VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT

This announcement is made by China Renaissance Holdings Limited (the “Company”, together with its subsidiaries, the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

The Company is pleased to announce that CRP-Fanya Investment Consultants (Beijing) Limited (“CRP-Fanya”), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, acting as the exclusive financial adviser of this transaction, has successfully advised AlphaPai, an artificial intelligence application focused on the financial sector, on its latest round of Series B financing.

This round of financing received support from multiple types of investors, including insurance investment institutions, securities-affiliated investment institutions, industrial investors and top-tier venture capital firms, alongside continued support from existing shareholders. Following this round of financing, AlphaPai will continue to increase its R&D investment in models and products, expand its client base across multiple asset classes, deepen collaboration across the industry value chain, and steadily advance its international expansion while continuing to deepen its presence in the domestic market.

AlphaPai is developed by Rabyte Technology, an AI-native financial technology company. AlphaPai initially focused on high-frequency use cases such as meetings and information processing, and has gradually expanded into core investment research workflows including research, analysis and knowledge management. According to its public disclosure, AlphaPai currently serves more than 120,000 professional users across more than 8,000 financial institutions and asset managers.

This engagement of CRP-Fanya as the exclusive financial adviser underscores the Group’s strong capabilities in financial advisory services in the AI and fintech sectors, as well as its extensive client base across the financial and AI value chains. It also reflects the Group’s continued commitment and credibility in supporting innovative enterprises in achieving their strategic and financial objectives. The Group is honored to have assisted AlphaPai in completing this round of financing and remains confident in its long-term prospects in financial AI and the global financial services market.
