VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT UPDATE ON NEW ENFORCEMENT PROCEEDINGS

This announcement is made by Huajin International Holdings Limited (the "Company"; together with its subsidiaries, collectively the "Group") on a voluntary basis. During its routine review of judicial records in the People's Republic of China (the "PRC"), the Group identified two new enforcement proceedings.

DETAILS OF THE CASES

Case 1 – Dongguan Haoshun Precision Technology (Sales-contract dispute)

The sole judgment debtor is Jiangmen Huajin Metal Product Company Limited, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Group (the "Jiangmen Huajin Metal"). The amount involved in the enforcement proceedings is approximately RMB6.39 million, including enforcement fees. Jiangmen Huajin Metal has received the relevant enforcement documents and a property reporting order, and is required to comply with the applicable statutory obligations, including the disclosure of its assets. Failure to comply with, refusal to comply with, or the making of a false declaration pursuant to, the property reporting order may result in enforcement measures, including the seizure or freezing of assets, fines and other measures prescribed by applicable laws and regulations.

Case 2 – Knowledge City (Guangzhou) Financial Leasing (Financial-lease dispute)

The judgment debtors are four wholly-owned Group subsidiaries (Jiangmen Huajin Metal Product Company Limited, Guangdong Huajin Industrial Company Limited, Jiangmen Huamu Metals Company Limited, Jiangmen Huajin Metal Trading Market Company Limited), together with Mr. Xu Songqing (Chairman and Executive Director) and Mr. Chen Chunniu (Chief Executive Officer and Executive Director), who are jointly and severally liable in their capacities as guarantors. The amount involved in the enforcement proceedings is approximately RMB19.98 million, including enforcement fees. The creditor holds a priority right of satisfaction over the relevant leased assets and mortgaged equipment.

Both cases are currently at the stage of enforcement supervision. All judgment debtors have received the relevant enforcement documents and property reporting orders, and are required to submit declarations of their assets in accordance with the applicable requirements. Failure to comply with the relevant obligations may result in enforcement measures, including the seizure or freezing of assets, restrictions on high consumption, inclusion in the list of dishonest judgment debtors and other compulsory measures under applicable laws and regulations.

The aggregate amount involved in the two cases is approximately RMB26.37 million, excluding interest for delayed performance and other litigation-related costs.

The Group is verifying the relevant case information and has incorporated the relevant obligations into its overall debt restructuring framework. It is actively negotiating settlement arrangements with creditors. Senior management, together with external legal counsel, is handling relevant legal matters. The details of the negotiations in respect of individual cases are commercially sensitive and will not be disclosed at this stage. The Group will continue to monitor the developments of the cases and will make further announcements as and when appropriate in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and other applicable laws and regulations.

The Board confirms that Mr. Xu Songqing and Mr. Chen Chunniu are involved in these enforcement proceedings solely in their capacities as guarantors in connection with ordinary commercial transactions of the Group's subsidiaries. The relevant liabilities do not arise from their personal, non-business indebtedness. Based on the information currently available to the Board, the Board is not aware of any personal misconduct, fraud or criminal conduct on the part of Mr. Xu Songqing or Mr. Chen Chunniu in connection with the enforcement proceedings.

As at the date of this announcement, the Group remains operational, although these enforcement proceedings may have an adverse impact on certain subsidiaries. The Board is of the preliminary view that the enforcement proceedings do not affect the suitability of Mr. Xu Songqing and Mr. Chen Chunniu to continue to discharge their duties as Directors. The Board will continue to assess the relevant circumstances and will make further announcements as and when appropriate should there be any material development.

Shareholders and potential investors are advised to exercise caution when dealing in the securities of the Company.
