Message to Shareholders

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the Board, I am pleased to announce the Group's audited annual results for the Year.

YEAR IN REVIEW

During the Year, the number of Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants under the Shihlin and Eat Pizza brands in Singapore and Malaysia remained stable. The continued contribution from these Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants supported the Group's revenue growth.

Overall revenue increased by 11% during the Year. Notwithstanding the growth in revenue, the Group recorded a net loss of approximately S$1.9 million for the Year as compared to a net loss of about S$483 thousand for Year 2024/2025. This was mainly attributable to:

- the Central Kitchen has not yet generated revenue from its planned catering business;
- losses incurred under the Eat Pizza brand arising from the under performance of certain Outlets; and
- higher manpower costs, partly due to the implementation of the Progressive Wage Model in Singapore and the Minimum Wage Policy in Malaysia.

To mitigate the impact of rising manpower costs, the Group has implemented self-ordering kiosks across its Outlets and Restaurants and plans to introduce QR code ordering in the near future to enhance operational efficiency and optimise manpower utilisation.

During the Year, the Group has undertaken a rebranding initiative to refresh the image of the Shihlin brand and enhance its appeal to the younger generation of consumers. The initiative is expected to be progressively implemented across the Group's Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants over the next two years. Supported by the capabilities of the Group's Central Kitchen, the rebranding has enabled the introduction of new menu and a broader range of products to better meet evolving consumer preferences. These efforts have contributed positively to the performance of the Group's Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants and are expected to support future growth.

In addition, the Group continues to make progress on the implementation of its ERP system in Malaysia. Upon completion, the ERP system is expected to enhance operational efficiency, strengthen internal controls and provide greater visibility across the Group's operations. The Group expects to complete the implementation within 1.5 to 2 years.

OUTLOOK

The Year has seen a significant number of closures within the food and beverage ("F&B") and kiosk sectors, reflecting the challenging operating environment faced by industry participants. The Group expects market conditions in the F&B industry to remain challenging in the near term and will continue to implement measures to enhance operational efficiency, strengthen its value proposition and ensure that its Outlets and Restaurants remain competitive within the marketplace.

The Group will also remain focused on innovation, cost management and customer experience initiatives to adapt to evolving consumer preferences and navigate the uncertainties in the operating environment. Looking ahead, the Group will continue to explore opportunities to develop its catering business through fully utilising the Central Kitchen while further optimising the performance of the Eat Pizza brand by reviewing its Outlet portfolio and enhancing operational efficiency.

Message to Shareholders

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

In closing, on behalf of the Board, I would like to express our sincere appreciation to the management team and all employees of Snack Empire Holdings Limited for their dedication, commitment and hard work throughout the Year. I would also like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to our Shareholders, customers and business partners for their continued trust, valuable feedback and unwavering support. Their confidence and partnership have been instrumental to the Group's progress and success, and we look forward to their continued support in the years ahead.

Mr. Fok Chee Khuen

Chairman and Independent Non-Executive Director

Management Discussion and Analysis

BUSINESS REVIEW

During the Year, the Group maintained a network of 279 Shihlin Outlets and Restaurants across Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia and the United States. In addition, the Group appointed a new Master Franchisee in the Philippines, which would commence operations subsequent to the end of the Year.

The expansion into the Philippines represents a further step in the Group's regional growth strategy and is expected to strengthen the Shihlin brand's presence in Southeast Asia.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group operated six Self-operated Outlets and two franchise Outlets under the Eat Pizza brand in Singapore, as well as two Self-operated Outlets and one franchise Outlet in Malaysia.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Revenue

The Group's revenue was mainly generated from (i) Outlet and Restaurant sales; (ii) sales of food ingredients to Franchisees/Licensee; (iii) franchise fees; (iv) royalty income; and (v) advertising and promotion fees. The table below sets forth the Group's revenue breakdown by nature for the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025.

	Year ended 31 March
	2026 S$'000	2025 S$'000
Sale of goods
— Outlet and Restaurant sales	22,749	20,571
— Franchisees/Licensee	8,514	7,455
Royalty	978	922
Franchise fees	452	350
Advertising and promotion fees	264	270
	32,957	29,568

The Group's revenue increased by approximately S$3.4 million or approximately 11% from approximately S$29.6 million for the Year 2024/2025 to approximately S$33.0 million for the Year. The increase in revenue was as a result of the following:

- (i) An increase in Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants' revenue of approximately S$2 million from Shihlin, of which Singapore segment accounted for approximately S$1.4 million while Malaysia segment accounted for approximately S$0.6 million.

The increase was due to the generation of full year revenue of the Outlets which was opened in the Year 2024/2025 in Singapore. There was also an increase in revenue from certain existing Outlets and Restaurants.

- (ii) An increase in Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants' revenue of approximately S$0.1 million from Eat Pizza, of which Singapore segment had a negative revenue growth of approximately S$0.1 million while Malaysia segment accounted for an increase of approximately S$0.2 million.

The increase in revenue in the Malaysia segment was due to the generation of full year revenue of the Outlets and Restaurants opened in the Year 2024/2025.

The decrease in revenue in the Singapore segment was mainly due to the under performance of one of the Outlets.

- (iii) An increase in the number of franchise Outlets in the network for Shihlin from 219 as at 31 March 2025 to 233 as at 31 March 2026 and the increase of 1 Franchisee for Eat Pizza, thereby increasing the revenue of sales of goods and royalty income from the Franchisees/Licensee.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Cost of sales

Cost of sales relates to the cost of food ingredients, beverages and packagings consumed in the Group's Self-operated Outlets and Self-operated Restaurants in Singapore and Malaysia for our retail sales, and the cost of food ingredients, beverages and packagings sold to our Franchisees and Licensee in Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, United States and Egypt.

The increase in cost of sales during the Year is in line with the increase in revenue with gross profit margin, staying relatively constant at approximately 63%.

Gross profit

The Group's gross profit (which is equivalent to revenue subtracting the cost of sales) for the Year was approximately S$20.9 million, representing an increase of approximately 11.8% from approximately S$18.7 million for the Year 2024/2025 which was generally in line with the increase in revenue.

Human resources and remuneration policy

As at 31 March 2026, the Group employed 231 employees. The Group's staff costs increased by approximately S$1.6 million from approximately S$11.0 million for the Year 2024/2025 to approximately S$12.6 million for the Year. As the Group continues to face manpower crunches in both Singapore and Malaysia, the Group has increased salaries and offered certain incentives for the Outlet employees during the Year according to the performance of the employees and the industry's level to attract and retain talents. The increase in Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants as well as the full year operations for the Outlets and Restaurants opened in the Year 2024/2025 have contributed to the increase in manpower costs. The Group has also increased the number of office staff in preparation for the expansion of business to be brought about by the new brand and the Central Kitchen.

Remuneration packages are generally determined by reference to market norms, individual qualifications, relevant experience and performance. The Group periodically reviews the remuneration and performance of its employees and will make increments to the base salary of its staff based on market norms and their performance for the Year.

In addition, the Company adopted the Share Option Scheme as incentives or rewards to eligible persons for their contributions or potential contributions to the Group. No share option has been granted under the Share Option Scheme since the Listing Date.

Selling and distribution expenses

The Group's selling and distribution expenses increased by approximately S$1.5 million or approximately 16% from approximately S$9.2 million in Year 2024/2025 to approximately S$10.7 million for the Year. This was mainly due to the higher manpower costs and depreciation of plant and equipment and right-of-use assets due to the full year operation of new Outlets opened in Year 2024/2025 and consultancy services relating to the rebranding exercise.

Administrative expenses

Administrative expenses increased by approximately S$1.5 million or approximately 15% from approximately S$10.1 million for the Year 2024/2025 to approximately S$11.6 million for the Year.

The increase was due to (i) an increase in overall payroll costs for the office expansion (including the payroll costs relating to USA expansion) and the yearly increments for existing staff, (ii) an increase in depreciation, property tax and MCST (Management Corporation Strata Title) fees relating to the new office unit; (iii) doubtful debts provision; (iv) the fees incurred in relation to USA expansion; and (v) the professional fees relating to amendment of the Articles of Association.

Finance (cost)/income — net

There was an increase in the interest expense of approximately S$0.12 million, which was a result of (i) additional bank borrowing for the purchase of the new Singapore office and Malaysia warehouse and (ii) opening of new Outlets.

Interest income decreased by about S$0.24 million due to (i) the Group partially funding the purchase of the new Singapore office and Malaysia warehouse by internally generated cash flows and (ii) the reduction in interest rates during the Year.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Liquidity, financial resources and capital structure

The Group financed its business with internally generated cash flows and the proceeds received from the Listing. There has been no change in the Company's capital structure since the Listing Date. The capital structure of the Group comprises of issued share capital and reserves.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had cash and cash equivalents amounting to approximately S$11.8 million, representing a decrease of approximately S$6.2 million from approximately S$18.0 million as at 31 March 2025. Most of the Group's bank deposits and cash were denominated in MYR, HKD and SGD. As at 31 March 2026, the Group's total current assets and current liabilities were approximately S$16.1 million (31 March 2025: approximately S$23.4 million) and S$7.9 million (31 March 2025: approximately S$5.9 million), respectively, while the current ratio calculated by dividing the total current assets over the total current liabilities was approximately 2.0 times (31 March 2025: approximately 4.0 times).

As at 31 March 2026, the Group recorded interest-bearing bank borrowings of approximately S$6.2 million (31 March 2025: S$1.3 million). The interest-bearing bank borrowings were secured and denominated in SGD and bore interest rate at the range of 1.7% to 2.3% per annum (31 March 2025: 4.4% per annum). During the Year, no financial instruments were used for hedging purposes. Details of the bank borrowings of the Group are set out in note 23 to the consolidated financial statements.

As at 31 March 2026, the Group's gearing ratio, calculated based on the sum of interest-bearing bank borrowings, and lease liabilities divided by the equity attributable to owners of the Company, was approximately 44% (31 March 2025: approximately 23%).

Material acquisitions and disposals

In July 2025, STSS Concepts Sdn. Bhd., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, completed the purchase of properties in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, at the consideration of RM9,000,000 (equivalent to SGD2,722,500). Please refer to the Company's announcements dated 21 October 2025 and 12 March 2026 for details.

On 15 April 2025, STSS Integrated Pte. Ltd., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, completed the acquisition of a property in Singapore at the consideration of SGD7,785,500 plus goods and services tax of SGD700,695. Please refer to the Company's announcements dated 20 January 2025, 7 February 2025, 11 March 2025, 12 March 2025 and 17 March 2025, and circular dated 28 March 2025 for details.

Save for the above, the Group had no material acquisitions or disposals of subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures during the Year and the Year 2024/2025.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Use of proceeds from the Share Offer

The Company issued 200,000,000 Shares at HK$0.65 per Share pursuant to the Share Offer. The net proceeds from the Share Offer were approximately S$13.0 million or equivalent to HK$74.8 million (after deducting underwriting fees and related listing expenses). Having considered the impact brought about by the COVID-19 Pandemic, the Board has resolved to change the use of the unutilised net proceeds as set out in the announcements of the Company dated 27 November 2020 and 6 March 2023 (collectively, the "Change of UOP Announcements"). For details of the changes in use of net proceeds, please refer to the Change of UOP Announcements. The use of the net proceeds from the Listing up to 31 March 2026 was as follows:

Use of net proceeds	Revised percentage of net proceeds	Revised allocation of net proceeds ($S'000)	Amount utilised as at 1 April 2025 ($S'000)	Amount utilised during the Year ($S'000)	Amount remaining as at 31 March 2026 ($S'000)	Expected timeline of full utilisation of the revised net proceeds
New Self-operated Outlets in Singapore	9.8%	1,280	(1,280)	—	—	—
New Self-operated Outlets in West Malaysia	9.4%	1,228	(995)	(92)	141	March 2027 ^(Note)
Expansion of Non-self-operated Outlets and Restaurants network	5.5%	720	(318)	(144)	258	March 2028 ^(Note)
Refurbishment of Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants	5.8%	752	(338)	(414)	—	—
Strengthening manpower	8.2%	1,060	(1,060)	—	—	—
Marketing and promotional initiatives	5.4%	700	(700)	—	—	—
Upgrade our IT infrastructure, data management and franchise management system	8.2%	1,060	(435)	(59)	566	March 2027

	100.0%	13,000	(11,326)	(709)	965

Note: The Group plans to open one additional Self-operated Outlet in West Malaysia over the next year. Consequently, the Group will extend the timeframe by one year to March 2027 for utilising the net proceeds earmarked for the expansion of Self-operated Outlets in West Malaysia.

The Group remains committed to expanding its brand presence and continues to actively participate in exhibitions to secure overseas Master Franchisees. As such, the Group will extend by two years to March 2028 the utilisation period of the net proceeds allocated for the expansion of its non-Self-operated Outlets and Restaurant network.

Management Discussion and Analysis

Foreign currency exposure

The Group is exposed to foreign currency risk on certain income, expenses, monetary assets, mainly cash and cash equivalents and trade and other receivables that are denominated in currencies other than the functional currencies of the respective entities in the Group. The Group holds certain cash amounts in USD and HKD. There are also monetary assets and liabilities which are denominated in USD and HKD, for which they will be exposed to foreign currency exposure risks. Currently the Group does not use derivative financial instruments to hedge its foreign currency risk. The Group will continue to closely monitor its exposure to foreign currency movements and will take measures when needed to ensure the foreign currency exposure risks are manageable.

Contingent liabilities

As at 31 March 2025 and 2026, the Group does not have any material contingent liabilities.

Charge on the Group's assets

As at 31 March 2026, the Group did not have any other banking charges except secured bank borrowings of approximately S$6.2 million (31 March 2025: S$1.3 million) secured by properties held for own use by the Group with carrying values of approximately S$13.8 million (31 March 2025: S$2.9 million).

Training and continuing development

During the Year, comprehensive training programs and development initiatives pertaining to operational and occupational safety as well as customer services were provided to relevant employees in order to enhance the quality of services expected from customer-facing staff. The Company's lawyer provides updates from time to time on Directors' duties and responsibilities under statutory and regulatory requirements as well as updates to the amendments on the Listing Rules to the senior management who are the Directors.

Significant investments held by the Group

The Group did not have any significant investments as at 31 March 2025 and 2026.

Future plans for material investments or capital assets

Apart from the use of proceeds from the Share Offer, the Group did not have any plan for material investment and capital asset as at 31 March 2025 and 2026.

ESG performance

The Group continually reviews its ESG efforts, corporate governance and risk management practices with an aim to create and deliver sustainable value to all its key stakeholders. The Group is constantly exploring more efficient opportunities to reduce the consumption of resources in order to reduce its impact on the environment.

For more information regarding the Group's ESG performance for the Year, please refer to the section headed "Environmental, Social and Governance Report" (the "ESG Report") on pages 26 to 61 of this annual report.

Outlook

Moving forward, the Group remains committed to (i) driving operational excellence through digitalisation and automation; (ii) expanding its outlet network at strategic locations; (iii) enhancing its menu offerings to meet evolving consumer demands; and (iv) exploring new revenue opportunities to deliver long-term value to Shareholders.

Corporate Governance Report

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE PRACTICES

The Company is committed to achieving and maintaining a high standard of corporate governance that properly protects and promotes the interest of its Shareholders and devotes considerable effort to identifying and formalising good corporate governance practices. The Company has adopted and adhered to the principles in the CG Code. The corporate governance principles of the Company place strong emphasis on an effective board with a high level of integrity, proper internal controls, as well as a high degree of transparency and accountability, which not only maximise the corporate value for the Shareholders but also protect the long-term sustainability of the Group as a whole.

During the Year, the Company has complied with all the mandatory disclosure requirements and all the provisions as set out in the section headed “Part 2 — Principles of good corporate governance, code provisions and recommended best practices” of the CG Code.

The Board periodically reviews and continues to abide by the Company’s corporate governance policies to ensure compliance with the CG Code.

CORPORATE CULTURE AND VALUES

The Group’s vision is to bring authentic street cuisine to its customers worldwide.

The missions of the Directors and senior management are bringing Shihlin to countries where it has yet to have a presence in, by actively participating in exhibitions to attract Franchisees, as well as bringing Eat Pizza to Singapore and Malaysia where the franchise rights are signed for.

With the vision and missions in mind, the Group’s innovation team also continues to work on adding new menu offerings.

During the Year, as part of Shihlin’s rebranding exercise, the Group has revamped its core values to align with its renewed brand identity and future growth ambitions. There are six core values which form the Group’s commitment and belief:

Integrity — We always do what is right, even when no one is watching. Honesty guides everything we do.

Growth — We grow together, expanding into new brands, concepts, and markets while helping each other reach our potential.

Nurturing — We care for our team, our customers, and everything we create. Together, we keep our culture warm and authentic.

Innovation — We welcome new ideas and smarter ways of doing things, embracing creativity in all we do.

Teamwork — We achieve more when we work together. Supporting one another is how we reach our goals.

Excellence — We deliver only the best in food, service, and teamwork. Excellence is our standard.

The Directors and employees uphold the values by maintaining consistency in quality and level of services delivered at the Outlets and Restaurants. Trainings are given to the employees to enable them to perform their work with quality and the service standards of our employees. The Group and the Board strongly believe that by prioritizing good service and quality, the customers’ needs will be met.

The Group inculcates the corporate culture in its employees by including the values as part of its new employee’s orientation as well as continuously reminding the existing employees during internal get-together sessions.

The Group recognises that a comprehensive corporate governance management structure is crucial in helping the Company to implement its strategies and policies effectively and consistently throughout the Group, and safeguard the long-term interests of its Shareholders. Accordingly, the Company has established the following policies and mechanism and has continuously reviewed them to ensure that the Group meets the requirements of the applicable laws and regulations:

- Board Diversity Policy
- Mechanisms Ensuring Independent Views Available to the Board
- Anti-corruption Policy
- Whistleblowing Policy

- Workforce Diversity Policy

BOARD DIVERSITY POLICY

The Board adopts a board diversity policy (the “Board Diversity Policy”) which conforms with the requirement set out in Rule 13.92 of the Listing Rules. The Board Diversity Policy recognises and embraces the benefits of diversity in the composition of the Board. It requires that all Board appointments and selection of candidates shall be based on merits and a range of diversity factors. The Company believes that a diversity of perspectives can be achieved through a number of factors, including but not limited to knowledge, gender, age, skills, functional expertise, cultural and educational background as well as professional experience and qualifications. In reviewing the Board Diversity Policy, the Company will also take into account of factors based on its own business model and specific needs from time to time as well as the merits and contributions that the selected candidates will bring to the Board.

The Board currently has one female Director and as such has achieved gender diversity in respect of the Board. We will continue to strive to enhance female representation and achieve an appropriate balance of gender diversity with reference to the Shareholders’ expectations and international and local recommended best practices.

The Nomination Committee will review the Board Diversity Policy at least annually to ensure that its continued effectiveness, and where necessary, will make revisions that may be required and recommend any such revision to the Board for consideration and approval.

At the meeting held on 30 June 2026, the Nomination Committee reviewed the implementation and effectiveness of the Board Diversity Policy during the Year. After considering the nature of the food and catering industry and the characteristics of the Group’s business model, the Nomination Committee has opined that the current composition of the Board maintains an appropriate range and reflects the balance of skills, educational background, experience and diversity of perspectives desirable for the effective management of the Company. The Nomination Committee also considered that the existing gender diversity in respect of the Board is sufficient, and that the nomination policy of the Company can ensure that there will be a pipeline of potential successors to the Board which continues the existing gender diversity in the Board.

Workforce Diversity

As at 31 March 2026, the gender ratio the Group’s workforce (including senior management) (calculated by dividing the no. of female staff by the no. of male staff) was 1.3 female per 1 male. The Group’s hiring is merit-based and non-discriminatory. The Board is satisfied that the Group has achieved gender diversity in its workforce.

The Group’s hiring is merit-based and non-discriminatory. The Board is satisfied that the Group has achieved gender diversity in its workforce.

The Group plans to offer all-rounded trainings to all employees whom we consider to have the suitable experience, skills and knowledge of our operation and business, including but not limited to, business operation, management, accounting and finance, legal and compliance and research and development.

INDEPENDENT VIEWS OF THE BOARD

In compliance with code provision B.1.4 of the CG Code, the Company has established mechanisms to ensure that a strong independent element on, and independent views and input are available to the Board (the “Mechanisms”).

The Mechanisms cover the composition of the Board and Board Committees, the independence assessment of the INED, Board decision making progress and guideline of policy implementation review.

The Board will review the implementation and effectiveness of the Mechanisms annually. At the meeting held on 30 June 2026, the Board has reviewed the implementation and effectiveness of the Mechanisms during the Year and considered that the existing Mechanisms are sufficient and effective.

The Board have also taken into account the respective contributions of the INEDs to the Board and their firm commitments to their independent roles. During the Year, all the INEDs do not hold any cross-directorships or have any significant links with other Directors through involvement in other companies or bodies that could give rise to conflicts of interest in their roles as INEDs and they are not involved in the daily management of the Company nor in any relationships or circumstances which would affect the exercise of their independent judgment. They continue to demonstrate their ability to provide an independent, balanced and objective view to the affairs of the Company.

Corporate Governance Report

ANTI-CORRUPTION POLICY

To outline the Company's expectations and requirements on prevention, detection, reporting and investigation of any suspected fraud, corruption and other similar irregularities; and to provide information and guidance on recognizing and dealing with bribery and corruption, the Company has established its group-wise anti-corruption policy that complies with code provision D.2.7 of the CG Code.

Our staff can anonymously report any suspected corrupt incident directly to the Financial Controller of the Group, who will review the complaints and determine the appropriate mode of investigation and subsequent corrective action. Where the matter is deemed potentially serious it will be promptly reported to the Chief Executive Officer, the Chairman of the Audit Committee, and where appropriate, to the Chairman of the Board.

Upon completion of investigation, the results of investigation together with corrective action plans (if any) will be communicated to the senior management of the Company. No incident of fraud or misconduct was considered to have material effect on the Group's consolidated financial statements or overall operations for the Year. The anti-corruption policy is reviewed and updated periodically to align with the applicable laws and regulations as well as the industry best practice.

WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

The Group is committed to achieving and maintaining the highest standards of openness, probity and accountability, the Company has established a whistleblowing policy which forms an important part of its effective risk management and internal control systems.

The whistleblowing policy is applicable to all stakeholders, including employees, Shareholders, customers and suppliers. The system allows stakeholders to raise concerns, in confidence, with the Audit Committee about possible improprieties in any matter related to the Company. The whistleblowers who wish to report a concern can send the relevant information to the Chairman of the Audit Committee directly by email or by phone call.

The whistleblowing policy is reviewed and updated periodically to align with the applicable laws and regulations as well as the industry best practice.

The Group strictly adheres to the rules and regulations relating to anti-corruption and fraudulent behaviors set out by the relevant authorities. At the same time, the Group maintains a high standard of business integrity throughout its operations. We require our employees to follow our employee manual and code of business conduct and ethics, negligence and corruption. We also carry out regularly on-the-job compliance training for our senior management and employees to maintain a healthy corporate culture and enhance their compliance perception and responsibility.

DIRECTORS

The Board

The Board, led by the Chairman, is responsible for the leadership and control of the Company and is vested with the overall management of the Group's business. The Board is collectively responsible for promoting the success of the Company, by making decisions objectively, having regard to the best interests of the Company at all times. The Board has delegated the authority and responsibility for the day-to-day management and operation of the Group to the senior management team of the Company. Such responsibilities include implementing the decisions of the Board, directing and co-ordinating day-to-day operations, managing the Group in accordance with the strategies and plans as approved by the Board, as well as supervising and monitoring the control systems. In addition, the Board has established the Board committees and has delegated various responsibilities to these Board committees as set out in their respective terms of reference.

The Board undertakes responsibility for its decision for all major matters of the Company, including the approval and monitoring of all policy matters, overall strategies, internal control and risk management systems, material transactions (in particular those that may involve a conflict of interest), financial information, appointment of Directors and other significant financial and operational matters.

With the assistance of the Company Secretary, the Chairman has sought to ensure that all Directors were properly consulted on all major matters relating to the Company. The Directors are provided with monthly operating information which contains up-to-date performance of the Group and information of the Company. The Directors were sufficiently briefed on issues raised during Board meetings and that all relevant information had been received in a timely manner. To the extent that any of the Directors required independent professional advice, this would be met by the Group, at the Group's expense, upon the Director having made a reasonable request to the Board.

Corporate Governance Report

The Board has maintained the necessary balance of skills and experience appropriate for the business requirements and objectives of the Group and for the exercise of independent judgement. During the Year, the Company had three INEDs and the number of INEDs met the requirements at least one-third of the Board under Rules 3.10(1) and 3.10A of the Listing Rules. In addition, pursuant to Rule 3.10(2) of the Listing Rules, the Board ensured that at least one of the INEDs possess appropriate professional qualifications, or accounting or related financial management expertise. Mr. Jong Voon Hoo and Mr. Fok Chee Khuen are fellow members of the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants, while Ms. Tan Chiu Yang is the Chief Operating Officer of HSBC Singapore.

The Company has received an annual written confirmation from each of the INEDs confirming that (i) he/she meets the independence criteria as set out in Rule 3.13(1) to (8) of the Listing Rules; (ii) he/she has no past or present financial or other interest in the business of the Company or its subsidiaries or any connection with any core connected person (as defined under the Listing Rules) of the Company; and (iii) there are no other factors that may affect his/her independence at the date of this report. As such, the Company considers that all INEDs are independent within the definition of the Listing Rules.

In compliance with the Listing Rules, the Directors believe that there are no family, financial or business relationship that requires to be disclosed.

Chairman and Chief Executive

Code provision C.2.1 of the CG Code stipulates that the roles of chairman and chief executive should be separate and should not be performed by the same individual. During the Year, Mr. Fok Chee Khuen, who is also an INED, acted as the Chairman and Mr. Melvyn Wong acted as the chief executive officer of the Company. The roles of the Chairman and the chief executive officer have been separated and assumed by different individuals to ensure a balance of power and authority so that power is not concentrated in any member of the Board.

Directors' Liabilities Insurance

During the Year, an appropriate and adequate directors' and officers' liability insurance is in place to protect the Directors from legal action arising from the performance of their duties as a Director. Such insurance coverage will be reviewed and renewed on an annual basis. No claims under the insurance policy have been made during the Year.

Appointment and Re-election of Directors

In compliance with the Listing Rules, and in accordance with the Articles of Association, (i) all Directors should be subject to retirement by rotation at least once every three years and are eligible for re-election, and (ii) any Director appointed by the Board to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board shall hold office until the first AGM after his/her appointment and be subject to re-election at such meeting.

Continuous Professional Development

On the first occasion of each Director's appointment, the Company will arrange a comprehensive, formal and detailed introduction to each Director to ensure that he/she has a proper understanding of the Company's operations and business and is fully aware of the Director's responsibilities under statutory and common law, the Listing Rules, other legal and regulatory requirements and the Company's business and governance policies.

During the Year, all Directors have participated in continuous professional development to develop, refresh and update their knowledge and skills. All Directors are also encouraged to attend relevant training courses at the Company's expense and they have been requested to provide the Company with their training records.

Corporate Governance Report

Corporate Governance Report

RISK MANAGEMENT AND INTERNAL CONTROL

The Company believes that an effective corporate governance structure allows the Company to have a better understanding of, and to evaluate and manage, risks and opportunities (including ESG risks and opportunities).

The Board acknowledges its responsibility for overseeing the Group's risk management and internal control systems and reviewing their effectiveness at least annually. The Audit Committee assists the Board in fulfilling its oversight and corporate governance roles in the Group's financial, operational, compliance, risk management and internal control system. An external consultant was engaged to review the Group's risk management and internal control systems during the Year.

The outsourced consultant is an independent service provider that reports directly to the Audit Committee. It provides independent, objective, assurance and consulting services on risk management and internal control. The Company does not have an internal audit department. The internal audit function is provided by the outsourced consultant who has unrestricted access to information that allows it to review all aspects of the Company's risk management, control and governance processes. On a regular basis, it conducts audits on financial, operational and compliance controls, and the risk management functions of the Group. The outsourced internal audit team produces an annual internal audit plan for the Audit Committee's approval. The internal audit plan is prepared based on the risk assessment to ensure that business activities with higher risks are covered. The plan is executed by the outsourced internal audit team, and the outsourced internal audit team reports directly to the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee reviewed the internal control review report issued by the outsourced consultant and the Company's risk management and internal control systems in respect of the Year and considered that they are effective and adequate. The Board assessed the effectiveness of internal control systems by considering the internal control review report and reviews performed by the Audit Committee and concurred the same.

The Group has yet to establish its internal audit function during the Year as required under code provision D.2.5 of the CG Code. The Audit Committee and the Board, have considered the internal control review report prepared by the outsourced consultant and communications with the Company's external auditor in respect of any material control deficiencies identified during the course of the financial statements audit to form the basis to review the adequacy and effectiveness of the Group's risk management and internal control systems (including ESG risks and opportunities). The Audit Committee and the Board will continue to review the need for an internal audit function on an annual basis.

The period for lodgement of the notices mentioned above will commence no earlier than the day after the despatch of the notice of the general meeting appointed for such election and end no later than seven days prior to the date of such general meeting and the minimum length of the period during which such notices to the Company may be given will be at least seven days.
- (ii) Other proposals: If a Shareholder wishes to make other proposals (the "Proposal(s)") at a general meeting, he/she/it may lodge a written request, duly signed, at the principal place of business of the Company in Hong Kong at 57th Floor, The Center, 99 Queen's Road Central, Hong Kong marked for the attention of the Company Secretary.

The identity of the Shareholder and his/her/its request will be verified with the Company's branch share registrar and transfer office in Hong Kong and upon confirmation by the branch share registrar that the request is proper and in order, and is made by a Shareholder, the Board will in its sole discretion decide whether the Proposal(s) may be included in the agenda for the general meeting to be set out in the notice of meeting.

The notice period to be given to all the Shareholders for consideration of the Proposal(s) made by the Shareholders concerned at the general meeting varies according to the nature of the Proposal as follows:

- (1) Notice of not less than 21 clear days in writing if the Proposal(s) require(s) approval in an AGM.
- (2) Notice of not less than 14 clear days in writing if the Proposal(s) require(s) approval by way of an ordinary resolution in an EGM.

Corporate Governance Report

DIVIDEND POLICY

The Company has adopted a dividend policy, pursuant to which the Company may declare and distribute dividends to the Shareholders.

The payment and the amount of any dividends will be at the discretion of the Directors, taking into account, inter alia, the following factors when deciding whether to propose a dividend and in determining the dividend amount: (i) operating and financial results; (ii) cash flow situation; (iii) business conditions and strategies; (iv) future operations and earnings; (v) taxation consideration; (vi) interim dividend paid, if any; (vii) capital requirement and expenditure plans; (viii) interests of shareholders; (ix) statutory and regulatory restrictions; (x) any restrictions on payment of dividends; and (xi) any other factors that our Board may consider relevant. It is also subject to the approval of the Shareholders, the Companies Act, the Articles of Association as well as any applicable laws.

Subject to the factors described above, the Board may recommend at the AGM that dividends of not less than 40% of the net profit for each financial year be recommended for payment as dividend. Unless the Board determines otherwise, cash dividends on the shares of the Company, if any, will be paid in Hong Kong dollars. Other distributions, if any, will be paid to the Shareholders by any means which the Directors consider legal, fair and practicable.

The dividend policy will be reviewed from time to time and there is no assurance that a dividend will be proposed or declared in any specific periods.

CONSTITUTIONAL DOCUMENTS

During the Year, by a special resolution considered and approved by the Shareholders at the AGM held on 2 September 2025, the Company has adopted the third amended and restated Articles of Association. For details, please refer to the Company's announcements dated 30 July 2025 and 2 September 2025, and its circular dated 30 July 2025. The third amended and restated Articles of Association is available on the respective websites of the Company and the Stock Exchange.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

BOARD STATEMENT

The Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Snack Empire Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) is pleased to present the annual Environmental, Social and Governance (“ESG”) Report (the “Report”) for the financial year ended 31 March 2026 (“FY2026” or “Reporting Year”).

The Group is a food and beverage (“F&B”) enterprise operating under the Shihlin Taiwan Street Snacks® brand, specialising in authentic Taiwanese snacks and beverages. Established in 2003, the brand was founded with the vision of introducing the genuine flavours of Taiwanese night markets to the international stage. The Group operates through both self-managed and franchised outlets and has, over the course of 23 years, expanded to over 200 locations globally, including in Singapore, Malaysia, Indonesia, Egypt, and the United States.

As the Group continues to grow, it remains committed to contributing positively to society, upholding human rights, minimising environmental impact, and fostering sustainable business practices.

The Board provides strategic direction, oversees risk management and internal controls in relation to ESG, and reviews progress against our targets.

Throughout the year, the Group strengthened its focus on the health, safety, and well-being of employees across both its outlets and office premises. Food safety and quality continue to be the Group’s highest operational priorities. The Board remains actively involved in identifying, assessing, and managing Environmental, Social, and Governance (“ESG”) risks and opportunities. It oversees the implementation of appropriate risk management and internal control systems, establishes ESG strategies, monitors performance against defined metrics and targets, and approves the disclosures within this Report.

Looking ahead, the Group is determined to advance its sustainability journey by deepening initiatives across various environmental and social aspects of its operations.

Yours faithfully,
For and on behalf of the Board

Fok Chee Khuen

Chairman and Independent Non-Executive Director

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

ABOUT THE REPORT

The Report presents a summary of our approaches, measures and performance related to its environmental, social and governance issues for the financial year ended 31 March 2026. The key performance indicator (“KPI”) data and contents presented within this ESG Report, disclosed in good faith and to the best of our knowledge, demonstrates the key approaches and practices to address our material ESG aspects and discloses the future performance targets on our ESG performances.

SCOPE OF REPORTING

The Report covers our operating activities under direct management control, including its office and self-operated outlets in Singapore and Malaysia.

REPORTING FRAMEWORK

The Report has been prepared in accordance with the ESG Reporting Code (“ESG Code”) as set out in Appendix C2 to the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the “Listing Rules”).

LANGUAGE

Should there be any inconsistency between the English version of the Report and the Chinese version of the Report, the English version of the Report shall prevail. Names of any laws and regulations, governmental authorities, institutions, persons or entities which have been translated into Chinese in the Report for which no official translation exists are for your reference only.

ESG GOVERNANCE STRUCTURE

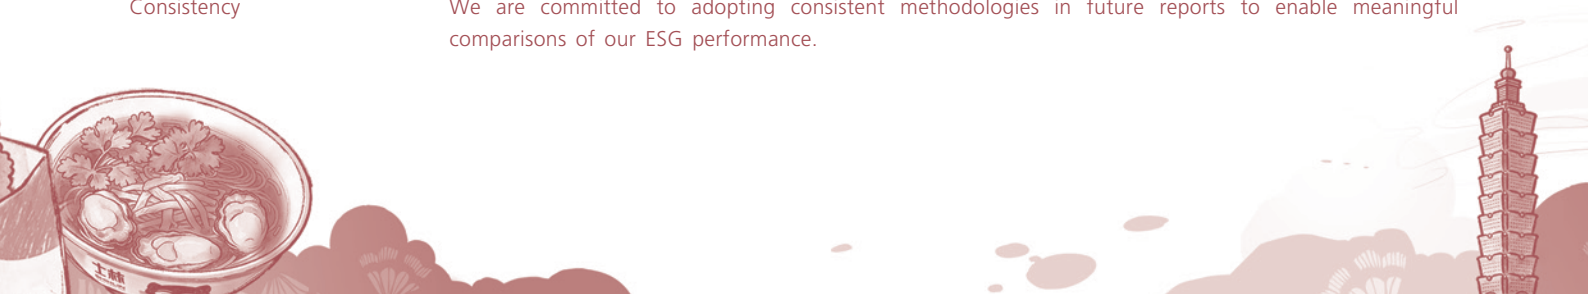

The Board continues to provide strategic direction for our ESG initiatives and evaluates performance in this domain. Our ESG taskforce comprises key management personnel from core departments. This team is responsible for the regular identification, prioritisation, and assessment of material ESG issues, the review of ESG performance, and the evaluation of the adequacy and effectiveness of internal controls and risk management processes related to ESG matters. The taskforce also oversees the collection of ESG data for the preparation of this Report.

An annual meeting is convened by the Board to review our ESG risks and opportunities, as well as to assess progress made towards its ESG goals and targets, with the support of the ESG taskforce. To further strengthen the quality and objectivity of this Report, we have engaged an independent professional consultant to assist with its preparation.

APPROACHES TO ESG REPORTING

This Report has been prepared in accordance with the principles of “Materiality”, “Quantitative”, “Balance”, and “Consistency”. The Board has determined the material ESG issues through an annual materiality assessment exercise, conducted in collaboration with the ESG taskforce. KPIs related to ESG are presented using clear and measurable data. We remain committed to ensuring that the information disclosed in this Report is accurate, transparent, and trustworthy.

Reporting Principle	Our Response
Materiality	We addressed issues that have notable impacts on the environment and society, as well as significance for stakeholders and investors. These concerns, along with our management strategies, are outlined in this Report.
Quantitative	We ensure that KPIs are quantifiable, with established quantitative targets. These targets are accompanied by a narrative explaining their purpose, impacts, and calculation methodology.
Balance	We are committed to presenting our performance on an unbiased basis, ensuring the inclusion of both its achievements and challenges.
Consistency	We are committed to adopting consistent methodologies in future reports to enable meaningful comparisons of our ESG performance.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

Throughout FY2026, we have maintained consistent engagement with its key stakeholders — employees, customers, business partners, communities, and government bodies — through both formal and informal channels. These stakeholders were identified based on their influence, impact, expectations, and level of dependency on our operations.

Recognising the value of transparent communication, we actively seek to understand stakeholder expectations and concerns. This ongoing engagement supports the development of strong, long-term relationships and ensures that stakeholder perspectives are incorporated into our sustainable business strategies.

The following table outlines our stakeholder engagement activities, including the key sustainability concerns raised by each stakeholder group and the channels used for ongoing dialogue.

Stakeholders	Communication Channels	Key Concerns
Investors and shareholders	Annual General Meeting and other shareholder meetings Annual and interim reports Announcements and circulars	- Sustainable profitability and shareholder return - Long term business growth - Transparent and timely disclosure of financial and material information - Strong corporate governance
Customers	Physical outlets and restaurants Customer service hotline Social media Company website	- Food safety - Product and service quality - Timely response to feedback and complaints
Franchisees/Licensees	Performance review Regular online meetings and teleconferences	- Brand image and portfolio - Timeliness of product supply - Business plan and performance
Suppliers	Regular meetings and teleconferences Email and text message correspondences	- Fair and equal treatment - Timely payments
Employees	Regular management meetings Trainings and development programmes Orientation programme for new employees	- Occupational health and safety - Remuneration and benefits - Career development - Inclusive and collaborative working environment
Regulators	Correspondences through emails, letters and calls Site visits and inspections	Compliance with relevant laws and regulations, including the Listing Rules
Community, NGOs and Media	Media releases Donation or fundraising activities ESG report	- Giving back to society - Environmental protection - Ethical business practices

MATERIALITY ASSESSMENT

We conduct an annual materiality assessment to identify and prioritise the ESG topics that are most relevant to our stakeholders and business operations. The assessment is led by our ESG taskforce, which evaluates the potential impacts of each topic on our business, the economy, the environment, and society.

The identified ESG topics are reviewed and validated by our Board and serve as the basis for shaping our sustainability strategy, initiatives, and objectives. Each topic is assessed and plotted on a materiality matrix according to its importance to stakeholders and its significance to our business.

For FY2026, we did not identify any changes to our material ESG topics. The materiality matrix for the Reporting Year is presented below.

Legend:

Environmental Areas	Social Areas
- Emissions - Waste Management - Use of Resources - Packaging Materials - Environmental and Natural Resources	- Employment Practices - Health and Safety - Training and Development - Labour Standard - Supplier Management - Product Responsibility - Anti-Corruption Practices - Community Investment

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

CLIMATE-RELATED DISCLOSURES

We are committed to addressing climate change as the global economy moves towards a low-carbon future. Our climate response is guided by recognised market practices and the International Financial Reporting Standards Sustainability Disclosure Standards (“IFRS S2”) framework, providing a structured approach to identifying, assessing and managing climate-related risks and opportunities (“CRROs”) across our operations. FY2026 is our inaugural year of climate-related disclosure under an IFRS S2-aligned approach.

We have embedded IFRS S2-aligned processes, covering governance, strategy, risk management, and metrics and targets, into our management systems and internal controls. These processes enable systematic monitoring of CRROs and inform our strategic planning and performance management.

Governance

The Board holds ultimate accountability for the stewardship of CRROs and for ensuring their integration into our strategy, risk appetite and long-term value creation.

To support this, our ESG taskforce — comprising key management personnel from core departments — monitors evolving climate-related development and regulatory expectations, integrates climate considerations into strategic planning and reporting, and provides regular updates to the Board.

Strategy

Our strategy focuses on identifying and managing CRROs across defined time horizons: short term (to 2030), medium term (2030–2050) and long term (beyond 2050). As an F&B enterprise, we recognise both physical risks — such as raw-material disruptions from droughts or floods and higher ambient temperatures affecting storage and logistics — and transition risks from tightening regulation and evolving expectations for sustainable operations. These drivers have material implications for operational continuity, energy costs and long-term competitiveness and could reasonably be expected to affect our cash flows, access to finance or cost of capital over the planning horizon. In parallel, we see opportunities in energy and refrigerant efficiency, resilient sourcing and low-impact packaging. The outputs of our climate analysis guide portfolio choices and CAPEX, and inform the assessment of current and anticipated financial effects across the planning horizon.

To evaluate the potential effects of CRROs, we conduct climate scenario analysis using a range of pathways, including one aligned with limiting global warming to 1.5 °C. Consistent with IFRS S2 expectations, the analysis considers how different policy, temperature and energy-price trajectories could influence the cost and availability of raw materials and logistics operations. The resulting insights inform our long-term investment and risk-management decisions — helping to ensure our business model remains resilient under a range of climate conditions.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Adaptation Strategy

Our adaptation strategy is anchored in building operational and supply chain resilience against the physical effects of a changing climate. On the supply chain front, we are actively diversifying our sourcing base across multiple regional suppliers for climate-sensitive ingredients — including poultry, edible oils and flour — to reduce concentration risk arising from weather-related agricultural disruptions. Contingency sourcing plans and safety stock policies are being developed for ingredients most exposed to precipitation variability and extreme weather events, complemented by longer-dated procurement agreements with key suppliers to provide greater cost and supply predictability. At the outlet and commissary level, we are progressively upgrading our cooling, air-conditioning and refrigeration infrastructure, prioritising energy-efficient inverter technologies that maintain cold-chain integrity and indoor working conditions as ambient temperatures rise. Business continuity and emergency response protocols across all our sites in Singapore and Malaysia are being reviewed and tested regularly to address the increased frequency and severity of extreme weather events that could affect our outlet operations and distribution logistics.

Mitigation Strategy

On mitigation, our strategy focuses on systematically reducing our greenhouse gas emissions footprint through operational efficiency, equipment renewal and a considered transition towards lower-carbon energy sources. Near-term initiatives include the replacement of ageing kitchen equipment with higher-efficiency models, the upgrading of refrigeration and display chiller units to lower global-warming-potential alternatives, and the roll-out of LED lighting retrofits and smart energy monitoring systems across our outlets to track and reduce consumption within our demised areas.

Climate-related Risks and Opportunities

We recognise that climate change presents both risks and opportunities that may materially affect our business model, operations, and long-term value creation. In line with the IFRS S2 Climate-related Disclosures, we have identified and assessed key transition and physical climate-related risks, as well as climate-related opportunities, across our operations. This assessment enables us to better understand the potential impacts on our business, anticipate emerging challenges, and identify strategic opportunities to strengthen our resilience and support the transition to a low-carbon economy.

We have adopted climate scenarios from the IPCC Sixth Assessment Report (“AR6”) to support a structured and forward-looking assessment of climate-related risks and opportunities. Based on Shared Socioeconomic Pathway (“SSP”) narratives and CMIP6 multi-model projections, the AR6 scenarios provide scientifically robust, long-term pathways for assessing both transition and physical climate-related risks across the short, medium, and long term. This approach enables us to better evaluate the potential financial and operational implications of climate change and is aligned with evolving best practices and the requirements of IFRS S2 Climate-related Disclosures.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Climate-related Risks
Risk Type	Risk Description	Time Horizon	Potential Impact on Operations and Financial Planning	Mitigation/Management Measures
Transition Risks
Technology: Lower-emission Technology	Initial investment for energy-efficient kitchen equipment, refrigeration upgrades or LED lighting and smart controls, increasing CAPEX	Short term	Higher upfront capital expenditure for energy-efficient equipment and refrigeration upgrades may increase capital budgets and affect cash flow and asset replacement planning in the short term.	Integrate energy-efficient equipment upgrades into planned asset replacement and refurbishment programmes. Assess investments based on operational needs, lifecycle costs, expected energy savings, and return on investment.
Market: Raw Materials	Increased cost of raw materials, including food ingredients (e.g. poultry, edible oils and flour) and packaging materials, due to supply chain disruptions, resource scarcity or carbon-related surcharges.	Short to medium term	The cost of food ingredients, packaging and operational supplies may fluctuate significantly, compressing operating margins. Sustained cost inflation may erode profitability if cost increases cannot be fully passed through to consumers.	Diversify the supplier base and negotiate long-term pricing agreements for key inputs; reduce waste through improved inventory management; conduct regular market research to anticipate cost movements; maintain appropriate safety stocks for critical ingredients.
Market: Energy and Fuel	Increased cost of energy driven by carbon pricing, supply volatility or the accelerating transition to cleaner energy sources.	Short to medium term	Electricity is the primary operational cost driver for F&B outlets, powering air conditioning, lighting and kitchen equipment. Sustained increases in energy costs would directly affect operating margins and cash flow.	Implement energy-saving initiatives across all outlets; monitor real-time consumption through energy management systems.
Physical Risks
Extreme Weather Events (Acute)	Increased severity and frequency of extreme weather events such as droughts, floods, prolonged heat waves and severe storms may affect agricultural supply chains, distribution logistics and our outlet and production facility operations across Singapore and Malaysia.	Short to long term	Disruption to food supply chains caused by extreme weather events may result in ingredient shortages, price spikes and logistics delays, reducing outlet productivity and increasing food procurement costs. Physical damage to our commissary and food production facilities from severe weather events could lead to operational downtime and unplanned capital expenditure for repairs.	Maintain diversified supplier networks across multiple regions to reduce single-source dependency; develop contingency sourcing plans for critical ingredients; ensure adequate property and business interruption insurance for key operational facilities; regularly review and test business continuity and emergency response procedures at all sites.
Changes in Precipitation Patterns (Chronic)	Increasing variability in rainfall patterns affecting the availability, quality and pricing of agricultural produce and key food ingredients.	Medium to long term	Changes in rainfall may reduce the supply and quality of fresh ingredients (e.g. vegetables, poultry and seafood), increase procurement costs and disrupt supply chain reliability, potentially affecting outlet operations and product consistency.	Implement supply chain diversification strategies by sourcing from multiple regions and suppliers; maintain safety stocks for critical ingredients; monitor agricultural and weather trends; adjust sourcing and procurement strategies proactively in response to evolving conditions.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Climate-related Opportunities
Opportunity Type	Description	Strategic Response
Resource Efficiency
Efficient Operational Processes and Equipment	F&B outlets consume significant energy for air conditioning, lighting and kitchen operations. Upgrading to more efficient equipment and processes can reduce operating costs and emissions simultaneously.	Adopt energy-efficient kitchen appliances and air-conditioning units across F&B outlets; install energy monitoring systems to track and optimise consumption; prioritise energy-saving upgrades when replacing ageing equipment.
Recycling and Waste Reduction	Implementing food waste reduction and recycling programmes can lower disposal costs, minimise environmental impact and strengthen our sustainability profile.	Introduce waste segregation across outlet and office operations; establish waste reduction targets and track progress.
Energy and Technology
Renewable Energy and Energy Efficiency	Energy efficiency initiatives such as LED lighting, inverter air-conditioning and smart energy management systems can reduce long-term energy costs and lower our carbon footprint.	Set measurable energy-saving targets.

Scenario Analysis on CRROs

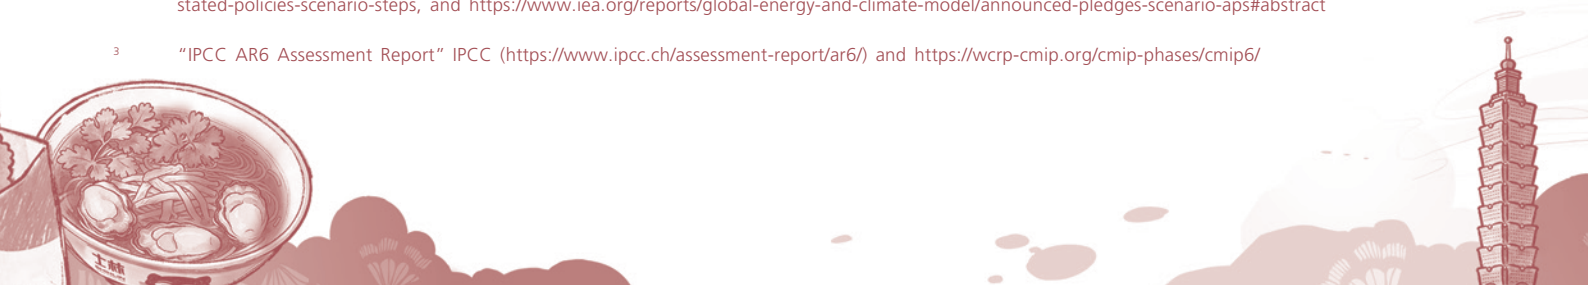

In FY2026, members of the ESG taskforce undertook an assessment to identify CRROs relevant to us. Insights from academic and industry research were used to evaluate the potential implications of these factors for our business model, strategy and financial planning. Our climate scenario analysis is based on three pathways based on research by the IPCC, International Energy Agency ("IEA") and Coupled Model Intercomparison Project ("CMIP") as described below:

- Low-Emission (Paris-Aligned)¹ — Combines the IPCC SSP1–1.9 pathway with the IEA Net Zero Emissions by 2050 (NZE 2050) scenario, representing a 1.5 °C world with rapid decarbonisation, strong international coordination and large-scale renewable deployment. The IEA NZE provides energy-system and carbon-price assumptions that help us assess transition risks and opportunities (e.g., rising carbon costs, access to green-finance for energy-efficiency and lower-GWP cooling upgrades).
- Intermediate (Moderate Transition)² — Draws on IPCC SSP2–2.6 and the IEA STEPS/APS scenarios, depicting moderate progress on decarbonisation and gradual regulatory tightening consistent with ~2 °C warming. This lens allows us to evaluate exposure to transitional risks such as rising energy and compliance costs under partial regional adoption of low-carbon policies, while recognising the policy and technology assumptions embedded in STEPS/APS.
- High-Emission (Business-as-Usual)³ — Based on IPCC SSP5–8.5, assuming sustained fossil-fuel use and limited global coordination, leading to more severe physical impacts. We use CMIP6 model outputs under this pathway to stress-test operational resilience — e.g., higher ambient temperatures driving cooling loads, potential food-safety and cold-chain constraints, and distribution disruptions affecting ingredient availability across South-East Asia.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Strategic Resilience Assessment

We conducted a resilience assessment of its core business strategies to evaluate their ability to remain viable under multiple climate scenarios. This analysis considered transition and physical climate risks and is structured by strategy type and contrasted across lower-warming ($\approx 1.5^{\circ}\text{C}$), moderate-warming ($\approx 2\text{--}2.5^{\circ}\text{C}$) and higher-warming ($\approx 3^{\circ}\text{C}+$) futures. Scenario use is consistent with IFRS S2 practice to test and identify where our current strategies are robust and where further adaptation or investment may be required to ensure long-term operational and financial resilience.

Strategy Type	Resilience Outcomes and Key Insights
Operational Strategy	Lower-warming: Store operations remain efficient where heat and flood risks are moderated, provided routine efficiency measures (HVAC tuning, refrigeration set-points, maintenance) are sustained. Regional heat management initiatives (e.g., Singapore's heatwave planning) help preparedness. Higher-warming: Resilience declines as ambient temperatures and humidity rise and extreme rainfall/floods occur more often in parts of South-East Asia, requiring CAPEX in adaptive cooling, dehumidification, back-up power and flood-hardening to maintain store uptime and cold-chain reliability.
Supply-Chain and Sourcing Strategy	Lower-warming: Resilience is supported by supplier diversification and sustainable-sourcing protocols; climate volatility is present but more manageable with dual-sourcing and substitution playbooks for key inputs (e.g., poultry, flour, edible oils, packaging). Higher-warming: Physical climate impacts (heat, floods, drought) elevate yield/quality variability and transport disruption in regional supply hubs, necessitating broader supplier networks, longer-dated contracts, safety stocks and alternate routes during monsoon periods.
Energy and Technology Strategy	Lower-/moderate-warming: Prioritising store-level energy efficiency and lower-GWP cooling aligns with rising carbon-price signals (e.g., Singapore's carbon-tax path), containing OPEX and supporting compliance as HFC phase-downs tighten. Higher-warming: If technology costs escalate or adoption lags (e.g., shortage of compliant equipment/technicians), additional CAPEX may be required to sustain competitiveness and meet refrigerant regulations; proactive replacement cycles and technician certification mitigate this risk.
Market and Product Strategy	Low-warming: Stronger policy alignment and investor expectations (HKEX's IFRS S2-aligned regime) increase the value of transparent climate performance and operational credentials (energy/cooling efficiency, continuity), aiding differentiation. Moderate-warming: Certification and disclosure remain beneficial, but cost pressures (energy, ingredients, compliance) weigh more heavily on purchasing and pricing decisions. High-warming: With weaker policy coordination and more volatile conditions, the commercial premium for certification narrows; focus shifts to supply reliability, store uptime and price/quality stability. (General market dynamic; inference based on policy/disclosure trajectories.)
Financial and Investment Strategy	Low-/moderate-warming: Existing financing remains adequate if efficiency projects (quick-payback energy/cooling measures) are executed and climate disclosures keep pace with IFRS S2. Growing availability of limited assurance under ISSA 5000 can lower perceived reporting risk. High-warming: Insurance, maintenance and adaptation costs rise with more frequent extremes in Asia, pressuring margins; resilience improves with access to green/blended finance for adaptation CAPEX and with robust business-interruption cover calibrated to heat/flood maps. (Economic toll of extremes in Asia is rising.)

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Areas of Uncertainty

We recognise that climate scenario analysis involves uncertainty in future policy settings, market responses and the physical impacts of climate change. Key uncertainties considered include the timing and stringency of regional carbon-pricing mechanisms, potential technological advances in low-emission kitchen, refrigeration and energy-efficiency technologies, and the frequency and severity of extreme-weather events that could affect ingredient availability, distribution networks and outlet operations in South-East Asia. The analysis also acknowledges variability in future energy prices and exchange rates, which may influence operating costs and investment decisions.

Risk Management

Risk/Opportunity Methodology

To better understand the potential risks associated with climate change and their impact on our operations, a structured process was undertaken to identify, assess, and prioritise material climate-related risks relevant to its operations.

We began by identifying disclosure topics most pertinent to its industry using the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board ("SASB") framework. These topics were then refined to align with our business model and operating context. Within each disclosure topic, the Group reviewed relevant climate-related risk categories and compiled a preliminary list of potential transition and physical risks.

To evaluate these risks, we conducted an internal survey involving key management personnel. Participants were asked to score each identified risk across two dimensions — likelihood and impact — using a numerical scale from one to six.

The results were plotted on a likelihood — impact matrix to determine overall materiality. Risks with higher combined scores were deemed more significant and therefore prioritised for further analysis and inclusion in our climate-risk management and mitigation plans.

The methodology applied to identify and assess climate-related opportunities is consistent with that used for climate-related risks.

Integration with ERM

Climate-related risks and opportunities are not currently integrated into our enterprise risk management framework.

Metrics and Targets

We track climate-related performance using: Scope 1 greenhouse gas ("GHG") emissions (e.g., cooking fuels), Scope 2 emissions from purchased electricity. Measurement follows the GHG Protocol Corporate Accounting and Reporting Standard (including the Scope 2 Guidance) with an operational-control organisational boundary; energy consumption (kWh) is monitored at site level to support intensity tracking and efficiency planning.

During the Reporting Year, our climate-related targets were not yet linked to financial performance. We are enhancing the supporting methodologies and systems and expects to introduce this linkage in subsequent reporting years. Moving forward, we intend to align its targets to integrate financial and sustainability performance.

ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS

Our operations have a relatively limited environmental footprint in the regions where our F&B outlets operate. The primary sources of our environmental impact are indirect greenhouse gas emissions from electricity consumption and the generation of non-hazardous waste, predominantly food waste. We continue to implement environmentally responsible practices across our operations and promote greater awareness among our employees on the responsible use of electricity and water.

During the Reporting Year, there were no incidents involving illegal or hazardous discharges into the air, water, or land. Climate-related issues did not have a material impact on our operations during the year. We were also not made aware of any breaches of applicable environmental laws and regulations, including the Environmental Protection and Management Act ("EPMA") and the Environmental Public Health Act ("EPHA") in Singapore, as well as the Environmental Quality Act 1974 in Malaysia.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Material Area 1: Emissions

As our operations are primarily focused on F&B outlets, we do not operate motor vehicles nor utilise fossil fuels within our core business activities. As such, we do not generate any air pollutants or direct GHG emissions classified under Scope 1.

Our emissions primarily arise from indirect GHG emissions (Scope 2), which are attributable to electricity consumption across our F&B outlets and office premises. The following section presents our Scope 2 emissions data for the Reporting Year, alongside comparative figures from the two preceding reporting years.

Categories	Unit	Emissions ⁴
		FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Direct GHG emissions (Scope 1)	tCO ₂ e	—	—	—
Energy indirect GHG emissions (Scope 2)	tCO ₂ e	857.7 ⁵	1,029.6 ⁶	1,179.4
GHG emissions intensity ⁷	tCO ₂ e/million revenue	34.1 ⁸	34.8 ⁹	35.8

During the Reporting Year, the intensity of Scope 2 GHG emissions increased by approximately 2.8%, representing normal year-on-year operational fluctuations.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Reduce our GHG emission intensity by 3% by FY2028, with the financial year ended at 31 March 2023 as the base year (The GHG emission intensity was 28.51 tCO ₂ e/million revenue in FY2023).	Target remains ongoing. We will continue to explore and implement initiatives to improve our energy efficiency and reduce GHG emission intensity across our operations as we work towards achieving this target.

⁴ GHG emissions data is presented in terms of carbon dioxide equivalent and are based on, but not limited to, "The Greenhouse Gas Protocol: A Corporate Accounting and Reporting Standards" issued by the World Resources Institute and the World Business Council for Sustainable Development, "Table of Contents for Singapore Energy Statistics 2022" issued by Energy Market Authority, and "2017 CDM Electricity Baseline for Malaysia" issued by Malaysian Green Technology Corporation.

⁵ Scope 2 emission for FY2024 has been restated from 800.1 to 857.7 due to a calculation error in prior reporting year.

⁶ Scope 2 emission for FY2025 has been restated from 1,054.8 to 1,029.6 due to a calculation error in prior reporting year.

⁷ For the financial year ended 31 March 2026, the Group's total revenue was approximately SGD 32,957,000. This data will also be used for calculating other intensity data in this Report.

⁸ GHG emission intensity for FY2024 has been restated from 31.8 to 34.1 due to the restatement of total scope 2 emissions in FY2024.

⁹ GHG emission intensity for FY2025 has been restated from 35.7 to 34.8 due to the restatement of total scope 2 emissions in FY2025.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Material Area 2: Waste Management

We remain committed to fulfilling our environmental responsibilities to the best of our ability. While waste generation is an unavoidable aspect of our F&B and office operations, we seek to minimise our impact by actively promoting opportunities for reuse and recycling.

Hazardous Waste

We did not generate any hazardous waste from our F&B outlet operations in Singapore and Malaysia. In the unlikely event that such waste is produced, we will engage licensed third-party service providers to manage our collection and disposal, ensuring full compliance with the relevant hazardous waste management laws and regulations of the respective local authorities.

Non-hazardous Waste

The waste generated by our F&B establishments predominantly comprises non-hazardous food waste. We are committed to minimising such waste through careful procurement planning and the efficient use of ingredients during food preparation. A range of measures has been implemented across our F&B outlets to ensure that food waste is kept to a minimum:

- Adopt “first-in-first-out” method in the storage and utilisation of food ingredients;
- Implement “just-in-time” inventory management, where the purchases from suppliers are frequent to reduce overstocking of fresh ingredients;
- Food waste is segregated from other type of wastes;
- Practice recycling of waste oils;
- Require each outlet to record and report the daily food wastes (i.e., chicken and mee sua) due to unsold and expired food products; and
- Periodically review the food waste statistics reported by the outlets. Follow-up actions are taken for outlets that report food wastage above the acceptable level (i.e., 3% to 5% of sold quantities).

At the corporate office, paper continues to be the main source of waste generated. To reduce paper consumption and minimise wastage, we have implemented the following measures:

- Reuse scrap paper and advocate double-sided printing;
- Remind employees to only print necessary work materials to reduce paper usage;
- Implement electronic systems to minimise paperwork; and
- Cultivate a paperless office culture.

Our non-hazardous waste data for the Reporting Year, along with comparative figures from the two preceding reporting years, are presented as follows:

Non-hazardous Waste Type	Unit	Disposal
		FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Food waste	tonnes	12.3	15.4	21.6
Paper waste	tonnes	0.2	0.2	0.8
Non-hazardous waste intensity	tonnes/million revenue	0.5	0.5	0.7

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

In FY2026, the intensity of non-hazardous waste increased by approximately 40%, primarily due to the introduction of new menu items requiring additional packaging, while revenue increased at a slower rate. The increase in total non-hazardous waste generated was also attributable to the full-year operation of five outlets that commenced operations during FY2025, together with higher overall food consumption and operational activity across our Singapore operations.

Waste generated by the central kitchen was not disclosed for FY2026 as complete and verifiable waste records were unavailable during the Reporting Year. We are currently onboarding the central kitchen onto Singapore's Enterprise Resource Planning ("ERP") System, which will enable us to track food waste from future reporting periods.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Reduce non-hazardous waste intensity by 3% by FY2028, with the financial year ended at 31 March 2024 as the base year (The non-hazardous waste intensity was 0.497 tonnes/million revenue in FY2024).	Target remains ongoing. We will continue to identify and implement opportunities to improve waste management practices and reduce non-hazardous waste intensity across our operations as we work towards achieving this target.

Material Area 3: Use of Resources

We recognise that investing in resource conservation not only reduces our environmental footprint but also improves operational efficiency and generates cost savings. We therefore remain committed to implementing initiatives that minimise resource consumption, improve energy efficiency, and reduce the environmental impact of our operations.

Energy Management

Electricity consumption within our operations primarily occurs at our self-operated F&B outlets in Singapore and Malaysia. Employees are encouraged to adopt energy-efficient and responsible electricity usage practices. In addition, to further reduce energy consumption and improve energy efficiency, we have implemented the following measures across our F&B outlets:

- Turn off cooking appliances and cleaning devices when they are not in use;
- Install energy-saving fixtures and fittings, such as LED lights and motion sensors;
- Purchase energy efficient electrical appliances at the newly opened outlets;
- Regular maintenance of kitchen equipment to ensure they are in good condition;
- Post energy-saving messages on the outlet's board as a constant reminder for employees; and
- Keep the refrigerators' doors closed at all times to prevent electricity wastage.

Our electricity consumption data for the Reporting Year, along with comparative figures from the two preceding reporting years, are presented as follows:

Energy Type	Unit	Consumption
		FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Indirect energy — Electricity	kWh	1,412,788	1,758,711	2,071,128
Energy consumption intensity	kWh/million revenue	56,152	59,480	62,843

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Water Management

We acknowledge that our operations require considerable water usage and recognises water as a scarce and finite global resource. Water is essential to our F&B outlets, particularly for cleaning and food preparation activities. We do not face any challenges in obtaining water for our office premises or self-operated F&B outlets in Singapore and Malaysia.

To promote responsible water use, we have taken proactive steps to educate employees and encourage positive water conservation habits. In addition, the following water-saving measures have been implemented across our F&B outlets to reduce overall consumption:

- Install filters to the water taps in the outlets;
- Regular inspection of the water pipes and taps, and repair leakages in a timely manner to minimise water wastages;
- Use water intensive machines efficiently (e.g., use dish washers only when it is fully loaded); and
- Post water-saving messages in the outlet's kitchen, washroom and sink areas as constant reminders for employees.

We are unable to report water consumption for our Singapore office, as the office has no running water facilities and water usage from shared pantries and restrooms is included within the building's common area consumption.

Our water consumption data for the Reporting Year, along with comparative figures from the two preceding years, are presented as follows:

Categories	Unit	Consumption
		FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Water consumption	m ³	14,278.83	17,789.60	21,043.72
Water consumption intensity	m ³ /million revenue	567.52	601.65	638.52

During the Reporting Year, we recorded a 6.13% increase in water and 5.65% increase in electricity consumption intensity.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Reduce our energy and water consumption intensity by 3% by FY2028, with the financial year ended at 31 March 2023 as the base year (The energy and water consumption intensity was 50.21 MWh/million revenue, and 491.99 m ³ /million revenue respectively in FY2023).	Target remains ongoing. We will continue to identify and implement opportunities to improve energy and water efficiency across our operations, reducing consumption intensity as we work towards achieving this target.

Material Area 4: Packaging Materials

We primarily use plastic and/or paper packaging materials for customer takeaways, such as food bowls, paper wraps, beverage containers, and carrier bags. To reduce reliance on plastic packaging across our F&B outlets, we have adopted the following practices:

- Plastics material in product packaging are used only when necessary (e.g., cover lids of mee sua food bowls, carrier bags, drink containers are made of plastics to avoid spillage);
- Purchase from suppliers for packaging materials that are recyclable, compostable/biodegradable and/or sustainably manufactured.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Our packaging material consumption data during the Reporting Year, along with comparative figures from the two preceding reporting years, are presented as follows:

Categories	Unit	Consumption
		FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Total packaging materials	tonnes	57.00	63.73	81.55
Total packaging materials intensity	tonnes/million revenue	2.27	2.16	2.47

Packaging material intensity increased by approximately 14% in FY2026, primarily reflecting normal year-on-year operational fluctuations.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Reduce our total packaging materials intensity by 10% by FY2028, with the financial year ended at 31 March 2023 as the base year (The total packaging materials intensity was 2.05 tonnes/million revenue in FY2023).	Target remains ongoing. We will continue to identify and implement opportunities to optimise packaging material usage as we work towards achieving this target.

Material Area 5: Environmental and Natural Resources

While our quick-service F&B operations are relatively low-impact compared with heavy industries, we recognise our responsibility to minimise environment harm and steward natural resources across our value chain. As such, it continuously assess the environmental risks arising from our operations and implement eco-friendly practices aimed at mitigating air pollution, reducing resource consumption, minimising waste generation, and limiting the use of plastic.

Indoor Air Quality

We have adopted the following air quality control measures across its F&B outlets:

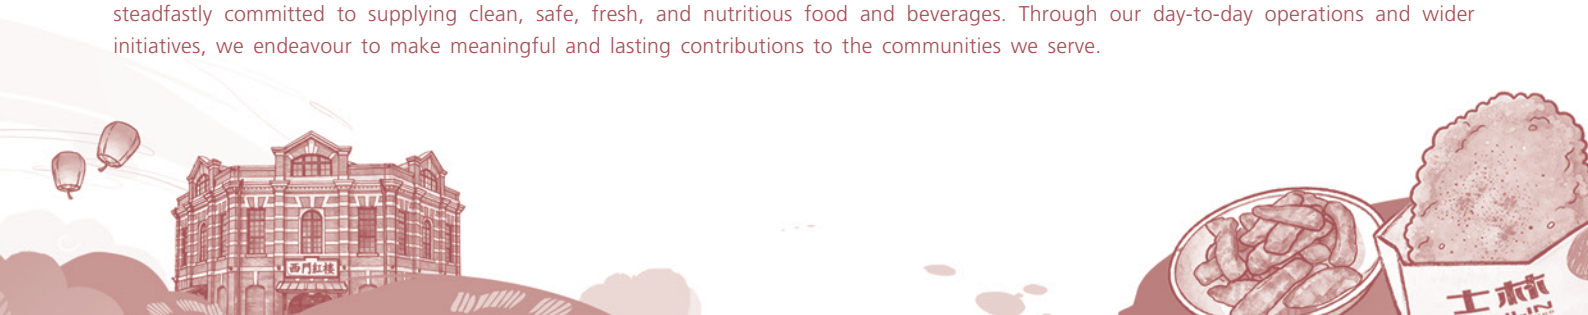

- Smoking is strictly prohibited, where disciplinary actions including possible employment termination are to be taken against any employees who are found to be smoking in the outlets; and
- Exhaust emission systems (e.g., mechanical ventilation equipment) which help to minimise oil fume emission and odour nuisance have been installed in the outlets.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Continue implementing effective measures to ensure good indoor air quality in all F&B outlets, such as strictly enforce no-smoking policies, maintain exhaust emission systems, and regularly clean air conditioning systems.	Achieved.

SOCIAL ASPECTS

We view our workforce as the cornerstone of a resilient and sustainable business, acknowledging that effective talent acquisition and development are central to delivering long-term value. We are dedicated to cultivating an inclusive, supportive, and motivating working environment in which employees are empowered to perform at their best. Areas such as career advancement, employee recognition, personal growth, and competitive remuneration packages are considered essential to attracting and retaining skilled talent. Continuous learning and development initiatives further strengthen employee capabilities whilst upholding the quality of service delivered to customers.

In fulfilling our responsibilities towards customers and the broader community, we accord the highest priority to food safety. We remain steadfastly committed to supplying clean, safe, fresh, and nutritious food and beverages. Through our day-to-day operations and wider initiatives, we endeavour to make meaningful and lasting contributions to the communities we serve.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Material Area 6: Employment Practices

We have established an Employee Handbook and a Human Resources Policy to govern all aspects of employment and workforce management. These frameworks address the following areas:

- Contracts of employment, encompassing recruitment, probationary confirmation, and resignation procedures;
- Performance appraisal, remuneration review, promotion, and salary adjustment processes;
- Payroll administration, including overtime compensation and expense reimbursement;
- Attendance management and leave entitlements, covering medical leave, annual leave, and associated benefits;
- Standards of professional conduct, including confidentiality obligations and media communications protocols;
- Working hours, rest days, public holidays, and overtime arrangements; and
- Disciplinary procedures, including employee grievance mechanisms and termination processes.

As at 31 March 2026, our total headcount stood at 231 (FY2025: 231). The breakdown of employee profiles for the Reporting Year, together with comparative figures from the two preceding financial years, is set out as follows:

Employee Breakdown by Gender, Employment Type, and Region

Categories	Headcount			Percentage
	FY2024	FY2025 ¹⁰	FY2026	FY2024	FY2025 ¹¹	FY2026
By Gender
Male	75	107	101	44.9%	46.3%	43.7%
Female	92	124	130	55.1%	54.7%	56.3%
By Employment Type
Full-time	129	153	158	77.2%	66.2%	68.4%
Part-time	38	78	73	22.8%	33.8%	31.6%
By Geographical Region
Singapore	122	165	181	73.1%	71.4%	78.4%
Malaysia	45	66	50	26.9%	28.6%	21.6%

The increase in headcount in Singapore was primarily driven by the expansion of the central kitchen and the opening of new outlets during FY2026. In Malaysia, the decrease in headcount was mainly attributable to higher employee turnover, recruitment challenges, and increased competition for talent within the Food and Beverage industry.

¹⁰ Employee breakdown by Geographic Region in FY2025 has been revised from 116 to 165 and 115 to 66 for Singapore and Malaysia, respectively, due to an error in methodology.

¹¹ Percentage of employee breakdown by Geographic Region in FY2025 has been revised from 50.2% to 71.4% and 49.8% to 28.6% for Singapore and Malaysia, respectively, due an update in headcount.

30–50 Years Old	71	78	117	42.5%	33.8%	50.6%
Above 50 Years Old	18	26	26	10.8%	11.2%	11.3%

During FY2026, we were not aware of any reported breaches of employment-related laws and regulations, including the Employment Act and the Employment of Foreign Manpower Act in Singapore, and the Employment Act 1955 in Malaysia.

Recruitment

In an increasingly competitive talent landscape, the ability to attract high-calibre individuals remains a key strategic priority. We employ a merit-based and transparent recruitment approach, underpinned by structured processes designed to evaluate candidates objectively on their qualifications, relevant experience, and fit for the role. We uphold an unwavering commitment to equal employment opportunity, ensuring that no candidate is disadvantaged on the basis of race, gender, age, religion, marital status, sexual orientation, pregnancy status, political affiliation, or any other protected characteristic under applicable law.

Retention

To remain competitive in the employment market, we regularly benchmark our compensation structures and offer attractive remuneration packages. Strong emphasis is placed on employee welfare, well-being, and career development, with promotions and salary adjustments determined through fair, consistent, and transparent performance evaluations. We are committed to maintaining a safe, respectful, and inclusive workplace, and enforce a strict zero-tolerance policy with regard to any form of discrimination, bullying, or harassment.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Dismissal

Our dismissal procedures are designed to comply fully with applicable local legislation and to ensure fairness and due process for all employees. Unjust or arbitrary dismissal is strictly prohibited. Employment may be terminated only in cases of serious misconduct or material breaches of our standards of conduct. Where misconduct is alleged, we follow appropriate disciplinary procedures, which may include counselling, retraining, verbal and written warnings, and formal investigation, before any termination decision is made.

During the year, we did not undertake any retrenchment or organisational restructuring activities. A total of 33 employees resigned (FY2025: 109), resulting in a turnover rate of 14.3% (FY2025: 47.2%¹²). The breakdown of employee resignations and turnover rates is as follows:

Employee Feedback and Grievance

We are committed to fostering an open, inclusive, and collaborative workplace by providing multiple communication channels through which employees can raise concerns, share suggestions, and provide feedback to management, including regular team meetings and annual town hall. In FY2026, we introduced a formalised Performance Review Timeline in November 2025 to support structured performance discussions and launched a Workplace Communication Policy in January 2026 to strengthen communication and employee engagement across the organisation. These initiatives help ensure employee concerns are addressed promptly and fairly while encouraging continuous feedback and engagement.

¹² This turnover rate has been restated from 54.8% to 47.2% due to calculation error in the last reporting period.

¹⁵ FY2025 turnover data by age group has been restated from 40.2% to 63.0%, 11.6% to 29.5%, and 3.0% to 23.1% for "Below 30 Years Old", "30–50 Years Old", and "Above 50 Years Old", respectively, due to calculation error in the previous reporting cycle.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Perpetual Targets	Performance in FY2026
Enhance employee well-being through initiatives that support health, work-life balance, and flexible working arrangements.	We remain committed to enhancing employee well-being through initiatives that support health, work-life balance, and flexible working arrangements. We will continue to identify opportunities to strengthen our efforts in this area.
Improve employee engagement and retention through regular check-ins, employee surveys, and follow-up action plans.	Achieved.
Maintain open communication channels and grievance mechanisms to ensure employee concerns are addressed promptly and fairly.	Achieved.

Material Area 7: Health and Safety

Workplace Safety and Health

We attach great importance to maintaining a safe and healthy workplace. Hygiene protocols and safety requirements are embedded within the Outlet Operations Manual, communicated regularly to all outlet staff, and monitored through frequent operational inspections.

Workplace health and safety measures at our food and beverage outlets include:

- All floors and kitchen areas must be kept dry at all times to minimise the risk of slip and fall incidents;
- The wearing of closed-toe, slip-resistant footwear is mandatory for all outlet staff;
- Appropriate personal protective equipment (“PPE”) must be worn when handling boiling water, heated oils, and hot food;
- Cleaning schedule checklists are subject to regular review by outlet supervisors; and
- Routine housekeeping inspections are carried out by the operations team across all outlets.

Fire extinguishers and first aid kits are strategically positioned across our offices, food and beverage outlets, and warehouses. Formal protocols have been established to address serious workplace safety incidents, encompassing immediate response actions, escalation and reporting procedures, investigation processes, and remedial measures.

During the Reporting Year, no work-related fatalities were recorded, consistent with our record across all three years under review. The work-related fatality rate was 0 per 100,000 employees in FY2026 (FY2025: 0; FY2024: 0). The number of lost days attributable to work-related injuries was 10 (FY2025: 0 days). Throughout the period, we were not made aware of any breaches of the Workplace Safety and Health Act in Singapore and the Occupational Safety and Health Act 1994 in Malaysia.

During the Reporting Year, we recorded one reportable work-related injury involving an employee who sustained a back sprain while lifting a carton of cheese. The incident resulted in 10 lost workdays. Following the incident, we reminded employees of the correct manual handling techniques when lifting heavy items and worked with the supplier to request smaller and lighter packaging to reduce manual handling risks and help prevent similar incidents from recurring.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Perpetual Targets	Performance in FY2026
Maintain zero incidents of material non-compliance with applicable occupational health and safety laws and regulations.	Achieved.
Maintain zero work-related fatalities.	Achieved.
Maintain a safe and healthy workplace by continuously monitoring health and safety performance and reducing workplace incidents.	Ongoing. One reportable work-related injury occurred during FY2026. Corrective actions included reinforcing proper manual handling techniques and working with the supplier to introduce smaller and lighter packaging to reduce lifting risks.

Material Area 8: Training And Development

Training Programmes for Employees

We remain committed to fostering the professional growth of our workforce. Regular and structured training programmes are implemented throughout the year to ensure employees maintain the highest standards in their respective roles.

Internal training covers induction training for new hires, menu and product knowledge for food handlers and counter staff, customer service skills, and refresher courses on food preparation, preservation, hygiene, and quality control. All food handlers are required to complete mandatory training as prescribed by local regulatory authorities, including the Basic Food Hygiene Course in Singapore and the Food Handler Training Course in Malaysia.

During the Reporting Year, a total of 143 employees (FY2025: 142; FY2024: 118), representing 61.9% of the total workforce (FY2025: 61.5%; FY2024: 70.7%), participated in training programmes.

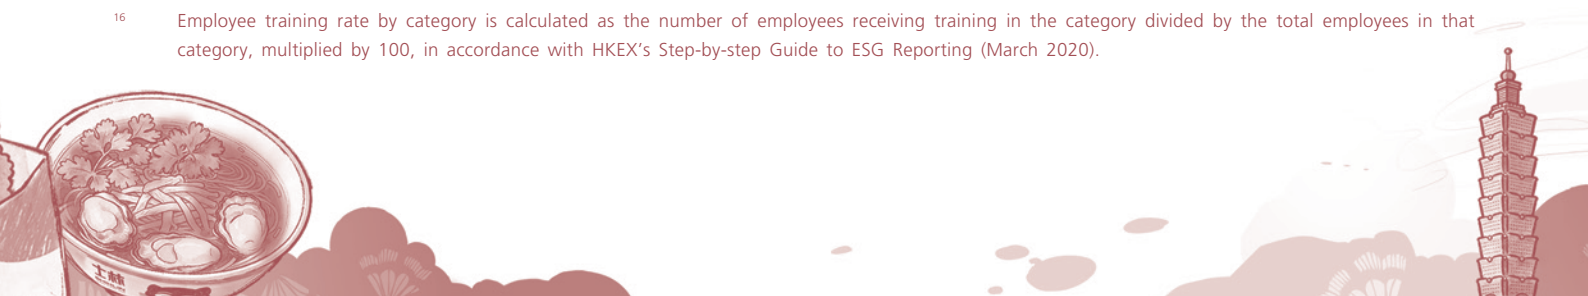

During the reporting year, we continued to invest in the professional development of our employees by providing role-specific training programmes. Office executives and members of the management team attended courses on Smart Entrepreneurship, updates on Financial Reporting Standards ("FRS"), Ethical Conduct and Corporate Governance, and F&B Revenue and Productivity to strengthen their technical knowledge and leadership capabilities. Outlet staff and central kitchen employees received training on Progressive Wage Model requirements and job-related operational skills, supporting service excellence, operational efficiency, and productivity.

By Employment Category
Directors	Not Previously Disclosed		4.0
Managers	8.7	6.3	6.0
Executive	0.3	1.5	12.1
Staff	3.9	4.1	2.5

During the Reporting Year, the average training hours per employee had decreased by approximately 18% due to fewer new products being introduced, resulting in a reduced need for product-related training.

Training for Franchisees

Training is delivered to franchisees on an ongoing basis to maintain consistency in food quality and service standards across the brand. During the Reporting Year, programmes encompassed induction training for new franchisees, refresher sessions, customer service training, and product-specific training ahead of new launches. A total of 394 hours (FY2025: 446 hours) were recorded for 58 franchisees (FY2025: 49).

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Increase annual average training hours by 5% each year.	Not achieved. Average training hours did not increase by 5% in FY2026. We will continue to strengthen training and development initiatives to support employee learning and work towards achieving this target.
Strengthen talent development through structured training, upskilling, and leadership development programmes.	Achieved. We strengthened talent development by providing structured, role-specific training programmes covering leadership, corporate governance, technical knowledge, and operational skills for employees across different functions.

Material Area 9: Labour Standard

Prevention of Child Labour and Forced Labour

We strictly prohibits the employment of full-time staff below the age of 18 and part-time staff under the age of 16 across all operations in Singapore and Malaysia. We are equally committed to preventing any form of forced labour, coercion, intimidation, or exploitation within our workplace and supply chain. To ensure compliance, we collect personal identification documents — such as national identity cards — to verify the age and identity of all candidates during recruitment. Management conducts periodic inspections at both self-operated and franchised outlets to identify any indications of child or forced labour practices.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any breaches of laws and regulations concerning child and forced labour, including the Employment (Children and Young Persons) Regulations 2000 and the Prevention of Human Trafficking Act 2014 in Singapore, and the Children and Young Persons (Employment) Act 1966 and the Anti-Trafficking in Persons and Anti-Smuggling of Migrants Act 2010 in Malaysia.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Should any instances of child or forced labour be identified, we will take the following immediate remedial steps:

- Immediate cessation of the non-compliant arrangement or employment relationship;
- Prompt notification to and full cooperation with the relevant regulatory or law enforcement authorities;
- A thorough internal investigation to identify the root cause and extent of the breach;
- Implementation of corrective and preventive measures to address systemic gaps; and
- Review and, where necessary, enhancement of recruitment and compliance procedures across all operations and franchised outlets.

Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026
Maintain full compliance with all applicable child and forced labour laws and regulations, with zero violations across Singapore and Malaysia.	Achieved.

Material Area 10: Supplier Management

Geographic Span of Suppliers

Effective supply chain management is fundamental to our continued success in the F&B industry. The quality, safety, and freshness of ingredients and semi-processed products sourced from our suppliers play a key role in ensuring the overall quality of food and beverages delivered under our brand.

As at 31 March 2026, we maintained a total of 87 approved food suppliers (FY2025: 40; FY2024: 40). Their geographical distribution is as follows:

Approved Suppliers and Distribution by Region

Categories	Count			Distribution
	FY2024	FY2025	FY2026	FY2024	FY2025	FY2026
Singapore	14	14	61	35.0%	35.0%	70.1%
Malaysia	21	21	20	52.5%	52.5%	23.0%
Taiwan	3	3	4	7.5%	7.5%	4.6%
Vietnam	1	1	1	2.5%	2.5%	1.1%
Thailand	1	1	1	2.5%	2.5%	1.1%
Total	40	40	87	100%	100%	100%

The number of approved suppliers increased significantly in FY2026, primarily due to the onboarding of new suppliers following the commencement of procurement activities by the central kitchen.

Supply Chain Management

We implement robust controls across our supply chain, including the evaluation and onboarding of new suppliers, quality inspection of food ingredients, storage management, and ongoing supplier performance monitoring. Suppliers are assessed against stringent criteria including country of origin, product freshness, flavour profile, nutritional content, and compliance with food safety and regulatory requirements. We also seek to engage suppliers who uphold responsible business practices and maintain high standards of product quality and safety.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Prior to formal appointment, our management conducts on-site assessments to evaluate prospective suppliers’ quality control systems and performs sample testing. Upon delivery, receiving personnel inspect each batch for signs of damage, contamination, or spoilage to ensure that only ingredients meeting our standards are accepted. Supplier performance is reviewed periodically, and suppliers that do not meet our requirements are removed from the approved supplier list.

All 87 approved food suppliers (FY2025: 40; FY2024: 40) are subject to our supplier engagement and monitoring practices, including on-site assessments prior to approval, ongoing performance reviews, and compliance checks against quality and ethical sourcing standards.

Environmental and Social Risk of Suppliers

We give preference to suppliers that adopt environmentally responsible packaging and actively monitor our approved food suppliers for potential environmental and social risks. Should a supplier be found responsible for environmental violations, unlawful employment practices, or serious food safety incidents, we will immediately terminate all procurement arrangements with that supplier.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any suppliers implicated in misconduct relating to business ethics, environmental protection, human rights, or employment practices.

Fair and Open Procurement

All procurement activities are conducted in a fair, open, and transparent manner. We maintain strict policies to prevent favouritism towards suppliers with ownership, control, or management connections to our controlling shareholders, directors, or employees. We also adopt a zero-tolerance approach to bribery, kickbacks, and other corrupt practices in our dealings with suppliers.

During the Reporting Year, we were not aware of any material transactions that gave rise to conflicts of interest between our employees, including members of management and the Board, and our suppliers.

Perpetual Targets	Performance in FY2026
Maintain zero incidents of bribery, kick-backs, or corruption in dealings with suppliers.	Achieved.
Periodically assess and reinforce these standards for a responsible and ethical supply chain.	Achieved.

Material Area 11: Product Responsibility

Food Quality and Safety

Maintaining high standards of food quality and safety is fundamental to our operations. We implement a structured food safety management framework, supported by procedures set out in our Outlet Operations Manual. These procedures apply to employees across both self-operated and franchised outlets and cover key areas such as food preparation, handling, packaging, hygiene practices, and customer service standards. To ensure these requirements are consistently followed, our Operations Team carries out routine inspections at outlets in Singapore and Malaysia.

All food handlers employed at our F&B outlets are required to possess valid food safety and hygiene certifications issued by the relevant local authorities. We have also established procedures for the prompt handling and investigation of food safety incidents, including customer complaints related to foodborne illnesses or the presence of foreign objects in food products.

To safeguard the quality and freshness of food ingredients and semi-processed products, we apply appropriate storage and handling practices across our warehouses and outlets, including during transportation to franchised outlets overseas. Incoming supplies are checked by staff for expiry dates, temperature conditions, packaging condition, and overall product quality. Any items that do not meet our standards are returned to suppliers for replacement.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any breaches of applicable laws and regulations governing health and safety, advertising, product labelling, or consumer data privacy, including the Sale of Food Act and Personal Data Protection Act in Singapore, and the Food Act 1983 and Personal Data Protection Act 2010 in Malaysia.

No products were subject to health or safety-related recalls during the year.

Customer Services

We recognise that customer satisfaction is fundamental to our long-term and sustainable growth. Customer feedback and complaints provide valuable insights that help us identify service gaps and improve our operational standards.

To maintain open communication with our customers, we provide several channels through which feedback can be submitted, including our corporate website, telephone hotlines, and social media platforms such as Facebook. A dedicated customer service team oversees the handling of enquiries, feedback, and complaints. Each case is recorded systematically, and the team may contact customers for additional information where necessary. In appropriate cases, customers may be offered complimentary prepaid card vouchers redeemable at our F&B outlets. Reported issues are subsequently referred to the relevant departments for investigation and corrective action to minimise the likelihood of recurrence.

During the Reporting Year, we received and resolved 341 customer complaints (FY2025: 223) across our outlets and corporate office in Singapore and Malaysia, averaging 3.6 complaints per outlet and corporate office during the year (FY2025: 5.1). Most complaints were related to waiting times, service attitude, order inaccuracies, and dissatisfaction with food taste or quality. Upon receiving a customer complaint, our Customer Service team gathers the relevant information and works closely with the Operations team to investigate the matter. Once the investigation is completed, the findings and outcome are communicated to the customer in a timely manner. Where appropriate, compensation or goodwill gestures may be offered based on the nature of the complaint and the outcome of the investigation.

Intellectual Property Rights

The “Shihlin Taiwan Street Snacks” brand is a key intangible asset of the Group and enjoys strong recognition among consumers in Singapore and Malaysia. We place significant importance on protecting our intellectual property (“IP”) rights to preserve the integrity and reputation of the brand. As at 31 March 2026, we held a total of 22 registered trademarks (FY2025: 22).

In markets outside Singapore and Malaysia, we rely on master franchisees and licensees to ensure the appropriate use and protection of our IP. Any proposed use of the Group’s trademarks or other IP in connection with new overseas outlets is subject to our prior approval. Where franchisees or licensees intend to depart from the agreed usage or take actions that may be inconsistent with contractual terms, they are required to obtain our formal consent in advance.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any instances of intellectual property infringement by third parties.

¹⁷ Percentage = units recalled for health/safety reasons ÷ total units sold or shipped. Insert FY2026 denominator data.

Customer Privacy Protection

We collect personal data, including names, email addresses, and contact numbers, from customers who register for our prepaid card membership programme. All data is stored securely and is accessible only to authorised personnel. Data is used primarily for marketing communications and is not retained where a customer opts out of the programme, or their card expires without renewal.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any breaches of personal data protection laws and regulations in Singapore or Malaysia.

Advertisement Efforts

We place strong emphasis on ensuring that all advertisements and promotional materials are accurate, responsible, and not misleading to customers. Promotional campaigns are regularly conducted at our outlets to support product launches and seasonal occasions, including Lunar New Year, Christmas, National Day, Father’s Day, and Mother’s Day.

To enhance brand visibility, we continue to invest in digital marketing initiatives, including collaborations with social media influencers and celebrities to promote new products and campaigns. We also work with other food brands on cross-promotional activities across retail outlets and social media platforms. In addition, we partner with shopping malls and food delivery service providers to secure advertising placements that support our brand and product promotion efforts.

In markets outside Singapore and Malaysia, advertising and marketing activities are managed by our master franchisees and licensees. To ensure consistency in brand presentation and messaging, all promotional and advertising materials used by these partners are subject to our review and approval prior to publication or use.

We have established internal review procedures to ensure that product and promotional information communicated to customers is accurate, complete, and clearly presented. Before any materials are published or displayed, we review product names, promotional mechanics, pricing, terms and conditions, and any product-related claims to ensure they are consistent with the approved product offerings and campaign details. This review covers marketing collateral, digital advertisements, and social media content.

Where necessary, we work closely with the relevant departments, including the Operations and Quality Assurance (“QA”) teams, as well as external vendors, to verify product information, ingredients, pricing, promotional details, and artwork before any materials are released to the public.

Target

Area	Perpetual Target	Performance in FY2026

Intellectual Property Rights	Maintain zero incidents of intellectual property infringement by third parties.	Achieved.
Customer Privacy Protection	Maintain zero reported breaches of personal data protection laws and regulations.	Achieved.
Advertisement Efforts	Ensure all advertising and promotional materials remain accurate, fair, and not misleading.	Achieved.

Environmental, Social and Governance Report

Material Area 12: Anti-corruption Practices

In Singapore, key legislation governing bribery, extortion, fraud, and money laundering includes the Corruption, Drug Trafficking and Other Serious Crimes (Confiscation of Benefits) Act (“CDSA”), administered by the Commercial Affairs Department, as well as the Anti-Money Laundering and Countering the Financing of Terrorism (“AML/CFT”) framework overseen by the Monetary Authority of Singapore. We adopt a strict zero-tolerance approach towards bribery, corruption, and fraudulent conduct, and actively foster a corporate culture that promotes integrity and ethical behaviour among our employees.

During the Reporting Year, we were not made aware of any incidents of non-compliance with applicable laws and regulations relating to bribery, extortion, or money laundering, including the Prevention of Corruption Act in Singapore and the Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 in Malaysia. No legal proceedings concerning corrupt practices were initiated against us or any of our employees during the period.

Anti-corruption Training

We ensure that all new employees and directors are introduced to our Code of Conduct, as well as our Anti-Corruption, Anti-Fraud, and Anti-Money Laundering policies and procedures as part of the onboarding process. In preparation for the Group’s Initial Public Offering on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, members of the Board also received training on their duties, responsibilities, and statutory obligations as directors of a listed company.

Whistleblowing System

We operate an independent, confidential whistleblowing channel enabling any individual to report suspected misconduct, including unlawful activities, financial irregularities, breaches of internal controls, and unethical behaviour, without fear of retaliation. Reports are directed to our Audit Committee for investigation, with external professional advisers engaged where appropriate.

During the reporting year, one whistleblowing report concerning alleged workplace harassment was investigated through our established procedures. Based on the findings of the independent investigation and the available evidence, the allegations were not substantiated. The investigation was conducted with reference to the guidance issued by Singapore’s Ministry of Manpower and the Protection from Harassment Act.

Perpetual Targets	Performance in FY2026
Maintain zero reported non-compliance cases related to bribery, extortion, and money laundering.	Achieved.
Maintain zero legal proceedings relating to corrupt practices involving the Group or its employees.	Achieved.
Continue to provide anti-corruption training to all newly appointed employees and directors.	Achieved.

Material Area 13: Community Investment

As a socially responsible organisation and an active member of the community, we recognise the importance of contributing positively to the communities in which we operate. While we did not undertake any organised community investment activities during the reporting year, we remain committed to identifying meaningful opportunities to support community initiatives and encourage employee participation in volunteer and charitable activities in the future.

Directors' Report

The Directors present this report together with the audited consolidated financial statements of the Group for the Year.

FAIR REVIEW OF BUSINESS

A fair review of the business of the Group together with a discussion and analysis of the Group's performance during the Year using financial key performance indicators, the material factors underlying its financial performance as well as the Group's future business development are set forth in the "Message to Shareholders" and the "Management Discussion and Analysis" sections of this Annual Report. The information relating to the Group's food quality and safety, customers, suppliers, employees, community involvement and environmental protection are set out in the section headed ESG report of this Annual Report.

PRINCIPAL RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

The Directors are aware that the Group's financial condition, results of operation, businesses and prospects may be affected by a number of risks and uncertainties.

The followings are the principal risks and uncertainties faced by the Group, which may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations:

Our reliance on the market recognition of our Shihlin

We believe that our success substantially depends on the market recognition of our Shihlin and our continued success will depend in large part on our ability to protect and enhance its value. Any incident that erodes consumer trust in or affinity for our brand could significantly reduce its value. As we continue to grow in size, expand our range of Snacks and Beverages products and extend our geographic reach, maintaining quality and consistency may become more difficult and we cannot assure you that customer confidence in our brand will not diminish. If consumers perceive or experience a reduction in food quality or value-for-money, or believe in any way that we are failing to deliver a consistently positive experience, the value of our brand could suffer, which could have a material adverse effect on our business.

It is common in the fast food industry that food critics analyse food and services and then publish their commentary experience. We are usually not informed before such food critics visit and we have no control on what is written by these food critics. If food critics publish negative comments or reviews about their experience with us, this may adversely affect our business. Any complaints and negative publicity, regardless of their validity, may adversely affect our reputation. If there is any negative publicity or review associated with our Shihlin Outlets or Shihlin Restaurants and our brand reputation is negatively affected, the results of our Group's business operations could be adversely affected.

Our reliance on the franchise/licence model for, among others, expansion outside of Singapore and West Malaysia and a substantial portion of our revenue

A substantial portion of our revenue are derived from our franchise/licence model, including revenue from sales of goods comprising mainly beverages, food products and packaging material to the Franchisees and Licensee, franchise fees and licence fees and advertising and promotion fees from Franchisees. In addition, as we do not have any presence of business operations outside Singapore and West Malaysia, we rely on the franchise/licence model for expansion of our international presence.

The occurrence of any of the following events, among others, could cause fluctuations or declines in our revenue and could have an adverse effect on our financial condition and results of operations: (i) any delays or cancellation of material sale orders from any of our Franchisees or Licensee; (ii) any material decrease in sales at our Non-self-operated Outlets or Restaurants; (iii) failure to renew any franchise agreements, the Indonesia Master Licence agreement and/or any of the sub-licence agreements in Indonesia; and (iv) termination of any of the material franchise agreement, or our Northern California Master Franchise or Indonesia Master Licence.

Directors' Report

There is no assurance that we will be able to maintain our relationships with our Master Franchisee or Licensee customers. In the event of any disagreements with any of these Master Franchisees/Licensee, or if any of these Master Franchisees/Licensee discontinues or terminates the existing arrangements with our Group and we fail to find a replacement on similar terms or at all, our revenue will decrease and our overall financial performance may be adversely affected. There is no assurance that we are able to maintain and sustain our franchise/licence model and operations, which are not within our control. Any material disruptions may adversely affect our revenue materially and substantially.

Our reliance on landlords as we lease all premises for our Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants in Singapore and West Malaysia

We lease all the properties for our Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants. Accordingly, rental costs including depreciation from right-of-use assets account for a significant portion of our operating expenses.

Lease agreements for our Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants typically have an initial term ranging from two to three years. Some of our lease agreements provide that the rent will increase within the initial term or after the initial term at a fixed rate or at the then prevailing market rate. If we fail to renew any of our existing leases, we will have to identify alternative premises. Our business operations may be interrupted as a result of the relocation and we may incur additional costs and expenses in connection with the restoration and/or relocation.

Further, if a lease agreement is renewed at a rate substantially higher than the existing rate or any existing favourable terms granted by the landlord, if any, is not extended, we must evaluate whether renewal on such modified terms is in our interest. If we are unable to renew leases for our Self-operated Outlet or Restaurant premises, we will have to close or relocate the relevant Self-operated Outlet or Restaurant, which would lead to loss of sales during the period of closure and write-off of fixed assets and could subject us to installation and renovation and other costs and risks. In addition, the revenue and any profit generated at a relocated Self-operated Outlet or Restaurant may be less than the revenue and profit previously generated at the closed Self-operated Outlet or Restaurant. Therefore, any inability to renew existing leases on commercially acceptable terms could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We also compete with other food and beverage companies for prime locations in a highly competitive market for premises. There is no assurance that we will be able to enter into new lease agreements for attractive locations or renew existing lease agreements on commercially reasonable terms, if at all. Therefore, any inability to obtain leases for desirable Self-operated Outlets and Restaurants locations on commercially reasonable terms could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITIES

The Company is an investment holding company. Its subsidiaries are principally engaged in wholesale and retail of food and beverages. Details of the principal activities of the Company's major subsidiaries are set out in note 1 to the consolidated financial statements.

The Listing and the dealing in the Shares on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange commenced on 23 October 2019.

COMPLIANCE WITH THE RELEVANT LAWS AND REGULATIONS

The Group's principal business activities are located in Singapore and West Malaysia, and are subject to applicable laws, regulations and government authorities in Singapore and Malaysia. These laws and regulations require the Group to possess various licences or approvals. Pursuant to the franchise agreements and the Master Franchisees and Licensee Agreement, Franchisees and Licensee are responsible for their own compliance with all necessary laws and regulations in the relevant jurisdictions where they operate the Non-self-operated Outlets and Restaurants, which include licensing requirements.

As far as the Board is aware, the Group has complied with the relevant laws and regulations that may cause a significant impact on the business and operation of the Group in the event of a material breach or non-compliance.

Directors' Report

RELATIONSHIP WITH SUPPLIERS, CUSTOMERS AND OTHER STAKEHOLDERS

Directors' Report

SHARE OPTION SCHEME

Pursuant to the written resolution of the sole Shareholder passed on 23 September 2019, the Company adopted the Share Option Scheme conditional upon the Listing. The Share Option Scheme became effective on the Listing Date. As no share option has been granted by the Company under the Share Option Scheme since the Listing Date, there was no share option outstanding as at 31 March 2026 and no option was exercised or cancelled or lapsed during the Year.

At its meeting held on 30 June 2026, the Remuneration Committee reviewed the Share Option Scheme. The principal terms of the Share Option Scheme are set out as follows:

(a) Purpose of the Share Option Scheme

The purpose of this Share Option Scheme is to enable the Board to grant options to Eligible Persons (as defined below) as incentives or rewards for their contribution or potential contribution to the Group and to recruit and retain high calibre Eligible Persons and attract human resources that are valuable to the Group.

(b) Eligible Persons

The Directors may, at their absolute discretion and subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions or limitations as they may think fit, offer to grant option to any employee or proposed employee (whether full-time or part-time, including any director) of any member of the Group or invested entity; and any supplier of goods or services, any customer, any person or entity that provides research, development or other technological support, any shareholder or other participants who contributes to the development and growth of the Group or any invested entity.

(c) Maximum number of Shares

The total number of Shares in respect of which options may be granted under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option schemes of the Company shall not in aggregate exceed 80,000,000 Shares, being 10% of the total number of Shares in issue (excluding treasury shares, if any) as at the date of this Annual Report.

As at 1 April 2025 and 31 March 2026, the maximum number of Shares may be granted pursuant to the Share Option Scheme were both 80,000,000 Shares. As of the date of this annual report, there were 80,000,000 Shares available for issue under the Share Option Scheme representing approximately 10% of the total number of Shares in issue (excluding treasury shares, if any) as of the same date.

(d) Maximum entitlement of each Eligible Person

Unless approved by the Shareholders in general meeting and subject to the following paragraph, no option shall be granted to any Eligible Person if any further grant of options would result in the Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of all options granted and to be granted to such person (including exercised, cancelled and outstanding options) in the 12-month period up to and including such further grant would exceed 1% of the total number of Shares in issue from time to time.

Where an option is to be granted to a substantial Shareholder or an INED (or any of their respective associates), and such grant will result in the Shares issued and to be issued upon exercise of all options already granted and to be granted (including options exercised, cancelled and outstanding) to such person under the Share Option Scheme and any other share option schemes of the Company in the 12-month period up to and including the date of such grant: (1) representing in aggregate over 0.1% of the total number of Shares in issue at the relevant time of grant; and (2) having an aggregate value, based on the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date of each grant, in excess of HK$5 million, such grant shall not be valid unless approved by the independent Shareholders in general meeting.

(e) Period within which the securities must be exercised under an option

An option may be exercised in accordance with the terms of the Share Option Scheme at any time during a period as the Board may determine, which shall not exceed ten years from the date of grant subject to the provisions of early termination thereof.

Directors' Report

(f) Minimum period for which an option must be held before it can be exercised

There is no minimum period in which an option must be held before the exercise of any option save as otherwise imposed by the Board in the relevant offer of options.

(g) Period for and consideration payable on acceptance of an option

An offer of grant of an option may be accepted by an Eligible Person within the date as specified in the offer letter issued by the Company, being a date not later than 21 days inclusive of the date upon which it is made. The amount payable by the grantee of an option to the Company on acceptance of the offer for the grant of an option is HK$1.00.

(h) Basis of determining the exercise price

The subscription price of a Share in respect of any particular option granted under the Share Option Scheme shall be such price as determined by the Board, and shall be at least the highest of: (i) the closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotations sheet on the date of offer to grant an option (the "Offer Date"), which must be a trading day, on which the Board passes a resolution approving the making of an offer of grant of an option to an Eligible Person; (ii) the average closing price of the Shares as stated in the Stock Exchange's daily quotation sheets for the five trading days immediately preceding the Offer Date; and (iii) the nominal value of a Share on the Offer Date.

(i) Remaining life

Subject to earlier termination by the Company in general meeting or by the Board, the Share Option Scheme shall be valid and effective for a period of 10 years commencing on the date of adoption of the Share Option Scheme, after which period no further option shall be granted.

Mr. Jong Voon Hoo

Ms. Tan Chiu Yang

At each AGM, one-third of the Directors for the time being (or if their number is not a multiple of three, then the number nearest to but not less than one-third) shall retire from office by rotation provided that every Director shall be subject to retirement at an AGM at least once every three years. The Directors to retire by rotation shall include any Director who wishes to retire and not offer himself/herself for re-election. Any further Directors so to retire shall be those who have been the longest in office since their last re-election or appointment but as between persons who became or were last re-elected Directors on the same day, those to retire will (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

The Directors have the power to appoint any person as a Director either to fill a casual vacancy on the Board or as an addition to the existing Board. Any Director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing Board shall hold office until the first AGM after his/her appointment and be subject to re-election at such meeting.

Pursuant to the Articles of Association, Mr. Melvyn Wong and Mr. Jong Voon Hoo shall retire from office by rotation at the 2026 AGM. Mr. Melvyn Wong and Mr. Jong Voon Hoo shall be eligible and offer themselves for re-election at the 2026 AGM.

Directors' Report

DIRECTORS' SERVICE CONTRACTS

Each of Mr. Melvyn Wong and Mr. Daniel Tay entered into a service contract with the Company as Director on 23 September 2019. The term of each service contract is three years commencing on the Listing Date and will continue thereafter until terminated in accordance with the terms of the service contract.

Each of Mr. Jong Voon Hoo, Mr. Fok Chee Khuen and Ms. Tan Chiu Yang, all being INEDs, has entered into a letter of appointment with the Company on 23 September 2019, 27 August 2021 and 29 August 2022, respectively. Each of their respective letter of appointment is for an initial term of one year commencing on the Listing Date, 27 August 2021 and 29 August 2022, respectively and will continue thereafter unless terminated by either party giving to the other at least one month's notice in writing.

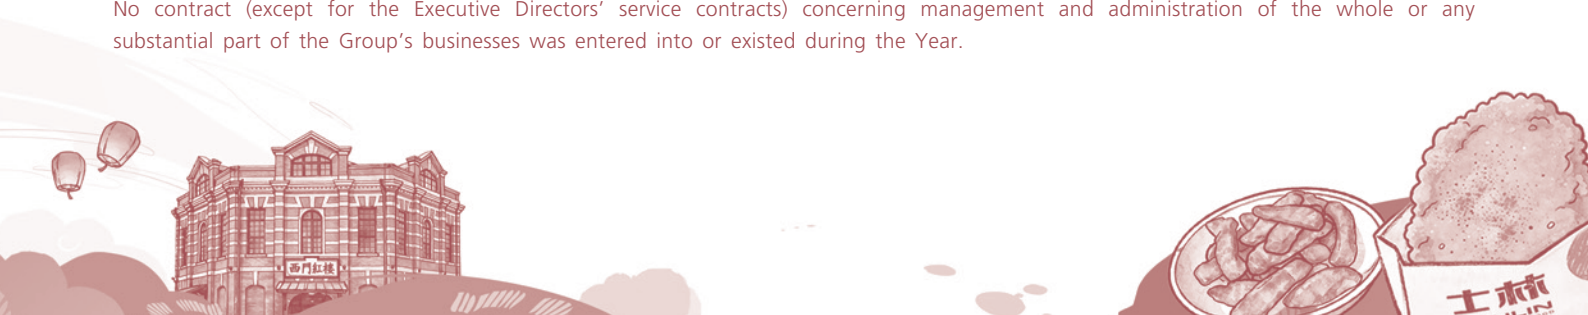

No Director proposed for re-election at the 2026 AGM has a service contract with the Company or any member of the Group that is not determinable by the Group within one year without payment of compensation, other than statutory compensation.

DIRECTORS' MATERIAL INTERESTS IN TRANSACTIONS, ARRANGEMENTS AND CONTRACTS

No transactions, arrangements and contacts of significance in relation to the Group's business in which a Director or an entity with a Director had a material interest, whether directly or indirectly, subsisted at the end of the Year or during the Year.

MANAGEMENT CONTRACTS

No contract (except for the Executive Directors' service contracts) concerning management and administration of the whole or any substantial part of the Group's businesses was entered into or existed during the Year.

Directors' Report

EQUITY-LINKED AGREEMENTS

No equity-linked agreements that (i) will or may result in the Company issuing Shares or (ii) require the Company to enter into any agreements that will or may result in the Company issuing Shares were entered into by the Group during the Year or existed as at 31 March 2026.

PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

There is no provision for pre-emptive rights under the Articles of Association, although there are no restrictions against such rights under the laws in the Cayman Islands.

DIRECTORS' REMUNERATION

The Remuneration Committee makes recommendations to the Board on the remuneration and other benefits payable by the Company to the Directors. The remuneration of all Directors is subject to regular monitoring by the Remuneration Committee to ensure that the levels of their remuneration and compensation are appropriate. Details of the Directors' remuneration are set out in note 10 to the consolidated financial statements.

MAJOR CUSTOMERS AND SUPPLIERS

For the Year, the aggregate sales attributable to the Group's five largest customers were under 13%. The aggregate purchases attributable to the Group's five largest suppliers and the largest supplier during the Year were 35% and 13%, respectively.

None of the Directors, their respective close associates or any Shareholders, which to the best knowledge of the Directors, owns more than 5% of the issued Shares, has any interests in the share capital of any of the above five largest customers or suppliers of the Group.

PUBLIC FLOAT

Based on the information that is publicly available to the Company and within the knowledge of the Directors, as at the date of this Annual Report, the Company has maintained a sufficient public float for the issued Shares (i.e. at least 25% of the issued Shares being held by the public) as required under the Listing Rules.

COMPETING BUSINESS

None of the Directors, the Controlling Shareholders or their respective close associates had any interest in any business which is, either directly or indirectly, in competition with the business of the Group and would require disclosure under Rule 8.10 of the Listing Rules.

RETIREMENT BENEFIT SCHEMES

Details of the Group's retirement benefit schemes are set out in note 2.6(a) to the consolidated financial statements.

PERMITTED INDEMNITY PROVISION

Subject to applicable laws, the Directors shall be indemnified and secured harmless out of the assets and profits for the Company from and against all actions, costs, charges, losses, damages and expenses which they or any of them may incur or sustain by or by reason of any act done, concurred in or omitted in or about the execution of their duty, or supposed duty, in their respective offices, pursuant to the Articles of Association. Such provisions were in force throughout the Year and are currently in force. The Company has arranged for appropriate insurance cover for Directors' liabilities in respect of legal actions that may be brought against the Directors.

Directors' Report

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Details of significant related party transactions undertaken in the normal course of business of the Group for the Year are provided under note 31 to the consolidated financial statements. The transactions were conducted in accordance with terms as agreed between the Group and the respective related parties. The Directors confirm that the related party transactions were conducted on normal commercial terms and on arm's length basis. Such related party transactions constitute continuing connected transaction as defined under the Listing Rules which are fully exempted from the disclosure requirements under Chapter 14A of the Listing Rules.

MATERIAL LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

During the Year, the Company was not involved in any material legal proceeding or arbitration. To the best knowledge of the Directors, there is no material legal proceeding or claim which is pending or threatened against the Company.

USE OF PROCEEDS FROM THE LISTING

Details of the use of net proceeds are set out on page 8 of this Annual Report. The Group held the unutilised net proceeds in short-term deposits with licensed institutions in Singapore and Hong Kong.

REVIEW OF FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Audit Committee has reviewed the accounting principles and practices adopted by the Group with senior management and discussed the auditing, internal control and financial reporting matters, including the review of the audited consolidated financial statements of the Group for the Year. The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the Year have been audited by the Independent Auditor.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The particulars of the principal corporate governance practices of the Company are set out in the Corporate Governance Report on pages 13 to 25 of this Annual Report.

RELIEF OF TAXATION

The Company is not aware of any relief from taxation available to the Shareholders by reason of their holding of the Shares.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR

The consolidated financial statements of the Group for the Year have been audited by Forvis Mazars LLP, who will retire and, being eligible, offer itself for re-appointment at the 2026 AGM. A resolution will be proposed to the Shareholders at the 2026 AGM to re-appoint Forvis Mazars LLP as the Independent Auditor.

OPINION

We have audited the consolidated financial statements of Snack Empire Holdings Limited (the "Company") and its subsidiaries (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Group") set out on pages 75 to 128, which comprise the consolidated statement of financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2026, and the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income, consolidated statement of changes in equity and consolidated statement of cash flows of the Group for the financial year then ended, and notes to the consolidated financial statements, including material accounting policy information.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements give a true and fair view of the consolidated financial position of the Group as at 31 March 2026, and of its consolidated financial performance and its consolidated cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board, and have been properly prepared in compliance with the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance.

BASIS FOR OPINION

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing ("ISA"). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with International Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including International Independence Standards) issued by the International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants ("IESBA Code") as applicable to audits of financial statements of public interest entities, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the IESBA Code. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis of our opinion.

KEY AUDIT MATTERS

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current financial year. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

Key audit matter	Our audit response
Revenue recognition — sales of goods Refer to note 2.4 for the Group's accounting policies on revenue recognition and note 6 for the analysis of revenue of the Group for the financial year ended 31 March 2026. Sales of goods primarily consists of revenue from sales of goods to customers through the Group's self-owned outlets ("Outlet Sales") and to franchisees/licensee ("Franchisees Sales"). We focused on revenue recognition in particular for sales of goods due to its magnitude and the characteristics of the Group's industry nature. The recording of revenue involves high volume of individual transactions derived from sales to multiple customers such that we have incurred significant time and resources in carrying out our work in this area.	Our audit procedures included, and were not limited to, the following: - Tested the design and implementation of the Group's relevant key controls over the revenue recognition; - Performed test of controls, on a samples basis, which included testing the operating effectiveness of key controls over the sales of goods cycle; - Performed analytical procedures, such as analysing the gross profit margins reported by the Group; - Performed test of details and cut-off procedures which included inspection of corresponding delivery documents on a sample basis; and - Reviewed the completeness and appropriateness of corresponding disclosures made in the consolidated financial statements.

Independent Auditor’s Report

Key audit matter	Our audit response
Assessment of impairment of property, plant and equipment As at 31 March 2026, the Group reported property, plant and equipment (“PPE”) of S$21.1 million. The Group recorded a loss for the financial year, which may indicate the existence of impairment indicators for its PPE. IAS 36 Impairment of Assets (“IAS 36”) requires that the management shall assess at each reporting date whether there is any indication that the PPE may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management shall estimate the recoverable amount of the PPE. Due to the significance of the PPE to the consolidated financial statements and the high level of judgement involved in estimating recoverable amounts of the PPE, we determined this to be a key audit matter.	Our audit procedures included, and were not limited to the following: — Reviewed the assessment of existence of internal and external impairment indicators; — Assessed the competence, capabilities and objectivity of the management’s valuation expert and our in-house valuation specialist; — Together with the assistance of our in-house valuation specialist, we reviewed the appropriateness and reasonableness of the methodologies and assumptions used in management’s assessment of the recoverable amount; and — Reviewed disclosures in the financial statements for compliance with the requirements of IAS 36.

Independent Auditor's Report

OTHER INFORMATION

The directors of the Company are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the 2026 annual report, other than the consolidated financial statements and the independent auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed on the other information, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIRECTORS AND THE AUDIT COMMITTEE FOR THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards and the disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, the directors of the Company are responsible for assessing the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors of the Company either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

The Audit Committee is responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. This report is made solely to you, as a body, and for no other purpose. We do not assume responsibility towards or accept liability to any other person for the contents of this report. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISA will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with ISA, we exercise professional judgement and maintain professional scepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.

Independent Auditor's Report

- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the directors.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of the directors' use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Group's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.
- Plan and perform the group audit to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence regarding the financial information of the entities or business units within the Group as a basis for forming an opinion on the group financial statements. We are responsible for the direction, supervision and review of the audit work performed for purposes of the group audit. We remain solely responsible for our audit opinion.

We communicate with the Audit Committee regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide the Audit Committee with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, actions taken to eliminate threats or safeguards applied.

From the matters communicated with the Audit Committee, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

The engagement partner on the audit resulting in this independent auditor's report is Chin Chee Choon.

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

2.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been drawn up in accordance with IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (the “IASB”), which collective term includes all applicable individual IFRS Accounting Standards, IAS Standards and IFRIC Interpretations issued by the IASB and disclosure requirements of the Hong Kong Companies Ordinance Cap. 622. The consolidated financial statements also comply with the applicable disclosure requirements of the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on the Stock Exchange (the “Listing Rules”). The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention.

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS Accounting Standards requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise its judgement in the process of applying the Group’s accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgement or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4. The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the financial years presented, unless otherwise stated.

The individual financial statements of each Group entity is measured and presented in the currency of the primary economic environment in which the entity operates (its functional currency). The consolidated financial statements of the Group and the statement of financial position of the Company is presented in Singapore dollars (“S$”) which is also the functional currency of the Company, and all values presented are rounded to the nearest thousand (“S$’000”), unless otherwise indicated. The consolidated financial statements have been approved for issue by the Board of Directors on 28 July 2026.

2.1.1 New standards adopted

In the current year, the Group has adopted the following amended IFRS Accounting Standards that are mandatory for application for the financial year.

IFRS	Title
Amendments to IAS 21	Lack of Exchangeability

The adoption of these amended IFRS Accounting Standards did not result in substantial changes to the Group’s accounting policies and had no material effect on the amounts reported for the current or prior financial years.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.1 Basis of preparation (Continued)

2.1.2 New standards, interpretations and amendments to standards which are not yet effective

The following are new standards, interpretations and amendments to standards that have been issued but not yet effective.

IFRS	Title	Effective for annual periods beginning on or after
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments	1-Jan-26
Various	Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards — Volume 11	1-Jan-26
Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7	Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity	1-Jan-26
IFRS 18	Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements	1-Jan-27
IFRS 19	Subsidiaries without Public Accountability: Disclosures	1-Jan-27
Amendments to IAS 21	Translation to Hyperinflationary Presentation Currency	1-Jan-27
Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28	Sale or Contribution of Assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture	Effective date to be determined

Consequential amendments were also made to various standards as a result of these new/revised standards.

The Group has not early adopted and does not intend to early adopt any of the above new/revised standards, interpretations and amendments to the existing standards. Management anticipates that the adoption of the aforementioned revised/new standards, with the exception of IFRS 18 Presentation and Disclosure in Financial Statements ("IFRS 18"), will not have a material impact on the financial statements of the Group in the period of their initial adoption.

IFRS 18, effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2027, replaces IAS 1 Presentation of Financial Statements and introduces new requirements for presentation and disclosure in financial statements. IFRS 18 mandates a new structure for the statement of profit or loss and also requires disclosure of newly defined management-defined performance measures, subtotals of income and expenses, and includes new requirements for aggregation and disaggregation of financial information based on the identified 'roles' of the primary financial statements and the notes. As a consequential result of IFRS 18 requirements, all entities are required to use the operating profit subtotal, instead of profit or loss, as the starting point for presenting operating cash flows under the indirect method. The classification of cash flows from dividends and interests in either operating, investing and financing cash flows is also fixed.

IFRS 18 will apply retrospectively. The Group is still in the process of assessing the corresponding impact on the primary financial statements and notes to the financial statements.

2.2 Basis of Consolidation

The financial statements of the Group comprise the financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries. Subsidiaries are entities (including structured entities) (i) over which the Group has power and the Group is (ii) able to use such power to (iii) affect its exposure, or rights, to variable returns from then through its involvement with them.

The Group reassesses whether it controls the subsidiaries if facts and circumstance indicate that there are changes to the one or more of the three elements of control.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.2 Basis of Consolidation (Continued)

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting rights of an investee, it still has power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient, after considering all relevant facts and circumstances, to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Group considers, among others, the extent of its voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders, currently exercisable substantive potential voting rights held by all parties, rights arising from contractual arrangements and voting patterns at previous shareholders' meetings.

Subsidiaries are consolidated from the date on which control is transferred to the Group up to the effective date on which control ceases, as appropriate.

Intra-group assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cashflows relating to intragroup transactions are eliminated on consolidation.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries used in the preparation of the financial statements are prepared for the same reporting date as that of the Company. Where necessary, accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

2.3 Separate financial statements

In the Company's statement of financial position, investments in subsidiaries are accounted for at cost less impairment. Cost includes direct attributable costs of investment. The results of subsidiaries are accounted for by the Company on the basis of dividend received and receivable.

Impairment testing of the investments in subsidiaries is required upon receiving a dividend from these investments if the dividend exceeds the total comprehensive income of the subsidiary in the period the dividend is declared or if the carrying amount of the investment in the separate financial statements exceeds the carrying amount in the consolidated statement of financial position of the investee's net assets including goodwill (if any).

2.4 Revenue recognition

Revenue from contracts with its customers is recognised when or as the Group satisfies a performance obligation by transferring a promised good or service generated in the ordinary course of the Group's activities to its customer, at a transaction price that reflects the consideration the Group expects to be entitled in exchange for the goods or service and that is allocated to that performance obligation. The goods or service is transferred when or as the customer obtains control of the goods or service.

(a) Sales of goods — Food and beverages

Revenue from sale of goods through its corporate-owned outlet is recognised at the point that the control of the products have been transferred, being when the food and beverages have been served. The sales are made in cash terms upon orders are made at the sales counter.

Revenue from sale of goods to franchisees is recognised at the point that the control of the products has been transferred to the customer, being when the products has been acknowledged by the customers' representative at the warehouses. Payment of the transaction price is due immediately when the customer receives the goods from the warehouses.

2.4 Revenue recognition (Continued)

(b) Franchise fee

Franchise/licence fees are collected upfront upon entering into the franchising/licensing arrangement. Franchise/licence fees revenue is recognised on a straight-line basis over the respective franchise/licence terms.

A contract liability is recognised when the Group has obligation to transfer goods or services to the franchisees/licensee for which the Group has received upfront fees from the franchisees/licensee, and the Group records these as deferred revenue in the liability section of the consolidated statement of financial position.

(c) Royalty

Revenue from royalty charged for a franchising arrangement is recognised on an accrual basis at a fixed predetermined percentage of revenue of franchisees' outlets during the respective franchise terms. Payment of the transaction price is due immediately 7 days after each month end.

(d) Advertising and promotion fees

Revenue from advertising and promotion fees collected under a franchising arrangement is recognised when the related advertising and promotion services have been rendered. Any unutilised fees are recorded as deferred revenue for advertising and promotion in the liability section of the consolidated statement of financial position. Collection of advertising and promotion fees for a franchising arrangement is charged at a fixed predetermined percentage of revenue of franchisee's outlets during the respective franchise terms. Payment of the fees is due immediately 7 days after each month end.

A contract liability is recognised when the Group has the obligation to transfer goods or services to the franchisees for which the fees are collected upfront. These upfront fees collected are recorded as deferred revenue in the liability section of the consolidated statement of financial position.

2.5 Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets, which are assets that necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale, are added to the cost of those assets, until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Borrowing costs on general borrowings are capitalised by applying a capitalisation rate to construction or development expenditures that are financed by general borrowings. Investment income earned on the temporary investment of specific borrowings pending their expenditure on qualifying assets is deducted from the borrowing costs eligible for capitalisation.

All other borrowing costs are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which they are incurred.

2.6 Employee benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans

Defined contribution plans are post-employment benefit plans under which the Group pays fixed contributions into separate entities such as the Central Provident Fund, and will have no legal or constructive obligation to pay further contributions if any of the funds do not hold sufficient assets to pay all employee benefits relating to employee services in the current and preceding financial years. The Group's contributions to defined contribution plans are recognised in the financial year to which they relate.

No forfeited contributions (by employers on behalf of employees who leave the scheme prior to vesting fully in such contributions) will be used by the Group to reduce the existing level of contributions.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2.6 Employee benefits (Continued)

(b) Employee leave entitlements

Employee entitlements to annual leave are recognised when they accrue to employees. A provision is made for the estimated liability for annual leave as a result of services rendered by employees up to the end of the financial year.

2.7 Income tax

Income tax expense represents the sum of the tax currently payable and deferred tax.

The tax currently payable is based on taxable profit for the year. Taxable profit differs from profit as reported profit or loss because it excludes items of income or expense that are taxable or deductible in other years and it further excludes items that are not taxable or tax deductible. The Group's liability for current tax is calculated using tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted in the countries where the Group operates by the end of the financial year.

Deferred tax is recognised on the differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the financial statements and the corresponding tax bases used in the computation of taxable profit, and are accounted for using the balance sheet liability method. Deferred tax liabilities are generally recognised for all taxable temporary differences and deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which deductible temporary differences can be utilised. Such assets and liabilities are not recognised if the temporary difference arises from goodwill or from the initial recognition (other than in a business combination) of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that affects neither the taxable profit nor the accounting profit and does not give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised on taxable temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, except where the Group is able to control the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

A deferred income tax asset is recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and tax losses can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets is reviewed at the end of each financial year and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profits will be available to allow all or part of the asset to be recovered.

Deferred tax is calculated at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the liability is settled or the asset realised based on the tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the end of the financial year and based on the tax consequence that will follow from the manner in which the Group expects, at the end of the financial year, to recover or settle the carrying amounts of its assets and liabilities except for the investment properties where investment properties measured at fair value are presented to be recovered entirely through sale.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when they relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority and the Group intends to settle its current tax assets and liabilities on a net basis, or to realise the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously, in each future period in which significant amounts of deferred tax liabilities or assets are expected to be settled or recovered.

2.7 Income tax (Continued)

Current and deferred tax are recognised as an expense or income in profit or loss, except when they relate to items credited or debited directly to equity, in which case the tax is also recognised directly in equity, or where they arise from the initial accounting for a business combination. In the case of a business combination, the tax effect is taken into account in calculating goodwill or determining the excess of the acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the acquiree's identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities over cost.

2.8 Dividends

Equity dividends are recognised as a liability when they become legally payable. Interim dividends are recorded in the financial year in which they are declared payable. Final dividends are recorded in the financial year in which dividends are approved by shareholders. A corresponding amount is recognised in equity.

2.9 Foreign currency transactions and translation

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the individual entities' respective functional currencies at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the transaction. At the end of each financial year, monetary items denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing as of the end of the financial year. Non-monetary items carried at fair value that are denominated in foreign currencies are retranslated at the rates prevailing on the date when the fair value was determined. Non-monetary items that are measured in terms of historical cost in a foreign currency are not retranslated.

Exchange differences arising on the settlement of monetary items, and on retranslation of monetary items are included in profit or loss for the year. Exchange differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items carried at fair value are included in profit or loss for the year except for differences arising on the retranslation of non-monetary items in respect of which gains and losses are recognised directly in equity. For such non-monetary items, any exchange component of that gain or loss is also recognised directly in equity through other comprehensive income.

For the purpose of presenting consolidated financial statements, the assets and liabilities of the Group's foreign operations (including comparatives) are expressed in Singapore dollars using exchange rates prevailing at the end of the financial year. Income and expense items (including comparatives) are translated at the average exchange rates for the period, unless exchange rates fluctuated significantly during that period, in which case the exchange rates at the dates of the transactions are used. Exchange differences arising, if any, are classified as equity and transferred to the Group's translation reserve. Such translation differences are recognised in profit or loss in the period in which the foreign operation is disposed of.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign entities (including monetary items that, in substance, form part of the net investment in foreign entities), and of borrowings and other currency instruments designated as hedges of such investments, are taken to the foreign currency translation reserve.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.10 Property, plant and equipment

All property, plant and equipment are initially recognised at cost and subsequently carried at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any. The cost of plant and equipment includes its purchase price and any costs directly attributable to bringing the asset to the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by management. Dismantlement, removal or restoration costs are included as part of the cost of property, plant and equipment if the obligation for dismantlement, removal or restoration is incurred as a consequence of acquiring or using the property, plant and equipment.

Subsequent expenditure relating to property, plant and equipment that have been recognised is added to the carrying amount of the asset only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the entity and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. All other repair and maintenance expenses are recognised in profit and loss when incurred.

Depreciation is calculated using the straight-line method to allocate depreciable amounts over their estimated useful lives. The estimated useful lives are as follows:

	Useful lives
Properties held for own use	44 to 50 years
Leased retail spaces	Over the remaining lease period
Renovation works	3 to 5 years
Furniture and fittings	3 years
Office equipment	3 years
Kitchen equipment	3 to 5 years
Computers	3 years

For right-of-use assets for which ownership of the underlying asset is not transferred to the Group by the end of the lease term, depreciation is charged over the lease term, using the straight-line method.

The carrying values of property, plant and equipment are reviewed for impairment when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying value may not be recoverable.

The estimated useful lives, residual values and depreciation methods are reviewed, and adjusted as appropriate, at the end of each financial year.

The gain or loss, being the difference between the sales proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset, arising on disposal or retirement of an item of property, plant and equipment is recognised in profit or loss.

Fully depreciated property, plant and equipment are retained in the consolidated financial statements until they are no longer in use.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.11 Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group reviews the carrying amounts of its non-financial assets as at each reporting date to assess for any indication of impairment loss. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss (if any). Where it is not possible to estimate the recoverable amount of an individual asset, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit to which the asset belongs.

The recoverable amount of an asset or cash-generating unit is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

An impairment loss for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset (cash-generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset (cash-generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognised immediately in profit or loss, unless the relevant asset is carried at a revalued amount, in which case the reversal of the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation increase.

2.12 Financial instruments

The Group recognises a financial asset or a financial liability in its statement of financial position when the Group becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Financial assets

Initial recognition and measurement

With the exception of trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group applies a practical expedient, all financial assets are initially measured at fair value, plus transaction costs, except for those financial assets classified as at fair value through profit or loss, which are initially measured at fair value. Such trade receivables that do not contain a significant financing component or for which the Group applies a practical expedient are measured at transaction price as defined in IFRS 15 Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("IFRS15") in Note 2.4.

The classification of the financial assets at initial recognition as subsequently measured at amortised cost depends on the Group's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets.

The Group's business model refers to how the Group manages its financial assets in order to generate cash flows which determines whether cash flows will result from collecting contractual cash flows, selling financial assets or both.

The Group determines whether the asset's contractual cash flows are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding to determine the classification of the financial assets.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Financial assets at amortised cost

A financial asset is subsequently measured at amortised cost if the financial asset is held within a business model whose objective is to hold financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows and the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding. Financial assets at amortised cost include trade and other receivables and cash and cash equivalents.

Subsequent to initial recognition, the financial asset at amortised cost are measured using the effective interest method and is subject to impairment. Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss when the asset is derecognised, modified or impaired.

Interest income from these financial assets is included in finance income using the effective interest method.

Effective interest method

The effective interest method is a method of calculating the amortised cost of a financial instrument and allocating the interest income or expense over the relevant period. The effective interest rate is the rate that exactly discounts estimated future cash receipts or payments (including all fees on points paid or received that form an integral part of the effective interest rate, transaction costs and other premiums or discounts) through the expected life of the financial instrument, or where appropriate, a shorter period, to the gross carrying amount of the financial instrument. Income and expense are recognised on an effective interest basis for debt instruments other than those financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss.

Interest income is accrued on a time basis, by reference to the principal outstanding and at the effective interest rate applicable, and recognised in interests income.

Impairment of financial assets

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses ("ECL") on financial assets measured at amortised cost. At each reporting date, the Group assesses whether the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition by assessing the change in the risk of a default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument. Where the financial asset is determined to have low credit risk at the reporting date, the Group assumes that the credit risk on a financial assets has not increased significantly since initial recognition.

The Group uses reasonable and supportable forward-looking information that is available without undue cost or effort as well as past due information when determining whether credit risk has increased significantly since initial recognition.

Where the credit risk on that financial instrument has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for a financial instrument at an amount equal to the lifetime ECL. Where the credit risk on that financial instrument has not increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group measures the loss allowance for that financial instrument at an amount equal to 12-month ECL.

The Group applies the simplified approach to recognise the ECL for trade receivables, which is to measure the loss allowance at an amount equal to lifetime ECL. As a practical expedient, the Group uses an allowance matrix derived based on historical credit loss experience adjusted for current conditions and forecasts of future economic conditions for measuring ECL.

While they are not financial assets, contract assets arising from the Group's contracts with customers under IFRS 15 are assessed for impairment in accordance with IFRS 9 Financial Instruments ("IFRS9"), similar to that of trade receivables.

The amount of ECL or reversal thereof that is required to adjust the loss allowance at the reporting date to the amount that is required to be recognised is recognised in profit or loss.

The Group directly reduces the gross carrying amount of a financial asset when the entity has no reasonable expectations of recovering a financial asset in its entirety or a portion thereof.

For details on the Group's accounting policy for its impairment of financial assets, refer to Note 3.

Derecognition of financial assets

The Group derecognises a financial asset only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial asset expire, or it transfers the financial asset and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the asset to another entity. If the Group neither transfers nor retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset and continues to control the transferred asset, the Group recognises its retained interest in the asset and an associated liability for amounts it may have to pay. If the Group retains substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of a transferred financial asset, the Group continues to recognise the financial asset and also recognises a collateralised borrowing for the proceeds receivables.

Financial liabilities and equity instruments

Classification as debt or equity

Financial liabilities and equity instruments issued by Group are classified according to the substance of the contractual arrangements entered into and the definitions of a financial liability and an equity instrument.

Equity instruments

An equity instrument is any contract that evidences a residual interest in the assets of the Group after deducting all of its liabilities. Equity instruments are recorded at the proceeds received, net of direct issue costs.

Ordinary share capital

Ordinary share capital is classified as equity. Incremental costs directly attributable to the issue of ordinary shares and share options are recognised as a deduction from equity.

Financial liabilities

Initial recognition and measurement

All financial liabilities are initially measured at fair value, minus transaction costs, except for those financial liabilities classified as at fair value through profit or loss, which are initially measured at fair value.

Financial liabilities are classified as either financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss or other financial liabilities.

Financial liabilities are classified as at fair value through profit or loss if the financial liability is either held for trading or it is designated as such upon initial recognition. Financial liabilities classified as at fair value through profit or loss comprise derivatives that are not designated or do not qualify for hedge accounting.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

Other financial liabilities

Trade and other payables

Trade and other payables are initially measured at fair value, net of transaction costs, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, where applicable, using the effective interest method, with interest expense recognised on an effective yield basis in finance costs. A gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss when the liability is derecognised and through the amortisation process.

Borrowings

Interest-bearing bank loans and overdrafts are initially measured at fair value, and are subsequently measured at amortised cost, using the effective interest method. Any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the settlement or redemption of borrowings is recognised over the term of the borrowings in accordance with the Group's accounting policy for borrowing costs (see Note 2.5 above). A gain or loss is recognised in profit or loss when the liability is derecognised and through the amortisation process.

Derecognition of financial liabilities

The Group derecognises financial liabilities when, and only when, the Group's obligations are discharged, cancelled or they expire.

Offsetting of financial instruments

A financial asset and a financial liability shall be offset, and the net amount presented in the statement of financial position when, and only when, an entity:

- (a) Currently has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and
- (b) Intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.13 Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realisable value. Cost is determined on a first-in, first-out basis, and includes all costs in bringing the inventories to their present location and condition.

Allowance is made for obsolete, slow-moving and defective inventories in arriving at the net realisable value. Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

2.14 Cash and cash equivalents

For the purpose of presentation in the consolidated statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand and deposits with financial institutions which are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value. For cash held for specific use, assessment is made on the economic substance of such use and whether they meet the definition of cash and cash equivalents.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

2 SUMMARY OF MATERIAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES (Continued)

2.15 Leases

At inception of a contract, the Group assessed whether the contract is, or contains, a lease. A contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration.

Where a contract contains more than one lease component, the Group allocates the consideration in the contract to each lease component on the basis of the relative standalone price of the lease component. Where the contract contains non-lease components, the Group applied the practical expedient to not to separate non-lease components from lease components, and instead account for each lease component and any associated non-lease components as a single lease component.

The Group recognises a right-of-use asset and lease liability at the lease commencement date for all lease arrangement for which the Group is the lessee, except for leases which have lease term of 12 months or less and leases of low value assets for which the Group applied the recognition exemption allowed under IFRS 16 Leases. For these leases, the Group recognises the lease payment as an expense on a straight-line basis over the term of the lease.

The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability adjusted for any lease payments made at or before the commencement date, less any lease incentives received, plus any initial direct costs incurred and an estimate of costs to dismantle and remove the underlying asset or to restore the underlying asset or the site on which it is located.

The right-of-use asset is subsequently depreciated using the straight-line method from the commencement date to the end of the lease term. When the lease transfers ownership of the underlying asset to the Group by the end of the lease term or the cost of the right-of-use asset reflects that the Group will exercise a purchase option, the right-of-use asset will be depreciated over the useful life of the underlying asset, which is determined on the same basis as those of property, plant and equipment. The right-of-use asset is also reduced by impairment losses, if any, and adjusted for certain remeasurements of the lease liability, where applicable.

Right-of-use assets are presented within “property, plant and equipment”.

The lease liability is initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that are not paid at the commencement date, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the lessee’s incremental borrowing rate.

The Group generally uses the incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate. To determine the incremental borrowing rate, the Group obtains a reference rate and makes certain adjustments to reflect the terms of the lease and the asset leased.

The lease payments included in the measurement of the lease liability comprise the following:

- fixed payments, including in-substance fixed payments less any lease incentive receivable,
- variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, initially measured using the index or rate as at the commencement date,
- amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee,
- the exercise price under a purchase option that the Group is reasonably certain to exercise, and
- payments of penalties for terminating the lease if the Group is reasonably certain to terminate early and lease payments for an optional renewal period if the Group is reasonably certain to exercise an extension option.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

The lease liability is measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The Group remeasures the lease liability when there is a change in the lease term due to a change in assessment of whether it will exercise a termination or extension or purchase option or due to a change in future lease payment resulting from a change in an index or a rate used to determine those payment.

Where there is a remeasurement of the lease liability, a corresponding adjustment is made to the right-of-use asset or in profit or loss where there is a further reduction in the measurement of the lease liability and the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has been reduced to zero.

Variable lease payments

Variable lease payments that are not based on an index or a rate are not included as part of the measurement and initial recognition of the lease liability. The Group shall recognise those lease payments in profit or loss in the periods that triggered those lease payments. Details of the variable lease payments are disclosed in Note 22.

2.16 Provision

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Present obligations arising from onerous contracts are recognised as provisions.

The Group recognises the estimated costs of dismantlement, removal or restoration of items of plant and equipment arising from the acquisition or use of assets. This provision is estimated based on the best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the obligation, taking into consideration the time value of money.

Changes in the estimated timing or amount of the expenditure or discount rate for asset dismantlement, removal and restoration costs are adjusted against the cost of the related plant and equipment, unless the decrease in the liability exceeds the carrying amount of the asset or the asset has reached the end of its useful life. In such cases, the excess of the decrease over the carrying amount of the asset or the changes in the liability is recognised in the consolidated statement of profit or loss and other comprehensive income immediately.

The directors review the provisions annually and where in their opinion, the provision is inadequate or excessive, due adjustment is made.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as finance costs.

2.17 Government grants

Government grants are recognised when there is reasonable assurance that the grant will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with. Where the grant relates to an expense, the grant is recognised as income in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the related costs, for which the grants are intended to compensate, is expensed.

2.18 Operating segments

For management purposes, operating segments are organised based on their products and services which are independently managed by the respective segment managers responsible for the performance of the respective segments under their charge. The segment managers are directly accountable to the executive directors of the Company, as the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM"), who regularly review the segment results in order to allocate resources to the segments and to assess segment performance.

3 FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

The Group's activities expose it to market risk (including currency risk and interest risk), credit risk and liquidity risk. The Group's overall risk management strategy focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

(a) Market risk

(i) Foreign currency risk

The Group is exposed to foreign currency risk on certain income, expenses, monetary assets, mainly cash and cash equivalents and trade and other receivables that are denominated in currencies other than the functional currencies of the respective entities in the Group. As at the reporting date, the Group do not have significant foreign currency risk exposure except for the financial assets and liabilities denominated in United States dollar ("USD") and the Hong Kong dollar ("HKD").

The carrying amounts of the Group's foreign currency denominated monetary assets and monetary liabilities as at the end of the financial year are as follows:

	USD S$'000	HKD S$'000	Total S$'000
At 31 March 2026

Sensitivity analysis for currency risk

With all other variables being held constant, a 5% (2025: 5%) strengthening/weakening of the United States dollar ("US$" or "USD") and Hong Kong dollar ("HK$" or "HKD") against SGD at the reporting date would have either increased or decreased the Group's net profit after tax and equity by the amounts (nearest thousand) shown below:

The Group

	As at 31 March
	2026	2025
	S$'000	S$'000
USD	68	68
HKD	60	71

(b) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Group's interest rate risk relates to secured borrowings.

The Group's policy is to obtain the most favourable interest rates available without increasing its foreign currency exposure. The Group constantly monitors its interest rate risk and does not utilise forward contracts or other arrangements for trading or speculative purposes. As at the financial year end, there were no such arrangements, interest rate swap contracts or other derivative instruments outstanding.

The following table sets out the carrying amount, by maturity, of the Group's financial instruments, that are exposed to interest rate risk:

Group	Effective interest rate range	2026 $'000	2025 $'000
More than one year — floating rates
Bank loan A	1.0% per annum over the compounded SORA reference rate (2025: 1.0% per annum over the compounded SORA reference rate)	(1,191)	(1,320)
Bank loan B	1-month SORA (2025: Nil%)	(3,535)	—
		(4,726)	(1,320)

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(b) Interest rate risk (Continued)

Interest risk sensitivity analysis

The sensitivity analysis below have been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for active instruments at the consolidated statement of financial position date and the stipulated change taking place at the beginning of the financial year and held constant throughout the reporting periods in the case of instruments that have floating rates. A 100 basis point increase or decrease is used when reporting interest rate risk internally to key management personnel and represents management's assessment of the possible change in interest rates.

If the interest rates had been 1% higher or lower and all other variables were held constant, the Group's profit or loss for the current financial year would increase or decrease by $39,000 (2024: $11,000). This is mainly attributable to the Group's exposure to interest rates on its variable rates secured borrowings.

(c) Credit risk

The Group is exposed to credit risk in relation to its trade and other receivables and cash deposits at banks. The carrying amounts of trade and other receivables and cash deposits at banks represent the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk in relation to financial assets.

The Group expects that there is no significant credit risk associated with cash deposits at banks since they are deposited in medium or large-sized listed banks. Management does not expect that there will be any significant losses from non-performance of these counterparties.

The Group has policies in place to ensure credit sales are made to customers with an appropriate credit history. The credit quality of trade receivables that are neither past due nor further impaired, is being assessed by reference to the reputation, credit history and management judgement about counterparty. The Group does not identify specific concentrations of credit risk with regard to trade receivables, as the amounts recognised represent a large number of receivables from various franchisees.

The Group has monitoring procedures to ensure that follow-up action is taken to recover overdue debts. In addition, the Group reviews these receivables at the end of each reporting period to ensure that adequate impairment losses are made for irrecoverable amounts.

The Group considers the probability of default upon initial recognition of asset and whether there has been a significant increase in credit risk on an ongoing basis throughout each reporting period. To assess whether there is a significant increase in credit risk, the Group compares the risk of a default occurring on the asset as at the reporting date with the risk of default as at the date of initial recognition. It considers available reasonable and supportive forward-looking information. Especially the following indicators are incorporated:

- internal credit rating;
- external credit rating;

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(c) Credit risk (Continued)

- actual or expected significant adverse changes in business, financial or economic conditions that are expected to cause a significant change to the customer's ability to meet its obligations;
- actual or expected significant changes in the operating results of the debtor/customer;
- significant increases in credit risk on other financial instruments of the same customer;
- significant changes in the expected performance and behavior of the customer, including changes in the payment status of customer in the Group and changes in the operating results of the customer.

Credit risk is controlled by the application of credit limit and monitoring procedures. The Group's objective is to seek continual growth while minimising losses incurred due to increased credit risk exposure.

The Group's internal credit risk grading categories are as follows:

Category	Description	Basis of recognising ECL
1	Low credit risk ^{Note 1}	12-month ECL
2	Non-significant increase in credit risks since initial recognition and financial asset is ≤ 30 days past due	12-month ECL
3	Significant increase in credit risk since initial recognition or financial asset is > 30 days past due ^{Note 2}	Lifetime ECL
4	Evidence indicates that financial asset is credit-impaired ^{Note 3}	Difference between financial asset's gross carrying amount and present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate
5	Evidence indicates that the management has no reasonable expectations of recovering the write-off amount ^{Note 4}	Written off

Note 1. Low credit risk

The financial asset is determined to have low credit risk if the financial assets have a low risk of default, the counterparty has a strong capacity to meet its contractual cash flow obligations in the near term and adverse changes in economic and business conditions in the longer term may, but will not necessarily, reduce the ability of the counterparty to fulfil its contractual cash flow obligations. Generally, this is the case when the Group assesses and determines that the debtor has been, is in and is highly likely to be, in the foreseeable future and during the (contractual) term of the financial asset, in a financial position that will allow the debtor to settle the financial asset as and when it falls due.

Note 2. Significant increase in credit risk

In assessing whether the credit risk of the financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition, the Group compares the risk of default occurring on the financial asset as of reporting date with the risk of default occurring on the financial asset as of date of initial recognition, and considered reasonable and supportable information, that is available without undue cost or effort, that is indicative of significant increases in credit risk since initial recognition.

In assessing the significance of the change in the risk of default, the Group considers both past due (i.e. whether it is more than 30 days past due) and forward looking quantitative and qualitative information.

Forward looking information includes the assessment of the latest performance and financial position of the debtor, adjusted for the Group's future outlook of the industry in which the debtor operates based on independently obtained information (e.g. expert reports, analyst's reports etc.) and the most recent news or market talks about the debtor, as applicable. In its assessment, the Group will generally, for example, assess whether the deterioration of the financial performance and/or financial position, adverse change in the economic environment (country and industry in which the debtor operates), deterioration of credit risk of the debtor, etc. is in line with its expectation as of the date of initial recognition of the financial asset. Irrespective of the outcome of the above assessment, the Group presumes that the credit risk on a financial asset has increased significantly since initial recognition when contract payments are >30 days past due, unless the Group has reasonable and supportable information that demonstrates otherwise.

Note 3. Credit-impaired

In determining whether financial assets are credit-impaired, the Group assesses whether one or more events that have a detrimental impact on the estimated future cashflows of the financial asset have occurred. Evidence that a financial asset is credit-impaired includes the following observable data:

- Significant financial difficulty of the debtor;
- Breach of contract, such as a default or being more than 90 days past due;
- It is becoming probable that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation; or
- The disappearance of an active market for the financial asset because of financial difficulties.

Note 4. Write-off

Generally, the Group writes off, partially or fully, the financial asset when it assesses that there is no realistic prospect of recovery of the amount as evidenced by, for example, the debtor's lack of assets or income sources that could generate sufficient cashflows to repay the amounts subjected to the write-off.

The Group performs ongoing credit evaluation of its counterparties' financial condition and generally does not require collateral.

The Group and Company do not have any significant credit exposure to any single counterparty or any groups of counterparties having similar characteristics other than the geographical location of their operations.

Sales to outlet customers are required to be settled in cash or using major credit cards, mitigating credit risk. There are no significant concentrations of credit risk, whether through exposure to individual customers, specific industry sectors and/or regions.

The Group's exposure to credit risk arises primarily from trade receivables.

(c) Credit risk (Continued)

Trade receivables

The Group applies the simplified approach to provide expected credit losses prescribed by IFRS 9, which permits the use of the lifetime expected loss provision for all trade receivables.

In measuring the expected credit losses, trade receivables are grouped based on shared credit risk characteristics and days past due. In calculating the expected credit loss rates, the Group considers historical loss rates for each category of customers and adjusts to reflect current and forward-looking macroeconomic factors affecting the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. The Group has identified the gross domestic product (GDP) and the unemployment rate of the countries in which it sells goods and services to be the most relevant factors, and accordingly adjusts the historical loss rates based on expected changes in these factors.

Trade receivables are written off when there is no reasonable expectation of recovery, such as a debtor failing to engage in a repayment plan with the Group. The Group considers a financial asset as in default if the counterparty fails to make contractual payments within 90 days when they fall due. Where receivables are written off, the Group continues to engage in enforcement activity to attempt to recover the receivables due. Where recoveries are made, these are recognised in profit or loss.

The loss allowance for trade receivables is determined as follows:

	Trade receivables
	Past due more than 1 to 30 days	Past due more than 31 to 60 days	Past due more than 61 to 90 days	Past due more than 90 days	Total
31 March 2026
Expected credit loss rates	0%	0%	0%	62%
Total gross carrying amount (S$'000)	308	68	98	148	622
Loss allowance (S$'000)	—	—	—	92	92 ¹

Total gross carrying amount (S$'000)	231	336	185	105	857

¹ The loss allowance of S$92,000 (2025: S$59,000) is arising from credit impaired trade receivables.

Notes to the Consolidated Financial Statements

(d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity or funding risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Liquidity risk may result from an inability to sell a financial asset quickly at close to its fair value.

The Group manages its liquidity risk by ensuring the availability of funding through its ability to operate profitably and maintaining sufficient cash to enable it to meet its normal operating commitments.

The table below analyses the maturity profile of the Group's financial liabilities based on contractual undiscounted cash flows:

	Effective interest rate	Less than 1 year S$'000	1-2 years S$'000	2-5 years S$'000	Over 5 years S$'000	Total S$'000
As at 31 March 2025
Trade and other payables		2,823	—	—	—	2,823
Borrowings	4.4%	176	1,247	—	—	1,423
Lease liabilities	5.5%	2,473	1,410	639	—	4,522
As at 31 March 2026
Trade and other payables		2,751	—	—	—	2,751
Borrowings	1.7%–2.3%	2,034	1,942	1,259	1,226	6,461
Lease liabilities	5.5%	2,333	1,351	296	—	3,980

(e) Capital management

The Group's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Group's ability to continue as a going concern in order to provide returns for shareholders and benefits for other stakeholders and to maintain an optimal capital structure.

In order to maintain or adjust the capital structure, the Group may adjust the amount of dividends paid to shareholders, return to shareholders or issue new shares.

As at 31 March 2026 and 2025, the Group has undertaken borrowing from an external financial institution and is in compliance with the externally imposed capital requirement of the external borrowing.

(e) Capital management (Continued)

Management monitors capital based on a gearing ratio. The gearing ratio is calculated as total debt divided by total equity. Total debt is calculated as borrowings plus lease liabilities. The gearing ratio of the Group is as follows:

	As at 31 March
	2026	2025
	S$'000	S$'000
Total debt	9,943	5,597
Total equity	22,703	24,132
Gearing ratio	44%	23%

(f) Fair value estimation

The carrying amounts of the Group's current financial assets, including trade receivables, deposits with external parties, other receivables and cash and cash equivalents, and current financial liabilities, including trade payables, accruals, deposits received, other payables and borrowings, approximate their fair values as at reporting date due to their short maturities.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to exercise their judgement in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. It also requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and assumptions. The areas involving higher degree of judgement or complexity or where estimates and assumptions used are significant to the consolidated financial statements are as below.

4.1 Critical judgements made in applying the Group's accounting policies

Determination of the lease term

In determining the lease term, management considers all facts and circumstances that create an economic incentive to exercise an extension option. Extension options are only included in the lease term if the lease is reasonably certain to be extended.

For leases of retail spaces, the following factors are normally the most relevant:

- If it is certain that the Group would extend the option due to favourable fixed lease amount agreed upfront for the extension period;
- If any leasehold improvements are expected to have a significant remaining value; and
- If the Group might incur significant costs and business disruption to replace the leased asset.

Most extension options in retail spaces were not included in the lease liabilities, because the Group does not have significant value of leasehold improvements at each retail outlet and the Group would not incur significant cost or business disruption to replace the right-of-use assets. The lease term is reassessed if an option is actually exercised or the Group becomes obliged to exercise it. The assessment of reasonable certainty is only revised if a significant event or a significant change in circumstances occurs, which affects this assessment, and that is within the control of the lessee.

4 CRITICAL ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES AND JUDGEMENTS (Continued)

4.2 Key sources of estimation uncertainty

Depreciation of property, plant and equipment

The Group depreciates the property, plant and equipment over their estimated useful lives after taking into account of their estimated residual values. The estimated useful life reflects management's estimate of the period that the Group intends to derive future economic benefits from the use of the Group's property, plant and equipment. The residual value reflects management's estimated amount that the Group would currently obtain from the disposal of the asset, after deducting the estimated costs of disposal, as if the asset may already of the age and in the condition expected at the end of its useful life. Changes in the expected level of usage and technological developments could affect the economic useful lives and the residual values of these assets which could then consequentially impact future depreciation charges. The carrying amount of the Group's property, plant and equipment at 31 March 2026 is disclosed in Note 14 to the consolidated financial statements.

Calculation of loss allowance for trade receivables

The Group uses an allowance matrix to measure ECL for trade receivables. The ECL rates are based on the Group's historical loss rates for each category of customers and adjusts to reflect current and forward-looking macroeconomic factors, specific to the receivables and the economic environment which could affect the ability of the customers to settle the receivables. In considering the impact of the economic environment on the ECL rates, the Group assesses, for example, the GDP growth rates and the unemployment rate of the countries in which it sells goods and services to be the most relevant factors. The Group adjusts the allowance matrix at each reporting date. Such estimation of the ECL rates may not be representative of the actual default in the future. The expected loss allowance on the Group's trade receivables as at 31 March 2026 is disclosed in Note 16 to the consolidated financial statements.

Provision for income taxes

The Group has exposure to income taxes in several jurisdictions of which a portion of these taxes arose from certain transactions and computations for which ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Group recognises liabilities of expected tax issues based on their best estimates of the most likely taxes due. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recognised, such differences will impact the income tax and deferred tax positions in the period in which such determination is made. The carrying amount of the Group's current tax payables as at 31 March 2026 is S$Nil (2025: S$34,000).

Incremental borrowing rate

Where the interest rate implicit in a lease cannot be readily determined, an incremental borrowing rate is estimated to discount future lease payments to measure the present value of the lease liability at the lease commencement date. Such a rate is based on what the consolidated entity estimates it would have to pay a third party to borrow the funds necessary to obtain an asset of a similar value to the right-of-use asset, with similar terms, security and economic environment.

Impairment of investments in subsidiaries

At the end of each financial year, an assessment is made on whether there are indicators that the Company's investments in subsidiaries are impaired. Where applicable, the Company's assessments are based on the estimation of the value-in-use of the assets defined in IAS 36 Impairment of Assets by forecasting the expected future cash flows for a period of up to 5 years, using a suitable discount rate in order to calculate the present value of those cash flows. The Company's carrying amount of investments in subsidiaries as at 31 March 2026 was approximately S$20,504,000 (2025: S$20,504,000).

Impairment of property, plant and equipment

Property, plant and equipment are assessed at the end of each financial year to ascertain whether there is an indication of impairment, if such indications are found, the recoverable amounts of the assets are estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment loss, if any. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. Such impairment loss is recognised in profit or loss.

Management judgement is required in the area of asset impairment, particularly in assessing (i) whether an event has occurred that may indicate that the related asset values may not be recoverable; (ii) whether the carrying value of an asset can be supported by the fair value less costs of disposal or the net present value of future cash flows which are estimated based upon the continuing use of the asset in the business; and (iii) the appropriate key assumptions to be applied in estimating the recoverable amount, including the assumptions used in determining fair value less costs of disposal or in preparing the cash flow projections for the value-in-use calculation, and the discount rate applied to those cash flows. Changing the assumptions selected by management to determine the level of impairment, could materially affect the net present value used in the impairment test and as a result may potentially affect the Group's results. The carrying amount of the Group's property, plant and equipment as at 31 March 2026 was S$21,128,000 (2025: S$10,802,000).

5 SEGMENT INFORMATION

The executive directors of the Company, who are the CODM, monitor the operating results of its operating segments for the purpose of making decisions about resource allocation and performance assessment. The executive directors of the Company consider all businesses to be included in a single operating segment. Information reported to the executive directors of the Company, for the purpose of resources allocation and performance assessment, focuses on the operating results of the Group as a whole as the Group's resources are integrated.

The Group is principally engaged in the provision of food catering services through a chain of Taiwan-style Outlets and Restaurants and Korean-style Outlets for Eat Pizza brand. 12 INCOME TAX EXPENSE

Tax has been provided at the applicable tax rate on the estimated assessable profit during the financial year.

The amount of income tax expense charged to the consolidated statement of profit or loss represents:

	Year ended 31 March
	2026	2025
	S$'000	S$'000
Current tax expense
Current financial year	347	516
Under/(Over) provision in prior financial years	119	(159)
	466	357
Deferred tax expense (Note 21)
Origination and reversal of temporary differences	1	2
	467	359

Taxation has been provided at the appropriate rates in the countries in which the Group operates. The Group is not subject to any taxation in the Cayman Islands and the British Virgin Islands. Singapore Corporate income tax has been provided at 17% (2025: 17%) of the estimated profit during the financial year. The applicable income tax rate for the Group's entities in Malaysia was 24% (2025: 24%) during the financial year.

12 INCOME TAX EXPENSE (Continued)

The tax on the Group's loss before income tax differs from the theoretical amount that would arise using the tax rate of Singapore as follows:

	Year ended 31 March
	2026	2025
	S$'000	S$'000
Loss before tax	(1,424)	(124)
Tax calculated at rate of 17%	(242)	(21)
Tax effects of:
— Different tax rates in different jurisdictions	67	146
— Deferred tax assets not recognised	398	318
— Utilisation of deferred tax assets not recognised in prior years	(37)	(57)
— Expenses not deductible for tax purposes	218	186
— Tax concessions	(56)	(54)
— Under/(Over) provision of tax in respect of prior years	119	(159)
Income tax expense	467	359

(a) The following deductible temporary difference has not been recognised:

	As at 31 March
	2026	2025
	S$'000	S$'000
Tax losses	3,994	1,871

The tax losses are subject to agreement by tax authorities and compliance with tax regulations in the respective countries in which the Company and certain subsidiaries operate. Deferred tax assets have not been recognised in respect of the tax losses due to uncertainty in the availability of future taxable profit against which the Group can utilise the tax losses. The unutilised tax losses have no expiry date.

13 LOSS PER SHARE

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss attributable to equity holders of the Company by the weighted average number of ordinary shares in issue during the year.

	Year ended 31 March
	2026	2025
Net loss attributable to equity holders of the Company (S$'000)	(1,891)	(483)
Weighted average number of ordinary shares outstanding for basic earnings per share ('000)	800,000	800,000
Basic loss per share (Singapore cents per share)	(0.24)	(0.06)

Diluted loss per share is the same as the basic loss per share as there were no potential dilutive ordinary shares outstanding for the years ended 31 March 2026 and 2025.

Right-of-use assets acquired under leasing arrangements are presented together with the owned assets of the same class. Details of such leased assets are disclosed in Note 22(a).

Bank borrowings as at financial year end with carrying amount of S$6,160,000 (2025: S$1,320,000) are secured on the properties held for own use by the Group with carrying values of approximately S$13,826,000 (2025: S$2,914,000).

During the financial year, there were indicators that the impairment loss may need to be recognised for the Group's property, plant and equipment, due to the loss making position during the year. The Group carried out a review of the recoverable amounts of its property, plant and equipment. The recoverable amount was estimated based on the value-in-use model.

The key assumptions underlying the Group's impairment assessment of its property, plant and equipment are:

- Cash flow projections covering a 5-year period; and
- Cash flow beyond the 5-year period were extrapolated using an estimated long-term growth rate which did not exceed the long-term average growth rate of the country in which the CGU are located.

The significant inputs are set out in the table as follows:

	2026 %
Average revenue growth rate	7.00
Terminal growth rate	2.00
Discount rate	10.26

Based on the impairment assessment performed, the recoverable amounts of the relevant property, plant and equipment exceeded their carrying amounts. Accordingly, no impairment loss was recognised during the financial year.

15 INVENTORIES

The cost of inventories included in cost of sales in the consolidated financial statements amounted to approximately S$12,105,000 (2025: S$10,884,000).

Foreign currency translation reserve	116	(346)
Capital reserves	261	261
Retained earnings	10,023	11,914
	10,400	11,829

Foreign currency translation reserve arises from the translation of the financial statements of foreign entities whose functional currencies are different from the functional currency of the Company.

Capital reserves comprise the combined capital of the operating companies prior to the completion of the reorganisation of the Group in 2019 and the differences between total consideration paid to the Controlling Shareholders from the restructuring of certain operating companies within the Group in the previous financial years and the cost of investment in those operating companies. Capital reserves are non-distributable.

(d) Total cash outflow for the leases during the Year was S$4,013,000 (2025: S$3,625,000).

(e) Addition of right-of-use assets during the Year was S$2,267,000 (2025: S$3,177,000).

(f) Future cash outflow which are not capitalised in lease liabilities

i. Variable lease payments

The leases for retail spaces contain variable lease payments that are based on a percentage of sales generated by the stores ranging from 0.5% to 2.0%, on top of fixed payments. The Group negotiates variable lease payments for a variety of reasons, including minimising the fixed costs base for newly established stores. Such variable lease payments are recognised to profit or loss when incurred and amounted to approximately S$234,000 (2025: S$213,000) (Note 22(c)).

ii. Extension options

The leases for certain retail spaces and equipment contain extension periods, for which the related lease payments had not been included in lease liabilities as the Group is not reasonably certain to exercise these extension options. The Group negotiates extension options to optimise operational flexibility in terms of managing the assets used in the Group's operations. The majority of the extension options are exercisable by the Group and not by the lessor.

iii. short term lease commitments

As at 31 March 2026, the Group had commitments under short-term leases of S$216,342 (2025: S$263,944), relating to leases for which the short-term lease exemption has been applied.

(g) Depreciation of right-of-use assets during the Year was approximately S$2,775,000 (2025: S$2,384,000) (Note 14).
