Distribution policy:	The Manager has discretion as to whether or not to make any distribution of dividends, the frequency of distribution and amount of dividends. Distributions on all Units, if any, will be in HKD only. Dividends may be paid out of capital, or out of gross income and all or part of the fees and expenses may be charged to capital at the Manager's discretion, resulting in an increase in distributable income for the payment of dividends and therefore, dividends may be paid effectively out of capital. This may result in an immediate reduction of Net Asset Value per Unit.
Financial year end of this fund:	31 December
Ongoing charges over a year#:	0.08%

As the Sub-Fund (as defined below) is newly set up, this figure is a best estimate only and represents the sum of the estimated ongoing charges over a 12-month period, expressed as a percentage of the estimated average Net Asset Value ("NAV") over the same period. It may be different upon actual operation of the Sub-Fund and may vary from year to year. As the Sub-Fund adopts a single management fee structure, the estimated ongoing charges of the Sub-Fund will be equal to the amount of the single management fee, which is capped at 0.08% of the average NAV of the Sub-Fund until further notice. Any ongoing expenses exceeding 0.08% of the average Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund will be borne by the Manager and will not be charged to the Sub-Fund. For the avoidance of doubt, the single management fee does not include brokerage and transaction costs and swap fees. Please refer to the section headed "Ongoing fees payable by the Sub-Fund" below and the Prospectus for further details.

Estimated annual tracking difference+: Estimated to be -0.20%

+ This is an estimated annual tracking difference. Investors should refer to the ETF website for more up to date information on actual tracking difference.

What is this product?

E Fund (HK) FTSE MPF Hong Kong Equity ETF (the "Sub-Fund") is a sub-fund of E Fund ETFs Trust II, an umbrella unit trust established under Hong Kong law. The Sub-Fund is a passively-managed ETF falling within Chapter 8.6 of the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds issued by the Securities and Futures Commission (the "SFC"). Units of the Sub-Fund (the "Units") are traded on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "SEHK") like stocks.

Objective and Investment Strategy

Objective

The investment objective is to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of the FTSE MPF Hong Kong Index (the "Index").

Strategy

In seeking to achieve the Sub-Fund's investment objective, the Manager will either use a full replication strategy or a representative sampling strategy as the Manager believes to be appropriate in order to achieve the investment objective of the Sub-Fund by tracking the Index as closely as possible to the benefit of the investors. The Sub-Fund may switch between the full replication strategy and the representative sampling strategy in its absolute discretion without prior notice to investors.

In pursuing the full replication strategy, the Sub-Fund will invest in substantially all securities constituting the Index (the "Index Securities") in substantially the same weightings (i.e. proportions) as these Index Securities have in the Index.

In pursuing the representative sampling strategy, the Manager may:

- (i) invest in a representative sample whose performance is closely correlated with the Index, but whose constituents may or may not themselves be constituents of the Index;
- (ii) invest up to 10% of the Sub-Fund's NAV in collective investment schemes ("CIS"), each being either an exchange traded fund or an unlisted index tracking fund which tracks an index that has a high correlation with the Index. Such CIS may be authorised by the SFC, eligible schemes under Chapter 7.11A of the Code, or non-eligible schemes. For the avoidance of doubt, the Sub-Fund's aggregate investment in non-eligible schemes and not authorised by the SFC may not exceed 10% of the NAV of the Sub-Fund; and/or
- (iii) invest up to 10% of the Sub-Fund's NAV in financial derivative instruments including futures and swaps for investment and hedging purposes, where the Manager believes such investments will help the Sub-Fund achieve its investment objective and are beneficial to the Sub-Fund.

In pursuing a representative sampling strategy, the Manager may cause the Sub-Fund to deviate from the Index weighting on condition that the maximum deviation from the Index weighting of any constituent will not exceed 3% or such other percentage as determined by the Manager after consultation with the SFC.

Other investments

The Sub-Fund may invest in money market funds (subject to the investment restrictions as set out in Chapter 7 of the Code), and in cash deposits and cash equivalents for cash management purposes, up to 5% of its NAV.

The Manager may, on behalf of the Sub-Fund, enter into securities lending transactions, with the maximum level for up to 50% and expected level for approximately 20% of its NAV, and is able to recall the securities lent out at any time. As part of the securities lending transactions, the Sub-Fund must receive cash and/or non-cash collateral of at least 100% of the value of the securities lent (interests, dividends and other eventual rights included). The collateral will be marked-to-market on a daily basis and be safekept by the Custodian.

The Manager does not currently intend to enter into sale and repurchase transactions, reverse repurchase transactions and other similar over-the-counter transactions on behalf of the Sub-Fund. The Manager will seek prior approval of the SFC (to the extent required under applicable regulatory requirements) and provide at least one month's prior notice to Unitholders before the Manager engages in any such transactions.

The investment strategy of the Sub-Fund is subject to the investment and borrowing restrictions set out in the Prospectus.

Index

The Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalisation weighted index which consists of the Hong Kong listed HSBC Holdings, as well as eligible large cap and mid cap Hong Kong companies and Hong Kong listed Chinese companies (H shares, red chips and P chips) in the FTSE MPF All-World Index. Such Hong Kong companies and Hong Kong listed Chinese companies should be listed on the stock exchanges approved by the Mandatory Provident Fund Schemes Authority in Hong Kong (the "MPFA"), which include The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and other stock exchanges established outside Hong Kong as approved by the MPFA.

Each security of the Index must be a current constituent of the FTSE All-World Index¹ (with exception of the Hong Kong listed HSBC Holdings in the Index). In order to be included in the FTSE All-World Index, eligible securities are required to pass the screens including minimum voting rights, investability weightings screen such as free float and minimum foreign headroom requirements, and liquidity screen. Each security of the Index is further screened by MPFA eligibility requirements, including that securities admitted to trading and listing on stock exchanges that are not approved by the MPFA will be excluded from the calculation, in order to derive the FTSE MPF All-World Index. The Index is then constructed by including the following securities subject to the eligibility criteria mentioned above: HSBC Holdings (the Hong Kong-listed line), Hong Kong companies and Hong Kong listed Chinese companies (H shares, red chips and P chips).

The Index is a net total return index, which means that it reflects the reinvestment of dividends or distributions, after deduction of any withholding tax. The Index is denominated and quoted in HKD. The Index was launched on 1 January 2005 and had a base level of 5000 on 30 November 2000. As of 29 May 2026, the Index had total market capitalisation of HKD36, 902 billion and 341 constituents

The Index is compiled and managed by FTSE Russell (the "Index Provider"). The Manager (and each of its Connected Persons) are independent of the Index Provider.

The list of constituent securities of the Index with their respective weightings are available on the website of the Index Provider <https://www.lseg.com/en/ftse-russell/index-resources/constituent-weights> (this website has not been reviewed by the SFC). The last closing index level, index methodology and the additional information of the Index can be found on <https://www.lseg.com/en/ftse-russell/indices/mpf> (this website has not been reviewed by the SFC).

Real-time updates of the Index can be obtained through information vendors Bloomberg and Reuters under the following identifiers:

Bloomberg: TFMPFHH

Reuters: .FTGPMPF028HKDT

¹ The FTSE All-World Index is a market-capitalisation weighted index representing the performance of the large and mid-cap stocks from the FTSE Global Equity Index Series (GEIS). It targets 90% coverage of the 8 regions used to construct the GEIS universe, including Asia Pacific ex China ex Japan, China, Developed Europe, Emerging Europe, Japan, Latin America, Middle East and Africa and North America.

Use of derivatives / investment in derivatives

The Sub-Fund's net derivative exposure may be up to 50% of the Sub-Fund's NAV.

What are the key risks?

Investment involves risks. Please refer to the Prospectus for details including the risk factors.

1. Investment risk

- Investment in the Sub-Fund is subject to normal market fluctuations and other risks inherent in the Sub-Fund's assets. Accordingly, there is a risk that you may not recoup the original amount invested in the Sub-Fund or may lose a substantial part or all of your investment. There is no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.

2. Equity market risk

- The Sub-Fund's investment in equity securities is subject to general market risks, whose value may fluctuate due to various factors, such as changes in investment sentiment, political and economic conditions and issuer-specific factors.

3. Geographical concentration risk

- The constituents of the Index, and accordingly the Sub-Fund's investments, may be concentrated in Hong Kong. The value of the Sub-Fund may be more volatile than that of a fund having a more diverse portfolio of investments and may be more susceptible to adverse economic, political, policy, foreign exchange, liquidity, tax, legal or regulatory event affecting the Hong Kong market.

4. Hong Kong listed Chinese companies risks

- In tracking the Index, the Sub-Fund will invest in H shares, red chips or P chips issued by Hong Kong listed Chinese companies and have substantial business operations in mainland China. Investing in such securities is subject to the risks of investing in emerging markets generally. This may involve increased risks and special considerations not typically associated with investment in companies based in more developed markets, such as liquidity risks, currency risks/control, political and economic uncertainties, legal and taxation risks, settlement risks, custody risk and the likelihood of a high degree of volatility.
- The promulgation of new tax laws, regulations and practice affecting Hong Kong listed Chinese companies may operate to the advantage or disadvantage of the Unitholders. There is a possibility that the current tax laws, regulations and practice applicable to Hong Kong listed Chinese companies will be changed with retrospective effect in the future.

5. Risk associated with mid-capitalisation companies

- The Sub-Fund invests in large to mid-capitalization companies. The stocks of mid-capitalization companies may have lower liquidity and their prices are typically more volatile to adverse business or economic developments than those of larger capitalization companies.

6. Securities lending transactions risk

- Securities lending transactions may involve the risk that the borrower may fail to return the securities lent out in a timely manner and the value of the collateral may fall below the value of the securities lent out.

7. Passive investments risk

- The Sub-Fund is passively managed and the Manager will not have the discretion to adapt to market changes due to the inherent investment nature of the Sub-Fund. Falls in the Index are expected to result in corresponding falls in the value of the Sub-Fund.

8. Trading risk

- The trading price of the Units on the SEHK is driven by market factors such as the demand and supply of the Units. Therefore, the Units may trade at a substantial premium or discount to the Sub-Fund's NAV.

- As investors will pay certain charges (e.g. trading fees and brokerage fees) to buy or sell Units on the SEHK, investors may pay more than the NAV per Unit when buying Units on the SEHK, and may receive less than the NAV per Unit when selling Units on the SEHK.

9. Tracking error risk

- The Sub-Fund may be subject to tracking error risk, which is the risk that its performance may not track that of the Index exactly. This tracking error may result from the investment strategy used (because the Manager has no other strategy to minimise tracking error and representative sampling may not provide identical performance, the Net Asset Value of the Sub-Fund may not correlate exactly with the Index), costs of using FDIs, and fees and expenses. The Manager will monitor and seek to manage such risk in minimising tracking error. There can be no assurance of exact or identical replication at any time of the performance of the Index.

10. Distribution out of/effectively out of capital risk

- Payment of dividends out of capital and/or effectively out of capital amounts to a return or withdrawal of part of an investor's original investment or from any capital gains attributable to such original investments. Any such distributions may result in an immediate reduction of the NAV per Unit of the Sub-Fund. This may also reduce the capital that the Sub-Fund has available for investment in future and may constrain capital growth.

11. Reliance on market maker risk

- Although the Manager will ensure that at least one market maker will maintain a market for the Units, it should be noted that liquidity in the market for the Units may be adversely affected if there is no market maker for the Units. The Manager will seek to mitigate this risk by ensuring at least one market maker gives not less than 3 months' notice prior to terminating market making arrangement under the relevant market making agreements.
- It is possible that there will only be one SEHK market maker or the Manager may not be able to engage a substitute market maker within the termination notice period of a market maker. There is also no guarantee that any market making activity will be effective.

12. Termination risk

- The Sub-Fund may be terminated early under certain circumstances, for example, where the Index is no longer available for benchmarking or if the size of the Sub-Fund falls below HKD100,000,000 (or its equivalent in the Sub-Fund's base currency). Investors should refer to the section "Termination" in the Prospectus for further details. Investors may not be able to recover their investments and may suffer a loss when the Sub-Fund is terminated.

How has the Sub-Fund performed?

Since the Sub-Fund is newly set up, there is insufficient data to provide a useful indication of past performance to investors.

Is there any guarantee?

The Sub-Fund does not have any guarantees. You may not get back the full amount of money you invest.

What are the fees and charges?
