II. COMMUNICATION WITH THE ACCOUNTING FIRM

Figures related to these preliminary results were arrived based on the preliminary assessment of the finance department of the Company, and have not been audited by the accounting firm. The Company has conducted preliminary communication with the accounting firm in respect of the preliminary results on related matters, and there is no disagreement among us.

III. EXPLANATION FOR THE CHANGES IN RESULTS

During the first half of 2026, as downstream PCB customers maintained robust procurement demand for precision cutting tools as well as grinding and polishing materials, the Company capitalized on this favorable industry window to drive a further increase in the penetration rate of its high value-added products through accelerated technological iterations and collaboration with customers, and our product mix continued to shift towards high-end segments. Meanwhile, the efficiency of the Company's production capacity ramp-up showed significant improvement, coupled with the gradual unlocking of economies of scale, which together drove robust growth in our results for the first half of the year.

IV. RISK WARNING

The preliminary results for the period is only a preliminary assessment made by the finance department of the Company based on its operating situation. The detailed financial data will be formally disclosed in the 2026 interim report. Investors are advised to exercise caution when making investment decisions and be aware of investment risks.
