Pursuant to the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國企業所得稅法》) and the Implementation Rules of the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China (《中華人民共和國企業所得稅法實施條例》) which came into effect on 1 January 2008, a non-resident enterprise is subject to a 10% enterprise income tax on PRC-sourced income, if it does not have an establishment or place of business in the PRC, or has an establishment or place of business but the dividends and bonuses received have no actual connection with such establishment or place of business. Such withholding tax may be reduced or exempted pursuant to an applicable double taxation avoidance treaty. Any H Shares registered in the name of non-individual shareholders, including HKSCC Nominees Limited, other nominees or trustees, other organizations or groups, shall be deemed as Shares held by non-resident enterprise Shareholders. As the Company is unable to identify the identity of the ultimate beneficial owners of the H Shareholders, the Company will distribute the dividend to such accounts after withholding enterprise income tax at the rate of 10% applicable to non-resident enterprises. In the event that their ultimate beneficial owners are not non-resident enterprises, they may, in accordance with the relevant PRC tax regulations, apply for a tax refund from the competent tax authorities by themselves with the supporting documents.

For dividend and bonus income received by domestic enterprise investors from investing in shares listed on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange through Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect or Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect, the H-share companies shall not withhold income tax on dividends and bonuses, and the enterprises shall report and pay the income tax themselves.

For the non-resident enterprise Shareholders, pursuant to the provisions of the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China amended in 2018 and the Implementation Rules of the Enterprise Income Tax Law of the People's Republic of China amended in December 2024 and implemented in January 2025 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Enterprise Income Tax Law" (《企業所得稅法》)) and other relevant laws and regulations, from 1 January 2008, where a PRC domestic enterprise distributes dividends to non-resident enterprise shareholders (i.e. legal person shareholders) for accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2008, the enterprise income tax shall be withheld and paid by the payer as the withholding agent. Therefore, the Company is required to withhold and pay 10% enterprise income tax when it distributes the final dividend to non-resident enterprise holders of H Shares whose names appear on the register of members of the Company on the record date. In respect of all H Shareholders whose names appear on the H Share register of members as at the record date who are not registered as individuals (including HKSCC Nominees Limited, other corporate nominees or trustees, and other entities or organisations, which are all considered as non-resident enterprise shareholders), the Company will temporarily distribute the dividend to such accounts after withholding enterprise income tax at the rate of 10% applicable to non-resident enterprises, as the Company is unable to identify the identity of the ultimate beneficial owners of the H Shareholders. In the event that their ultimate beneficial owners are not non-resident enterprises, they may, in accordance with the relevant PRC tax regulations, apply for a tax refund from the competent tax authorities by themselves with the supporting documents.

Shareholders shall pay relevant taxes and/or enjoy tax relief in accordance with the above provisions. Shareholders are recommended to consult their tax advisors regarding the tax impacts for holding and disposal of H Shares.
