VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is made by China Renaissance Holdings Limited (the "Company", together with its subsidiaries, the "Group") on a voluntary basis.

The Company is pleased to announce that CRP-Fanya Investment Consultants (Beijing) Limited ("CRP-Fanya"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acting as the exclusive financial adviser of this transaction, has successfully advised Beijing SiliconFlow Technology Co., Ltd.* ("SiliconFlow"), a leading AI infrastructure and MaaS (Model-as-a-Service) platform company in China, on its latest round of Series B financing.

This round of financing received support from multiple types of investors, including industrial capital, top-tier financial investment institutions, well-known state-owned investors and strategic investors. Through this round of financing, SiliconFlow has secured support from investors across the AI industry chain, including energy, chips, computing infrastructure, cloud services, large models and scenario-based applications. The proceeds from this round of financing will continue to be used for R&D investment in the token supply platform, consolidating SiliconFlow's pivotal position in the industry chain and accelerating its globalization process, while empowering global developers and enterprise customers with full-stack system optimization capabilities.

SiliconFlow is an AI infrastructure company focused on the scalable and efficient delivery of inference tokens to developers and enterprise customers. The Company transforms heterogeneous computing resources across diverse environments into standardized inference tokens, enabling seamless access to and deployment of AI capabilities across a broad range of state-of-the-art models with industry-leading performance-to-cost efficiency. SiliconFlow's offerings span from public cloud Model-as-a Service and on-premise deployment solutions, servicing enterprise customers across a wide range of sectors.

This engagement of CRP-Fanya as the exclusive financial adviser underscores the Group's strong capabilities in financial advisory services in the AI infrastructure and technology sectors, as well as its extensive client base across the upstream and downstream AI industry chain. It also reflects the Group's continued commitment and credibility in supporting innovative enterprises in achieving their strategic and financial objectives. The Group is honored to have assisted SiliconFlow in completing this round of financing and firmly believes in its long-term development potential in AI infrastructure and the global Token supply platform sector.
