3.3 Asset Management Business

In the first quarter of 2026, China ensured overall stable performance and steady growth of the economy, solidly promoted high-quality development, continued to emerge innovative highlights in economic transformation, but external geopolitical conflicts brought volatility to the capital market. The Group adhered to the concept of long-term investment and value investment, implemented the “Five Priorities” on finance and its asset-liability matching management requirements, optimized asset allocation across major categories and product investment strategies, and further enhanced the stability of investment returns. In terms of fixed income investment, the Group strengthened its ability to analyze and judge the trend of medium and long-term interest rates, achieved an effective balance between duration and yield, and stabilized the “fundamentals” of asset allocation. In terms of equity investment, the Group actively responded to the requirements for the entry of medium and long-term capital into the market, gave full play to the advantages of insurance funds in terms of patient capital, strengthened the absolute return orientation, optimized the equity position structure, and enhanced the long-term stability of investment performance under the new standards. With the focus of stabilizing debt portfolio, strengthening equity investments, and optimizing physical asset investments, the Group continuously deepened alternative transformation and innovation, and actively seized the investment opportunities of innovative products such as inter-institutional REITs and CMBS to broaden the source of investment income. During the reporting period, the total investment income of the Group amounted to RMB8,931 million; the total investment yield<sup>5</sup> was 0.5%; and the size of investment assets of the Group amounted to RMB1,903,770 million.

4. OTHER REMINDERS

There is no other important information of the Company that needs to be brought to the attention of investors regarding the Company’s operations during the reporting period.

<sup>5</sup> The total investment yield was not annualized, and the denominator for calculating the total investment yield did not take into account the fair value changes of debt investments measured at fair value and whose changes were included in other comprehensive income.
