11. Resolution 11 on the election of Directors shall adopt the cumulative voting system, with no options for “for,” “against,” or “abstain.” According to Article 89 of the Articles of Association, the cumulative voting system means that when Directors are being elected during a shareholders’ meeting, each share shall carry the same number of voting rights as the number of Directors to be elected, and the voting rights held by Shareholders may be used collectively. That is, each valid voting share held by the Shareholders shall represent the same number of votes as the total number of the Directors to be elected at the shareholders’ meeting, and the votes held by a Shareholder are equal to the number of shares he/she holds multiplied by the total number of the Directors to be elected. A Shareholder may vote for one candidate for Directors with all his/her voting rights, or may exercise their voting rights separately and vote for several candidates for Directors. The elected Directors shall be determined based on the final number of votes cast for the Directors. In particular:
- (1) The total number of votes a Shareholder holds for electing non-independent Directors is 3 times of the number of shares they own, where 3 is the number of non-independent Director candidates in the current election. Shareholders may distribute the votes equally among all candidates or allocate them arbitrarily among the aforementioned candidates, provided the total does not exceed 3 times of their shareholding.
 - (2) The total number of votes a Shareholder holds for electing independent non-executive Directors is 3 times of the number of Shares held. The Shareholder may distribute the votes equally among the 3 independent non-executive Director candidates or allocate them arbitrarily among the aforementioned candidates, provided the total not exceeding 3 times of their shareholding.
 - (3) Please note that voting rights could be exercised in a dispersed manner. If you intend to allocate your shareholding equally among all candidates, please mark a “√” in the appropriate space under the “Number of Votes” column in this revised proxy form. Otherwise, please specify the number of voting rights shares allocated to each candidate in the “Number of Votes” column.
 - (4) Please note that if the total number of voting rights you exercise for a particular candidate exceeds the total voting rights you hold under the relevant resolutions, the vote shall be invalid and deemed as a waiver of voting rights. Conversely, if the total number of voting rights you exercise for a particular candidate is less than the total voting rights you hold under the relevant resolution group, the vote shall be valid, and the shortfall shall be deemed as a waiver of voting rights.
12. Please note that if the Shareholders have not yet submitted the original proxy form for the AGM (issued with the notice of the AGM dated 30 April 2026) (the “Original Proxy Form”) to the Company or the H-Share Transfer Registrar of the Company, only this revised proxy form (the “Revised Proxy Form”) needs to be submitted. If you have already submitted the Original Proxy Form to the Company or the H-Share Transfer Registrar of the Company:
- (1) A completed Revised Proxy Form shall be deemed as the valid proxy form submitted by the relevant Shareholder.
 - (2) If the Shareholder fails to submit the Revised Proxy Form, the previously submitted Original Proxy Form (if correctly completed) shall remain valid and applicable within the permitted scope. The voting method for Resolution 11 “Review and Approval of the Election of the Fourth Board of Directors” has been altered, rendering any vote on this resolution invalid and deemed as an abstain of the Shareholder’s voting rights on Resolution 11 of the AGM.
 - (3) If the Revised Proxy Form is submitted to the Company or the H-Share Registrar of the Company after the deadline, it shall be deemed invalid. The previously submitted Original Proxy Form will not be revoked. The Original Proxy Form (if correctly completed) shall remain valid and be applicable within the scope permitted as mentioned above.
