group's revenue is all generated from the PRC.

Non-current assets

The Group's non-current assets other than deposits for other loans, financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss by geographic area is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Hong Kong	1,743	4,081
The PRC	1,663,808	1,538,218

(c) Key Customers

For the year ended 31 December 2025, there was one customer (2024: one) which individually contributed over 10% (2024: 10%) of the Group's total revenue, the revenue contributed from this customer was as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Customer A	400,971	319,451

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

6 REVENUE

Revenue from contracts with customers within the scope of HKFRS 15, is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Recognised at a point in time:
— Sales of electricity (Note)	222,020	234,020
— Tariff adjustment (Note)	83,611	85,431
— Sales of mechanical and electrical equipment	150	4,937
— Sales of petroleum coke	—	3,708
	305,781	328,096
Recognised over time:
— Construction and consultancy services	2,231	8,178
— Energy storage services	98,231	—
	100,462	8,178
Total revenue	406,243	336,274

Note:

For sales of electricity, the Group generally entered into power purchase agreements with the local grid company which stipulate the price of electricity per watt hour. Revenue is recognised when control of the electricity has transferred, being at the point when electricity has generated and transmitted to the customers.

Generally, the receivables are due within 30 days from the date of billing, except for the tariff adjustment. The collection of such tariff adjustment is subject to the allocation of funds by relevant government authorities to the local grid company.

The financial resource for the tariff adjustment is the national renewable energy fund that accumulated through a special levy on the consumption of electricity of end users. The PRC government is responsible to collect and allocate the fund to the state-owned local grid company for settlement to the wind power company.

Tariff adjustment is recognised as revenue and due from the grid company in the PRC in accordance with the relevant power purchase agreements.

Transaction price allocated to the remaining performance obligations

The following table shows the aggregate amount of the transaction price allocated to performance obligations that are unsatisfied (or partially satisfied) as at the end of the reporting period.

Energy storage services:
— Within one year	3,346	—
— More than one year but not more than 3 years	2,235	—
	5,581	—

Accounting policies of revenue recognition

Revenue is recognised when or as the control of the goods or service is transferred to the customer. Depending on the terms of the contract and laws that apply to the contract, control of the goods and services may be transferred over time or at a point in time.

Revenue is recognised when a performance obligation is satisfied by transferring control of the promised products or services to a customer in an amount that reflects the consideration expected to be collected in exchange for those products or services. The revenue recognition of the Group is determined through the following five steps:

- (i) Identification of the contract, or contracts, with a customer;
- (ii) Identification of the performance obligations in the contract;
- (iii) Determination of the transaction price;
- (iv) Allocation of the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract;
- (v) Recognition of revenue when, or as, a performance obligation is satisfied.

At contract inception, it is performed that the assessment and the identification of a performance obligation for each promise to transfer to the customer a product or a service (or bundle of products or services) that is distinct. To identify the performance obligations, the Group considers all the products and services promised in the contract with the customer based on the Group's customary business practices, published policies, or specific statements.

Sales of electricity and tariff adjustments

Revenue from sales of electricity and tariff adjustment is recognised at a point in time when the generated electricity is delivered to the offtakers. Revenue from these sales is recognised based on the price specified in the power purchase agreements. The electricity generation will be confirmed with the offtakers regularly, therefore, it is highly probable that a significant reversal in the cumulative revenue recognised will not occur.

Revenue from sales of electricity is based on the respective on-grid electricity rates. Tariff adjustment represents subsidies received and receivable from the grid company pursuant to prevailing government policy in respect of the Group's renewable energy projects. Tariff adjustment is recognised at a point in time at fair value where there is a reasonable assurance that the tariff adjustment will be received and the Group will comply with all attached conditions, if any.

Revenue from tariff adjustment is based on the difference between the feed-in-tariff regime implemented by the PRC government for the provision of subsidies to the wind power plant operators in the PRC and the revenue from sales of electricity.

Sales of mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke

Sales of mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke are recognised when control of the mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke has transferred, being when the mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke are delivered to the customers, the customer has accepted the products and there is no unfulfilled obligation that could affect the customer's acceptance of the mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke.

A receivable is recognised when the mechanical and electrical equipment and petroleum coke are delivered as this is the point in time that the consideration is unconditional because only the passage of time is required before the payment is due. No credit term is provided to the customers.

Construction and consultancy services

Revenue from the construction and consultancy services are recognised over time that services are rendered and the Group's performance provide all the benefits received and consumed simultaneously by the customers.

A contract liability is recognised when a customer pays deposits in advance, or is contractually required to pay consideration and the amount is already due, before the Group recognises the related revenue. The Group recognised its contract liabilities in the consolidated statements of financial position.

Energy storage services

The Group provides energy storage services to local grid company and power plant operators. These performance obligations are satisfied over time as customers simultaneously receive and consume the benefits of the Group's performance.

For local grid company, the Group provides energy storage services by storing electricity during slack hours and releasing it during peak hours under the local grid company's guidance to enhance grid stability. Revenue is recognised on a net basis, with the transaction price is primarily determined by the difference between electricity rates during slack and peak hours.

For power plant operators, the Group provides storage capacity over contract terms ranging from 1 to 3 years. Revenue is recognised over time as capacity is made available to the power plant operators.

A contract liability is recognised when a customer pays a deposit in advance, or the Group has a contractually required unconditional right to consideration before the related revenue is recognised. The Group presents its contract liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Principal versus agent

When another party is involved in providing services to a customer, the Group determines whether its promise is to provide the service itself (acting as a principal) or to arrange for the service to be provided by another party (acting as an agent).

The Group is a principal if it controls the specified service before it is transferred to the customer. If the Group does not control the service, it acts as an agent and recognises revenue on a net basis, representing the fee or commission to which it expects to be entitled in exchange for arranging the provision of the service.

Accounting policies of employee benefits

(i) Retirement benefit costs

Payments to the state-managed retirement benefit scheme or the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme are recognised as expense when employee have rendered services entitling them to the contributions.

The employees of the Group are members of state-managed retirement benefit scheme operated by the PRC government or members of the Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme in Hong Kong. The Group are required to contribute a certain percentage of payroll costs to the retirement benefit scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to make the required contributions under the schemes.

(ii) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. Accrual is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the consolidated statement of financial position date.

(iii) Share-based compensation

The Group operates an employee share options scheme. Information relating to the employee share options scheme is set out in Note 29. The fair value of the share options granted under the share options scheme is recognised as an employee benefits expense with a corresponding increase in equity. The total amount to be expensed is determined by reference to the fair value of the share options granted:

- including any market performance conditions (for example, the entity's share price);
- excluding the impact of any service and non-market performance vesting conditions (for example, profitability, sales growth targets and remaining an employee of the entity over a specified time period); and
- including the impact of any non-vesting conditions (for example, the requirement for employees to save or holding shares for a specified period of time).

The total expense is recognised over the vesting period, which is the period over which all of the specified vesting conditions are to be satisfied. At the end of each reporting period, the Group revises its estimates of the number of share options that are expected to vest based on the non-market performance and service conditions. It recognises the impact of the revision to original estimates, if any, in the consolidated statement of profit and loss, with a corresponding adjustment to equity.

When the options are exercised, the Company issues new shares. The proceeds received net of any directly attributable transaction costs are credited to share capital (nominal value) and share premium.

(iv) Termination benefit

Termination benefits are recognised at the earlier of when the Group can no longer withdraw the offer of those benefits and when it recognises restructuring costs involving the payment of termination benefits.

12 INCOME TAX EXPENSE

No provision of Hong Kong Profits Tax had been made as the Group's profit neither arises in, nor is derived from Hong Kong during the year (2024: Nil).

Pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands, the Group is not subject to any income tax in the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands (2024: Nil).

The applicable income tax rate to the Group's PRC subsidiaries is 25% in 2025 and 2024.

The Law of the PRC Enterprise Income Tax and the Implementation Regulations also impose a withholding tax at 5%–10%, unless reduced by a tax treaty or agreement, for dividends distributed by a PRC resident enterprise to its immediate holding company outside the PRC for earnings accumulated beginning on 1 January 2008.

An analysis of the income tax expense is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
PRC Enterprise income tax
Current year	33,377	26,757
Withholding tax	705	860
Deferred income tax (Note 26)	(2,200)	(2,800)
	31,882	24,817

12 INCOME TAX EXPENSE (continued)

The tax on the Group's loss before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the tax rate of the PRC as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Loss before income tax	(184,841)	(100,960)
National tax on loss before income tax, calculation at the rates applicable to profits in PRC of 25%	(46,210)	(25,240)
Tax effect of non-taxable income	(4,799)	(1,225)
Tax effect of non-deductible expenses	39,378	34,067
Tax effect of tax losses not recognised	22,688	9,619
Tax effect of different tax jurisdictions	20,304	6,738
Tax effect on share of results of associates and joint ventures	(184)	(2)
Withholding tax	705	860
	31,882	24,817

Accounting policies of current and deferred income tax

The income tax expense or credit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate for each jurisdiction adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary differences and to unused tax losses. Current and deferred tax is recognised in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognised in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

(i) Current income tax

The current income tax is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period in the countries where the Company and its subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions, where appropriate, on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

(ii) Deferred income tax

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if they arise from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax is also not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates (and laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realised or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised only if it is probable that future taxable amounts will be available to utilise those temporary differences and losses.

Deferred tax liabilities and assets are not recognised for temporary differences between the carrying amount and tax bases of investments in foreign operations where the company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that the differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets and liabilities and when the deferred tax balances relate to the same taxation authority. Current tax assets and tax liabilities are offset where the entity has a legally enforceable right to offset and intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(iii) Investment allowances and similar tax incentives

Companies within the Group may be entitled to claim special tax deductions for investments in qualifying assets or in relation to qualifying expenditure. The Group accounts for such allowances as tax credits, which means that the allowance reduces income tax payable and current tax expense.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

13 LOSS PER SHARE

(a) Basic loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss attributable to owners of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

	2025	2024
Loss attributable to the owners of the Company (RMB'000)	(161,291)	(132,517)
Weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue (in thousands)	1,714,719	1,674,842
Basic loss per share (RMB)	(0.094)	(0.079)

(b) Diluted loss per share

Diluted loss per share was calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding to assume conversion/exercise of all dilutive potential ordinary shares. For the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group has two (2024: two) categories of potential ordinary shares: including convertible bonds and share options (2024: convertible bonds and share options).

The convertible bonds were assumed to have been converted into ordinary shares, and the net loss has been adjusted to eliminate the interest expenses and gain on redemption.

For the share options, a calculation has been done to determine the number of shares that could have been acquired at fair value (determined as the average annual market share price of the Company's shares) based on the monetary value of the subscription rights attached to outstanding share options.

Convertible bonds and share options (2024: convertible bonds and share options) were not assumed to be converted/exercised as they would have an anti-dilutive impact to the loss attributable to the owners of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2025. Accordingly, diluted loss per share for the year ended 31 December 2025 is same as that of basic loss per share.

14 DIVIDENDS

No dividend has been declared or paid by the Company for the year ended 31 December 2025 (2024: Nil).

Depreciation expense of approximately RMB1,299,000 (2024: approximately RMB564,000) has been charged in administrative expenses and depreciation expense of approximately RMB196,216,000 (2024: approximately RMB128,842,000) has been charged in cost of sales.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group has pledged its certain property, plant and equipment with carrying values of approximately RMB423,057,000 and RMB1,112,000, respectively (2024: approximately RMB520,932,000 and RMB1,561,000, respectively) to secure its other loans (Note 31(e)) and bank loans (Note 31(a)).

The original gross amount of certain construction in progress of approximately RMB98,050,000 mainly represented the construction of a wind farm project in Baotou City of Inner Mongolia ("Baotou Wind Farm"), which was suspended since 2021 and the related impairment loss in aggregate of approximately RMB61,240,000 on this construction in progress was then recognised, resulting in the carrying amount of such construction in progress to be approximately RMB36,810,000 as at 1 January 2024. In addition, there was no further development during the year ended 31 December 2024. Management considered that there was an impairment indicator and conducted impairment assessment on the recoverable amounts of this cash generating unit ("CGU") of the Group by determining the recoverable amount based on value in use ("VIU") calculation using the discounted cash flows forecast (the "DCF") approved by the management with the assistance of an independent valuer. The pre-tax discount rate adopted was 10.5% per annum which reflects the specific risks relating to the Group for the year ended 31 December 2024. Key assumptions adopted and judgment exercise in the preparation of the DCF included the revenue growth rates and the pre-tax discount rate. Based on the results of management's impairment assessment, management determined that the estimated recoverable amounts of this CGU determined under the VIU method are higher than their carrying amounts as at 31 December 2024. As a result, no impairment loss of property, plant and equipment of this CGU was made for the year ended 31 December 2024 and the carrying amount of construction in progress of this CGU was approximately RMB36,810,000 as at 31 December 2024.

In December 2025, the Group concluded a strategic review of its project portfolio. To enhance capital discipline and prioritise financial resources toward high-growth business—specifically energy storage services and the optimisation of existing operating wind power plants—the Group entered into an agreement to dispose of the Baotou Wind Farm CGU. This disposal group included the construction in progress and related investment holding companies (containing various financial assets and financial liabilities) for a total net cash consideration of HK$1. The disposal was completed in December 2025.

Immediately prior to the disposal, management performed an impairment assessment as the plan for the CGU changed from continuing use to disposal. The recoverable amount of the CGU was determined based on its fair value less costs of disposal ("FVLCD"). The recoverable amount of this CGU was determined to be approximately RMB9,778,000. This value was derived from the total transaction price of HK$1 by adjusting for the fair value of the other financial assets and financial liabilities included in the disposal group. This measurement is categorised within Level 3 of the fair value hierarchy. The market approach was adopted as the valuation technique, with the primary input being the transaction price reached with an independent third-party transaction.

Based on this assessment, the carrying amount of this CGU exceeded its recoverable amount, and an impairment loss of RMB27,032,000 was recognised under the segment of wind power business in profit or loss for the year ended 31 December 2025. Following this recognition, the carrying amount of the construction in progress was approximately RMB9,778,000, which was subsequently derecognised upon completion of the disposal in December 2025.

Accounting policies of property, plant and equipment

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate their costs, net of their residual values, over their estimated useful lives as follows:

	Useful lives	Residual value
Buildings	18 to 25 years	5%
Leasehold improvements	Over the lease term	0%
Generators, energy storage equipment and related equipment	5 to 25 years	5%
Plant and machinery	5 to 10 years	5% to 10%
Equipment, furniture and fixtures	3 to 10 years	5% to 10%
Motor vehicles	5 to 8 years	5% to 10%

See Note 39.6 for other accounting policies relevant to property, plant and equipment and Note 39.9 for accounting policies of impairment of non-financial assets.

(c) The Group's leasing activities and how these are accounted for

The Group leases various land use rights and offices. Lease agreements for land use rights and offices are entered into for the fixed periods of 20 to 50 years and 2 to 4 years, respectively (2024: same). Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. There are no renewal options and variable lease payments included in these lease agreements.

As at 31 December 2025, the Group has pledged its certain leasehold land including in right-of-use assets with a carrying value of approximately RMB45,556,000 (2024: RMB46,497,000) to secure its bank loans (Note 31(a)).

Accounting policies of leases

Lease terms are negotiated on an individual basis and contain a wide range of different terms and conditions. The lease agreements do not impose any covenants other than the security interests in the leased assets that are held by the lessor. Leased assets may not be used as security for borrowing purposes.

Assets and liabilities arising from a lease are initially measured on a present value basis. Lease liabilities include the net present value of the fixed lease payments.

Lease payments to be made under reasonably certain extension options are also included in the measurement of the liability.

The lease payments are discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease. If that rate cannot be readily determined, which is generally the case for leases in the Group, the lessee's incremental borrowing rate is used, being the rate that the individual lessee would have to pay to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of similar value to the right-of-use asset in a similar economic environment with similar terms, security and conditions.

To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group, where possible, uses recent third-party financing received by the individual lessee as a starting point, adjusted to reflect changes in financing conditions since third party financing was received and makes any adjustments specific to the lease, e.g. term, country, currency and security.

Lease payments are allocated between principal and finance cost. The finance cost is charged to profit or loss over the lease period so as to produce a constant periodic rate of interest on the remaining balance of the liability for each period.

See Note 39.21 for the other accounting policies relevant to leases.

Associates

Associates are all entities over which the Group has significant influence but not control or joint control. This is generally the case where the Group holds between 20% and 50% of the voting rights. Investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method of accounting, after initially being recognised at cost.

See Note 39.8 for the other accounting policies relevant to equity accounting.

21 FINANCIAL ASSETS AT FAIR VALUE THROUGH OTHER COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

(a) Classification of financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income

Financial assets at fair value through other comprehensive income ("FVTOCI") comprise of equity securities which are held for an identified long term strategic purpose so the Group does not intend to dispose them in the foreseeable future. Designation of these investments as equity investments at fair value through other comprehensive income can avoid the volatility of the fair value changes of these investments to the profit or loss.

Accounting policies for investments and other financial assets

Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following measurement categories:

- those to be measured subsequently at fair value (either through other comprehensive income (“OCI”) or through profit or loss), and
- those to be measured at amortised cost.

The classification depends on the entity’s business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual terms of the cash flows.

For assets measured at fair value, gains and losses will either be recorded in profit or loss or OCI. For investments in equity instruments that are not held for trading, this will depend on whether the Group has made an irrevocable election at the time of initial recognition to account for the equity investment at fair value through other comprehensive income.

The Group reclassifies equity investments when and only when its business model for managing those assets changes.

(a) Trade receivables

As at 31 December 2025, the Group has pledged certain of its trade receivables with carrying values of approximately RMB256,146,000 (2024: approximately RMB243,022,000) to secure its bank loans and other loans (2024: other loans).

The Group's trade receivables are mainly sales of electricity receivable from the local grid company. Generally, the receivables are due within 30 days from the date of billing, except for the tariff adjustment. The collection of such tariff adjustment is subject to the allocation of funds by the relevant government authorities to the local grid company. The ageing analysis of the trade receivables net of provision for loss allowance based on invoice date is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Unbilled (Note)	198,631	195,845

More than three months but within one year	1,000	2,111
More than one year	6,850	1,203
	263,995	256,654

Note: The amount represents the tariff adjustment receivables for the wind power plants operated by the Group.

The ageing analysis of the trade receivables net of provision for loss allowance based on revenue recognition date is as follows:

	2025 RMB'000	2024 RMB'000
Within three months	86,727	92,388
More than three months but within one year	66,267	63,749
More than one year	111,001	100,517
	263,995	256,654

Impairment losses in respect of trade receivables are recorded using an allowance account unless the Group considered that recovery of the amount is remote, in which case the allowance account is written off against trade receivables directly.

At 31 December 2025, trade receivables of the Group amounting to approximately RMB2,030,000 (2024: approximately RMB2,030,000) were individually determined to be impaired and full provision had been made. These individually impaired receivables were outstanding for over 1 year as at 31 December 2025 and 2024 or related to customers that were in financial difficulties. The Group does not hold any collateral over these balances.

Notes:

- (i) As at 31 December 2025, the balances mainly represented (i) the value-added tax receivables of approximately RMB127,524,000 (2024: approximately RMB62,971,000) mainly arising from the purchase of the property, plant and equipment for the energy storage service project; (ii) certain other receivables of approximately RMB69,590,000 (2024: nil) in relation to the receivables for the refund from certain suppliers of property, plant and equipment, which were subsequently received in March 2026; and (iii) the other receivables of nil (2024: approximately RMB119,258,000) were due from Suzlon Energy (Tianjin) Limited* (蘇司蘭能源(天津)有限公司), which was in financial difficulties and were fully impaired in 2021, and such balances were disposed of in December 2025.
- (ii) As at 31 December 2025 and 2024, the loan receivables from independent third parties were unsecured, interest-bearing at rates ranging from 5%-18% (2024: 5%-18%) per annum and repayable within one year. Loan receivables from independent third parties with aggregate gross amounts of approximately RMB40,863,000 (2024: RMB112,495,000) were guaranteed by business partners of those independent third parties. Loan receivables from independent third parties with aggregate gross amounts of approximately RMB7,250,000 (2024: approximately RMB7,250,000) were guaranteed by a shareholder of the independent third parties. The remaining loan receivables from independent third parties were unguaranteed.
- (iii) As at 31 December 2025, the amount due from a non-controlling interest was unsecured, interest-free and repayable on demand.
- (iv) As at 31 December 2025 and 2024, the Group has pledged certain of its deposits with carrying values of approximately RMB78,120,000 (2024: approximately RMB28,000,000) to secure its other loans (Note 31(e)).
- (v) As at 31 December 2025, the prepayments mainly represented the prepayment for acquisition of property, plant and equipment and investments of approximately RMB103,225,000 (2024: approximately RMB386,636,000).
- (vi) During the year ended 31 December 2025, the Group negotiated with several suppliers on the delivery status of certain prepayments for the acquisition of property, plant and equipment relating to Baotou Wind Farm and the Group recognised aggregated impairment losses of approximately RMB23,851,000 on certain prepayments for the acquisition of property, plant and equipment following a reassessment of their recoverability. This primarily comprises: (i) an impairment of approximately RMB11,496,000 arising from a commercial settlement with a supplier regarding a prepayment of approximately RMB22,118,000, which resulted in the Group receiving equipment and a committed cash repayment totaling approximately RMB10,622,000; and (ii) a full impairment of approximately RMB12,355,000 relating to another prepayment, as management determined the amount was no longer recoverable due to the counterparty's financial difficulties and inability to fulfill the equipment delivery.

28 RESERVES

(a) Share premium

The share premium account is governed by the Companies Law of the Cayman Islands and may be applied by the Company subject to the provisions, if any, of its memorandum and articles of association in paying distributions or dividends to equity shareholders.

No distribution or dividend may be paid to the equity shareholders out of the share premium account unless immediately following the date on which the distribution or dividend is proposed to be paid, the Company will be able to pay its debts as they fall due in the ordinary course of business.

(b) Statutory reserves

As stipulated by the relevant PRC laws and regulations, the PRC subsidiaries shall set aside 10% of their net profit after taxation for the PRC statutory reserves (except where the reserve balance has reached 50% of the paid-up capital of the respective enterprises). The reserve can only be utilised, upon approval by the board of directors of respective enterprises and by relevant authority, to offset accumulated losses or increase registered capital, provide that the balance after transfer to paid-up capital is not less than 25% of its registered capital.

(c) Translation reserve

The exchange reserve comprises all foreign exchange differences arising from the translation of the financial statements of an entity with functional currency other than RMB.

(d) Convertible bonds reserve

The convertible bonds reserve comprises the amount allocated to the unexercised equity component of convertible bonds issued by the Company recognised in accordance with the accounting policy adopted for convertible bonds in Note 31.

(e) Fair value reserve

The fair value reserve (non-recycling) comprises the cumulative net change in the fair value of equity investments designated at FVTOCI under HKFRS 9 that are held at the end of the reporting period.

(f) Share options reserve

The share options reserve comprises the portion of the grant date fair value of unexercised share options granted to directors and employees of the Company that has been recognised in accordance with the accounting policy adopted for share-based payment in Note 10.

29 SHARE-BASED PAYMENT

(a) Share options

A share option scheme (the “Share Option Scheme 2015”) was adopted pursuant to an ordinary resolution passed by the shareholders of the Company on 1 June 2015 and expired during the year ended 31 December 2025. A new share option scheme (the “Share Option Scheme 2025”, together with the Share Option Scheme 2015 referred to as the “Share Option Scheme”) was adopted pursuant to an ordinary resolution passed by the shareholders of the Company on 19 June 2025.

The purpose of the Share Option Scheme is to enable the Group to grant options to selected participant as incentives or rewards for their contributions to the Group. All full time or part time employees, directors, consultants, advisers, substantial shareholders, distributors, contractors, suppliers, agents, customers, business partners or service providers of any member of the Group, to be determined absolutely by the board are eligible to participate in the Share Option Scheme.

The Share Option Scheme will remain in force for a period of 10 years after the date on which Share Option Scheme is adopted.

The total number of shares which may be allotted and issued upon exercise of all options to be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme adopted by the Group must not in aggregate exceed 10% of the shares of the Company in issue at the date of approval of the Share Option Scheme (“General Scheme Limit”). The Company may renew the General Scheme Limit with shareholders’ approval provided that each such renewal may not exceed 10% of the shares in the Company in issue as at the date of the shareholders’ approval.

The maximum number of shares which may be issued upon exercise of all outstanding options granted and yet to be exercised under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme adopted by the Group must not in aggregate exceed 30% of the shares in issue from time to time.

Unless approved by shareholders of the Company, the total number of shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of the share option granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme of the Group (including both exercised or outstanding share option) to each participant in any 12-month period shall not exceed 1% of the issued share capital of the Company for the time being.

Any grant of options under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option scheme adopted by the Group to a director, chief executive or substantial shareholder of the Company or any of their respective associates must be approved by independent non-executive directors (excluding any independent non-executive director who is the grantee of the options). Any share options granted to a substantial shareholder or an independent non-executive director of the Company or to any of their respective associates, in excess of 0.1% of the shares in issue, in any 12-month period, are subject to shareholders’ approval in a general meeting of the Company.

The subscription price of a share under the Share Option Scheme will be a price solely determined by the Board and shall be at least the higher of (i) the closing price of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date of grant of the option; (ii) the average of the closing prices of the shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheets for the 5 business days immediately preceding the date of grant of the option; and (iii) the nominal value of a share on the date of grant of the option. And each option gives the holder the right to subscribe for one share of the Company.

During the year ended 31 December 2025, 4,304,320 share options were lapsed (2024: nil). No share option has been granted under the Share Option Scheme (2024: nil).

As at 31 December 2025 and 2024, nil and 4,304,320 share options were outstanding respectively.

As at the date of this report, the total number of outstanding options available for grant under the Share Option Scheme was 171,471,914 (2024: 39,582,816) shares, which represented approximately 10.0% (2024: approximately 2.3%) of the shares of the Company in issue.

During the year ended 31 December 2024, the gross proceeds from exercising 52,353,920 share options were approximately HK$28,585,000 (equivalent to approximately RMB25,848,000), of which the partial proceeds of approximately HK$1,737,000 (equivalent to approximately RMB1,579,000) were settled by the equivalent amount of the interest payable in respect of 2022 Convertible Bonds due to Filled Converge, which is controlled and beneficially owned by Mr. Zhang, who exercised the share options during the year ended 31 December 2024.

(a) Share options (continued)

The variables and assumptions used in computing the fair value of the share options are based on Management's best estimate. The value of an option varies with different variables of a number of subjective assumptions. Any change in the variables so adopted may materially affect the estimation of the fair value of an option. The significant assumptions used in the binomial model to derive the fair value at the date of grant conducted by an independent valuer were as follows:

Date of grant	29 January 2021
Risk free rate	0.231%
Expected volatility	50%
Expected dividend yield	0%
Life of option (year)	4
Closing share price at grant date	HK$0.177
Exercise price per share	HK$0.18
Weighted average fair value per share option	RMB0.057

The expected volatility was calculated based on the historic volatility of share prices of the Company and comparable companies based on publicly available information. Expected dividend yield was based on historic dividends.

During the year 31 December 2025, share-based payment expenses of nil (2024: nil) were recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss in relation to share options.

(b) Bonds (continued)

During the year ended 31 December 2025, a bondholder filed a winding up petition against the Company for the alleged failure of the Company to settle a debt of approximately RMB6,360,000 (equivalent to approximately HKD7,075,000), which was subsequently settled by the Group in December 2025. In January 2026, the winding up petition against the Company has been dismissed.

(c) Notes payables

Interest expenses on the notes payables were calculated using the effective interest method by applying the effective interest rate of approximately 16% per annum.

The balance represented the outstanding interest payables to lenders as at 31 December 2024 and has been fully settled in December 2025. The principal amount of the notes payables has been fully repaid as at 31 December 2025 and 2024.

(d) Convertible bonds

On 28 April 2022, the Company issued the convertible bonds in the principal amount of HK$356,375,000 (the “2022 Convertible Bonds”) to Filled Converge, which would be used for the settlement of outstanding principal amount and interest payable by the Company to Filled Converge under the 2019 Convertible Bonds. The 2022 Convertible Bonds are due in April of 2025 and at an interest rate of 10% per annum, with the conversion rights to convert the outstanding principal amount of the 2022 Convertible Bonds into the shares at an initial conversion price of HK$0.180 per conversion share (subsequently adjusted to HK$0.721 per conversion share following the share consolidation and then rights issue during the year ended 31 December 2023).

The Company may demand early redemption of any amount of the outstanding principal amounts of the 2022 Convertible Bonds at any time from the issue date but not less than fourteen business days prior to the maturity date, having given not less than ten days’ notice (the “Issuer Redemption Notice”) to the bondholder. Early redemption of the 2022 Convertible Bonds will be made at (i) the principal amount of the redeemed 2022 Convertible Bonds plus any accrued and unpaid interest up to and including the date of Issuer Redemption Notice; and (ii) an amount equal to a gross yield to maturity of 15% per annum (calculated on the principal amount of the redeemed 2022 Convertible Bonds for the period from the issue date up to and including the date of redemption) minus all interest paid thereon on or prior to the date of the Issuer Redemption Notice.

Convertible bondholder (“Convertible Bondholder”) has the right on any business day during the conversion period to convert in whole or in part the outstanding principal amount of the 2022 Convertible Bonds in whole or in integral multiples of HK$1,000 into conversion shares at an initial conversion price of HK$0.180 per conversion share (subsequently adjusted to HK$0.721 per conversion share following the share consolidation and then rights issue during the year ended 31 December 2023) (subject to adjustments).

On initial recognition on 28 April 2022, the fair value of the equity component and liability component (determined using the prevailing market interest rate of similar non-convertible debts) of 2022 Convertible Bonds as a whole has been ascertained by an independent valuer, CNK International Asset Valuation Limited.

Interest expenses on the 2022 Convertible Bonds were calculated using the effective interest method by applying the effective interest rate of approximately 19.4% per annum to the respective liability component.

Pursuant to the 2022 Convertible Bonds subscription agreement, if the 2022 Convertible Bonds are not redeemed on the maturity date, the conversion rights attached to the 2022 Convertible Bonds will revive or will continue to be exercisable up to, and including, the close of business on the date upon which the full amount of the moneys payable in respect of the 2022 Convertible Bonds have been duly and irrevocably received by the Convertible Bondholder and, notwithstanding that the full amount of moneys payable in respect of such 2022 Convertible Bonds shall have been received by the Convertible Bondholder before such conversion date or that the conversion period may have expired before such conversion date.

The 2022 Convertible Bonds were due in April 2025. In March 2026, Filled Converge has agreed not to demand for repayment of the 2022 Convertible Bonds including principal and interest of approximately RMB456,000,000 (equivalent to approximately HK$507,230,000) as at 31 December 2025 and the upcoming interest payments until June 2027. Pursuant to the 2022 Convertible Bonds subscription agreement, the Company is required to pay Filled Converge a default interest of 20% per annum on default repayment of the 2022 Convertible Bonds.

As at 31 December 2025, the balance of approximately RMB280,000 (2024: approximately RMB280,000) represented the outstanding interest payable to the convertible bond holder. The principal of such convertible bond has been fully converted in 2023.

The movement of liability and equity component of the 2022 Convertible Bonds for the years is set out as below:

Accounting policies of compound financial instruments

Compound financial instruments issued by the Company comprise convertible bonds that can be converted to share capital at the option of the holder, where the number of shares that would be issued on conversion and the value of the consideration that would be received at that time do not vary, are accounted for as compound financial instruments which contain both a liability component and an equity component.

The liability component of a compound financial instrument is recognised initially at the fair value of a similar liability that does not have an equity conversion option. The equity component is recognised initially at the difference between the fair value of the compound financial instrument as a whole and the fair value of the liability component, which is included in shareholders' equity in convertible bonds reserves. Subsequent to initial recognition, the liability component of a compound financial instrument is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

The equity component of a compound financial instrument is not re-measured subsequent to initial recognition except on conversion or expiry.

If the compound financial instrument is converted, the compound financial instrument reserve, together with the carrying amount of the liability component at the time of conversion, is transferred to share capital and share premium as consideration for the shares issued. If the compound financial instrument is redeemed, the compound financial instrument reserve is released directly to accumulated losses.

When the compound financial instrument is extinguished before maturity through an redemption or repurchase where the original conversion privileges are unchanged, the consideration paid and any transaction costs for the redemption or repurchase are allocated to the liability component and equity component using the same allocation basis as when the compound financial instrument was originally issued. Once the allocation of consideration and transaction costs is made, any resulting gain or loss relating to the liability component is recognised in profit or loss and the amount of consideration relating to equity component is recognised in equity.

Embedded derivatives

Derivatives embedded in hybrid contracts that contain financial asset hosts within the scope of HKFRS 9 are not separated. The entire hybrid contract is classified and subsequently measured in its entirety as either amortised cost or fair value as appropriate. Derivatives embedded in non-derivative host contracts that are not financial assets within the scope of HKFRS 9 are treated as separate derivatives when they meet the definition of a derivative, their risks and characteristics are not closely related to those of the host contracts and the host contracts are not measured at FVTPL.

(b) Deemed acquisition of additional interests in a subsidiary

In May 2024, the non-controlling interests of a non-wholly owned subsidiary, Hebei Ruifeng Energy Technology Co., Ltd.* (河北瑞風能源科技有限公司) (“Hebei Ruifeng”), surrendered its registered share capital in Hebei Ruifeng with no consideration. The non-controlling interests has not yet paid up any share capital. Accordingly, the shareholding in Hebei Ruifeng controlled by a non-wholly owned subsidiary of the Group has increased from 70% to 100%. The Group’s effective ownership interests in Hebei Ruifeng increased from 49.68% to 70.97% and it is without change of control. The loss on such deemed acquisition of additional interests in a subsidiary debited to accumulated losses of approximately RMB209,000.

(c) Acquisition of additional interests in subsidiaries

In November 2024, the Group completed the acquisition of additional interests of Beijing Hongsong Venture Capital Technology Development Co., Ltd.* (北京紅松創投科技發展有限公司) (“Hongsong Venture”) and Hebei Ruifeng, indirect non-wholly owned subsidiaries of the Group, from the non-controlling interests, for a cash consideration of approximately RMB2,032,000. After the acquisition, the Group’s effective ownership interest in Hongsong Venture and Hebei Ruifeng both increased from 70.97% to 100% and it is without change of control. The loss on such acquisition of additional interests in subsidiaries debited to accumulated losses of approximately RMB3,000,000.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

39 SUMMARY OF OTHER POTENTIALLY MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

39.1 Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are all entities (including structured entities) over which the Group has control. The Group controls an entity when the Group is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns from its involvement with the entity and has the ability to affect those returns through its power to direct the activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group. They are deconsolidated from the date that control ceases.

Inter-company transactions, balances and unrealised gains on transactions between group companies are eliminated. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the transferred asset. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

Non-controlling interests in the results and equity of subsidiaries are shown separately in the consolidated statement of profit or loss, statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of financial position respectively.

The Group treats transactions with non-controlling interests that do not result in a loss of control as transactions with equity owners of the Company. A change in ownership interest results in an adjustment between the carrying amounts of the controlling and non-controlling interests to reflect their relative interests in the subsidiaries. Any difference between the amount of the adjustment to non-controlling interests and any consideration paid or received is recognised in a separate reserve within equity attributable to owners of the Company.

When the Group ceases to consolidate or equity account for an investment because of a loss of control, joint control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value with the change in carrying amount recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss. This fair value becomes the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are accounted for as if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities. This may mean that amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss or transferred to another category of equity as specified/permitted by applicable HKFRSs.

39.2 Business combination

The Group applies the acquisition method to account for business combinations. The consideration transferred for the acquisition of a subsidiary comprises the:

- fair values of the assets transferred,
- liabilities incurred to the former owners of the acquired entity,
- equity interests issued by the Group,
- fair value of any asset or liability resulting from a contingent consideration arrangement, and
- fair value of any pre-existing equity interest in the subsidiary.

Identifiable assets acquired and liabilities and contingent liabilities assumed in a business combination are measured initially at their fair values at the acquisition date. The Group recognises any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity on an acquisition-by-acquisition basis either at fair value or at the non-controlling interest's proportionate share of the acquired entity's net identifiable assets.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred.

The excess of the:

- consideration transferred,
- amount of any non-controlling interest in the acquired entity, and
- acquisition-date fair value of any previous equity interest in the acquired entity

over the fair value of the net identifiable assets acquired is recorded as goodwill. If those amounts are less than the fair value of the net identifiable assets of the business acquired, the difference is recognised directly in the consolidated statement of profit or loss as a bargain purchase.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Where settlement of any part of cash consideration is deferred, the amounts payable in the future are discounted to their present value as at the date of exchange. The discount rate used is the entity's incremental borrowing rate, being the rate at which a similar borrowing could be obtained from an independent financier under comparable terms and conditions. Contingent consideration is classified either as equity or financial liability. Amounts classified as a financial liability are subsequently remeasured to fair value with changes in fair value recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

If the business combination is achieved in stages, the acquisition date carrying value of the acquirer's previously held equity interest in the acquiree is remeasured to fair value at the acquisition date. Any gains or losses arising from such remeasurement are recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

39.3 Separate financial statements

Investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiaries in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investments in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated financial statements of the investee's net assets including goodwill.

39.4 Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision-maker (the "CODM"). The CODM, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Board of Directors, who makes strategic decisions.

39.5 Foreign currency translation

(i) Functional and presentation currency

Items included in the financial statements of each of the Group's entities are measured using the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (the "functional currency"). The consolidated financial statements are presented in Renminbi ("RMB"), which is the presentation currency of the Group. The functional currency of the Company is Hong Kong dollars ("HK$").

(ii) Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies at year end exchange rates are recognised in profit or loss.

Foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the consolidated statement of profit or loss on a net basis within "other gains, net".

Non-monetary items that are measured at fair value in a foreign currency are translated using the exchange rates at the date when the fair value was determined. Translation differences on assets and liabilities carried at fair value are reported as part of the fair value gain or loss.

(iii) Group companies

The results and financial position of foreign operations (none of which has the currency of a hyperinflationary economy) that have a functional currency different from the presentation currency are translated into the presentation currency as follows:

- assets and liabilities for each statement of financial position presented are translated at the closing rate at the date of that statement of financial position,
- income and expenses for each statement of profit or loss and statement of comprehensive income are translated at average exchange rates (unless this is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the dates of the transactions), and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised in other comprehensive income.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(iii) Group companies (continued)

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of any net investment in foreign entities, and of borrowings and other financial instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are recognised in other comprehensive income. When a foreign operation is sold or any borrowings forming part of the net investment are repaid, the associated exchange differences are reclassified to profit or loss, as part of the gain or loss on sale.

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign operation are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign operation and translated at the closing rate.

39.6 Property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are stated at historical cost less depreciation and impairment losses. Historical cost includes expenditure that is directly attributable to the acquisition of the items.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognised as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of any component accounted for as a separate asset is derecognised when replaced. All other repairs and maintenance are charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss during the financial period in which they are incurred.

Construction in progress represents property, plant and equipment under construction and pending installation and is stated at cost less accumulated impairment losses, if any. Cost includes the costs of construction of buildings and the costs of plant and machinery. No provision for depreciation is made on construction in progress until such time as the relevant assets are completed and are available for the intended use. When the assets concerned are brought into use, the costs are transferred to other property, plant and equipment and depreciated in accordance with the policy as stated above.

The assets' residual values and useful lives are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at the end of each reporting period.

An asset's carrying amount is written down immediately to its recoverable amount if the asset's carrying amount is greater than its estimated recoverable amount in accordance with the policy described in Note 39.9.

Gains and losses on disposal are determined by comparing the proceeds with the carrying amount and are recognised within "other gains, net" in the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

39.7 Inventories

Finished goods are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost comprises direct materials, direct labour and an appropriate proportion of variable and fixed overhead expenditure, the latter being allocated on the basis of normal operating capacity. Cost includes the reclassification from equity of any gains or losses on qualifying cash flow hedges relating to purchases of raw material but excludes borrowing costs. Costs are assigned to individual items of inventory on the basis of weighted average costs. Costs of purchased inventory are determined after deducting rebates and discounts. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs of completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

39.8 Equity accounting

(i) Equity method

Under the equity method of accounting, the investments are initially recognised at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the post-acquisition profits or losses of the investee in profit or loss, and the Group's share of movements in other comprehensive income of the investee in other comprehensive income. Dividends received or receivable from associates and joint ventures are recognised as a reduction in the carrying amount of the investment.

Where the Group's share of losses in an equity-accounted investment equals or exceeds its interest in the entity, including any other unsecured long-term receivables, the Group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the other entity.

Unrealised gains on transactions between the Group and its associates and joint ventures are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in these entities. Unrealised losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of equity-accounted investees have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

The carrying amount of equity-accounted investments is tested for impairment in accordance with the policy described in Note 39.9.

(ii) Changes in ownership interests

If the ownership interest in a joint venture or an associate is reduced but joint control or significant influence is retained, only a proportionate share of the amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income are reclassified to profit or loss where appropriate.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

39 SUMMARY OF OTHER POTENTIALLY MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

39.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Goodwill and intangible assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that they might be impaired. Other assets are tested for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognised for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there is separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at the end of each reporting period.

39.10 Investments and other financial assets

39.10.1 Recognition and derecognition

Regular way purchases and sales of financial assets are recognised on trade-date, the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the financial assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

39.10.2 Measurement

At initial recognition, the Group measures a financial asset at its fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"), transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition of the financial asset. Transaction costs of financial assets carried at FVTPL are expensed in profit or loss.

Equity instruments

The Group subsequently measures all equity investments at fair value. Where the Group's management has elected to present fair value gains and losses on equity investments in other comprehensive income, there is no subsequent reclassification of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss following the derecognition of the investment. Dividends from such investments continue to be recognised in profit or loss as other income when the Group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised in "other gains, net" in the consolidated statement of profit or loss as applicable.

39.10 Investments and other financial assets (continued)

Debt instruments

In order for a financial asset to be classified and measured at amortised cost or FVTOCI, it needs to give rise to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest (“SPPI”) on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets with cash flows that are not SPPI are classified and measured at fair value through profit or loss, irrespective of the business model.

Financial assets at amortised cost are subsequently measured using the effective interest method and are subject to impairment. Gains and losses are recognised in the statement of profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

For debt investments at FVTOCI, interest income, foreign exchange revaluation and impairment losses or reversals are recognised in the statement of profit or loss and computed in the same manner as for financial assets measured at amortised cost. The remaining fair value changes are recognised in OCI. Upon derecognition, the cumulative fair value change recognised in OCI is recycled to the statement of profit or loss.

A derivative embedded within a hybrid contract containing a financial asset host is not accounted for separately. The financial asset host together with the embedded derivative is required to be classified in its entirety as a financial asset at fair value through profit or loss. Changes in the fair value of financial assets at FVTPL are recognised in “other gains, net” in the consolidated statement of profit or loss as applicable.

39.10.3 Impairment

The Group assesses on a forward-looking basis the expected credit losses (the “ECL”) associated with its debt instruments carried at amortised cost. The impairment methodology applied depends on whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk.

For trade receivables, the Group applies the simplified approach permitted by HKFRS 9, which requires expected lifetime losses to be recognised from initial recognition of the receivables.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

39 SUMMARY OF OTHER POTENTIALLY MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

39.11 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognised amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group or the counterparty.

39.12 Trade and other receivables

Trade receivables are amounts due from customers for services performed in the ordinary course of business. If collection of trade receivables is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets.

Trade and other receivables are recognised initially at fair values and subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

39.13 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with financial institutions, with original maturities of three months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

39.14 Share capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issuance of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

39.15 Trade and other payables

Trade payables are obligations to pay for goods or services that have been acquired in the ordinary course of business from suppliers. Trade and other payables are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business, if longer). If not, they are presented as non-current liabilities.

Trade and other payables are initially recognised at fair value, and subsequently carried at amortised cost using the effective interest method.

39.16 Provisions

Provisions for legal claims, service warranties and make good obligations are recognised when the Group has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation and the amount can be reliably estimated. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

Where there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognised even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Provisions are measured at the present value of management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period. The discount rate used to determine the present value is a pre-tax rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the liability. The increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as interest expense.

39.17 Borrowings

Borrowings are initially recognised at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption amount is recognised in profit or loss over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the draw-down occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a prepayment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The fair value of the liability portion of a convertible bond is determined using a market interest rate for an equivalent non-convertible bond. This amount is recorded as a liability on an amortised cost basis until extinguished on conversion or maturity of the bonds. The remainder of the proceeds is allocated to the conversion option. This is recognised and included in shareholders' equity, net of income tax effects.

Borrowings are removed from the statement of financial position when the obligation specified in the contract is discharged, cancelled or expired. The difference between the carrying amount of a financial liability that has been extinguished or transferred to another party and the consideration paid, including any non-cash assets transferred or liabilities assumed, is recognised in profit or loss as finance costs.

Where the terms of a financial liability are renegotiated and the entity issues equity instruments to a creditor to extinguish all or part of the liability (debt for equity swap), a gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss, which is measured as the difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability and the fair value of the equity instruments issued.

Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period.

39.18 Borrowing costs

General and specific borrowing costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset are capitalised during the period of time that is required to complete and prepare the asset for its intended use or sale. Qualifying assets are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale.

Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

Other borrowing costs are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

39.19 Other income

Interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method, on a time-proportion basis.

Rental income from operating leases

Rental income receivable under operating leases is recognised in consolidated statement of profit or loss in equal instalments over the periods covered by the lease term, except where an alternative basis is more representative of the pattern of benefits to be derived from the use of the leased asset. Lease incentives granted are recognised in profit or loss as an integral part of the aggregate net lease payments receivable. Contingent rentals are recognised as income in the accounting period in which they are earned.

39.20 Earnings per share

(i) Basic earnings per share

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing the profit attributable to owners of the Company, excluding any costs of servicing equity other than ordinary shares by the weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding during the financial year, adjusted for bonus elements in ordinary shares issued during the year and excluding treasury shares.

(ii) Diluted earnings per share

Diluted earnings per share adjusts the figures used in the determination of basic earnings per share to take into account the after-income tax effect of interest and other financing costs associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares, and the weighted average number of additional ordinary shares that would have been outstanding assuming the conversion of all dilutive potential ordinary shares.

NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

39 SUMMARY OF OTHER POTENTIALLY MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

39.21 Leases

Leases are recognised as a right-of-use asset and a corresponding liability at the date at which the leased asset is available for use by the Group.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost comprising the following:

- the amount of the initial measurement of lease liability,
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date less any lease incentives received,
- any initial direct costs, and
- restoration costs

Right-of-use assets are generally depreciated over the shorter of the asset's useful life and the lease term on a straight-line basis. If the Group is reasonably certain to exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset is depreciated over the underlying asset's useful life.

Payments associated with short-term leases and all leases of low-valued assets are recognised on a straight-line basis as an expense in profit or loss. Short-term leases are leases with a lease term of 12 months or less without a purchase option.

39.22 Dividend distribution

Dividend distribution to the shareholders is recognised as a liability in the consolidated financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the entity's shareholders or directors, where appropriate.

Dividend proposed or declared after the reporting period but before the consolidated financial statements are authorised for issue, are disclosed as a non-adjusting event and are not recognised as a liability at the end of the reporting period.

39.23 Government grants

Grants from the government are recognised at their fair value when there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and the Group will comply with all the attached conditions.

Government grants are recognised as “other income” over the period necessary to match them with the related costs which they are intended to compensate, on a systematic basis.

Government grants relating to the purchase of property, plant and equipment are included in non-current liabilities as deferred income and are credited to profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the expected lives of the related assets.

39.24 Value-added tax refund

Value-added tax refund is recognised in “other income” in the consolidated statement of profit or loss when there is a reasonable assurance that the refund will be received which generally occurs upon the receipt of the approval of tax refund from the local tax bureau.
