VOLUNTARY ANNOUNCEMENT
UPDATE ON PATENT INFRINGEMENT LAWSUITS
INVOLVING HESAI TECHNOLOGY

This announcement is published by Seyond Holdings Ltd. (the “Company”) and its subsidiaries (collectively the “Group”) on a voluntary basis.

Reference is made to the Company’s announcements dated December 18, 2025 and July 14, 2026 in relation to the patent infringement lawsuits filed by Hesai Technology Co., Ltd. (上海禾賽科技有限公司) and its affiliates (collectively, “Hesai Technology”) against certain members of the Group with the Hangzhou Intermediate People’s Court of Zhejiang Province (the “Hangzhou Intermediate Court”). The Company hereby announces the latest developments in the above lawsuits as follows.

I. BASIC INFORMATION ON THE LAWSUITS

As of the date of this announcement, Hesai Technology and its affiliates have filed a total of two patent infringement lawsuits against certain members of the Group with the Hangzhou Intermediate Court, all of which have recently been concluded at first instance by the Hangzhou Intermediate Court. All of these cases were voluntarily withdrawn upon application by the plaintiffs after the patents at issue were invalidated in their entirety, and the Hangzhou Intermediate People’s Court has issued rulings granting permission to withdraw the lawsuits for the two cases. The current status of each case is set out below:

- (I) The first case: (case number: (2025) Zhe 01 Zhi Min Chu No. 136; patentee: Hesai Technology Co., Ltd.; patent number: ZL201810704708.3; patent title: “Optical Transmission Module, Laser Emission Module, LiDAR System and Vehicle”). In respect of the patent at issue in this case, the China National Intellectual Property Administration (“CNIPA”) recently issued Examination Decision No. 661151 on the Request for Invalidation, declaring the patent at issue invalid in its entirety. In this case, given that the patent at issue had been invalidated in its entirety, the plaintiff filed an application with the Hangzhou Intermediate Court to withdraw the action on September 14, 2026. On the following day, the Hangzhou Intermediate Court issued the civil ruling under (2025) Zhe 01 Zhi Min Chu No. 136, permitting Hesai Technology Co., Ltd. to withdraw the action.

- (II) The second case: (case number: (2025) Zhe 01 Min Chu No. 3390; patentee: Hesai Technology Co., Ltd.; patent number: ZL201821017496.3; patent title: “LiDAR System”). In respect of the patent issue in this case, CNIPA recently issued Examination Decision No. 662417 on the Request for Invalidation, declaring the patent at issue invalid in its entirety. In this case, given that the patent at issue had been invalidated in its entirety, the plaintiff filed an application with the Hangzhou Intermediate Court to withdraw the action on September 11, 2026. On September 18, 2026, the Hangzhou Intermediate Court issued the civil ruling under (2025) Zhe 01 Min Chu No. 3390, permitting Hesai Technology Co., Ltd. to withdraw the action.

II. EFFECT OF THE JUDGMENT

The Hangzhou Intermediate Court has issued and served the rulings permitting the withdrawal of the actions in the above two cases, and the relevant litigation proceedings have been concluded.

III. PATENT INVALIDATION PROCEEDINGS

The patents at issue in the above two cases have each been declared invalid in their entirety by CNIPA. In accordance with the relevant provisions of the Patent Law of the People’s Republic of China, a patent right that has been declared invalid shall be deemed never to have existed from the outset.

IV. IMPACT OF THE LAWSUITS ON THE COMPANY

Taking into account that the Hangzhou Intermediate Court has issued and served the rulings permitting the withdrawal of the actions in the above two cases and that the relevant litigation proceedings have been concluded, the Board, based on the information currently available as of the date of this announcement, considers that the above litigation, taken as a whole, will not have any material adverse effect on the Group's business operations, financial condition or prospects for development.

The Company will closely monitor the subsequent progress of the above litigation and will, in accordance with the Rules Governing the Listing of Securities on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited and applicable laws, make further announcements in a timely manner as necessary.
