CHAIRMAN'S STATEMENT

Dear shareholders,

On behalf of the Company's board of directors ("Board"), I am pleased to present the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2026 ("FY2026"). We achieved a new record in revenue of approximately HK$776.7 million, representing growth of approximately 5.8% compared to the previous fiscal year. The Group's performance was tempered by a reduction in gross margin, reflecting a more competitive market environment and a broader range of products available to customers.

Our strategic initiatives over the past year have established a strong platform for the Group's next phase of growth. The emergence of Chinese and international cybersecurity solutions is providing enterprises with credible options to strengthen their cross border data protection, regulatory compliance and overall security needs. In this context, our strategy of partnering with best in class Chinese and international cybersecurity companies on their international expansion creates a clear win win, enabling our Group to deliver a broader portfolio of cybersecurity solutions that address increasingly diverse compliance and security requirements.

The cybersecurity landscape stands at a pivotal juncture. While global enterprise investment in cyber defense has reached record highs, we face a sobering reality: the volume, velocity, and sophistication of cyber threats continue to escalate at an alarming pace. This paradox signals not merely a cyclical challenge, but a fundamental transformation in how security must be conceived, delivered, and evolved.

Artificial intelligence represents both the greatest threat vector and the most powerful defensive capability in our industry's history. We believe the organizations that will lead the next decade are those that can harness AI's transformative potential while simultaneously fortifying their defenses against AI-enabled attacks. This dual imperative – AI in Cybersecurity and Cybersecurity in AI – now defines our strategic vision and operational roadmap.

To capture the opportunities at the intersection of AI and cybersecurity, the Group has established three strategic pillars to guide our near-term investment and development priorities: AI-Driven Threat Defense, embedding intelligent detection and autonomous response capabilities into our Security-as-a-Service platform; Cybersecurity Revolution, modernizing our product architecture by retiring legacy systems in favour of adaptive, AI-native frameworks; and Decentralized Protection, building distributed security models and capabilities for customers that eliminate single points of failure and enhance resilience at scale. To accelerate delivery across all three pillars, we are committing additional resources to research and development and actively recruiting high-calibre specialists in artificial intelligence, machine learning, and advanced threat research to strengthen our competitive position.

Looking Ahead

The convergence of artificial intelligence and cybersecurity presents unprecedented opportunities for those prepared to lead. We are confident that our strategic pillars, combined with disciplined execution and continued investment, position the Group to not only navigate this transformation but to emerge as a defining force in the industry's next chapter.

I thank our shareholders for their continued confidence, our customers for their trust, and our dedicated team for their unwavering commitment to excellence in protecting the digital infrastructure upon which modern society depends.

MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

BUSINESS REVIEW

Business overview

In FY2026, the Group delivered a record-breaking revenue of approximately HK$776.7 million, representing year over year growth of approximately 5.8%. The increasingly keen market competition is attributable to wider choices of cybersecurity solutions, this accordingly exerted pressure on the Group's operating gross profit margin, which declined from approximately 19.3% for year ended 31 March 2025 ("FY2025") to approximately 17.1% (excluding a one off impairment of intangible assets of approximately HK$9.0 million in FY2026) for FY2026. The resilience of our long-established recurring revenue-based model is nevertheless expected to continue to provide predictable long term revenue outlook, and thus supporting a more durable margin profile over time.

Overall, our cost base has remained relatively stable and the Group continues to adopt a disciplined, responsible approach to cost management, combining prudent long term financial stewardship, with selective investments to support sustainable growth.

The Group recorded profit after tax of approximately HK$22.4 million for FY2026 (FY2025: approximately HK$24.5 million), which showed a slight decrease but remained relatively stable compared with last year.

Cybersecurity product distribution and services

In FY2026, demand for cybersecurity products and services remained robust, supporting solid performance across our core product categories and underscoring the relevance of our solutions. The Group possesses a solid portfolio of top tier cybersecurity offerings from renowned global brands, combined with emerging China-tech leaders, has expanded our addressable market, enabling us to capture more opportunities in the government sector as well as a fast growing segment of enterprises in Hong Kong that need to bridge the Chinese Mainland and local regulatory and security requirements.

The Group's recurring revenue model continues to provide predictable long term growth and stronger earnings visibility, which is especially important in a structurally lower gross margin environment. This stable foundation will enable the Group to keep investing in its talent, improve internal efficiency, and further expand its portfolio of leading cybersecurity products.

Our service led value added distribution model continues to set us apart in the market, this approach has allowed us to build stronger, longer term relationships with enterprise customers. By growing the share of services in our revenue mix and focusing more on large enterprise accounts, we aim to win a larger share of their overall cybersecurity budgets.

Cybersecurity-as-a-service

Our cybersecurity-as-a-service offerings continue to build strong momentum, as more enterprises recognise that a robust cybersecurity culture is one of the most effective defences against malicious actors – especially as AI makes routine attacks more sophisticated and harder to detect. Our online cybersecurity awareness training platform, grAwareness, is seeing growing adoption, enabling organisations to easily bridge employee's knowledge gaps and meet compliance training requirements in a convenient, scalable way. The Group is also collaborating closely with partners across the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) to expand and accelerate our sales efforts in the region.

In response to rapid advances in artificial intelligence that are reshaping the competitive landscape for the long term, we are elevating our capabilities and focusing our research and development on artificial intelligence training and machine learning models to improve the accuracy and detection rates of malicious and sophisticated phishing emails. Reflecting this strategic shift, the Group has recorded an impairment on its signature-based email detection technology, underscoring our commitment to embedding AI natively in our product development roadmap going forward.

Digital assets financial services and investment

In FY2026, the digital asset market has entered a more mature phase, with growth increasingly driven by institutional products such as spot ETFs, the scaling up of tokenized real world assets, and clearer regulatory frameworks for stablecoins, even though the market remains somewhat volatile.

Our strategic investment in the holding company of Hong Kong Digital Asset Ex Limited ("HKbitEX") represents the Group's principal exposure to the digital asset segment and delivered a fair value gain on financial assets at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL") of approximately HK$24.0 million in FY2026 on this investment (FY2025: approximately HK$1.0 million).

We remain confident in the short to medium term prospects of this investment, while maintaining capital allocation discipline and readiness to redeploy capital into our core cybersecurity business should compelling opportunities arise.

OUTLOOK

Looking ahead, we remain highly optimistic about the Group's business trajectory. Rapid technological advancements and evolving customer preferences are driving structural shifts in the cybersecurity market, creating compelling avenues for future growth. The Group is exceptionally well-positioned to capitalize on these shifts, particularly the transformative convergence of artificial intelligence and cybersecurity.

To seize these opportunities, our strategy is engineered for measurable impact: deploying high-performance technology solutions that drive tangible return on investment (ROI), compressing time-to-value so our enterprise customers realise outcomes faster, and scaling our cybersecurity-as-a-service offerings – powered by the latest advances in AI-driven threat detection and security AI capabilities – to address surging demand across Hong Kong, the United Arab Emirates (UAE), and the ASEAN region. We are actively expanding our AI in cybersecurity portfolio, equipping enterprises with intelligent, adaptive defenses that anticipate and neutralise threats in real time. Through relentless execution, outcome-driven investment, and an unwavering commitment to delivering superior results at the intersection of AI and security, we are confident the Group will not only outpace this industry evolution but establish itself as the definitive performance benchmark in its next chapter.

We are energised by the opportunities that lie ahead. We extend our deepest gratitude to our employees, partners, customers, and shareholders for their unwavering support. Together, we remain steadfast in our commitment to executing our strategic vision and driving sustainable, long-term value in the year ahead.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

Our revenue increased by approximately HK$42.3 million, or approximately 5.8% from approximately HK$734.3 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$776.7 million for FY2026. The increase was mainly attributable to the continuous strong demand for our core cybersecurity products and cybersecurity services related businesses.

Gross profit and gross profit margin

In FY2026, the Group recognised a one-off impairment loss of approximately HK$9.0 million (FY2025: Nil) on intangible assets ("Impairment of IA"), relating to the exclusive intellectual property rights used in the development of the Group's cloud-based email security platform. This impairment loss was recorded within cost of sales or services.

Excluding the Impairment of IA, our gross profit decreased by approximately HK$8.9 million, or approximately 6.3% from approximately HK$141.4 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$132.5 million for FY2026. Our gross profit margin decreased from approximately 19.3% for FY2025 to approximately 17.1% for FY2026. The decrease in gross profit and the reduction in gross profit margin were primarily attributable to higher technical service costs incurred in the cybersecurity services segment, as well as relatively lower margins in the cybersecurity products segment due to intensified market competition.

Other income

Our other income mainly comprises bank interest income and interest income from rental deposits and deposits for life insurance contracts that we purchased for certain directors of the Company and senior management of the Group.

Other gains and losses, net

Other gains and losses, net for FY2026, mainly represented the fair value gain on financial assets at FVTPL of approximately HK$23.9 million (FY2025: approximately HK$1.9 million). This fair value gain on financial assets at FVTPL mainly represented the fair value on unlisted investment of the holding company of HKbitEX of approximately HK$24.0 million in FY2026 (FY2025: approximately HK$1.0 million).

Distribution and selling expenses

Our distribution and selling expenses decreased by approximately HK$3.0 million, or approximately 7.8% from approximately HK$38.8 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$35.7 million for FY2026. Such decrease was due to decrease in marketing staff costs in FY2026.

Administrative and other expenses

The administrative and other expenses increased by approximately HK$7.5 million, or approximately 10.6% from approximately HK$71.1 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$78.6 million for FY2026 mainly due to the increase in (i) administrative staff costs by approximately HK$1.5 million; and (ii) general operating costs by approximately HK$6.0 million as a result of business expansion in FY2026.

Finance costs

Our finance costs decreased by approximately HK$2.7 million, or approximately 62.0% from approximately HK$4.3 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$1.6 million for FY2026. Such decrease was mainly due to decrease in averaged bank borrowings.

Taxation

Our taxation increased by approximately HK$1.0 million, or approximately 22.9% from approximately HK$4.6 million for FY2025 to approximately HK$5.6 million for FY2026. Such increase was mainly due to the deferred tax charge of approximately HK$1.7 million in FY2026.

Profit for the year attributable to owners of the Company

The Group recorded profit attributable to owners of the Company of approximately HK$22.4 million in FY2026 (FY2025: approximately HK$24.5 million). The aforementioned fair value gain on financial assets at FVTPL of approximately HK$23.9 million was largely offset by the Impairment of IA of approximately HK$9.0 million, a decrease in gross profit of approximately HK$8.9 million, and an increase in administrative expenses of approximately HK$7.5 million as mentioned above. As a result, the Group's results decreased slightly compared with FY2025.

Cash flow

The net cash generated from operating activities decreased by approximately HK$22.6 million from approximately HK$66.4 million in FY2025 to approximately HK$43.8 million in FY2026, representing a decrease of approximately 34.1%.

Dividend

In view of the recent uncertainties in the market and the importance of maintaining sufficient liquidity for the Group's long-term development, the Board recommended not to declare a final dividend for FY2026.

LIQUIDITY, FINANCIAL RESOURCES AND GEARING RATIO

We financed our operation mainly through cash generated from our operating activities and bank borrowings. As at 31 March 2026, we had cash and cash equivalents of approximately HK$98.4 million (as at 31 March 2025: approximately HK$82.7 million), among which approximately 70.0% was denominated in Hong Kong Dollars, approximately 16.9% was denominated in United States Dollars, approximately 6.3% was denominated in Renminbi and the remaining 6.8% was denominated in other currencies.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group's total bank borrowings reduced by approximately 17.1% from that of last year and amounted to approximately HK$9.8 million (as at 31 March 2025: approximately HK$11.8 million), which was mainly attributable to the continuous repayment of mortgage in relation to properties in Hong Kong in FY2026. As at 31 March 2026, all of the Group's bank borrowings were secured and guaranteed, and with repayment due dates ranging from 2026 to 2028 and all of which was denominated in Hong Kong Dollars. As at 31 March 2026, all of the bank borrowings bore floating interest rates.

The Group's gearing ratio which is defined as the sum of bank borrowings and lease liabilities at the respective year end divided by total equity as at respective year end and multiplied by 100%, was approximately 12.3% and 20.4% as at 31 March 2026 and 2025, respectively.

CAPITAL STRUCTURE

As at 31 March 2026, the capital structure of the Company comprised bank borrowings, cash and cash equivalents and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital and reserves.

CAPITAL COMMITMENTS

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had no significant capital commitment in respect of property and equipment contracted but not provided for (as at 31 March 2025: Nil).

SEGMENT INFORMATION

An analysis of the Group's revenue, assets and liabilities from reportable segments and by geographical locations is set out in note 7 to the consolidated financial statements.

FUTURE PLANS FOR MATERIAL INVESTMENTS OR CAPITAL ASSETS

The Group did not have plans for material investments and capital assets as at 31 March 2026.

SIGNIFICANT INVESTMENTS

As at 31 March 2026, the financial assets at FVTPL of the Group amounted to approximately HK$74.7 million (as at 31 March 2025: approximately HK$50.9 million), mainly included unlisted preference shares investment of approximately HK$70.5 million (as at 31 March 2025: approximately HK$46.5 million).

The directors of the Company ("Directors") considered that (i) investments with a carrying amount that account for more than 5% of the Group's audited consolidated total assets as at 31 March 2026; or (ii) investments which recorded realised or unrealised gain/(loss) of over HK$5 million during FY2026 as significant investments.

Investment portfolio

As at 31 March 2026, the Group held two categories of investments. First, the investment in unlisted preference shares of Tykhe Capital Group Limited ("Tykhe"), comprising 102,273 shares representing approximately 5.37% of Tykhe's issued shares on a converted basis as at 31 March 2026. The original investment strategy of the Group upon investment was for long-term strategic holding, but the Group subsequently intended to realise the investment by way of disposal of these shares in the foreseeable future under appropriate sales terms to maximise shareholder returns. The investment period recognised as short-to-medium term investment as at 31 March 2024. The source of funding was internal cash reserves. The initial investment cost of such investment was approximately HK$23.3 million. Tykhe was established in July 2018 and is principally engaged in the operation of a virtual asset trading exchange through its wholly-owned subsidiary, HKbitEX. HKbitEX is headquartered in Hong Kong and obtained the approval in principle from the SFC for dealing in securities (Type 1) and automated trading services (Type 7) licences for a virtual asset trading platform, which will enable them to offer regulated virtual asset trading services to global professional and institutional investors. As at 31 March 2026, the fair value was approximately HK$70.5 million based on an independent professional valuer's report. Performance shows an unrealised fair value gain of approximately HK$24.0 million for FY2026.

Second, the Group held listed equity securities in Hong Kong with an aggregate fair value of approximately HK$4.2 million as at 31 March 2026. The investment strategy is short-to-medium term trading for capital appreciation. The source of funding is internal cash reserves. Fair value is determined by quoted market prices. Performance for FY2026 recorded a net realised loss of approximately HK$0.04 million and an unrealised fair value loss of approximately HK$0.09 million.

Investment policy and objectives

The purpose of the Tykhe investment was originally long-term strategic alignment, now revised to realising shareholder value through disposal. The purpose of the listed equity portfolio is short-to-medium term capital appreciation. The Group's investment policy is to (i) invest in companies, technologies, or platforms that complement or enhance the Group's core businesses in cybersecurity products, cybersecurity services and digital assets financial services; and (ii) deploy excess cash into investment opportunities that generate capital appreciation, dividend income, or interest returns, thereby optimising the overall return on the Group's assets. The Tykhe investment aligns with the strategy of investing in companies which could provide operational insight, strategic partnerships, and potential revenue synergies, while the listed equity portfolio aligns with the purposes by utilising excess cash for active capital management. The scope of the Group's investments permits investments in private companies and listed securities. The Group prohibits investments in companies or businesses primarily engaged in speculative or non-regulated financial activities, in entities or jurisdictions subject to international sanctions, or any investment that would cause the Group to breach applicable laws, regulations, or licence conditions.

Risk management and control measures

The Group has established risk limits for its investment portfolio. Specific metrics used to measure risk include investment size as a percentage of total assets and regular fair value assessments against cost. For counterparty risk management, the Group assesses the regulatory standing, financial soundness, and track record of the counterparties prior to entering into any investment. For unlisted investments, the Group reviews the investee's business model, management credentials, and compliance with applicable laws. For listed investments, the Group transacts only through licensed brokers. For liquidity risk management, the Group considers factors such as the existence of a secondary market for the investment, average daily trading volume, any contractual or regulatory restrictions on transfer, and the expected time to realise the investment under normal market conditions. The Group maintains a diversified portfolio with a prudent mix of liquid and illiquid assets to ensure that funding obligations can be met as they fall due.

Approval and oversight mechanisms

The Company has established an investment committee of the Company ("Investment Committee" or "IC") under the Board. The Investment Committee reviews and evaluates investment projects and makes recommendations to the Board. Investments not exceeding HK$15 million are reviewed by the Committee and recommended to the Board. Investments over HK$15 million are proposed by the Committee to the Board for approval. The Investment Committee supervises implementation of approved matters and is accountable to the Board, and all proposals must be submitted to the Board for approval. The investment working team under Investment Committee is responsible for preparing investment proposals and routine monitoring of the performance of the investments.

In addition to regular Board meetings, under code provision C.2.7 of the CG Code, the chairman should at least annually hold meetings with the independent non-executive Directors without the other Directors present (the "Chairman and Independent non-executive Directors Meeting"). CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT (continued)

CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Mr. Raymond Liu is responsible for providing leadership to, and overseeing the functioning of, the Board to ensure that it acts in the best interests of the Group and determines, monitors and oversees our Group-wide strategies, policies, annual budgets, business plans and culture, evaluates the performance of the Company, and supervises the management of the Company. He is also responsible for ensuring Board meetings are planned and conducted effectively, including setting the agenda for each Board meeting, taking into account matters proposed by Directors and the Company Secretary, and active participation by our non-executive Director and all INEDs. He actively encourages the Directors to voice their opinion and be fully engaged in the Board's affairs to ensure the Board's effective functioning. The Board, under his leadership, has adopted good corporate governance practices and procedures and taken appropriate steps to promote effective communication and ongoing engagement with Shareholders and other stakeholders.

Working with our executive Directors and senior management of the Group, Mr. Raymond Liu presents annual budgets to the Board for consideration and approval, and ensure that the Board is fully supportive of the funding requirements of the Group. With the assistance of our senior management of the Group, our executive Directors ensure that the funding requirements of the businesses are met and monitor the operating and financial performance of the businesses against plans and budgets.

Pursuant to the code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code, the roles of chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. The division of responsibilities between the chairman and chief executive should be clearly established and set out in writing.

As Mr. Raymond Liu is the Chairman and the Chief Executive Officer during FY2026, it constituted a deviation from code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code.

The Board considers that this is a very important phase of the Group's development and the Chief Executive Officer ought to be tasked with additional responsibilities to oversee, lead and steer the Group from a business perspective that covers the new businesses and was much broader than the Group's principal engagement in the distribution of cybersecurity products and the provision of cybersecurity services. Given the importance of the Group's expansion and diversification into new businesses, the Board considers that Mr. Raymond Liu is best suited to take up the additional responsibilities to oversee, lead and steer the Group from a business perspective that covers the new businesses and is broader than the Group's principal engagement in the distribution of cybersecurity products and the provision of cybersecurity services.

The Board believes that Mr. Raymond Liu's extensive experience and knowledge, together with the support of the management, shall strengthen the solid and consistent leadership of the Group, and Mr. Raymond Liu, by assuming the roles of both Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, would allow efficient business planning and decision for the Group as a whole, which the Board believes is for the best interest of the Group and the Shareholders.

The Company endeavours to ensure that the Board has a balance of skills, experience and diversity of perspectives appropriate to the requirements of the Company's business. The Company also recognises the importance of gender diversity. The Board currently comprises six male Directors and one female Director. The Board would use its best efforts to identify and appoint suitable female candidate(s) as well as engage more resources in training female staff in the Group with an aim to promoting them to senior position in the Group for a diversified Board. The Company has adopted a set of revised board diversity policy ("Board Diversity Policy") on 9 January 2019 setting out the approach to achieve and maintain diversity on the Board in order to enhance the effectiveness of the Board. Details of the Board Diversity Policy are set out below:

Summary of the Board Diversity Policy

In designing the Board's composition, Board diversity has been considered from a number of aspects, including but not limited to gender, age, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of service. All Board appointments would be based on meritocracy, and candidates would be considered against objective criteria, having due regard for the benefits of diversity on the Board.

Measurable Objectives

The Company maintains its commitment to gender diversity within its business, it continues to review and assess the appropriate level of gender diversity and composition that aligns with the strategy of the Company. The Board is of the view that it is not necessary to set numerical targets and timeline for Board gender diversity for the time being. The Company shall continue to actively seek to ensure it has an appropriate mix of diversity and has a number of initiatives in place to meet its strategic imperative of ensuring it has a diverse Board. Selection of candidates for Board membership would be based on a range of diversity perspectives, including but not limited to gender, age, experience, cultural and educational background, ethnicity, professional experience, skills, knowledge and length of service.

Furthermore, the Board Diversity Policy provides that the Board shall take opportunities to balance our Board members' gender diversity over time when selecting and making recommendations on suitable candidates for Board appointments, with the ultimate goal of bringing our Board to gender parity. To develop a pipeline of potential female successors to the Board, the Company takes necessary steps to identify and maintain a list of women candidates with a diverse range of skills, experience and knowledge in different fields by emphasising on training and providing career opportunities for the senior female employees who have long and relevant experience with our business, so as to equip them with the capability to lead the Group. The list of female candidates would be reviewed by the NC on a yearly basis.

Apart from gender diversity at the Board level, the Company also targets to avoid a single-gender workforce (including the senior management). As at 31 March 2026, male and female employees represent approximately 64.3% and 35.7% of the Group's workforce (including the senior management) respectively. Although gender diversity issue is less relevant to the Group given the nature of the Group's business, the Company will still pay due regard to this issue and review the gender diversity of the workforce in accordance with the business development of the Group from time to time.

Monitoring and reporting

The NC will continue to disclose the composition of the Board annually in the Corporate Governance Report and monitor the implementation of the Board Diversity Policy. The NC will review the Board Diversity Policy, as appropriate, to ensure the effectiveness of this policy. The NC will discuss any revisions that may be required and recommend any such revisions to the Board for consideration and approval.

The members of the NC should meet at least once a year where appointment of the Directors will be considered. During FY2026, the individual attendance records of each member of the NC at the meeting of the NC is set out on page 29 of this annual report.

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROLS

The main features of the risk management and internal control systems are to provide a clear governance structure, policies and procedures, as well as reporting mechanism to facilitate the Group to manage its risks across business operations.

The Group has established a risk management framework, which consists of the Board, the AC and the Risk Management Taskforce (comprising of the Management and the business lines). The Board determines the nature and extent of risks that shall be taken in achieving the Group's strategic objectives, and has the overall responsibility for monitoring the design, implementation and the overall effectiveness of risk management and internal control systems.

The Group has formulated and adopted Risk Management Policy in providing direction in identifying, evaluating and managing significant risks. At least on an annual basis, the Risk Management Taskforce identifies risks that would adversely affect the achievement of the Group's objectives and assesses and prioritises the identified risks according to a set of standard criteria. Risk mitigation plans and risk owners are then established for those risks considered to be significant. We have also established a whistleblowing policy and system for employees and those who deal with the Group (e.g. customers and suppliers) to raise concerns, in confidence and anonymity, to the AC about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Group.

In addition, the Group has established an internal audit function to assist the Board and the AC in ongoing monitoring of the risk management and internal control systems of the Group. During FY2026, the Group appointed Apec Risk Management Limited ("Apec") and conducted its internal control system review once every year covering the period for FY2026:

- assist in identifying and assessing the risks of the Group through a series of workshops and interviews; and
- independently perform internal control review and assess effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems.

The results of the independent review and assessment conducted by Apec were reported to the AC and the Board (the "Internal Control and Risk Management Report") to ensure prompt remediation actions are taken. Deficiencies in the design and implementation of internal control systems are identified and recommendations are proposed by Apec in the Internal Control and Risk Management Report for improvement in internal control and risk management measures. Based on the Internal Control and Risk Management Report, the Board oversaw and had performed annual review covering the period for FY2026 on the effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems, including but not limited to the Group's ability to cope with its business transformation and changing external environment; the scope and quality of management's review on risk management and internal control systems; result of internal audit work; the extent and frequency of communication with the Board in relation to result of risk and internal control review; significant failures or weaknesses identified and their related implications, if any; and status of compliance with the Listing Rules. The Board considers the Group's risk management and internal control systems are effective and adequate.

The risk management and internal control systems are designed to manage rather than eliminate the risk of failure to achieve business objectives and can only provide reasonable and not absolute assurance against material misstatement or loss.

The Board is responsible for the establishment, maintenance and review of the risk management and internal controls. The Board should oversee risk management and internal control systems on an ongoing basis. The Board has established a set of risk management policies and measures to identify, evaluate and manage risks arising from the operation. Details on risk categories identified by the management, internal and external reporting mechanism, remedial measures and contingency management have been codified in the Company's policies and adopted by the Company.

PROCEDURES AND INTERNAL CONTROL FOR HANDLING AND DISSEMINATION OF INSIDE INFORMATION

Until an announcement is made, the Directors and the management should ensure that such information is kept strictly confidential. If the confidentiality cannot be maintained, an announcement shall be made as soon as practicable.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Deloitte.

TO THE SHAREHOLDERS OF
EDVANCE INTERNATIONAL HOLDINGS LIMITED
(incorporated in Cayman Islands with limited liability)

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Edvance International Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as "the Group") set out on pages 68 to 162, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position as at 31 March 2026, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information and other explanatory information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2026, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with Hong Kong Standards on Auditing ("HKSAs") as issued by the HKICPA. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the HKICPA's Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (the "Code"), as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	How our audit addressed the key audit matter
Impairment assessment of exclusive rights
We identified the impairment assessment of exclusive rights as a key audit matter due to the significance of the balance of intangible assets to the Group's total assets and the significant degree of judgement and assumptions made by the group management in determining the value in use of the cash-generating unit ("CGU"). As disclosed in notes 5 and 18(b) to the consolidated financial statements, the Group had identified impairment indicator on the exclusive rights with carrying amount of HK$14,558,000 as at 31 March 2026. Management conducted an impairment assessment by comparing the recoverable amounts of the CGU to which the exclusive rights belong which is estimated based on value in use calculation, with its carrying amount. The value in use calculation requires the management of the group to estimate the future cash flows expected to arise from the CGU, which includes key assumptions and judgement on cash flow forecasts, including long-term growth rate and the pre-tax discount rate. Based on the impairment assessment performed by the management, impairment loss of HK$9,001,000 has been recognised in the profit or loss in respect of exclusive rights for the year ended 31 March 2026.	Our procedures in relation to the impairment assessment of exclusive rights included: • Obtaining an understanding of the key controls of the Group over the impairment assessment process on exclusive rights including the preparation of cash flow forecasts and determination of related significant assumptions; • Assessing whether the cash flow forecast is prepared in accordance with the Group's accounting policies and comparing the forecast with the budgets approved by the management of the Company; • Comparing the actual results for the current year against the management's cash flow projections prepared in the previous year to evaluate the reliability of management's budgeting process; • Engaging our internal valuation specialist to analyse the reasonableness of the pre-tax discount rate adopted by the management by comparing to the economic and industry data; • Assessing the reasonableness of the expected long-term growth rate by comparing to relevant market researches; and • Performing sensitivity analysis on the key assumptions including expected long-term growth rate and pre-tax discount rate to evaluate the magnitude of their potential impacts.

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion solely to you, as a body, in accordance with our agreed terms of engagement, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with HKSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with HKSAs, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.

- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.

- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.

- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in the independent auditor's report is LEUNG Po Shan (practising certificate number: P07300).

Edvance International Holdings Limited (the "Company") was incorporated in the Cayman Islands as an exempted company with limited liability and its shares are listed on the Main Board of The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Stock Exchange"). Its ultimate immediate controlling shareholder is Success Vision International Group Limited, which was incorporated in the British Virgin Islands ("BVI").

The address of the registered office and principal place of business of the Company are disclosed in the corporate information section of the annual report. The Company acts as an investment holding company. The principal activities of principal subsidiaries of the Company are described in note 40.

The consolidated financial statements are presented in Hong Kong dollars ("HK$"), which is also the functional currency of the Company.

2. APPLICATION OF NEW AND AMENDMENTS TO HKFRS ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Amendment to an HKFRS Accounting Standard that are mandatorily effective for the current year

In the current year, the Company and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the "Group") has applied the following amendments to an HKFRS Accounting Standard as issued by the Hong Kong Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("HKICPA") for the first time, which are mandatorily effective for the Group's annual periods beginning on 1 April 2025 for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements:

Amendments to HKAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability

The application of the amendment to an HKFRS Accounting Standard in the current year has had no material impact on the Group's financial positions and performance for the current and prior years and/or on the disclosures set out in the consolidated financial statements.

New and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards in issue but not yet effective

The Group has not early applied the following new and amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards that have been issued but are not yet effective:

Amendments to HKAS 21	Translation to a Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency[3]
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments[2]
Amendments to HKFRS 9 and HKFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity[2]
Amendments to HKFRS 10 and HKAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture[1]
Amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards	Annual Improvements to HKFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11[2]
HKFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements[3]

1 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after a date to be determined.
2 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2026.
3 Effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027.

Except as described below, the directors of the Company anticipate that the application of all other amendments to HKFRS Accounting Standards will have no material impact on the consolidated financial statements in the foreseeable future.

HKFRS 18 "Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements"

HKFRS 18 "Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements" ("HKFRS 18"), which sets out requirements on presentation and disclosures in financial statements, will replace HKAS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements" ("HKAS 1"). This new HKFRS Accounting Standard, while carrying forward many of the requirements in HKAS 1, introduces new requirements to present specified categories and defined subtotals in the statement of profit or loss; provide disclosures on management-defined performance measures in the notes to the financial statements and improve aggregation and disaggregation of information to be disclosed in the financial statements. In addition, some HKAS 1 paragraphs have been moved to HKAS 8 "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors" and HKFRS 7 "Financial Instruments: Disclosure". Minor amendments to HKAS 7 "Statement of Cash Flows" and HKAS 33 "Earnings per Share" are also made.

HKFRS 18, and amendments to other standards, will be effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027, with early application permitted. HKFRS 18 requires retrospective application with specific transition provisions. The application of the new standard is not expected to have significant impact on the financial performance and positions of the Group in terms of recognition and measurement. However, it is expected to affect the structure and presentation of the consolidated statement of profit or loss.

3. BASIS OF PREPARATION OF CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with HKFRS Accounting Standards as issued by the HKICPA. For the purpose of preparation of the consolidated financial statements, information is considered material if such information is reasonably expected to influence decisions made by primary users. In addition, the consolidated financial statements include applicable disclosures required by the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited ("Listing Rules") and by the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

The directors of the Company have, at the time of approving the consolidated financial statements, a reasonable expectation that the Group has adequate resources to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future. Thus they continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the consolidated financial statements.

4. MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICY INFORMATION

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on an acquisition of a business is carried at cost as established at the date of acquisition of the business less accumulated impairment losses, if any.

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill is allocated to each of the Group's cash-generating units ("CGU") (or group of cash-generating units) that is expected to benefit from the synergies of the combination, which represent the lowest level at which the goodwill is monitored for internal management purposes and not larger than an operating segment.

A cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment annually or more frequently when there is indication that the unit may be impaired. For goodwill arising on an acquisition in a reporting period, the cash-generating unit (or group of cash-generating units) to which goodwill has been allocated is tested for impairment before the end of that reporting period. If the recoverable amount is less than its carrying amount, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit (or group of cash-generating units).

Leases

The Group as a lessee

Right-of-use assets

The cost of right-of-use assets includes:

- the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability; and
- any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received.

Right-of-use assets are measured at cost, less any accumulated depreciation and impairment losses, and adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the shorter of its estimated useful life and the lease term.

The Group presents right-of-use assets in "property and equipment", the same line item within which the corresponding underlying assets would be presented if they were owned.

Refundable rental deposits

Refundable rental deposits paid are accounted under HKFRS 9 and initially measured at fair value. Adjustments to fair value at initial recognition are considered as additional lease payments and included in the cost of right-of-use assets.

Lease liabilities

At the commencement date of a lease, the Group recognises and measures the lease liability at the present value of lease payments that are unpaid at that date. In calculating the present value of lease payments, the Group uses the incremental borrowing rate at the lease commencement date as the interest rate implicit in the lease is not readily determinable.

The lease payments include fixed payments (including in-substance fixed payments) less any lease incentives receivable.

After the commencement date, lease liabilities are adjusted by interest accretion and lease payments.

The Group presents lease liabilities as a separate line item on the consolidated statement of financial position.

Foreign currencies

In preparing the financial statements of each individual group entity, transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of that entity (foreign currencies) are recognised at the rates of exchange prevailing on the dates of transactions. At the end of the reporting period, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing at that date. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in profit or loss, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in profit or loss. When a fair value gain or loss on a non-monetary item is recognised in other comprehensive income, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised in other comprehensive income. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on the retranslation of monetary items, are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they arise.

For the purposes of presenting the consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations are translated into the presentation currency of the Group (i.e. HK$) using exchange rate prevailing at the end of the reporting period. Income and expenses items are translated at the average exchange rates for the year. Exchange differences arising, if any, are recognised in other comprehensive income and accumulated in equity under the heading of the translation reserve.

Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

Retirement benefit costs

Payments to defined contribution retirement benefit plans, state-managed retirement benefit scheme and Mandatory Provident Fund Scheme ("MPF Scheme") are recognised as an expense when employees have rendered service entitling them to the contributions.

Short-term employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are recognised at the undiscounted amount of the benefits expected to be paid as and when employees rendered the services. All short-term employee benefits are recognised as an expense unless another HKFRS requires or permits the inclusion of the benefit in the cost of an asset.

A liability is recognised for benefits accruing to employees (such as wages and salaries and annual leave) after deducting any amount already paid.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions

Share options granted to employees

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date.

The fair value of the equity-settled share-based payments determined at the grant date without taking into consideration all non-market vesting conditions is expensed on a straight-line basis over the vesting period, based on the Group's estimate of equity instruments that will eventually vest, with a corresponding increase in equity (share option reserve).

At the end of the reporting period, the Group revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest based on assessment of all relevant non-market vesting conditions. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognised in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to the share option reserve. For shares that vest immediately at the date of grant, the fair value of the shares is expensed immediately to profit or loss.

When share options are exercised, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to share premium. When the share options are lapsed or forfeited after the vesting date or are still not exercised at the expiry date, the amount previously recognised in share option reserve will be transferred to accumulated profits.

Taxation

Income tax expense represents the sum of current and deferred income tax expense.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit before taxation because of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and items that are never taxable or deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

Deferred tax is recognised on temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the consolidated financial statements and the corresponding tax base used in the computation of taxable profit. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences. Deferred tax assets are generally recognised for all deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which those deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such deferred tax assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit and at the time of the transaction does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. In addition, deferred tax liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of goodwill.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for taxable temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Deferred tax assets arising from deductible temporary differences associated with such investments are only recognised to the extent that it is probable that there will be sufficient taxable profits against which to utilise the benefits of the temporary differences and they are expected to reverse in the foreseeable future.

The carrying amount of a deferred tax asset is reviewed at the end of the reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period in which the liability is settled or the asset is realised, based on tax rate (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the reporting period.

The measurement of deferred tax liabilities and assets reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the reporting period, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied to the same taxable entity by the same taxation authority.

Current and deferred tax are recognised in profit or loss.

Property and equipment

Property and equipment are tangible assets that are held for supply of goods or services, or for administrative purposes. Property and equipment are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost less subsequent accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

When the Group makes payments for ownership interests of properties which includes both leasehold land and building elements, the entire consideration is allocated between the leasehold land and the building elements in proportion to the relative fair values at initial recognition. To the extent the allocation of the relevant payments can be made reliably, interest in leasehold land is presented as “right-of-use assets”. When the consideration cannot be allocated reliably between non-lease building element and undivided interest in the underlying leasehold land, the entire properties are classified as property and equipment.

Depreciation is recognised so as to write off the cost of assets less their residual values over their estimated useful lives, using the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation method are reviewed at the end of each reporting period, with the effect of any changes in estimate accounted for on a prospective basis.

An item of property and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected to arise from the continued use of the asset. Any gain or loss arising on the disposal or retirement of an item of property and equipment is determined as the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset and is recognised in profit or loss.

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination

Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognised separately from goodwill and are initially recognised at their fair value at the acquisition date (which is regarded as their cost).

Subsequent to initial recognition, intangible assets acquired in a business combination with finite useful lives are reported at costs less accumulated amortisation and any accumulated impairment losses. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination with indefinite useful lives are carried at cost less any subsequent accumulated impairment losses.

An intangible asset is derecognised on disposal, or when no future economic benefits are expected from use or disposal. Gains and losses arising from derecognition of an intangible asset, measured as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised.

Interest in an associate

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The results and assets and liabilities of associates are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting. Under the equity method, an interest in an associate is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss and other comprehensive income of the associate. When the Group's share of losses of an associate exceeds the Group's interest in that associate (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net interest in the associate), the Group discontinues recognising its share of further losses. Additional losses are provided for, and a liability is recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

An interest in an associate is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes an associate. On acquisition of the interest in an associate, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities of the investee is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The Group assesses whether there is an objective evidence that the interest in an associate may be impaired. When any objective evidence exists, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with HKAS 36 as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use and fair value less costs of disposal) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised is not allocated to any asset, including goodwill, that forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with HKAS 36 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

Impairment on property and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets other than goodwill

At the end of the reporting period, the Group reviews the carrying amounts of its property and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets other than goodwill with finite useful lives to determine whether there is any indication that these assets have suffered an impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the relevant asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that they may be impaired.

The recoverable amount of property and equipment, right-of-use assets and intangible assets other than goodwill are estimated individually. When it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount individually, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

In testing a cash-generating unit for impairment, corporate assets are allocated to the relevant cash-generating unit when a reasonable and consistent basis of allocation can be established, or otherwise they are allocated to the smallest group of cash generating units for which a reasonable and consistent allocation basis can be established. The recoverable amount is determined for the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the corporate asset belongs, and is compared with the carrying amount of the relevant cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units.

Recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs of disposal and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset (or a cash-generating unit) for which the estimates of future cash flows have not been adjusted.

If the recoverable amount of an asset (or a cash-generating unit) is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset (or a cash-generating unit) is reduced to its recoverable amount. For corporate assets or portion of corporate assets which cannot be allocated on a reasonable and consistent basis to a cash-generating unit, the Group compares the carrying amount of a group of cash-generating units, including the carrying amounts of the corporate assets or portion of corporate assets allocated to that group of cash-generating units, with the recoverable amount of the group of cash-generating units. In allocating the impairment loss, the impairment loss is allocated first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill (if applicable) and then to the other assets on a pro-rata basis based on the carrying amount of each asset in the unit or the group of cash-generating units. The carrying amount of an asset is not reduced below the highest of its fair value less costs of disposal (if measurable), its value in use (if determinable) and zero. The amount of the impairment loss that would otherwise have been allocated to the asset is allocated pro rata to the other assets of the unit or the group of cash-generating units. An impairment loss is recognised as an expense immediately in profit or loss.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (or a cash-generating unit or a group of cash-generating units) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss.

Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents presented on the consolidated statement of financial position include:

(a) cash, which comprises of cash on hand and demand deposits; and

(b) cash equivalents, which comprises of short-term deposits (generally with original maturity of three months or less). Cash equivalents are held for the purpose of meeting short-term cash commitments rather than for investment or other purposes.

For the purpose of the Consolidated Statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above.

Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Costs of inventories are determined on a first-in, first-out method. Net realisable value represents the estimated selling price for inventories less all estimated costs of completion and costs necessary to make the sale. Costs necessary to make the sale include incremental costs directly attributable to the sale and non-incremental costs which the Group must incur to make the sale.

Deposits for life insurance contracts

Deposits for life insurance contracts are stated in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost adjusted for interest income and service charges, less impairment losses, if any.

Financial instruments

Financial assets and financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value except for trade receivables arising from contracts with customers which are initially measured in accordance with HKFRS 15. Transaction costs that are directly attributable to the acquisition or issue of financial assets and financial liabilities (other than financial assets and financial liabilities at FVTPL are added to or deducted from the fair value of the financial assets or financial liabilities, as appropriate, on initial recognition. Transaction costs directly attributable to the acquisition of financial assets or financial liabilities at FVTPL are recognised immediately in profit or loss.

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial asset or financial liability and of allocating interest income and interest expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts and payments (including all fees paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial assets or financial liabilities, or, where appropriate, a shorter period to the net carrying amount on initial recognition.

Financial assets

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets

Financial assets that meet the following conditions are subsequently measured at amortised cost:

- the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to collect contractual cash flows; and

- the contractual terms give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

Classification and subsequent measurement of financial assets (continued)

All other financial assets are subsequently measured at FVTPL.

A financial asset is held for trading if it has been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the near term.

Amortised cost and interest income

Interest income is recognised using the effective interest method for financial assets measured subsequently at amortised cost. Interest income is calculated by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of a financial asset, except for financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired (see below). For financial assets that have subsequently become credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the amortised cost of the financial asset from the next reporting period. If the credit risk on the credit impaired financial instrument improves so that the financial asset is no longer credit-impaired, interest income is recognised by applying the effective interest rate to the gross carrying amount of the financial asset from the beginning of the reporting period following the determination that the asset is no longer credit-impaired.

Financial assets at FVTPL

Financial assets that do not meet the criteria for being measured at amortised cost are measured at FVTPL.

Financial assets at FVTPL are measured at fair value at the end of each reporting period, with any fair value gains or losses recognised in profit or loss. The net gain or loss recognised in profit or loss includes any dividend or interest earned on the financial asset and is included in the “other gains and losses” line item.

Impairment of financial assets and other item subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9

The Group performs impairment assessment under expected credit loss ("ECL") model on financial assets (including loan receivable, trade and other receivables and deposits and bank balances) and contract assets which are subject to impairment assessment under HKFRS 9. The amount of ECL is updated at each reporting date to reflect changes in credit risk since initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL represents the ECL that will result from all possible default events over the expected life of the relevant instrument. In contrast, 12-month ECL represents the portion of lifetime ECL that is expected to result from default events that are possible within 12 months after the reporting date. Assessment are done based on the Group's historical credit loss experience, adjusted for factors that are specific to the debtors, general economic conditions and an assessment of both the current conditions at the reporting date as well as the forecast of future conditions.

The Group always recognises lifetime ECL for trade receivables and contract assets without significant financing component. Credit-impaired trade receivables and trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets have been assessed individually, and the remaining trade receivables and contract assets balances are assessed collectively using a provision matrix grouped with shared credit risk characteristics. The contract assets relate to unbilled work in progress and have substantially the same risk characteristics as the trade receivables for the same types of contracts. The Group has therefore concluded that the expected loss rates for the trade receivables and the contract assets on the same basis.

For all other instruments, the Group measures the loss allowance equal to 12-month ECL, unless when there has been a significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition, in which case the Group recognises lifetime ECL. The assessment of whether lifetime ECL should be recognised is based on significant increases in the likelihood or risk of a default occurring since initial recognition.

Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the reporting date with the risk of a default occurring on the financial instrument as at the date of initial recognition. In making this assessment, the Group considers both quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportable, including historical experience and forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

In particular, the following information is taken into account when assessing whether credit risk has increased significantly:

- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the financial instrument's external (if available) or internal credit rating;
- existing or forecast adverse change in economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant decrease in the debtor's ability to meet its debt obligations; and
- an actual or expected significant deterioration in the operating results of the debtor.

Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition when contractual payments are more than 30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

The Group regularly monitors the effectiveness of the criteria used to identify whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk and revises them as appropriate to ensure that the criteria are capable of identifying significant increase in credit risk before the amount becomes past due.

Definition of default

For internal credit risk management, the Group considers an event of default occurs when information developed internally or obtained from external sources indicates that the debtor is unlikely to pay its creditors, including the Group, in full (without taking into account any collaterals held by the Group).

Irrespective of the above, the Group considers that default has occurred when the instrument is more than 90 days past due unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information to demonstrate that a more lagging default criterion is more appropriate.

Credit-impaired financial assets

A financial asset is credit-impaired when one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial assets have been occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes observable data about the following events:

- significant financial difficulty of the issuer of the borrower;
- a breach of contract, such as a default or past due event;
- the lender(s) of the borrower, for economic or contractual reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, having granted to the borrower a concession(s) that the lender(s) would not otherwise consider; or
- it is becoming probably that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation.

Write-off policy

A write-off constitutes a derecognition event. The Group usually writes off when there is information indicating that the counterparty is in severe financial difficulty and there is no realistic prospect of recovery, e.g. when the counterparty has been placed under liquidation or has entered into bankruptcy proceedings, or in the case of trade receivables, when the amounts are over two years past due, whichever occurs sooner. Financial assets written off may still be subject to enforcement activities under the Group's recovery procedures, taking into account legal advice when appropriate. Any recoveries are recognised in profit or loss.

Measurement and recognition of ECL

The measurement of ECL is a function of the probability of default, loss given default (i.e. the magnitude of the loss if there is a default) and the exposure at default. The assessment of the probability of default and loss given default is based on historical data and forward-looking information. Estimation of ECL reflects an unbiased and probability-weighted amount that is determined with the respective risks of default occurring as the weights. The Group uses a practical expedient in estimating ECL on trade receivables using a provision matrix taking into consideration historical credit loss experience, adjusted for forward looking information that is available without undue cost or effort.

Generally, the ECL is the difference between all contractual cash flows that are due to the Group in accordance with the contract and the cash flows that the Group expects to receive, discounted at the effective interest rate determined at initial recognition.

Lifetime ECL for certain trade receivables and contract assets are considered on a collective basis taking into consideration past due information and relevant credit information such as forward looking macroeconomic information. For collective assessment, the Group takes into consideration the following characteristics when formulating the grouping:

- Nature of financial instruments;
- Past-due status;
- Nature, size and industry of debtors; and
- External credit ratings where available.

The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure the constituents of each group continue to share similar credit risk characteristics.

Interest income is calculated based on the gross carrying amount of the financial asset unless the financial asset is credit impaired, in which case interest income is calculated based on amortised cost of the financial asset.

The Group recognises an impairment gain or loss in profit or loss for all financial instruments by adjusting their carrying amount, with the exception of loan receivable, trade receivables and contract assets where the corresponding adjustment is recognised through a loss allowance account.

Derecognition of financial asset

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire.

On derecognition of a financial asset measured at amortised cost, the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the sum of the consideration received and receivable is recognised in profit or loss.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Debt and equity instruments issued by a group entity are classified as either financial liabilities or as equity in accordance with the substance of the contractual arrangements and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments issued by the Company are recognised at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Financial liabilities at amortised cost

Financial liabilities including trade and other payables and accruals and bank borrowings are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or have expired. The difference between the carrying amount of the financial liability derecognised and the consideration paid and payable is recognised in profit or loss.

5. KEY SOURCES OF ESTIMATION UNCERTAINTY

In the application of the Group's accounting policies, the directors of the Company are required to make estimates and assumptions about the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if the revision affects only that period, or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods.

The following are the key assumptions concerning the future, and other key sources of estimation uncertainty at the end of each reporting period, that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets within the next financial year.

Estimated impairment of exclusive rights

As at 31 March 2026, the carrying amount of exclusive rights with finite useful life and with indication for impairment was HK$14,558,000 (2025: HK$26,177,000). In determining whether the exclusive rights are impaired, the Group has to exercise judgement and make estimation on whether the carrying value of CGU to which the exclusive rights belong to can be supported by the recoverable amount, which is based on its value in use calculation. Judgement and estimation are required in establishing the relevant valuation techniques and the relevant inputs thereof. Changes in assumptions relating to these factors could result in material adjustments to the recoverable amount. See note 18(b) for further disclosures.

Fair value measurement of unlisted equity investment

As at 31 March 2026, unlisted equity investment amounting to HK$70,502,000 (2025: HK$46,525,000) are measured at fair value with level 3 fair value measurement being determined based on significant unobservable inputs using valuation techniques. Judgement and estimation are required in establishing the relevant valuation techniques and the relevant inputs thereof. Changes in assumptions relating to these factors could result in material adjustments to the fair value of these instruments. See note 34 for further disclosures.

Allowance for inventories

Slow-moving inventories were identified by management based on aging analysis and marketability of inventories. Allowance was applied to inventories based on assessment of net realisable value by management by considering the latest selling prices and estimated costs necessary to make the sale. Allowance is recognised if the net realisable value is estimated to be below the cost.

Allowance for inventories of HK$2,268,000 (2025: HK$844,000) was recognised for the year ended 31 March 2026. The carrying amount of inventories are HK$13,318,000 (2025: HK$10,384,000) as at 31 March 2026.

Estimated impairment of trade receivables and contract assets

Lifetime ECL on (i) trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets are assessed individually; and (ii) remaining trade receivables and contract assets are based on provision matrix through grouping of various debtors that have similar loss pattern, after considering internal credit ratings of trade debtors and/or past due status of respective trade receivables. Estimated loss rates are based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and are adjusted for forward looking information that is reasonable and supportable available without undue costs or effort. The assessment of credit risk of trade receivables and contract assets involves high degree of estimation uncertainty. At each reporting date, the historical observed default rates are reassessed and changes in the forward-looking information are considered.

The ECL assessment is sensitive to changes in estimates. The information about the ECL for the Group's trade receivables and contract assets are disclosed in note 34. The carrying amounts of trade receivables and contract assets are HK$167,582,000 (2025: HK$193,423,000) and HK$5,080,000 (2025: HK$6,563,000), respectively as at 31 March 2026.

Performance obligations for contracts with customers

Revenue from procurement of network security products, system security products and application and data security products

Revenue from procurement of network security products, system security products and application and data security products is recognised when control of the products has been transferred to the customers, being at the point the products are delivered to the customer's specific location. Transportation and other related activities that occur before customers obtain control of the related products are considered as fulfilment activities. A receivable is recognised by the Group when the products are delivered to the customers as this represents the point in time at which the right to consideration becomes unconditional, as only the passage of time is required before payment is due. The Group requires certain customers to provide upfront deposits range from 20% to 50% of total contract sum, when the Group receives a deposit before the delivery of products, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the products are delivered to the customers. The normal credit term is 30 to 60 days upon delivery, which is approximate the time of issuing the invoices to the customers.

Revenue from provision of technical implementation services

The Group provides technical implementation services to customers. Such services are recognised as a performance obligation satisfied over time as the Group enhances the assets that the customer controls as the assets are enhanced. The progress towards completing satisfaction of a performance obligation is measured based on input method, which is to recognise revenue on the basis of the Group's efforts (i.e. materials costs, direct staff costs and other direct costs incurred) to the satisfaction of a performance obligation relative to the total expected inputs to the satisfaction of that performance obligation. The normal payment term is 30 to 60 days upon the issuance of invoices to the customers. The Group requires customers to provide upfront deposit range from 20% to 50% of total contract sum, when the Group receives the advance payment before the services commences, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the revenue recognised on the specific contract exceeds the amount of the deposit.

A contract asset, net of contract liability related to the same contract, is recognised over the period in which the technical implementation services are performed representing the Group's right to consideration for the services performed because the rights are conditioned on user acceptance by customers. The contract assets are transferred to trade receivables when the rights become unconditional.

The Group requires customers to pay the total contract sum in advance, when the Group receives the advance payment before the services commences, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the revenue recognised on the specific contract exceeds the amount of the deposit.

The Group generally requires customers to pay the total contract sum in advance, when the Group receives the advance payment before the services commences, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the revenue recognised on the specific contract exceeds the amount of the deposit.

16. PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT (continued)

For both years, the Group leases various offices for its operations. Lease contracts are entered into for fixed term of one to three years, but may have termination options. In determining the lease term and assessing the length of the non-cancellable period, the Group applies the definition of a contract and determines the period for which the contract is enforceable.

In addition, the Group reassesses whether it is reasonably certain not to exercise a termination option, upon the occurrence of either a significant event or a significant change in circumstances that is within the control of the lessee. During the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025, there is no such triggering event.

During the year ended 31 March 2026, the additions to right-of-use assets in relation to new offices leased amounted to HK$7,481,000. Respective lease liabilities of HK$7,481,000 have been recognised.

The Group regularly entered into short-term leases for office and carparks. As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, the portfolio of short-term leases is similar to the portfolio of short-term leases to which the short-term lease expense disclosed above.

17. GOODWILL

	HK$'000
COST AND CARRYING VALUES
At 1 April 2024, 31 March 2025 and 2026	3,216

For the purposes of impairment testing, goodwill has been allocated to two individual CGUs, comprising those subsidiaries under (i) Cybersecurity products business excluding Green Radar CGU (as defined in note 18(b)) ("Cybersecurity Products CGU") and (ii) Cybersecurity services business ("Cybersecurity Services CGU") with amount of HK$1,801,000 and HK$1,415,000, respectively. In addition to goodwill above, property and equipment (including allocation of corporate assets) that generate cash flows together with the related goodwill are also included in the respective CGU for the purpose of impairment assessment.

The recoverable amount of Cybersecurity Products CGU has been determined based on a value in use calculation. That calculation uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period, and pre-tax discount rate of 16.2% (2025: 17.4%). Cybersecurity Products CGU's cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using a steady 2.5% (2025: 2.5%) long-term growth rate.

The recoverable amount of Cybersecurity Services CGU has been determined based on a value in use calculation. That calculation uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period, and pre-tax discount rate of 16.2% (2025: 17.4%). Cybersecurity Services CGU's cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using a steady 2.5% (2025: 2.5%) long-term growth rate.

Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budgeted sales and gross margin, such estimation is based on the unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development.

During the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025, management of the Group determines that there is no impairment on the two individual CGUs. Management of the Group believes that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the carrying amount of the two individual CGUs to exceed the recoverable amount of the two individual CGUs.

The above exclusive rights are amortised on a straight-line basis over finite useful lives of 13 years.

As at 31 March 2026, as the Green Radar CGU under Cybersecurity products business had a less than expected performance the management of the Group concluded there was indication for impairment and conducted impairment assessment. In addition to the exclusive rights above, property and equipment (including allocation of corporate assets) that generate cash flows together with the related trading rights are also included in the Green Radar CGU for the purpose of impairment assessment. The value in use calculation of Green Radar CGU uses cash flow projections based on financial budgets approved by management covering a five-year period, and pre-tax discount rate of 16.0% (2025: 17.5%). Cash flows beyond the five-year period are extrapolated using a steady 2% (2025: 2%) long-term growth rate up to the end of the useful life of the exclusive rights.

Other key assumptions for the value in use calculations relate to the estimation of cash inflows/outflows which include budgeted sales and gross margin, such estimation is based on the unit's past performance and management's expectations for the market development.

During the year ended 31 March 2026, based on impairment assessment, management of the Group determined that the recoverable amount of Green Radar CGU is lower than the carrying amount. The relevant assets of the Green Radar CGU were then impaired to their recoverable amount, which is their carrying values as at 31 March 2026. The impairment loss amounting to HK$9,001,000 has been recognised and allocated to exclusive rights, such impairment loss has been included in consolidated profit or loss in the "cost of sales or services" line item. During the year ended 31 March 2025, management of the Group determines that there is no impairment on the Green Radar CGU.

During the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025, management of the Group believes that any reasonably possible change in any of these assumptions would not cause the carrying amount of the Green Radar CGU to exceed the recoverable amount of the Green Radar CGU.

Under these policies, the beneficiary and policy holder is Edvance Technology (HK) and the total insured sum of US$6,000,000 (equivalent to HK$46,500,000) and paid gross payments of US$1,538,000 (equivalent to HK$11,920,000). Edvance Technology (HK) may request a partial surrender or full surrender of all these insurance contracts at any time and receive cash back based on the account value of these policies ("Account Value") at the date of withdrawal, which is determined by the gross payments paid plus accumulated interest earned and minus any previously paid partial surrender and other relevant deductions. In addition, if withdrawal is made between the 1st to 15th or 1st to 18th policy year, depending on respective contracts, there is a specified surrender charge deducted from Account Value. The insurance company will pay Edvance Technology (HK) a guaranteed interest rate of 4.7% per annum for the first year of the contracts and a variable return per annum afterwards (with minimum guaranteed interest rate of 3% per annum) during the effective period of the policies.

(ii) The amounts represented the prepayment made to the suppliers for their maintenance and support services to the Group. The prepayment is charged to profit or loss using straight-line method over the terms of maintenance and support contracts with suppliers and will form part of the Group's costs of services on maintenance and support services to customers of the Group. Amounts expected to be recognised as expense after twelve months of the reporting period are presented as non-current assets.

The contract liabilities from provision of maintenance and support services are recognised as revenue using straight-line method over the terms of respective contracts and amounts to be released to profit or loss after twelve months of the reporting period are presented as non-current liabilities. The Group classifies other contract liabilities as current liabilities because the Group expects to be settled in its normal operating cycle which is within 12 months after the end of the reporting period.

For maintenance and support services contracts, the Group requires customers to provide upfront deposits of full contract sum. When the Group receives a deposit before the services commence, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the revenue fully recognised on the specific contract. The typical payment term is 30 to 60 days upon the issuance of invoices to the customers.

The increase in contract liabilities represents the increase in amount of upfront deposits received from the customers in respect of increase in sales orders.

For technical implementation services contract, the Group requires customers to provide upfront deposit range from 20% to 50% of total contract sum. When the Group receives the advance payment before the services commences, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the revenue recognised on the specific contract exceeds the amount of the deposit. The typical payment term is 30 to 60 days upon the issuance of invoices to the customers.

For contract of procurement of network security products, system security products and application and data security products, the Group requires certain customers to provide upfront deposits range from 20% to 50% of total contract sum. When the Group receives a deposit before the delivery of products, this will give rise to contract liabilities at the start of a contract, until the products are delivered to the customers.

The following table shows how much of the revenue recognised relates to carried-forward contract liabilities:

Such bank borrowings are denominated in HK$ and secured by the owned properties in Hong Kong as set out in note 39 and the corporate guarantees provided by the Company and certain subsidiaries of the Company.

As at 31 March 2025, the remaining bank borrowings of HK$1,379,000 are at floating rate which carry interest at 1 month HIBOR plus 2.8% with weighted average effective interest rate of 5.1% per annum as at 31 March 2025. These bank borrowings contain repayable on demand clause and hence classified as current liabilities at each end of the reporting period. Such bank borrowings are denominated in HK$ and secured by the life insurance contracts as set out in note 39.

32. RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEMES

The Group operates a MPF Scheme for all qualifying employees in Hong Kong. The assets of the scheme are held separately from those of the Group, in funds under the control of trustees. The Group contributes 5% of relevant payroll costs to the Scheme, subject to a cap of monthly relevant payroll costs of HK$30,000, which contribution is matched by employees. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the MPF Scheme is to make the required contributions. No forfeited contribution under the MPF Scheme is available to reduce the contribution payable in future years.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in the PRC are members of a state-managed retirement benefit scheme operated by the local municipal government of Shenzhen. The subsidiaries are required to contribute 10% to 23% of payroll costs to the retirement benefits scheme to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to make the specified contributions.

The employees of the Group's subsidiaries in Singapore are members of a national pension scheme. The subsidiaries are required to contribute 10% to 15% of payroll costs to the Central Provident Fund to fund the benefits. The only obligation of the Group with respect to the retirement benefit scheme is to make the specified contributions.

At 31 March 2026 and 2025, there were no significant lapsed contributions which arose upon employees leaving the schemes before they are fully vested in the contributions and which are available to reduce the contributions payable by the Group in the future.

32. RETIREMENT BENEFITS SCHEMES (continued)

The total expenses recognised in profit or loss of HK$3,240,000 (2025: HK$2,901,000) represent contributions payable to these plans by the Group at rates specified in the rules of the plans.

For long service payments (the "LSP") obligation, the Group accounts for the employer MPF contributions expected to be offset as a deemed employee contribution towards the LSP obligation in terms of HKAS 19.93(a) and it is measured on a net basis. The estimated amount of future benefit is determined after deducting the negative service cost arising from the accrued benefits derived from the Group's MPF contributions that have been vested with employees, which are deemed to be contributions from the relevant employees. As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, no LSP provision is required after offsetting with MPF contributions.

33. CAPITAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to owners of the Company through the optimisation of the debt and equity balance. The Group's overall strategy remains unchanged for both years.

The capital structure of the Group represents bank borrowings, cash and cash equivalents and equity attributable to owners of the Company, comprising share capital and reserves.

The directors of the Company review the capital structure on a regular basis. As part of this review, the directors of the Company consider the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. Based on recommendations of the directors of the Company, the Group will balance its overall capital structure through the payment of dividends, new share issues and raising of new borrowings.

Financial risk management objectives and policies

The Group's major financial instruments include financial assets at FVTPL, loan receivable, trade and other receivables and deposits, cash and cash equivalents, trade and other payables and accruals, bank borrowings and lease liabilities. Details of these financial instruments are disclosed in respective notes. The risks associated with these financial instruments and the policies on how to mitigate these risks are set out below. The management manages and monitors these exposures to ensure appropriate measures are implemented in a timely and effective manner.

Market risk

(i) Currency risk

Several subsidiaries of the Group have foreign currency sales and purchases, which expose the Group to foreign currency risk. Certain monetary assets and liabilities of the Group are denominated in foreign currencies. The carrying amounts of such monetary assets and liabilities recognised are as follows:

	Denominated in US$ HK$'000	Denominated in SG$ HK$'000
As at 31 March 2026
Trade receivables and deposits	17,412	121

Bank balances and cash	9,277	17,364

The Group currently does not have a foreign currency hedging policy. However, the directors of the Company monitor foreign exchange exposure and will consider hedging significant foreign currency exposure should the need arise.

Sensitivity analysis

The change in exchange rate of HK$ against US$ has not been considered in the sensitivity analysis as HK$ is pegged to US$. In the opinion of the directors of the Company, the Group does not expect any significant movements between the exchange rate of US$ against HK$. Hence, only sensitivity of the change in foreign exchange rate of HK$ against SG$ is considered. The following table details the Group's sensitivity to a 5% (2025: 5%) increase and decrease in other foreign currency against HK$. 5% (2025: 5%) is the sensitivity rate used when reporting foreign currency risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in foreign exchange rates. The sensitivity analysis includes only outstanding SG$ denominated monetary items and adjusts their translation at the year end for a 5% (2025: 5%) change in foreign currency rates. A positive number below indicates a decrease in post-tax profit for the year where SG$ strengthens 5% (2025: 5%) against HK$. For a 5% (2025: 5%) weakening of SG$ against HK$, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the result, and the balances below would be negative.

(ii) Interest rate risk

The Group is exposed to fair value interest rate risk in relation to lease liabilities and fixed-rate loan receivable (see notes 28 and 25, respectively). The Group is also exposed to cash flow interest rate risk in relation to the Group's variable-rate bank balances and variable-rate bank borrowings (notes 26 and 30, respectively). The Group's cash flow interest rate risk is mainly concentrated on the fluctuation of interest rates on bank's HIBOR.

The Group has not used any interest rate hedging policy to mitigate its exposure associated with interest rate risk. However, the management monitors interest rate exposure and will consider hedging significant interest rate exposure should the need arise.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to variable-rate bank borrowings. The analysis is prepared assuming bank borrowings outstanding at the end of the reporting period were outstanding for the whole year. Each year, a 100 basis points (2025: 100 basis points) increase or decrease represents management's assessment of the reasonably possible change in interest rates.

A negative number below indicates a decrease in post-tax profit for the year where the interest rate had been 100 basis points (2025: 100 basis points) higher and all other variable were held constant. For 100 basis points (2025: 100 basis points) lower on interest rate, there would be an equal and opposite impact on the result for the year.

	2026	2025
	HK$'000	HK$'000
Decrease in post-tax profit for the year	(82)	(99)

For the variable-rate bank balances, the directors of the Company consider the Group's exposure to future cash flow interest rate risk is minimal taking into account the minimal effect arising from fluctuation on market interest rate for the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025. Accordingly, no sensitivity analysis on interest rate risk is presented.

(iii) Other price risk

The Group is exposed to price risk in respect of unlisted preference shares in Hong Kong as at 31 March 2026 and 2025.

Sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analyses on listed equity investments in Hong Kong and unlisted preference shares in Hong Kong (2025: unlisted fund investment and unlisted preference shares in Hong Kong) during the year have been determined based on the exposure to price risks at the end of the reporting period. For sensitivity analysis purpose, the sensitivity rate considers at 10% in the current year. If the prices of the respective investments had been 10% higher/lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's post-tax profit for the year would increase/decrease by HK$7,468,000 (2025: HK$5,091,000) as a result of the changes in fair value of financial assets at FVTPL.

Credit risk and impairment assessment

The Group's credit risk is primarily attributable to loan receivable, trade and other receivables and deposits, contract assets and bank balances as at 31 March 2026 and 2025. As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk which will cause a financial loss to the Group in the event of the counterparties' failure to perform their obligations as at the end of the reporting period in relation to each class of recognised financial assets is the gross carrying amount of those assets as stated in the consolidated statement of financial position.

Loan receivable

Credit risk of loan receivable is assessed individually. The management of the Group estimates the loss rates of loan receivable based on the current past due exposure as well as the personal guarantee provided by the guarantors to the loan receivable. During the year ended 31 March 2024, the counterparty of the loan receivable defaulted in payment and the Group has taken legal action against the counterparty. The management of the Group considered that credit risk on the loan receivable has significantly increased during the year. In view of this, the management assessed the ECL of the loan receivable and change from 12-month ECL to lifetime ECL (credit-impaired) during the year ended 31 March 2024. Based on the legal action status and the on-going communication with the counterparty, the management of the Group has recognised additional impairment loss of approximately HK$1,351,000 for the year ended 31 March 2024.

As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, the Group had concentration of credit risk as entire loan receivable was due from one debtor.

Trade receivables and contract assets arising from contracts with customers

In order to minimise the credit risk, the directors of the Company have delegated a team responsible for determination of credit limits and credit approvals. Before accepting any new customer, the Group uses an internal credit rating system to assess the potential customer's credit quality and defines credit limits by customer. Except for trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets which are assessed for impairment individually, the remaining trade receivables and contract assets are grouped under a provision matrix into four internal credit rating buckets (namely: low risk, medium risk, high risk and doubtful) based on shared credit risk characteristics by reference to current past due exposure. The contract assets have substantially the same risk characteristics as the trade receivables for the same type of contracts. Limits and scoring attributed to customers are reviewed annually. Other monitoring procedures are in place to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had concentration of credit risk as 12% (2025: 10%) of the total trade receivables was due from the Group's largest debtor. The Group's concentration of credit risk on the top five largest debtors accounted for 36% (2025: 35%) of the total trade receivables as at 31 March 2026.

Other receivables and deposits

For other receivables and deposits, the directors of the Company make periodic individual assessment on the recoverability of other receivables and deposits based on historical settlement records, past experience, and also quantitative and qualitative information that is reasonable and supportive forward-looking information (i.e. the forecasted default rate expected by the international credit-rating agencies). The directors of the Company believe that there is no material credit risk inherent in the Group's outstanding balance of other receivables and deposits. The Group assessed the ECL for other receivables and deposits were immaterial. Thus no loss allowance was recognised.

Bank balances

The Group only transacts with reputable banks with high credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies and therefore the directors of the Company consider the risk of default is low. The Group uses 12-month ECL to perform the assessment under ECL on balances individually based on the average loss rate by reference to credit ratings assigned by international credit-rating agencies. The Group assessed the ECL for bank balances were immaterial. Thus no loss allowance was recognised.

Notes:

1. For trade receivables and contract assets, the Group has applied the simplified approach in HKFRS 9 to measure the loss allowance at lifetime ECL. Apart from trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets, the Group determines the ECL on these items using a provision matrix grouped with reference to current past due exposure and adjusted for forward-looking information that is reasonable and supportable available without undue costs or effort.

   As part of the Group's credit risk management, the Group applies internal credit rating for its customers in relation to its Group's operation. Trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets and credit-impaired trade receivables with gross carrying amounts of approximately HK$149,950,000 (2025: HK$182,906,000) and HK$3,369,000 (2025: HK$3,595,000) respectively as at 31 March 2026 were assessed individually. The following table provides information about the exposure to credit risk for trade receivables and contract assets which are assessed based on provision matrix as at 31 March 2026 within lifetime ECL (not credit-impaired).

   Gross carrying amount

	2026			2025
Internal credit rating	Average loss rate %	Trade receivables HK$'000	Contract assets HK$'000	Average loss rate %	Trade receivables HK$'000	Contract assets HK$'000
Low risk	1.0	3,848	–	0.7	2,138	374
Medium risk	2.5	21,128	970	1.5	11,547	2,029
High risk	4.0	6,483	833	4.0	3,948	649
		31,459	1,803		17,633	3,052

   The estimated loss rates on trade receivables are estimated based on historical observed default rates over the expected life of the debtors and study of other corporates' default and recovery data from international credit-rating agencies including Moody's and Standard and Poor's, and are adjusted for forward-looking information (for example, the forecasted default rate expected by the international credit-rating agencies) that is available without undue cost or effort. The contract assets have the same risk characteristics as the trade receivables for the same type of contracts would apply the same internal credit rating and loss rate. The grouping is regularly reviewed by management to ensure relevant information about specific debtors and contract assets is updated.

   During the year ended 31 March 2026, the Group recognised net impairment allowance of HK$271,000 (2025: HK$301,000) and net reversal of impairment allowance of HK$33,000 (2025: net reversal of impairment allowance of HK$59,000) for trade receivables and contract assets, respectively, based on the provision matrix. Net impairment allowance of HK$6,454,000 (2025: HK$5,723,000) and HK$27,000 (2025: net impairment allowance of HK$46,000) assessed individually were provided for trade receivables with aggregated outstanding balances exceeding HK$1,000,000 and relevant contract assets and credit-impaired trade receivables, respectively, during the year ended 31 March 2026.

   During the year ended 31 March 2026, certain trade receivables with gross carrying amount of HK$11,799,000 were defaulted in repayment and no settlement was made by the debtors during the year for the respective past due invoices. The Group has taken legal action against these debtors in respect of these past due invoices and the management of the Group considered that the credit risk on these trade receivables has significantly increased during the year. Accordingly, additional impairment loss of HK$5,588,000 (2025: HK$6,211,000) was recognised for these credit-impaired debtors.

Liquidity risk

In the management of the liquidity risk, the Group monitors and maintains a level of cash and cash equivalents deemed adequate by management to finance the Group's operations and mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows.

Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the directors of the Company, which has built an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate reserves, banking facilities and reserve borrowing facilities, by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows and matching the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The following table details the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its non-derivative financial liabilities and lease liabilities. The table has been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of non-derivative financial liabilities and lease liabilities based on the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay. Specifically, bank borrowings with a repayment on demand clause are included in the earliest other time band regardless of the probability of the banks choosing to exercise their rights. The maturity dates for other non-derivative financial liabilities and lease liabilities are based on the agreed repayment dates.

The table includes both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate at the end of the reporting period.

As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, bank borrowings with a repayment on demand clause is included in the "On demand" time band in the above maturity analysis. As at 31 March 2026, the aggregate carrying amount of these bank borrowings amounted to HK$9,779,000 (2025: HK$11,802,000). Taking into account the Group's financial position, the directors of the Company do not believe that it is probable that the banks will exercise their discretionary right to demand immediate repayment. The directors of the Company believe that such bank borrowings of the Group will be repaid after the end of each reporting period in accordance with the scheduled repayment dates as set out in the loan agreement.

Fair value measurements of financial instruments

This note provides information about how the Group determines fair values of various financial assets.

Fair value measurement and valuation process

The management of the Group is responsible to determine the appropriate valuation techniques and key inputs for fair value measurements.

In estimating the fair value, the Group uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. For instruments with significant unobservable inputs under Level 3, the Group engaged independent qualified professional valuers to perform the valuation. The management of the Group works closely with independent qualified professional valuers to establish the appropriate valuation techniques and key inputs to the model. The management of the Group reports to executive directors semi-annually to explain the cause of fluctuations in the fair value of the assets.
