- a Sub-fund of MicroBit Funds Series (Hong Kong) ETF OFC

Introduction

MicroBit Bitcoin Spot ETF (the "Sub-Fund") is a sub-fund of MicroBit Funds Series (Hong Kong) ETF OFC, a public umbrella open-ended fund company established under Hong Kong laws with variable capital with limited liability and segregated liability between sub-funds. The Sub-Fund is a passively managed exchange-traded fund falling within Chapter 8.6 of the Code on Unit Trusts and Mutual Funds issued by the Securities and Futures Commission. Units of the Sub-Fund are traded on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (the "SEHK") like stocks. The Sub-Fund's HKD counter (stock code: 03430), and USD counter (stock code: 09430) commenced trading on the SEHK on 21 August 2025. The Sub-Fund is an index-tracking fund that seeks to track the performance of the CME CF Bitcoin Reference Rate (APAC Variant) (the "Index").

The Sub-Fund may invest up to 100% of its assets in bitcoin. Transactions of bitcoin by the Sub-Fund will be conducted through Securities and Futures Commission - licensed virtual asset trading platforms. Bitcoin operates without central authority (such as a bank) and is not backed by any government. Bitcoin is a Virtual Asset created and transmitted through the operations of a peer-to-peer network of computers that operates on cryptographic protocols, namely the Bitcoin Network. No single entity owns or operates the Bitcoin Network, the infrastructure of which is collectively maintained by its user base. Tokens of value, called bitcoin, are exchanged on the Bitcoin Network. Such transactions are recorded on a public transaction ledger known as the Bitcoin Blockchain. The value of bitcoin is determined by the demand for and supply of bitcoin on Virtual Asset's trading platforms or in private end-user-to-end-user transactions.

Performance of the Sub-Fund

The investment objective is to provide investment results that, before fees and expenses, closely correspond to the performance of bitcoin, as measured by the performance of the Index. There is no assurance that the Sub-Fund will achieve its investment objective.
