- (III) Using shares for employee shareholding plans or for equity incentives;
- (IV) Acquiring shares held by shareholders who vote against any resolution proposed in any shareholders' general meeting on the merger or division of the Company upon their request;
- (V) Using the shares for converting the convertible bonds issued by the Company to stock;

- (VI) Necessary acts by the Company to protect its value while safeguarding the interests of shareholders;
- (VII) Other circumstances as permitted by laws, administrative regulations.

Article 25 The Company may acquire its shares in one of the following ways:

- (I) Purchase through open and centralised transaction;
- (II) Other circumstances recognized by the laws, administrative regulations and the CSRC.

Where the Company acquires its own shares under the circumstances specified in items (III), (V) and (VI) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association, it shall be conducted through open centralised trading.

Article 26 Buy-back of shares of the Company under the circumstances specified in item (I) and item (II) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association shall be subject to the approval of the shareholders' general meeting. Buy-back of shares of the Company under the circumstances specified in item (III), item (V) and item (VI) of Article 24 of the Articles of Association shall be resolved by a meeting of the board of directors where over two-thirds of the directors are present, in accordance with the requirements of the Articles of Association or the authorization of the shareholders' general meeting.

For any buy-back of the Company's shares pursuant to Article 24 of the Articles of Association, shares bought back pursuant to item (I) shall be cancelled within ten days from the date of acquisition; for those circumstances described in items (II) and (IV), the shares shall be transferred or cancelled within six months; for circumstances described in items (III), (V) and (VI), the total number of the Company's shares held by the Company shall not exceed 10% of the Company's total issued shares and shall be transferred or cancelled within three years.

Where the laws, administrative regulations and relevant requirements of the securities regulatory authorities in the place where the Company's shares are listed have any other provisions in respect of the relevant matters of aforementioned share buy-back, such provisions shall prevail.

Section 3 Transfer of Shares

Article 27 The shares of the Company shall be legally transferrable.

The transfer of overseas listed shares listed in Hong Kong shall be registered with the share registrar in Hong Kong entrusted by the Company. After the transfer, the number of shareholders of the Company shall comply with the relevant requirements of laws and regulations.

If the shares of the Company are delisted by the SZSE, the shares of the Company will continue to be traded in the agency share transfer system.

The Company shall not amend the provisions of the preceding paragraph of the Articles of Association.

The relevant laws and regulations, listing rules and securities regulatory authorities of the place where the Company's shares are listed shall provide for a period of suspension of the registration of shares prior to the date of the general meeting or the benchmark date on which the company decides to distribute dividends, the regulations shall apply.

Article 28 The Company shall not accept its shares being held as security under a pledge.

Article 29 Shares issued by the Company before the public offering shall not be transferred within one year from the date on which the shares of the Company are listed on a stock exchange.

The trading of the Company's shares by the Company's directors, senior management and shareholders shall comply with the Company Law, the Securities Law, the relevant provisions of the CSRC and the stock exchange where the Company's shares are listed as well as the Articles of Association and the relevant management systems of the Company.

Directors and senior management of the Company shall inform the Company of the number of shares (including preference shares) of the Company held by them and relevant changes, and shall not transfer more than 25% of the total number of shares of the Company of the same class held by them in each year during their term of office; the shares of the Company held by them shall not be transferred within one year from the date of listing. And within half a year after the resignation of the above persons, none of the shares of the Company held by them may be transferred.

Where shares are pledged during the restricted transfer period prescribed by laws or administrative regulations, the pledgee shall not exercise the pledge right during such restricted transfer period.

Article 30 Where shareholders holding more than 5% of the Company's shares, directors, or senior management sell the Company's shares or other securities of equity nature within six months after purchasing them, or purchase such shares or securities within six months after selling them, the proceeds thereof shall belong to the Company, and the board of directors of the Company shall recover the proceeds. However, a securities company holds more than 5% of the shares due to the purchase of underwritten post-sale remaining shares, and other circumstances stipulated by the securities regulatory authority of the State Council are excluded.

The shares or other securities of equity nature held by the directors, senior management and natural person shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph include the shares or other securities of equity nature held by their spouses, parents, children and held through others' accounts.

If the board of directors of the Company fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph of this Article, a shareholder shall have the right to request the board of directors to do so within 30 days. In failure of the board of directors to comply with the same within the aforesaid period, such shareholder shall have the right to institute a legal proceeding directly with the people's court in its own name for the benefit of the Company.

If the board of directors of the Company fails to comply with the requirements under the first paragraph of this Article, the director(s) liable shall assume joint and several responsibilities pursuant to laws.

CHAPTER 4 Shareholders and Shareholders' General Meeting

Section 1 Shareholders

Article 31 The Company shall establish a register of shareholders based on the certificates provided by the securities registration and clearing agency, and the register of shareholders is the sufficient evidence to prove the shareholding in the Company by shareholders. Under the circumstances of issuing and trading of the Company's shares in a paperless manner, the provisions in relation to this section shall be in conformity with the regulations of the securities regulatory authority and the stock exchange where the Company's stocks are listed.

The Company shall enter into a securities registration and service agreement with the securities registration and clearing agency to regularly inspect the particulars of major shareholders and changes in their shareholdings (including equity pledges) and be updated with the shareholding structure of the Company in a timely manner.

A shareholder shall enjoy the relevant rights and assume the relevant obligations in accordance with the class of shares held. Shareholders holding the same class of shares shall be entitled to the same rights and assume the same obligations.

The Company shall protect the interests of the shareholders and legitimate rights of medium and minority shareholders according to laws, and shall not deprive or restrict any legal rights of shareholders.

- (I) all joint holders of any shares shall jointly and severally assume the liability to pay for all amounts payable for the relevant shares;
- (II) if one of the joint holders is deceased or cancelled, only the other surviving joint holders shall be deemed as the persons who have the ownership of the relevant shares. But the board of directors has the power to require for provision of such supporting documents as it considers appropriate which can prove death or cancellation of the relevant shareholder for the purpose of modifying the relevant register of shareholders;
- (III) in respect of any of the joint holders of any shares, only the joint shareholder ranking first in the register of shareholders has the right to accept share certificates of the relevant shares from the Company, receive notices or other documents of the Company. Any notices delivered to the aforesaid persons shall be deemed to have been delivered to all the joint holders of the relevant shares. Any joint holder may sign a form of proxy. If more than one joint holder is present in person or by proxy, the vote made by the preferred joint holder, whether in person or by proxy, shall be accepted as the sole vote for the remaining joint holders. In this regard, the priority of shareholders must be determined by the ranking of joint holders in the Company's register of shareholders in relation to the relevant shares; and
- (IV) any receipts issued by any joint holders in respect of any dividends, bonuses or capital returns payable to such joint holders shall be deemed to be the effective receipts issued by such joint holders to the Company.

Where a legal person is a Company's shareholder, the legal representative or the agent of the legal representative shall exercise the right on his behalf.

Article 32 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, distributes dividends, commences liquidation or participates in other activities that require confirmation of shareholders' identification, the convener of meetings of the board of directors or the shareholders' general meetings shall decide the record date. The shareholders whose names appear on the register of shareholders at the close of trading on the record date shall be the shareholders who are entitled to relevant rights and interests.

Article 33 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall have the following rights:

- (I) to be entitled to dividends and other forms of distribution in proportion to the number of shares held;
- (II) to propose to hold, convene and preside over, to attend or appoint a proxy to attend general meetings, to exercise the corresponding voting rights in accordance with laws, and to speak at the shareholders' general meetings;
- (III) to supervise the operations of the Company and to put forward proposals or raise inquiries;
- (IV) to transfer, donate, or pledge shares held by them in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association;
- (V) to inspect and duplicate the Articles of Association, the register of shareholders, minutes of the shareholders' general meeting, resolutions of meetings of the board of directors and the financial accounting reports. Eligible shareholders may also inspect the accounting books and accounting vouchers of the Company;
- (VI) upon termination or liquidation of the Company, to participate in the distribution of remaining assets of the Company in accordance with the number of shares held;
- (VII) with respect to shareholders who vote against any resolution adopted at the general meeting on the merger or division of the Company, to require the Company to acquire the shares held by them;
- (VIII) other rights conferred by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed or the Articles of Association.

Article 34 Shareholders requesting to inspect or duplicate the relevant materials shall comply with the provisions of the Company Law, the Securities Law and other laws and administrative regulations. Where shareholders request inspection of the relevant information or demand materials as mentioned in the presiding Article, they shall provide the Company with written documents evidencing the class and number of shares of the Company they hold. Upon verification of the shareholder's identity, the Company shall provide information requested by such shareholder.

Article 35 If a resolution passed at the Company's general meeting or board meeting violates the laws or administrative regulations, shareholders shall have the right to initiate proceeding to the People's Court to render the same invalid.

If the procedures for convening a general meeting or a board meeting, or the voting method, violate laws, administrative regulations, or the Company's articles of association, or if the content of the resolution violates the Company's articles of association, the shareholders shall have the right to request the People's Court to revoke the resolution within 60 days from the date on which the resolution is made. However, this does not apply if the convening procedures or voting methods of the shareholders' general meeting or board meeting have only minor flaws that do not have a substantial impact on the resolution.

If there is a dispute among the board of directors, shareholders and other relevant parties regarding the validity of a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, a lawsuit shall be promptly filed with a People's Court. Pending a judgment or ruling from the People's Court to revoke the resolution, the relevant parties shall implement the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting. The Company, its directors and senior management shall duly perform their duties to ensure the normal operation of the Company.

If the People's Court makes a judgment or ruling on the relevant matters, the Company shall perform its information disclosure obligations in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of the CSRC and the stock exchanges, fully explain the impact, and actively cooperate with the execution after the judgment or ruling becomes effective. Where the correction of prior period matters is involved, such matters shall be handled in a timely manner and the corresponding information disclosure obligations shall be fulfilled.

Article 36 A resolution of the shareholders' general meeting or the board of directors of the Company shall be invalid if any of the following circumstances exist:

- (I) no shareholders' general meeting or board meeting was held to make the resolution;
- (II) no vote was taken on the resolution at the shareholders' general meeting or board meeting;
- (III) the number of attendees at the meeting or the number of voting rights held by them did not reach the thresholds stipulated in the Company Law or the Articles of Association;
- (IV) the number of persons approving the resolution or the number of voting rights held by them did not reach the thresholds stipulated by the Company Law or the Articles of Association.

Article 37 Where the interests of shareholders are prejudiced as a result of violation by directors or senior management of any provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties with the Company, the shareholders may initiate proceedings to a People's Court.

Where the Company incurs losses as a result of violation by directors or senior management, other than the members of the audit and risk committee, of any provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties with the Company, shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares of the Company for more than 180 consecutive days shall be entitled to request in writing the audit and risk committee to initiate proceedings to the People's Court; where the Company incurs losses as a result of violation by the members of the audit and risk committee of any provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties with the Company, the aforesaid shareholders may make a request in writing to the board of directors to initiate proceedings to a People's Court.

If the audit and risk committee or the Board of Directors refuses to initiate litigation upon receiving the written request from the shareholders as stipulated in the preceding paragraph, or fails to initiate litigation within 30 days from the date of receiving the request, or if the circumstances are urgent and failure to initiate litigation immediately would cause irreparable damage to the interests of the Company, the shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph shall have the right, in their own name and for the benefit of the Company, to directly initiate proceedings to a People's Court.

Where the Company incurs losses as a result of infringement upon the legitimate rights and interests of the Company by any other persons, the shareholders stated in Paragraph 1 of this Article may initiate proceedings with the People's Court pursuant to the provisions of the first two paragraphs.

Where the Company incurs losses as a result of violation by directors, supervisors or senior management of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company of any provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association in the course of performing their duties with the Company, or in the event the legal interests of a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company are violated by other parties and a loss is incurred, shareholders individually or jointly holding 1% or more of the shares of the Company for more than 180 consecutive days may submit a written request to the board of supervisors or the board of directors of the wholly-owned subsidiary to initiate proceedings to a People's Court, or directly initiate proceedings in their own name, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding three paragraphs of Article 189 of the Company Law.

If a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company does not have a supervisory committee or supervisors, but has established an audit and risk committee, the provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall apply.

Article 38 The ordinary shareholders of the Company shall assume the following obligations:

- (I) to abide by laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association;
- (II) to pay subscription monies according to the number of shares subscribed and the method of subscription;
- (III) not to withdraw their share capital unless otherwise required by laws and regulations;
- (IV) not to abuse their shareholders' rights to harm the interests of the Company or other shareholders; and not to abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders to harm the interests of any creditor of the Company;

- (V) other obligations imposed by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, normative documents, the listing rules of place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Shareholders of the Company who abuse their shareholders' rights and thereby cause damage to the Company or other shareholders shall be liable for indemnity according to laws.

Where shareholders of the Company abuse the independent legal person status of the Company and the limited liability of shareholders for the purpose of evading repayment of debts, thereby materially impairing the interests of the creditors of the Company, such shareholders shall be jointly and severally liable for the debts owed by the Company.

Where a shareholder utilizes two or more companies under its control to carry out the acts specified in the preceding paragraph, each company shall bear joint and several liability for the debts of another.

Section 2 Controlling Shareholders and De Facto Controllers

Article 39 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall exercise their rights and perform their obligations to safeguard the interests of the listed company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and the requirements of the CSRC and the stock exchanges.

Article 40 The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company shall comply with the following provisions:

(I) exercise shareholder rights in accordance with laws and shall not abuse control rights or exploit related party relationships to harm the legitimate rights and interests of the Company or other shareholders;

(II) strictly fulfil all public declarations and commitments made by them, without unauthorised changes or waivers;

(III) strictly fulfil information disclosure obligations in accordance with relevant regulations, actively cooperate with the Company in information disclosure work, and promptly notify the Company of any significant events occurred or are likely to occur;

(IV) shall not misappropriate the Company's funds in any manner;

(V) shall not coerce, instruct, or require the Company and related personnel to illegally provide guarantees;

(VI) shall not seek benefits using the Company's undisclosed significant information, shall not disclose any undisclosed significant information about the Company in any way, shall not engage in insider trading, short-term trading, market manipulation, or other illegal activities;

(VII) shall not damage the legitimate rights and interests of the Company and other shareholders through unfair connected-party transactions, profit distribution, asset reorganization, external investments, or any other means;

(VIII) ensure the integrity of the Company's assets, personnel independence, financial independence, institutional independence, and business independence, and shall not in any way affect the Company's independence;

(IX) comply with laws, administrative regulations, provisions of the CSRC, the business rules of the stock exchanges and other provisions of the Articles of Association.

The controlling shareholders and de facto controllers of the Company who do not serve as directors of the Company but actually carry out the Company's affairs shall be subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association regarding the fiduciary obligations and diligence obligations of directors.

Where the controlling shareholders and de facto controllers concurrently serve as the chairperson of the board of directors and the general manager of the Company, the Company shall reasonably define the powers and functions of the board of directors and the general manager, and explain the rationality of such arrangement as well as measures to maintain the independence of the Company.

Where the controlling shareholders, de facto controllers and other entities under their control engage in businesses identical or similar to those of the Company, they shall promptly disclose relevant business information, impacts on the Company and measures to prevent conflicts of interest, and shall not conduct identical or similar businesses that may cause material adverse impacts on the Company.

Where a controlling shareholder or actual controller of the Company instructs directors or senior management to engage in conduct detrimental to the interests of the Company or its shareholders, such controlling shareholder or actual controller shall bear joint and several liability with such directors or senior management.

Article 41 If the controlling shareholders and de facto controllers pledge the Company's shares they hold or actually control, they should maintain the Company's control rights and ensure stable production and operation.

Article 42 If the controlling shareholders and de facto controllers transfer their holdings of the Company's shares, they shall comply with the restrictive provisions on share transfer in laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC and the stock exchanges, as well as the undertakings they have made regarding restricted share transfers.

Section 3 General Provisions for the Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 43 The shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be composed of all shareholders. The shareholders' general meeting is the organ of authority of the Company and shall exercise the following powers in accordance with the law:

- (I) to elect and replace the directors, and decide on matters relating to the remuneration of the directors;
- (II) to consider and approve reports of the board of directors;
- (III) to consider and approve the Company's profit distribution plans and plans for making up losses;

- (IV) to decide on increases or reductions in the Company's registered capital;
- (V) to decide on the issuance of bonds, other securities by, and the listing of, the Company;
- (VI) to decide on merger, division, dissolution, liquidation or change of corporate form;
- (VII) to amend the Articles of Association;

- (IV) Legal opinions on other relevant matters upon request by the Company.

Section 4 Convening of Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 49 The board of directors shall convene a general meeting on time within a specified period. Subject to the consent of more than half of all independent directors, independent directors shall have the right to propose to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary general meeting. Where an independent director calls an extraordinary general meeting, the board of directors shall issue written feedback on consent or non-consent to convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from receipt of the proposal, pursuant to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association. Where the board of directors gives consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, a notice on convening of the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within 5 days from passing of a board resolution; where the board of directors does not give consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, it shall state the reason and make an announcement.

Where the audit and risk committee proposes to the board of directors on convening of an extraordinary general meeting, it shall do so in writing. The board of directors shall issue written feedback on consent or non-consent to convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from receipt of the proposal, pursuant to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and Articles of Association. Where the board of directors gives consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, a notice on convening of the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within 5 days from passing of the board resolution; the consent of the audit and risk committee shall be obtained for any change to the original requisition in the notice. Where the board of directors does not give consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, or does not issue feedback within 10 days from receipt of the requisition, the board of directors shall be deemed as unable to perform or failed to perform the duties of convening of a shareholders' general meeting, and the audit and risk committee may proceed to convene and chair the meeting.

Article 50 Holders of shares who hold 10% or more of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate have the right to propose to the board of directors on convening of an extraordinary general meeting, and shall do so in writing. The board of directors shall issue written feedback on consent or non-consent to convening of the extraordinary general meeting within 10 days from receipt of the proposals, pursuant to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association.

Where the board of directors gives consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, a notice on convening of the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within 5 days from passing of the board resolution; the consent of the holders shall be obtained for any change to the original requisition in the notice.

Where the board of directors does not give consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, or does not issue a feedback within 10 days from receipt of the requisition, holders of shares who hold 10% or more of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate have the right to propose to the audit and risk committee on convening of an extraordinary general meeting, and shall do so in writing.

Where the audit and risk committee gives consent to convening of an extraordinary general meeting, a notice on convening of the extraordinary general meeting shall be issued within 5 days from receiving the requisition; the consent of the holders shall be obtained for any change to the original proposal in the notice.

Where the audit and risk committee does not issue a notice of a shareholders' general meeting within the stipulated period, the audit and risk committee shall be deemed as not convening and chairing the shareholders' general meeting, and holders of shares who hold more than 10% of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate for more than 90 consecutive days may proceed to convene and chair the meeting on their own initiative.

Article 51 Where the audit and risk committee or the shareholders proceed(s) to convene a general meeting, the board of directors shall be notified in writing, and records shall be filed with the stock exchange.

Prior to announcement of resolutions passed by the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholding percentage of the convening shareholders shall not be less than 10%.

The audit and risk committee or the convening shareholders shall submit the relevant proof materials to the stock exchange at the time of issuance of notice of the general meeting and announcement of resolutions passed by the general meeting.

Article 52 For the shareholders' general meetings convened by the audit and risk committee or shareholders themselves, the board of directors and the board secretary shall cooperate, provide necessary support and fulfill the obligation of information disclosure in a timely manner. The board of directors will provide the register of members as at the date of record.

Article 53 Where the audit and risk committee or the shareholders proceed(s) to convene a general meeting, the necessary expenses shall be borne by the Company.

Section 5 Proposals and Notices of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 54 The contents of the proposal shall fall within the terms of reference of the shareholders' general meeting and have specified subjects and specific resolutions, in further compliance with the laws, administrative regulations and the Company's Articles of Association.

Article 55 When the Company convenes a shareholders' general meeting, the board of directors and the audit and risk committee, as well as shareholders who hold 1% or more of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate, shall have the right to propose motions.

Holders of ordinary shares who hold 1% or more of the Company's shares individually or in aggregate may propose provisional proposals 10 days before convening of a shareholders' general meeting and submit them in writing to the convener. The convener shall issue a supplementary notice of the general meeting within two days upon receipt of the proposal, and to announce the contents of the provisional proposals, and submit the same to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration, unless the provisional proposals violate laws, administrative regulations or the provisions of the Articles of Association, or fall out of the scope of authority of the shareholders' general meeting.

Except for circumstances stipulated in the preceding paragraph, upon announcement of the notice of shareholders' general meeting, the convener shall not amend the proposals set out in the notice of shareholders' general meeting or insert new proposals.

The shareholders' general meetings shall not vote on or pass the resolutions which are not specified in the notice convening the general meetings or do not meet the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 56 Each shareholder shall be informed of the annual general meeting by way of announcement 20 days before the meeting, and each shareholder of the extraordinary general meeting shall be informed by way of announcement 15 days before the meeting. In determining the commencement date and the period, the Company shall not include the date on which the meeting is held. Where the laws and regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the securities regulatory authorities have any other provisions, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 57 The notice of the shareholders' general meeting includes the following information:

- (I) the place, date and period of the meeting;
- (II) the matters and proposals to be submitted and considered at the meeting;
- (III) a conspicuous statement that all ordinary shareholders (including preferential shareholders with restored voting rights) are entitled to attend the shareholders' general meeting, and may authorize in writing a proxy to attend and vote at such meeting, and that a proxy does not need to be a shareholder of the Company;
- (IV) specify the date of registration of equity entitlements for shareholders entitled to attend the general meeting;
- (V) state the names and telephone numbers of the permanent contact persons for conference affairs;
- (VI) specify the voting time and procedures for online voting or in other voting methods.

The starting time of online voting or other voting methods at the shareholders' general meeting shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. the day before the on-site shareholders' general meeting, and shall not be later than 9:30 a.m. on the day of the on-site shareholders' general meeting, and the end time shall not be earlier than 3:00 p.m. on the day when the on-site general meeting ends.

The starting time of voting through the internet shall be 9:15 a.m. on the day when the general meeting will be held, and the latest time for such voting shall be 3:00 p.m. on the day when the general meeting is concluded.

Any notice and supplementary notice of shareholders' general meetings shall sufficiently and completely disclose all the details of all proposals. If any matter to be discussed requires opinions of the independent directors, the opinions and reasons of the independent directors shall be disclosed together with the issuance of such notice.

There shall be at least two trading days between the general meeting record date and the starting date of the online poll. The interval between the shareholding record date of a shareholders' general meeting and the date of the meeting shall not exceed 7 working days. Once the shareholding record date is confirmed, it shall not be altered.

For holders of overseas-listed securities, the Company shall notify them according to the listing rules and relevant provisions of the overseas securities regulatory authority and the stock exchange in places where the shares of the Company are listed. Subject to compliance with relevant provisions, for holders of overseas-listed securities, the Company may also, within the meeting notice period stipulated in the Articles of Association, issue notice of the shareholders' general meeting by means of posting on the Company's website and/or the website of the stock exchange where the overseas-listed shares of the Company are listed or by other means permitted by the rules of the overseas securities regulatory authority and the stock exchange in places where the shares of the Company are listed.

Article 58 In the event that matters involving the election of directors are to be considered at the shareholders' general meeting, the notice of such general meeting shall fully disclose the detailed information of the candidates for such directors, which shall at least include the following:

- (I) personal particulars including educational background, working experience and any part-time job, as well as work situations in companies where one holds more than 5% of the shares or is the actual controller;

- (V) whether they have been punished by the CSRC or other relevant authority or have received disciplinary sanctions by a stock exchange; whether they have been investigated by judiciary authorities for the case of suspected crime or inspected by the CSRC for suspected violation of laws or regulations and there has been no conclusion thereon; if yes, the convener shall disclose the details of the aforementioned circumstances with the candidates, reasons for recommending the candidates, whether there are any effects on the standard operation and corporate governance of the Company and the countermeasures therefor;

- (VI) whether there is any act of dishonesty;
- (VII) whether there is any circumstance under which a person shall not be nominated as a director, and whether he/she meets the qualifications required by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, regulatory documents, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and other rules of the stock exchange and the Articles of Association.

Apart from directors elected through the cumulative voting system, each candidate of director shall be individually proposed.

Article 59 After issuance of the notice for a general meeting, the general meeting shall not be postponed or cancelled without proper reasons and the proposals specified in the notice shall not be withdrawn. In case of delay or cancellation, the convener shall give a notice stating reasons at least 2 business days before the original meeting date.

Section 6 The Convening of Shareholders' General Meeting

Article 60 The board of directors and other conveners shall take all necessary measures to ensure that the general meeting is conducted in an orderly manner and shall take steps to prevent any activities interfering with the general meeting and infringing the legal interests of shareholders and report such activities to the relevant authority.

Article 61 All shareholders with ordinary shares in the register as at the date of share record or their proxies shall have the right to attend a shareholders' general meeting, and exercise voting rights pursuant to the relevant laws, regulations and the Articles of Association.

A shareholder may attend and vote at the shareholders' general meeting in person or by proxy. A shareholder's proxy may exercise the shareholder's right to speak at the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the shareholder's entrustment.

If the shareholder is an accredited clearing house (or its proxy) as defined under the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong), it may, as it thinks fit, appoint one or more persons as its proxies to attend and vote at any shareholders' general meeting or meeting of creditors. However, if more than one person is appointed, the instrument of proxy shall specify the number and class of the shares relating to each such proxy. The proxy may be signed by the authorized person of the accredited clearing house. Such person so appointed may attend the meeting and exercise the rights (including the rights to speak and vote) on behalf of the accredited clearing house (or its proxy) (not requiring presence of the shareholding voucher, notarized authorization and/or further evidences to prove the duly authorization) as if such person is an individual shareholder of the Company.

Article 62 Individual shareholders attending the meeting in person shall present their personal identity cards or other valid certificates or documents for identification. Proxies attending the meeting shall present their personal identity cards and the proxy statements from the shareholder.

Corporate shareholders shall be represented by their legal representative or proxies authorized by the legal representative. Legal representatives attending the meeting shall present their personal identity cards or valid documents that can prove their identities as the legal representative. Proxies authorized to attend the meeting shall present their personal identity cards or the written proxy statement legally issued by the legal representative of the legal person shareholder.

Article 63 The instrument appointing a proxy to attend a shareholders' general meeting issued by a shareholder shall include the following information:

- (I) Name of the entrusting party and the class and number of shares held in the Company;
- (II) Name of the proxy;
- (III) The specific instructions of the shareholder, including the instruction to vote for, against or abstain from voting in respect of each agenda item of the shareholders' general meeting. For H Share shareholders who appoint a proxy to attend the shareholders' general meeting, the instrument of proxy shall contain a statement that in the absence of specific instructions by the shareholder whether the proxy may vote as he/she thinks fit;
- (IV) Date of issuance of the proxy form and the validity period;
- (V) Signature (or affixation of seal) by the entrusting party. Where the entrusting party is a corporate shareholder, the seal of the corporate shareholder shall be affixed or the signature of the director or officially authorized entrusting proxy shall be signed. Attendance by proxy at a general meeting shall be deemed as attendance by such corporate shareholder in person.

Article 64 Where a proxy form for a voting proxy is signed by a person authorized by the entrusting party, the proxy form or any other authorization document shall be notarized. The notarized proxy form or any other authorization document and the proxy form for a voting proxy shall be kept at the Company's premises or any other premises designated in the notice of meeting.

Article 65 The Company shall be responsible for compiling the attendee register which shall include, among others, the name of attendee (or name of relevant unit), ID number, the number of shares with voting rights that he holds or represents, and name of the person (or name of relevant unit) who attends the meeting by proxy.

Article 66 The convener and lawyers engaged by the Company shall verify the legitimate qualification of shareholders in accordance with the register of shareholders provided by the securities depository and clearing institutions, and shall register the names of shareholders and the number of voting shares each of them holds. The registration shall end before the chairperson of the meeting announces the number of shareholders and proxies attending the meeting and the total number of voting shares they hold.

Article 67 If a shareholders' general meeting requires directors and senior management to attend the meeting as non-voting attendees, the directors and senior management shall attend and answer inquiries from shareholders.

Article 68 The shareholders' general meeting shall be presided over by the chairman of the board. In the event that the chairman is incapable of performing or not performing his duties, a director nominated by more than half of the directors shall preside over the meeting.

The convener of the audit and risk committee shall chair a shareholders' general meeting convened by the audit and risk committee. Where the convener of the audit and risk committee is unable to perform his duties or does not perform his duties, a member of the audit and risk committee nominated by more than half of the members of the audit and risk committee shall chair the meeting.

In the case of a shareholders' general meeting convened by shareholders, the convener or his/her recommended representative shall preside over the meeting.

Where the chairman of the meeting violates the rules of procedure and as a result thereof, the shareholders' general meeting is unable to continue, upon consent of the shareholders holding more than half of voting rights and present at the shareholders' general meeting, the shareholders' general meeting may elect a person to chair the meeting so that the meeting may continue.

Article 69 The Company shall formulate the procedural rules of the shareholders' general meeting which shall set out in detail the procedures of convention and voting in respect of the shareholders' general meeting, including notices, registration, consideration and approval for proposals, voting, vote counting, announcement on voting results, formation of the resolution, meeting minutes and signing, announcements and other contents, and the principles of authorization granted to the board of directors at the shareholders' general meeting. The scope of authorization shall be specified in detail. The shareholders' general meeting shall not delegate the functions and powers legally exercised by the shareholders' general meeting to the board of directors or other institutions and individuals. The procedural rules of the shareholders' general meeting shall be prepared by the board of directors, approved at the shareholders' general meeting and attached to the Articles of Association as an appendix.

Article 70 At an annual general meeting, the board of directors shall report to the shareholders' general meeting on the work done in the past year. Each independent director shall submit their work report.

Article 71 Directors and senior management shall at the shareholders' general meeting make explanation and statement on the inquiries and suggestions from shareholders.

Article 72 Prior to voting, the chairman of the meeting shall announce the number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them. The number of shareholders and proxies present and the total number of voting shares held by them shall be subject to the meeting registration.

Article 73 The minutes of shareholders' general meetings shall be maintained by the secretary of the board of directors. The minutes shall state the following contents:

(I) time, place and agenda of the meeting and name of the convener;

- (II) name of the chairman of the meeting and directors and senior management present at the meeting as non-voting attendees;
- (III) number of the present shareholders and proxies, the total number of voting shares they represent and the percentage of the total shares of the Company they represent;
- (IV) the discussions in respect of each proposal, highlights of the speeches made at the meeting and the voting results;
- (V) details of the queries or recommendations of the shareholders, and the corresponding answers or explanations;
- (VI) the names of lawyers, counting officers and scrutinizers;
- (VII) such other matters which shall be recorded in the meeting minutes in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association.

Article 74 The convener shall ensure that the contents of the minutes are true, accurate and complete. The directors, the secretary of the board of directors, the convener or their representative, and the chairman of the shareholders' general meeting shall sign on the minutes of the meeting. The minutes of meeting shall be kept together with the attendance record of the attending shareholders, the power of attorney for the attendance of proxies and the valid information of voting via online or other ways for a term of not less than 10 years.

Article 75 The convener shall ensure that the general meeting is held continuously until final resolutions are reached. In the event that the general meeting is adjourned or resolutions fail to be reached due to force majeure or other special reasons, measures shall be taken to resume the meeting as soon as possible or the meeting shall be concluded immediately, and an announcement shall be promptly made accordingly. The convener shall also report the same to the local agency of the CSRC and the stock exchange of the place where the Company is domiciled.

Section 7 Voting and Resolutions at Shareholders' General Meetings

Article 76 Resolutions of a shareholders' general meeting shall comprise ordinary resolutions and special resolutions.

An ordinary resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than half of voting rights of shareholders who are present at the shareholders' general meeting (including their proxy).

A special resolution of a shareholders' general meeting shall be passed by votes representing more than 2/3 of voting rights of shareholders who are present at the shareholders' general meeting (including their proxy).

In accordance with the laws and regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the relevant regulations of the securities regulatory authorities, the holders of the H shares or the domestic listed shares shall go through the approval procedures in respect of the matters which are subject to their consideration in accordance with the applicable laws, regulations and regulatory requirements.

(IX) matters deemed by independent directors as likely to infringe upon the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders;

(X) other matters as required by laws and regulations and relevant provisions of the Shenzhen Stock Exchange.

The shares held by the Company shall have no voting right, and shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights of shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Where a shareholder purchases any shares with voting rights of the Company in violation of paragraphs 1 and 2 of Article 63 of the Securities Law, voting rights of the shares exceeding the specified proportion shall not be exercisable within 36 months after the purchase, and such shares shall not be included in the total number of shares with voting rights of shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Where any shareholder is, under applicable laws and regulations and the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed, required to abstain from voting on any particular resolution or restricted to voting only for or only against any particular resolution, any votes cast by or on behalf of such shareholder in contravention of such requirement or restriction shall not be counted.

The board of directors, independent directors, shareholders holding 1% or more of voting shares, or investor protection institutions established in accordance with laws, administrative regulations or the regulations of the CSRC may publicly solicit proxies from the Company's shareholders to attend the shareholders' general meeting on their behalf and exercise shareholders' rights, such as the right to propose motions and vote. Except as otherwise provided by laws and regulations, the Company and the convener of the shareholders' general meeting shall not impose conditions on the proxy solicitor.

The solicitation of shareholders' rights shall be conducted on a gratuitous basis, and sufficient information necessary for shareholders to make an authorization shall be fully disclosed to the solicitees. It is prohibited to solicit shareholders' voting rights in the form of compensation or disguised compensation.

Article 80 Where a related party transaction is considered at a general meeting, the interested shareholder(s) shall abstain from voting, and the voting shares held by the interested shareholder(s) shall not be counted in the total number of voting shares. The announcement on the resolutions of the general meeting shall fully disclose the voting of the non-interested shareholders.

The abstaining and voting procedures for interested shareholders in considering related party transactions are as follows:

- (I) Where a shareholder is interested in a matter to be considered at a general meeting, such shareholder shall disclose his interest in the matter to the board of directors before the holding of the general meeting;
- (II) In considering related party transactions at a general meeting, the chairman of the meeting shall identify the interested shareholder(s) and explain the interests of the interested shareholder(s) in the related party transactions;
- (III) The chairman of the meeting shall announce that the interested shareholder(s) shall abstain from voting and that the non-interested shareholder(s) shall consider and vote on the related party transactions;
- (IV) A resolution on related party transactions shall be passed by more than half of the voting shares of non-interested shareholders present at the meeting. Where the transaction falls within the scope of special resolution, it shall be passed by more than 2/3 of the voting shares of non-interested shareholders present at the meeting;
- (V) Where the interested shareholder(s) fail(s) to disclose the interest or to abstain from voting in accordance with the foregoing procedures, the resolutions on such related party transactions shall be invalid.

Article 81 Save that the Company is under exceptional circumstances such as crisis, unless approved by way of special resolution at a shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall not enter into any contracts with any person other than the directors and senior management personnel pursuant to which the management of all or a substantial part of the business of the Company will be given to such person.

Article 82 The list of candidates for directors shall be proposed to the shareholders' general meeting for votes.

If any single shareholder of the Company and his parties acting in concert have interest in more than 30% of shares and where more than two non-independent directors or more than two independent directors are elected at a shareholders' general meeting of the Company, the cumulative voting system shall be adopted.

The cumulative voting system as referred to in the preceding paragraph means that in the election of directors at the shareholders' general meeting, the voting right each share has equals the number of candidates for directors. Shareholders may use their voting right collectively. The board of directors shall announce to shareholders the resumes and basic information of these candidates for directors.

Methods and procedures for nomination of directors: the board of directors, the shareholders individually or jointly holding more than 1% of the shares of the Company and the audit and risk committee shall propose to the board of directors. Upon consideration and approval by the board of directors, the board of directors shall propose to the general meeting for consideration and approval.

The board of directors, shareholders separately or jointly holding more than 1% of the Company's issued shares may propose the candidates for independent directors, and subject to the election of the shareholders' general meeting, the nominator shall not nominate any person with whom he/she has interests or any other person with close relationship who may affect his/her independent performance as an independent director candidate. A legally established investor protection institution may publicly request shareholders to entrust it to exercise the right to nominate independent directors on its behalf.

Article 83 Except for the cumulative voting system, all resolutions proposed at the shareholders' general meeting shall be voted one by one, and for different proposals on the same matter, voting will be conducted according to the time sequence these proposals are put forward. Other than special reasons such as force majeure which results in the interruption of the meeting or makes it impossible to come to resolution, the shareholders' general meeting shall not postpone the proposals or shall vote on them.

Article 84 When considering a proposal at the shareholders' general meeting, no change shall be made thereto. Otherwise, such change shall be treated as a new proposal which shall not be processed for voting at the general meeting.

Article 85 The same voting right shall only be exercised by one means, either through onsite voting or via internet or other voting means. If the same voting right is exercised by more than one means, the result of the first vote cast shall prevail.

Article 86 At any shareholders' general meeting, voting shall be conducted by open ballot.

Article 87 Before the shareholders' general meeting votes on proposals, it shall elect two shareholder representatives to count the votes and scrutinize the voting. If any shareholder is related to the matter to be discussed, the relevant shareholder and his proxy shall not participate in vote counting or scrutinize the voting.

When a shareholders' general meeting vote on proposals, the counting of votes and scrutinizing of voting shall be conducted together by lawyers, shareholder representatives and duly appointed scrutineers of the Company. The voting results shall be announced during the meeting. The voting results shall be contained in the meeting minutes.

A shareholder of the Company or its proxy, who uses the internet or other voting methods, shall be entitled to verify his voting results through relevant voting system.

Article 88 The on-site voting shall not end earlier than the network voting or any other method of voting at the shareholders' general meeting. The presider of the meeting shall announce details of voting in connection with each proposal and the voting result. The chairman of the meeting shall be held responsible for announcing whether or not a resolution has been passed based on voting result.

Prior to the formal announcement of voting results, the relevant parties including the companies, the persons responsible for counting votes and scrutinizing the conduct of the relevant poll, the major shareholders, and the person in charge of the relevant internet service provider involved in relation to voting at the shareholders' general meeting, online voting or other means of voting, shall be obliged to keep the status of voting confidential.

Article 89 Shareholders who attend the shareholders' general meeting shall take one of the following stances when a resolution is put forward for voting: for, against or abstain. Except for the securities registration and clearing institution, who acts as the nominal holder of stocks under the Stock Connect Mechanism between the Mainland and Hong Kong stock markets, declares in accordance with the actual holders' wishes.

Any unfilled, improperly filled or poorly handwritten votes or votes that are not cast shall be considered as abstentions from voting by the shareholders. Its respective shares shall be counted as "abstentions" in the voting results.

Article 90 If the presider of the meeting has any doubt about the result of the resolution submitted for voting, he/she may organize a vote-counting. If the presider of the meeting does not conduct a vote-counting, and the shareholders or proxies attending the meeting have any doubt about the results announced by the presider of the meeting, they shall have the right to ask for a vote-counting immediately after the announcement of the voting results, and the presider of the meeting should immediately organize the vote-counting.

Article 91 The resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting shall be announced in a timely manner, and the announcement shall indicate the number of shareholders and proxies that attended the meeting, the total number of voting shares and its proportion to the total share capital carrying voting rights of the Company, and the voting method, voting results of each resolution and details of each resolution passed.

Article 92 If any proposal is not adopted, or the current shareholders' general meeting amends the resolution of the last shareholders' general meeting, special reminder thereof shall be given in the announcement of the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 93 If a proposal on the election of directors is approved at the shareholders' general meeting, the term of office of the newly appointed directors shall commence immediately after the conclusion of the meeting.

Article 94 If any proposal for a cash dividend, share allocation, or conversion from capital reserves to share capital is adopted at the shareholders' general meeting, the Company shall implement detailed plans within 2 months after the end of the shareholders' general meeting.

Chapter 5 Directors and Board of Directors

Section 1 General Provisions for Directors

Article 95 The directors of the Company shall be natural persons. The directors do not need to hold shares of the Company. Directors include executive directors, non-executive directors and independent non-executive directors.

In one of the following cases, a person is not allowed to fill the position of director:

- (I) Have no capacity for civil conduct or limited capacity for civil conduct;
- (II) Be subject to criminal penalty due to corruption, bribery, embezzlement of property, appropriation of property, or destroying socialist market economy order, or be deprived of political rights due to crime, and no more than five years have passed after expiration of the execution period, or, in the case of suspension of execution, the probationary period has not expired for more than 2 years;
- (III) Act as a director, factory chief, manager of a company or enterprise which is subject to bankruptcy liquidation, and bear personal liability for the bankruptcy of the company or enterprise, and no more than 3 years have passed after the date when the bankruptcy liquidation of the company or enterprise is finished;
- (IV) Act as a legal representative of a company or enterprise that has its license revoked or is ordered to close down due to law breaking and bear personal liability for it, and no more than 3 years have passed after the date when the company or enterprise has its license revoked or is ordered to close down;
- (V) An individual who is listed as dishonest person subject to execution by a People's Court due to bearing liability of large sum which is not paid off after expiration;
- (VI) Be under the penalty of the CSRC that securities market entry for serving as a director or senior management of a listed company is forbidden, and the time limit has not been reached;
- (VII) An individual who is recognized by the stock exchange as unsuitable to serve as a director or senior management member of listed companies for a period which has not yet expired;
- (VIII) Other content stipulated by laws, administrative regulations or departmental rules.

The nomination and governance committee of the board of directors of the Company shall review the qualification of director candidates. When disclosing information on director candidates, the Company shall concurrently disclose the review opinions issued by the nomination and governance committee of the board of directors.

If election or appointment of a director is conducted breaking stipulations of this Article, this election, appointment, or recruitment is ineffective. If a director falls under any circumstance specified in paragraph 2 of this Article in his/her tenure, he or she shall immediately cease performing his or her duties, and the board of directors shall immediately remove him or her from office in accordance with the regulations upon becoming aware or should have become aware of such fact.

The nomination and governance committee of the board of directors of the Company shall assess the qualifications of directors. Where any director is found unqualified for the position, it shall promptly submit a proposal for dismissal to the board of directors.

Article 96 Directors shall be elected or replaced at a shareholders' general meeting and may be removed from office prior to the expiry of their tenure, and the tenure shall be 3 years. Upon expiry of the tenure of a director, the tenure may be renewed if he/she is re-elected. However, the continuous appointment of independent non-executive director may not exceed 6 years.

The shareholders' general meeting may, subject to relevant laws, administrative regulations, and relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities at the place where the shares of the Company are listed, by way of an ordinary resolution, remove any director whose term of office has not expired, without prejudice to the director's claim for damages available under any contract. Where a director is removed before expiration of his/her term of office by the Company without justifiable reasons, the director may demand indemnification from the Company. The term of office of a director shall commence from the date upon which the resolution is passed at the shareholders' general meeting at which the director is elected (unless otherwise provided in the resolution of such shareholders' general meeting) until the expiry of the term of office of the current session of the Board. Where the re-election of directors is not held in time after the term of office of the existing directors has expired, the original director shall, before the newly-elected director assumes his post, carry out duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules and the Articles of Association.

The senior management members may concurrently serve as directors, provided that the total number of directors who concurrently serve as senior management members and directors who are employee representatives shall not exceed one half of the total number of directors of the Company.

Article 97 Directors shall comply with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association and bear fiduciary obligations towards the Company. They shall take measures to avoid conflicts between their own interests and the interests of the Company and shall not use their power to seek improper benefits.

Directors bear the following fiduciary obligations towards the Company:

- (I) Shall not encroach upon the Company's assets or misappropriate the Company's funds;
- (II) Shall not deposit the Company's funds into an account opened in his own name or the name of another individual;
- (III) Shall not make use of powers to accept bribes or other illegal income;
- (IV) Shall not enter into a contract or transaction, directly or indirectly, with the Company without reporting to the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting and obtaining the approval of the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting by resolutions in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association;
- (V) Shall not make use of their position to seek business opportunities which belong to the Company for himself/herself or others, except where they have reported to the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting and obtained the approval of the shareholders' general meeting by resolutions, or the Company is unable to take advantage of such business opportunity according to the provisions of laws, administrative regulations or the Articles of Association;

- (VI) Shall not engage in the same type of businesses as the Company on his own or for others without reporting to the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting and obtaining the approval of the shareholders' general meeting by resolutions;
- (VII) Shall not pocket commissions of transactions of others with the Company;
- (VIII) Shall not disclose Company secrets without authorization;
- (IX) Shall not make use of their relationships to compromise the interests of the Company;
- (X) Any other fiduciary obligations stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Income derived by a director from violation of the provisions of this Article shall belong to the Company; where the Company suffers losses thereto, the director shall be liable for compensation.

Where the close relatives of the directors and senior management, the enterprises directly or indirectly controlled by the directors and senior management or their close relatives, and the related persons who have other related relationships with the directors and senior management enter into contracts or transactions with the Company, the provisions in (IV) of the second paragraph of this Article shall apply.

Where a director of the Company, in accordance with the provisions of items (V) and (VI) of paragraph 2 of this Article, seeks business opportunities which belong to the Company for himself/herself or others, or engages in the same type of businesses as the Company on his/her own or for others, he/she shall fully explain the reasons therefor, specify measures to prevent conflicts between personal interests and the Company's interests as well as impacts on the Company, and make disclosures accordingly.

Article 98 Directors shall comply with the provisions of laws, administrative regulations and the Articles of Association, and bear diligence obligations towards the Company. They shall exercise due care generally expected of managers in the best interests of the Company when performing their duties. Directors shall ensure that they have sufficient time and energy to fulfill their duties.

Directors bear the following diligence obligations towards the Company:

- (I) Exercise the rights conferred by the Company prudently, seriously and diligently to ensure that the commercial activities of the Company comply with laws and administrative regulations of the State and the requirements of various economic policies of the State and the commercial activities shall not exceed the scope of business stipulated in the business license;
- (II) Treat all shareholders fairly;
- (III) Get a timely grasp of the status of the Company's business and management;

- (IV) Issue a written confirmation on the regular reports of the Company to ensure the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed;
- (V) Provide the relevant information and materials to the audit and risk committee truthfully, and shall not hinder exercise of powers by the audit and risk committee;
- (VI) Any other duty of diligence stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 99 A director who fails to attend two consecutive meetings of the board of directors in person or by proxy shall be deemed to be unable to perform his/her duties. The board of directors shall propose to the shareholders' general meeting to remove such director.

Article 100 A director may resign before expiry of his/her term of office, subject to submission of a written resignation report to the Company. The resignation shall take effect on the day when the Company receives the resignation report, and the Company shall make disclosure of relevant information within 2 trading days. The independent director should resign by submitting a written resignation report to the board of directors which contains explanation on any matter relevant to his/her resignation or matter that is necessary to be brought to the attention of shareholders and creditors of the Company. The Company shall disclose the reasons for the resignation of independent directors and the matters of concern.

Where the number of members of the board of directors falls below the quorum due to the resignation of any director, or the number of independent directors in the board of directors or special committees falls below the statutory percentage due to the resignation of independent directors or absence of accounting professionals in the independent directors, or where the composition of the board of directors or a special committee fails to meet the requirements of laws and regulations or the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed due to the resignation of any directors, the resignation report of such director shall not take effect until the successor fills the vacancy arising from his/her resignation. In the above circumstances, the original director shall, before the newly-elected director assumes his post, carry out duties as a director in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association. The Company shall complete its by-election within 60 days from the date of occurrence of the above facts relating to the independent directors.

Except for the circumstances specified in the preceding paragraph, the resignation of a director shall become effective when the resignation report is received by the Company.

Article 101 The Company has a system in place to manage the departure of Directors, which specifies safeguard measures for pursuing and recovering liability for unfulfilled public commitments and other outstanding matters. When a director's resignation takes effect or his/her term of office expires, he/she shall duly complete all handover procedures with the board of directors. His/her fiduciary duties towards the Company and shareholders do not necessarily cease after the expiry of his/her term of office. His/her obligation to keep the trade secrets of the Company confidential shall remain effective after the expiry of his/her term of office until such secrets become publicly available information. The liabilities that a director shall bear for performing his or her duties during his or her term of office shall not be exempted or terminated due to resignation. Any commitments that a director has not yet fulfilled upon resignation shall still be performed. Other duties may continue for such period as fairness may require depending on the time lapse between the act concerned and the termination as well as the circumstances and terms under which his/her relationships with the Company has been terminated.

Any director whose term of office has not expired shall be liable for compensation for any loss caused to the Company as a result of his/her unauthorised resignation.

If a director cannot resign due to his unfinished duties to the Company or the unfinished audit, he/she shall bear liabilities to compensate for the losses caused by his/her unauthorized absence to the Company.

The Company shall conduct review on resigned directors in respect of any unperformed duties, pending commitments and suspected illegal or irregular conducts.

Article 102 No director shall act on behalf of the Company or the board of directors in his/ her personal capacity, unless specified under the Articles of Association or legally authorized by the board of directors. When a director acts in his/her personal capacity and a third party may reasonably believe that such director is acting on behalf of the Company or the board of directors, such director shall declare his/her position and capacity in advance.

Article 103 If a director causes damages to others in performing his/her duties for the Company, the Company shall be liable for compensation; and the director shall also be liable for compensation if he/she is found to have conducted intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

If a director violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in performing his/her duties for the Company and causes losses to the Company, such director shall be liable for compensation, and the board of directors of the Company shall take measures to pursue his/her legal liabilities.

Article 104 If there is a conflict between shareholders or directors of the Company that has a material impact on the operation and management of the company, the independent directors shall actively perform their duties to safeguard the overall interests of the Company.

Section 2 Board of Directors

Article 105 The Company shall have a board of directors, which shall be accountable to the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 106 The board of directors shall comprise 6 directors, and the number of independent non-executive directors shall account for more than 1/3 of the total and shall not be less than three, and shall include at least one accounting professional.

A verbal notice of meeting shall at least include items (I) and (II) above, and an explanation of the circumstances under which a provisional board meeting is required to be convened as soon as possible.

Article 119 The quorum of a board meeting shall be a simple majority of the directors. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association, board resolutions shall be passed by a simple majority of all the directors.

When the board of directors resolves on financial assistance as well as guarantees, the above shall be approved by more than 2/3 of directors on the board meeting.

One person one vote shall apply to voting for board resolutions.

Article 120 A director who is related to an enterprise or an individual involved in a board resolution shall submit a report in writing to the board of directors. Such related director shall abstain from voting for the board resolution and shall not represent another director in exercise of voting rights. The board meeting may be held with the quorum of a simple majority of unrelated directors, and resolutions passed by the board meeting shall require a simple majority of votes of unrelated directors. Where the number of unrelated directors present at the board meeting is less than three, the said matter shall be tabled at a shareholders' general meeting for deliberation.

Article 121 Resolutions of the board of directors shall be voted by a show of hands, open ballot, communication voting and other means permitted by laws and regulations.

Provisional board meetings may be held by means of communication such as fax and email, provided that directors can fully express their opinions, and directors attending the meetings shall sign on the resolutions.

Article 122 Meetings of the board of directors shall be attended by the directors in person. If a director is unable to attend the meeting for any reason, he/she may authorise in writing another director to attend the meeting on his/her behalf. The power of attorney shall specify the name of the proxy, the matters to be authorised, the scope and term of authorization, and shall bear the signature or seal of the principal. The directors who attend the meeting on behalf of another director shall exercise the rights as directors within the scope of authorization. If a director fails to attend a board meeting and does not appoint a proxy to attend on his/her behalf, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her voting rights at such meeting.

When deliberating matters submitted for decision by the board of directors, directors shall fully gather information and prudently assess whether the matters under discussion involve their own interests, whether they fall within the scope of the board's authority, whether the materials are sufficient, and whether the voting procedures are lawful.

Article 123 The board of directors shall keep minutes of its decisions on the matters discussed at the meeting. The attending directors, the secretary to the board of directors and the recorder shall sign on the minutes.

The minutes of the board meetings shall be kept as company files for no less than 10 years.

Article 124 Minutes of a board meeting shall include the following:

- (I) the date, venue, agenda and name of the convener of the meeting;
- (II) the names of the chairperson of the meeting and persons attending or present at the meeting;
- (III) the speeches of each director;
- (IV) the voting methods and results of each resolution;
- (V) other matters required to be recorded under the Articles of Association.

Section 3 Independent Directors

Article 125 Independent directors shall conscientiously perform their duties in accordance with laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC and the stock exchanges, and the Articles of Association, play a role in participating in decision-making, supervising and balancing, and providing professional advice in the board of directors, safeguard the overall interests of the Company, and protect the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders.

Article 126 Independent directors shall maintain their independence, and the following persons shall not serve as independent directors:

- (I) persons working for the Company or its subsidiaries, their spouses, parents and children, and major social relations;
- (II) natural person shareholders who directly or indirectly hold more than 1% of the Company's issued shares or who are among the Company's top ten shareholders, and their spouses, parents and children;
- (III) persons who work for shareholders who directly or indirectly hold more than 5% of the Company's issued shares or who work for the Company's top five shareholders, and their spouses, parents, and children;
- (IV) persons serving in the subsidiaries of the Company's controlling shareholders and de facto controllers, and their spouses, parents and children;
- (V) persons who have significant business dealings with the Company, its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers or their respective subsidiaries, or who serve in entities with which they have significant business dealings and their controlling shareholders or de facto controllers;
- (VI) persons providing financial, legal, consulting and sponsorship and other services to the Company, its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers or their respective subsidiaries; including, but not limited to, all members of the project team of the intermediaries providing the services, reviewers at all levels, persons signing the report, partners, directors, senior management and principals;

(VII) persons who have been in the situations listed in (I) to (VI) within the last twelve months;

(VIII) other persons who do not possess independence as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, the business rules of the stock exchange and the Articles of Association. The subsidiaries of the controlling shareholders and actual controllers of the Company referred to in (iv) to (vi) of the preceding paragraph shall not include enterprises that are under the control of the same state-owned asset management authority as the Company and are not deemed to constitute a related party relationship with the Company in accordance with relevant regulations.

Independent directors shall conduct an annual self-examination of independence and submit the self-examination to the board of directors. The board of directors shall evaluate and issue a special opinion on the independence of the incumbent independent directors on an annual basis, which shall be disclosed at the same time with the annual report.

Article 127 An independent director shall satisfy the following conditions:

(I) being qualified to be a director of the listed company in accordance with laws, administrative regulations and other relevant provisions;

(II) having the independence required by the Articles of Association;

(III) having the basic knowledge of operation of the listed company and being familiar with the relevant laws, regulations and rules;

(IV) having at least five years of working experience in law, accounting or economics necessary for performing the duties of an independent director;

(V) having good personal integrity and no major breach of trust or other adverse records;

(VI) other conditions stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC, the business rules of the stock exchange and the Articles of Association.

Article 128 As a member of the board of directors, an independent director bears fiduciary obligations and diligence obligations to the Company and all shareholders, and shall prudently perform the following duties:

(I) participating in the decision-making of the board of directors and expressing clear opinions on the matters under consideration;

(II) supervising potential material conflicts of interest between the listed company and its controlling shareholders, de facto controllers, directors and senior management to protect the legitimate rights and interests of minority shareholders;

(III) providing professional and objective advice on the Company's operation and development, and promoting the enhancement of the decision-making level of the board of directors;

(IV) other duties stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC and the Articles of Association.

Article 129 The independent directors shall exercise the following special powers and functions:

- (I) independently engaging intermediaries to conduct an audit, consultation or verification on specific matters of the Company;
- (II) proposing to the board of directors to convene an extraordinary shareholders' general meeting;
- (III) proposing to convene a board meeting;
- (IV) publicly soliciting shareholders' rights from shareholders in accordance with laws;
- (V) expressing independent opinions on matters that may harm the interests of the Company or minority shareholders;
- (VI) other powers and functions prescribed by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC and the Articles of Association.

The independent directors shall exercise the powers and functions listed in (I) to (III) of the preceding paragraph with the consent of more than half of all independent directors.

The Company shall disclose in a timely manner any exercise of the powers and functions listed in (I) by independent directors. If the above powers and functions cannot be exercised normally, the Company shall disclose the specific circumstances and reasons.

Article 130 The following matters shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration after obtaining the consent of more than half of all independent directors of the Company:

- (I) related party transactions that should be disclosed;
- (II) plans for changes or exemptions of commitments by the Company and related parties;
- (III) decisions made and measures taken by the board of directors of the acquired listed company in response to the acquisition;
- (IV) other matters as stipulated by laws, administrative regulations, the requirements of the CSRC and the Articles of Association.

Article 131 The Company shall establish a mechanism for special meeting participated by independent directors only. Where the board of directors considers related-party transactions and other matters, prior consent shall be obtained through a special meeting of independent directors.

The Company shall hold a special meeting of independent directors on a regular basis or from time to time. Matters listed in (I) to (III) of paragraph 1 of Article 129, and Article 130 of the Articles of Association shall be considered at a special meeting of independent directors.

A special meeting of independent directors may study and discuss other matters of the Company as necessary.

A special meeting of independent directors shall be convened and presided over by an independent director jointly recommended by a more than half of independent directors; in the event that the convener fails to or is unable to perform his/her duties, two or more independent directors may convene the meeting on their own and recommend one representative to preside over the meeting.

At a special meeting of independent directors, minutes shall be duly kept in accordance with regulations, and the opinions of independent directors shall be recorded in the minutes. Independent directors shall sign to confirm the minutes.

The Company shall provide convenience and support for the convention of a special meeting of independent directors.

Section 4 Special Committees of the Board of Directors

Article 132 The board of directors shall set up special committees including the audit and risk committee, the strategy and investment committee, the remuneration and appraisal committee, the nomination and governance committee and the ESG and sustainable development committee, and formulate the implementation rules for major responsibilities, resolution procedures and rules of procedure of each special committee. The terms of reference of each special committee shall be revised and explained by the board of directors. The special committees shall be accountable to the board of directors and fulfill duties as specified in the Articles of Association and as authorised by the board of directors, and proposals of the committees shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration and approval. The board of directors shall be responsible for formulating the procedures governing the work of the special committees and regulate their operations. The audit and risk committee of the board of directors shall exercise the duties and powers of the board of supervisors as stipulated in the Company Law.

The Company shall convene a meeting to be attended by independent directors only, i.e., the special meeting of independent directors, on a regular basis or from time to time. A special meeting of independent directors operates in accordance with the working rules for independent directors established by the Company.

Article 133 The audit and risk committee shall comprise three independent non-executive directors, at least one of whom shall be an accounting professional, and the convener shall be the accounting professional. The audit and risk committee is responsible for reviewing the Company's financial information and its disclosure, supervising and evaluating internal and external audit work and internal controls, and exercising the duties and powers of the board of supervisors as stipulated in the Company Law. The following matters shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration after obtaining the approval of more than half of all members of the audit and risk committee:

- (I) disclosing financial information in financial accounting reports and periodic reports, as well as internal control evaluation reports;
- (II) overseeing and evaluating the work of external audit institutions, and appointing or replacing external audit institutions;
- (III) appointing or dismissing the financial controller of the listed company;

- (IV) making changes to accounting policies or accounting estimates, or correcting material accounting errors, for reasons other than changes in accounting standards;
- (V) overseeing and evaluating internal audit work, and supervising the Company's internal audit system and its implementation;
- (VI) facilitating communication and coordination between the Company's internal and external audits;
- (VII) reviewing the Company's financial reports and information disclosure, and assessing potential or emerging risks;
- (VIII) overseeing and evaluating the Company's internal controls, monitoring the effectiveness and compliance of company operations, and reviewing major related-party transactions;
- (IX) studying and making recommendations on the establishment of risk management and control systems of the Company, monitoring the implementation of relevant risk management and internal control systems, and periodically reviewing the risk management and control systems;
- (X) studying and making recommendations on the criteria or mechanisms for assessing the Company's major decisions, significant risks, material events, and key business processes;
- (XI) other matters as stipulated or authorised by laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

The above duties and responsibilities shall be further detailed in the Terms of Reference of the Audit and Risk Committee according to the actual needs of the Company.

Article 134 The audit and risk committee shall convene at least one meeting every quarter. A provisional meeting may be convened upon the proposal of two or more members, or when deemed necessary by the convener. Meetings of the audit and risk committee shall only be held with the attendance of more than two-thirds of its members.

Resolutions of the audit and risk committee shall be passed by more than half of its members.

Voting on resolutions of the audit and risk committee shall be conducted on a one-member-one-vote basis.

Minutes are required to be prepared for the resolutions of the audit and risk committee and signed by attending members.

The board of directors shall be responsible for formulating the working procedures of the audit and risk committee.

Article 135 The strategy and investment committee shall consist of three directors, including at least one independent non-executive director. The convener shall be an independent non-executive director, who shall be responsible for convening and presiding over the meetings of the committee. The main duties and responsibilities of the committee are:

- (I) studying and making recommendations on the Company's medium and long-term development plan, business objectives, industrial development direction and layout;

(II) studying and making recommendations on the business strategies of the Company, including but not limited to product strategy, market strategy, marketing strategy, research and development strategy and talent strategy;

(III) studying and making recommendations on major investment and financing plans which are required to be approved by the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association;

(IV) studying and making recommendations on major capital operation and asset management projects which are required to be approved by the board of directors or the shareholders' general meeting in accordance with the Articles of Association;

(V) studying and making recommendations on other major matters affecting the development strategy of the Company;

(VI) tracking and inspecting the implementation of the above matters;

(VII) other matters required or authorised by laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

The above duties and responsibilities will be further detailed in the Terms of Reference of the Strategy and Investment Committee according to the actual needs of the Company.

Article 136 The remuneration and appraisal committee shall comprise three directors, including two independent non-executive directors, and the convener shall be an independent non-executive director. The remuneration and appraisal committee is responsible for establishing the assessment criteria for directors and senior management and conducting such assessments, and formulating and reviewing the remuneration determination mechanisms, decision-making processes, payment and cessation of payment recovery arrangements, and other remuneration policies and plans for directors and senior management, and making recommendations to the board of directors on the following matters:

(I) reviewing the duties and responsibilities of senior management;

(II) reviewing the performance appraisal system and performance appraisal indicators of the senior management, and reviewing and approving the remuneration proposals of the management;

(III) reviewing the remuneration system, policy and structure, remuneration standards and assessment objectives of directors and senior management;

(IV) reviewing the remuneration packages and long-term incentive plans for directors and senior management and making recommendations to the board of directors;

(V) reviewing the qualifications, granting conditions and exercise conditions of the proposed long-term incentive scheme participants, and reviewing the qualifications, granting conditions and exercise conditions of the granted long-term incentive scheme participants;

(VI) the arrangement of stock ownership plans for directors and senior management members in the event of a proposed spin-off of a subsidiary;

(VII) supervising the implementation of the Company's remuneration system;

(VIII) reviewing the performance of duties by the directors and senior management of the Company and conduct annual performance appraisal for them;

(IX) other matters required or authorised by laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

The above duties and responsibilities will be further detailed in the Terms of Reference of the Remuneration and Appraisal Committee based on the actual needs of the Company. If the board of directors does not adopt or does not fully adopt the recommendations of the remuneration and appraisal committee, it shall record the opinions of the remuneration and appraisal committee and the specific reasons for its non-adoption in a resolution of the board of directors and disclose the same.

The remuneration package for the Company's directors and senior management shall be formulated by the remuneration and appraisal committee of the board of directors, specifying the basis for determination and specific components. The remuneration package for directors shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting and disclosed accordingly. Where the board of directors or the remuneration and appraisal committee conducts individual evaluation on a director or discusses his/her remuneration, such director shall abstain.

The remuneration package for senior management shall be approved by the board of directors, explained to the shareholders' general meeting and disclosed in full.

Article 137 The nomination and governance committee shall comprise three directors, including two independent non-executive directors, and the convener shall be an independent non-executive director. The nomination and governance committee shall comprise directors of different genders. The nomination and governance committee is responsible for formulating the selection criteria and procedures for directors and senior management, fully taking into account factors such as the composition and professional structure of the board of directors, screening and reviewing candidates for directors and senior management and their qualifications, and making recommendations to the board of directors on the following matters:

(I) making recommendations to the board of directors on the size and composition of the board of directors, senior management and other key personnel of the Company based on the Company's operating activities, asset scale and shareholding structure;

(II) studying, and making recommendations to the board of directors on, the selection criteria and procedures for directors, senior management and other key personnel of the Company;

(III) extensively identifying qualified candidates for directors and senior management when necessary and making recommendations to the board of directors;

(IV) reviewing the candidates for directors and senior management of the Company who should be proposed to the board of directors for appointment and making recommendations on such nomination;

(V) making recommendations to the current session of the board of directors on the candidates for the next session of board of directors at the general election of the board of directors;

(VI) reviewing the independence of the proposed candidates for independent non-executive directors;

(VII) evaluating the performance of duties by directors and senior management and, if necessary, providing opinions or suggestions on the change of directors or senior management based on the evaluation results;

(VIII) studying, improving or pre-examining the principles, structures, systems and processes of corporate governance and the establishment or adjustment of basic management institutions, and putting forward specific work suggestions and opinions for consideration by the board of directors;

(IX) supervising the corporate governance, reviewing the Articles of Association, the relevant governance rules, the terms of reference of each special committee, the quality of meetings of the board of directors, special committees and independent directors and the implementation of the diversity policy of the composition of the board of directors from time to time, and making recommendations to the board of directors on the adoption or amendment of the Articles of Association, the governance rules and the rules of procedure, and the establishment, improvement or cancellation of other special committees;

(X) other matters required or authorised by laws, regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the Articles of Association.

The above duties and responsibilities will be further detailed in the Terms of Reference of the Nomination and Governance Committee according to the actual needs of the Company. Each special committee shall be accountable to the board of directors, and proposals of each special committee shall be submitted to the board of directors for consideration and approval. Each special committee may engage intermediaries to provide professional advice at the expense of the Company. If the board of directors does not adopt or does not fully adopt the recommendations of the nomination and governance committee, it shall record the opinions of the nomination and governance committee and the specific reasons for its non-adoption in a resolution of the board of directors and disclose the same.

Article 138 The ESG and sustainability committee shall consist of not less than three members of the board of directors, among whom there shall be not less than one independent non-executive director.

The principal duties and powers of the ESG and sustainability committee are as follows:

(i) Formulation of ESG and sustainability vision, objectives and strategies

1. Formulate the Company's ESG and sustainability vision, objectives, strategies and management policies, and provide recommendations to the board of directors on related matters;
2. Identify the Company's key stakeholders and material ESG issues, conduct research on sustainability-related matters involving stakeholders, and put forward recommendations.

(ii) Review of the implementation of ESG and sustainability vision, objectives and strategies

1. Monitor and review the implementation of the Company's ESG and sustainability work and provide recommendations on actions required to enhance ESG performance;

2. Review major environmental, social and governance trends as well as related risks and opportunities, and ensure that the Company's position and performance on ESG and sustainability issues comply with applicable laws, regulations and standards.

(iii) Other matters

1. Review the Company's annual sustainability report;
2. Study other material matters affecting the Company's sustainable development and provide recommendations;
3. Perform such other duties as authorised by the board of directors.

Chapter 6 Senior Management

Article 139 The Company shall establish the position of a general manager to be nominated by the Nomination and Governance Committee of the board of directors, appointed or terminated by the board of directors. Deputy general manager(s), person in charge of finance and so forth are based on nomination by the general manager, appointment and dismissal of the board of directors.

Senior management of the Company includes general manager, deputy general manager(s), person in charge of finance and board secretary.

Article 140 The circumstances under which the personnel cannot take position of a director and the provisions concerning resignation management system as specified in the Articles of Association apply to senior management as well.

The nomination and governance committee of the board of directors shall assess the qualifications of senior management. Where any person is found unqualified for the position, it shall promptly submit a proposal for dismissal to the board of directors.

The fiduciary obligations and the diligence obligations of the Articles of Association shall also apply to senior management. Apart from such obligations, the general manager as well as other senior management shall perform the following obligations:

- (I) Highlight and introduce motions for the board of directors to resolve;
- (II) Cooperate with the independent non-executive directors to work;
- (III) Senior management shall sign on the securities issue documents and regular reports of the Company for written confirmation in order to ensure the timely and fair disclosure of information by the Company and the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the information disclosed. Where a senior management cannot guarantee or has objections to the truthfulness, accuracy and completeness of the information in the securities issue documents and regular reports of the Company, he/she shall express his/her opinions and state the reasons in written confirmation, which shall be disclosed by the Company. The senior management may directly apply for disclosure if the Company fails to do so.

Article 141 Persons who hold positions other than director, supervisor or other executive offices in the Company's controlling shareholder shall not act as the Company's senior management. The senior management of the controlling shareholder concurrently holding the office of the director of the Company shall ensure that they have sufficient time and efforts to fulfill their duties with the Company. The senior management of the Company shall only receive their salaries from the Company, which shall not be paid by the controlling shareholder instead.

Article 142 The tenure of a general manager shall be three years, renewable upon re- appointment.

Article 143 The general manager shall be accountable to the board of directors and shall exercise the following powers:

- (I) Preside over the Company's production and business management, organize implementation of board resolutions, and report to the board of directors on his/her work;
- (II) Organize implementation of the Company's annual business plans and investment plans;
- (III) Formulate the Company's plans for establishment of internal management organizations;
- (IV) Formulate the Company's basic management rules;
- (V) Formulate the Company's specific rules and regulations;
- (VI) Review and approve daily business contract of the Company (except matters that shall be approved by the shareholders' general meeting, board meeting and chairman of board of directors as stipulated above);
- (VII) Propose to the board of directors on appointment or termination of the Company's deputy general manager, person in charge of finance;
- (VIII) Decide on appointment or termination of management personnel other than those whose appointment or termination is decided by the board of directors;
- (IX) Formulate systems and measures concerning the remuneration, benefits, and rewards and punishments for employees other than directors and senior management of the Company;
- (X) Decide on the engagement or termination of intermediaries, except in the situation requiring submission to the board of directors for consideration and approval;
- (XI) Other powers conferred by the Articles of Association or the board of directors.

The general manager shall be present without voting right at board meetings.

Article 144 The general manager shall formulate detailed working rules and submit the same to the board of directors for approval before its implementation.

Article 145 The detailed working rules for the general manager shall include the following:

- (I) the requirements, procedures for convening and attendees of the meeting of the general manager;
- (II) specific duties and roles of each of the general manager and other members of the senior management;
- (III) the usage of the Company's funds and assets, the limits of his/her authority to enter into material contracts, and the mechanism of reporting to the board of directors;
- (IV) other matters as the board of directors shall deemed necessary.

Article 146 The general manager may resign before the expiry of his/her term of office. The detailed procedures and measures for the resignation of the general manager shall be agreed in the employment contract entered into between the general manager and the Company.

Article 147 Senior management such as the Company's deputy general manager(s), deputy general manager(s) person in charge of finance, and so forth shall be appointed or dismissed by the general manager proposing to the board of directors, and assist the general manager in work.

Article 148 The Company shall appoint a board secretary who is a senior management of the Company and shall be nominated by the chairman of the board and appointed and dismissed by the board of directors. The board secretary is responsible for preparation of the Company's shareholders' general meetings and board meetings, safekeeping of documents and administration of information of the Company's shareholders, handling information disclosure matters and investment relationship and dealing with other matters as stipulated by relevant laws and regulations and stock exchanges, etc.

The board secretary shall be present at the shareholders' general meeting and board meetings. As a senior management of the Company, the board secretary shall be entitled to attend relevant meetings, review relevant documents, materials and keep himself/herself abreast of the financial and operation conditions of the Company in order to perform his/her duties, or be entitled to require the relevant departments and personnel of the Company to give explanations on relevant matters. The board of directors and other members of the senior management and relevant departments of the Company shall support the work of the board secretary and shall respond to inquiries raised by the board secretary in a timely and truthful manner and provide the relevant materials. No institution or individual should interfere with the normal performance of duties by the board secretary.

The board secretary shall comply with the relevant provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules, the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed and the Articles of Association.

Article 149 If a senior management member causes damages to others in performing his/her duties for the Company, the Company shall be liable for compensation; and the senior management member shall also be liable for compensation if he/she is found to have conducted intentional misconduct or gross negligence.

A senior management member, in the performance of their duties for the Company, who violates the provisions of laws, administrative regulations, departmental rules or the Articles of Association in performing his/her duties for the Company and causes losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation, and the board of directors of the Company shall take measures to pursue his/her legal liabilities.

Article 150 The senior management of the Company shall faithfully perform their duties and safeguard the best interests of the Company and all shareholders. If the Company's senior management cause damage to the interests of the Company and public shareholders due to the failure to faithfully perform their duties or breach of fiduciary obligations, they shall be liable for compensation in accordance with relevant laws.

Chapter 7 Financial and Accounting System, Profit Distribution and Audit

Section 1 Financial and Accounting System

Article 151 The Company shall establish its financial and accounting system in accordance with the laws, administrative regulations and the requirement of relevant regulatory departments of the PRC.

Article 152 Within 4 months from the closing date of an accounting year, the Company submits to the local office of the CSRC and the stock exchange on which the Shares of the Company are listed the annual report and makes disclosure, and within 2 months from the closing date of the first half of an accounting year submits to the sending bodies of the CSRC and the stock exchange on which the Shares of the Company are listed the interim report and makes disclosure.

The above-mentioned annual and interim reports are compiled in accordance with the stipulations of laws, regulations, CSRC and the stock exchanges.

Article 153 The Company shall not establish account books other than the statutory account books. The assets of the Company shall not be deposited in any personal account.

Article 154 When distributing the after-tax profits of a year, the Company shall set aside 10% of the profits to the statutory reserve of the Company, until the total statutory reserve of the Company reaches over 50% of the registered capital of the Company.

In case the statutory reserve of the Company is not enough to make up for the losses of previous years, before the statutory reserve is set aside according to the stipulation of the preceding paragraph, the profits of the current year shall be first used to make up the losses.

After statutory reserve is set aside from the after-tax profits, the Company, upon resolution of the shareholders' general meeting, can set aside surplus reserve from the after-tax profits.

The after-tax profits that are left over after loss making up and reserve extraction are distributed according to the share proportion of the shareholders, except where the Articles of Association stipulate that profits distribution is not conducted according to shareholding proportion.

Where the shareholders' general meeting violates the provisions of the Company Law and distributes profits to shareholders, shareholders shall return the profits distributed in violation of the regulations to the Company; and if losses are caused to the Company, the shareholders and the responsible directors and senior management shall be liable for compensation.

The Company's shares held by the Company are not entitled to any profit distribution.

Article 155 The reserve of the Company is used to make up for the loss of the Company, expand the production and operation of the Company, or add to the corporate capital. Where the reserve is used to make up for the loss of the Company, the discretionary reserve and the statutory reserve shall be utilized first; and if it still fails to be made up, the capital reserve fund may be used in accordance with the regulations of the Company Law.

When the statutory reserve is converted to increase the registered capital, the retained reserve will not be less than 25% of the registered capital of the Company before conversion.

Article 156 Upon the resolution in relation to the profit distribution plan is made by the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the distribution of dividends (or shares) within two months after the date of shareholders' general meeting.

Article 157 Procedures for decision making on profit distribution by the Company:

- (I) The Company shall fully listen to the opinions of the independent directors and minority shareholders with respect to the profit distribution proposal through multiple channels. The management of the Company shall make reasonable proposals on profit distribution based on, among other things, the size of share capital, profitability, investment arrangement, cash flows and returns to shareholders of Company. The board of directors shall formulate scientific and reasonable annual or interim profit distribution proposals after studying and discussing, among others, the timing, conditions as well as the minimum ratio, conditions for adjustments and the requirements of the procedures for decision making in respect of the cash dividend distribution of the Company.

The independent directors may collect opinions from minority shareholders and put forward a profit distribution proposal, which will be directly submitted to the board of directors for consideration. The Company shall communicate and exchange views with shareholders (especially minority shareholders) through investor information telephone and Internet and other methods, and promptly answer the questions which concern minority shareholders, besides sufficiently listening to the comments from shareholders on the shareholders' general meetings of the Company.

- (II) The profit distribution plan, after consideration and approval by the board of directors, will be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration and approval, the shareholders' general meeting will vote on the profit distribution plan proposed by the board of directors in accordance with laws and regulations.
- (III) The Company shall practically secure the right of public shareholders to attend the shareholders' general meeting; and the board of directors, independent directors and shareholders meeting certain conditions may solicit the right to vote at the shareholders' general meeting from shareholders of the Company. If the board of directors does not make a cash dividend proposal if there records a profit for the reporting period, the Company shall provide an internet voting platform to the shareholders when convening the shareholders' general meeting in addition to a physical meeting.
- (IV) Adjustment procedures for profit distribution policy of the Company

The profit distribution policy of the Company shall be proposed by the board of directors to the shareholders' general meeting of the Company. During the formulation of the profit distribution policy, the board of directors shall fully discuss with the independent directors and form the profit distribution policy after considering the continuous, stable and scientific returns to the Shareholders. If it is necessary to adjust the Company's profit distribution policy, relevant procedures shall be performed in accordance with the laws and the Articles of Association.

The Company shall strictly implement the profit distribution policy stipulated in the Articles of Association, including cash dividend policy and the cash dividend proposal considered and approved at the shareholders' general meeting. Based on the macroeconomic changes, the Company's internal production and operation, investment plan and long-term development needs, if it is really necessary to adjust or change the cash dividend policy determined by the Articles of Association when implementing the profit distribution proposal, the board of directors should make detailed discussion, fully consider the opinions of minority shareholders, attach importance to the protection of investors' interests, seek opinions of independent directors, put forward the proposal on the adjustment of cash dividend distribution to the shareholders' general meeting, and explain in detail the reasons for revising and adjusting the cash dividend policy.

The adjustment of the cash dividend policy by the board of directors shall be approved by more than half of the board of directors, which shall be submitted to the shareholders' general meeting for consideration and shall be approved by more than 2/3 of the valid voting rights held by the shareholders present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Meanwhile, the adjusted cash dividend policy shall not violate the relevant regulations of the CSRC and the place where the Company's shares are listed.

- (V) The Audit and Risk Committee shall supervise the implementation of the Company's profit distribution policy by the board of directors and management and the planning and decision-making process of shareholders' return.
- (VI) In deciding upon and forming profit distribution plan, the board of directors shall in details record the suggestion of the management, the speech key points of the attending directors, and voting of the board of directors, and make them into written records to be preserved as the documents of the Company.
- (VII) After the profit distribution plan has been adopted at the shareholders' general meeting of the Company, or the board of directors of the Company has formulated a specific plan based on the conditions and upper limit of interim dividend as considered and approved at the annual shareholders' general meeting for the following year, the board of directors of the Company shall complete the dividend (or share) distribution within 2 months after the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 158 The Company pursues a proactive profit distribution policy, and strictly conforms to the following stipulations:

- (I) Profit distribution principle: the Company pursues a sustainable and steady profit distribution policy, and in profit distribution of the Company, the reasonable investment return of the investors shall be paid attention to, as well as the reasonable funds need of the Company, but profit distribution shall not exceed the scope of the accumulated profit total of the Company for distribution, not compromising the sustainable operation capacity of the Company. The Company's cash dividend policy aims to achieve residual dividends.

Where the Company has received an audit report for the most recent year that is modified, or unmodified with a paragraph concerning material uncertainty related to going concern, or the most recently audited asset-liability ratio exceeds 70%, or the operating cash flow of the most recent fiscal year is negative, it may choose not to make any profit distribution.

- (II) Profit distribution form: the Company can use the forms of cash, stock, or cash-stock combination to distribute the share dividend. In distributing share dividend, the form of cash distribution shall be put in priority. The Company, if having cash dividend conditions, shall use cash dividend to distribute the profits.
- (III) Generally, the Company distributes the profits according to accounting year, and when the cash dividend conditions are met, in principle the Company conduct cash dividend once a year, and can also do mid-term profits (cash) distribution according to the funds demand condition of the Company.
- (IV) In distributing cash dividend, the Company shall meet the following conditions:
 - 1 . The profits that can be distributed in the current year (namely the after-tax profit after the Company makes up for the loss and sets aside reserve) is positive value, the earning per share of the year is not below RMB0.1, cash flow is sufficient, and cash dividend will not affect the follow-up sustainable operation of the Company;
 - 2 . The auditor produces auditing report without reserved opinions for the financial statement of the current year of the Company;
 - 3 . The Company has no major investment plan or major cash outlay or other matters (except funds raising projects). Major investment plan or major cash outlay means: during the coming twelve months the Company's total outlay that is used for external investment, assets purchase, or equipment purchase reaches or exceeds 30% of the audited total assets of the Company for the latest period, and exceeds RMB50 million.
- (V) Cash dividend proportion:

When the above-mentioned cash dividend conditions are met, the board of directors of the Company shall comprehensively consider the sector characteristics, its development phase, its operation mode, profit-making level, and whether there are major funds outlay arrangements, etc., and in pursuing the cash dividend policy the following stipulations shall be complied with:

- 1. Determination of the corporate development phase and the proportion of cash dividend.

(1) In case the corporate development phase is a mature one and there are no major funds outlay arrangements, in profit distribution the minimum proportion that the cash dividend takes shall reach 80%; (2) in case the corporate development phase is a mature one and there are major funds outlay arrangements, in profit distribution the minimum proportion that cash dividend takes shall reach 40%; (3) in case the corporate development phase is a growing one and there are major funds outlay arrangements, in profit distribution the minimum proportion that cash dividend takes shall reach 20%;

In case the corporate development phase is not distinguishable and there are major funds outlay arrangements, issues can be handled according to stipulation of the preceding paragraph.

In view of the fact that the current corporate development phase is a growing one and it is expected that there will be major funds outlay arrangements, in profit distribution the minimum proportion that cash dividend takes shall reach 20%.

The board of directors of the Company shall, according to the operation and development conditions, timely modify the stipulation on the corporate development phase following the prescription of the preceding paragraph.

2. When the profit distribution conditions are met, the Company shall have at least one cash dividend distribution for a succession of three years, and the specific distribution proportion shall be set by the board of directors according to the operation conditions of the Company and related prescriptions of CSRC, and decided upon the deliberation of the shareholders' general meeting;
3. The total profit distributed in cash form during the last three years shall not be less than 30% of the year-average profit that can be distributed during the latest three years.

Where the Company adopts a tender offer or the centralized bidding method to repurchase its shares using cash as consideration, the amount of shares repurchased in the current year shall be deemed as the amount of cash dividends to be paid and shall be included in the calculation of relevant proportions for the distribution of cash dividends for the year.

- (VI) When the Company is in sound operation, the board of directors decides that the share price of the Company does not match its the equity scale, there are such real and reasonable factors as the growing pattern of the Company and dilution of net asset value per share, issuing stock dividend is good to the overall interest of the shareholders of the Company, and under the conditions that the above-mentioned cash dividend stipulations are met, stock dividend distribution plan can be raised.
- (VII) In deciding upon and forming profit distribution plan, the board of directors shall in details record the suggestion of the management, the speech key points of the attending directors, the opinions of independent directors, and voting of the board of directors, and make them into written records to be preserved as the documents of the Company.
- (VIII) In case after comprehensively considering the major changes of exterior operation environment or its running conditions, the long-term development strategy of the Company and near-term investment return, the Company decides there is a need to adjust or change the cash dividend policies, the board of directors shall, starting from optimization of shareholder rights and interests and increasing of shareholder return, devise the specific programs of cash dividend, elaborate upon them in proposals of the shareholders' meeting, perform related decision making procedures, and adopt them with more than 2/3 of the voting power of the shareholders attending the meeting.

Article 159 The Company shall commission one or more collecting agents overseas to collect dividends derived from the securities listed on the stock exchange and other payable payments of the Company. The collecting agents shall hold such payments on behalf of the holders of securities, which shall be paid to such holders.

Section 2 Internal Audit

Article 160 The Company implements an internal audit system, specifying the leadership system, responsibilities and authorities, personnel allocation, funding support, application of audit results and accountability for internal audit work.

The internal audit system of the Company shall be implemented upon approval by the board of directors and disclosed to the public.

Article 161 The internal audit institution of the Company supervises and inspects the business activities, risk management, internal control and financial information of the Company. The internal audit institution shall keep its independence and it engages full-time audit personnel to supervise and conduct internal audit and supervision of the Company's financial revenue and expenditure and economic activities. The head of the audit department of the Company shall be a full-time employee and shall be nominated by the audit and risk committee and appointed by the board of directors.

Article 162 The internal audit institution shall be accountable to the board of directors. It shall accept the supervision and guidance from the audit and risk committee in the course of supervising and inspecting the business activities, risk management, internal control and financial information of the Company. If any relevant major issue or clue has been identified, it shall report directly to the audit and risk committee immediately.

Article 163 The internal audit institution is responsible for the specific organisation and implementation of the internal control evaluation of the Company. The Company issues the annual internal control evaluation report based on the evaluation report and relevant materials issued by the internal audit institution upon reviewed by the audit and risk committee.

Article 164 When the audit and risk committee communicates with external audit firms such as accounting firms and national audit agency, the internal audit institution shall actively cooperate and provide necessary support and collaboration.

Article 165 The audit and risk committee participates in the evaluation of the person in charge of internal audit.

Section 3 Appointment of Accounting Firm

Article 166 The Company engages accounting firms complying with the Securities Law to engage in businesses related with securities to audit financial statements, verify net assets and provide other related consulting services, etc. The term of appointment is one year, which starts from the ending of the annual general meeting of this year to the end of the annual general meeting of the next year. The term is renewable.

Article 167 The appointment and removal of an accounting firm of the Company shall be decided by the shareholders' general meeting and the board of directors shall not engage any accounting firm before the decision is made by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 168 The Company guarantees that it will provide the accounting firm with true and complete accounting vouchers, accounting books, financial accounting reports and other accounting information without any objection, omission or falsehood.

Article 169 The auditing fee of the accounting firm shall be determined by the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 170 In the event of termination of the appointment or non-renewal of appointment of an accounting firm, the Company shall notify the accounting firm 30 days in advance; when the shareholders' general meeting votes on termination of appointment of an accounting firm, the accounting firm shall be allowed to make its representation.

An accounting firm proposing to resign shall state at a shareholders' general meeting whether the Company has committed any improper act.

Chapter 8 Notice and Announcement

Section 1 Notice

Article 171 Subject to compliance with laws, administrative regulations and the listing rules of the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed, a notice of the Company shall be made in the following forms:

- (I) Delivery by hand;
- (II) Mails;
- (III) By way of announcement on the stock exchange on which the shares of the Company are listed and the website of the Company;
- (IV) By facsimile or email;
- (V) By other means approved by the relevant regulatory authorities at the place where the shares of the Company are listed or as stipulated by the Articles of Association.

For the purpose of sending or making available of corporate communications (having the meaning ascribed to it under the Hong Kong Listing Rules, the same below) by the Company to the holders of H shares, and subject to compliance with the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed as well as the relevant provisions of the securities regulatory authorities, the Company may select to issue its corporate communications in the form prescribed in item (III) above or in such other form as may be prescribed by the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and securities regulatory authorities in lieu of delivering such corporate communications to each holder of H shares by hand or by mail.

Article 172 Where a notice is served by way of announcement, upon the publication of such announcement, all relevant persons shall be deemed to have received the notice.

Article 173 Notice of shareholders' general meeting of the Company shall be served by announcement. Where it is otherwise provided by laws and regulations, the listing rules of the place where the Company's shares are listed and the securities regulatory authorities, such provisions shall prevail.

Article 174 Notice of convening the meeting of the board of directors of the Company shall be served by telephone, hand, post, email and fax.

Article 175 Where a Company notice is delivered by hand, the recipient shall sign (or seal) on the receipt of delivery and the day of delivery shall be the day of signature affixed by the recipient. Where a Company notice is mailed, the day of delivery shall be the third working day since the day when the notice is handed over to the post office. Where a Company notice is given via email, the date on which the email is sent shall be deemed as the date of delivery. However, the Company shall inform the recipient by telephone or other means of communication on the date on which the email is sent. Where a Company notice is announced, the day of delivery shall be the day when the first announcement is published.

Article 176 Where a meeting notice is not sent to a person who is entitled to receive such notice due to accidental omission or such person fails to receive the meeting notice, the meeting and the resolutions made on such meeting shall not be null and void therefore.

Section 2 Announcement

Article 177 The information disclosed by the Company according to law shall be published on the website of the SZSE, the website of CNINFO (<http://www.cninfo.com.cn>), the website of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (<https://www.hkexnews.hk>) and the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, and shall make available the same for public inspection at the Company's domicile and the stock exchange.

Information disclosure obligators including controlling shareholders with shareholding reaching the prescribed proportion, De facto controller, acquirers and counterparties should disclose information in accordance with relevant regulations, cooperate with the information disclosure work of the Company, timely inform the Company of material matters including variation in control, change in interest and related relationship between the Company and other entities and individuals and its changes, response to queries from the Company and to ensure that the information provided is true, accurate and complete.

Article 178 Any announcement to be published to shareholders of the H shares as required by these Articles of Association shall be published by the methods prescribed by the Hong Kong Stock Exchange.

Chapter 9 Merger, Division, Capital Increase, Capital Reduction, Dissolution and Liquidation

Section 1 Merger, Division, Capital Increase and Capital Reduction

Article 179 A merger may be in the form of merger by absorption or merger by establishment of a new company.

In the case of merger by absorption, the company being absorbed shall be dissolved. Merger by establishment of a new company shall refer to the establishment of a new company as a result of merger of two or more companies and dissolution of the merger parties.

Article 180 If the price paid for the merger of the Company does not exceed 10% of the net assets of the Company, no resolution of the shareholders' general meeting shall be required, unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association.

The merger of the Company shall be approved by a resolution of the board of directors, if no resolution of the shareholders' general meeting is required pursuant to the preceding paragraph.

Article 181 In the event of merger, the merger parties shall enter into a merger agreement, and formulate a balance sheet and an inventory list for assets. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from passing of the resolution on merger, and make an announcement on the website of the SZSE, the website of CNINFO (<http://www.cninfo.com.cn>), the website of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (www.hkexnews.hk), the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. Creditors may require the Company to repay the debts or to provide corresponding guarantee within 30 days from receipt of notification or within 45 days from the day of announcement if they do not receive notification.

Article 182 Upon merger, the creditor's rights and debts of the merger parties shall be succeeded by the Company which subsists after the merger or the newly-established Company.

Article 183 In the event of division, assets of the Company shall be divided correspondingly.

In the event of a division, a balance sheet and an inventory list for assets shall be prepared. The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from passing of the resolution on division, and make an announcement on the website of the SZSE, the website of CNINFO (<http://www.cninfo.com.cn>), the website of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (<http://www.hkexnews.hk>), the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days.

Article 184 The divided companies shall bear joint and several liability for debts of the pre- division Company, except where the written agreement between the Company and its creditors on repayment of debts prior to the division stipulates otherwise.

Article 185 A company which intends to reduce its registered capital shall formulate a balance sheet and an inventory list for assets.

The Company shall notify its creditors within 10 days from passing of the resolution on reduction of registered capital, and make an announcement on the website of the SZSE, the website of CNINFO (<http://www.cninfo.com.cn>), the website of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (www.hkexnews.hk), the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days. Creditors have the right to require the Company to repay the debts or to provide corresponding guarantee within 30 days from receipt of notification or within 45 days from the day of announcement if they do not receive notification.

Where the Company reduces its registered capital, the amount of capital contribution or shares shall be reduced correspondingly in proportion to the shares held by its shareholders, unless otherwise provided by laws or the Articles of Association.

Article 186 If the Company remains in a loss position after making up for losses in accordance with the provisions of Article 155 of the Articles of Association, it may reduce its registered capital to make up for the losses. If the registered capital is reduced to make up for losses, the Company shall not make any distribution to the shareholders, nor shall it exempt the shareholders from their obligation to make capital contributions or share payments.

If the registered capital is reduced in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of paragraph 2 of Article 185 of the Articles of Association shall not apply, but announcements shall be made on the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council, or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 30 days from the date when the shareholders' general meeting makes a resolution to reduce the registered capital.

After the Company reduces its registered capital in accordance with the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, it shall not make any profit distribution until the cumulative amount of the statutory reserve and discretionary reserve reaches 50% of the Company's registered capital.

Article 187 Where the registered capital is reduced in violation of the Company Law or other relevant provisions, shareholders shall return funds received and the original state shall be restored if capital contributions from shareholders are reduced or exempted; and if losses are caused to the Company, the shareholders and the responsible Directors and senior management shall be liable for compensation.

Article 188 When the Company issues new shares to increase its registered capital, shareholders shall have no pre-emptive rights, unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association or where a resolution of the shareholders' general meeting determines that shareholders are entitled to pre-emptive rights.

Article 189 Changes in particulars of the companies as a result of merger or division must be registered with the registration authorities in accordance with the laws. Cancellation of a company shall be registered in accordance with the laws when a company is dissolved. Incorporation of a company shall be registered when a new company is incorporated in accordance with the laws.

When increasing or reducing the registered capital, the Company shall register the changes with company registration authorities in accordance with the laws.

Section 2 Dissolution and Liquidation

Article 190 A Company shall be dissolved in accordance with laws and regulations in case of any of the following circumstances:

- (I) Expiry of term of business stipulated in the Articles of Association or occurrence of any other trigger for dissolution stipulated in the Articles of Association;
- (II) A shareholders' general meeting has resolved on dissolution of the Company;
- (III) As required by merger or division;
- (IV) The Company's business license is cancelled pursuant to the law, or the Company is ordered to be closed down or revoked pursuant to the law;
- (V) When the Company has serious difficulties in its business management and its subsistence will cause serious damages to the interests of its shareholders, where the Company is unable to resolve the difficulties through any other means, the shareholders who hold 10% or more of the share voting rights of the Company may apply to the People's Court for dissolution of the Company.

Where any of the grounds for dissolution specified in the preceding paragraph occurs, the Company shall publicise such grounds for dissolution on the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 10 days.

Article 191 Under the circumstances set out in item (I) and (II) of the Article 190, and has not yet distributed assets to shareholders, the Company may subsist through amendment of the Articles of Association or a resolution made by shareholders' meeting.

Where amendments of the Articles of Association are made in accordance with the above paragraph or resolution made by the shareholders' general meeting, the amendments shall be passed by shareholders who hold more than 2/3 of the voting rights present at the shareholders' general meeting.

Article 192 Where the Company is dissolved due to the provision of items (I), (II), (IV) and (V) of Article 190 of the Articles of Association, it shall be liquidated. The board of directors, as the liquidation obligor of the Company, shall establish a liquidation team within 15 days from the date when a ground of dissolution occurs.

The liquidation team shall comprise directors, unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association or the shareholders' general meeting resolves to elect other persons.

If the liquidation obligor fails to perform its liquidation obligations in a timely manner and causes losses to the Company or its creditors, it shall be liable for compensation.

Article 193 The liquidation team shall exercise the following duties during the liquidation period:

- (I) To liquidate the Company's assets and prepare balance sheet and assets inventory;
- (II) To notify creditors and publish announcement;
- (III) To handle outstanding businesses related to liquidation;
- (IV) To settle all taxes in arrears and taxes arising in the course of liquidation;
- (V) To liquidate creditor's rights and debts;
- (VI) To allocate the Company's surplus assets after the debts are paid off;
- (VII) To attend civil lawsuits on behalf of the Company.

Article 194 The liquidation team shall, within 10 days from its establishment, notify the creditors, and make an announcement on the website of the SZSE, the website of CNINFO (<http://www.cninfo.com.cn>), the website of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (www.hkexnews.hk), the media meeting the requirements specified by the securities regulatory authorities of the State Council or the National Enterprise Credit Information Publicity System within 60 days. The creditors shall declare their creditor's rights to the liquidation team within 30 days from receipt of notification or within 45 days from the day of announcement if they do not receive notification.

Creditors declaring creditor's rights shall state the relevant information of the creditor's rights and provide proof materials. The liquidation team shall register the creditor's rights.

During the period for declaration of creditor's rights, the liquidation team shall not make repayment to creditors.

Article 195 Upon sorting of the Company's assets and formulation of balance sheet and inventory list for assets, the liquidation team shall formulate a liquidation plan and submit it to the shareholders' general meeting or the People's Court for confirmation.

The Company's assets shall be used respectively for payment of liquidation expenses, employees' wages, social security premiums and statutory compensation, and payment of tax in arrears and the Company's debts; the residual assets thereafter shall be distributed in accordance with the shareholding percentage of the shareholders.

During the liquidation period, the Company shall subsist but shall not engage in business activities unrelated to liquidation.

The Company's assets shall not be distributed to shareholders prior to making repayment pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Article 196 Upon sorting of the Company's assets and formulation of balance sheet and inventory list of assets, where the liquidation team is aware that the Company's assets are inadequate for repayment of debts, the liquidation team shall apply with the People's Court for bankruptcy liquidation.

Upon acceptance of the bankruptcy petition by the People's Court, the liquidation team shall hand over the liquidation matters to the bankruptcy administrator appointed by the People's Court.

Article 197 Upon completion of liquidation, the liquidation team shall formulate a liquidation report, report to the shareholders' general meeting or People's Court for confirmation, and report to the Company registration authority to apply for deregistration.

Article 198 The members of the liquidation team shall bear fiduciary obligations and diligence obligations in performing their duties of liquidation.

Any member of the liquidation committee who neglects his/her duties of liquidation and causes losses to the Company shall be liable for compensation. Where any members of the liquidation team cause any loss to any creditor with intention or due to gross negligence, he/she shall be liable to make indemnification.

Article 199 Where the Company is declared bankruptcy in accordance with laws, it shall implement bankruptcy liquidation in accordance with the relevant laws relating to bankruptcy of enterprise.

Chapter 10 Amendment to Articles of Association

Article 200 Under any of the following circumstances, the Company shall amend the Articles of Association:

- (I) Following revision of the Company Law or relevant laws and administrative regulations, the matters stipulated in the Articles of Association contradict the provisions of the revised laws and administrative regulations;
- (II) There is any change to the Company's particulars which result in inconsistency with the matters set out in the Articles of Association; or
- (III) A shareholders' general meeting has decided on making amendments to the Articles of Association.

Article 201 Where the approval from the competent authority is required for the amendments to the Articles of Association passed by the shareholders' general meetings, such amendments shall be submitted to the competent authority for approval; where an amendment to the Articles of Association involves the Company's registration particulars, change registration formalities shall be completed pursuant to the law.

Article 202 The board of directors shall amend the Articles of Association pursuant to the resolution of the shareholders' general meeting on amendment of Articles of Association and the examination and approval opinion of the authorities in charge.

Article 203 If any amendment to the Articles of Association contains information required to be disclosed by laws and regulations, an announcement shall be made pursuant to the provisions.

Chapter 11 Supplementary Articles

Article 204 Definitions

- (I) Controlling shareholder refers to a shareholder who holds shares representing more than 50% of the total share capital of the Company; or shares (though below 50%) carrying voting rights which are sufficient to have significant influence on the resolutions of the shareholders' general meeting.
- (II) De facto controller: A natural person, legal person or other organisation who can effectively control the Company through investment, agreement or other arrangement.
- (III) Related relations: Relations between a controlling shareholder, de facto controller, director or senior management officer of the Company and the enterprise directly or indirectly controlled by the same, which relations may give rise to a transfer of interests of the Company, provided however that there should be no related party relationship between state-controlled enterprises solely because they are under the common control of the State.

Article 205 The Board may formulate by-laws in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association, provided that such by-laws shall not be in violation of the Articles of Association.

Article 206 The Articles of Association are written in Chinese. In case of any inconsistency between the Articles and the articles of association in any other language or of different version, the latest Chinese version of the Articles of Association approved by and registered with the Administration for Market Regulation of Suining shall prevail.

Article 207 The matters not covered herein shall be governed by the relevant laws and regulations, rules, normative documents and the listing rules of the place where the shares of the Company are listed (including but not limited to the Company Law, the Securities Law, the Trial Administrative Measures of Overseas Offering and Listing by Domestic Companies, the Articles Guidelines and the Hong Kong Listing Rules).

Article 208 The term “above”, “within”, as stated in the Articles of Association shall all include the given figure; the term “more than”, “over”, “excluding”, “below” shall all exclude the given figure.

Unless otherwise specified, the currency in the Articles of Association refers to Renminbi.

Article 209 The board of directors shall be responsible for the interpretation of the Articles of Association.

Article 210 Appendixes to the Articles of Association include the rules of procedure for general meetings, the rules of procedure for meetings of the board of directors.

Where the rules of procedure for general meetings and the rules of procedure for meetings of the board of directors conflict with the Articles of Association, the Articles of Association shall prevail.

Article 211 The Articles of Association shall take effect from the date of consideration and approval by the shareholders' general meeting of the Company.
