INSIDE INFORMATION ANNOUNCEMENT ADMINISTRATIVE PENALTY DECISION OF ANTI-MONOPOLY INVESTIGATION

This announcement is made by Trip.com Group Limited (the "Company") pursuant to Rule 13.09(2)(a) of the Hong Kong Listing Rules and the Inside Information Provisions (as defined under the Hong Kong Listing Rules) under Part XIVA of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Chapter 571 of the Laws of Hong Kong).

On July 25, 2026, the Company received an administrative penalty decision (the "Decision") issued by the State Administration for Market Regulation of the People's Republic of China (the "SAMR"). The Decision was issued following the SAMR's investigation, notice of which the Company had announced on January 14, 2026, pursuant to the Anti-Monopoly Law of the People's Republic of China (the "Anti-Monopoly Law").

The SAMR found that the Company had violated Article 22(4) and (5) of the Anti-Monopoly Law, which prohibits a business operator that has a dominant market position from restricting business counterparties through exclusive arrangements without justifiable cause and from imposing unreasonable terms on transactions without justifiable cause.

Pursuant to Articles 57 and 59 of the Anti-Monopoly Law, the SAMR (i) ordered the Company to cease violating acts and fully refund RMB122 million (US$18.0 million) in hotel order security deposits that were compulsorily deducted from hotel operators; (ii) confiscated the Company's gains of RMB1,658 million (US$244.4 million) from violating acts; and (iii) imposed a fine of RMB3,521 million (US$518.9 million), representing 7.5% of the Company's sales revenue generated from its operations in the People's Republic of China in 2025.

The Company sincerely accepts the Decision and will adopt rectification measures in accordance with applicable laws and regulations to implement the Decision's requirements. The Company will strengthen its long-term governance mechanisms and strive to contribute to the sustainable development of the travel industry.

Shareholders and potential investors of the Company are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the shares, American depositary shares or other securities of the Company.
