Management Discussion and Analysis

MARKET OVERVIEW

In the first half of 2026, under the dual pressures of slowing macroeconomic growth and insufficient consumer confidence, the overall market scale of the PRC automobile industry retreated, but the penetration rate of new energy vehicles continued to climb and the export market grew explosively, making the characteristics of the industry's structural transformation increasingly distinctive. According to data from the China Association of Automobile Manufacturers (CAAM), the cumulative automobile production volume in the first half of 2026 was 14.993 million units, and the sales volume was 15.017 million units, representing a year-on-year decrease of 4.0% and 4.1%, respectively, with the decline continuing to narrow compared to the previous five months. However, the domestic market performance was much weaker than the level indicated by the aggregate data – domestic automobile sales volume in the first half of the year was only 9.921 million units, representing a significant year-on-year decrease of 21.1%. According to statistics from the China Passenger Car Association (CPCA), the cumulative retail sales volume of passenger vehicles in the first half of the year was 8.701 million units, representing a year-on-year decrease of 20.2%, with the average daily sales volume decreasing by approximately 12,000 units compared to the same period last year. Terminal demand shrank significantly, and the retail sales of automobile commodities decreased by 11.8% year-on-year, making it the category with the largest decline among retail sales of consumer goods above designated size. The market showed a trend of pressure on the total volume and weakening domestic demand.

Against the backdrop of weak domestic demand, the export market has become an important increment supporting the scale of the industry. In June, automobile export volume reached 1.037 million units, representing a month-on-month increase of 11.6% and a year-on-year increase of 75.1%, marking the first time that single-month exports exceeded one million units. Total automobile export volume in the first half of the year was 5.096 million units, a year-on-year increase of 65.3%. Among them, the export volume of new energy vehicles was 2.355 million units, a year-on-year increase of 120%.

In the first half of the year, the penetration rate of new energy vehicles continued to rise, and their dominant position in the market was further consolidated. The production volume of new energy vehicles in the first half of the year was 7.438 million units, and the sales volume was 7.446 million units, representing a year-on-year increase of 6.7% and 7.3%, respectively, with the sales volume accounting for 49.6% of total new car sales. The penetration rate of new energy vehicles climbed from 39% in January to 63% in June, staying firmly above 60% for three consecutive months. In June, the retail penetration rate of new energy vehicles reached 62.9%. In terms of power type, battery electric vehicles have surpassed internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles since the second quarter, becoming the primary powertrain in the PRC passenger vehicle market. The structural substitution trend of “electricity replacing oil” continued to deepen.

Industry profitability was under pressure, and the restructuring of the landscape accelerated. In the first half of 2026, the revenue of the automobile industry was RMB5,189.3 billion, representing a year-on-year increase of 1.8%, but the profit was only RMB195.4 billion, a year-on-year decrease of 20%, and the industry profit margin was a mere 3.8%. High raw material costs and intensified terminal price competition caused the profitability of automobile enterprises to be generally under pressure, further aggravating performance polarization.

Management Discussion and Analysis

With the accelerated commercial implementation of AIGC technology, automobile marketing is undergoing a profound transformation from being “labour-intensive” to “intelligence-driven”. The market size of the PRC AI marketing SaaS/Agent market was RMB47.1 billion in 2025 and is expected to reach RMB63.6 billion in 2026, a year-on-year increase of 35%. In the automotive vertical field, AIGC technology is redefining the cost structure and communication efficiency of content production. Industry pain points such as long production cycles of traditional content, high costs, and low distribution efficiency urgently need to be resolved, which has brought new growth opportunities for digital marketing service providers in the automotive sector.

GROUP OVERVIEW

The Group was established in September 2015 and was listed on the Main Board of the Stock Exchange in January 2021. The Group has consistently focused on the automotive vertical field and has become a leading automotive information and digital marketing service provider in the PRC, committed to providing high-quality full-scenario marketing solutions for its automotive industry chain business partners and end users through the trinity model of “content + technology + ecosystem”.

The Group builds an omni-domain content ecosystem, and by relying on original professional information, the deepening of the content matrix, and precise distribution capabilities driven by intelligent algorithms, continues to attract high-value user traffic, enabling customers such as OEMs and distributors to achieve the integration of brand and performance in advertising reach, thus consolidating the Group’s market position in the automotive vertical media advertising industry.

Facing a market environment in the first half of 2026 where overall industry volume was under pressure yet structural opportunities became prominent, the Group focused on three core tracks, namely “technological empowerment, ecosystem extension, and efficiency improvement”, to accelerate the advancement of its core strategic layout:

- (1) Upgrading content and marketing driven by AI technology: Increasing the application of AI-assisted content production, intelligent recommendation algorithms, and precision marketing tools to enhance content production efficiency and advertising conversion effectiveness, thereby assisting customers in achieving higher marketing cost-effectiveness amidst intensified industry competition;
- (2) Deepening content ecosystem and unleashing user value: Expanding short-video, live-streaming, and new energy vertical content to create immersive consumer decision-making scenarios, thereby strengthening the retention and monetization of high-value users; and
- (3) Empowering the industry chain with digital services: Utilizing SaaS tools and data services to deeply connect downstream clients and end consumers, thereby supporting partners in boosting operational efficiency and creating differentiated value in an environment where industry profits are under pressure.

The Group will continue to grasp industry opportunities such as the rising penetration rate of new energy vehicles, the expansion of the export market, and the explosion of AIGC marketing, accelerate its upgrade to an intelligent marketing service platform for the automobile industry, and seize growth opportunities in the era of intelligent mobility through technological breakthroughs and ecosystem synergies.

BUSINESS OVERVIEW

For the six months ended June 30, 2026, the Group's revenue was approximately RMB68.7 million, an increase of approximately 3.5% compared to approximately RMB66.4 million for the same period in 2025. Of which, for the six months ended June 30, 2026, the Group's online advertising service revenue was approximately RMB57.8 million, a decrease of approximately 10.4% compared to approximately RMB64.5 million for the same period in 2025.

Gross profit for the six months ended June 30, 2026 was approximately RMB44.7 million, an increase of approximately 2.2% compared to approximately RMB43.7 million for the same period in 2025. For the six months ended June 30, 2026, our Group recorded a profit of approximately RMB17.0 million, mainly due to a decrease in marketing expenses and administrative expenses.

Significant milestones in our Group's business for the six months ended June 30, 2026 are set out below:

(1) Continuously building full-domain content ecosystem barriers

In 2026, our Group continuously deepened the "technology + content" dual-engine strategy. Our Group built a full-domain content system covering professional evaluations, new vehicle resources, user co-creation and short video matrices, relied on intelligent distribution to achieve "one creation, thousands of domain reach", and scaled up its content layout in new energy vehicles and lower-tier markets. Through increasing investments in self-media and short video strategies, it focused on new energy vehicle models and lower-tier markets. Through the upgrade of the full-scene content matrix, our Group formed a three-dimensional content ecology with original professional content as the core, user co-created content as the supplement, and self-media short videos and live broadcast content as the growth points. As of June 30, 2026, our Group's content covered its proprietary platforms and over 1,000 partners, achieving high-value traffic aggregation relying on original content and intelligent algorithms.

(2) Reshaping the intelligent marketing service ecosystem with AI technology application

Our Group's self-developed AIGC product "AI X" was fully put into operation, providing three core capabilities: diversified content generation, intelligent distribution and accurate control efficiency, and data closed-loop empowerment, to offer an end-to-end AI-powered marketing solution for the automotive industry spanning from creativity to production, distribution, and conversion. Facing the decline in industry profits and customers' urgent needs for cost reduction and efficiency enhancement, AI-driven advertising matching and intelligent deployment tools continued to iterate, effectively improving advertising conversion efficiency and helping customers cope with market challenges. Our Group will continue to increase investments in AI R&D and content ecology construction, seizing the growth opportunities in intelligent marketing through technological innovation.

OUTLOOK

In the second half of 2026, our Group will continue to deepen the dual-engine model of “technology + content” with the core strategy of “Powered by AI and full-spectrum ecosystem leap”. Against the backdrop of accelerated intelligent transformation of the automotive industry and the continuously increasing penetration rate of new energy, our Group will focus on the following three dimensions to advance business development:

(1) Consolidating vertical media ecosystem leadership

Based on the “AI X” intelligent engine, our Group will continuously improve the three-dimensional content matrix of “professional evaluation + user co-creation + AI-assisted creation” to empower we-media creators to generate diversified content with one click, and improve production efficiency. At the same time, we will deepen data interoperability with platforms such as Douyin, Kuaishou and Xiaohongshu, and realize the full-link automation of “content – distribution – conversion”, further expanding the breadth and depth of user coverage.

(2) Strengthening the AI-native strategic base

Our Group will take generative AI as the core engine, and promote the upgrading of the technology architecture from tool empowerment to a decision center and ecological collaboration. We will continuously improve the three core modules of intelligent creation, intelligent distribution and intelligent attribution, deepen customized AI tool chain development and vertical industry solutions, strengthen core client engagement, and reshape the automotive marketing value chain.

(3) Seeking industry chain investment and strategic cooperation opportunities

Our Group will, centering on the intelligence and ecological transformation trends of the automotive industry, actively build a “technology-scenario-data” closed loop through strategic cooperation, ecological mergers and acquisitions, and industry chain investment. Target selection will focus on three dimensions: technological synergy, scenario entry value, and financial soundness, with a view to forming synergistic effects with existing businesses and broadening our Group’s business boundaries.

Notes to Interim Condensed Consolidated Financial Information

June 30, 2026

1. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The interim condensed consolidated financial information for the six months ended June 30, 2026 has been prepared in accordance with HKAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. The interim condensed consolidated financial information does not include all the information and disclosures required in the annual financial statements, and should be read in conjunction with the Group's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025.

2. CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES

The accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial information are consistent with those applied in the preparation of the Group's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2025, except for the adoption of the following amended IFRS Accounting Standards for the first time for the current period's financial information.

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7

Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments

Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7

Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity

Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11

Amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7, IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and HKAS 7

The nature and impact of the amended IFRS Accounting Standards are described below:

- (a) Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 Amendments to the Classification and Measurement of Financial Instruments clarify that a financial asset is derecognised when the entity's rights to the contractual cash flows expire or are transferred, while a financial liability is derecognised on the settlement date. The amendments introduce an accounting policy option to derecognise a financial liability that is settled through an electronic payment system before the settlement date if specified criteria are met. The amendments clarify how to assess the contractual cash flow characteristics of financial assets with environmental, social and governance and other similar contingent features. Moreover, the amendments clarify the requirements for classifying financial assets with non-recourse features and contractually linked instruments. The amendments also include additional disclosures for investments in equity instruments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income and financial instruments with contingent features. Since the Group's accounting policy for the derecognition of financial assets and liabilities in prior years aligned with the amendments and the Group did not have the financial assets that were addressed by the amendments, the amendments did not have any impact on the interim condensed consolidated financial information. The Group will provide additional disclosures for its equity investments designated at fair value through other comprehensive income in the Group's consolidated financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2026.
- (b) Amendments to IFRS 9 and IFRS 7 Contracts Referencing Nature-dependent Electricity clarify the application of the "own-use" requirements for in-scope contracts and amend the designation requirements for a hedged item in a cash flow hedging relationship for in-scope contracts. The amendments also include additional disclosures that enable users of financial statements to understand the effects these contracts have on an entity's financial performance and future cashflows. As the Group did not have any contracts that are in the scope of the amendments, the amendments did not have any impact on the interim condensed consolidated financial information.

2. CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND DISCLOSURES (continued)

- (c) Annual Improvements to IFRS Accounting Standards – Volume 11 set out narrow scope amendments to IFRS 1, IFRS 7 (and the accompanying Guidance on implementing IFRS 7), IFRS 9, IFRS 10 and HKAS 7. The amendments include clarifications, simplifications, corrections or changes to improve consistency in the corresponding IFRS Accounting standards. The amendments did not have any impact on the interim condensed consolidated financial information.

3. OPERATING SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Group's business activities, for which discrete financial statements are available, are regularly reviewed and evaluated by the chief operating decision maker ("CODM"). The CODM, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the executive directors of the Company who make strategic decisions. The information reported to the CODM, for the purpose of resource allocation and assessment of performance does not contain discrete operating segment financial information and the directors reviewed the financial results of the Group as a whole. Therefore, no further information about the operating segment is presented. Revenue from external customers for each product and service is disclosed in note 4 to the financial statements.

Geographical information

During the reporting period, the Group operated within one location because all of its revenues were generated in Mainland China and all of its long-term assets/capital expenditures were located/incurred in Mainland China. Accordingly, no further geographical segment information is presented.

As at June 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 the fair values of the Group's financial assets or liabilities approximated to their respective carrying amounts.

Management has assessed that the carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables, financial assets included in prepayments, deposits and other receivables, trade payables, financial liabilities included in other payables and accruals and current portion of loans from a shareholder reasonably approximate to their fair values because these financial instruments are short-term in nature. The carrying amount of non-current loans from a shareholder approximates to its fair value which are estimated based on the discounted cash flows.

15. FAIR VALUE AND FAIR VALUE HIERARCHY OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS (continued)

The Group's finance department headed by the finance manager is responsible for determining the policies and procedures for the fair value measurement of financial instruments. The finance manager reports directly to the chief financial officer and the audit committee. At each reporting date, the finance department analyses the movements in the values of financial instruments and determines the major inputs applied in the valuation. The valuation is reviewed and approved by the chief financial officer. The valuation process and results are discussed with the audit committee twice a year for interim and annual financial reporting.

The fair values of the financial assets and liabilities are included at the amount at which the instrument could be exchanged in a current transaction between willing parties, other than in a forced or liquidation sale. The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair values:

(a) Financial instruments in Level 1

The fair value of the listed securities is determined based on the closing prices quoted in active markets. They are accounted for using their fair values based on the quoted market prices (Level 1: quoted price (unadjusted) in active markets) without deduction for transaction costs.

(b) Financial instruments in Level 2

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximize the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value of an instrument are observable, the instrument is included in Level 2.

(c) Financial instruments in Level 3

Level 3 instruments of the Group's assets are equity investments in unlisted companies and unlisted investment funds.
