8. for shareholders who hold different opinion with regard to the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders on merger or division of the Company, to request the Company to acquire their shares; and
9. Other rights conferred by the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association.

If a shareholder requests to access the above-mentioned information or request materials, they shall provide the Company with written documents proving the kind and quantity of shares he/she holds in the Company. After verifying his/her identity, the Company shall provide him/her with the requested information or materials.

Shareholders and their appointed accounting firms, law firms, and other intermediary organizations that access and copy the relevant materials mentioned in the preceding article shall comply with the provisions of laws and administrative regulations on the protection of state secrets, trade secrets, personal privacy, personal information, insider information, etc.

Article 35 If the details of a resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors of the Company violate the laws or administrative regulations, shareholders shall be entitled to petition the court to invalidate the resolution.

If the convening procedure or the voting method of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors violates the laws, the administrative regulations or this Articles of Association, or the details of a resolution are against the Articles of Association, the shareholders shall have the right to petition the court to revoke such resolution within 60 days from the date on which the resolution is adopted, save where the convening procedures or voting methods for general meetings and board meetings only have minor defects and do not have substantial impact on the resolution.

In case of any dispute in the validity of the resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting among relevant parties such as the Board of Directors and shareholders, a lawsuit shall be filed with the people's court in a timely manner. Prior to the people's court entering a judgment or ruling such as revoking the resolution, the relevant parties shall comply with the resolutions of the Shareholders' Meeting. The Company, its directors and senior management shall earnestly perform their duties to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

Article 36 If a director and senior management other than members of the Audit Committee, violates the laws, the regulations and this Articles of Association when performing his or her Company duties, thereby causing losses to the Company, shareholder who independently has held or shareholders who collectively have held more than 1% of the Company's shares shall have the right to request in writing that the Audit Committee institute a legal action in the court; and if the Audit Committee violates the laws, the regulations and this Articles of Association when performing its duties, thereby causing losses to the Company, the shareholders shall have the right to request in writing that the Board of Directors institute a legal action in the court. If the Board of Directors or the Audit Committee refuses to institute a legal action after receipt of the written request from the shareholders as mentioned in the preceding paragraph, or fails to do the same within 30 days after receipt of the request, or if the circumstances are urgent and failure to promptly institute a legal action would cause any irreparable prejudice to the Company's interest, the shareholders specified under the preceding paragraph shall, in the interests of the Company, have the right to directly institute a legal action in the court in their own names.

If a third party infringes the legal rights and interests of the Company, thereby causing the Company to suffer losses, the shareholder specified under the first paragraph of this article may institute a legal action in the court according to the provisions under the preceding two paragraphs.

If directors, supervisors, and senior management of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries violate laws, administrative regulations, or the provisions of the Articles of Association during the carrying out of their duties causing losses to the wholly-owned subsidiaries; or a third party infringes upon the legitimate rights and interests of the Company's wholly-owned subsidiaries causing losses, shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 1% of the Company's shares for more than 180 consecutive days may make a written request to the board of supervisors or the board of directors of such wholly-owned subsidiaries to file a lawsuit with the People's Court in accordance with the provisions of the preceding three paragraphs or directly file a lawsuit with the People's Court in their own names.

Article 37 If directors and senior management violate the laws, the regulations or this Articles of Association, thereby harming the interests of shareholders, such shareholders may initiate a legal action in the court. If the directors and senior management, during the carrying out of their duties, cause prejudices to others, the Company shall bear liability for compensation; If a director or senior management acts intentionally or with gross negligence, he or she shall also bear liability for compensation. The controlling shareholders or the actual controllers of the Company who instruct the directors and the senior management to engage in conduct that prejudice the interests of the Company or the shareholders shall bear joint and several liability with the director and the senior management.

Article 38 Shareholders of the Company undertake the following obligations:

1. to comply with the laws, the administrative regulations and this Articles of Association;
2. to pay the subscription moneys according to the shares subscribed by them and the subscription method;
3. to bear the Company's liability to the extent of the shares subscribed;
4. not to withdraw from holding shares unless otherwise specified by the laws and regulations;
5. not to abuse their shareholders' rights to prejudice the interests of the Company or other shareholders; not to abuse the Company's independent legal person status or the shareholders' limited liability to impair the interests of the Company's creditors;

If a shareholder abuses his or her shareholder's right, thereby causing the Company or other shareholders to suffer a loss, he or she shall be held liable for damages in accordance with the law.

If a shareholder abuses the Company's independent legal person status or shareholders' limited liability to evade a debt, thereby materially prejudicing the interests of a creditor of the Company, he or she shall bear the joint and several liability for the debt of the Company.

6. Other obligations that shall imposed by the laws, administrative regulations and this Articles of Association.

Shareholders shall not bear any liability for any additional contributions to share capital, except for the conditions agreed upon by the subscribers for the shares at the time of subscription.

Article 39 Shareholders who hold more than 5% of the voting shares of the Company and pledge their shares shall make a written report to the Company on the day of such fact.

Article 40 The controlling shareholder, actual controller, directors and senior management of the Company shall not take advantage of their related party relationships to prejudice the interests of the Company. They shall be held liable for damages if, as a result of violate this provision, they cause the Company to suffer a loss.

The controlling shareholder and actual controller of the Company bear a fiduciary duty toward the Company and the social public shareholders. The controlling shareholder shall exercise its rights as an investor in strict compliance with the laws. It shall not use such means as a profit distribution, asset restructuring, external investment, fund appropriation, loan guarantee, etc. or use its controlling position to prejudice the interests of the Company and social public shareholders.

Article 41 The controlling shareholder refers to a shareholder whose shares account for more than 50% of the total share capital of the Company; or shareholders whose shares account for less than 50% of the total share capital of the Company but have sufficient voting rights based on their holdings to have a significant impact on the resolutions of the general meeting. If the listing rules in the place where the Company's shares are listed have other provisions on the shares held by the controlling shareholder, such provisions shall prevail.

4. provide legal opinions on other related issues upon the request of the Company.

Article 49 Upon the approval of more than half of all independent directors, the independent directors have the right to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. In relation to the independent directors' proposal to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall provide written response indicating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association. If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors will issue the advice to convene the general meeting within 5 days after making the board resolution; if the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors will explain the reasons and make an announcement.

Article 50 The Audit Committee is entitled to propose to the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing. The Board of Directors shall provide written response indicating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the proposal in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors will issue the advice to convene the general meeting within 5 days after the Board of Directors' resolution is made, and any change to the original proposal in the advice must be approved by the Audit Committee.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or fails to provide response within 10 days after receiving the proposal, the Board of Directors will be deemed to be unable to perform or have failed to perform the duty to convene a general meeting, and the Audit Committee may convene and preside over the general meeting on its own.

Article 51 Shareholders individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the Company's shares have the right to request the Board of Directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing. The Board of Directors shall provide written response indicating whether it agrees or disagrees with the convening of an extraordinary general meeting within 10 days after receiving the request in accordance with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

If the Board of Directors agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Board of Directors shall issue the advice to convene the general meeting within 5 days after making the Board of Directors' resolution, and any change to the original request in the advice must obtain the consent of the relevant shareholders.

If the Board of Directors does not agree to convene an extraordinary general meeting or fails to provide feedback within 10 days after receiving the request, shareholders individually or collectively holding more than 10% of the company's shares have the right to propose to the Audit Committee to convene an extraordinary general meeting in writing.

If the Audit Committee agrees to convene an extraordinary general meeting, the Audit Committee shall issue the advice to convene the general meeting within 5 days from the receipt of the request, and any change to the original request in the advice must be approved by the relevant shareholders.

If the Audit Committee fails to issue the advice of the general meeting within the prescribed period, the Audit Committee shall be deemed not to convene and preside over the general meeting, and shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 10% of the Company's shares for more than 90 consecutive days may convene and preside over the general meeting on their own.

Article 52 The Audit Committee or shareholders deciding to convene a general meeting on their own must notify the Board of Directors in writing.

Before the resolution of the general meeting of shareholders is announced, the shareholding ratio of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

Article 53 The Board of Directors and the Board Secretary shall cooperate in the case where the general meeting is convened by the Audit Committee or shareholders on their own and the Board of Directors will provide a register of shareholders on the record date.

Article 54 The Company will bear the necessary expenses for the general meeting that is convened by the Board of Directors or shareholders on their own.

Article 55 The content of the proposal shall fall within the scope of powers of the shareholders' meeting, having clear subjects and specific resolution matters, and complying with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations and these Articles of Association.

Article 56 When the Company convenes a general meeting, the Board of Directors, the Audit Committee and Shareholders individually or collectively holding more than 1% of the Company's shares have the right to submit proposals to the Company.

Shareholders who individually or collectively hold more than 1% of the Company's shares may submit a resolution to the convener in writing 10 days before the date of the general meeting. The convener shall issue the supplementary notice of general meeting within 2 days after receiving the new resolution and announce the details of the resolution.

Save the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, the convener shall not modify the resolutions listed in the notice of general meeting or add new resolutions after issuing the notice of general meeting. Resolutions that are not listed in the notice of the general meeting or do not comply with the provisions of Article 55 hereof shall not be voted on and made resolutions at the general meeting.

Article 57 If the general meeting intends to discuss the election of directors, the notice of general meeting will fully disclose the detailed information of the director candidates, including at least the following:

1. not taking advantages of his or her position to accept bribes or other illegal incomes, not misappropriating the Company's property;
2. not embezzling the Company's funds;
3. not depositing the assets or funds of the Company into an account opened in his or her personal name or in the name of any other individual;
4. not violating this Articles of Association, by lending the funds of the Company to a third party or using the Company's property to provide security for a third party without the consent of the General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Directors;

5. not concluding contracts or engaging into transactions with the Company directly or indirectly without reporting to the Board of Directors or the Shareholders' Meeting and obtaining the approval of the Shareholders' Meeting by way of resolutions in accordance with the provisions of these Articles of Association;
6. not using the advantages of his or her power, to appropriate for himself or herself or for others, business opportunities which rightly belong to the Company or operate a business for his or her own account or on behalf of others which is of the same type as the Company's business without the consent of the General Meetings of Shareholders;
7. not accepting for himself or herself commissions in connection with Company transactions;
8. not divulging the secrets of the Company without authorization;
9. not using his or her related party relationships to prejudice the interests of the Company;
10. other fiduciary duties specified in the laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's share are listed, and provisions hereof.

Income derived by a director in breach of this article shall belong to the Company. If the Company sustains a loss as a result of such breach, the director shall be liable for damages.

Close relatives of directors and senior management, enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by directors, senior management or their close relatives, as well as other related parties who have other associated relationships with directors and senior management, shall apply to the provisions of subparagraph 5 of Paragraph 2 of this Article when concluding contracts with or engaging in transactions with the Company.

Article 100 When a director proposes to resign or his or her term of office expires, his or she obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's trade secrets shall survive the end of his or her term, until such secrets enter the public domain.

Article 101 The director shall observe the laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's share are listed, and provisions hereof, exercise the reasonable care normally expected of a manager in the best interests of the company when performing their duties. Directors shall bear the following obligations of diligence towards the Company:

1. prudently, conscientiously and diligently exercising the rights granted to him or her by the Company, so as to ensure that the commercial acts of the Company comply with state laws and the requirements of the various economic policies of the state, and that its commercial activities do not exceed the scope of business specified on the business license;
2. treating all shareholders equally;
3. timely keeping abreast of the Company's business operation and management situation;

4. signing written confirmation opinions on the regular reports of the Company so as to ensure the authenticity, accuracy and integrity of the information disclosed by the Company;
5. providing true information and data to the Audit Committee and not interfering with the Audit Committee or supervisors in the exercise of their functions and powers;
6. in principle, attending meetings of the Board of Directors in person, and expressing clear opinions on the issues discussed; and when the director is unable to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors in person, prudentially selecting an agent;
7. carefully reading business reports and financial reports of the Company as well as major reports on the Company by the media, timely understanding and paying close attention to the Company's business position, management status and the material events or potential materials event of the Company and their influences, timely reporting to the Board of Directors problems existing in the Company's operating activities, and not attempting to shirk his or her responsibilities on the grounds that he or she is not directly involved in operations or management or was not aware of the relevant issues or situation;
8. other obligations of diligence specified in the laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's share are listed, and provisions hereof.

Article 102 If a director fails to personally attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and fails to consign another director to attend such meetings on his or her behalf twice in succession, he or she shall be deemed unable to perform his or her duty, and the Board of Directors shall propose to the General Meeting of Shareholders that he or she be replaced.

Subject to relevant laws, the General Meeting of Shareholders may, by ordinary resolution, remove any director before the expiration of his or her term of office. (but without prejudice to any claim for damages by such director under any contract).

Article 103 When a director's resignation becomes effective or his or her term of office expires, he or she shall duly carry out all the handover procedures with the Board of Directors. His or her fiduciary duty to the Company and the shareholders shall not, as a matter of course, terminate at, and shall survive, the end of his or her term of office. It shall remain valid within the reasonable time limit prescribed by these Articles of Association. The liabilities that directors shall bear during their term of office in connection with the performance of their duties shall not be exempted or terminated due to their resignation or departure from office.

The director's obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's trade secrets shall survive the end of his or her term, until such trade secrets enter the public domain. The term of survival of his or her other obligations shall be determined according to the principle of fairness, the time elapsed between the director's departure from office and the occurrence of the event, and the circumstances and conditions of the termination of his or her relationship with the Company.

Article 104 No director shall act on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors in his or her personal name unless specified in this Articles of Association or duly authorized by the Board of Directors. A director shall declare his or her position and identity in advance if, when such director is acting in his or her personal name, a third party would reasonably assume him or her to be acting on behalf of the Company or the Board of Directors.

Article 105 A director who causes the Company to sustain a loss due to his or her unauthorized departure from office prior to the end of his or her term shall be liable for damages.

Section 2 Independent Director

Article 106 The Company shall establish a system of independent directors. An independent director is a director who does not hold any position in the Company other than director, and who has no relationship with the Company or its major shareholders that may hinder him or her making independent and objective judgments.

An independent director can serve a term of 3 years, and may serve consecutive terms if reelected but to the extent of 9 years at maximum, unless otherwise specified by relevant laws, regulations, and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed.

1. being eligible to hold the position of director in a listed company pursuant to the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed and other relevant provisions;
2. possessing the independence specified in the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed;
3. having a basic knowledge of the operation of listed companies and being familiar with relevant laws, administrative regulations, policies and rules;
4. having more than 5 years of experience in law, economics or other working experience required for performing the duties and responsibilities of an independent director;
5. performing his or her duties and responsibilities independently, being not influenced by the majority shareholders or the actual controller of the Company, or any other organizations or persons that are materially interested in the Company;
6. other conditions set forth in this Articles of Association.

Article 108 The following persons shall not act as independent directors:

1. persons holding positions in the Company or its subsidiaries and their spouses, parents, children, and major social relations;
2. natural person shareholders who directly or indirectly holding more than 1% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company or who rank among the top ten shareholders of the Company, and their spouses, parents, children;
3. persons holding positions in entities that directly or indirectly hold more than 5% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company or that rank among the top five shareholders of the Company, and their spouses, parents, children;
4. persons employed by affiliated enterprises of the Company's controlling shareholders or actual controllers, together with their spouses, parents, and children;

5. persons who have significant business transactions with the Company, its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, or their respective affiliated enterprises; or persons employed by entities with such significant business transactions, as well as by the controlling shareholders or actual controllers of such entities;
6. persons providing financial, legal, consulting, sponsorship, or other services to the Company, its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, or their respective affiliated enterprises, including but not limited to all members of the project teams of the service-providing intermediary institutions, reviewers at all levels, persons signing reports, partners, directors, senior management personnel, and key persons in charge;
7. persons who, at any time during the immediately preceding period of one year, have fallen into any of the categories listed in sub-paragraph 1 to 6;
8. other persons who lack independence as prescribed by laws or the securities regulator of the place where the Company's shares are listed any other relevant regulator, and these Articles of Association.

For the affiliates of the Company's controlling shareholders and actual controllers mentioned in sub paragraph 4 to 6 of the preceding paragraph, enterprises that are controlled by the same state-owned assets management authority as the Company and do not constitute an affiliated relationship with the Company in accordance with relevant regulations shall be excluded. Independent directors shall conduct an annual self inspection of their independence and submit the self-inspection results to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors shall conduct an annual assessment of the independence of incumbent independent directors, issue a special opinion, and disclose such opinion concurrently with the annual report.

Article 109 As members of the Board of Directors, independent directors shall bear fiduciary duty and duty of care to the Company and all shareholders, and duly perform the following duties:

1. participate in the decision making of the Board of Directors and express clear opinions on the matters discussed at the meeting;
2. supervise potential major conflicts of interest between the Company and its controlling shareholders, actual controllers, directors, and senior management personnel, and protect the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders;
3. provide professional and objective suggestions on the Company's operation and development, and contribute to improving the decision making level of the Board of Directors;
4. other duties prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, and these Articles of Association.

Article 110 In addition to the authorities conferred by the Company Law, other relevant laws and regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed and this Articles of Association, an independent director shall have the following special authorities:

1. proposing the engagement or dismissal of an accounting firm to the Board of Directors;
2. proposing the calling of an Extraordinary General Meeting of Shareholders to the Board of Directors;
3. proposing the calling of meetings of the Board of Directors;
4. solicit shareholder rights publicly from shareholders pursuant to law;
5. express independent opinions on matters that are likely to impair the Company's interests or the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders;
6. an agreement obtaining the consent from all independent directors, independently engaging external auditors or consultants to audit or advise on concrete matters of the Company. The expenses incurred shall be borne by the Company.

Except for item (6) in the preceding paragraph, an independent director shall obtain the consent of more than half of the independent directors before exercising the aforesaid authorities. When independent directors exercise the powers listed in paragraph 1, the Company shall timely disclose the details thereof. If any of the aforesaid proposals was not adopted or the aforesaid authorities could not be normally exercised, the Company shall disclose the details thereof.

Article 111 The following matters shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for deliberation upon the approval of more than half of all independent directors of the Company:

1. connected transactions subject to disclosure;
2. plans for the Company and relevant parties for change or exempt commitments;
3. decisions and measures taken by the Board of Directors of the listed company being acquired for the acquisition;
4. other matters prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed, and these Articles of Association.

Article 112 An independent director shall not be removed from position without due cause before the expiration of his or her term. Where the independent director is removed from his position before the expiration of his or her term, the Company shall disclose such removal as a special disclosure matter.

If an independent director neither personally nor delegate other independent directors to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors for two consecutive occasions, the Board of Directors shall propose to convene a general meeting to remove such independent director from the position within 30 days from the date of occurrence of this fact.

Article 113 Where this section does not specify any matter relating to the independent director system, the matter shall be governed by the relevant laws, regulations, policies and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed.

Section 3 Board of Directors

Article 114 The Board of Directors shall be accountable to the General Meeting of Shareholders, and exercise the following authorities:

1. to convene General Meeting of Shareholders, and to report on its work to the General Meeting of Shareholders;
2. to execute the resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
3. to decide on the operating plans, investment plans, concrete annual operating targets of the Company and except for the issuance of bonds or other securities and the listing, the financing plans of the Company;

9. to engage or dismiss the Company's President and Secretary to the Board of Directors, and to engage or dismiss the chairmen of the special committees of the Board of Directors, as proposed by the Chairman;
10. to engage or dismiss the Vice President and the Chief Accountant of the Company as proposed by the President, and decide on matters relating to their remunerations, rewards and penalties;
11. to formulate the basic management systems of the Company; to
12. formulate amendments to this Articles of Association; to
13. formulate equity incentive plans of the Company;

14.to manage the information disclosure matters of the Company;

15.to decide on the establishment of special committees;

16.to decide on the risk management system of the Company, including risk assessment, financial control, internal audit and legal risk control, and monitor the implementation thereof;

17.to propose to the General Meeting of Shareholders the appointment or replacement of an accounting firm as the auditor of the Company;

18.to listen to the regular or irregular working reports of the President of the Company or any senior management consigned by the President, and approve the working reports of the President;

19.to decide on the external guarantees and other matters of the Company, to the extent of applicable laws and the authorization of this Articles of Association. The Board of Directors shall have the right to authorize the senior managements of the Company to decide on the aforesaid matters;

20.other authorities specified in laws, regulations and listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's share are listed or granted by the General Meeting of Shareholders or this Articles of Association.

When the Board of Directors resolves on the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph, except of the matters referred to in items (5), (6) and (12) which require an affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of all of the directors for adoption, the other matters shall be passed by an affirmative vote of more than one half of all of the directors for adoption. The Board of Directors shall perform its duties and responsibilities in compliance with the laws, administrative regulations, this Articles of Association and resolutions made by the shareholders.

The Board of Directors of the Company shall give explanations to the General Meeting of Shareholders in respect of the qualified audit reports issued by certified public accountants in respect of the financial reports of the Company.

Article 115 The Board of Directors of the Company shall establish an Audit Committee, which shall exercise the powers and functions of the Supervisory Board as stipulated by the Company Law.

Article 116 The Audit Committee shall consist of three (3) members, who shall be directors not holding senior management positions in the Company, including two (2) independent directors. The convener thereof shall be an accounting professional in the independent directors.

Article 117 The Audit Committee shall be responsible for reviewing the Company's financial information and its disclosure, supervising and evaluating internal and external audit work and internal control. The following matters shall be submitted to the Board of Directors for deliberation upon the approval of more than half of all members of the Audit Committee:

1. disclosure of financial information in the financial accounting reports and periodic reports, and internal control evaluation reports;
2. engagement or dismissal of accounting firms undertaking the audit of the listed company;
3. appointment or dismissal of the Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the listed company;

4. making changes to accounting policies, accounting estimates, or corrections of material accounting errors for reasons other than changes in accounting standards;
5. other matters prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the China Securities Regulatory Commission (CSRC), and these Articles of Association.

Article 118 The Audit Committee shall hold at least one meeting per quarter. An extraordinary meeting may be convened upon the proposal of two (2) or more members, or when the convener deems it necessary. A meeting of the Audit Committee may only be convened if more than two thirds of its members are present. Resolutions adopted by the Audit Committee shall be approved by more than half of its members. Voting on resolutions of the Audit Committee shall be on the basis of one vote per member. Meeting minutes of the resolutions of the Audit Committee shall be prepared in accordance with relevant provisions, and members of the Audit Committee attending the meeting shall sign the meeting minutes.

The working rules of the Audit Committee shall be formulated by the Board of Directors.

Article 119 the Board may set up special committees, including the Strategic Investment Committee, Nomination and Remuneration Committee and Risk Management Committee etc., to assist the Board on performing its functions and powers, or to advise or consult on decisions of the Board under the leadership of the Board. The composition and rules of procedure of the committees shall be formulated by the Board separately.

Article 120 Any investment in another company made by, or any security for third party provided by, the Company shall be resolved by the Board of Directors, unless otherwise specified in the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the Company's shares are listed or this Articles of Association. Nevertheless, any security provided by the Company for any shareholder or actual controller of the Company shall be resolved by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

The shareholder specified in the preceding paragraph or the shareholder controlled by the actual controller stated in the preceding paragraph shall not participate in the voting on the matters set forth in the preceding paragraph. Such matters shall be adopted by other shareholders holding more than half of the voting rights present at the meeting.

The Company shall establish a strict internal control system for external guarantee. All directors shall prudentially treat and strictly control the debt risk arising from external guarantee.

The external guarantee provided by the Company shall be secured by counter guarantee or other risk prevention measures provided by the other party. The provider of the counter guarantee shall have actual debt service capacity.

Where any external guarantee is provided in violation of the relevant laws, regulations, policies and this Articles of Association, thereby causing the Company to suffer a loss, the director found liable shall bear the joint and several liability for such loss.

Article 121 The Chairman of the Board shall exercises the following duties and authorities:

1. to preside over the General Meeting of Shareholders, and to convene and preside over the meetings of the Board of Directors;
2. to supervise and inspect the implementation of the resolutions of the Board of Directors and to listen to the relevant reports;
3. to supervise and organize the formulation of policies and rules regarding the functioning of the Board of Directors, and to coordinate the functioning of the Board of Directors;
5. to sign important documents of the Board of Directors;
6. to represent the Company in signing with third parties important documents that are legally binding;
7. Other duties and authorities specified in the laws, regulations and this Articles of Association and granted by the Board of Directors.

Article 122 When the Chairman is unable or failing to perform his or her duty, a director jointly recommended by more than half of the directors shall perform the duty.

Article 123 Meetings of the Board of Directors are divided into regular meetings and interim meetings.

The Board of Directors shall hold at least four regular meetings each year. The Chairman is responsible to convene the meetings and shall notify all the directors in writing 14 days before the meeting is held.

1. when it is proposed by shareholders representing more than 10% of the voting rights;
2. when it is proposed by the Audit Committee;
3. when the Chairman of the Board of Director thinks necessary;
4. when it is proposed by more than one-third of the directors;
5. when it is proposed by more than half of the independent directors;
6. when it is proposed by the President of the Company;
7. other circumstances specified in laws and this Articles of Association.

Article 124 The notice on a regular or interim meeting of the Board of Directors shall be issued by such means in writing, including but not limited to phone, fax or email. The Board of Directors shall deliver the notice 14 days before the meeting is held, and the notice on an interim meeting of the Board of Directors shall not be restricted by the time of notice if more than two-thirds of the directors raised no objections.

If a director has attended the meeting, and has not put forward the dissidence of non- receipt of such notice before attending the meeting or the meeting starts, the director shall be deemed to have received the notice of the relevant meeting.

The meeting of the Board of Directors can be conducted by means of the telephone conference or other similar communication equipment, so long as the director present at the meeting can clearly hear and communicate with other directors. All the directors in attendance shall be deemed to have attended the meeting in person.

Article 125 The meeting notice of the Board of Directors shall contain the following particulars:

1. the time and venue of the meeting;
2. the method by which the meeting is to be held;
3. the duration of the meeting;
4. the reasons for holding meeting and the agendas thereat;
5. the names of the meeting convener and the chairman, the name of the person who proposed the interim meeting and his or her written proposal;
6. the meeting materials necessary for the vote by the directors, including the background materials related to the agendas of the meeting as well as the information and data that would be of assistance to the directors in understanding the business progress of the Company;
7. a request that the director attend in person or that he or she entrust another director to attend the meeting on his or her behalf;
8. the name of the contact person and his or her contact information;
9. the date of issuance of the notice.

A notice given orally shall at least contain the particulars set forth in items 1 and 2 above and an explanation to the effect that circumstances are urgent and an interim meeting of the Board of Directors needs to be held as soon as possible.

Article 126 Each director shall have one vote. Except the circumstances when the Board of Directors reviews matters relating to related-party transaction/connected transaction as specified in Article 128 of these Article hereof, a resolution made by the Board of Directors shall be adopted by more than half of all of the directors.

If a resolution is signed by the directors respectively and the number of the directors casting affirmative votes meets the effective quorum specified in the laws, regulations and this Articles of Association, the resolution shall be considered as valid as if a resolution has been adopted by the Board of Directors at a meeting held according to the law. Such a written resolution can be composed of multiple copies, with each signed by one or more directors. For the purpose of this article, a resolution signed by directors or bearing the names of the directors and delivered to the Company via posting, fax or courier shall be deemed as a document signed by the directors.

Article 127 Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be attended by the directors in person. When a director is unable to attend a meeting for any reason, he or she shall entrust another director in writing to attend the meeting on his or her behalf, and such power of attorney shall specify:

1. the names of the principal and the agent;
2. the principal's brief opinion on each proposal;
3. the scope of authorization granted by the principal and his or her instructions on voting preferences with respect to the proposals;
5. whether the agent has the voting right to vote on extempore proposal that may be added to the agenda of the meeting of the Board of Directors, and if yes, the specific instruction as to what vote to be cast if he or she has such right of vote;
6. the signature or seal of the principal and the date.

The director present at the meeting on behalf of the absent director shall exercise the director's rights to the extent authorized. If a director fails to attend a meeting of the Board of Directors and fails to consign an agent to attend the meeting on his or her behalf, he or she shall be deemed to have waived his or her right to vote at such meeting.

Article 128 If a director has a related party relationship an enterprise involved in a matter on which a resolution is to be made at a meeting of the Board of Directors (meaning that the director of the Company serves as a director or senior management in the enterprise, or he or she can either directly or indirectly control a legal person of the enterprise, or serves as a director or senior management in a legal person which is either directly or indirectly controlled by the enterprise), such director shall not exercise his or her right to vote regarding such resolution, nor may he or she exercise the voting right of another director as such director's agent thereon. Such a meeting of the Board of Directors may be held when more than one half of the directors without a related party relationship are present, and the resolution made at such a meeting of the Board of Directors shall be adopted by more than half of the directors without a related party relationship. When a meeting of the Board of Directors is attended by less than three directors without a related party relationship, the matter shall be submitted to the General Meeting of Shareholders for review.

Article 129 Once each proposal has been fully discussed, the chairman of the meeting shall propose that the directors present at the meeting vote thereon.

When voting on Board resolution, each director shall have one vote.

The voting options open to the directors are affirmative, negative and abstention. The directors present at the meeting shall select only one among the aforesaid options. Where a director fails to select any of the options or selects two or more of the options, the chairman of the meeting shall require such director to select an option again. Where such director refuses to make a selection, he or she shall be deemed to abstain. Where a director leaves the meeting venue during the course of a meeting without returning to make a selection, he or she shall be considered as abstain.

Article 130 Votes at meetings of the Board of Directors held in person (including meetings held by videoconference) shall be held by registered ballot. Subject to ensuring the full expression by the directors of their opinions at a meeting of the Board of Directors, votes may be held and resolutions may be adopted by means of correspondence, and such resolutions shall be signed by the directors in attendance. An effective period shall be set for votes held by means of correspondence, and where a director fails to express his or her opinion within the specified period, he or she shall be deemed to abstain.

When the Board of Directors is to adopt a resolution on a matter relating to external guarantee pursuant to this Articles of Association within the scope of its authorization, in addition to the consent of more than half of all of the directors of the Company, the consent of at least two-thirds of the directors present at the meeting shall be required.

In the event of a conflict between the content and meaning of different resolutions, the resolution adopted in a later time shall prevail.

Article 131 In respect of any matter which needs to be determined by the Board of Directors at an interim meeting of the Board of Directors, where the Board of Directors has already distributed the content of the proposal to be voted on to all directors in writing (including fax and email) and guarantees all directors can fully express their opinions, votes may be held and resolutions may be adopted by means of correspondence, and it is not necessary to hold a meeting of the Board of Directors. Nevertheless, an effective resolution shall be made only when the number of directors who have given their written consents thereto reaches the number of directors specified in this Articles of Association to make a decision.

Article 132 The Company shall announce the resolution(s) of the Board of Directors pursuant to applicable laws, and an announcement on the resolution of the Board of Directors shall include the following particulars:

1. the time and method of issuance of the meeting notice;
2. the time, venue of the meeting and the method by which it was held and a statement as to whether the meeting is convened and held in conformity with relevant laws and this Articles of Association;
3. the number and names of directors who consigned an agent or was absent, the reasons for their absence and the names of the directors who they consigned as their proxies;
4. the number of affirmative, negative and abstention votes on every proposal as well as the causes why the relevant directors objected or abstained from voting on any motion;
5. When a related-party transaction/connected transaction was involved, the names of the directors who were required to withdraw from voting, the reason therefor and the withdrawal process;
6. if the independent directors or the expression of their opinions was required, the opinions that they expressed;
7. the specific contents of the agendas and the resolutions adopted at the meeting.

Article 133 The functional departments of the Company have an obligation to provide information and data to the Board of Directors for decision making purposes. The functional departments providing such information and data and the relevant persons shall be liable for the authenticity, accuracy and integrity of the internally sourced and objectively describable information. Information and data sourced from outside the Company may be provided to the Board of Directors for reference in making decision only after the reliability thereof has been assessed, and an account thereof shall be given to the Board of Directors.

Article 134 The Board of Directors shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters discussed at the meetings and such minutes shall be signed by the directors present at the meeting and the recorder. Where a director has an objection to the meeting minutes or a resolution of the Board of Directors, such director may give a written explanation thereof at the time of signing. When necessary, such director shall promptly report the same to the securities regulator, or can make a public statement thereon.

Where the director fails to sign the meeting minutes in confirmation in accordance with the preceding paragraph, and fails to give a written explanation of his or her dissidence or report to the securities regulator or make a public statement, such director shall be deemed as being in full agreement with the contents of the meeting minutes and the record of resolutions and may not be released from liability for the contents of such meeting minutes and resolutions.

The directors shall undertake the liability for the resolutions of the Board of Directors. If a resolution of the Board of Directors is in violation of the laws, administrative regulations, this Articles of Association, or resolution of shareholders meeting, thereby causing the Company to sustain a material loss, the directors participating in the resolution shall be liable to the Company for damages. Nevertheless, if a director is proved to have expressed his dissidence to such resolution when it was put to vote, and such dissidence is recorded in the meeting minutes, such director may be released from such liability.

Article 135 Minutes of meetings of the Board of Directors shall contain the following particulars:

1. the serial number, time, and venue of the meeting and the method by which it was held;
2. the details on the issuance of the meeting notice;
3. the names of the convener and chairman of the meeting;
4. the names of the directors present at the meeting and the names of the directors (proxies) present at the meeting upon consignment by other directors;
5. the agenda of the meeting;
6. the proposals reviewed at the meeting, and the gist of the directors' speeches and the major opinions of the directors;
7. the voting method for, and result of, each matter that was the subject of a resolution (the voting result shall specify the number of affirmative, negative or abstention votes);
8. other matters that the directors present at the meetings deem necessary to include in the minute.

Article 136 The resolutions and minutes of the meetings, together with the meeting notice, meeting materials, meeting sign-in register, the power of attorney of director proxies, the sound recording of the meeting and the vote ballots shall serve as Company files and be kept by the Office of the Board of Directors for a period of not less than 10 years.

Article 137 Reasonable expenses incurred by the directors to attend meetings of the Board of Directors shall be on the account of the Company. Such expenses include the travel expenses from the places where the directors live to the meeting place (if both differ), the accommodation expenses during the meeting, and the local transport expenses.
